How much will you receive on expiry?

You are not required to deliver any exercise notice and the Warrants will be automatically exercised on the Expiry Date if the Cash Settlement Amount is greater than zero. Every Board Lot gives you the right to receive a Cash Settlement Amount in Hong Kong dollars calculated as follows (if positive):

For a series of call Warrants:

$$\text{Cash Settlement Amount (if any) per Board Lot} = \frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{Average Price} - \text{Strike Price}) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrants per Entitlement}}$$

For a series of put Warrants:

$$\text{Cash Settlement Amount (if any) per Board Lot} = \frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{Strike Price} - \text{Average Price}) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrants per Entitlement}}$$

“Average Price” means the arithmetic mean of the closing prices of one Share (as derived from the Daily Quotation Sheet of the Stock Exchange (subject to any adjustments)) for each of the five business days immediately preceding the Expiry Date.

Listing of the Warrants

We will make an application to the Stock Exchange for listing of and permission to deal in the Warrants on the Stock Exchange. The Expected Listing Date is the expected date on which dealings in the Warrants will commence.

Investment risk

The price of the Warrants may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and you may sustain a total loss of your investment. If the Cash Settlement Amount is less than or equal to zero, then the Warrants will expire worthless on the Expiry Date.

The Liquidity Provider may be the only market participant for the Warrants. The secondary market for the Warrants may be limited.

You must:

- carefully study the risk factors set out in the relevant Listing Documents;
- fully understand the potential risks and rewards and independently determine whether the Warrants are appropriate for you given your objectives, experience, financial and operational resources, and other relevant circumstances; and
- consult with such advisers as you deem necessary to assist yourself in making these determinations.
