How much will a holder of Warrants receive on expiry?

A holder of Warrants will receive a Cash Settlement Amount per Board Lot in Hong Kong dollars calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{Exercise Price} - \text{Average Price}^*) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrant(s) per Entitlement}}$$

* When we refer to "Average Price", we mean the arithmetic mean of the closing price of one Share (as derived from the daily quotation sheet of the Stock Exchange, subject to any adjustments (as determined by us in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warrants) to such closing price as may be necessary to reflect any capitalisation, rights issue, distribution or the like) in respect of each of the five business days immediately preceding the Expiry Date.

Where the above formula results in a negative amount, the Cash Settlement Amount per Board Lot shall be zero.

What happens at expiry?

On the Expiry Date, if the Cash Settlement Amount is greater than zero, the Warrants will be automatically exercised. We will pay a holder of Warrants the Cash Settlement Amount in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warrants net of any exercise expenses.

Listing of the Warrants

We will make an application to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Warrants on the Stock Exchange and the issue of the Warrants is conditional upon listing approval being granted.

We expect that dealings in the Warrants will commence on or about 23 May 2012.
