How much will you receive on expiry?

You are not required to deliver any exercise notice and the Warrants will be automatically exercised on the Expiry Date. You will receive a Cash Settlement Amount per Board Lot in Hong Kong dollars (net of Exercise Expenses, if any) calculated as follows (if positive):

For a series of call Warrants:

$$\frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{Average Price} - \text{Exercise Price}) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrant(s) per Entitlement}}$$

For a series of put Warrants:

$$\frac{\text{Entitlement} \times (\text{Exercise Price} - \text{Average Price}) \times \text{one Board Lot}}{\text{Number of Warrant(s) per Entitlement}}$$

If the Cash Settlement Amount is equal to or less than the Exercise Expenses, no amount is payable by us.

“Average Price” means the arithmetic mean of the closing prices of one Unit for each of the five business days immediately preceding the Expiry Date.

“Exercise Expenses” means any charges or expenses including any taxes or duties which are incurred in respect of the exercise of the Warrants.

Listing of the Warrants

We will make an application to the Stock Exchange for listing of and permission to deal in the Warrants on the Stock Exchange.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Unsecured nature of the Warrants

The issue of the Warrants was authorised by our board of directors on 2 June 2014. The Warrants constitute our general, unsecured and contractual obligations and of no other person, and the Guarantee executed by the Guarantor in respect of the Warrants constitutes the general, unsecured and contractual obligations of the Guarantor and of no other person. The Warrants will rank equally among themselves and with all our other unsecured obligations and all other unsecured obligations of the Guarantor (save for those obligations preferred by law) upon our liquidation. You are relying upon our creditworthiness and the creditworthiness of the Guarantor and have no rights under the Warrants against the Trust which has issued the underlying Units, the trustee or manager of the Trust or any other person. If we become insolvent or default on our obligations under the Warrants, or the Guarantor becomes insolvent or defaults on its obligations under the Guarantee, you may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the Warrants (if any).

Guarantor

Our obligations in relation to the Warrants will be unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by the Guarantor.

Selling restriction

The Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and will not be offered, sold, delivered or traded, at any time, indirectly or directly, in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, any U.S. person (as defined in the Securities Act).

Investment risks

The price of the Warrants may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and you may sustain a total loss of your investment. If the Cash Settlement Amount is equal to or less than the Exercise Expenses, no amount is payable by us.

We or the Liquidity Provider may be the only market participant for the Warrants. The secondary market for the Warrants may be limited.

You must:

- carefully study the risk factors set out in the relevant Listing Documents;
- fully understand the potential risks and rewards and independently determine whether the Warrants are appropriate for you given your objectives, experience, financial and operational resources, and other relevant circumstances; and
- consult with such advisers as you deem necessary to assist yourself in making these determinations.
