Payments to Governments Report 2016

This report discloses the payments Glencore made during 2016 on a country-by-country and project-by-project basis and is in accordance with the reporting requirements of Chapter 10 of the EU Accounting Directive.

Glencore is committed to the highest standards of corporate governance and transparency and support increased transparency around the redistribution and reinvestment of such payments.

This report continues to build upon the disclosures we have provided in our annual Sustainability Reports since 2010, and our commitment as an active member of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI).

The Payments to Governments Report is now available on our website at:

Notes for Editors

Glencore is one of the world's largest global diversified natural resource companies and a major producer and marketer of more than 90 commodities. The Group's operations comprise around 150 mining and metallurgical sites, oil production assets and agricultural facilities.

With a strong footprint in both established and emerging regions for natural resources, Glencore's industrial and marketing activities are supported by a global network of more than 90 offices located in over 50 countries.

Glencore's customers are industrial consumers, such as those in the automotive, steel, power generation, oil and food processing sectors. We also provide financing, logistics and other services to producers and consumers of commodities. Glencore's companies employ around 155,000 people, including contractors.

Glencore is proud to be a member of the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and the International Council on Mining and Metals. We are an active participant in the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative.
