CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

I am pleased to present to you the annual results of S. Culture International Holdings Limited (the "Company" or "S. Culture") and its subsidiaries (together with the Company, the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Chairman's Statement

The Group had experienced an unusual year in 2014. In the first half of the year, we were able to ride on the rebound of the general retail atmosphere commencing in the middle of the fourth quarter of 2013. The signs were therefore encouraging as we had recorded promising same store sales growth figures of 27% for the first quarter and 15.2% for the first half year of 2014.

However, we were also very cautious when getting into the second half of the year due to the negative factors including but not limited to the effects of Occupy Central and the unwelcoming hostility towards the tourists from Mainland China by certain groups of local residents. Though most of our outlets were not situated at the hot zones of these events, the uncomfortable shopping atmosphere and the deterring effects of these events towards genuine customers and haphazard happenings of protests at major shopping areas had taken their toll on general and honest retailers in Hong Kong. Our retail segment in Hong Kong was also affected and thus the Group as a whole had recorded only dismal same store sales growth figures of 5.3% for the third quarter and 1.3% for the fourth quarter of 2014.

The Group, as part of our expansion plan, had expanded our scale of operations in 2014 resulting in net addition of retail outlets. As at 31 December 2014, the total number of retail outlets of the Group was 122, representing a respective net increase of 7 and 10 compared to the total number of retail outlets of the Group as at 30 June 2014 and 31 December 2013 respectively. These newly added retail outlets were yet to break even during 2014 because of the above unexpected events and happenings in the second half of 2014. This had in turn contributed to the decrease in the consolidated net profit in the following manner: (i) an increase in selling and distribution costs including but not limited to the rental costs and concession fees arising out of those newly added retail outlets which effects were accounted for in the year ended 31 December 2014 but not in the year ended 31 December 2013; and (ii) an increase in administrative expenses including but not limited to the increasing salaries and allowance for the incumbent and new employees as well as additional depreciation for newly opened stores, as part of the expansion of the Group. Despite the above, we were able to maintain growth in revenue. We recorded an increase of approximately 7.3% in revenue for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Outlook

We anticipate challenges ahead for the traditional retail sector as a whole in our areas of operation. Consumers have been more cautious in spending, partly because of the uncertainties shrouding the major economies, partly because of the continuing anti-graft campaign in Mainland China which had a dampening effect on the general consumers' spending behavior. We continue to watch out the development and respective effects of the local protests in Hong Kong towards Mainland Chinese tourists in major shopping areas as mentioned above. To this end, we have already imposed measures and applied more flexible operating tactics in order to minimize such effects to our operations as a whole. In the meantime, we are also cautious about the ever-increasing operating costs in both rental and staffing. Again, we will continue to monitor the relevant economic conditions and the ever-changing retail landscape, including cost pressure, and to do our utmost to maintain those costs to a reasonable level.

Despite the above, we still remain positive and maintain our belief in our business. We are opening new specialty and themed retail outlets. Our family and children footwear concept stores have been expanding and there are now 8 outlets in Hong Kong. The development and marketing of children's insole products are ripened. We expect to meet this higher demand of podiatric products by health conscious parents. We are also utilizing similar research results and the resulting technological features into the development of adult footwear and insole products.

Furthermore, we have been collaborating with regional and local retail partners in Mainland China according to plan. As of 31 December 2014, we had 6 collaborated retail outlets in major and second tier cities in Mainland China selling mainly "Clarks", "Josef Seibel", "The Flexx" and "Petite Jolie" branded shoes. We expect to see higher growth in both number of retail outlets and sales in Mainland China in 2015.

Last but not least, the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") is highly aware of the value of good corporate governance. The Board follows closely the latest and expected standards of corporate ethics and governance. In addition, we also honour our corporate social responsibilities by addressing the needs of our staff and contributing to the community. As you shall see in the section headed "Corporate Social Responsibilities", both the management and employees had enjoyed very much the charitable and other community contributing events during the year.

In view of the Group's operating results, the Board recommended the payment of a final dividend of HK2.3 cents per share in respect of the year ended 31 December 2014. We will strive to further enhance the Company's performance and optimise the return for the shareholders.

Finally, I would like to extend, on S. Culture's behalf, my heartfelt gratitude to the shareholders of the Company, members of the Board, management and staff of the Group and business associates for their continuing support to our Company.

Chong Hot Hoi Chairman

CEO DIALOGUE

Mr. Chu Chun Ho, Dominic ("Dominic") and Mr. Chu Chun Wah, Haeta ("Haeta"), the Company's Co-Chief Executive Officers, would be pleased to share with the shareholders of the Company our current business operations and strategies as well as the future outlook of the Company and the Group.

Q: The Group's performances in the current year was not satisfactory. What was the reason behind?

Dominic: First of all, the management took full responsibility of the performance of the Group. From time to time senior management team monitored closely the performance and execution of the development direction and strategies steered by the Board. We believed that we had embarked on the right strategies to expand our business and operational scale to leverage on the intrinsic values to be delivered by our branded footwear products. We were also expanding our sourcing and merchandising team in the past few years to cultivate renowned branded products from Europe and other regions (such as South America) to enrich our product varieties and ranges. Unfortunately, due to various unforeseen factors in the current year such as the recent political events in the second half of 2014 which had hit substantially the local retail industry, we were unable to meet the management performance targets.

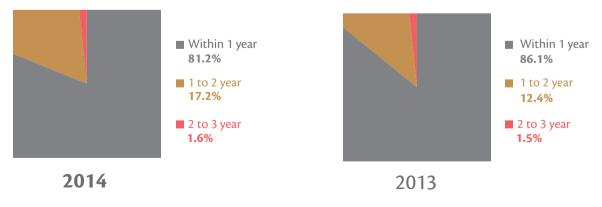

Q: You mentioned about the expansion strategies above. How had they been doing with regard to the operation?

Haeta: While it was still difficult for retailers in the region given the rental levels were kept high and the high costs of retail talents and human resources in town, we were able to maintain growth in revenue with a year on year growth of 7.3%. We had also increased our retail outlets from 112 to 122 during 2014. We will continue to pursue for effectiveness and efficiency in both the selection of retail locations and the operation thereof with a balanced mix of stores to ensure profitability. In this regard, we had closed some retail outlets with low operating margins and explored into locations that would best suit the needs of our target customer groups. On the other hand, we had to provide more promotional sales incentives to both our customers and sales team so as to maintain market shares and thus revenue in the second half of 2014. As a result, the gross profit of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2014 was HK$371.7 million (2013: HK$350.3 million) with a drop in gross profit margin to approximately 62.9% (2013: 63.7%).

On the other hand, we continued to increase our market shares in all facets of the casual footwear segment. We sold approximately 8.2% more pairs of shoes in 2014 than in 2013. In particular, some of our newly introduced brands such as "The Flexx" and "Petite Jolie" had enjoyed significant growth in sales quantities of approximately 66.7% and 128.6% in 2014 respectively when compared with 2013.

As a separate note, in order to support our planned expansion of retail outlets in 2014, we ordered more inventories during 2014, and our average inventory turnover days had increased from 261 days in 2013 to 290 days in 2014. Again we had been very cautious about our inventory aging. We were able to maintain a healthy profile in that more than approximately 81.2% of our inventories was aged within one year while only around 1.6% of our inventories was aged between two to three years.

The following charts are aging analyses of inventories at the end of each reporting period:

Q: What is your assessment of the outlook for 2015 and beyond?

Dominic: While 2014 posed to be a challenging year for the Group and retail industry at large, we anticipate that the dampening effects of the juggernauts in the political landscapes in the regions we are operating will still linger. However, we will keep to the direction and strategies steered by our Board to expand our business into Mainland China. We commenced to collaborate with local retailers in Mainland China to set up counters and points of sales in early 2014. As of the end of 2014, we were providing "Clarks", "Josef Seibel", "The Flexx" and "Petite Jolie" branded footwear products to 6 of these retailers, spanning in the cities of Shanghai, Qinhuangdao, Haikou, Qingdao and Songyuan in Mainland China. We will continue to expand our presence in Mainland China with this collaboration model.

Haeta: To counter the high rental levels, we were rebalancing our outlet mix. Given the weakening trend of retail market in Hong Kong, we will keep to the current operating scale and not to continue with unprofitable outlets. On the other hand, we anticipate to experience better return from our operation in Taiwan. In this regard, we will continue to expand our retail presence there by opening new counters in department stores in Taiwan. Our investment into children's footwear has also borne fruit. As of the end of 2014, we were operating 8 concept and themed stores for children and family footwear products under the names of "JS & Family" and "SC & Family". Our research and development effort in insole products had also been successfully proceeded to commercial operations. We have high hopes in the further development and commercialization of our proprietary insole products in both children and adults footwear products.

Dominic & Haeta: Last but not least, the management team will continue to work hard to execute the above strategies by leveraging on the core competencies and values we are carrying, not to mention the rich, wisdom, histories and experiences we have collected in the many years of our presence in the local markets. We are confident that we are able to meet the challenges to be posed in 2015 and beyond.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Operation Review

Retail Operations

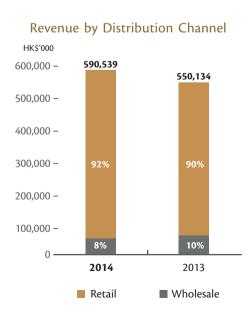

Revenue of the Group's retail business for the year ended 31 December 2014 (the "Year") was HK$541.1 million, representing a 9.0% increase from HK$496.3 million for the even year of 2013. We had also managed to record a 9.5% increase in comparable retail outlet sales during the Year (2013: 15.1%). This was mainly due to the enhanced effectiveness in converting sales by our experienced sales team. While we were adjusting the mix of our retail outlets in the existing strategic locations such that the number of retail outlets had increased from 112 as of 31 December 2013 to 122 as of 31 December 2014, we experienced growth in both revenue and gross profit thereof.

Hong Kong

Hong Kong is still contributing a majority of sales as we have 70 retail outlets in the locality. We have charted a year-on-year growth rate of 10.2% in retail revenue from Hong Kong for the Year. During the Year, we opened new specialty and themed retail outlets, in particular, our children and family footwear stores and counters under the trade names of "JS & Family" and "SC & Family". As at 31 December 2014, there were 8 children and family footwear stores and counters in Hong Kong. These stores and counters are mainly serving the more health conscious parents for the better podiatric development of their kids. In the meantime, we were able to achieve a same store sales growth of 10.7% in sales revenue for our Hong Kong operations. Under the challenging operating environments to the Hong Kong retailers together with the rising cost of operations, we managed to improve effectiveness and efficiency in our operation and to maintain our rental and staff expenses at a stable and reasonable level with respect to the sales made.

Taiwan

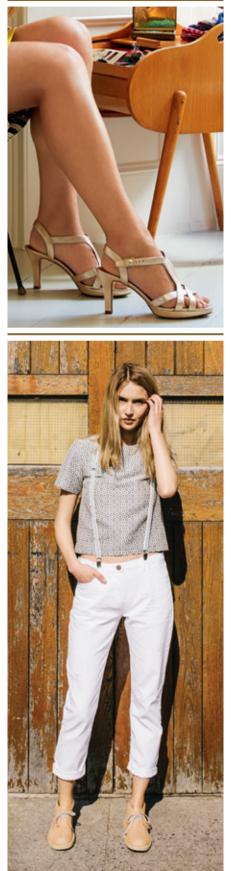

The Group increased the number of its retail outlets in Taiwan to 49 during the Year. Revenue generated from Taiwan had experienced an increase of 3.8% for the Year. We had managed to maintain growth in the revenue generated in Taiwan as the effect of economy of scale we had built in the market bore fruit. We continued our Taiwan expansion strategy by identifying and increasing counters in a number of suitable department stores in 2014. The management implemented more effective operating and financial controls and measures in our Taiwan operations, which helped to improve our operating margin further in 2014.

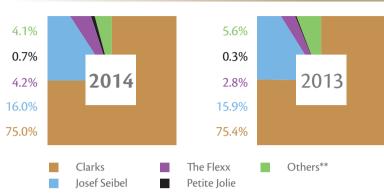

Management Discussion and Analysis

Масаи

The Group had maintained the scale of operations in Macau to reap the highest return with the current level of investment amid the robust and growing economy of Macau. As at 31 December 2014, there were 2 retail outlets in Macau.

Mainland China

Due to the ever changing shopping habit of Mainland customers, the Group remained cautious towards its expansion in Mainland market. We relied more on collaboration with business partners and customers who were more knowledgeable about local and regional customer preferences and retail locations with suitable volume of targeted customer traffic. Through these business partners and customers, the Group had 6 points of sales of our products under the brands of "Clarks", "Josef Seibel", "Petite Jolie" and "The Flexx" in the cities of Shanghai, Qinhuangdao, Haikou, Qingdao and Songyuan as at 31 December 2014. The management expects to record growth in both number of points of sales and sales in Mainland China in the foreseeable future.

Wholesale Operations

The Group's wholesale operations represent the other main segment of our overall operations. It complements our retail operations as our wholesale customers are able to maintain their performance in selling our footwear products. The management expects this segment to continue to contribute to the Group as we shall continue to put in a reasonable level of operating resources to maintain the current scale of operations.

Financial Review

Sales of "The Flexx" and "Petite Jolie" footwear products had also maintained a growth rate of 61.4% and 147.1% respectively.

As at 31 December 2014, the Group operated 70 retail outlets in Hong Kong, two retail outlets in Macau, one retail outlet in Mainland China, and 49 retail outlets in Taiwan. Breakdown of Number of Retail Outlets by Trade Name as at 31 December 2014

Cost of Goods Sold

Our cost of goods sold amounted to HK$218.8 million for the Year, representing 37.1% of revenue (2013: HK$199.8 million, representing 36.3% of revenue). The increase in cost of goods sold was mainly due to the increase in sales activities of the Group.

Gross Profit

Gross profit (gross profit equals to revenue minus cost of goods sold) of the Group for the Year was HK$371.7 million, representing an increase of 6.1% from HK$350.3 million of 2013. Gross profit margin of the Group for the Year was 62.9% (2013: 63.7%). There was a drop of the gross profit margin as we had offered ongoing promotions and discounts to sustain growth in sales volume in a slower market and to counter the negative consumption sentiments of the general consumers and tourists under the uncomfortable shopping atmosphere.

Depreciation

Depreciation accounted for 2.4% of revenue for the Year (2013: 2.2%).

Staff Costs

Staff costs for the Year were HK$114.0 million, representing 19.3% of revenue (2013: HK$100.1 million, representing 18.2% of revenue). The increase in overall staff costs was mainly due to the increase in the number of staff of the Group and the general increase in commissions and bonuses, as part of salaries, which increased with sales and operation targets determined and made during the Year.

Retail Outlet Rentals and Related Expenses

Our retail outlet rentals and related expenses for the Year amounted to HK$169.3 million, representing 28.7% of revenue (2013: HK$160.5 million, representing 29.2% of revenue). The decrease in the percentage to the revenue was mainly due to the reduction in the number of our self-rented shops during the Year. Our concession fees for the Year amounted to HK$63.1 million (2013: HK$57.8 million). The increase was mainly due to the corresponding increase in the sales made through these concessions.

Foreign Currency Risk

The Group's sales and purchases for the Year were mostly denominated in Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi, Macau Pataca, New Taiwan dollars, Euros and US dollars. The Renminbi is not a freely convertible currency. The currency market for Macau Pataca is relatively small and undeveloped. Therefore, our ability to convert large amounts of Macau Pataca into Hong Kong dollars over a relatively short period may be limited. The exchange of New Taiwan dollars is restricted and governed by various government rules regarding the application of outward remittance. In view of the above, future exchange rates of the above currencies could vary significantly from the current or historical exchange rates as a result of the controls that could be imposed by the respective governments and the depth and breadth of the respective markets of currency exchange. The respective exchange rates may also be affected by economic developments and political changes domestically and internationally, and the demand and supply of the respective currencies. The appreciation or devaluation of the respective currencies against Hong Kong Dollars may have an impact on the Group's results.

As at 31 December 2014, the Group employed approximately 476 employees (2013: 422). Remuneration packages are generally structured by reference to market terms and individual qualifications and experience.

Our social service team members were very pleased to talk and listen to the elderly and share moon cakes and happiness with them.

Apart from our direct involvement in charity and social community events during the year, S. Culture had donated HK$50,000 to the Community Chest of Hong Kong to support the 2014 Community Chest Corporate Challenge in January 2014. All funds raised through the event would be allocated to support "Elderly Services" provided by the member social welfare agencies of the Community Chest.

All the above events mean very much to S. Culure as a corporate social responsible citizen towards the care for the elderly within our families and our community.

Caring our Employees

S. Culture recognizes employees are important assets to us. We invest and entrust in their future as we believe human capital is part and parcel of the values of the Group. S. NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. General Information and Basis Of Preparation

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law, Cap 22 (Law 3 of 1961, as consolidated and revised) of the Cayman Islands on 17 December 2012. Its shares have been listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") since 11 July 2013.

The Company acts as an investment holding company while its subsidiaries are principally engaged in the trading of footwear products. The addresses of the registered office and the principal place of business of the Company are disclosed in the Corporate Information section to the annual report.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), which is the functional currency of the Company.

2. Basis of Preparation

The companies now comprising the Group underwent a series of reorganisation in the preparation of the initial listing of the shares of the Company on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange (the "Listing"). Before the completion of the group reorganisation, Kong Tai Sundry Goods and Grand Asian were wholly and directly owned by CN Fashion Limited ("CN Fashion"), the then immediate holding company of the Company. To streamline the shareholding in the group entities, on 28 December 2012, Kong Tai Sundry Goods (BVI) Company Limited ("KTSG") and Grandasian Retail (BVI) Holdings Limited ("Grandasian Retail"), subsidiaries of the Company, acquired the entire issued share capital of Kong Tai Sundry Goods and Grand Asian (the "First Transfer") in consideration of the allotment of 2,000 shares of US$1 each to S. Culture Holdings (BVI) Limited ("S. Culture BVI") and then S. Culture BVI allotted and issued 2,000 shares of US$1 each to CN Fashion. To further effect the group reorganisation, on 25 January 2013, the Company acquired the entire issued share capital of S. Culture BVI from CN Fashion (the "Second Transfer") in consideration of the allotment of 9,999 shares of HK$0.01 each to CN Fashion. Upon completion of the Second Transfer, the Company became the holding company of the Group as at 25 January 2013. The shares in the Company held by CN Fashion were then distributed in specie to its shareholders on 25 January 2013 and KTS International Holdings inc., a major shareholder of CN Fashion, became the immediate holding company of the Company of the Company on the same date

The Group resulting from the group reorganisation, which involves interspersing the Company and various investment holding companies between Kong Tai Sundry Goods, Grand Asian and the shareholders of CN Fashion, is regarded as a continuing entity. Accordingly, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and cash flows for the year ended 31 December 2013 have been prepared to present the results and cash flows as if the group structure upon the completion of the group reorganisation had been in existence throughout the period, or since their respective dates of incorporation or establishment where this is a shorter period. Subsidiaries disposed of by the Group as disclosed in note 28 were derecognised on the date when the Group lost control.

3. Application of New and Revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") (Continued)

HKFRS 9 "Financial instruments"

HKFRS 9 issued in 2009 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets. HKFRS 9 was subsequently amended in 2010 to include the requirements for the classification and measurement of financial liabilities and for derecognition, further amended in 2013 to include the new requirements for hedging accounting. Another revised version of HKFRS 9 was issued in 2014 mainly to include a) impairment requirements for financial assets and b) listed amendments to the classification and measurement requirements by introducing a "fair value through other comprehensive income" ("FVTOCI") measurement category for certain simple debt instruments.

Key requirements of HKFRS 9 are described below:

- All recognised financial assets that are within the scope of HKAS 39 "Financial instruments: Recognition and measurement" are subsequently measured at amortised cost or fair value. Specifically, debt investments that are held within a business model whose objective is to collect the contractual cash flows, and that have contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal outstanding are generally measured at amortised cost at the end of subsequent accounting periods. Debt instruments that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and that have contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal and equity investments are measured at their fair value at the end of subsequent accounting periods. In addition, under HKFRS 9, entities may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value of an equity investment (that is not held for trading) in other comprehensive income, with only dividend income generally recognised in profit or loss.
- With regard to the measurement of financial liabilities designated as at fair value through profit or loss, HKFRS 9 requires that the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is presented in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss. Changes in fair value of financial liabilities attributable to changes in the financial liabilities' credit risk are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss. Under HKAS 39, the entire amount of the change in the fair value of the financial liability designated as fair value through profit or loss was presented in profit or loss.
- In relation to the impairment of financial assets, HKFRS 9 requires an expected credit loss model, as opposed to an incurred credit loss model under HKAS 39. The expected credit loss model requires an entity to account for expected credit losses and changes in those expected credit losses at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.
 In other words, it is no longer necessary for a credit event to have occurred before credit losses are recognised.
- The new general hedge accounting requirements retain the three types of hedge accounting. However, greater flexibility as been introduced to the types of transactions eligible for hedge accounting, specifically broadening the types of instruments that qualify for hedging instruments and the types of risk components of non-financial items that are eligible for hedge accounting. In addition, the effectiveness test has been overhauled and replaced with the principle of an "economic relationship". Retrospective assessment of hedge effectiveness is also no longer required. Enhanced disclosure requirements about an entity's risk management activities have also been introduced.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of HKFRS 9 will affect the classification and measurement of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities. However, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect until the Group performs a detail analysis.

3. Application of New and Revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") (Continued)

HKFRS 15 "Revenue from contracts with customers"

In July 2014, HKFRS 15 was issued which establishes a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. HKFRS 15 will supersede the current revenue recognition guidance including HKAS 18 "Revenue", HKAS 11 "Construction contracts" and the related interpretations when it becomes effective.

The core principle of HKFRS 15 is that an entity should recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. Specifically, the standard introduces a 5-step approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

Under HKFRS 15, an entity recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer. Far more prescriptive guidance has been added in HKFRS 15 to deal with specific scenarios. Furthermore, extensive disclosures are required by HKFRS 15.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of HKFRS 15 in the future may have a material impact on the amounts reported and disclosures made in the Group's consolidated financial statements. However, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect of HKFRS 15 until the Group performs a detailed review.

The director of the Company anticipates that the application of other new and revised HKFRSs will have no material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

4. Significant Accounting Policies

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis and in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the HKICPA. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32).

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2 "Share-based payment", leasing transactions that are within the scope of HKAS 17 "Leases", and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 "Inventories" or value in use in HKAS 36 "Impairment of assets".

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The principal accounting policies are set out below:

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Except for subsidiaries resulting from the group reorganisation as disclosed in note 2, consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and (ii) the previous carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs).

Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for goods sold in the normal course of business, net of discounts and sales related taxes.

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the goods are delivered and titles have passed, at which time all the following conditions are satisfied:

- the Group has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods;
- the Group retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- the amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Group; and
- the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

Service income is recognised when services are provided.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

The Group's accounting policy for recognition of revenue from operating leases is described in the accounting policy for leasing below.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment including leasehold land (classified as finance leases) and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method or reducing balance method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

If an item of property, plant and equipment becomes an investment property because its use has changed as evidenced by end of owner-occupation, the transfer does not change the carrying amount of the property transferred, nor does it change the cost of that property for measurement and disclosure purposes.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets. However, when there is no reasonable certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation.

Investment properties are initially measured at cost, including any directly attributable expenditure. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of investment properties over their estimated useful lives and after taking into account of their estimated residual value, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposals. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the property (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the profit or loss in the period in which the investment property is derecognised.

Leasing

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

The Group as lessor

Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

The Group as lessee

Assets held under finance leases are initially recognised as assets of the Group at their fair value at the inception of the lease or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the consolidated statement of financial position as a finance lease obligation.

Lease payments are apportioned between finance expenses and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance expenses are recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Group's general policy on borrowing costs.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Contingent rentals arising under operating leases are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

In the event that lease incentives are received to enter into operating leases, such incentives are recognised as a liability. The aggregate benefit of incentives is recognised as a reduction of rental expense on a straight-line basis.

Leasehold land and building

When a lease includes both land and building elements, the Group assesses the classification of each element as a finance or an operating lease separately based on the assessment as to whether substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of each element have been transferred to the Group, unless it is clear that both elements are operating leases in which case the entire lease is classified as an operating lease. Specifically, the minimum lease payments (including any lump-sum upfront payments) are allocated between the land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values of the leasehold interests in the land element and building element of the lease at the inception of the lease.

When the lease payments cannot be allocated reliably between the land and building elements, the entire lease is generally classified as a finance lease and accounted for as property, plant and equipment.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is calculated using the weighted average method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL")) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets

The Group's financial assets are classified into one of the two categories, including financial assets at FVTPL and loans and receivables. The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is determined at the time of initial recognition. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or, where appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest income is recognised on an effective interest basis for debt instruments.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets are classified as at FVTPL when the financial asset is either held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

Financial assets at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss incorporates any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the other gains and losses line item in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. Fair value is determined in the manner described in note 7.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables (including trade and other receivables, deposits and bank balances and cash) are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any identified impairment losses (see accounting policy on impairment of financial assets below).

Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at the end of the reporting period. Financial assets are considered to be impaired where there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the financial assets have been affected.

Objective evidence of impairment could include:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty; or
- breach of contract, such as default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial re-organisation.

For certain categories of financial asset such as trade receivables, assets that are assessed not to be impaired individually are, in addition, assessed for impairment on a collective basis. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include the Group's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in the number of delayed payments in the portfolio past the general credit period, observable changes in national or local economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the amount of impairment loss recognised is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of trade receivables, where the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognised in profit or loss. When a trade receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, if, in a subsequent period, the amount of impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment losses was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortised cost would have been had the impairment not been recognised.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest expense is recognised on an effective interest basis.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at FVTPL or other financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is either held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL on initial recognition.

A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss incorporates any interest paid on the financial liability and is included in the other gains and losses line item in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. Fair value is determined in the manner described in note 7.

Other financial liabilities

Other financial liabilities including trade and other payables and bank borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date when derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument, in which case the timing of the recognition in profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

Impairment on tangible assets

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statement of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recorded in the respective functional currency (i.e. the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. HK$) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the year. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of translation reserve.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Retirement benefit costs

Payments to government-managed retirement benefit schemes, state-managed retirement benefit schemes and the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

4. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except when it relates to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

5. Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty

The followings are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of each reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Estimated impairment loss recognised on trade receivables

When there is objective evidence of impairment loss, the Group takes into consideration the estimation of future cash flows. The amount of the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition). Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, a material impairment loss may arise.

At 31 December 2014, the carrying amount of trade receivables is HK$35,909,000 (2013: HK$38,222,000) (net of allowance for doubtful debts of HK$108,000 (2013: HK$118,000)).

Estimated allowance for inventories

The Group makes allowance for inventories based on an assessment of the net realisable value of inventories. Allowances are applied to inventories where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the net realisable value is lower than the cost of inventories. The identification of obsolete inventories requires the use of judgment and estimates on the conditions and marketability of the inventories. Where the subsequent selling prices decline or costs necessary to make the sales increase, additional allowance may arise.

At 31 December 2014, the carrying amount of inventories is HK$187,245,000 (2013: HK$160,221,000).

Fair value measurements and valuation processes

In estimating the fair value of the Group's derivative financial instruments, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the management of the Group will assess the valuation of financial instruments with reference to the fair value quoted in the over-the-counter market with the adjustments for the lack of marketability. Where there is a material change in the fair value of the assets, the causes of the fluctuations will be reported to the board of directors of the Company. Any changes in the marketability of the investments will affect the fair value of the instruments. Note 7 provides detailed information about the valuation techniques, inputs and key assumptions used in the determination of the fair value of the Group's derivative financial instruments.

6. Capital Risk Management

The Group manages its capital to ensure that the group entities will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged from prior year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of net debt, which includes the obligation under a finance lease disclosed in note 25, bank borrowings disclosed in note 26, net of cash and cash equivalents and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital and reserves.

The management of the Group reviews the capital structure regularly. As part of this review, the management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital, and will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new share issues as well as the issue of new debt or the redemption of existing debt.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include trade and other receivables, deposits, bank balances and cash, derivative financial instruments, trade and other payables and bank borrowings. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Market risk

Currency risk

The carrying amount of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities, representing bank balances and cash, trade and other payables and bank borrowings, other than the respective group entities' functional currencies at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

| | Assets | | Liabil | Liabilities | |
|------------------------------|----------|----------|----------|-------------|--|
| | 2014 | 2013 | 2014 | 2013 | |
| | HK$'000 | HK$'000 | HK$'000 | HK$'000 | |
| | | | | | |
| HK$ | 1,744 | 966 | 15,756 | 16,591 | |
| United State dollars ("USD") | 12 | 1 | 3,160 | 8,423 | |
| Renminbi ("RMB") | 20,067 | 3 | _ | | |

The Group manages its foreign currency risk by closely monitoring the movements of foreign currency exchange rates. Other than the foreign currency forward contracts as disclosed in note 22, the Group did not enter into any foreign currency forward contracts to hedge against foreign currency risk as at 31 December 2014.

Sensitivity analysis

The Group is mainly exposed to fluctuation against a foreign currency of HK$, RMB and USD. Under the pegged exchange rate system, the financial impact on exchange differences between USD and HK$ is expected to be immaterial and therefore no sensitivity analysis has been prepared.

The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% (2013: 5%) increase and decrease in foreign currency. 5% (2013: 5%) is the sensitivity rate used in the current year when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represent management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in profit for the year where functional currency of each group entity strengthen 5% (2013: 5%) against the relevant foreign currency. For a 5% (2013: 5%) weakening of functional currency of each group entity against the relevant foreign currency, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the profit for the year, and the balances below would be negative.

| | 2014 HK$'000 | 2013 HK$'000 |
|------|------------------|------------------|
| HK$ | 572 | 643 |
| RMB | (1,003) | — |

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk as the year end exposure at the end of the reporting period does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed deposits held at banks with original maturity within three months.

The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to bank balances (see note 23) and bank borrowings (see note 26). The Group's exposure to cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of prime lending rate, benchmark interest rate of Central Bank of Taiwan and Hong Kong Interbank Offered Rate. The Group currently does not have a policy on cash flow hedges of interest rate risk. However, the management monitors interest rate exposure and will consider hedging significant interest rate risk should the need arise.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for bank borrowings at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming that the amount of liabilities outstanding at the end of each reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. 50 basis point increase or decrease represent the management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates. No sensitivity analysis is presented for bank balances as the directors of the Company considered the Group's exposure to cash flow interest rate risk is not material.

If interest rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the potential effect on the Group's post-tax profit for the year is as follows:

| | 2014 HK$'000 | 2013 HK$'000 |
|--|------------------|------------------|
| (Decrease) increase in profit for the year | | |
| — as a result of increase in interest rate | (575) | (492) |
| — as a result of decrease in interest rate | 575 | 492 |

In the management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent interest rate risk as the year end exposure do not reflect the exposures during the year.

Credit risk

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in the event of the counterparties failure to perform their obligations at the end of each reporting period in relation to each class of recognised financial assets is the carrying amount of these assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade receivable at the end of each reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk on trade receivables, with exposure spread over a number of counterparties.

The credit risk for bank deposits is considered minimal as such amounts are placed in banks with high credit ratings.

Liquidity risk

In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The management monitors the utilisation of bank borrowings and ensures compliance with loan covenants.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, bank loans with a repayment on demand clause are included in the earliest time band regardless of the probability of the banks choosing to exercise their rights. The maturity date for other non-derivative financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

Moreover, the following table details the Group's liquidity analysis for its derivative financial instruments. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted contractual net cash inflows and outflows on derivative instruments that settle on a net basis. The liquidity analysis for the Group's derivative financial instruments is prepared based on the contractual maturities as the management considers that the contractual maturities are essential for an understanding of the timing of the cash flows for these derivatives.

The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate curve at the end of each reporting period.

Bank loan with a repayment on demand clause was included in the "on demand or less than 1 month" time band in the above maturity analysis. As at 31 December 2014, the principal amount of this bank loan amounted to HK$28,333,000 (2013: HK$1,500,000). Taking into account the Group's financial position, the directors of the Company did not believe that it is probable that the bank will exercise its discretionary rights to demand immediate repayment. The directors of the Company believes that such bank loan will be repaid in accordance with the scheduled repayment date set out in the loan agreement and the principal and interest cash outflows according to the scheduled repayment date are set out as follows:

| | Weighted | Weighted On demand | | | Total | |
| | average | average or less than un | | | undiscounted | Carrying |

The amounts included above for variable interest rate instruments for non-derivative financial liabilities are subject to change if changes in variable interest rates differ to those estimates of interest rates determined at the end of the reporting period.

Fair value measurement of financial instruments

This note provides information about how the Group determines fair values of various financial assets and financial liabilities.

Fair value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis

Some of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. The following table gives information about how the fair values of these financial assets and financial liabilities are determined (in particular, the valuation technique(s) and inputs used).

| | | | | Basis of fair value measurement/valuation | Significant unobservable | Relationship of unobservable |

The directors of the Group consider that the carrying amounts of other financial assets and financial liabilities recognised in the consolidated financial statements approximate their fair values.

8. Revenue and Segment Information

The Group's operating activities are attributable to operating segments focusing on retail sales and wholesale of footwear products. These operating segments have been identified on the basis of internal management reports prepared in accordance with accounting policies conforming to HKFRSs, that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision makers, the executive directors of the Company. The executive directors of the Company regularly review revenue and results analysis by (i) retail sales and (ii) wholesale. No analysis of segment assets or segment liabilities is presented as they are not regularly provided to the executive directors of the Company.

- Retail sales: Retail sales channel refers to sales at the self-operated concession counters in department stores and self-operated retail stores.
- Wholesale: Wholesale refers to the sales to wholesale customers who resell the products to end-user consumers, typically at retail stores operated by wholesale customers.

The information of operating and reportable segments is as follows:

This is the measure reported to the executive directors of the Company for the purpose of resource allocation and performance assessment.

The fair value as at 31 December 2014 has been arrived at based on a valuation carried out on that date by ROMA Appraisals Limited, an independent valuer not connected with the Group and a member of Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors.

18. Investment Properties (Continued)

The fair value was determined based on direct comparison method assuming sales of each of the property interests in their existing states and making references to comparable market observable transactions of similar properties in similar locations and conditions as available in the relevant market. Those comparable properties are analysed and carefully weighed against all respective advantages and disadvantages of each property in order to arrive at a fair comparison of value.

In estimating the fair value of the properties, the highest and best use of the properties is their current use.

Details of the Group's investment properties and information about the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

The credit period granted to department stores range from 30 to 60 days. Sales made at retail shops are settled by cash or credit cards. For wholesale, the Group allows a credit period range from 30 to 60 days to its trade customers.
