* These values should not be compared to similar information provided by other issuers of derivative warrants listed on the Stock Exchange. Each issuer may use different valuation models.

What happens at expiry?

If the Cash Settlement Amount is greater than zero, the Warrants will be automatically exercised on the Expiry Date. The Cash Settlement Amount per Board Lot will be an amount in Hong Kong dollars calculated as follows (if positive):

In the case of a series of call warrants:

$$\frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{*Average Price} - \text{Exercise Price}) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrant(s) per Entitlement}}$$

In the case of a series of put warrants:

* “Average Price” means the arithmetic mean of the closing prices of one Unit, as derived from the daily quotation sheet of the Stock Exchange in respect of each of the five business days immediately preceding the Expiry Date.

Listing of the Warrants

We will make an application to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Warrants on the Stock Exchange and the issue of the Warrants is conditional upon listing being granted.

Additional information

The price of Warrants may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and you may sustain a total loss of the purchase price of the Warrants. You should consider carefully the suitability of the Warrants in light of your experience, objectives, financial position and other relevant circumstances before deciding to invest in the Warrants.

The Warrants constitute general unsecured contractual obligations of us as the Issuer and of no other person and will rank equally among themselves and with all our other unsecured obligations (save for those obligations preferred by law) upon liquidation. If you purchase the Warrants, you are relying upon the creditworthiness of us, and have no rights under the Warrants against the Trust or the trustee or manager of the Trust or any other person. If we become insolvent or default on our obligations under the Warrants, you may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the Warrants (if any).

Other than being regulated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority as a licensed bank, we are also regulated by the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. Our long term credit ratings (as of the day immediately preceding the date of this announcement) are AA- (Negative outlook) by Standard & Poor’s Credit Market Services Europe Limited and A1 (Stable outlook) by Moody’s Investors Service Hong Kong Limited.
