CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

"CHIGO • LEADER OF HIGH-END AIR-CONDITIONING"

Li Xinghao
Chairman and
Chief Executive Officer

Dear shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the"Board") of directors (the"Directors") of Chigo Holding Limited, I am pleased to present the audited annual results of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the"Group") for the year ended 31 December 2015.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS RESULTS

In 2015, as China's economy entered the "new normal", each industry faced all kinds of problems. The business situation of the household appliance industry of China was particularly stern. On the one hand, the growth of domestic macro-economy slowed down, on the other hand, the overseas market economy fluctuated significantly. From the perspective of trends of global economy, Chinese economy and industry development, the age for the high-speed growth of market scale had passed out of existence. Under the circumstances of market contraction and insufficiency of market demand, the air-conditioner manufacturers undertook unprecedented pressure, plus high inventory level in the industry, whilst the price war resulted in obvious decline of the average price of the air-conditioner, both the sales volume and amount of air-conditioners have decreased which presented the weak state of the air-conditioner market. Thus, in 2015, the industry operation was indeed hard.

At the bumpy time throughout the whole air-conditioning industry, within the predicament of keen market competition for the air-conditioning industry, none of the air-conditioning enterprises were immune from it, and the Group also needed to cope with severe economy and industry situation. For the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group recorded a decreased revenue by 15.8% to RMB 7.7 billion. Facing the decreased industry scale and unsatisfactory macro-economy, the Group's domestic sales followed the industry downward trend, leading to a decline in sales volume, average price of products and gross profit. In terms of overseas sales, the Group was still able to make unremitting efforts under the circumstance of continuous decrease of the industry export. In 2015, the Group's export sales volume only recorded a slight drop. Besides, leveraging high-tech production and distinguished renowned production quality at home and abroad, the Group obtained the honor of "China Export Quality Safety Demonstration Enterprise", which marked the excellence of the Group among China export enterprises, representing actual strength and advanced level of China export industry in the contemporary era and future.

In 2015, the Commercial Team of the Group still had very outstanding performance, despite a slight drop in revenue, the operational efficiency and gross profit continued to improve. This made an enormous contribution to the Group.

In 2015, the Group's loss for the year further expanded. The Group recorded a loss for the year of approximately RMB660 million representing a substantial year-on-year decline as compared with that of the previous year. During the period under review, the Group's consolidated net loss recorded a substantial increase, due to a year-on-year decline in the revenue and gross profit of the Group resulting from the adverse factors including the macroeconomic downturn in the PRC, the overall weak demand for air-conditioning products and intensive competition of air-conditioning industry during the year, as well as the increase in consolidated net loss arising from the one-off provision of RMB 200 million in total by the Group relating to its subsidiary, Guangdong Chigo Air-conditioning Co., Limited, for the purpose of refunding the subsidies for its sale of energy-saving air-conditioners, as requested by the Finance Bureau of Lishui Town, Nanhai, Foshan, PRC. The Group is actively discussing with the related authorities through all kinds of ways expecting to properly solve the matter. In addition, although the Group made dedicated effort in controlling the operational expense, but the increase in advertising and promotion expenses still resulted in an increase in selling and distribution costs.

THE MORE THE DIFFICULT TIME, THE MORE THE OPPORTUNITIES

The short pain of the phased results decline arising from the transformation and upgrading is not strange for the household appliance industry of China. In 2015, the results decline of Chigo indicates that, over the past few years, with the continuous transformation of the sophisticated technology innovation, the high-end oriented product research, three dimensional channels, especially by signing with the international movie star, Jackie Chan, which energized the brand, and with an overall grasp on the smart cloud technology, Chigo has entered into the "term of tackle difficulties" in terms of transformation and reform.

Transformation is not terrifying, being conservative and not changing past practices is what is dangerous. Looking forward to the year of 2016, it will still be a changing year full of challenges and uncertainties. However, as an enterprise being never afraid of difficulties, Chigo will capture opportunities and grow fast at each time when the industry is in difficulties. The management believes that the more the difficult time, the more the opportunities. Chigo's strategy for 2016 will be "four enhancements": brand enhancement, production enhancement, team capacity enhancement and services enhancement. By adoption of the sustainable high-end brand strategy, we will take advantage of the double weapons of "high-end+intelligence", optimize production structure and further improve the proportion of medium and high-end production, drive the brand to high-end, with the aim to sprint towards being the top three in the industry. In addition, the Group will improve the operational efficiency, carry out reforms on management by delayering, carry out the solution idea of "layer-by-layer leadership, everyone is in charge, comprehensive data management", shorten the decision-making process, timely mobilize resources, and quickly respond to the market. All such efforts will be made for the benefit of the market and serving the customers.

In 2016, I wish to take the lead by example, and lead our staff to join hands with our distributors, suppliers, to serve the market, users and customers with the best products, platforms, and services, enabling us to record and gradually improve the profit of the Company in the next year, and create value and interest for the shareholders and partners of the Group.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Lastly, on behalf of the Board, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, customers and suppliers, banks and outstanding staff for their support and trust. The Group is confident in its future prospect and hopes to make progress in joint efforts with all its stakeholders to bring about better results for Chigo.

Li Xinghao
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
Foshan, 31 March 2016

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group is principally engaged in the design, development, manufacture and sale of air-conditioning products. During the year ended 31 December 2015, the revenue of the Group was mainly derived from the sales of air-conditioners and air-conditioner parts and components. The Group's products were sold both in the PRC and overseas markets.

Looking back on 2015, the air-conditioning industry was facing a very difficult business environment. In the global economic downturn and fluctuations, whether domestic and overseas markets, there were many changing factors that affect sales and profit performance of the enterprises.

The Chinese air-conditioner market was affected by the slowdown in macroeconomic development, the fluctuations in the PRC real estate market and capricious weather in 2015, resulting in the doldrums. Due to weak consumer market demand, competition among enterprises was very fierce, some companies in the industry adopted aggressive pricing strategy to alleviate the pressure of their own inventory and a price war ensued. According to statistics, both the overall retail sales and retail sales volume of the Chinese air-conditioner market in 2015 have recorded a year-on-year decline.

As one of the leading enterprises in the PRC air-conditioning industry, the Group's annual results for the year ended 31 December 2015 followed the trend of the industry to fall inevitably and recorded a remarkable drop comparing to that of the year before. Moreover, stiff price competition in the domestic market had posed adverse impact on the average selling and profitability of the Group's domestic products.

As for exports of the Chinese air-conditioning products, although the situation was slightly better than the domestic market, due to the impact of the economic downturn in the world's major economies and the slowdown of emerging market development, the annual cumulative amount and annual cumulative quantity of Chinese air-conditioning products exports in 2015 fell year-on-year according to the Chinese customs statistics.

Although the scale of the Group's export sales declined during the year ended 31 December 2015, its export performance has been better than the industry and was ranked one of the top exporters in the year.

During the year, the overseas team of the Group achieved good sales performance in markets such as Middle East, West Asia and North Africa. Whereas in Latin America, South Asia, Southeast Asia, the Group maintained a steady growth in exports. On the other hand, due to local currency devaluation, exchange controls and fluctuation of the local economy, the Group recorded different degrees of decline in exports to the emerging markets such as Brazil and Russia.

In 2015, the operating scale of the Group's commercial air-conditioners dropped slightly. However, since the average selling price has improved, the commercial air-conditioning segment was able to maintain a stable total sales.

As both the sales volume and average sales prices decreased, sales of residential air-conditioners decreased by 15.3% during the year ended 31 December 2015. The volume of business, sales of air-conditioner parts and components decreased sharply by 38.3% during the year mainly due to a decline in overseas sales as a result of the economic slowdown in emerging markets. The Group's other operating income such as resale of raw materials dropped in 2015, as a result, sales of other products decreased significantly by 21.4% during the year ended 31 December 2015.

Due to the poor demand and stiff price competition in the domestic market, the average selling prices of the residential air-conditioning products decreased during the year ended 31 December 2015. In total, the Group sold approximately 4,617,000 units/sets of air-conditioners within the reporting period.

Due to the decreases in prices of the major raw materials, average cost of sales of air-conditioning products declined which in turn slowed down the growth in selling prices during the year ended 31 December 2015. Furthermore, the price competition was very keen in the air-conditioning industry, as a result, the average selling prices of the Group's residential air-conditioning products dropped by 12.8%. Despite the decreases in cost of sales in 2015, the Group was able to adjust the average sales prices of commercial air-conditioning products upwards by 7.6%.

During the year ended 31 December 2015, as the prices of major raw materials, such as copper and aluminum, dropped substantially, the Group's cost of major materials reduced by RMB860.9 million or 12.8%. Because of the lower sales and production in China, direct labour cost decreased slightly by 7.1% during the year ended 31 December 2015.

Other cost of sales decreased slightly by 4.2% mainly attributed to the decrease in other cost, such as the cost of raw material resold by the Group.

During the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group's total revenue was approximately RMB7,774.2 million (2014: RMB9,233.2 million), representing a significant decrease of RMB1,459.0 million, or 15.8% as compared to the corresponding period in 2014. The decrease was principally due to the weak demand for the domestic sales during the year.

PRC SALES

For the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group's PRC sales decreased sharply by RMB1,305.5 million or 25.3% to RMB3,856.6 million (2014: RMB5,162.1 million). As a result, domestic sales only accounted for 49.6% (2014: 55.9%) of the Group's total revenue during the year ended 31 December 2015.

OVERSEAS SALES

For the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group's overseas sales decreased to RMB3,917.6 million (2014: RMB4,071.1 million). The drop in overseas sales amounted to RMB153.5 million representing a year-on-year decrease of 3.8%.

The Group saw decreases in sales in the Americas, Africa and Europe by 22.0%, 10.4% and 19.2% respectively. However, the Group recorded satisfactory growths in sales in Asia (excluding PRC) of 10.2% and Oceania of 44.6% respectively which offset the sales drop in the Americas, Africa and Europe. Among the overseas markets of the Group, the main sources of revenue were Asia (excluding PRC) and the Americas which accounted for 29.6% and 11.9% (2014: 22.6% and 12.8% respectively) of the Group's revenue during the year ended 31 December 2015, respectively.

Since the Group's sales in the PRC had recorded a greater decline, export sales increased to 50.4% (2014: 44.1%) of the Group's total revenue for the year ended 31 December 2015.

COST OF GOODS SOLD

Due to the decrease in prices of major raw materials, parts and components, such as copper and aluminum, in 2015, cost of goods sold decreased to RMB6,708.4 million (2014: RMB7,629.9 million), representing a decrease of RMB921.5 million or 12.1% as compared to that of 2014.

GROSS PROFIT

Due to the sharp decline in its revenue during the year which outweigh that of the cost of goods sold, the Group recorded a gross profit of RMB1,065.7 million for the year ended 31 December 2015 (2014: RMB1,603.3 million) which represented a decrease of RMB537.6 million or 33.5%.

The Group's gross margin dropped from 17.4% in 2014 to 13.7% for the year ended 31 December 2015.

In the difficult business environment with intense price competition, the Group's gross margin of PRC sales decreased significantly to 13.8% (2014: 21.2%) in 2015. On the other hand, exports benefitted from the advantages of the strong US dollar and low cost of goods sold, and the gross margin of overseas sales of the Group increased to 13.6% (2014: 12.5%) in 2015. Among the overseas sales regions, Asia (excluding PRC) and the Americas recorded profit margin growth in 2015 among which, the Americas and Oceania contributed the most to the profitability of the Group and achieved gross margins of 18.4% and 20.4% respectively.

The increase was mainly due to increase in advertising and promotion expenses during the year.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Administrative expenses (excluding equity-settled share based payments) of the Group remained stable and amounted to RMB412.1 million (2014: RMB412.0 million) for the year ended 31 December 2015. EQUITY-SETTLED SHARE BASED PAYMENTS

The Group recorded equity-settled share based payments of RMB7.4 million (2014: RMB10.3 million) for the year ended 31 December 2015 in relation to the share options granted by the Company to certain employees (including directors) and customers in 2011. This non-cash expense decreased by RMB2.9 million or 28.2% during the year.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS

Research and development ("R&D") costs increased to RMB99.7 million (2014: RMB93.2 million) by 7.0% or RMB6.5 million during the year. The increase was attributed to the increases in R&D investment in high-end advanced air-conditioning products by the Group to implement its "the leader of high-end air-conditioning" strategy.

OTHER EXPENSES

Other expenses increased sharply by RMB178.4 million or 583.0% during the year ended 31 December 2015 (2014: RMB30.6 million) and amounted to RMB209.0 million. The increase was mainly due to the provisions made by the Group in respect of the possible return of certain subsidies for its sale of energy-saving air-conditioners. Other expenses also included non-operating expenses and donations.

OTHER GAINS AND LOSSES

The Group recorded other losses of RMB36.2 million (2014: other gains of RMB4.0 million) in 2015. The other losses were mainly the allowance for doubtful debts incurred during the year.

NET GAIN IN FAIR VALUE CHANGES OF DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Group had entered into certain foreign currency forward contracts to sell and buy US dollar with financial institutes to hedge against part of its overseas sales income and US dollar loans respectively. The Group recorded a net gain in fair value changes of approximately RMB3.6 million (2014: net loss of RMB32.0 million) under its foreign currency forward contracts of the Group outstanding as at 31 December 2015.

FINANCE COSTS

The Group financed its working capital requirement through different arrangements including bank loans, discounted bills receivable from customers to financial institutes, corporate debentures and finance leases. During the year ended 31 December 2015, the finance costs of the Group decreased by RMB75.8 million or 28.9% to RMB186.2 million (2014: RMB262.0 million) due to lower average balance of bank borrowings.

TAXATION

Due to the increase in loss before taxation, the Group's tax charge for the year ended 31 December 2015 decreased by RMB39.3 million or 75.9% to RMB12.5 million (2014: RMB51.8 million).

LOSS FOR THE YEAR AND TOTAL COMPREHENSIVE EXPENSE FOR THE YEAR

As a result of the foregoing, the Group recorded a loss of RMB665.5 million for the year ended 31 December 2015 (2014: RMB60.4 million), representing an increase of RMB605.1 million or 1,001.8% as compared to the corresponding period in 2015. Since the Group had increased its loss substantially in the reporting period, the Group's net loss margin worsened to 8.6% for the year ended 31 December 2015 (2014: 0.7%).

Net assets	2,230.6	2,906.3	-675.7	-23.2

As at 31 December 2015, the Group's total consolidated assets decreased by RMB940.3 million or 8.4% to RMB10,221.7 million (2014: RMB11,162.0 million). The decrease was mainly due to the decrease in value of certain current assets such as trade and other receivables (decreased by RMB808.7 million) and pledged bank deposits (decreased by RMB180.9 million), which was partly offset by the increase in inventories (increased by RMB54.5 million). Total consolidated liabilities of the Group as at 31 December 2015 amounted to RMB7,991.2 million (31 December 2014: RMB8,255.8 million) and decreased by RMB264.6 million or 3.2%. The major liabilities that decreased in the period were borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse (decreased by RMB434.6 million), short-term bank loans and long-term bank loans (decreased by RMB538.7 million and RMB141.5 million respectively), which decrease was offset by the increases in trade and other payables and obligation under finance lease (increased by RMB680.9 million and RMB162.6 million respectively).

As the Group recorded a net loss for the year, the Group's net assets decreased by 23.2% or RMB675.7 million to RMB2,230.6 million at the end of 2015 (2014: RMB2,906.3 million).

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The funding policy of the Group is to secure sufficient funding to meet its working capital requirements and to maintain smooth operations. The Group will also utilise different equity and debt instruments of different tenures to obtain funding from the capital and financial markets in Hong Kong or in the PRC to achieve these objectives.

As the principal operation and production base of the Group are located in the PRC, financial resources are centralised in the headquarters of the Group for efficient allocation. The Group also utilises different banking services and products provided by the financial institutions in the PRC and Hong Kong to facilitate its cash management and treasury activities.

The management, with the assistance of the Group's finance and treasury departments, will closely monitor the market conditions and the needs of the Group when implementing the Group's funding and treasury policies.

As at 31 December 2015, the Group's had current assets amounted to RMB8,250.1 million (2014: RMB9,149.5 million) and current liabilities amounted to RMB7,787.8 million (2014: RMB7,979.2 million). The Group's working capital decreased by RMB707.9 million or 60.5% from RMB1,170.3 million as at the end of 2014 to RMB462.4 million at the end of 2015. Despite the Group's net current assets decreased, current ratio remained at 1.1 times (2014: 1.1 times) as at 31 December 2015.

The Group experiences a certain degree of seasonal fluctuations in its air-conditioning business. Accordingly, the Group's operations, including its sales, production, working capital and operating cashflow, are closely related to seasonal factors. Demands for air-conditioners are usually higher during summer each year. In order to facilitate production prior to the domestic peak season and to meet the overseas orders, the Group normally experiences temporarily higher funding requirements in the middle and at the end of each year.

In recent years, the Group has made several investments in connection with the vertical integration of its production line. Accordingly, debentures and borrowings of longer tenure matching with the project period were sought for from the banks to serve this purpose.

In 2015, the Group had obtained funding for its business operations from different financial arrangements including bank loans, debentures and finance lease. As at 31 December 2015, the balances of short-term and long-term bank loans utilised by the Group were RMB1,402.2 million and nil respectively (2014: RMB1,940.9 million and RMB6.3 million respectively). Short-term and long-term bank loans decreased by RMB538.7 million and RMB6.3 million during the year. The bank loans were used for working capital purposes, majority of the loans are charged at fixed interest rates, repayable within one year, and are made and repaid in Renminbi. As at the end of the reporting period, the Group had outstanding long-term debentures of approximately RMB207.6 million (2014: RMB207.0 million).

For the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group also enhanced its working capital position and obtained medium term financing by entering into finance lease arrangements. As at the end of 2015, the Group had obligations under finance leases of approximately RMB162.6 million (2014: Nil).

The gearing ratio (calculated as interest-bearing loans and other borrowings to total assets) of the Group decreased and improved to 17.4% as at 31 December 2015 (2014: 20.6%) because the Group's total borrowings decreased substantially by RMB523.2 million during the year.

In order to reduce finance costs, the Group arranged some of its borrowings by obtaining bank loans which are denominated in foreign currency and offered at lower lending rates during the year. Both short-term and long-term borrowings had been used and provided the Group with a better mix of debt financing to fund its business operation. During the year, due to the average balance of borrowing reduced, the Group decreased its finance cost by 28.9% or RMB75.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2015 comparing to the same period in 2014.

Since the Group recorded a net loss for the year, the Group's ability to meet finance costs, as indicated by interest cover, dropped and deteriorated during the reporting period (2015: N/A, 2014: 1.0 times).

During the year, the Group entered into certain foreign currency forward contracts and derivative financial instruments to hedge against part of its exposure on potential variability of foreign currency risk. The net financial exposure of the Group to these foreign currency financial instruments was net liabilities of approximately RMB33.1 million (2014: RMB7.2 million) as at the year end.

As at 31 December 2015, the Company had issued share capital of approximately RMB71.9 million and 8,434,178,000 shares in issue and all of the issued shares were ordinary shares. Since the Group recorded a net loss for the year, the shareholders' equity decreased to RMB2,230.6 million as at 31 December 2015 (2014: RMB2,906.3 million).

Other than the above, there were no other equity or debt instruments issued by the Company during the reporting period and at the end of 2015.

For the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group had operating cash outflows of RMB208.7 million (2014: cash inflow of RMB499.2 million). During the year, the Group accelerated the receivables collection process and bargained for better credit terms from the suppliers to generate additional RMB1,347.0 million for its operations. As such, the Group generated net cash of RMB1,138.3 million (2014: RMB1,130.6 million) from its operating activities for the year ended 31 December 2015.

The Group applied part of the cash generated amounting to RMB22.5 million for its investing activities in respect of the future business expansion and development of the Group including mainly the amount of RMB120.9 million for the acquisitions of property, plant and equipment, and RMB51.6 million for the payment of deposits in respect of such acquisitions. The Group withdrew pledged bank deposits of net amount of RMB180.9 million and generated additional RMB7.9 million from disposal of property, plant and equipment. As a result, the Group used net cash of RMB22.5 million (2014: RMB260.8 million) in its investing activities in 2015.

The Group continued to reduce borrowings and used RMB1,162.1 million (2014: RMB1,161.8 million) for its financing activities.

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's cash balances decreased by RMB46.3 million during the year ended 31 December 2015 and bank balances and cash amounted to RMB418.2 million at the end of 2015 (2014: RMB464.5 million). Majority of the bank balances and cash were denominated in Renminbi and certain amounts were denominated in US dollars, EURO and Hong Kong dollars.

MATERIAL ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS, SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS

During the year ended 31 December 2015, the Group had not made any material acquisitions and disposals of subsidiaries and associated companies. As at the end of the reporting period, the Group did not hold any significant investments.

CHARGE ON ASSETS

As at 31 December 2015, certain bank deposits and land use rights of the Group in an aggregate carrying amount of approximately RMB910.4 million (2014: RMB1,091.6 million) were pledged to certain banks for securing the banking facilities granted to the Group.

EXPOSURE TO FLUCTUATIONS IN EXCHANGE RATES

During the year ended 31 December 2015, approximately 50.4% of the Group's sales were denominated in currencies other than Renminbi, predominantly the US dollar, whilst most of the costs and expenses incurred by the Group were denominated in Renminbi. In this regard, the Group may be exposed to foreign currency risk. During the reporting period, the Group had already entered into certain foreign currency forward contracts and derivative financial instruments to hedge against foreign exchange risk. As the exchange rate of Renminbi against the US dollars fluctuated during the reporting period, the Group incurred losses on some of the foreign currency forward contracts upon settlement. However, the Directors believe that the Group's exposure to foreign currency risk was not significant.

During and as at the end of the reporting period, most of the assets and liabilities of the Group were denominated in Renminbi. The Directors believe that the Group's exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is minimal in this aspect.

The management of the Group will monitor foreign currency exposure from time to time and will consider further hedging should the need arise.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

As at 31 December 2015, the Group had capital expenditure contracted for but not provided in the financial statements in respect of acquisition of property, plant and equipment amounted to approximately RMB98.6 million (2014: approximately RMB77.1 million). The Group expects that the capital commitments will be funded by internal resources and/or external finance from financial institutions.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Group did not have any significant contingent liabilities as at 31 December 2015.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION

As at 31 December 2015, the Group employed 13,084 employees (2014: 13,511 employees). The employees of the Group are remunerated based on their performance, experience and prevailing industry practices. Compensation packages are reviewed on a yearly basis. The Group also provides its employees with welfare benefits including medical care, meal subsidies, education subsidies and housing etc.

In order to attract, motivate and retain high calibre personnel, the Group also has a share option scheme in place in which the employees and directors of the Group are entitled to participate.

OUTLOOK AND FUTURE PLANS

The Group expects that the business environment in 2016 will remain challenging. Under the current situation, global and domestic macroeconomic conditions are still full of uncertainty. In addition, exchange rate fluctuations and national policies will influence the market demand and consumer sentiment for air-conditioning products.

Combined with market observations, the domestic market in 2016 is not expected to be optimistic. As competition will remain keen, the Group will adopt flexible marketing strategy to respond to the market rapidly.

As for overseas markets, developed markets in Europe, North America are anticipated to have a minimal growth. On the other hand, the emerging markets will be at a standstill and remain low.

Market demand for commercial air-conditioning products keeps growing and remains strong. Commercial air-conditioning products is one of the growth points of the air-conditioning industry. The Group expects its sales of commercial air-conditioning products to be steady in 2016.

In order to improve its operating performance and respond to the difficult operating environment, the Group has deployed the following in the coming year:

1. BRAND PROMOTION:

   To use high-end air-conditioning-based strategy as market positioning. The Group will take advantage of its smart and intelligent air-conditioning technology to promote "Chigo • Leader of high-end air-conditioning".

2. TAP THE MARKET:

   To strengthen and enhance the cooperation with household appliances retail chain operators; and to explore new business opportunities and establish new sales platforms with e-commerce providers, government procurement.

3. PRODUCT UPGRADE:

Amendments to HKAS 19	Defined benefit plans: Employee contributions
Amendments to HKFRSs	Annual improvements to HKFRSs 2010 – 2012 cycle
Amendments to HKFRSs	Annual improvements to HKFRSs 2011 – 2013 cycle

Except as described below, the application of the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year has had no material impact on the Group's financial performance and positions for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

AMENDMENTS TO HKFRS 8

The amendments to HKFRS 8 "Operating segments" require entities to disclose judgements made by management in applying the aggregation criteria set out in paragraph 12 of HKFRS 8. The Group has aggregated several operating segments into a single operating segment based on the aggregation criteria set out in paragraph 12 of HKFRS 8 and made the required disclosures in note 7 to the Group's consolidated financial statements.

The application of the other amendments has had no other impact on the disclosures or amounts recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND REVISED HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs") (Continued)

HKFRS 9 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

HKFRS 9 issued in 2009 introduced new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets. HKFRS 9 was subsequently amended in 2010 to include requirements for the classification and measurement of financial liabilities and for derecognition, and in 2013 to include the new requirements for general hedge accounting. Another revised version of HKFRS 9 was issued in 2014 mainly to include a) impairment requirements for financial assets and b) limited amendments to the classification and measurement requirements by introducing a 'fair value through other comprehensive income' (FVTOCI) measurement category for certain simple debt instruments.

Key requirements of HKFRS 9:

All recognised financial assets that are within the scope of HKAS 39 "Financial instruments: Recognition and measurement" are required to be subsequently measured at amortised cost or fair value. Specifically, debt investments that are held within a business model whose objective is to collect the contractual cash flows, and that have contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal outstanding are generally measured at amortised cost at the end of subsequent accounting periods. Debt instruments that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and that have contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, are measured at FVTOCI. All other debt investments and equity investments are measured at their fair value at the end of subsequent accounting periods. In addition, under HKFRS 9, entities may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value of an equity investment (that is not held for trading) in other comprehensive income, with only dividend income generally recognised in profit or loss.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of HKFRS 9 in the future may have a material impact on the amounts reported in respect of the Group's financial assets. Regarding the Group's financial assets, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of that effect until a detailed review has been completed.

HKFRS 15 REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

HKFRS 15 was issued which establishes a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. HKFRS 15 will supersede the current revenue recognition guidance including HKAS 18 "Revenue", HKAS 11 "Construction contracts" and the related interpretations when it becomes effective.

The core principle of HKFRS 15 is that an entity should recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. Specifically, the Standard introduces a 5-step approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

Under HKFRS 15, an entity recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when 'control' of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer. Far more prescriptive guidance has been added in HKFRS 15 to deal with specific scenarios. Furthermore, extensive disclosures are required by HKFRS 15.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of HKFRS 15 in the future may have a material impact on the amounts reported and disclosures made in the Group's consolidated financial statements. However, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect of HKFRS 15 until the Group performs a detailed review.

Apart from HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 15, the directors of the Company do not anticipate that the application of the other new and revised HKFRSs issued but not yet effective will have a material impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange ("Listing Rules") and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance ("CO").

The disclosure requirements set out in the Listing Rules regarding annual accounts have been amended with reference to the provisions of the new Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622) regarding preparation of accounts and directors' reports and to streamline with HKFRSs. Accordingly the presentation and disclosure of information in the consolidated financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2015 have been changed to comply with these new requirements. Comparative information in respect of the financial year ended 31 December 2014 are presented or disclosed in the consolidated financial statements based on the new requirements. Information previously required to be disclosed under the predecessor CO or Listing Rules but not under the new CO or amended Listing Rules are not disclosed in these consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments which are carried at fair value at the end of the reporting period, as explained in the accounting polices set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2, leasing transactions that are within the scope of HKAS 17, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 or value in use in HKAS 36.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The principal accounting policies are set out below.

BASIS OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are generally recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities, and assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with HKAS 12 "Income taxes" and HKAS 19 "Employee benefits" respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share based payment arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with HKFRS 2 "Share-based payment" at the acquisition date; and
- assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with HKFRS 5 "Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations" are measured in accordance with that standard.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. If, after re-assessment, the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on a transaction-by-transaction basis. Other types of non-controlling interests are measured at their fair value or, when applicable, on the basis specified in another HKFRSs.

When the consideration transferred by the Group in a business combination includes assets or liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and considered as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively, with the corresponding adjustments being made against goodwill. Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the 'measurement period' (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as an asset or a liability is remeasured at subsequent reporting dates in accordance with HKAS 39 with the corresponding gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

GOODWILL

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units ("CGU") (or groups of cash-generating units) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

A CGU to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the CGU to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount of the CGU is less than the carrying amount of the unit, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in profit or loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

On disposal of the relevant CGU, the attributable amount of goodwill capitalised is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for goods sold in the normal course of business, net of discounts and sales related taxes.

Revenue from the sales of goods is recognised when the goods are delivered and title have passed, at which time all the following conditions are satisfied:

- the Group has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods;
- the Group retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- the amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Group; and
- the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Construction in progress includes property, plant and equipment in the course of construction for production or for its own use purposes. Construction in progress is carried at cost less any recognised impairment loss. Construction in progress is classified to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property, plant and equipment, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

The cost of buildings is depreciated over the shorter of the unexpired lease term of the land which the buildings are located or their estimated useful lives of 8 to 30 years after the date of completion.

Depreciation is recognised to write off the cost of other property, plant and equipment, using the straight line method, over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3 – 6 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Plant and machinery	5 – 10 years

The estimated useful lives and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets. However, when there is no reasonable certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

BORROWING COSTS

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Research and development expenditure

Expenditure on research activities is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

An internally-generated intangible asset arising from development activities (or from the development phase of an internal project) is recognised if, and only if, all of the following have been demonstrated:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- the ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits;
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

The amount initially recognised for internally-generated intangible asset is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets the recognition criteria listed above. Where no internally-generated intangible asset can be recognised, development expenditure is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred.

Subsequent to initial recognition, internally-generated intangible asset is measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses (if any), on the same basis as intangible assets acquired separately.

Patents and trademarks

Purchased patents and trademarks are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and any identified impairment losses. Amortisation is calculated on a straight line basis over its estimated useful economic life, starting from the time when the patent is available for use. The estimated useful lives and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of inventories are determined on a first-in, first-out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets

The Group's financial assets are mainly classified into financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), loans and receivables and available-for-sale investment. The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financing assets and is determined at the time of initial recognition. All regular purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial assets, or, where appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest income is recognised on an effective interest basis.

Financial assets at FVTPL

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near future; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of an identified portfolio of financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

Financial assets at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement in profit or loss.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in active market. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables (including trade and other receivables, restricted deposits, pledged bank deposits and bank balances and cash) are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any identified impairment loss (see accounting policy on impairment loss on financial assets below).

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivatives that are either designated or not classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, or held-to-maturity investments.

Available-for-sale equity investments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured and derivatives that are linked to and must be settled by delivery of such unquoted equity instruments are measured at cost less any identified impairment losses at the end of the reporting period (see accounting policy on impairment of financial assets below).

Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at the end of the reporting period. They are considered to be impaired where there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of them, the estimated future cash flows of loans and receivables have been affected.

For available-for-sale equity investments on significant prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment.

For all other financial assets, objective evidence of impairment could include:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty; or
- breach of contract, such as default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial re-organisation.

For certain categories of financial assets, such as trade receivables, assets that are assessed not to be impaired individually are, in addition, assessed for impairment on a collective basis. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include the Group's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in the number of delayed payments in the portfolio past the average credit period of 30 days to 180 days and observable changes in national or local economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the amount of the impairment loss recognised is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the original effective interest rate.

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of trade receivables, where the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognised in profit or loss. When a trade receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to profit or loss.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, if, in a subsequent period, the amount of impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment losses was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset at the date of the impairment loss is reversed does not exceed what the amortised cost would have been had the impairment not been recognised.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. The Group's financial liabilities are generally classified into financial liabilities at FVTPL and other financial liabilities.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest expense is recognised on an effective interest basis.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing in the near future; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value, with changes in fair value arising on remeasurement recognised directly in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Derivatives financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss immediately.

Other financial liabilities

Other financial liabilities including borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse, bank loans, debentures and trade and other payables are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

IMPAIRMENT ON TANGIBLE AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised as expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount but to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately.

PROVISIONS

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, and it is probable that the Group will be required to settle that obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows where the effect of the time value of money is material.

TAXATION

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

FOREIGN CURRENCIES

The individual financial statements of each group entity are presented in the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (its functional currency).

In preparing the financial statements of the individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recorded in the respective functional currency (i.e. the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

SHARE-BASED PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

Equity-settled share based payment transactions

Share options granted to directors and employees of the Company

The fair value of services received determined by reference to the fair value of share options granted at the grant date is expensed on a straight line basis over the vesting period, with a corresponding increase in equity (share options reserve).

At the end of the reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to ultimately vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates during the vesting period, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to share options reserve.

At the time when the share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share options reserve will be transferred to share premium. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share options reserve will be transferred to retained profits.

LEASING

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

The Group as lessee

Assets held under finance leases are initially recognised as assets of the Group at their fair value at the inception of the lease or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the consolidated statement of financial position as a finance lease obligation.

Lease payments are apportioned between finance expenses and reduction of the lease obligations so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance expenses are recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Group's general policy on borrowing costs. Contingent rentals are recognised as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Sale and lease back resulting in a finance lease

If a sale and leaseback transaction results in a finance lease, any excess of sales proceeds over the carrying amount of the asset is not immediately recognised as income by the Group. Instead, it is deferred and amortised over the lease term. If the fair value at the time of a sales and leaseback transaction is less than the carrying amount of the asset, no adjustment is necessary unless there has been an impairment in value, in which case the carrying amount is reduced to the recoverable amount.

LEASEHOLD LAND AND BUILDING

The land and building elements of a lease of land and building are considered separately for the purpose of lease classification based on the assessment as to whether substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of each element have been transferred to the Group, unless it is clear that both elements are operating leases in which case the entire lease is classified as an operating lease. To the extent the allocation of the lease payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land that is accounted for as an operating lease is presented as "land use rights" in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The up-front payments to acquire leasehold land that is accounted for as an operating lease are stated at cost and released over the lease term on a straight line basis.

GOVERNMENT GRANTS AND SUBSIDIES

Government grants and subsidies are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Government grants and subsidies related to depreciable assets are recognised as deferred income in the consolidated statement of financial position and transferred to profit or loss on a systematic and rational basis over the useful lives of the related assets. Government grants and subsidies that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable and are reported separately as "other income".

RETIREMENT BENEFITS COSTS

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans, government-managed retirement benefit schemes and the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF") are charged as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

SHORT-TERM AND OTHER LONG-TERM EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the related service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Group in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

4. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies detailed in note 3, management has made the following estimation that have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements. The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

WARRANTY OBLIGATION

The Group provides free repairing services for its products and free replacement of the major components of its products for 3 to 6 years after sales.

The costs of the warranty obligation under which the Group agrees to remedy defects in its products are accrued at the time the related sales are recognised. Provision for warranty is accrued based on the estimated costs of fulfilling the total obligation. The costs are estimated by the management based on past experience. The assumptions used to estimate the warranty provision are reviewed periodically in light of actual results. When a material defect is subsequently tested and identified, further warranty provision may arise. As at 31 December 2015, the carrying amount of warranty provision is RMB17,078,000 (2014: RMB25,641,000). Details of the movements are disclosed in note 26.

VALUATION OF INVENTORIES

The directors estimate the net realisable value of inventories based primarily on the latest market prices and current market conditions. The Group carries out an inventory review at the end of each reporting period and makes allowance on obsolete and slow moving items to write off or write down inventories to their net realisable values. Where the expectation on the net realisable value is lower than the cost, an additional write-off or write-down may arise.

ESTIMATED IMPAIRMENT OF TRADE RECEIVABLES

When there is objective evidence of impairment loss, the Group takes into consideration the estimation of future cash flows. The amount of the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition). Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, a material impairment loss may arise. As at 31 December 2015, the carrying amount of trade receivables is RMB3,060,534,000, net of allowance for doubtful debts of RMB96,679,000 (2014: RMB3,425,207,000, net of allowance for doubtful debts of RMB34,591,000).

4. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

INCOME TAXES

There are certain non-deductible expenses for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially estimated, such differences will impact the current income tax and deferred income tax in the period during which such a determination is made.

No deferred tax assets have been recognised on unused tax losses and certain deductible temporary differences arising from the Group's subsidiaries in PRC due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. The reliability of the deferred tax asset mainly depends on whether sufficient future profits or taxable temporary differences will be available in the future. In cases where the actual profits generated are more than expected, a material deferred tax assets would be recognised in profit or loss for the period. Details of the tax losses for the year ended 31 December 2015 are disclosed in note 19.

5. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that the group entities will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to owners of the Company through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged from prior year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of bank loans, debentures, borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse, net of pledged bank deposits, restricted deposits, and bank balances and cash and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital, reserves and retained profits as disclosed in the consolidated financial statements.

The management of the Group reviews the capital structure regularly. The Group considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital, and will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new share issues of the Company as well as the raising of bank and other borrowings.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's major financial instruments include trade and other receivables, short-term investments, restricted deposits, pledged bank deposits, bank balances and cash, trade and other payables, derivative financial instruments, borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse, debentures, bank loans and obligations under finance lease. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in the respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposure to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

CREDIT RISK

As at 31 December 2015, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

In order to minimise the credit risk, management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade debt at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. Furthermore, the Group has applied export insurance to minimise the credit risks arising from overseas customers. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The credit risk on bank deposits and bank balances is limited as such amounts are placed in banks with good reputation.

The Group is also exposed to credit risk arising from the failure to discharge of obligation by the counterparties in foreign currency contracts. However, the directors of the Company consider such risk is minimal as those contracts were entered with banks with good reputation.

Other than concentration of credit risk on liquid funds, the Group does not have any other significant concentration of credit risk. Trade receivables consist of a large number of customers which spread across diverse industries and geographical locations.

MARKET RISK

Foreign currency risk

The Group has certain transactions that denominated in foreign currencies, hence exposures to foreign currency risk. Approximately 50% (2014: 44%) of the Group's sales are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the group entity making the sales, mainly in United States dollars whilst all of the costs are denominated in the group entity's functional currency. The Group also has certain monetary items that denominated in foreign currencies which have exposed the Group to foreign currency risk. The carrying amount of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities at the end of each reporting period are disclosed in respective notes. During the years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015, the Group has entered into certain foreign currency contracts. The management monitors foreign currency exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

	2015		2014
	Assets RMB'000	Liabilities RMB'000	Assets RMB'000	Liabilities RMB'000

The Group mainly exposes to currencies of USD, HKD and EURO. The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% increase and decrease in RMB against the relevant foreign currencies. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items, including the trade and other receivables, restricted bank deposits, pledged bank deposits, bank balances, borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse, bank loans, debentures and adjusts their translation at the year end for a 5% change in foreign currency rates. A negative number indicates an increase in loss for the year ended 31 December 2015 (increase in loss for the year ended 31 December 2014) where the RMB strengthens against the relevant currencies. There would be an equal and opposite impact on the loss for the year ended 31 December 2015 (loss for the year ended 31 December 2014) where the RMB weakens against the relevant currencies.

	2015 RMB'000	2014 RMB'000
USD	(54,236)	(40,629)
HKD	(151)	(87)
EURO	(2,229)	(2,021)

Details of the Group's exposure in respect of the foreign currency contracts are set out in other price risk disclosed below.

Interest rate risk management

The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk through the impact of rate changes on interest bearing financial assets and liabilities, mainly interest bearing pledged bank deposits, bank balances and variable rate bank loans at prevailing market interest rates. The Group's fair value interest rate risk relates primarily to its debentures and borrowings related to discounted bills with recourse, of which are subjected to negotiations at each renewal date. The Group currently does not use any derivative contracts to hedge its exposure to interest rate risk. However, the management will consider hedging significant interest rate risk should the need arise.

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for interest bearing pledged bank deposits, bank balances and variable rate bank loans and assumed that the amount of assets outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year.

Interest rate risk management (Continued)

If interest benchmark rates on pledged bank deposits, bank balances and variable rate bank loans had been 50 basis points higher and all other variables were held constant, the potential effect on profit/loss for the year is as follows:

	2015 RMB'000	2014 RMB'000
Decrease (increase) in loss for the year
PBOC savings deposit rate	6,575	7,712
LIBOR	(641)	(3,212)
PBOC lending rate	(755)	(643)

There will be an equal and opposite impact on the loss for the year ended 31 December 2015 (loss for the year ended 31 December 2014) where there had been 50 basis points lower.

Other price risk

The Group was exposed to other price risk arising from the outstanding foreign currency contracts with predetermined exercisable period and maturity dates. The fair value of these foreign currency contracts was calculated using the forward pricing model and option pricing model. Details of these foreign currency contracts are set out in note 22.

The sensitivity analysis includes the outstanding foreign currency contracts as at the end of the reporting period and adjust at the year end for a 5% change in the relevant forward rates, holding other variables constant.

If the input of market forward rate to the valuation models of these foreign currency contracts had been 5% higher against RMB while all other variables were held constant, the loss for the year ended 31 December 2015 (loss for the year ended 31 December 2014) would decrease as follows:

	2015 RMB'000	2014 RMB'000
USD forward rate	37,832	92,968

There will be an equal and opposite impact on the loss for the year ended 31 December 2015 (loss for the year ended 31 December 2014) where there had been 5% lower.

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent market risk as the pricing model used in the fair value valuation of these contracts which involves multiple variables are interdependent.

The Group was also exposed to other price risk arising from the foreign currency contracts with different strike rate. The fair values of these contracts were calculated using the Black-Scholes Model. Details of these derivative financial instruments are set out in note 22.

LIQUIDITY RISK MANAGEMENT

The directors of the Company has built an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining banking facilities and by continuously monitoring forecasted and actual cash flows and the maturity profiles of its financial liabilities.

In respect of bank loans that the Group has breached the terms of bank loan, the Group will renegotiate the terms of such loan with relevant banker. The balance of such bank loan will be reclassified as current liabilities at the end of reporting period when the renegotiation had not been concluded. In any event, should the lender calls for immediate repayment of the loan, the Group will source of adequate alternative sources of finance to ensure that there is no threat to the continuing operations of the Group.

The following tables detail the remaining contractual maturity for the non-derivative financial liabilities and foreign currency contracts. For non-derivative financial liabilities, the tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the agreed repayment terms. The tables include both interest and principal cash flows.

For derivative instruments settle on a net basis, undiscounted net cash (inflows) outflows are presented. Whereas they require gross settlement, the undiscounted gross (inflows) and outflows on these derivatives are shown in the tables. For foreign currency contracts with predetermined exercisable period with gross settlement, the tables have been drawn up based on the assumption that the Group will exercise such contracts on the maturity of the exercisable period.

For the foreign currency contracts with different strike rates, undiscounted gross inflows/outflows are not presented since the Group is unable to estimate the ultimate timing and settlement amount of these contracts.

* The amounts included above for borrowings related to bills discounted with recourse are the maximum amounts the Group could be required to pay for the discounted bills if the bills receivables are not paid at maturity. Based on expectations at the end of the reporting period, the Group considers that it is more likely than not that these amount will be settled by the counterparties who issued the relevant bills which have been discounted to the banks.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis

Some of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. The following table gives information about how the fair values of these financial assets and financial liabilities are determined (in particular, the valuation technique(s) and inputs used), as well as the level of the fair value hierarchy into which the fair value measurements are categorised (levels 1 to 3) based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements is observable.

- Level 1 fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3 fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Financial assets	Fair value as at 31 December 2015	Fair value as at 31 December 2014	Fair value hierarchy	Valuation technique(s) and key input(s)

And take into account of the time from the valuation date to the contract expiring date and the RMB risk free interest rate.
	Current assets -nil Current liabilities – RMB20,796,000	Current assets – RMB2,494,000 Current liabilities – RMB5,044,000		(2) Forward contracts with flexible settlement dates The valuation is estimated based on the difference between the predetermined forward rate and the market forward rate of expiring date of the contracts at the valuation date. And take into account of the time from the valuation date to the contract expiring date and the RMB risk free interest rate. Black-Scholes Model and Binomial Model Black-Scholes Model is used to calculate the value of a European Put option while Binomial Model is used to calculate the value of an American Put option. The key determinants of both models are predetermined forward exchange rate, spot exchange rates and market risk free interest rate.

The disclosure set out in the table below include financial assets and financial liabilities that are offset in the Group's condensed consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the deposit under the finance leases and the obligations under finance lease payable to the counter party that are due to be settled on the same date and the Group intends to settle these balances on a net basis.

7. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Segment information has been identified on the basis of internal reports about components of the Group that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), the chief executive officer ("CEO"), for the purpose of allocating resources to segments and assessing their performance. The CODM reviews the revenue and result by geographical location of customers for performance assessment and resource allocation. No analysis of segment assets or segment liabilities is presented as they are not regularly provided to the CODM.

SEGMENT REVENUES AND RESULTS

OTHER SEGMENT INFORMATION

Geographical information

The Group's operations are located in PRC (country of domicile).

Information about the Group's revenue from external customers is detailed in the segment revenue analyses above. All of the Group's non-current assets (other than deferred tax assets) are geographically located in the PRC.

The management considered that the cost to develop the revenue by individual countries other than PRC and Americas are excessive and revenues other than "PRC" and "Americas" above attributed to each individual country are not material.

Information about major customers

For the year ended 31 December 2015 and 31 December 2014, none of the Group's customers had individually accounted for more than 10% of the Group's total revenue.

Analysis of capital additions, depreciation, amortisation of intangible assets and operating lease rentals on land use rights by location of customers were not presented as in the opinion of the directors, there is no appropriate basis in allocating the property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and land use rights by location of customers.

The goods sold to various geographical market were principally produced from the same production facilities situated in the PRC. Moreover, all of the Group's assets and liabilities at 31 December 2015 and 31 December 2014 were located in the PRC.

8. OTHER EXPENSES

Guangdong Chigo Air-conditioning Co., Ltd. ("Guangdong Chigo"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, participated in the energy-saving subsidy scheme implemented by the National Development and Reform Commission, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology and the Ministry of Finance of the PRC pursuant to which government subsidies were received in the previous years for the sale of energy-saving residential air-conditioning products in the PRC.

During the year, Guangdong Chigo received a notice from the Finance Bureau of Lishui Town, Nanhai, Foshan, the PRC (the "Lishui Finance Bureau") pursuant to which Lishui Finance Bureau demanded the return of the subsidies received by Guangdong Chigo in previous years amounting to RMB199,190,000.
