OVERVIEW

We are a long-term, consistent and across-the-board leader in the PRC securities industry, providing integrated financial services. Throughout the development of the PRC capital markets, we have weathered many industry cycles while forging ahead to establish ourselves as a comprehensive industry leader. From 2007 to 2015, our net profit attributable to equity holders of the Company ranked among the top three in the industry for nine consecutive years, and our operating revenue ranked among the top three in the industry for seven out of the nine years. Both of the Company’s operating revenue and net profit in 2016 ranked second in the industry. Our industry-leading position expands across all of our major business lines. In terms of the cumulative revenue in 2014 and 2015, we are the only securities company that ranked among the top three in the industry for five major business lines, including investment banking, securities investment, securities brokerage, margin financing and securities lending and asset management.

We are committed to achieving quality growth and maintaining a balance among business scale, profitability and risk management. Our average return on net assets for the ten years from 2007 to 2016 was 18.8%, significantly higher than the industry average of 14.7% while surpassing the industry average during each of the nine years from 2008 to 2016. We are the only one among the Top Five Securities Companies in the PRC to have attained the regulatory rating of Class A Grade AA from the CSRC for nine consecutive years from 2008 to 2016. Class A Grade AA is the highest rating ever attained by any securities company to date.

For 2014, 2015 and 2016, our total revenue and other income was RMB24,403.1 million, RMB52,108.8 million and RMB36,022.5 million, respectively, and our profit for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company for the same periods was RMB6,757.9 million, RMB15,700.3 million and RMB9,841.4 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, our total equity attributable to equity holders of the Company was RMB99,964.4 million and our total assets was RMB411,749.0 million.

We derive our success from the consensus of our culture among our employees, and the continuous implementation of such culture:

- Our Value: We regard our clients as our first priority and balance the interests of all stakeholders. We prioritize our clients and aim to create value for them through our professional services. We believe that we can only further the interests of our Shareholders and employees through creating value for our clients. We also believe that the pursuit of long-term goals can lead to the achievement of short-term objectives, and we are committed to striking a balance between business scale and profitability.

SUMMARY

- Our Approach to Profession: We adopt a culture of risk management and excellence. We believe that risk management creates value and future development relies on compliant operations. We seek to identify the best people for all positions, and to provide the best quality services and deliver the best results to our clients.
- Our People Culture: We are a people business and we promote collaboration and cooperation. We view our employees as the cornerstone of our survival and growth. We place strong emphasis on our culture and heritage. We give our best employees opportunities for career advancements. Our people culture is based on both shared responsibilities and shared rewards.
- Our Code of Conduct: We excel by innovation and cherish our reputation. We believe that innovation is the driver for our future growth and the key to a sustainable leading position. We always cultivate a sense of crisis and take forward-looking and preemptive actions. We cherish our reputation, honor professional ethics, and commit to our status as a well-respected company.

Our vision is to become an integrated financial services provider with roots in China, global coverage and strong influence.

We have established the following business segments to better serve our clients:

- Institutional Finance: Our institutional finance business comprises investment banking and institutional investor services. We strive to capture market opportunities through collaboration between these two business lines:
 - o Our investment banking business provides listing sponsorship, equity underwriting, debt underwriting, structured debt financing, M&A financial advisory and diversified corporate solutions to corporate and government clients;
 - o Our institutional investor services business provides prime brokerage, securities-backed financing and research services to institutional investors. We also conduct proprietary trading in equities, derivative financial instruments and FICC;
- Personal Finance: Our personal finance business provides, through both offline and online channels, securities and futures brokerage, margin financing and securities lending, wealth management and financial planning services;
- Investment Management: Our investment management business provides asset management and fund management services to institutions and individuals, and also includes our direct investment business; and
- International Business: We conduct brokerage, corporate finance, asset management, loans and financing as well as financial products, market making and investments businesses in Hong Kong mainly through Guotai Junan International. Meanwhile, we have also built an international business platform around Guotai Junan Financial Holdings. We have expanded our business presence to the United States and Singapore.

SUMMARY

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

We believe that by capitalizing upon the following competitive strengths, we will continue to seize the growth opportunities in the PRC capital markets and maintain our long-term, consistent and across-the-board leadership position.

- Deeply rooted culture of risk management and excellence.
 - o We firmly believe that risk management is the core competency of securities companies. We have established a comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system. Through a four-tier risk management structure led by the Board, we correctly identify, reasonably evaluate, dynamically monitor, timely respond to and effectively control various risks. Under our four-tier risk management structure, as of December 31, 2016, our compliance and risk management team accounted for 5.9% of our total employees and is embedded in our business divisions. Our comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system has helped us attain excellent regulatory ratings. We are the only one among the Top Five Securities Companies in the PRC to have attained the regulatory rating of Class A Grade AA from the CSRC for nine consecutive years from 2008 to 2016.
 - o Our culture of excellence is well reflected in our talent selection and our approach to client services. We are committed to identifying the best people for all positions mainly through internal promotion with external recruiting as a supplement. As of December 31, 2016, 60.5% of our management team at middle level or above have been working with us for ten years or more. We are committed to providing the highest quality services to and achieving the best results for our clients. We have built up high client loyalty with many of our corporate clients. For example, during the Track Record Period, we have served on two or more mandates for 137 of our investment banking clients, averaging more than three mandates per client. Our personal finance client accounts grew rapidly from December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2016 at a CAGR of 38.4%. In addition, we enjoy a distinctive pricing premium for many of our services. For example, in 2016, our average commission rate for stocks and funds brokerage was 16.3% higher than the industry average.
- Across-the-board leader in the PRC capital markets. We are a consistent leader in terms of business scale. From 2011 to 2015, our operating revenue, net profit and total assets ranked among the top three in the industry for five consecutive years. Both of the Company's operating revenue and net profit in 2016 ranked second in the industry. Our various business lines achieved comprehensive and balanced growth and were among the top in the securities industry. We ranked among the top three in the industry in terms of cumulative revenue from 2014 to 2015 from each of the key business lines of investment banking, securities investment, securities brokerage, margin financing and securities lending as well as asset management. In the 2016 New Fortune Best Analyst Award, we received the first prizes for "Best Domestic Research Team", "Most Influential Research Institute" and "Best Overseas Sales and Service Team".

SUMMARY

- Pioneer of technology and innovation in the PRC securities industry. We are a frontrunner in the application of IT in the securities industry. We proactively deploy leading information technologies to guide our business decisions, enhance client experience and improve our management capabilities. We seek to obtain first-mover advantage through continuous innovation, which has brought us further diversified income growth. The ratio of Revenue from Innovative Businesses to our total revenue and other income increased from 30.3% in 2014 to 39.4% in 2016.

BUSINESS STRATEGIES

We aim to be an integrated financial services provider with an across-the-board leading position in China and international competitiveness. In particular, we plan to implement the following business strategies:

- Institutional Finance: providing integrated financial solutions to institutional clients. We intend to institutionalize client relationship. Our account manager team is responsible for exploring client needs as well as leading the sector and product teams to provide tailored services. We implement the initiative to organize businesses by sector across various business segments, which will help us identify key industries and corporate clients. We aim to enhance our product development capabilities and provide customized solutions to our corporate clients.
- Personal Finance: enhancing client stickiness. We will increase investment in the use of financial technologies including big data and artificial intelligence. We will improve our product development, product introduction and product evaluation system. We will also establish a multi-asset class, multi-market and multi-strategy product pool. In addition, we will upgrade our integrated financial service model and further enhance the services of our investment adviser team for high-end clients.
- Investment Management: expanding AUM. We will improve our multi-tiered and multi-product asset management system. We will also rapidly expand our high-value-added and non-discretionary funds focusing on fixed income funds, asset-backed securities and FOF asset management products. In addition, we will expand our direct investment business.
- International Business: focusing on the demand of domestic clients for global asset allocation. We will build a cross-border asset management platform through strategic cooperation. We will also improve our advanced global brokerage service technology platform. In addition, we will provide financial advisory, financing and risk management services through organic growth or strategic cooperation with leading international investment banks.

SUMMARY

SUMMARY FINANCIAL AND OPERATING INFORMATION

For 2014, 2015 and 2016, our total revenue and other income was RMB24,403.1 million, RMB52,108.8 million and RMB36,022.5 million, respectively, and our profit for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company for the same periods was RMB6,757.9 million, RMB15,700.3 million and RMB9,841.4 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, our total equity attributable to equity holders of the Company was RMB99,964.4 million and our total assets was RMB411,749.0 million.

The following tables present our summary consolidated financial information as of and for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016.

Summary Consolidated Statements of Profit or Loss

	Year ended December 31,
	(RMB in millions)
Fee and commission income	10,934.2	27,127.6	15,628.1

Equity holders of the Company	6,757.9	15,700.3	9,841.4
Non-controlling interests	413.7	994.5	1,511.5

In 2016, our total revenue and other income decreased by 30.9% as compared to that in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in our fee and commission income, net investment gains and interest income, reflecting the decreases in the stock trading volume, investment yield and client demand for financing as a result of the volatility of the A share stock market at the beginning of 2016. In 2015, our total revenue and other income increased by 113.5% as compared to that in 2014, mainly reflecting the increases in the stock trading volume, investment yield and client demand for financing as a result of the active market in the first half of 2015.

SUMMARY

In 2016, our total expenses decreased by 29.2% as compared to that in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in our staff costs and interest expenses. In 2015, our total expenses increased by 101.5% as compared to that in 2014, primarily due to the increases in our interest expenses and staff costs.

In 2016, our operating profit decreased by 33.1% as compared to that in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in the operating profit from our retail brokerage business, margin financing and securities lending business and proprietary trading business, reflecting the volatile market conditions. In 2015, our operating profit increased by 132.5% as compared to that in 2014, primarily due to the increase in the operating profit from our retail brokerage business, margin financing and securities lending business and proprietary trading business.

Summary Consolidated Statements of Financial Position

	As of December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Total non-current assets	33,608.2	59,590.7	82,059.2
Total current assets	285,694.3	394,751.6	329,689.9
Total assets	319,302.5	454,342.4	411,749.0
Total non-current liabilities	43,374.5	75,695.1	61,235.4
Total current liabilities	228,629.3	277,010.5	239,761.9
Total liabilities	272,003.8	352,705.6	300,997.3
Total equity	47,298.7	101,636.7	110,751.7
Equity attributable to equity holders of the Company .	42,040.5	95,324.4	99,964.4

As of December 31, 2016, our total current assets decreased as compared to that as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to the decrease in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, reflecting the decrease in our clients' brokerage activities and the size of our investment in these financial assets as a result of the volatile A share market conditions.

As of December 31, 2016, our total non-current liabilities decreased as compared to that as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to the decrease in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting the reduced repurchase with margin financing and securities lending receivables as underlying assets.

SUMMARY

As of December 31, 2016, our total current liabilities decreased as compared to that as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to the decrease in accounts payable to brokerage customers and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting our clients' decreased brokerage activities and the reduced size of the repurchase with bonds as underlying assets as a result of the volatile A share market conditions.

In the ordinary course of our business, we hold financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets held under resale agreements and available-for-sale financial assets. As of December 31, 2016, we held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss in the amount of RMB76,723.2 million, financial assets held under resale agreements in the amount of RMB63,211.4 million and available-for-sale financial assets in the amount of RMB40,481.2 million, respectively. General economic and market conditions affect the value of these financial assets. Any material and adverse changes in the value of these financial assets may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Summary Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

	Year ended December 31,
	(RMB in millions)
Net cash generated from/(used in) operating activities.	4,275.0	(19,601.9)	(15,742.7)
Net cash used in investing activities	(7,434.5)	(22,851.5)	(1,792.9)
Net cash generated from financing activities	27,948.8	51,946.8	10,441.3
Net increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	24,789.4	9,493.4	(7,094.4)
Cash and cash equivalents at the beginning of the year	7,701.1	32,533.4	42,163.3

Key Financial and Operating Data

The following table sets forth our key financial data for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
(RMB in millions, except for percentages)
Operating profit ⁽¹⁾	9,476.2	22,033.8	14,730.6

Net margin ⁽⁴⁾	29.4%	32.0%	31.5%
Adjusted net margin ⁽⁵⁾	39.4%	44.0%	42.9%

Notes:

(1) Operating profit = total revenue and other income - total expenses.

SUMMARY

- (2) Operating margin = operating profit/total revenue and other income.
- (3) Adjusted operating margin = operating profit/(total revenue and other income - fee and commission expenses and interest expenses). Adjusted operating margin is not a standard measure under IFRSs, but is presented here because PRC securities companies typically present their total revenue and other income after deducting fee and commission expenses and interest expenses under CAS, which is different from the practices for presenting the total revenue and other income under IFRSs. As a result, we believe that adjusted operating margin provides a meaningful indicator of results of operations that is more comparable to other PRC listed securities companies. Prospective investors should be aware that the adjusted operating margin presented in this prospectus may not be comparable with other similarly titled measures reported by other securities companies due to different calculation methods or assumptions.
- (4) Net margin = profit for the year/total revenue and other income.
- (5) Adjusted net margin = profit for the year/(total revenue and other income - fee and commission expenses and interest expenses). Adjusted net margin is not a standard measure under IFRSs, but is presented here because PRC securities companies typically present their total revenue and other income after deducting fee and commission expenses and interest expenses under CAS, which is different from the practices for presenting the total revenue and other income under IFRSs. As a result, we believe that the adjusted net margin provides a meaningful indicator of results of operations that is more comparable to other PRC listed securities companies. Prospective investors should be aware that the adjusted net margin presented in this prospectus may not be comparable with other similarly titled measures reported by other securities companies due to different calculation methods or assumptions.

Our operating margin, adjusted operating margin, net margin and adjusted net margin remained relatively stable in 2016, compared with the same period in 2015. Our operating margin, adjusted operating margin, net margin and adjusted net margin increased from 2014 to 2015, primarily reflecting favorable market conditions in the first half of 2015.

The following table sets forth our key financial ratios for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	(RMB, except for percentages)
Return on average total equity ⁽¹⁾	17.8%	23.9%	10.6%
Return on average total assets ⁽²⁾	3.0%	4.3%	2.6%

Notes:

- (1) Calculated by dividing net profit for the year attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company by the average balance of equity attributable to equity holders of the Company at the beginning and the end of the year, deducting the impact of perpetual bonds.
- (2) Calculated by dividing net profit for the year by the average balance of total assets at the beginning and the end of the year.
- (3) Calculated by dividing net profit for the year attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

During the Track Record Period, fluctuations in the above financial ratios primarily reflected fluctuations in our net profit, net assets and total assets.

AUM of asset management business (RMB in millions)	513,965.9	608,584.4	846,425.8

Notes:

- (1) Calculated by dividing net investment income by the average balance of position of proprietary trading at the beginning and the end of the year.
- (2) Average net commission rate is calculated by dividing total commission, net of relevant variable costs, by total trading volume.
- (3) On March 2, 2015, the Company reduced the interest rate for margin financing and securities lending from 8.60% to 8.35%.

SUMMARY

During the Track Record Period, fluctuations in stocks and funds brokerage trading volume and net investment gains from proprietary trading primarily reflected fluctuations in the A share market, and fluctuations in positions from proprietary trading primarily reflected the adjustments we made to the size of proprietary investment.

RISK MANAGEMENT, CAPITAL ADEQUACY AND LIQUIDITY

We consider risk management as our core competency. We have established a comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system, which includes advanced risk management tools and technologies. We have established our compliance and risk management principles and insist on prudent management. We firmly believe that “risk management creates value, future development relies on compliant operations”. Through our four-tier risk management structure, we correctly identify, reasonably evaluate, dynamically monitor, timely respond to and effectively control various risks arising from operations and management. These efforts have enhanced our risk management capabilities and provided effective assurance for our innovative transformation and sustainable development in recent years.

We have established a dynamic Net Capital monitoring mechanism to comply with statutory net capital requirements and other regulatory standards to maintain capital adequacy. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, we were in compliance with all of our capital adequacy and risk control indicator requirements. As of December 31, 2016, the Company’s Net Capital was RMB80.3 billion and the Company’s liquidity coverage ratio and net stable funding ratio was 180.0% and 127.2%, respectively, both of which were higher than regulatory standards. See “Financial Information—Net Capital and Other Regulatory Requirements”.

RECENT DEVELOPMENT

On the Latest Practicable Date, the CSI 300 Index increased by 4.2% from December 30, 2016 to close at 3,449.6. From January 3, 2017 to the Latest Practicable Date, the average daily trading volume of the A share market was RMB429.9 billion, which represented a decrease of 16.8% from the average daily trading volume of RMB516.4 billion for the same period in 2016.

On March 20, 2017, Shanghai Securities issued corporate bonds in the amount of RMB1.0 billion with a term of 270 days and a coupon rate of 4.88%.

On March 13, 2017, our Shareholders approved the annual profit distribution plan for the year ended December 31, 2016 as follows: after appropriating a 10% after-tax profit as statutory common reserve fund, general risk reserves, and trading risk reserves, respectively, in accordance with relevant regulations, based on the total A Share common stock on the record date, the Company shall distribute cash dividends of RMB3.90 for every 10 shares (tax included) amounting to RMB2,973.75 million in total for the year ended December 31, 2016. We expect to pay this dividend on March 29, 2017 with our available cash resources.

SUMMARY

On February 28, 2017, the Company issued subordinated bonds in the amount of RMB5.0 billion with a term of three years and a coupon rate of 4.60%.

As a securities firm listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, we are required by the CSRC to announce selected unconsolidated, unaudited monthly operating revenue and net profit and month-end net assets of the Company and two of our subsidiaries, Shanghai Securities and Guotai Junan Asset Management prepared in accordance with CAS.

On February 8 and March 7, 2017, we announced the monthly key financial data of the Company, Shanghai Securities and Guotai Junan Asset Management for January and February 2017, respectively, on the website of the Shanghai Stock Exchange (www.sse.com.cn):

	January 2017/ As of January 31, 2017	February 2017/ As of February 28, 2017
	(RMB in millions)
The Company
Operating revenue	1,040.0	1,001.5
Net profit	426.8	450.3
Net assets	90,757.7	91,293.5
Shanghai Securities
Operating revenue	77.9	119.9
Net profit	26.3	48.6
Net assets	10,116.3	10,172.7
Guotai Junan Asset Management
Operating revenue	40.6	50.9
Net profit	16.5	23.2
Net assets	2,564.3	2,588.2

The selected financial data included in these announcements were extracted from the management accounts of the Company, Shanghai Securities and Guotai Junan Asset Management, respectively, and were prepared in accordance with CAS on an unconsolidated basis. In connection with the Global Offering, our reporting accountants have performed a review on the unaudited unconsolidated financial statements of the Company, Shanghai Securities and Guotai Junan Asset Management, respectively, for January and February 2017 in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Review Engagements 2410. These monthly unconsolidated unaudited financial data are not indicative of our operating results for any period of a year or any full year. Information contained in these announcements does not form part of this prospectus. We strongly caution you not to place any reliance on such information when considering whether to invest in our H Shares. We have not provided a reconciliation of our selected unaudited unconsolidated financial data to IFRS as there is no material difference in accounting treatment between CAS and IFRS.

SUMMARY

From January 1, 2017 to February 28, 2017, operating revenue of the Company increased from the same period in 2016, primarily due to an increase in operating revenue of institutional investor services business, partially offset by decreases in operating revenue of retail brokerage business and investment banking business resulting from decreased securities trading volume and debt financing transaction volume in the market, respectively, as compared with those for the same period in 2016. The increase in operating revenue of institutional investor services business of the Company was primarily due to increases in net investment gains from proprietary trading and interest income from stock-pledged financing. The increase in net investment gains from proprietary trading was primarily due to improved market conditions. The increase in interest income from stock-pledged financing was primarily due to an increase in the average size of stock-pledged financing transactions as compared with that of the same period in 2016.

On January 12, 2017, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment entered into the third supplemental agreement to the Equity Transfer Agreement (as defined in “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules”) with Shanghai Electric in relation to the transfer of a 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds. Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has agreed to pay an additional amount of RMB20.1 million and Shanghai Electric has agreed not to unilaterally terminate the Equity Transfer Agreement before September 30, 2017. As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has fully paid the consideration of a total of RMB660.8 million for the acquisition of the 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds. As of the Latest Practicable Date, this equity transfer was still pending approval of the relevant regulatory authorities. Please see “Business—Our Principal Business Lines—Investment Management—Fund Management—HuaAn Funds” and “History and Corporate Structure—Major Restructurings, Acquisitions and Disposals—Acquisition of 20% Equity Interest in HuaAn Funds”.

In order to optimize the Group’s business structure, on January 9, 2017, we publicly offered our 51% equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds for sale at the initial tender price of RMB1,045.0 million. As of the Latest Practicable Date, our public offer was still outstanding. After the completion of the sale, we will no longer hold any equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds. Please see “Business—Our Principal Business Lines—Investment Management—Fund Management—GTJA Allianz Funds” and “History and Corporate Structure—Proposed Disposal of 51% Equity Interest in GTJA Allianz Funds”.

On May 19, 2016, the Shareholders approved the CB Issuance. On December 12, 2016, as authorized by the Shareholders’ general meeting, the Board determined the aggregate principal amount of the CB Issuance as not more than RMB7.0 billion. On December 21, 2016, the CB Issuance was reviewed and approved by the CSRC Main Board Issuance Examination Committee. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we were still waiting for final approval by the CSRC. See “Share Capital — CB Issuance”. As the approval by the CSRC is beyond our control, the timing of the completion of the CB Issuance is uncertain. It is possible that the CB Issuance may be carried out within six months after the Listing Date. We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the CB Issuance. See “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules — Waiver from Strict Compliance with Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules”.

The Directors have confirmed that, there has been no material and adverse change in our market share of stock trading volume, financial or trading position or prospects since December 31, 2016, (being the date of our latest audited financial statements), and there has been no event which could materially affect the information set out “Appendix I — Accountants’ Report”.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share, we estimate that we will receive net proceeds of approximately HK$16,040.6 million from the Global Offering after deducting underwriting commissions, professional fees and other fees incurred in connection with the Global Offering. We intend to use the net proceeds from the Global Offering in the manner set forth below:

Intended use of net proceeds	Percentage of the total estimated net proceeds	Amount
		(HK$ in millions)
Developing our institutional finance business	30%	4,812.2
Developing our personal finance business	30%	4,812.2
Developing our investment management business	15%	2,406.1
Developing our international business	15%	2,406.1
Additional working capital and other general corporate purposes	10%	1,604.0

For more details, please see “Future Plans and Use of Proceeds”.

OFFER STATISTICS

The statistics in the following table are based on the assumption that: (a) the Global Offering has been completed and 1,040,000,000 H Shares have been newly issued; (b) the Over-allotment Option has not been exercised; and (c) the Convertible Bonds have not been converted.

	Based on an Offer Price of HK$15.84
Market capitalization of our H Shares ⁽¹⁾	HK$18,121.0 million
Unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾	HK$14.49

SUMMARY

Notes:

- (1) The calculation of market capitalization is based on 1,144,000,000 H Shares (including 1,040,000,000 H Shares to be issued in the Global Offering and 104,000,000 H Shares to be converted from A Shares and transferred to the NSSF, both of which assume that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) which are expected to be outstanding immediately following the completion of the Global Offering.
- (2) The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share is arrived at after the adjustments referred to in “Appendix II—Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information”.
- (3) The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company does not take into account a cash dividend of RMB2,973.8 million to its A shareholders approved by the Shareholders in the Shareholders’ general meeting held on March 13, 2017. We expect to pay the cash dividend on March 29, 2017. Had the cash dividend been taken into account, the unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share would be RMB12.62 or HK$14.11 per share (based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share).

CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

As of December 31, 2016, International Group controlled a total of approximately 36.29% of our issued share capital directly and indirectly through Shanghai SA, International Group Asset Management, International Group Asset Operation and Shanghai Sitico Assets Management. International Group is the state-owned capital operation platform under the Shanghai SASAC. With a view to maintaining an appropriate level of shareholding of International Group in the Company after the completion of the Global Offering pursuant to a governmental directive issued by the Shanghai SASAC, International Group (either by itself or through its subsidiaries) will subscribe for 152,000,000 H Shares through the Global Offering. See “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules” for details in relation to International Group’s proposed subscription of our H Shares. See “Relationship with Controlling Shareholder” for details of International Group.

We will enter into the Framework Agreement (as defined in “Connected Transactions”) with International Group. Transactions under this agreement will constitute our continuing connected transactions as defined under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with certain requirements under the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of transactions under the Framework Agreement. See “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules” and “Connected Transactions”.

DIVIDEND POLICY

The Company distributes dividends primarily in the form of cash, but also distributes dividends in the form of stocks or a combination of cash and stocks. The Articles of Association specifically provides for relevant ratios of cash dividends: (i) the Company will distribute cash dividends in an amount equal to at least 15% of the annual distributable profits in any fiscal year and (ii) if dividends in any distribution consists of both cash and stocks, the cash dividends shall comprise not less than 20% of such distribution. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company distributed cash dividends of RMB305.0 million, RMB762.5 million and RMB3,965.0 million, respectively. In order to balance the interests of existing Shareholders and future holders of H Shares, the accumulated undistributed profit before the Global Offering and Listing will be attributable to the new and existing Shareholders upon the completion of the Global Offering and Listing of H Shares in proportion to their shareholding. The Company's historical dividend distributions may not be indicative of future dividend payments. See "Financial Information—Dividend Policy".

RISK FACTORS

There are risks involved in our operations and in connection with the Global Offering, many of which are beyond our control. These risks can be categorized into (i) risks relating to macroeconomic environment and industry, (ii) risks relating to our business and operations, (iii) risks relating to legal, compliance and regulatory matters, and (iv) risks relating to the Global Offering. We believe our major risks include:

- General economic and market conditions could materially and adversely affect our business;
- The PRC securities industry is highly competitive;
- Changes which impact the competitive environment in the PRC securities industry may have a material and adverse effect on our business;
- The Company contributed capital to China Securities Finance in response to government measures for stabilizing the PRC stock market, which may increase our exposure to market and other risks.
- We are subject to extensive and evolving regulatory requirements; and
- We may be subject to litigation and regulatory investigations and proceedings, and may not always be successful in defending ourselves against such claims or proceedings.

For further information relating to these and other risks relating to an investment in our H Shares, see "Risk Factors".

CONTRIBUTIONS TO DESIGNATED ACCOUNTS AT CHINA SECURITIES FINANCE AND OUR UNDERTAKING NOT TO REDUCE OUR NET TRADING POSITION

In 2015, the A share market experienced significant fluctuations, especially from mid-June to the end of August. In July 2015 and September 2015, respectively, the Company agreed to contribute funds to designated accounts set up by China Securities Finance for buying PRC blue chip ETFs, together with 20 and 49 other PRC securities companies, respectively, to stabilize the stock market and restore investor confidence. The Company has contributed to China Securities Finance twice with an aggregate amount of RMB17,014.0 million, representing 20% of the net assets of the Company as of July 31, 2015. As of December 31, 2015 and 2016, the fair value of the Company's contribution to the designated account at China Securities Finance was RMB16,168.6 million and RMB15,964.2 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, we did not make provisions for impairment with respect to our contributions to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance. Meanwhile, the Company has undertaken not to reduce its A share proprietary trading position below its balance as of July 3, 2015 if the SSE Composite Index is below 4,500. As of July 3, 2015 and December 31, 2016, the net position of the Company's A share proprietary trading covered by this undertaking was RMB3,678.5 million and RMB4,977.2 million, respectively.

These stabilization measures expose us to additional market and other risks, primarily in the following aspects:

- there is no publicly available information regarding how the Company's contributions to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance have been invested and the timing for recovery of the Company's contributions. We may incur losses from these contributions due to future disposal or impairment and our financial position may fluctuate as a result of revaluation; and
- the Company may be unable to reduce its net long trading positions or effectively hedge its exposures through short selling to mitigate market risks in a highly volatile market.

For details regarding our contributions to designated accounts at China Securities Finance and our undertaking not to reduce our net trading position, see “Business—Our Principal Business Lines—Institutional Finance—Institutional Investor Services—Proprietary Trading” and “Financial Information—Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations—Stabilization Measures in the PRC Stock Market”. Our contributions to designated accounts at China Securities Finance and our undertaking not to reduce our net trading position exposes us to additional market and other risks, see “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to Macroeconomic Environment and Industry—The Company contributed capital to China Securities Finance in response to government measures for stabilizing the PRC stock market, which may increase our exposure to market and other risks.”

REGULATORY MATTERS

We are subject to regulatory requirements and guidelines issued by the regulatory authorities and self-regulatory industry organizations in the PRC, Hong Kong and other jurisdictions where we operate. In addition, the regulatory authorities and self-regulatory industry organizations carry out routine and ad hoc inspections, examinations and inquiries in respect of our compliance with the laws, regulations and guidelines applicable to our business. See “Business—Legal and Regulatory”. During the Track Record Period, we or our employees have, from time to time, been involved in incidents of regulatory non-compliance and received notices and warnings from, or been fined by, the relevant regulatory authorities, including a fine of HK$1.3 million, a three-month suspension of conducting new NEEQ market-making business and a three-month suspension on the opening of new credit accounts for margin financing and securities lending clients. Some of these non-compliance incidents may lead to the deduction of our regulatory points. The main consequence of regulatory points deduction is that it may possibly lead to a downgrade of our regulatory rating. However, the deduction of regulatory points during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date has not resulted in a downgrade of our regulatory rating and had no material and adverse impact on our business and results of operations. See “Business — Legal and Regulatory — Regulatory Non-compliance”.

SUMMARY

LISTING EXPENSES

Listing expenses represent underwriting commissions, professional fees and other fees incurred in connection with the Global Offering. We estimate that our listing expenses will be approximately RMB384.2 million (based on (i) an Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share and (ii) the Over-allotment Option is not exercised at all), of which approximately RMB347.7 million is directly attributable to the issuance of our H Shares to the public and will be capitalized, and approximately RMB36.5 million has been, or is expected to be expensed, in 2017. Our Directors do not expect such expenses to materially impact our results of operations in 2017.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus includes forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical facts contained in this prospectus, including, without limitation, those regarding our future financial position, our strategy, plans, objectives, goals, targets and future developments in the markets where we participate or are seeking to participate, and any statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “predict,” “aim,” “intend,” “will,” “may,” “plan,” “consider,” “anticipate,” “seek,” “strive,” “should,” “could,” “would,” “continue,” or similar expressions or the negative thereof, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, some of which are beyond our control, which may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding our present and future business strategies and the environment in which we will operate in the future. Important factors that could cause our actual performance or achievements to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include but not limited to the following:

- general political and economic conditions, including those related to the PRC;
- macro-economic measures adopted by the PRC government;
- changes in the global economic conditions and material volatility in the global financial markets;
- developments in the capital markets and future developments, trends and conditions in the industry and markets in which we operate or into which we intend to expand;
- changes or volatility in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices;
- any changes in the laws, rules and regulations of relevant jurisdictions and in the rules, regulations and policies of relevant governmental authorities;
- our business prospects and ability to successfully implement our business plans and strategies;
- our financial condition and performance;
- our dividend policy;
- various business opportunities that we may pursue; and
- the actions and developments of our competitors.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Additional factors that could cause actual performance or achievements to differ materially include, but are not limited to, those discussed under “Risk Factors” and elsewhere in this prospectus. We caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect our management’s view only as of the date of this prospectus. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this prospectus might not occur. All forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus are qualified by reference to the cautionary statements set out in this section.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider all of the information in this prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in our H Shares. These risks could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. The trading price of our H Shares could significantly decrease due to any of these and/or other risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment. You should pay particular attention to the fact that we are a company incorporated in the PRC and most of our operations are conducted in the PRC, which has a legal and regulatory environment that may differ significantly from that of other countries. For more information concerning the PRC and certain related matters discussed below, see “Appendix IV—Regulatory Environment”, “Appendix V—Summary of Certain Legal and Regulatory Matters” and “Appendix VI—Summary of Articles of Association”.

RISKS RELATING TO MACROECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT AND INDUSTRY

General economic and market conditions could materially and adversely affect our business.

Our business is affected by both long-term economic trends and short-term volatility caused by general economic conditions, including economic cycles, macroeconomic and monetary policies, inflation, interest rates levels, supply and costs of funding and currency fluctuations. The majority of our revenue is derived in China. As a result, any material and adverse changes in general economic conditions in China may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our results of operations are primarily affected by the volatility in the PRC securities markets. From mid-June to the end of August 2015, the PRC stock market experienced significant fluctuations. The CSI 300 Index decreased by 43.3%, from 5,335.1 as of June 12, 2015 to 3,025.7 as of August 26, 2015. In 2016, the CSI 300 Index decreased by 4.6% from 3,469.1 as of January 4, 2016 to 3,310.1 as of December 30, 2016. The average daily trading volume of stocks and funds in China decreased by 47.7% from RMB1,106.9 billion in 2015 to RMB578.8 billion in 2016. As a result, our total revenue and other income decreased by 30.9% from RMB52,108.8 million in 2015 to RMB36,022.5 million in 2016.

During the Track Record Period, we derived a considerable proportion of our total revenue and other income from debt financing, bond investments, futures brokerage and derivative investments. As a result, any material and adverse changes in debt markets, futures markets and derivative markets may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, in the ordinary course of our business, we hold financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets held under resale agreements and available-for-sale financial assets. As of December 31, 2016, we held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss in the amount of RMB76,723.2 million, financial assets held under resale agreements in the amount of RMB63,211.4 million and available-for-sale financial assets in the amount of RMB40,481.2 million, respectively. General economic and market conditions affect the value of these financial assets. Any material and adverse changes in the value of these financial assets may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Significant interest rate fluctuations could affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Interest rate fluctuations primarily affect our interest income, fixed-income investments and interest expenses. We earn interest income primarily from margin financing and securities lending, deposits in financial institutions and securities-backed financing. During periods of declining interest rates, our interest income would generally fall. In addition, we hold fixed-income investments. During periods of rising interest rates, market prices of, and our investment returns on, fixed-income securities would generally fall.

We also make interest payments on deposits we hold on behalf of our customers, short-term financing bills, corporate bonds and securities repurchase transactions, as well as subordinated bonds and other debt securities. These interest expenses are directly linked to the then prevailing market interest rates. During periods of rising interest rates, our interest expenses and financing costs would generally increase.

Significant interest rate fluctuations may reduce our interest income or returns on fixed-income investments, or increase our interest expenses, any of which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Fluctuations in the exchange rate of Renminbi against other currencies could have a material and adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

We generate most of our revenue in the PRC, and our functional currency is Renminbi. In addition, we are actively expanding our international business. A portion of our revenue, expenses and bank borrowings is denominated in Hong Kong dollars, U.S. dollars and other foreign currencies. As a result, fluctuations in exchange rates, particularly between the Renminbi on one hand, and Hong Kong dollar and U.S. dollar on the other hand, may affect the level of our profitability or result in foreign exchange losses on our foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities.

The exchange rates of Renminbi against U.S. dollar and other currencies are affected by the political and economic environment in the PRC, the PRC government's fiscal and currency policies and international political and economic conditions. From January 2, 2014 to December 30, 2016, the exchange rate of Renminbi against U.S. dollar decreased by 14.75%. On October 1, 2016, Renminbi was added to the Special Drawing Rights basket of currencies by the International Monetary Fund, which may promote the PRC government to adopt a more flexible currency policies and may result in further appreciation or depreciation of Renminbi against U.S. dollar.

The PRC securities industry is highly competitive.

Our competitors may have certain competitive advantages over us, including more sufficient financial resources, stronger brand recognition, lower service fee rate, broader product and service offerings, a branch network with wider geographic coverage, larger client base and more operation experience. We face pressure to maintain and expand our client base and market share. We cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to maintain or grow our client base. If we are unable to maintain high quality services, maintain or reduce our service fee rate, or continue to introduce new products and services that address the needs of our clients, we may lose our existing clients or fail to attract new clients. As a result, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Changes which impact the competitive environment in the PRC securities industry may have a material and adverse effect on our business.

If the PRC government gradually deregulates the PRC securities industry, it may attract new competitors to the securities industry or allow our current competitors to expand their business scope into new business lines. The deregulation of the PRC securities industry could also attract more foreign financial institutions to enter the PRC market to conduct investment banking and other related businesses. These institutions are currently subject to PRC regulatory limitations and restrictions on their business activities.

In March 2015, the CSRC stated that it was evaluating a proposal to open up the PRC securities industry to other financial institutions such as commercial banks, but did not provide a timetable on when the new policy would be implemented. We believe that allowing PRC commercial banks to enter the securities industry will intensify market competition in securities brokerage, equity underwriting and other businesses, as commercial banks generally have greater financial resources, wider branch networks and larger client bases compared with securities companies.

In recent years, internet financial services companies have entered the PRC financial industry with large client bases and advantages in providing innovative services through the internet. Their services may be considered by our clients or potential clients as a favorable alternative for managing their funds or fulfilling their needs for investments.

Any of the above changes in the competitive environment in the PRC securities industry may increase the level of competition. As a result, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

The Company contributed capital to China Securities Finance in response to government measures for stabilizing the PRC stock market, which may increase our exposure to market and other risks.

Due to the significant fluctuations in the A share market in 2015, the PRC government introduced measures to stabilize the market. As a result, the Company and 20 other major securities companies in the PRC issued a joint announcement on July 4, 2015, pursuant to which each securities company undertook that: (i) they would contribute an amount of no less than 15% of their net assets value as of June 30, 2015 to China Securities Finance for investment in the PRC blue chip ETFs; and (ii) they would not reduce the position of their A share proprietary trading portfolio to a level below the position as of July 3, 2015, if the SSE Composite Index is below 4,500. On September 1, 2015, the Company and 49 other securities companies decided to raise their total contribution to China Securities Finance to an amount of 20% of the respective net assets as of July 31, 2015. The Company's two contributions to China Securities Finance amounted to RMB17,014.0 million in the aggregate. These contributions are under the control of China Securities Finance through a designated account. The Company bears the risks and enjoy the gains in proportion to its contributions. Currently, the Company cannot control the way in which China Securities Finance uses its contributions and when the Company can redeem its contributions. The Company may incur losses due to the disposal or impairment of such contributions in the future, and our financial condition may fluctuate due to the revaluation of our contributions at the end of a period, both of which may materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Going forward, we may also incur additional losses from similar contributions that are required or decided to be made in response to government measures for stabilizing the PRC stock market during market fluctuations.

RISKS RELATING TO OUR BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Our investment banking business has a number of inherent risks which may reduce our underwriting and sponsorship fees, subject us to regulatory penalties and adversely affect our liquidity.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, the total revenue and other income of our investment banking business was RMB1,488.6 million, RMB3,002.1 million and RMB3,452.1 million, respectively, accounting for 6.1%, 5.8%, and 9.6% of our total revenue and other income, respectively. Our investment banking business may be materially and adversely affected by the following risks:

Uncertainty of regulatory approval. The offering of securities, especially IPOs, and certain types of M&A of listed companies, are subject to the review and approval by various regulatory authorities. The result and timing of these reviews and approvals are beyond our control, and may cause substantial delays to, or the termination of, the securities offerings underwritten by us or M&A advised upon by us. We cannot assure you that regulatory approvals for securities offerings or M&A will be granted in a timely manner or at all. For example, there was a short halt of approvals of A share IPOs by the CSRC in the second half of 2015, primarily due to market volatility. A significant decline in the approval rate of such transactions could reduce our revenue from investment banking business, as we normally receive most of our fees only after the completion of a transaction.

Risks in relation to sponsorship and underwriting and financial advisory. When acting as sponsors and underwriters in IPOs or financial advisors in M&A transactions we may be subject to domestic or overseas regulatory sanctions, fines, penalties, investor compensation or other disciplinary actions and other legal liabilities if our due diligence or our ongoing supervision is inadequate, or an issuer, its agents, other sponsors and underwriters or our employees commit fraud or misconduct, or there is a misstatement or omission in the disclosure documents, or there is another illegal or improper activity during the course of the sponsorship and underwriting or advisory process. See “Business—Legal and Regulatory—Regulatory Non-compliance”.

Market conditions and hard underwriting. Unfavorable market conditions and capital markets volatility may cause delays to, or the termination of, initial public offerings or other securities offerings underwritten by us and M&A advised upon by us, or may generally result in fewer financing and M&A activities, which may in turn materially and adversely affect revenue from our investment banking business. In addition, if we enter into hard underwriting arrangements with our clients, we may be required to purchase the entire unsubscribed portion for our own account, which may materially and adversely affect our liquidity, or cause us to incur significant financial losses.

The performance of our proprietary trading business is subject to a number of inherent uncertainties which may lead to a decrease in our investment returns or an investment loss.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, net investment gains from our proprietary trading business amounted to RMB5,893.4 million, RMB8,537.6 million and RMB4,083.5 million, respectively, representing 24.2%, 16.4% and 11.3% of our total revenue and other income, respectively. The business, financial position and results of operations of our proprietary trading may be materially and adversely affected by the following risks:

Market volatility. We conduct trading activities in equity and fixed-income securities and market-making activities for our own account, which are subject to volatility in the securities markets. The results of our trading activities generally correlate with the performance of the PRC securities markets. In particular, due to the fluctuations in the A share market in 2016, our revenue in such year from our proprietary trading activities decreased substantially compared to 2015.

Risks in relation to derivative financial instruments. The derivative financial instruments transactions we enter into include stock options, treasury futures and stock index futures. We generally use derivative financial instruments to hedge against the risk of price volatility in our investment portfolio or to adjust the risk exposure of our investment portfolio. However, currently, the types of financial investment products available in the PRC securities market remain limited which makes it difficult for us to fully hedge against fluctuations in the value of our investment portfolio, and the derivative financial instruments that we use may not be as effective as we expect. In addition, we are exposed to risks associated with derivatives contracts we enter into, which could result in losses. Since the derivative financial instruments markets in the PRC are developing, our experience in managing new products or trading derivative financial products may be inadequate and we may be subject to losses.

Regulatory limitations. Changes in securities-related regulations may lead to limitations on our trading activities. For example, since September 2015, the regulators have raised margin requirements for stock index futures and treated opening daily positions of more than ten contracts by an investor on a single stock index future as “abnormal trading”. The regulators have also increased the fees for settling positions. Since February 2017, the regulators have lowered the margin requirements and the fees for settling positions for stock index futures. These measures impact short-selling and block trading activities, which may affect our ability to hedge our proprietary trading positions.

Incorrect investment decisions and judgement. The performance of our proprietary trading is determined by our investment decisions and judgment based on our assessment of existing and future market conditions. If we make mistakes in our investment decisions, or the actual changes in market conditions differ from our projections, or the concentration risks resulting from our investment decisions, including risks from holding particular assets or asset classes, our proprietary trading activities may suffer and not achieve our anticipated investment returns.

RISK FACTORS

We may not be able to maintain our brokerage fee for and commission income and interest income from our retail brokerage business.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, total revenue and other income from our retail brokerage business was RMB8,700.2 million, RMB23,561.7 million and RMB10,717.3 million, respectively, representing 35.7%, 45.2% and 29.8% of our total revenue and other income, respectively. Our retail brokerage business' financial position and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected by the following risks:

Volatility in market trading volumes. Due to the highly volatile market conditions in China in 2016, the average daily trading volume of stocks and funds in the PRC decreased by 47.7% from RMB1,106.9 billion in 2015 to RMB578.8 billion in 2016. As a result, the trading volume of our stocks and funds brokerage in the PRC decreased by 51.0%, which resulted in a corresponding decrease in our fee and commission income from retail brokerage business in 2016 compared to 2015.

Decrease in brokerage trading commission rates. The downward trend of brokerage trading commission rates could materially and adversely affect our retail brokerage business. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, our average stocks brokerage net commission rate in China was 7.11bps, 5.74bps and 4.44bps, respectively. Some of our competitors have actively promoted their online brokerage services and continued to lower their retail brokerage commission rates in recent years. If more competitors expand their online brokerage businesses, retail brokerage commission rates in the industry will likely further decrease.

Increase in supply of securities brokerage services. The securities brokerage industry in China is highly competitive. During the Track Record Period, the number of securities branches in China increased significantly from 5,785 as of January 1, 2014 to 9,385 as of December 31, 2016. In addition, in April 2015, China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited revoked the long-standing "one investor one account" restriction for PRC investors and allowed an individual to open up to 20 securities accounts with different PRC securities companies. Although such policy was revised from 20 securities accounts to three securities accounts in October 2016, we cannot assure you that such limitation will not be lifted in the future. The changes in the number of permissible securities accounts held by investors may lead to a decrease in the number of clients who use our brokerage services and/or the volume of trades by such clients, which pose a significant challenge for us to retain existing clients and attract new clients.

A significant decrease in our AUM or management fee rate, or unsatisfactory investment performance, may materially and adversely affect our asset management business.

We receive asset management fees based on the size of each asset management scheme under our management. In addition, we may earn performance fees for certain asset management schemes. Investment performance affects our AUM, and is one of the most important factors in attracting our clients and competing for new asset management business. Limited investment options and hedging strategies as well as high market volatility in the PRC, could adversely affect our ability to provide stable returns for our clients, which in turn affect our ability to retain them.

RISK FACTORS

Our asset management fees or market share may decrease due to the increased competition from other securities companies, fund management companies, insurance companies, trust companies, commercial banks and other financial institutions in China. In addition, the recent introduction of Mainland-Hong Kong Mutual Recognition of Funds will allow approved fund products to be offered abroad, which in turn may increase competition. Market volatility, adverse economic conditions, or our failure to outperform our competitors or the market in terms of investments returns, may reduce our AUM or affect the performance of the assets or funds we manage, which could adversely affect the amount of management or performance fees we receive.

We may fail to realize returns from our principal investments, or lose part or all of our investments.

Our principal investment business generally involves investments in private companies and in private equity funds with our own funds. We and our private equity funds aim to earn returns from dividends paid by portfolio companies and the listing or the disposal of portfolio companies. We may fail to identify fraudulent, inaccurate or misleading information about a target company in the course of our due diligence, which may cause us to make unsound investment decisions or overvalue the target company. Material and adverse changes in the target company's industry, business and financial condition after the completion of the investment could negatively affect our investment return. Market volatility may also materially and adversely affect the equity investments made by our private equity funds.

Our portfolio companies may take longer than expected to become suitable for a listing or sale. Failure to list or sell our portfolio companies for any reason may adversely affect the value of our investment. If we cannot exit our private equity investments in the anticipated period or at acceptable prices, we will not be able to achieve our expected investment returns.

We and our private equity funds have limited control over our portfolio companies. Those companies may make business, financial or management decisions with which we do not agree, which may subject us to further risks. Furthermore, our portfolio companies may fail to abide by their agreements with us, for which we have limited or no recourse. Any of the foregoing incidents could significantly reduce the value of our investments and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We may suffer significant losses from credit exposures from our clients and counterparties.

Our margin financing and securities lending business, securities-backed financing business, derivatives and commodities brokerage business, proprietary trading business and derivative contracts are subject to the risk that a client or counterparty may fail to perform its payment or other obligations or that the value of any collateral held by us to secure the obligations might become inadequate. Any material non-payment or non-performance by a client or counterparty could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

RISK FACTORS

Our failure to identify and disclose the risks inherent in the financial products we distribute may have an adverse effect on our reputation, client relationships, business and prospects.

In addition to our own financial products, we also distribute financial products developed by third-party financial institutions, such as fund management companies, trust companies and commercial banks. These financial products, such as trust schemes and structured products, may have complex structures and involve various risks, including credit, interest, liquidity and other risks. Our risk management policies and procedures may not be fully effective in identifying the risks inherent in these financial products, and our sales employees may fail to fully disclose such risks to our customers. These factors may cause our clients to suffer significant losses as a result of their investment in financial products that are too risky for their risk tolerance and investment preferences. This may subject us to regulatory measures and fines, client complaints and litigations, which in turn could harm our reputation, client relationships, business and prospects.

The expansion of our international business may not produce the intended results.

We conduct brokerage, corporate finance, asset management, loans and financing as well as financial products, market making and investments in Hong Kong, primarily through Guotai Junan International. We have also built an international business platform around Guotai Junan Financial Holdings and have expanded our business presence to the United States and Singapore. According to our business strategies, we expect to further expand our international business, which may expose us to additional risks, including:

- difficulties in managing international operations, including complying with various regulatory and legal requirements of different jurisdictions, and obtaining approvals and necessary licenses;
- challenges in providing products, services and support, in recruiting in these overseas markets, and in managing the sales channels and overseas distribution networks effectively;
- differences in accounting treatment in different jurisdictions, potential adverse tax implications and foreign exchange losses;
- inability to effectively enforce contractual or legal rights; and
- changes in laws, regulations and policies as well as political, economic and market instability or civil unrest in the relevant jurisdictions.

If we are unable to effectively manage these risks, our ability to expand our international business will be impaired, which could have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

RISK FACTORS

We face additional risks as we expand our product and service offerings.

We are committed to expanding our product and service offerings. The new products and services may expose us to stricter regulatory scrutiny as well as additional license and approval requirements. Our clients or potential clients may not be receptive to our new product and service offerings. In addition, we may have insufficient resources to handle the additional challenges brought by the new products and services in relation to (i) experience or expertise, (ii) qualified personnel, (iii) funding and (iv) risk management capabilities.

If we are unable to achieve the intended results with respect to our offering of new products and services, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

Our business might be affected by the operational failure of our employees.

We face the risk of the operational failure of our employees, which mainly includes accidents or errors that take place in the course of the day-to-day operation of proprietary trading, securities-backed financing, retail brokerage, margin financing and securities lending, wealth management and asset management businesses. Although we have implemented internal control measures including strengthened transaction review and enhanced standard operation training to prevent against the risk of employee operational failure, we may not be able to completely avoid the occurrence of or timely detect any operational failure. Any future operational failure of employees or any termination of employment relationship in relation to operational failure could adversely affect our business and reputation, as well as our ability to execute transactions, service our clients and manage our exposure to various risks.

Our risk management policies as well as internal control systems and procedures may not fully protect us against our risk exposure.

We have established risk management policies as well as internal control systems and procedures to manage risk exposure. Such policies, systems and procedures may not cover all the risks that we are exposed to. In addition, any deficiency in our policies, systems and procedures may adversely affect our ability to accurately and timely record, process, summarize and report financial and other data or identify any non-compliance with laws and regulations.

Some aspects of such policies, systems and procedures may require continuous monitoring, maintenance and improvement by our senior management and staff. Despite our efforts to implement risk management policies and internal control systems, we may not be able to fully prevent or timely identify the occurrence of any non-compliance incident. Our businesses and prospects could be adversely affected if our efforts to apply, maintain and improve these policies, systems and procedures are ineffective or inadequate.

RISK FACTORS

Our business may be materially and adversely affected if we are unable to retain or hire management team members and professional personnel.

We need to ensure the continuity of our management team as well as attract and retain professional personnel who possess in-depth knowledge in and understanding of the securities and financial markets. If we lose any of our management team members or fail to attract and retain professional personnel, we may not be able to execute our existing business strategies effectively or deliver excellent services to our clients. These professional personnel include experienced investment and trading managers, sponsor representatives, risk management officers, research analysts and IT specialists. However, the market for quality professionals is increasingly competitive, which may require us to offer more competitive compensation and other benefits. If we fail to attract or retain our management team members or professional personnel, our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

We rely on IT systems to deliver our services to the clients and form business decisions.

Our operations rely heavily on our IT systems to timely record and accurately process a large number of transactions across numerous markets and different business segments. A disruption to, failure of, or error in our information processing or communications systems may limit our ability to timely and accurately process transactions. This would also impair our ability to execute trades on behalf of clients and for our own account, particularly in our retail brokerage and prime brokerage businesses, which could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

We make many important business decisions, including those relating to brokerage fee rates, branch locations, investment portfolios, marketing of investment or financing products and new product designs based on information collected and analyzed by our IT systems. Any error or flaw in our IT systems may cause our business decisions being made with inaccurate, incomplete or misleading information, which may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Negative net cash flows from operating activities may materially and adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition.

We had negative net cash flows from operating activities of RMB19,601.9 million and RMB15,742.7 million in 2015 and 2016, respectively. See “Financial Information — Cash Flows — Operating Activities”. We cannot assure you that we will be able to generate positive net cash flows from operating activities in the future. Our liquidity and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected by negative net cash flows, and we cannot assure you that we will have sufficient cash from other sources to fund our operations. If we resort to other financing activities to generate additional cash, we will incur additional financing costs and we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain the financing on terms acceptable to us, or at all.

RISK FACTORS

A significant decrease in our liquidity could adversely affect our business and reduce client confidence in us.

Maintaining adequate liquidity is crucial to our business operations as we continue to expand our margin financing and securities lending, securities-backed financing, proprietary trading, investment banking and other business activities with substantial cash requirements. We meet our liquidity needs primarily through cash generated from operating activities and debt financing. Reduced liquidity could affect our ability to develop our business, reduce the confidence of our clients or counterparties in us, and result in a loss of businesses and customer accounts.

In addition, the CSRC and the Securities Association of China impose regulatory requirements on PRC securities companies' liquidity-related ratios. See "Appendix IV—Regulatory Environment". Failure to comply with these requirements may result in the CSRC and the Securities Association of China imposing penalties on us, or taking disciplinary actions against us, which could, in turn, have a material and adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Factors that may adversely affect our liquidity position include a significant increase in capital requirements for our intermediary businesses, more stringent regulatory requirements for capital, substantial investments, loss of market or client confidence, and other regulatory changes. When cash generated from our operating activities is not sufficient to meet our liquidity or regulatory capital needs, we must seek external financing. When the conditions in the credit and capital markets are not favorable or there are changes in the regulatory environment, potential sources of external financing could be limited, and our borrowing costs could increase and financing may not be available on terms acceptable to us or at all.

If we pursue acquisitions or establish joint ventures that present unforeseen integration difficulties or costs, we may not enhance our business as we expect.

We have in the past pursued acquisitions or established joint ventures, aimed at developing our expertise in specific areas and expanding the scope and scale of our business. See "History and Corporate Structure — Major Restructurings, Acquisitions and Disposals" for our material acquisitions and see note 27 of "Appendix I— Accountants' Report" for a list of our joint ventures. Acquisitions or the establishment of joint ventures involve a number of risks and present financial, managerial and operational challenges. Such challenges include potential disruption to our ongoing business and distraction of management, difficulties with integrating IT, financial and human resources systems, hiring additional management and other critical personnel and increased complexity arising from the scope and geographic diversity of our business operations. We may not be able to realize any anticipated benefits or achieve the synergies we expect from these acquisitions or joint ventures. Our clients may react unfavorably to our strategies for acquisition or establishment of joint ventures, and we may incur additional liabilities due to acquisitions and the establishment of joint ventures.

RISK FACTORS

A failure to identify and address conflicts of interest appropriately could adversely affect our business.

As we continue to expand our business scope and client base, it is critical for us to be able to properly identify and address potential conflicts of interest, including situations where two or more interests within our business legitimately exist but are in competition or conflict. Appropriately identifying and dealing with potential conflicts of interest is difficult. Any failure to manage conflicts of interest could harm our reputation and erode client confidence in us. In addition, potential or perceived conflicts of interest may also give rise to litigation or regulatory measures. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We have not obtained title certificates to some of the properties we own and some of our lessors lack, or have not presented to us, appropriate title certificates for the properties we lease from them, which may materially and adversely affect our right to use such properties.

As of December 31, 2016, we owned 202 properties in the PRC with an aggregate gross floor area of 140,859.2 square meters, including 98 operating properties with a gross floor area of 123,401.5 square meters. We have not obtained proper building ownership certificates and/or land use rights certificates for 8 operating properties with a gross floor area of approximately 18,529.9 square meters, representing 13.2% of the aggregate gross floor area of properties we own. We have not obtained building ownership certificates for 55 non-operating properties with a gross floor area of approximately 10,959.3 square meters, representing 7.8% of the aggregate gross floor area of properties we own.

As of the same date, we leased 505 properties in the PRC with an aggregate gross floor area of 339,389.9 square meters. We use these leased properties primarily for our offices and securities branches. Among these 505 properties, our landlords have not provided us with the building ownership certificates or other ownership documents for 48 properties with a gross floor area of approximately 25,513.2 square meters, representing approximately 7.5% of the aggregate gross floor area of the properties we lease. In addition, the usage of a minority portion of properties we leased were not consistent with the usage of buildings as set out in the building ownership certificates of such properties with a gross floor area of approximately 5,870.4 square meters, representing approximately 1.7% of the aggregate gross floor area of the properties we lease. See “Business—Properties”.

We are requiring our landlords to provide and/or obtain proof of title or to obtain the title certificates for the 48 leased properties referred to above but the timing for obtaining such relevant certificates is beyond our control. If our landlords do not have or obtain the proper building ownership certificates and/or the land use rights certificates for such properties, our rights in relation to such properties might not be entirely protected.

Any claim or dispute related to the title of the properties owned or leased by us may result in the relocation of our operating premises and offices. We cannot guarantee that the legality of our use and occupation of the relevant land and buildings will not be challenged, or that we will be able to secure alternative properties for our business if we are required to relocate. If we or our landlords cannot obtain the relevant building ownership certificates and land use rights certificates in a timely manner and our legal right to use or occupy the relevant properties is challenged, we may have to find alternative properties, incur additional relocation costs, or our business operations may be disrupted, any of which may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our Controlling Shareholder is able to exercise significant influence over us and its interests may not align with those of our other Shareholders.

Immediately after completion of the Global Offering, International Group will hold approximately 32.94% of our Shares in issue, assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised. International Group will remain as our Controlling Shareholder, and it will have the ability to exercise significant influence over us, including but not limited to, matters relating to:

- the nomination and election of our Directors and Supervisors;
- business strategies;
- dividend and other distributions; and
- major corporate activities, including securities offerings, M&As or investments.

Although International Group has undertaken to us that it will not prejudice the interests of the Company or our other shareholders by taking advantage of its position as our Controlling Shareholder, it has substantial influence over us and its interests may not align with that of our other Shareholders.

The use of “Guotai Junan” as a trade name by Guotai Junan IM may expose us to reputational risks if it takes actions that damage the “Guotai Junan” brand name.

Guotai Junan IM was spun off from the Company in 2001. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had no equity interest in Guotai Junan IM, but International Group, our Controlling Shareholder, indirectly held 33.18% of equity interest in Guotai Junan IM. See “Relationship with Controlling Shareholder — Other companies of which International Group is a substantial shareholder with business similar to some business lines of the Group.”

“Guotai Junan” is one of our registered trademarks in China. It is approved to be used for securities and bonds brokerage, stock exchange quotations, futures brokerage, capital investment, fund investment, financial information, issuance of securities, financial services, financial analysis and financial evaluation. Although Guotai Junan IM also uses “Guotai Junan” as part of its registered company name, it does not own any trademark rights in respect of “Guotai Junan”.

The business scope of Guotai Junan IM includes asset management, enterprise investment and enterprise advisory, which significantly differs from our main businesses where we use the “Guotai Junan” trademark. However, given that Guotai Junan IM uses “Guotai Junan” in its company name for purpose of the same or similar services with our businesses, it may create confusion among the relevant public, and may infringe our exclusive trademark right. In addition, if Guotai Junan IM takes any action that damages the “Guotai Junan” brand name, or any material and adverse publicity is associated with Guotai Junan IM, our reputation, business, growth prospects, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Any future occurrence of major natural disasters or outbreaks of serious health epidemics and contagious diseases, wars or terrorist activities in the PRC may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Any future occurrence of major natural disasters or outbreaks of serious health epidemics and contagious diseases, wars or terrorist activities in the PRC may severely disrupt our business, and materially and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. An outbreak of a health epidemic or contagious disease could cause a widespread health crisis and harm business activities in affected areas, which could in turn severely disrupt our operations. The future occurrence of natural disasters or outbreaks of health epidemics and contagious diseases, or measures taken by the PRC government or other countries in response to such outbreaks of health epidemics and contagious diseases, wars or terrorist activities may also seriously interrupt our operations or those of our clients and counterparties, which could have a material and adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

RISKS RELATING TO LEGAL, COMPLIANCE AND REGULATORY MATTERS

We are subject to extensive and evolving regulatory requirements.

As a financial institution, we are subject to extensive regulatory requirements. Regulatory authorities regulate our business activities by imposing capital requirements, determining the types of products and services we may offer, and limiting the types of securities we may invest in. They also conduct periodic inspections, examinations and inquiries with respect to our compliance with relevant regulatory requirements. Failure to comply with the applicable regulatory requirements could result in sanctions, fines and penalties, and limitations on our business activities. Other disciplinary actions may include a downgrade of our regulatory rating, which may cause us to be subject to a higher risk capital reserve ratio, a higher ratio for our securities investor protection fund and difficulties in obtaining relevant permits or approvals for new businesses and products. For a discussion on certain non-compliance incidents, regulatory investigations, and warnings or penalties from the relevant regulatory authorities, which we or our employees were involved in during the Track Record Period, see “Business—Legal and Regulatory—Regulatory Non-compliance”.

Moreover, relevant rules and regulations could be revised from time to time based on the development of the securities markets. New rules and regulations, and changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing rules and regulations, may directly impact our business strategies and prospects. In addition, changes in the rules and regulations could result in limitations on our business scope, changes to our business practices or additional costs or taxes, which may adversely affect our ability to compete effectively with other institutions that are not affected in the same way.

RISK FACTORS

We may be subject to litigation and regulatory investigations and proceedings, and may not always be successful in defending ourselves against such claims or proceedings.

We face substantial litigation and regulatory risks, including the risk of lawsuits and other legal actions relating to sales or underwriting practices, trademarks, product design, fraud and misconduct, as well as protection of personal and confidential information of our customers. In particular, we are involved in a series of litigations over the Cheng Shifeng wealth management contracts litigations, with an aggregate claim amount (including principal and interest) of approximately RMB124.7 million. As of December 31, 2016, we made a provision of RMB30.0 million based on our assessment of the lawsuits. Please refer to “Business—Legal Proceedings—Cheng Shifeng Wealth Management Contracts Litigations” for details. We may also be subject to inquiries, inspections, investigations, and proceedings by regulatory and other governmental agencies. We or our employees have, from time to time, been involved in incidents of regulatory non-compliance and received notices, warnings and regulatory measures suspending certain business for a limited period of time, or been fined by, the relevant regulatory authorities. Some of these non-compliance incidents may lead to the deduction of our regulatory points. See “Business—Legal and Regulatory”.

Litigation, arbitration, regulatory investigations and other proceedings brought against us, our Directors, management or employees may result in settlements, injunctions, fines, penalties or other results adverse to us, including damage to our reputation and disruption to our business. Any of these results may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Even if we are successful in defending ourselves against these actions, the costs of such defense may be significant.

We may not be able to prevent or detect fraud or other misconduct committed by our employees, agents, customers or other third parties.

We are exposed to fraud or other misconduct committed by our employees, agents, customers or other third parties that could subject us to financial losses and regulatory sanctions, and adversely affect our reputation.

Our internal control procedures are designed to monitor our operations and ensure their overall compliance. However, our internal control procedures may be unable to identify all non-compliance incidents or suspicious transactions in a timely manner or at all. See “Business—Legal and Regulatory—Regulatory Non-compliance”. In addition, it is not always possible to timely detect and prevent fraud and other misconduct, and the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activities may not be effective. Our failure to prevent or detect fraud and other misconduct may have a material and adverse effect on our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

We may fail to detect money laundering and other illegal or improper activities in our business operations on a timely basis.

We are required to comply with applicable anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism laws and regulations in the jurisdictions where we operate. These laws and regulations require us to establish sound internal control policies and procedures with respect to anti-money laundering monitoring and reporting obligations. We are also required to perform “Know Your Client” procedures and to monitor transactions for suspicious activity. Although we have adopted relevant policies and procedures, they may not be comprehensive and completely eliminate instances in which we may be used by other parties to engage in money laundering, sanctioned activities and other illegal or improper activities. In the past, certain on-site inspections conducted by the regulators have revealed that we had insufficient internal monitoring in certain aspects of the anti-money laundering internal control system and inadequate anti-money laundering training at certain branches. See “Business—Legal and Regulatory—Regulatory Inspections”. In the event that we fail to fully comply with applicable laws and regulations, the relevant government agencies may freeze our assets or impose fines or other penalties on us. There can be no assurance that there will not be failures in detecting money laundering or other illegal or improper activities which may materially and adversely affect our business reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

Investors may experience difficulties in effecting service of process and enforcing judgments against us and our Directors, Supervisors and management.

We are a company incorporated under the laws of the PRC, and a substantial majority of our assets and subsidiaries are located in the PRC. In addition, most of our Directors, Supervisors and management reside within the PRC, and the assets of most of our Directors, Supervisors and management are likely to be located within the PRC. As a result, it may not be possible to effect service of process within the United States or elsewhere outside the PRC upon our Directors, Supervisors and management, including with respect to matters arising under U.S. federal securities laws or applicable state securities laws. Moreover, the PRC does not have treaties providing for the reciprocal enforcement of court judgments with the United States, the United Kingdom, Japan or most other western countries. In addition, Hong Kong has no arrangement for the reciprocal enforcement of court judgments with the United States. As a result, recognition and enforcement in the PRC or Hong Kong of judgments of a court in the United States, the United Kingdom, Japan or most other western countries in relation to any matter that is not subject to a binding arbitration provision may be difficult or impossible.

You may be subject to PRC taxation on dividends received from us or on gains from the sale or other disposition of H Shares.

Non-PRC resident individual holders of H Shares whose names appear on the register of members of H Shares (“non-PRC resident individual holders”) are subject to PRC individual income tax on dividends received from us. Pursuant to the Circular of the SAT on Questions Concerning the Collection of Individual Income Tax Following the Repeal of Guo Shui Fa [1993] No. 045 (Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348) issued by the SAT on June 28, 2011, dividends paid to non-PRC resident individual holders of H Shares are generally subject to individual income tax of the PRC at the withholding tax rate of 10%, dependent on whether there is any applicable tax treaty between the PRC and the jurisdiction in which the non-PRC resident individual holder of H Shares resides as well as the tax arrangement between the PRC and Hong Kong. Non-PRC resident individual holders who reside in jurisdictions that have not entered into tax treaties with the PRC are subject to a 20.0% withholding tax on dividends received from us. For additional information, see “Appendix III—Taxation and Foreign Exchange—PRC Taxation”.

RISK FACTORS

In addition, under the Individual Income Tax Law of the PRC and its implementation regulations, individuals are subject to individual income tax at the rate of 20% on gains from sales of equity interests in PRC resident enterprises. However, pursuant to the Circular Declaring that Individual Income Tax Continues to be Exempted over Income of Individuals from Transfer of Shares issued by the MOF and the SAT on March 30, 1998, gains of individuals derived from the transfer of listed shares in enterprises may be exempt from individual income tax. To our knowledge, as of the Latest Practicable Date, in practice the PRC tax authorities do not collect income tax on the sale or disposal of shares listed on overseas stock exchanges in PRC resident enterprises by non-PRC resident individuals. If such tax is collected in the future, the value of such individual shareholders' investments in H Shares may be materially and adversely affected.

Under the EIT Law and its implementation regulations, a non-PRC resident enterprise is generally subject to enterprise income tax at the rate of 10% with respect to PRC-sourced income, including gains derived from the disposal of shares in a PRC resident enterprise, if such non-PRC resident enterprise does not have an establishment or premises in the PRC or has an establishment or premises in the PRC but the PRC-sourced income is not actually connected with such establishment or premises in the PRC, subject to reductions under any special arrangement or applicable treaty between the PRC and the jurisdiction in which the non-PRC resident enterprise resides. Pursuant to the Circular on Issues Relating to the Withholding of Enterprise Income Tax by PRC Resident Enterprises on Dividends Paid to Overseas Non-PRC Resident Enterprise Shareholders of H Shares (Guo Shui Han [2008] No. 897), promulgated by the SAT on November 6, 2008, we intend to withhold tax at 10.0% from dividends payable to non-PRC resident enterprise holders of H Shares (including HKSCC Nominees). Non-PRC resident enterprises that are entitled to be taxed at a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty or arrangement will be required to apply to the PRC tax authorities for a refund of any amount withheld in excess of the applicable treaty rate, and payment of such refund will be subject to the PRC tax authorities' approval. See "Appendix III—Taxation and Foreign Exchange—PRC Taxation". There are uncertainties as to the interpretation and implementation of the EIT Law and its implementation regulations by the PRC tax authorities, including whether and how enterprise income tax on gains derived upon the sale or disposal of H Shares will be collected from non-PRC resident enterprise holders of H Shares. If such tax is collected in the future, the value of such non-PRC resident enterprise holders' investments in H Shares may be materially and adversely affected.

Government control of currency conversion, currency flow and exchange settlement may adversely affect the value of your investments or the market price of the H Shares, or create substantial volatility in the market price of the H Shares.

Most of our revenue is denominated in Renminbi, which is also our reporting currency. Currently, Renminbi is not a totally freely convertible currency. Under the current PRC foreign exchange control system, we can pay dividends in foreign currency without prior approval by the SAFE.

However, the PRC government may restrict future access to foreign currencies for current account transactions at its discretion. If this were to occur, we might not be able to pay dividends to the holders of the Offer Shares in foreign currencies. In addition, some foreign exchange transactions under capital accounts in the PRC are still subject to the approval of the SAFE. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain the relevant approvals in a timely manner, or at all. These foreign exchange policies may restrict our ability to obtain sufficient foreign exchange, which could have an effect on our foreign exchange transactions and the fulfillment of our other foreign exchange requirements.

Recent media reports state that the SAFE permits PRC cornerstone investors to participate within certain quota in the Hong Kong IPOs of PRC companies after obtaining necessary approvals, and requires such PRC cornerstone investors to commit to timely remitting and settling the funds after reducing their shareholdings in Hong Kong listed companies. Although the SAFE has not promulgated any regulation or policy regarding the subject matter of these media reports, PRC regulatory authorities may enhance foreign exchange controls on outbound investment and cross border fund flows in the future. As the Company expects that some investors subscribing shares in the Global Offering may be based in the PRC and may utilize investment funds originating from the PRC, these investors may be subject to such enhanced controls. These controls may impact such investors' relevant consideration and intent with respect to the holding and disposal of our H Shares, and may cause them to react to such controls. These reactions may cause volatility in the trading of, and market price of, our H Shares. We cannot assure you to what extent the new policy or requirement will be implemented and the timing of such implementation and whether there would be more limitations or controls in the future, and if imposed, when such limitations or controls will be lifted.

Our equity financing options may be limited due to CSRC requirements on foreign shareholdings in a listed PRC securities company.

According to Article 25 of Rules for Establishment of Foreign-invested Securities Companies prescribed by the CSRC, the aggregate of direct holdings and/or indirect control in the equity interests of a listed PRC-incorporated securities company by all foreign investors shall not exceed 25% of its total share capital. Taking into account (a) the size of the Global Offering (including the exercise of the Over-allotment Option) and (b) the Trading Link of our A Shares through the Northbound Trading Link of the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, the QFII schemes or other channels, our ability to further issue H Shares, other foreign equity or equity-linked securities may be restricted by the 25% foreign ownership limit unless (i) the relevant regulatory requirements are lifted or we are able to obtain a waiver from the regulatory authorities from strict compliance with the foreign ownership limit and/or (ii) we issue additional A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Our substantial amounts of deferred tax assets and financial assets are subject to the uncertainties of accounting estimates.

In the application of our accounting policies, our management is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of certain assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Therefore, actual results may differ from these accounting estimates. See note 4 of “Appendix I—Accountants’ Report”. We believe that the substantial amounts of our deferred tax assets and financial assets are subject to the uncertainties of accounting estimates and therefore warrant particular attention.

RISK FACTORS

Our deferred tax assets was RMB127.3 million, RMB218.1 million and RMB762.4 million as of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, respectively. Based on our accounting policies, deferred tax assets are recognized where there are timing differences between the carrying amount of assets for financial reporting purpose and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The realization of a deferred tax asset mainly depends on our management's judgment as to whether sufficient profits or taxable temporary differences will be available in the future. Management's assessment is constantly reviewed and additional deferred tax assets are recognized if it becomes probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax assets to be recovered. If sufficient profits or taxable temporary differences are not expected to be generated, our deferred tax assets would be impaired.

For financial reporting purposes, we categorize fair value measurements of financial assets and liabilities into level 1, level 2 or level 3, based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurement are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, we had RMB35.4 billion, RMB71.0 billion and RMB87.0 billion of level 2 financial assets, respectively. Compared to level 1 financial assets, level 2 financial assets are not quoted in an active market, and we use valuation techniques to estimate the fair value of these assets. When estimating fair value using these valuation techniques, we consider observable inputs and market data, such as the yield curve of interest rate products and foreign exchange rates, among other things. Changes in these factors will affect the estimated fair value of our level 2 financial assets and therefore these assets will face uncertainty in accounting estimation. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, we had RMB1.0 billion RMB2.4 billion and RMB3.1 billion of level 3 financial assets, respectively, the scale of which is much smaller than level 2 financial assets.

The application of IFRS 9 and its amendments in the future will affect the classification and measurement of our financial assets.

The International Accounting Standards Board, or IASB, which is responsible for developing and revising international accounting standards, issued IFRS 9 and its amendments in November 2009, October 2010 and July 2014, which will take effect on January 1, 2018 and replace IAS 39, and give rise to substantial changes in the classification and measurement of financial assets. The application of IFRS 9 will affect the classification and measurement of our financial assets in various aspects, including the classification and measurement of recognized financial assets, impairment of financial assets based on an expected credit loss model, and greater flexibility regarding the types of transactions eligible for hedge accounting. The major differences between IFRS 9 and IAS 39 are: firstly, in respect of the classification and measurement of financial assets, the classification of financial assets under IFRS 9 will require us to consider the business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets in determining the classification and subsequent measurement of debt instruments; secondly, in respect of impairment, we will be required to apply a new expected credit loss model for debt instruments recorded at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income, lease receivables as well as loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts that are not accounted for at fair value through profit or loss, which uses more forward-looking information and does not use the existence of an objective evidence of impairment as a precondition for recognizing impairment losses. Our Directors anticipate that it is not practicable to reasonably estimate or quantify the effect on our results of operations and financial position until we make a detailed assessment as the new standard requires changes to systems and processes to collect necessary data. Any change to our current practice in the future in accordance with IFRS 9 and its amendments, and any other future amendments to IAS 39 or similar standards, including any authoritative interpretive guidance on the application of such new or revised standards, may materially affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Investments in PRC securities companies are subject to ownership restrictions that may adversely affect the value of your investment.

Investments in PRC securities companies are subject to ownership restrictions. Prior approval from the CSRC is required for any person or entity to hold, directly or indirectly, 5.0% or more of the registered capital or total issued shares of a PRC securities company. If a shareholder of a PRC securities company holds or actually controls 5.0% or more of the shares without obtaining prior approval from the CSRC, the corresponding shares do not have voting rights, and the shareholder could be subject to CSRC sanctions, such as the correction of such misconduct, fines and confiscation of any related gains. In addition, our Articles of Association prohibit any entity or individual from directly or indirectly holding more than 5.0% equity interest in the Company without the approval of the CSRC. If any violation is not rectified in a timely manner, Shareholders holding the corresponding shares shall not exercise any voting rights during the period of violation. Current ownership restrictions and future changes in ownership restrictions as imposed by the PRC government and our Articles of Association may materially and adversely affect the value of your investment.

RISKS RELATING TO THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Our A Shares were listed in China in 2015, and the characteristics of the A share and H share markets may differ.

Our A Shares were listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange in June 2015. Following the Global Offering, our A Shares will continue to be traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and our H Shares will be traded on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Under current PRC laws and regulations, without approval from the relevant regulatory authorities, our H Shares and A Shares are neither interchangeable nor fungible, and there is no trading or settlement between the H share and A share markets. With different trading characteristics, the H share and A share markets have divergent trading volumes, liquidity and investor bases, as well as different levels of retail and institutional investor participation. As a result, the trading performance of our H Shares and A Shares may not be comparable. Nonetheless, fluctuations in the price of our A Shares may adversely affect the price of our H Shares, and vice versa. Due to the different characteristics of the H share and A share markets, the historical prices of our A Shares may not be indicative of the performance of our H Shares. You should therefore not place undue reliance on the previous trading history of our A Shares when evaluating an investment in our H Shares.

An active trading market for our H Shares may not develop.

Prior to the Global Offering, there was no public market for our H Shares. We cannot assure you that a public market for our H Shares with adequate liquidity will develop and be sustained following the completion of Global Offering. In addition, the Offer Price of our H Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our H Shares following the completion of the Global Offering. If an active public market for our H Shares does not develop following the completion of the Global Offering, the market price and liquidity of our H Shares could be materially and adversely affected.

The market price and trading volume of our H Shares may be volatile, which could result in substantial losses for investors who purchase our H Shares in the Global Offering.

The market price and trading volume of our H Shares may be highly volatile. Several factors, some of which are beyond our control, such as variations in our revenue, earnings and cash flow, changes in our pricing policy for products or services as a result of competition, the emergence of new technologies, strategic alliances or acquisitions, the addition or departure of key personnel, changes in ratings by financial analysts and credit rating agencies, litigation, the removal of the restrictions on H share transactions or volatility in market prices and changes in the demand for our products, could cause large and sudden changes to the market price and trading volume at which our H Shares will trade. Further, derivative transactions that may be entered into by investors in our H Shares (including cornerstone investors during their lock-up period to the extent that such transactions are not in violation of the lock-up restrictions) for hedging purposes, even if these transactions are settled only in cash, could still result in significant price and trading volume volatility of our H Shares. In addition, the stabilization activities to be carried out by the Stabilizing Manager may be curtailed by certain limitations in the over-allocations in the International Offering, which may affect the market price and trading volume of our H Shares as well. See “Structure of the Global Offering — Stabilization”. Besides, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and other securities markets have, from time to time, experienced significant price and trading volume volatility that are not related to the operating performance of any particular company. This volatility may also materially and adversely affect the market price of our H Shares.

Since there will be a gap of several days between the closing of application lists and the trading of the Offer Shares, holders of the Offer Shares are subject to the risk that the price of the Offer Shares could fall during the period before the trading of the Offer Shares begins.

The Offer Price of the H Shares is HK$15.84. However, our H Shares will not commence trading on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange until they are delivered, which is expected to be five Hong Kong business days after the closing of application lists. As a result, investors may not be able to sell or deal in our H Shares during that period. Accordingly, holders of our H Shares are subject to the risk that the price of our H Shares could fall before trading begins as a result of unfavorable market conditions, or other adverse effects, that could occur between the time of the closing of application lists and the time trading begins.

A future significant increase or perceived significant increase in the supply of our H Shares in public markets could cause the market price of our H Shares to decrease significantly, and/or dilute shareholdings of holders of H Shares.

The market price of our H Shares could decline as a result of future sales of a substantial number of our H Shares or other securities relating to our H Shares in the public market, or the issuance of new shares or other securities, or the perception that such sales or issuances may occur. Future sales, or anticipated sales, of substantial amounts of our securities, including any future offerings, could also materially and adversely affect our ability to raise capital at a specific time and on terms favorable to us. In addition, our Shareholders may experience dilution in their holdings if we issue more securities in the future. New shares or shares-linked securities issued by us may also confer rights and privileges that take priority over those conferred by the H Shares.

RISK FACTORS

Our A Shares can be converted into H Shares if the conversion and trading of the H Shares is duly completed pursuant to the requisite approval process and the approval from the relevant PRC regulatory authorities, including the CSRC, is obtained. In addition, such conversion and trading must, in all aspects, comply with the regulations promulgated by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council and the regulations, requirements and procedures of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. If a significant number of A Shares are converted into H Shares, the supply of H Shares may be substantially increased, which could have a material and adverse effect on the prevailing market price for our H Shares.

In addition, while investors subscribing shares in the Global Offering are not subject to any restrictions on the disposal of the H Shares they subscribed (except as disclosed in this prospectus), they may have existing arrangements or agreement to dispose part or all of the H Shares they hold immediately or within certain period upon completion of the Global Offering for legal and regulatory, business and market, or other reasons. Such disposal may occur within a short period or any time or period after the Listing Date.

Any sale of the H Shares subscribed by such investors pursuant to such arrangement or agreement could adversely affect the market price of our H Shares and any sizeable sale could have a material and adverse effect on the market price of our H Shares and could cause substantial volatility in the trading volume of our H Shares.

As the Offer Price of our H Shares is higher than our consolidated net tangible assets book value per share, purchasers of our H Shares in the Global Offering may experience immediate dilution upon such purchases.

As the Offer Price of our H Shares is higher than the consolidated net tangible assets per share immediately prior to the Global Offering, purchasers of our H Shares in the Global Offering will experience an immediate dilution in pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets of HK$14.49 per H Share (based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per H Share and assuming the Over-allotment Option for the Global Offering is not exercised). Our existing Shareholders will receive an increase in the pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible asset value per share of their shares. In addition, holders of our H Shares may experience further dilution of their interest if the Underwriters exercise the Over-allotment Option or if we issue additional shares in the future to raise additional capital.

Dividends distributed in the past may not be indicative of our dividend policy in the future.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, we distributed dividends of RMB305.0 million, RMB762.5 million and RMB3,965.0 million, respectively. Under our Articles of Association, dividends may be paid only out of distributable profits. Distributable profits means, as determined under CAS or IFRSs, whichever is lower, our net profits for a period, plus the distributable profits or net of the accumulated losses, if any, at the beginning of such period, less statutory reserve fund (determined under CAS), appropriations to general risk reserve, transaction risk reserve, and discretionary surplus reserve (as approved by our shareholders' meeting). As a result, we may not have sufficient profit to enable us to make future dividend distributions to our shareholders, even if our financial statements prepared in accordance with CAS or IFRSs indicate that our operations have been profitable.

RISK FACTORS

Furthermore, future dividend policies will also depend on various factors, including but not limited to our results of operations, cash flows and financial conditions, capital adequacy ratio, operation and capital expenditure requirement and other factors that our Board consider relevant. We cannot assure you that our dividend policies will not be changed in the future.

Waivers were granted from compliance with certain requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Shareholders will not have the benefit of the Hong Kong Listing Rules that are so waived. These waivers could be revoked, exposing us and our Shareholders to additional legal and compliance obligations.

We have applied for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted to us, a number of waivers and consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules. See “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules” for further details. We cannot assure you that the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will not revoke any of these waivers granted or impose certain conditions on any of these waivers. If any of these waivers were to be revoked or to be subject to certain conditions, we may be subject to additional compliance obligations, incur additional compliance costs, and face uncertainties arising from issues of multi-jurisdictional compliance, all of which could materially and adversely affect us and our Shareholders.

Withholding tax may be imposed on payments on the H Shares.

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, commonly known as FATCA, a foreign financial institution (an “FFI”) may be required to withhold on “foreign passthru payments” it makes after the later of January 1, 2019 or the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining the term “foreign passthru payments” are published in the U.S. Federal Register to (i) other FFIs that are not exempt from or in actual or deemed compliance with FATCA or (ii) account holders of such FFIs that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. A number of jurisdictions have entered into, or have agreed in substance to enter into, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement under the domestic laws of such jurisdiction an alternative information reporting and exchange regime applicable to FFIs (or FFI branches) operating in such jurisdiction (“IGAs”). Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, an FFI (or branch) operating in an IGA jurisdiction is generally not required to withhold from payments that it makes if the FFI complies with the reporting requirements of the IGA.

The United States and Hong Kong have entered into an IGA, and the United States and the PRC have agreed in substance to enter into an IGA that the United States treats as in force pending finalization of a formal IGA. We and each of our subsidiaries intend to comply with FATCA and any applicable IGA, including the information reporting requirements related to our accountholders and investors. If the United States and the PRC ultimately fail to reach a final agreement on the terms of an IGA, then the FATCA reporting and withholding regime applicable to FFIs in non-IGA jurisdictions would apply to us and any of our subsidiaries that are FFIs. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to financial instruments such as the H Shares, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on financial instruments such as the H Shares, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on financial instruments such as the H Shares, such withholding would not apply prior to the time specified in the paragraph above. You should consult your own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to your investment in the H Shares. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on financial instruments such as the H Shares, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding. Certain facts and statistics derived from government and third-party sources contained in this prospectus may not be reliable.

We have derived certain facts and other statistics in this prospectus, particularly those relating to the PRC, the PRC economy and the PRC securities industry, from information provided by the PRC and other government agencies, industry associations, independent research institutes and other third-party sources. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, it has not been prepared or independently verified by us, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Global Coordinators, the underwriters or any of our or their respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we cannot assure you as to the accuracy and reliability of such facts and statistics, which may not be consistent with other information compiled inside or outside the PRC. The facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the sections headed “Risk Factors,” “Industry Overview” and “Business.” Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable with statistics produced for other economies, and you should not place undue reliance on them. Furthermore, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis, or with the same degree of accuracy, as similar statistics presented elsewhere. In all cases, you should consider carefully how much weight or importance you should attach to or place on such facts or statistics.

You should not place any reliance on any information released by us in connection with the listing of our A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

As our A Shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, we have been subject to periodic reporting and other information disclosure requirements in the PRC. As a result, from time to time we publicly release information relating to ourselves on the Shanghai Stock Exchange or other media outlets designated by the CSRC. However, the information announced by us in connection with our A Shares is based on the regulatory requirements of the securities authorities and market practices in the PRC which are different from those applicable to the Global Offering. Such information does not and will not form a part of this prospectus. As a result, prospective investors in our H Shares are reminded that, in making their investment decisions as to whether to purchase our H Shares, they should rely only on the financial, operating and other information included in this prospectus and the Application Forms. By applying to purchase our H Shares in the Global Offering, you will be deemed to have agreed that you will not rely on any information other than that contained in this prospectus, the Application Forms and any formal announcements made by us in Hong Kong with respect to the Global Offering.

RISK FACTORS

You should read the entire prospectus carefully, and we strongly caution you not to place any reliance on any information contained in press articles or other media regarding ourselves and the Global Offering.

Prior to the publication of this prospectus, there had been press and media coverage regarding us and the Global Offering, which contained, among other things, certain financial information, projections, valuations and other forward-looking information about us and the Global Offering. We have not authorized the disclosure of any such information in the press or media and do not accept responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such press articles or other media coverage. We make no representation as to the appropriateness, accuracy, completeness or reliability of any of the projections, valuations or other forward-looking information about us. To the extent such statements are inconsistent with, or conflict with, the information contained in this prospectus, we disclaim responsibility for them. Accordingly, prospective investors are cautioned to make their investment decisions on the basis of the information contained in this prospectus only, and should not rely on any other information.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

In preparation for the Global Offering, we have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the following waivers from strict compliance with the relevant provisions of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

MANAGEMENT PRESENCE IN HONG KONG

According to Rule 8.12 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, all applicants applying for a primary listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange must have sufficient management presence in Hong Kong. This would normally mean that at least two of the applicant's executive directors must be ordinarily resident in Hong Kong.

The Company's business operations are primarily located in the PRC and the vast majority of the Company's assets are located in the PRC. The Company's executive Directors are based in the PRC as the Board believes it is more effective and efficient for its executive Directors to be based in a location where our substantial operations are located. The Company therefore does not, and in the foreseeable future will not, maintain management presence in Hong Kong.

Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 19A.15 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, we have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rule 8.12 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, provided that the Company implements the following arrangements:

- (i) We have appointed Mr. Yang Dehong and Mr. Yu Jian as the authorized representatives for the purpose of Rule 3.05 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. They will serve as the principal channel of communication with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and make themselves readily available to communicate with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. They can be readily contactable by phone, fax and email to deal promptly with enquiries from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and will also be available to meet with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange to discuss any matters on short notice. The contact details of our authorized representatives have been provided to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.
- (ii) All Directors who are not ordinarily resident in Hong Kong possess or can apply for valid travel documents to visit Hong Kong and can meet with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange within a reasonable period. In addition, each Director has provided his/her contact details, including mobile phone numbers, office phone numbers, email addresses and fax numbers, to the authorized representatives and to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. In the event that a Director expects to be travelling or otherwise be out of office, he/she will provide the phone number of the place of his/her accommodation or other contact information to the authorized representatives, to ensure that each of the authorized representatives will be able to contact all the Directors promptly at all times if and when the Hong Kong Stock Exchange wishes to contact the Directors.
- (iii) We have appointed Guotai Junan Capital Limited and Huarong International Capital Limited as our joint compliance advisors in accordance with Rule 3A.19 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, which will serve as additional and alternative channels of communication with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in addition to our authorized representatives. The joint compliance advisors will have reasonable access, at all times during the term of their appointment, to our authorized representatives, Directors and other officers of the Company, participate in the communication between the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Company and answer inquiries from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

JOINT COMPANY SECRETARIES

Pursuant to Rules 3.28 and 8.17 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, we must appoint a company secretary who possesses the necessary academic or professional qualifications or relevant experience, and is therefore capable to discharge the functions of the company secretary. Note 1 to Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules provides that the Hong Kong Stock Exchange considers the following academic or professional qualifications to be acceptable:

- (i) a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries;
- (ii) a solicitor or a barrister as defined in the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Chapter 159 of the Laws of Hong Kong); and
- (iii) a certified public accountant as defined in the Professional Accountants Ordinance (Chapter 50 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

Note 2 to Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules further sets out the factors that the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will consider in assessing an individual's "relevant experience":

- (i) length of employment with the issuer and other issuers and the roles he/she has undertaken;
- (ii) familiarity with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other relevant laws and regulations including the SFO, the Companies Ordinance, the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance and the Takeovers Code;
- (iii) relevant training taken and/or to be taken in addition to the minimum requirement under Rule 3.29 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules; and
- (iv) professional qualifications in other jurisdictions.

The Company has appointed Mr. Yu Jian as one of the joint company secretaries. He has extensive experience in corporate governance matters, corporate secretarial affairs and is the secretary to the Board. However, Mr. Yu does not possess the qualifications under Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and may not be able to fulfill the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules on his own. Therefore, we have appointed Ms. Kwong Yin Ping Yvonne, a fellow member of the Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries, who is qualified under Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules to act as the other joint company secretary and to work closely with and provide assistance to Mr. Yu. The term of the appointment of Mr. Yu and Ms. Kwong as the joint company secretaries is three years commencing from the Listing Date.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

The following arrangements have been, or will be, put in place to assist Mr. Yu Jian in acquiring the qualifications and experience as the company secretary of the Company required under Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules:

- (i) In the course of the preparation of the application for the Listing, Mr. Yu has been provided with a memorandum and has attended a training seminar on the respective obligations of the Directors and senior management and the Company under the relevant Hong Kong laws and the Hong Kong Listing Rules provided by the Company's Hong Kong legal advisor.
- (ii) In addition to the minimum training requirements under Rule 3.29 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Company will ensure that Mr. Yu continues to have access to relevant training and support to familiarize himself with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the duties of a company secretary of an issuer listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and to receive updates on the latest changes to the applicable Hong Kong laws, regulations and the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Furthermore, the Company will ensure that both Mr. Yu and Ms. Kwong will seek and have access to the advice from the Company's Hong Kong legal advisor and other professional advisors as and when required.
- (iii) Ms. Kwong will assist Mr. Yu to acquire the "relevant experience" as required under Note 2 to Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and to discharge his duties as a company secretary. Mr. Yu will be assisted by Ms. Kwong for an initial period of three years commencing from the Listing Date. As part of the arrangement, Ms. Kwong will act as one of the joint company secretaries and communicate regularly with Mr. Yu on matters relating to corporate governance, the Hong Kong Listing Rules as well as other laws and regulations which are relevant to the Company. She will also assist Mr. Yu in organizing Board meetings and Shareholders' meetings as well as other matters of the Company which are incidental to the duties of a company secretary.
- (iv) The Company has appointed the joint compliance advisors pursuant to Rule 3A.19 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, which will act as our additional channel of communication with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and provide professional guidance and advice to us and our joint company secretaries as to compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and all other applicable laws and regulations.

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements of Rules 3.28 and 8.17 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Upon the expiry of the initial three-year period, the qualifications of Mr. Yu will be re-evaluated to determine whether the requirements as stipulated in Note 2 to Rule 3.28 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules can be satisfied.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Members of the Group have entered into and are expected to continue with certain transactions which, after the Listing, will constitute our continuing connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver under Rule 14A.105 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules from strict compliance with the relevant requirements in respect of continuing connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. See “Connected Transactions” for details.

WAIVER FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH RULES 4.04(2) AND 4.04(4) OF THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES IN RESPECT OF THE ACQUISITION OF HUAAN FUNDS

In April 2014, the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment, entered into an equity purchase agreement (the “Equity Purchase Agreement”) with Shanghai Electric, pursuant to which Guotai Junan Innovation Investment agreed to acquire, and Shanghai Electric agreed to sell, a 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds for a consideration of RMB600.1 million (the “Acquisition of HuaAn Funds”). HuaAn Funds is incorporated in the PRC and is principally engaged in fund management business.

Pursuant to the Equity Purchase Agreement, if the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds is not approved by the CSRC within 12 months after the date of the Equity Purchase Agreement, Shanghai Electric may refund the consideration of RMB600.1 million and unilaterally terminate the Equity Purchase Agreement. However, the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds was not approved by the CSRC within 12 months after the date of the Equity Purchase Agreement.

Following further discussions and negotiations between the parties, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment entered into three supplemental agreements with Shanghai Electric on September 29, 2015, July 30, 2016 and January 12, 2017, respectively. Pursuant to the supplemental agreements, Shanghai Electric agreed (i) not to exercise the right to unilaterally terminate the Equity Purchase Agreement and (ii) to extend the completion date of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds until September 30, 2017. Also, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment agreed to make two additional payments of RMB29.8 million and RMB20.1 million. See “History and Corporate Structure” for details of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has fully paid the total consideration of RMB660.8 million for the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds. The Acquisition of HuaAn Funds was still subject to the approval of the CSRC as of the Latest Practicable Date.

Subject to the approval of the CSRC, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment and Shanghai Electric will proceed to complete the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds according to the Equity Purchase Agreement and its three supplemental agreements and no additional agreement is expected to be entered into unless the transaction is not completed before the expiration of the third supplemental agreement by September 30, 2017.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with Rules 4.04(2) and 4.04(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in relation to the preparation of financial statements in respect of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds on the following grounds:

- (i) The Company is not able to exercise any real control over, nor does it have any material influence, over HuaAn Funds, before completion of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds and is therefore not able to obtain all the requisite financial information in compliance with Rules 4.04(2) and 4.04(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
- (ii) Based on the relevant financial information of HuaAn Funds for the year ended 2015 available to us, all relevant percentage ratios (i.e. calculated against the 2015 financial results of the Group) under Rule 14.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds are below 5%.
- (iii) The information required to be disclosed for a discloseable transaction under Chapter 14 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds is set out in “History and Corporate Structure”.

WAIVER FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 10.08 OF THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

On May 19, 2016, the Shareholders’ general meeting approved the issuance of the Convertible Bonds which are convertible into our A Shares. On December 12, 2016, in accordance with the authorization of the Shareholders’ general meeting, the Board determined the aggregate principal amount of the CB Issuance to be no more than RMB7 billion.

On December 21, 2016, the Main Board Issuance Examination Committee of the CSRC has reviewed and approved the CB Issuance and as at the Latest Practicable Date, the CB Issuance is still subject to the final approval by the CSRC. As the approval by the CSRC is beyond the control of the Company, the timing of the completion of the CB Issuance is uncertain. In addition, pursuant to the relevant PRC laws, regulations and rules, the Convertible Bonds shall be issued within six months upon the approval of the CSRC. Therefore, it is possible that the CB Issuance may be carried out within six months from the Listing Date.

The existing holders of A Shares have priority to subscribe for the Convertible Bonds on a pro rata basis with reference to their respective shareholding at the time of the CB Issuance. The final amount to be offered to the holders of A Shares will be subject to the Company’s sole discretion. International Group and its subsidiary Shanghai SA and Shenzhen Investment Holdings have undertaken to subscribe the Convertible Bonds to be offered to them, respectively. See “Share Capital” for detailed information of the CB Issuance.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Pursuant to Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, no further shares or securities convertible into equity securities of a listed issuer (whether or not of a class already listed) may be issued or form the subject of any agreement to such an issue within six months from the date on which securities of the listed issuer first commence dealing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (whether or not such issue of shares or securities will be completed within six months from the commencement of dealing), except for the particular circumstances stated in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the CB Issuance on the following grounds:

- (i) As a listed company on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Company can satisfy its fund-raising needs by the CB Issuance. The proceeds from the CB issuance will be used to replenish our working capital and expand our principal businesses which is in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
- (ii) The existing Shareholders have already approved the CB Issuance and the proposed listing of the H Shares. The potential impact of the CB Issuance on the Company's share capital has been adequately disclosed in this prospectus.
- (iii) As the CB Issuance is subject to the approval of CSRC, the timing of the approval is beyond our control and it could be granted before or after the Listing Date. Also, we are required by the relevant PRC laws, regulations and requirements to complete the CB Issuance within six months upon the approval by the CSRC. Therefore, we are unable to control the timing of the completion of the CB Issuance.

SUBSCRIPTION OF H SHARES BY INTERNATIONAL GROUP AND SHENZHEN INVESTMENT HOLDINGS

Rule 10.04 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules requires that a person who is an existing shareholder of the issuer may only subscribe for or purchase any securities for which listing is sought which are being marketed by or on behalf of the issuer either in his or its own name or through nominees if the conditions in Rules 10.03(1) and (2) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules are fulfilled. It is provided in Rule 10.03(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules that no securities may be offered to existing shareholders on a preferential basis and no preferential treatment may be given to them in the allocation of the securities; and in Rule 10.03(2) that the minimum prescribed percentage of public shareholders required by Rule 8.08(1) must be achieved.

Paragraph 5(1) and 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules provides that no allocations will be permitted to (i) "connected clients" of the lead broker or of any distributors without the prior consent of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, (ii) the existing shareholders of the applicant or their close associates, whether in their own names or through nominees, in the Global Offering unless the conditions set out in Rules 10.03 and 10.04 under the Hong Kong Listing Rules are fulfilled.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

As of the Latest Practicable Date, International Group, being the Controlling Shareholder, directly and indirectly controlled approximately 36.29% of the total share capital of the Company. Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Guotai Junan International Holdings Limited (listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong with stock code of 1788) and an affiliate of Guotai Junan Capital Limited (a Joint Sponsor), is expected to act as an underwriter of the Global Offering. SPDB International Capital Limited, an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of SPD Bank (listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange with stock code of 600000) and a Joint Sponsor, is also expected to act as an underwriter of the Global Offering. International Group (directly and through its subsidiaries) is interested in an aggregate of 26.55% of the equity interest in SPD Bank. As International Group is a substantial shareholder of the holding company of each of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and SPDB International Capital Limited, International Group is considered as a substantial shareholder of each of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and SPDB International Capital Limited. Accordingly, International Group is a connected client of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and SPDB International Capital Limited within the meaning of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, Shenzhen Investment Holdings, being our second largest Shareholder, directly held approximately 8.18% of the total share capital of the Company. It is envisaged that the Company will engage Guosen Securities (HK) Capital Company Limited (國信證券(香港)融資有限公司) (“Guosen HK Capital”) as an underwriter to the Global Offering. Guosen HK Capital is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Guosen Securities Co., Ltd. (國信證券股份有限公司) (“Guosen”) (listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange with stock code of 002736), of which Shenzhen Investment Holdings held as to 33.53% interest as of the Latest Practicable Date. As Shenzhen Investment Holdings is a substantial shareholder of the holding company of Guosen HK Capital, Shenzhen Investment Holdings is considered as a substantial shareholder of Guosen HK Capital. Accordingly, Shenzhen Investment Holdings is a connected client of Guosen HK Capital within the meaning of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

In accordance with the Interim Measures on the Management of Reduction of State-held Shares and Raising Social Security Funds, the state-owned Shareholders of the Company are required to transfer to the NSSF such number of Shares representing an aggregate of 10% of the H Shares to be issued pursuant to the Global Offering.

International Group, along with its subsidiaries which held A Shares of the Company, is required to transfer a total of approximately 62 million Shares to the NSSF (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised). Taking into account the mandatory transfer of Shares to NSSF and the dilutive effect of the Global Offering, the aggregate shareholding of International Group and its subsidiaries in the Company will be reduced by 5.07% from 36.29% to 31.22% immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised).

Similarly, Shenzhen Investment Holdings is required to transfer approximately 14 million Shares to the NSSF (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised). Taking into account the mandatory transfer of Shares to NSSF and the dilutive effect of the Global Offering, Shenzhen Investment Holdings' shareholding in the Company will be reduced by 1.14% from 8.18% to 7.04% immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised).

In order for International Group, as the state-owned Controlling Shareholder, to maintain its controlling position in the Company, Shanghai SASAC has issued a governmental directive to require International Group to subscribe, directly or through its subsidiaries, for a total of 152 million H Shares in the Global Offering; Shenzhen SASAC has also issued a governmental directive to require Shenzhen Investment Holdings to subscribe, directly or through its subsidiaries, for such number of H Shares to maintain its current shareholding of 8.18% upon completion of the Global Offering (after the full exercise of the Over-allotment Option) (collectively, the "Proposed H Share Subscriptions"). In order to satisfy the requirements under the directive issued by Shenzhen SASAC, based on the proposed size of the Global Offering, Shenzhen Investment Holdings will need to subscribe up to 113.6 million H Shares in the Global Offering so that its shareholding in the Company will be 8.18% upon completion of the Global Offering (after the full exercise of the Over-allotment Option). Among the 113.6 million H Shares to be subscribed by and allocated to Shenzhen Investment Holdings, 98.7 million H Shares will be allotted and issued to Shenzhen Investment Holdings upon the Listing, while up to 14.9 million H Shares will be conditionally allocated to Shenzhen Investment Holdings subject to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option. The ratio of the final number of H Shares to be allotted and issued to Shenzhen Investment Holdings upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option against the 14.9 million H Shares mentioned above will be same to that of the final number of the H Shares to be issued upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option against the number of the H Shares to be issued upon the full exercise of the Over-allotment Option, to, and only to, the extent that such number will enable Shenzhen Investment Holdings' shareholding in the Company to be maintained at 8.18% immediately upon the closing of the exercise of the Over-allotment Option. If any H Shares out of the 14.9 million H Shares mentioned above is required to be allotted and issued to Shenzhen Investment Holdings, such H Shares will form part of the additional H Shares that would be allotted and issued upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option.

As 14.9 million H Shares to be issued upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option will be reserved for subscription by Shenzhen Investment Holdings, the over-allocations in the International Offering will include the conditional allocation of 14.9 million H Shares to Shenzhen Investment Holdings. However, as Shenzhen Investment Holdings' subscription of such additional H Shares is conditional and the actual number, if any, of additional H Shares to be subscribed cannot be ascertained until the exercise of the Over-allotment Option (and the extent of such exercise), only over-allocations up to 141.1 million H Shares (representing approximately 13.6% of the number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering) will be certain upon the Listing. In view of the above limitation in the over-allocations in the International Offering, the primary stabilization actions to be carried out by the Stabilizing Manager will be curtailed by the number of 14.9 million H Shares as it would otherwise do in the case where there is no such limitation in the over-allocations in the International Offering.

The Proposed H Share Subscriptions may take the form of direct subscription, subscription by subsidiaries of International Group / Shenzhen Investment Holdings, subscription through QDII or other means conforming with the requirements of the above governmental directives. Currently,

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Shenzhen Investment Holdings proposes to subscribe such H Shares mentioned above through a structured pass-through transaction by a QDII fund owned and managed by Guosen (the “QDII Fund”). The QDII Fund will invest in the H Shares on behalf of Shenzhen Investment Holdings, and hold such H Shares on behalf of Shenzhen Investment Holdings. The QDII Fund is a close associate of Shenzhen Investment Holdings within the meaning of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. And since the QDII Fund is a member of the same group of companies as Guosen HK Capital, the QDII Fund is a connected client of Guosen HK Capital within the meaning of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

As such, we have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rule 10.04 and its consent under Paragraph 5(1) and Paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the Proposed H Share Subscriptions on the following grounds:

- (i) International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings are state-owned capital operation platforms making investments on behalf of the Shanghai Municipal Government and the Shenzhen Municipal Government, respectively, and are our important strategic Shareholders. The Proposed H Share Subscriptions, for the purpose of maintaining their respective shareholdings in the Company, will be specifically conducted to comply with, and in accordance with, the requests, by way of governmental directives, of the Shanghai SASAC and the Shenzhen SASAC. As wholly-owned enterprises of the Shanghai SASAC and the Shenzhen SASAC, each of International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings has the obligation to comply with the governmental directives, and to satisfy the requirements of, the Shanghai SASAC and the Shenzhen SASAC, respectively.
- (ii) Given (a) the Company, as a company listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, is required to disclose inside information in a timely manner, (b) all material information about the Global Offering has been disclosed in this prospectus, and (c) International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings are not involved in the daily operation of the Company, International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings have no access to material non-public information regarding the Global Offering and the Company in anticipation of the Proposed H Share Subscriptions.
- (iii) The Proposed H Share Subscriptions will be undertaken at the same price and substantially on the same terms as all other H Shares being offered to other investors pursuant to the Global Offering (save for the lock-up period and the basis of allocation).
- (iv) International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings will agree to be subject to a lock-up period of 12 months from the Listing Date in respect of the H Shares acquired by them in the Global Offering. The lock-up period is longer than that required under Rule 10.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
- (v) Details of International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings and the Proposed H Share Subscriptions have been/will be fully disclosed in this prospectus and the allotment results announcement, to ensure that potential investors make their investment decisions on a fully-informed basis.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

- (vi) The Company has applied for a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 8.08(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the minimum public float of the H Shares. On the basis of the public float waiver to be granted, while the H Shares to be subscribed for by International Group will not be counted towards the H Shares held in public hands, the minimum prescribed public float of the H Shares will comply with the requirements of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange after the Proposed H Share Subscriptions.
- (vii) The H Shares to be placed with International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings shall form part of the International Offering, and as a result, their subscriptions will not have any impact on the H Shares to be offered to public investors in Hong Kong under the Hong Kong Public Offering.
- (viii) International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings will not enjoy any preferential treatments over public investors (except for the allocation pursuant to the governmental directives) and their subscriptions will not violate the requirements under Rules 10.03 and 10.04 and Paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
- (ix) The Proposed H Share Subscriptions are made pursuant to the applicable governmental directives with clear instructions and there are no involvement of any underwriters in the decision-making process or relevant discussions in connection therewith. While each of the International Group, Shenzhen Investment Holdings and the QDII Fund is technically a connected client of certain underwriters within the meaning of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, there is no preferential treatment for each of the International Group, Shenzhen Investment Holdings and the QDII Fund arising from their respective relationship with the relevant underwriters.

ALLOCATION OF H SHARES TO EXISTING MINORITY SHAREHOLDERS AND THEIR CLOSE ASSOCIATES UNDER RULE 10.04 AND PARAGRAPH 5(2) OF APPENDIX 6 TO THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Rule 10.04 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules requires that a person who is an existing shareholder of the issuer may only subscribe for or purchase any securities for which listing is sought which are being marketed by or on behalf of a new applicant either in his or its own name or through nominees if the following conditions in Rule 10.03 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules are fulfilled:

- (i) no securities are offered to existing shareholders on a preferential basis and no preferential treatment is given to them in the allocation of the securities; and
- (ii) the minimum prescribed percentage of public shareholders required by Rule 8.08(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules is achieved.

Paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules provides that, unless with the prior written consent of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, no allocations will be permitted to the existing shareholders of the applicant or their close associates, whether in their own names or through nominees, in the Global Offering unless the conditions set out in Rules 10.03 and 10.04 are fulfilled.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rule 10.04 and its consent under paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules to permit certain existing minority Shareholders who hold a small amount of our A Shares and their close associates to receive allocation of the H Shares in the International Offering as part of the Listing, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) each existing minority Shareholder to whom the Company may allocate H Shares in the International Offering must hold less than 5% of the Company's voting rights prior to the completion of the Global Offering;
- (ii) each existing minority Shareholder is not, and will not be, a core connected person (as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of the Company or any close associate (as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of any such core connected person immediately prior to or following the Global Offering;
- (iii) such existing minority Shareholders have no right to appoint directors of the Company and do not have other special rights in the Company;
- (iv) allocation to such existing minority Shareholders and their close associates will not affect our ability to satisfy the public float requirement under Rule 8.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (v) to the best of their knowledge and belief, each of the Company, the Joint Bookrunners and the Joint Sponsors (based on their discussions with and confirmations from the Company and the Joint Bookrunners) confirm to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in writing that no preferential treatment has been, nor will be, given to such existing minority Shareholders and their close associates by virtue of their relationship with the Company in any allocation in the International Offering; and
- (vi) the relevant information in respect of the allocation to such existing minority Shareholders and/or their close associates will be disclosed in the allotment results announcement.

ALLOCATION OF H SHARES TO CERTAIN CORNERSTONE INVESTORS WHO ARE CONNECTED WITH ONE OR MORE OF THE JOINT BOOKRUNNERS AND UNDERWRITERS

Paragraph 5(1) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules provides that, without the prior written consent of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, no allocations will be permitted to "connected clients" of the lead broker or of any distributor.

Paragraph 13(7) of the Appendix 6 states that "connected clients" in relation to an exchange participant means any client which is a member of the same group of companies as such exchange participant.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Connected Clients

1. AMBC (through BOCOM Investment)

Both BOCOM International Securities Limited (“BOCOM Securities”) and BOCOM International Global Investment Limited (“BOCOM Investment”) are indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of Bank of Communications Co., Ltd. As a result, BOCOM Investment is a connected client of BOCOM Securities.

BOCOM Securities has been appointed by the Company as one of the Joint Bookrunners, Joint Lead Managers and Underwriters of the Global Offering.

2. ICBCI PB Fund

Both ICBC International Capital Limited (“ICBCI Capital”) and ICBC International Securities Limited (“ICBCI Securities”) are wholly-owned subsidiaries of ICBC International Holdings Limited (“ICBCI Holdings”).

ICBCI Capital has been appointed as one of the Joint Bookrunners of the Global Offering, while ICBCI Securities has been appointed as one of the Joint Lead Managers and Underwriters of the Global Offering.

ICBC Private Banking Global Investment Fund Series SICAV-SIF - ICBCI Absolute Return Fund (“ICBCI PB Fund”) is managed on a discretionary basis by ICBC International Asset Management Limited (“ICBCI AM”), who is a subsidiary of ICBCI Holdings. As a result, ICBCI PB Fund is a connected client of ICBCI Capital and ICBCI Securities.

Application and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange’s consent under paragraph 5(1) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted, its consent under paragraph 5(1) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules to permit each of the Asset Management Business Center of Bank of Communications Co., Ltd. (the “AMBC”) (through BOCOM Investment) and ICBCI PB Fund to participate in the Global Offering as a cornerstone investor subject to the following conditions:

1. any H Shares to be allocated to each of AMBC (through BOCOM Investment) and ICBCI PB Fund will be held for, and on behalf of, independent third parties;
2. the respective cornerstone investment agreement to be entered with each of AMBC (through BOCOM Investment) and ICBCI PB Fund will not contain any material terms which are more favourable to AMBC (through BOCOM Investment) or ICBCI PB Fund than those in other cornerstone investment agreements;

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

3. as the case may be,
 - a. BOCOM Securities does not participate in the decision-making process or relevant discussion as to whether AMBC (through BOCOM Investment) will be selected as a cornerstone investor;
 - b. ICBCI Capital and ICBCI Securities do not participate in the decision-making process or relevant discussion as to whether ICBCI PB Fund will be selected as a cornerstone investor;
4. other than the preferential treatment of assured entitlement under a cornerstone investment following the principles as set out in HKEX-GL51-13;
 - a. none of BOCOM Investment or AMBC has received, and will not receive, preferential treatment in the allocation as a cornerstone investor by virtue of its relationship with BOCOM Securities;
 - b. none of ICBCI PB Fund or ICBCI AM has received, and will not receive, preferential treatment in the allocation as a cornerstone investor by virtue of its relationship with ICBCI Capital and ICBCI Securities;
5. each of the Joint Sponsors, the Company, the Joint Bookrunners, BOCOM Securities, AMBC, ICBCI PB Fund, ICBCI Capital and ICBCI Securities will provide the Hong Kong Stock Exchange written confirmations in accordance with HKEX-GL85-16; and
6. details of the allocation will be disclosed in the prospectus and the allotment results announcement.

PUBLIC FLOAT REQUIREMENTS

Rule 8.08(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules requires that there must be an open market in the securities for which listing is sought and that a sufficient public float of an issuer's listed securities shall be maintained.

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 8.08(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules such that the minimum public float be reduced and the minimum percentage of the H Shares from time to time held by the public:

- (i) before the Convertible Bonds are converted, to be the highest of:
 - (a) 11.45% of the total issued share capital of the Company;

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

- (b) such percentage of H Shares of the total issued share capital of the Company to be held by the public immediately after completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised); or
 - (c) such percentage of H Shares of the enlarged issued share capital of the Company to be held by the public after the exercise of the Over-allotment Option,
- (ii) after the Convertible Bonds are converted, to be the highest of:
- (a) 10.78% of the total issued share capital of the Company; or
 - (b) such percentage of H Shares to be held by the public immediately after the Convertible Bonds are fully converted, provided that (i) appropriate disclosure of the lower prescribed percentage of public float is made in this prospectus and (ii) confirmation of sufficiency of public float will be made in successive annual reports after the Listing. In the event that the public float percentage falls below the minimum percentage prescribed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange above, we will take appropriate steps to ensure that the minimum percentage of public float prescribed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is complied with.

WAIVER IN RELATION TO CLAWBACK MECHANISM UNDER PARAGRAPH 4.2 OF PRACTICE NOTE 18 OF THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Paragraph 4.2 of Practice Note 18 of the Listing Rules requires a clawback mechanism to be put in place, which would have the effect of increasing the number of Hong Kong Public Offer Shares to certain percentages of the total number of Offer Shares offered in the Global Offering if certain prescribed total demand levels are reached. We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted to us, a waiver from strict compliance with paragraph 4.2 of Practice Note 18 of the Listing Rules such that, provided the initial allocation of H Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering shall not be less than 5% of the Global Offering, in the event of over-subscription, the Joint Representatives, after consultation with us, shall apply a clawback mechanism following the closing of the application lists on the following basis:

- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 15 times or more but less than 50 times of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 78,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 7.5% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering;

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 50 times or more but less than 100 times of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of the Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 104,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 10.0% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering; and
- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 100 times or more of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of the Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 208,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 20.0% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering.

In each case, the additional Offer Shares reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering will be allocated between pool A and pool B and the number of Offer Shares allocated to the International Offering will be correspondingly reduced in such manner as the Joint Representatives deem appropriate. In addition, the Joint Representatives may allocate Offer Shares from the International Offering to the Hong Kong Public Offering to satisfy valid applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

If the Hong Kong Public Offering is not fully subscribed, the Joint Representatives have the authority to reallocate all or any unsubscribed Hong Kong Public Offer Shares to the International Offering, in such proportions as the Joint Representatives deem appropriate.

See “Structure of the Global Offering — The Hong Kong Public Offering — Reallocation.”

WAIVER IN RELATION TO THE PUBLICATION OF ANNUAL REPORT AND RELEASE OF ANNUAL FINANCIAL RESULTS

Rule 13.46(2) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules requires an issuer to send a copy of its annual report including its annual accounts or summary financial report to its shareholders within four months after its financial year-end. Rule 13.49(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules requires an issuer to publish its annual results no later than three months after its financial year-end.

As the Company will include in this prospectus the financial information in respect of the year ended December 31, 2016, our Directors believe that strict compliance with the requirements of Rules 13.46(2) and 13.49(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules would not provide our Shareholders and potential investors with further material information of the Company and would incur unnecessary administrative cost and be unduly burdensome for the Company.

WAIVERS AND CONSENTS UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Accordingly, we have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements of Rules 13.46(2) and 13.49(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the publication of annual results announcement and the issue of an annual report for the year ended December 31, 2016. The Company will not be in breach of the Articles or the laws and regulations of the PRC or other regulatory requirements regarding its obligation to our publish annual results announcement and annual report.

In addition, the Company has included in this prospectus a statement as to whether we intend to comply with the provisions in the Corporate Governance Code and Corporate Governance Report set out in Appendix 14 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules upon the Listing. Please see “Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management — Corporate Governance”.

INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS AND THE GLOBAL OFFERING

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONTENTS OF THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus, for which our Directors collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, the Securities and Futures (Stock Market Listing) Rules (Chapter 571V of the Laws of Hong Kong) and the Hong Kong Listing Rules for the purpose of giving information to the public with regard to the Group. Our Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information contained in this prospectus is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this prospectus misleading.

CSRC APPROVAL

The CSRC has issued an approval letter on March 13, 2017 for the Global Offering and our application to list the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. In granting such approval, the CSRC accepts no responsibility for our financial soundness, nor for the accuracy of any of the statements made or opinions expressed in this prospectus or in the Application Forms. No other approvals are required to be obtained from the CSRC for the listing of the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

THE HONG KONG PUBLIC OFFERING AND THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is published solely in connection with the Hong Kong Public Offering, which forms part of the Global Offering. The Global Offering comprises the Hong Kong Public Offering of initially 52,000,000 Offer Shares and the International Offering of initially 988,000,000 Offer Shares (subject, in each case, to reallocation on the basis as set out in “Structure of the Global Offering”). For applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering, this prospectus and the Application Forms set out the terms and conditions of the Hong Kong Public Offering.

The Hong Kong Offer Shares are offered solely on the basis of the information contained and representations made in this prospectus and the Application Forms and on the terms and subject to the conditions set out herein and therein. No person is authorized to give any information in connection with the Global Offering or to make any representation not contained in this prospectus, and any information or representation not contained herein must not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Company, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters, any of their respective directors, agents, employees or advisors or any other party involved in the Global Offering.

Neither the delivery of this prospectus nor any offering, sale or delivery made in connection with the H Shares should, under any circumstances, constitute a representation that there has been no change or development reasonably likely to involve a change in our affairs since the date of this prospectus or imply that the information contained in this prospectus is correct as of any date subsequent to the date of this prospectus.

INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS AND THE GLOBAL OFFERING

OFFER SHARES FULLY UNDERWRITTEN

The listing of our H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is sponsored by the Joint Sponsors and the Global Offering is managed by the Joint Global Coordinators. The Hong Kong Public Offering is fully underwritten by the Hong Kong Underwriters under the terms of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement. An International Underwriting Agreement relating to the International Offering is expected to be entered into on or around Friday, March 31, 2017. The International Offering will be fully underwritten by the International Underwriters under the terms of the International Underwriting Agreement to be entered into.

For full information about the Underwriters and the underwriting arrangements, see “Underwriting”.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLICATION FOR HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

The procedures for applying for Hong Kong Offer Shares are set out in “How to Apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares” and on the relevant Application Forms.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Details of the structure of the Global Offering, including its conditions, are set out in “Structure of the Global Offering”.

OVER-ALLOTMENT OPTION AND STABILIZATION

Details of the arrangements relating to the Over-allotment Option and stabilization are set out in “Structure of the Global Offering”.

RESTRICTIONS ON OFFER AND SALE OF H SHARES

Each person acquiring the Hong Kong Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be required to, or be deemed by his acquisition of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to, confirm that he is aware of the restrictions on offers and sales of the Hong Kong Offer Shares described in this prospectus and the Application Forms.

No action has been taken to permit a public offering of the H Shares in any jurisdiction other than Hong Kong, or the distribution of this prospectus in any jurisdiction other than Hong Kong. Accordingly, this prospectus may not be used for the purpose of, and does not constitute, an offer or invitation in any jurisdiction or in any circumstances in which such an offer or invitation is not authorized or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or invitation. The distribution of this prospectus and the offering and sales of the Offer Shares in other jurisdictions are subject to restrictions and may not be made except as permitted under the applicable securities laws of such jurisdictions pursuant to registration with or authorization by the relevant securities regulatory authorities or an exemption therefrom. In particular, the Offer Shares have not been publicly offered or sold, directly or indirectly, in the PRC or the U.S.

APPLICATION FOR LISTING ON THE HONG KONG STOCK EXCHANGE

We have applied to the Listing Committee of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the granting of the listing of, and permission to deal in (i) our H Shares in issue and to be issued pursuant to the Global Offering (including any additional H Shares which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option), and (ii) the H Shares to be converted from A Shares and transferred to NSSF pursuant to the relevant PRC regulations relating to reductions of State-owned shares.

COMMENCEMENT OF DEALINGS IN THE H SHARES

Dealings in the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange are expected to commence at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 11, 2017. Except for the A Shares, the Convertible Bonds to be issued, and other debt securities that have been listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and our pending application to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares, no part of our Shares or debt securities is listed on or dealt in on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and no such listing or permission to list is being or proposed to be sought.

H SHARES WILL BE ELIGIBLE FOR ADMISSION INTO CCASS

Subject to the granting of the listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and our compliance with the stock admission requirements of HKSCC, the H Shares will be accepted as eligible securities by HKSCC for deposit, clearance and settlement in CCASS with effect from the Listing Date or any other date as determined by HKSCC. Settlement of transactions between Stock Exchange Participants (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) is required to take place in CCASS on the second Business Day after any trading day. All activities under CCASS are subject to the General Rules of CCASS and CCASS Operational Procedures in effect from time to time. Investors should seek the advice of their stockbroker or other professional advisor for details of the settlement arrangements as such arrangements may affect their rights and interests. All necessary arrangements have been made enabling the H Shares to be admitted into CCASS.

H SHARE REGISTER AND STAMP DUTY

All Offer Shares will be registered on the H Share register of members of the Company maintained by our H Share Registrar, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, in Hong Kong. Our register of members will also be maintained by us at our legal address in the PRC.

INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS AND THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Dealings in the H Shares registered on the H Share register of members of the Company in Hong Kong will be subject to Hong Kong stamp duty. The stamp duty is charged to each of the seller and purchaser at the ad valorem rate of 0.1% of the consideration for, or (if greater) the value of, the H Shares transferred. In other words, a total of 0.2% is currently payable on a typical sale and purchase transaction of the H Shares. In addition, a fixed duty of HK$5 is charged on each instrument of transfer (if required).

Unless determined otherwise by the Company, dividends payable in respect of our H Shares will be paid to the Shareholders listed on the H Share register of the Company in Hong Kong, by ordinary post, at the Shareholders' risk, to the registered address of each Shareholder of the Company.

REGISTRATION OF SUBSCRIPTION, PURCHASE AND TRANSFER OF H SHARES

We have instructed the H Share Registrar, and the H Share Registrar has agreed, not to register the subscription, purchase or transfer of any H Shares in the name of any particular holder unless the holder delivers a signed form to the H Share Registrar in respect of those H Shares bearing statements to the effect that the holder:

- (i) agrees with us and each of our Shareholders, and we agree with each Shareholder, to observe and comply with the PRC Company Law, the Companies Ordinance, the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, the Special Regulations and our Articles of Association;
- (ii) agrees with us, each of our Shareholders, Directors, Supervisors, managers and officers, and we, acting for ourselves and for each of our Directors, Supervisors, managers and officers agree with each Shareholder, to refer all differences and claims arising from our Articles of Association or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the PRC Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning our affairs to arbitration in accordance with our Articles of Association, and any reference to arbitration shall be deemed to authorize the arbitration tribunal to conduct hearings in open session and to publish its award, which shall be final and conclusive;
- (iii) agrees with us and each of our Shareholders that our H Shares are freely transferable by the holders thereof; and
- (iv) authorizes us to enter into a contract on his or her behalf with each of our Directors, Supervisors, managers and officers whereby such Directors, Supervisors, managers and officers undertake to observe and comply with their obligations to our Shareholders as stipulated in our Articles of Association.

Persons applying for or purchasing H Shares under the Global Offering are deemed, by their making an application or purchase, to have represented that they are not close associates (as such term is defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of any of the Directors of the Company or any existing Shareholders of the Company or a nominee of any of the foregoing.

INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS AND THE GLOBAL OFFERING

PROFESSIONAL TAX ADVICE RECOMMENDED

Potential investors in the Global Offering are recommended to consult their professional advisors as to the taxation implications of subscribing for, purchasing, holding or disposing of, and/or dealing in the H Shares or exercising rights attached to them. None of us, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters, any of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives or any other person or party involved in the Global Offering accepts responsibility for any tax effects on, or liabilities of, any person resulting from the subscription, purchase, holding, disposition of, or dealing in, or the exercise of any rights in relation to, the H Shares.

EXCHANGE RATE CONVERSION

Solely for your convenience, this prospectus contains translations among certain Renminbi amounts into Hong Kong dollars and of Renminbi amounts into US dollars at specified rates. Unless indicated otherwise, the translation of Renminbi into Hong Kong dollars and of Renminbi into US dollars, and vice versa, in this prospectus was made at the following rates:

- RMB0.88737 to HK$1.00 (being the prevailing exchange rate on March 17, 2017 set by the PBOC); and
- RMB6.9000 to US$1.00 (being the noon buying rate in the City of New York for cable transfers as certified by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York on March 17, 2017).

No representation is made that any amounts in Renminbi, Hong Kong dollars or US dollars can be or could have been at the relevant dates converted at the above rates or any other rates or at all.

LANGUAGE

Translated English names of Chinese laws and regulations, governmental authorities, departments, entities (including certain of our subsidiaries), institutions, natural persons, facilities, certificates, titles and the like included in this prospectus and for which no official English translation exists are unofficial translations for identification purposes only. In the event of any inconsistency, the Chinese name shall prevail.

ROUNDING

Unless otherwise stated, all the numerical figures are rounded to one or two decimal places. Any discrepancies in any table or chart between totals and sums of amounts listed therein are due to rounding.

OVERVIEW OF THE PRC ECONOMY

As a result of over three decades of rapid growth, China is currently the world's second largest economy in terms of nominal GDP. As it entered into a "new normal" stage of development, it is expected to maintain a moderate to high growth rate. According to the National Bureau of Statistics, China's nominal GDP increased from RMB53.4 trillion in 2012 to RMB74.4 trillion in 2016, representing a CAGR of 8.6%. From 2012 to 2016, the per capita disposable income of urban households increased from RMB24,564.7 to RMB33,616.0, representing a CAGR of 8.2%.

As the PRC government has been driving China's economic restructuring and industry upgrade, the science and technology industry and domestic consumption are expected to be the primary drivers of future economic growth. The implementation of the "Belt and Road" strategy will further open up the PRC markets, further promote trade liberalization, enhance the internationalization of Renminbi and the marketization of exchange rates and facilitate the globalization of the PRC capital markets.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

THE PRC CAPITAL MARKET

As the PRC economy grows, a multi-tiered capital market system with sound structure and comprehensive functions has gradually been established. The capital market is increasingly important to the development of the national economy. According to the PBOC, the ratio of amount of financing from enterprise bonds issuance and domestic stock issuance by non-financial enterprises to total amount of financing in China increased from 15.9% as of December 31, 2012 to 23.8% as of December 31, 2016. According to the same source, the ratio of total market capitalization of the securities market to nominal GDP in China increased from 43.1% as of December 31, 2012 to 68.2% as of December 31, 2016. In the future, further increase of the direct financing level and securitization level in China will bring more development opportunities to the securities industry.

Stock Market

The PRC stock market mainly includes the main board on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange as well as the SME Board and the ChiNext Board on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. The NEEQ and regional equity trading centers have also developed rapidly in recent years. As of December 31, 2016, total market capitalization of listed companies on the two stock exchanges ranked second in the world. The following table sets forth the total number, total market capitalization, total amount of new issuance and total trading volume of listed companies on the two exchanges as of the dates indicated:

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Investment Management

Asset Management

In recent years, the asset management business has grown rapidly and has become an important source of revenue for PRC securities companies. According to the SAC, the total AUM of the PRC securities industry increased from RMB1.9 trillion in 2012 to RMB17.8 trillion in 2016, representing a CAGR of 75.2%. The following table sets forth the top ten PRC securities companies in terms of net revenue from asset management business for the year ended December 31, 2015:

	Shenwan Hongyuan	CITIC Securities	Guotai Junan	Haitong Securities	Orient Securities	Huatai Securities	GF Securities	China Merchant Securities	Everbright Securities	Industrial Securities

Fund Management

Securities companies mainly conduct mutual fund management business through their fund management subsidiaries. In 2013, the CSRC allowed PRC securities companies to apply directly for mutual fund management license to offer and manage mutual funds. The AUM of PRC mutual funds increased from RMB2.9 trillion in 2012 to RMB9.2 trillion in 2016, representing a CAGR of 33.7%.

Direct Investment

In July 2011, the CSRC permitted the subsidiaries of PRC securities companies to use their own funds or raise funds through private placement to engage in angel, venture capital, pre-IPO and M&A investments. According to the SAC, the number of private equity funds established by private equity subsidiaries of PRC securities companies increased from 38 as of December 31, 2013 to 178 as of December 31, 2015, and AUM of such private equity funds increased from RMB30.5 billion as of December 31, 2013 to RMB119.3 billion as of December 31, 2015, representing a CAGR of 97.8%.

International Business

Driven by the development of the PRC economy, the implementation of “Belt and Road” strategy, and further internationalization of Renminbi and the PRC capital markets, the demand for cross-border financial services from domestic clients and overseas institutions has been increasing.

On one hand, the number and transaction value of overseas equity financing, debt financing and cross-border M&A by PRC enterprises have been increasing. According to Dealogic, the amount of proceeds raised from overseas IPOs by PRC enterprises increased from US$32.7 billion in 2012 to US$47.3 billion in 2016, representing a CAGR of 9.7%. The Hong Kong Stock Exchange has become one of their top choices of listing venue. As of December 31, 2016, the market capitalization of PRC-based companies represented 41.8% of the total market capitalization of listed companies on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. According to Dealogic, the amount of proceeds raised from bond issuances in the international market by PRC issuers increased from US$41.0 billion in 2012 to US$129.7 billion in 2016, representing a CAGR of 33.3%.

On the other hand, the launch of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Mainland-Hong Kong Mutual Recognition of Funds, the gradual relaxation of foreign ownership restriction and the growth of QFII and RQFII businesses, have allowed foreign investors to further participate in the PRC capital markets. From December 31, 2012 to December 31, 2016, the investment quota of QFII increased at a CAGR of 23.6%, while the number of QFII increased at a CAGR of 13.3% in the same period. The investment quota of RQFII increased at a CAGR of 67.6%, while the number of RQFII increased at a CAGR of 64.8% in the same period.

The internationalization of the PRC securities market will further connect the domestic and overseas financial markets. This will allow PRC securities companies to strengthen the linkage between their domestic and overseas businesses as well as provide a globalized asset allocation channel for domestic and overseas clients to satisfy their demand for cross-border financial services.

DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES OF THE PRC SECURITIES INDUSTRY

Development of the capital market will further diversify the services and products of securities companies. Development of the PRC economy and growth in direct financing have diversified the need of clients in the securities market. Increased participation of institutional investors has driven the demand for professional research and comprehensive services, while growing wealth of individual investors has driven the demand for diversified asset allocations. Evolving regulations have also facilitated innovations of financial products, thereby expanding the business scope of securities companies. We expect that PRC securities companies will continue to focus on client demand as they promote new innovative businesses, expand the scope and depth of businesses and services, consolidate their businesses, products, channels and supporting services, and transform themselves into integrated financial service providers covering complete business chains, industrial chains and service chains.

Differentiated competition will provide more growth potential for large securities companies. In recent years, the PRC capital market has demonstrated differentiated competition and concentration of capital and profit in large securities companies. Benefiting from their market positions, capitals and economies of scale, large securities companies with comprehensive strength and strong innovation capabilities will accelerate their growth across all markets and business areas, further enhance their overall competitiveness and achieve development in scale and comprehensiveness. By contrast, small and medium securities companies will concentrate their resources and form competitive edges in certain market segments or regional markets to achieve growth, thereby forming a differentiated and multi-tiered competitive landscape with large integrated securities companies.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Liberalization of PRC capital markets will enable securities companies to accelerate their globalization. The internationalization of Renminbi and PRC capital markets will drive the rapid and comprehensive internationalization process of the PRC securities industry. Under the “Belt and Road” strategy, more PRC enterprises are conducting equity and debt financing overseas as well as seeking overseas financing and M&A opportunities. Domestic investors also require cross-border asset allocation. These have provided abundant business opportunities for PRC securities companies to “go global”. PRC securities companies will further develop their international businesses by utilizing both domestic and overseas resources to realize synergy and growth.

Advanced technology will drive securities companies to upgrade their business as well as operation and management models. Advanced IT has transformed PRC securities companies’ businesses from the traditional fee-based models to diversified models focusing on professional services, client relations and Internet-based services. A growing number of securities companies are bringing their offline operations online to streamline their businesses, lower service costs and improve operational efficiency. Furthermore, the Internet-based operating models enable securities companies to collect large amounts of client data to analyze and understand client needs, improve client satisfaction and loyalty as well as acquire new clients. With financial innovation as breakthrough, securities companies will provide investors with tailored products and services and strive to improve the investment returns for clients.

Disciplined regulations will prompt securities companies to enhance corporate governance. Since its launch in 2007, the CSRC’s classified regulation regime helped to enhance the risk management capabilities of PRC securities companies. In recent years, the regulatory authorities promulgated a series of policies including standardizing business operations, stabilizing the market and optimizing the industrial landscape. Such policies will promote steady and orderly business innovation and enhance investors’ confidence in the PRC capital markets. With more disciplined regulations, the risk management and compliance level of PRC securities companies will continue to be enhanced, and will become one of the key competitive strengths of leading PRC securities companies.

 - We were among the first batch of securities companies which were admitted into the independent accounting and auditing unit of the PBOC, and commenced free trade account business in the China (Shanghai) Pilot Free — Trade Zone.
- 2016
- We summarized our 24 years of development history and refined it as the “Guotai Junan Consensus” to articulate our core values and corporate mission.

HISTORY AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

MAJOR RESTRUCTURINGS, ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS

Spin-off of the Company

In August 2001, the CSRC approved the spin-off of the Company. After the spin-off, the Company as the continuing company, held the assets and operations related to the securities business and the associated liabilities, while the newly established Guotai Junan IM held the other assets and operations not related to the securities business and the associated liabilities (the “Non-securities Assets”) in accordance with the spin-off scheme.

Asset Swap with China Huarong Asset Management Co., Ltd. (“China Huarong”)

In August 2001, the Company entered into an asset swap agreement with China Huarong, pursuant to which we assigned certain creditor’s claims valued at RMB908.4 million to China Huarong in consideration for 586.76 million shares of China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation (中國石油化工有限公司) valued at RMB1,013 million (the “China Huarong Asset Swap”). The value difference of RMB104.6 million was accounted for as debt owed by us to China Huarong. The Company and China Huarong also agreed that if the Company is not publicly listed before June 30, 2003, the parties will return the assets so swapped. However, the Company was not listed by June 30, 2003.

In September 2003, we entered into a supplement agreement with China Huarong and Guotai Junan IM, pursuant to which (i) China Huarong assigned the creditor’s claims received from us to Guotai Junan IM in consideration for a cash payment of RMB813 million, (ii) Guotai Junan IM agreed to pay such consideration by December 20, 2006, and (iii) we pledged 293.38 million shares of China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation to China Huarong as the security for both the consideration value difference of the China Huarong Asset Swap payable by the Company and the consideration for assignment of the creditor’s claims payable by Guotai Junan IM.

In July 2006, Guotai Junan IM fully paid the consideration for assignment of the creditor’s claims to China Huarong, and the Company later fully settled the consideration value difference of the China Huarong Asset Swap. China Huarong therefore discharged the Company’s pledge over the shares of China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation.

Asset Swap with Shanghai SA

In December 2001, we entered into certain agreements with Shanghai SA (the “Asset Swap Agreements”), pursuant to which we assigned certain creditor’s claims valued at RMB1,801.3 million to Shanghai SA in consideration for (i) shares of Dazhong Transportation (Group) Co., Ltd. (大眾交通(集團)股份有限公司) and Shenergy Company Limited (申能股份有限公司) at the agreed price of RMB1,100.0 million, (ii) RMB300.0 million of cash, and (iii) a debt balance of RMB400 million owed by Shanghai SA to us due for repayment in five years. The Company and Shanghai SA also agreed that if the Company is not publicly listed before June 30, 2003, the parties shall return the assets swapped under the Asset Swap Agreements (the “Asset Return Arrangement”). However, the Company was not listed by June 30, 2003.

HISTORY AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

In July 2004, we entered into a supplemental agreement with Shanghai SA and Guotai Junan IM, pursuant to which Shanghai SA assigned the creditor's claims received from us to Guotai Junan IM, and Guotai Junan IM, in consideration, assumed the outstanding debt of RMB400 million owed by Shanghai SA to us. The parties also agreed that if the Company fails to obtain the CSRC's approval for its listing by December 31, 2006, the parties shall enter into a further agreement to implement the Asset Return Arrangement. However, the Company was not listed by December 31, 2006.

In April 2007, Shanghai SA and the Company entered into certain agreements pursuant to which Shanghai SA agreed to subscribe for 400 million of our Shares to be issued at the price of RMB1.08 per Share and terminate the Asset Return Arrangement. In March 2012, the subscription of 400 million Shares by Shanghai SA was completed and it issued a confirmation to terminate the Asset Return Arrangement.

Capital Increase and Restructuring with Guotai Junan IM

In April 2007, our Shareholders approved a capital increase and restructuring plan for the Company to (i) issue between 800 million and 1,000 million new Shares to the Shareholders at the price of RMB1.08 per Share, on the condition that each subscribing Shareholder must also subscribe one share of Guotai Junan IM at a price of RMB1.92 for each Share of the Company subscribed and (ii) dispose certain of our Non-securities Assets to Guotai Junan IM.

Meanwhile, in April 2007, Guotai Junan IM implemented a capital increase plan to issue one billion shares at RMB1.92 per share. Guotai Junan IM received a capital injection of RMB1.92 billion from its capital increase plan and subsequently acquired the relevant Non-securities Assets from the Company for a consideration of RMB992 million, which was fully settled at the end of December 2007.

Acquisition of Shanghai Securities

In May 2014, we entered into an equity transfer agreement with International Group pursuant to which we agreed to acquire a 51% equity interest in Shanghai Securities from International Group at a total consideration of RMB3,571 million. The consideration was determined through negotiations with reference to a valuation report prepared by an independent valuer firm. The CSRC approved the transaction on July 1, 2014 and also required us to resolve the competition with Shanghai Securities and Haiji Securities within five years. The acquisition was completed on July 8, 2014, after which Shanghai Securities became our subsidiary.

In order to avoid potential competition and comply with regulatory requirements, in September 2015, Shanghai Securities commenced the public listing and sale process to dispose its 66.67% equity interest in Haiji Securities at the initial tender price of RMB406.2 million. The price was determined with reference to a valuation report prepared by an independent valuer firm. Haiji Securities is a securities firm previously wholly-owned by Shanghai Securities and was principally engaged in the businesses of equity underwriting and listing sponsorship in the PRC. In December 2015, Guiyang

Financial Holdings Limited (貴陽金融控股有限公司), an Independent Third Party, acquired the 66.67% equity interest in Haiji Securities through the public listing and sale process at the price of RMB3,011.2 million. The CSRC approved the disposal in February 2016 and the disposal was subsequently completed in March 2016.

Acquisition of 20% Equity Interest in HuaAn Funds

On February 26, 2014, Shanghai Electric began to dispose of its 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds through public listing and sale on the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange. On April 9, 2014, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment entered into the Equity Purchase Agreement with Shanghai Electric, pursuant to which Guotai Junan Innovation Investment agreed to acquire, and Shanghai Electric agreed to sell, a 20% interest in HuaAn Funds for a consideration of RMB600.1 million. The amount of the consideration was determined through the public listing and sale process with reference to a valuation report prepared by an independent valuer firm.

Pursuant to the Equity Purchase Agreement, we are entitled to receive all dividends declared in respect of the 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds from November 30, 2013 to the completion date of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds. Also, if the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds is not approved by the CSRC within 12 months after the date of the Equity Purchase Agreement, Shanghai Electric may refund the consideration of RMB600.1 million and unilaterally terminate the Equity Purchase Agreement. The Acquisition of HuaAn Funds was not approved by the CSRC within 12 months after the date of the Equity Purchase Agreement.

Following further discussions and negotiations between the parties, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment entered into two supplemental agreements with Shanghai Electric on September 29, 2015 and July 30, 2016. Pursuant to the supplemental agreements, Shanghai Electric agreed to (i) not exercise the right to unilaterally terminate the Equity Purchase Agreement and (ii) extend the completion date of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds until September 30, 2017, in consideration, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment agreed to pay an additional RMB29.8 million. On January 12, 2017, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment entered into a third supplemental agreement with Shanghai Electric pursuant to which Shanghai Electric agreed that it will not exercise the right to terminate the Equity Purchase Agreement and the supplemental agreements prior to September 30, 2017 and Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has agreed to pay an additional RMB20.1 million. The terms and conditions under the Equity Purchase Agreement and the previous two supplemental agreements will continue to be in effect with respect to the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds. Subject to the approval of the CSRC, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment and Shanghai Electric will proceed to complete the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds according to the Equity Purchase Agreement and its three supplemental agreements and no additional agreement is expected to be entered into unless the transaction is not completed before the expiration of the third supplemental agreement by September 30, 2017.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has fully paid the total considerations of RMB660.8 million for the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds is still subject to the approval of the CSRC.

HISTORY AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Shanghai Electric is a major industrial equipment manufacturing conglomerate established in Shanghai and it is wholly-owned by the Shanghai SASAC. Shanghai Electric is an independent third party of the Company. HuaAn Funds is incorporated in the PRC and is principally engaged in fund management business. HuaAn Funds is among the first batch of fund management companies approved by CSRC. As of the Latest Practicable Date, each of Guotai Junan IM and Shanghai Sitico Assets Management held a 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds.

As of September 30, 2016, the unaudited consolidated total assets and owners' equity of HuaAn Funds were RMB2,582.8 million and RMB1,905.3 million. For the year ended December 31, 2015, the audited consolidated operating profit and net profit of HuaAn Funds were RMB571.6 million and RMB450.7 million. For the year ended December 31, 2014, the audited consolidated operating profit and net profit of HuaAn Funds were RMB291.3 million and RMB215.8 million.

The Board believes that the acquisition of the 20% equity interest of HuaAn Funds will further strengthen the Group's fund management business which in turn will further diversify our income streams and improve our revenue composition.

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with Rules 4.04(2) and 4.04(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in relation to the requirements for the preparation of financial statements in respect of this acquisition. Please see "Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules — Waiver from Strict Compliance with Rules 4.04(2) and 4.04(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in Respect of the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds".

Proposed Disposal of 51% Equity Interest in GTJA Allianz Funds

In order to optimize the Group's business structure, on January 9, 2017, we publicly offered our 51% equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds for sale at the initial tender price of RMB1,045 million. The initial tender price was determined with reference to a valuation report prepared by an independent valuer firm. GTJA Allianz Funds is primarily engaged in the business of fund management. As of the Latest Practicable Date, it was held as to 51% by the Company and 49% by Allianz AG and the disposal was still undergoing the public listing and sale process. The Company expects that the disposal will not have any material and adverse impact on the operation of the Company.

BUSINESS

OVERVIEW

We are a long-term, consistent and across-the-board leader in the PRC securities industry, providing integrated financial services. Throughout the development of the PRC capital markets, we have weathered many industry cycles while forging ahead to establish ourselves as a comprehensive industry leader. From 2007 to 2015, our net profit attributable to equity holders of the Company ranked among the top three in the industry for nine consecutive years, and our operating revenue ranked among the top three in the industry for seven out of the nine years. Both of the Company's operating revenue and net profit in 2016 ranked second in the industry. Our industry-leading position expands across all of our major business lines. In terms of cumulative revenue in 2014 and 2015, we are the only securities company that ranked among the top three in the industry for five major business lines, including investment banking, securities investment, securities brokerage, margin financing and securities lending and asset management.

We are committed to achieving quality growth and maintaining a balance among business scale, profitability and risk management. Our average return on net assets for the ten years from 2007 to 2016 was 18.8%, significantly higher than the industry average of 14.7% while surpassing industry average during each of the nine years from 2008 to 2016. We are the only one among the Top Five Securities Companies in the PRC to have attained the regulatory rating of Class A Grade AA from the CSRC for nine consecutive years from 2008 to 2016. Class A Grade AA is the highest rating ever attained by any securities company to date.

For 2014, 2015 and 2016, our total revenue and other income was RMB24,403.1 million, RMB52,108.8 million and RMB36,022.5 million, respectively, and our profit for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company for the same periods was RMB6,757.9 million, RMB15,700.3 million and RMB9,841.4 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, our total equity attributable to equity holders of the Company was RMB99,964.4 million and our total assets was RMB411,749.0 million.

We derive our success from a consensus of our culture among our employees, and the continuous implementation of such culture:

- Our Value: We regard our clients as our first priority and balance the interests of all stakeholders. We prioritize our clients and aim to create value for them through our professional services. We believe that we can only further the interests of our Shareholders and employees through creating value for our clients. We also believe that the pursuit of long-term goals can lead to the achievement of short-term objectives, and we are committed to striking a balance between business scale and profitability.
- Our Approach to Profession: We adopt a culture of risk management and excellence. We believe that risk management creates value and future development relies on compliant operations. We seek to identify the best people for all positions, and to provide the best quality services and deliver the best results to our clients.

BUSINESS

- Our People Culture: We are a people business and we promote collaboration and cooperation. We view our employees as the cornerstone of our survival and growth. We place strong emphasis on our culture and heritage. We give our best employees opportunities for career advancements. Our people culture is based on both shared responsibilities and shared rewards.
- Our Code of Conduct: We excel by innovation and cherish our reputation. We believe that innovation is the driver for our future growth and the key to a sustainable leading position. We always cultivate a sense of crisis and take forward-looking and preemptive actions. We cherish our reputation, honor professional ethics, and commit to our status as a well-respected company.

Our vision is to become an integrated financial services provider with roots in China, global coverage and strong influence. Leveraging our strong competitive advantage in the PRC, we will promote our internationalization by building up our global network and international execution capabilities, so that we can meet our clients' demand for cross-border financial services.

The following table sets forth our business segments:

Institutional Finance	Personal Finance	Investment Management	International Business
Investment Banking	Institutional Investor Services

- Institutional Finance: Our institutional finance business comprises investment banking and institutional investor services. We strive to capture market opportunities through collaboration between these two business lines:
 - Our investment banking business provides listing sponsorship, equity underwriting, debt underwriting, structured debt financing, M&A financial advisory and diversified corporate solutions to corporate and government clients;
 - Our institutional investor services business provides prime brokerage, securities-backed financing and research services to institutional investors. We also conduct proprietary trading in equities, derivative financial instruments and FICC;

BUSINESS

- Personal Finance: Our personal finance business provides, through both offline and online channels, securities and futures brokerage, margin financing and securities lending, wealth management and financial planning services;
- Investment Management: Our investment management business provides asset management and fund management services to institutions and individuals, and also includes our direct investment business; and
- International Business: We conduct brokerage, corporate finance, asset management, loans and financing as well as financial products, market making and investments businesses in Hong Kong mainly through Guotai Junan International. Meanwhile, we have also built an international business platform around Guotai Junan Financial Holdings. We have expanded our business presence into the United States and Singapore.

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

We believe that by capitalizing upon the following competitive strengths, we will continue to seize the growth opportunities in the PRC capital markets and maintain our long-term, consistent and across-the-board leadership position.

Deeply Rooted Culture of Risk Management and Excellence

We firmly believe that risk management is the core competency of securities companies. We have established a comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system covering risks across all our business lines and operations, including market risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, operational risk and compliance risk. Through a four-tier risk management structure led by the Board, we correctly identify, reasonably evaluate, dynamically monitor, timely respond to and effectively control various risks. Our four-tier risk management structure has enhanced our risk management capabilities and provided effective assurance for our innovative transformation and sustainable development. Meanwhile, we use advanced risk management tools and technologies to manage the Company's overall risk exposures in a proactive way by layered authorization, quantitative management and real-time monitoring and analysis. As of December 31, 2016, our compliance and risk management team accounted for 5.9% of our total employees. This team is embedded in our business divisions and holds the authority to review and approve all strategic and day-to-day business decisions. The risk management personnel for our key business functions have in-depth understanding of our business, which is conducive to preventing risk events. Compliance and risk management is also an important factor for determining the promotion and remuneration of our employees. Our comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system has helped us attain excellent regulatory ratings from the CSRC. We are the only one among the Top Five Securities Companies in the PRC to have attained the regulatory rating of Class A Grade AA for nine consecutive years from 2008 to 2016. Class A Grade AA is the highest rating ever attained by any securities company to date.

Our culture of excellence is embedded in our day-to-day management and operations, and is well reflected in our talent selection and our approach to client services:

- We are committed to identifying the best people for all positions. We have a rigorous talent development system. We tend to promote people internally to lead our business divisions in order to best inspire teamwork and pass on our corporate culture. As of December 31,

BUSINESS

2016, 60.5% of our management team at middle level or above have been working with us for ten years or more. We have also established a large external talent database to continuously track the most talented individuals in the market to complement and enhance our team. As a result of the market reputation of our high-caliber team, good career development paths and a market-oriented incentive system, our employees are proud to work for us. As of December 31, 2016, 59.7% of our employees have been with us for more than three years. Our workforce has remained stable over the past few years, with an average annual employee turnover rate of only 10.1% for the Track Record Period;

- We are committed to providing the highest quality services to and achieving the best results for our clients. We gain trust from our clients through high quality services, which is crucial to enhancing the loyalty of existing clients, expanding our client base and maintaining our premium pricing. For example, during the Track Record Period, we have served on two or more mandates for 137 of our investment banking clients, averaging more than three mandates per client. Our quality services have built up an excellent reputation in the industry, and our personal finance client accounts grew at a CAGR of 38.4% from 4.8 million as of December 31, 2014 to 9.1 million as of December 31, 2016. In addition, we enjoy a distinctive pricing premium for many of our services. Our commission rate for securities brokerage is consistently higher than the industry average. For example, in 2016, our average stocks and funds brokerage net commission rate was 4.34 basis points, 16.3% higher than the industry average.

We firmly believe that our culture of risk management and of excellence is deeply rooted among our employees and is the most fundamental factor that has made us a long-term and consistent leader in the PRC securities industry.

Across-the-board Leader in the PRC Capital Markets

We are a consistent leader in terms of business scale. From 2011 to 2015, our operating revenue, net profit attributable to equity holders of the Company and total assets ranked among the top three in the industry for five consecutive years. In 2016, both the Company's operating revenue and net profit ranked second in the industry. Our various businesses achieved comprehensive and balanced growth and were among the top in the securities industry:

Institutional Finance

Investment Banking

- Ranked third in terms of cumulative net revenue from investment banking business in 2014 and 2015
- Ranked second in terms of cumulative equity underwritten amount during the Track Record Period; ranked second in terms of cumulative underwritten amount for equity refinancing during the same period

BUSINESS

- Ranked third in terms of cumulative debt underwritten amount during the Track Record Period; ranked second in terms of cumulative underwritten amount for corporate bonds during the same period

- Ranked third in terms of balance of asset under discretionary management as of December 31, 2015
- Ranked third in terms of volume of enterprise asset-backed securities issued in 2015

International Business

- Ranked third among PRC securities companies in Hong Kong in terms of the number of IPOs underwritten in Hong Kong during the Track Record Period

Our leading positions in our business lines have led to our outstanding brand as well as abundant cross-selling opportunities. Leveraging our clients' recognition of our high quality one-stop integrated services, we are able to capture a larger share of revenue in the market. In addition, our diversified businesses have resulted in a more stable revenue structure that can help mitigate the impact of market volatility.

In addition to the pursuit of business scale and industry ranking, we also emphasize the quality of business growth as well as the control of risk exposure:

- With respect to our investment banking business, we impose a rigorous criterion for selecting clients and do not expand our business hastily;
- With respect to our securities brokerage and asset management businesses, we focus on providing value-added services. Although the trading volume of our stocks and funds brokerage business for 2016 ranked and the balance of our AUM as of December 31, 2016 ranked both ranked third in the industry, our net revenue from these two businesses for 2016 ranked first and second, respectively, in the industry; and
- With respect to our margin financing and securities lending business, we adjusted our exposure ahead of our peers in the volatile market during the first half of 2015. As a result, we did not incur loss from forced liquidation in 2015.

BUSINESS

The balance we strike between business scale and quality has enabled us to consistently achieve better capital utilization and return on net assets than the industry averages. The Company's net assets as of December 31, 2016 ranked third in the industry, while both of the Company's operating revenue and net profit in 2016 ranked second in the industry. Our average return on net assets for the ten years from 2007 to 2016 was 18.8%, significantly higher than the industry average of 14.7%.

Pioneer of Technology and Innovation in the PRC Securities Industry

We believe that IT is critical to the future growth of securities companies. We make strategic investments in IT and continuously promote proprietary IT innovation. We are a frontrunner in the application of IT in the securities industry:

- In 2003, we were the first securities company in the industry to implement centralized trading, centralized risk management and centralized financial management;
- The SAC has granted Securities and Futures Industry Technology Awards to 14 of our technological achievements, making us the most frequent recipient of this award and the only securities company to receive the first prize of this award; and
- In 2014, we established a new data center, which is the only high grade, high capacity and independent data center park in the securities industry. When the daily trading volume of stocks and funds of the market increased sharply to nearly RMB2.5 trillion in 2015, our ability to process 50,000 transactions per second ensured efficient trading, clearing and settlement. Currently, our data center supports 200,000 transactions per second and is expected to support RMB10 trillion daily trading volume of stocks and funds of the market.

In recent years, our IT management capabilities have been widely recognized. We obtained the CMMI3, ISO20000 and ISO27001 international standard certifications, and are the only PRC securities company that has all of these IT certifications.

We proactively deploy leading information technologies to guide our business decisions, enhance client experience and improve our management capabilities:

- We have built client profiles with more than 500 labels and accurately analyze them to guide the formulation of our strategies in key areas such as brokerage commission rate, business network structure, new product design as well as investment and financing product promotion;
- Our mobile APP has rich functions that focus on strengthening the Internet experience, providing intelligent analysis tools and delivering tailored investment advice and financial services to clients. These app functions, based on big data analysis, also enhance the capabilities of our clients in stock selection, market timing, asset allocation and risk management, and their abilities in investment and wealth management. As of December 31, 2016, there were approximately 12.0 million users of our mobile APP; and

- Our advanced financial management information system and risk management information system timely track our financial data, liquidity data, risk exposure and various risk management indicators. This tracking allows us to monitor and report on a daily basis the asset allocation, business scale and risk limits of each business line, enables our management to timely respond to changes and provides solid support for the stable operation of our business.

Innovation is a key pillar of our industry-leading position. Our strong innovation capabilities enable us to continue to proactively introduce innovative products and services to meet the increasing demands of client for financial services and differentiate us from our competitors. The sense of crisis and forward-thinking mentality of our management enable us to capture market trends with first-mover advantages:

- Investment banking business: we are skilled in designing optimal financial solutions tailored to the needs of our clients and have pioneered a number of new products and new deal structures in the PRC market, which have helped to broaden the financing channels of our clients, including the first domestic entire enterprise listing through share conversion and merger by absorption, the first warrant issuance, the first credit assets securitization, the first corporate assets securitization, the first commercial bank hybrid capital bond issuance and the first preferred share issuance;
- Institutional investor services business: we were the first securities company to establish a securities research institute and to set up a comprehensive prime brokerage service system. In addition, we have continued to expand our product and service offerings to institutional investors and were the first in the industry to obtain the Shanghai Gold Exchange International Class A membership, one of the first batch of companies to become a precious metal spot contract broker and to obtain the accounting settlement business qualification in the China (Shanghai) Pilot Free-Trade Zone, the only securities company to obtain the foreign exchange settlement and sales business license and formed an industry-leading FICC business system;
- Personal finance business: we were among the first batch of securities companies to obtain the margin financing and securities lending pilot qualification and the financial futures and options brokerage qualification, and were also the first securities company to obtain a payment license. We began to shift from the traditional securities brokerage business model towards a comprehensive wealth management business model as early as 2011, which has enhanced the experience and convenience of our individual clients, and enabled us to achieve a considerable pricing premium and diversify our revenue source. In 2016, through the provision of comprehensive financial services, the revenue the securities branches of the Company generated from businesses other than ordinary brokerage business accounted for 29.6% of the total revenue of such branches;
- Investment management business: we were among the first in the industry to establish an asset management subsidiary and to obtain the bond-pledged quotation and repurchase business qualification. We have strong product development capabilities and successfully applied arbitrage strategies and structured products to client asset management as early as 2003. We also launched the first hedge fund product, the first statistical arbitrage product and the first broker classified hedging product in China, which enabled us to better meet the demands for investment products from high-net-worth clients; and

- International business: we were among the first in the industry to provide our clients with an online trading platform and online overseas trading system, which improved the convenience of trading and overseas investment. As of the Latest Practicable Date, our global “one-stop” online trading platform supports trading in eight securities markets and over 20 global futures and foreign exchange markets. We are also among the first in the industry to obtain the RQFII qualification and the first securities company to issue RQFII products. Moreover, we led the industry in promoting the internationalization of domestic enterprises and acted as a sponsor for the first H share listing of an A share-listed company, a sponsor for the first H share listing of an A share- and B share-listed company, and the sole sponsor for the first conversion of B shares into H shares and listing.

These innovative and precedent-setting products and services offer distinctive features that meet specific risk preference and needs of different investors and clients. They enable us to achieve a distinctive pricing premium, enhance our brand recognition, reinforce the loyalty of our clients, establish our first-mover advantages and better capture market opportunities. Continuous innovation has also brought us further diversified income growth. The ratio of Revenue from Innovative Businesses to our total revenue and other income increased from 30.3% in 2014 to 39.4% in 2016.

BUSINESS STRATEGIES

We aim to be an integrated financial services provider with an across-the-board leading position in China and international competitiveness. In particular, we plan to implement the following business strategies:

Institutional Finance: Providing Integrated Financial Solutions to Institutional Clients

We intend to enhance our integrated institutional financial service system based on the three dimensions of client, sector and product. We will moderately expand our balance sheet and grow our capital intermediary business, to better meet the needs of our institutional clients.

- Client: Our account manager team is critical to the development of our integrated financial services business. We intend to institutionalize client relationship with multi-point coverage of the same institutional client. Our account manager team is responsible for exploring client needs and leading the sector and product teams to provide tailored services;
- Sector: Organizing our businesses by sector is the key to enhancing our professional competence and market influence. We implement this initiative across our investment banking, research and proprietary trading businesses. This will help us identify key industries and corporate clients, enhance our ability to provide professional advice to our clients and strengthen our pricing and sales capabilities;
- Product: Enhancing product development capability is the basis for us to provide our clients with value-added services. By taking the lead in obtaining the relevant business licenses, we have built a new FICC business platform and can provide high value-added trading and risk management services to our institutional investor clients and customized solutions to our corporate clients.

BUSINESS

Personal Finance: Enhancing Client Stickiness

Client stickiness is the key to the effective expansion of our client base. We intend to enhance client experience and stickiness through investing in financial technologies, enhancing our products pool and upgrading our integrated wealth management service system:

- We will increase investment in the use of financial technologies such as big data and artificial intelligence through proprietary development and acquisitions to provide our clients with bespoke services;
- We will improve our product development, product introduction and product evaluation system. We will also establish a multi-asset class, multi-market and multi-strategy product pool, and strengthen our ability to customize investment portfolios for our clients;
- We will optimize and upgrade our integrated financial service model that combines online and offline channels. We will also improve our online platform which integrates our comprehensive services such as trading, wealth management, financing and payment, and further enhance the service of our investment adviser team for high-end clients.

Investment Management: Expanding AUM

Expanding our AUM will result in not only significant brand and market influence, but also strong bargaining power and opportunities for additional revenue. We intend to expand the scale of our AUM through the following steps:

- We will grow the scale of our AUM through inorganic growth and improve our multi-tiered and multi-product asset management system;
- We will rapidly expand our high-value-added and non-discretionary funds focusing on fixed income funds, asset-backed securities and FOF asset management products; and
- We will expand our direct investment business and form an asset management product system centered around sectors.

International Business: Focusing on the Demand of Domestic Clients for Global Asset Allocation

Leveraging our large domestic client base, we are committed to the growth of the following businesses which we believe have great growth potential:

- International asset management business: We intend to build a cross-border asset management platform through strategic cooperation to rapidly enhance our product development capability;

BUSINESS

- Global securities brokerage services: We intend to improve our advanced global brokerage service technology platform to meet the significant demand of domestic clients for overseas discretionary investment, and meet the needs of our institutional investor clients for professional trading;
- Cross-border M&A services: We intend to connect domestic capital and overseas projects by providing financial advisory, financing and risk management services through organic growth or strategic cooperations with leading international investment banks.

OUR PRINCIPAL BUSINESS LINES

We have established a comprehensive and balanced combination of businesses. Through our matrix management structure with both geographic line and business line reporting, we integrate the diverse businesses, products and service offerings, provide comprehensive financial services to institutional, corporate and individual clients, and promote cooperation and cross-selling across our business lines and between our domestic and overseas businesses.

Investment Banking

Our investment banking business provides listing sponsorship, equity underwriting, debt underwriting, structured debt financing, M&A financial advisory and diversified corporate solutions to corporate and government clients. Our investment banking business covers all major PRC regions and all major industries. In particular, we have accumulated extensive experience in the finance, energy, infrastructure, IT, consumer goods and healthcare industries. We also focus on emerging industries and closely track companies with significant growth potential in those industries. According to the SAC, we ranked third in the industry in terms of cumulative net revenue from investment banking business in 2014 and 2015.

Our investment banking business has a solid client base. We focus on building and maintaining long-term relationships with, and provide one-stop, full life cycle investment banking services to, our corporate clients. Through close coordination between our M&A advisory business and our equity and debt financing businesses, we develop deep relationship with our clients, satisfy their various needs, and grow together with them. During the Track Record Period, we completed 652 investment banking mandates for 373 clients.

BUSINESS

We have built up high client loyalty with our investment banking clients. During the Track Record Period, we completed two or more mandates per client for 137 investment banking clients, averaging more than three mandates per client. Equity Financing

Our equity financing business primarily comprises IPOs, refinancing and preferred share issuances. In response to our corporate clients' profiles and their differentiated requirements with respect to equity and capital structures, we offer various equity financing instruments and financial services to address their demand for equity capital at different stages of their life cycle. According to Wind Info, we ranked second in the industry in terms of aggregated amount of equity underwritten during the Track Record Period.

While actively developing our IPO business, we are committed to the development of high value-added services. We focus on exploring refinancing needs for our IPO clients and M&A clients, and emphasize refinancing mandates including private placements, rights issuances and convertible bond issuances, as well as preferred share issuances. As a result, we are able to maintain the diversity of our equity financing products. According to Wind Info, we ranked second in the industry in terms of cumulative amount of equity refinancing underwritten during the Track Record Period.

Debt Financing

We have a strong debt financing business. We are a leader among domestic securities companies with the largest collection of debt financing business qualifications. We are a member of the MOF underwriting syndicate for treasury bonds as well as the underwriting syndicate for financial bonds issued by the Three Policy Banks. We are qualified to lead the underwriting of various debt financing instruments including enterprise bonds, corporate bonds, financial bonds and private placement notes by non-financial enterprises. We also acted as a lead underwriter for many large debt securities offerings by China Railway Corporation, State Grid Corporation of China, China National Petroleum Corporation, China Petrochemical Corporation and State Development & Investment Corporation. We proactively leverage the market trend of proliferating debt financing instruments and lead in the underwriting of innovative bond instruments including asset-backed securities, green financial bonds and panda bonds. According to Wind Info, we ranked third in the industry in terms of cumulative amount of debt underwritten for the Track Record Period.

Others

Our investment banking business also includes NEEQ listing and financing. We were qualified as a NEEQ lead manager in 2006 and were the first securities company to complete a private placement for a NEEQ-listed company. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, we assisted 38, 136 and 120 companies to list on NEEQ, respectively. We focus on the risk management of NEEQ listing projects by establishing an independent quality control team, and actively control the number while striving to enhance the quality of NEEQ listing projects we work on.

Institutional Investor Services

Our institutional investor services business provides prime brokerage, securities-backed financing and research services to institutional investors. We also conduct proprietary trading in equities, derivative financial instruments and FICC. Our institutional clients primarily include sovereign wealth funds, NSSF, mutual funds, insurance companies, private funds, QFII/RQFII, trust companies and commercial banks. As of December 31, 2016, we served more than 20,000 institutional investors.

Custody and Outsourcing

Our custody business provides institutional investors with asset custody, fund clearing and settlement, investment monitoring, fund valuation, information disclosure and other services. Our outsourcing business provides institutional investors with basic services including fund unit registration and fund valuation as well as value-added services including performance review, contract drafting and information disclosure. In April 2013, we were qualified to pilot the comprehensive custody business for private funds. In May 2014, we were qualified for securities investment funds custody business. Since April 2015, we have been registered as a private fund business outsourcing service organization. In 2016, we passed the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board ISAE3402 review for the whole year of 2015. According to Wind Info, as of December 31, 2016, our balance of assets under custody from mutual funds ranked second in the securities company custody industry.

BUSINESS

We were among the first in the industry to launch an Internet-based fund operation platform, which covers hundreds of customizable functions for fund management, including product life cycle management, fund transfer, valuation and accounting, share registration, performance analysis, customized statements and information disclosure. We established an efficient fund settlement and transfer system and achieved direct processing of fund settlement. Through advanced data analysis system, our fund performance analysis services allow fund managers to fully analyze their investment portfolio's performance and execution of their investment strategies according to six dimensions, namely product size, net value analysis, risk analysis, position analysis, attribution analysis and transaction analysis.

The following table sets forth an overview of our custody and outsourcing business for the periods or as of the dates indicated:

- (2) Calculated by dividing net investment gains by the average balance of net position of proprietary trading at the beginning and the end of the year.

The decrease in net investment gains and net return on investment from 2015 to 2016 was primarily due to unfavorable A share stock market performance. The increase in the net investment gains from 2014 to 2015 was primarily due to the strong performance of the A share stock market in the first half of 2015.

Note:

- (1) In July 2015, in order to stabilize the stock market and restore investor's confidence, the Company undertook not to reduce its A share proprietary trading position below its balance as of July 3, 2015 if the SSE Composite Index is below 4,500. As of December 31, 2016, there is a difference of RMB5,732.2 million between the investment position in stocks of the Group's proprietary trading and the position of the Company's A share proprietary trading covered by this undertaking in the amount of RMB4,977.2 million. This difference was primarily due to (i) the investment position of stocks of the Group's proprietary trading is recorded at market value, while the position of the Company's A share proprietary trading covered by this undertaking is calculated at cost; (ii) the Company's undertaking does not apply to its subsidiaries, and as a result, the investment position in stocks of the proprietary trading of Shanghai Securities, the

BUSINESS

Company's subsidiary, is consolidated into that of the Group, but does not count as part of the position of A share proprietary trading covered by the Company's undertaking; and (iii) the position of the Company's A share proprietary trading covered by the undertaking does not include the following items, which is part of the investment position in stocks of the Group's proprietary trading: (a) the stocks to be lent to clients under the Group's securities lending business; (b) the stocks involved in the Group's hedging activities; (c) the stocks involved in the Group's NEEQ market making business; (d) the Group's proprietary trading in H shares; and (e) other miscellaneous investment in stocks.

- (2) Others primarily comprised wealth management products, trust products and asset-backed securities.
- (3) The investment position of our proprietary trading belongs to the institutional finance segment. On the other hand, in our consolidated statements of financial position, available-for-sale financial assets, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, derivative financial assets, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and derivative financial liabilities are all classified based on consolidated asset classes, including financial assets and liabilities belongs to institutional finance, investment management and international business segments.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, the average month-end VaR (based on daily confidence interval of 95%) of our proprietary trading (excluding our contributions to designated accounts at China Securities Finance) was RMB98.1 million, RMB346.0 million and RMB185.6 million, respectively.

As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, for our proprietary investment activities, the leverage ratio for our debt securities (calculated as the ratio of our debt securities investment over the difference between such investment amount and the net amount of debt securities repurchases) was 2.41 times, 2.20 times and 1.68 times, respectively; the leverage ratio for our stock index futures (calculated as the ratio of the contract value of unilateral positions over the amount of margins) was 9.52 times, 4.88 times and 4.88 times. The leverage ratio for our debt securities and our stock index futures reflect the ratio of our total proprietary trading in debt securities and stock index futures, respectively, to our own capital for these trading. The decrease in the leverage ratio for our debt securities during the Track Record Period was primarily because we focused on low risk and non-directional trading and, based on market conditions, proactively decreased our leverage in proprietary trading in debt securities to effectively manage the associated risks. The decrease in the leverage ratio in stock index futures from December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2015 was primarily due to the adjustment in the margin requirement for stock index futures trading by China Financial Futures Exchange. We proactively monitor our leverage ratio for stock index futures to effectively manage the risks associated with our proprietary trading in stock index futures.

The assets for our proprietary trading business are recorded on our consolidated statement of financial position primarily as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets held under resale agreements with debt securities and others as underlying assets.

Stocks, Funds and Derivative Financial Instruments Trading

We trade stocks and funds for our own accounts and pursue absolute returns. We focus on value investment in selected sectors and stocks. We select stocks with long-term investment value and decide on the timing to buy or sell based on macro-economic research, industry analysis, market-cycles analysis and our understanding of behavior of market participants. Our decisions to buy or sell are also based upon our research of a target stock's industry, business models, financial condition and quality of the management team. We formulate diversified trading strategies and continuously adjust them based on market trends and conditions to secure stable investment gains.

BUSINESS

We follow the principle of diversified investment and implement a dynamically adjusted stop-loss and profit-taking mechanism. We aim to protect our investment gains by closely monitoring market risks and adjusting our warning and stop-loss limits accordingly. For both individual investments and investment portfolios, if the market prices of the securities we hold increased after our initial investment, we will move up the warning and stop-loss limits as appropriate, so that we can still protect our initial gains if the market price of the securities decreases afterwards. We have also established a limit for aggregated loss from our proprietary equity trading operations.

We engage in arbitrage and quantitative trading of derivative financial instruments in China. We adopt multiple strategies in multiple markets utilizing multiple financial products to identify and capture arbitrage opportunities and effectively hedge the risk from market fluctuations. Derivative financial instruments that we have used include CSI300 Index Futures, SSE50 Index Futures and SSE50 ETF Option. Our trading of derivative financial instruments has gradually expanded from traditional ETF arbitrage and stock market index futures arbitrage into Alpha strategy investment, market-making and trading of exchange traded options, equity return swaps, OTC options, structured notes and other OTC products. We adjust our trading strategies and the scale of each type of hedging and quantitative trading activities from time to time based on our assessment of the market conditions.

We also provide market-making services for financial products traded on stock exchanges. We are one of the major technical consultants for SSE50 ETF, the first ETF in China, as well as a liquidity service provider for one of the first cross-market ETF innovative products in China, a core member of SZSE100 ETF Major Innovation Alliance and a lead dealer of various ETFs including SSE180 ETF. In 2015, we were qualified as a lead market-maker for SSE50 ETF Option.

In July 2015, in order to stabilize the stock market and restore investor's confidence, the Company undertook not to reduce its A share proprietary trading position below its balance as of July 3, 2015 if the SSE Composite Index is below 4,500. As of July 3, 2015 and December 31, 2016, the net position of the Company's A share proprietary trading covered by this undertaking was RMB3,678.5 million and RMB4,977.2 million, respectively.

FICC Trading

Our FICC trading primarily involves fixed-income securities, commodities trading, including precious metals, as well as currencies. We proactively develop non-directional FICC trading and enhance our trading capabilities for major global financial assets. We have established an industry-leading comprehensive FICC operation system and have maintained our industry-leading position.

Among the PRC securities companies, we are one of the first to engage in the fixed-income trading business and have obtained the most qualifications for fixed-income trading and investment business. We have been qualified as a primary dealer in the open market and on the stock exchanges granted by the PBOC. We are also qualified as a market maker for the interbank and stock exchanges bond market, interest rate swap business, bond-pledged quotation and repurchase business, carbon emission trading as well as a member of the underwriting syndicate for treasury bonds and financial bonds. We are also the first PRC securities company to qualify for interbank gold price inquiries. We were among the first batch of PRC securities companies that were admitted as members of Shanghai

Gold Exchange and are also the first PRC securities company to join the International Emissions Trading Association (IETA). We are also the only PRC securities company to obtain the foreign exchange sales and settlement business qualification as of the Latest Practicable Date. In March 2016, our “Financial Innovation in FICC Business Chain” research received the First Prize for Achievement in Financial Innovation in 2015 in Shanghai.

We follow a prudent investment strategy for our FICC business with the objective to maintain a balance between income growth and earnings stability. Based on our research and assessment of China’s economic situation and policy trends, we actively explore new investment products and opportunities in the market. We emphasize risk management and hedge interest rate risk through derivative financial instruments including interest rate swaps and treasury bond futures. Through diversified asset allocation, we seek to reduce concentration risk of our portfolio and achieve long-term return while ensuring that the associated risks are measurable and manageable. We adjust our fixed-income portfolio from time to time in light of changes in macro-economic conditions and monetary policies. During the Track Record Period, we continued to improve our quantitative trading system and foreign exchange sales and settlement platform, and achieved significant growth in structured finance, gold and foreign exchange trading.

Our FICC trading business also includes market-making business in the PRC interbank bond market. Our market-making activities cover treasury bonds, financial bonds, short-term financing bills and medium-term notes.

Asset Management Products

According to our overall asset allocation strategy and our need for cash management, we also invest in asset management products as part of our proprietary trading. Such products mainly include the asset management products offered by Guotai Junan Asset Management. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the balance of our investments in asset management products was RMB895.7 million, RMB3,266.6 million and RMB7,352.5 million, respectively.

Contributions to Designated Accounts at China Securities Finance

In July 2015 and September 2015, we agreed to contribute funds to designated accounts set up by China Securities Finance for buying PRC blue chip ETFs, respectively, together with 20 and 49 other PRC securities companies, respectively, to stabilize the stock market and restore investor confidence. We have contributed twice to China Securities Finance in an aggregate amount of RMB17,014.0 million, representing 20% of the net assets of the Company as of July 31, 2015. Under relevant agreements, China Securities Finance manages the contributions of all securities companies and the securities companies share the risks and returns from the investment in proportion to their respective contribution. We cannot assess how China Securities Finance invests the funds contributed to the designated accounts or when the investment will be returned.

BUSINESS

Our contributions to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance are recorded as available-for-sale financial assets in our consolidated statement of financial position. Based on the quarterly valuation report of China Securities Finance, changes in the fair value of such contributions will affect our equity position through other comprehensive income. As of December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016, the fair value of our contribution to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance was RMB16,168.6 million and RMB15,964.2 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, the accumulated decrease in fair value of our contributions amounted to RMB1,049.8 million.

Considering the nature and purpose of our contributions to the designated account at China Securities Finance, its difference from our proprietary trading stock investment and uncontrollable timing for recovery, we recognize that there is no objective evidence of impairment with significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of our contributions as of December 31, 2016. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2016, we did not make provisions for impairment with respect to our contributions to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance.

Securities-backed Financing

Our securities-backed financing business includes stock-pledged financing and securities repurchase.

Our stock-pledged financing business provides financing to clients and accepts pledges of stocks or other securities held by them as collateral, under agreement that they will repay us in exchange for the release of pledges in the future. In June 2013, we became one of the first batch of securities companies to participate in the pilot program of stock-pledged financing on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. According to the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, as of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the outstanding balance of our stock-pledged financing business ranked fourth, fourth and third in the industry, respectively.

Under our securities repurchase business, eligible clients sell securities to us at an agreed price and agree to repurchase these securities from us at an agreed price on a future date.

Clients

Our personal finance business has a high-quality and loyal client base. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the number of our personal finance clients was 4.6 million, 6.4 million and 8.5 million, respectively. We manage these clients based on the accounts they open with us. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the number of our personal finance client accounts was 4.8 million, 6.7 million and 9.1 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, the total number of active accounts for our personal finance business was approximately 7.5 million, representing 82.6% of the total number of accounts. As of the same date, 46.9% of our personal finance client accounts had been opened for over three years and 18.1% had been opened for over ten years.

We have categorized client accounts for our personal finance business based on client relationships, risk tolerance, revenue contribution and investment preferences. We also introduced account lifecycle management and conducted differentiated value positioning to clients. As a result, we are able to design personalized core value service packages and ancillary service products for different types of accounts to enhance the allocation accuracy of our services and our pricing power.

Based on account balance, our personal finance client accounts are categorized as follows:

- Ordinary Accounts: accounts with a balance of less than RMB0.5 million;
- Affluent Accounts: accounts with a balance of not less than RMB0.5 million but less than RMB5.0 million; and
- High-net-worth Accounts: accounts with a balance of RMB5.0 million or above.

We provide differentiated value-added services to these three categories of accounts:

- For ordinary accounts, we offer standard investment and wealth management services, including basic trading, market information, industry and company data and analysis as well as basic membership service packages.
- For affluent accounts, we assign designated investment advisers to them and offer exclusive investment and wealth management services. Based on clients' individualized demands, we select from diversified and serialized services and products to generate individualized membership service packages.
- For high-net-worth accounts, we assign designated wealth advisers, supported by our expert team, and offer customized investment and wealth management services, including comprehensive wealth planning, high-end integrated information services, high-end customized investment, financing and wealth management products and cross-border investment services.

As of December 31, 2016, our affluent and high-net-worth accounts accounted for 3.0% of our personal finance accounts, and the aggregated balance of affluent and high-net-worth accounts accounted for 90.2% of the total balance of our personal finance client accounts.

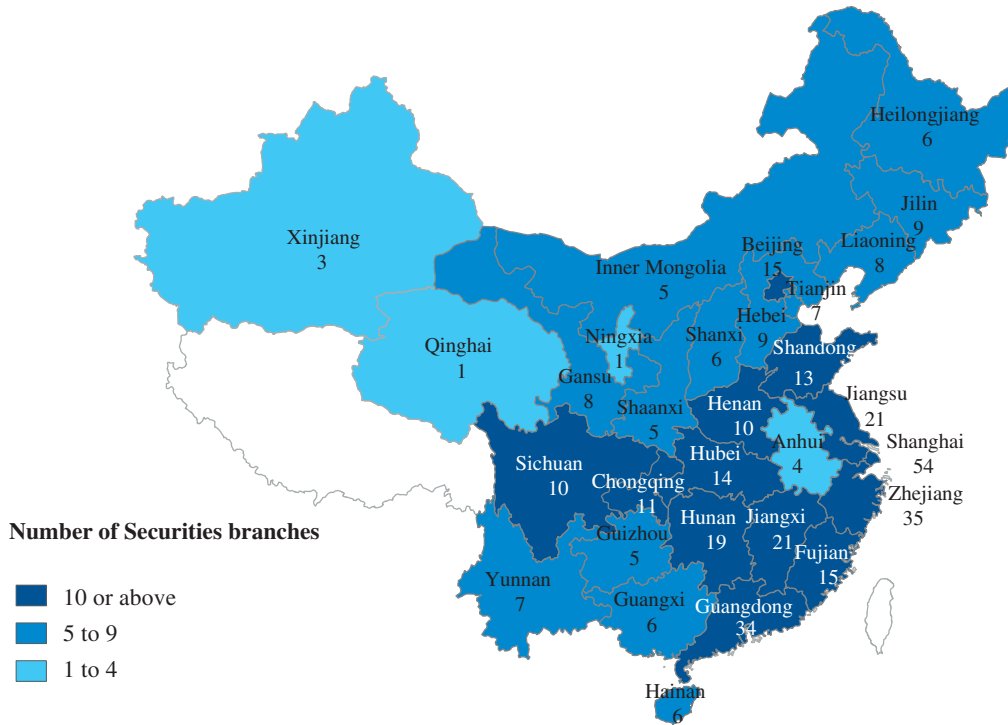

Marketing Channels

We provide comprehensive financial services to our personal finance clients through both offline and online platforms. We have gradually transformed the marketing channels established for personal finance business into a comprehensive financial service platform which covers various businesses. In 2016, through the provision of comprehensive financial services, the revenue the securities branches of the Company generated from businesses other than ordinary brokerage business accounted for 29.6% of the total revenue of such branches.

BUSINESS

Offline Network

Our securities branches in each province are centrally managed by the provincial branch company as one unit to allow efficient collaboration and resource sharing. As of December 31, 2016, we had 31 branch offices and 368 securities branches across 30 provinces in the PRC and ranked second among PRC securities companies in terms of the number of branches. The following diagram shows the distribution of our securities branches as of December 31, 2016:

As early as 2004, we launched a four-layer multi-core centralized trading system based on PC servers across our securities branches under a cloud computing model. This system is the first centralized trading system in the industry supports more than 100 securities branches, which reduced setup and operating costs of our securities branches and improved their operating efficiency.

We optimize the network structure of our securities branches to cover clients in depth. We also accelerate the upgrade of traditional outlets in terms of both function and structure, set up new types of outlets, which mainly comprise Type-C branches, to expand our marketing network and strive to increase our market share. During the Track Record Period, we mainly set up Type-C branches and gradually decreased the number of Type-A branches. Type-C branches may rapidly expand our networks with lower capital expenditures by providing trading services with compact equipment, smaller space, lower setup expenses and fewer on-site employees.

- (2) Type-B branches are not equipped with an IT system for on-site trading, but rely upon the IT system of the headquarters or other securities branches to provide on-site trading services for clients, as defined under the Guidelines for Information Technology of Securities Branches of Securities Companies.
- (3) Type-C branches are branches where on-site trading service is not available, as defined under the Guidelines for Information Technology of Securities Branches of Securities Companies.

Online Platform

We were among the first batch of PRC securities companies to carry out online account registration and online trading. In April 2014, we obtained the pilot qualification for Internet securities business. We continue to upgrade our electronic trading platform and are gradually migrating our standardized business online. Currently, online account registration and online trading have become the main channel for our personal finance business.

We have established three innovative Internet financial platforms, including Jun Hong Financial Mall (君弘金融商城), a mobile APP group and the WeChat public account service platform, and formed a new service model based on the “Cloud Service” concept. Our Jun Hong Financial Mall is the first online financial mall operated by a domestic securities company. It provides intelligent and one-stop wealth management services. Our mobile APP, Guotai Junan Jun Hong (國泰君安君弘), is one of the first mobile securities app launched by a domestic securities company which offers the best user experiences and most functions. Our professional Internet wealth management service platform, Fu Yi (富易), is one of the few trading computer software developed in-house by a domestic securities company. The services provided include full-market information, fast and convenient trading, one-click purchase of wealth management products and all-round account analyzes. We also launched a series of products, tools and services with Internet features which provide our clients with comprehensive online financial services including online microfinance, transfer and payment and daily consumption. As of December 31, 2016, there are approximately 12.0 million users of our mobile APP.

Investment Adviser Team

We provide customized, diversified and integrated wealth management services to our affluent and high-net-worth clients through our investment adviser team. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, we had in total 976, 1,070 and 1,227 investment advisers, respectively. As of December 31, 2016, the number of our investment advisers ranked second in the PRC securities industry.

BUSINESS

In order to enhance the standard and efficiency by which our investment advisers serve our clients, we developed Jun Hong Bai Shi Tong (君弘百事通), a one-stop service platform for our employees, in May 2010. The Jun Hong Bai Shi Tong platform is built upon our client and product information database. It has streamlined and standardized key business flows and provided our investment advisers with practical tools, including account diagnosis and wealth management products allocation. Through client categorization and coordinated communication, our investment advisers can send relevant products marketing and services information to appropriate clients through various means including text messages, emails and system announcements.

Retail Brokerage

Our retail brokerage business comprises the securities brokerage and futures brokerage businesses we conduct in China.

Our retail brokerage business highly focuses on innovation and has pioneered various innovations in the industry:

- In November 2016, we were among the first to obtain the trading authorization for Hong Kong Stock Connect under Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect;
- In January 2015, we were among the first to qualify for stock option brokerage business;
- In October 2014, we were among the first to obtain the trading authorization for Hong Kong Stock Connect under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect;

Note:

(1) Average net commission rate is calculated by dividing total commission, net of relevant variable costs, by total trading volume.

During the Track Record Period, with the revocation of the “one investor one account” policy with regards to A share accounts opened by individual investors and the development of Internet finance, competition between securities companies has further intensified. We proactively adapted to this market trend and devised diversified value-added service plans based on clients’ asset balance and investment needs, including research, investment consulting, account analysis and wealth management. These value-added services have allowed us to charge differentiated brokerage commission rates which are higher than the average market rates.

Futures Brokerage

We primarily conduct our futures brokerage business in the PRC through Guotai Junan Futures. Guotai Junan Futures is a member of the Shanghai Futures Exchange, the Dalian Commodity Exchange, the Zhengzhou Commodity Exchange and the China Financial Futures Exchange. In addition, we also conduct our futures brokerage business in the PRC through Hicend Futures. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, our revenue from futures brokerage business ranked second, first and second in the industry, respectively; the trading volume of treasury bond futures ranked second, first and third in the industry, respectively; and the trading volume of stock market index futures ranked second, third and third in the industry, respectively.

As of December 31, 2016, we have established 17 futures branches in 15 cities in China. The Company and Shanghai Securities are both qualified to introduce clients to Guotai Junan Futures and Hicend Futures, respectively, for engaging in futures transactions. As of December 31, 2016, the Company and Shanghai Securities had 219 and 53 securities branches, respectively, engaging in the above businesses.

BUSINESS

The sources of funding and securities for our margin financing and securities lending business primarily include:

- Our equity securities held for proprietary trading;
- Our operating cash;
- Proceeds from the issuance of corporate bonds, subordinated bonds and structured notes;
- Proceeds from the issuance of asset management schemes;
- Margin loans receivable-backed financing. We enter into contracts to sell our margin loans receivable to counterparties for financing and agree to repurchase such receivable assets at an agreed future date; and
- Margin and securities refinancing. We borrow funds or securities from China Securities Finance and then lend them to our margin financing and securities lending clients. We qualified for the pilot margin and securities refinancing business in August 2012, and were among the first securities companies to qualify for the pilot securities refinancing business in February 2013. According to the margin and securities refinancing agreement we entered into with China Securities Finance, we can borrow funds or securities of up to RMB11.8 billion. As of January 31, 2017, our remaining loan facility for funds or securities was RMB7.1 billion.

Wealth Management

While maintaining and enhancing the competitiveness of our traditional securities brokerage business, we continue to expand the business and service scopes of our branch offices and endeavor to transform our retail brokerage business into a wealth management-centered business. In response to the asset balance and investment need of our clients, we provide them with diversified wealth management services, including sales of financial products and investment consultation.

Jun Hong Unified Accounts (君弘一户通) is the core of our wealth management business. Through their Jun Hong Unified Accounts, our clients can fully manage various types of assets under their accounts. Our clients can also conduct securities trading, futures trading, margin trading, fund subscription, purchase of wealth management products, fund remittance and transfer and consumption payment. In May 2013, we became the first securities company admitted to the PBOC's payment systems. As a result, we can provide a convenient, efficient and low-cost channel for our clients for the deployment of and exit from wealth management funds. As of December 31, 2016, the number of Jun Hong Unified Accounts reached 4.6 million.

BUSINESS

Meanwhile, we launched the Jun Hong Wealth Management Planning System (君弘理財規劃系統), through which we can customize reasonable and feasible wealth management plans for our clients by analyzing and evaluating their financial condition and wealth management goals. Supported by Jun Hong Unified Accounts and Jun Hong Wealth Management Planning System, we aim to explore the asset allocation needs of our personal finance clients and establish loyal client relationships.

Our wealth management business primarily offers financial products developed by us, mainly collective asset management schemes developed by Guotai Junan Asset Management. We also distribute more than 2,700 financial products developed by third parties. For 2014, 2015 and 2016, the income of our wealth management business derived from selling financial products developed by us was RMB105.9 million, RMB364.2 million and RMB625.4 million, respectively. As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has fully paid the total consideration of RMB660.8 million for this equity acquisition. As of the same date, the equity acquisition was pending approval of relevant regulatory authorities.

BUSINESS

Direct Investment

We conduct direct investment business, including private equity investment and principal investment, primarily through Guotai Junan Innovation Investment. Guotai Junan Innovation Investment and its fund management platform act as fund manager for private equity investment funds. Meanwhile, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment invests its own funds into the private equity investment funds and realizes profits through investment gains, performance incentives and management fees. We conduct financial or strategic principal investment in high-quality enterprises with our own funds primarily through Guotai Junan Innovation Investment.

Guotai Junan Innovation Investment and government-guided funds, industrial parks, industrial groups, listed companies, financial institutions and social capital jointly promote a series of investment funds, including NEEQ funds, project funds, industrial funds, M&A funds, debt funds and real estate funds. Guotai Junan Innovation Investment follows the philosophy of value investment, and focuses on the profitability and sustainable development of portfolio companies. It has rich investment experience in many sectors, including bio-medicine, IT, energy conservation and environmental protection, new materials, consumption and culture and media, and has established a layered investment project pipeline.

Meanwhile, we actively explore innovative business opportunities based on our strategic planning and conduct strategic investments primarily through Guotai Junan Innovation Investment. We pay attention to investment opportunities in traditional financial sectors including fund, banking, trust, and insurance while also tapping into emerging financial industries. We also explore investment opportunities in the financial technology sector to further our development strategy.

As of December 31, 2016, among the portfolio companies of Guotai Junan Innovation Investment, three had been listed on the A share market and 29 had been listed on NEEQ; Guotai Junan Innovation Investment also participated in the targeted issuance of seven A share companies. As of the same date, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has exited from four portfolio companies. Investments in these four companies generated a total investment yield of 69.1%, calculated by dividing total income upon exit by initial investment amount. Revenue of our direct investment business increased from RMB212.5 million in 2015 to RMB3,210.1 million in 2016, primarily due to the disposal of our 66.7% equity interest in Haiji Securities in February 2016 and realized a gain of RMB2,835.3 million.

International Business

In Hong Kong, we primarily conduct brokerage, corporate finance, asset management, loans and financing as well as financial products, market making and investments businesses through Guotai Junan International. Meanwhile, we have built our international business platform around Guotai Junan Financial Holdings. We have expanded our business into the United States and Singapore and are qualified to conduct M&A advisory business in the United States and asset management business in Singapore.

Guotai Junan International is a forerunner and leader in the internationalization of PRC securities companies. In July 2010, Guotai Junan International became the first PRC securities company conducting business in Hong Kong to be listed in Hong Kong through an IPO. In March 2011, Guotai Junan International was admitted as a constituent stock of the Hang Seng Composite Index. In September 2015, Guotai Junan International was admitted as a constituent stock of the Hang Seng Composite MidCap Index. As of December 31, 2016, the market capitalization of Guotai Junan International was HK$16,647.0 million.

Our international business has established a comprehensive business platform centered around Hong Kong, and provides diversified and integrated financial services to both domestic and overseas clients through close cooperation between our domestic and international business teams. With our large client base in China, our international business proactively captures the business opportunities in overseas listing and financing, overseas investment and cross-border M&A from Chinese enterprises. We have enhanced the cross-border operation of our wealth management business by capturing cross-border investment opportunities provided by the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, Mainland-Hong Kong Mutual Recognition of Funds, and exploring in depth the cross-border wealth management demand of affluent and high-net-worth clients. Meanwhile, we have been actively developing our cross-border asset management services and products, primarily through QDII, QFII and RQFII asset management schemes, to provide domestic and foreign investors with tailored cross-border investment services.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

We believe that IT is critical to the future growth of securities companies and highly value IT as the driver of our business growth. We have devoted substantial strategic resources to IT, continued to innovate in IT for the securities industry, and developed industry-leading IT capabilities.

BUSINESS

Advanced Capabilities of Information Technology

As of December 31, 2016, we have received 14 Securities and Futures Industry Science and Technology Awards, the top award of IT in the securities industry, making us the most frequent recipient of this award. We are also the only securities company to receive the First Class China Securities and Futures Industry Science and Technology Award. We have led the formulation of over ten major technology standards and specifications, and are one of the pioneers in the application of IT in the securities industry.

- In 2003, we were the first securities company in the industry to implement centralized trading, centralized risk control and centralized financial management.
- In 2014, we established a new data center, which is the only high grade, high capacity and independent data center park in the securities industry to date. When the daily trading volume of stocks and funds of the market increased sharply to nearly RMB2.5 trillion in 2015, our ability to process 50,000 transactions per second ensured efficient and smooth trading, clearing and settlement. Currently, our data center supports 200,000 transactions per second and is expected to support RMB10 trillion daily trading volume of stocks and funds of the market.
- In 2011, we became the first securities company to obtain the ISO20000 certification. In 2015, we became the first securities company to obtain the CMMI3 certification in the securities and futures industry. We are also the only PRC securities company that has all of the three major IT certifications, namely CMMI3, ISO20000 and ISO27001.

Our IT facilities such as centralized trading system, comprehensive financial service platform, mobile APP, PC trading software and big data are primarily jointly developed with external manufacturers in the early stages in order to accelerate development processes. In the later stage, our employees have assumed control of the research and development by taking the ownership of system architecture and code.

Information Technology as Driver of Business Growth

Advanced IT capacities have provided strong support for the safe operation, coordination, cooperation, innovation and transformation of our businesses. We continue to invest in technology and innovation, and utilize our technology to maintain the industry-leading positions of our various businesses. We use leading information technologies to guide our business decisions and create value:

- In 2004, we launched a four-layered multi-core centralized trading system based on PC servers under a cloud computing model. This system is the first centralized trading system in the industry that supports more than 100 securities branches, which reduced setup and operating costs of securities branches and improved their operating efficiency.

BUSINESS

- We were the first in the industry to launch a third-party depository system under a multi-bank model, which ensures the safety of trading and settlement funds for our clients while facilitates innovation and efficiency in the securities market and provides convenience to investors.
- We were the first to develop Internet securities technology in China and the first securities company to introduce specialized PC trading software, Fu Yi (富易). We are the first in the industry that allowed a client to open an account online which was verified through remote video, and also the first securities company to introduce the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Free Trade Zone business system.
- In 2011, we were the first to introduce a comprehensive financial services innovative platform. Through the fusion of and innovation between traditional architecture and Internet architecture, we integrated our business resources, opened up the PBOC payment channel, and achieved comprehensive coverage of business products and services, including securities, asset management, futures, bank wealth management, OTC markets, precious metals, payment and foreign exchange.
- We pioneered the development of big data technology. In 2014, we built clients profiles with more than 500 labels and accurately analyzed them to formulate our strategies in key areas including brokerage commission rate, business network layout, new product design and investment and financing product promotion. Our innovative application of big data technology in client services received the Product Innovation Prize of the 2016 Financial Technology Innovation Billboard of China awarded by the Internet Society of China.
- Our mobile APP has rich functions that focus on strengthening the Internet experience, providing intelligent analysis tools and delivering tailored investment advices and financial services to clients. These app functions also enhance the capabilities of our clients in stock selection, market timing, asset allocation and risk management, and their abilities in investment and wealth management, based on big data analysis.

Information Technology as Support to Management

Advanced IT also allows us to improve the management of our business.

- Our advanced financial management information system and risk management information system timely track our financial data, liquidity data, risk exposure and the value of various risk management indicators. This tracking facilitates asset allocation of each business as well as day-to-day supervision and report over business scope and risk limit, which enables our management to respond to changes in a timely manner and guarantees the stable operation of our business.

BUSINESS

- We were one of the first PRC securities companies to establish a proprietary risk management system and compliance management system as well as introduce an innovative off-site auditing system. We combine the proprietary risk management system and compliance management system with leading financial monitoring system, so as to ensure that we maintain industry-leading position in terms of risk management and internal control.

Servers and Data Centers

As of December 31, 2016, we had in total approximately 6,000 servers, of which approximately 400 servers were hosted on external operators' servers. Our main data center is located at the Bank Card Industrial Park of Pudong New District of Shanghai, which is the only high grade, high capacity and independent data center park in the securities industry. Our local disaster back-up server center is situated at Waigaoqiao Free Trade Zone in Pudong New District of Shanghai. Our remote disaster back-up server center is situated at Fenggang Town, Dongguan City, Guangdong Province.

Stability and Reliability of Information Technology System

Our main business systems such as centralized trading system and online trading systems have achieved a multi-year continuous utilization rate of more than 99.99%. Given the differences in the networks among regions, we use public cloud services provided by multiple operators for the market information application scenarios of our relevant IT systems. Our parallel usage and mutual back-up of multiple cloud services have enhanced the stability of our business, the redundant backup capability and reliability of our market information services as well as the market information retrieval experience of our mobile APP users.

We have established a disaster back-up environment with three centers in two locations in accordance with regulatory requirements in the industry. We also established a standardized contingency plan of business system and performed regular tests to improve the continuity of our business. Our back-up measures related to our network platform and mobile APP are as follows:

- the trading servers of our mobile APP are located at both our main data center and local disaster back-up server center to allow effective and reliable backup of our trading capacity;
- our market information servers use the public cloud services provided by multiple operators for backup;
- we have achieved effective and reliable backup of our trading and service capabilities by distributed deployment of servers in our main data center, local disaster back-up server center as well as regional centers in Haerbin, Zhengzhou, Beijing, Chengdu and Shenzhen;

BUSINESS

- for Internet platforms such as financial mall and micro-finance (微理财), we adopted multi-point redundant design in application system structure to allow multiple application servers of the same kind to make backups for each other; and
- we use mature and highly effective solutions for our database service to achieve dual-server hot backup capacity based on shared storage.

Intellectual Property Rights

As of December 31, 2016, we had registered 122 trademarks and 69 domain names and were in the process of applying for the registration of 164 trademarks in China. As of the same date, we had registered nine trademarks and three domain names and were in the process of applying for the registration of seven trademarks in Hong Kong. For details, see “Appendix VII—Statutory and General Information—2. Further Information about Our Business—B. Our Intellectual Property Rights”.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, our intellectual property rights which are material to the Group’s business had never been violated nor had there been any alleged infringement of our intellectual property rights.

Major Customers and Suppliers

We serve different individual, institutional and corporate clients across various sectors. Our clients are primarily located in China and Hong Kong. We expect to serve more overseas clients in the future as we further expand our international business.

For 2014, 2015 and 2016, revenue from our five largest customers accounted for less than 2% of our total revenue.

To the knowledge of our Directors, as of the Latest Practicable Date, none of our Directors, Supervisors and their respective associates or any Shareholder that holds over 5% of our issued share capital has any interest in any of our five largest customers.

Due to our business nature, we have no major suppliers.

Market and Competition

As of December 31, 2016, there were 129 registered securities companies in China. According to Wind Info, the securities company with the highest revenue among all securities companies only accounted for less than 9% of the industry’s total revenue in 2015. The PRC securities industry is highly regulated and the PRC securities companies must comply with a large number of regulations in every aspect, including business license, scope of products and services, business development and risk management. Competition in the PRC securities industry has been and will likely remain intense. Our major competitors are other securities companies with similar service scope and business scale. We also compete with other financial institutions, including fund management companies, commercial banks, insurance companies and trust companies. We compete on many aspects, including market penetration, range of products and services, price, innovation capability, quality of service, marketing and sales channels, execution capability, reputation and employee compensation.

BUSINESS

For our institutional finance business, we compete primarily with other securities companies as well as commercial banks (principally on debt underwriting business) in terms of brand recognition, product portfolio, marketing and underwriting capabilities, service quality, financial strength and pricing. For our personal finance business, we compete primarily with other securities companies in terms of pricing and the scope and quality of products and services. For our investment management business, we compete primarily with other securities companies, fund management companies, commercial banks and insurance companies in terms of the scope of products and services, pricing and quality of client services. For our international business, we mainly compete in Hong Kong with other securities companies in brand recognition, product portfolio, service quality and pricing. We are also exposed to intense competition from other foreign financial institutions as we plan to expand our international business.

Some of our competitors may enjoy certain competitive advantages, including greater financial resources, more sophisticated management experience, more advanced IT systems, wider geographic coverage, better understanding of local markets and the ability to offer more diversified financial product and services. In recent years, other financial institutions such as domestic commercial banks, insurance companies and trust companies are using their advantages in capitals, channels and client resources to expand into traditional business segments such as investment banking, asset management and wealth management, and seek to tap into the securities industry through establishment of new business or M&A. If regulations on comprehensive operation changes in the future, the securities industry may face even greater competition. Moreover, as China gradually opens its securities industry to the world, increases the shareholding cap of foreign investors in securities companies and broadens the business scopes of foreign-invested securities companies, international investment banks with strong capital, advanced management and excellent business capabilities will participated in domestic markets more frequently, which will further increase the competitive pressure on the domestic securities companies. We believe that, the financial service industry in China will become increasingly competitive, which will accelerate transformation and differentiated development of PRC securities companies.

We are also exposed to competition in attracting and retaining talents. Securities companies are also facing intense competition in needs for sponsor representatives, financial consultants, investment managers, research analysts and IT experts. Our ability to compete continuously and effectively in business is also subject to our ability to attract more talents and retain and motivate existing talents.

An outstanding team is the foundation of our sustainable growth. We are committed to select the most talented individuals for all of our positions. We recruit and retain talented professionals through a series of measures, including a strict recruitment and selection process, a competitive compensation structure, an effective performance evaluation system and long-term employee development schemes. We have a rigorous talent training system, by which we generally promote talents internally to lead our business divisions in order to best inspire teamwork and spread our corporate culture. We have also established a large external talent database to identify, locate and track the most talented individuals in the market to complement and enhance our team. As a result of our excellent market reputation, good career development paths and a market-oriented incentive system, our employees are proud of working for us.

Our sustainable growth depends on employee career development. We have adopted a comprehensive performance evaluation mechanism to align the career development of our employees with our growth. In order to improve the professional skills of our employees, we provided them with diversified internal and external training. Our internal training programs include lectures, video conference and online training. We encourage our employees to participate in business-related qualification examinations and examinations required under relevant regulations. We also send our core employees to renowned universities in China and overseas, such as Tsinghua University, Peking University, Shanghai Jiaotong University, the Wharton Business School at University of Pennsylvania and Harvard University to participate in training courses and exchange programs. We also invite professionals from leading financial institutions to host training for our employees.

BUSINESS

We are committed to establishing a competitive compensation system. We annually adjust employee compensation based on the market and industry trends, so that our remuneration packages remain competitive in the industry. We continue to improve our internal remuneration and incentive policies, long-term incentive plan and remuneration structure in order to link employee interests with our long-term business development and enhance the loyalty of our employees.

We value our employees welfare and continuously improve our welfare system. In the PRC, in addition to national compulsory welfare plans, we offer our employees benefits such as supplementary medical insurance, annuity, physical examinations and medical insurance for family members. In Hong Kong and overseas, we offer our employees various benefits according to the local laws and regulations.

As of December 31, 2016, we had 248 dispatched workers from labor dispatch service providers in China to assume administrative and back-office functions. According to the relevant labor dispatch contracts and agreement between the parties, we are required to bear the costs of salaries, social insurance and other employee benefits as well as administrative fees of these dispatched workers, while the labor dispatch service providers are responsible for paying the salaries, various social insurance fees and other fees for the dispatched workers.

During the Track Record Period, we have not experienced any strikes, protests or other material labor disputes that may materially impair our business and corporate image. We have established a labor union and we believe that we have maintained a good relationship with our employees, whom we value at all times.

PROPERTIES

Our headquarters is located at No. 168, Yincheng Central Road, Pudong New District, Shanghai, PRC. The following table sets forth our owned and leased properties as of December 31, 2016:

Leased properties	2	12,914.0

Notes:

- (1) Properties for operation purposes are mainly used for operation or office.
(2) Properties for non-operation purposes are mainly used for staff dormitories.

BUSINESS

Our owned and leased properties are mainly used for operations, offices and staff dormitories.

In addition, as of December 31, 2016, we owned a land parcel of approximately 5,957 square meters in the PRC for the construction of an office building with planned gross floor area of 42,621 square meters.

As of December 31, 2016, our property interests represented approximately 0.6% of our total assets and no single property accounted for 15% or above of our total assets in terms of book value. Accordingly, this prospectus is exempted from the requirement under Chapter 5 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and section 342(1)(b) of Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance that the interests in lands and buildings shall be included in the valuation report according to paragraph 34(2) of the Third Schedule to Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance.

Owned Properties for Operation Purposes in PRC

As of December 31, 2016, among the owned properties for operation purposes in PRC,

- for 85 properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 75,252.6 square meters, we have obtained land use rights certificates, building ownership certificates, or other valid title documents, and the actual usage of such properties are in compliance with the usage as stated in the building ownership certificates. Our PRC legal advisors confirmed that we have the right to occupy, use, transfer, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of such properties.
- for five properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 29,619.1 square meters, we have obtained real property ownership certificates, but the actual usage of such properties are not in full compliance with the usage as stated in the building ownership certificates. The usage of such properties as stated in the building ownership certificates are plants. However, as such properties are located in the Shanghai Bank Card Industrial Park (上海市銀行卡產業園), we use them as data center, clearing center and computer room. The relevant regulation of the People's Government of Pudong New District of Shanghai requires Shanghai Bank Card Industrial Park to focus on the development of financial data processing business, mainly by introducing long distance information processing center and data exchange platform of domestic and international financial institutions. Currently, a number of large financial institutions have established their back office information service centers at Shanghai Bank Card Industrial Park. The usage of the abovementioned properties is in compliance with the positioning function of the Shanghai Bank Card Industrial Park and relevant requirements of local government. As advised by our PRC legal advisors, there is no substantive legal impediments for us to continue occupying and using such properties.
- for two properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 9,802.2 square meters, we have obtained building ownership certificates but have not obtained state-owned land use certificates, due to, among other things, the non-payment of land premiums by developers, of which one property with an aggregate gross floor area of 6,042.4 square meters is mainly used as our own office and for leasing purposes and one property with an aggregate gross floor area of 3,759.8 square meters is mainly used as our own office. Since we have obtained the building ownership certificates for these two properties, there are no title disputes in respect of such properties, but our right to dispose of such properties may be subject to relevant restrictions.

- for six properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 8,727.7 square meters, we have not obtained building ownership certificates, due to, among other things, non-compliant land planning or use, failure to apply for title change registration after several transfers, failure to obtain state-owned land use certificates and building ownership certificates for the whole buildings or failure to reach an agreement with the government on the replacement of houses for urban redevelopment projects by developers, of which four properties with an aggregate gross floor area of 5,677.3 square meters are mainly used for leasing purpose and two properties with an aggregate gross floor area of 3,060.4 square meters are mainly used as our own office.

Our Directors confirm that the foregoing title defects would not have any material impact on our business or financial condition or on this Global Offering.

- for 438 properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 305,578.1 square meters, our landlords have obtained relevant title certificates, including the building ownership certificates. As advised by our PRC legal advisors, the lease contracts entered into by the lessors and us in relation to such properties are legal and valid. Our rights under such lease contracts are protected by the PRC laws.
- for 16 properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 5,870.4 square meters, our landlords have obtained the relevant building ownership certificates, but the actual usage of such properties are not in full compliance with the usage as stated in the building ownership certificates. As advised by our PRC legal advisors, according to the relevant requirements of the PRC laws, properties with changed usage in violation of relevant regulations are prohibited from renting. Our rights under such leases may not be protected by the PRC laws. We do not consider that these 16 properties are crucial to our core business given their small size, and we believe we will be able to relocate in a timely manner at minimum expense and this would not materially affect our business or financial position.
- for three properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 2,428.2 square meters, the lease contracts have expired and we are currently in or preparing to begin renewal procedures, or preparing for relocation. We are of the view that there is no substantial obstacle in respect of the aforesaid renewal procedures.
- for 48 properties with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 25,513.2 square meters, the lessors as stated in the lease contracts have not obtained relevant title certificates such as building ownership certificates or the permission issued by competent authority to lease the properties by lessors. Our PRC legal advisors are unable to confirm that (i) such lessors are the proper contracting parties to such lease contracts, (ii) such lease contracts are legal and valid, or (iii) our interest under such lease contracts are protected by the PRC laws. However, the lessors of such properties have generally represented or guaranteed in the relevant lease contracts that they are the legal owner of the leased premises. In accordance with the PRC laws and the provisions of relevant lease contracts, we are entitled to require the lessors to indemnify us for any loss incurred in the event of such leases being challenged by a third party and our interest under such lease contracts being affected accordingly.

Our Directors confirm that, in the event that we are unable to enforce the lease agreements and are required to relocate due to the defective titles of the leased properties or the invalidity of the lease agreements, we will be able to find suitable substitutes. Our Directors confirmed that although we may incur additional relocation costs therefrom, there would be no material impact on our business or financial condition or this Global Offering. Our Directors are of the view that the defective titles will not individually or collectively have a material and adverse effect on our business because (i) among the foregoing 48 leased properties for which the lessors have not obtained relevant title certificates including building ownership certificates or the permission issued by competent authority to lease the properties by lessors, the lessors have generally represented or guaranteed in the relevant lease contracts that they are the legal owner of the leased premises; (ii) we do not consider that these 48 properties are crucial to our core business given their small size; and (iii) we believe we will be able to relocate in a timely manner at minimum expense and this would not materially affect our business or financial position.

In addition, our Directors are of the view that the rental costs for the 48 properties with defective title would not be materially different should the landlords obtain the relevant title certificates.

Properties in Hong Kong

As of December 31, 2016, we owned a total of three properties in Hong Kong with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 44,611.0 square feet. Such properties owned by us are held under government grants or leases. As of the Latest Practicable Date, such properties are free from title defects or potential title defects.

As of December 31, 2016, we leased two properties in Hong Kong with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 12,914.0 square feet. They are leased under two tenancy agreement which do not contain any covenants, easements, exceptions or reservations of an unusual or unduly onerous nature for an agreement of this nature. As of the Latest Practicable Date, these properties were not subject to any material issues.

INSURANCE

We maintain insurance coverage for certain of our assets, including IT equipment and motor vehicles. Consistent with customary industry practice in the PRC, we do not maintain any business interruption insurance.

We believe that we have maintained such insurance coverage as we consider necessary and sufficient for our operations and customary for the industry and the geographic areas in which we operate. Moreover, our policies are subject to standard deductibles, exclusions and limitations. Therefore, insurance might not necessarily cover all losses incurred by us and we cannot provide any assurance that we will not incur losses or suffer claims beyond the limits of, or outside the relevant coverage of, our insurance policies.

All of our insurance policies are underwritten by reputable insurance providers and we review our insurance policies annually.

BUSINESS

LEGAL AND REGULATORY

Licensing Requirements

We conduct our business mainly in the PRC and Hong Kong. As a result, we are principally subject to the relevant regulations of the PRC and Hong Kong. Our Directors have confirmed that, during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we had complied with the relevant regulatory requirements and guidelines in the jurisdictions where we operated in all material respects, and obtained the permits and licenses necessary for our operations in accordance with the laws and regulations in the jurisdictions where we operate.

We renew all of our permits and licenses from time to time to comply with the relevant laws and regulations. Our Directors have confirmed that, to the best of their knowledge, as of the Latest Practicable Date, all of our employees and brokers had obtained the relevant licenses required for their business activities. Since our A Share offering in June 2015 and up to the Latest Practicable Date, neither we nor any of our Directors had been subject to auditing or administrative penalties by the CSRC, nor had any of us or them been criticized or publicly reprimanded by the Shanghai Stock Exchange for violations of any listing rules or other relevant applicable rules.

Pursuant to the licensing regimes of the SFC, our subsidiaries incorporated in Hong Kong are required to obtain licenses necessary to conduct their businesses in Hong Kong. For details, see “Appendix IV—Regulatory Environment—Overview of Licensing Requirements”.

Legal Proceedings

We are a party to a number of legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of our business. Our Directors have confirmed that, during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, there were no legal proceedings pending or threatened against us nor our Directors that could, individually or in the aggregate, have a material effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations. However, we believe that the following pending legal proceeding warrants particular attention:

Cheng Shifeng Wealth Management Contracts Litigations

From 2010 to 2013, out of his own interest and beyond the authorization of the Company, while acting as a sales and marketing staff at the Company’s securities branch, Cheng Shifeng (程士峰), a former employee of the Company, directly or through others, offered to sell wealth management products to customers in violation of the Company’s internal policies and operational procedures. Subsequently, by fabricating the nature of wealth management products and forging contracts, he entered into a series of unauthorized wealth management products contracts and entrustment agreements with 20 individuals for purchasing wealth management products for them. Cheng Shifeng asked such investors to deposit the money for investment and wealth management products into his designated personal account or pay cash. He did not transfer any of the monies to the Company. Cheng Shifeng used part of the client monies to pay back the principals and the interest he promised to these individuals, but later stopped the payment of the interests and principals. As of December 20, 2016, the People’s Court of Hongshan District, Chifeng City, Inner Mongolia accepted 15 separate civil lawsuits brought by 16 individuals against the Company. The plaintiffs of these 15 lawsuits separately alleged that entering into wealth management product contracts and entrustment agreements as well as receiving client monies by Cheng Shifeng constituted actions performed in his corporate capacity on behalf of the Company. These plaintiffs claimed that the Company should repay the principal amount of approximately RMB53.9 million in total, together with the accrued interest, of their investments. As of the month of the lawsuits, the aggregated amount of the claims, including the principal and accrued interest of the relevant wealth management products, was approximately RMB124.7 million.

As these lawsuits are currently on-going, we are unable to estimate the timetable or the outcome of these lawsuits. Our PRC legal advisor has confirmed that, based on PRC laws and regulations, should the court judge in favor of any of the plaintiffs of these 15 lawsuits, these lawsuits will not have a material and adverse effect on the continuation of our business operation. After discussing with our PRC legal advisors, our Directors have confirmed that, the above lawsuits will not have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations. As of December 31, 2016, we made a provision of RMB30.0 million based on our assessment of the lawsuits.

Regulatory Non-compliance

We are subject to a number of regulatory requirements and guidelines issued by the regulatory authorities and self-regulatory industry associations in the PRC, Hong Kong and other jurisdictions where we operate, including but not limited to, the PBOC, the CSRC, the SAC, the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, NEEQ Co., the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as well as the SFC and their respective local branches and offices.

We or our employees have, from time to time, been involved in incidents of regulatory non-compliance and received notices and warnings from, or been fined by, the relevant regulatory authorities. We or our employees have also been involved in certain non-compliance incidents that led to the deduction of our regulatory points. The main consequence of regulatory points deduction is that it may lead to a downgrade of our regulatory rating, which may cause us to be subject to a higher risk capital reserve ratio, a higher ratio for our securities investor protection fund and difficulties in obtaining relevant permits or approvals for new businesses and products. For details of the factors taken into account by the CSRC in assigning regulatory ratings, see “Appendix IV — Regulatory Environment — Regulatory Environment of the PRC — Corporate Governance and Risk Control — Corporate Governance and Risk Control of Securities Companies — 3. Classified Regulation” We have attained Class A Grade AA regulatory rating from the CSRC for nine consecutive years from 2008 to 2016. The deduction of regulatory points during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date had not resulted in a downgrade of regulatory rating or any material and adverse impact on our business and results of operations. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Legal, Compliance and Regulatory Matters — We are subject to extensive and evolving regulatory requirements”.

BUSINESS

We set out below the details of our non-compliance incidents, which led to the deduction of regulatory points during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, and the primary remedial measures adopted:

Non-compliance Incidents

In July 2016, the CSRC conducted special inspections on the investment banking businesses of 13 securities companies including the Company. On January 16, 2017, in respect of the issues found during the inspection, the CSRC issued to the Company a decision to impose administrative regulatory measures. According to this decision, during the inspection, the CSRC found that:

- the Company failed to sufficiently examine the key business flow and the inventories of Hebei Runnong Water-Saving Technology Co., Ltd. (河北潤農節水科技股份有限公司) when recommending its listing on the NEEQ; internal audit department of the Company lacked independence when performing its duties;
- during the on-going supervision on Shenxianyuan Ginseng Co., Ltd. (參仙源參業股份有限公司), the Company failed to complete and submit the on-site inspection report of on-going supervision within the specified period after the CSRC initiated investigations on this company; and
- the Company failed to sufficiently examine the key business flow as well as the purchases and sales of Xinjiang Ruizhao Source Ecological Agriculture Co., Ltd. (新疆瑞兆源生態農業股份有限公司) when recommending its listing on the NEEQ.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

The non-compliance in recommending the listing of Hebei Runnong Water-Saving Technology Co., Ltd. on the NEEQ was due to the fact that the relevant investment banking staff of the Company failed to perform adequately their due diligence and due care.

The non-compliance in the on-going supervision of Shenxianyuan Ginseng Co., Ltd. was due to the inadequate on-going supervision by the investment banking staff of the Company, their failure to verify relevant information comprehensively and gain a sufficient understanding of the relevant rules of the NEEQ, and the inadequacy of relevant internal provisions and requirements in terms of comprehensiveness and clarity.

The non-compliance in recommending the listing of Xinjiang Ruizhao Source Ecological Agriculture Co., Ltd. on the NEEQ was due to the fact that the investment banking staff of the Company failed to adequately record details relating environmental control, thereby resulting in limited evidences obtained to verify the key corporate business processes.

Personnel involved in the above non-compliance incidents are mainly project staff in the Company's NEEQ business department.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

The CSRC determined that the above non-compliant behaviors revealed defects in the internal control system of the Company. Therefore, the CSRC imposed the regulatory measures of ordering the Company to make rectification, to increase the frequency of internal compliance inspection and to submit compliance inspection report. In addition, the CSRC imposed the regulatory measure of a warning letter against Wang Jing, the head of the project team for the NEEQ listing of Hebei Runnong Water-Saving Technology Co., Ltd. and Chen Xinyi, the head of the project team for the NEEQ listing of Xinjiang Ruizhao Source Ecological Agriculture Co., Ltd.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

Upon the commencement of investigation by the CSRC, the Company conducted comprehensive self-examination and self-rectification on its investment banking business and produced a special report on the status of self-examination and rectification, which was submitted to the CSRC and the Shanghai Office of the CSRC at the end of July 2016. The Company had also taken internal accountability measures against the relevant project team members and the person in charge of internal review of the NEEQ listing business of deducting the annual compliance and risk management assessment scores and reducing bonuses. The main remedial measures adopted by the Company include:

1. adjusted the structure of the NEEQ business department and improved the management system: put the NEEQ business department under the management of the Company's investment banking committee, put the quality control group under the investment banking committee responsible for quality control of the NEEQ business and the Company's securities issuance review department responsible for risk review and assessment of the NEEQ business;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

2. improved the NEEQ business system and strengthened key business processes: revised the existing NEEQ business related policies and drafted a number of new rules, including the NEEQ Business Internal Control Policy, the Working Rules for the Internal Review Group of the NEEQ Business (Trial), the Quality Review Rules on the NEEQ Business, the Rules for the Evaluation and Scoring of Practice Quality for NEEQ Business, and the Administrative Measures on the Reporting and Handling of NEEQ Business Risk Events; prepared the Due Diligence Worksheets Template according to the relevant business rules, refined and clarified specific due diligence procedures, as well as stressed that the project staff must strictly comply with the requirements of the worksheets template to conduct due diligence in the follow-up practice process, and must conduct intensive inspection of key business processes;
3. made substantial adjustments to the ongoing supervision working model: prepared the Administrative Measures on Ongoing Supervision of the NEEQ Business and strengthened the frontline risk management and supervision functions of the project team over the listed companies; designated the ongoing supervision team specifically responsible for the quality control functions to further enhance the implementation quality of ongoing supervision procedures;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

4. strengthened the quality control of NEEQ projects: added personnel with extensive business experience and strong risk awareness to the NEEQ quality control team and incorporated such team into the investment banking quality control team to standardize its management and to improve the quality control standards for NEEQ projects; newly prepared Administrative Measures on Project Approval of the NEEQ Business to require the implementation of dual approval for projects in businesses such as listing recommendation, merger and acquisition and reorganization; in respect of the arrangement of the members of the project approval committee, established a project approval and evaluation group comprising seven professionals from the quality control group, the investment banking department and the NEEQ business department, so as to vote in relation to the project review and approval, with person in charge of quality control having a veto right;
5. strengthened the NEEQ internal review management: in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Guidelines on Internal Review Engagement of Chief Agency Brokers (Trial), identified the duties of internal review commissioners, applied the on-site inspection system by internal review commissioners in respect of project applied for internal review, so as to strengthen the risk control efforts stipulated that the NEEQ internal review meetings be conducted on-site, and required the project team to answer inquiries in the on-site meetings, as well as required related personnel of issuers to answer inquiries in the on-site internal review meetings if necessary; and

Non-compliance Incidents

On November 22, 2016, a client of the Company experienced anomalies when submitting data for its early repayment of a stock-pledged financing transaction due to the fact that when upgrading the relevant technical systems for its stock-pledged financing business, the Company misinterpreted the related data domains specified in the interface description of the Shanghai Stock Exchange and incorrectly adjusted the parameters of related data domains. Such anomalies led to significant differences in the transaction settlement funds and the misappropriation of transaction settlement funds of other clients. On December 26, 2016, the Shanghai Stock Exchange imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a regulatory concern.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

6. increased the number of compliance inspections, carried out compliance trainings, and improved compliance awareness of staff involved in the NEEQ projects: demanded the compliance department to conduct quarterly compliance inspections of the NEEQ listing recommendation business in 2017 and to report the inspection results to the CSRC; carried out specific compliance trainings relating to the NEEQ business and conducted compliance conversations with key staff of the NEEQ business, aiming to improve the compliance awareness of the relevant NEEQ business staff.

This incident was due to the Company's inadequate control of system upgrades, insufficient understanding of the business and relevant interfaces, failure to timely communicate with the Shanghai Stock Exchange and China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited over key issues or uncertainties and insufficient work done as to test scenarios and test cases.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant staff in the Company's IT department and stock-pledged financing business department.

The Company imposed accountability measure against the relevant personnel including compliance alerts and mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. made software changes to the relevant centralized trading systems;
2. improved the standards for business changes and testing, further strengthened the joint testing by technical and business personnel, improved the management and control of system changes, further enhanced relevant quality control and committed to strictly control the system changes;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

In 2016, clients of the Company had received a number of telephone warnings and warning letters from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange in respect of abnormal transactions. On November 9, 2016, a client of the Company gave large, successive and frequent buying orders on a stock listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange through his own and his related accounts, which materially impacted the price and trading volume of the stock. On November 9, 2016, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a regulatory interview for the Company's failure to properly perform its responsibility in managing and controlling client transactions.

3. performed comprehensive code check, particularly on stock-pledged financing business and margin financing and securities lending business, and performed regression testing on all businesses; and
4. further strengthened training and research on the business and technology interfaces, enhanced discussion and coordination on system changes among business and technological personnel, and strengthened communications with the Shanghai Stock Exchange and China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited.

The Company submitted a report in respect of this incident to the Shanghai Stock Exchange on January 3, 2017. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has not received any follow-up on this incident from the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

This incident was due to the deficiencies in the Company's mechanism for communication and feedback on regulatory information about abnormal client transaction with the stock exchange and its inadequacy in properly managing abnormal client transactions and no uniform standards for proactive monitoring of abnormal transactions.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly staff in the Company's relevant business departments.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

The Shenzhen Stock Exchange interviewed the Company's compliance officer and head of the relevant department at the specified time. In accordance with such interview, the Company mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. improved the process of handling and providing feedback on regulatory information from the stock exchange and strengthened the communication and reporting between the Company's headquarters and securities branches; required the securities branches to report to the compliance department of the headquarters the contents of the telephone warning from the stock exchanges and the headquarters to establish a ledger of abnormal transactions and input such information into the monitoring system to enhance the follow-up monitoring on key accounts and stocks;
2. further enhanced the training at our securities branches on strengthening cooperation with the stock exchanges in respect of monitoring abnormal transactions, enhanced its management on the securities branches with respect to cooperation with regulatory authorities over abnormal transactions and imposed compliance accountability measures on underperforming securities branches; and
3. based on regulatory trends, further adjusted the thresholds of abnormal transaction monitoring indicators, monitored the concerted activities in a client's related accounts, stayed vigilant on irregular market incidents and strengthened supervision on individual incidents.

The Company submitted a rectification report in respect of this incident to the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on November 29, 2016. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company had not received any follow-up on this incident from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

The Company, as the sponsor for the IPO and listing on the Shanghai Stock Exchange of Jinhui Liquor Co., Ltd. (金徽酒股份有限公司), failed to truthfully disclose the profit distribution of this company for 2015 in the post-hearing major event undertaking letter submitted to the CSRC, and failed to proactively perform its obligation to inform the CSRC of the completion of the dividend distribution. As a result, on August 16, 2016, the CSRC imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a warning letter and a regulatory measure against Hao Yanhui (郝彦輝) and Zhang Bin (張斌), our sponsor representatives, of a six-month suspension of acceptance of applications in relation to administrative approvals.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of the Company, Hao Yanhui and Zhang Bin to effectively comply with the relevant regulatory and internal control requirements in relation to post-hearing major event disclosure. In the process of the relevant company's listing, Hao Yanhui and Zhang Bin required this company to make a complete and truthful disclosure of its profit distribution for 2015 and the latest status of its profit distribution in its prospectus. However, Hao Yanhui and Zhang Bin failed to disclose the profit distribution in the post-hearing major event undertaking letter due to their failure to keep abreast of the CSRC's review requirement which prohibits distribution of profit after public offering review hearing.

The Company has imposed accountability measures against the project personnel in the form of deduction of annual compliance and risk management review points and bonuses. The Company further improved the due diligence awareness of frontline business personnel through enhanced training, enhanced supervision and strengthened work disciplines. The Company also adopted the following remedial measures:

1. strengthened the supervision and management of each process of the entire business execution flow;
2. improved the reporting system in the project operation process, increased the frequency of on-site inspections by the quality control team and specialized internal control reviewers in the project operation process, strengthened the review of application materials and enhanced the dynamic and timely monitoring of projects;
3. enhanced the supervision and accountability of the sponsor representatives and project personnel;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

4. improved and refined the administrative policies in relation to the investment banking business, strengthened the management and control of business flows, strengthened the audit work on the business process by the front-line risk management personnel, enhanced the execution and implementation of business management policies;
5. organized investment bank employees to regularly study the CSRC's latest review requirements and principles, urged them to strictly comply with the CSRC's Administrative Measures on the Sponsorship of Securities Offering and Listing (證券發行上市保薦業務管理辦法) to enhance professional standards and business quality so as to fulfill various sponsor duties;
6. categorized and summarized the common major issues involved in post-hearing major events, strengthened the project staff's understanding of post-hearing major events so as to avoid misunderstanding on other projects; and
7. required project staff to promptly remind the issuer to report major events and maintain regular communication with the regulatory authorities so as to ensure that information disclosure was true, accurate, complete and timely.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

On May 20, 2014, Tianjin Huanyu Rubber & Plastic Products Manufacturing Corporation (天津環宇橡塑股份有限公司) and Tianjin Heizi Foods Co., Ltd. (天津市黑子食品有限公司) jointly guaranteed a loan of RMB20.0 million for Tianjin Jingtong Seamless Steel Tube Co., Ltd. (天津市精通無縫鋼管有限公司). The creditor initiated legal proceedings against Tianjin Jingtong Seamless Steel Tube Co., Ltd. for its default on the loan. On May 26, 2015, the court ruled that Tianjin Huanyu Rubber & Plastic Products Manufacturing Corporation, Tianjin Jingtong Seamless Steel Tube Co., Ltd. and Tianjin Heizi Foods Co., Ltd. should each assume part of the repayment obligations. On August 2, 2016, the NEEQ Co. imposed regulatory measures against the Company of an interview and submission of written undertakings because the Company, as the chief agency broker of Tianjin Huanyu Rubber & Plastic Products Manufacturing Corporation, failed to disclose its legal proceedings in its public transfer statement and other application documents.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of the Company to effectively comply with relevant regulatory and internal control requirements in relation to carrying out sponsorship business with due diligence and care. The Company's project personnel failed to discover such legal proceedings on a timely basis due to their lack of awareness and understanding of the rules in relation to due diligence on subsequent events and their failure to adequately investigate material events such as material legal proceedings.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant project staff in the Company's NEEQ business department.

The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel including compliance interviews and deduction of annual compliance and risk management review points and bonuses. The Company has implemented the following remedial measures:

1. organized training for our NEEQ business team to further enhance their awareness and understanding of the due diligence rules;
2. standardized the post-application verification procedure of material events, enhanced internal controls over project execution quality, and conducted a step-by-step review of material post-application events, including in particular usage of funds by related parties, unauthorized provision of external guarantees, material legal proceedings and equity pledges; and
3. appointed dedicated personnel to ensure that all material events will be reported to NEEQ Co. on a timely and accurate basis.

Non-compliance Incidents

Guotai Junan Asset Management, as the manager of Guotai Junan Xinli No. 6 Collective Asset Management Scheme (國泰君安新利6號集合資產管理計劃), bought shares in related companies of the principals pursuant to their investment advice. On July 5, 2016, the CSRC Shanghai Bureau imposed regulatory measures against Guotai Junan Asset Management of ordering it to increase the number of internal compliance checks and to timely submit compliance check reports, because Guotai Junan Asset Management failed to adequately perform its due diligence obligations as an asset manager.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

The Company's relevant personnel have been interviewed by and submitted written undertakings to NEEQ Co. within the required period. On August 25, 2016, the Company submitted a report in respect of this incident to the CSRC Shanghai Bureau. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has not received any follow-up on this incident from NEEQ Co. or the CSRC Shanghai Bureau.

This incident was due to the failure of Guotai Junan Asset Management to adequately control its investment and trading process, in particular its failure to conduct sufficient research on investment targets and adopt effective measures to prevent conflicts of interest.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant business staff of Guotai Junan Asset Management.

Guotai Junan Asset Management imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel of compliance interviews, compliance warnings and demotion. It has also implemented the following remedial measures:

1. comprehensively reviewed and optimized the research and investment business flow and further improved the decision-making process for investment in discretionary management products; required due diligence and prudent, objective and independent investment judgement from the perspective of an asset manager for external investment; and required active screening on investment advice from principals of discretionary management products as well as effective measures to prevent the occurrence of events which are likely to result in conflicts of interests;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

2. increased the number of compliance checks to prevent non-compliance risks in response to regulatory requirements and compliance management needs; conducted monthly special compliance self-checks in the second half of 2016, the scope of which covered the investment and operation of Xinli No. 6, investment research business flow as well as investment decisions and operation of other collective asset management schemes; for the hidden risks and existing problems identified in the self-examination, took timely measures for prevention and rectification; and
3. enhanced the compliance management system, strengthened the compliance accountability mechanism, improved the awareness of active compliance among all staff and adopted a zero-tolerance policy for non-compliance to support compliance management.

On July 29, 2016, Guotai Junan Asset Management submitted a report in respect of its implementation of administrative regulatory measures and records of its comprehensive self-checks and self-rectification measures to the CSRC Shanghai Bureau. As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan Asset Management had not received any follow-up on this incident from the CSRC Shanghai Bureau.

Non-compliance Incidents

On August 28, 2015, Beijing Lier High-temperature Materials Co., Ltd. (北京利爾高溫材料股份有限公司) lent to Yichuan Caiyuan Industry Investment Co., Ltd. (伊川財源實業投資有限公司) RMB200.0 million, being the proceeds from its 2015 corporate bonds (tranche 1) offering, after transferring such amount from the designated account to the basic account of the issuer. On June 16, 2016, the CSRC Beijing Bureau imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a warning letter because the Company, as the trustee for the bonds, failed to timely discover and stop such lending of the proceeds.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of our investment banking business personnel to comply with the relevant regulatory and internal control requirements in relation to supervising the use of proceeds by the issuer with due diligence and care within the duration of the bonds. Our project personnel's insufficient experience in supervising liquidity supplement and repayment of bank loans with proceeds led to our failure to timely discover and prevent such the lending.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant project staff in the Company's investment banking business department.

We conducted thorough investigations to ensure the full recovery of improperly used proceeds; implemented accountability measures against the relevant personnel in the form of deduction of their entire annual compliance and risk management review points and bonuses, and adopted the following remedial measures:

1. provided risk and compliance training in the investment banking business department using this case as an example and prepared relevant study materials;
2. organized integrated training on relevant laws and regulations, including the Professional Conduct Code for Corporate Bond Trustee Manager for our business personnel, enhanced the implementation and execution of management rules, further strengthened the due diligence and risk responsibility consciousness of business personnel and improved the supervision and management capability during the term of a bond; and
3. further improved and refined the relevant management policies for corporate bonds, enhanced the monitoring of business flow and improved the execution and implementation of business management policies.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

In July 2014, the SFC requested Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited to provide ultimate client information in respect of a number of transactions it executed for an intermediary client in Korea. Because the intermediary client did not comply with its obligation under the client agreement, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited was not able to provide the requested information within two business days upon request as required under relevant regulations. The SFC reminded Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited of its obligation to refuse the business of those who are not prepared to provide the ultimate client information to the regulatory authorities within two business days of a request.

The intermediary client informed the SFC and Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited in August 2014 that, as a matter of Korean law, it could not provide the requested ultimate client identity information without the ultimate client's written consent. Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited only provided the requested client information to the SFC in January 2015.

Between August 2014 and January 2015, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited continued to execute a substantial number of transactions for the intermediary client. The SFC found that, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited could not be satisfied on reasonable grounds at the time of those transactions that it would be able to provide client identity information of the ultimate client as requested by the SFC, and thereby violated the regulatory requirements in relation to ascertaining client identity. On May 30, 2016, the SFC publicly reprimanded Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and fined it HK$1.3 million.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited to effectively comply with the regulatory requirements and internal control requirements in relation to ascertaining client identity.

Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited adopted the following remedial measures:

1. engaged an independent third party approved by the SFC to review its systems and processes in respect of its compliance with the regulatory requirements in relation to ascertaining client identity; according to the report prepared by the independent third party following the review, other than a few minor deficiencies which Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited agreed to rectify, the independent third party found no exceptions in the implementation of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited's policies and procedures in respect of its compliance with the requirements on ascertaining client identity information; and
2. implemented the Rules on Client Due Diligence and the Client Identity Rules and Policies.

Non-compliance Incidents

On December 21, 2015, Shanghai Securities submitted an Application for Subsequent Joining in Market Making (後續加入做市申請) to provide market making and quotation services in respect to the shares of Guangdong Holdings Technology Co., Ltd. (廣東合迪科技股份有限公司). However, the shares of this company were still under negotiated transfer process at the time of the application. In March 2016, during the on-site inspection on Shanghai Securities, NEEQ Co. found that in the case of Hebei Oxen Special Chemicals Co., Ltd. (河北歐克精細化工股份有限公司), Shanghai Securities had not strictly followed its internal procedures on acquisition of inventory shares and the relevant registration policies for non-trader personnel entering and exiting its trading room. NEEQ Co. considered that the foregoing acts reflected inadequate internal control and management of the market making business of Shanghai Securities, which violated the relevant requirements of NEEQ Co. On May 18, 2016, NEEQ Co. imposed a regulatory measure against Shanghai Securities of request for written undertakings.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the negligence of Shanghai Securities' personnel and inadequacy in its relevant procedures.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant business staff in Shanghai Securities' NEEQ market-making business department.

On May 26, 2016, Shanghai Securities submitted the following written undertakings to NEEQ Co.:

1. to strictly comply with the relevant rules, articles, guidance and notices in respect of its NEEQ business;
2. to further conduct prior compliance reviews, compliance supervision and subsequent compliance examination on its NEEQ businesses, ensuring that they are carried out according to laws and regulations; to timely rectify or revise the relevant procedures and policies for issues identified during self-inspections; and
3. to strengthen the training of business personnel on laws, regulations and internal policies to improve their compliance awareness; to carry out strict management, and to impose heavy punishment for inadequate performance and non-compliance by business personnel.

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

To improve relevant procedures and internal control measures, Shanghai Securities has implemented the following remedial measures:

1. strengthened the management of document submission and required such documents to be processed and reviewed by two people;
2. strictly adhered to internal procedures on acquisition of inventory shares and required relevant personnel to record every step of approvals and operations, to ensure that the business was carried out according to its relevant policies including the Operational Rules on Risk Control and Compliance Management for NEEQ Market-making Business and Operational Rules on Stock Management for NEEQ Market-making Business for strict prevention and control of business risks;
3. further strengthened the management of the trading rooms and strictly implemented relevant registration policies for non-trading personnel entering and exiting the trading rooms; and
4. organized relevant personnel to carefully study the Provisional Business Rules for the National Equities Exchange and Quotations System and the Provisional Detailed Measures on Equity Transfer on the National Equities Exchange and Quotations System.

Non-compliance Incidents

In June 2015, Shenxianyuan Ginseng Co., Ltd. (參仙源參業股份有限公司) transferred the titles of assets as part of a major asset restructuring before obtaining the approval of the board of directors and shareholders' meetings and making initial information disclosure in relation to the major asset restructuring. On April 21, 2016, NEEQ Co. imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a warning letter because the Company, as the independent financial advisor of Shenxianyuan Ginseng Co., Ltd. in relation to the major asset restructuring, failed to issue a fair opinion on the non-compliance by this company and disclose major risk warning despite knowledge of the significant procedural non-compliance and disclosure deficiencies.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

The Company had required this company to conduct its operations properly. The Company also conducted on-site due diligence, independently expressed its opinion, carefully performed its duties as the independent financial advisor, and urged this company to comply with laws and regulations. However, this company did not adopt the Company's advice and recommendation in several key aspects, resulting in major procedural non-compliance and disclosure defects. This incident reflected that the Company did not adequately remind and restrain its client in relation to non-compliance.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant project staff in the Company's NEEQ business department.

The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project staff in the form of deduction of their entire annual compliance and risk management review points and decrease of bonuses. The Company further adopted the following remedial measures:

1. improved communication with the regulatory authorities to check the status of project with regulatory authorities in a timely and accurate manner;
2. educated its clients not to engage in improper activities, requested its clients to rectify and report improper activities in a timely manner upon discovery; and
3. refined the business flow from project planning, signing of financial advisory agreement, due diligence investigation, internal review, application document review, granting authorization and management of working documents and further enhanced the risk management of related businesses.

Non-compliance Incidents

Song Hailong (宋海龍), a securities industry practitioner employed by the Company, traded stocks in the amount of RMB2.6 million and RMB1.4 million, respectively, through accounts under his name and his spouse's name with a total gains of RMB23,417.4 between July 2011 and September 2015. The above conduct of Song Hailong violated relevant requirements under the Securities Law. On April 12, 2016, the CSRC Guangdong Bureau imposed administrative penalties against Song Hailong by confiscating his illegal gains of RMB23,417.4 and imposing a fine of RMB50,000.0.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of the compliance department of the Company to detect non-compliance of the individual because he traded through securities accounts under the custody of another securities company. The Company imposed accountability measures against Song Hailong in the form of serious warning and deduction of the entire annual compliance and risk management review points and decrease of bonuses. The Company adopted the following remedial measures.

1. conducted compliance training for all employees;
2. committed to formulating policies for management of employees' securities investment activities, increased examination frequency and strengthened the management of employees' securities investment activities from induction of new employees; and
3. regularly conducted special compliance inspections of employees' and brokers' stocks holding and trading activities.

Non-compliance Incidents

In December 2014, when Beijing Tianli Mobile Service Integration, INC. (北京無線天利移動信息技術股份有限公司) was acquiring equity interests in Shanghai Yuhao Data Technology Co., Ltd. (上海譽好數據技術有限公司), it did not disclose that it was a related party of the latter and that such acquisition constituted a related party transaction. In addition, it did not comply with related party transaction procedures. Shui Yaodong (水耀東) and Sun Xiaozhong (孫小中), employees of the Company, as sponsor representatives for the IPO and listing on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange of this company, did not discover nor disclose the fact that the issuer failed to disclose such related party transactions. On April 9, 2016, the CSRC imposed a regulatory measure against Shui Yaodong and Sun Xiaozhong of a six-month suspension of acceptance of applications in relation to administrative approvals.

In August 2015, a shareholder of Xinjiang Ruizhao Source Ecological Agriculture Co., Ltd. (新疆瑞兆源生態農業股份有限公司) registered a pledge of its equity interest in this company. In the listing application submitted to NEEQ Co. by the Company, as the chief agency broker for this company, in September 2015, the Company failed to disclose the fact that the above shareholder had registered a pledge of its equity interest, which constituted a material omission. On February 26, 2016, NEEQ Co. imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a warning letter.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to Shui Yaodong's and Sun Xiaozhong's inadequacy in conducting due diligence on and supervising the issuer to ensure compliance with and improve policies dealing with related party transactions. The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel in the form of deduction of their annual compliance and risk management review points and bonuses. The Company mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. enhanced review of issuer due diligence and disclosure documents and required issuers to improve and strictly implement their internal policies on related party transactions; and
2. required employees to rigorously follow relevant policies including the Company's Ongoing Supervision Management Policy and Continued Training Management Policy, carefully conduct ongoing supervision and management as well as keep a complete record of the ongoing supervision.

The management of the issuer failed to adequately consider the subsequent events and failed to identify the equity interest pledge as a notifiable event. Due to the issuer's failure to timely inform the Company and the professional parties about the equity interest pledge, the Company and the professional parties failed to disclose such information in the application documents, which constituted a material omission.

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant project staff in the Company's NEEQ business department.

The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel in the form of deduction of their entire annual compliance and risk management review points and decrease of bonuses, as well as mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. fully analyzed the subsequent events of other companies seeking to be listed on NEEQ so as to ensure timely disclosure of similar events;
2. formulated new sets of project approval standards and requirements to improve the quality of listing mandates in light of risks and future development plans specific to NEEQ listing mandates;
3. fully analyzed and improved the feedback and workflow relating to subsequent events as well as established specific procedures as well as due diligence and review requirements for subsequent events of companies seeking to be listed on the NEEQ; required project teams to conduct review on subsequent events and submit working documents when applying for review before project application, feedback and listing;
4. organized training for all personnel of the NEEQ listing business on the categorization and work quality indicators for non-compliant activities, and enhanced their ability to identify and avoid project risks; and
5. timely adopted measures and carried out supplemental investigations to prevent project risks relating to risk issues that may arise in listing projects.

Non-compliance Incidents

On December 31, 2015 at 14:50 pm, the Company gave sell orders for 16 stocks at prices significantly below the most recent trading prices in the process of conducting its market-making business. This resulted in significant fluctuations in the price of these stocks right before the close of the market, affected the normal trading price of these stocks and disrupted the market. On January 19, 2016, NEEQ Co. imposed a public reprimand against the Company and imposed disciplinary punishment against the relevant persons of the Company in the form of a public reprimand and a notice of criticism for these abnormal sell orders above. On February 26, 2016, the CSRC Shanghai Bureau imposed regulatory measures against the Company including a three-month suspension of conducting new NEEQ market-making business.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to defects in the performance appraisal system as well as internal management and control of the Company's market-making business. Such defects led to the failure to effectively implement relevant regulatory and internal control requirements in respect of conducting market-making business in compliance with the laws and regulations.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant business staff in the Company's market-making business department.

The Company has made various rectifications according to regulatory requirements as well as enhanced and improved the compliant operation and risk management of the NEEQ market-making business. In 2016, the Company increased the weight age of risk management and compliance in its performance assessment, and no longer considered the ranking of the number of NEEQ market-making shares. From March to September 2016, the Company conducted quarterly internal compliance checks and adopted remedial measures on the market-making business department. Specific remedial measures adopted by the Company include:

1. imposed accountability measures on the person in charge of the market-making business department in the form of administrative dismissal and termination of employment;

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

2. the market-making business department amended the Administrative Measures on NEEQ Market-making Business, and promulgated the Administrative Rules on Market-making Projects, the Rules on Market-making Business Authorization and Adjustment, the Market-making Project Planning Standards and provided further details on the Provisional Rules on the Daily Task of Investment Research Division, the Provisional Rules on the Daily Task of Trading Division and the Trading Room Rules in view of the actual business condition and further optimized each business management procedures;
3. strengthened the management of the trading rooms by the market-making business department, enhanced the regulation of the behaviors of traders and prevented and controlled the disclosure of sensitive information;
4. optimized the NEEQ market-making and quotation system, developed the NEEQ project management system and strengthened the role information technologies play in business risk management; and
5. developed a market maker's strategy system with batch and automatic quotation function for market making stocks and set a variety of risk control warning threshold values, which could effectively reduce the operational risk of manual quotation by the traders.

On June 1, 2016, the Company submitted a rectification report in respect of its NEEQ market-making business to NEEQ Co. On May 27, 2016 and August 29, 2016, respectively, the Company submitted compliance inspection reports in respect of the NEEQ market-making business to the CSRC Shanghai Bureau. In May 2016, the Company resumed its new NEEQ market-making business. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company had not received any follow-up on this incident from the CSRC Shanghai Bureau.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

The Company acted as the sponsor and lead underwriter for a follow-on public offering by Cangzhou Dahua Co., Ltd. (滄州大化股份有限公司) in May 2014. On October 11, 2015, the CSRC imposed a regulatory measure against Zhou Wenhao (周文昊) and You Lingyan (尤凌燕), employees of the Company, of a warning letter as a result of their failure to provide sufficient risk warning of this offering and to urge the issuer to adequately disclose the risk of a substantial decline in its results of operations in the securities offering documents.

On January 16, 2015, the CSRC imposed a regulatory measure against the Company of a three-month suspension on the opening of new credit accounts for margin financing and securities lending clients because the Company rolled over margin financing and securities lending contracts upon maturity in violation of relevant regulatory requirements.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the failure of the project personnel to adequately perform their due diligence and advise the issuer to comply with the relevant regulatory requirements in respect of securities offerings.

The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel in the form of deduction of their entire annual compliance and risk management review points and decrease of bonuses. The Company mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. organized business personnel to conduct training on relevant laws and regulations, such as the Rules on Sponsor Due Diligence Investigation, and continuously improved due diligence awareness and professionalism; and
2. continuously enhanced the implementation and execution of relevant management rules including the Management Policy on Due Diligence Investigation and the Measures on Sponsor Representative and Lead Manager by employees and improved the professional capability of business personnel.

This incident was due to inadequate internal controls of the Company and its failure to closely monitor the compliance in relation to the opening of margin financing and securities lending accounts. In compliance with laws, administrative regulations and requirements of the CSRC, the Company actively implemented remedial measures, fully revised relevant business flows and further enhanced the compliance awareness of relevant personnel.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly relevant business staff in the margin financing and securities lending department of the Company.

BUSINESS

Non-compliance Incidents

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

The Company imposed accountability measures against relevant project personnel in the form of serious warnings, compliance warnings and deduction of annual compliance and risk management review points and bonus. Specific remedial measures adopted by the Company include:

1. strictly avoided new overdue margin financing and securities lending contracts while handling historical overdue contracts, completely rectified the overdue contract issue within the prescribed period, except for special circumstances such as where trading in the subject securities was suspended; and
2. timely adjusted the standard for opening margin financing and securities lending accounts and the table of credit investigation and rating on margin financing and securities lending clients in strict compliance with relevant laws and regulations such as the Administrative Measures on the Margin Financing and Securities Lending Business of Securities Companies and enhanced client eligibility management and the evaluation of the risk tolerance of clients.

On January 26, 2015 and April 10, 2015, the Company submitted two rectification reports in respect of this margin financing and securities lending issue to the CSRC. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company had not received any follow-up on this incident from the CSRC.

Non-compliance Incidents

During an examination against Shenzhen Fuhong Road Securities Branch of Shanghai Securities in respect of whistle-blowing matters, the CSRC Shenzhen Bureau discovered that the securities branch opened margin financing and securities lending accounts for six new clients through the use of existing fund accounts of the clients who had traded securities for less than half a year. On January 12, 2015, the CSRC Shenzhen Bureau imposed a regulatory measure against this securities branch of a warning letter.

Overview and Primary Remedial Measures

This incident was due to the securities branch's inadequate management and internal control of client accounts, inappropriate operations and failure to comply with regulatory and internal control requirements in respect of management of margin financing and securities lending clients.

Personnel involved in this non-compliance incident are mainly business staff in Shanghai Securities' relevant securities branch.

Shanghai Securities held relevant persons of the securities branch accountable, imposed economic and administrative penalties including salary decrease and demotion, withholding of three months' wages and circulation of a notice of criticism against such persons and ordered them to rectify immediately. Shanghai Securities mainly adopted the following remedial measures:

1. the securities branch actively communicated with the six clients through telephone and home visits, to persuade them to close their accounts;
2. revised the Administrative Measures on Margin Financing and Securities Lending Business, the Administrative Measures on Credit Investigation of Margin Financing and Securities Lending Customers and the Operational Rules on Margin Financing and Securities Lending Business;
3. the securities branch conducted in-depth self-review and systematic rectifications, improved the management of operational risks through the separation of front office and back office according to regulatory requirements and relevant rules of Shanghai Securities, as well as enhanced its staff's understanding of risk management to improve their risk responsibility awareness; to prevent similar non-compliance from reoccurring in the future; and (b) such incidents do not affect the suitability of the Directors under Rules 3.08 and 3.09 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. After making reasonable inquiries of us about these non-compliance incidents and our remedial measures, there is nothing that has caused the Joint Sponsors to disagree with our view.

We engaged an independent internal control consultant to perform an internal control review for the Group between September 2016 and November 2016 based on the agreed scope with the Company and the Joint Sponsors and a follow-up review in January 2017. The internal control consultant did not identify any material deficiency in its original and follow-up review.

As of December 31, 2016, the aggregate amount of income we derived from the regulatory non-compliance transactions disclosed above was approximately RMB104.2 million.

Ongoing Investigations

CSRC Investigations

On June 16, 2016, the CSRC issued an investigation notice to Guotai Junan Futures and its employee, Huang Zhiqiang (黃志強), and initiated an investigation for their failure to effectively perform their duties as asset manager. On February 21, 2017, the CSRC issued a prior notice of administrative penalty to Guotai Junan Futures and Huang Zhiqiang in relation to the issues found during the investigation. According to the prior notice, the CSRC was of the view that, after entering into the asset management scheme with a client, Guotai Junan Futures had failed to effectively perform its responsibilities as the scheme manager since it neither participated in the operation of the account under the asset management scheme, nor conducted real-time monitoring on the transactions under such account.

The CSRC was of the view that the abovementioned behaviors violated relevant laws and regulations, and that Huang Zhiqiang was the person directly responsible for the above behaviors. Therefore, the CSRC intended to impose administrative penalties against Guotai Junan Futures by ordering it to make rectification, giving a warning, confiscating its illegal gains of RMB80.5 thousand and imposing a fine of RMB300.0 thousand; the CSRC intended to give a warning to Huang Zhiqiang and impose a fine of RMB50.0 thousand. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the CSRC had not made formal decision on the administrative penalties.

SFC Investigations

Pursuant to the relevant statutory powers of the SFC, it may carry out investigations on, or require assistance on its investigations from, the subsidiaries of Guotai Junan International with SFC licenses. As of Latest Practicable Date, two subsidiaries of Guotai Junan International were involved in the following regulatory investigations by the SFC:

- Guotai Junan Capital Limited was subject to the SFC's investigation in relation to its role in acting as the compliance adviser for a company listed on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

BUSINESS

- Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited was subject to the following three regulatory investigations by the SFC which concern:
 - (i) its compliance with the internal control requirements with respect to anti-money laundering;
 - (ii) its customers' suspected false trading and/or price rigging and/or stock market manipulation in dealing the shares of a company listed on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and suspected failure by its customers to make disclosure of interests in the company; and
 - (iii) its customers using suspected fraudulent or deceptive devices in transactions involving the shares of a company listed on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and suspected failure by its customers to make disclosure of interests in the company.

In connection with the these investigations, the SFC also inquired whether the relevant entities and/or persons connected with them, were guilty of misconduct, and/or are not fit and proper persons for the purpose of considering whether to exercise any power under section 194 of the SFO. These SFC investigations are ongoing and are therefore subject to the statutory secrecy under section 378 of the SFO.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, the SFC has not taken any regulatory measures against, nor imposed any penalty on, the relevant entities, us or our Directors, Supervisors or senior management. We are unable to predict the outcome of the above investigations. Depending on the investigation findings, Guotai Junan Capital Limited and/or Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited may become subject to disciplinary actions and other proceedings, which could potentially lead to fines, public reprimands and/or revocation or suspension of licenses (among other things), and if imposed, could materially and adversely affect our reputation, business, prospects, operations and results.

Given the uncertainties associated with the above investigations, including the actions that the regulatory authority might take and the timing, outcome and impact thereof, you should read and consider these matters carefully and pay particular attention to the risk factor in “Risk Factors — Risks relating to Legal, Compliance and Regulatory Matters — We may be subject to litigation and regulatory investigations and proceedings, and may not always be successful in defending ourselves against such claims or proceedings”.

Our Directors have taken into account the financial contribution of Guotai Junan Capital Limited and Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited to our Group during the Track Record Period in considering each of the matters under the SFC's investigation based on the information made available to them. Our Directors are not presently aware of any significant risks that any matters in connection with the SFC's investigations would have a material and adverse impact on our reputation, business, prospects, operations and results. We take all investigations by SFC and other regulatory authorities seriously, and will take appropriate and prompt steps to rectify the areas which are found to be deficient or non-compliant as necessary.

BUSINESS

Regulatory Inspections

The regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations in the PRC, such as the CSRC and the PBOC, as well as the regulatory authorities in Hong Kong, such as the SFC, carry out routine or ad hoc inspections, examinations and inquiries in respect of our compliance with the laws, regulations, guidelines and regulatory requirements applicable to us and our business.

During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, the CSRC, the PBOC and their respective local offices and bureau carried out routine or ad hoc inspections on us, including, without limitation, our continuing supervisory duties. These inspections revealed deficiencies and weaknesses in our business operations, risk management and internal controls, and we took immediate remedial measures in response to the notifications from the regulatory authorities.

The results of the principal examinations or inspections are summarized below.

On-site Inspections of Branches

The CSRC and its regional bureaus together with local securities industry associations have conducted on-site inspections on some of our branches and mainly identified the following issues:

- No effective monitoring and measures are in place for securities brokers' conducts and abnormal client transactions;
- Our client eligibility management system needs to be improved; no risk assessment has been made on some clients, and no follow-up risk assessment has been made to some clients after expiry of their initial risk assessment;
- There existed overlaps of positions between staff of the sales department and the branches as well as between staff of the front office and the back office in the sales department; and
- Regulatory reporting data submitted was inaccurate.

We have adopted the following remedial measures to address the issues identified by the regulatory authorities:

- strengthened the compliance management of our brokers, strictly monitored the scope of their conduct, carried out compliance education for our brokers and effectively enhanced their professionalism to prevent the risks of operational non-compliance;
- assigned staff to monitor the progress of risk assessments of clients for the securities branches; for those clients who have not been assessed for more than two years, in addition to the existing reminders from our trading system, used SMS and manual notices to prompt clients to complete the risk assessment;

BUSINESS

- adopted measures including trading restrictions and withdrawal of credit margins to ineligible margin financing and securities lending accounts, and required our employees to strengthen the review of client qualification application in accordance with regulatory requirements and our policies;
- reviewed our position setup and improving our position segregation policies; and
- required the relevant employees to carefully study the requirements of regulatory report submission, and standardized the review and management of regulatory report submissions.

Ongoing Supervision

The CSRC and its regional bureaus and institutions conducted on-site investigations of several companies for which we have acted as listing sponsor, bond trustee or financial advisor of M&A and reorganizations, identified certain issues associated with our ongoing supervision duties for these companies, including:

- lack of due diligence and failure to identify the fact that the listed companies have not disclosed related party transactions;
- failure to promptly identify and prevent bond issuers from lending the proceeds; and
- lack of due diligence and issuance of verification opinions that was materially inaccurate.

We have taken the following remedial measures against the issues identified by regulatory authorities:

- strengthened the due diligence on issuers and the review of disclosure documents, supervised issuers to improve and strictly implement their internal policies on related party transactions, required employees to strictly conduct ongoing supervision, and kept a full record of ongoing supervisions;
- requested issuers to immediately adopt remedial measures and supervised issuers to improve their internal control procedures for use of proceeds, and improved our internal policies and procedures with respect to acting as bond trustee; and
- requested listed companies to improve their corporate governance structure, including enhancing staff training as well as the review and supervision of corporate documents, the review of documents for Shareholders' meetings, supervisors meetings and board meetings, training on applicable laws and regulations, improving internal rules on the use of proceeds and enhancing supervision of their implementation; and imposed disciplinary actions on our employees who were responsible for ongoing supervision.

Inspections, Visits, Reviews and Enquiries by the SFC

Upon completion of its limited-scope review of the business activities of Guotai Junan FX Limited on March 13, 2017, the SFC noted that the margin call messages were not aligned with Guotai Junan FX Limited's internal policy and procedures with respect to client margin.

Upon completion of its limited-scope review of the business activities of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited on March 13, 2017, the SFC noted that there were certain deficiencies with respect to certain requirements as set out in the Management, Supervision and Internal Control Guidelines for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission; Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission; Securities and Futures (Client Money) Rules; Securities and Futures (Client Securities) Rules; and Questions and Answers on Suitability Obligations of Licensed and Registered Persons who are engaged in Financial Planning and Wealth Management Business Activities; and Securities and Futures (Contract Notes, Statements of Account and Receipts) Rules, namely, (i) margin lending and credit control policies which include (a) excessive exposures to major shareholder loans; (b) single stock or individual client concentration; (c) failure to collect margin calls promptly; (d) waiver of margin calls remained valid for long period of time; and (e) other deficiencies of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited's internal policy and procedures; (ii) handling of client assets which include (a) under-segregation of client money; and (b) improper break identification and resolution in stock reconciliation; (iii) selling practice and suitability of advice which include (a) inadequate documentation of rationale underlying investment recommendation to clients; (b) failure to identify potentially vulnerable clients; and (c) unsatisfactory staff attendance rate on selling practice related training; and (iv) inaccurate stock deposit date disclosed in the statements of account.

Upon completion of a cybersecurity review of Guotai Junan Futures (Hong Kong) Limited, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and Guotai Junan FX Limited on February 10, 2017, the SFC identified certain deficiencies in the cybersecurity control measures of these companies across different areas. In particular, the SFC identified certain deficiencies in cybersecurity risk management, infrastructure security management and the protection adopted in relation to customer online trading applications and accounts. In response, Guotai Junan Futures (Hong Kong) Limited, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited and Guotai Junan FX Limited have proposed certain remedial actions, including establishing an Operational Risk Working Group, providing in-house training on cybersecurity, reviewing disaster recovery plan and exploring the possibility of adopting a stronger authentication mechanism.

In relation to the securities margin financing business activities of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, the SFC set out certain deficiencies in its letters of June 12, 2014 and September 27, 2016, namely, (i) excessive exposures to single or illiquid collaterals; (ii) reliance on significant bank borrowings to finance margin loan growth; (iii) significant exposures to concentrated stocks; (iv) high stock margin ratios; and (v) failure to collect margin calls promptly.

BUSINESS

Upon completion of its limited-scope review of the sponsor work conducted by Guotai Junan Capital Limited on July 13, 2016, the SFC identified certain deficiencies in, and required Guotai Junan Capital Limited to critically review, its due diligence procedures, management supervision procedures, interview practices and internal control procedures to ensure compliance with paragraphs 5.1 and 5.8 of the Corporate Finance Adviser Code of Conduct dated October 2011, paragraphs 17.10(c)(v), (vi) and 17.11(d)(iii) of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission and Listing Rule 3A.07 and paragraph 2 of the Practice Note 21 to the Listing Rules. Guotai Junan Capital Limited subsequently revised its compliance and internal procedure manual related to sponsor work and conducted a seminar for its staff in July 2016 and also submitted various responses to the SFC during August 2016 to October 2016 to address the SFC's concerns. On October 7, 2016, the SFC indicated that it had no further comments on the responses submitted.

Upon completion of its limited-scope review of the business activities of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, focusing on anti-money laundering/counter-terrorist financing issues of relatively high importance, on July 29, 2015, it was noted by SFC that there are certain deficiencies with respect to the anti-money laundering/counter-terrorist financing measures of Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, namely, (i) suspicious transactions monitoring and reporting; (ii) risk assessment; (iii) customer due diligence; (iv) screen terrorist and sanction designation on an on-going basis; and (v) controls to detect potential fraud and other unauthorized or improper activities over the operation of third party authorizations. In response, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited subsequently, among other things, enhanced monitoring on suspicious transactions, conducted risk assessment for all customers, revised internal guidelines, policies and reporting procedures in relation to anti-money laundering issues. On August 8, 2016, the SFC indicated it had no further comments on Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited's proposed rectification measures.

In its letter issued to Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited on January 14, 2015, which set out the deficiencies noted from a limited-scope inspection to review Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited's provision of service in pre-IPO trading of shares to be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the SFC noted that Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited provided pre-IPO trading service by placing orders received from its clients to another securities broker, or Broker A, for execution under an omnibus trading account. Whereas the terms and risks of pre-IPO trading were provided in Broker A's client agreement with Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited did not bring those relevant terms and risks to the attention of its clients. As a licensed person is required under the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission to make adequate disclosure of relevant material information in its dealing with its clients, Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited subsequently rectified the deficiencies by amending its client agreements to incorporate those terms and risk disclosures and issuing a notice to inform its existing clients of such amendments. On March 19, 2015, the SFC indicated that it had no further comments on Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited's proposed rectification actions.

Our Directors confirm that, except as disclosed in "—Legal and Regulatory", there were no other material regulatory examination findings or material incidents of regulatory non-compliance during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date.

RISK MANAGEMENT

OVERVIEW

We consider risk management as our core competency. We have established a comprehensive and effective risk management and internal control system, which includes advanced risk management tools and technologies. Since 2008, we have attained the Class A Grade AA regulatory rating for nine consecutive years. Class A Grade AA is the highest rating ever attained by any PRC securities company. This also reflects our high risk management capabilities and disciplined management level.

We have established our compliance and risk management principles and insist on prudent management. We firmly believe that “risk management creates value, future development relies on compliant operations”. We consider legal and compliant operation as the cornerstone of our business development and balance risk management and business development. We strive to enhance our risk management capability and strictly implement authorization management.

Given our need to innovate our business, products and management, we have formulated and timely adjusted specific risk management measures and regularly issued risk information reports on innovative activities. We do not enter into business areas where risks are not adequately assessed or understood or which do not meet regulatory requirements or market trends.

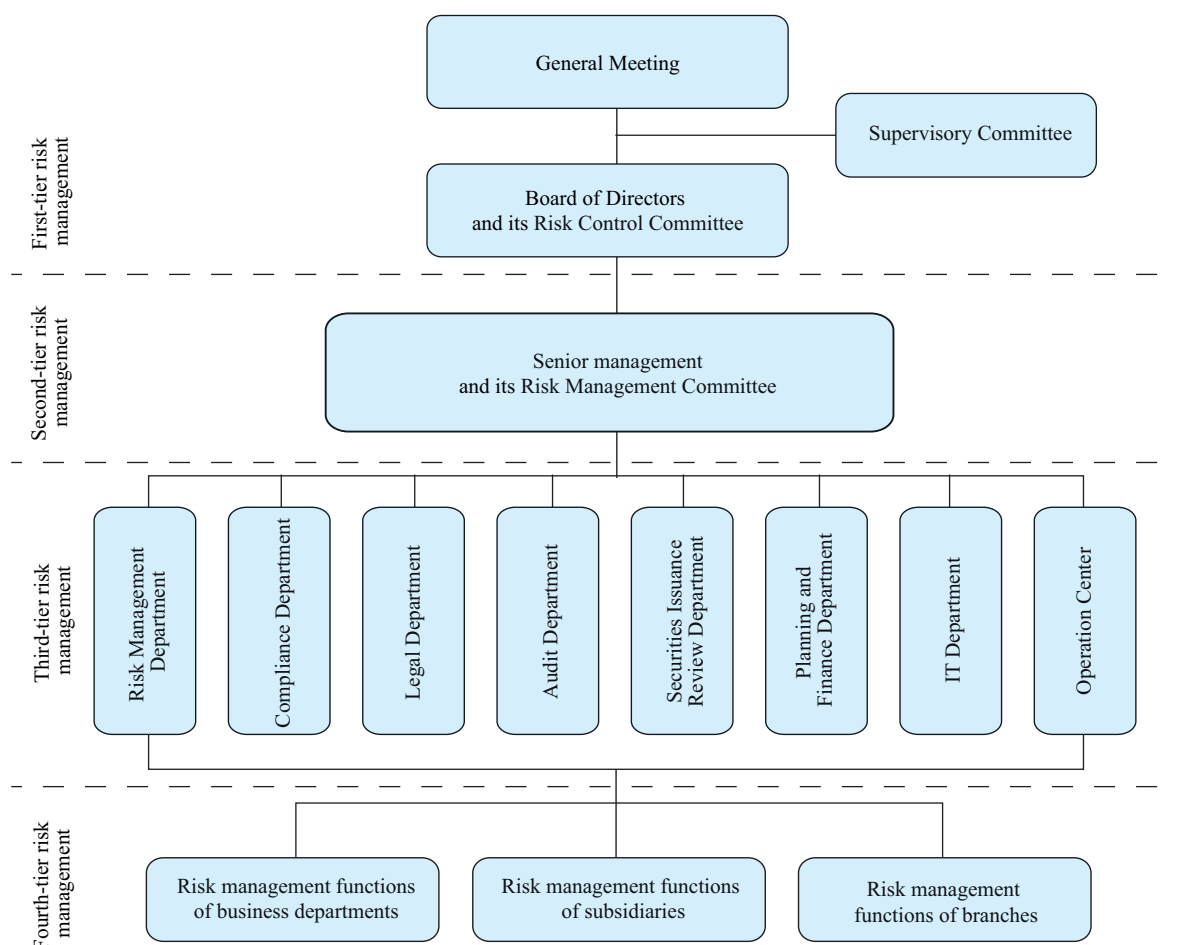

RISK MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

We have established a four-tier risk management structure consisting of: (i) the Board; (ii) senior management; (iii) departments responsible for risk management; and (iv) business departments, subsidiaries and branches.

Through our four-tier risk management structure, we correctly identify, reasonably evaluate, dynamically monitor, timely respond to and effectively control various risks arising from operations and management. These efforts have enhanced our risk management capabilities and provided effective assurance for our innovative transformation and sustainable development in recent years. As of December 31, 2016, our compliance and risk management team accounted for 5.9% of our employees.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The chart below sets forth our risk management organization structure:

The Board

The Board is the highest decision-making body in our risk management structure, ultimately responsible for the overall risk management of the Group.

The Board is mainly responsible for:

- reviewing and approving the fundamental risk management policies of the Group;
- defining and adjusting the Group’s risk appetite; and
- reviewing the Group’s risk tolerance and risk limits.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The Board has established a risk control committee. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the risk control committee of the Board consisted of five members, including Mr. Fu Fan (傅帆), Mr. Wang Song (王松), Mr. Zhong Maojun (鐘茂軍), Mr. Liu Qiang (劉強) and Mr. Ling Tao (凌濤), with Mr. Fu Fan as the chairman. For further information about the risk control committee, please see “Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management”.

The risk management committee is mainly responsible for:

- reviewing the overall objectives and fundamental policies of risk management;
- reviewing the establishment and the duties of the risk management divisions;
- assessing the risks associated with material business decisions and solutions to material risks;
- reviewing compliance and risk assessment reports; and
- reviewing the effectiveness of the Group’s risk management and internal control systems.

Our Supervisory Committee supervises the risk management duties of the Board and our senior management, and advises on the effective implementation of risk management.

Senior Management

Our senior management is responsible for the effectiveness of our risk management. Based on the plans of our business development, our senior management determines and adjusts the risk limits of various businesses, and implements classified and hierarchical management.

Our senior management has established a risk management committee, which is chaired by our president and is responsible for:

- reviewing the risk management policies, annual risk appetite, and size and maximum risk limits of our proprietary trading business;
- reviewing and approving the annual risk limits allocation plan, key risk control indicators and adjustment items for various investment businesses of the Company;
- reviewing the Company’s annual business authorization and management authorization plans; reviewing and approving annual authorization adjustment items;
- reviewing the Company’s annual economic capital allocation plan and adjustment items;
- reviewing the Company’s quarterly, interim and annual risk management reports and annual economic capital execution reports;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- reviewing and determining the material risks of the Company; and
- reviewing the risks and compliance assessment reports of the Company's material innovative businesses.

The permanent members of the risk management committee include the president of the Company, the chief risk officer, the chief compliance officer, the chief financial officer, head of the risk management department, head of the planning and finance department, head of the compliance department, head of the strategic management department, head of the audit department, and head of the legal department, while non-permanent members include the persons in charge of the relevant businesses.

Our chief risk officer and chief compliance officer are responsible for constructing our comprehensive risk management system; monitoring, evaluating and reporting on our overall risk level; examining, supervising and inspecting the compliance of operational management and general business conduct of the Company and its employees; and advising on compliance and risk management matters in the Company's business decisions.

Our chief risk officer and chief compliance officer are appointed by the Board. As of the Latest Practicable Date, Ms. Liu Guifang (劉桂芳) was our chief risk officer and chief compliance officer. She has over 23 years of experience in the financial industry. For further information about our chief risk officer and chief compliance officer, please see "Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management".

Departments Assuming Risk Management Functions

Our departments that assume risk management functions include those that are specifically responsible for risk management, including the risk management department, the compliance department, the legal department, the audit department and the securities issuance review department; as well as departments that perform other risk management duties, such as the planning and finance department, the IT department and the operation center.

- Risk management department: managing the credit risks, market risks, liquidity risks and operational risks of the Company, and performing specific risk management responsibilities;
- Compliance department: effectively identifying, assessing and preventing compliance risks, performing compliance examinations, compliance inspections, compliance consulting, compliance training, compliance accountability, compliance reporting, regulatory monitoring and coordination, anti-money laundering and information segregation management;
- Legal department: identifying, evaluating, notifying, monitoring, reporting and preventing the legal risks of the Company; protecting the Company from legal sanctions, significant financial losses and damages to reputation;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- Audit department: responsible for independent and objective inspection, supervision, evaluation of and recommendations on the compliance and reasonableness of business, management, financial and other operations; on the security and profitability of assets; and on the comprehensiveness and effectiveness of internal controls among the Company's various departments, branches and controlled subsidiaries;
- Securities issuance review department: conducting review and risk management for our investment banking business;
- Planning and finance department: responsible for the Company's budget planning, financial management, accounting, Net Capital management, liquidity management and liquidity risk management;
- IT department: responsible for the planning, construction, operation and management of the Company's IT system; establishing and implementing IT-related policies; assessing and managing the Company's IT risks; and
- Operation center: responsible for the centralized clearing, settlement, auditing, third-party depository operation and capital management of our various businesses, and relevant risk management.

Business Departments, Subsidiaries and Branches

Our various business departments, subsidiaries and branches are responsible for frontline risk management. We implement a frontline risk management matrix with both risk management line and business line reporting. We also conduct a dual assessment of business performance and risk management for the persons responsible for frontline risk management, in which business performance and risk management each accounts for 50% of the assessment. Frontline risk management is an effective means for us to achieve comprehensive and precise risk management and a strong assurance for enhanced implementation of risk management.

The key responsible persons of all our business departments, subsidiaries and branches are the persons who are primarily responsible for our frontline risk management. They assist the persons in charge of their respective business units in performing the following duties:

- Organizing and establishing a sound risk management system and carrying out authorization management of business and management systems;
- Identifying risk points across key business procedures and positions, as well as responsive control measures, job responsibilities and authorization matters;
- Conducting risk reviews and inspection of operational and management activities;
- Implementing dynamic compliance and risk assessment, as well as evaluating, reporting and handling or assisting in handling the associated risks;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- Timely providing rectification and improvement suggestions for issues identified during monitoring, inspection and occurrence of risk events, as well as supervising and promoting rectification;
- Focusing on and understanding abnormal behaviors of employees, including illegal and non-compliance behaviors such as holding and trading stocks, disclosing client information, insider trading, tunneling of benefits and unauthorized sales of financial products; and
- Identifying and dealing with hidden risks or risk events found in daily work in a timely and proper manner as well as making timely reports.

MONITORING AND MANAGEMENT OF MAJOR RISKS

We face various risks across all our business lines and operations. We have established a comprehensive risk management system covering market risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, operational risk and compliance risk.

Market Risk Management

Our market risks are the possibility of loss caused by the change or fluctuation in the market price of assets. According to different factors that lead to market risks, market risks can be classified into interest rate risk, exchange rate risk and financial asset price risk. Our businesses that are susceptible to market risks mainly include proprietary trading and securities investment in connection with liquidity management. The fair value of our securities and derivative financial instruments in these businesses will vary with the changes in market prices. We proactively manage our market risks through accurate measurement and assessment of market risks based on market trends and changes in our portfolio.

In order to effectively manage market risks, we have adopted the following measures:

- implementing limit management for market risks, including business scale limits, risk limits and stop-loss limits;
- decomposing and analyzing the market risk factors of each business and product, and timely and accurately identifying the types and natures of market risks;
- selecting appropriate methods, reasonable assumptions and parameters for the measurement of different types of market risks; conducting sensitivity analysis, scenario analysis and stress tests; carrying out regular post-mortem examinations to adjust and improve market risk measurement methods and models;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- monitoring and reporting the changes in market risks; calculating the VaR of specific positions, portfolios or the overall investment of the Company through a mark-to-market mechanism; and
- regularly preparing market risk reports covering risk positions, risk values and limit implementation.

The market risks to which we are exposed primarily arise from our proprietary trading business. For market risk management measures for proprietary trading business, please see “— Risk Management and Internal Control Measures for Major Business Lines — Institutional Finance — Institutional Investor Services — Proprietary Trading”.

Apart from proprietary trading business, our liquidity management, margin financing and securities lending business and investment banking business are also exposed to market risks. We require the securities we hold for liquidity management purposes to meet the standards for quality liquid assets. In particular, the fixed-income securities held for liquidity management shall comprise primarily of government bonds, financial bonds backed by government and monetary funds. With respect to margin financing and securities lending business, we use stock index futures to hedge against risks associated with the underlying securities in the securities lending business. With respect to investment banking business, for securities underwriting projects that potentially involve underwriting risks, the risk management department will evaluate the potential underwriting amount and losses through stress testing and provide advice as appropriate. These projects will also be subject to the review by the investment banking business committee. In addition, we seek to further mitigate market risks associated with investment banking business by proactively broadening distribution channels, carefully determining the window periods, and implementing prudent pricing mechanism. The risk management department monitors the market risks in the above businesses on a daily basis and conducts risk analysis and evaluation in the periodic risk reports.

We have maintained an effective control of market risks through enforcement of the above measures. Throughout the Track Record Period, our market risks exposure remained within manageable range and there has not been a material market risk incident. Since 2008, we have attained Class A Grade AA regulatory rating from the CSRC for nine consecutive years. Class A Grade AA is the highest rating ever attained by any securities company to date. This also demonstrates our effective management of market risks.

Credit Risk Management

Our credit risks are the possibility of loss caused by our counterparty’s failure to perform a contract or a change in its credit rating or ability to perform. Our businesses that are susceptible to credit risks include proprietary trading of fixed income products, stock-pledged financing as well as margin financing and securities lending. Our clients, counterparties or bond issuers in these businesses may default and fail to repay debts to us or pay principal and interest on the bonds they issued.

RISK MANAGEMENT

In order to effectively manage credit risks, we have adopted the following measures:

- implementing limit management for credit risks;
- establishing independent and appropriate credit evaluation procedures and a credit rating system to assess the credit levels and limits for different transactions; adjusting and improving credit risk measurement methods and models;
- implementing multi-tiered management of credit risks, continuously tracking and recording counterparties and transactions, and quantitatively analyzing changes in clients' transactions and credit;
- regularly conducting risk analysis on transactions and counterparties to assess possible losses to the Company under extremely unfavorable circumstances; for our high-risk clients and businesses, formulating more stringent procedures and standards on credit risk assessment, inspection and monitoring; and
- regularly preparing credit risk reports covering credit risk exposures, default rate of counterparties and anticipated recovery rate.

Liquidity Risk Management

Liquidity risk is the risk that we might not be able to obtain sufficient funds in time at reasonable costs to repay debts that are due, fulfil other payment obligations and satisfy the funding requirements for normal business operations. As liquidity is important for all our major businesses, we focus on the effective identification, measurement, monitoring and control of liquidity risk.

In order to effectively manage liquidity risk, we have adopted the following measures:

- adopting risk indicators analysis for our overall liquidity risk assessment, through the analysis of key indicators, including liquidity coverage, net stable capital ratio, liquidity gap ratio, liquidity ratio, and assets and liabilities concentration, to assess and measure the overall liquidity risk profile of the Company;
- examining cash flow mismatch through cash flow analysis as well as scenario-based and model-based gap analysis;
- establishing a liquidity risk limit mechanism, monitoring and reporting on implementation of limits as well as regularly conducting stress tests on liquidity risk;
- focusing on the risk profile of large fund providers, regularly monitoring their business activities with us and formulating financing concentration triggering ratios and contingency measures to be taken when these ratios are triggered;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- focusing on the changes in the capital markets, assessing our ability to replenish liquidity by issuing stocks, bonds and other financing instruments and the associated costs, and improving mismatch of our maturity structure by replenishing medium- and long-term liquidity; and
- establishing and improving our liquidity risk contingency plans, including reducing liquidity risk by risk transfer, risk diversification and risk exposure reduction; establishing contingency or backup systems, programs and measures for natural disasters, system failures and other emergencies, as well as regularly reviewing and testing the contingency plans and updating and improving our emergency response programs.

Operational Risk Management

Our operational risks are the possibility of loss caused by internal system and procedure failures, improper employee behaviors, IT system defects and external events.

In order to effectively manage operational risks, we have adopted the following measures:

- establishing an identification, assessment and management system for operational risks that fully covers the Company's business activities to continuously identify and evaluate operational risks;
- consolidating and organizing operational risk data; based on historical operational risk data, adopting reasonable methods for risk evaluation as well as proposing risk management measures;
- establishing a key operational risk indicator system, regularly monitoring these indicators and tracking the handling of monitoring information; and
- organizing and analyzing the data of risk loss events, the monitoring status of key risk indicators as well as the overall operational risk profile of the Company, and regularly preparing operational risk reports.

Compliance Risk Management

The compliance risks we face relate to legal sanctions, regulatory actions, losses of properties or damages to reputation as a result of the operational management or practices of the Company or its employees in violation of laws, regulation or rules.

In order to effectively manage compliance risk we have adopted the following measures:

- conducting compliance risk assessment on corporate policies and rules, major business decisions, new products and new businesses;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- establishing and effectively implementing a Chinese wall system; through separation measures for personnel, businesses, physical and IT, setting up separation walls between the departments and businesses of research, investment banking, proprietary trading, asset management and brokerage; preparing restricted lists and observation lists and implementing relevant monitoring, disclosure or restrictive measures to supervise and manage wall-crossing conducts and prevent insider trading and conflicts of interest;
- conducting compliance inspections on all departments and branches on both a regular and ad hoc basis and promoting timely rectifications of problems identified;
- accepting and handling complaints and reports on non-compliance issues involving the Company and its employees;
- establishing and implementing compliance review and accountability rules to pursue accountability against persons responsible for non-compliance incidents;
- formulating and implementing effective anti-money laundering policies and cooperating with regulatory authorities in their anti-money laundering inspections and investigations; and
- developing and operating a compliance management platform, a communication security management system, an employee securities account management system and an anti-money laundering system, achieving digitalized and automated daily review, employee communication and securities investment monitoring, anti-money laundering monitoring and reporting, thereby ensuring the timeliness and accuracy of the monitoring process.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL MEASURES FOR OUR PRINCIPAL BUSINESS LINES

We have implemented a series of risk management and internal control measures to manage the major risks associated with our business activities.

Institutional Finance

Investment Banking

The major risks of an investment banking business are market risk, operational risk and compliance risk resulting from poor management, ambiguity of powers and duties, and failure of due diligence. We manage the risks of our investment banking business mainly through the following measures:

- Project contracting stage: We submit project approval reports for projects that satisfy the requirements of our issuance quality evaluation system. Subsequently, we organize on-site presentations at the project review meeting with respect to the concerns raised by members of our quality control team as well as by project review committee members. After the project review meeting, members of the project review committee will decide whether to approve the projects by vote to ensure that the business team effectively and prudently undertakes projects;

- Project execution stage: Our quality control team has formulated specific guidelines for different types of businesses in accordance with regulatory requirements to strengthen risk management. The project team carries out comprehensive and detailed due diligence on the projects. The project team also classifies and archives project documents in accordance with our document management policy to ensure that relevant documents are true, accurate and complete;
- Project application stage: Members of our quality control team and the internal review committee fully review and discuss issues relating to projects. The project team responds to and will appropriately deal with these issues. Project teams may not submit an official application without approval from our quality control team and internal review committee;
- Offering and underwriting stage: We strictly control underwriting risk and compliance risk through the due diligence conducted by the project team; book-building, roadshow, marketing, pricing and allotment performed by our capital markets department; collective decision making by our investment banking committee; and supervision by our compliance department; and
- Ongoing supervision stage: Our project team conducts regular and ad hoc on-site inspections of projects, and provides training to the issuer and its directors, supervisors and senior management. Our quality control team makes ad hoc visits to the supervised projects to ensure that the project team performs its duty in good faith and with diligence. Our investment banking business committee regularly evaluates the ongoing supervision work to ensure the quality of our ongoing supervision.

Institutional Investor Services

Prime Brokerage

The major risks of the prime brokerage business are operational risks. We manage the risks of the prime brokerage business mainly through the following measures:

- formulating comprehensive fund account operational procedures, and specifying responsibilities and work procedures of various departments and positions to standardize operations;
- effectively separating various departments by assigning different business operating personnel and separating office areas and outfitting standalone office equipment to ensure that they are inaccessible to, and independent from, each other;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- inspecting and verifying information on share registration and valuation accounting in the internal management system to ensure information accuracy; and
- conducting adequate technical and business tests on all functions before launching our technical support system, and tracking and solving the issues detected during the tests; designating staff specifically responsible for inspection and verification of key information so as to timely discover errors during system operation.

Proprietary Trading

We implement cross-market and multi-currency comprehensive quantitative management for our proprietary trading business, as well as monitoring the market and other risks of all the investment-related business departments.

For our proprietary trading business, the Board determines our business scale and key risk control indicators on an annual basis. We carry out all-inclusive and quantitative calculation and analysis according to risk return characteristics and risk diversification effects of various businesses. We also develop business authorization and risk control indicators for various businesses under the principle of multi-tiered approval.

The following table sets forth the risk control indicators related to the proprietary trading of the Company.

Risk Control Indicators	Indicator Limits or Control Standards	Regulatory Requirements
Regulatory indicators
Market value of equity securities and their derivatives	No higher than 100% of Net Capital	No higher than 100% of Net Capital
Market value of non-equity securities and their derivatives	No higher than 150% of Net Capital	No higher than 500% of Net Capital
Market value of any single equity security	No higher than 4% of total market value	No higher than 5% of total market value
Market value of any single non-equity security	No higher than 16% of total market value	No higher than 20% of total market value
Limitation indicators
Business scale
Equity securities and their derivatives	RMB17,500.0 million	N/A
Non-equity securities and their derivatives	RMB88,100.0 million	N/A
Risk exposure limits
Equity securities and their derivatives	RMB2,450.0 million	N/A
Non-equity securities and their derivatives	RMB760.0 million	N/A

RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk Control Indicators	Indicator Limits or Control Standards	Regulatory Requirements
Hedging effectiveness limits ⁽¹⁾	No higher than 90-110%	N/A
Leverage limits	No higher than four times	N/A
Portfolio duration limits	No longer than four years	N/A

Note:

(1) Applicable to stock market index futures, treasury bond futures, interest swap as well as precious metal and commodity hedging and arbitrage businesses.

First, we set up and monitor various regulatory indicators based on regulatory requirements. The indicator limits or control standards set by us are more stringent than relevant regulatory requirements.

Second, we set and strictly implement various limitation indicators for our proprietary trading business. We set these indicators based on our annual risk appetite and risk tolerance indicators and relevant regulatory requirements, as well as taking into account our scale of trading and risk indicators for the previous year, market fluctuations and the business plan and budget for the current year. We calculate various limitation indicators on a daily basis, monitor and issue alerts on the implementation status of the limits, and submit timely reports through appropriate channels.

Lastly, we design and monitor a series of monitoring indicators suitable for our business, including VaR, volatility, beta coefficient and basis point value. We do not set limits for these monitoring indicators, including VaR. Instead, we conduct daily calculations of and closely monitor the changes in our monitoring indicators and proactively analyze potential market fluctuations and related changes, including whether any abnormal movements have occurred in our investment strategies and portfolios. We then conduct risk analysis and determine whether to adjust our investment strategies and portfolios.

When a proprietary trading transaction exceeds a specific limit, the frontline risk management staff will promptly report the ultralimit forewarning, warning or loss stop matters. The risk management department is responsible for calculating and reporting on the actual implementation of the risk limits and follow appropriate reporting procedures depending on the level of risks:

- When the risk limits at the departmental level reach the forewarning indicators, the risk management department should report to the investment department, and the heads of the investment department and the risk management department; the business team of the investment department should adopt response measures to reduce the risk management indicators to a level below the limit within two business days, which will be reported to the risk management department by the frontline risk management team at the investment department, and give feedback on the result to the risk management department. The response measures primarily include adjusting portfolio positions and conducting hedging activities. The risk management department should track the handling process.

RISK MANAGEMENT

- When the risk limits at the company level reach the forewarning indicators, the risk management department should report to the investment department, the heads of the investment department and the risk management department and the senior management of the Company; the business team of the investment department should adopt response measures to reduce the risk management indicators to a level below the limit within two business days, which will be reported to the risk management department by the frontline risk management team at the investment department after review by the trading and investment business committee, and give feedback on the result to the risk management department. The response measures primarily include adjusting portfolio positions and conducting hedging activities. The risk management department should track the handling process.

Our business department formulates proprietary trading strategies based on the analysis of macro economies and market conditions as well as our business plan and risk management requirements. Our risk management department analyzes the potential risks of our investment strategies as well as the applicability and limitations of each risk control indicator, so as to identify the key risk control indicators of each investment strategies. For instance, we focus more on limitation indicators for the blue-chip equity securities that we intend to hold for a long term, including business scale limits and risk exposure limits. For hedging transactions, we focus more on validity limits and risk exposure limits. For FICC transactions, we focus more on validity limits and unilateral scale limits. We confine indicators including investment scale and risk exposures of our proprietary trading department within established limits through setting business system parameters, and promptly remind our proprietary trading department of any significant fluctuations or other noteworthy changes of monitoring indicators such as VaR.

The following chart sets forth changes in our VaR and percentage of VaR to market value for our proprietary trading (other than our contributions to the designated account at China Securities Finance) at the end of each month during the Track Record Period:

RISK MANAGEMENT

Changes in our proprietary trading's VaR and percentage of VaR to market value are mainly affected by our equity investment. Before November 2014, our proprietary trading's VaR and percentage of VaR to market value were relatively low. From November 2014 to June 2016, growing volatility in the A-share market caused the VaR and percentage of VaR to market value of our investment portfolio to increase significantly in 2015. In the second half of 2016, volatility of the A-share market gradually reduced, valuation had become more reasonable, and VaR and percentage of VaR to market value of our investment portfolio also fell back to a relatively reasonable level.

Stocks, Funds and Derivative Financial Instruments Trading

We manage the risk of our stocks, funds and derivative financial instruments trading mainly through the following measures:

- establishing a preferred pool and an alternative pool for stock investment; maintaining and managing a blacklist of stocks, having strict research requirements and tracking mechanisms for stocks with significant investment positions;
- setting limits on the concentration ratio of investment, the scale of total investment in different industries, and the scale of individual stock investment, in order to optimize our portfolio;
- identifying and controlling proprietary trading risks by means of scenario analysis, stress tests and sensitivity analysis, implementing front end control of trading by setting various risk control indicators, and limiting or prohibiting trading by setting appropriate thresholds in IT systems;
- setting and strictly implementing stop-loss limits on individual stocks and stock portfolios, establishing a monthly market value protection and warning system, conducting timely analysis and decision-making when the decrease of profits exceeds certain standards, to effectively control the effects of unfavorable market conditions;
- effectively hedging risks and strictly controlling the scale and proportion of potential losses;
- diversifying investment risks through diversified and cross-market derivative trading strategies and reducing our reliance on a single market or strategy;
- for options and other derivative financial instruments for trading, establishing a sound valuation management system to comprehensively and accurately price and analyze the risks of the financial products that we are trading;
- for market making businesses, designing market-neutral strategies, strictly controlling unilateral positions and potential losses, and preventing directional prediction deviation.

RISK MANAGEMENT

FICC Trading

We manage risks of FICC trading business mainly through the following measures:

- controlling our exposure to interest rate risks by hedging through treasury bond futures and interest rate swaps;
- conducting internal ratings of various publicly traded fixed-income products, and controlling the scale and proportion of bond investment in individual bonds and individual issuers according to their credit ratings;
- continuously optimizing the credit rating structure of our bond portfolio, and, for domestic bonds, mainly investing in bonds rated AA+ or higher, for overseas bond investments, also having rating requirements;
- limiting our bond investment in industries with excess capacity, and industries and enterprises with negative media coverage, tracking our bond investments with relatively higher risks and precisely controlling risks by formulating specific policies and restricting investment ratios;
- diversifying our fixed income investment portfolios and continuously tracking the changes in the business operation, credit rating and solvency of the bond issuers;
- our business departments and risk management department jointly conducting regular and ad hoc inspections to detect risks in our unsecured bond investment portfolio and carefully evaluating, classifying and handling problems identified, establishing policies for disposal of defaulted and downgraded bonds;
- setting transaction limits for every counterparty based on its credit profile and the actual transaction demands;
- focusing on typical operational issues involved commodity and currency transactions, including market discrepancy and physical settlement; and
- establishing sound business rules and management measures for commodities and currency trading, controlling the operational risks of the commodities and currency trading through measures including procedure implementation and multiple independent verifications.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Securities-backed Financing

The main risks of securities-backed financing business are credit risks. As a fundamental rule, we require a borrower to have sufficient sources for funding the repayment. We have strengthened our management control over the adequacy of collaterals. We manage the risks of securities-backed financing business mainly through the following measures:

- clarifying the risk parameters and base line of the business through setting risk limits, entry standards for borrowers and collaterals, credit extension principles, and business authorization based on our own risk appetite;
- establishing a multi-tiered approval and authorization system;
- establishing a client eligibility management system to conduct comprehensive due diligence on clients in respect of their asset size, credit profile, risk tolerance and understanding of the securities market;
- establishing a management system for the securities pool of collateral of the securities-backed financing business, designating staff to update the securities pool on the basis of daily monitoring on a timely basis, selecting high-quality stocks with sound fundamentals and liquidity to include in our collateral pool;
- fully evaluating the fundamentals, volatility, historical fluctuations in price, market risks and liquidity of individual stocks, as well as the concentration ratio and duration of pledges and nature of collateral stocks, in order to reasonably determine the discount ratio of collateral and other core risk management factors and carry out dynamic adjustment in light of market conditions; and
- through post-funding examination, market monitoring, risk warning and liquidation, we identify and manage the credit risk of the securities-backed financing business.

In addition, for our securities-backed financing business, we have set different warning collateral coverage ratios and minimum collateral coverage ratios based on the class and nature of underlying securities. We adjust these ratios according to specific conditions of the underlying securities and borrowers.

We actively monitor the changes in our clients' credit profile and their collateral coverage ratios. Generally, when a client's collateral coverage ratio falls below 150%, this client enters into "alert" status. We will send this client a warning notice, requiring the client to monitor risks and prepare to repurchase from us in advance or take other collateral coverage measures. Generally, when a client's collateral ratio falls below 130%, this client enters into "risk" status. We will send this client a default warning notice, specifying that they must take collateral coverage measures to avoid default. Collateral coverage measures stock-pledged financing clients can take include repurchase in advance and replenishing collateral. Collateral coverage measures securities repurchase clients can take include repurchasing in advance and engaging in supplementary transactions. If clients fail to take collateral coverage measures as required, we will take various default and disposal measures including forced liquidation of underlying securities.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of outstanding balances of our stock-pledged financing business by clients status as of the dates indicated.

	As of December 31,
	2014		2015		2016
	(RMB in millions, except for percentages)

- (3) The collateral coverage ratios of clients are lower than 130%.

As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, all outstanding balances of our securities repurchase business are of “normal” status.

Personal Finance

Retail Brokerage

Major risks of a retail brokerage business include operational risks, compliance risks and credit risks. We manage the risks of our retail brokerage business mainly through the following measures:

- implementing a management model comprising centralized trading, centralized clearing, centralized financial management, centralized back-office management and centralized risk management, and achieving streamlined management of our retail brokerage business;
- establishing standard position setup, taking position management measures and improving a position responsibility system according to the principle of separation of positions and responsibility;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- implementing long-term account management policies including the guidelines for opening of qualified accounts, the management measures for small-balance dormant accounts and the clean-up mechanism for unqualified accounts;
- verifying a client's identity and making an assessment before account opening based on its asset size, business operation, credit record, understanding of the capital markets and risk tolerance;
- implementing a third-party custody system for client transaction settlement funds, and achieving closed-end operation of client funds to protect the client funds;
- standardizing the operational procedures and the authority of IT personnel to prevent technological risks of information systems;
- establishing an off-site monitoring system, setting warning thresholds, and monitoring abnormalities of the retail brokerage business; and
- developing an emergency and business continuity plan to respond to any emergencies arising from uncertainties including natural disasters, fires and power outages.

Margin Financing and Securities Lending

The risks of a margin financing and securities lending business are primarily credit risks, market risks, operational risks and compliance risks. We have continuously enhanced and improved the risk management in our margin financing and securities lending business, strengthened the monitoring of risks for client accounts, and improved our risk warning abilities. We manage the risks of our margin financing and securities lending business primarily through the following measures:

- implementing strict client eligibility management and continuous qualification management, and strict approval procedures;
- establishing a client selection and credit assessment system, determining transaction eligibility and limits of clients based on their identities, assets and income, investment experience, risk appetite, trading frequency and integrity compliance records; approving credit and managing the margin ratio according to the classification of clients;
- through a negative list mechanism for collateral and collateral discount rate models, adopting differentiated discount ratios on collateral with different grades based on their quality and making adjustment based on various factors including market trends and volatility as well as concentration and liquidity of collateral;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- implementing a two-tier risk monitoring and management mechanism to effectively prevent the risk of client default, with our margin financing and securities lending department monitoring the market daily and monitoring clients' margin maintenance ratio, maturity of financing contracts, margin calls and changes of quality of underlying securities and carrying out post-funding management, and our risk management department conducting independent risk monitoring regarding our overall risk profile, large-balance and high-risk clients and concentration ratio, and analyzing and evaluating through measures including stress testing;
- carrying out real-time monitoring and imposing trading restrictions at system level, covering monitoring indicators including net capital ratio, size of margin financing and securities lending of any single security, size of margin financing and securities lending of any single client, and ratio of liquidity-unrestricted stocks;
- enhancing the risk control of the concentration of clients' funds, strengthening our management and control over the concentration of a single client or a single collateral, and further enhancing countercyclical adjustments; when the market is overheated with high accumulated risks, reducing the portfolio risks of the margin financing and securities lending business by reducing leverage ratio and collateral discount rate and controlling financing targets and credit lines.
- establishing a risk management warning mechanism to monitor the value of our clients' collateral and the maintenance margin ratio on a real-time basis:
 - if the balance of credit or margin available to a client is insufficient, we will cease to provide additional margin financing and securities lending to this client;
 - if the maintenance margin ratios fall below 140%, a client enters into the "concern" status and we will monitor such clients more closely;
 - if the maintenance margin ratios fall below 130%, a client enters into the "alert" status and we will issue a warning to this client requiring him to increase his maintenance margin ratio to no less than 130% within one trading day or to no less than 140% within two trading days;
 - a client who fails to increase his maintenance margin ratio on time will enter into the "risk" status and we will generally carry out forced liquidation of collateral of his margin financing and securities lending account or demand full repayment; and
- strictly implementing the risk management policy of forced liquidation and establishing strict liquidation procedures and recourse mechanisms to ensure the fairness and efficiency of liquidation and to safeguard our rights to the maximum as a creditor.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Wealth Management

We manage the risks of our wealth management business primarily through the following measures:

- establishing a comprehensive set of policies regarding management of agency sales, marketing standards, investor eligibility and client feedback management, as well as a complete business flow for sales of financial products from product intake, evaluation, decision-making and sales to ongoing procedures monitoring and amendments according to our business development in time;
- assessing our clients' risk profile based on factors including their financial condition and income, knowledge of securities, securities investment experience, risk appetite and age;
- establishing management principles for the eligibility of financial products, and tying the risk rating of the financial products to the risk tolerance of our clients to strengthen our management and control over sales eligibility; and
- carrying out ad hoc self-examination and internal and external audit for the management of branches involved in the sales of financial products, business promotion, risk disclosure and client eligibility management to prevent and manage risks.

Investment Management

Asset Management

We conduct our asset management business mainly through Guotai Junan Asset Management. We update the business authorization for Guotai Junan Asset Management on a routine and ad hoc basis and carry out a review and approval on certain high-risk and new business plans and other risk events beyond the authority granted to Guotai Junan Asset Management.

Following our risk management system, Guotai Junan Asset Management carries out risk management within its authorization and reviews and approves on any risk events that may arise during its operation through routine or ad hoc meetings. Meanwhile, Guotai Junan Asset Management has established an independent risk control and compliance management mechanism to enhance effective execution of the entrusted duties and accurate disclosure of risks. The compliance department, risk management department and audit department of the Company also provide support to Guotai Junan Asset Management.

We manage the risks of our asset management business primarily through the following measures:

- establishing a securities pool for the investment management of asset management products, creating a list of securities to be included into the pool according to our internal and external research resources, and including the securities on the list into the securities pool after completing the relevant investment approval procedures;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- conducting investment trading through a centralized trading system in independent trading rooms with the head of trading and traders performing pre-trade examination on compliance with regulations with respect to the trading orders and the traders having the right to refuse to execute trading orders that violate laws, regulations and investment management rules, and to promptly report such events to supervisors;
- implementing a risk monitoring and reporting mechanism under which we conduct in-process risk monitoring and follow-up risk reporting; for key investment restrictions, conducting trial calculations of risks before any order is placed through the investment trading system and placing an order only if the risk indicators of the risk control module are satisfied so as to ensure the investments meet product risk return targets and investment restriction requirements;
- separating our asset management business from our proprietary trading and other securities businesses in order to prevent insider trading and conflicts of interest; separating the business responsibilities under the asset management business that may cause conflicts of interest, including investment operations, transfer and allocation of funds, account management, settlement and clearing, valuation and accounting; prohibiting senior management from managing businesses under which conflicts of interest exist and information needs to be screened; prohibiting the investment manager of a targeted asset management plan to act as the investment manager of any other asset management business;
- prohibiting any trade between proprietary trading accounts and asset management accounts, or between different asset management accounts, for the purpose of transferring profit or loss of asset management accounts;
- entrusting client assets to qualified commercial banks, the China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited, securities firms approved by the CSRC or other asset custodian institutions that comply with the laws, regulations and regulatory rules; providing asset management services to our clients through designated accounts;
- conducting eligibility due diligence on the identity of our clients and obtaining information on their assets, income, securities investment experiences, investment preferences, risk awareness and risk tolerance so that we can recommend products or services that match the risk tolerance of the client; examining the legitimacy of the sources of capital and uses of the managed assets in time; and
- including in our product contract documents risk statements to disclose the market risk, credit risk, operational risk, liquidity risk and other specific risks associated with investment in asset management products, and submitting them to the clients for their signature; during the sales process, requiring our sales representatives to earnestly disclose to our clients the product risk and return characteristics, investment scope, investment restrictions and other terms relating to special risks in the asset management contracts.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Fund Management

We currently carry out our fund management business mainly through GTJA Allianz Funds. GTJA Allianz Funds manages the risks of our fund management business primarily through the following measures:

- for the prevention of conflicts of interest, implementing strict internal control policies which cover investment management business control, information disclosure control, IT system control, accounting system control and internal audit control; and
- establishing the mechanism of separating incompatible positions, rigorous position responsibility system, standardized position management measures, comprehensive information and data security system, strict authorization control, effective risk prevention system and rapid response mechanism, to guarantee that the fund managers carry out business in compliance with laws, regulations and industry regulatory rules, while preventing and mitigating operational risks as well as ensuring the stability of business operation and the safety of the entrusted assets.

Direct Investment

We engage in direct investment business primarily through Guotai Junan Innovation Investment. The investment management committee, chief risk officer and compliance and risk management department of Guotai Junan Innovation Investment discuss and approve appropriate investments and their exits.

Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has compiled internal guidelines and standards for product scheme design, investment approval, project due diligence, investment decision and execution, post-investment management and exit strategies for private equity investment and principal investment. Under these guidelines and standards, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment seeks to manage the risks throughout the whole process of a project, and establish a multilevel review mechanism to effectively manage and control the relevant risks of the direct investment business.

International Business

We carry out our international business mainly through Guotai Junan International. Guotai Junan International adopts stringent risk management policies and monitoring system to control all risks of its business.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Brokerage

Guotai Junan International manages the risk of its brokerage business mainly through the following measures:

- All applications for credit limits must be reviewed by a credit manager and approved by a member of the risk management department and the credit committee. The equity financing department and the risk management department determine on case-by-case basis whether forced liquidation action is to be taken against clients with overdue balances. The credit committee regularly reviews the overdue balances reports; and
- Only margin deposit in the form of cash may be accepted for futures, options and leveraged foreign exchange trading. No transaction may be executed if a client's current position exceeds its trading limit. The risk management department timely monitors the margin deposit placed and the aggregate of the required margin deposit of each futures, options and leveraged foreign exchange contract. Margin call will be executed if there is a deficit in a client's margin deposit. Forced liquidation of a client's position will generally be executed if the client fails to meet margin calls.

Corporate Finance

Guotai Junan International manages the risk of its corporate finance business mainly through the following measures:

- establishing a risk evaluation system and a project management system as well as operation procedures and business policies based on the business workflow and regulatory requirements of various corporate finance businesses; enhancing training for employees as well as restrictions and supervision of employee trading, to prevent the occurrence of non-compliance events;
- formulating due diligence operational rules and document management rules as well as enhancing the professionalism and integrity of the business team through enhanced training; and
- establishing an independent quality control team to conduct quality check on projects by onsite and offsite process supervision and quality control.

Asset Management

Guotai Junan International manages the risk of its asset management business mainly through the following measures:

- devising asset allocation solutions and investment scope for funds and investment portfolios, regularly evaluating industry allocation strategy for funds and investment portfolios;

RISK MANAGEMENT

- establishing eligible securities pool for funds and investment portfolios reviewing and approving securities to be included in the pool in advance with supporting researches reports; and
- implementing securities investment stop-loss policy, regularly producing statements of profit or loss for funds, investment portfolios and individual securities owned by it and limiting the loss when necessary.

Loans and Financing

Guotai Junan International manages the risk of its loans and financing business mainly through the following measures:

- the equity financing department and the risk management department are responsible for approving the credit limit and margin limit of clients and making margin calls to margin clients whose trading exceeded their respective limits. Any such excess is required to be made good according to the deficiency report. The equity financing department monitors the deficiency reports on a daily basis. Failure to meet margin calls may result in the liquidation of the client's positions. The credit committee is also responsible for approval of stocks acceptable as margin collateral and the margin lending ratio. The list of approved margin collateral stocks will be reviewed and revised by the credit committee when necessary;
- Guotai Junan International minimizes its relevant risk exposure by performing detailed credit analysis of potential loan investments, and assigns specialists to oversee and monitor the performance of the loan investments; and
- loans and advances granted to clients, including IPO loans for subscription of new shares, are normally settled within one week from the drawdown date. Forced liquidation action may take place if a client fails to settle its shortfall within specific grace period after an IPO allotment result is announced.

Financial Products, Market Making and Investments

Guotai Junan International manages the risk of its financial products, market making and investments business mainly through the following measures:

- its risk management department evaluates every structured financial product with respect to transaction terms, potential risks and anticipated returns, and issues opinions on the overall structure and terms of such products and limits the overall amount of financial products; and
- it introduced eligible securities pool and overall trading limits for market making business and set a series of risk management indicators, including limits on single financial tools and issuers, limits on holding period and limits on accumulated losses.

RISK MANAGEMENT

NEW PRODUCTS AND BUSINESSES

We have established comprehensive internal policies regarding the review and approval procedures for new products and businesses. For significant and company-wide new products and businesses, the senior management is responsible for organizing an inter-departmental working group to jointly research and develop such products or businesses, and for reviewing and approving them upon completion of the research and development. For other new products and businesses, after business departments submit proposals for new products and businesses, the risk management committee under the senior management will coordinate relevant departments to conduct a risk assessment, and submit the proposals to senior management for review. Under both schemes, the business department that applies for a new product or business must submit a completed business proposal, including the proposed risk management and internal control procedures for such product or business.

The departments responsible for risk management, including the risk management department, the compliance department and the legal affairs department, will participate in the entire process of the development, analysis and approval of the new product or business, and conduct a comprehensive risk assessment of the risks involved in the new product or business. Moreover, prior to formal launch, all new products and business are required to be reviewed and approved by the risk management committee under the senior management and obtain business authorization from this committee. After the launch of new product or business, the risk management department, the compliance department and the legal affairs department will continue to monitor and manage the risks relating to the new product or business, and the compliance department and the audit department will conduct independent inspection or audit on the operations of the new product or business. We do not enter into business areas where risks are not adequately assessed or understood or which do not meet regulatory requirements or market trends.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest may arise between (i) our various operating units; (ii) our clients and ourselves; (iii) our clients; (iv) our employees and ourselves; or (v) our clients and our employees.

To prevent conflicts of interest, we have adopted specific measures including, but not limited to, the following:

- Research personnel are prohibited from providing false or misleading information or contradictory views in investment analysis, forecasts or recommendations regarding the same issue to the public, different clients and various departments at the same time; and
- Senior management personnel responsible for two or more businesses where there are conflicts of interest are prohibited from participating, directly or indirectly, in business activities that may result in conflicts of interest, including investment decision-making and consultation regarding specific securities.

RISK MANAGEMENT

We have adopted a series of measures and methods to manage conflicts of interest, primarily the adoption of Chinese walls. We primarily adopt measures of information segregation to avoid conflicts of interests. In the event that there are still conflicts of interest notwithstanding the establishment of Chinese walls, such conflicts of interest must be disclosed. If such conflicts of interest cannot be managed effectively through disclosure, we may adopt measures including imposing restrictions on business activities. In the event that we impose restrictions on business activities, we endeavor to prioritize our clients' interests and treat all clients fairly.

During the Track Record Period, we did not experience any significant failure to protect confidential information from, or related to, our clients.

CHINESE WALLS

A Chinese wall is a barrier to protect sensitive information from being transmitted between, or being used by, businesses with conflicts of interest. It includes a series of measures to prevent the occurrence of conflicts of interest between us and clients as well as between different clients and between different business lines.

We have a diversified range of businesses and products, and we will inevitably encounter conflicts of interest between two or more parties during the course of our business. In order to protect the interests of our clients and to maintain our good reputation, we have established Chinese walls between various business lines to prevent or minimize potential conflicts of interest by controlling the flow of sensitive information and establishing applicable rules and policies on information segregation. Specifically, we have implemented measures including, but not limited to, the following:

- Business lines with conflicts of interest, including investment banking, proprietary trading, investment management and research, are physically segregated. They operate in different offices and use separate computers, facsimile machines, printers and other office equipment. We have adopted a strict access management system by setting access control for key places such as business departments and trading rooms with sensitive information;
- We have established an observation list and restrictive list management system. In the event that we obtain sensitive information regarding specific securities or establish a business connection in relation to such securities (such as providing underwriting or financial advisory services to corporate clients), we put such securities on the observation list or timely adopt restrictive measures to such securities based on the progress and stage of the project. In particular, based on the progress and stage of the project, we put such securities and relevant information on the observation list or restrictive list, monitor the business activities relating to the companies or securities on the observation list and conduct an investigation in time if there is any abnormal condition. We also impose restrictions on related businesses, including proprietary trading in, and research on, such companies or securities in accordance with relevant laws and regulations; and

- Funds and securities accounts associated with our proprietary trading, investment management, margin financing and securities lending and other businesses with conflicts of interest are separately handled, independently set up, strictly segregated and independently managed, and funds and securities in separate accounts cannot be mixed or transferred from one to another; and
- The IT systems for different businesses with conflicts of interest are independent from each other or logically separated.

We believe that our information segregation system and Chinese wall mechanism have been effective in preventing insider trading and managing conflicts of interest during the Track Record Period.

SEGREGATION OF DUTIES

To minimize the possibility of collusion and improper trading, duties and functions within our various business departments are assigned to different teams of employees. No employee may work concurrently for two or more departments with conflicts of interest.

Employees in the business departments are not allowed to work concurrently in subsidiaries with conflicts of interest. Employees are not allowed to work concurrently in the IT department, planning and finance department and departments with supervision and inspection functions. Settlement officers are not allowed to concurrently work in our IT department or trading departments.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

We have incorporated anti-money laundering procedures into our internal control system and daily operation in strict compliance with the PRC laws and regulations on anti-money laundering, as well as relevant requirements of the PBOC and the CSRC. We have established an anti-money laundering leadership group, chaired by our president and comprising our president, the chief compliance officer and relevant senior management personnel, to be fully responsible for our anti-money laundering procedures. The compliance department is the department-in-charge of the Company's anti-money laundering procedures. The Company has currently established rigorous anti-money laundering internal control policies covering client identification, record keeping of client identity information and transaction records, classification of risk tolerance levels of clients, reporting on large-sum and suspicious transactions, internal operation rules and control measures, confidentiality, training and publicity, anti-money laundering auditing, assisting investigation and execution, and on-site inspections.

We have properly maintained the identity data and historical affairs records of our clients. According to the confidentiality requirements, we have provided specialized anti-money laundering training for employees, strengthened anti-money laundering supervision in our day-to-day business operations and strengthened our clients' understanding of anti-money laundering laws. We also actively cooperate with the PBOC in various anti-money laundering actions, such as on-site inspections and off-site supervision. Our audit department conducts a special audit on anti-money laundering on an annual basis and issues an audit report. We revise our anti-money laundering policies and improve our anti-money laundering procedures in light of the issues discovered in such audits.

RISK MANAGEMENT

In Hong Kong, we implement comprehensive internal control policies on anti-money laundering at Guotai Junan Financial Holdings and all of its subsidiaries. In accordance with the “Guideline on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing” issued by the SFC, we conduct due diligence on each client and verify the identity of each account’s beneficial holder to make sure it is not related to any terrorist suspects, and we assess the money laundering and terrorist financing risks. We conduct continuous monitoring measures based on the risk level assessed, which include reviewing client profiles from time to time, and monitoring clients’ trading activities to identify complex, large or abnormal transactions. If any suspicious transaction is identified, we report such transaction to relevant regulatory authorities in a timely manner. Our senior management values our anti-money laundering culture, appoints our compliance and anti-money laundering reporting officers, and arranges training sessions for our employees to further raise awareness of anti-money laundering internal control policies. In addition, we implement local policies in other jurisdictions to comply with applicable local anti-money laundering laws.

We have never participated in, or knowingly assisted with, any money laundering activity. For risks related to money laundering, see “Risk Factors—Risks relating to Law, Compliance and Regulation—We may fail to detect money laundering and other illegal or improper activities in our business operations on a timely basis”.

The following discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These statements are based on assumptions and analysis that we make in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors we believe are appropriate under the circumstances. However, our actual results may differ significantly from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause future results to differ significantly from those projected in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed in “Risk Factors” and “Forward-Looking Statements” and elsewhere in this prospectus.

OVERVIEW

We have the following business segments:

- Institutional Finance: Our institutional finance business comprises investment banking and institutional investor services. We strive to capture market opportunities through collaboration between these two business lines:
 - Our investment banking business provides listing sponsorship, equity underwriting, debt underwriting, structured debt financing, M&A financial advisory, and diversified corporate solutions to corporate and government clients;
 - Our institutional investor services business provides prime brokerage, securities-backed financing and research services to institutional investors. We also conduct proprietary trading in equities, derivative financial instruments and FICC;
- Personal Finance: Our personal finance business provides, through both offline and online channel, securities and futures brokerage, margin financing and securities lending, wealth management and financial planning services to clients;
- Investment Management: Our investment management business provides asset management and fund management services to institutions and individuals, and also includes our direct investment business; and
- International Business: We conduct brokerage, corporate finance, asset management, loans and financing as well as financial products, market making and investments businesses in Hong Kong mainly through Guotai Junan International. Meanwhile, we have also built an international business platform around Guotai Junan Financial Holdings. We have expanded our business presence into the United States and Singapore.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Our financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRSs and include applicable disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. We prepared our financial statements on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services. Our financial statements are presented in Renminbi, which is our functional currency.

The financial information includes the consolidated financial statement of the Company and entities (our subsidiaries) that we control. Control is achieved when we have rights to variable returns from our involvement with an investee and have the ability to affect those returns through our power over such investee. Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with those adopted by the Company. All intragroup transactions, balances, revenue, expenses and cash flows are eliminated in full on consolidation.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following factors are the principal factors that have affected and, we expect, will continue to affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Economic and Market Conditions

Our results of operations are materially affected by the conditions of the general economy and the financial markets. Favorable economic or market conditions include high GDP growth, liquid and efficient capital markets, low inflation, low unemployment rate, stable interest rate and exchange rate, increased commercial activities and high investor confidence. Unfavorable or uncertain economic or market conditions include slow economic growth, decreased commercial activities, low investor confidence, limited availability of credit and capital, inflation and interest rates or exchange rate volatility.

Changes in economic conditions may lead to increases or decreases in the number and size of transactions in which we provide underwriting and financial advisory services. Changes in stock markets or interest rates affect the value of our clients' portfolios and their trading and investing activities, which in turn may affect the amount of our brokerage commissions and asset management fees. In particular, the significant growth during the first half of 2015, and the significant decline and volatility in the second half of 2015 and early 2016 in the A share market directly affected our revenue and profits in the corresponding periods. In addition, fluctuating market prices could affect the value of our own investment portfolio, and we may record losses that would adversely affect our results of operations.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Regulatory Environment

Our results of operations, financial condition and prospects are subject to regulatory developments in the PRC and economic measures undertaken by the PRC government. In particular, our business models and fee structures, and the development of the scope of our product and service offerings have been materially affected by changes in the policies, laws and regulations governing the PRC securities industry. Regulatory changes may also affect our cost of capital and liquidity, and give rise to new challenges for our risk management and internal control.

The CSRC and other regulatory authorities are continuously improving the regulatory system, enhancing the efficiency of capital markets and broadening the scope of new products and services that securities companies can offer. In addition, the PRC government has also taken various measures to improve the capital efficiency and diversify the funding sources of PRC securities companies, including allowing PRC securities companies to issue short-term financing bills, medium-term notes, structured notes, corporate bonds, subordinated bonds and perpetual bonds.

Stabilization Measures in the PRC Stock Market

In 2015, the A share market experienced significant fluctuations, especially from mid-June to the end of August. As a result, the PRC government announced a series of measures to stabilize the stock market and restore investor confidence. In July and September 2015, the Company contributed to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance for purchasing blue-chip ETFs in China. The Company has contributed twice an aggregate amount of RMB17,014.0 million, which are accounted as available-for-sale financial assets in our consolidated statements of financial position. Changes in the fair value of such contributions will affect our equity position through other comprehensive income, based on the valuation information of the China Securities Finance. As of December 31, 2015 and 2016, the fair value of the investment position of the funds contributed to the designated account at the China Securities Finance was RMB16,168.6 million and RMB15,964.2 million, respectively. The accumulated decrease in the fair value of the contributions amounted to RMB845.4 million (a decrease of 5.0%) and RMB1,049.8 million (a decrease of 6.2%) as of December 31, 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Considering the nature and purpose of such contributions, its difference from our proprietary trading equity investment and uncontrollable timing for recovery, we recognize that there is no objective evidence of impairment with significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of such contributions as of December 31, 2016. As of December 31, 2016, the fair value of the Company's contributions to the designated accounts at the China Securities Finance represented 39.4%, 3.9% and 16.3% of our balance of available-for-sale financial assets, total assets and net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company, respectively. Furthermore, the Company has undertaken not to reduce its A share proprietary trading positions below the Company's balance as of July 3, 2015 if the SSE Composite Index is below 4,500.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

These stabilization measures expose us to additional market and other risks, primarily including the following:

- there is no publicly available information regarding how the Company's contributions to the designated accounts at China Securities Finance have been invested and the timing for recovery of the Company's contributions. We may incur losses from these contributions due to future disposal or impairment and our financial position may fluctuate as a result of revaluation; and
- the Company may be unable to reduce its net long trading positions or effectively hedge its exposures through short selling to mitigate market risks in a highly volatile market.

Competition

The PRC securities industry is highly competitive. We face intense competition in all aspects of our business. Our major competitors are other securities companies with similar service range and business scale. Furthermore, we also compete with other financial institutions including fund management companies, commercial banks, insurance companies and trust companies. Our competitors may offer a broader range of services, possess greater financial resources or have stronger customer bases.

Competition may affect the pricing of products and services that we offer, particularly in our retail brokerage business. Our stocks and funds brokerage fee and commission income accounted for a substantial portion of our total revenue and other income and was mainly influenced by commission rates and trading volume. In recent years, in line with the intensified price competition in the stocks and funds brokerage business in China and the market trend of decreasing brokerage commission rates, our average net stocks and funds brokerage commission rate in China has also decreased over the past few years. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, our average stocks brokerage net commission rate was 7.11bps, 5.74bps and 4.44bps, respectively.

We provide the following table showing a sensitivity analysis to illustrate the potential impact of the changes in our average stocks brokerage net commission rate in China on our profit before income tax, assuming all other variables remain unchanged, for the periods indicated.

	Changes in profit before income tax for the year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Changes in average stocks brokerage net commission rate
Increase by 0.5bps	414.9	1,396.5	679.7
Decrease by 0.5bps	(414.9)	(1,396.5)	(679.7)
Increase by 1.0bps	829.7	2,792.9	1,359.3
Decrease by 1.0bps	(829.7)	(2,792.9)	(1,359.3)
Increase by 1.5bps	1,244.6	4,189.4	2,039.0
Decrease by 1.5bps	(1,244.6)	(4,189.4)	(2,039.0)

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

We believe that the principal factors affecting competition include pricing, the types of products and services offered, transaction execution, experience and knowledge of staff and geographic coverage. Increasing competition or an adverse change in our competitive position could lead to a reduction of market share and, as a result, a decrease in revenue and profit. Competition can also raise our costs of hiring and retaining the employees.

Business Lines and Product Mix

Our business lines and products have different profit margins and growth prospects. As a result, any material change in our business lines and product mix due to changes in our growth strategies, market conditions, customer demand and other factors may affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Our historical results of operations were significantly affected by the revenue contribution and profit margin of our retail brokerage business. We seek to optimize our product mix by increasing the revenue contribution from other business lines with relatively higher profit margin and significant growth potential, such as investment banking business, securities-backed financing business and investment management business. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, revenue from our investment banking business accounted for 6.1%, 5.8% and 9.6% of our total revenue and other income, respectively; revenue from our securities-backed financing business accounted for 3.6%, 3.1% and 6.5% of our total revenue and other income, respectively; and revenue from our investment management business accounted for 5.9%, 5.0% and 15.9% of our total revenue and other income, respectively.

As we also seek to diversify our revenue sources by broadening our product and service offerings, our future results of operations and financial condition could be significantly affected by our ability to design, develop and bring new products to market, to transact business with new clients and counterparties, to manage new asset classes and to expand into new markets.

Interest Rates

Our business and results of operations are affected by changes in interest rates in China. In particular, when interest rates rise:

- the fair value of fixed-income securities we invest in may decrease and adversely affect our average investment yield;
- it may undermine the ability or willingness of our institutional clients to raise funds from the debt markets, which could lower the income generated by our debt underwriting business;
- it may increase the interest income we would earn on floating-rate interest-earning assets. Our interest-earning assets consist primarily of advances we provide to customers for our margin financing and securities lending business, bank deposits, clearing settlement funds and securities-backed financing; and
- our interest expenses and financing costs may increase.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

The Accountants' Report in Appendix I to this prospectus sets forth certain significant accounting policies in note 3, which are important for understanding our financial condition and results of operations.

Some of our accounting policies involve subjective assumptions, estimates and judgments that are discussed in note 4 of "Appendix I — Accountants' Report". In the application of our accounting policies, our management is required to make estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Our estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Our estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed by our management on an ongoing basis. See note 4 of "Appendix I — Accountants' Report".

IMPACT OF FUTURE ACCOUNTING POLICY CHANGES

The IASB, which is responsible for developing and revising international accounting standards, issued IFRS 9 and its amendments to replace IAS 39, and give rise to substantial changes in the classification and measurement and impairment of financial assets. These standards will take effect on January 1, 2018.

The main differences between IFRS 9 and IAS 39 are the measurement categories and the approaches for classifying financial assets. The classification of financial assets under IFRS 9 will require us to consider the business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets to determine classification and subsequent measurements of investments in debt instruments. Further, for debt instruments recorded at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income, lease receivables, loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts that are not accounted for at fair value through profit or loss, we will be required to apply a new expected loss impairment model under IFRS 9, which, as compared to the incurred loss model in IAS 39, uses more forward-looking information instead of objective evidence of impairment as a precondition for recognizing impairment losses. In particular, calculation of impairment of financial instruments on an expected impairment loss basis will result in an earlier recognition of, and may result in an increase in, impairment allowances.

We are assessing the potential impact on our financial statements resulting from the application of IFRS 9, including the classification and measurement of financial assets, assessing the need for any system adjustment related to expected loss model, updating policies for impairment of financial instruments and launching relevant staff training. We have not completed our assessment of the full impact of adopting IFRS 9 and therefore its possible impacts on our results of operations and financial position have not been quantified at this stage. We will change our current impairment provisioning practice in the future in accordance with IFRS 9 and any authoritative interpretive guidance on its application. It is expected that the application of the expected loss impairment model will have an impact on the calculation, amount and timing of the allowance for impairment losses. See "Risk Factors— Risks relating to Legal, Compliance and Regulatory Matters— The application of IFRS 9 and its amendments in the future will affect the classification and measurement of our financial assets".

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

For other new accounting standards that come into effect after the prospectus date, see Note 2.2 to our historical financial information set forth in “Appendix I — Accountants’ Report.” We may put in place necessary changes to comply with the new standards from time to time.

PRINCIPAL COMPONENTS OF CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF PROFIT OR LOSS

Total revenue and other income

Our total revenue consists of fee and commission income, interest income and net investment gains.

Fee and commission income

Our fee and commission income primarily consists of income from the following activities: (i) securities brokerage business and investment consulting business; (ii) underwriting and sponsorship business; and (iii) asset management business.

Securities brokerage and investment consulting business. We generate fee and commission income from our securities brokerage business and investment consulting business by trading stocks, bonds and funds on behalf of our clients, distributing financial products issued by financial institutions and providing wealth management services to our clients. Commission and fee income from our securities brokerage business and investment consulting business primarily depends on the trading volume and our fee and commission rates.

Underwriting and sponsorship business. We generate fee and commission income from our underwriting and sponsorship business by providing equity underwriting and sponsorship as well as debt underwriting services. Income from our underwriting and sponsorship businesses primarily depends on the underwriting transaction size and commission rates.

Asset management business. We generate fee and commission income from our asset management business by managing our clients’ assets and investment portfolios. Income from our asset management business primarily depends on our AUM and our fee rates as well as return earned for our clients.

Interest income

Our interest income are primarily from the following activities: (i) margin financing and securities lending, (ii) stock-pledged financing and securities repurchase, and (iii) deposit in financial institutions.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Margin financing and securities lending and securities-backed financing. Interest income from our margin financing and securities lending and securities-backed financing depends on the principal amount of financing we extend to our clients and the interest rates agreed between our clients and us.

Deposit in financial institutions. We receive interest income from banks and other financial institutions for cash balance held on behalf of our brokerage customers as well as our own cash balance. Cash balance held on behalf of brokerage customers are primarily affected by the overall level of trading activities of our securities and futures brokerage businesses.

Net investment gains

Our net investment gains primarily include investment gains or losses from: (i) available-for-sale financial assets, (ii) financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss; and (iii) derivative financial instruments.

Gain on disposal of a subsidiary

Gain on disposal of a subsidiary reflected gains in relation to the disposal of equity interest in Haiji Securities by Shanghai Securities in 2016.

Other income and gains

Our other income and gains primarily include certain non-recurring income, such as government grants. We receive grants and subsidies from local governments primarily in relation to our business development.

Total expenses

Our total expenses primarily include: (i) fee and commission expenses; (ii) interest expenses; (iii) staff costs; and (iv) other operating expenses and costs.

Fee and commission expenses

Our fee and commission expenses primarily include expenses for the following: (i) securities brokerage business and investment consulting business, (ii) underwriting and sponsorship business, and (iii) futures brokerage business.

Interest expenses

Our interest expenses primarily include interest expenses on: (i) bonds payable; (ii) financial assets sold under repurchase agreements; and (iii) accounts payable to brokerage customers.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In order to manage our working capital, we enter into repurchase agreements with counterparties (such as banks and other financial institutions), under which we incur interest expenses by pledging or selling our financial assets (such as bonds, margin financing and securities lending receivables and funds) to the counterparties and agreeing to repurchase such assets at a predetermined price on the maturity date of the repurchase agreement.

While we earn interest income on deposits we hold on behalf of our customers, we also pay interest expenses on such deposits to our customers with reference to prevailing benchmark interest rates announced by the PBOC.

Staff costs

Our staff costs primarily include salaries, bonuses and allowances.

Other operating expenses and costs

Our other operating expenses and costs primarily include rental expenses as well as administrative and office operating expenses.

Income tax expense

We are subject to income tax on a single-entity basis on profits arising in, or derived from, the jurisdictions in which members of the Group are domiciled and operate. During the Track Record Period, the Company and our PRC subsidiaries were subject to an EIT rate of 25.0% in accordance with the EIT law that became effective on January 1, 2008. Hong Kong profit tax has been provided at the rate of 16.5% on the estimated assessable profits during the Track Record Period.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our total revenue and other income decreased by 30.9% to RMB36,022.5 million in 2016, from RMB52,108.8 million in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in our fee and commission income, net investment gains and interest income, reflecting the decreases in the stock trading volume, investment yield and client demand for financing as a result of the volatility of A share stock market at the beginning of 2016.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our total revenue and other income increased by 113.5% to RMB52,108.8 million in 2015, from RMB24,403.1 million in 2014, primarily due to the substantial increases in the revenue of our principal business segments, reflecting the increases in the stock trading volume, investment yield and client demand for financing as a result of the active market in the first half of 2015.

Total	10,934.2	27,127.6	15,628.1

(1) Others primarily refer to custody and outsourcing services income.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our fee and commission income decreased by 42.4% to RMB15,628.1 million in 2016, from RMB27,127.6 million in 2015, primarily due to the significant decrease in the income from our securities brokerage and investment consulting business, partially offset by the increases in the income from our underwriting and sponsorship business and asset management business.

Our fee and commission income from securities brokerage and investment consulting business decreased by 59.1% to RMB8,546.8 million in 2016, from RMB20,904.6 million in 2015, primarily reflecting the decrease in the clients' brokerage activities as a result of the volatility of stock market and the decrease in our average stocks and funds brokerage net commission rate in the PRC.

Our fee and commission income from underwriting and sponsorship business increased by 19.5% to RMB3,333.4 million in 2016, from RMB2,789.8 million in 2015, primarily reflecting the increase in the amount of debt financing underwritten by us in the PRC.

Our fee and commission income from asset management business increased by 6.8% to RMB2,375.0 million in 2016, from RMB2,224.6 million in 2015, primarily due to the increase in the total AUM of Guotai Junan Asset Management, partially offset by the decrease in the total AUM of GTJA Allianz Funds.

Our fee and commission income from futures brokerage business remained relatively stable, with an increase of 4.6% from RMB556.9 million in 2015 to RMB582.3 million in 2016.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our fee and commission income from financial advisory business increased by 16.6% to RMB510.8 million in 2016 from RMB438.2 million in 2015, primarily due to the increase in the revenue from the advisory services for our NEEQ business.

Our fee and commission income from others increased by 31.0% to RMB279.8 million in 2016, from RMB213.6 million in 2015, primarily due to the growth in the income from our custody services.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our fee and commission income increased by 148.1% to RMB27,127.6 million in 2015, from RMB10,934.2 million in 2014, primarily due to the significant increase in the income from our securities brokerage and investment consulting business.

Our fee and commission income from securities brokerage and investment consulting business increased by 174.2% to RMB20,904.6 million in 2015, from RMB7,623.6 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in our stocks brokerage trading volume in China to RMB28,282.1 billion in 2015, from RMB8,694.5 billion from 2014, partially offset by the decrease in our average stocks brokerage net commission rate in the PRC to 5.74 bps in 2015 from 7.11 bps in 2014.

Our fee and commission income from underwriting and sponsorship business increased by 87.0% to RMB2,789.8 million in 2015, from RMB1,492.0 million in 2014, primarily due to (i) the increase in the amount of debt financing underwritten by us in the PRC by 113.8% to RMB231,175.2 million in 2015, from RMB108,151.1 million in 2014; and (ii) the increase in the amount of equity financing underwritten by us in the PRC by 175.1% to RMB90,284.5 million in 2015, from RMB32,814.0 million in 2014.

Our fee and commission income from asset management business increased by 95.4% to RMB2,224.6 million in 2015, from RMB1,138.6 million in 2014, primarily due to (i) the increase in the total AUM of Guotai Junan Asset Management by 18.4% to RMB608,584.4 million as of December 31, 2015, from RMB513,965.9 million as of December 31, 2014, and (ii) the significant increase in our product performance fees, reflecting the enhanced performance of our asset management schemes under our active management and favorable condition of the A share market in 2015.

Our fee and commission income from futures brokerage business increased by 44.7% to RMB556.9 million in 2015, from RMB384.8 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in the turnover of our futures brokerage by 88.6% to RMB49,136.3 billion in 2015 from RMB26,050.8 billion in 2014 as a result of active futures trading in the market.

Our fee and commission income from financial advisory business increased by 101.8% to RMB438.2 million in 2015, from RMB217.2 million in 2014, primarily due to the significant increase in the transaction size of the M&A transactions in which we participated as a result of active M&A activities in the market.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our fee and commission income from others increased by 173.3% to RMB213.6 million in 2015, from RMB78.1 million in 2014, primarily due to the growth in the income from our custody services.

Interest income

The following table summarizes our interest income for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,

Others	63.9	66.2	74.2
Total	6,862.5	15,433.8	11,718.4

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our interest income decreased by 24.1% to RMB11,718.4 million in 2016, from RMB15,433.8 million in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in the interest income from our margin financing and securities lending and deposit in financial institutions.

Our interest income from margin financing and securities lending decreased by 33.9% to RMB5,370.3 million in 2016, from RMB8,127.1 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in the average balance of our margin financing and securities lending, reflecting the volatile market conditions and the decrease in the overall financing demand in the market.

Our interest income from deposit in financial institutions decreased by 28.3% to RMB3,533.3 million in 2016, from RMB4,929.4 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in the balances of cash held on behalf of our brokerage customers by 27.3% to RMB106,378.9 million as of December 31, 2016, from RMB146,294.8 million as of December 31, 2015, reflecting our clients' decreased brokerage activities in 2016 as compared with the active market in 2015.

Our interest income from stock-pledged financing and securities repurchase increased by 47.0% to RMB2,342.2 million in 2016, from RMB1,592.8 million in 2015, primarily due to the rapid growth of our stock-pledged financing business.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our interest income increased by 124.9% to RMB15,433.8 million in 2015, from RMB6,862.5 million in 2014, primarily due to the substantial growth in our interest income from margin financing and securities lending business.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our interest income from margin financing and securities lending increased by 123.0% to RMB8,127.1 million in 2015, from RMB3,644.9 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in the average balance of our margin financing and securities lending, partially offset by the decrease in weighted average annualized interest rate for margin financing and securities lending.

Our interest income from deposit in financial institutions increased by 169.0% to RMB4,929.4 million in 2015, from RMB1,832.8 million in 2014, primarily due to the increases in (i) our cash and bank balances by 61.6% to RMB30,058.9 million as of December 31, 2015, from RMB18,599.2 million as of December 31, 2014; and (ii) the balance of cash held on behalf of our brokerage customers by 53.0% to RMB146,294.8 million as of December 31, 2015, from RMB95,643.9 million as of December 31, 2014, reflecting our clients' increased brokerage activities in the favorable A share market conditions.

Our interest income from stock-pledged financing and securities repurchase increased by 79.0% to RMB1,592.8 million in 2015, from RMB889.7 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in the balance of our stock-pledged financing by 63.6% to RMB22,302.4 million as of December 31, 2015, from RMB13,629.0 million as of December 31, 2014, reflecting the rapid growth of our stock-pledged financing business.

Net investment gains

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our net investment gains decreased by 48.1% to RMB4,795.3 million in 2016, from RMB9,247.1 million in 2015, primarily due to the combination of the following reasons:

- the decrease in realized gains from available-for-sale financial assets to RMB718.7 million in 2016, from RMB3,108.3 million in 2015, reflecting the weak market performance in early 2016; and
- the decrease in realized gains from financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss by 48.6% to RMB1,043.6 million in 2016, from RMB2,029.1 million in 2015, reflecting the weak market performance in early 2016.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our net investment gains increased by 47.3% to RMB9,247.1 million in 2015, from RMB6,278.9 million in 2014, primarily due to the combination of the following reasons:

- the increase in our realized gains from available-for-sale financial assets by 410.2% to RMB3,108.3 million in 2015, from RMB609.2 million in 2014, primarily due to the favorable market conditions in the first half of 2015;
- the realized gains of RMB901.8 million in 2015, compared with the realized losses of RMB1,069.7 million from derivative financial instruments in 2014, primarily due to gains from the futures contracts held in 2015, which were used by us to hedge against the market movement;
- the increase in our dividend and interest income from financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss by 58.0% to RMB2,604.9 million in 2015, from RMB1,649.1 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in the balance of our financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss by 60.5% to RMB91.0 billion in 2015, from RMB56.7 billion in 2014, reflecting our increased investment in such financial instruments; and
- the unrealized losses of RMB201.6 million in 2015, compared with the unrealized gains of RMB3,221.5 million from fair value changes of financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss in 2014, primarily due to the drop in the A share stock market in the second half of 2015.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Gain on disposal of a subsidiary

In 2016, the significant increase in our gains on disposal of a subsidiary reflected the gains of RMB2,835.3 million realized on disposal of our 66.7% equity interest in Haiji Securities by Shanghai Securities.

Other income and gains

The following table summarizes our other income and gains for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016

Others ⁽¹⁾	91.2	(10.8)	283.4
Total	327.5	300.2	1,045.4

(1) It primarily consists of income from commodity trading, foreign exchange gains or losses, gain on deemed disposal of an associate and gains on disposal of property and equipment.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our other income and gains increased to RMB1,045.4 million in 2016, from RMB300.2 million in 2015, primarily due to the increase in our government grants due to our strong operating performance and innovative operation in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our other income and gains decreased by 8.3% to RMB300.2 million in 2015, from RMB327.5 million in 2014, primarily due to (i) the decrease in our gains on disposal of property and equipment, compared with the gains from our disposal of a batch of property and equipment in 2014, which were beyond their useful lives, and (ii) the increase in our foreign exchange losses, reflecting the foreign exchange losses on the Renminbi-denominated monetary assets held by our Hong Kong subsidiaries as a result of the depreciation of Renminbi against Hong Kong dollars in 2015, partially offset by the increase in our government grants, primarily due to our strong operating performance and innovative operation in 2014.

Total	14,926.9	30,074.9	21,291.9

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our total expenses decreased by 29.2% to RMB21,291.9 million in 2016, from RMB30,074.9 million in 2015, primarily due to the decreases in our staff costs and interest expenses, which were in line with the decrease in our revenue in the same period.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our total expenses increased by 101.5% to RMB30,074.9 million in 2015, from RMB14,926.9 million in 2014, primarily due to the increases in our interest expenses and staff costs, which were in line with our significant revenue growth in 2015.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our fee and commission expenses decreased by 39.3% to RMB2,368.4 million in 2016, from RMB3,899.7 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in the expenses incurred in our securities brokerage and investment consulting business, reflecting the decrease in the brokerage trading volume under the unfavorable A share stock market conditions, which was partially offset by the increase in the expenses incurred in our underwriting and sponsorship business, primarily due to the increase in the amount of transactions underwritten by us.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our fee and commission expenses increased by 171.0% to RMB3,899.7 million in 2015, from RMB1,439.3 million in 2014, primarily due to the significant increase in the expenses incurred in our securities brokerage and investment consulting business, in line with revenue growth of such business.

Interest expenses

The following table summarizes our interest expenses for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016

Others ⁽¹⁾	75.6	406.2	145.1
Total	4,760.6	10,275.3	7,163.8

(1) It primarily consists of securities borrowing, gold borrowing and derivative financial instruments.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our interest expenses decreased by 30.3% to RMB7,163.8 million in 2016, from RMB10,275.3 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in our interest expenses from financial assets sold under repurchase agreements.

Our interest expenses from financial assets sold under repurchase agreements decreased by 43.3% to RMB2,259.4 million in 2016, from RMB3,988.2 million in 2015, primarily because we decreased repurchase with margin financing and securities lending receivables and bonds as underlying assets.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our interest expenses increased by 115.8% to RMB10,275.3 million in 2015, from RMB4,760.6 million in 2014, primarily due to the significant increases in our interest expenses from financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and bonds payable, reflecting the increase in the amount of financing for our business expansion.

Our interest expenses from financial assets sold under repurchase agreements increased by 166.6% to RMB3,988.2 million in 2015, from RMB1,496.1 million in 2014, primarily due to our increased use of repurchase agreements with margin financing and securities lending receivables as underlying assets to fund our business activities.

Our interest expenses from bonds payable increased by 121.4% to RMB2,750.8 million in 2015, from RMB1,242.7 million in 2014, primarily due to the increased issuance of bonds in order to support the business growth.

Staff costs

The following table summarizes our staff costs for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Salaries, bonuses and allowances	4,529.7	9,059.8	5,994.5

Other social welfare	518.8	504.5	418.2
Total	5,407.0	10,041.5	6,949.0

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our staff costs decreased by 30.8% to RMB6,949.0 million in 2016, from RMB10,041.5 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in our performance-based bonuses, reflecting the decrease in our total revenue and profit for the period.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our staff costs increased by 85.7% to RMB10,041.5 million in 2015, from RMB5,407.0 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in our staff costs from salaries, bonuses and allowances, reflecting the increases in performance-based bonuses as a result of the growth in our revenue and profit in 2015.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Depreciation and amortization expenses

The following table summarizes our depreciation and amortization expenses for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Depreciation of property and equipment	234.8	301.2	324.6

Amortization of prepaid land lease payments	0.0	0.0	0.0

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our depreciation and amortization expenses increased by 5.7% to RMB404.2 million in 2016, from RMB382.5 million in 2015, primarily due to an increase in depreciation of property and equipment and amortization of other intangible assets, reflecting the expansion of our branch network, including upgrades and improvements of our IT infrastructures.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our depreciation and amortization expenses increased by 26.8% to RMB382.5 million in 2015, from RMB301.7 million in 2014, primarily due to the increases in depreciation of property and equipment and amortization of other intangible assets, reflecting the expansion of our branch network, including upgrades and improvements of our IT infrastructures.

Business tax and surcharges

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our business tax and surcharges decreased to RMB566.0 million in 2016, from RMB2,272.4 million in 2015, which was (i) consistent with the decrease in our total revenue and other income in 2016; and (ii) affected by the tax reform which replaced business tax with VAT effective from May 1, 2016.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our business tax and surcharges increased by 162.6% to RMB2,272.4 million in 2015, from RMB865.3 million in 2014, which was consistent with the increase in our total revenue and other income in 2015.

Other operating expenses and costs

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our other operating expenses and costs increased by 8.0% to RMB2,629.3 million in 2016, from RMB2,433.6 million in 2015, primarily due to the increases in rental expenses, business travel expenses, marketing and advertising expenses and IT expenses, reflecting the increase in the number of the properties that we rented as offices to sustain business development, partially offset by the reduced securities investor protection funds and stock exchanges management fees, reflecting the volatility in the A share stock market in 2016.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our other operating expenses and costs increased by 39.5% to RMB2,433.6 million in 2015, from RMB1,744.4 million in 2014, primarily due to the increases in (i) consulting fees, reflecting our increased need for more information on transactions, and research and securities services; (ii) rental expenses, reflecting the increase in the number of the properties that we rented for securities branches as a result of our business expansion; (iii) securities investor protection funds, as a result of the increase in our total revenue; and (iv) stock exchanges management fees, as a result of the increase in our trading volume.

Provision for impairment losses

The following table summarizes our provision for impairment losses for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
(RMB in millions)
Available-for-sale financial assets	50.7	561.8	836.0
Financial assets held under resale agreements	104.9	113.1	256.5

Accounts receivable.	—	4.7	0.8
Investment in joint ventures	2.0	—	—
Total	408.7	769.9	1,211.2

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our provision for impairment losses increased by 57.3% to RMB1,211.2 million in 2016, from RMB769.9 million in 2015, primarily due to the increases in provision for impairment losses from (i) available-for-sale financial assets, reflecting the volatility in the A share stock market and increased credit risk; and (ii) financial assets held under resale agreements, reflecting the increase in the amount of financial assets held under resale agreements, particularly the outstanding balance of stock-pledged financing.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our provision for impairment losses increased by 88.4% to RMB769.9 million in 2015, from RMB408.7 million in the same period in 2014, primarily due to the increase in provision for impairment losses from available-for-sale financial assets, reflecting the increase in the provision as a result of the volatility in the A share stock market in the second half of 2015, partially offset by the decrease in provision for impairment losses from margin accounts receivable.

Operating profit

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

As a result of the foregoing, our operating profit decreased by 33.1% to RMB14,730.6 million in 2016, from RMB22,033.8 million in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

As a result of the foregoing, our operating profit increased by 132.5% to RMB22,033.8 million in 2015, from RMB9,476.2 million in 2014.

Share of profits of associates and joint ventures

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our share of profits of associates and joint ventures increased from RMB17.3 million in 2015 to RMB43.0 million in 2016, primarily due to the increase in the equity investment return obtained by Guotai Junan Innovation Investment.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our share of profits of associates and joint ventures increased from RMB0.4 million in 2014 to RMB17.3 million in 2015, primarily due to the increase in the equity investment return obtained by Guotai Junan Innovation Investment.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

As a result of the foregoing, our profit before income tax decreased by 33.0% to RMB14,773.5 million in 2016, from RMB22,051.1 million in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

As a result of the foregoing, our profit before income tax increased by 132.7% to RMB22,051.1 million in 2015, from RMB9,476.6 million in 2014.

Income tax expense

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Our income tax expense decreased by 36.1% to RMB3,420.6 million in 2016, from RMB5,356.3 million in 2015, primarily due to the decrease in our taxable income in 2016. Our effective income tax rate decreased to 23.2% in 2016, from 24.3% in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our income tax expense increased by 132.4% to RMB5,356.3 million in 2015, from RMB2,305.0 million in 2014, primarily due to the increase in our taxable income in 2015. Our effective income tax rate remained at 24.3% in 2014 and 2015.

Profit and profit margins

The following table sets forth certain key indicators of our profitability for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016

Adjusted net margin ⁽⁵⁾	39.4%	44.0%	42.9%

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

- (1) Operating profit = total revenue and other income - total expenses.
- (2) Operating margin = operating profit/total revenue and other income.
- (3) Adjusted operating margin = operating profit/(total revenue and other income - fee and commission expenses and interest expenses). Adjusted operating margin is not a standard measure under IFRSs, but is presented here because PRC securities companies typically present their total revenue and other income after deducting fee and commission expenses and interest expenses under CAS, which is different from the practices for presenting the total revenue and other income under IFRSs. As a result, we believe that adjusted operating margin provides a meaningful indicator of results of operations that is more comparable to other PRC listed securities companies. Prospective investors should be aware that the adjusted operating margin presented in this prospectus may not be comparable with other similarly titled measures reported by other securities companies due to different calculation methods or assumptions.
- (4) Net margin = profit for the year/total revenue and other income.
- (5) Adjusted net margin = profit for the year/(total revenue and other income - fee and commission expenses and interest expenses). Adjusted net margin is not a standard measure under IFRSs, but is presented here because PRC securities companies typically present their total revenue and other income after deducting fee and commission expenses and interest expenses under CAS, which is different from the practices for presenting the total revenue and other income under IFRSs. As a result, we believe that the adjusted net margin provides a meaningful indicator of results of operations that is more comparable to other PRC listed securities companies. Prospective investors should be aware that the adjusted net margin presented in this prospectus may not be comparable with other similarly titled measures reported by other securities companies due to different calculation methods or assumptions.

Our operating profit decreased by 33.1% to RMB14,730.6 million in 2016, from RMB22,033.8 million in 2015; and our profit for the year decreased by 32.0% to RMB11,353.0 million in 2016, from RMB16,694.8 million in 2015, primarily due to the significant decreases in the operating profit from our retail brokerage business, margin financing and securities lending business and proprietary trading business, reflecting the highly volatile market conditions.

Our operating margin, adjusted operating margin, net margin and adjusted net margin remained relatively stable in 2016, compared with the same period in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Our operating profit increased by 132.5% to RMB22,033.8 million in 2015, from RMB9,476.2 million in 2014; and our profit for the year increased by 132.8% to RMB16,694.8 million in 2015, from RMB7,171.6 million in 2014, primarily due to the significant increase in the operating profit from our retail brokerage business.

Our operating margin, adjusted operating margin, net margin and adjusted net margin increased from 2014 to 2015, primarily due to the increased margin for institutional finance, personal finance and investment management segments, reflecting favorable market conditions in the first half of 2015.

Segment profit before income tax	552.6	1,568.2	1,810.9
Segment margin	37.1%	52.2%	52.5%

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Segment profit before income tax of our investment banking business increased by 15.5% to RMB1,810.9 million in 2016, from RMB1,568.2 million in 2015, primarily due to the combination of the following reasons:

- the 15.0% increase in the segment total revenue and other income, which was primarily due to the increase in the fee and commission income as a result of the increase in the number and amount of debt securities underwritten by us; and
- the 14.5% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increase in staff costs and fee and commission expenses.

Therefore, segment margin of our investment banking business increased to 52.5% in 2016, from 52.2% in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment profit before income tax of our investment banking business increased by 183.8 % to RMB1,568.2 million in 2015, from RMB552.6 million in 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 101.7% increase in segment total revenue and other income, which was primarily due to the increase in the fee and commission income as a result of the increase in the number and amount of debt securities underwritten by us and M&A transactions where we provided financial advisory services; and

- the 53.2% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increase in staff costs and fee and commission expenses as a result of the growth of our underwriting business.

Segment margin of our investment banking business increased to 52.2% in 2015, from 37.1% in 2014, which was primarily due to the increase in the income is higher than the increase in the expenses as a result of economies of scale.

Institutional investor services

Segment total revenue and other income from our institutional investor services business primarily consist of (i) net investment gains and interest income from our proprietary trading and market-making activities (ii) interest income from our stock-pledged financing business, and (iii) fee and commission income from providing investment research and prime brokerage services to institutional clients. Segment expenses from our institutional investor services business primarily consist of interest expenses and staff costs.

The following table sets forth selected information concerning our institutional investor services business for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,

Segment profit before income tax	3,896.8	6,535.3	2,126.4
Segment margin	50.2%	50.0%	24.5%

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Segment profit before income tax of our institutional investor services business decreased by 67.5% to RMB2,126.4 million in 2016, from RMB6,535.3 million in 2015, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 52.6% decrease in the net investment gains, which was primarily due to the decrease in investment returns from our proprietary trading business, reflecting the unfavorable A share stock market performance.

Therefore, segment margin of our institutional investor services business decreased to 24.5% in 2016, from 50.0% in 2015.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment profit before income tax of our institutional investor services business increased by 67.7% to RMB6,535.3 million in 2015, from RMB3,896.8 million in 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 46.2% increase in the net investment gains, which was primarily due to the increase in the returns from our proprietary trading activities, driven by the strong performance of the A share stock market in the first half of 2015;
- the 129.0% increase in the interest income, which was primarily due to the growth in our stock-pledged financing business; and
- the 68.9% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increases in the staff costs, the interest expenses, and other operating expenses.

Segment margins of our institutional investor services business remained relatively stable at 50.0% in 2015 and 50.2% in 2014.

Personal finance

Segment total revenue and other income from our personal finance business primarily consist of commission income from securities and futures brokerage activities, and interest income from our margin financing and securities lending services, and the cash held on behalf of brokerage customers. Segment expenses primarily consist of fee and commission expenses from securities and futures brokerage, interest expenses of the accounts payable to brokerage customers and staff costs.

The following table sets forth selected information concerning our personal finance business for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016

Segment margin	35.3%	40.2%	33.5%

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Segment profit before income tax of our personal finance business decreased by 59.1% to RMB5,116.8 million in 2016, from RMB12,520.0 million in 2015, primarily due to the following:

- the 58.6% decrease in the fee and commission income, which was primarily due to the decrease in the income from our retail brokerage business as a result of unfavorable A share stock market conditions; and
- the 45.5% decrease in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the decrease in the fee and commission expenses as a result of the decrease in our stocks and funds brokerage trading volume.

Therefore, segment margin of our personal finance business decreased to 33.5% in 2016, from 40.2% in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment profit before income tax of our personal finance business increased by 195.3% to RMB12,520.0 million in 2015, from RMB4,240.2 million in 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 175.7% increase in the fee and commission income, which was primarily due to the increase in our stocks and funds brokerage trading volume in China from RMB8,969.6 billion from 2014 to RMB29,295.1 billion in 2015, reflecting the active trading activities in the A share market in 2015;
- the 133.6% increase in the interest income, which was primarily due to the increase in the average balance of margin financing and securities lending provided by us, reflecting the strong trading activities in the A share market in 2015; and
- the 139.0% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increases in (i) fee and commission expenses from securities and futures brokerage, (ii) interest expenses paid to our clients and (iii) staff costs, which were in line with the increase in the revenue from this segment and the increase in the number of employees.

Therefore, segment margin of our personal finance business increased to 40.2% in 2015, from 35.3% in 2014.

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Segment profit before income tax of our investment management business increased to RMB4,803.3 million in 2016, from RMB1,339.6 million in 2015, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the significant increase in the gain on disposal of a subsidiary, which was due to the gains realized on the disposal of our 66.7% equity interest in Haiji Securities by Shanghai Securities of RMB2,835.3 million.

Therefore, segment margin of our investment management business increased to 83.7% in 2016, from 51.3% in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment profit before income tax of our investment management increased by 111.5% to RMB1,339.6 million in 2015, from RMB633.4 million in 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 96.3% increase in the fee and commission income, which was primarily due to (i) the increase in the total AUM of Guotai Junan Asset Management by 18.4% to RMB608,584.4 million as of December 31, 2015, from RMB513,965.9 million as of December 31, 2014; and (ii) the significant increase in our performance fees, reflecting the enhanced performance of our asset management schemes under our active management; and
- the 57.6% increase in the segment total expenses was primarily due to the increases in our staff costs and other operating expenses from our asset management business, which were consistent with the increases in our segment total revenue and other income.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Therefore, segment margins of our investment management increased to 51.3% in 2015 from 43.7% in 2014.

International business

Segment total revenue and other income from our international business primarily consist of revenue from Guotai Junan International. Segment expenses primarily consist of staff cost and other operating expenses.

The following table sets forth selected information concerning our international business for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions, except for percentages)

Segment profit before income tax	716.1	837.7	894.1
Segment margin	51.7%	41.8%	40.4%

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

Segment profit before income tax of our international business increased by 6.7% to RMB894.1 million in 2016, from RMB837.7 million in 2015, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 14.9% increase in interest income, which was primarily due to the growth of our margin business provided by us in Hong Kong;
- the 37.3% increase in the net investment gains, which was primarily due to the increase in our investment gains from financial products, market making and investment business in Hong Kong;
- the 10.5% decrease in the fee and commission income, which was primarily due to the decrease in our clients' brokerage activities in Hong Kong, reflecting the highly volatile market conditions; and
- the 13.3% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increases in our staff costs and increases in interest expenses from financing activities in Hong Kong, including bank borrowings, and bonds issued.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Therefore, segment margin of our international business decreased to 40.4% in 2016, from 41.8% in 2015.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment profit before income tax of our international business increased by 17.0% to RMB837.7 million in 2015, from RMB716.1 million in 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- the 53.8% increase in the interest income, which was primarily due to the growth of our margin business provided by us in Hong Kong;
- the 141.1% increase in the net investment gains, which was primarily due to the increases in the net investment gains from financial products, market making and investment business provided by us in Hong Kong;
- the 29.2% increase in the fee and commission income, which was primarily due to the increase in our clients' brokerage activities in Hong Kong; and
- the 74.4% increase in the segment total expenses, which was primarily due to the increases in our staff costs and increases in interest expenses from financing activities in Hong Kong, including bank borrowings, and bonds issued.

Therefore, segment margin of our international business decreased to 41.8% in 2015, from 51.7% in the same period in 2014.

Others

Segment total revenue and other income from others primarily consist of government grant. Segment expenses primarily consist of our management and operation costs.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Comparisons between 2016 and 2015

In 2015, segment loss before income tax from others was RMB749.7 million, while the segment profit before income tax was RMB22.1 million in 2016, primarily due to the increase in the government grants.

Comparisons between 2015 and 2014

Segment loss before income tax from others increased by 33.3% from RMB562.5 million in 2014 to RMB749.7 million, primarily due to the increase in our management and operation costs.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Overview

We funded our working capital and other capital requirements from cash generated from our business operations. In addition, we rely on multiple money-markets and capital-markets financing channels. See “—Indebtedness.” We also completed our IPO and listing on the Shanghai Stock Exchange in June 2015, raising net proceeds of RMB29,663.3 million.

As of December 31, 2016, we had cash and cash equivalents of RMB35,192.6 million.

When determining the amount of capital and other resources to be allocated to each business line, we mainly take into account our growth strategy and business focus, the capital requirements and estimated return for each business and applicable regulatory requirements, such as requirements in relation to capital adequacy, liquidity and risk management.

Taking into account the financial resources available to us, including cash and bank balances, repurchase transactions, and proceeds from short-term debt instruments, placements from other financial institutions, long-term bonds and bank loans, our Directors believe that we have sufficient working capital for our present requirements, that is at least 12 months from the date of this prospectus.

Operating activities

Our cash from operating activities consists primarily of our fee and commission income, interest income and a substantial portion of our investment gains. Cash flow from operating activities reflects: (i) profit before income tax adjusted for non-cash and non-operating items, such as depreciation and amortization; (ii) the effects of movements in working capital, such as increase in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers and accounts payable to brokerage customers; and (iii) other cash items such as income tax paid.

Despite our net cash outflow in operating activities in 2015 and 2016, we believe that we have strong ability to generate cash flow from operating activities. In 2014, 2015 and 2016, our operating cash flow before movements in working capital was RMB10,186.0 million, RMB29,325.0 million and RMB19,111.5 million, respectively.

In 2016, we had net cash used in operating activities of RMB15,742.7 million, resulting from negative movements in working capital. Our negative movements in working capital primarily reflected (i) the decrease of RMB42,401.0 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, primarily due to decreased outstanding balance of repurchases with bonds and margin financing and securities lending receivables as underlying assets; (ii) the decrease of RMB34,883.1 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' decreased brokerage activities; and (iii) the increase of RMB28,242.9 million in financial assets held under resale agreements, primarily due to increase in our stock-pledged financing business. These cash outflows were partially offset by (i) a decrease of RMB40,952.6 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' decreased brokerage activities; (ii) a decrease of RMB23,892.5 million in financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss and derivative financial instruments, primarily due to our decreased investments in this type of financial instruments; and (iii) our profit before income tax of RMB14,773.5 million.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In 2015, we had net cash used in operating activities of RMB19,601.9 million, resulting from negative movements in working capital. Our negative movements in working capital, primarily reflected (i) the increase of RMB47,610.9 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' increased securities brokerage activities; (ii) the increase of RMB33,304.1 million in financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss and derivative financial instruments, primarily due to the increase in the size of our investment; (iii) the increase of RMB9,838.2 million in financial assets held under resale agreements, primarily due to the increase in our stock-pledged financing; (iv) the increase of RMB6,246.6 million in margin accounts receivable, primarily due to the increased financing demand from customers. These cash outflows were partially offset by the (i) increase of RMB47,603.2 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' increased brokerage activities; and (ii) our profit before income tax of RMB22,051.1 million.

In 2014, we had net cash generated from operating activities of RMB4,275.0 million, resulting from our profit before income tax of RMB9,476.6 million and movements in working capital, primarily reflected (i) the increase of RMB50,833.9 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' increased brokerage activities; and (ii) the increase of RMB44,013.4 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, primarily due to the increased amount of repurchase with margin financing and securities lending receivables as underlying assets. These cash inflows were partially offset by (i) the increase of RMB45,188.8 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, primarily due to our clients' increased brokerage activities; and (ii) the increase of RMB44,929.3 million in margin accounts receivable, primarily due to increased size of margin financing and securities lending business.

Investing activities

Our cash outflows from investing activities consist primarily of acquisition of subsidiaries, purchases of property and equipment, other intangible assets and other non-current assets, and purchase of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments. Our cash inflows from investing activities consist primarily of proceeds from the disposal of property and equipment, other intangible assets and other non-current assets, disposal of available-for-sale financial assets and dividends and interest received from available-for-sale financial assets and other investments.

In 2016, our net cash used in investing activities was RMB1,792.9 million, primarily due to the purchases of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB48,112.5 million, partially offset by our proceeds from disposal of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB45,865.1 million, reflecting our increased investments in this type of financial assets.

In 2015, our net cash used in investing activities was RMB22,851.5 million, primarily due to purchases of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB78,292.1 million, partially offset by our proceeds from disposal of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB54,478.0 million, which reflects our increased investment in this type of financial assets.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In 2014, our net cash used in investing activities was RMB7,434.5 million, primarily due to purchases of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB36,270.4 million, partially offset by our proceeds from disposal of available-for-sale financial assets and other investments of RMB29,257.1 million, which reflects our increased investment in this type of financial assets.

Financing activities

Financing activities primarily include issuance of short-term debt instruments, long-term bonds, loans and borrowings for our working capital needs, payment of the principal and interests on our debt and dividends.

In 2016, our net cash generated from financing activities was RMB10,441.3 million, primarily due to (i) proceeds from issuance of short-term debt instruments of RMB38,177.4 million, (ii) proceeds from loans and borrowings of RMB35,376.4 million, and (iii) proceeds from bond issuance of RMB32,175.1 million. These cash inflows were partially offset by (i) our repayment of loans and borrowings of RMB46,443.8 million; and (ii) our repayment of debt securities issued of RMB42,749.2 million.

In 2015, our net cash generated from financing activities was RMB51,946.8 million, primarily due to (i) proceeds from loans and borrowings of RMB65,073.5 million, (ii) proceeds from issuance of short-term debt instruments of RMB36,557.8 million, (iii) proceeds from issuance of bonds and perpetual bonds of RMB41,286.1 million, and (iv) net proceeds from issuance of A shares of RMB29,663.3 million. These cash inflows were partially offset by (i) our repayment of loans and borrowings of RMB59,911.3 million, and (ii) our repayment of debt securities issued of RMB56,548.7 million.

In 2014, our net cash generated from financing activities was RMB27,948.8 million, primarily due to (i) proceeds from loans and borrowings of RMB56,578.9 million, (ii) proceeds from issuance of short-term debt instruments of RMB42,126.8 million, and (iii) proceeds from bond issuance of RMB20,543.1 million. These cash inflows were partially offset by (i) our repayment of loans and borrowings of RMB54,876.2 million, and (ii) our repayment of debt securities issued of RMB35,113.5 million.

Assets and Liabilities

In order to ensure appropriate liquidity management and capital allocation, we dynamically manage the size and structure of our balance sheet and seek to maintain its liquidity. The major portion of our balance sheet consists of current assets and current liabilities, due to the highly liquid nature of our business.

Changes in Current Assets and Liabilities

As of January 31, 2017, our net current assets decreased by 1.9% to RMB88,241.8 million, from RMB89,928.0 million as of December 31, 2016, primarily due to the following reasons:

- The decrease in our total current asset was primarily due to (i) the decrease of RMB10,045.3 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, reflecting our clients' decreased brokerage activities; (ii) the decrease of RMB4,978.8 million in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, reflecting the reduced investment size of these financial assets; (iii) the decrease of RMB4,841.1 million in financial assets held under resale agreements, reflecting the reduced size of our reverse repurchase with bonds as underlying assets; and (iv) the decrease of RMB4,559.4 million in margin accounts receivables, reflecting the reduced size of our margin financing and securities lending; and
- The decrease in our total current liabilities was primarily due to: (i) the decrease of RMB9,452.3 million in other current liabilities, reflecting the reduced proceeds from underwriting securities received on behalf of customers; (ii) the decrease of RMB9,163.6 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, reflecting our clients' decreased brokerage activities as a result of the volatile A share market conditions; and (iii) the decrease of RMB8,973.7 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting the reduced size of the repurchase with bonds and margin accounts receivables as underlying assets.

As of December 31, 2016, our net current assets decreased by 23.6% to RMB89,928.0 million, from RMB117,741.1 million as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to the combination of the following reasons:

- The decrease in our total current asset was primarily due to (i) the decrease of RMB39,915.9 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, reflecting the decrease in our clients' brokerage activities as a result of the volatile A share market conditions, (ii) the decrease of RMB14,233.4 million in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, reflecting the reduced investment size of these financial, and (iii) assets the decrease of RMB13,378.7 million in margin accounts receivables, reflecting the reduced size of our margin financing and securities lending, and

- The decrease in our total current liability was primarily due to (i) the decrease of RMB34,833.1 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, reflecting our clients' decreased brokerage activities as a result of the volatile A share market conditions, and (ii) the decrease of RMB28,627.9 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting the reduced size of the repurchase with bonds as underlying assets.

As of December 31, 2015, our net current assets increased by 106.3% to RMB117,741.1 million, from RMB57,065.0 million as of December 31, 2014, primarily due to the following reasons:

- The increase in our total current assets was primarily due to (i) the increase of RMB50,650.9 million in cash held on behalf of brokerage customers, reflecting our clients' increased brokerage activities as a result of the volatile A share market conditions, and (ii) the increase of RMB34,663.2 million in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, reflecting the increased investment size of these financial assets; and
- The increase in our total current liability was primarily due to (i) the increase of RMB47,603.2 million in accounts payable to brokerage customers, reflecting our clients' increased brokerage activities as a result of the volatile A share market conditions, and (ii) the increase of RMB7,211.7 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting the increased size of repurchase with bonds as underlying assets.

Adjusted current assets and liabilities

In our statement of financial position, we record cash held on behalf of brokerage customers as current assets and we record accounts payable to brokerage customers as current liabilities. Such client deposit fluctuates based on our clients' trading activities, financial market conditions and other factors extrinsic to our business. As a result, although we earn interest income from it, such client deposit tends not to be a meaningful indicator of our financial condition or results of operations. We have therefore adjusted our assets and liabilities in the following table to exclude the effect of client deposit:

	As of December 31,			As of
	2014	2015	2016	January 31, 2017
	(RMB in millions, except for ratio)
Adjusted current assets ⁽¹⁾	185,507.7	246,961.9	216,733.2	197,206.4
Adjusted current liabilities ⁽²⁾	128,442.7	129,220.8	126,805.3	108,964.6
Adjusted net current assets ⁽³⁾	57,065.0	117,741.1	89,928.0	88,241.8
Adjusted current ratio ⁽⁴⁾	1.4 times	1.9 times	1.7 times	1.8 times

(1) Adjusted current assets equal to total current assets less accounts payable to brokerage customers.

(2) Adjusted current liabilities equal to total current liabilities less accounts payable to brokerage customers.

(3) Adjusted net current assets equal to adjusted current assets less adjusted current liabilities.

(4) Adjusted current ratio is calculated by dividing adjusted current assets by adjusted current liabilities.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

None of adjusted current assets, adjusted current liabilities, adjusted net current assets and adjusted current ratio is a standard measure under IFRSs. However, we believe adjusted net current assets is a more meaningful indicator of our financial performance because it does not include the amount of deposits from brokerage customers, which, as discussed above, is largely unrelated to our financial performance but has a material effect on our statement of financial position. Prospective investors should be aware that the adjusted current assets, adjusted current liabilities, adjusted net current assets and adjusted current ratio presented in this prospectus may not be comparable with other similarly titled measures reported by other securities companies due to different calculation methods or assumptions.

Non-current assets and liabilities

The following table sets forth the components of non-current assets and liabilities as of the dates indicated:

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets primarily include equity securities, funds, debt securities and other investments.

Comparisons between December 31, 2016 and 2015

From December 31, 2015 to December 31, 2016, our available-for-sale financial assets remained stable.

Comparisons between December 31, 2015 and 2014

As of December 31, 2015, our available-for-sale financial assets increased to RMB39,403.6 million, from RMB15,536.4 million as of December 31, 2014, primarily due to our contribution of RMB17,014.0 million to the designated accounts of China Securities Finance.

Bonds payable

Bonds payable primarily represent our issuance of subordinated bonds, corporate bonds, U.S. dollar-denominated debts, medium-term notes and structured notes mainly for the purpose of replenishing our working capital.

Comparisons between December 31, 2016 and 2015

As of December 31, 2016, our bonds payable increased by 5.0% to RMB55,582.5 million, from RMB52,927.5 million as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to the increased issuance of corporate bonds in 2016.

Comparisons between December 31, 2015 and 2014

As of December 31, 2015, our bonds payable increased by 99.6% to RMB52,927.5 million, from RMB26,513.5 million as of December 31, 2014, primarily due to increased issuance of corporate bonds, structured notes and subordinated bonds to replenish our working capital and support our business development.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Changes in Non-current Assets and Liabilities

As of December 31, 2016, our non-current assets increased by 37.7% to RMB82,059.2 million from RMB59,590.7 million as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to (i) the increase of RMB18,836.2 million in financial assets held under resale agreements, reflecting the increased size of our stock-pledged financing business, and (ii) the increase in refundable deposits of RMB3,227.1 million, reflecting the increase in futures margin.

As of December 31, 2016, our non-current liabilities decreased by 19.1% to RMB61,235.4 million from RMB75,695.1 million as of December 31, 2015, primarily due to (i) the decrease of RMB13,773.1 million in financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, reflecting the reduced repurchase with margin financing and securities lending receivables with a term of one year or above as underlying assets, (ii) the decrease of RMB2,699.1 million in loans and borrowings, reflecting decrease in loans and borrowings with a term of one year or above, partially offset by the increase of RMB2,655.0 million in bonds payable to supplement our working capital.

As of December 31, 2015, our non-current assets increased by 77.3% to RMB59,590.7 million from RMB33,608.2 million as of December 31, 2014, primarily due to the increase of RMB23,867.1 million in available-for-sale financial assets, as a result of our contribution of RMB17,014.0 million to the designated accounts of China Securities Finance.

As of December 31, 2015, our non-current liabilities increased by 74.5% to RMB75,695.1 million from RMB43,374.5 million as of December 31, 2014, primarily due to (i) the increase of RMB26,413.9 million in bonds payable to supplement our working capital, and (ii) the increase of RMB3,796.6 million in loans and borrowings to support our business development, and (iii) the increase of RMB2,489.6 million in other current liabilities, mainly due to the increase of RMB2,469.2 million in payables to priority tranche holders of structured entities, partially offset by the decrease of RMB1,094.1 million in deferred tax liability.

INDEBTEDNESS

As of January 31, 2017, our total indebtedness amounted to RMB96,021.9 million, including RMB7,362.2 million of loans and borrowings, RMB4,700.0 million of placements from other financial institutions, RMB14,257.0 million of short-term debt instruments and RMB69,702.7 million of bonds payable.

Loans and borrowings

As of January 31, 2017, our loans and borrowings were RMB7,362.2 million which primarily comprised bank borrowings by Guotai Junan Financial Holdings and its subsidiaries. Among such amount, our current unsecured loans and borrowings were RMB5,405.4 million with the interest rates ranging from 1.9% to 4.7%; our non-current unsecured loans and borrowings were RMB1,956.8 million with the interest rates ranging from 2.3% to 4.8%. As of January 31, 2017, the unutilized loans and borrowings commitments of Guotai Junan Financial Holdings and its subsidiaries were RMB10,836.4 million.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Placements from other financial institutions

We have access to borrowings through the interbank market and China Securities Finance, which we refer to as placements from other financial institutions. As of January 31, 2017, the balance of our placements from other financial institutions was RMB4,700.0 million.

We are a member of the interbank market in China and are able to obtain interbank borrowings to replenish our short-term liquidity. We generally pay interests on interbank borrowing based on the Shanghai Interbank Offered Rate which are unsecured and unguaranteed. As of January 31, 2017, we had no interbank borrowings.

We obtain margin and securities refinancing from China Securities Finance which are used for our margin financing and securities lending business. As of January 31, 2017, the balance of financing we obtained from China Securities Finance was RMB4,700.0 million. According to the margin and securities refinancing agreement we entered into with China Securities Finance, we can borrow funds or securities of up to RMB11,800.0 million. As of January 31, 2017, our remaining loan facility for funds or securities was RMB7,100.0 million.

Short-term debt instruments

We manage our short-term liquidity by issuing corporate bonds, structure notes and medium-term notes, terms of which are less than one year. As of January 31, 2017, the balance of our short-term debt instruments was RMB14,257.0 million.

The table below sets forth the coupon rates and carrying amounts of our aggregated short-term debt instruments as of 31 January 2017.

As of January 31, 2017, the balance of our medium-term notes was RMB56.9 million. Guotai Junan International is the issuer of our medium-term notes, the terms of which are within one year from December 2016, with a coupon rate of 0.9%.

Bonds payable

In September 2015, at the general meeting, we were granted a mandate to issue the domestic debt financing instruments with the issuance size not exceeding 200% of the latest closing net assets of the Company, which were calculated based on outstanding balance after issuance (including the current outstanding issued debt financing instruments) and were subject to the compliance with the requirements of relevant laws and regulations on the issuance limit on the domestic debt financing instruments and the relevant requirements in relation to various risk control indicators. The domestic debt financing instruments to be issued based on the actual circumstances pursuant to the above mandate shall include, but not limited to, corporate bonds, structured notes, subordinated bonds, subordinated debts, and other domestic debt financing instruments that the Company may issue upon being approved by or filed with the CSRC, the SAC, stock exchange or other competent authorities according to relevant requirements. The resolution shall be valid within 36 months since the date on which it was approved at the general meeting, during which the issuance of any domestic debt financing instruments shall depend on our fund requirements and market conditions.

Subordinated Bonds

We may also issue debt securities in China that are subordinated to our other senior indebtedness, such as corporate bonds and bank loans, and only rank before our equity in case of liquidation. Issuing subordinated bonds can help replenish our Net Capital. As of January 31, 2017, the outstanding par value of our subordinated bonds was RMB40,958.0 million.

The table below sets forth the summary of our subordinated bonds as of January 31, 2017.

U.S. dollar-denominated debts

Guotai Junan Financial Holding Limited (BVI Co.), our subsidiary, issued US$500.0 million 5-year 3.63% credit enhanced bonds in 2014 (“U.S. dollar-denominated debts”), the carrying amount of which was RMB3,412.6 million as of January 31, 2017. We issue the U.S. dollar-denominated debts for the purpose of replenishing our working capital.

Bank of China Sydney branch provided a standby letter of credit guarantee for the payment of U.S. dollar-denominated debts. The Company issued a letter of counter guarantee to Bank of China Sydney branch in respect of the issuance of the above standby letter of credit guarantee in May 2014. The amount of counter guarantee covers the principal, interest and other relevant expenses of the first phase of overseas bond proposed to be issued. The guarantee is a joint liability guarantee, which will expire at the end of six months from the expiration date of the settlement of the above debts.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Convertible Bonds

On May 19, 2016, our shareholders approved the scheme of issuance of convertible bonds for replenishing our working capital. On December 12, 2016, our Directors confirmed that the issuance size is not more than RMB7.0 billion. On December 21, 2016, the Main Board Issuance Examination Committee of the CSRC has approved the issuance of the Convertible Bonds and as of the Latest Practicable Date, it is still pending final approval by the CSRC. The exact timing, size and terms of the issuance are still subject to market conditions, regulatory approvals and our working capital needs.

Our Directors have confirmed that there has not been any material change in our indebtedness since January 31, 2017 to the date of this prospectus. As of the Latest Practicable Date, there was no material restrictive covenant in or any security against our indebtedness which could significantly limit our ability to obtain future financing. During the Track Record Period, there was no material default in our indebtedness or breaches of financial restrictive covenants as of the Latest Practicable Date.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Apart from the foregoing, we did not have, as of January 31, 2017, any outstanding mortgages, charges, debentures, other issued debt capital, bank overdrafts, loans, liabilities under acceptance or other similar indebtedness, hire purchase and finance lease commitments or any guarantees.

CAPITAL EXPENDITURES

Our capital expenditures comprise expenditures for construction in progress, property plant equipment, long-term deferred expenses and other intangible assets, which were mainly used for office buildings and equipment expenses. We funded these expenditures primarily with cash generated from our operations. The following table sets forth our capital expenditures for the periods indicated:

	Year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Property and equipment, other intangible assets and long-term deferred expenses	1,229.1	595.9	677.5

We estimated that our capital expenditures for 2017 would be approximately RMB1,000.0 million, which we will use primarily for our properties, establishment of our branch network and upgrades and improvements of our IT infrastructures. We expect to fund these capital expenditures with cash generated from our operations.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS AND COMMITMENTS

Capital commitments

As of January 31, 2017, we had the following two material capital commitments:

- In October 2013, we entered into an agreement with Shanghai Bund & Riverside Comprehensive Development Co., Ltd. to purchase a property to be developed by Shanghai Bund & Riverside Comprehensive Development Co., Ltd. The budget is RMB1.2 billion, including land cost, construction cost and allocated expenses, etc. As of December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 and January 31, 2017, the accumulated amount paid by us was RMB572.3 million, RMB572.3 million, RMB572.3 million and RMB572.3 million, respectively; and
- In June 2014, we commenced construction of our office building with a total budget of RMB1.6 billion, of which RMB748.0 million is development cost and RMB876.0 million is land cost. The project is expected to be completed in three years. As of December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 and January 31, 2017, the accumulated amount paid by Shanghai Guoxiang Real Estate Co., Ltd. was RMB954.0 million, RMB1,042.0 million, RMB1,138.7 million and RMB1,148.4 million, respectively.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our Directors confirm that there has been no material change in our contingent liabilities since January 31, 2017 to the date of this prospectus.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

We enter into transactions with our related parties from time to time. It is the view of our Directors that each of the related party transactions set out in note 59 to “Appendix I — Accountants’ Report” was conducted in the ordinary course of business on an arm’s length basis and with normal commercial terms between the relevant parties. Our Directors are also of the view that our related party transactions during the Track Record Period would not distort our track record results or make our historical results not reflective of our future performance.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we did not have any outstanding off-balance sheet guarantees.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

NET CAPITAL AND OTHER REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

According to the Administrative Measures for the Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies in the PRC, we have established a dynamic Net Capital monitoring mechanism to comply with statutory net capital requirements and other regulatory standards to maintain capital adequacy. The Administrative Measures was amended in June 2016 and became effective on October 1, 2016. In addition, we also need to maintain a minimum amount of Net Capital necessary to engage our securities brokerage, investment banking, trading and investment, asset management and margin financing and securities lending business. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, we were in compliance with all of our capital adequacy and risk control indicator requirements.

The following table sets forth the Company's Net Capital and key regulatory risk control indicators that the Company prepared in accordance with the then applicable relevant regulatory requirements as of the dates indicated:

	December 31, ⁽¹⁾		Warning level ⁽²⁾	Regulatory level

- (1) Calculated pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (證券公司風險控制指標管理辦法) as amended in June 2008.
- (2) Warning levels are set by the CSRC as follows, according to the Administrative Measures on Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies: If the risk control indicator is required to stay above a certain level, then the warning level is calculated as 120% times the corresponding regulatory level; and if the risk control indicator is required to stay below a certain level, then the warning level is calculated as 80% times the corresponding regulatory level.
- (3) For purposes of calculating the risk control indicators, total liabilities do not include accounts payable to brokerage business customers.
- (4) Calculated by dividing high quality liquid assets by total net cash outflows over the next 30 days. The calculation of liquidity coverage ratio is set by the Guidelines for the Management of Liquidity Risk of Securities Companies (證券公司流動性風險管理指引) issued by SAC effective on March 1, 2014. The high quality liquid assets refers to assets which can be readily converted into cash at small or no loss of value in the financial market under a stress scenario. The total net cash outflows over the next 30 days equals total expected cash outflows minus the total expected cash inflows for the subsequent 30 days. The Company's liquidity coverage ratio is unaudited.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

- (5) Calculated by dividing available amount of stable funding by required amount of stable funding. The calculation of net stable funding ratio is set by the Guidelines for the Management of Liquidity Risk of Securities Companies. The available amount of stable funding is defined as the equity and liabilities which provide stable sources of funds over a one-year period under a continued stress scenario. The required amount of stable funding is calculated as the sum of the value of assets or off-balance sheet exposures of a securities company, multiplied by the respective factors. The Company's net stable funding ratio is unaudited.

(1) Calculated pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (證券公司風險控制指標管理辦法) as amended in June 2016.

(2) Warning levels are set by the CSRC as follows, according to the Administrative Measures on Risk Control Indicators: If the risk control indicator is required to stay above a certain level, then the warning level is calculated as 120% times the corresponding regulatory level; and if the risk control indicator is required to stay below a certain level, then the warning level is calculated as 80% times the corresponding regulatory level.

We closely monitor all risk control indicators when conducting our business, particularly the investment and trading business, as well as margin financing and securities lending business. In relation to all risk control indicators, we adopt an early warning and reporting mechanism in our risk management system that is more stringent than the regulatory warning levels to minimize compliance risk. We also conduct sensitivity analysis on these risk control indicators before we launch a new business or product, approve material capital expenditures, or distribute dividends. We conduct regular stress testing to forecast our risk control indicators when facing extreme market or business environments. We typically have the options to replenish our Net Capital, adjust our operations or reduce our indebtedness to enhance our risk control indicators so as to maintain compliance with the regulatory requirements. During the Track Record Period, we have not had any non-compliance with these risk control indicators, nor have we received any warnings or penalties from the CSRC.

QUALITATIVE AND QUANTITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT FINANCIAL RISKS

We have established policies and procedures to manage these risks, and continually monitor these risks by setting appropriate risk limits and internal control systems and through reliable management and information systems. See “Risk Management” for a summary. The main financial risks faced by us in the ordinary course of business are market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The following discussion of our main financial risks and the estimated amounts of our risk exposure generated by our risk measurement models are forward-looking statements. These analyzes and the results of our risk measurement models are not, however, predictions of future events, and the actual results may be significantly different from the analyzes and results of our risk measurement models due to the global economy or the markets where we operate, as well as other factors described below.

Market risk

Our market risks are the possibility of loss caused by the change or fluctuation in interest rates, exchange rates and market price of assets. According to different factors that lead to market risks, market risks can be classified into interest rate risk, exchange rate risk and financial asset price risk. Our businesses that are susceptible to market risks mainly include proprietary trading and securities investment for liquidity management. The fair value of our securities and derivative financial instruments in these businesses will vary with the change in market price. We proactively manage our market risk through accurate measurement and assessment of market risk based on market trend and change in our portfolio.

In order to effectively manage market risks, we have adopted the following measures:

- implementing limit management for market risks, including business scale limits, risk limits and stop-loss limits;
- decomposing and analyzing the market risk factors of each business and product, and timely and accurately identifying the types and natures of market risks;
- selecting appropriate methods, reasonable assumptions and parameters for the measurement of different types of market risks; conducting sensitivity analysis, scenario analysis and stress tests; carrying out regular post-mortem examination to adjust and improve the market risk measurement methods and models;
- monitoring and reporting the changes in market risk; calculating the risk value of specific positions, portfolios or the overall investment of the Company by establishing a mark-to-market mechanism; and
- regularly preparing market risk reports covering risk position, risk value and limit implementation.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate based on changes in market interest rate. For details of interest rate risk, see “Appendix I — Accountants’ Report — Notes to the Financial Information — 61. Financial Risk Management — (4) Market Risk — (i) Interest rate risk.”

Price risk

We adopt VaR as the risk evaluation tool for measuring the market risk of the entire securities investment portfolio which comprises various financial instruments. VaR analysis is a statistical technique that estimates the potential maximum losses that could occur on risk positions due to movements in interest rates, stock prices or currency rates over a specified time period and at a given level of confidence.

Sensitivity analysis

We conduct sensitivity analysis on interest rates to measure the impact of a reasonably possible change in interest rates on the net amount after tax of our net profit and other comprehensive income, assuming all other variables were held constant. Assuming a change in the overall market interest rate and without taking into account any possible risk management activities that may be taken by the management to reduce interest rate risks, our interest rate sensitivity analysis is as follows:

Change in equity	(312.3)	328.1	(345.8)	361.5	(298.1)	307.5

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The analysis below shows the impact on our net profit and other comprehensive income due to changes in fair value of investment on equity securities, funds, equity derivative financial assets/liabilities, trust products and other equity investments by 10%, based on the carrying amount at financial position dates, with all other variables held constant. As for available-for-sale equity investment, the impact only takes into account of changes in fair value, without considering the impact on profit or loss due to possible impairment.

Credit Risk

Our credit risks are the possibility of loss caused by our counterparty's failure to perform a contract or change in its credit rating or ability to perform. Our businesses that are susceptible to credit risks include proprietary trading of fixed income products, securities-backed financing as well as margin financing and securities lending. Our clients, counterparties or bond issuers in these businesses may default and fail to repay debts to us or pay principal and interest on the bonds they issued.

In order to effectively manage credit risks, we have adopted the following measures:

- implementing limit management for credit risks;
- establishing independent and appropriate credit evaluation procedures and credit rating system to assess the credit levels and limits for different transactions; adjusting and improving credit risk measurement methods and models;
- implementing multi-tiered management of credit risks; continuously tracking counterparties and transactions; recording and quantitatively analyzing changes in clients' transactions and credit;
- regularly conducting risk analysis on transactions and counterparties to assess possible losses to the Company under extremely unfavorable circumstances; for our high-risk clients and businesses, formulating more stringent procedures and standards on credit risk assessment, inspection and monitoring; and

- regularly preparing credit risk reports covering credit risk exposures, default rate of counterparties and anticipated recovery rate.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that we might not be able to obtain sufficient funds in time at reasonable costs to repay debts that are due, fulfil other payment obligations and satisfy the funding requirements for normal business operation. As liquidity is important for all our major businesses, we focus on the effective identification, measurement, monitoring and control of liquidity risk.

In order to effectively manage liquidity risk, we have adopted the following measures:

- adopting risk indicators analysis for our overall liquidity risk assessment, through the analysis of key indicators, including liquidity coverage, net stable capital ratio, liquidity gap ratio, liquidity ratio, and assets and liabilities concentration, to assess and measure the overall liquidity risk profile of the Company;
- examining cash flow mismatch through cash flow analysis as well as scenario-based and model-based gap analysis;
- establishing a liquidity risk limit mechanism, monitoring and reporting on implementation of limits as well as regularly conducting stress tests on liquidity risk;
- focusing on the risk profile of large fund providers, regularly monitoring their business activities with us and formulate financing concentration triggering ratios and contingency measures to be taken when the ratios are triggered;
- focusing on the changes in the capital markets, assessing our ability to improve liquidity by issuing stocks, bonds and other financing instruments and the associated costs, and improving mismatch of maturity structure by replenishing medium- and long-term liquidity; and
- establishing and improving our liquidity risk contingency plan, including reducing liquidity risk by risk transfer, risk diversification and risk exposure reduction; establishing contingency or backup systems, programs and measures for natural disasters, system failures and other emergencies, as well as regularly reviewing and testing the contingency plans and updating and improving our emergency response programs.

DIVIDEND POLICY

After the completion of the Global Offering, we may distribute dividends in the form of cash or by other means permitted by our Articles of Association. Any proposed distribution of dividends shall be formulated by our Board and will be subject to our Shareholders' approval. A decision to declare or to pay any dividends in the future, and the amount of any dividends, will depend on a number of factors, including our results of operations, cash flows, financial condition, capital adequacy ratio, payments by our subsidiaries of cash dividends to us, business prospects, statutory, regulatory and contractual restrictions on our declaration and payment of dividends and other factors that our Board may consider important.

According to the applicable PRC laws and our Articles of Association, we will pay dividends out of our profit after tax only after we have made the following allocations:

- recovery of the losses incurred in the previous year;
- allocations to the statutory reserve equivalent to 10% of our profit after tax;
- allocations to the general risk reserve of not less than 10% of our profit after tax to recover the losses, and allocations to the transaction risk reserve of not less than 10% of our profit after tax to recover the deficit of securities trading in accordance with laws, regulations or regulatory requirements; and
- allocations to a discretionary common reserve of not less than 10% of our profit after tax that are approved by a Shareholders' meeting.

Furthermore, as required by the CSRC, as a securities company, we are not allowed to distribute cash dividends to Shareholders from the gains from fair value changes of financial assets that are included in our distributable profits. The Company distributes dividends primarily in the form of cash, but also distributes dividends in the form of stocks or a combination of cash and stocks. The Articles of Association specifically provides for relevant ratios of cash dividends: (i) the Company will distribute cash dividends in an amount equal to at least 15% of the annual distributable profits in any fiscal year; (ii) if dividends in any distribution consists of both cash and stocks, the cash dividends shall comprise not less than 20% of such distribution; and (iii) under special circumstances where the Company does not distribute cash dividends or where the cash dividends distributed fall below the stipulated ratios, the Company shall obtain relevant approvals and disclose the reasons for such non-distribution or insufficient distribution in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and ordinances.

After completion of the Global Offering, dividends may be paid only out of distributable profits as determined under CAS or IFRSs, whichever is lower. Any distributable profits that are not distributed in any given year will be retained and become available for distribution in subsequent years.

In 2014, 2015 and 2016, we distributed dividends of RMB305.0 million, RMB762.5 million and RMB3,965.0 million, respectively, representing a dividend of RMB0.05, RMB0.10 and RMB0.52 per share, respectively. At our Shareholders' meeting in October 2016, it was resolved that in order to balance the interests of existing shareholders and future holders of H Shares, the accumulated undistributed profit before the Offering and Listing will be attributable to our new and existing shareholders upon the completion of the Offering and Listing of H Shares in proportion to their shareholding.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On March 13, 2017, our Shareholders approved the annual profit distribution plan for the year ended December 31, 2016 as follows: after withdrawing a 10% after-tax profit as statutory common reserve fund, general risk reserves, and trading risk reserves respectively, in accordance with relevant regulations, based on the total A Share common stock on the record date, the Company shall distribute cash dividends of RMB3.90 for every 10 shares (tax included) amounting to RMB2,973.8 million in total for the year ended December 31, 2016. We expect to pay this dividend on March 29, 2017 with our available cash resources.

Our historical dividends may not be indicative of future dividends payments.

DISTRIBUTABLE RESERVES

As of December 31, 2016, the Company had RMB34,557.4 million of retained profits, as determined under IFRSs, available for distribution to our shareholders.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA ADJUSTED CONSOLIDATED NET TANGIBLE ASSETS

The statement of our unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets below illustrates the effect of the Global Offering of the Company on the audited consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company, assuming the Global Offering had taken place on December 31, 2016.

The statement of our unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and because of its hypothetical nature, it may not give a true picture of our financial position had the Global Offering been completed as at December 31, 2016 or at any future date.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note:

1. The audited consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company as at December 31, 2016 is based on the consolidated net assets attributable to equity holders of the Company of approximately RMB99,964.4 million adjusted for other intangible assets of approximately RMB1,384.4 million and goodwill of approximately RMB581.4 million, as extracted from the accountants' report set out in Appendix I of this prospectus.
2. The estimated net proceeds from the issue of Shares pursuant to the Global Offering are based on 1,040,000,000 H Shares at the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share, after deduction of the underwriting commissions and fees and other related fees assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised. The estimated net proceeds from the Global Offering are converted from Hong Kong dollars into RMB at an exchange rate of HK$1 to RMB0.89451, which was the exchange rate set by the PBOC prevailing on December 31, 2016. No representation is made that Hong Kong dollar amounts have been, could have been or may be converted to RMB, or vice versa, at that rate or at any other rates or at all.
3. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share is arrived at on the basis that 8,665,000,000 Shares, which represents 7,625,000,000 A Shares in issue and 1,040,000,000 H Shares to be issued pursuant to the Global Offering, were in issue assuming that the Global Offering had been completed on December 31, 2016 and that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.
4. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share is converted from RMB into Hong Kong dollars at the rate of HK$1 to RMB0.89451. No representation is made that the RMB amounts have been, could have been or could be converted to Hong Kong dollars, or vice versa, at that rate or at any other rates or at all.
5. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company does not take into account a cash dividend of RMB2,973.8 million to its A shareholders approved by the Shareholders in the Shareholders' general meeting held on March 13, 2017. We expect to pay the cash dividend on March 29, 2017. Had the cash dividend been taken into account, the unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share would be RMB12.62 or HK$14.11 per share (based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share).
6. No adjustment has been made to reflect any trading result or other transactions of the Group subsequent to December 31, 2016.

DISCLOSURE REQUIRED UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

Our Directors have confirmed that they are not aware of any circumstances that would give rise to a disclosure requirement under Rule 13.13 to Rule 13.19 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

As a company listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, we are required to publish our quarterly (for the first and third quarters of each year), interim (for the first six months of each year) and annual reports with respect to our A Shares under the SSE Listing Rules. These reports are prepared in conformity with CAS. Our quarterly financial information in both English and Chinese will also be released in Hong Kong simultaneously pursuant to Rule 13.10B of the Hong Kong Listing Rules subsequent to our Listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. We will publish annual and semi-annual financial information under IFRSs for H Share disclosure purpose and annual, semi-annual and quarterly financial information under CAS for A Share disclosure purpose simultaneously.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In addition, we are also required by the CSRC to announce selected unconsolidated unaudited monthly operating revenue and net profit and month-end net assets of the Company, Guotai Junan Asset Management and Shanghai Securities, prepared in conformity with CAS, by way of an announcement published on the website of the Shanghai Stock Exchange (<http://www.sse.com.cn/>) on a monthly basis. Our monthly selected unconsolidated financial data in both English and Chinese will also be released in Hong Kong simultaneously pursuant to Rule 13.10B of the Hong Kong Listing Rules subsequent to our Listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

NO MATERIAL AND ADVERSE CHANGE

Our Directors have confirmed that there has been no material and adverse change in our financial or trading position or prospects since December 31, 2016 (being the date of our latest audited financial statements) and there has been no event which would materially affect the information set out in “Appendix I — Accountants’ Report”.

LISTING EXPENSES

Listing expenses represent underwriting commissions, professional fees and other fees incurred in connection with the Global Offering. We estimate that our listing expenses will be approximately RMB384.2 million (based on (i) an Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share and (ii) the Over-allotment Option is not exercised at all), of which approximately RMB347.7 million is directly attributable to the issuance of our H Shares to the public and will be capitalized, and approximately RMB36.5 million has been or is expected to be expensed in 2017. Our Directors do not expect such expenses to materially impact our results of operations in 2017.

CB Issuance

On May 19, 2016, the Shareholders' general meeting of the Company approved the issuance of the Convertible Bonds which are convertible into our A Shares. On December 12, 2016, in accordance with the authorization of the Shareholders' general meeting, the Board determined the aggregate principal amount of the CB Issuance to be no more than RMB7 billion. Assuming that the Convertible Bonds are fully converted at the Minimum Conversion Price, the Company will issue an additional 533,943,555 A Shares.

On December 21, 2016, the Main Board Issuance Examination Committee of the CSRC reviewed and approved the CB Issuance and as of the Latest Practicable Date, the CB Issuance is still pending final approval by the CSRC. Pursuant to the relevant PRC laws, regulations and rules, the Convertible Bonds shall be issued within six months upon the approval of the CSRC.

The principal terms of the CB Issuance are as follows:

- Principal amount: No more than RMB7 billion. The actual aggregate principal amount shall be determined by the Board and the authorized persons of the Board (as authorized by the Shareholders' general meeting) within the limit of such amount.
- Par value and issue price: The Convertible Bonds carry a par value of RMB100 each and will be issued at par.
- Tenure: The tenure of the Convertible Bonds will be six years from the date of issuance.
- Interest rate: The method for determining the coupon rate of the CB Issuance and the final interest rate for each interest bearing year should be determined by the Board and the authorized persons of the Board, subject to the authorization at the Shareholders' general meeting, with reference to the PRC government policies, market conditions and the actual conditions of the Company prior to the CB Issuance and in consultation with the sponsor (the lead underwriter) of the CB Issuance.
- Duration and method of interest payment: The interest payment of CB Issuance shall be made once a year, and repayment of the principal and final year interest shall be made when due.
- Conversion period: The Convertible Bonds may be converted during the period from the first trading day immediately after six months from the date of issuance of the Convertible Bonds until the maturity date.
- Determination and adjustment of the conversion price: The initial conversion price of the CB Issuance shall not be lower than the average trading price of A Shares of the Company for the 20 trading days preceding the date of publication of the offering document (in the event that during such 20 trading days, the share price has been adjusted due to ex-rights or ex-dividend, the price of each of these trading days before adjustment shall be adjusted with reference to the ex-rights or ex-dividend share price) and the average trading price of A Shares of the Company on the trading day preceding the date of the offering document of the Convertible Bonds. The actual initial conversion price shall be determined by the Board and authorized persons of the Board with reference to the market conditions, subject to the authorization at the Shareholders' general meeting and in consultation with the sponsor (the lead underwriter). Following the CB Issuance, on the occurrence of certain events that affect the share capital of the Company, such as distribution of share dividend, capitalization, issuance of new shares or allotment of shares and distribution of cash dividend (excluding any increase in the share capital as a result of conversion of the Convertible Bonds), the conversion price shall be adjusted accordingly.

SHARE CAPITAL

- Downward adjustment to the conversion price: The conversion price may be subject to downward adjustments if, during the term of the Convertible Bonds, the closing prices of the A Shares in any 15 trading days out of any 30 consecutive trading days are lower than 80% of the prevailing conversion price, the Board may propose any such adjustments for the Shareholders to consider and seek their approval at a Shareholders' general meeting.
- Dividend rights in the year of conversion: The new Shares of the Company to be issued upon the conversion of the Convertible Bonds shall rank pari passu with all existing Shares, and all the shareholders whose names appear on the register of members at the market closing in the afternoon of the record date of dividend rights are entitled to dividend for the current period.
- Subscription arrangement for existing holders of A Shares: The CB Issuance will offer the existing holders of A Shares the preferential right to subscribe the Convertible Bonds. The actual amount of preferential allocation will be determined by the Board and the person authorized by the Board (as authorized by the Shareholders' general meeting) based on the market conditions before issuance, and will be disclosed in an announcement upon the CB Issuance. Any unallocated portion remaining after the preferential allocation to the existing holders of A Shares, and any portion for which the existing holders of A Shares have forgone their preferential right will be offered through a combination of offline placement to institutional investors and online issuance at the price determined through the online trading system of the Shanghai Stock Exchange, and the remaining balance shall be underwritten by the underwriting syndicates.
- Use of proceeds: The proceeds from the CB Issuance, after deducting the issue expenses, will all be used to replenish our working capital and develop our principal businesses, and to replenish our share capital upon conversion by the holders of the Convertible Bonds into A Shares.
- Guarantee: The Company will not provide guarantee for the CB Issuance.
- Validity period for the resolution: The resolution in relation to the CB Issuance is valid for 12 months from the date of the passing of the relevant resolutions at the Shareholder's general meeting. This valid period was extended for another 12 months by the Shareholders on the Shareholders' general meeting held on March 13, 2017.

SHARE CAPITAL

CLASSES OF SHARES

Both H Shares and A Shares in issue are ordinary shares in our share capital upon completion of the Global Offering. Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, activated on November 17, 2014, and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, initiated on December 5, 2016, have established a stock connect mechanism between the PRC and Hong Kong. A Shares of the Company can be subscribed for and traded by PRC investors, qualified overseas institutional investors or qualified overseas strategic investors, while also being eligible securities under the Northbound Trading Link, A Shares of the Company can be subscribed for and traded by Hong Kong and other overseas investors in accordance with the rules and limits of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. H Shares of the Company can be subscribed or traded by Hong Kong and other overseas investors and qualified domestic institutional investors. If the H Shares of the Company are eligible securities under the Southbound Trading Link, they are also subscribed for and traded by PRC investors in accordance with the rules and limits of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

All dividends on H Shares shall be paid in Hong Kong dollars whereas dividends on A Shares shall be paid in Renminbi.

A Shares and H Shares are regarded as different classes of Shares. The differences between the two classes of Shares, provisions on rights of class of Shareholders, dispatch of notices and financial reports to Shareholders, dispute resolution, registration of Shares, the procedure of Share transfer and appointment of dividend receiving agents are set out in the Articles of Association, which is summarized in “Appendix VI—Summary of Articles of Association”.

Furthermore, any change or abrogation of the rights of class Shareholders shall be approved by way of a special resolution of the Shareholders’ general meeting and by a class shareholders meeting of class Shareholders convened by the affected class of Shareholders. The circumstances under which a general meeting and a class meeting are required are summarized in “Appendix VI—Summary of Articles of Association”. However, the approval of separate classes of Shareholders is not required under the following circumstances:

- (i) issue of A Shares and H Shares of not more than 20% of existing A Shares and H Shares respectively, either separately or concurrently, in a period of 12 months, pursuant to an approval by a special resolution of the general meeting;
- (ii) plans of issuance of A Shares and H Shares upon establishment of the Company, provided that it is completed within 15 months from the date of an approval from the securities regulatory authority under the State Council or a specified period applicable provided under relevant requirements; or
- (iii) listing of, and dealing in, overseas, the unlisted shares being held by the Company pursuant to an approval from the State Council or the securities regulatory authority under the State Council following the overseas issuance and listing of H Shares of the Company.

A Shares and H Shares shall rank pari passu with each other in all other respects and, in particular, will rank equally for all dividends or distributions declared, paid or made.

SHARE CAPITAL

CONVERSION OF A SHARES INTO H SHARES

Upon completion of the Global Offering, the share capital of the Company will consist of both A Shares and H Shares. If any holder of A Shares wishes to transfer its A Shares to overseas investors for listing and trading on Hong Kong Stock Exchange as H Shares, it must comply with the relevant regulations prescribed by, and obtain the approval of, the relevant PRC securities regulatory authorities, including the CSRC, for the conversion of the A Shares and the approval of Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the listing and trading of the converted H Shares.

Following the relevant approvals been granted, the holder of A Shares shall submit an application to us to deregister the A Shares to be converted from the A Share register, together with the relevant document(s) of title. Upon completion of the relevant legal and regulatory procedures, we will instruct the H Share Registrar to issue certificate(s) of such number of H Shares to the relevant holders of H Shares. Registration on our H Share register will be on the condition that (i) our H Share registrar informs the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that the entry of the relevant H Shares on the H Share register and the despatch of H Shares certificates have been completed, and (ii) the admission of the H Shares to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will comply with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures in force from time to time. We shall comply with the relevant Hong Kong Listing Rules to inform Shareholders and the public by way of an announcement of any conversion of A Shares into H Shares before the proposed date of such conversion.

As a result of the conversion, the shareholding of the relevant holders of A Shares in our A Share capital registered shall be reduced by the number of A Shares converted and the number of H Shares shall be increased by the corresponding number of H Shares. As of the Latest Practicable Date, save as disclosed in “—Transfer of State-owned Shares to the NSSF”, the Directors were not aware of any intention of any holder of A Shares to convert all or part of their A Shares into H Shares.

TRANSFER OF STATE-OWNED SHARES TO THE NSSF

Pursuant to the Interim Measures of the State Council on the Management of Reduction of State-owned Shares and Raising Social Security Funds issued and effective on June 6, 2001, 59 state-owned Shareholders of the Company are required to transfer to the NSSF such number of A Shares equivalent to 10% of the total number of Offer Shares. Accordingly, 104,000,000 A Shares (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) or 119,600,000 A Shares (assuming the Over-allotment Option is fully exercised) will be transferred by the relevant state-owned Shareholders (including but not limited to, International Group, Shanghai SA, International Group Asset Management, International Group Asset Operation, Shanghai Sitico Assets Management and Shenzhen Investment Holdings) to the NSSF and converted into H Shares.

SHARE CAPITAL

The A Shares as described above will be converted into H Shares on a one-for-one basis and such H Shares converted will not constitute part of the Offer Shares. None of those state-owned Shareholders and the Company will receive any proceeds from the transfer of H Shares to the NSSF or any subsequent disposal of such H Shares by the NSSF. The transfer of state-owned Shares by the relevant state-owned Shareholders to the NSSF were approved by the SASAC of the State Council on January 11, 2017. Such conversion of A Shares into H Shares has been approved by the CSRC in its approval letter issued on March 13, 2017.

SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL FOR THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Approval from holders of A Shares is required for the Company to issue H Shares and seek the listing of H Shares on Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Such approval was granted at the Shareholders' general meeting held on October 24, 2016.

Guotai Junan IM was spun off from the Company in August 2001. For more information about Guotai Junan IM, see “History and Corporate Structure”. Guotai Junan IM also conducts direct equity investment and enterprise management consulting through its subsidiary Shanghai Guoshi Investment in which it had a 70.09% equity interest as of the Latest Practicable Date.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, Guotai Junan IM was controlled to as to 33.18% in aggregate by International Group through its subsidiaries Shanghai SA, Shanghai Sitico Assets Management and International Group Asset Management and as to 11.49% by Shenzhen Investment Holdings.

The following table sets out the relevant financial information of Guotai Junan IM⁽⁵⁾:

	As at December 31/For the year ended December 31,		As at June 30/For the six months ended June 30
	2014	2015	2016
	(RMB in millions)
Total assets	2,742.09	2,644.39	2,726.43
Operating revenue	63.48	76.98	7.07
Net profit	41.67	44.03	1.01

Delineation of business

The direct investment / equity investment business of the Controlled Entities and us are clearly delineated and there is no substantive competition.

- Different investment positioning by International Group and us:

Shanghai Guoxin Investment, as an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of International Group, is positioned to represent its parent company, which is a state-owned shareholder, to identify premium investment opportunities and realize the goals of value preservation and appreciation of state-owned properties. Sailing Capital, GP Capital, Shanghai Guohe Capital and Guotai Junan IM are not subsidiaries of International Group, and International Group only benefited from the development of such companies through the exercise of its rights as a shareholder.

Notes:

(5) Prepared based on the CAS.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Guotai Junan Innovation Investment, as the subsidiary of us, a securities company, is positioned to serve as our integrated investment platform, invest in domestic and foreign promising enterprises through direct investments with its own funds or establishing investment funds to raise funds, and collaborate with our various business departments to provide our core customers with comprehensive financial services.

- Characteristics of relevant markets:

The PRC direct investment market is open and sizable, and it is able to accommodate a very large number of participants. It is very common for a company to undertake equity investment in the market. A company does not need to obtain any license to carry out direct investment, except for approvals pursuant to industry-specific requirements of the industry to be invested in. As such, we believe any competition between the Controlled Entities and us are of no difference from competition encountered by us with any Independent Third Party.

- No conflict of interests:

Guotai Junan Innovation Investment has a sound information confidentiality protection system in place to prevent information leakage. International Group and its subsidiaries do not participate in the daily operation of any of the Controlled Entities, and they exercise their rights as shareholders through appointment of directors to these companies. As of the Latest Practicable Date, Mr. Fu Fan, a non-executive Director, is the chairman of the board of directors of Sailing Capital; Ms. Liu Ying, a non-executive Director, is a director of Sailing Capital and GP Capital; Mr. Zhong Maojun, a non-executive Director, is a director of Sailing Capital; and Mr. Zhou Lei, a non-executive Director, was also the president of the board of directors of Shanghai Guoxin Investment. Notwithstanding the overlapping directors, after considering the factors discussed above, we believe the business, staff, assets, institutional framework and finance of the aforesaid companies are all independent from each other.

- The business and financial contributions of relevant businesses of the Controlled Entities to International Group and of Guotai Junan Innovation Investment to the Group are insignificant:

— The following table sets out the percentage ratios of total assets, operating revenue and net profits of Shanghai Guoxin Investment against total assets, operating revenue and net profits of International Group respectively during the relevant period:

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

- The following table sets out the percentage ratios of total assets, operating revenue and net profits of Guotai Junan IM attributable to International Group against total assets, operating revenue and net profits of International Group respectively during the relevant period:

The information above shows that, the relative contributions of the Controlled Entities to the overall business size and financial significance of International Group are limited, and such contribution of Guotai Junan Innovation Investment to us is also limited. As such, we believe that any potential competition which Guotai Junan Innovation Investment will face as a result of the business of the Controlled Entities will have very limited and insignificant impact on the Group's overall business.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Other companies of which International Group is a substantial shareholder with business similar to some business lines of the Group

As of the Latest Practicable Date, companies in which International Group was directly or indirectly interested in 10% or more but less than 30% in aggregate in their issued share capital and which are engaged in business similar to some business lines of the Group are as follows:

Company	International Group's Interest	Business
SPD Bank	International Group and its subsidiaries Shanghai Sitico Assets Management, Shanghai Guoxin Investment and International Group Asset Management hold 26.55% of the equity interest in aggregate	Commercial bank
Shanghai Rural Commercial Bank Co., Ltd. (上海農村商業銀行股份有限公司) (“SRCB”)	International Group and its subsidiaries Shanghai SA and International Group Asset Management hold 20.02% of the equity interest in aggregate	Commercial bank

Given International Group is a state-owned capital operation platform, we believe that International Group has no control over the above companies, neither does it control the board of directors of such companies nor participates in the daily operations of such companies, and the businesses of such companies do not compete with our Principal Businesses.

Overview of the companies

Details of the aforesaid companies are as follows:

SPD Bank and SRCB

SPD Bank is a joint stock commercial bank listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (stock code: 600000). It provides a broad range of corporate and retail banking products and services. SPD Bank is mainly regulated by the PBOC and the CBRC. SPD Bank is classified as available-for-sale financial assets in International Group's financial statements.

SRCB is a joint stock commercial bank and provides corporate and retail banking products and services. SRCB is mainly regulated by the PBOC and the CBRC. SRCB is classified as available-for-sale financial assets in International Group's financial statements.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Delineation of business

It is a regulatory requirement in the PRC that banking business and securities business must be operated and managed separately. Unless otherwise permitted by the PRC laws and regulations, SPD Bank and SRCB are not allowed to engage in any securities business. As such, we do not have any interests in SPD Bank or SRCB and we do not operate commercial banking business. International Group neither participates in our daily operations nor the daily operations of SPD Bank or SRCB. Furthermore, there is no common director or senior management between SPD Bank or SRCB and the Group. As such, we believe that there is no competition between SPD Bank or SRCB and us. Set out below are details of certain businesses of SPD Bank and SRCB that have some similarities with certain business lines of us.

SPD Bank's business in Hong Kong

SPDB International, a wholly-owned subsidiary of SPD Bank, is engaged in finance-related businesses in Hong Kong through its two subsidiaries. The licenses held by those two companies include type 1 (dealing in securities), type 4 (advising on securities), type 6 (advising on corporate finance) and type 9 (asset management). On the other hand, Guotai Junan Financial Holdings, a wholly-owned subsidiary of us, carries out various regulated activities in Hong Kong through six subsidiaries. The licenses of those six companies include Type 1 (dealing in securities), Type 2 (dealing in future contracts), Type 3 (leverage foreign exchange trading), Type 4 (advising on securities), Type 5 (advising on futures contracts), Type 6 (advising on corporate finance) and Type 9 (asset management). As of the Latest Practicable Date, there was no common director or senior management between SPDB International and Guotai Junan Financial Holdings.

For Guotai Junan Financial Holdings, its total revenue for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016 represented only approximately 5.85 %, 4.01% and 6.86%, respectively, of our total revenue. For the years ended December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the net profits of Guotai Junan Financial Holdings represented approximately 8.54%, 4.37% and 6.59%, respectively, of our net profits. As of December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016, the total assets of Guotai Junan Financial Holdings represented approximately 6.35%, 7.61% and 10.09%, respectively, of our total assets. The above shows that the financial contribution of Guotai Junan Financial Holdings to us is relatively limited. As such, we believe that any potential competition Guotai Junan Financial Holdings will face as a result of the business of SPDB International will have little impact on the Group's overall business.

In addition, the Hong Kong securities market is of a significant scale and can accommodate a large number of market participants. It is common for multiple financial service providers to provide services to a client or a group of clients in the same transaction. As such, we consider that any potential competition between SPDB International and Guotai Junan Financial Holdings is of no difference from any competition between Independent Third Parties and us in the Hong Kong securities market.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Trust business controlled by SPD Bank

Shanghai Trust, a subsidiary of SPD Bank, is a trust company incorporated in the PRC with a registered capital of RMB5.0 billion. As of the Latest Practicable Date, SPD Bank directly held a 97.33% equity interest in Shanghai Trust. Shanghai Trust is principally engaged in trust business which is regulated by the CBRC.

Although Shanghai Trust carries out trust business for the benefit of its clients, which is similar to our assets management business in some aspects, the trust business and the assets management business of securities companies are different in business nature and operation model. In the PRC, trust business and assets management business of securities companies follow different operating and management principles, and trust business and assets management business of securities companies are regulated by CBRC and CSRC, respectively. In addition, the market of entrusted assets management business is very broad. Entities such as commercial banks, securities companies, trust companies, fund management companies and private equity fund management companies and other independent financial advisors are all allowed to carry out such kind of business. While SPD Bank holds a 97.33% equity interest in Shanghai Trust, International Group only controls a 26.55% equity interest in SPD Bank. In addition, there is no common director or senior management between Shanghai Trust and the Company. We consider there is no competition between Shanghai Trust and us.

Mutual fund business controlled by SPD Bank

As of the Latest Practicable Date, SPD Bank held a 97.33% equity interest in Shanghai Trust, which in turn held a 51% equity interest in CIFM. CIFM is a fund management company conducting fund raising, fund sales, asset management and other businesses approved by the CSRC.

We carry on our fund business through our subsidiary, GTJA Allianz Funds. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we held a 51% equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds and Allianz AG, an Independent Third Party, held the other 49% equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds. In January 2017, we began to dispose our equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds through the public listing and sale process.

In addition, Guotai Junan Innovation Investment have entered into agreements with Shanghai Electric, an Independent Third Party to acquire its 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds, the completion of which is still subject to the approval of CSRC as at the Latest Practicable Date. For more information about the Acquisition of HuaAn Funds, see “History and Corporate Structure”. As at the Latest Practicable Date, each of Guotai Junan IM and Shanghai Sitico Assets Management respectively controlled 20% equity interest in HuaAn Funds. Upon completion of the aforesaid transactions, HuaAn Funds will be jointly held by us and subsidiaries of / enterprises invested by International Group and we do not hold interests in any other mutual fund companies.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Currency brokerage business controlled by SPD Bank

As of the Latest Practicable Date, Shanghai Trust, a subsidiary of SPD Bank, held a 67% equity interest in Tullett Prebon SITICO (China) Ltd. (上海國利貨幣經紀有限公司). Tullett Prebon SITICO (China) Ltd. is principally engaged in currency brokerage business and holds a license for financial business issued by the CBRC. Since we do not hold any license issued by the CBRC, and Tullett Prebon SITICO (China) Ltd. does not hold a securities license either, we believe there is no competition between Tullett Prebon SITICO (China) Ltd. and us.

Other investments by International Group

Other members of International Group may also carry out certain businesses similar to ours (such as capital operation, assets acquisition and capital management). However, those businesses are not required to obtain licenses from the securities regulators, and those businesses are different from those operated by the Company in business nature, business operation model and regulatory regime. As a state-owned capital operation platform, International Group carries out capital operation and assets acquisition businesses through its relevant subsidiaries for the purpose of managing and operating state-owned assets. However, we carry out capital operation and assets management businesses as intermediary services to our clients. In addition, International Group, as a state-owned capital operation platform, is focused on the operation and management of its proprietary business, while the subjects of our assets management business are mostly entrusted assets for our clients.

Member companies of International Group which are engaged in other industries (such as in areas of real estate and port services) may from time to time participate in financial-related activities (such as equity investment and fund management), but such activities are intended to better support the development of their respective principal businesses. In view of the difference between the respective principal businesses of us and such member companies (in terms of business scope and major market focus) and the nature, extent and causes of participation in such activities and businesses, we consider that there is no competition between us and such companies.

The Group has adopted a strict system to separate risks and to manage the conflict of interests. We also have strengthened our ability to deal with sensitive information and to prevent unregulated circulation of internal information among our shareholders, clients and working staff. We believe that those information protection measures could help to effectively diminish the conflict of interests as the business develops.

In light of the above and the non-competition undertaking given by International Group as described in “Non-Competition Arrangements” below, we believe that there is no competition between those companies and us.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Our business relationship with International Group

We and International Group and/or its associates from time to time provide to each other securities and financial products and services in our respective ordinary course of business, provided under the Securities and Financial Products and Services Framework Agreement as disclosed in the “Connected Transactions”. Such transactions are based on normal commercial terms. For further details of the collaborative relationship between International Group and us, see “—Business independence” below.

Notwithstanding the above, we conduct our business independently from International Group and its subsidiaries in terms of operation, finance and management. For further details, see “—Independence from International Group” below.

INDEPENDENCE FROM INTERNATIONAL GROUP

Having considered the factors set out below, we believe that we can conduct our business independently from International Group and its subsidiaries following the Global Offering.

Operational independence

Integrity of assets

We have independent and complete assets relating to the operation of our securities business, including ownerships or use rights of lands, buildings and intellectual properties such as trademarks and domain names. Our assets are completely separated from the assets of International Group and other entities controlled by it and there are no misappropriation of the Company’s funds, assets and other resources by International Group and other entities controlled by it.

Business independence

We hold all relevant licenses and permits for conducting our business. We have our own customers whom we communicate with, serve and maintain relationship with independently. We own or have the right to use all the operational facilities and technologies relating to our business and have sufficient capital, facilities and employees to operate our business independently.

We have from time to time entered into securities and financial transactions with International Group and its associates. We and International Group and its associates also provide securities and financial products as well as financial services to each other. The revenue generated from our provision of such financial services all accounted less than 0.01% of the total revenue of the Group for the three years ended December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016. Further, those products or services are not provided exclusively to or sourced exclusively from International Group and its subsidiaries and the transactions are conducted based on an arm’s length negotiation in the ordinary course of business of us and International Group and its subsidiaries. For further details, see “Connected Transactions—Continuing Connected Transactions Subject to the Reporting, Annual Review and Announcement Requirements—Principal terms”. Notwithstanding the aforesaid transactions, our business operations are independent from that of International Group and other entities controlled by it and are not interfered or controlled by International Group and other connected persons of us and the integrity and independence of our business operations are not adversely affected by the connected relationships between us and International Group and other connected persons of us.

Operation structure independence

We have our own operational structure comprising various departments that function and make decisions independently from International Group. We maintain comprehensive internal control system and have adopted sound corporate governance practices that satisfy the legal and regulatory requirements, including setting the rules of procedures for general meetings, board meetings and supervisory committee meetings, as well as rules for connected transaction administrations.

We have appointed our own senior management personnel, including president, vice president, chief compliance officer, chief financial officer, chief risk officer, chief information officer and secretary to the Board. We have also established sound internal operation and management structures as per our own needs and exercise our operation and management powers independently through our own functional departments which do not have affiliated relationships with the functional departments of International Group and overlapping organizational structures with International Group and other entities controlled by it. We can formulate and execute operational decisions independently.

In light of the above, we believe that our operations are independent from International Group.

Financial independence

Our finance department is independent from International Group and comprises of independent financial personnel. It is responsible for handling our financial matters, cash management and fund-raising from third parties. There is no sharing of common financial personnel between us and International Group and/or its subsidiaries. We have established an independent and comprehensive financial reporting, budgeting, management and financing system.

In addition, the Group does not rely on International Group and/or its close associates for provision of financial resources. Regarding the loans provided by International Group and its associates for the Group during the Track Record Period, the transactions were based on prevailing market price or rate in the ordinary and usual course of business and were conducted according to applicable and normal market usual practice and on normal commercial terms. There were no other outstanding guarantees and loans provided by International Group to us as at the Latest Practice Date. We believe that we are capable of obtaining financing from external sources without reliance on International Group.

As mentioned above, we believe that we are financially independent from International Group.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

Management independence

According to our Articles of Association, immediately upon Listing, the Board should comprise of 17 Directors, including six independent non-executive Directors. Four members of our Board, namely Mr. Fu Fan, Ms. Liu Ying, Mr. Zhong Maojun and Mr. Zhou Lei, are also directors or senior management of International Group and/or its major subsidiaries. Details are as follows:

Name of Director	Position held in the Company	Position held in International Group and/or its major subsidiaries
Mr. Fu Fan (傅帆)	Non-executive Director of the Company	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A director and vice president of International Group;• Chairman of the board of directors of Shanghai SA
Ms. Liu Ying (劉櫻)	Non-executive Director of the Company	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A director and the chief investment officer of International Group
Mr. Zhong Maojun (鐘茂軍)	Non-executive Director of the Company	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A director and the chief operation officer of International Group
Mr. Zhou Lei (周磊)	Non-executive Director of the Company	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The vice chairman of the board of directors and general manager of Shanghai SA

Despite the overlapping positions as mentioned above, we believe that we and International Group can remain independent from each other for the following reasons:

- (i) The four directors above are not involved in our or any of our subsidiaries' daily operations;
- (ii) The Rules of Procedures of our Board have provisions for the avoidance of conflict of interests in the decision-making process, which include but are not limited to the following:
 - (a) if the relevant proposal under the Board resolution might lead to a conflict of interests between International Group and/or its subsidiaries and ourselves, the Director(s) related to International Group and/or its subsidiaries will abstain from voting. Our Directors believe that the remaining Directors have sufficient industry knowledge and business experience to make decisions and monitor such transactions even if the conflicted Director(s) abstain from voting;
 - (b) when connected transaction(s) are being considered, independent non-executive Directors shall give their independent opinions to the Board on the relevant connected transaction(s) in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules;

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

- (iii) Upon Listing, we have six independent non-executive Directors (which meets the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules) to protect the interests of the Company and our shareholders as a whole;
- (iv) Our Directors are well aware of their fiduciary duties which, among other things, require them to act in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders as a whole; and
- (v) Senior management personnel of the Company do not hold any positions and receive remunerations from International Group and other entities controlled by it. The financial personnel of the Company do not hold concurrent positions in International Group and other entities controlled by it.

In light of the above, we believe that our management team is independent from International Group.

NON-COMPETITION ARRANGEMENTS

For the purpose of the listing of our A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange in 2015, International Group and Shanghai SA provided two non-competition undertakings in December 2012 and in April 2014 respectively, whereby International Group and Shanghai SA undertook that during the period from the date of the completion of the initial public offering of A Shares until they cease to be our controlling shareholder and/or “de facto controller” (as defined by rules issued by the CSRC or Shanghai Stock Exchange from time to time or applicable PRC laws), they will not control or de facto control more than one securities company according to the relevant requirements of the CSRC.

On March 21, 2017, International Group further undertook that, from the date of the Listing until it ceases to be our Controlling Shareholder (as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules in force from time to time):

1. it will not control any new securities company through establishment or acquisition;
2. upon Listing, for businesses conducted by the non-securities companies controlled by International Group that are similar to the business lines of securities companies, we will make sufficient disclosure in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and relevant requirements of stock exchanges/where our Shares are listed; and
3. it shall not prejudice the interest of us or the other Shareholders by taking advantage of its position as our Controlling Shareholder.

CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

THE CORNERSTONE PLACING

We have entered into cornerstone investment agreements with cornerstone investors (the “Cornerstone Investors”, and each a “Cornerstone Investor”), pursuant to which the Cornerstone Investors have agreed to subscribe, or cause their designated entities to subscribe, at the Offer Price for certain number of our Offer Shares (the “Cornerstone Placing”). Based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share, the total number of H Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors would be 293,554,800, representing approximately (i) 25.66% of the H Shares in issue upon completion of the Global Offering assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised; and (ii) 3.39% of the Shares in issue upon completion of the Global Offering assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.

The Cornerstone Placing will form part of the International Offering and none of such Cornerstone Investors will subscribe for any Offer Share under the Global Offering (other than and pursuant to their respective cornerstone investment agreements). The Offer Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors will rank pari passu in all respects with the other fully paid H Shares in issue upon completion of the Global Offering and will be counted towards the public float of the Company. Immediately following the completion of the Global Offering, none of the Cornerstone Investors will have any board representation in the Company, nor will any of the Cornerstone Investors become a substantial shareholder of the Company (as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules). The Offer Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors will not be affected by any reallocation of the Offer Shares between the International Offering and the Hong Kong Public Offering in the event of over-subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering as described in the section headed “Structure of the Global Offering—The Hong Kong Public Offering” in this prospectus.

To the best knowledge of the Company, each of the Cornerstone Investors is an Independent Third Party and independent of other Cornerstone Investors (save as disclosed below), not our connected person and not an existing shareholder (save as disclosed below) or close associates of the Company. Each of the Cornerstone Investors has represented, warranted and undertaken to us that, save as disclosed below, neither it nor its close associates held or would hold any of our issued A Shares during the period from the date of the relevant cornerstone investment agreements and ending on the Listing Date.

The NSSF is an existing A Share shareholder of the Company and 104,000,000 H Shares will be converted from A Shares and transferred to the NSSF upon the completion of the Global Offering assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised. Da Cheng China Balanced Fund, of which Da Cheng International Asset Management Company Limited (“Da Cheng International Asset Management”) is the investment manager, is also an existing A Share shareholder of the Company.

We have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 10.04 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in relation to the cornerstone investment by Da Cheng International Asset Management, acting as the investment manager of the NSSF, details of which are set out in “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules — Allocation of H Shares to Existing Minority Shareholders and Their Close Associates Under Rule 10.04 and Paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules”.

Details of the allocations to the Cornerstone Investors will be disclosed in the announcement of results of allocations in the Hong Kong Public Offering to be published on or around April 10, 2017.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

The subscription of each Cornerstone Investor is subject to, among other things, the following conditions precedent:

- (i) the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and the International Underwriting Agreement being entered into and having become unconditional and all of the conditions precedent to completion set forth therein having been satisfied (or waived by the relevant parties) by no later than the time and date as specified in those underwriting agreements in accordance with their respective original terms, or as subsequently varied by agreement of the parties thereto or waived, to the extent it may be waived, by the relevant parties and not having been terminated;
- (ii) the Listing Committee of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange having granted the approval for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares and that such approval or permission has not been revoked prior to the commencement of dealings in the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (iii) the respective representations, warranties, undertakings and acknowledgements of the relevant Cornerstone Investors under the relevant cornerstone investment agreements are and will be accurate and true in all material respects and not misleading and there being no material breach of the relevant cornerstone investment agreements on the part of the relevant Cornerstone Investors; and
- (iv) no laws shall have been enacted or promulgated which prohibit the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Hong Kong Public Offering, the International Offering or in the relevant cornerstone investment agreements and no orders or injunctions from a governmental authority in effect precluding or prohibiting consummation of such transactions.

CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

RESTRICTIONS ON DISPOSALS BY THE CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

Each of the Cornerstone Investors has agreed that, without the prior written consent of the Company, the Joint Representatives and the Joint Sponsors, it will not, whether directly or indirectly, at any time during a period of six months starting from and inclusive of the Listing Date, dispose of (as defined in the relevant cornerstone investment agreement) any of the shares subscribed for by it under the relevant cornerstone investment agreement and any shares or other securities of the Company derived therefrom (the “Relevant Shares”) or any legal or beneficial interest in the Relevant Shares, or enter into any transactions, directly or indirectly, with the same economic effect as any transaction for such disposal of Relevant Shares or interest, or agree or contract to, or publicly announce any intention to enter into, any transaction for such disposal of the Relevant Shares or interest or any transactions with the same economic effect.

Cornerstone Investors (or certain of them) may transfer or enter into specific transactions in relation to the H Shares so subscribed for in certain limited circumstances as permitted in the relevant cornerstone investment agreement, such as margin financing transactions (as disclosed above) and transfer to a wholly owned subsidiary of such Cornerstone Investor, provided that prior to such transfer, such wholly owned subsidiary undertakes, and such Cornerstone Investor undertakes to procure, that such wholly owned subsidiary agrees to be bound by such Cornerstone Investor’s obligations under the relevant cornerstone investment agreement and subject to the restrictions on disposals imposed on the Cornerstone Investor.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

OVERVIEW

Upon Listing, the directors (including persons who were directors in the last 12 months), supervisors and chief executives of the Company and its subsidiaries (apart from insignificant subsidiaries) and their respective associates will become our connected persons (as defined under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules). In addition, at the Latest Practicable Date, International Group directly and indirectly controlled approximately 36.29% of our total issued share capital and will directly and indirectly control approximately 32.94% of our total issued share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and the Convertible Bonds are not converted, and taking into account the number of H Shares to be subscribed by International Group in the Global Offering). Therefore, International Group is and will continue to be our Controlling Shareholder upon Listing. In addition, Shanghai Securities, a 51%-owned subsidiary of us, is controlled directly and indirectly as to 49% in aggregate (excluding equity interest held through us) by International Group and is therefore an associate of International Group and a connected subsidiary of us.

We have in the past conducted certain transactions with the above individuals and entities that will become our connected persons (as defined under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules) upon the Listing. Some transactions will continue after the Listing and will therefore constitute our continuing connected transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

As our A Shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, we will continue to be subject to and regulated by the SSE Listing Rules and other applicable laws and regulations in the PRC so far as our A Shares remain listed. The requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in relation to connected transactions are different from those of the SSE Listing Rules. In particular, the definition of connected person under the Hong Kong Listing Rules is different from the definition of related party under the SSE Listing Rules. Therefore, a connected transaction under the Hong Kong Listing Rules may or may not constitute a related party transaction under the SSE Listing Rules, and vice versa.

FULLY EXEMPT CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Provision of securities and futures brokerage, wealth management and asset management services and sales of financial products (the “Financial Transactions”) to directors (including persons who were directors in the last 12 months), supervisors, chief executives and their respective associates

We conduct the Financial Transactions with our clients, including our directors (including persons who were directors in the last 12 months), supervisors, chief executives and their respective associates (all of whom are our connected persons) in our ordinary course of business, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations. The terms and conditions of the Financial Transactions we offered to such connected persons are on normal commercial terms similar to those offered to independent third parties. It is expected that we will continue to conduct the Financial Transactions with such connected persons after Listing, and the Financial Transactions will constitute our continuing connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Taking into account the revenue derived from our provision of financial services to or the relevant cash inflow and outflow related to our sales of financial products to the aforesaid connected persons in the past (whichever is applicable), our Directors currently expect that all the relevant percentage ratios calculated for the purpose of Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules will be less than 0.1% or 1% (for connected persons at the subsidiary level) on an annual basis. Therefore, such transactions are de minimis transactions and, pursuant to Rule 14A.76(1) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, will be exempted from the reporting, annual review, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

If the highest applicable percentage ratio calculated based on our revenue derived from or the relevant inflow and outflow amounts related to the Financial Transactions (as applicable) with any connected person exceeds the de minimis threshold stipulated under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, we will comply with the applicable requirements thereunder.

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS SUBJECT TO THE REPORTING, ANNUAL REVIEW AND ANNOUNCEMENT REQUIREMENTS

Framework Agreement for Securities and Financial Products and Services

We entered into a Framework Agreement for Securities and Financial Products and Services (the "Framework Agreement") with International Group on March 21, 2017 for a term commencing from the Listing Date to December 31, 2019. It is expected that separate contracts will be entered into between members of the Group and International Group and its associates to provide for the terms and conditions of the specific transaction(s) in accordance with the principal terms set out in the Framework Agreement.

Principal terms

Pursuant to the Framework Agreement, the Company and International Group agreed to conduct securities and financial transactions with one another and/or their respective associates, and provide securities and financial products as well as financial services to one another, in our and their respective ordinary course of business based on normal commercial terms and market practices at prevailing market prices or rates.

A. Securities and Financial Product Transactions

We conduct securities and financial product transactions with International Group and/or its associates in our ordinary course of business from time to time.

We purchase the most suitable securities and financial products provided by different suppliers (including International Group and its associates, which are our connected persons, and Independent Third Parties) based on our internal evaluation system and procedures with reference to various factors including the cost, market condition and our risk exposure, business needs and development requirements.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

International Group and/or its associates also purchase securities and financial products from us (such as collective asset management schemes) in their ordinary course of business from time to time, taking into account their business needs and the suitability of the products we offered. Further, as part of the transactions on securities and financial products, we conduct financing transactions (including sale and repurchase of debt securities) with International Group and/or its associates from time to time.

According to the Framework Agreement, we expect that the securities and financial product transactions between us and International Group and/or its associates after the Listing include (but not limited to) the following:

- products with fixed income features - including bonds, funds, trust, wealth management products, asset management schemes, asset-backed securities products, convertible bonds, structured products, interest rates and credit risk derivative products and other fixed income products;
- other products and financing transactions - including equity-related products or transactions (including stocks, equity interest and other products with the features of equity), financing transactions (including financing transactions among financial institutions with or without guarantees), and other securities and financial products and derivative products (including lending and borrowing and repurchase, and swaps, futures, forward contracts, commodities and foreign exchange), together, the “Securities and Financial Product Transactions”.

Pricing basis

The market rates in respect of each of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions are generally transparent across the market. The commission rates and fees for the Securities and Financial Product Transactions shall be determined based on the prevailing market prices or market rates normally applicable to Independent Third Parties for similar types of transactions at the time of the transactions. To ensure that the Securities and Financial Product Transactions are on normal commercial terms and to safeguard the interests of our Shareholders as a whole, including the minority Shareholders, we have put in place internal approval and monitoring procedures relating to our connected transactions, further details of which are set out in “—Measures to Safeguard the Interests of our Shareholders” below.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Historical figures

The approximate historical figures of Securities and Financial Product Transactions entered into between us and International Group and its associates for the three years ended December 31, 2016 were as follows:

	Historical figures (RMB million)
	For the year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
Securities and Financial Product Transactions
Inflow ⁽¹⁾⁽³⁾	114.0	1,718.5	2,686.1

Notes:

- (1) “Inflow” means our total cash inflow arising from the Securities and Financial Product Transactions. During the Track Record Period, the Group conducted various types of transactions in relation to products with fixed income features while there were no transactions in respect of other types of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions.
- (2) “Outflow” means our total cash outflow arising from the Securities and Financial Product Transactions. During the Track Record Period, the Group conducted various types of transactions in relation to products with fixed income features while there were no transactions in respect of other types of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions.
- (3) The significant increases in historical figures for 2015 and 2016 are primarily due to the fact that (1) during such periods, International Group’s associates, including our connected subsidiary, Shanghai Securities, have purchased our “Jun De Li (君得利)” and “Jun De Jin (君得金)” products. The “Jun De Li (君得利)” and “Jun De Jin (君得金)” products are collective asset management plans which generally involve frequent purchase and redemption transactions and in aggregate have resulted in a large amount of cash inflow and outflow; and (2) during such periods, our asset management products have started to subscribe for the subordinated bonds issued by Shanghai Securities.

Annual caps

We consider that it is impracticable and extremely difficult to set a separate annual cap for each type of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions for the following key reasons:

- each of the securities and financial product transactions is entered into at the then prevailing market prices in the ordinary course of our business with high frequency and significant fluctuations in the value of such transactions. Such transactions are market-driven and are entered into depending on various factors including, among others, the bidding price and timing of the bids. The value of each of these transactions is determined by the market and varies from time to time and from year to year depending on various external factors that are out of our control, including the then economic conditions as well as the fluctuations in the financial markets of the PRC and Hong Kong. Accordingly, historical figures for each type of these transactions may not be a fair indication as to the expected aggregate value of the transactions for the three years ending December 31, 2019;

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

- setting an annual cap for each type of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions may adversely affect our business. Most of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions are entered into in a very short timeframe and are very sensitive to market prices. If an annual cap is set for each type of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions, it may cause significant delay to such transactions and undue disruption to our existing operations and potential growth to the detriment of the Company and our Shareholders as a whole and restrict our overall competitiveness in a highly competitive securities industry. Setting an annual cap for each type of these transactions will therefore be impracticable and extremely difficult for the Group;
- constant emergence of new products. The variety and characteristics of products are changing frequently in the ever-changing PRC securities and financial market, hence it is difficult to practically estimate with accuracy when new products will be launched;
- we play a relatively passive role in some of these transactions. As such, it is impracticable for us to estimate the expected annual value of such transactions with accuracy. For example, International Group and/or its associates may purchase our products (such as our “Jun De Li” (君得利) “Jun De Jin” (君得金) products) of its own accord. We handle such transactions with International Group and/or its associates in a manner similar to our transactions with Independent Third Parties, and we have no control over whether and which products International Group or its associates purchase or the timing or amount of their purchases; and
- all Securities and Financial Product Transactions will continue to be entered into at the then prevailing market prices or market rates in the ordinary course of our business and the business of International Group and/or its associates.

In light of the above, we consider that it is more practicable to set annual caps for the total inflow and outflow of the two categories of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions as below, instead of a separate annual cap for each type of those transactions.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

The estimated annual caps of the total inflow and outflow amount of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions for the three years ending December 31, 2019 are as follows:

	Annual caps (RMB million)
	For the year ending December 31,
	2017	2018	2019
Securities and Financial Product Transactions
Inflow
Products with fixed income features ⁽¹⁾	3,262.6	3,915.1	4,306.6
Other products and financing transactions ⁽²⁾	24.1	26.5	29.1
Total	3,286.7	3,941.6	4,335.7
Outflow
Products with fixed income features ⁽³⁾	4,942.4	5,930.8	6,523.9
Other products and financing transactions ⁽⁴⁾	20.6	22.6	24.9
Total	4,963.0	5,953.4	6,548.8

Notes:

- (1) For this category, “Inflow” means our total cash inflow arising from the sales of products with fixed income features to International Group and its associates.
- (2) For this category, “Inflow” means our total cash inflow arising from the Securities and Financial Product Transactions other than transactions of products with fixed income features.
- (3) For this category, “Outflow” means our total cash outflow arising from the purchase of products with fixed income features from International Group and its associates.
- (4) For this category, “Outflow” means our total cash outflow arising from the Securities and Financial Product Transactions other than transactions of products with fixed income features.

In estimating the annual caps of the total inflow and outflow amount of the Securities and Financial Product Transactions, we have considered, among others, the following key factors:

- historical inflow and outflow amounts and expected increase of transactions of products with fixed income features. In particular,
 - (a) the amount of the Inflow in 2015 was more than ten times of such amount in 2014. Such amount further increased by more than 50% from 2015 to 2016. The increases were attributable to the increasing demands (and associated purchases by) of International Group’s associates for the Group’s products with fixed income features (in particular, its collective asset management scheme products).
 - (b) the amount of the Outflow in 2015 was nearly nine times of that amount in 2014 and such amount had a further six-fold increase in 2016 from 2015. The increases were principally attributable to the increase of the associated Outflow amount resulting from the increasing Inflow amount discussed above and the increasing demands of (and associated purchases by) the Group for products with fixed income features offered by International Group and its associates (in particular, subscription of subordinated bonds issued by Shanghai Securities).

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

- (c) We expect that the demands for our products with fixed income features by International Group and its associates will continue to increase at an expected pace of an increase of the Inflow amount by 10-30% annually for the three years ending December 31, 2019, considering that there have been enormous market demands for high-quality fixed-income products, especially collective asset management schemes products, and our collective asset management scheme products are considered competitive among similar products.
- (d) We expect that the demands for products with fixed income features offered by International Group and its associates will continue to increase at an expected pace of an increase of the Outflow amount by 10-30% on a year on year basis for the three years ending December 31, 2019, considering that the associated increase in the amount of the Outflow resulting from the repurchase of certain products with fixed income features offered by us and purchased by International Group and its associates and the potential increase in the number and value of products of fixed income features to be offered by International Group and its associates.
- other products and financing transactions. While there have been no transactions of other products for the Securities and Financial Product Transactions other than products with fixed income features between us and International Group and/or its associates during the Track Record Period, based on our cooperation with International Group and its associates in the Track Record Period, we anticipate that they will start to purchase a relatively small amount of different types of products in addition to products with fixed income features from us on a trial basis during the three years ending December 31, 2019. In addition, considering International Group's nature as a state-owned capital operation platform, the portfolio companies held by it may conduct financing activities offering equity-related products and transaction opportunities, in which we may participate;
 - new types of securities and financial products that may be launched. We have launched 195 new collective asset management scheme products during the Track Record Period. New types of securities and financial products are expected to be launched at a fast pace by the Group and by International Group and its associates as the variety and characteristics of products are changing frequently in the ever-changing PRC securities and financial market.
 - the expected growth of the relevant business lines of the Group for the three years ending December 31, 2019;
 - expected growth of the business of International Group and its associates. As we expect the businesses of International Group and its associates to grow during the three years ending December 31, 2019, we also expect that our cooperation with them to increase; and

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

- variety of the portfolio companies held by International Group. International Group is a state-owned capital operation platform. The portfolio of entities which International Group assumes the role of a controlling shareholder may change from time to time. The additional new associates of the International Group may give rise to additional securities and financial product transactions with them.

B. Financial Services

In addition to the Securities and Financial Product Transactions, the Company and International Group and/or their respective associates also provide to each other with financial services in our and their respective ordinary course of business.

Services provided by us to International Group and/or its associates pursuant to the Framework Agreement include (but not limited to):

- underwriting and sponsoring services - including the underwriting and sponsorship services of equity and debt securities. We receive underwriting commissions and sponsor fees for such services;
- other investment banking services - including financial advisory services for, among others, M&A and restructuring. We receive financial advisory fees and/or other fees for such services;
- brokerage services - including securities brokerage and other financial products brokerage services; and
- entrusted asset management services - including asset management service for customers' entrusted assets, together, the "Financial Services Provided".

Services provided by International Group and/or its associates to us pursuant to the Framework Agreement include (but not limited to):

- financial products agency sale services - we engage the agents to sell our financial products. We pay service fees and/or other fees for such services; and
- lending services - including providing financing as our working capital or for specific projects, together, the "Financial Services Procured".

The Financial Services Provided and Financial Services Procured are collectively referred to as the "Financial Services".

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Pricing basis

The pricing basis for the Financial Services is as follows:

- underwriting and sponsorship services - underwriting commissions and sponsor fees shall be determined based on arm's length negotiation after taking into account various factors including the then prevailing market conditions, size of the proposed issuances and market commission rates of recent issuances of similar nature and size as well as the rates that we charge Independent Third Parties. The securities underwriting and sponsorship market is highly competitive and underwriting commission rates and sponsor fees are generally transparent across the market, which enables us to adopt a market-based pricing approach;
- other investment banking services - financial advisory fees and other service fees shall be determined after taking into account factors including the transaction nature and size, and the then prevailing market conditions. The fees for investment banking services are generally transparent across the market, which enables us to adopt a market-based pricing approach;
- brokerage services - the commission rates for these services are generally transparent and standardized across the market. The commission rates are determined based on arm's length negotiation with reference to the prevailing market rates for comparable securities or futures;
- financial products agency sale services - service fees shall be determined based on factors including market prices, industry practice and the total amount of financial products under the agency sale arrangements with reference to the service fee rate charged by us or International Group or its associates for comparable agency sale service provided to independent customers;
- entrusted asset management services - the fees charged for entrusted asset management services are determined based on arm's length negotiations with reference to factors including the prevailing market rates, the amount of the products being sold or the size of the assets entrusted and the complexity of the particular service provided. The market rates for these services are generally transparent across the market; and
- lending services - the interest on financing shall be determined with reference to the relevant interest rates stipulated by the PBOC for the same period, or market rates taking into account factors including the purposes and terms of financing.

The terms (including pricing terms) in respect of the Financial Services Provided shall be comparable to those provided to our other independent institutional clients of similar profile and transaction amount; in addition, the terms (including pricing terms) in respect of the Financial Services Procured shall be comparable to those offered by our other independent suppliers of a similar profile for comparable services. The Financial Services shall be subject to the same or stricter internal approval and monitoring procedures and pricing policies applicable to independent clients or independent suppliers. For further details, see “—Measures to Safeguard the Interests of Our Shareholders” below.

Historical figures

The approximate historical figures from the Financial Services for the three years ended December 31, 2016 were as follows:

	Historical figures (RMB million)
	For the year ended December 31,
	2014	2015	2016
Financial Services
Revenue generated by us
Brokerage service	0.09	0.88	2.02
Entrusted asset management services	—	—	0.29
Total	0.09	0.88	2.31
Fees paid by us
Financial products agency sale services	—	0.55	1.21
Lending services ^{Note}	54.52	119.46	9.33
Total	54.52	120.01	10.54

Note:

The significant fluctuations of the historical figures of the fees paid for the lending services during the Track Record Period were mainly because a majority of loans provided by International Group to Shanghai Securities were due and repaid in 2015, therefore the interests paid in 2016 were less compared to those in previous years.

Annual caps

The estimated annual caps of the Financial Services for the three years ending December 31, 2019 are as follows:

	Annual caps (RMB million)
	For the year ending December 31,
	2017	2018	2019
Financial Services
Revenue to be generated by us	36.88	37.33	37.78
Fees payable by us	58.71	58.83	58.94

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

In estimating the annual caps of the revenue to be generated by us from the Financial Services, we have considered, among others, the following specific key factors:

- historical amounts of the revenue we generated from the Financial Services Provided during the Track Record Period, especially considering the nearly nine-time increase from 2014 to 2015 and the nearly two-time increase from 2015 to 2016, and the different rates and fees we charged for the provision of different types of the Financial Services;
- provision of brokerage services. Based on our previous cooperation with International Group and its associates, and considering their increasing need for brokerage services base on their commercial consideration, we expect our revenue to be generated from the provision of such services to increase from the historical amounts at a rate of approximately 30-50% annually for the three years ending December 31, 2019. In addition, the trade of H Shares (including such H shares subscribed as part of the Global Offering) by International Group and/or its associates may bring us a substantial revenue from provision of brokerage services during the three years ending December 31, 2019;
- provision of underwriting and sponsoring services. While we did not provide any underwriting and sponsoring services to International Group or its associates in the Track Record Period, based on the discussion with International Group and the potential needs of International Group including the outlook of its business and pipeline of transactions, we expect to start to provide underwriting and sponsoring services to International Group and/or its associates for the three years ending December 31, 2019. In addition, the demands of our clients (including International Group and its associates) for underwriting and sponsoring services are transaction-specific and time sensitive and a large-amount fee can be generated for a single transaction and/or a series of transactions;
- provision of other investment banking services. While we did not provide any investment banking services to International Group or its associates in the Track Record Period, based on the discussion with International Group about the prospects of our cooperation, especially considering its needs for advisory services in respect of its operation of state-owned capital, we expect to start to provide other investment banking services to International and/or its associates during the three years ending December 31, 2019;
- entrusted asset management services. Considering that we have started to provide such services to International Group and its associates in 2016, and the increasing demands of International Group and its associates, we expect our revenue generated from the provision of such services to increase at a rate of approximately 20-30% annually for the three years ending December 31, 2019;
- as we expect the businesses of International Group and its associates to grow during the three years ending December 31, 2019, we also expect that our cooperation with them to increase;

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

- the expected growth of the relevant business lines of the Group for the three years ended December 31, 2016; and
- the PRC securities market is expected to further develop alongside the economic growth, market reforms and increasingly diversified product and service offerings, which will in turn lead to increases in our transaction with International Group and/or its associates.

In estimating the annual caps of the fees payable by us for procuring financial services from International Group and its associates, we have considered, among others, the following specific key factors:

- historical amount. The fees paid by us for the Financial Services Procured during the Track Record Period, including the different service rates and fees they charged for the provision of different types of financial services.
- procurement of financial products agency sale services. Our needs of the financial products agency sale services increase along with the increases of our transactions of financial products as we procure the services of certain associates of International Group for the sale of such products. Based on the historical increases of the fees paid by us to International Group and its associates for procurement of such services and our expected growth of the transaction of financial products, we expect such fees will increase at a rate of approximately 20-50% annually during the three years ending December 31, 2019;
- procurement of lending services. Based on our current estimation of the funding needs of the Company and its subsidiaries, we expect the fees to be paid to International Group and its associates for their lending services annually will be more close to an moderate amount, such as the amount to that of 2014, with an approximately 10-15% annual increase during the three years ending December 31, 2019;
- as we expect the businesses of International Group and its associates to grow during the three years ending December 31, 2019, we also expect that our cooperation with them to increase;
- the expected growth of the relevant business lines of the Group for the three years ended December 31, 2016; and
- the PRC securities market is expected to further develop alongside the economic growth, market reforms and increasingly diversified product and service offerings, which will in turn lead to increases in our transaction with International Group and/or its associates.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

In addition, the proposed annual caps are determined after taking into account the factor of inflation and under the assumptions that there will not be any material and adverse changes in market conditions, operational and business environment or government policies which may have material impact on the business of the Group and that of International Group and/or its associates during the relevant periods under projection.

Implications under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and Waivers from Strict Compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules

The highest applicable percentage ratio in respect of the transactions under the Framework Agreement is above 0.1% but less than 5%. Such transactions, therefore, shall be subject to the reporting, annual review and announcement requirements but exempted from independent shareholders' approval requirement under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. As the Framework Agreement is expected to continue on a recurring and continuing basis, our Directors consider that strict compliance with the announcement requirement would be impracticable, unduly burdensome and would impose unnecessary administrative costs upon us.

Accordingly, we have applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted to us, a waiver under Rule 14A.105 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules from strict compliance with the announcement requirement under Rule 14A.35 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the transactions under the Framework Agreement.

In the event of any future amendments to the Hong Kong Listing Rules imposing more stringent requirements than those applicable as of the Latest Practicable Date on the continuing connected transactions referred to in this prospectus, we will take immediate steps to ensure compliance with such new requirements within a reasonable time.

Measures to Safeguard the Interests of our Shareholders

To safeguard the interests of our Shareholders as a whole, including the minority Shareholders, we have put in place internal approval and monitoring procedures relating to our connected transactions, which include the following:

- in the offer or sale of the same batch of securities or financial products to customers (including both connected persons and Independent Third Parties), we will offer the same pricing terms to all customers and no preferential terms shall be provided to the customers who are our connected persons; and
- we have formulated internal guidelines according to Hong Kong Listing Rules, which provide approval procedures for connect transactions.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Our independent non-executive Directors and auditors will conduct an annual review of our continuing connected transactions (including the rates offered by and to International Group and its associates) and provide annual confirmations in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules that the individual transactions are conducted in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreements (including the Framework Agreement), on normal commercial terms and in accordance with our pricing policy and in the interests of our Shareholders as a whole.

Confirmation from our Directors

Our Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the continuing connected transactions under the Framework Agreement have been and will be entered into in our ordinary course of business and on normal commercial terms, and are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. The proposed annual caps for those transactions are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the shareholders as a whole.

Confirmation from the Joint Sponsors

The Joint Sponsors are of the view that the continuing connected transactions under the Framework Agreement have been entered into in the ordinary course of business of the Company and on normal commercial terms, and are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. The proposed annual caps for those transactions are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

FUTURE PLANS

Please see “Business — Business Strategies” for a detailed discussion of our future plans.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share, we estimate that we will receive net proceeds of approximately HK$16,040.6 million from the Global Offering after deducting the underwriting expenses, commissions and estimated expenses in connection with the Global Offering.

We intend to use the net proceeds from the Global Offering in the following manner:

- approximately 30%, or HK$4,812.2 million, will be used for the development of institutional finance businesses and the improvement of integrated financial services capabilities, including:
 - (i) development of prime brokerage business;
 - (ii) development of new FICC business and corporate client solutions business with high technical added-value and low capital risk; and
 - (iii) investment in capital-based intermediary services to satisfy the business needs of our onshore and overseas customers in order to improve our integrated financial services capabilities;
- approximately 30%, or HK$4,812.2 million, will be used for the development of personal finance services businesses, including:
 - (i) investment in IT and financial technology products and services in order to improve customer experiences;
 - (ii) expanding our products portfolio to further enhance the comprehensiveness of the personal financial products in order to satisfy the financing and investment needs of onshore and overseas customers; and
 - (iii) investment in the establishment of new securities branches and upgrading high-income branches to high-end wealth management centers in order to further expand our multi-tiered branches network;
- approximately 15%, or HK$2,406.1 million, will be used for the development of investment management business and expansion of the AUM by further strengthening our asset management capability both onshore and overseas, enhancing our product innovation and expanding the business scale;

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

- approximately 15%, or HK$2,406.1 million, will be used for the development of our international business, including:
 - (i) providing capital support for the business expansion of our overseas subsidiaries; and
 - (ii) joint business development in investment banking, asset management, and brokerage and trading services through collaboration, such as joint ventures, with leading international financial institutions;
- approximately 10%, or HK$1,604.0 million, will be used for additional working capital and other general corporate purposes.

Assuming the Over-allotment Option is fully exercised and based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share, we would receive net proceeds of HK$18,462.0 million.

If the actual amount of proceeds is lower than the estimated amounts above, we will adjust our allocation of the net proceeds for the above purposes on a pro rata basis. Similarly, if the actual amount of proceeds is more than the estimated amounts above, we intend to use the additional proceeds for the same purposes as set out above on a pro rata basis.

To the extent that the net proceeds are not immediately used for the purposes described above, and subject to applicable laws, regulations, the SSE Listing Rules and Hong Kong Listing Rules, we intend to use the net proceeds for short-term investment in liquid assets.

This prospectus is published solely in connection with the Hong Kong Public Offering. The Hong Kong Public Offering is fully underwritten by the Hong Kong Underwriters on a conditional basis on the terms and conditions set out in this prospectus, the Application Forms relating thereto and the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement. The International Offering is expected to be fully underwritten by the International Underwriters.

The Global Offering comprises the Hong Kong Public Offering of initially 52,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares and the International Offering of initially 988,000,000 International Offer Shares, subject, in each case, to reallocation on the basis as described in “Structure of the Global Offering” as well as to the Over-allotment Option in the case of the International Offering.

UNDERWRITING ARRANGEMENTS AND EXPENSES

The Hong Kong Public Offering

Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement, we are offering Hong Kong Offer Shares for subscription by the public in Hong Kong in accordance with the terms and conditions of this prospectus and the Application Forms relating thereto.

UNDERWRITING

Subject to (i) the Listing Committee granting listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares to be offered as mentioned in this prospectus pursuant to the Global Offering (including any additional H Shares that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option) and (ii) certain other conditions set out in the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement, the Hong Kong Underwriters have agreed severally and not jointly to subscribe or procure subscribers for their respective applicable proportions of the Hong Kong Offer Shares now being offered which are not taken up under the Hong Kong Public Offering on the terms and conditions of this prospectus and the Application Forms relating thereto and the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement.

The Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement is conditional on and subject to, amongst others, the International Underwriting Agreement having been signed and becoming unconditional and not having been terminated in accordance with its terms.

Grounds for Termination

The obligations of the Hong Kong Underwriters to subscribe or procure subscribers for the Hong Kong Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement are subject to termination. If at any time prior to 8:00 a.m. on the day that trading in the H Shares commences on the Stock Exchange:

- (1) there develops, occurs, exists or comes into force:

then the Joint Representatives may (for themselves and on behalf of the Joint Bookrunners and the Hong Kong Underwriters), in their sole and absolute discretion and upon giving notice in writing to the Company, terminate the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement with immediate effect. Only for the purpose of this paragraph, the reference to the Joint Representatives includes The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited.

Undertakings to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange pursuant to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

(A) Undertakings by the Company

Pursuant to Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and subject to the waiver from Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules to be granted by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in relation to the issue of Convertible Bonds, we have undertaken to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that we will not issue any further Shares or securities convertible into equity securities (whether or not of a class already listed) or enter into any agreement to such issue within six months from the date on which our securities first commence dealings on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (whether or not such issue of Shares or securities will be completed within six months from the commencement of dealings), except pursuant to the Global Offering, the Over-allotment Option or any of the circumstances provided under Rule 10.08 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement, we have undertaken to each of the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Hong Kong Underwriters that except the offer of the Offer Shares pursuant to the Global Offering (including any additional H Shares that may be issued pursuant to the Over-allotment Option and any H Shares to be converted from A Shares and transferred to NSSF) and saved as disclosed in the Offering Documents, at any time after the date of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement up to and including the date falling six months after the Listing Date (the “First Six Month Period”), it will not, without the prior written consent of the Joint Sponsors and the Joint

Representatives (for themselves and on behalf of the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Bookrunners and the Hong Kong Underwriters) and unless in compliance with the requirements of the Listing Rules:

- (a) allot, issue, sell, accept subscription for, offer to allot, issue or sell, contract or agree to allot, issue or sell, mortgage, charge, pledge, assign, hypothecate, lend, grant or sell any option, warrant, contract or right to subscribe for or purchase, grant or purchase any option, warrant, contract or right to allot, issue or sell, or otherwise transfer or dispose of or create an encumbrance (as defined in the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement) over, or agree to transfer or dispose of or create an encumbrance over, either directly or indirectly, conditionally or unconditionally, or repurchase, any equity securities of the Company, as applicable, or any interest in any of the foregoing (including, without limitation, any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or that represents the right to receive, or any warrants or other rights to purchase any equity securities of the Company, as applicable), or deposit any equity securities of the Company (including, without limitation, any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or that represents the right to receive, or any warrants or other rights to purchase any equity securities of the Company, as applicable), with a depository in connection with the issue of depository receipts; or
- (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership (legal or beneficial) of Shares or any other equity securities of the Company, as applicable, or any interest in any of the foregoing (including, without limitation, any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or that represent the right to receive, or any warrants or other rights to purchase, any Shares); or
- (c) enter into any transaction with the same economic effect as any transaction described in paragraph (a) or (b) above; or
- (d) offer to or agree to do any of the foregoing or announce any intention to effect any transaction described in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) above, in each case, whether any of the foregoing transactions is to be settled by delivery of such equity securities, in cash or otherwise (whether or not the issue of such share capital or other securities will be completed within the First Six Month Period). We have further undertaken that, in the event we are allowed to enter into any of the transactions described in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) above or offer to or agree to or announce any intention to effect any such transaction during the period of six months commencing on the date on which the First Six Month Period expires (the “Second Six Month Period”), we will take all reasonable steps to ensure that such an issue or disposal will not, and no other act of the Company will, create a disorderly or false market for any H Shares or other securities of the Company.

UNDERWRITING

(B) Undertakings by the Controlling Shareholder

Pursuant to Rule 10.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Controlling Shareholder has undertaken to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and to the Company that except pursuant to the Global Offering, he/she/it will not and will procure that the relevant registered holder(s) of the Shares will not:

- (a) in the period commencing on the date by reference to which disclosure of his/her/its shareholding in the Company is made in this prospectus and ending on the date on which the First Six-Month Period expires, dispose of, or enter into any agreement to dispose of or otherwise create any options, rights, interests or encumbrances in respect of, any of the Shares or securities of the Company in respect of which he/she/it is shown by this prospectus to be the beneficial owner; and
- (b) in the Second Six-Month Period, dispose of, or enter into any agreement to dispose of or otherwise create any options, rights, interests or encumbrances in respect of, any of the Shares or securities referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph (i) above if, immediately following such disposal or upon the exercise or enforcement of such options, rights, interests or encumbrances, he/she/it would cease to be a controlling shareholder (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of the Company.

Pursuant to Note 3 to Rule 10.07(2) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, each of the Controlling Shareholders has undertaken to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and to the Company that he/she/it will, within the period commencing on the date by reference to which disclosure of his/her/its shareholding in the Company is made in this prospectus and ending on the date which is 12 months from the Listing Date:

- (i) upon any pledge or charge in favor of an authorized institution (as defined in the Banking Ordinance (Chapter 155 of the Laws of Hong Kong)) of any Shares or securities or interests in the Shares or securities of the Company beneficially owned by him/her/it for a bona fide commercial loan, immediately inform the Company, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Representatives and the Joint Global Coordinators in writing of such pledge or charge together with the number of such Shares or securities so pledged or charged; and
- (ii) upon any indication received by him/her/it, either verbal or written, from any pledgee or chargee of Shares or other securities of the Company pledged or charged that any of the pledged or charged Shares or securities or interests in the Shares or securities of the Company will be disposed of, immediately inform the Company and the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Representatives and the Joint Global Coordinators in writing of such indication.

We will also inform the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as soon as we have been informed of the above matters (if any) by the Controlling Shareholder and disclose such matters by way of an announcement which is published in accordance with Rule 2.07C of the Hong Kong Listing Rules as soon as possible after being so informed by the Controlling Shareholder.

Hong Kong Underwriters' Interests in the Company

Except for its obligations under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and save as disclosed in this prospectus, none of the Hong Kong Underwriters has any shareholding interest in the Company or any right or option (whether legally enforceable or not) to subscribe for or nominate persons to subscribe for securities in the Company.

UNDERWRITING

Following the completion of the Global Offering, the Hong Kong Underwriters and their affiliated companies may hold a certain portion of the H Shares as a result of fulfilling their obligations under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement.

The International Offering

International Underwriting Agreement

In connection with the International Offering, it is expected that we will enter into the International Underwriting Agreement with, among others, the International Underwriters. Under the International Underwriting Agreement, subject to the conditions set out therein, it is expected that the International Underwriters would, severally and not jointly, agree to procure purchasers for, or to purchase, Offer Shares being offered pursuant to the International Offering (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the Offer Shares which are subject to the Over-allotment Option). It is expected that the International Underwriting Agreement may be terminated on similar grounds as the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement. Potential investors are reminded that in the event that the International Underwriting Agreement is not entered into, the Global Offering will not proceed.

Over-allotment Option

We expect to grant to the International Underwriters, exercisable by the Joint Representatives (on behalf of the International Underwriters), the Over-allotment Option, which will be exercisable from the Listing Date until 30 days after the last day for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, to require the Company to allot and issue up to an aggregate of 156,000,000 H Shares, representing no more than 15% of the initial Offer Shares, at the same price per Offer Share under the International Offering, to, among other things, cover over-allocations in the International Offering, if any.

Commissions and Expenses

The Underwriters will receive a commission of 2% of the aggregate Offer Price of all the Offer Shares, out of which they will pay any sub-underwriting commissions.

For unsubscribed Hong Kong Offer Shares reallocated to the International Offering, we will pay the underwriting commission attributable to such reallocated Hong Kong Offer Shares to the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators and the relevant International Underwriters (but not the Hong Kong Underwriters). The underwriting commission was determined between the Company and the Underwriters after arm's length negotiations with reference to current market conditions.

The aggregate commissions and fees, together with Hong Kong Stock Exchange listing fees, SFC transaction levy and Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee, legal and other professional fees and printing and all other expenses relating to the Global Offering, which are estimated to amount in aggregate to approximately RMB384.2 million (based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share and assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised at all), are payable and borne by the Company.

UNDERWRITING

Joint Sponsors' Fee

An amount of US$500,000 is payable by the Company as sponsor fees to each of the Joint Sponsors, totaling an amount of US$2,000,000.

Other Services Provided by the Underwriters

The Joint Global Coordinators and the Underwriters may in their ordinary course of business provide financing to investors subscribing for the Offer Shares offered by this prospectus. Such Joint Global Coordinators and Underwriters may enter into hedges and/or dispose of such Offer Shares in relation to the financing which may have a negative impact on the trading price of the H Shares.

Indemnity

We have agreed to indemnify, among others, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers and the Hong Kong Underwriters for certain losses which they may suffer, including, among other matters, losses arising from the performance of their obligations under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and any breach by us of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement as the case may be.

INDEPENDENCE OF THE JOINT SPONSORS

Each of Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C. and Merrill Lynch Far East Limited satisfies the independence criteria applicable to sponsors set out in Rule 3A.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Guotai Junan Capital Limited is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Guotai Junan International Holding Limited, of which the Company is a controlling shareholder interested in 64.91% as of the Latest Practicable Date. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company's controlling shareholder, International Group, holds (directly and indirectly) approximately 26.55% equity interest of SPD Bank which indirectly holds 100% equity interest in SPDB International Capital Limited. Therefore, International Group indirectly holds 26.55% equity interest in SPDB International Capital Limited and is its indirect single largest shareholder. As confirmed by International Group and SPD Bank, International Group does not have any control over the composition of a majority of the board of directors of SPD Bank, thus it is not the controlling shareholder of SPD Bank or SPDB International Capital Limited. Based on the facts above, SPDB International Capital Limited satisfies the independence criteria applicable to sponsors as set out in Rule 3A.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

ACTIVITIES BY SYNDICATE MEMBERS

The underwriters of the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering (together, the "Syndicate Members") and their affiliates may each individually undertake a variety of activities (as further described below) which do not form part of the underwriting or stabilizing process.

The Syndicate Members and their affiliates are diversified financial institutions with relationships in countries around the world. These entities engage in a wide range of commercial and investment banking, brokerage, funds management, trading, hedging, investing and other activities for their own account and for the account of others. In relation to the H Shares, those activities could include acting as agent for buyers and sellers of the H Shares, entering into transactions with those buyers and sellers in a principal capacity, proprietary trading in the H Shares, and entering into over-the-counter or listed derivative transactions or listed and unlisted securities transactions (including issuing securities such as derivative warrants listed on a stock exchange) which have as their underlying assets, assets including the H Shares. Those activities may require hedging activity by those entities involving, directly or indirectly, the buying and selling of the H Shares. All such activity could occur in Hong Kong and elsewhere in the world and may result in the Syndicate Members and their affiliates holding long and/or short positions in the H Shares, in baskets of securities or indices including the H Shares, in units of funds that may purchase the H Shares, or in derivatives related to any of the foregoing.

In relation to issues by Syndicate Members or their affiliates of any listed securities having the H Shares as their underlying securities, whether on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or on any other stock exchange, the rules of the exchange may require the issuer of those securities (or one of its affiliates or agents) to act as a market maker or liquidity provider in the security, and this will also result in hedging activity in the H Shares in most cases.

All such activities may occur both during and after the end of the stabilizing period described in “Structure of the Global Offering”. Such activities may affect the market price or value of the H Shares, the liquidity or trading volume in the H Shares and the volatility of the price of the H Shares, and the extent to which this occurs from day to day cannot be estimated.

It should be noted that when engaging in any of these activities, the Syndicate Members will be subject to certain restrictions, including the following:

- (a) the Syndicate Members (other than the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it) must not, in connection with the distribution of the Offer Shares, effect any transactions (including issuing or entering into any option or other derivative transactions relating to the Offer Shares), whether in the open market or otherwise, with a view to stabilizing or maintaining the market price of any of the Offer Shares at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market; and
- (b) the Syndicate Members must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including the market misconduct provisions of the SFO, including the provisions prohibiting insider dealing, false trading, price rigging and stock market manipulation.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

THE GLOBAL OFFERING

This prospectus is published in connection with the Hong Kong Public Offering as part of the Global Offering. The Global Offering comprises:

- (i) the Hong Kong Public Offering of 52,000,000 H Shares in Hong Kong as described in “—Hong Kong Public Offering” below; and
- (ii) the International Offering of an aggregate of initially 988,000,000 H Shares to be offered (i) in the United States to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A or another exemption from, or in transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and (ii) outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S. At any time from the date of the International Underwriting Agreement until 30 days after the last day for the lodging of applications in the Hong Kong Public Offering, the Joint Representatives, as representatives of the International Underwriters, have an option to require the Company to issue and allot up to an aggregate of 156,000,000 additional Offer Shares, representing 15% of the initial number of Offer Shares to be offered in the Global Offering, at the Offer Price to, among other things, cover over-allocations in the International Offering, if any.

Investors may apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering or apply for or indicate an interest for International Offer Shares under the International Offering, but may not do both.

The Offer Shares will represent approximately 12% of the enlarged issued share capital of the Company immediately after completion of the Global Offering without taking into account the exercise of the Over-allotment Option. If the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, the Offer Shares will represent approximately 13.56% of the enlarged issued share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering and the exercise of the Over-allotment Option as set out in the section headed “Structure of the Global Offering—The International Offering—Over-allotment Option” below.

The number of Offer Shares to be offered under the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering may be subject to reallocation as described in “—The Hong Kong Public Offering—Reallocation” below.

THE HONG KONG PUBLIC OFFERING

Number of Offer Shares initially offered

The Company is initially offering 52,000,000 H Shares for subscription by the public in Hong Kong at the Offer Price, representing 5% of the total number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

The Hong Kong Public Offering is open to members of the public in Hong Kong as well as to institutional and professional investors. The Hong Kong Offer Shares will represent approximately 0.6% of the Company's registered share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering, assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and none of the Convertible Bonds is converted. Professional investors generally include brokers, dealers, companies (including fund managers) whose ordinary business involves dealing in shares and other securities and corporate entities which regularly invest in shares and other securities.

Completion of the Hong Kong Public Offering is subject to the conditions as set out in “—Conditions of the Global Offering” below.

Allocation

Allocation of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to investors under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be based solely on the level of valid applications received under the Hong Kong Public Offering. The basis of allocation may vary, depending on the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares validly applied for by applicants. Such allocation could, where appropriate, consist of balloting, which would mean that some applicants may receive a higher allocation than others who have applied for the same number of Hong Kong Offer Shares, and those applicants who are not successful in the ballot may not receive any Hong Kong Offer Shares.

The total number of the Hong Kong Offer Shares initially available under the Hong Kong Public Offering (after taking account of any reallocation referred to below) is to be divided into two pools for allocation purposes: pool A and pool B. The Hong Kong Offer Shares in pool A will be allocated on an equitable basis to applicants who have applied for the Hong Kong Offer Shares with an aggregate price of HK$5 million (excluding the brokerage, SFC transaction levy and Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee payable) or less. The Hong Kong Offer Shares in pool B will be allocated on an equitable basis to applicants who have applied for the Hong Kong Offer Shares with an aggregate price of more than HK$5 million (excluding the brokerage, SFC transaction levy and Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee payable) and up to the total value in pool B. Investors should be aware that applications in pool A and applications in pool B may receive different allocation ratios. If the Hong Kong Offer Shares in one (but not both) of the pools are undersubscribed, the surplus Hong Kong Offer Shares will be transferred to the other pool to satisfy demand in this other pool and be allocated accordingly.

For the purpose of the immediate preceding paragraph only, the “price” for Offer Shares means the price payable on application therefor. Applicants can only receive an allocation of Offer Shares from either pool A or pool B but not from both pools. Multiple or suspected multiple applications and any application for more than 26,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares are liable to be rejected.

Reallocation

The allocation of Offer Shares between the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering is subject to adjustment. Paragraph 4.2 of Practice Note 18 of the Listing Rules requires a clawback mechanism to be put in place which would have the effect of increasing the number of Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering to a certain percentage of the total number of Offer

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Shares offered under the Global Offering if certain prescribed total demand levels are reached. An application has been made to the Stock Exchange for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with paragraph 4.2 of Practice Note 18 of the Listing Rules such that, provided the initial allocation of Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering shall not be less than 5% of the Global Offering, in the event of oversubscription, the Joint Representatives shall apply a clawback mechanism following the closing of the application lists on the following basis:

- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 15 times or more but less than 50 times of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 78,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 7.5% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering;
- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 50 times or more but less than 100 times of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of the Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 104,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 10.0% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering; and
- if the number of the Offer Shares validly applied for under the Hong Kong Public Offering represents 100 times or more of the number of the Offer Shares initially available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering, then the number of Offer Shares to be reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering from the International Offering will be increased, so that the total number of the Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be 208,000,000 H Shares, representing approximately 20.0% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering.

In each case, the additional Offer Shares reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering will be allocated between pool A and pool B and the number of Offer Shares allocated to the International Offering will be correspondingly reduced in such manner as the Joint Representatives deem appropriate. In addition, the Joint Representatives may allocate Offer Shares from the International Offering to the Hong Kong Public Offering to satisfy valid applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

If the Hong Kong Public Offering is not fully subscribed, the Joint Representatives have the authority to reallocate all or any unsubscribed Hong Kong Public Offer Shares to the International Offering, in such proportions as the Joint Representatives deem appropriate.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Applications

Each applicant under the Hong Kong Public Offering will also be required to give an undertaking and confirmation in the application submitted by him/her that he/she and any person(s) for whose benefit he/she is making the application have not applied for or taken up, or indicated an interest for, and will not apply for or take up, or indicate an interest for, any Offer Shares under the International Offering, and such applicant's application is liable to be rejected if the said undertaking and/or confirmation is breached and/or untrue (as the case may be) or it has been or will be placed or allocated Offer Shares under the International Offering.

The listing of the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is sponsored by the Joint Sponsors. Applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering are required to pay, on application, the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Hong Kong Offer Share in addition to any brokerage, SFC transaction levy and Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee payable on each Hong Kong Offer Share. Further details are set out below in the section headed "How to Apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares."

References in this prospectus to applications, Application Forms, application monies or the procedure for application relate solely to the Hong Kong Public Offering.

THE INTERNATIONAL OFFERING

Number of Offer Shares offered

Subject to reallocation as described above, the International Offering will consist of an initial offering of 988,000,000 International Offer Shares representing 95% of the Offer Shares under the Global Offering and approximately 11.4% of the Company's enlarged share capital immediately after the completion of the Global Offering, assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.

Allocation

The International Offering will include selective marketing of the International Offer Shares to institutional and professional investors and other investors anticipated to have a sizeable demand for such International Offer Shares. Professional investors generally include brokers, dealers, companies (including fund managers) whose ordinary business involves dealing in shares and other securities and corporate entities which regularly invest in shares and other securities. Allocation of the International Offer Shares pursuant to the International Offering will be effected in accordance with the "book-building" process described in "—Pricing of the Global Offering" below and based on a number of factors, including the level and timing of demand, the total size of the relevant investor's invested assets or equity assets in the relevant sector and whether or not it is expected that the relevant investor is likely to buy further Offer Shares, and/or hold or sell its Offer Shares, after the listing of the Offer Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Such allocation is intended to result in a distribution of the Offer Shares on a basis which would lead to the establishment of a solid professional and institutional shareholder base to the benefit of the Company and our Shareholders as a whole.

The Joint Representatives (on behalf of the Underwriters) may require any investor who has been offered the International Offer Shares under the International Offering, and who has made an application under the Hong Kong Public Offering to provide sufficient information to the Joint Representatives so as to allow them to identify the relevant application under the Hong Kong Public Offering and to ensure that it is excluded from any application of the Hong Kong Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

Over-allotment Option

In connection with the Global Offering, we are expected to grant an Over-allotment Option to the International Underwriters exercisable by the Joint Representatives on behalf of the International Underwriters.

Pursuant to the Over-allotment Option, the Joint Representatives have the right, exercisable at any time from the date of the International Underwriting Agreement until 30 days after the last date for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, to require the Company to issue and allot up to an aggregate of 156,000,000 additional Offer Shares, representing 15% of the initial Offer Shares, at the same price per Offer Share under the International Offering to cover, among other things, over-allocation in the International Offering, if any. If the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, the additional Offer Shares will represent approximately 1.77% of the Company's enlarged share capital immediately following the completion of the Global Offering and the exercise of the Over-allotment Option. In the event that the Over-allotment Option is exercised, a press announcement will be made.

STABILIZATION

Stabilization is a practice used by underwriters in some markets to facilitate the distribution of securities. To stabilize, the underwriters may bid for, or purchase, the securities in the secondary market, during a specified period of time, to retard and, if possible, prevent, any decline in the market price of the securities below the offer price. In Hong Kong and certain other jurisdictions, the price at which stabilization is effected is not permitted to exceed the offer price.

In connection with the Global Offering, the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for them, on behalf of the Underwriters, may over-allocate or effect short sales or any other stabilizing transactions with a view to stabilizing or maintaining the market price of the H Shares at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Short sales involve the sale by the Stabilizing Manager of a greater number of H Shares than the Underwriters are required to purchase in the Global Offering. "Covered" short sales are sales made in an amount not greater than the Over-allotment Option. The Stabilizing Manager may close out the covered short position by either exercising the Over-allotment Option to purchase additional H Shares or purchasing H Shares in the open market. In determining the source of the H Shares to close out the covered short position, the Stabilizing Manager will consider, among others, the price of H Shares in the open market as compared to the price at which they may purchase additional H Shares pursuant to the Over-allotment Option. Stabilizing transactions consist of certain bids or purchases made for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the H Shares while the Global Offering is in progress. Any market purchases of the H Shares may be effected on any stock exchange, including the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, any over-the-counter market or otherwise, provided that they are made in compliance with all applicable laws and regulatory requirements. However, there is no obligation on the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it to conduct any such stabilizing activity, which if commenced, will be done at the absolute discretion of the Stabilizing Manager and may be discontinued at any time. Any such stabilizing activity is required to be brought to an end within 30 days of the last day for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

The number of the H Shares that may be over-allocated will not exceed the number of the H Shares that may be sold under the Over-allotment Option, namely, 156,000,000 H Shares, which is 15% of the number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering, in the event that the whole or part of the Over-allotment Option is exercised.

In Hong Kong, stabilizing activities must be carried out in accordance with the Securities and Futures (Price Stabilizing) Rules. Stabilizing actions permitted pursuant to the Securities and Futures (Price Stabilizing) Rules include:

- (a) over-allocation for the purpose of preventing or minimizing any reduction in the market price;
- (b) selling or agreeing to sell the H Shares so as to establish a short position in them for the purpose of preventing or minimizing any deduction in the market price;
- (c) subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, for the H Shares pursuant to the Over-allotment Option in order to close out any position established under (a) or (b) above;
- (d) purchasing, or agreeing to purchase, the H Shares for the sole purpose of preventing or minimizing any reduction in the market price;
- (e) selling the H Shares to liquidate a long position held as a result of those purchases; and
- (f) offering or attempting to do anything described in (b), (c), (d) and (e) above.

Stabilizing actions by the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, will be entered into in accordance with the laws, rules and regulations in place in Hong Kong on stabilization.

As 14.9 million H Shares to be issued upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option will be reserved for subscription by Shenzhen Investment Holdings, the over-allocations in the International Offering will include the conditional allocation of 14.9 million H Shares to Shenzhen Investment Holdings. However, as Shenzhen Investment Holdings' subscription of such additional H Shares is conditional and the actual number, if any, of additional H Shares to be subscribed cannot be ascertained until the exercise of the Over-allotment Option (and the extent of such exercise), only over-allocations up to 141.1 million H Shares (representing approximately 13.6% of the number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering) will be certain upon the Listing. In view of the above limitation in the over-allocations in the International Offering, the primary stabilization actions to be carried out by the Stabilizing Manager will be curtailed by the number of 14.9 million

H Shares as the Stabilizing Manager would otherwise do in the case where there is no such limitation in the over-allocations in the International Offering. For further details of the subscription by Shenzhen Investment Holdings in the Global Offering, see “Waivers and Consents under the Hong Kong Listing Rules — Subscription of H Shares by International Group and Shenzhen Investment Holdings”.

As a result of effecting transactions to stabilize or maintain the market price of the H Shares, the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, may maintain a long position in the H Shares. The size of the long position, and the period for which the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, will maintain the long position is at the discretion of the Stabilizing Manager and is uncertain. In the event that the Stabilizing Manager liquidates this long position by making sales in the open market, this may lead to a decline in the market price of the H Shares.

Stabilizing action by the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, is not permitted to support the price of the H Shares for longer than the stabilizing period, which begins on the day on which trading of the H Shares commences on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and ends on the thirtieth day after the last day for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. The stabilizing period is expected to end on April 30, 2017. As a result, demand for the H Shares, and their market price, may fall after the end of the stabilizing period. These activities by the Stabilizing Manager may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the H Shares. As a result, the price of the H Shares may be higher than the price that otherwise may exist in the open market. Any stabilizing action taken by the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, may not necessarily result in the market price of the H Shares staying at or above the Offer Price either during or after the stabilizing period. Bids for or market purchases of the H Shares by the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, may be made at a price at or below the Offer Price and therefore at or below the price paid for the H Shares by applicants. A public announcement in compliance with the Securities and Futures (Price Stabilizing) Rules will be made within seven days of the expiration of the stabilizing period.

PRICING OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

The International Underwriters will be soliciting from prospective investors' indications of interest in acquiring the International Offer Shares in the International Offering. Prospective professional and institutional investors will be required to specify the number of the International Offer Shares under the International Offering they would be prepared to acquire. This process, known as “book-building,” is expected to continue up to, and to cease on or around, the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

The Offer Price is HK$15.84 unless otherwise announced, as further explained below, not later than the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. Applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering are required to pay, on application, the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Hong Kong Offer Share in addition to any brokerage, SFC transaction levy and Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee payable on each Hong Kong Offer Share.

The Joint Representatives, on behalf of the Underwriters, may, where considered appropriate, based on the level of interest expressed by prospective professional and institutional investors during the book-building process, and with the consent of the Company, reduce the number of Offer Shares offered in the Global Offering and/or the Offer Price below that stated in this prospectus at any time on or prior to the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. In such a case, the Company will, as soon as practicable following the decision to make such reduction, and in any event not later than the morning of the day which is the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, cause there to be published in South China Morning Post (in English) and Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) and to be posted on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (www.hkexnews.hk) and on the website of the Company (www.gtja.com) notices of the reduction. Upon issue of such a notice, the revised number of Offer Shares offered in the Global Offering and/or the Offer Price will be final and conclusive. Applicants should have regard to the possibility that any announcement of a reduction in the number of Offer Shares being offered under the Global Offering and/or the Offer Price may not be made until the day which is the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. Such notice will also include confirmation or revision, as appropriate, of the Global Offering statistics as currently set out in this prospectus, and any other financial information which may change as a result of such reduction.

In the event of a reduction in the number of Offer Shares being offered under the Global Offering, the Joint Representatives may at their discretion reallocate the number of Offer Shares to be offered under the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering, provided that the number of the Hong Kong Offer Shares comprised in the Hong Kong Public Offering shall not be less than 5% of the total number of Hong Kong Offer Shares in the Global Offering. The International Offer Shares to be offered in the International Offering and the Offer Shares to be offered in the Hong Kong Public Offering may, in certain circumstances, be reallocated as between these offerings at the discretion of the Joint Representatives.

On the basis that the Offer Price per Hong Kong Offer Share is HK$15.84, the net proceeds of the Global Offering accruing to the Company (after deduction of underwriting commissions and other expenses in relation to the Global Offering, assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) are estimated to be approximately HK$16,040.6 million (or if the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, approximately HK$18,462.0 million).

The level of indications of interest in the Global Offering, the results of applications and the basis of allotment of the Hong Kong Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering, are expected to be announced on Monday, April 10, 2017 in the South China Morning Post (in English) and the Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) and to be posted on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (www.hkexnews.hk) and on the website of the Company (www.gtja.com).

HONG KONG UNDERWRITING AGREEMENT

The Hong Kong Public Offering is fully underwritten by the Hong Kong Underwriters under the terms of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and is conditional upon the International Underwriting Agreement being signed and becoming unconditional.

The Company expects to enter into the International Underwriting Agreement relating to the International Offering on or around 31 March 2017.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

These underwriting arrangements, and the respective Underwriting Agreements, are summarized in “Underwriting.”

ADMISSION OF THE H SHARES INTO CCASS

All necessary arrangements have been made enabling the H Shares to be admitted into CCASS.

If the Hong Kong Stock Exchange grants the listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares and the Company complies with the stock admission requirements of HKSCC, the H Shares will be accepted as eligible securities by HKSCC for deposit, clearance and settlement in CCASS with effect from the date of commencement of dealings in the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or any other date HKSCC chooses. Settlement of transactions between participants of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is required to take place in CCASS on the second Business Day after any trading day.

All activities under CCASS are subject to the General Rules of CCASS and CCASS Operational Procedures in effect from time to time.

DEALING

Assuming that the Hong Kong Public Offering becomes unconditional at or before 8:00 a.m. in Hong Kong on Tuesday, April 11, 2017, it is expected that dealings in the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will commence at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 11, 2017. Our H Shares will be traded in board lots of 200 H Shares each and the stock code of our H Shares will be 2611.

CONDITIONS OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Acceptance of all applications for Offer Shares pursuant to the Global Offering will be conditional on:

- (i) the Listing Committee of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange granting listing of, and permission to deal in, the Offer Shares being offered pursuant to the Global Offering (including the additional Offer Shares which may be made available pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option) and the H Shares to be converted from A Shares and transferred to NSSF and such listing and permission not subsequently having been revoked prior to the commencement of dealings in the H Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (ii) the execution and delivery of the International Underwriting Agreement no later than April 3, 2017; and
- (iii) the obligations of the Underwriters under each of the respective Underwriting Agreements becoming and remaining unconditional and not having been terminated in accordance with the terms of the respective agreements.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

The consummation of each of the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering is conditional upon, among other things, the other offering becoming unconditional and not having been terminated in accordance with its terms.

If the above conditions are not fulfilled or waived prior to the times and dates specified, the Global Offering will lapse and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will be notified immediately. Notice of the lapse of the Hong Kong Public Offering will be published by the Company in the South China Morning Post (in English) and the Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) on the next day following such lapse. In such eventuality, all application monies will be returned, without interest, on the terms set out in “How to Apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares.” In the meantime, all application monies will be held in (a) separate bank account(s) with the receiving banker or other licensed bank(s) in Hong Kong licensed under the Banking Ordinance (Chapter 155 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (as amended).

H Share certificates for the Offer Shares are expected to be issued on Monday, April 10, 2017 but will only become valid certificates of title at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 11, 2017 provided that (i) the Global Offering has become unconditional in all respects and (ii) the right of termination as described in “Underwriting—Underwriting Arrangements and Expenses—Hong Kong Public Offering—Grounds for Termination” has not been exercised.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

1. HOW TO APPLY

If you apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares, then you may not apply for or indicate an interest for the International Offer Shares.

To apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares, you may:

- use a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form;
- apply online via the White Form eIPO service at www.eipo.com.hk; or
- electronically cause HKSCC Nominees to apply on your behalf.

None of you or your joint applicant(s) may make more than one application, except where you are a nominee and provide the required information in your application.

The Company, the Joint Representatives, the White Form eIPO Service Provider and their respective agents may reject or accept any application in full or in part for any reason at their discretion.

2. WHO CAN APPLY

You can apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares on a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form if you or the person(s) for whose benefit you are applying:

- are 18 years of age or older;
- have a Hong Kong address;
- are outside the United States, and are not a United States Person (as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act); and
- are not a legal or natural person of the PRC.

If you apply online through the White Form eIPO service, in addition to the above, you must also: (i) have a valid Hong Kong identity card number and (ii) provide a valid e-mail address and a contact telephone number.

If you are a firm, the application must be in the individual members' names. If you are a body corporate, the application form must be signed by a duly authorized officer, who must state his representative capacity, and stamped with your corporation's chop.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

If an application is made by a person under a power of attorney, the Joint Representatives may accept it at their discretion and on any conditions they think fit, including evidence of the attorney's authority.

The number of joint applicants may not exceed four and they may not apply by means of White Form eIPO service for the Hong Kong Offer Shares.

Unless permitted by the Hong Kong Listing Rules, you cannot apply for any Hong Kong Offer Shares if you are:

- an existing beneficial owner of Shares in the Company;
- a Director, a supervisor or chief executive officer of the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries;
- an associate (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of any of the above;
- a connected person (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) of the Company or will become a connected person of the Company immediately upon completion of the Global Offering; and
- have been allocated or have applied for any International Offer Shares or otherwise participate in the International Offering.

3. APPLYING FOR HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AN APPLICATION

Follow the detailed instructions in the Application Form carefully; otherwise, your application may be rejected.

By submitting an Application Form or applying through the White Form eIPO service, among other things, you:

- (i) undertake to execute all relevant documents and instruct and authorize the Company and/or the Joint Representatives (or their agents or nominees), as agents of the Company, to execute any documents for you and to do on your behalf all things necessary to register any Hong Kong Offer Shares allocated to you in your name or in the name of HKSCC Nominees as required by the Articles of Association;
- (ii) agree to comply with the Companies Ordinance, the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance and the Articles of Association;
- (iii) confirm that you have read the terms and conditions and application procedures set out in this prospectus and in the Application Form and agree to be bound by them;
- (iv) confirm that you have received and read this prospectus and have only relied on the information and representations contained in this prospectus in making your application and will not rely on any other information or representations except those in any supplement to this prospectus;
- (v) confirm that you are aware of the restrictions on the Global Offering in this prospectus;
- (vi) agree that none of the Company, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters, their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and any other parties involved in the Global Offering is or will be liable for any information and representations not in this prospectus (and any supplement to it);

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

- (vii) undertake and confirm that you or the person(s) for whose benefit you have made the application have not applied for or taken up, or indicated an interest for, and will not apply for or take up, or indicate an interest for, any International Offer Shares under the International Offering nor participated in the International Offering;
- (viii) agree to disclose to the Company, our H Share Registrar, receiving banks, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters and/or their respective advisors and agents any personal data which they may require about you and the person(s) for whose benefit you have made the application;
- (ix) if the laws of any place outside Hong Kong apply to your application, agree and warrant that you have complied with all such laws and none of the Company, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers and the Underwriters nor any of their respective officers or advisors will breach any law outside Hong Kong as a result of the acceptance of your offer to purchase, or any action arising from your rights and obligations under the terms and conditions contained in this prospectus and the Application Form;
- (x) agree that once your application has been accepted, you may not rescind it because of an innocent misrepresentation;
- (xi) agree that your application will be governed by the laws of Hong Kong;
- (xii) represent, warrant and undertake that (i) you understand that the Hong Kong Offer Shares have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act; and (ii) you and any person for whose benefit you are applying for the Hong Kong Offer Shares are outside the United States (as defined in Regulation S) or are a person described in paragraph (h)(3) of Rule 902 of Regulation S;
- (xiii) warrant that the information you have provided is true and accurate;
- (xiv) agree to accept the Hong Kong Offer Shares applied for, or any lesser number allocated to you under the application;
- (xv) authorize the Company to place your name(s) or the name of the HKSCC Nominees, on the Company's register of members as the holder(s) of any Hong Kong Offer Shares allocated to you, and the Company and/or its agents to send any share certificate(s) and/or any e-Refund payment instructions and/or any refund cheque(s) to you or the first-named applicant for joint application by ordinary post at your own risk to the address stated on the application, unless you are eligible to collect the share certificate(s) and/or refund cheque(s) in person;

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

- (xvi) declare and represent that this is the only application made and the only application intended by you to be made to benefit you or the person for whose benefit you are applying;
- (xvii) understand that the Company and the Joint Representatives will rely on your declarations and representations in deciding whether or not to make any allotment of any of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to you and that you may be prosecuted for making a false declaration;
- (xviii) (if the application is made for your own benefit) warrant that no other application has been or will be made for your benefit on a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form or by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC or to the White Form eIPO Service Provider by you or by any one as your agent or by any other person; and
- (xix) (if you are making the application as an agent for the benefit of another person) warrant that (i) no other application has been or will be made by you as agent for or for the benefit of that person or by that person or by any other person as agent for that person on a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form or by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC; and (ii) you have due authority to sign the Application Form or give electronic application instructions on behalf of that other person as their agent.

Additional Instructions for YELLOW Application Form

You may refer to the YELLOW Application Form for details.

5. APPLYING THROUGH WHITE FORM eIPO SERVICE

General

Individuals who meet the criteria in “Who can apply” section, may apply through the White Form eIPO service for the Offer Shares to be allotted and registered in their own names through the designated website at www.eipo.com.hk.

Detailed instructions for application through the White Form eIPO service are on the designated website. If you do not follow the instructions, your application may be rejected and may not be submitted to the Company. If you apply through the designated website, you authorize the White Form eIPO Service Provider to apply on the terms and conditions in this prospectus, as supplemented and amended by the terms and conditions of the White Form eIPO service.

Time for Submitting Applications under the White Form eIPO

You may submit your application to the White Form eIPO Service Provider at www.eipo.com.hk (24 hours daily, except on the last application day) from 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, March 28, 2017 until 11:30 a.m. on Friday, March 31, 2017 and the latest time for completing full payment of application monies in respect of such applications will be 12:00 noon on Friday, March 31, 2017 or such later time under “—10. Effects of Bad Weather on the Opening of the Application Lists” in this section.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

No Multiple Applications

If you apply by means of White Form eIPO, once you complete payment in respect of any electronic application instruction given by you or for your benefit through the White Form eIPO service to make an application for Hong Kong Offer Shares, an actual application shall be deemed to have been made. For the avoidance of doubt, giving an electronic application instruction under White Form eIPO service more than once and obtaining different application reference numbers without effecting full payment in respect of a particular reference number will not constitute an actual application.

If you are suspected of submitting more than one application through the White Form eIPO service or by any other means, all of your applications are liable to be rejected.

Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance

For the avoidance of doubt, the Company and all other parties involved in the preparation of this prospectus acknowledge that each applicant who gives or causes to give electronic application instructions is a person who may be entitled to compensation under Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (as applied by Section 342E of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance).

Environmental Protection

The obvious advantage of White Form eIPO service is to save the use of papers via the self-serviced and electronic application process. Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, being the designated White Form eIPO Service Provider, will contribute HK$2 for each Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. White Form eIPO application submitted via the www.eipo.com.hk to support the funding of “Source of Dong Jiang — Hong Kong Forest” project initiated by Friends of the Earth (HK).

6. APPLYING BY GIVING ELECTRONIC APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS TO HKSCC VIA CCASS

General

CCASS Participants may give electronic application instructions to apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares and to arrange payment of the money due on application and payment of refunds under their participant agreements with HKSCC and the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures.

If you are a CCASS Investor Participant, you may give these electronic application instructions through the CCASS Phone System by calling +852 2979 7888 or through the CCASS Internet System (<https://ip.ccass.com>) (using the procedures in HKSCC’s “An Operating Guide for Investor Participants” in effect from time to time).

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

HKSCC can also input electronic application instructions for you if you go to:

Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited
Customer Service Center

1/F, One & Two Exchange Square,
8 Connaught Place, Central,
Hong Kong

and complete an input request form.

You can also collect a prospectus from this address.

If you are not a CCASS Investor Participant, you may instruct your broker or custodian who is a CCASS Clearing Participant or a CCASS Custodian Participant to give electronic application instructions via CCASS terminals to apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares on your behalf.

You will be deemed to have authorized HKSCC and/or HKSCC Nominees to transfer the details of your application to the Company, the Joint Representatives and our H Share Registrar.

Giving Electronic Application Instructions to HKSCC via CCASS

Where you have given electronic application instructions to apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares and a WHITE Application Form is signed by HKSCC Nominees on your behalf:

- (i) HKSCC Nominees will only be acting as a nominee for you and is not liable for any breach of the terms and conditions of the WHITE Application Form or this prospectus;
- (ii) HKSCC Nominees will do the following things on your behalf:
 - agree that the Hong Kong Offer Shares to be allotted shall be issued in the name of HKSCC Nominees and deposited directly into CCASS for the credit of the CCASS Participant's stock account on your behalf or your CCASS Investor Participant's stock account;
 - agree to accept the Hong Kong Offer Shares applied for or any lesser number allocated;
 - undertake and confirm that you have not applied for or taken up, will not apply for or take up, or indicate an interest for, any International Offer Shares under the International Offering;
 - (if the electronic application instructions are given for your benefit) declare that only one set of electronic application instructions has been given for your benefit;

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

- (if you are an agent for another person) declare that you have only given one set of electronic application instructions for the other person's benefit and are duly authorized to give those instructions as their agent;
- confirm that you understand that the Company, the Directors and the Joint Representatives will rely on your declarations and representations in deciding whether or not to make any allotment of any of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to you and that you may be prosecuted if you make a false declaration;
- authorize the Company to place HKSCC Nominees' name on the Company's register of members as the holder of the Hong Kong Offer Shares allocated to you and to send share certificate(s) and/or refund monies under the arrangements separately agreed between us and HKSCC;
- confirm that you have read the terms and conditions and application procedures set out in this prospectus and agree to be bound by them;
- confirm that you have received and/or read a copy of this prospectus and have relied only on the information and representations in this prospectus in causing the application to be made, save as set out in any supplement to this prospectus;
- agree that none of the Company, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters, their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and any other parties involved in the Global Offering, is or will be liable for any information and representations not contained in this prospectus (and any supplement to it);
- agree to disclose your personal data to the Company, our H Share Registrar, receiving banks, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters and/or its respective advisors and agents;
- agree (without prejudice to any other rights which you may have) that once HKSCC Nominees' application has been accepted, it cannot be rescinded for innocent misrepresentation;
- agree that any application made by HKSCC Nominees on your behalf is irrevocable before the fifth day after the time of the opening of the application lists (excluding any day which is Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Hong Kong), such agreement to take effect as a collateral contract with us and to become binding when you give the instructions and such collateral contract to be in consideration of the Company agreeing that it will not offer any Hong Kong Offer Shares to any person before the fifth day after the time of the opening of the application lists (excluding any day which is Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Hong Kong), except by means of one of the procedures referred to in this prospectus. However, HKSCC Nominees may revoke the application before the fifth day after the time of the opening of the application lists (excluding for this purpose any day which is a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Hong Kong) if a person responsible for this prospectus under Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance gives a public notice under that section which excludes or limits that person's responsibility for this prospectus;

- agree that once HKSCC Nominees' application is accepted, neither that application nor your electronic application instructions can be revoked, and that acceptance of that application will be evidenced by the Company's announcement of the Hong Kong Public Offering results;
- agree to the arrangements, undertakings and warranties under the participant agreement between you and HKSCC, read with the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures, for the giving electronic application instructions to apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares;
- agree with the Company, for itself and for the benefit of each Shareholder (and so that the Company will be deemed by its acceptance in whole or in part of the application by HKSCC Nominees to have agreed, for itself and on behalf of each of the Shareholders, with each CCASS Participant giving electronic application instructions) to observe and comply with the Companies Ordinance, the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance and the Articles of Association;
- agree with the Company, for itself and for the benefit of each of the Shareholder and each Director, Supervisor, manager and other senior officer of the Company (and so that the Company will be deemed by its acceptance in whole or in part of this application to have agreed, for itself and on behalf of each of the Shareholder and each Director, Supervisor, manager and other senior officer of the Company, with each CCASS Participant giving electronic application instructions):
 - (a) to refer all differences and claims arising from the Articles of Association or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the PRC Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company to arbitration in accordance with the Articles of Association;
 - (b) that any award made in such arbitration shall be final and conclusive; and
 - (c) that the arbitration tribunal may conduct hearings in open sessions and publish its award;

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

- agree with the Company (for the Company itself and for the benefit of each shareholder of the Company) that the H Shares are freely transferable by their holders;
- authorize the Company to enter into a contract on its behalf with each director and officer of the Company whereby each such director and officer undertakes to observe and comply with his obligations to shareholders stipulated in the Articles of Association; and
- agree that your application, any acceptance of it and the resulting contract will be governed by the Laws of Hong Kong.

Effect of Giving Electronic Application Instructions to HKSCC via CCASS

By giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC or instructing your broker or custodian who is a CCASS Clearing Participant or a CCASS Custodian Participant to give such instructions to HKSCC, you (and, if you are joint applicants, each of you jointly and severally) are deemed to have done the following things. Neither HKSCC nor HKSCC Nominees shall be liable to the Company or any other person in respect of the things mentioned below:

- instructed and authorized HKSCC to cause HKSCC Nominees (acting as nominee for the relevant CCASS Participants) to apply for the Hong Kong Offer Shares on your behalf;
- instructed and authorized HKSCC to arrange payment of the Offer Price, brokerage, SFC transaction levy and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee by debiting your designated bank account and, in the case of a wholly or partially unsuccessful application, refund of the application monies (including brokerage, SFC transaction levy and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee) by crediting your designated bank account; and
- instructed and authorized HKSCC to cause HKSCC Nominees to do on your behalf all the things stated in the WHITE Application Form and in this prospectus.

Minimum Purchase Amount and Permitted Numbers

You may give or cause your broker or custodian who is a CCASS Clearing Participant or a CCASS Custodian Participant to give electronic application instructions for 200 Hong Kong Offer Shares. Instructions for more than 200 Hong Kong Offer Shares must be in one of the numbers set out in the table in the Application Forms. No application for any other number of Hong Kong Offer Shares will be considered and any such application is liable to be rejected.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

Time for Inputting Electronic Application Instructions

CCASS Clearing/Custodian Participants can input electronic application instructions at the following times on the following dates:

- Tuesday, March 28, 2017 — 9:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.⁽¹⁾
- Wednesday, March 29, 2017 — 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.⁽¹⁾
- Thursday, March 30, 2017 — 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.⁽¹⁾
- Friday, March 31, 2017 — 8:00 a.m.⁽¹⁾ to 12:00 noon

Note:

- (1) These times are subject to change as HKSCC may determine from time to time with prior notification to CCASS Clearing/Custodian Participants.

CCASS Investor Participants can input electronic application instructions from 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, March 28, 2017 until 12:00 noon on Friday, March 31, 2017 (24 hours daily, except on the last application day).

The latest time for inputting your electronic application instructions will be 12:00 noon on Friday, March 31, 2017, the last application day or such later time as described in “—10. Effect of Bad Weather on the Opening of the Application Lists” in this section.

No Multiple Applications

If you are suspected of having made multiple applications or if more than one application is made for your benefit, the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares applied for by HKSCC Nominees will be automatically reduced by the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares for which you have given such instructions and/or for which such instructions have been given for your benefit. Any electronic application instructions to make an application for the Hong Kong Offer Shares given by you or for your benefit to HKSCC shall be deemed to be an actual application for the purposes of considering whether multiple applications have been made.

Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance

For the avoidance of doubt, the Company and all other parties involved in the preparation of this prospectus acknowledge that each CCASS Participant who gives or causes to give electronic application instructions is a person who may be entitled to compensation under Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (as applied by Section 342E of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance).

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

Personal Data

The section of the Application Form headed “Personal Data” applies to any personal data held by the Company, the H Share Registrar, the receiving bankers, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Lead Managers, the Underwriters and any of their respective advisors and agents about you in the same way as it applies to personal data about applicants other than HKSCC Nominees.

7. WARNING FOR ELECTRONIC APPLICATIONS

The subscription of the Hong Kong Offer Shares by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC is only a facility provided to CCASS Participants. Similarly, the application for Hong Kong Offer Shares through the White Form eIPO service is also only a facility provided by the White Form eIPO Service Provider to public investors. Such facilities are subject to capacity limitations and potential service interruptions and you are advised not to wait until the last application day in making your electronic applications. The Company, the Directors, the Joint Bookrunners, the Joint Sponsors, the Joint Representatives, the Joint Global Coordinators and the Underwriters take no responsibility for such applications and provide no assurance that any CCASS Participant or person applying through the White Form eIPO service will be allotted any Hong Kong Offer Shares.

To ensure that CCASS Investor Participants can give their electronic application instructions, they are advised not to wait until the last minute to input their instructions to the systems. In the event that CCASS Investor Participants have problems in the connection to CCASS Phone System/CASS Internet System for submission of electronic application instructions, they should either (i) submit a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form, or (ii) go to HKSCC’s Customer Service Centre to complete an input request form for electronic application instructions before 12:00 noon on Friday, March 31, 2017.

8. HOW MANY APPLICATIONS CAN YOU MAKE

Multiple applications for the Hong Kong Offer Shares are not allowed except by nominees. If you are a nominee, in the box on the Application Form marked “For nominees” you must include:

- an account number; or
- some other identification code, for each beneficial owner or, in the case of joint beneficial owners, for each joint beneficial owner. If you do not include this information, the application will be treated as being made for your benefit.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

All of your applications will be rejected if more than one application on a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form or by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC or through White Form eIPO service, is made for your benefit (including the part of the application made by HKSCC Nominees acting on electronic application instructions). If an application is made by an unlisted company and:

- the principal business of that company is dealing in securities; and
- you exercise statutory control over that company, then the application will be treated as being for your benefit.

“Unlisted company” means a company with no equity securities listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

“Statutory control” means you:

- control the composition of the board of directors of the company;
- control more than half of the voting power of the company; or
- hold more than half of the issued share capital of the company (not counting any part of it which carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of either profits or capital).

9. HOW MUCH ARE THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

The WHITE and YELLOW Application Forms have tables showing the exact amount payable for the Hong Kong Offer Shares.

You must pay the Offer Price, brokerage, SFC transaction levy and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee in full upon application for the Hong Kong Offer Shares under the terms set out in the Application Forms.

You may submit an application using a WHITE or YELLOW Application Form or through the White Form eIPO service in respect of a minimum of 200 Hong Kong Offer Shares. Each application or electronic application instruction in respect of more than 200 Hong Kong Offer Shares must be in one of the numbers set out in the table in the Application Form, or as otherwise specified on the designated website at www.eipo.com.hk.

If your application is successful, brokerage will be paid to the Exchange Participants, and the SFC transaction levy and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee are paid to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (in the case of the SFC transaction levy, collected by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on behalf of the SFC).

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

For further details on the Offer Price, see “Structure of the Global Offering—Pricing of the Global Offering.”

10. EFFECT OF BAD WEATHER ON THE OPENING OF THE APPLICATION LISTS

The application lists will not open if there is:

- a tropical cyclone warning signal number 8 or above; or
- a “black” rainstorm warning,

in force in Hong Kong at any time between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on Friday, March 31, 2017. Instead they will open between 11:45 a.m. and 12:00 noon on the next Business Day which does not have either of those warnings in Hong Kong in force at any time between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

If the application lists do not open and close on Friday, March 31, 2017 or if there is a tropical cyclone warning signal number 8 or above or a “black” rainstorm warning signal in force in Hong Kong that may affect the dates mentioned in the section headed “Expected Timetable,” an announcement will be made in such event.

11. PUBLICATION OF RESULTS

The Company expects to announce the level of indication of interest in the International Offering, the level of applications in the Hong Kong Public Offering and the basis of allocation of the Hong Kong Offer Shares on Monday, April 10, 2017 in the South China Morning Post (in English) and the Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) on the Company’s website at www.gtja.com and the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange at www.hkexnews.hk.

The results of allocations and the Hong Kong identity card/passport/Hong Kong business registration numbers of successful applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be available at the times and date and in the manner specified below:

- in the announcement to be posted on the Company’s website at www.gtja.com and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange’s website at www.hkexnews.hk by no later than 8:00 a.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017;
- from the designated results of allocations website at www.iporesults.com.hk with a “search by ID” function on a 24-hour basis from 8:00 a.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017 to 12:00 midnight on Sunday, April 16, 2017;
- by telephone enquiry line by calling 2862 8669 between 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. from Monday, April 10, 2017 to Thursday, April 13, 2017;
- in the special allocation results booklets which will be available for inspection during opening hours from Monday, April 10, 2017 to Wednesday, April 12, 2017 at all the receiving banks’ designated branches.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

If the Company accepts your offer to purchase (in whole or in part), which it may do by announcing the basis of allocations and/or making available the results of allocations publicly, there will be a binding contract under which you will be required to purchase the Hong Kong Offer Shares if the conditions of the Global Offering are satisfied and the Global Offering is not otherwise terminated. Further details are contained in “Structure of the Global Offering.”

You will not be entitled to exercise any remedy of rescission for innocent misrepresentation at any time after acceptance of your application. This does not affect any other right you may have.

12. CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOTTED OFFER SHARES

You should note the following situations in which the Hong Kong Offer Shares will not be allotted to you:

(i) If your application is revoked:

By completing and submitting an Application Form or giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC or to White Form eIPO Service Provider, you agree that your application or the application made by HKSCC Nominees on your behalf cannot be revoked on or before the fifth day after the time of the opening of the application lists (excluding for this purpose any day which is Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Hong Kong). This agreement will take effect as a collateral contract with the Company.

Your application or the application made by HKSCC Nominees on your behalf may only be revoked on or before such fifth day if a person responsible for this prospectus under Section 40 of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (as applied by Section 342E of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance) gives a public notice under that section which excludes or limits that person’s responsibility for this prospectus.

If any supplement to this prospectus is issued, applicants who have already submitted an application will be notified that they are required to confirm their applications. If applicants have been so notified but have not confirmed their applications in accordance with the procedure to be notified, all unconfirmed applications will be deemed revoked.

If your application or the application made by HKSCC Nominees on your behalf has been accepted, it cannot be revoked. For this purpose, acceptance of applications which are not rejected will be constituted by notification in the press of the results of allocation, and where such basis of allocation is subject to certain conditions or provides for allocation by ballot, such acceptance will be subject to the satisfaction of such conditions or results of the ballot respectively.

(ii) If the Company or its agents exercise their discretion to reject your application:

The Company, the Joint Representatives, the White Form eIPO Service Provider and their respective agents and nominees have full discretion to reject or accept any application, or to accept only part of any application, without giving any reasons.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

(iii) If the allotment of Hong Kong Offer Shares is void:

The allotment of Hong Kong Offer Shares will be void if the Listing Committee of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange does not grant permission to list the H Shares either:

- within three weeks from the closing date of the application lists; or
- within a longer period of up to six weeks if the Listing Committee notifies the Company of that longer period within three weeks of the closing date of the application lists.

(iv) If:

- you make multiple applications or suspected multiple applications;
- you or the person for whose benefit you are applying have applied for or taken up, or indicated an interest for, or have been or will be placed or allocated (including conditionally and/or provisionally) Hong Kong Offer Shares and International Offer Shares;
- your Application Form is not completed in accordance with the stated instructions;
- your electronic application instructions through the White Form eIPO service are not completed in accordance with the instructions, terms and conditions on the designated website;
- your payment is not made correctly or the cheque or banker's cashier order paid by you is dishonored upon its first presentation;
- the Underwriting Agreements do not become unconditional or are terminated;
- the Company or the Joint Representatives believe that by accepting your application, it or they would violate applicable securities or other laws, rules or regulations; or
- your application is for more than 50% of the Hong Kong Offer Shares initially offered under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

13. REFUND OF APPLICATION MONIES

If an application is rejected, not accepted or accepted in part only, or if the conditions of the Hong Kong Public Offering are not fulfilled in accordance with "Structure of the Global Offering—Conditions of the Global Offering" or if any application is revoked, the application monies, or the appropriate portion thereof, together with the related brokerage, SFC transaction levy and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange trading fee, will be refunded, without interest or the cheque or banker's cashier order will not be cleared.

Any refund of your application monies will be made on or before Monday, April 10, 2017.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

14. DESPATCH/COLLECTION OF H SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REFUND MONIES

You will receive one share certificate for all Hong Kong Offer Shares allotted to you under the Hong Kong Public Offering (except pursuant to applications made on YELLOW Application Forms or by electronic application instructions to HKSCC via CCASS where the share certificates will be deposited into CCASS as described below).

No temporary document of title will be issued in respect of the H Shares. No receipt will be issued for sums paid on application. If you apply by WHITE or YELLOW Application Form, subject to personal collection as mentioned below, the following will be sent to you (or, in the case of joint applicants, to the first-named applicant) by ordinary post, at your own risk, to the address specified on the Application Form:

- share certificate(s) for all the Hong Kong Offer Shares allotted to you (for YELLOW Application Forms, share certificates will be deposited into CCASS as described below); and
- refund cheque(s) crossed “Account Payee Only” in favor of the applicant (or, in the case of joint applicants, the first-named applicant) for all or the surplus application monies for the Hong Kong Offer Shares, wholly or partially unsuccessfully applied for. Part of the Hong Kong identity card number/passport number, provided by you or the first named applicant (if you are joint applicants), may be printed on your refund cheque, if any. Your banker may require verification of your Hong Kong identity card number/passport number before encashment of your refund cheque(s). Inaccurate completion of your Hong Kong identity card number/passport number may invalidate or delay encashment of your refund cheque(s).

Subject to arrangement on despatch/collection of H share certificates and refund monies as mentioned below, any refund cheques and share certificates are expected to be posted on or before Monday, April 10, 2017. The right is reserved to retain any share certificate(s) and any surplus application monies pending clearance of cheque(s) or banker’s cashier’s order(s).

Share certificates will only become valid at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 11, 2017 provided that the Global Offering has become unconditional in all respects and the right of termination described “Underwriting” has not been exercised. Investors who trade the H Shares prior to the receipt of Share certificates or the Share certificates becoming valid do so at their own risk.

15. PERSONAL COLLECTION

(i) If you apply using a WHITE Application Form

If you apply for 1,000,000 or more Hong Kong Offer Shares and have provided all information required by your Application Form, you may collect your refund cheque(s) and/or share certificate(s) from the H Share Registrar, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at Shops 1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen’s Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017 or such other date as notified by us in the newspapers.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

If you are an individual who is eligible for personal collection, you must not authorize any other person to collect for you. If you are a corporate applicant which is eligible for personal collection, your authorized representative must bear a letter of authorization from your corporation stamped with your corporation's chop. Both individuals and authorized representatives must produce, at the time of collection, evidence of identity acceptable to the H Share Registrar.

If you do not collect your refund cheque(s) and/or share certificate(s) personally within the time specified for collection, they will be despatched promptly to the address specified in your Application Form by ordinary post at your own risk.

If you apply for less than 1,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares, your refund cheque(s) and/or share certificate(s) will be sent to the address on the relevant Application Form on or before Monday, April 10, 2017, by ordinary post and at your own risk.

(ii) If you apply using a YELLOW Application Form

If you apply for 1,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares or more, please follow the same instructions as described above. If you have applied for less than 1,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares, your refund cheque(s) will be sent to the address on the relevant Application Form on or before Monday, April 10, 2017, by ordinary post and at your own risk.

If you apply by using a YELLOW Application Form and your application is wholly or partially successful, your share certificate(s) will be issued in the name of HKSCC Nominees and deposited into CCASS for credit to your or the designated CCASS Participant's stock account as stated in your Application Form on Monday, April 10, 2017, or upon contingency, on any other date determined by HKSCC or HKSCC Nominees.

- If you apply through a designated CCASS participant (other than a CCASS investor participant)

For Hong Kong Public Offering shares credited to your designated CCASS participant's stock account (other than CCASS Investor Participant), you can check the number of Hong Kong Public Offering shares allotted to you with that CCASS participant.

- If you are applying as a CCASS investor participant

The Company will publish the results of CCASS Investor Participants' applications together with the results of the Hong Kong Public Offering in the manner described in "How to apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares—11. Publication of Results" above. You should check the announcement published by the Company and report any discrepancies to HKSCC before 5:00 p.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017 or any other date as determined by HKSCC or HKSCC Nominees. Immediately after the credit of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to your stock account, you can check your new account balance via the CCASS Phone System and CCASS Internet System.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE HONG KONG OFFER SHARES

(iii) If you apply through the White Form eIPO service

If you apply for 1,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares or more and your application is wholly or partially successful, you may collect your Share certificate(s) from H Share Registrar, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at Shops 1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017, or such other date as notified by the Company in the newspapers as the date of despatch/collection of Share certificates/e-Refund payment instructions /refund cheques.

If you do not collect your Share certificate(s) personally within the time specified for collection, they will be sent to the address specified in your application instructions by ordinary post at your own risk.

If you apply for less than 1,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares, your Share certificate(s) (where applicable) will be sent to the address specified in your application instructions on or before Monday, April 10, 2017 by ordinary post at your own risk.

If you apply and pay the application monies from a single bank account, any refund monies will be despatched to that bank account in the form of e-Refund payment instructions. If you apply and pay the application monies from multiple bank accounts, any refund monies will be despatched to the address as specified in your application instructions in the form of refund cheque(s) by ordinary post at your own risk.

(iv) If you apply via Electronic Application Instructions to HKSCC

Allocation of Hong Kong Offer Shares

For the purposes of allocating Hong Kong Offer Shares, HKSCC Nominees will not be treated as an applicant. Instead, each CCASS Participant who gives electronic application instructions or each person for whose benefit instructions are given will be treated as an applicant.

Deposit of Share Certificates into CCASS and Refund of Application Monies

- If your application is wholly or partially successful, your Share certificate(s) will be issued in the name of HKSCC Nominees and deposited into CCASS for the credit of your designated CCASS Participant's stock account or your CCASS Investor Participant stock account on Monday, April 10, 2017, or, on any other date determined by HKSCC or HKSCC Nominees.
- The Company expects to publish the application results of CCASS Participants (and where the CCASS Participant is a broker or custodian, the Company will include information relating to the relevant beneficial owner), your Hong Kong identity card number/passport number or other identification code (Hong Kong business registration number for corporations) and the basis of allotment of the Hong Kong Public Offering in the manner specified in “Publication of Results” above on Monday, April 10, 2017. You should check the announcement published by the Company and report any discrepancies to HKSCC before 5:00 p.m. on Monday, April 10, 2017 or such other date as determined by HKSCC or HKSCC Nominees.

- If you have instructed your broker or custodian to give electronic application instructions on your behalf, you can also check the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares allotted to you and the amount of refund monies (if any) payable to you with that broker or custodian.
- If you have applied as a CCASS Investor Participant, you can also check the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares allotted to you and the amount of refund monies (if any) payable to you via the CCASS Phone System and the CCASS Internet System (under the procedures contained in HKSCC’s “An Operating Guide for Investor Participants” in effect from time to time) on Monday, April 10, 2017. Immediately following the credit of the Hong Kong Offer Shares to your stock account and the credit of refund monies to your bank account, HKSCC will also make available to you an activity statement showing the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares credited to your CCASS Investor Participant stock account and the amount of refund monies (if any) credited to your designated bank account.
- Refund of your application monies (if any) in respect of wholly and partially unsuccessful applications will be credited to your designated bank account or the designated bank account of your broker or custodian on Monday, April 10, 2017.

16. ADMISSION OF THE H SHARES INTO CCASS

If the Hong Kong Stock Exchange grants the listing of, and permission to deal in, the H Shares and we comply with the stock admission requirements of HKSCC, the Shares will be accepted as eligible securities by HKSCC for deposit, clearance and settlement in CCASS with effect from the date of commencement of dealings in the H Shares or any other date HKSCC chooses. Settlement of transactions between Exchange Participants (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) is required to take place in CCASS on the second Business Day after any trading day.

All activities under CCASS are subject to the General Rules of CCASS and CCASS Operational Procedures in effect from time to time.

Investors should seek the advice of their stockbroker or other professional advisor for details of the settlement arrangement as such arrangements may affect their rights and interests.

All necessary arrangements have been made enabling the Shares to be admitted into CCASS.

The following is the text of a report received from the Company's reporting accountant, Ernst & Young, Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong, for the purpose of incorporation in this prospectus. It is prepared and addressed to the directors of the Company and to the Joint Sponsors pursuant to the requirements of Auditing Guideline 3.340 "Prospectuses and the Reporting Accountant" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Dear Sirs,

We set out below our report on the financial information of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰君安證券股份有限公司) (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Group"), comprising the consolidated statements of profit or loss, the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, the consolidated statements of changes in equity and the consolidated statements of cash flows of the Group for the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 (the "Relevant Periods"), and the consolidated statements of financial position of the Group and statements of financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, together with the notes thereto (the "Financial Information"), prepared on the basis of preparation set out in note 2.1 of Section II below, for inclusion in the prospectus of the Company dated 28 March 2017 (the "Prospectus") in connection with the listing of the shares of the Company on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

On 25 September 1992, with the approval of the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"), Guotai Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰證券有限公司) was established in Shanghai, the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"). On 12 October 1992, with the approval of the PBOC, Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (君安證券有限責任公司) was established in Shenzhen, the PRC. On 20 May 1999, as approved by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (the "CSRC"), Guotai Securities Co., Ltd. merged with Junan Securities Co., Ltd. to set up a new company, Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰君安證券股份有限公司) in Shanghai, the PRC. On 13 August 2001, the Company spun off its non-securities business and related assets and liabilities to a newly established company, and continued to use the name of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰君安證券股份有限公司). On 26 June 2015, the Company's shares were listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange with stock code 601211.

The Group has prepared its statutory consolidated financial statements in accordance with “Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises” issued by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC (the “MOF”) and other relevant requirements (collectively known as “PRC GAAP”). Ernst & Young Hua Ming LLP has audited the Group’s statutory PRC GAAP financial statements for the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

As at the end of the Relevant Periods, the Company has direct and indirect interests in the subsidiaries as set out in note 25 of Section II below. All companies now comprising the Group have adopted 31 December as their financial year end date. The statutory financial statements of the companies now comprising the Group have been prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting principles applicable to these companies in the countries in which they were incorporated and/or established. Details of their statutory auditors during the Relevant Periods are set out in note 25 of Section II below.

For the purpose of this report, the directors of the Company (the “Directors”) have prepared the consolidated financial statements of the Group (the “Underlying Financial Statements”) in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRSs”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”). The Underlying Financial Statements for the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 were audited by Ernst & Young in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”).

The Financial Information set out in this report has been prepared from the Underlying Financial Statements with no adjustments made thereon.

Directors’ responsibility

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the Underlying Financial Statements and the Financial Information that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the Underlying Financial Statements and the Financial Information that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Reporting accountants’ responsibility

It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion on the Financial Information, and to report our opinion thereon to you.

For the purpose of this report, we have carried out procedures on the Financial Information in accordance with Auditing Guideline 3.340 Prospectuses and the Reporting Accountant issued by the HKICPA.

Opinion in respect of the Financial Information

In our opinion, for the purpose of this report, the Financial Information gives a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 and of the financial performance and cash flows of the Group for each of the Relevant Periods.

II NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL INFORMATION

(Amounts expressed in thousands of RMB unless otherwise stated)

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

On 25 September 1992, with the approval of the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"), Guotai Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰證券有限公司) was established in Shanghai, the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"). On 12 October 1992, with the approval of the PBOC, Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (君安證券有限責任公司) was established in Shenzhen, the PRC. On 20 May 1999, as approved by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (the "CSRC"), Guotai Securities Co., Ltd. merged with Junan Securities Co., Ltd. to set up a new company, Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (國泰君安證券股份有限公司) in Shanghai, the PRC. On 13 August 2001, the Company spun off its non-securities business and related assets and liabilities to a newly established company.

As approved by the CSRC, the Company publicly issued 1,525,000,000 ordinary shares (A shares) and was listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange on 26 June 2015, with stock code 601211.

The registered office of the Company is located at No. 618 Shangcheng Road, China (Shanghai) Pilot Free-Trade Zone, Shanghai, PRC.

The Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") are principally engaged in securities brokerage, securities proprietary trading, securities underwriting and sponsorship, securities investment consultation, financial advisory business relating to securities trading and securities investment, margin financing and securities lending, agency sale of securities investment fund, agency sale of financial products, introducing brokerage for futures companies, asset management, commodity futures brokerage, financial futures brokerage, futures investment consulting, equity investment, venture capital, investment management, investment consultation and other business activities approved by the CSRC.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The Financial Information has been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), which comprise all standards and interpretations approved by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). For the purpose of preparing and presenting the Financial Information, the Group has consistently applied all applicable IFRSs which are effective for the accounting period beginning on 1 January 2016 throughout the Relevant Periods.

The Financial Information has been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies set out below. The Financial Information is presented in Renminbi ("RMB") and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Group for the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described accounting policy for subsidiaries above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognizes (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognizes (i) the fair value of the consideration received, (ii) the fair value of any investment retained and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognized in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 IMPACT OF ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE IFRSs

The Group has not applied the following new and revised IFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective, in the Financial Information:

IFRS 9	Financial Instruments ¹
IFRS 15 and Amendments	Revenue from Contracts with Customers ¹
IFRS 16	Leases ²

Amendments to IAS 40	Transfers of Investment Property ¹
Amendments to IFRS 2	Share-based Payment ¹
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between An Investor and Its Associate or Joint Venture ⁴
Annual Improvements 2014-2016 Cycle	Amendments to IFRS 1¹, IFRS 12³ and IAS 28¹

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019

³ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017

⁴ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

Except as described below, the application of the new and revised IFRSs will not have significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

In July 2014, the IASB issued the final version of IFRS 9, bringing together all phases of the financial instruments project to replace IAS 39 and all previous versions of IFRS 9. The standard introduces new requirements for classification and measurement, impairment and hedge accounting.

Key requirements of IFRS 9 that are relevant to the Group are:

- All recognized financial assets that are within the scope of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement are required to be subsequently measured at amortized cost or fair value. Specifically, debt investments that are held within a business model whose objective is to collect the contractual cash flows, and that have contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal outstanding are generally measured at amortized cost. Debt instruments that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and that have contractual terms that give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income. All other debt investments and equity investments are measured at their fair value. In addition, under IFRS 9, entities may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value of an equity investment (that is not held for trading) in other comprehensive income, with only dividend income generally recognized in profit or loss.

- In relation to the impairment of financial assets, IFRS 9 requires an expected credit loss model, as opposed to an incurred credit loss model under IAS 39. The expected credit loss model requires an entity to account for expected credit losses and changes in those expected credit losses at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition. In other words, it is no longer necessary for a credit event to have occurred before credit losses are recognized. The measurement of the loss allowance generally depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition of the instruments. IFRS 9 requires an entity to recognize lifetime expected credit losses for all financial instruments for which there have been significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition considering all reasonable and supportable information, including that which is forward-looking.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the adoption of IFRS 9 in the future may have an impact on the Group's results and financial position, including the classification categories and the measurement of financial assets, and disclosures. For instance, IFRS 9 will change the way the Group classifies and measures its financial assets, and will require the Group to consider the business model and contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets to determine classification and subsequent measurement. The Group will also be required to replace the incurred loss impairment model in IAS 39 with an expected loss impairment model that will apply to various exposures to credit risk. It is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect of IFRS 9 until a detailed review has been completed.

Any change to our current practice in the future in accordance with IFRS 9 and its amendments, and any other future amendments to IAS 39 or similar standards, including any authoritative interpretive guidance on the application of such new or revised standards, may materially affect our financial position and results of operations. The Group expects to adopt IFRS 9 on 1 January 2018.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

IFRS 15 establishes a comprehensive framework for determining whether, how much and when revenue is recognized. It introduces a new five-step model to account for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The core principle of IFRS 15 is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

IFRS 15 provides specific guidance on capitalization of contract cost and license arrangement. It also introduces extensive qualitative and quantitative disclosure requirements, including disaggregation of total revenue, information about performance obligations, changes in contract asset and liability account balances between periods and key judgements and estimates. The standard will supersede all current revenue recognition requirements under IFRSs. The Group expects to adopt IFRS 15 on 1 January 2018. The Group anticipates that the adoption of this amendment will not have a significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

IFRS 16 Leases

IFRS 16 provides a comprehensive model for the identification of lease arrangements and their treatment in the financial statements of both lessors and lessees. The standard provides a single lessee accounting model, requiring lessees to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases unless the lease term is 12 months or less or the underlying asset has a low value.

IFRS 16 now requires lessees to recognize a lease liability reflecting future lease payment and a right-of-use asset for virtually all lease contracts, unless the underlying asset is of low value, in the statement of financial position. Accordingly, a lessee should recognize depreciation of the right-of-use asset and interest on the lease liability in profit or loss, and also classifies cash repayments of the lease liability into the principal portion and the interest portion for presentation in the statements of cash flows.

In respect of lessor accounting, IFRS 16 substantially carries forward the lessor accounting requirements in IAS 17. Accordingly, a lessor continues to classify its leases as operating leases or finance leases, and to account for those two types of leases differently.

As at 31 December 2016, the total operating lease commitments of the Group amounted to RMB1,530.26 million. The directors of the Company do not expect the adoption of IFRS 16 as compared with the current accounting policy would result in significant impact on the Group's results but it is expected that a certain portion of these lease commitments will be required to be recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities. The Group expects to adopt IFRS 16 on 1 January 2019.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it is in a position to exercise significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in associates and joint ventures are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses.

The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates and joint ventures is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated other comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognized directly in the equity of the associate or joint venture, the Group recognizes its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealized gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates or joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates or joint ventures, except where unrealized losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill arising from the acquisition of associates or joint ventures is included as part of the Group's investments in associates or joint ventures.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. In all other cases, upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognizes any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognized in profit or loss.

When an investment in an associate or a joint venture is classified as held for sale, it is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in associates and joint ventures of the Company are accounted for using the equity method, unless they are classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquirees' identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is remeasured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognized at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognized for non-controlling interests and any fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the identifiable net assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the sum of this consideration and other items is lower than the fair value of the net assets acquired, the difference is, after reassessment, recognized in profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill as at 31 December. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognized. An impairment loss recognized for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on the disposal. Goodwill disposed of in these circumstances is measured based on the relative value of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its derivative financial instruments, non-derivative financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and available-for-sale financial assets at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 — based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 — based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 — based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognized only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognized impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortization) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group; or

- (b) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a);

(vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and

(viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

Property and equipment and depreciation

Property and equipment, other than construction in progress (“CIP”), are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The cost of an item of property and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalized in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognizes such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Buildings	2.71%-2.74%
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of the lease terms and 20%
Machinery	8.64%-19.20%
Electronic equipment	19.00%-50.00%
Communication equipment	10.55%-32.00%
Motor vehicles	10.55%-32.00%
Others	9.50%-32.00%

Where parts of an item of property and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property and equipment including any significant part initially recognized is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognized in the statement of profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognized is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress represents a building under construction, which is stated at cost less any impairment losses, and is not depreciated. Cost comprises the direct costs of construction and capitalized borrowing costs on related borrowed funds during the period of construction. Construction in progress is reclassified to the appropriate category of property and equipment when completed and ready for use.

Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value at the date of acquisition. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite. Intangible assets with finite lives are subsequently amortized over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortization period and the amortization method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually either individually or at the cash-generating unit level, whether there is any indicator of impairment or not. Such intangible assets are not amortized. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for on a prospective basis.

Useful lives of each category of intangible assets are as follows:

	Useful lives
Trading seats rights	Indefinite
Securities and futures brokerage qualification	Indefinite
Software	5 years

Leases

Leases that transfer substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets to the Group, other than legal title, are accounted for as finance leases.

Leases where substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets remain with the lessor are accounted for as operating leases. Where the Group is the lessor, assets leased by the Group under operating leases are included in non-current assets, and rentals receivable under the operating leases are credited to the statement of profit or loss on the straight-line basis over the lease terms. Where the Group is the lessee, rentals payable under operating leases net of any incentives received from the lessor are charged to the statement of profit or loss on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Prepaid land lease payments under operating leases are initially stated at cost and subsequently recognized on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Investments and other financial assets*Initial recognition and measurement*

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments and available-for-sale financial investments, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. When financial assets are recognized initially, they are measured at fair value plus transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets, except in the case of financial assets recorded at fair value through profit or loss.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognized on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of sale in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments as defined by IAS 39.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value presented as net investment gains or losses in the statement of profit or loss. The net investment gains recognized in profit or loss include any dividend or interest earned on the financial assets.

Financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the date of initial recognition and only if the criteria in IAS 39 are satisfied.

Derivatives embedded in host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated as at fair value through profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Reassessment only occurs if there is either a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows that would otherwise be required or a reclassification of a financial asset out of the fair value through profit or loss category.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. After initial measurement, such assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method less any allowance for impairment. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and includes fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

Held-to-maturity investments

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity are classified as held to maturity when the Group has the positive intention and ability to hold them to maturity. Held-to-maturity investments are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method less any allowance for impairment. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

Available-for-sale financial investments

Equity investments classified as available for sale are those which are neither classified as held for trading nor designated as at fair value through profit or loss. Debt securities in this category are those which are intended to be held for an indefinite period of time and which may be sold in response to needs for liquidity or in response to changes in market conditions.

After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial investments are subsequently measured at fair value, with unrealized gains or losses recognized as other comprehensive income in the investment revaluation reserve until the investment is derecognized, at which time the cumulative gain or loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss in net investment gains or losses, or until the investment is determined to be impaired, when the cumulative gain or loss is reclassified from the investment revaluation reserve to the statement of profit or loss in provision for impairment losses. Interest and dividends earned whilst holding the available-for-sale financial investments are reported as interest income and dividend income, respectively and are recognized in the statement of profit or loss as net investment gains.

When the fair value of unlisted equity investments cannot be reliably measured because (a) the variability in the range of reasonable fair value estimates is significant for that investment or (b) the probabilities of the various estimates within the range cannot be reasonably assessed and used in estimating fair value, such investments are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognized (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or

- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a “pass-through” arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognize the transferred asset to the extent of the Group’s continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognizes an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. An impairment exists if one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset have an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or the group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated. Evidence of impairment may include indications that a debtor or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganization and observable data indicating that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

Financial assets carried at amortized cost

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, the Group first assesses whether impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be, recognized are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

The amount of any impairment loss identified is measured as the difference between the asset’s carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not yet been incurred). The present value of the estimated future cash flows is discounted at the financial asset’s original effective interest rate (i.e., the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition).

The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account and the loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Interest income continues to be accrued on the reduced carrying amount using the rate of interest used to discount the future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the impairment loss. Loans and receivables together with any associated allowance are written off when there is no realistic prospect of future recovery and all collateral has been realized or has been transferred to the Group.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the estimated impairment loss increases or decreases because of an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is increased or reduced by adjusting the allowance account.

Assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss has been incurred on an unquoted equity instrument that is not carried at fair value because its fair value cannot be reliably measured, or on a derivative asset that is linked to and must be settled by delivery of such an unquoted equity instrument, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Impairment losses on these assets are not reversed.

Available-for-sale financial investments

For available-for-sale financial investments, the Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that an investment or a group of investments is impaired.

If an available-for-sale asset is impaired, an amount comprising the difference between its cost (net of any principal payment and amortization) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognized in the statement of profit or loss, is removed from other comprehensive income and recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

In the case of equity investments classified as available for sale, objective evidence would include a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of an investment below its cost. "Significant" is evaluated against the original cost of the investment and "prolonged" against the period in which the fair value has been below its original cost. Where there is evidence of impairment, the cumulative loss — measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that investment previously recognized in the statement of profit or loss — is removed from other comprehensive income and recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Impairment losses on equity instruments classified as available for sale are not reversed through the statement of profit or loss. Increases in their fair value after impairment are recognized directly in other comprehensive income.

The determination of what is “significant” or “prolonged” requires judgment. The Group considers the extent and duration of the decline in evaluating whether a decline in fair value is significant or prolonged. The Group generally considers a significant decline to be one in which the fair value is below the weighted average cost by more than 30% or a prolonged decline to be one in which fair value is below the weighted average cost for a continuous period of more than twelve months or longer. The Group also takes into consideration of other specific relevant factors when assessing whether there is objective evidence that an investment is impaired or not. Regarding the funds contributed by the Group to the designated accounts managed by China Securities Finance Corporation Limited, owing to the unique characteristics of this investment, that is, the Group cannot control the way in which China Securities Finance Corporation Limited uses our fund contributions and when the contributions are redeemed, after further considering other relevant factors such as industry practice, etc., the Group considers the threshold for the determination of impairment for this investment to be the fair value below the cost by more than 50% or for a continuous period of more than thirty six months.

In the case of debt instruments classified as available for sale, impairment is assessed based on the same criteria as financial assets carried at amortized cost. However, the amount recorded for impairment is the cumulative loss measured as the difference between the amortized cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that investment previously recognized in the statement of profit or loss. Future interest income continues to be accrued based on the reduced carrying amount of the asset using the rate of interest used to discount the future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the impairment loss. Impairment losses on debt instruments are reversed through the statement of profit or loss if the subsequent increase in fair value of the instruments can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, other financial liabilities, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of other financial liabilities, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group’s financial liabilities include loans and borrowings, short-term debt instruments, placements from other financial institutions, accounts payable to brokerage customers, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, derivative financial liabilities, bonds payable, other current liabilities and other non-current liabilities.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by IAS 39. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognized in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the date of initial recognition and only if the criteria in IAS 39 are satisfied.

Other financial liabilities

After initial recognition, interest-bearing other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the effective interest rate amortization process.

Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Derivative financial instruments*Initial recognition and subsequent measurement*

Derivative financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of derivatives are taken directly to the statement of profit or loss, except for the effective portion of cash flow hedges, which is recognized in other comprehensive income and later reclassified to profit or loss when the hedged item affects profit or loss.

Financial assets held under resale agreements and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements

Financial assets held under resale agreements and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements are recorded at the amount actually paid or received when the transactions occur, and are recognized in the statement of financial position. The assets held under the agreements to resell are registered as off-balance-sheet items, while the assets sold under the agreements to repurchase are recorded in the statements of financial position.

The bid-ask spread of the financial assets under agreements to resell and financial assets sold under agreements to repurchase are recognized as interest income or interest expense using the effective interest rate method in the reselling or repurchasing period.

Accounts payable to brokerage customers

Accounts payable to brokerage customers are all deposited in the bank accounts designated by the Group. The Group recognizes the funds as liabilities for settlement to the customers.

The Group executes trade orders through stock exchanges on behalf of the customers. If the total amount of purchased securities exceeds that of sold securities, accounts payable to brokerage customers decrease by the difference in addition to the withholding stamp duty and commission. If the total amount of sold securities exceeds that of purchased securities, accounts payable to brokerage customers increase by the difference after deducting withholding stamp duty and commission.

Margin financing and securities lending services

Margin financing and securities lending services refer to the lending of funds by the Group to customers for purchase of securities, or lending of securities by the Group to customers for short-selling of securities, for which the customers provide the Group with collateral.

Margin financing services

The Group recognizes margin financing services to customers as margin accounts receivable, and recognizes the commission as interest income accordingly.

The policy of provision for impairment of margin accounts receivables is determined with reference to policy of provision for impairment of financial assets measured at amortized cost.

Securities lending services

The Group lends securities to their customers with agreed expiry dates and interest rates, and the same amount of similar securities received on the expiry date. Commission is recognized as interest income according to the margin financing agreement. The securities lending services are not derecognized. The financial assets are recognized as securities lending services in available-for-sale investments, and are subsequently measured according to available-for-sale investments.

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

Provisions

A provision is recognized when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognized for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

A contingent liability recognized in a business combination is initially measured at its fair value. Subsequently, it is measured at the higher of (i) the amount that would be recognized in accordance with the general guidance for provisions above; and (ii) the amount initially recognized less, when appropriate, cumulative amortization recognized in accordance with the guidance for revenue recognition.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognized to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Government grants

Government grants are recognized at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. Government grants related to income which are to compensate relevant expenditures or losses in future periods are recognized as deferred income and released to profit or loss during the period when the expense is incurred. Government grants that are to compensate incurred expenses or losses are recognized in profit or loss directly.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to the statement of profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments and released to the statement of profit or loss by way of a reduced depreciation charge.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for services provided in the normal course of business. Revenue is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and when revenue can be measured reliably, on the following basis:

Securities brokerage and investment consulting business

Income from the securities brokerage is recognized on a trade date basis when the relevant transactions are executed. Handling and settlement fee income arising from the brokerage business is recognized when the related services are rendered.

Income from the investment consulting business is recognized when the relevant transactions have been arranged or the relevant services have been rendered.

Underwriting and sponsorship business

Income from the underwriting and sponsorship business is recognized when the obligation of underwriting or sponsoring is completed, that is, the economic interests may flow into the Group and the relevant revenue and costs may be measured reliably.

Asset management business

Income from the asset management business is recognized when the Group is entitled to receive the income under the asset management agreement.

Interest income

Interest income is recognized in profit or loss using the effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts and payments through the expected life of the financial asset. The effective interest rate is established on initial recognition of the financial asset and is not revised subsequently.

The calculation of the effective interest rate includes all fees paid or received, transaction costs, and discounts or premiums that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. Transaction costs are incremental costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, issue or disposal of a financial asset.

Other income

Other income is recognized on an accrual basis.

Expenses recognitionCommission expenses

Commission expenses relate mainly to transactions, which are recognized as expenses when the services are received.

Interest expenses

Interest expenses are recognized based on the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable.

Other expenses

Other expenses are recognized on an accrual basis.

Share-based payments

Share-based payments consist of equity-settled share-based payments and cash-settled share-based payments. The term "equity-settled share-based payments" refers to a transaction in which the Group grants shares or other equity instruments as a consideration in return for services rendered.

The equity-settled share-based payment in return for employee services is measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted to the employees. If the right of an equity-settled share-based payment may be exercised immediately after the grant date, the fair value of the equity instruments on the grant date is recognized in profit or loss, with a corresponding increase in capital reserve. When the grant of equity instruments is conditional upon the achievement of a performance or service condition, an amount for the services received during the vesting period is recognized based on the best available estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest which will be revised, if subsequent information (such as the change on the number of employees who satisfies all vesting conditions, achievement of performance and so on) indicates that the number of equity instruments expected to vest differs from previous estimates. The fair value of equity instruments is calculated based on the binomial model.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognized, together with a corresponding increase in capital reserve, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognized at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of options that will ultimately vest.

No expense is recognized for options that do not ultimately vest, except for options where vesting is conditional upon a market or non-vesting condition, which are treated as vested irrespective of whether or not the market condition or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled transaction award are modified, an expense is recognized as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. An additional expense is recognized for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where equity-settled share-based payment is cancelled, it is treated as if it vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense that otherwise would have been recognized for services received over the remaining vesting period is recognized immediately. This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the entity or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

A cash-settled share-based payment rendered by the Group shall be measured in accordance with the fair value of liability based on the shares or other equity instruments undertaken by the Group. It shall be initially measured at fair value on the grant date using the binomial model, taking into account the clauses and conditions of the equity instruments granted. If the right may be exercised immediately after the grant, the fair value of the liability shall, on the date of the grant, be included in the relevant costs or expenses, with a corresponding increase in the liability. If the right may not be exercised until the vesting period comes to an end or until the specified performance conditions are met, at the end of each reporting period within the vesting period, the services obtained in the current period shall, based on the best estimate of the information about the exercisable right, be included in the relevant costs or expenses with a corresponding increase in the liability. The Group shall, at the end of each reporting period and settlement date prior to the settlement of the liability, re-assess the fair values of the liability with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Fiduciary wealth management

The Group's fiduciary wealth management business includes targeted asset management, collective asset management and specified asset management. The Group keeps separate accounting records for each of these investment schemes, and periodically reconciles the accounting and valuation results of each scheme with the custodians.

Employee benefits

Employee benefits refer to all forms of consideration and other related expense except share based payments given by the Group in exchange for service rendered by employees. The employee benefits include short-term employee benefits, post-employment benefits, termination benefits and other long-term employee benefits. Benefits provided to an employee's spouse, children, dependants, family members of deceased employees, or other beneficiaries are also employee benefits.

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided.

Post-employment benefits (Defined contribution plan)

The Group participates in a defined contribution plan in which the employees benefit from pensions and unemployment insurance managed by the government, and annuity plans managed by the Group. Such expenditure is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period when it is incurred.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognized at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognizes restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

Other long-term employee benefits

Other long-term employee benefits are applicable to the rules on post-employment benefits, to recognize their net liabilities or net assets, while the changes are recorded in current profit or loss or related asset cost.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalization of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs capitalized. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Dividend distributions

Dividends proposed by the directors are not deducted from equity, until they have been approved by the shareholders in a shareholder meeting. When the dividends have been approved by the shareholders, they are recognized as a liability.

Foreign currencies

The Financial Information is presented in RMB, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are currencies other than RMB. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into RMB at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss are translated into RMB at the average exchange rates for the year.

The resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the translation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is transferred to the statement of profit or loss.

Cash flows denominated in foreign currencies and cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated using the average exchange rates for the year. The impact on cash caused by the fluctuation of exchange rates is presented as a separate line item in the statement of cash flows.

Operating segment information

Reportable segments are identified based on operating segments which are determined based on the structure of the Group's internal organization, management requirements and internal reporting system. An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, whose financial performance is regularly reviewed by the Group's management to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance, and for which financial information regarding financial performance is available.

Two or more operating segments may be aggregated into a single operating segment if the segments have the same or similar economic characteristics and meet certain criteria.

Intersegment sales and transfers are transacted with reference to the selling prices used for sales made to third parties at the then prevailing market prices.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Financial Information requires management to make judgments and estimates that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the reporting date. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets and liabilities affected in the future.

Judgement

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, apart from those assumptions involving estimations, management has made the following judgments including the classification of financial assets, the transfer of financial assets and consolidation of structured entities, which have significant effects on the amounts recognized in the financial statements.

Classification of financial assets

Management needs to make significant judgment in classification of financial assets. Different classifications may affect accounting methods as well as the financial position and operating results of the Group.

Transfer of financial assets

Management needs to make significant judgment in transfer of financial assets. Whether financial assets are transferred or not may affect accounting methods as well as the financial position and operating results of the Group.

Consolidation of structured entities

Management needs to make significant judgment on whether a structured entity is under control and shall be combined. Such judgment may affect accounting methods as well as the financial position and operating results of the Group.

When assessing control, the Group considers: (a) power over the investee, (b) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from involvement with the investee; and (c) the ability to use power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's returns.

When judging the level of the control over the structured entities, the Group considers the following four elements:

- (a) The decisions the Group applied when setting up the structured entities and the involvement in those entities;
- (b) The related agreement arrangements;
- (c) The Group will only take specific actions under certain conditions or incidents; and
- (d) The commitments made by the Group to the structured entities.

When assessing whether there is control over the structured entities, the Group also considers whether the decisions it makes are as a principal or as an agent. Aspects of considerations normally include the decision making scope over the structured entities, substantive rights of third parties, reward of the Group, and the risk of undertaking variable returns from owning other benefits of the structured entities.

Estimation uncertainty

The following are key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of each reporting period, which may result in significant adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the next accounting period.

Fair values of financial assets and derivative financial instruments determined using valuation techniques

If the market for a financial instrument is not active, the Group estimates fair value by using valuation techniques, such as the discounted cash flow analysis model, etc. In practice, the discounted cash flow analysis model makes the maximum use of observable inputs, but the management still needs to make estimations on counterparty credit risk, volatility of market interest rate and correlation factors and etc. If there is a change in any assumption of the above factors, the assessment of fair value of financial instruments will be affected.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities

According to the provisions of the tax law, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the applicable tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the assets are realized or when the liabilities are settled. Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all unused tax losses, to the extent that it is likely that taxable profit will be available to offset these unused tax losses. Many judgments are needed from management to estimate the amount, timing and applicable tax rate of future taxable profit, together with the tax planning strategies, to determine the amount of deferred income tax assets and liabilities to be recognized.

Impairment of available-for-sale investments

If there has been a significant or prolonged (after considering all related factors) decline in the fair value of available-for-sale investments, the impairment losses shall be provided by reclassification the cumulative unrealized loss arising from decline in fair value and previously recorded in other comprehensive loss to profit or loss. The Group considers the extent and duration of the decline in evaluating whether a decline in fair value is significant or prolonged. The Group generally considers a significant decline to be one in which the fair value is below the weighted average cost by more than 30% or a prolonged decline to be one in which fair value is below the weighted average cost for a continuous period of more than twelve months or longer. The Group also takes into consideration of other specific relevant factors when assessing whether there is objective evidence that an investment is impaired or not. Regarding the funds contributed by the Group to the designated accounts managed by China Securities Finance Corporation Limited, owing to the unique characteristics of this investment, that is, the Group cannot control the way in which China Securities Finance Corporation Limited uses our fund contributions and when the contributions are redeemed, after further considering other relevant factors such as industry practice, etc., the Group considers the threshold for the determination of impairment for this investment to be the fair value below the cost by more than 50% or for a continuous period of more than thirty six months.

Impairment losses on debt instruments are reversed through the statements of profit or loss if the increase in fair value of the instruments can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment losses were recognized in the statements of profit or loss. Impairment losses on equity instruments classified as available for sale are not reversed through the statements of profit or loss. Increases in their fair value after impairment are recognized directly in other comprehensive income.

Impairment of goodwill

The Group determines whether goodwill is impaired at least on an annual basis. This requires an estimation of the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated. Estimating the value in use requires the Group to estimate the expected future cash flows from the cash-generating units and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

5. TAXATION

The Group's main applicable taxes and tax rates are as follows:

Tax type	Tax basis	Tax rate
Corporate income tax	Taxable profits	16.5%-25%
Business tax	Taxable revenue	5%
Value added tax ("VAT")	Taxable revenue	6%-17%
City maintenance and construction tax . . .	Business tax and value added tax paid	1%-7%
Education surcharge	Business tax and value added tax paid	3%

The income tax rate applicable to the Company and its subsidiaries in Mainland China is 25%. The income tax rate applicable to subsidiaries in Hong Kong is 16.5%.

Pursuant to the "Circular regarding the Comprehensive Implementation of the Pilot Programs for Transformation from Business Taxes to Value-added Taxes (the "VAT Pilot Programs")" (Cai Shui [2016] No. 36), the "Circular regarding Further Clarification of Relevant Policies Applicable to the Financial Sector in the Comprehensive Implementation of the VAT Pilot Programs (Cai Shui [2016] No. 46) and the "Supplementary Circular regarding VAT Policies Applicable to Transactions between Financial Institutions" (Cai Shui [2016] No. 70) issued by the Ministry of Finance (the "MOF") and the State Administration of Taxation (the "SAT") of the PRC, effective from 1 May 2016, the Group is subject to value-added taxes on its income from principal businesses at 6%, instead of business tax at 5% prior to 1 May 2016.

Pursuant to the Notice on Clarifying Value-added Tax Policies on Finance, Real Estate Development and Education Assisted Services (《關於明確金融、房地產開發、教育輔助服務等增值稅收政策的通知》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on 21 December 2016, taxpayer's purchasing various asset management products such as funds, trusts and wealth management products and holding them to maturity shall not be identified as the "transfer of financial products" stipulated in Cai Shui [2016] No. 36. For the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products, the manager of the asset management products shall be the taxpayer of the value-added tax.

According to the Supplemental Notice on Certain Issues in relation to Value-Added Tax Policies on Asset Management Products (《關於資管產品增值稅政策有關問題的補充通知》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on 6 January 2017, starting from 1 July 2017 (inclusive), for the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products, the manager of the asset management products shall be the taxpayer of the value-added tax and pay the value-added tax pursuant to the prevailing rules. For the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products before 1 July 2017, it is not required to pay the unpaid value-added tax.

Pursuant to the resolution of the meeting of shareholders held on 19 May 2016, the Company distributed cash dividends of RMB5.20 yuan for every 10 shares (tax included) amounting to RMB3,965 million in total for the year ended 31 December 2015.

The dividend distribution of the Company triggered the mandatory interest payment event of perpetual subordinated bonds. As at 31 December 2015 and 2016, the Company has recognized the dividend payable to other equity instrument holders of RMB590 million.

Pursuant to the resolution of the third meeting of the 5th term of the Board held on 19 February 2017, the Board has proposed the annual profit distribution plan for the year ended 31 December 2016 as follows: after withdrawing a 10% after-tax profit as statutory common reserve fund, general risk reserves, and trading risk reserves respectively, in accordance with relevant regulations, based on the total A share common stock on the record date, the Company shall distribute cash dividends of RMB3.90 yuan for every 10 shares (tax included) amounting to RMB2,973.75 million in total for the year ended 31 December 2016. The profit distribution plan has been approved by the shareholders in the shareholder meeting held on 13 March 2017.

20. EARNINGS PER SHARE ATTRIBUTABLE TO ORDINARY EQUITY HOLDERS OF THE COMPANY

The calculation of the basic earnings per share amounts is based on the profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year. The newly issued shares are calculated in accordance with the conditions stated in the issuance agreement, starting from the consideration receivable date (usually the issuance date).

The numerator of the diluted earnings per share amounts is based on the profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company, adjusted to reflect (a) the interest of dilutive potential ordinary shares recognized in profit or loss, where applicable, (b) the income or expenses from conversion of dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares, (c) the dilutive effect of subsidiaries' potential ordinary shares and (d) tax impact of the above adjustments.

The denominator of the diluted earnings per share amounts is the total number of (a) the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year, as used in the basic earnings per share calculation, and (b) the weighted average number of ordinary shares assumed to have been issued at consideration on the deemed exercise or conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

— Diluted (4)	1.11	2.21	1.21

(1) The Company issued two batches of perpetual subordinated bonds during the year ended 31 December 2015, under the terms and conditions set out in note 53. For the purpose of calculating basic earnings per ordinary share in respect of the years 2015 and 2016, RMB499.64 million and RMB590.00 million attributable to perpetual subordinated bonds were deducted from profits attributable to equity holders of the Company.

(2) The dilutive effect is due to the share options issued by Guotai Junan International Holdings Limited ("GJIHL"). When calculating the earnings per share, the Company adjusted the numerator (profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent entity), to reflect changes in profit or loss attributable to the parent company as a result of the assumed conversion of these share options into ordinary shares of GJIHL.

(3) Basic Earnings per share is calculated by dividing profit attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

(4) Diluted Earnings per share is calculated by dividing adjusted profit attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

The Company acquired 51% of the equity interest in Shanghai Securities Co., Ltd (“Shanghai Securities”) from Shanghai International Group Co., Ltd. in July 2014. The Group recognized the excess of fair value of the consideration transferred over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired as the goodwill of the cash-generating unit (“CGU”) of Shanghai Securities Co., Ltd.

The Company acquired 100% of the equity interest in Guotai Junan Futures Co., Ltd. from a third party in 2007. The Group recognized the excess of fair value of the consideration transferred over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired as the goodwill of the CGU of Guotai Junan Futures Co., Ltd.

The recoverable amount of the Unit A and Unit B has been determined on the basis of value in use calculation. The calculation used cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management and a pre-tax discount rate of 12.5% which reflected the risk specific to cash-generating units. Other assumptions include budgeted income and gross margin estimated based on the past performance and management’s expectations for the market development.

Management believes that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the carrying amount of the CGU to exceed its recoverable amount.

Impairment testing of other intangible assets with indefinite useful lives:

The respective recoverable amounts of the cash generating unit relating to securities brokerage business whereby these trading seats rights are allocated to, using a value in use calculation, exceed the carrying amounts. The key assumptions are pre-tax discount rate of 10.0% and gross margin estimated based on the past performance and management's expectations for the market development. Accordingly, management determined that there was no impairment of the trading seats rights as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016.

The other intangible assets of securities and futures brokerage qualification is generated from the acquisition of Shanghai Securities, and the impairment of which is tested together with the goodwill arising from the acquisition of Shanghai Securities, that is, the carrying amount of securities and futures brokerage qualification was included in the cash generating unit to which the goodwill was allocated for impairment testing purpose. Management believes that there was no impairment of the securities and futures brokerage qualification as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016. Refer to Note 23 for impairment testing of goodwill arising from the acquisition of Shanghai Securities.

- (1) On 20 August 2016, pursuant to the approval of the Board of Directors, the Company resolved to sell its entire 51% equity interest in GTJA Allianz Funds Co., Ltd. (“GTJA Allianz Funds”). In January 2017, the equity interest was listed for sale on the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange. Upon the completion of the transaction, the Company will not hold any interest in GTJA Allianz Funds. The proposed transaction is subject to the approval from the CSRC.

- (2) On 11 December 2015, Shanghai Securities Co., Ltd, a subsidiary of the Company, entered into an agreement with Guiyang Financial Holding Co., Ltd to sell 66.67% of its interests in Haiji Securities Co., Ltd (“Haiji Securities”) in exchange for a consideration of RMB3,011,220 thousand. On 25 February 2016, this transaction was approved by the CSRC. As a result of the transaction, the Company lost the control over Haiji Securities and subsequently accounted for the investment in Haiji Securities using the equity method.

In December 2016, Guiyang Financial Holding Co., Ltd contributed RMB5 billion to Haiji Securities for capital increase. As a result, the shareholding of Haiji Securities held by Shanghai Securities decreased from 33.33% to 5.08%. As a result of the transaction, the Company lost the significant influence over Haiji Securities and subsequently accounted for the investment in Haiji Securities as available-for-sale financial assets.

- (3) These subsidiaries are directly held by the Company.
- (4) According to the agreement between the shareholders of Shanghai Shipping, GTJA Innovation Investment Co., Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and a shareholder of Shanghai Shipping, has been granted the authority to direct Shanghai Shipping’s relevant activities unilaterally. As a result, Shanghai Shipping is accounted for as a subsidiary of the Company.

Shanghai GTJA Juntong Investment Management Co., Ltd., Guotai Junan (Shanghai) Science and Technology Equity Investment Fund Management Co., Ltd., and Shanghai Shipping Capital (Hong Kong) Holding Co., Ltd. are subsidiaries of Shanghai Shipping, and accordingly are subsidiaries of the Company.

- (5) GJIHL, a subsidiary which is controlled by the Company through its voting rights of 64.99%, via its wholly-owned subsidiary Guotai Junan (Hong Kong) Limited controls Guotai Junan Fund Management Limited through contractual arrangement between shareholders whereby Guotai Junan (Hong Kong) Limited has been granted the authority to direct relevant activities of Guotai Junan Fund Management Limited unilaterally. As a result, Guotai Junan Fund Management Limited is accounted for as a subsidiary of the Company.

(c) Business combination*Shanghai Securities Co., Ltd*

On 1 July 2014, pursuant to the approval by the CSRC, the Company acquired a 51% interest in Shanghai Securities from Shanghai International Group Co., Ltd, at a consideration of RMB3.571 billion. The change of business registration by Shanghai Securities was completed on 8 July 2014. The Group recognized the excess of the consideration transferred over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired as the goodwill.

The fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities of Shanghai Securities as at the date of acquisition were as follows:

	Fair value recognized as at the date of acquisition
Property and equipment	1,179,221
Other intangible assets	1,083,383
Available-for-sale financial assets	3,655,041
Margin accounts receivable	2,719,851
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	1,921,139
Cash held on behalf of brokerage customers	5,666,340
Other current and non-current assets	1,690,788
Loans and borrowings	(1,000,000)
Placements from other financial institutions	(662,000)
Accounts payable to brokerage customers	(5,817,349)
Employee benefits payable	(162,759)
Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements	(2,731,906)
Bonds payable	(899,797)
Deferred tax liabilities	(485,017)
Other current and non-current liabilities	(117,684)
Total identifiable net assets at fair value	6,039,251
Attributable to:
Owners of Shanghai Securities	5,914,874
Non-controlling interests	124,377
Total identifiable net assets at fair value acquired by the Company (51% interest).	3,016,586
Less: Profit attributable to Shanghai International Group Co., Ltd from the valuation base date to the acquisition date	(24,482)
Goodwill on acquisition	578,916
Satisfied by cash	3,571,020

Goodwill arose from the acquisition because the cost of the combination included a control premium. In addition, the consideration paid for the combination effectively included amounts in relation to the benefit of expected synergies, revenue growth, future market development and the assembled workforce. These benefits are not recognized separately from goodwill because they do not meet the recognition criteria for identifiable intangible assets.

Since the acquisition, Shanghai Securities contributed RMB1,341 million to the Group's revenue and RMB350 million to the consolidated profit for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Had the acquisition been completed on 1 January 2014, the Group's revenue for the year ended 31 December 2014 would have been RMB26,280 million, and the Group's net profit for the year would have been RMB7,343 million.

Gain on disposal	2,753,981
Appreciation of revaluation on the remaining 33.33% equity interests	84,474
Other comprehensive income reclassified to profit or loss	(3,116)
Total gain on disposal of Haiji Securities	2,835,339

An analysis of the net inflow of cash and cash equivalents in respect of the disposal of Haiji Securities is as follows:

	2015	2016
Cash consideration received in advance	3,011,220	—
Cash and bank balances disposed of	—	(184,355)
Net inflow/(outflow) of cash and cash equivalents in respect of the disposal of Haiji Securities	3,011,220	(184,355)

In December 2016, Guiyang Financial Holding Co., Ltd contributed RMB5 billion to Haiji Securities for capital increase. As a result, the shareholding of Haiji Securities held by Shanghai Securities decreased from 33.33% to 5.08%. The Group lost its significance influence over Haiji Securities and therefore accounted for the remaining equity interests as available-for-sale financial assets. The remaining equity interests were revalued at their fair value with a revaluation gain of RMB59,324 thousand.

26. INTERESTS IN STRUCTURED ENTITIES

(a) INTERESTS IN CONSOLIDATED STRUCTURED ENTITIES

The Group has consolidated certain structured entities including asset management schemes, trust schemes and limited partnerships. For those structured entities where the Group is involved as a manager, investment adviser or general partner, the Group assesses whether the combination of investments it held together with its remuneration creates exposure to variability of returns from the activities of those structured entities that is of such significance that it indicates that the Group is a principal.

The total assets of these consolidated structured entities amounted to RMB18,333 million, RMB19,209 million and RMB15,707 million as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 respectively.

Interests held by other investors in these consolidated structured entities were classified as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, other current liabilities and other non-current liabilities in the consolidated statements of financial position.

(b) INTERESTS IN UNCONSOLIDATED STRUCTURED ENTITIES

The Group exercises the power throughout the structured entities including limited partnerships and asset management products by acting as manager or general partner during the year. Except for the structured entities the Group has consolidated stated in note 26(a), in management's opinion, the variable returns the Group exposed to over these structured entities that the Group has interest in are not significant. The Group therefore did not consolidate these structured entities.

The Group classified the investments in unconsolidated limited partnerships and asset management products managed by the Group as available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the carrying amounts of the Group's interests in unconsolidated structured entities amounted to RMB961 million, RMB5,892 million and RMB10,925 million, respectively. The management fee arising from these unconsolidated structured entities amounted to RMB105 million, RMB1,093 million, and RMB1,005 million, for the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, respectively.

The carrying amounts of interests in unconsolidated structured entities in the consolidated statements of financial position are approximately equal to the maximum exposure to the loss of interests held by the Group in the unconsolidated structured entities.

- (1) On 13 February 2015, GTJA Innovation Investment Co., Ltd. (“GTJA Innovation Investment”) and all the other investors of Shanghai Shipping Industry Fund Management Co., Ltd (“Shanghai Shipping Industry”) entered into an agreement, whereby it was agreed to have GTJA Innovation Investment dominate the operation of Shanghai Shipping Industry. As a result, Shanghai Shipping Industry ceased to be an associate and became a subsidiary of the Group.
- (2) Although the Group’s percentages of shareholding in these investees are higher than 50%, they are accounted for as joint ventures as the Group only has joint control of these investees due to relevant arrangements stipulated in the articles of association or other agreements.
- (3) The Group disposed of the investment in Botai Fangde (Beijing) Capital Management Limited in 2015.

(1) As at 31 December 2015 and 2016, the non-current available-for-sale financial assets included funds contributed by the Company together with various PRC securities firms, to designated accounts managed by China Securities Finance Corporation Limited (“CSFC”). Under the relevant agreements with CSFC, the Company contributed a total amount of RMB17,014 million in July and September 2015. CSFC managing operation and investment of the designated accounts and securities firms will share the risks and returns from the investments in proportion to their respective contributions. It is unclear how CSFC will invest the funds contributed and when the investment will be returned. As at 31 December 2015 and 2016, the fair values of the Company’s contribution were RMB16,169 million and RMB15,964 million based on the investment account statement provided by CSFC. Considering the nature and purpose of this investment, its difference from our proprietary stock investment, and uncontrollable timing for recovery, the Group considers the threshold for the determination of impairment for this investment to be the fair value below the cost by more than 50% or for a continuous period of more than thirty six months. Management is of the view that there is no objective evidence of impairment with significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of this investment as of 31 December 2015 and 2016.

(2) As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the listed equity securities of the Group included approximately RMB351,890 thousand, RMB1,492,406 thousand, and RMB1,516,551 thousand of restricted shares, respectively. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the listed equity securities of the Company included approximately RMB19,505 thousand, RMB21,562 thousand, and RMB18,280 thousand of restricted shares, respectively. The restricted shares are listed in the PRC with a legally enforceable restriction on these securities that prevents the Group and the Company to dispose of within the specified period. The fair value of the securities is determined by reference to the quoted market prices and discounted to reflect the effect of the restriction.

As at 31 December 2014 and 2015, the fund investments with lock-up periods held by the Group were approximately RMB97,786 thousand, RMB64,493 thousand, respectively. As at 31 December 2016, there were no fund investments with lock-up period included in the available-for-sale financial assets held by the Group. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, there were no fund investments with lock-up period included in the available-for-sale financial assets held by the Company.

As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the collective asset management schemes with lock-up periods held by the Group amounted to approximately RMB448,710 thousand, RMB540,838 thousand and RMB194,949 thousand, respectively. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the collective asset management schemes with lock-up periods held by the Company amounted to approximately RMB61,325 thousand, RMB82,985 thousand and RMB86,285 thousand, respectively.

As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Group entered into securities lending arrangements with clients that resulted in the transfer of available-for-sale investments with total fair values of RMB1,075,633 thousand, RMB71,223 thousand and RMB435,835 thousand to external clients, respectively. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Company entered into securities lending arrangements with clients that resulted in the transfer of available-for-sale investments with total fair values of RMB1,064,254 thousand, RMB70,819 thousand and RMB427,773 thousand to external clients, respectively. These have not resulted in the derecognition of the financial assets in accordance with the accounting policy.

- (3) The fair value of the collateral for the securities lending business is analyzed in note 36 together with the fair value of the collateral of the margin financing business.
- (4) Other investments mainly represent investments in asset management schemes issued and managed by the Group and the Company, wealth management products issued by banks and targeted asset management schemes (or trust investments) and assets-back securities managed by non-bank financial institutions.

(i) Prepaid equity investments

It mainly represents the prepayment made for the acquisition of interests in Hua An Fund Management Co., Ltd. In April 2014, as approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, GTJA Innovation Investment entered into an agreement with Shanghai Electric Group Corp. (“Shanghai Electric”) to purchase a 20% equity interest in Hua An Fund Management Co., Ltd. from Shanghai Electric, at a consideration of RMB600.1 million. As at 29 September 2015 and 30 July 2016, GTJA Innovation Investment and Shanghai Electric entered into two supplementary agreements to extend the agreement to 30 September 2016 with an additional payment.

As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, GTJA Innovation Investment has paid according to the agreements, amounts of RMB420.1 million, RMB640.7 million and RMB640.7 million, respectively. As at 31 December 2016, this transaction was subject to the CSRC’s approval.

As at 12 January 2017, GTJA Innovation Investment and Shanghai Electric entered into the third supplementary agreement, to further extend the agreement to 30 September 2017 with an additional payment of RMB20.1 million.

In addition, as at 31 December 2014, the prepayment for equity investments included capital of RMB65 million paid by the Company to set up E-Capital Transfer Co., Ltd., in which the Company holds 5.31% interests. On 8 January 2015, E-Capital Transfer Co., Ltd. completed its business registration with the Shanghai Industry and Commerce Administration Bureau. It was recognized as available-for-sale financial asset in 2015.

(ii) Prepaid construction expenditure

On 16 October 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with Shanghai Bund & Riverside Comprehensive Development Co., Ltd. (“Bund & Riverside Development”). According to this agreement, the Company agreed to purchase one of the 6 properties to be developed by Bund & Riverside Development, on a land lot located at Huangpu District, Shanghai, provided that Bund & Riverside Development acquired this land use right at auction. Bund & Riverside Development obtained the land use right on December 2013. The consideration includes land cost, construction cost, allocated expenses, and etc. As of 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the prepayment for this project amounted to RMB572.3 million.

39. CASH HELD ON BEHALF OF BROKERAGE CUSTOMERS

The Group maintains segregated deposit accounts with banks and authorized institutions to hold cash on behalf of customers arising from its normal course of business. The Group has recorded the related amounts as cash held on behalf of customers and the corresponding liabilities as accounts payable to brokerage customers on the grounds that it is liable for any loss or misappropriation of its brokerage clients' monies. In Mainland China, the use of cash held on behalf of customers for security and the settlement of their transactions is restricted and governed by relevant third-party deposit regulations issued by the CSRC. In Hong Kong, the "Securities and Futures (Customer Money) Rules" implementing the related provisions of the Securities and Futures Ordinance impose similar restrictions.

Accounts payable to brokerage customers mainly include money held on behalf of customers in banks and clearing houses, and are interest-bearing at the prevailing market interest rates.

The majority of the accounts payable balances are repayable on demand except where certain accounts payable to brokerage customers represent monies received from customers for their margin financing activities under normal course of business, such as margin financing and securities lending. Only the excess amounts over the required margin deposits and cash collateral stipulated are repayable on demand.

No aging analysis is disclosed as in the opinion of the directors of the Company, the aging analysis does not give additional value in view of the nature of these businesses.

- (1) As at 9 June 2015, as approved by the CSRC, the Company was listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and issued 1,525 million ordinary shares to the public at a price of RMB19.71 per share. The proceeds received from the A share IPO amounted to RMB30,058 million (RMB29,663 million after deducting underwriting and sponsorship fees), which resulted in the increase in the registered capital of RMB1,525 million and share premium of RMB28,138 million, respectively.

53. OTHER EQUITY INSTRUMENTS

On 22 January 2015, the Company issued the first batch of perpetual subordinated bonds amounting to RMB5 billion with an initial interest rate of 6.00%. On 3 April 2015, the Company issued the second batch of perpetual subordinated bonds amounting to RMB5 billion with an initial interest rate of 5.80%. (collectively referred to as “Perpetual Subordinated Bonds”)

The Perpetual Subordinated Bonds have no fixed maturity date. The Company has an option to redeem them at their principal amounts plus any accrued interest, on the fifth interest payment date or any interest payment date afterwards.

The interest rate for perpetual subordinated bond is fixed in the first 5 years and will be repriced every 5 years. The repriced interest rate is determined as the sum of the current base rate and the initial spread plus 300bp. The current base rate is defined as the average yield of 5 years treasury from the interbank fixed rate bond yield curve published on China Bond webpage 5 working days before the adjustment.

The issuer has the option to defer interest payment, except in the event of mandatory interest payments, so that at each interest payment date, the issuer may choose to defer the interest payment to the next payment date for the current period as well as all interests and accreted interest already deferred, without being subject to any limitation with respect to the number of deferrals. Of which, mandatory interest payment events are limited to dividend distributions to ordinary equity holders and reductions of registered capital.

The Perpetual Subordinated Bonds issued by the Company are classified as equity instruments and presented under equity in the Group's and the Company's statements of financial position.

As at 31 December 2015 and 2016, the Company recognized dividends payable to holders of the Perpetual Subordinated Bonds amounting to RMB590 million and RMB590 million (note 19), respectively.

54. RESERVES AND RETAINED PROFITS

(1) Capital reserve

Capital reserve mainly includes share premium arising from the issuance of new shares at prices in excess of face value and the difference between the considerations of acquisition of equity interests from non-controlling shareholders and the carrying amount of the proportionate net assets.

(2) Investment revaluation reserve

The movements of the investment revaluation reserve of the Group and the Company are set out below:

(3) Translation reserve

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group at the rate of exchange prevailing at the end of the reporting period, and the income and expenses are translated at the average exchange rates or at the approximate exchange rates for the period. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the translation reserve.

(4) Surplus reserve

The surplus reserve includes statutory surplus reserve and discretionary surplus reserve.

Pursuant to the “Company Law of the People’s Republic of China”, articles of association of the Company and the decision of the Board, the Company is required to set aside 10% of its net profit (after offsetting the accumulated losses incurred in previous years) to the statutory surplus reserve until the balance reaches 50% of the respective registered capital. Subject to the approval of the shareholders, the statutory surplus reserve may be used to offset accumulated losses, and may also be converted into capital of the Company, provided that the balance of the statutory surplus reserve after such capitalization is not less than 25% of the registered capital immediately before capitalization.

Pursuant to the resolution of the 4th extraordinary meeting of the 4th term of the board of directors on 28 May 2013, the Company decided to raise the appropriation rate of the discretionary surplus reserve and the general risk reserve by 1%, respectively, during the existence of the security company bond issued in 2013 with a maturity date of 29 July 2015, that is to appropriate 1% of its net profit to discretionary surplus reserve and 11% of its net profit to the general risk reserve.

(5) General reserve

The general reserve includes the general risk reserve and the transaction risk reserve.

In accordance with the requirements of the CSRC Circular regarding the Annual Reporting of Securities Companies in 2007 (Zhengjian Jigou Zi [2007] No. 320) issued on 18 December 2007, the Company appropriates 10% of its annual net profit to the general risk reserve.

In accordance with the requirements of the CSRC Circular regarding the Annual Reporting of Securities Companies in 2007 (Zhengjian Jigou Zi [2007] No. 320) issued on 18 December 2007 and in compliance with the Securities Law, for the purpose of covering securities trading losses, the Company appropriates 10% of its annual net profit to the transaction risk reserve.

Pursuant to the resolution of the 4th extraordinary meeting of the 4th term of the board of directors on 28 May 2013, the Company decided to raise the appropriation rate of the discretionary surplus reserve and the general risk reserve by 1%, respectively, during the existence of the security company bond issued in 2013 with a maturity date of 29 July 2015, that is to appropriate 1% of its net profit to the discretionary surplus reserve and 11% of its net profit to the general risk reserve.

55. TRANSFERRED FINANCIAL ASSETS

In the normal course of business, the Group enters into certain transactions in which it transfers recognized financial assets to third parties or customers. If these transfers qualify for derecognition, the Group derecognizes all or part of the financial assets where appropriate. If the Group has retained substantially all the risks and rewards of these assets, the Group continues to recognize these assets.

(1) Repurchase agreements

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition include debt securities held by counterparties as collateral under repurchase agreements. The Group transfers the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of these securities, but has an obligation to repurchase them at the agreed date and price. The Group has determined that it retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities and therefore has not derecognized them. In addition, they are recognized as financial assets sold under repurchase agreements.

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition also include margin accounts receivable-backed repurchase whose beneficial rights are transferred to counterparties and repurchased by the Group at maturity date. The Group has determined that it retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these financial assets and therefore has not derecognized them. In addition, they are recognized as financial assets sold under repurchase agreements.

(2) Securities lending

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition include securities lent to customers for the securities lending business, for which the customers provide the Group with collateral that could fully cover the credit risk exposure of the securities lent. The customers have an obligation to return the securities according to the contracts. The Group has determined that it retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities and therefore has not derecognized the securities lent.

(3) Asset-backed securities management schemes

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition include margin accounts receivable transferred to asset-backed securities management schemes (the "Schemes"). The Group sells margin accounts receivable to the securitization vehicle, which in turn issues asset-backed securities to investors with the purchased assets as the underlying assets. Such securitization vehicle is consolidated by the Group, consequently the underlying assets are transferred from the Group to the investors. The Group has the obligation to pass cash flows from the underlying assets to the investors.

The cash flows that the securitization vehicle collects from the transferred assets has not been passed through to investors without material delay, and the Group has the obligation to repurchase these margin accounts receivable on specified future dates and at agreed-upon prices. Thus the Group has not derecognized these financial assets in the consolidated statements of financial position. The consideration received from the investors is recognized as a financial liability.

(4) Margin financing borrowing

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition include securities transferred to CSFC. When CSFC exercises the rights attached to the securities, it shall follow the instructions of the Group. The Group has determined that it retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities and therefore has not derecognized the securities transferred.

The following tables provide a summary of the carrying amounts related to transferred financial assets that are not derecognized in their entirety and the associated liabilities:

56. COMMITMENTS

(1) Capital commitments

In June 2014, the Company commenced its self-used office buildings construction project on No. 49 land lot in Jingan District, Shanghai, after obtaining the relevant permit. The project expects to be completed in 3 years, with a total budget of RMB1.6 billion, of which RMB748 million is the development cost and RMB876 million is the land cost. This budget has been approved in the 5th meeting of the 4th term of the board of directors. In August 2016, the adjustment of budget amounting to RMB1.88 billion has been approved in the 2nd meeting of the 5th term of the board of directors. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the accumulated amounts paid by Shanghai Guoxiang Real Estate Co., Ltd were RMB954 million, RMB1,042 million and RMB1,139 million, respectively.

On 16 October 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with Bund & Riverside Development. According to this agreement, the Company agreed to purchase one of the 6 properties to be developed by Bund & Riverside Development on a land lot located at Huangpu District, Shanghai, provided that Bund & Riverside Development acquired this land use right at auction. Bund & Riverside Development obtained the land use right in December 2013. The consideration includes land cost, construction cost, allocated expenses, and etc. The budget for this project is RMB1.18 billion, which was approved in the 10th meeting of the 4th term of the board of directors. As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the accumulated amounts paid by the Company were RMB572 million, RMB572 million and RMB572 million, respectively.

57. CONTINGENCIES

As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the contingent liabilities due to pending litigation amounted to RMB25,764 thousand, RMB32,468 thousand and RMB155,744 thousand, respectively.

58. SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS OF A SUBSIDIARY

GJIHL, a subsidiary of the Company, operated two equity-settled share-based compensation schemes including a share option scheme (the “Share Option Scheme”) and a share award scheme (the “Share Award Scheme”) for the purpose of motivating and rewarding staff who contributed to GJIHL’s operations.

(1) Share Option Scheme

The maximum number of unexercised share options currently permitted to be granted under the scheme is an amount equivalent to 10% of the outstanding shares of GJIHL at the date of approval of the Share Option Scheme. The maximum number of shares issuable under share options to each eligible participant in the scheme within any 12-month period is limited to 1% of the outstanding shares of GJIHL. Any further grant of share options in excess of this limit is subject to the approval of shareholders in general meeting of GJIHL.

Share options granted to directors, chief executive, substantial shareholders, or their related parties of GJIHL, are subject to pre-approval of independent non-executive directors of GJIHL. In addition, any share options granted to controlling shareholders, independent non-executive directors, or their related parties, in excess of 0.1% of the outstanding shares or with an aggregate value (based on the price of the GJIHL’s shares at grant date) in excess of HKD5 million, within any 12-month period, are subject to pre-approval of general meeting of GJIHL.

The offer of a grant of share option can be accepted within 28 days from the date of offer, upon payment of a nominal consideration of HKD1 in total by the grantee. The exercise period of the share option granted is determinable by the board of directors, and commences after a vesting period of one to three years and ends on a date which is not later than ten years from the date of offer of the share option.

The exercise price of share options is determined by the board of directors, but should not be less than the highest of (i) the Stock Exchange closing price of GJIHL's shares on the date of offer of the share options; (ii) the average Stock Exchange closing price of GJIHL's shares for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of offer; and (iii) the nominal value of GJIHL's ordinary share.

Share options do not confer rights of obtaining dividends or voting rights of shareholders' meetings.

In January 2014, 50 million share options have been granted to the directors and employees, with the option period from 10 January 2014 to 9 January 2024. Each one-third of the share options are allowed to be exercised on 10 January 2015, 2016 and 2017, respectively. The exercise price of share options is HKD3.82 per share. Among the share options granted, a total of 9.75 million share options were granted to the directors.

As at 29 September 2014, GJIHL issued shares at the right issue price of HKD5.30 each on the basis of one rights share for every five existing shares held on the record date, therefore the exercise price of share options was adjusted to HKD3.79 per share.

As at 11 June 2015, 4.5 million share options have been granted to the directors and employees, with the option period from 11 June 2015 to 10 June 2025. Each one-third of the share options are allowed to be exercised on 11 June 2016, 2017 and 2018, respectively. The exercise price of share options is HKD14.56 per share. Among the share options granted, a total of 3 million share options were granted to the directors.

On 12 June 2015, GJIHL distributed 2 share dividends per 1 ordinary share to all shareholders. The share option price will be adjusted accordingly.

In 2016, no new share options have been granted.

The share option expenses recognized by GJIHL in 2014, 2015 and 2016 were RMB25,898 thousand, RMB17,787 thousand and RMB13,373 thousand, respectively.

The fair value of the equity-settled share options was estimated on the date of grant using a binomial pricing model, taking into account of the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. The following table lists out the key inputs to the model:

	Share options granted in the year ended 31 December
	2014	2015
Share price at the date of grant (expressed in HKD)	3.82	14.22
Exercise price (expressed in HKD)	3.82	14.56

In 2014, 7,666 thousand share options have been exercised with the price of HKD2.49 each, which increased GJIHL's issued share capital and capital reserve by HKD767 thousand and HKD18,399 thousand, respectively.

In 2015, 40,674 thousand share options have been exercised with the price of HKD2.72 each, which increased GJIHL's issued share capital and capital reserve by HKD4,067 thousand and HKD35,955 thousand, respectively.

In 2016, 30,993 thousand share options have been exercised with the price of HKD1.25 each, which will increase GJIHL's issued share capital and capital reserve by HKD3,099 thousand and HKD35,508 thousand, respectively.

As at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, GJIHL had 77,819 thousand, 133,267 thousand and 101,266 thousand share options outstanding under the Share Option Scheme.

(2) Share Award Scheme

As at 27 October 2011, GJIHL adopted a Share Award Scheme, under which shares of GJIHL may be awarded to those eligible under the terms of the scheme, including employees and directors of GJIHL.

The maximum number of shares currently permitted to be granted under the scheme is an amount equivalent to 10% of the outstanding shares of GJIHL as at the adoption date. The maximum number of shares issuable to each eligible participant in the scheme within any 12-month period is limited to 1% of the outstanding shares of GJIHL at the adoption date. When a selected employee has satisfied all vesting conditions and become entitled to the award, the trustee shall transfer the relevant shares to that employee for free. 61. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT(1) Policies for and structure of risk managementPolicies for risk management*

The Group faces various financial risks in the normal course of business, mainly including credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. The Group has established policies and procedures to identify and evaluate these risks, and continually monitors these risks by setting appropriate risk limits and internal control systems and through reliable management and information systems. The Group's risk management policies include two aspects: the objective of risk management and the principles of risk management.

Objective for risk management

The overall objective of the Group's risk management is to establish a management mechanism that enables scientific decision-making, standardized operation, efficient management and sustainable development; that can maintain the Company's financial stability and improve its market position and performance. Specifically, it includes:

- ensuring strict compliance with relevant laws, regulations and the Group's policies;
- establishing and improving corporate governance that meets current requirements, and building scientific and proper processes of decision-making, execution, supervision and feedback;

- establishing a set of robust and effective risk management policies to identify errors and fraud, close loopholes, and ensure a healthy conduct of business activities;
- setting up a proper and effective risk measurement and analysis system, which can effectively identify, measure, analyze and evaluate various risks that may arise from the normal course of business, to ensure the safety and integrity of the Group's assets;
- improving management efficiency and effectiveness, striving to keep assets secured and risks well managed based on effective control of risk.

Principles for risk management

The principles for risk management include: compliance, completeness, independence, segregation of duties, prudence, effectiveness, timeliness, Chinese wall and a combination of qualitative and quantitative analyzes.

Structure of risk management

The Group's risk management structure includes corporate governance structure and risk management organizational structure.

Corporate governance structure

According to the "Company Law", "Securities Law" and "Code of Corporate Governance for Securities Companies" and other laws and regulations, the Group has established a modern corporate governance structure that features management comprising of Shareholders' Meetings, the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the senior management. The Group manages risks by explicitly stipulating management's authorization, responsibility and business objectives, and regulating their behavior.

Organizational structure of risk management

The Group has established a four-level risk management system, which consists of the Board of Directors as the core, top management level, dedicated risk supervision departments, and relevant functional and business departments. The dedicated risk supervision departments are comprise the Risk Management Department, the Internal Audit Department, the Compliance Department, the Legal Department and the Verifying Issuance of Securities Department.

(2) Credit risk

The Group's cash and bank balances are mainly deposited with state-owned commercial banks or joint-stock commercial banks with adequate capital. Cash held on behalf of brokerage clients and clearing settlement funds are mainly deposited with China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited. The credit risk on cash and cash equivalents is relatively low.

The Group primarily faces three types of credit risks: firstly, the risk of loss arising from the Group's obligation to settle on behalf of its customers in securities trading or derivative trading on the customers' accounts which become under-margined on the settlement date due to the Group's failure to require full margin deposits before the transactions or because the customers are unable to cover their transactions due to other reasons; secondly, the credit risk associated with its securities financial activities, which is risk of losses due to defaults of its margin financing and securities lending clients, securities repurchase clients and stock-pledged financing clients; thirdly, the default risk of investments in credit products, namely the risk of asset impairment and changes in investment returns due to defaults of borrowers or issuers who refuse to repay the principal and interest when due.

In order to manage the credit risk arising from the brokerage business, securities brokerage and future transactions in Mainland China are all settled on a full-pledged basis, which enables the Group's credit risk associated with the brokerage business to be well under control.

Credit risk arises from the securities financing business, securities repurchase and stock-pledged financing primarily due to fraudulent information from clients, failure of customers to repay debts in full on a timely manner, customers' breach of contracts with respect to the size and structure of trading positions, customers' violation of regulatory requirements in their trading actions, involvement of collateral in legal disputes, among others.

The Credit Business Department has dedicated employees who are responsible for the approval of limits of margin deposits, stock-pledged financing business, and the margin financing and securities lending business, which are updated based on periodic assessment of customers' ability to repay. The credit and risk management monitors the status of margin deposits and stock-pledged financing, and makes margin call when necessary. In cases where customers fail to deposit more money as required, collateralized securities will be sold to control the risk. The Company has also put a policy in place which requires a review of individual customer's account balance at least once a year or whenever it considers necessary. A provision for impairment losses might be made based on the review results.

In order to manage default risks associated with investments in credit products, for bond investments, the Group has established credit lines for counterparties and investment restrictions in accordance with their credit ratings. In respect of investments in trust products, the Group sets entrance criteria and investment caps, and manages its credit risk by means of risk assessment, risk warning, and rights of recourse.

(i) Maximum exposure to credit risk

The table below summarizes the Group and the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk without taking account of any collateral and other credit enhancements.

(3) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities for share of capital or fund.

The Treasury Management Department is responsible for managing the liquidity of its funds, including management of various debt financing instruments and optimizing assets and liabilities structure; centralized management and allocation of the Company's fund; usage of the Company's surplus of funds during normal course of business. The Risk Management Department is responsible for setting up liquidity risk management policies and risk preference, determination of risk indicators and their thresholds, periodic assessment of the status of liquidity risk, and performing liquidity risk stress tests regularly and reporting on them.

The Company has established policies and procedures for managing liquidity risk, which clearly defined the roles and responsibilities of various departments in liquidity risk management, and the methods to identify, evaluate, monitor and control liquidity risk. The Company has adopted the following measures to manage liquidity risk:

Risk monitoring system built around net capital as the core indicator

The Group establishes a risk monitoring system using net capital as the core indicator and includes other indicators such as the assets liability ratio, the debt to net assets ratio, the proprietary equity investment ratio and the net capital ratio, according to 'Administrative Measures for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies'. Meanwhile, the Company strictly adheres to the requirements as per 'Guidance for Liquidity Risk Management of Securities Companies' and sets up a framework of the liquidity risk management which features with liquidity coverage ratio and the net stable funding ratio as the core indicators. The Company continually monitors these indicators and maintains sufficient liquidity reserves by an establishing multi-hierarchies of efficient liquid asset management system.

Strictly controlling scale of the proprietary trading business

The Group controls the scale of the proprietary trading business strictly. The proprietary investment to net capital ratio falls within the safety zone determined by the regulators. In addition, the Group also sets limits on the percentage of investments in securities and monitors them on a timely basis.

Implementation of risk budget

With the authorization of the Board of Directors, the Company prepares a risk budget for all businesses twice a year, i.e. at the beginning and in the middle of a year. Liquidity risk management is included as part of the risk budget.

Temporary liquidity replenishment mechanism

The Group has good cooperation with various commercial banks and obtains appropriate credit facility, so as to establish a temporary liquidity replenishment mechanism. The Company and the Shanghai branch of China Construction Bank Corporation (“CCB Shanghai branch”) entered into agreements, whereby CCB Shanghai Branch agreed to provide an overdraft facility amounting to RMB5,500 million, RMB6,000 million, and RMB6,300 million under certain conditions as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016 respectively, in case of any temporary position shortage.

The table below lists the maturity profiles of financial liabilities of the Group based on the remaining undiscounted contractual cash flows:

(4) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in interest rates, exchange rates and securities' market prices.

The Group also engages in stock and bond underwriting business, and may commit to purchase any remaining shares or bonds in standby underwriting agreements. Under these circumstances, the Group faces the risk that the market prices of the left-over portion may fall below the subscription price due to changes in market conditions.

The Group sets the maximum exposure for market risk. The monitoring and measurement of the exposure is determined according to the principal amount and the stop-loss limit. The market risk is controlled to be within a predetermined range set by management.

(i) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Group's and the Company's exposure to interest rate risk relates primarily to cash and bank balances, cash held on behalf of brokerage clients, clearing settlement funds, margin accounts receivable, derivative financial assets/liabilities, financial assets held under resale agreements, accounts receivable, refundable deposits, other receivables and prepayments, other non-current assets, loans and borrowings, short-term debt instruments, placements from other financial institutions, financial assets sold under repurchase agreements, accounts payable to brokerage clients, other current liabilities, bonds payable, other non-current liabilities, financial assets/liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and available-for-sale financial assets that are interest bearing.

The tables below summarize the interest rate risk of the Group and the Company. Financial assets and liabilities are presented with reference to the earlier of the contractual repricing or maturity dates, and are stated in their carrying amounts.

Sensitivity analysis

The Group uses the sensitive analysis to measure the impact on net interest income, fair value gains or losses and equity due to changes in interest rates. The sensitivity of net interest income represents the fluctuation of net interest income, as a result of certain changes in interest rates, arising from financial assets and liabilities held at year end which will be repriced within the next year. The sensitivity of fair value gains or losses and equity are calculated as the fluctuations in fair values of fixed-rate financial assets that are classified at fair value through profit or loss and available for sale, due to certain changes in interest rates.

The table below summarizes the results of sensitivity analysis, and shows the impact on net profits and other comprehensive income (net of tax) resulting from a reasonably possible change in the interest rate, based on the assets and liabilities held as at 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, with all other variables held constant.

The sensitivity analysis above is calculated on the basis that assets and liabilities have static interest rate term structure, and only considers changes in interest rates within one year, reflecting the impact on profit or loss due to the repricing of assets and liabilities in one year. The assumptions include: 1) all assets and liabilities with repricing dates or maturity dates within one month, one to three months, and three months to one year will be re-priced or matured in the middle of the period; 2) changes in interest rates result in parallel shifts of the yield curve; 3) there is no change in the portfolio of assets and liabilities.

Due to the above assumptions, the actual changes in net interest income caused by fluctuations in interest rates may differ from the above sensitivity analysis.

(ii) Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk of fluctuation in the fair value of financial instruments or future cash flows arising from movements in foreign exchange rates. The Group's currency risk primarily relates to business activities denominated in foreign currencies different from the Group's functional currency, and its net investments in foreign subsidiaries.

Except for the subsidiaries incorporated in Hong Kong which hold assets mainly denominated in HKD, the assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies represent only an insignificant portion of the Group's entire assets and liabilities.

	As at 31 December

Total operating profit of subsidiaries in HK
/total operating profit of the Group.	5.77%	3.95%	6.07%

The Group's currency risk is not material, because the proportion of assets, liabilities and revenue in foreign currencies is relatively low.

(iii) Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value of equity securities declines because of unfavorable changes in stock index level or the price of individual security.

The Group mainly invests in listed equity securities, warrants, funds and stock futures. The Group's maximum exposure to price risk is determined by the fair value of financial instruments it holds.

The above financial instruments are exposed to price risk due to fluctuations in fair values, which can be caused by factors specific to individual financial instruments or their issuers, or factors affecting all financial instruments traded in the market.

The analysis below is to show the impact on net profit and other comprehensive income (net of tax) due to changes in fair values of investments in equity securities, funds, equity derivative financial assets/liabilities, trust products, futures and other equity investments by 10%, based on the carrying amounts at the end of each reporting period, with all other variables held constant. As for available-for-sale equity investments, the impact only takes into account of changes in fair value, without considering the impact on profit or loss due to possible impairment.

(5) Capital management

The Group's and the Company's objectives for capital management are:

- to safeguard the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern so that they can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders;
- to support the Group's and the Company's stability and growth;
- to maintain a strong capital base to support the development of their business; and
- to comply with the capital requirements under the PRC and Hong Kong regulations.

The Group manages and adjusts its capital structure in accordance with changes in economic situation and risk characteristics of relevant assets. In order to maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Company may adjust profit distribution to shareholders, return capital, issue new shares or subordinated debts.

The Group adopts the indicator of net capital to manage its capital. Net capital is a comprehensive risk control indicator which is calculated as net assets minus risk adjustments on certain assets, liabilities and business, determined in accordance with securities companies' business scope and liquidity of their assets and liabilities.

In accordance with the Administrative Measures for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (Revision 2008) (the "Administrative Measures") issued by the CSRC, the Company was required to meet the following standards for risk control indicators on a continual basis:

- The ratio of net capital divided by the sum of its various risk capital provisions shall be no less than 100% ("Ratio 1");
- The ratio of net capital divided by net assets shall be no less than 40% ("Ratio 2");

- (iii) The ratio of net capital divided by liabilities shall be no less than 8% ("Ratio 3");
- (iv) The ratio of net assets divided by liabilities shall be no less than 20% ("Ratio 4");
- (v) The ratio of the value of equity securities and derivatives held divided by net capital shall not exceed 100% ("Ratio 5"), and
- (vi) The ratio of the value of fixed income securities held divided by net capital shall not exceed 500% ("Ratio 6").

As at 31 December 2014 and 2015, the Company had maintained the ratios mentioned above as follows:

	As at 31 December
	2014	2015
Net capital	28,821,981	77,336,441
Ratio 1	747.36%	1,295.18%
Ratio 2	77.92%	88.35%
Ratio 3	20.85%	48.62%
Ratio 4	26.75%	55.03%
Ratio 5	65.01%	54.14%
Ratio 6	137.01%	86.04%

On 16 June 2016, the CSRC issued the Administrative Measures for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (2016 amended) and the Calculation Rules for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies with amendments to the framework and criteria of risk control indicators with which the securities companies must be continually compliant, and the amended rules came into effect on 1 October 2016. Since then, the Company is required to meet the following standards for risk control indicators on a continual basis:

- (i) The ratio of net capital divided by the sum of its various risk capital provisions shall be no less than 100% ("Ratio 1");
- (ii) The ratio of net capital divided by net assets shall be no less than 20% ("Ratio 2") ;
- (iii) The ratio of net capital divided by liabilities shall be no less than 8% ("Ratio 3") ;
- (iv) The ratio of net assets divided by liabilities shall be no less than 10% ("Ratio 4") ;
- (v) The ratio of the value of equity securities and derivatives held divided by net capital shall not exceed 100% ("Ratio 5");
- (vi) The ratio of the value of non-equity securities and non-equity derivatives held divided by net capital shall not exceed 500% (Ratio 6);

- (vii) The ratio of core net capital divided by total assets on and off-balance sheet shall be no less than 8% (“Ratio 7”);
- (viii) The ratio of high quality liquid assets divided by net cash outflows within 30 days shall be no less than 100% (“Ratio 8”);
- (ix) The ratio of stable funds available divided by stable funds required shall be no less than 100% (“Ratio 9”); and
- (x) The ratio of the value of margin financing, securities lending, stock-pledged financing and securities repurchase divided by net capital shall not exceed 400% (Ratio 10);

As at 31 December 2016, the Company has maintained the above ratios as follows:

	As at 31 December 2016
Net capital	80,338,196
Ratio 1	313.10%
Ratio 2	89.04%
Ratio 3	56.80%
Ratio 4	63.79%
Ratio 5	32.23%
Ratio 6	82.46%
Ratio 7	26.53%
Ratio 8	180.03%
Ratio 9	127.17%
Ratio 10	128.60%

The above ratios are calculated based on the underlying Financial Information prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting rules and financial regulations applicable to enterprises in Mainland China.

Certain subsidiaries of the Company are also subject to capital requirements under the PRC and Hong Kong regulations, imposed by the CSRC and the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission, respectively.

The capital of the Company mainly comprises its total equity.

62. FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability could be settled, between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction.

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair values of financial instruments.

- (a) Fair value is based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities ("Level 1");
- (b) Fair value is based on inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices) ("Level 2"); and
- (c) Fair value is based on inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) ("Level 3").

- (1) Fair values of the financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

During the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, there were no significant transfers of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2.

(2) Valuation process and methods for specific investments

As at the end of each the Relevant Periods, the Group's valuation methods and assumptions are as follows:

Level 1

Fair value of financial investment is based on quoted prices (unadjusted) reflected in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2

Fair value of financial investment is based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly.

During the years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Group held no changes in the valuation techniques for Level 2.

Level 3

Fair value of financial investment is based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable. For certain unlisted equity securities and debt securities, the Group adopts the valuation techniques and quotation from counterparties quotations or valuation techniques to determine the fair value. Valuation techniques include a discounted cash flow analysis, and the market comparison approach, etc. The fair value measurement of these financial instruments may involve unobservable inputs such as credit spread, price to book ratio, price to earnings ratio and liquidity discount, etc. Fair value changes resulting from changes in the unobservable inputs were not significant. The Finance Department periodically reviews all significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments used to measure the fair values of financial instruments in Level 3.

(4) Important unobservable input value in fair value measurement of Level 3

For financial instruments in Level 3, prices are determined using valuation techniques such as discounted cash flow models and other similar techniques. Categorization of fair value measures within Level 3 of the valuation hierarchy is generally based on the significance of the unobservable inputs to the overall fair value measurement. The following table presents the valuation techniques and inputs of major financial instruments in Level 3.

Financial assets/liabilities	Fair value hierarchy	Valuation technique(s) and key input(s)	Significant unobservable input(s)	Relationship of unobservable input(s) to fair value
Listed equity investment with disposal restriction in a specific period	Level 3	Option pricing model	Volatility	The higher the volatility, the lower the fair value
Other equity investment	Level 3	Market comparable model	Discount for lack of marketability	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value
Other investments	Level 3	Discounted cash flow model	Risk adjusted discount rate	The higher the risk adjusted discounted rate, the lower the fair value
Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss	Level 3	Market comparable model	Discount for lack of marketability	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value

The fair value of the financial instruments in level 3 is not significantly sensitive to a reasonable change in these unobservable inputs.

(5) Financial assets and liabilities not measured at fair value

At 31 December 2014, 2015 and 2016, the carrying amounts of the Group's and the Company's financial instruments carried at cost or amortized cost approximate their fair values, except for bonds payable whose carrying amounts and fair values are summarized below:

Based on an offer price of HK$15.84 per share.	97,998,570	14,348,736	112,347,306	12.97	14.49

Note:

1. The audited consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company as at 31 December 2016 is based on the consolidated net assets attributable to equity holders of the Company of approximately RMB 99,964,418 thousand adjusted for other intangible assets of approximately RMB 1,384,441 thousand and goodwill of approximately RMB 581,407 thousand, as extracted from the accountants' report set out in Appendix I of this prospectus.
2. The estimated net proceeds from the issue of Shares pursuant to the Global Offering are based on 1,040,000,000 H Shares at the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per share, after deduction of the underwriting commissions and fees and other related fees assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised. The estimated net proceeds from the Global Offering are converted from Hong Kong dollars into RMB at an exchange rate of HK$1 to RMB0.89451, which was the exchange rate set by the PBOC prevailing on 31 December 2016. No representation is made that Hong Kong dollar amounts have been, could have been or may be converted to RMB, or vice versa, at that rate or at any other rates or at all.
3. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share is arrived at on the basis that 8,665,000,000 Shares, which represents 7,625,000,000 A Shares in issue and 1,040,000,000 H Shares to be issued pursuant to the Global Offering, were in issue assuming that the Global Offering had been completed on 31 December 2016 and that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.
4. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share is converted from RMB into Hong Kong dollars at the rate of HK$1 to RMB0.89451. No representation is made that the RMB amounts have been, could have been or could be converted to Hong Kong dollars, or vice versa, at that rate or at any other rates or at all.
5. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company does not take into account a cash dividend of RMB2,973,750 thousand to its A shareholders approved by the shareholder in the shareholder meeting held on 13 March 2017. The cash dividend is expected to be paid on 29 March 2017. Had the cash dividend been taken into account, the unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity holders of the Company per share would be RMB12.62 or HK$14.11 per share (based on the Offer Price of HK$15.84 per Offer Share).
6. No adjustment has been made to reflect any trading result or other transactions of the Group subsequent to 31 December 2016.

B. INDEPENDENT REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS' ASSURANCE REPORT ON THE COMPILATION OF PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following is the text of a report received from Ernst & Young, Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong, for the purpose of incorporation in this document.

22/F CITIC Tower,
1 Tim Mei Avenue,
Central, Hong Kong

28 March 2017

To the Directors of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd

We have completed our assurance engagement to report on the compilation of pro forma financial information of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Group”) by the directors of the Company (the “Directors”) for illustrative purposes only. The pro forma financial information consists of the pro forma consolidated net tangible assets as at 31 December 2016, and related notes as set out on Part A of Appendix II of the prospectus dated 28 March 2017 issued by the Company (the “Pro Forma Financial Information”). The applicable criteria on the basis of which the Directors have compiled the Pro Forma Financial Information are described in Part A of Appendix II of the prospectus.

The Pro Forma Financial Information has been compiled by the Directors to illustrate the impact of the global offering of shares of the Company on the Group’s financial position as at 31 December 2016 as if the transaction had taken place at 31 December 2016. As part of this process, information about the Group’s financial position as at 31 December 2016 has been extracted by the Directors from the Group’s financial information included in the accountants’ report as set out in Appendix I of the prospectus.

Directors’ responsibility for the Pro Forma Financial Information

The Directors are responsible for compiling the Pro Forma Financial Information in accordance with paragraph 4.29 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”) and with reference to Accounting Guideline (“AG”) 7 Preparation of Pro Forma Financial Information for Inclusion in Investment Circulars issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”).

Our independence and quality control

We have complied with the independence and other ethical requirements of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants issued by the HKICPA, which is founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behavior.

Our firm applies Hong Kong Standard on Quality Control 1 Quality Control for Firms that Perform Audits and Reviews of Financial Statements, and Other Assurance and Related Services Engagements, and accordingly maintains a comprehensive system of quality control including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

B. INDEPENDENT REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS' ASSURANCE REPORT ON THE

Reporting accountants' responsibilities

Our responsibility is to express an opinion, as required by paragraph 4.29(7) of the Listing Rules, on the Pro Forma Financial Information and to report our opinion to you. We do not accept any responsibility for any reports previously given by us on any financial information used in the compilation of the Pro Forma Financial Information beyond that owed to those to whom those reports were addressed by us at the dates of their issue.

We conducted our engagement in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Assurance Engagements 3420 Assurance Engagements to Report on the Compilation of Pro Forma Financial Information Included in a Prospectus issued by the HKICPA. This standard requires that the reporting accountants plan and perform procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Directors have compiled the Pro Forma Financial Information in accordance with paragraph 4.29 of the Listing Rules and with reference to AG 7 issued by the HKICPA.

For purposes of this engagement, we are not responsible for updating or reissuing any reports or opinions on any historical financial information used in compiling the Pro Forma Financial Information, nor have we, in the course of this engagement, performed an audit or review of the financial information used in compiling the Pro Forma Financial Information.

The purpose of the Pro Forma Financial Information included in the Prospectus is solely to illustrate the impact of the global offering of shares of the Company on unadjusted financial information of the Group as if the transaction had been undertaken at an earlier date selected for purposes of the illustration. Accordingly, we do not provide any assurance that the actual outcome of the transaction would have been as presented.

A reasonable assurance engagement to report on whether the Pro Forma Financial Information has been properly compiled on the basis of the applicable criteria involves performing procedures to assess whether the applicable criteria used by the Directors in the compilation of the Pro Forma Financial Information provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effects directly attributable to the transaction, and to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence about whether:

- the related pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those criteria; and
- the Pro Forma Financial Information reflects the proper application of those adjustments to the unadjusted financial information.

The procedures selected depend on the reporting accountants' judgment, having regard to the reporting accountants' understanding of the nature of the Group, the transaction in respect of which the Pro Forma Financial Information has been compiled, and other relevant engagement circumstances.

APPENDIX II UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The engagement also involves evaluating the overall presentation of the Pro Forma Financial Information.

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the Pro Forma Financial Information has been properly compiled on the basis stated;
- (b) such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of the Group; and
- (c) the adjustments are appropriate for the purpose of the Pro Forma Financial Information as disclosed pursuant to paragraph 4.29(1) of the Listing Rules.

Yours faithfully,
Ernst & Young

TAXATION OF SECURITY HOLDERSTaxation

The following is a summary of certain PRC and Hong Kong tax consequences arising from ownership of H Shares by investors who purchase such H Shares in the Global Offering and hold the H Shares as capital assets. This summary does not purport to address all material tax consequences of the ownership of H Shares, and does not take into account the specific circumstances of any particular investor, some of which may be subject to special provisions. This summary is based on the tax laws of the PRC and Hong Kong in effect as of the Latest Practicable Date, all of which are subject to change (or changes in interpretation), possibly with retroactive effect.

This section does not address any aspect of taxation of the PRC or Hong Kong other than income tax, capital tax, value-added tax, stamp duty and estate duty. Prospective investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors regarding the PRC, Hong Kong and other tax consequences of investing in H Shares.

PRC TAXATIONTaxation on DividendsIndividual Investors

According to the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國個人所得稅法), amended on June 30, 2011 and became effective on September 1, 2011, and the Implementation Regulations of the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國個人所得稅法實施條例), amended on July 19, 2011 and became effective on September 1, 2011, dividends paid to individuals by PRC companies are generally subject to an individual income tax levied at a flat rate of 20%. For foreign individuals who are not residents of the PRC, their receipts of dividends from a PRC company are normally subject to PRC withholding tax of 20% unless specifically exempted by the taxation authority of the State Council or reduced by an applicable tax treaty.

Pursuant to the Circular of the State Administration of Taxation on Questions Concerning the Collection of Individual Income Tax Following the Repeal of Guo Shui Fa [1993] No. 045 (《國家稅務總局關於國稅發 [1993] 045號文件廢止後有關個人所得稅徵管問題的通知》) which became effective on June 28, 2011, for any non-foreign invested enterprise in the PRC that launches its initial public offering in Hong Kong, its individual investors who are overseas residents are entitled to enjoy the relevant tax benefits provided under the tax treaty signed between the country of their residence and the PRC and under the tax arrangement between mainland China and Hong Kong (Macau). Dividends distributed by any non-foreign invested enterprise in the PRC that has launched its initial public offering in Hong Kong (the "relevant domestic non-foreign invested enterprise") to overseas individual investors (the "relevant individual investors") are generally subject to individual income tax of the PRC at the withholding tax rate of 10% and are not required to complete an application procedure at the taxation authority of the PRC. If the tax rate of 10% is not applicable, the relevant domestic non-foreign invested enterprise shall (1) return the excess amount of tax withheld if an income tax treaty at a tax rate of lower than 10% has been signed between the country of the relevant individual investor and the PRC after an application to enjoy the lower tax rate has been made by the relevant domestic non-foreign invested enterprise on behalf of such investor and approved by the competent taxation authority; (2) if the income tax treaty signed between the country of the relevant individual investor and the PRC provided a tax rate above 10% but below 20%, the relevant domestic non-foreign invested enterprise shall withhold the tax amount according to the tax rate under the treaty and completion of an application procedure will not be required; (3) if the country of the relevant individual investor has not signed any tax treaty with the PRC or under any other circumstances, the relevant domestic non-foreign invested enterprise shall withhold the tax amount at the tax rate of 20%.

Enterprises

In accordance with the EIT Law, which was amended and became effective on February 24, 2017, and the EIT Rules, which became effective on January 1, 2008, a non-PRC resident enterprise is generally subject to a 10% enterprise income tax on PRC-sourced income, including dividends received from a PRC resident enterprise whose shares are issued and listed in Hong Kong, if such non-PRC resident enterprise does not have an establishment or premises in the PRC or has an establishment or premises in the PRC but the PRC-sourced income is not actually connected with such establishment or premises in the PRC. Such withholding tax may be reduced or eliminated under an applicable treaty for the avoidance of double taxation. The aforesaid income tax payable by non-PRC resident enterprises shall be withheld at source, with the payer of the income being the withholding agent. When making such payment or when such payment becomes due and payable, the withholding agent shall withhold the income tax from the payment or the amount due and payable.

The Circular of the SAT on Issues Relating to the Withholding of Enterprise Income Tax by PRC Resident Enterprises on Dividends Paid to Overseas Non-PRC Resident Enterprise Shareholders of H Shares (《國家稅務總局關於中國居民企業向境外H股非居民企業股東派發股息代扣代繳企業所得稅有關問題的通知》) (Guo Shui Han [2008] No. 897), which was issued by the SAT and became effective on November 6, 2008, further clarified that a PRC resident enterprise must withhold enterprise income tax at a rate of 10% on dividends paid to non-PRC resident enterprise shareholders of H Shares with respect to dividend paid out of profit generated since January 1, 2008. A non-PRC resident enterprise shareholder who is entitled to a preferential tax rate under an applicable tax treaty or arrangement may, by itself or through its agent, apply to the competent tax authorities for a refund of the excess amount of tax withheld.

Pursuant to the Arrangement between the Mainland China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (《內地和香港特別行政區關於對所得避免雙重徵稅和防止偷漏稅的安排》) (Guo Shui Han [2006] No. 884) signed between mainland China and Hong Kong on income tax matters on August 21, 2006, the PRC government may impose tax on dividends payable by a PRC company to Hong Kong residents (including natural persons and legal entities) subject to a maximum of 10% of the gross amount of dividends payable, or 5% for Hong Kong residents holding 25% or more of equity interest in such PRC company.

Tax Treaties

Non-PRC resident investors who reside in countries which have entered into double-taxation treaties with the PRC or reside in Hong Kong or Macau are entitled to preferential treatment of withholding tax on dividends to investors by PRC companies. The PRC has entered into double-taxation arrangement with Hong Kong and Macau respectively and has entered into double-taxation treaties with certain other countries, including but not limited to, Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Japan, Malaysia, Netherlands, Singapore, the United Kingdom and the United States. A non-PRC resident enterprise entitled to a preferential tax rate under a relevant income tax treaty or arrangement must apply to PRC tax authorities for refund of the difference between the amounts of tax withheld and the tax computed based on the treaty rate.

Taxation on Gains from Share TransferIndividual Investors

In accordance with the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國個人所得稅法》) and the Implementation Regulations of the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國個人所得稅法實施條例》), individuals are subject to individual income tax at the rate of 20% on gains from sales of equity interests in PRC resident enterprises. Under the Circular of the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation on Declaring that Individual Income Tax Continues to be Exempted over Income of Individuals from Transfer of Shares (《財政部、國家稅務總局關於個人轉讓股票所得繼續暫免徵收個人所得稅的通知》) (Cai Shui Zi [1998] No. 61) issued by the MOF and the SAT on March 30, 1998, effective from January 1, 1997, gains of individuals from transfer of shares of listed enterprises continues to be exempted from individual income tax. In the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國個人所得稅法》) and the Implementation Regulations of the Individual Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國個人所得稅法實施條例》), the SAT has not explicitly stated whether it will continue to exempt individuals from income tax on income derived from transfer of listed shares. However, on December 31, 2009, the MOF, the SAT and the CSRC jointly issued the Circular on Relevant Issues Concerning the Collection of Individual Income Tax over the Income Received by Individuals from Transfer of Listed Shares Subject to Sales Limitation (《關於個人轉讓上市公司限售股所得徵收個人所得稅有關問題的通知》) (Cai Shui [2009] No. 167), which provides that such individuals' income from transfer of shares of listed companies on particular domestic exchange shall continue to be exempted from individual income tax, except for the shares of certain specified companies which are subject to sales limitation (as defined in the supplementary notice of such Circular issued on November 10, 2010). As of the Latest Practicable Date, the aforesaid provision has not expressly provided that non-PRC resident individuals are subject to individual income tax for sales of shares of PRC resident enterprises listed on overseas stock exchanges. In actual operation, the PRC tax authorities have not collected income tax from non-PRC resident individuals on gains from sales of shares of PRC resident enterprises listed on overseas stock exchanges.

Enterprises

In accordance with the EIT Law and the EIT Rules, a non-PRC resident enterprise is generally subject to enterprise income tax at the rate of 10% with respect to PRC-sourced income, including gains derived from the disposal of shares in a PRC resident enterprise, if such non-PRC resident enterprise does not have an establishment or premises in the PRC or has an establishment or premises in the PRC but the PRC-sourced income is not actually connected with such establishment or premises in the PRC. Such tax may be reduced or eliminated under applicable tax treaties or arrangements.

PRC Stamp Duty

Pursuant to the Provisional Regulations of the People's Republic of China Concerning Stamp Duty (《中華人民共和國印花稅暫行條例》) amended on January 8, 2011 and the Implementation Rules for the Provisional Regulations of the People's Republic of China Concerning Stamp Duty (《中華人民共和國印花稅暫行條例施行細則》) which came into effect on October 1, 1988, PRC stamp duty is applicable to documents which have legal binding effect in the PRC and are governed by the PRC laws. Therefore, PRC stamp duty does not apply to acquisitions or dispositions of H shares outside the PRC.

Estate Duty

The PRC currently has not imposed any estate duty.

Among them, dividends derived by mainland resident enterprises for holding H shares up to 12 consecutive months are exempt from corporate income tax in accordance with laws. For such dividends derived by mainland enterprises, there will be no withholding tax on dividends payable by H shares companies, and these enterprises are liable for tax reporting and payment. For the withholding tax on dividends payable by companies of non-H shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, mainland corporate investors can apply for tax credit when reporting and paying corporate income tax.

Mainland investors, who deal with, inherit, and are bestowed upon with shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange via the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect are subject to stamp duties in accordance with current taxation requirements in Hong Kong. China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited and HKSCC are authorized to levy stamp duties above on behalf of each other.

MAJOR TAXATION OF THE COMPANY IN THE PRC

Income Tax

According to the EIT Law, enterprises and other organizations generating income within the territory of the PRC are subject to enterprise income tax at the rate of 25%.

Levying Value-added Tax in lieu of Business Tax

According to the Provisional Regulations of the People's Republic of China on Business Tax (中華人民共和國營業稅暫行條例) amended on November 10, 2008 and became effective on January 1, 2009, enterprises and individuals engaged in the provision of services as prescribed in these regulations, the transfer of intangible assets or the sales of immovable properties within the territory of the PRC are subject to business tax. The business tax rate applicable to financial and insurance companies is 5%.

Pursuant to the Plan for the Pilot Practice of Levying Value Added Tax in Lieu of Business Tax (《營業稅改徵增值稅試點方案》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT and became effective on November 16, 2011, starting from January 1, 2012, the State started the taxation reform of levying value-added tax in lieu of business tax in certain regions (including Shanghai and Beijing) and in certain industries (including transportation and certain modern service industries) on a trial basis. Pursuant to the Notice of Comprehensive Roll-out of the Pilot Practice of Levying Value Added Tax in Lieu of Business Tax from the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation (《財政部、國家稅務總局關於全面推開營業稅改徵增值稅試點的通知》) (Cai Shui [2016] No. 36) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on March 23, 2016 and became effective on May 1, 2016, the aforesaid pilot practice for levying value-added tax in lieu of business tax have been implemented nationwide, and industries such as the financial industry have all been included into the pilot practice and paying value-added tax in lieu of business tax.

Pursuant to the Implementing Measures for the Pilot Practice of Levying of Value-Added Tax in Lieu of Business Tax (《營業稅改徵增值稅試點實施辦法》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on March 23, 2016 and became effective on May 1, 2016, enterprises and individuals engaged in sales of services, intangible assets or immovable properties shall be subject to valued-added tax in lieu of business tax based on the various types of business they conduct.

Pursuant to the Notice on Clarifying Value-added Tax Policies on Finance, Real Estate Development and Education Assisted Services (《關於明確金融、房地產開發、教育輔助服務等增值稅收政策的通知》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on December 21, 2016, taxpayer's purchasing various asset management products such as funds, trusts and wealth management products and holding them to maturity shall not be identified as the "transfer of financial products" stipulated in Cai Shui [2016] No. 36. For the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products, the manager of the asset management products shall be the taxpayer of the value-added tax. The aforementioned provisions came into effect on May 1, 2016.

According to the Supplemental Notice on Certain Issues in relation to Value-Added Tax Policies on Asset Management Products (《關於資管產品增值稅政策有關問題的補充通知》) promulgated by the MOF and the SAT on January 6, 2017, starting from July 1, 2017 (inclusive), for the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products, the manager of the asset management products shall be the taxpayer of the value-added tax and pay the value-added tax pursuant to the prevailing rules. For the value-added tax taxable transactions produced during the operation process of the asset management products before July 1, 2017, it is not required to pay the unpaid value-added tax; if the value-added taxes are paid, the paid taxes shall be deducted from the value-added tax to be paid by the manager of the asset management products afterwards.

HONG KONG

Tax on Dividends

Under the current practice of the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong, no tax is payable in Hong Kong in respect of dividends paid by us.

Capital Gains and Profit Tax

No tax is imposed in Hong Kong in respect of capital gains from the sale of H Shares. However, trading gains from the sale of the H Shares by persons carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong, where such gains are derived from or arise in Hong Kong from such trade, profession or business will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax, which is currently imposed at the maximum rate of 16.5% on corporations and at the maximum rate of 15% on unincorporated businesses. Certain categories of taxpayers (for example, financial institutions, insurance companies and securities dealers) are likely to be regarded as deriving trading gains rather than capital gains unless these taxpayers can prove that the investment securities are held for long-term investment purposes. Trading gains from sales of H Shares effected on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will be considered to be derived from or arise in Hong Kong. Liability for Hong Kong profits tax would thus arise in respect of trading gains from sales of H Shares effected on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange realized by persons carrying on a business of trading or dealing in securities in Hong Kong.

Stamp Duty

Hong Kong stamp duty, currently charged at the ad valorem rate of 0.1% on the higher of the consideration for or the market value of the H Shares, will be payable by the purchaser on every purchase and by the seller on every sale of Hong Kong securities, including H Shares (in other words, a total of 0.2% is currently payable on a typical sale and purchase transaction involving H Shares). In addition, a fixed duty of HK$5.00 is currently payable on any instrument of transfer of H Shares. Where one of the parties is a resident outside Hong Kong and does not pay the ad valorem duty due by it, the duty not paid will be assessed on the instrument of transfer (if any) and will be payable by the transferee. If no stamp duty is paid on or before the due date, a penalty of up to ten times the duty payable may be imposed.

Estate Duty

The Revenue (Abolition of Estate Duty) Ordinance 2005 came into effect on February 11, 2006 in Hong Kong, pursuant to which no Hong Kong estate duty is payable and no estate duty clearance papers are needed for an application of a grant of representation in respect of holders of H Shares whose deaths occur on or after February 11, 2006.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTROL OF THE PRC

The lawful currency of the PRC is Renminbi, which is still subject to foreign exchange control and is not freely exchangeable. The SAFE, under the authorization of the PBOC, is empowered with the functions of administering all matters relating to foreign exchange, including the enforcement of foreign exchange control regulations.

On January 29, 1996, the State Council promulgated the Foreign Exchange Control Regulations which became effective from April 1, 1996. The Foreign Exchange Control Regulations classifies all international payments and transfers into current account items and capital account items. Most of the current account items are not subject to SAFE approval while capital account items are. The Foreign Exchange Control Regulations were subsequently amended on January 14, 1997, further amended on August 1, 2008, and became effective from August 5, 2008. The latest amended Foreign Exchange Control Regulations clarifies that the State does not impose restrictions on international payments and transfers under the current account items.

On June 20, 1996, the PBOC promulgated the Regulations for Administration of Settlement, Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange (《結匯、售匯及付匯管理規定》) which became effective on July 1, 1996. The Regulations for Administration of Settlement, Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange (《結匯、售匯及付匯管理規定》) abolished all other restrictions on convertibility of foreign exchange in respect of current account items while retaining the existing restrictions on foreign exchange transactions in respect of capital account items.

On July 21, 2005, the PBOC announced that, effective on the same date, the PRC would implement a regulated and managed floating exchange rate system in which the exchange rate would be determined based on market supply and demand with reference to a basket of currencies. The Renminbi exchange rate is no longer pegged to the US dollar. The PBOC will publish the closing price of a foreign currency such as the US dollar traded against the Renminbi in the interbank foreign exchange market on each business day after the closing of the market, and will fix the central parity for the transaction of such foreign currency against Renminbi on the following trading day.

Since January 4, 2006, the PBOC improved the method of generating the central parity for quoting the Renminbi exchange rate by introducing an enquiry system while keeping the match-making system in the interbank foreign exchange spot market. In addition, the liquidity of the foreign exchange market was also improved by adopting a market-making system in the interbank foreign exchange market.

On August 5, 2008, the State Council promulgated the amended Foreign Exchange Control Regulations, which provided that all foreign exchange income of current account items may be either retained or sold to financial institutions engaging in foreign exchange settlement or sales business; where any foreign exchange income of capital account items shall be retained or sold to financial institutions engaging in foreign exchange settlement and sales business, approval shall be obtained from the relevant foreign exchange administrative authority unless it is exempted under PRC laws. PRC enterprises (including foreign-invested enterprises) which require foreign exchange for transactions relating to current account items may, without approval of the SAFE, effect payment from their foreign exchange accounts at designated foreign exchange banks with the support of valid receipts and proof.

The Decision of the State Council on Cancelling and Adjusting a Group of Administrative Approval Items and Other Matters (《國務院關於取消和調整一批行政審批項目等事項的決定》), which was issued and became effective on October 23, 2014, has cancelled the administrative approval by the SAFE and its branches for matters concerning the repatriation and settlement of foreign exchange of overseas-raised funds through overseas listing.

Pursuant to the Notice on Relevant Issues Concerning Foreign Exchange Management of Overseas Listing (《關於境外上市外匯管理有關問題的通知》) issued by the SAFE on December 26, 2014, a domestic enterprise shall register its overseas listing with the local branch of the SAFE at the place of its incorporation within 15 working days after the completion of offering of shares for its overseas listing. The proceeds from overseas listing of a domestic enterprise may be remitted to the domestic account or deposited in an overseas account. The proceeds shall be used in accordance with the prospectus and other public disclosure documents.

On February 13, 2015, the SAFE issued the SAFE Notice, which came into effect on June 1, 2015. The SAFE Notice has cancelled the foreign exchange registration approval under domestic direct investment and foreign exchange registration approval under overseas direct investment, and instead requires the banks to review and carry out foreign exchange registration under domestic direct investment and foreign exchange registration under overseas direct investment directly. The SAFE and its branches implement indirect supervision over foreign exchange registration of direct investment via the banks. Furthermore, according to the SAFE Notice, new overseas enterprises established or controlled by overseas enterprises established or controlled by domestic investors through re-investment are not required to go through the foreign exchange filing procedures.

On June 15, 2016, the SAFE promulgated the Circular of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Reforming and Regulating Policies on the Management of the Settlement of Foreign Exchange of Capital Accounts (《國家外匯管理局關於改革和規範資本項目結匯管理政策的通知》), which stipulates that the foreign exchange capital in the capital account which has been confirmed by the relevant polices subject to the Discretionary Foreign Exchange Settlement (including funds remitted from the proceeds from the overseas listing) can be settled at the banks based on the actual operational needs of the domestic institutions. The proportion of Discretionary Foreign Exchange Settlement of the foreign exchange capital is temporarily determined as 100%, which can be adjusted by the SAFE, when due, based on international income and expense conditions.

Industry Entry

Industry Entry Requirements for Securities Companies

1. Establishment

The Securities Law, (amended and came into effect on August 31, 2014, and the Regulations on Supervision and Administration of Securities Companies (證券公司監督管理條例), amended and came into effect on July 29, 2014, stipulate the authorized scope of business of securities companies and establish the standards required for entry into the industry and other requirements. The establishment of a securities company must be approved by the CSRC, and the business license must be obtained subject to fulfillment of the relevant conditions, such conditions primarily include: the articles of association of the company shall comply with the relevant requirements, substantial shareholders shall possess the relevant qualifications, registered capital shall meet the statutory requirements, directors, supervisors, senior management officers and practitioners shall possess eligible qualifications, sound risk management and internal control systems are in place, the company shall have qualified operation premises and business facilities.

Judging Criteria and Guidelines on Controlling Relationships of Securities Companies (關於證券公司控制關係的認定標準及相關指導意見) which came into effect in March 2008 stipulated that the same entity or individual, or a number of entities or individuals under de facto control by the same entity or individual, shall not invest in more than two securities companies, and shall not control more than one securities company.

The Rules for Establishment of Foreign-invested Securities Companies (外資參股證券公司設立規則) amended and came into effect on October 11, 2012, clearly set out the conditions and procedures for the establishment of a foreign-invested securities company. Unless with the consent of the PRC Government, a foreign-invested securities company shall meet the following conditions: the aggregate (including direct holding and indirect control) shareholdings of foreign shareholders or their interests in a foreign-invested securities company shall not exceed 49%; for foreign investors who lawfully hold 5% or more of the shares in a listed domestically-funded securities company through securities trading on a stock exchange or who jointly hold more than 5% of the shares of a listed domestically-funded securities company with others by agreement and other arrangements, approval from the CSRC must be obtained, and the relevant conditions for foreign shareholders of foreign-invested securities companies must be satisfied; the shareholdings held (including direct holding and indirect control) by a single foreign-investor in a listed domestically-funded securities company shall not exceed 20%; and the shareholdings held (including direct holding and indirect control) by all foreign investors in a listed domestically-funded securities company shall not exceed 25%.

According to Guideline No. 10 on Administrative Approval for Securities Companies — Increase and Change in Equity Interest of Securities Companies (證券公司行政許可審核工作指引第10號 — 證券公司增資擴股和股權變更), which came into effect on August 27, 2015, if an enterprise directly or indirectly owned by a foreign investor invests in a securities company, the indirect equity interest of the foreign investor in the securities company as calculated based on equity penetration shall not be more than 5%, subject to certain exceptions. Meanwhile, this Guideline further stipulates the qualifications and requirements of shareholders who hold more than 5% equity interest in a securities company, the qualifications and requirements of shareholders who acquire a stake and the shareholding period.

Our H shares then in issue will account for 14.91% of our enlarged issued share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is fully exercised and taking into account of the effect of the transfer and reduction in holding of state-owned shares). In addition, our A shares may be traded by the foreign investors under the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. As of March 15, 2017, the A shares held by the investors through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect represent approximately 0.28% of our existing issued share capital or approximately 0.25% of our enlarged issued share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering (assuming the Over-allotment Option is fully exercised and the number of A shares held by the investors through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect has not changed since the Latest Practicable Date). We will closely monitor the movement in trading volume of the A shares held by the foreign investors and the H shares held by domestic investors (if applicable) to assess the compliance with the 25% foreign ownership limit. We will promptly communicate with the CSRC if we become aware that our shares held by the foreign investors have come close to or exceeded 25% of our then issued share capital.

2. Business Scope

According to the Securities Law, upon approval by the CSRC, a securities company may engage in some or all of the following businesses: securities brokerage, securities investment consulting, financial advisory business in relation to securities trading and securities investment activities, securities underwriting and sponsorship, proprietary securities trading, securities asset management, and other securities businesses.

According to the Interim Provisions on the Review and Approval of Business Scope of Securities Companies (證券公司業務範圍審批暫行規定) which came into effect on December 1, 2008, securities companies controlled by the same entity or individual or securities companies with existing control relationship between each other shall not operate the same business except in cases where the relevant companies have adopted effective measures to clearly differentiate the operating regions or the target customer groups, and no competitive relationship exists between them. Upon the establishment of a securities company, the CSRC shall approve its scope of business in accordance with the legal requirements. For newly established companies, the approved businesses shall not exceed 4 types unless stipulated otherwise by the CSRC. Any change in the scope of business of a securities company shall obtain approval from the CSRC. A change in the scope of business may involve an increase or a decrease in the categories of businesses. A securities company shall not increase its businesses by more than 2 categories in one application. Subject to the approval by the CSRC, a securities company may engage in businesses not clearly stated in the Securities Law, the Regulations on Supervision and Administration of Securities Companies (證券公司監督管理條例) and the rules and regulatory documents of the CSRC.

3. Material Changes

According to the Securities Law, approval from the CSRC shall be obtained for the following material changes of a securities company: the establishment, acquisition or de-registration of a branch; change in the scope of business; increase in registered capital and material adjustment to the equity structure; decrease in registered capital; change of any shareholder holding more than 5% of equity interest and de facto controller; change in important articles of the articles of association of the company; any merger, division, cessation, dissolution and bankruptcy; the establishment, acquisition of or investment in securities operation institutions in overseas jurisdictions by the securities company.

According to the Regulations on Supervision and Administration of Securities Companies (證券公司監督管理條例), any entity or individual holding or actually controlling more than 5% equity interest in a securities company without approval shall be ordered by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council for rectification within a prescribed period. Before the rectification, such equity interest shall not carry voting rights.

The CSRC has gradually authorized its local branches to review and approve certain applications for material changes by securities companies. According to the Decision on Authorization of Local Branches to Review and Approve Items Requiring Administrative Approval of Certain Securities Institutions (關於授權派出機構審核部分證券機構行政許可事項的決定), which came into effect on March 1, 2011, and the Decision of the State Council in Relation to the Cancellation and Adjustment of the Sixth Group of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於第六批取消和調整行政審批項目的決定) which came into effect on September 23, 2012, the local branches of the CSRC are formally authorized to review and approve the following material changes of securities companies: change of important articles of the articles of association; establishment, acquisition or de-registration of a branch; approval for some items regarding the change of registered capital of a securities company: increase in capital of unlisted securities companies which involves review of qualification of shareholders or the de facto controller, increase in capital of unlisted securities companies which involves the change of de facto controller, controlling shareholder or the largest shareholder of a securities company, approval for reduction in capital of an unlisted securities company; a change of shareholders with more than 5% of shareholdings and de facto controller of an unlisted securities company; and addition or reduction of the business of securities brokerage, securities investment consulting, financial advisory business in relation to securities trading and securities investment, proprietary securities trading, securities asset management and securities underwriting.

4. Establishment of Subsidiaries and Branches

According to the Provisional Regulatory Requirements on Establishment of Subsidiaries of Securities Companies (證券公司設立子公司試行規定) amended and came into effect on October 11, 2012, subject to the approval of the CSRC, securities companies may establish wholly-owned subsidiaries and may also invest jointly in the establishment of subsidiaries with other investors who meet the required conditions for shareholders of securities companies stipulated in the Securities Law. However, operation of similar businesses that involve conflicts of interest or competition is not permitted for a securities company and its subsidiaries, or for subsidiaries that are under common control of the same securities company. A subsidiary shall not directly or indirectly hold equity interest or shares of its controlling shareholder, or of other subsidiaries under the common control of the same securities company, or invest by other means in its controlling shareholder or other subsidiaries under the common control of the same securities company. A subsidiary referred to in such requirements shall mean a securities company established in accordance with the Company Law and the Securities Law and controlled by a securities company, and engage in one or more securities businesses approved by the CSRC. A securities company which establishes a subsidiary shall comply with the prudence requirements under the Provisional Regulatory Requirements on Establishment of Subsidiaries of Securities Companies (證券公司設立子公司試行規定). If a securities company acquires controlling interest in other securities company through the establishment, transfer or subscription of equity interest shall meet the relevant requirements within 5 years from the date of acquiring the controlling interest.

According to the Regulatory Requirements on Branches of Securities Companies (證券公司分支機構監管規定) which came into effect on March 15, 2013, branches of a securities company shall refer to the branch offices and securities branches established by the securities company in the PRC for business operation. Establishment and acquisition of branches by a securities company shall fulfill the relevant conditions, and approval from the securities regulatory bureaus authorized by the CSRC must be obtained for the establishment, acquisition or de-registration of branches by a securities company.

Industry Entry Requirements for Futures Companies

1. Establishment

The establishment of a futures company requires approval from the CSRC. The Regulations on the Administration of Futures Trading (期貨交易管理條例) and the Measures for the Supervision and Administration of Futures Companies (期貨公司監督管理辦法), which came into effect on October 29, 2014, have stipulated the requirements for the establishment of a futures company, which primarily include: the minimum requirement of registered capital, directors, supervisors, senior management and practitioners shall be qualified for their positions, the articles of association of the company shall comply with the relevant requirements, major shareholders and the de facto controller shall have sustained profitability, operating premises and business facilities shall comply with regulations; the risk management and internal control systems are sound.

According to the Provisions on Issues Relating to the Regulation of Controlling Interests and Equity Interests in Futures Companies (關於規範控股、參股期貨公司有關問題的規定) which came into effect on June 1, 2008, an entity shall not hold controlling interest and equity interest in more than two futures companies and shall not hold controlling interest in more than one futures company.

According to the State Council's Decision on the Cancellation and Adjustment of a Series of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於取消和調整一批行政審批項目等事項的決定) which came into effect on February 24, 2015, the CSRC has changed the requirement for the establishment of a futures company from pre-approval to post-approval.

2. Material Changes

Pursuant to the Measures for the Supervision and Administration of Futures Companies (期貨公司監督管理辦法), approval from the CSRC shall be obtained for change of shareholdings in a futures company in any of the circumstances below: change of controlling shareholder or the largest shareholder; percentage of the shareholding of an individual shareholder or related shareholder increases to 100%; or percentage of shareholding of an individual shareholder or percentage of the aggregate shareholdings of related shareholders, increases to more than 5% and involves foreign shareholder(s). In addition, in case of an increase in the percentage of shareholding of an individual shareholder or an increase in the percentage of the aggregate shareholdings of related shareholders in a futures company to more than 5%, approval shall be obtained from the local branch of the CSRC at the place of domicile of the futures company. Pursuant to the Decision of the State Council in Relation to the Cancellation and Adjustment of the Sixth Group of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於第六批取消和調整行政審批項目的決定), a change of more than 5% in the shareholding of a futures company which does not involve the addition of a new shareholder holding an equity interest of more than 5% and the largest shareholder remains unchanged, approval for such a change is no longer required.

3. Establishment of Subsidiaries and Branches

The Measures for the Supervision and Administration of Futures Companies (期貨公司監督管理辦法) stipulated that a futures company shall satisfy the relevant requirements in order to make an application to establish branches such as sales branches and branch offices, such requirements primarily include sound corporate governance, compliance of the risk regulatory indicators, compliance with the relevant requirements by the internal system, compliance with laws and regulations by operating activities, compliance with the relevant requirements by the plan for establishment of branches. According to the State Council's Decision on the Cancellation and Adjustment of a Series of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於取消和調整一批行政審批項目等事項的決定) which came into effect on October 23, 2014, the administrative approval requirement for the establishment of domestic branches by futures companies was cancelled by the local branch of the CSRC.

Industry Entry Requirements for Fund Management Companies1. Establishment

The establishment of a fund management company requires the approval of the CSRC. The Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法) which came into effect on November 1, 2012 stipulated the conditions which shall be fulfilled for the establishment of a fund management company. The relevant conditions primarily relate to shareholders qualifications, corporate organization documents, registered capital, senior management officers and practitioners, operation premises and the implementation and corporate organization structure, and internal control systems, etc.

According to the Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法), for a sino-foreign joint venture fund management company, the domestic shareholder with the largest shareholding percentage shall meet the following conditions: for engagement in securities operations, securities investment consulting, trust asset management or other financial asset management business, the registered capital shall not be less than RMB300 million, together with good operating results and sound asset quality; other domestic shareholders with more than 5% in shareholding shall also meet the relevant conditions. Meanwhile, the foreign shareholder of a sino-foreign joint venture fund management company shall meet the following conditions: it shall be a financial institution established in accordance with the laws of the country or region where it is located, it shall be in legal subsistence and possess management experience in financial assets, with solid financial strength, good creditworthiness and was not subject to punishment by the regulatory or judicial authorities within the last 3 years; comprehensive securities laws and regulatory regimes are in place in the country or region where it operates, and the securities regulatory authority thereof has signed the memorandum of understanding on securities regulatory cooperation with the CSRC or other institutions authorized by the CSRC, and has maintained an effective regulatory cooperative relationship; its paid-up capital shall not be less than RMB300 million or in equivalent freely convertible currencies; and it shall meet all other requirements of the CSRC as approved by the State Council.

The requirements in the preceding paragraph are applicable to investment institutions in Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan.

The percentage of shareholding of shareholders in a fund management company shall comply with the requirements of the CSRC. The percentage of shareholding or equity interest held by foreign partners in a sino-foreign joint venture fund management company in aggregate (including direct and indirect shareholdings) shall not exceed the commitment made in the opening-up policy of the securities industry in China (that is, the percentage of foreign investment shall not exceed 49%).

According to the State Council's Decision on the Cancellation and Adjustment of a Series of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於取消和調整一批行政審批項目等事項的決定), which was promulgated and came into effect on February 24, 2015, the CSRC has changed the requirement for the establishment of a fund management company for mutual funds from pre-approval to post-approval.

2. Material changes

According to the Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法), fund management companies shall obtain the approval of the CSRC in the event of any of the following significant changes: change of shareholders who hold more than 5% of the company's shares; change of shareholders whose shareholding is less than 5% but who have significant influence on corporate governance; the shareholding percentage of the changed shareholders exceeds 5%; amendments to important provisions of the articles of association; and other significant matters stipulated by the CSRC.

3. Establishment of subsidiaries

In accordance with the Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法) and the Provisions on Administration of Subsidiaries of Fund Management Companies (基金管理公司子公司管理規定) which came into effect on December 15, 2016, a fund management company shall, subject to satisfaction of relevant requirements, apply to the CSRC for the establishment of subsidiaries.

Industry Entry Requirements for Securities Asset Management Companies

1. Establishment

Securities companies can establish business departments or subsidiaries to engage in securities asset management business.

Pursuant to the Provisions for Trial Implementation on Establishing Subsidiary Companies by Securities Companies (《證券公司設立子公司試行規定》), if a securities company has set up a subsidiary company to operate securities asset management business, apart from fulfilling the general requirements for setting up a subsidiary company, the market share of the securities company has been at the intermediary level in the last year.

2. Business Scope

According to the Administrative Measures on Client Asset Management of Securities Companies (證券公司客戶資產管理業務管理辦法) (amended and came into effect on June 26, 2013) and the Provisions for Trial Implementation on Establishing Subsidiary Companies by Securities Companies (《證券公司設立子公司試行規定》), a securities company or a securities asset management subsidiary established by it may engage in the following client asset management business: providing targeted asset management business for individual customers, providing collective asset management business for a number of customers, and providing special asset management business for customers with specific objectives.

Industry Entry Requirements for Direct Investment Companies1. Establishment

The Management Rules for the Private Investment Funds Subsidiaries under Securities Companies (《證券公司私募投資基金子公司管理規範》) and the Management Rules for the Alternative Investment Subsidiaries under Securities Companies (《證券公司另類投資子公司管理規範》) were issued by the SAC on December 30, 2016, and the former Rules for the Direct Investment Business of Securities Companies was abolished on the same day. The former Rules for the Direct Investment Business of Securities Companies provided that a securities company shall establish its direct investment business subsidiary in order to conduct direct investment business and the securities company shall not conduct direct investment business in other forms. However, according to the Management Rules for the Private Investment Funds Subsidiaries under Securities Companies and the Management Rules for the Alternative Investment Subsidiaries under Securities Companies, a securities company shall establish its private investment funds subsidiary in order to conduct private investment business and the securities company shall conduct alternative investment business such as financial products and equities other than those stated in the List of Securities Investment Products for the Proprietary Trading of Securities Companies which was amended and came into effect on November 16, 2012.

The Management Rules for the Private Investment Funds Subsidiaries under Securities Companies stipulate the conditions required to be satisfied for the establishment of private investment funds subsidiaries. The major conditions include sound corporate governance structure, sound and effective internal control system, risk management system and compliance management system, satisfactory risk control indicators, no major non-compliances and that the provisions of the approved Articles of Association clearly provide that the company may establish private investment funds subsidiaries, etc. Furthermore, securities companies should establish their wholly-owned private investment funds subsidiaries out of their own fund and shall not be allowed to establish private investment funds subsidiaries through joint ventures with other investors in disguised forms such as shareholding entrustment. In principle, each securities company may establish not more than one private investment funds subsidiary. Securities companies and their private investment funds subsidiaries are required to satisfy those requirements of the rules within twelve months since the date of issuing the rules. If the direct investment subsidiaries established by the securities companies before issuing the rules conducted direct equity investments out of their own fund or the established funds management body and funds cannot meet the relevant requirements, no new businesses are allowed and the existing businesses may continue until their expiry, but are not allowed to be open for purchase or absorb additional funds and shall not be renewed.

The Management Rules for the Alternative Investment Subsidiaries under Securities Companies stipulate the conditions required to be satisfied for the establishment of alternative investment subsidiaries. The major conditions include sound corporate governance structure, sound and effective internal control system, risk management system and compliance management system, approved qualification of proprietary securities trading business, satisfactory risk control indicators, no major non-compliances and that the provisions of the approved Articles of Association clearly provide that the company may establish alternative investment subsidiaries, etc. Furthermore, securities companies should establish their wholly-owned alternative investment subsidiaries out of their own fund and shall not be allowed to establish alternative investment subsidiaries through joint ventures with other investors in disguised forms such as shareholding entrustment. In principle, each securities company may establish not more than one alternative investment subsidiary. Securities companies and their alternative investment subsidiaries are required to satisfy those requirements of the rules within twelve months since the date of issuing the rules. For those that had raised funds from investors to conduct private funds business before the promulgation and implementation of the rules, no new businesses are allowed and the existing businesses may continue until their expiry, but are not allowed to be open for purchase or absorb additional funds and shall not be renewed.

2. Business Scope

According to the Management Rules for the Private Investment Funds Subsidiaries under Securities Companies, private investment fund subsidiaries are not allowed to engage in private investment fund unrelated business. Private investment fund subsidiaries engaged in private investment fund business can manage idle fund with the purpose of cash management, while endeavor to keeping efficient risk control and liquidity, and only invest to low risk and strong liquidity securities, i.e. legitimately and publicly issued treasury bonds, central bank bills, short-term financing bonds, investment grade corporate bond, money market funds and bank wealth management guaranteed product.

According to the Management Rules for the Alternative Investment Subsidiaries under Securities Companies, alternative investment subsidiaries shall engage in alternative investment business of financial products and equities that are not listed on the List of Securities Investment Products for the Proprietary Trading of Securities Companies. Alternative investment subsidiaries shall not engage in business other than investment business.

Corporate Governance and Risk Control

Corporate Governance and Risk Control of Securities Companies

1. Corporate Governance

The corporate governance of securities companies is regulated by the Company Law, the Securities Law, the Regulations on Supervision and Administration of Securities Companies (證券公司監督管理條例), the Rules for Governance of Securities Companies (證券公司治理準則) amended and came into effect on January 1, 2013, the Guidance for the Internal Control of Securities Companies (證券公司內部控制指引), and other PRC laws, regulations and regulatory documents.

Securities companies shall establish a sound corporate governance structure. The governance structure of a securities company shall include a scientific decision-making process and rules of procedures, an efficient and strict business operation system, a sound and effective internal control and feedback system, and an effective incentive and binding mechanism. The supervisory committee and independent directors of a securities company shall fully exercise their supervision responsibilities and prevent the risk of manipulation by substantial shareholders and control by insiders. The establishment of departments and positions of a securities company shall have clear delineation of powers and duties with check and balance, and appropriate segregation between frontline business operation and back office management support is required. A sound Chinese wall system shall be established among major business departments of a securities company to ensure the relative independence among brokerage, proprietary trading, entrusted investment management, investment banking, research and consultancy businesses.

For securities companies engaging in more than two businesses among securities brokerage, asset management, margin financing and securities lending, securities underwriting and sponsorship, a remuneration and nomination committee, an audit committee and a risk control committee shall be established by the board of directors, and the persons in charge of the remuneration and nomination committee and the audit committee shall be independent directors. If a securities company sets up a body to exercise its operation and management powers, the name, composition, duties and responsibilities, and rules of procedures of such body shall be defined in the articles of association of the securities company, and the members of the body shall be the senior management of the securities company.

The Regulatory Measures on Qualifications of Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of Securities Companies (證券公司董事、監事和高級管理人員任職資格監管辦法) amended and came into effect on October 19, 2012, provided further requirements on the qualifications of directors, supervisors and senior management officers. Directors, supervisors and senior management officers of securities companies shall obtain the appointment qualifications approved by the CSRC's local branches before taking office.

2. Risk Control

The Securities Law stipulates the requirements for the risk control system of securities companies, which mainly include: contributing a certain percentage of their post-tax profits to a trading risk reserve to cover the loss of securities trading, establishing and enhancing its internal control systems and adopting effective segregation measures to prevent conflict of interest between the company and its clients and among different clients.

Pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (證券公司風險控制指標管理辦法), amended on June 16, 2016 and came into effect on October 1, 2016, a securities company shall calculate the capital reserves for market risk, credit risk and operation risk according to the basis of calculation for risk capital reserves of securities companies as required by the CSRC, calculate the net capital according to the basis of calculation for net capital of securities companies as required by the CSRC, and submit a monthly report on supervision of risk control indicators to the CSRC and its local branches within 7 business days from the end of each month.

The Provisions on the Basis of Calculation for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (證券公司風險控制指標計算標準規定), came into effect on October 1, 2016, provided the basis of calculation for major risk capital reserves of securities companies.

Pursuant to the Norms for the Comprehensive Risk Management of Securities Companies (證券公司全面風險管理規範), amended and came into effect on December 30, 2016, securities companies shall implement all-rounded risk management to avoid various types of risks arising from business operation, such as liquidity risk, market risk, credit risk, operating risk and reputation risk, and shall establish and improve an all-rounded risk management system consistent with their respective development strategies, including a practicable management regime, a sound organization structure, a reliable information technology system, a quantitative risk indication system, a team of professionals and an effective risk response mechanism. Securities companies should cultivate a healthy risk culture at the company level, build the risk management philosophies, value standards and work ethic that are appropriate for the company and establish training, communication and supervision systems. In addition, securities companies should bring all of their subsidiaries and different sub-subsidiaries which are comparable with the management of subsidiaries into the comprehensive risk management system, enhance the risk management of branches and achieve overall coverage of risk management.

Pursuant to the Guidelines for the Liquidity Risk Management of Securities Companies (證券公司流動性風險管理指引) which was amended and came into effect on December 30, 2016, securities companies shall strengthen liquidity risk management and establish a sound liquidity risk management system for effective identification, measurement, monitoring and control of liquidity risk, to ensure its liquidity requirements could be satisfied timely at reasonable costs.

3. Classified Regulation

Pursuant to the Regulations on Classification and Supervision of Securities Companies (證券公司分類監管規定) which came into effect on May 14, 2010, the CSRC classifies the securities companies into eleven grades under five main classes from high to low levels, including class A (AAA, AA, A), class B (BBB, BB, B), class C (CCC, CC, C), class D and class E, based on the risk control capability, competitiveness and continuous compliance of securities companies.

The “regulatory point” regime is one of the systems adopted by the CSRC to evaluate the continuous compliance of a PRC securities company. The benchmark score for a PRC securities company under normal operation is 100 points. The regulatory score of a PRC securities company is primarily determined by adding or deducting points to or from a 100-point benchmark score based on a number of factors, including the company’s indicators and standards of risk control capability, market competitiveness and continuous compliance with regulatory requirements. The CSRC will deduct the corresponding regulatory points in relation to the specific incidents occurred in a PRC securities company during the appraisal period, e.g. a PRC securities company is subject to administrative punishment measures or regulatory measures adopted by the CSRC and its branches, criminal punishment by the judicial authorities or disciplinary action by the self-governance organization of the securities industry for an illegal act or irregularity, while the CSRC will add the regulatory points where a PRC securities company satisfies with certain criteria such as it continuously meet the major risk control indicators during the last two or three appraisal period or the net capital of a PRC securities company reaches five times of the required standard etc.

According to the industry development conditions, the CSRC annually sets the ratio of Class A, B and C companies based on the previous year's result and determines the number of companies per Class and per Grade based on the distribution of the current year's regulatory points, among which the regulatory points for companies with rating of Class B Grade BB or above should be higher than the 100-point benchmark score.

The ratings of the PRC securities companies may be used as: (i) prudential requirements for securities companies to apply for new businesses, establishment of new business outlets, public offering of shares and listing; (ii) one of the basis for determining the experiment scope and promotion sequence of new businesses and products; and (iii) one of the basis for the China Securities Investor Protection Fund Corporation Limited to determine the specific proportion of the securities investor protection fund to be paid by securities companies at different ratings.

According to the market development conditions and the principles of prudent regulation, and based on the opinions sought from industry participants, the CSRC has formulated and timely adjusted the appraisal benchmarks and standards for securities companies. The classification of securities companies is implemented by the CSRC and its delegated local branches, appraisals are conducted on an annual basis and the appraisal period starts on May 1 of the previous year and ends on April 30 of the current year. According to the principles of classified regulation, the CSRC prescribes different standards for risk control indicators and percentages for calculation of risk capital reserves for different classes of securities companies, and differentiation in treatment will be applied to such companies in the aspects of allocation of regulatory resources, and frequency of on-site and off-site inspections and so on.

Corporate Governance and Risk Control of Futures Companies

1. Corporate Governance

Pursuant to the Supervisory and Administrative Measures on Futures Companies (期貨公司監督管理辦法), the CSRC implements a qualification management system for directors, supervisors, senior management officers and other futures practitioners of futures companies and other futures operating institutions. The business, personnel, assets, finance and place of business of a futures company shall be strictly separated from those of its controlling shareholders, and shall be independently operated and audited.

The Administrative Measures on Qualifications of Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of Futures Companies (期貨公司董事、監事和高級管理人員任職資格管理辦法), which came into effect on July 4, 2007, requires the implementation of a qualification management system on the directors, supervisors and senior management officers of futures companies. The measures set out specific requirements on the qualifications for appointment to the above positions, application and approval of appointment qualifications, code of conduct, supervision and administration and other aspects. The State Council's Decision on the Cancellation and Adjustment of a Series of Items Requiring Administrative Approval (國務院關於取消和調整一批行政審批項目等事項的決定) (Guo Fa [2015] No. 11), which came into effect on February 24, 2015, has cancelled the approval requirement for appointment qualification of directors, supervisors and senior management officers of futures companies, and the CSRC Announcement [2015] No. 11 has already changed such administrative permission to post-event reporting management.

2. Risk Control

According to the requirements of the Measures for the Supervision and Administration of Futures Companies (期貨公司監督管理辦法), the Regulations on the Administration of Futures Trading (期貨交易管理條例) and the Administrative Measures on Risk Regulatory Indicators of Futures Companies (期貨公司風險監管指標管理辦法), amended on February 21, 2013 and came into effect on July 1, 2013, a futures company engaging in futures brokerage business and other futures business at the same time shall strictly implement systems for separation of business and capital, and shall be prohibited from mixed operations. The CSRC formulates regulations on the risk regulatory indicators such as the ratio of net capital to net assets, the ratio of net capital to the business scale of domestic futures brokerage and overseas futures brokerage, and the ratio of current assets to current liabilities of futures companies. The CSRC also sets out requirements on the operating conditions, risk management, internal controls, custody of margin deposits and related party transactions of futures companies and their branches. Futures companies shall establish and strictly implement their business management rules and risk management systems and comply with the information disclosure system to ensure the safe custody of clients' margins.

3. Classified Regulation

Pursuant to the Regulations on Classification and Supervision of Futures Companies (期貨公司分類監管規定) which came into effect on April 12, 2011, the CSRC classifies the futures companies into eleven grades under five main classes from high to low levels, including class A (AAA, AA, A), class B (BBB, BB, B), class C (CCC, CC, C), class D and class E, based on prudent supervision requirements, and the risk management capability, competitiveness and continuous compliance of the futures companies. According to the principles of classified regulation, the CSRC prescribes different contribution ratios to the Futures Investor Protection Fund for different classes of futures companies, and differentiation in treatment will be applied in the aspects of allocation of regulatory resources, and frequency of on-site and off-site inspections and so on.

Corporate Governance and Risk Control of Fund Management Companies

1. Corporate Governance

The corporate governance of fund management companies is governed by the Law of Securities Investment Funds (證券投資基金法), the Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法) and the Securities Investment Fund Management Company Governance Guidelines (Trial Implementation) (證券投資基金管理公司治理準則(試行)) which came into effect on June 15, 2006, as well as other relevant regulations and regulatory documents. A securities investment fund management company shall establish and organize a governance framework with sound structure, clear delineation of duties and responsibilities, effective check and balance and supervision, and reasonable incentives and constraints, in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and requirements of the CSRC, to maintain regulated operation of the company and protect the interest of fund unit holder. Corporate governance shall conform to the basic principles of conferring priority to the interest of fund unit holder.

A fund management company shall establish among its shareholders a segregation system for key information on business and clients. Shareholders of a fund management company and their de facto controllers shall exercise their rights in accordance with laws through the general meetings and shall not bypass the general meetings and the board of directors to appoint or remove directors, supervisors, senior management officers of fund management company, or directly interfere with the operational management, investment and operation of fund assets of the fund management company. Furthermore they shall not request the fund management company to collaborate with them in business activities, such as underwriting of securities and securities investment, which may derogate the legitimate interest of fund holders and other parties.

The Administrative Measures on the Employment of Senior Management Personnel of the Securities Investment Fund Industry (證券投資基金行業高級管理人員任職管理辦法), which came into effect on October 1, 2004, regulate the management system of qualifications with regard to directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers and inspector generals and other senior management personnel of fund management companies, and specify the qualification requirements, application and approval of appointment qualifications, code of conduct, supervision and management for such persons, etc.

2. Risk Control

Pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司管理辦法), the CSRC may establish a risk control indicator monitoring system and a comprehensive regulatory evaluation system for fund management companies. Where the relevant indicators of a fund management company do not comply with the requirements, the CSRC may order the fund management company to rectify within a stipulated period, and may adopt administrative regulatory measures such as requiring the company to increase registered capital, raising the percentage for provision of risk reserves, and suspending part or all of its business operations, etc.

Pursuant to the Law of Securities Investment Funds (證券投資基金法) and the Administrative Measures on Operations of Public Offering of Securities Investment Funds (公開募集證券投資基金運作管理辦法) which came into effect on August 8, 2014, fund managers applying fund assets to investments shall comply with the required investment ratios as prescribed by laws and regulations.

Pursuant to the Guiding Opinions on the Fair Trading System of Securities Investment Fund Management Companies (證券投資基金管理公司公平交易制度指導意見) which came into effect on August 3, 2011, a company shall fairly treat different portfolios during its investment management activities and shall be prohibited from passing benefits between different portfolios. The company shall segregate investment management function from trading execution function, implement a centralized trading system, establish and improve a fair trading distribution system to ensure fair trading execution opportunities for all portfolios.

Pursuant to the Provisional Measures on Supervision and Administration of Risk Reserve of Public Offering of Securities Investment Funds (公開募集證券投資基金風險準備金監督管理暫行辦法) which came into effect on January 1, 2014, fund managers shall establish systems for risk reserve management, formulate procedures for the withdrawal, transfer, investment management, application and payment of risk reserves, and keep records for future reference.

Corporate Governance and Risk Control of Securities Asset Management Companies

And listed securities companies shall also establish a sound information management system in accordance with the characteristics of the securities industry in China, the specific conditions of the company and the general regulations regarding disclosure of information by listed companies.

Anti-money Laundering

Securities companies shall comply with the requirements related to anti-money laundering stipulated in the Anti-money Laundering Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國反洗錢法) which came into effect on January 1, 2007, the Provisions on Anti-money Laundering of Financial Institutions (金融機構反洗錢規定) which came into effect on January 1, 2007, the Administrative Measures on Reporting of Large Amount Transactions and Suspicious Transactions of Financial Institutions (金融機構大額交易和可疑交易報告管理辦法) which came into effect on March 1, 2007, amended on December 28, 2016 and shall come into effect on July 1, 2017, the Measures on Administration of Identification of Clients and Preservation of Client Identity Information and Trading Records of Financial Institutions (金融機構客戶身份識別和客戶身份資料及交易記錄保存管理辦法) which came into effect on August 1, 2007, and the Guidelines for Risk Assessment of Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism and for Client Classification Management in Financial Institutions (金融機構洗錢和恐怖融資風險評估及客戶分類管理指引) which came into effect on January 5, 2013.

The Measures on the Anti-money Laundering by Securities and Futures Industry (證券期貨業反洗錢工作實施辦法), which came into effect on October 1, 2010, further stipulate the anti-money laundering regulations for the securities and futures industry, as well as the anti-money laundering responsibilities of the institutions engaging in sales of funds business. Securities and futures entities shall establish and enhance internal control systems for anti-money laundering. In addition, securities companies shall comply with the requirements of the Anti-Money Laundering Guidelines for Securities Companies (證券公司反洗錢工作指引) which came into effect on April 28, 2014, and implement anti-money laundering measures with due consideration given to respective business features and practical conditions.

Anti-terrorism

Pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Freezing of Assets Involving Terrorist Activities (涉及恐怖活動資產凍結管理辦法) which came into effect on January 10, 2014, financial institutions and special non-financial institutions established in the PRC shall freeze the related assets strictly in accordance with the list of terrorist organizations and list of persons involving in terrorism as well as the decisions to freeze assets issued by the Ministry of Public Security.

The International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism (制止向恐怖主義提供資助的國際公約) was adopted by resolution 54/109 of December 1999 at the Fifty-fourth session of the General Assembly of the United Nations. The convention appeals for enhancement of international cooperation between countries to formulate and adopt effective measures to prevent financing the terrorism as well as suppressing terrorism through prosecuting and punishing terrorist acts. The PRC Government ratified this convention in 2006 with reservations.

Anti-corruption

The Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國反不正當競爭法), which came into effect on December 1, 1993, requires that business dealers be prohibited from using properties or other means for bribing in order to sell or purchase commodities. Serious offenders shall be subject to criminal liabilities under the law. The Interim Provisions on the Prohibition of Commercial Bribery Behavior issued by the State Administration for Industry and Commerce (國家工商行政管理局關於禁止商業賄賂行為的暫行規定), which came into effect on November 15, 1996, further stipulated the constitution and legal liabilities of commercial bribery.

The United Nations Convention against Corruption (聯合國反腐敗公約) was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on October 31, 2003. The convention aims to promote and enhance various measures for preventing and combating corruption in a more effective and powerful way, and to promote, facilitate and support international cooperation and technical assistance in preventing and combating corruption, including asset recovery, encouraging integrity, accountability and proper management of public affairs and properties. The PRC Government ratified this convention in 2005 with reservations.

Regulatory Reforms and Innovations

In recent years, the PRC Government has deepened reforms, further simplified and deregulated administrative measures, the State Council and the CSRC have promulgated a number of regulations to promote the reforms and innovations of the securities industry.

Pursuant to Certain Opinions of the State Council on Further Promoting the Healthy Development of the Capital Market (國務院關於進一步促進資本市場健康發展的若干意見) which came into effect on May 8, 2014, a multi-tiered stock market shall be developed by actively and steadily promoting the reform of share offer system into a registration system, speeding up the establishment of a multi-tiered equity market and encouraging market-driven merger and acquisition and restructuring activities; a private equity market shall be cultivated by establishing a sound private equity offering system and developing private equity investment funds; and the capital market shall be further opened up by facilitating cross-border investment and financing of domestic and foreign entities, gradually improving the level of opening-up in the securities and futures industry and enhancing the cooperation in cross-border regulation.

According to the Opinions on Further Promoting the Innovative Development of Securities Operation Institutions (關於進一步推進證券經營機構創新發展的意見) which came into effect on May 13, 2014, modern investment banks shall be constructed by, inter alia, enhancing integrated financial service capabilities, improving basic functions, broadening financing channels, developing cross-border business and enhancing compliance and risk control standards. Business and product innovation shall be supported by, inter alia, promoting the development of asset management business, supporting the launching of fixed-income, foreign currencies and commodities businesses, supporting innovations in financing business, conducting derivatives business in a stable and proper manner, developing OTC services and supporting self-development of private equity products. Regulatory transformation shall be facilitated by, inter alia, changing the regulatory mode, deepening examination and approval reforms, relaxing industry access and implementing business license administration.

In recent years, the State Council has promulgated a series of regulations on cancelling and adjusting the items requiring administrative reviews and approvals for, inter alia, the securities industry, including but not limited to cancellation of the approval requirement for appointment qualifications of persons in charge of domestic branches of securities companies, cancellation of review and approval requirements for the borrowing or issuance, repayment or clearance of subordinated debts by securities institutions, and cancellation of the review and approval requirements for new trading items listed on a stock exchange.

With the deepening of regulatory reforms and innovations in the securities industry, the regulatory authorities in the PRC has adopted the philosophy of relaxing prior approval while enhancing in-process and post-event supervision, and continued to promote the transformation of regulation pattern of the securities markets in China. The regulatory reform leads to a surge of innovative products and services and has also brought about new market risk and market volatility at the same time. As a result, the regulatory authorities have requested securities firms to strengthen their overall risk management and new regulations and rules are kept being promulgated from time to time to adjust the market order.

OVERVIEW OF REGULATORY ENVIRONMENT IN HONG KONG

Introduction

The SFO (including its subsidiary legislation) is the principal legislation regulating the securities and futures industry in Hong Kong, including the regulation of securities, futures and leveraged foreign exchange markets, the offering of investments to the public in Hong Kong, intermediaries and their conduct of regulated activities. In particular, Part V of the SFO governs licensing and registration matters.

The SFO is administered by the SFC which is the statutory regulatory body that governs the securities and futures markets and non-bank leveraged foreign exchange market in Hong Kong.

In addition to the SFO, the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (including its subsidiary legislation) empowers the SFC to approve the prospectus for offerings of shares and debentures and/or grants the relevant waivers.

Types of regulated activities

The SFO promulgates a comprehensive licensing regime where a person only needs one license or registration to carry on different types of regulated activities as defined in Schedule 5 to the SFO. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the following subsidiaries of Guotai Junan International are licensed under the SFO to carry out the regulated activities as set out below:

Name	Type of license
Guotai Junan Assets (Asia) Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 1: Dealing in securities • Type 4: Advising on securities • Type 9: Asset management
Guotai Junan Capital Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 6: Advising on corporate finance
Guotai Junan Fund Management Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 1: Dealing in securities • Type 4: Advising on securities • Type 9: Asset management
Guotai Junan Futures (Hong Kong) Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 2: Dealing in futures contracts • Type 5: Advising on futures contracts
Guotai Junan FX Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 3: Leveraged foreign exchange trading
Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Type 1: Dealing in securities • Type 4: Advising on securities

In addition to the licenses above granted to the subsidiaries of Guotai Junan International by the SFC, Guotai Junan Finance (Hong Kong) Limited also holds a money lender license issued by the licensing court under the Money Lenders Ordinance (Chapter 163 of the Laws of Hong Kong), which allows it to provide loans to its clients in its ordinary course of business.

Overview of Licensing Requirements

Under the SFO, any person who:

- (a) carries on a business in a regulated activity; or
- (b) holds itself out as carrying on a business in a regulated activity, must be licensed under the relevant provisions of the SFO for carrying on such regulated activity, unless one of the exceptions under the SFO applies. It is a serious offence for a person to conduct any regulated activity without holding the relevant license.

In addition, if a person (whether by itself or another person on its behalf, and whether in Hong Kong or from a place outside of Hong Kong) actively markets to the public in Hong Kong any service that it provides and such service, if provided in Hong Kong, would constitute a regulated activity, then that person is also subject to the licensing requirements under the SFO.

For a corporation which is licensed to carry out regulated activities, it must appoint no less than two responsible officers, at least one of whom must be an executive director, to oversee the business of the regulated activities. An executive director of a licensed corporation must be a director who actively participates in, or is responsible for directly supervising, any business of the regulated activities for which the corporation is licensed to carry out. An executive director who is an individual must be approved by the SFC to serve as the responsible officer of such regulated activities of the corporation.

In addition to the licensing requirements on corporations, any individual who:

- (a) performs any regulated function for his principal which is a licensed corporation in relation to a regulated activity carried on as a business; or
- (b) holds himself out as performing such regulated function, must be licensed separately under the SFO as a licensed representative accredited to his principal.

A person applying for licenses under the SFO must satisfy, and continue to satisfy after the grant of such licenses by the SFC, that he is a fit and proper person to be so licensed. The fit and proper person requirement generally means that an applicant must be financially sound, competent, honest, reputable and reliable. In assessing whether an applicant is a fit and proper person, the SFC will consider, among others, the following factors:

- (i) the financial status or solvency of the applicant;
- (ii) the educational or other qualifications or experience of the applicant having regard to the nature of the functions to be performed;

- (iii) the ability of the applicant to carry on the regulated activities competently, honestly and fairly; and
- (iv) the reputation, character, reliability and financial integrity of the applicant.

The above factors will also be considered by the SFC in respect of any officer of the applicant where the applicant is a corporation.

Ongoing Obligations of Licensed Corporations

It is the continuing obligation of licensed corporations, licensed representatives and responsible officers to remain fit and proper as defined under the SFO at all times. They are required to comply with all applicable provisions of the SFO and its ancillary rules and regulations, as well as the codes and guidelines issued by the SFC.

Outlined below are some of the key continuing obligations of a licensed corporation:

- maintenance of minimum paid-up share capital and liquid capital, and submission of financial returns to the SFC, in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Financial Resources) Rules (Chapter 571N of the Laws of Hong Kong) (the “Financial Resources Rules”);
- maintenance of segregated account(s), and custody and handling of client securities in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Client Securities) Rules (Chapter 571H of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- maintenance of segregated account(s), and holding and payment of client money in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Client Money) Rules (Chapter 571I of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- issuance of contract notes, statements of account and receipts, in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Contract Notes, Statements of Account and Receipts) Rules (Chapter 571Q of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- maintenance of records in accordance with the requirements prescribed under the Securities and Futures (Keeping of Records) Rules (Chapter 571O of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- submission of audited accounts and other required documents in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Accounts and Audit) Rules (Chapter 571P of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- maintenance of insurance against specific risks for specified amounts in accordance with the requirements under the Securities and Futures (Insurance) Rules (Chapter 571AI of the Laws of Hong Kong);

- payment of annual fees and submission of annual returns to the SFC within one month after each anniversary date of the license;
- notification to the SFC of certain changes and events, in accordance with the requirements under Securities and Futures (Licensing and Registration) (Information) Rules (Chapter 571S of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- compliance with the continuous professional training requirements under the Guidelines on Continuous Professional Training issued by the SFC;
- implementation of appropriate policies and procedures relating to client acceptance, client due diligence, record keeping, identification and reporting of suspicious transactions and staff screening, education and training, in accordance with the requirements under the Guideline on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing issued by the SFC in April 2015 (the “AML & CTF Guideline”); and
- compliance with the business conduct and internal control requirements under Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the SFC, Corporate Finance Adviser Code of Conduct, Fund Manager Code of Conduct, the Management, Supervision and Internal Control Guidelines for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the SFC, the Advertising Guidelines Applicable to Collective Investment Schemes Authorized under the Product Codes, the Guidelines on Disclosure of Fees and Charges Relating to Securities Services and other applicable guidelines issued by the SFC.

Securities and Futures (Financial Resources) Rules

Subject to certain exemptions described below, a licensed corporation is required to maintain a prescribed level of minimum paid-up share capital. The following table sets out a summary of the minimum paid-up share capital requirements applicable to the licensed subsidiaries of Guotai Junan International in Hong Kong:

- in relation to a corporation licensed for any regulated activities other than Type 3 regulated activity, means 5% of the aggregate of (i) its adjusted liabilities; (ii) the aggregate of the initial margin requirements in respect of outstanding futures contracts and outstanding options contracts held by it on behalf of its clients; and (iii) the aggregate of the amounts of margin required to be deposited in respect of outstanding futures contracts and outstanding options contracts held by it on behalf of its clients, to the extent that such contracts are not subject to payment of initial margin requirements.

Anti-money Laundering and Counter-terrorist Financing

Licensed corporations are required to comply with the applicable anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing laws and regulations in Hong Kong as well as the AML & CTF Guideline, and the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Guideline issued by the SFC for Associated Entities published by the SFC in April 2012.

The AML & CTF Guideline provides guidance to licensed corporations and their senior management in designing and implementing their own anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing policies, procedures and controls in order to meet the relevant legal and regulatory requirements in Hong Kong. Pursuant to the AML & CTF Guideline, licensed corporations should, among other things:

- assess the risks of any new products and services before they are offered to the market and ensure that appropriate additional measures and controls are implemented to mitigate and manage the associated money laundering and terrorist financing risks;
- identify the client and verify the client's identity using reliable, independent source documents, data or information, and take steps from time to time to ensure that the client information is up-to-date and relevant;
- conduct on-going monitoring of activities of the clients to ensure that they are consistent with the nature of business, the risk profile and source of funds, as well as identify transactions that are complex, large or unusual, or patterns of transaction that have no apparent economic or lawful purpose and may indicate money laundering and terrorist financing;
- maintain a database of names and particulars of terrorist suspects and designated parties which consolidates the various lists that have been made known to it, as well as comprehensive on-going screening of the client database; and
- conduct on-going monitoring for identification of suspicious transactions and ensure compliance with their legal obligations of reporting funds or property known or suspected to be proceeds of crime or terrorist property to the Joint Financial Intelligence Unit, a unit jointly run by the Hong Kong Police Force and the Hong Kong Customs & Excise Department to monitor and investigate suspected money laundering.

We set out below a brief summary of the principal legislation of the anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing regulatory regime in Hong Kong.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing (Financial Institutions) Ordinance (Chapter 615 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“AMLO”)

Among other things, the AMLO imposes requirements relating to client due diligence and record-keeping and provides regulatory authorities with the powers to supervise compliance with the requirements under the AMLO. In addition, the regulatory authorities are empowered to (i) ensure that proper safeguards exist to prevent contravention of specified provisions in the AMLO and (ii) mitigate money laundering and terrorist financing risks.

Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance (Chapter 405 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“DTROP”)

Among other things, the DTROP contains provisions for the investigation of assets suspected to be derived from drug trafficking activities, the freezing of assets on arrest and the confiscation of the proceeds from drug trafficking activities. It is an offence under the DTROP if a person deals with any property knowing, or having reasonable grounds to believe, it to be the proceeds from drug trafficking. The DTROP requires a person to report to an authorized officer if he/she knows or suspects that any property (directly or indirectly) is the proceeds from drug trafficking or is intended to be used or was used in connection with drug trafficking, and failure to make such disclosure constitutes an offence under the DTROP.

Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Chapter 455 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“OSCO”)

Among other things, the OSCO empowers officers of the Hong Kong Police Force and the Hong Kong Customs and Excise Department to investigate organized crime and triad activities, and it gives the Courts jurisdiction to confiscate the proceeds from organized and serious crimes, to issue restraint orders and charging orders in relation to the property of defendants of specified offences. The OSCO extends the money laundering offence to cover the proceeds of all indictable offences in addition to drug trafficking.

United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Ordinance (Chapter 575 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“UNATMO”)

Among other things, the UNATMO provides that it is a criminal offence to: (i) provide or collect funds (by any means, directly or indirectly) with the intention or knowledge that the funds will be used to commit, in whole or in part, one or more terrorist acts; or (ii) make any funds or financial (or related) services available, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of a person knowing that, or being reckless as to whether, such person is a terrorist or terrorist associate. The UNATMO also requires a person to report his knowledge or suspicion of terrorist property to an authorized officer, and failure to make such disclosure constitutes an offence under the UNATMO.

THE U.S. FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT (“FATCA”)

The United States has enacted rules commonly referred to as FATCA which target U.S. taxpayers’ use of non-U.S. accounts to evade U.S. federal tax. FATCA seeks to obtain information about accounts held by U.S. taxpayers in other countries by requiring non-U.S. financial institutions (“FFIs”) either to (i) enter into an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) to report to the IRS certain information about financial accounts held by U.S. taxpayers, or by foreign entities in which U.S. taxpayers hold a minimum ownership interest (a “FATCA Agreement”) or (ii) comply with the requirements of an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and the government of the country in which the FFI conducts business operations (an “IGA”).

FATCA imposes a 30% withholding tax on payments of certain income, including dividends and interest, from U.S. sources and, beginning in 2019, the gross proceeds of the disposal of assets that produce such U.S. source income, unless the recipient FFI has entered into a FATCA Agreement or is otherwise exempt or deemed compliant with FATCA, including by reason of compliance with the requirements of an applicable IGA and any implementing legislation. Beginning with payments made after the later of January 1, 2019 and the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining the term “foreign passthru payments” are published in the U.S. Federal Register, an FFI also may be required to withhold under FATCA in respect of “foreign passthru payments” made (i) to other FFIs that are not exempt from or in actual or deemed compliance with FATCA or (ii) to persons that are account holders of such FFI that fail to provide information sufficient to determine whether such person is exempt from FATCA withholding. FFIs or branches of FFIs established in a jurisdiction that has entered into an IGA, and which are treated as in compliance with the requirements of such IGA and any implementing legislation, generally are not subject to withholding under FATCA on any payments they receive and are not expected to be required to withhold under FATCA or the relevant IGA on payments made to their account holders or other FFIs.

The governments of the United States and Hong Kong have entered into an IGA under which Hong Kong FFIs will register with the IRS and report the information required by FATCA about consenting U.S. accounts directly to the IRS. This information reporting requirement is supplemented by a government-to-government exchange of information agreement. The governments of the United States and the PRC have agreed in substance to an IGA under which PRC FFIs will report the information required under FATCA about U.S. accounts to the PRC government, which in turn will report the information to the IRS. IGAs in other jurisdictions may also be applicable to our subsidiaries.

We and each of our subsidiaries intend to comply with FATCA and any applicable IGA, including the information reporting requirements related to our accountholders and investors.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

This appendix sets forth summaries of certain aspects of PRC laws and regulations which are relevant to the operations and business of the Company. Laws and regulations relating to taxation in the PRC are discussed separately in “Appendix III—Taxation and Foreign Exchange”. This appendix also contains a summary of certain Hong Kong legal and regulatory provisions, including summaries of certain major differences between PRC and Hong Kong company laws, certain requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and additional provisions required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for inclusion in the articles of association of PRC issuers.

THE PRC LEGAL SYSTEM

The PRC legal system is based on the Constitution and is composed of written laws, administrative regulations, local regulations, separate regulations, autonomous regulations, rules and regulations of departments, rules and regulations of local governments, international treaties of which the PRC Government is a signatory, and other regulatory documents. Judicial decisions do not constitute binding precedents. However, they may be used as judicial reference and guidance.

According to the Constitution and the Legislation Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國立法法》), the NPC and the Standing Committee of the NPC are empowered to exercise the legislative power of the State. The NPC formulates and amends basic laws governing criminal and civil matters, state organs and other matters. The Standing Committee of the NPC formulates and amends other laws other than those required to be enacted by the NPC and supplements and amends any parts of laws enacted by the NPC during the adjournment of the NPC, provided that such supplements and amendments shall be not in conflict with the basic principles of such laws.

The State Council is the highest administrative authority of the PRC and has the power to formulate administrative regulations based on the Constitution and laws. The people’s congresses of provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities and their respective standing committees may formulate local regulations based on the specific circumstances and actual demands of their own respective administrative areas, provided that such local regulations do not contravene any provision of the Constitution, laws or administrative regulations.

The ministries and commissions of the State Council, the People’s Bank of China, the National Audit Office, and institutions with administrative functions directly under the State Council may formulate department rules within the jurisdiction of their respective departments based on the laws and the administrative regulations, decisions and rulings of the State Council.

The people’s congresses of cities divided into districts and their respective standing committees may formulate local regulations on aspects such as urban and rural construction and management, environmental protection and historical and cultural protection based on the specific circumstances and actual demands of such cities, provided that such local regulations do not contravene any provision of the Constitution, laws, administrative regulations and local regulations of their respective provinces or autonomous regions. However, if there are separate provisions by laws on the formulation of local regulations by cities divided into districts, those provisions shall prevail. Such local regulations will become enforceable after being reported to and approved by the standing committees of the people's congresses of the relevant provinces or autonomous regions. The people's congresses of national autonomous areas have the power to enact autonomous regulations and separate regulations in light of the political, economic and cultural characteristics of the ethnic groups in the areas concerned.

The people's governments of the provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government as well as cities divided into districts and autonomous prefectures may enact rules, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the local regulations of their respective provinces, autonomous regions or municipalities. The people's governments of cities divided into districts and autonomous prefectures may only formulate local regulations in respect of urban and rural construction and management, environmental protection and historical and cultural protection. Local government regulations which have been enacted involving aspects other than those described above shall continue to be in effect.

The Constitution has supreme legal authority and no laws, administrative regulations, local regulations, autonomous regulations and separate regulations and rules may contravene the Constitution. The authority of laws is greater than that of administrative regulations, local regulations and rules. The authority of administrative regulations is greater than that of local regulations and rules. The authority of local regulations is greater than that of the rules of the local governments at or below the corresponding level. The authority of the rules enacted by the people's governments of the provinces or autonomous regions is greater than that of the rules enacted by the people's governments of the cities divided into districts within the administrative areas of the provinces and the autonomous prefectures.

The NPC has the power to alter or annul any inappropriate laws enacted by its Standing Committee, and to annul any autonomous regulations or separate regulations which have been approved by its Standing Committee but which contravene the Constitution or the Legislation Law. The Standing Committee of the NPC has the power to annul any administrative regulations that contravene the Constitution and laws, to annul any local regulations that contravene the Constitution, laws or administrative regulations, and to annul any autonomous regulations or separate regulations which have been approved by the standing committees of the people's congresses of any provinces, autonomous regions or municipalities directly under the Central Government, but which contravene the Constitution and the Legislation Law. The State Council has the power to alter or annul any inappropriate rules and regulations of departments and rules of local governments. The people's congresses of provinces, autonomous regions or municipalities directly under the Central Government have the power to alter or annul any inappropriate local regulations enacted or approved by their respective standing committees. The standing committees of the local people's congresses have the power to annul any inappropriate rules enacted by the people's governments at the corresponding level. The people's governments of provinces and autonomous regions have the power to alter or annul any inappropriate rules enacted by the people's governments at a lower level.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

According to the Constitution, the power to interpret laws is vested in the Standing Committee of the NPC. According to the Resolutions of the Standing Committee of the NPC Regarding the Strengthening of Interpretation of Laws (《全國人民代表大會常務委員會關於加強法律解釋工作的決議》) passed on June 10, 1981, all laws or legal provisions that need to be further defined or supplemented shall be interpreted by the Standing Committee of the NPC or regulated in decrees. Interpretation of questions involving the specific application of laws and decrees in court trials shall be provided by the Supreme People's Court. Interpretation of questions involving the specific application of laws and decrees in the procuratorial work of the procuratorates shall be provided by the Supreme People's Procuratorate. If the interpretations provided by the Supreme People's Court and the Supreme People's Procuratorate are at variance with each other in principle, they shall be submitted to the Standing Committee of the NPC for interpretation or decision. Interpretation of questions involving the specific application of laws and decrees in areas unrelated to judicial and procuratorial work shall be provided by the State Council and competent authorities. In case where the scope of local regulations needs to be further defined or additional stipulations need to be made, the standing committees of the people's congresses of provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government which have enacted these regulations shall provide the interpretations or make the stipulations. Interpretation of questions involving the specific application of local regulations shall be provided by the competent authorities under the people's governments of provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government.

PRC Judicial System

Under the Constitution and the PRC Law on the Organization of the People's Courts (《中華人民共和國人民法院組織法》), the PRC judicial system is composed of the Supreme People's Court, the local People's Courts, military courts and other special People's Courts.

The local People's Courts are composed of the primary People's Courts, the intermediate People's Courts and the higher People's Courts. The primary People's Courts may organize criminal division, civil division and economic division. The intermediate People's Courts have similar divisions to those of the primary People's Courts, and can set up other tribunals when necessary.

The People's Court at a higher level shall supervise the judicial work carried out by the People's Court at a lower level. The Supreme People's Court is the highest judicial body in the PRC which is empowered to supervise the judicial administration of the People's Courts at all levels. The people's procuratorate shall also be entitled to exercise supervision rights over the judicial activities done by the People's Court.

The People's Courts apply a two-tier appellate system. A party may appeal against a judgment or ruling of a local People's Court to the People's Court at the next higher level. Second judgments or rulings given at the next higher level are final. First judgments or rulings of the Supreme People's Court are also final. However, if the Supreme People's Court or a People's Court at a higher level finds an error in a legally effective judgment which has been given in any People's Court at a lower level, or the president of the People's Court finds an error in a legally effective judgment which has been given in the court over which he presides, the case may then be retried according to the judicial supervision procedures.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The PRC Civil Procedure Law (《中華人民共和國民事訴訟法》), which was promulgated in 1991 and amended in 2007 and 2012, sets forth the criteria for instituting a civil action, the jurisdiction of the People's Courts, the procedures to be followed for conducting a civil action and the procedures for enforcement of a civil judgment or order. All parties to a civil action conducted within the PRC must comply with the PRC Civil Procedure Law. Generally, a civil case is initially heard by a local court of the municipality or province in which the defendant resides. The parties to a contract may, by written agreement, select a judicial court where civil actions may be brought, provided that the judicial court is either within the plaintiff's or the defendant's place of residence, the place of execution or implementation of the contract or within the place of the object of the action and other place which has actual connection with the dispute, provided that the provisions of this law regarding the level of jurisdiction and exclusive jurisdiction shall not be violated.

A foreign national or enterprise generally has the same litigation rights and obligations as a citizen or legal person of the PRC. If a foreign country's judicial system limits the litigation rights of PRC citizens and enterprises, the PRC courts may apply the same limitations to the citizens and enterprises of that foreign country within the PRC. If any party to a civil action refuses to comply with a judgment or ruling made by a People's Court or an award made by an arbitration panel in the PRC, the other party may apply to the People's Court for the enforcement of the same. There are time limits of two years imposed on the right to apply for such enforcement. If a person fails to satisfy a judgment made by the court within the stipulated time, the court will, upon application by either party, enforce the judgment in accordance with the law.

A party seeking to enforce a judgment or ruling of a People's Court against a party who is not personally or whose property is not within the PRC may apply to a foreign court with jurisdiction over the case for recognition and enforcement of the judgment or ruling. If a legally effective judgment or order made by a foreign court requires recognition and enforcement by a People's Court of the PRC, the party concerned may directly apply to the People's Court of the PRC for recognition and enforcement, or the foreign court concerned may request a People's Court for recognition and enforcement in accordance with the provisions of the international treaties entered into or acceded to by the PRC or under the principle of reciprocity. Upon the examination, the People's Court shall recognize the validity of the judgment or order if it considers that it will not contravene the basic principles of the laws of the PRC nor violates national sovereignty, security or social and public interests; if enforcement is required, a writ of enforcement will be issued in accordance with the relevant regulations. If the judgment or order contravenes the basic principles of the laws of the PRC or violates national sovereignty, security or social and public interests, the People's Court shall not recognize and enforce it.

THE PRC COMPANY LAW, SPECIAL REGULATIONS AND MANDATORY PROVISIONS

A joint stock limited company which is incorporated in the PRC and seeking a listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is mainly subject to the following three laws and regulations in China:

- the PRC Company Law, which was promulgated by the Standing Committee of the NPC on December 29, 1993, came into effect on July 1, 1994, revised as of December 25, 1999, August 28, 2004, October 27, 2005 and December 28, 2013 respectively and the latest revision of which was implemented on March 1, 2014;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

- the Special Regulations, which were promulgated by the State Council on August 4, 1994 pursuant to the relevant provisions of the PRC Company Law, and are applicable to the overseas share subscription and listing of joint stock limited companies; and
- the Mandatory Provisions, which were jointly promulgated by the former Securities Committee of the State Council and the State Economic Restructuring Commission on August 27, 1994, and stated the mandatory provisions which must be incorporated into the articles of association of a joint stock limited company seeking an overseas listing. As such, the Mandatory Provisions are set out in the Articles of Association of the Company, the summary of which is set out in “Appendix VI — Summary of Articles of Association”. Set out below is a summary of the provisions of the PRC Company Law, the Special Regulations and the Mandatory Provisions applicable to the Company.

General

A joint stock limited company refers to an enterprise legal person incorporated under the PRC Company Law with its registered capital divided into shares of equal par value. The liability of its shareholders is limited to the amount of shares held by them and the company is liable to its creditors for an amount equal to the total value of its assets.

A state-owned enterprise that is restructured into a company must comply with the specific laws and administrative regulations for the modification of its operation mechanisms, the handling and evaluation of the company’s assets and liabilities and the establishment of internal management organs.

Incorporation

A joint stock limited company may be incorporated by promotion or subscription. A joint stock limited company may be incorporated by a minimum of two but not more than 200 promoters, and at least half of the promoters must have residence within the PRC. Companies incorporated by promotion are companies with the total number of shares entirely subscribed for by the promoters. Where companies are incorporated by subscription, the promoters are required to subscribe for part of the total number of shares of a company, and the remaining shares can be offered to the public or specific persons. If companies are incorporated by subscription, the promoters are required to subscribe for not less than 35% of the total number of shares of a company unless otherwise stipulated by laws and administrative regulations. According to the Special Regulations, SOEs or enterprises with the majority of their assets owned by the PRC Government may be restructured into joint stock limited companies which may issue shares to overseas investors in accordance with the relevant regulations. These companies, if incorporated by promotion, may have less than five promoters and may issue new shares once incorporated.

According to the Securities Law of the PRC, the total share capital of a company seeking to list its shares on a stock exchange shall be no less than RMB30 million.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The promoters of a joint stock limited company must convene an inaugural meeting within 30 days after the issued shares have been fully paid up, and must give notice to all subscribers or make an announcement of the date of the inaugural meeting 15 days before convening the meeting. The inaugural meeting may be convened only with the presence of promoters or subscribers representing at least half of the shares in the company. At the inaugural meeting, matters including the adoption of articles of association and the election of members of the board of directors and members of the supervisory committee of the company will be dealt with. All resolutions of the meeting require the approval of subscribers with more than half of the voting rights present at the meeting.

Within 30 days after the conclusion of the inaugural meeting, the board of directors must apply to the company registration authority for registration of the establishment of the joint stock limited company. A company is formally established and has the status of a legal person once the business license has been issued by the relevant company registration authority. Joint stock limited companies established by the subscription method shall file the approval on the offering of shares issued by the securities administration department of the State Council with the company registration authority for record.

A joint stock limited company's promoters shall be liable for: (i) the payment of all expenses and debts incurred in the incorporation process jointly and severally if the company cannot be incorporated; (ii) the refund of subscription monies to the subscribers, together with interest, at bank rates for a deposit of the same term jointly and severally if the company cannot be incorporated; and (iii) damages suffered by the company as a result of the default of the promoters in the course of incorporation of the company. According to the Provisional Regulations on the Administration of Share Issuance and Trading (《股票發行與交易管理暫行條例》) promulgated by the State Council on April 22, 1993 (which is only applicable to the issuance and trading of shares in the PRC and their related activities), if a company is established by means of public subscription, the promoters of such company are required to sign the prospectus to ensure that the prospectus does not contain any misrepresentations, seriously misleading statements or material omissions, and assume joint and several responsibility for it.

Allotment and Issue of Shares

All issuance of shares of a joint stock limited company shall be based on the principles of equality and fairness. The same class of shares must carry equal rights. Shares issued at the same time and within the same class must be issued on the same conditions and at the same price. It may issue shares at par value or at a premium, but it may not issue shares below the par value.

A company shall obtain the approval of the CSRC to offer its shares to the overseas public. Under the Special Regulations, shares issued to foreign investors by joint stock limited companies and listed overseas are known as overseas listed and foreign invested shares. Shares issued to investors within the PRC by joint stock limited companies, which also issue overseas listed and foreign shares, are known as domestic shares. Upon approval of the CSRC, a company issuing overseas listed and foreign invested shares in total shares determined by the issuance program may agree with underwriters in the underwriting agreement to retain not more than 15% of the aggregate number of overseas listed and foreign invested shares outside the underwritten amount. The issuance of the retained shares is deemed to be a part of this issuance.

Registered Shares

Under the PRC Company Law, the shareholders may make capital contributions in cash, or alternatively may make capital contributions with such valued non-monetary property as physical items, intellectual property rights, and land-use rights that may be valued in monetary term and may be transferred in accordance with the law. Pursuant to the Special Regulations, overseas listed and foreign invested shares shall be issued in registered form, denominated in Renminbi and subscribed for in a foreign currency. Domestic shares issued shall be in registered form.

Increase of Share Capital

According to the PRC Company Law, when a joint stock limited company issues new shares, resolutions shall be passed by a shareholders' general meeting, approving the class and number of the new shares, the issue price of the new shares, the date and deadline of the new share issuance and the class and amount of new shares to be issued to existing shareholders. When a company launches a public issuance of new shares with the approval of the CSRC, it shall publish a new prospectus and financial and accounting reports, and prepare the share subscription form. After the new share issuance has been paid up, the change shall be registered with the company registration authorities and an announcement shall be made.

Reduction of Share Capital

A company may reduce its registered capital in accordance with the following procedures prescribed by the PRC Company Law:

- it shall prepare a balance sheet and a property list;
- the resolution approving the reduction of registered capital shall be passed by a shareholders' general meeting;
- it shall inform its creditors of the reduction in capital within 10 days and publish an announcement of the reduction in the newspaper within 30 days after the resolution approving the reduction has been passed;
- creditors may be entitled to require the company to pay off its debts or provide corresponding guarantees covering the debts within 30 days after receiving the notice, or within 45 days of the public announcement if no notice has been received; and
- it shall apply to the relevant industry and commerce administration for the alteration registration of the reduction in registered capital.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Repurchase of Shares

According to the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited company may not purchase its shares other than for one of the following purposes: (i) to reduce its registered capital; (ii) to merge with another company that holds its shares; (iii) to grant its shares to its employees as incentives; and (iv) to repurchase its shares from shareholders who are against the resolution regarding the merger or division with other companies at a shareholders' general meeting.

The purchase of shares on the grounds set out in (i) to (iii) above shall be approved by a resolution passed by the shareholders' general meeting. Following the purchase of shares in accordance with the foregoing, such shares shall be cancelled within ten days from the date of purchase in the case of (i) above or transferred or cancelled within six months in the case of (ii) or (iv) above. Shares acquired in accordance with (iii) above shall not exceed 5% of the total number of the company's issued shares. Such acquisition shall be financed by funds appropriated from the company's profit after taxation, and the shares so acquired shall be transferred to the company's employees within one year.

A joint stock limited company may not accept the shares of the Company as subject of pledge right.

Transfer of Shares

Shares held by shareholders may be transferred in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations. Pursuant to the PRC Company Law, transfer of shares by shareholders of a joint stock limited company shall be carried out at a legally established securities exchange or in other ways stipulated by the State Council. No registration of changes in the share register caused by transfer of registered shares shall be carried out within twenty days prior to the convening of shareholders' general meeting or five days prior to the base date for determination of dividend distributions. However, where there are separate provisions by law on registration of changes in the share register of listed companies, those provisions shall prevail. Pursuant to the Mandatory Provisions, no registration of changes in the share register caused by transfer of shares shall be carried out within thirty days prior to convening of shareholders' general meeting or five days prior to any base date for determination of dividend distributions.

Under the PRC Company law, shares issued prior to the public issuance of shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date of the joint stock limited company's listing on a stock exchange. Directors, supervisors and the senior management shall declare to the company their shareholdings in the company and any changes of such shareholdings. They shall not transfer more than 25% of all the shares they hold in the company annually during their tenure. They shall not transfer the shares they hold within one year from the date on which the company's shares are listed and commenced trading on a stock exchange, nor within six months after their resignation from the company. The articles of association may have other restrictions on the transfer of shares held by the directors, supervisors and senior managers.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Amendment of the Articles of Association

According to the PRC Company Law, the company may amend its articles of association according to the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the articles of association. Shareholders' general meeting exercises the power to amend the joint stock limited company's articles of association. The resolution of a shareholders' general meeting regarding any amendment to the company's articles of association requires affirmative votes by at least two-thirds of the votes held by shareholders present at the meeting. The board of directors is responsible to the shareholders' general meeting and exercises power including formulating the proposed amendments to the company's articles of association. According to the Mandatory Provisions, the amendment of the articles of association involving the contents of the Mandatory Regulations will only be effective upon approval of the company examination and approval authority authorized by the State Council and of the CSRC. It must complete the registration of changes involving matters of the company registration in accordance with laws. The Special Regulations requires that the company must not modify or delete those provisions in the articles of association related to the mandatory provisions of the articles of association without authorization.

Shareholders

Under the PRC Company Law and the Mandatory Provisions, the rights of holders of ordinary shares of a joint stock limited company include:

- the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to vote thereat;
- the right to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the articles of association;
- the right to inspect the company's articles of association, share register, counterfoils of company debentures, minutes of shareholders' general meetings, resolutions of meetings of the board of directors, resolutions of meetings of the supervisory committee and financial and accounting reports and to make proposals or enquires on the company's operations;
- the right to bring an action before the People's Court to rescind resolutions passed by shareholders' general meetings and board of directors where the articles of association is violated by the above resolutions;
- the right to receive dividends and other types of interest distributed in proportion to the number of shares held;
- in the event of the termination or liquidation of the company, the right to participate in the distribution of surplus assets of the company in proportion to the number of shares held; and
- other rights granted by laws, administrative regulations, other regulatory documents and the articles of association.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The obligations of a shareholder include the obligation to abide by the company's articles of association, to pay the subscription amount in respect of the shares subscribed for and in accordance with the form of making capital contributions, to be liable for the company's debts and liabilities to the extent of the amount of his or her subscribed shares, not to abuse rights of shareholders to the detriment of the interest of the company or other shareholders and not to abuse the Company's independent legal person status and limited liability of the shareholders to the detriment of the interest of the company's creditors, and any other shareholders' obligations specified in the company's articles of association.

Shareholders' General Meetings

The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the joint stock limited company, which exercises its power in accordance with the PRC Company Law. Under the PRC Company Law, the shareholders' general meeting exercises the following principal power:

- to decide on the company's operational policies and investment plans;
- to elect and change the directors and supervisors (served by representative of the employees of the company) and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors and supervisors;
- to examine and approve reports of the board of directors;
- to examine and approve reports of the supervisory committee;
- to examine and approve the company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
- to examine and approve the company's proposals for profit distribution plans and losses recovery plans;
- to decide on any increase or reduction of the company's registered capital;
- to decide on the issuance of bonds by the company;
- to decide on issues such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the company and other matters;
- to amend the articles of association; and
- other powers as provided for in the articles of association.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Shareholders' annual general meetings are required to be held once every year. Under the PRC Company Law, an interim shareholders' general meeting is required to be held within two months after the occurrence of any of the following:

- the number of directors is less than the number stipulated by the law or less than two thirds of the number specified in the articles of association;
- the aggregate losses of the company which are not recovered reach one-third of the company's total paid up share capital;
- when shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the company's shares request;
- whenever the board of directors deems necessary;
- when the supervisory committee so proposes; or
- other circumstances as provided for in the articles of associations.

Under the PRC Company Law, shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors, and presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. In the event that the chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the vice chairman. In the event that the vice chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, a director nominated by more than half of directors shall preside over the meeting.

Where the board of directors is incapable of performing or does not perform its duties of convening the shareholders' general meeting, the supervisory committee shall convene and preside over such meeting in a timely manner. In case the supervisory committee fails to convene and preside over such meeting, shareholders alone or in aggregate holding more than 10% of the company's shares for more than 90 days consecutively may unilaterally convene and preside over such meeting.

Under the PRC Company Law, notice of shareholders' general meeting shall state the time and venue of and matters to be considered at the meeting and shall be given to all shareholders 20 days before the meeting. Notice of our extraordinary shareholders' general meetings shall be given to all shareholders 15 days prior to the meeting. Under the Special Regulations and the Mandatory Provisions, such notice in writing shall be delivered to all the registered shareholders 45 days in advance of the meeting, and the matters to be considered and time and venue of the meeting shall be specified. The written reply of shareholders planning to attend the meeting shall be delivered to the company 20 days in advance of the meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

There is no specific provision in the PRC Company Law regarding the number of shareholders constituting a quorum in a shareholders' meeting. Pursuant to the Special Regulations and the Mandatory Provisions, shareholders' general meeting may be convened where the number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the meeting reaches one-half or more of the company's total voting shares. Otherwise, the company shall, within five days, notify the shareholders again of the matters to be considered and date and venue of the meeting to shareholders by public announcement. The company may convene the shareholders' general meeting after such public announcement. Pursuant to the Mandatory Provisions, modification or abrogation of rights conferred to any class of shareholders shall be passed both by special resolution of shareholders' general meeting and by class meeting convened respectively by shareholders of the affected class.

Pursuant to the Special Regulations, where the company convenes annual shareholders' general meeting, shareholders holding 5% or above of voting shares have a right to submit to the company new proposals in writing, in which the matters falling within the scope of shareholders' general meeting shall be placed on the agenda of the meeting.

Under the PRC Company Law, shareholders present at shareholders' general meeting have one vote for each share they hold, save that shares held by the company are not entitled to any voting rights.

Pursuant to the provisions of the articles of association or a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, the accumulative voting system may be adopted for the election of directors and supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting. Under the accumulative voting system, each share shall be entitled to vote equivalent to the number of directors or supervisors to be elected at the shareholders' general meeting and shareholders may consolidate their voting rights when casting a vote.

Pursuant to the PRC Company Law and/or the Mandatory Provisions, resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the meeting. However, resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting regarding the following matters shall be adopted by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the meeting: (i) amendments to the articles of association; (ii) the increase or decrease of registered capital; (iii) the issuance of any types of shares, warrants or other similar securities; (iv) the issuance of debentures; (v) the merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change in the form of the company; and (vi) other matters considered by the shareholders' general meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the company and should be adopted by a special resolution.

Under the PRC Company Law, meeting minutes shall be prepared in respect of decisions on matters discussed at the shareholders' general meeting. The chairman of the meeting and directors attending the meeting shall sign to endorse such minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the shareholders' attendance register and the proxy forms.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Board

Under the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited company shall have a board of directors, which shall consist of 5 to 19 members. Members of the board of directors may include representatives of the employees of the company, who shall be democratically elected by the company's staff at the staff representative assembly, general staff meeting or otherwise. The term of a director shall be stipulated in the articles of association, but no term of office shall last for more than three years. Directors may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon the expiry of his term of office. A director shall continue to perform his duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and articles of association until a re-elected director takes office, if re-election is not conducted in a timely manner upon the expiry of his term of office, or if the resignation of directors in his term of office results in the number of directors being less than the quorum.

Under the PRC Company Law, the board of directors mainly exercises the following power:

- to convene the shareholders' general meetings and report on its work to the shareholders' general meetings;
- to implement the resolutions passed at shareholders' general meetings;
- to decide on the company's business plans and investment proposals;
- to formulate the company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
- to formulate the company's profit distribution proposals and loss recovery proposals;
- to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the company's registered capital and the issuance of corporate bonds;
- to prepare plans for the merger, division, dissolution and change in the form of the company;
- making decisions on the establishment of the Company's internal management bodies;
- to decide on the appointment or dismissal of company managers and their remuneration, and decide on the appointment or dismissal of deputy managers and person-in-charge of finance of the company based on the nomination by the managers as well as their remuneration;
- to formulate the company's basic management system; and
- any other power under the articles of association.

Board Meetings

Under the PRC Company Law, meetings of the board of directors of a joint stock limited company shall be convened at least twice a year. Notice of meeting shall be given to all directors and supervisors 10 days before the meeting. Interim board meetings may be proposed to be convened by shareholders representing more than 10% of voting rights, more than one-third of the directors or the supervisors. The chairman shall convene and preside over such meeting within 10 days after receiving such proposal. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held only if half or more of the directors are present. Resolutions of the board of directors shall be passed by more than half of all directors. Each director shall have one vote for resolutions to be approved by the board of directors. Directors shall attend board meetings in person. If a director is unable to attend a board meeting, he may appoint another director by a written power of attorney specifying the scope of the authorization to attend the meeting on his behalf.

If a resolution of the board of directors violates the laws, administrative regulations or the articles of association, and as a result of which the company sustains serious losses, the directors participating in the resolution are liable to compensate the company. However, if it can be proved that a director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was voted on, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be released from that liability.

Chairman of the Board

Under the PRC Company Law, the board of directors shall appoint a chairman and may appoint a vice chairman. The chairman and the vice chairman are elected with approval of more than half of all the directors. The chairman shall convene and preside over board meetings and examine the implementation of board resolutions. The vice chairman shall assist the work of the chairman. In the event that the chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, the duties shall be performed by the vice chairman on his behalf. In the event that the vice chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform his duties.

Qualification of Directors

The PRC Company Law provides that the following persons may not serve as a director:

- a person who is unable or has limited ability to undertake any civil liabilities;
- a person who has been convicted of an offense of corruption, bribery, embezzlement or misappropriation of property, or the destruction of socialist market economy order; or who has been deprived of his political rights due to his crimes, in each case where less than five years have elapsed since the date of completion of the sentence;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

- a person who has been a former director, factory manager or manager of a company or an enterprise that has entered into insolvent liquidation and who was personally liable for the insolvency of such company or enterprise, where less than three years have elapsed since the date of the completion of the bankruptcy and liquidation of the company or enterprise;
- a person who has been a legal representative of a company or an enterprise that has had its business license revoked due to violations of the law and has been ordered to close down by law and the person was personally responsible, where less than three years have elapsed since the date of such revocation; and
- a person who is liable for a relatively large amount of debts that are overdue.

Other circumstances under which a person is disqualified from acting as a director are set out in the Mandatory Provisions.

Supervisory Committee

A joint stock limited company shall have a supervisory committee composed of not less than three members. The supervisory committee is made up of representatives of the shareholders and an appropriate proportion of representatives of the employees of the company, the proportion of representatives of the employees shall not be less than one third of the supervisors. The specific proportion shall be stipulated in the articles of association. Representatives of the employees of the company in the supervisory committee shall be democratically elected by the employees at the employees' representative assembly, employees' general meeting or otherwise.

The directors and senior management may not act concurrently as supervisors. The supervisory committee shall appoint a chairman and may appoint a vice chairman. The chairman and the vice chairman of the supervisory committee are elected with approval of more than half of all the supervisors. The chairman of the supervisory committee shall convene and preside over the meetings of the supervisory committee. In the event that the chairman of the supervisory committee is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, the vice chairman of the supervisory committee shall convene and preside over the meetings of the supervisory committee. In the event that the vice chairman of the supervisory committee is incapable of performing or does not perform his duties, a supervisor nominated by more than half of the supervisors shall convene and preside over the meetings of the supervisory committee.

Each term of office of a supervisor is three years and he may serve consecutive terms if re-elected. A supervisor shall continue to perform his duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and articles of association until a duly re-elected supervisor takes office, if re-election is not conducted in a timely manner upon the expiry of his term of office, or if the resignation of supervisors in their term of office results in the number of supervisors being less than the quorum.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The supervisory committee exercises the following power:

- to review the company's financial condition;
- to supervise the directors and senior management in the performance of their duties and to propose the removal of directors and senior management who have violated laws, regulations, the articles of association or the resolutions of shareholders;
- when the acts of directors and senior management are harmful to the company's interests, to require correction of those acts;
- to propose the convening of interim shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over shareholders' general meetings when the board of directors fails to perform the duty of convening and presiding over shareholders' general meetings;
- to initiate proposals for resolutions to shareholders' general meetings;
- to initiate proceedings against directors and senior management; and
- other power specified in the articles of association.

Supervisors may attend board meetings and make enquiries or proposals in respect of matters in board resolutions. The supervisory committee may initiate investigations into any irregularities identified in the operation of the company and, where necessary, may engage an accounting firm to assist their work at the company's expense.

Manager and Senior Management

Under the PRC Company Law, a company shall have a manager who shall be appointed or removed by the board of directors. The manager shall be responsible to the board of directors and may exercise the following power:

- to preside over the business and administration of the company and arrange for the implementation of resolutions of the board of directors;
- to arrange for the implementation of the company's annual business plans and investment proposals;
- to draw up the plan for the establishment of the Company's internal management bodies;
- to formulate the general administration system of the company;
- to formulate the company's detailed rules;
- to recommend the appointment and dismissal of deputy managers and person-in-charge of finance;

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

- to appoint or dismiss administration officers (other than those required to be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors); and
- other powers conferred by the board of directors or the articles of association.

The manager shall also comply with other provisions of the articles of association concerning his power. The manager shall attend board meetings.

According to the PRC Company Law, senior management refers to the manager, deputy manager(s), person-in-charge of finance, board secretary (in case of a listed company) of a company and other personnel as stipulated in the articles of association.

Duties of Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management

According to the PRC Company Law, Directors, supervisors and senior management of the company shall comply with the relevant laws, regulations and the articles of association, and have the faithful and diligent duties to the company. Directors, supervisors and senior management are prohibited from abusing their power to accept bribes or other unlawful income and from misappropriating the company's properties. Directors and senior management of the company are prohibited from:

- misappropriation of the company's capital;
- depositing the company's capital into accounts under his own name or the name of other individuals;
- loaning company funds to others or providing guarantees in favor of others supported by the company's assets without authorization in violation of the articles of association or without prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting or board of directors;
- entering into contracts or dealing with the company without authorization in violation of the articles of association or without prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- unauthorized using their position to procure business opportunities for themselves or others that should have otherwise been available to the company or operating for their own benefits or managing on behalf of others businesses similar to that of the company without prior consent of the shareholders' general meeting;
- accepting and possessing commissions paid in transaction conducted between a third party and the company;
- unauthorized divulgence of business secret of the company; or
- other acts in violation of their duty of loyalty to the company.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

A director, supervisor or senior management official who contravenes any law, regulation or the provisions of the articles of association in the performance of his duties resulting in any loss to the company shall be liable for compensating the company.

Finance and Accounting

Under the PRC Company Law, a company shall establish financial and accounting systems according to laws, administrative regulations and the regulations of the financial department of the State Council and shall at the end of each accounting year prepare a financial and accounting report which shall be audited by an accounting firm as required by law. The company's financial and accounting report shall be prepared in accordance with provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the regulations of the financial department of the State Council.

Pursuant to the PRC Company Law, the joint stock limited company's financial and accounting reports shall be available at the company for inspection by the shareholders at least 20 days before the convening of an annual general meeting of shareholders. A joint stock limited company publicly issuing shares must also publish its financial and accounting reports.

When distributing the year's after-tax profits, it shall set aside 10% of its after-tax profits into a statutory reserve fund (except where the aggregate amount of fund has reached 50% of its registered capital's amount).

If its statutory reserve fund is not sufficient to make up losses of the previous year, profits of the current year shall be applied to make up losses before allocation is made to the statutory reserve fund pursuant to the above provisions.

After allocation of the statutory reserve fund from after-tax profits, it may, upon a resolution passed at the shareholders' general meeting, allocate discretionary reserve fund from after-tax profits.

The remaining after-tax profits after making up losses and allocation of reserve fund shall be distributed in proportion to the number of shares held by the shareholders, unless otherwise stipulated in the articles of association.

Shares held by the company shall not be entitled to any distribution of profit. The premium received through issuance of shares at issuing prices above par value and other incomes required by the financial department of the State Council to be allocated to the capital reserve fund shall be allocated to the company's capital reserve fund.

The company's reserve fund shall be applied to make up losses of the company, expand its business operations or be converted to increase the registered capital of the company. However, the capital reserve fund may not be applied to make up the company's losses. Upon the conversion of statutory reserve fund into capital, the balance of the statutory reserve fund shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the company before such conversion.

The company shall have no other accounting books except the statutory accounting books. Its assets shall not be deposited in any accounts opened in the name of any individual.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Appointment and Dismissal of Accounting Firms

Pursuant to the PRC Company Law, the appointment or dismissal of accounting firms responsible for the auditing of the company shall be determined by shareholders' general meeting or board of directors in accordance with provisions of the articles of association. The accounting firm should be allowed to make representations when the shareholders' general meeting or board of directors conducts a vote on the dismissal of the accounting firm. The company should provide true and complete accounting evidences, accounting books, financial and accounting reports and other accounting data to the accounting firm it engages without any refusal, withholding and misrepresentation.

The Special Regulations provide that a company shall engage an independent accounting firm complying with the relevant regulations of the State to audit its annual report and review and check other financial reports of the company. The accounting firm's term of office shall commence from its appointment at a shareholders' annual general meeting to the end of the next shareholders' annual general meeting.

Distribution of Profits

According to the PRC Company Law, a company shall not distribute profits before losses are covered and the capital reserve fund is provided. Under the Mandatory Provisions, a company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of holders of the overseas listed and foreign invested shares to receive dividends and other distributions payable in respect of their overseas listed and foreign invested shares on behalf of such shareholders.

Dissolution and Liquidation

According to the PRC Company Law, a company shall be dissolved by reason of the following:

- (i) the term of its operations provided in the articles of association has expired or other causes of dissolution provided in the articles of association have occurred; (ii) the shareholders' general meeting has resolved to dissolve the company; (iii) the company is dissolved by reason of merger or division; (iv) the business license is revoked according to the laws; the company is ordered to close down or be dissolved; or (v) the company is dissolved by the People's Court in response to the request of shareholders holding shares that represent more than 10% of the voting rights of all shareholders, on the grounds that the company suffers significant hardships in its operation and management that cannot be resolved through other means, and the ongoing existence of the company would bring significant losses for shareholders' interests.

In the event of (i) above, the company may carry on its existence by amending its articles of association. The amendment of the articles of association in accordance with provisions set out above shall require approval of more than two thirds of voting rights of shareholders attending a shareholders' general meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Where the company is dissolved in the circumstances described in subparagraphs (i), (ii), (iv), or (v) above, a liquidation group shall be established and the liquidation process shall commence within 15 days after the occurrence of such event of dissolution.

The members of the company's liquidation group shall be composed of its directors or the personnel appointed by the shareholders' general meeting. If a liquidation group is not established within the stipulated period, creditors of the company may apply to the People's Court, requesting the court to appoint relevant personnel to form the liquidation group. The People's Court should accept such application and form a liquidation group to conduct a liquidation in a timely manner.

The liquidation group shall exercise the following power during the liquidation period:

- to dispose the company's assets and to prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of the assets;
- to notify creditors through notice or public announcement;
- to deal with the company's outstanding businesses related to liquidation;
- to pay any tax overdue as well as tax amounts arising from the process of liquidation;
- to claim credits and pay off debts;
- to handle the company's remaining assets after its debts have been paid off; and
- to represent the company in civil lawsuits.

The liquidation group shall notify the company's creditors within 10 days after its establishment, and issue public notices in newspapers within 60 days. A creditor shall lodge his claim with the liquidation group within 30 days after receiving notification, or within 45 days of the public notice if he did not receive any notification. A creditor shall state all matters relevant to his creditor rights in making his claim and furnish evidence. The liquidation group shall register such creditor rights. The liquidation group shall not make any debt settlement to creditors during the period of claim.

Upon liquidation of properties and the preparation of the balance sheet and inventory of assets, the liquidation group shall draw up a liquidation plan to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or People's Court for confirmation.

The company's remaining assets after payment of liquidation expenses, wages, social insurance expenses and statutory compensation, outstanding taxes and debt shall be distributed to shareholders according to their shareholding proportion. It shall continue to exist during the liquidation period, although it can only engage in operating activities that are related to the liquidation. The company's properties shall not be distributed to the shareholders before payments are made in accordance to the foregoing provisions.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Upon liquidation of the company's properties and the preparation of the balance sheet and inventory of assets, if the liquidation group becomes aware that the company does not have sufficient assets to pay off its liabilities, it must apply to the People's Court for a declaration of bankruptcy according to relevant laws.

Following such declaration, the liquidation group shall hand over all matters relating to the liquidation to the People's Court.

Upon completion of the liquidation, the liquidation group shall submit a liquidation report to the shareholders' general meeting or the People's Court for verification. Thereafter, the report shall be submitted to the company registration authority in order to cancel the company's registration, and a public notice of the company's termination shall be issued. Members of the liquidation group are required to discharge their duties honestly and in compliance with the relevant laws. Members of the liquidation group shall be prohibited from abusing their power to accept bribes or other unlawful income and from misappropriating the company's properties.

A member of the liquidation group is liable to indemnify the company or its creditors in respect of their losses arising from his intentional or gross negligence.

Overseas Listing

According to the Special Regulations, a company shall obtain the approval of the CSRC to list its shares overseas. A company's plan to issue overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares which has been approved by the CSRC may be implemented by the board of directors of the company by way of separate issuance within 15 months after obtaining the approval from the CSRC.

Loss of Share Certificates

If a registered share certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, the respective shareholder may apply, in accordance with the relevant provisions set out in the PRC Civil Procedure Law, to a People's Court for a declaration that such certificate will no longer be valid. After the People's Court declares the invalidity of such certificate, the shareholder may apply to the company for a replacement share certificate. A separate procedure regarding the loss of overseas listed and foreign invested share certificates is provided for in the Mandatory Provisions.

Merger and Demerger

According to the PRC Company Law, companies may merge through absorption or the establishment of a new entity. If it merges by absorption, the company which is absorbed shall be dissolved. If the companies merge by forming a new corporation, then both companies shall be dissolved.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

For corporate merger, all parties to the merger shall enter into a merger agreement and prepare balance sheets and checklists of assets. The companies involved shall, within ten days after the decision of merger, notify the creditors, and shall make a newspaper announcement within 30 days. The creditors may, within 30 days after the receipt of the notice or (if it fails to receive a notice) within 45 days after the announcement, require the company to settle its debts or to provide guarantees. Upon the merger, the credits and debts of the companies involved shall be succeeded by the surviving company or by the newly established company.

For division of a company, the property of the company shall be divided properly, and balance sheets and checklists of assets shall be prepared. The company shall, within ten days after the decision of division, notify the creditors and make a newspaper announcement within 30 days. The companies after division shall jointly bear liabilities for the debts of the former companies before division, unless it is otherwise prescribed by written agreements entered into between the companies and their respective creditors for the settlement of debts before the division.

SECURITIES LAW AND REGULATIONS

The PRC has promulgated a number of regulations relating to the issue and trading of shares and disclosure of information of the Joint Stock Limited company. The PRC Securities Law took effect on July 1, 1999 and was last revised on August 31, 2014. It is currently undergoing a new round of revisions. The PRC Securities Law is the first national securities law in the PRC, and comprehensively regulates activities in the PRC securities market. It is divided into 12 chapters and 240 articles regulating, among other things, the issuance and trading of securities, takeovers by listed companies, securities exchanges, securities companies and the duties and responsibilities of the State Council's securities regulatory authorities. Article 238 of the PRC Securities Law provides that domestic enterprises shall obtain prior approval from the State Council's securities regulatory authorities to list its shares outside the PRC. Currently, the issuance and trading of foreign issued shares (including H shares) are mainly governed by the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Council and the CSRC.

ARBITRATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ARBITRAL AWARDS

The Arbitration Law passed by the Standing Committee of the NPC on August 31, 1994, became effective on September 1, 1995 and was amended on August 27, 2009. Under the Arbitration Law, an arbitration committee may, before the promulgation by the PRC Arbitration Association of arbitration regulations, formulate interim arbitration rules in accordance with the Arbitration Law and the PRC Civil Procedure Law. Where the parties have by agreement provided arbitration as the method for dispute resolution, the People's Court will refuse to accept the case except when the arbitration agreement is declared invalid.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The Mandatory Provisions require an arbitration clause to be included in the articles of association of an issuer to the effect that whenever any disputes or claims arise (i) between holders of H Shares and the issuer; (ii) between holders of H Shares and the issuer's directors, supervisors, managers or other senior management officials; and (iii) between holders of H Shares and holders of domestic shares, such disputes shall be resolved through arbitration. Matters in arbitration include any disputes or claims of rights in relation to the issuer's affairs as a result of any rights or obligations arising under its articles of association, the PRC Company Law and other relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Where a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is referred to arbitration, the entire claim of rights or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim of rights or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim of rights, must comply with the arbitration. Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholder and disputes in relation to the issuer's register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center (the "HKIAC") in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim of rights to arbitration, the other party shall submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant. If the claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at the HKIAC, any party may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the HKIAC. In accordance with the Arbitration Regulations of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (《中國國際經濟貿易仲裁委員會仲裁規則》) amended on November 4, 2014 and implemented on January 1, 2015, the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission shall deal with economic and trading disputes over contractual or non-contractual transactions, including disputes involving Hong Kong based on the agreement of the parties. The China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission is located in Beijing and it has set up several branches or centers such as in Shenzhen, Shanghai, Tianjin, Chongqing and Hong Kong.

Under the Arbitration Law and PRC Civil Procedure Law (《中華人民共和國民事訴訟法》), an arbitral award is final and binding on the parties. If a party fails to comply with an arbitral award, the other party may apply to the People's Court for enforcement. A People's Court shall order the cancellation of an arbitral award made by an arbitration commission if there is any irregularity on the procedures or composition of arbitrators specified by law or the award exceeds the scope of the arbitration agreement or exceeds the jurisdiction of the arbitration commission.

A party seeking to enforce an arbitral award of PRC arbitration panel against a party who, or whose property, is not within the PRC, may apply to a foreign court with jurisdiction over the case for enforcement. Similarly, an arbitral award made by a foreign arbitration body may be recognized and enforced by the PRC courts in accordance with the principles of reciprocity or any international treaty concluded or acceded to by the PRC. The PRC acceded to the New York Convention adopted on June 10, 1958 pursuant to a resolution of the Standing Committee of the NPC passed on December 2, 1986. The New York Convention provides that all arbitral awards made in a state which is a party to the New York Convention shall be recognized and enforced by all other parties to the New York Convention, subject to their right to refuse enforcement under certain circumstances, including where the enforcement of the arbitral award is against the public policy of the state to which the application for enforcement is made. It was declared by the Standing Committee of the NPC simultaneously with the accession of the New York Convention in the PRC that (i) the PRC will only apply the New York Convention to the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards made in the territory of another contracting state on the principle of reciprocity; and (ii) the PRC will only apply the New York Convention in disputes considered under PRC laws to arise from contractual and non-contractual mercantile legal relations.

Agreement has been reached between Hong Kong and the Supreme People's Court of the PRC for the mutual enforcement of arbitral awards. On June 18, 1999, the Supreme People's Court of the PRC adopted the Arrangement on Mutual Enforcement of Arbitral Awards between Mainland and Hong Kong SAR (《關於內地與香港特別行政區相互執行仲裁裁決的安排》), which became effective on February 1, 2000. In accordance with this arrangement, awards made by the Mainland arbitral authorities acknowledged by Hong Kong arbitration rules can be enforced in Hong Kong, and Hong Kong arbitral awards are also enforceable in the Mainland.

OVERSEAS DIRECT INVESTMENT REGULATIONS

Pursuant to the Regulations on the Administration of Overseas Investment (《境外投資管理辦法》) promulgated by the MOFCOM which became effective on October 6, 2014, enterprises shall obtain approval from or register with the commerce authorities for conducting overseas investment according to such regulations.

Pursuant to Regulations on Foreign Exchange Administration of Overseas Direct Investment of Domestic Institutions (《境內機構境外直接投資外匯管理規定》) promulgated by the SAFE which became effective on August 1, 2009, upon obtaining approval for overseas investment, a PRC enterprise shall apply for foreign exchange registration for its overseas direct investments. According to the SAFE Notice promulgated by the SAFE, which came into effect on June 1, 2015, the administrative approval for foreign exchange registration approval under overseas direct investment has been cancelled, and the banks are entitled to review and carry out foreign exchange registration under overseas direct investment directly. SAFE and its branches shall implement indirect supervision over foreign exchange registration of direct investment via the banks.

In accordance with the Administrative Measures for Verification and Registration of Overseas Investment Projects (《境外投資項目核准和備案管理辦法》) amended by the NDRC and took effect on December 27, 2014, overseas investment projects involving sensitive countries and regions or sensitive industries shall be examined and approved by the NDRC. Overseas investments of US$2 billion or above by Chinese investors are subject to the approval of the State Council after being examined by the NDRC. Other overseas investment projects shall be subject to recordation administration.

According to the PRC Securities Law (《中國證券法》) and the Regulations for Supervision and Administration of Securities Companies (《證券公司監督管理條例》) as amended and took effect on July 29, 2014, domestic securities companies in the PRC which establish or acquire securities operation entities overseas or purchase equity interest in securities operation entities overseas are required to make an application to the CSRC for approval.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

According to the Measures for Supervision and Administration of Futures Companies (《期貨公司監督管理辦法》) promulgated and took effect on October 29, 2014, domestic futures companies in the PRC which apply for establishing or acquiring futures operation entities overseas or purchasing equity interest in futures operation entities overseas are required to satisfy the relevant conditions and make an application to the CSRC for approval.

According to the CSRC Rules Concerning the Establishment of Offices in Hong Kong by Securities and Investment Fund Management Companies (《中國證券監督管理委員會關於證券投資基金管理公司在香港設立機構的規定》) promulgated and took effect on April 8, 2008, domestic securities and investment fund management companies in the PRC which establish offices in Hong Kong, purchase equity interest in asset management companies in Hong Kong region, establish offices or purchase equity interest in asset management companies located in other countries and regions that had entered into a memorandum of regulatory cooperation with the CSRC, are required to make an application to the CSRC for approval.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS

The Anti-money Laundering Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國反洗錢法》), which became effective on January 1, 2007, sets out the responsibilities of the relevant financial regulatory authorities regarding anti-money laundering, including supervision over anti-money laundering, formulation of rules and regulations regarding anti-money laundering activities of financial institutions, monitoring and inspection of the anti-money laundering practice of financial institutions and investigations on suspicious transactions within their respective scope of authority. The persons in charge of the financial institutions shall be responsible for the effective implementation of internal control system regarding anti-money laundering. Financial institutions shall establish a client identification system and a system for keeping clients' identity information and transaction records, as well as a report system for transactions involving large sums of money and for dubious transactions according to applicable requirements.

Pursuant to the Anti-money Laundering Regulations for Financial Institutions (《金融機構反洗錢規定》) promulgated by the PBOC which became effective on January 1, 2007, financial institutions and their branches are required to establish a comprehensive internal control system for anti-money laundering, and set up a special anti-money laundering department or designate an internal department to implement the anti-money laundering measures, formulate internal anti-money laundering operating procedures and control measures and organize anti-money laundering training for staff to enhance their anti-money laundering capability.

Pursuant to the Measures on the Administration over Client Identification and Maintenance of Client Identity Materials and Transaction Records of Financial Institutions (《金融機構客戶身份識別和客戶身份資料及交易記錄保存管理辦法》) promulgated jointly by the PBOC, CBRC, CSRC and CIRC which became effective on August 1, 2007, financial institutions are required to establish a client identification system, maintain records for the identities and data of relevant transactions of all clients and keep all retail transaction documents and record books.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Pursuant to the Administrative Measures on Reporting Large-Sum Transactions and Dubious Transactions of Financial Institutions (《金融機構大額交易和可疑交易報告管理辦法》) promulgated by the PBOC which became effective on March 1, 2007, amended on December 28, 2016 and shall come into effect on July 1, 2017, upon the detection of any transactions involving large sums of money or dubious transactions by the financial institutions, the head office or the designated department of the financial institutions shall electronically report such transactions to the China Anti-money Laundering Monitoring and Analysis Center.

The Implementation Measures on the Anti-money Laundering by Securities and Futures Industry (《證券期貨業反洗錢工作實施辦法》) promulgated by CSRC which became effective on October 1, 2010, further specifies the anti-money laundering regulations for the securities and futures industry, as well as the anti-money laundering responsibilities of the institutions engaging in sales of funds in their business operation. Securities and futures entities shall establish internal control systems for anti-money laundering.

MATERIAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN CERTAIN ASPECTS OF CORPORATION LAW IN THE PRC AND HONG KONG

Hong Kong company law is primarily set out in the Companies Ordinance and the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, supplemented by common law and rules of equity that apply to Hong Kong. As a joint stock limited company incorporated in the PRC that is seeking a listing of shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, we are governed by the PRC Company Law and all other rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the PRC Company Law. Set out below is a summary of certain material differences between Hong Kong company law and the PRC Company Law. This summary is, however, not intended to be an exhaustive comparison.

Corporate Existence

Under Hong Kong company law, a company with share capital is incorporated by the Registrar of Companies in Hong Kong, which issues a certificate of incorporation to the Company upon its incorporation, and the company will acquire an independent corporate existence henceforth. A company may be incorporated as a public company or a private company. Pursuant to the Companies Ordinance, the articles of association of a private company incorporated in Hong Kong shall contain certain pre-emptive provisions. A public company's articles of association do not contain such pre-emptive provisions.

Under the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited company may be incorporated by promotion or public subscription.

Share Capital

Under Hong Kong law, the directors of a Hong Kong company may, with the prior approval of the shareholders if required, issue new shares of the company. The PRC Company Law does not provide for authorized share capital. The Company's registered capital is the amount of its issued share capital. Any increase in the Company's registered capital must be approved by our Shareholders' general meeting and shall be approved by/filed with the relevant PRC governmental and regulatory authorities (if applicable).

Under the Securities Law, a company which is authorized by the relevant securities regulatory authority to list its shares on a stock exchange must have a total share capital of not less than RMB30 million. The Companies Ordinance does not prescribe any minimum capital requirement for companies incorporated in Hong Kong.

Under the PRC Company Law, the shares may be subscribed for in the form of money or non-monetary assets (other than assets not entitled to be used as capital contributions under relevant laws or administrative regulations). For non-monetary assets to be used as capital contributions, appraisals must be carried out to ensure there is no over-valuation or under-valuation of the assets. There is no such restriction on a company incorporated in Hong Kong.

Restrictions on Shareholding and Transfer of Shares

Generally, A Shares of the Company, which are denominated and subscribed for in Renminbi, can be subscribed for and traded by PRC investors, qualified overseas institutional investors or qualified overseas strategic investors, while also being eligible securities under the Northbound Trading Link, A Shares of the Company can be subscribed for and traded by Hong Kong and other overseas investors in accordance with the rules and limits of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. Overseas listed shares, which are denominated in Renminbi and subscribed for in a currency other than Renminbi, may only be subscribed for, and traded by, investors from Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan or any country and territory outside the PRC, or qualified domestic institutional investors. If the H shares are eligible securities under the Southbound Trading Link, they are also subscribed for and traded by PRC investors in accordance with the rules and limits of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

Under the PRC Company Law, a promoter of a joint stock limited company is not allowed to transfer the shares it holds for a period of one year after the date of establishment of the company. Shares in issue prior to a public offering of the company cannot be transferred within one year from the listing date of the shares on a stock exchange. Shares in a joint stock limited liability company held by its directors, supervisors and senior management and transferred each year during their term of office shall not exceed 25% of the total shares they held in a company, and the shares they held in a company cannot be transferred within one year from the listing date of the shares, and also cannot be transferred within half a year after the said personnel has left office. The articles of association may set other restrictive requirements on the transfer of a company's shares held by its directors, supervisors and senior management. There are no restrictions on shareholdings and transfers of shares under Hong Kong law apart from (i) the restriction on the Company to issue additional Shares within six months, and (ii) 12-month lockup on Controlling Shareholders' disposal of Shares, after the Global Offering.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Financial Assistance for Acquisition of Shares

The PRC Company Law does not prohibit or restrict a joint stock limited company or its subsidiaries from providing financial assistance for the purpose of an acquisition of its own or its holding company's shares. However, the Mandatory Provisions contain certain restrictions on a company and its subsidiaries on providing such financial assistance similar to those under Hong Kong company law.

Notice of Shareholders' Meetings

Under the PRC Company Law, notice of a shareholder's annual general meeting must be given not less than 20 days before the meeting. Whereas notice of an extraordinary general meeting must be given not less than 15 days before the meeting. If a company issues bearer shares, notice of a shareholder's general meeting must be given at least 30 days prior to the meeting. Under the Special Regulations and the Mandatory Provisions, at least 45 days' written notice must be given to all shareholders in advance, and any shareholder who wishes to attend the meeting must reply in writing at least 20 days before the date of the meeting.

For a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability, the minimum period of notice of a general meeting is 14 days. Further, where a meeting involves consideration of a resolution requiring special notice, the company must also give its shareholders notice of the resolution at least 14 days before the meeting. The notice period for the annual shareholders' general meeting is 21 days.

Quorum for Shareholders' Meetings

The PRC Company Law does not specify any quorum requirement for a shareholders' general meeting, but the Special Regulations and the Mandatory Provisions provide that general meetings may only be convened when replies to the notice of that meeting have been received from shareholders whose shares represent at least 50% of the voting rights at least 20 days before the proposed date of the meeting, or if that 50% level is not achieved, the company shall within five days notify its shareholders again by way of a public announcement and the shareholders' general meeting may be held thereafter. Under Hong Kong law, the quorum for a shareholders' meeting is two members, unless the articles of association of a company specifies otherwise or the company has only one member, in which case the quorum is one.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

Voting at Shareholders' Meetings

Under the PRC Company Law, the passing of any resolution requires more than one-half of the affirmative votes held by our shareholders present in person or by proxy at a shareholders' meeting except in cases such as proposed amendments to our Articles of Association, increase or decrease of registered capital, merger, division, dissolution or transformation, which require two-thirds of the affirmative votes cast by shareholders present in person or by proxy at a shareholders' general meeting.

Under Hong Kong law, an ordinary resolution is passed by a simple majority of affirmative votes cast by shareholders present in person, or by proxy, at a general meeting, and a special resolution is passed by not less than three-fourths of affirmative votes cast by shareholders present in person, or by proxy, at a general meeting.

Variation of Class Rights

The PRC Company Law makes no specific provision relating to variation of class rights. However, the PRC Company Law states that the State Council can promulgate requirements relating to other kinds of shares. The Mandatory Provisions contain detailed provisions relating to the circumstances which are deemed to be variations of class rights and the approval procedures required to be followed in respect thereof. These provisions have been incorporated in the Articles of Association, which are summarized in Appendix VI—Summary of Articles of Association.

Under the Companies Ordinance, no rights attached to any class of shares can be varied except (i) with the passing of a special resolution by the shareholders of the relevant class at a separate meeting sanctioning the variation, (ii) with the written consent of shareholders representing at least three-fourths of the total voting rights of shareholders of the relevant class, or (iii) if there are provisions in the articles of association relating to the variation of those rights, then in accordance with those provisions.

As required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Mandatory Provisions, we have adopted in the Articles of Association provisions protecting class rights in a similar manner to those found in Hong Kong law. Holders of overseas listed shares and domestic listed shares are defined in the Articles of Association as different classes. The special procedures for voting by a class of Shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances: (i) where we issue, either separately or concurrently in any 12-month period, upon approval by special resolutions passed at a general meeting, A shares and H shares not more than 20% of each of the existing A shares and H shares, respectively; (ii) where the plan for the issue of A shares and H shares upon our establishment is implemented within 15 months following the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council or within the stated period as stipulated by applicable requirements, and (iii) where the Company issues and lists its H shares overseas, upon receiving the approval of the State Council or the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council, our shareholders may liquidate the unlisted shares they hold for dealing in overseas.

Derivative Action By Minority Shareholders

Under Hong Kong company law, a shareholder may, with the leave of the Court, start a derivative action on behalf of a company for any misconduct committed by its directors against the company. For example, leave may be granted where the directors control a majority of votes at a general meeting, and could thereby prevent the company from suing the directors in its own name.

Pursuant to the PRC Company Law, in the event where the directors and senior management of a joint stock limited company violate laws, administrative regulations or its articles of association, resulting in losses to the company, the shareholders individually or jointly holding over 1% of the shares in the company for more than 180 consecutive days may request in writing the board of supervisors to initiate proceedings in the people's court. In the event that the board of supervisors violates as such, the above said shareholders may send written request to the board of directors to initiate proceedings in the people's court. Upon receipt of such written request from the shareholders, if the board of supervisors or the board of directors refuses to initiate such proceedings, or has not initiated proceedings within 30 days upon receipt of the request, or if under urgent situations, failure of initiating immediate proceeding may cause irreparable damages to the company, the above said shareholders shall, for the benefit of the company's interests, have the right to initiate proceedings directly to the court in their own name.

In addition, the Mandatory Provisions provide us with certain remedies against the Directors, Supervisors and senior management who breach their duties to the Company. In addition, as a condition to the listing of overseas listed foreign Shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, each director and supervisor of a joint stock limited company is required to give an undertaking to observe the articles of association in favor of the company. This allows minority Shareholders to take action against our Directors and Supervisors in default.

Minority Shareholder Protection

Under the Companies Ordinance, a shareholder who alleges that the affairs of a company are conducted in a manner unfairly prejudicial to his interests may petition to the Court to make an appropriate order to give relief to the unfairly prejudicial conduct. Alternatively, pursuant to the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, a shareholder may seek to wind up the company on the just and equitable ground. In addition, on the application of a specified number of members, the Financial Secretary may appoint inspectors who are given extensive statutory powers to investigate the affairs of a company incorporated or registered in Hong Kong. The PRC Company Law provides that any shareholders holding 10% or above of voting rights of all issued shares of a company may request a People's Court to dissolve the company to the extent that the operation or management of the company experiences any serious difficulties and its continuous existence would cause serious losses to them, and no other alternatives can resolve such difficulties.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF CERTAIN LEGAL AND REGULATORY MATTERS

The Company, as required by the Mandatory Provisions, has adopted in its Articles of Association minority Shareholder protection provisions similar to (though not as comprehensive as) those available under the Hong Kong law. These provisions state that a controlling shareholder may not exercise its voting rights in a manner prejudicial to the interests of other shareholders, may not relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in our best interests or may not approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor of our assets or the individual rights of other shareholders.

Directors

The PRC Company Law, unlike Hong Kong company law, does not contain any requirements relating to the declaration of directors' interests in material contracts, restrictions on directors' authority in making major dispositions, restrictions on companies providing certain benefits to directors and indemnification in respect of directors' liability and prohibitions against compensation for loss of office without shareholders' approval. The Mandatory Provisions, however, contain certain requirements and restrictions on major disposals and specify the circumstances under which a director may receive compensation for loss of office.

Board of Supervisors

Under the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited company's directors and senior management are subject to the supervision of a board of supervisors. There is no mandatory requirement for the establishment of a board of supervisors for a company incorporated in Hong Kong. The Mandatory Provisions provide that each supervisor owes a duty, in the exercise of his powers, to act in good faith and honestly in what he considers to be in the best interests of the Company and to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Fiduciary Duties

In Hong Kong, directors owe fiduciary duties to the company, including the duty not to act in conflict with the company's interests. Furthermore, the Companies Ordinance has codified the directors' statutory duty of care. Under the Special Regulations, directors, supervisors, managers and other members of senior management of the company shall honestly and diligently perform their duties for the company.

Financial Disclosure

Under the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited company is required to make available at the company for inspection by shareholders its financial report 20 days before its annual general meeting. In addition, a joint stock limited company of which the shares are publicly offered must publish its financial report. The Companies Ordinance requires a company incorporated in Hong Kong to send to every shareholder a copy of its financial statements, auditors' report and directors' report, which are to be presented before the company in its annual general meeting, not less than 21 days before such meeting. According to the PRC laws, a company shall prepare its financial accounting reports as at the end of each accounting year, and submit the same to accounting firms for auditing as required by law. The Mandatory Provisions require that a company must, in addition to preparing financial statements according to the CAS, have its financial statements prepared and audited in accordance with international or Hong Kong accounting standards and its financial statements must also contain a statement of the financial effect of the material differences (if any) from the financial statements prepared in accordance with the CAS.

The Special Regulations require that there should not be any inconsistency between the information disclosed within and outside the PRC and that, to the extent that there are differences in the information disclosed in accordance with the relevant PRC and overseas laws, regulations and requirements of the relevant stock exchanges, such differences should also be disclosed simultaneously.

Information on Directors and Shareholders

The PRC Company Law gives shareholders the right to inspect the company's articles of association, minutes of the general meetings and financial and accounting reports. Under the articles of association, shareholders have the right to inspect and copy (at reasonable charges) certain information on shareholders and on directors which is similar to the rights of shareholders of Hong Kong companies under the Companies Ordinance.

Receiving Agent

Under the Hong Kong law, dividends once declared by the board of directors will become debts payable to shareholders. The limitation period for debt recovery action under Hong Kong law is six years, while under the PRC law this limitation period is two years. The Mandatory Provisions require that the relevant company shall appoint a receiving agent for shareholders who hold overseas listed foreign shares, and the receiving agent shall receive on behalf of such holders of shares dividends declared and other monies owed by the company in respect of its overseas listed foreign shares.

Corporate Reorganization

Corporate reorganization involving a company incorporated in Hong Kong may be effected in a number of ways, such as a transfer of the whole or part of the business or property of the company in the course of voluntary winding up to another company pursuant to Section 237 of the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance or a compromise or arrangement between the company and its creditors or between the company and its members pursuant to Section 673 and Division 2 of Part 13 of the Companies Ordinance, which requires the sanction of the court. In addition, subject to the shareholders' approval, an intra-group wholly-owned subsidiary company may also be amalgamated horizontally or vertically under the Companies Ordinance. Under PRC law, merger, division, dissolution or change to the status of a joint stock limited liability company has to be approved by shareholders in general meeting.

Mandatory Transfers

Under the PRC Company Law, a joint stock limited liability company is required to make transfers equivalent to certain prescribed percentages of its after tax profit to the statutory common reserve fund. There are no corresponding provisions under Hong Kong law.

Arbitration of Disputes

In Hong Kong, disputes between shareholders and a company or its directors, managers and other senior management may be resolved through the courts. The Mandatory Provisions provides that disputes between a holder of H shares and the Company, a holder of H shares and directors, supervisors, managers and other members of senior management of the Company or a holder of H shares and a holder of domestic listed shares, arising from the Articles of Association, the PRC Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations which concerns the affairs of the Company should, with certain exceptions, be referred to arbitration at either the HKIAC or the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission. Such arbitration is final and conclusive.

The Securities Arbitration Rules of the HKIAC contain provisions allowing, upon application by any party, an arbitral tribunal to conduct a hearing in Shenzhen for cases involving the affairs of companies incorporated in the PRC and listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange so that PRC parties and witnesses may attend. Where any party applies for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen, the tribunal shall, where satisfied that such application is based on bona fide grounds, order the hearing to take place in Shenzhen conditional upon all parties, including witnesses and arbitrators, being permitted to enter Shenzhen for the purpose of the hearing. Where a party, other than a PRC party or any of its witnesses or any arbitrator, is not permitted to enter Shenzhen, then the tribunal shall order that the hearing be conducted in any practicable manner, including the use of electronic media. For the purpose of the Securities Arbitration Rules of the HKIAC, a PRC party means a party domiciled in the PRC other than the territories of Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan.

Remedies of a Company

Under the PRC Company Law, if a director, supervisor or manager in carrying out his duties infringes any law, administrative regulation or the articles of association of a company, which results in damage to the company, that director, supervisor or manager should be responsible to the company for such damages. In addition, the Hong Kong Listing Rules require listed companies' articles to provide for remedies of the company similar to those available under Hong Kong law (including rescission of the relevant contract and recovery of profits from a director, supervisor or senior management).

Dividends

The company has the power in certain circumstances to withhold, and pay to the relevant tax authorities, any tax payable under PRC law on any dividends or other distributions payable to a shareholder. Under Hong Kong law, the limitation period for an action to recover a debt (including the recovery of declared dividends) is six years, whereas under PRC laws, the relevant limitation period is two years. The company must not exercise its powers to forfeit any unclaimed dividend in respect of shares until after the expiry of the applicable limitation period.

Closure of Register of Shareholders

The Companies Ordinance requires that the register of shareholders of a company must not be closed for the registration of transfers of shares for more than thirty days (extendable to sixty days in certain circumstances) in a year, whereas, as required by the Mandatory Provisions, share transfers shall not be registered within thirty days before the date of convening a general meeting or within five days before the base date of distribution of dividends.

SUMMARY OF CERTAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES AND SSE LISTING RULES

As our A Shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, we are also subject to the SSE Listing Rules. Set out below is a summary of certain differences between the Hong Kong Listing Rules and SSE Listing Rules:

- Periodic financial reporting

There are material differences in financial reporting standards and practices regarding, for examples, industry-specific financial reporting requirements, announcement of preliminary results, form and content of periodic financial reports and post-vetting of periodic financial reports.

- Classification and disclosure requirements for notifiable transactions

The method of classification of notifiable transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the disclosure requirement pertaining to such transactions differ from those under the SSE Listing Rules.

- Connected transactions

The definition of a connected person under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the definition of a related party under the SSE Listing Rules are different. In addition, the disclosure and shareholder approval requirements for connected transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and for related party transactions under the SSE Listing Rules, as well as the respective exemptions are different.

- Disclosure of inside information

The scope, timing and method of disclosure of inside information are different between the Hong Kong Listing Rules and SSE Listing Rules.

Set out herein is a summary of the Articles of Association, the principal objective of which is to provide potential investors with an overview of the Articles of Association. If a notice of meeting is not issued by the supervisory committee within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed that the supervisory committee will not convene and chair the general meeting. The shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days (hereinafter referred to as "convening shareholders") shall have the right to convene and chair an extraordinary meeting. If the supervisory committee or shareholders convene(s) a shareholders' general meeting, the board shall be informed in writing and the relevant documents shall be filed with the Shanghai branch of the CSRC and the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders prior to announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall not be less than 10%.

The supervisory committee and convening shareholders shall submit relevant evidence to the Shanghai branch of the CSRC and the Shanghai Stock Exchange when issuing the notice of shareholder's general meeting and announcement on the resolutions of the general meeting.

With respect to a shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or the shareholders, the Board and the secretary of the Board shall cooperate. The Board shall offer the register of shareholders as at the share registration date. If the Board fails to offer the register of shareholders, the conveners may apply to the securities registration and clearing institution for the register of shareholders by relying on the announcement regarding the notice convening the shareholders' general meeting. The register of shareholders offered to the conveners shall only be used for the shareholders' general meeting and shall not be used for other purposes.

Motions and Notices of Shareholders' General Meeting

The board, the supervisory committee, and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose resolutions to the Company for consideration at shareholders' general meeting.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the Company's shares may submit an interim proposal in writing to the convener of shareholders' general meeting within 10 days before the meeting. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice to the shareholders to announce the interim proposal within two days after the receipt thereof.

Otherwise, the convener of shareholders' general meeting shall not amend the resolutions set out in the notice of the meeting or propose additional resolutions after the issue of the notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

Voting and Resolutions of Shareholders' General Meeting

Resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting include ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. An ordinary resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by affirmative votes of more than half of the Company's total voting shares held by shareholders attending the meeting in person or by proxies. A special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by affirmative votes of more than two-thirds of the Company's total voting shares held by shareholders attending the meeting in person or by proxies.

The following matters shall be approved by way of ordinary resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting:

The following matters shall be approved by way of special resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) the increase or reduction of the registered capital and the issuance of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities of the Company;
- (II) the issuance of corporate bonds of the Company;
- (III) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company;
- (IV) the amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (V) purchases or disposals of material assets by the Company within 1 year or the guaranteed amount exceeding 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets (net of customer deposits);
- (VI) adoption of a share incentive scheme;
- (VII) other matters specified by the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association and matters specified by ordinary resolutions of shareholders' general meeting that are considered to be significant to the Company and shall be approved by special resolutions.

Shareholders (including their proxies) shall exercise their voting rights representing by the number of voting shares they represent. Unless otherwise specified by the Articles of Association, each share shall have one vote.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers matters that could materially affect the interests of the medium and small investors, to the extent technically feasible, the votes by the medium and small investors shall be counted separately, and the results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

Shares held by the Company do not carry any voting rights and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a shareholders' general meeting.

The Board, independent directors and shareholders who meet the relevant requirements of the Company may collect voting rights from other shareholders. Information including the specific voting intention shall be fully disclosed to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being collected. Consideration or de facto consideration for collecting shareholders' voting rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for collecting voting rights.

When a connected transaction is considered at a shareholders' general meeting, the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting. The voting shares held by connected shareholders shall not be counted in the total number of shares with voting rights. The announcement on the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the voting of the shareholders who are not connected parties.

Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Shareholders holding different class of shares shall be class shareholders.

Any variation or abrogation of the rights of any class of shareholders proposed by the Company shall be approved by a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting and by the shareholders of the affected class at a separately convened class meeting.

The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights of shareholders of a certain class:

- (I) increase or decrease in the number of shares of that class, or increase or decrease in the number of shares of another class having the same or more rights in voting, distribution or other privileges;
- (II) conversion of all or part of the shares of that class into shares of other classes, or conversion of all or part of the shares of other classes into shares of that class or granting rights of such conversion;
- (III) removal or reduction of the rights to receive accrued dividends or cumulative dividend attached to shares of that class;
- (IV) reduction or removal of the priority of the shares of that class to receive dividends or property distribution in the event of liquidation of the Company;
- (V) increase, removal or reduction of the right of conversion, options, voting rights, the right to transfer, priority in placement of shares and the right to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of that class;
- (VI) removal or reduction of the right to receive sums payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of that class;
- (VII) creation of a new class of shares having the same or more rights in voting, distribution or other privileges;

- (VIII) imposing or strengthening the restriction on the transfer of or the ownership of the shares of that class;
- (IX) issue of rights to subscribe for or convert into shares of that class or other classes;
- (X) increase in the rights and privileges of shares of other classes;
- (XI) proposed restructure of the Company which shall result in different classes of shareholders having to assume disproportionate liabilities;
- (XII) alteration or cancellation of the provisions of this Article.

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, shall have the right to vote at the relevant class meeting in relation to any of the matters under circumstances (II) to (VIII) and (XI) to (XII) mentioned above, but interested shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at the relevant class meeting.

A resolution of a class meeting shall be passed by at least a two-thirds majority calculated on the basis of the voting rights held by the shareholders present and entitled to vote at the class meeting.

Except for holders of shares of other classes, the holders of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares are different classes of shareholders.

The special procedures for voting by class shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (I) pursuant to a special resolution of shareholders' general meeting, the Company issues domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares in a period of 12 months, either separately or concurrently, and the respective numbers of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares proposed to be issued do not exceed 20% of the respective numbers of the issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares;
- (II) the Company completes the issue of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares according to the plan adopted upon its establishment within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council or during the period of time as stipulated by the relevant applicable regulations.

DIRECTORS AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Directors

Directors of the Company are natural persons. It is not necessary for directors to hold shares of the Company.

The directors shall be elected or replaced by the shareholders' general meeting; the term of office of each director is three years unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association. The director may, after the expiration of the term of office, serve consecutive terms if re-elected.

The term of office of a director shall start from the date on which the said director assumes office to the expiry of the current Board. If the term of office of a director expires but reelection is not made responsively, the said director shall continue fulfilling the duties as director pursuant to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association until a new director is elected.

A director may concurrently serve as president or other senior management, provided that the aggregate number the directors who concurrently serve as president or other senior management and the directors who serve as staff representatives (if any) shall not be more than half of the directors of the Company.

The directors shall comply with the laws, regulations, listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association and shall faithfully perform their following obligations to the Company:

- (I) not to abuse their rights to accept bribes or other illegal income and not to misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (II) not to misappropriate the money of the Company;
- (III) not to deposit any assets or money of the Company in any accounts under their names or in the names of other persons;
- (IV) not to violate the Articles of Association and lend the money of the Company to others or provide guarantee to others by charging the Company's assets without approval of the shareholders' general meetings or the board;
- (V) not to enter into contracts or transactions with the Company in violation of the Articles of Association or without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) not to use their position to obtain business opportunities which should be available to the Company for themselves or others, or to run his/her own or others' business which is similar to the Company's business without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) not to accept commissions in relation to transactions between any third party and the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose the secrets of the Company without consent;

(IX) not to use their connections to harm the interests of the Company;

(X) to be bound by other obligations stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall be entitled to the income gained by the directors from any of the acts listed above; the director shall be liable for compensation if any loss is caused to the Company.

The directors shall comply with the laws, regulations, listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association and shall diligently perform their following obligations to the Company:

(I) to exercise prudently, conscientiously and diligently the rights granted by the Company to ensure that the Company's commercial activities are in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of economic policies of China and that its commercial activities are within the scope stipulated in the business license;

(II) to treat all shareholders equally and fairly;

(III) to understand the operation and management of the Company in a timely manner;

(IV) to approve regular reports of the Company in written form and to ensure the integrity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company;

(V) to provide all relevant information required by the supervisory committee and shall not intervene the performance of the supervisory committee or supervisors of their duties;

(VI) to perform other obligations of diligence stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

A director who fails to attend two consecutive board meetings in person or by proxy shall be deemed as unable to perform his/her duties. The board shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting for removal of such director.

Where the number of the directors is under the statutory minimum number because of the resignation, before the re-elected director's taking office, the former director shall perform the duty of director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association. If the resignation of the independent director causes the proportion of the independent directors to all directors in the Board to become less than the minimum required by the laws, the resignation report of the independent director shall take effect after the subsequent appointed independent director fills the vacancy. Except for the above mentioned situation, the resignation of the director shall take effect since the resignation report is served on the Board.

Where the resignation of a director takes effect or the term of office of a director comes to expiration, the director shall conduct all the handover procedures with the Board. The director is still not free from the duty of loyalty to the Company and shareholders, which will not be certainly lifted upon the expiration of the term. The confidentiality obligation of the director is still valid after the expiration of the term, unless and until such confidential information is in the public domain. The term of other duties shall be determined on the principle of fairness, in view of the time period between the occurrence of the event and the director's leaving office and under what circumstance or condition its relationship with the Company is ended.

Unless legally authorized by these Articles or the board, no director shall act on behalf of the Company or the board. When a director acts in his/her own name and a third party reasonably considers such director acts on behalf of the Company or the board of directors, such director shall declare in advance his/her position and capacity.

Independent Directors

The Company shall have independent directors. The independent directors shall account for at least one-third of the board of directors of the Company. The independent directors shall meet the following requirements:

- (II) The provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee of a loan or any other funds to any of its Directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel to meet expenditure incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties, in accordance with the service contract approved by the shareholders in Shareholders' general meeting.
- (III) the Company may make a loan to or provide a loan guarantee to any of the relevant Directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel or their respective associates on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company should include the lending of money or the provision of loan guarantees.

A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of provisions shall not be enforceable against the Company unless:

- (I) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan to an associate of any of Directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Company or its parent company and the lender were not aware of the relevant circumstances;
- (II) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a Director, supervisor, president or other senior management personnel of the Company is in breach of his duties to the Company, the Company has a right to:

- (I) claim damages from the Director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel in compensation for losses incurred by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (II) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with the Director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel, and with a third party (where such third party knows or should know that there is such a breach of duties to the Company by such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel representing the Company);
- (III) demand an account of the profits made by the Director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel in breach of his duties;
- (IV) recover any monies received by the Director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including but not limited to commissions;
- (V) request the Director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel to return the interests accrued or may be accrued on the monies which should have been paid to the Company.

The Company shall enter into a contract in writing with a Director or supervisor to determine his/her emoluments subject to prior approval of Shareholders' general meeting.

FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Financial and Accounting System

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirement of relevant regulatory departments of the PRC.

The Company shall submit its annual financial reports to the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the Company's shares are listed within four months from the ending date of each fiscal year, submit the half-year financial reports to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the Company's shares are listed within two months from the ending date of the first six months of each fiscal year, and submit the quarterly financial reports to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the Company's shares are listed within one month from the ending dates of the first three and first nine months of each fiscal year respectively.

The above financial reports are prepared in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of departmental regulations.

The Board of the Company shall submit the financial reports prepared by the Company as required by the laws, administrative regulations, rules and statutory documents and Hong Kong Listing Rules to the shareholders at every annual general meeting.

The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or those of the place outside China where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits for relevant fiscal years, the lower of the after tax-profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.

Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or those of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The Company shall disclose two financial reports in each accounting year, i.e., its interim financial reports within 60 days of the end of the first six months of an accounting year and its annual financial reports within 120 days after the accounting year ends.

The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by law. Assets of the Company shall not be deposited in an account maintained in the name of any individual.

PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

The Company is required to distribute each year's after-tax profits in the following order:

- (I) to make up for the losses incurred in the previous year;
- (II) to allocate 10% of its profits into its statutory reserve fund of the Company;

- (III) to allocate no less than 10% of its after-tax profits into reserve for general risk to make up for the losses and no less than 10% of its after-tax profits into transaction risk reserve to make up for the deficit of securities trading in accordance with laws, regulations or regulatory requirements;
- (IV) to allocate no less than 10% of its after-tax profits into its discretionary reserve if so resolved by shareholders' general meeting;
- (V) pay dividends to shareholders.

When the cumulated amount of the statutory reserve fund of the Company has reached 50% or more of its registered capital, no further allocations is required.

After making up for the losses and making contributions to the common reserve fund, statutory reserve and discretionary reserve, any remaining profits after tax shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings, except it is stipulated in the Articles of Association of the Company that profit distributions shall not be made in accordance with the shareholding proportion.

If the shareholders' general meeting has, in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, distributed profits to the shareholders before the Company has made up for its losses and made allocations to the statutory reserve fund and statutory reserve, the shareholders must return the profits distributed in violation of the provision to the Company.

No profits shall be distributed in respect of the shares held by the Company.

The Company may distribute dividends in cash, in shares or in a combination of both cash and shares. The Company shall give priority to distribute dividends in cash provided that the conditions for cash distribution are satisfied.

Reserves of the Company are used for offsetting losses of the Company, expanding the Company's production and operation or increasing the capital of the Company. However, capital reserve shall not be used to offset losses of the Company. Capital reserve includes the following items:

- (I) premium on shares issued at a premium price;
- (II) any other income designated for the capital reserve by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

If the statutory reserve is converted into capital, the balance of the statutory reserve shall not fall below 25% of the Company's registered capital before the increase of the capital.

The Company may adjust the abovementioned proportion of cash dividend distribution by way of passing a resolution by two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by the shareholders who attend the shareholders' general meeting if any one of the following events happens:

- (I) There are changes in, or adjustments to, the relevant laws and regulations or regulatory requirements;
- (II) The net capital risk control indicators reach the warning levels;
- (III) The Company's operating conditions deteriorate;
- (IV) The Board proposes the adjustments.

Before raising adjustment scheme of profit distribution policy, the Board shall fully hear opinions from independent directors, take the initiative to communicate with minority shareholders through various channels, and carefully respond to concerns of such Shareholders. When convening a shareholders' general meeting to consider adjustment scheme of profit distribution policy, in addition to organizing on-site meeting, the Company should also allow shareholders to vote through Internet to the extent technically feasible.

After the profit distribution plan has been adopted at shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the dividend (or share) distribution within two months after the general meeting.

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may be entitled to dividend. Shareholders shall not be entitled to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

Subject to the relevant laws, regulations, rules or standards of the PRC, the Company may exercise the power to forfeit unclaimed dividends, provided that it does so only after the expiration of the applicable relevant period.

The Company has the power to cease sending dividend warrants by post to a given holder of overseas listed foreign investment shares, but may exercise such power only if such warrants fail to be redeemed for two consecutive occasions. However, the Company may exercise such power after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned and undelivered.

In relation to the exercise of right to issue warrants to bearer, no warrant thereof shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original warrant thereof has been destroyed.

On the premise of compliance with applicable laws and regulations, the Company shall have the power to sell, in such manner as the board thinks fit, any shares of a shareholder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares who is untraceable subject to the following conditions:

- (I) the Company has distributed dividends at least three times in respect of such shares within 12 years, but none of such dividends was claimed;
- (II) the Company, after the expiration of a period of 12 years, made an advertisement on one or more newspapers in the place in which the Company's shares are listed, stating its intention to sell such shares, and notified the securities regulatory authority of the place in which the Company's shares are listed of such intention.

The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares to receive on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws or the relevant provisions of the stock exchanges in the place where the Company is listed.

The receiving agents appointed on behalf of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed in the Hong Kong shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Internal Audit

The Company shall conduct internal audit system and assign full-time auditors to conduct internal audit and supervision on the revenues and expenditures and economic activities of the Company.

The internal audit system and the duties of the auditing staff of the Company shall come into effect upon the approval of the board of directors. The officer-in-charge of the audit team shall be responsible to and report to the board of directors.

Appointment of Accounting Firm

The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which is qualified under the relevant regulations of China to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports, conduct verification of net assets and other relevant consultation services.

The engagement of an accounting firm by the Company shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting. The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office for a period commencing from the conclusion of this annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting. The appointment may be renewed.

The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (I) to inspect the accounting books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time; to require the directors, manager or other senior management of the Company to provide relevant information and explanation;
- (II) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from the Company's subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the purpose of discharging its duties;
- (III) to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, the meeting that any shareholder is entitled to, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's appointed accounting firm.

Notwithstanding the terms set out in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting may, by way of ordinary resolution, resolve to remove such accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, but without prejudice to the right of the firm to claim for damages in respect of such removal.

The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

The appointment, removal and non-reappointment of an accounting firm shall be resolved by shareholders in shareholders' general meeting. The resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be filed with the CSRC.

10 days' prior notice shall be given to the accounting firm if the Company decides to remove such accounting firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. The accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations when the resolution regarding the removal of the accounting firm is considered at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there is any impropriety on the part of the Company.

An accounting firm may resign its office by depositing a written resignation notice at the legal address of the Company. The resignation notice shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (I) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances in connection with its resignation which should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (II) a statement of other circumstances considered necessary.

The Company shall send a copy of the above written notice to the relevant governing authority within 14 days after receiving such notice. If the notice contains statements mentioned in the above two items, a copy of such statements shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of such statements by prepaid mail to every holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement regarding any accountable affair, it may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the explanation of the circumstances regarding to its resignation.

NOTICE AND ANNOUNCEMENT

Notice

A notice of the Company shall be sent by:

- (I) hand;
- (II) mail;
- (III) announcement;
- (IV) fax;
- (V) email;
- (VI) making announcement in the Company's website or the websites designated by stock exchange in accordance with the laws, regulations and listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (VII) other means agreed by the Company and the recipient of the notice in advance or recognized by the recipient of the notice after receiving such notice;
- (VIII) other means recognized by regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed or stated in the Articles of Association.

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and subject to the laws and regulations and listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed as well as the Articles of Association, corporate communications (as defined in Hong Kong Listing Rules) may be provided or sent to holders of H shares by making announcement on the websites designated by the Company and/or the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or by electronic means.

Where a notice is served by way of announcement, upon the publication of such announcement, and after completion of the relevant procedures required by the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, all relevant persons shall be deemed to have received the notice unless it is otherwise required by the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Where a notice of the Company is delivered by hand, the addressee shall sign (or seal) on reply slip and the date of receipt shall be deemed as the date of service; where a notice of the Company is delivered by mail, the seventh working day from the date of delivery to the post office shall be deemed as the date of service; where a notice of the Company is delivered by fax, the day after the fax is sent (which shall be a working day, otherwise postponed to the first following working day) shall be deemed as the date of service; and where a notice of the Company is delivered by announcement, the first day on which such announcement is published shall be deemed as the date of service.

If a notice of meeting is accidentally omitted to be sent to a person who is entitled to receive the notice or if such person has not received the notice of meeting, the meeting and any resolutions made therein shall not become void thereby.

The Company may send only the English or the Chinese version of any corporate documents to its shareholders (in accordance with the intention expressed by the shareholder) if it has properly confirmed with the shareholders on such arrangement in accordance with and to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations even when corporate documents are required to be sent, posted, distributed, given, published or otherwise provided in both English and Chinese under the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

MERGER, DIVISION, CAPITAL INCREASE, CAPITAL REDUCTION, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Merger, Division, Capital Increase and Capital Reduction

The merger or division of the Company shall be proposed by the Board, and upon approval in accordance with the procedures provided in the Articles of Association, it shall go through relevant examination and approval formalities according to the laws. A shareholder objecting to merger or division of the Company may require the Company or the shareholders who are in favor of such merger or division to acquire his/her shares at a fair price. A special document about the content of the resolution on merger or division of the Company shall be made for inspection by the shareholders. The aforesaid documents shall also be sent by mail to holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares of the companies listed in Hong Kong.

In the event of a merger, the merging parties shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of the Company's merger resolution and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date of the Company's merger resolution. A creditor has the right, within 30 days of receiving such notice from the Company or, for creditors who do not receive the notice, within 45 days from the date of the public notice, to demand the Company to settle its debts or provide a guarantee for such debt.

Upon the merger of the Company, rights in relation to debtors and indebtedness of each of the merged parties shall be assumed by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

When the Company is divided, its assets shall be split up accordingly.

In the event of a division, the Company shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of the Company's resolution to divide and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date of the Company's resolution to divide.

Debts of the Company prior to division shall be jointly assumed by the companies which exist after the division, except provided otherwise in the written agreement between the Company and the creditors relating to the settlement of debt before the division.

Where the Company is required to reduce its registered capital, it shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the resolution for reduction of registered capital and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right, within 30 days after receipt of the notice or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within 45 days from the date of the announcement, to demand the Company to repay its debts or to provide a guarantee for such debt.

The registered capital of the Company after reduction shall not be less than the statutory minimum amount.

Changes in particulars of the companies as a result of merger or division must be registered with the registration authorities in accordance with the laws. Cancellation of a company shall be registered in accordance with the laws when a company is dissolved. Incorporation of a company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with the laws.

When increasing or reducing the registered capital, the Company shall register the changes with company registration authorities in accordance with the laws.

Dissolution and Liquidation

The Company shall be dissolved upon the occurrence of the following events:

- (I) the term of its operations set out in the Articles of Association has expired or other events of dissolution specified in the Articles of Association have occurred;
- (II) a resolution on dissolution is passed by shareholders at a general meeting;

- (III) dissolution is necessary due to the merger or division;
- (IV) the Company's business license is revoked or the Company is ordered to close down or de-registered;
- (V) where the Company gets into serious trouble in operation and management and its continuation may cause substantial loss to the interests of shareholders, and no solution can be found through any other channel, shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights of all shareholders of the Company may request the People's Court to dissolve the Company;
- (VI) the Company is legally declared bankrupt due to its failure to repay debts due.

Upon the occurrence of the first situation mentioned above, the Company may continue to exist by amending the Articles of Association subject to the approval of more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at shareholders' general meetings. Where the Company is dissolved in accordance with items (I), (II), (IV) and (V) above, a liquidation committee shall be established to commence liquidation within 15 days from the date of occurrence of events giving rise to dissolution. The members of the liquidation committee shall be determined by the directors or the shareholders' general meeting. In case no liquidation committee is established within the specified period to commence liquidation, the creditors may apply to the People's Court to designate relevant persons to form a liquidation committee and commence liquidation.

Upon passing of the resolution to liquidate the Company at the shareholders' general meeting, the functions and powers of the Board shall cease immediately.

The liquidation committee shall perform the following duties during the liquidation period:

- (I) to notify creditors by notice or announcement;
- (II) to thoroughly examine the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets;
- (III) to deal with the outstanding affairs of the Company in relation to the liquidation;
- (IV) to settle outstanding taxes as well as taxes arising in the course of liquidation;
- (V) to settle credits and debts;
- (VI) to dispose of the remaining assets of the Company after the settlement of debts;
- (VII) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

The liquidation committee shall notify creditors within ten days from the date of its establishment and make public announcement on newspaper or other channels within 60 days of its establishment. Creditors shall, within 30 days after receipt of the notice, or for those who do not receive the notice, within 45 days from the date of the announcement, declare their claims to the liquidation committee.

Creditors shall provide explanation for the relevant particulars and evidence of the claims upon declaration of such claims. The liquidation committee shall register the creditors' claims.

The liquidation committee shall not settle the debts to creditors during the creditor's claim period.

After checking the Company's assets and preparing a balance sheet and an inventory of assets, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation plan for approval of the shareholders' general meetings or the People's Court.

The remaining property of the Company, after the payment of liquidation expenses, the wages, social insurance contribution and statutory compensation of staff, outstanding taxes and payment of debts of the Company, shall be distributed in proportion to the shareholdings of shareholders.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall continue to exist but shall not carry out any business activities not relating to liquidation. The assets of the Company shall not be distributed to shareholders before the settlement of debts in accordance with the preceding provision.

If the liquidation committee, after ascertaining the Company's assets and preparing a balance sheet and an inventory of assets, discovers that the Company's assets are insufficient to settle its debts, it shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of bankruptcy according to the laws.

After the Company is declared bankrupt by a ruling of the people's court, the liquidation committee shall transfer the liquidation matters to the people's court.

Upon completion of liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report and a statement of the receipts and payments and the financial accounts for the liquidation period which shall be audited by PRC certified public accountants and then submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities for approval. Within 30 days after approval is obtained from the shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities, the liquidation committee shall submit the aforesaid documents to the company registration authority, apply for cancellation of company registration, and announce the termination of the Company.

AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES

The Company shall amend the Articles under any of the following situations:

- (I) there is a conflict between requirements in the Articles and those in the laws and administrative regulations after the amendment to the Company Law or relevant laws and administrative regulations;
- (II) there are changes in the Company rendering the matters contained in the Articles incorrect;
- (III) the shareholders' general meeting resolves to amend the Articles.

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

The Company shall abide by the following rules for settlement of disputes:

- (I) All disputes and claims between shareholders of overseas-listed shares and the Company, between shareholders of overseas-listed shares and the Company's directors, supervisors and senior management, or between shareholders of overseas-listed shares and shareholders of domestic shares arising from the Articles of Association or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the Company Law or any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

The said dispute or claim shall be referred to arbitration as a whole. All parties involved in the same dispute or claim shall abide by the arbitration if such parties are the Company or the shareholder, director, supervisor, senior management of the Company.

Disputes in relation to the definition of shareholders and register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (II) A claimant may elect arbitration at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Arbitration Rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects arbitration at Hong Kong International Arbitration Center, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center.

- (III) If any disputes or claims of rights as mentioned in item (I) above are settled by way of arbitration, the laws of the People's Republic of China shall apply, except as otherwise provided in the laws and regulations.

- (IV) The award of an arbitration body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

1. FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANYA. Incorporation

The two predecessors of the Company, Guotai Securities and Junan Securities were established on September 25, 1992 in Shanghai and on October 12, 1992 in Shenzhen, respectively. The Company was founded in Shanghai as a joint-stock limited liability company on August 18, 1999 through the merger of Guotai Securities and Junan Securities. Our registered address is at No. 618 Shangcheng Road, China (Shanghai) Pilot Free-Trade Zone, Shanghai, the PRC.

We have established a place of business in Hong Kong at 18/F, Tesbury Centre, 28 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong, and was registered with the Registrar of Companies in Hong Kong as a non-Hong Kong company under Part 16 of the Companies Ordinance on December 16, 2016 under the English corporate name of "Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd." and Chinese corporate name of "國泰君安證券股份有限公司". Ms. KWONG Yin Ping Yvonne, our joint company secretary, is the authorized representative of the Company for the acceptance of service of process and notices on behalf of the Company in Hong Kong. The address for service of process on the Company in Hong Kong is the same as its principal place of business in Hong Kong as set out above.

As the Company was established in the PRC, we are subject to the relevant laws and regulations of the PRC. A summary of the relevant aspects of laws and regulations of the PRC and our Articles of Association is set out in Appendices V and VI.

B. Changes in the Share Capital of the Company

Upon the establishment of the Company on August 18, 1999, our registered capital was RMB3,727.2 million. The major changes to our registered capital are as follows:

- In December 2001, Guotai Junan IM was spun off from the Company and thus our registered capital decreased to RMB3,700 million.
- In January 2006, Central Huijin Investment Ltd. subscribed for 1,000 million newly issued Shares and thus our registered capital increased to RMB4,700 million.
- In March 2012, the Company issued 1,400 million new Shares and thus our registered capital increased to RMB6,100 million.
- In June 2015, the Company issued 1,525 million new Shares which were listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and thus our registered capital increased to RMB7,625 million.

C. Resolutions Passed by Our Shareholders' General Meeting in Relation to the Global Offering

At the extraordinary general meeting of the Shareholders held on October 24, 2016, the following resolutions, among others, were duly passed:

- (a) the issue by the Company of H Shares of nominal value of RMB1.00 each and such H Shares be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (b) the number of H Shares to be issued shall be up to 1,040 million, and the grant to the International Underwriters the Over-allotment Option of not more than 15% of the number of H Shares issued pursuant to the Global Offering;
- (c) authorization of the Board and its authorized persons to handle all matters relating to, among other things, the Global Offering, the issue and listing of the H Shares; and
- (d) subject to the completion of the Global Offering, the conditional adoption of the revised Articles of Association, which shall become effective on the Listing Date.

5. OTHER INFORMATION

A. Estate Duty

Our Directors have been advised that no material liability for estate duty under the PRC laws is likely to fall on the Company or its subsidiaries.

B. Litigation

As of the Latest Practicable Date, save as disclosed in “Business — Legal and Regulatory”, no member of the Group was engaged in any outstanding material litigation or arbitration which may have material and adverse effect on the Global Offering and, so far as our Directors are aware, no litigation or claim of material importance is pending or threatened by or against any member of the Group.

C. Joint Sponsors

Guotai Junan Capital Limited is a subsidiary of the Company and as such it is not independent of the Company. Each of Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C., Merrill Lynch Far East Limited and SPDB International Capital Limited satisfies the independence criteria applicable to sponsors set out in Rule 3A.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

The Joint Sponsors have made an application on our behalf to the Listing Committee for the listing of, and permission to deal in, H Shares to be issued as set out in this prospectus and any H Shares which may be issued subject to the exercise of Over-allotment Option on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Pursuant to the engagement letter entered into between the Company and each of the Joint Sponsors, we have agreed to pay each of the Joint Sponsors a fee of US$500,000 (or HK$3,877,550) to act as the sponsors of the Company in connection with the proposed listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

D. Joint Compliance Advisors

The Company has appointed Guotai Junan Capital Limited and Huarong International Capital Limited as the joint compliance advisors upon the Listing in compliance with Rule 3A.19 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
