CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

The electronic components industry is a challenging one that is dependent not only on global economic conditions and how that affects demand; but also on the rapid pace of change in technology and how it is used in everyday things such as home appliance to major industrial and commercial applications.

The financial year ended March 31, 2017 ("FY2017") was marked by a lot of uncertainty because of several unprecedented world events including Brexit, a new US President, an unstable European economy and the slowdown in China's economy that led to volatility in demand and an imbalance in demand and supply in certain products.

Despite the uncertain outlook, a research report published by Global Industry Analysts, Inc. in April 2017, projected that the global electronics market will reach US$191.8 billion by 2022, driven by the increasing indispensability of electronics in modern life; continuous development of consumer, industrial, automotive and defense electronics; shorter product lifecycles and a parallel increase in opportunities in upstream supply chain. According to the report, Asia is leading the robust appetite for consumer electronics with a projected compound annual growth rate of about 4.8% over the analysis period of 2015 to 2022.

This report is supported by an article titled "2017 Forecast for Electronics Components Market" by Radio-Electronics.com.² It highlighted that automotive and the new Internet of Things sectors are expected to grow significantly driving overall growth while sectors such as mobile, fixed telecommunications, computer devices of all forms and many others are well established and likely to grow less.

The aforementioned observations are also reflected in our performance for FY2017 and matched our own expectations for the current financial year ending March 31, 2018.

YEAR IN REVIEW

Despite the challenging economic and operating environment, the Group achieved 6.8% year-on-year ("YOY") revenue growth to HK$3,883.1 million in FY2017, as compared to revenue of HK$3,635.6 million for the preceding financial year ("FY2016").

The Telecommunications segment remained our biggest contributor to sales. In FY2017, it achieved revenue of HK$1,041.9 million. Although this represented an 8.6% YOY increase, the pace of growth was slower as compared to FY2016 when there was a lot of demand for 4G handsets in line with the rapid expansion of China's 4G market.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The Industrial segment, which was our second largest revenue contributor in FY2017, generated an 11.4% increase YOY partially because of the reclassification of customers from our other segments but also because of strong demand from energy saving applications and transportation, communication and power related infrastructure.

The strongest growth in FY2017 was achieved by our Automotive and Home Appliance segments, which generated increases of 32.4% and 15.6% respectively, reflecting the success of our ongoing strategy to strengthen our capabilities and invest more engineering resources into providing value-added services to customers in order to secure more business and market share.

Except for Electronic Manufacturing Services (if excluding reclassification of customers), which was mostly flat, all our other remaining segments including Dealer, Audio and Video, Lighting and Others experienced revenue decline, which was in line with our expectations as some of these sectors continue to face challenges in the form of rapidly changing or obsoleting technology, as well as tough market conditions and lower demand.

Gross profit in FY2017 increased a modest 0.7% YOY to HK$316.8 million but intense market competition and the slowing economic growth in China led to downward price pressures and a squeeze on gross profit margin which fell from 8.65% in FY2016 to 8.16% in FY2017.

To streamline our operations and optimize profitability, we announced on November 4, 2016 that we had disposed of our entire interest in Noblehigh Enterprises Inc. and its subsidiaries (together as "Noblehigh Group") at a cash consideration of HK$0.9 million to a third party. Noblehigh Group's primary business is the design and trading of integrated circuits for the audio equipment market. This shrinking audio equipment market required large upfront investment in research and development, which we were not comfortable devoting more resources into this field. In FY2017, loss for the year from this discontinued business was HK$1.8 million.

The net profit attributable to shareholders rose to HK$37.5 million as compared to a loss of HK$71.6 million in FY2016, which had mainly been due to share of loss and impairment loss from our associated company, GW Electronics Company Limited.

PROPOSED DIVIDEND

In line with its improved performance, the board of directors (the "Board") of Willas-Array Electronics (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") has recommended a final dividend of HK31.0 cents per ordinary share for the year ended March 31, 2017. This is expected to be payable on August 25, 2017 following the Shareholders' approval at the 2017 Annual General Meeting.

OUTLOOK

China's gross domestic product officially grew 6.7% in 2016, the slowest in 26 years but Premier Li Keqiang, China is aiming to expand its economy by around 6.5% in 2017 as it continues to implement a proactive fiscal policy and maintain a prudent monetary policy.³

The Group expects market conditions to remain challenging in the year ahead in line with China's slowing economic growth. Although our industry is unlikely to experience exponential growth in the near term, we remain confident that it is still a viable business because of the diversity of uses for electronic componentry.

We anticipate a slowdown in certain segments such as Telecommunications, which is reaching maturity and although there will be some growth, the pace will be slower amidst a likely imbalance of supply and demand and greater price competition. Even within the Audio and Video segment, which has been experiencing falling revenues in the past few years, we have observed new requirements for componentry and as such we will keep adequate resources to co-operate with existing and new suppliers to identify and capitalize on these new opportunities.

Looking ahead, we will be focusing the bulk of our resources and efforts in growth segments including Automotive and Home Appliance, led by the rising percentage of electronic content in automobiles and smart appliances respectively.

We also believe China's "One Belt, One Road" initiative to improve trade and economic integration across Asia, Europe, and Africa using free-trade agreements and infrastructure projects will yield opportunities for our Industrial segment in the areas of transportation, communication and power related infrastructure.

APPRECIATION

In closing, I want to thank all our business partners and customers for your unstinting support over the years through both good times and bad, that has enabled us to respond nimbly to changing market conditions with mutually beneficial results.

I also want to thank the Board for your guidance through the year and the management team and staff for working so hard to chase down every lead.

Lastly, I would like to express my appreciation to our shareholders for your faith in our Group.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Revenue - Continuing operations

The sales revenue of Willas-Array Electronics (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group") from continuing operations had increased by 6.8% from HK$3,635.6 million for the year ended March 31, 2016 ("FY2016") to HK$3,883.1 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 ("FY2017").

Overall growth was mainly driven by the strong demand in energy saving and premium Home Appliance and Automotive applications. The double-digit growth in these two segments was a result of the Group's investment in providing professional engineering resources and services to its customers so as to capture the opportunities available in these segments. This strategy paid off particularly well for the Automotive segment which generated a 32.4% surge in revenue.

During FY2017, the Group performed a reclassification of some customers to better reflect the change in the nature of their businesses. This affects mainly the figures in its Dealer, Industrial and Electronic Manufacturing Services ("EMS") segments.

Telecommunications

This segment remained the Group's largest revenue generator in FY2017 contributing sales of HK$1,041.9 million. The 8.6% increase in sales achieved in FY2017 was smaller than the growth achieved in FY2016, which was a year of rapid expansion in the China's 4G market.

The maturity of the market is expected to lead to a slowdown in the demand for 4G handsets, which may in turn cause an imbalance of supply and demand and greater price competition. The Group is currently reviewing its inventory status to better match market conditions and also improving its efficiency so as to maintain its market share in this segment.

Industrial

Revenue from this segment was HK$859.5 million in FY2017, an increase of 11.4% year-on-year ("YOY"). Although the growth was partly due to the reclassification of customers, it was also a result of stronger demand from energy saving applications and transportation, communication and power-related infrastructure. The Group believes China's "One Belt, One Road" strategy offers tremendous opportunities for this segment.

To capitalize on the potential growth of this segment, the Group has positioned itself as a dedicated engineering solutions distributor. It has established a strong network of key customers and suppliers in the China market and also developed various applications for their specific needs. It believes this strategy can generate stable returns from this segment and support the healthy growth of the Group.

Home Appliance

Revenue from this segment was HK$506.2 million in FY2017, an increase of 15.6% YOY. The double-digit growth was a result of solid demand in both the export and domestic markets for premium home appliance and inverter applications in energy saving products.

This segment continued to benefit from the rising trend for high quality home appliance with more sophisticated and environmentally friendly features. Such appliances require electronics components with more advanced solutions. The Group continues to strengthen its capability in this segment in order to capture the potential opportunity and also introduce more new suppliers to expand its product offering.

Automotive

Revenue from this segment was HK$433.4 million in FY2017, an increase of 32.4% YOY. In recent years, the Automotive segment has become one of the highest growth segments in the Group's business portfolio. This was the result of its commitment and investment to build up its capabilities in this segment. The Group is optimistic that it can capitalize on the opportunities available to it as the sector continues to have higher requirements for more advanced features and higher safety standards. The Group continues to team up with its major suppliers to secure a leading position in the market and also attract potential new suppliers to enrich the product offering. The healthy growth in this segment can support the long-term growth of the Group.

Dealer

This segment achieved revenue of HK$376.4 million in FY2017, a decrease of 20% YOY. The change was mainly due to the reclassification of customers who had changed the nature of their business.

However in the traditional trading segment, the market is getting more transparent and there is less room for traders to achieve growth. The Group continues its close partnerships with major suppliers and partner dealers to secure more market share from its competitors. It is offering aggressive package deals and continuing to monitor the changing market conditions and adjusting its strategy accordingly.

Audio and Video

Revenue from this segment was HK$236.8 million in FY2017, a decrease of 3.2% YOY. The Group's key customers in this segment have already migrated from traditional audio to portable audio and professional audio. The total business volume is getting stable and the Group can also foresee more new requirements for electronic componentry in this segment. It intends to maintain adequate resources in order to cooperate with existing and new suppliers to identify these new opportunities.

EMS

This segment registered a YOY growth of 6.4% in revenue to HK$201.3 million in FY2017. The growth was mainly due to the reclassification of customers, however the actual performance in this segment was flat. The Group expects the business of this segment to remain challenging because of keen competition. It intends to try its best to provide efficient and effective support and back-up engineering services to its key customers through improving the supply chain. Moreover, it consciously monitors order trends and rolling forecasts to minimize its risk in purchase and the possibility of carrying obsolete stock.

Lighting

Revenue from this segment decreased by 0.4% YOY to HK$122.7 million in FY2017. LED lighting has already become widely used in various industrial and consumer applications. There are more and more new components and new solutions coming out and the market remains very competitive. Oversupply and price erosion are still the key issues in this segment but the sizeable volume of this market is worth paying attention to. The Group continues to monitor the trends and allocate adequate resources to capture all possible opportunities. At the same time, the credit positions of its customers and the buffer inventory are other major concerns.

Others

Revenue from this segment decreased by 6.4% YOY to HK$104.9 million in FY2017. Although certain businesses in this segment are unstable, the Group believes that some of them have the potential to become star segments in the future. Thus, the Group has to monitor such segments closely to avoid missing any good opportunities in the market.

Profit Margin - Continuing operations

The slowing of China's GDP growth rate in 2015 continued in 2016 and this led to downward pressure on prices and a squeeze on the Group's gross profit margin to 8.16% in FY2017 from 8.65% in FY2016.

Distribution costs - Continuing operations

Distribution costs increased by HK$4.3 million, or 9.3%, from HK$46.2 million in FY2016 to HK$50.5 million in FY2017. The increase was mainly due to more sales rebate and entertainment activities to boost sales.

Administrative expenses – Continuing operations

Administrative expenses decreased by HK$6.0 million, or 3.0%, from HK$196.4 million in FY2016 to HK$190.4 million in FY2017 mainly due to a decrease in staff cost as a result of a fall in average headcount as compared with FY2016.

Other gains and losses - Continuing operations

Other losses of HK$7.2 million in FY2017 included an exchange loss of HK$14.2 million, mainly arising from the depreciation of the Chinese renminbi ("RMB") against the United States dollar ("USD") offset by a reversal of allowance for doubtful trade receivables of HK$7.7 million. Other losses of HK$5.7 million in FY2016 included an exchange loss of HK$14.3 million, mainly arising from the depreciation of RMB against USD offset by a reversal of allowance for doubtful trade receivables of HK$8.5 million.

Finance costs - Continuing operations

Finance costs increased by HK$3.7 million, or 17.8%, from HK$20.8 million in FY2016 to HK$24.5 million in FY2017. This was mainly attributable to an increase in trust receipt loans and the higher interest rate during the year.

Share of loss of associates/Impairment loss on interests in associates - Continuing operations

Share of loss of the Company's associated company, GW Electronics Company Limited ("GW Electronics") in FY2016 was mainly due to the provision of doubtful debts for debtors of memory products.

Following the termination of its authorised distributorship agreement with an electronic components manufacturer in September 2015, GW Electronics downsized its operation to an optimum level to serve its remaining product lines and customers. As a result, an impairment loss of HK$70.1 million was made in FY2016.

Loss from discontinued operations

Loss from discontinued operations increased from a loss of HK$0.1 million in FY2016 to a loss of HK$1.8 million in FY2017, which was mainly due to the drop in sales revenue.

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Financial Position

Compared to the previous year ended March 31, 2016, trust receipt loans increased by HK$79.1 million. Trade and bills payables increased from HK$366.1 million as at March 31, 2016 to HK$418.6 million as at March 31, 2017. Both increases were due to the increase in purchasing activity during the year. Trade and bills receivables increased by HK$185.1 million when compared to those as at March 31, 2016 due to an increase in sales revenue towards the end of the year under review. The debtors turnover days increased from 1.9 months to 2.4 months.

As at March 31, 2017, the Group's current ratio (current assets/current liabilities) was 1.27 (March 31, 2016: 1.25).

Inventories

Inventories increased from HK$535.5 million as at March 31, 2016 to HK$591.7 million as at March 31, 2017. The inventory turnover days remained at 2.0 months.

Cash Flow

As at March 31, 2017, the Group had a working capital of HK$363.0 million, which included a cash balance of HK$331.3 million, compared to a working capital of HK$320.6 million, which included a cash balance of HK$482.6 million as at March 31, 2016. The decrease in cash by HK$151.3 million was attributable to the cash outflow of HK$141.3 million in operating activities, HK$2.3 million in investing activities and HK$4.9 million in financing activities.

Cash outflow in operating activities was mainly attributable to an increase in trade receivables due to increased sales revenue and a slight increase in average credit period as a result of more sales attributable from customers with a longer credit period.

Cash outflow in financing activities was attributable to the net effect of repayment of advance from associates and an increase in trust receipt loans due to increased purchasing activities.

Borrowings and Banking Facilities

As at March 31, 2017, bank borrowings of HK$190.0 million (March 31, 2016: HK$202.0 million) were unsecured and repayable in quarterly or half yearly installments ending in the financial year of 2018.

Bank borrowings bore interest at a weighted average effective rate of 3.42% per annum for fixed rate borrowings and 2.41% per annum for variable rate borrowings as at March 31, 2017.

As at March 31, 2017, trust receipt loans were unsecured and repayable within one year and bore an effective interest rate of 2.38% to 3.20% per annum. As at March 31, 2017, the Group had unutilised banking facilities of HK$330.0 million (March 31, 2016: HK$488.8 million).

As at March 31, 2017, trade receivables amounted to HK$24.2 million (March 31, 2016: HK$61.0 million), which were transferred to banks by discounting those receivables on a full recourse basis. As the Group had not transferred the significant risks and rewards relating to these receivables, it continued to recognise the full carrying amount of the receivables and had recognised the cash received on the transfer as a secured borrowing amounted to HK$19.4 million (March 31, 2016: HK$48.8 million).

Foreign Exchange Risk Management

The Group operates in Hong Kong, the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") and Taiwan. It incurred foreign currency risk mainly on sales and purchases that were denominated in currencies other than its functional currencies. Sales are mainly denominated in USD, RMB, Hong Kong dollars ("HKD") and Taiwan dollars ("TWD") whereas purchases are mainly denominated in USD, Japanese yen ("JPY"), RMB and HKD. Therefore the exposure in exchange rate risks mainly arises from fluctuations in foreign currencies against the functional currencies. Given the pegged exchange rate between HKD and USD, the exposure of entities that use HKD as their respective functional currency to the fluctuations in the USD is minimal. However, exchange rate fluctuations between RMB and USD, RMB and JPY, HKD and JPY, or TWD and USD could affect the Group's performance and asset value. The Group has a foreign currency hedging policy to monitor and maintain its foreign exchange exposure at an acceptable level.

Net Gearing Ratio

The net gearing ratio as at March 31, 2017 was 94.5% (March 31, 2016: 65.7%). The net gearing ratio was derived by dividing net debts (representing interest-bearing bank borrowings, trust receipt loans and bills payables minus cash and cash equivalents) by shareholders' equity at the end of a given period. The increase was mainly due to an increase in trust receipt loans from HK$589.5 million to HK$668.6 million to finance the increased purchasing activities.

Contingent Liabilities

The Company had given corporate guarantees (unsecured) to its banks in respect of banking facilities granted to its subsidiaries. As at March 31, 2017, the aggregate banking facilities granted to the subsidiaries were HK$1,190.3 million (March 31, 2016: HK$1,289.9 million), of which HK$863.7 million (March 31, 2016: HK$804.2 million) was utilised and guaranteed by the Company.

As at March 31, 2017, the Company had also given guarantees to certain suppliers in relation to the subsidiaries' settlement of the respective payables. The aggregate amounts payable to these suppliers under guarantee were HK$327.1 million (March 31, 2016: HK$274.6 million).

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the Company had given corporate guarantees (unsecured) to its banks in respect of banking facilities granted to its associates. All of the financial guarantee contracts had been cancelled as at March 31, 2016 and no outstanding guarantees were given thereafter.

STRATEGY AND PROSPECTS

The Group expects market conditions to remain challenging in the year ahead in line with China's slowing economic growth. Although its industry is unlikely to experience exponential growth in the near term, the Group remains confident that it is still a viable business because of the diversity of uses for electronic componentry.

On November 4, 2016, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement to dispose of its entire interest in its wholly-owned subsidiary Noblehigh Enterprises Inc. and its subsidiaries (together defined as "NEI Group") to a third party for a cash consideration for HK$0.9 million (the "Disposal"). NEI Group's primary business is the design and trading of integrated circuits for the audio equipment market, which requires large upfront investments in research and development. The reason for the Disposal was that the Group can focus on core segments with more potential to grow.

Looking ahead, the Group will actively seek out new suppliers to enrich its product offering to customers, while at the same time implement more stringent cost control measures so as to maintain its competitiveness.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICIES

As at March 31, 2017, the Group had a workforce of 444 full-time employees (March 31, 2016: 477, of which 14 was from the discontinued operations), of which 34.7% worked in Hong Kong, 61.3% in the PRC and the remainder in Taiwan.

The Group actively pursues a strategy of recruiting, retaining and developing talented employees by (i) providing them with regular training programmes to ensure that they are kept abreast of the latest information pertaining to the products distributed by the Group, technological developments and market conditions of the electronics industry; (ii) aligning employees' compensation and incentives with their performance; and (iii) providing them with a clear career path with opportunities for taking on additional responsibilities and securing promotions.

While the Group's employees in Hong Kong and Taiwan are required to participate in the mandatory provident fund scheme and a defined contribution pension scheme respectively, the Group makes contributions to various government-sponsored employee-benefit funds, including social insurance fund, housing fund, basic pension insurance fund and unemployment, maternity and work-related insurance funds for its employees in the PRC in accordance with the applicable PRC laws and regulations.

Further, the remuneration committee of the Board reviews and determines the remuneration and compensation packages of the directors of the Company (the "Directors") and senior management of the Company by reference to the salaries paid by comparable companies, the time commitment and responsibilities of the Directors and the performance of the Group.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The board of directors (the "Board") and the management of Willas-Array Electronics (Holdings) Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") are committed to the maintenance of good corporate governance practices and procedures. The Board firmly believes that conducting the Group's business in a transparent and responsible manner and following good corporate governance practices serve its long-term interests and those of the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders").

Since the listing of the Company's ordinary shares (the "Shares") on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "SEHK") on December 6, 2013, the Company has adopted, for corporate governance purposes, the code provisions of the Corporate Governance Code (the "HK CG Code") set out in Appendix 14 to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the SEHK (the "HK Listing Rules"), in addition to the Code of Corporate Governance 2012 of Singapore (the "Singapore CG Code"). Throughout the financial year ended March 31, 2017 (the "Year"), the Company has complied with all the principles of the HK CG Code and the Singapore CG Code.

In the event of any conflict among the bye-laws of the Company (the "Bye-Laws"), the HK CG Code and the Singapore CG Code, the Company will comply with the more onerous provision. As such, the Board considers that sufficient measures are in place to ensure the adequateness of the Company's corporate governance practices.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Composition

The Board comprises seven members, four of whom are executive Directors (the "Executive Directors") and three of whom are independent non-executive Directors (the "INEDs"). The composition of the Board is as follows:

Executive Directors

Mr. Leung Chun Wah (Chairman)

Mr. Kwok Chan Cheung (Deputy Chairman)

Mr. Hon Kar Chun (Managing Director)

Mr. Leung Hon Shing

INEDs

Mr. Jovenal R. Santiago

Mr. Wong Kwan Seng, Robert

Mr. lu Po Chan, Eugene

Pursuant to Guideline 3.3 of the Singapore CG Code, the Company should appoint an independent director to be the lead independent director (the "Lead Independent Director") as the chairman of the Board (the "Chairman") is not an independent director. Mr. Wong Kwan Seng, Robert (email address: ac@willas-array.com) was appointed as the Lead Independent Director. He is available to Shareholders where they have concerns and for which contact through the normal channels of the Chairman, the Managing Director or the chief financial officer of a company has failed to resolve or is inappropriate.

The Board, taking into account the nature of operations of the Group, considers its current size to be adequate for effective decision-making. Key information regarding the Directors' background, qualifications and other appointments is set out on pages 19 to 21 of this annual report. There has been no financial, business, family or other material relationship amongst the Directors.

INEDs

During the Year, the Board at all times met the requirements of the HK Listing Rules relating to the appointment of not less than three INEDs representing at least one-third of the Board. The Board also complied with the requirement that at least one of such INEDs should possess the appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise under Rule 3.10 of the HK Listing Rules. Further, the Company has received from each INED an annual written confirmation of his independence pursuant to Rule 3.13 of the HK Listing Rules and the Board is satisfied that all the INEDs were independent and met the independence guidelines set out in Rule 3.13 of the HK Listing Rules throughout the Year and up to the date of this annual report. Mr. Jovenal R. Santiago and Mr. Wong Kwan Seng, Robert have served as our INEDs for more than nine years. The Board considers that this long service does not interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the duties and responsibilities of an INED to maintain an independent view of the Group's affairs, in particular when their past performance is taken into account. The nomination committee of the Board (the "Nomination Committee") regards them as independent and believes that they will continue to contribute effectively to the Board because of their familiarity with the Group's business and affairs. As such, the Board and the Nomination Committee are of the same view that notwithstanding that they have served on the Board beyond nine years, they are considered independent for the purposes of the HK CG Code and the Singapore CG Code.

Role and Functions

The Board has the responsibility for the overall management of the Group. Apart from its statutory duties and responsibilities, the Board upon recommendation by the Nomination Committee approves the nomination of Directors to the Board and the appointment of key managerial personnel, oversees the management of the business and affairs of the Group, approves the Company's corporate and strategic directions, determines the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance upon recommendation by the compliance committee of the Board (the "Compliance Committee"), reviews the financial performance of the Group, approves its interim and annual results upon the review and recommendation of the audit committee of the Board (the "Audit Committee") and approves any investment proposals. The Board's role is also to (a) ensure that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the Company to meet its objectives; (b) establish a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risks to be assessed and managed, including safeguarding of Shareholders' interests and the Company's assets; (c) identify the key stakeholder groups and recognise that their perceptions affect the Company's reputation; (d) set the Company's values and standards (including ethical standards), and ensure that obligations to Shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met; and (e) consider sustainability issues e.g. environmental and social factors, as part of its strategic formulation. To assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities, the Board is provided with management reports containing complete, adequate and timely information, and papers containing relevant background or explanatory information required to support the decision-making process. In addition to information volunteered by management, the Board is entitled to request from management, and management will provide the Directors with such additional information in a timely manner, as needed for the Board to make informed decisions. To oversee particular aspects of the Group's affairs, the Board has established five Board committees, including the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee, the remuneration committee (the "Remuneration Committee"), the employee share option scheme committee (the "ESOS Committee") and the Compliance Committee (together, the "Board Committees"). The Board has delegated to the Board Committees responsibilities as set out in their respective terms of reference. All the Board Committees report to the Board on their decisions or recommendations made.

The Board has reserved for its consideration and approval issues in relation to formulating the Group's strategic objectives; considering and deciding the Group's significant operational and financial matters, including but not limited to substantial mergers, acquisitions and disposals; overseeing the Group's corporate governance practices; upon recommendation by the Remuneration Committee, determining the framework of remuneration packages for all Directors and senior management personnel of the Company ("Senior Management Personnel"); and directing and monitoring Senior Management Personnel in pursuit of the Group's strategic objectives. The Senior Management Personnel are mainly responsible for the day-to-day management and operation of the Group as well as the execution of the business plans, strategies and policies adopted by the Board and assigned to it from time to time. The Senior Management Personnel hold regular meetings to review and discuss the Group's performance against budget, business strategy, operational issues and matters relating to corporate services including finance and accounting, human resources, logistics and information technology.

Role of Chairman and Chief Executive

Mr. Leung Chun Wah is the Chairman and Mr. Hon Kar Chun is the Managing Director. The roles of the Chairman and the Managing Director are separate and assumed by different individuals to ensure a balance of power and authority so that power is not concentrated in any one individual of the Board. The Chairman gives guidance on the corporate direction of the Group and is also involved in the scheduling and chairing of Board meetings and controlling the quality, quantity and timeliness of information supplied to the Board. The Chairman also (a) leads the Board to ensure its effectiveness on all aspects of its role; (b) promotes a culture of openness and debate at the Board; (c) ensures effective communication with Shareholders; (d) encourages constructive relations within the Board and between the Board and management; (e) facilitates the effective contribution of INEDs; and (f) promotes high standards of corporate governance. The Managing Director assists the Chairman in setting the business strategies and directions for the Company and manages the business operations of the Company with other management staff. Each of the Chairman and the Managing Director performs separate functions to ensure that there is an appropriate balance of power and authority, and accountability and independent decision-making are not compromised. In addition, the Chairman and the Managing Director are not related to each other.

Induction, Orientation, Training and Continuous Professional Development

Each new Director will be issued with a formal service agreement or letter of appointment (as appropriate) and will be informed of the Company's policies, procedures, and Board Committee charters. New Directors will be provided with appropriate orientation to acquaint them with the business, operational structure, strategy, management and governance practices of the Company. The Board recognises the importance of appropriate training for its Directors and participation in continuous professional development by its Directors. All the Directors and Senior Management Personnel are encouraged to participate in continuous professional development to develop and refresh their skills and knowledge, particularly on relevant new laws and regulations affecting, and the changing commercial risks relating to, the Group's business and governance practices from time to time.

During the Year, all the Directors attended a seminar organised by The Hong Kong Institute of Directors on cyber security. The above training was arranged and funded by the Company. All the Directors have provided their training records for the Year to the Company.

APPOINTMENT AND RE-ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Each of the Executive Directors has entered into a service agreement with the Company for a term of less than three years. Each of the INEDs has received an appointment letter from the Company for a term of two years.

All the Directors, including the INEDs, are subject to retirement by rotation and eligible for re-election in accordance with the Bye-Laws. At each AGM, one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third but not greater than one-third shall retire from office by rotation provided that the Managing Director whilst holding such office, shall not be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the number of Directors to retire in each year. The Directors to retire in every year will be those who have been in office the longest since their last election but as between the persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree between themselves) be determined by lot. Subject to the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (the "Bermuda Act") and the Bye-Laws, a retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election at the meeting at which he retires. For good corporate governance and in compliance with the requirements of the HK CG Code and the Singapore CG Code, the Managing Director will voluntarily be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years as well as be taken into account in determining the number of Directors to retire in each year.

APPOINTMENT AND RE-ELECTION OF DIRECTORS – continued

The Bye-Laws further provides that the Company may from time to time in general meeting by ordinary resolution elect any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board. Any Director so appointed and any Director appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director will hold office only until the next following AGM and shall then be eligible for re-election at the meeting but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors or the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting. However, the Company will comply with the HK CG Code and the Listing Manual of Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the "SGX-ST" and the "SGX-ST Listing Manual", respectively) such that any Director so appointed to fill a casual vacancy will retire and will be eligible for re-election at the next following general meeting.

All Directors have separate and independent access to Senior Management Personel and the company secretary of the Company (the "Company Secretary"). Mr. Leung Hon Shing (who is also an Executive Director) is the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary attends all Board and Board Committee meetings, ensures that minutes of the Board, the Board Committees and general meetings of the Company are prepared and kept, and assists the Chairman in ensuring that Board procedures are followed and reviewed so that the Board functions effectively. Draft and final versions of minutes of all meetings would be sent to all Board and Board Committee members for their comment and records within a reasonable time after the meetings. The Company Secretary also ensures that the Bye-Laws and relevant rules and regulations, including requirements of the Bermuda Act, the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the HK Listing Rules, are complied with. The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole. Should Directors, whether as a group or individually, need independent professional advice in the furtherance of their duties, the cost of such professional advice will be borne by the Company. The Directors and key officers of the Group are under appropriate insurance cover on Directors' and key officers' liabilities in respect of their risks arising from the business of the Group.

The Board met four times during the Year at approximately quarterly intervals with notice given to the Directors at least 14 days in advance pursuant to the HK CG Code. Before each Board meeting, a draft agenda is sent out to all Directors at least 14 days (or such other period as agreed) in advance in order to allow the Directors to include in the agenda any other matters that are required for discussion and resolution in the meeting. To enable the Directors to make informed decisions, Board papers together with all appropriate and relevant information in relation to the matters of the meeting are sent to all Directors three days (or such other period as agreed) before each Board meeting. According to the HK Listing Rules, any Directors and their close associates (as defined in the HK Listing Rules) with a material interest in the transactions to be discussed in the Board meetings will abstain from voting on the resolutions approving such transactions and will not be counted in the quorum at the meetings. However, the Executive Directors meet more regularly and as required, review and discuss management and operational matters. In addition, Directors' resolutions in writing are also circulated for transactions that require Directors' approval. If a substantial Shareholder or a Director has a conflict of interest in a matter to be considered by the Board, which the Board has determined to be material, the matter will be dealt with by a physical Board meeting rather than a written resolution. The number of Board, Board Committees and general meetings of the Company held in the Year as well as the attendance record of every Board member at those meetings are as follows:

The Nomination Committee also evaluated the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and each of the Board Committees, based on a set of objective performance criteria, including factors such as its processes and access to information and management, and oversight of the Company's performance or its relevant function. Each Director was also individually assessed by the Nomination Committee having regard to his contribution and commitment to the Board and the relevant Board Committees, based on relevant criteria such as his attendance both at meetings and on an ad hoc basis, his participation and contributions at Board and Board Committee meetings, as well as business and industry knowledge. Executive Directors were also assessed based on qualitative and quantitative performance criteria, taking into account the profits and revenue growth of, and economic value added to, the Company. The Nomination Committee has recommended to the Board that the above two retiring Directors be nominated for re-appointment at the forthcoming AGM. In making these recommendations, the Nomination Committee has considered the overall contribution and performance of the said Directors.

The Board has not determined the maximum number of listed company board representations which any Director may hold, and leaves it to each Director to personally determine the demands of his other responsibilities and commitments, and to assess whether he can continue to serve on the Board effectively. However, guided by the Nomination Committee, the Board considers whether each Director has dedicated sufficient time and attention to, and is able to perform and has adequately performed, his duties as a Director.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS AND INTERNAL AUDIT

The Company regularly reviews and improves its business and operational activities by taking into account the risk management perspective. The Board is directly responsible for the governance of risk and works closely with management to maintain a sound system of risk management and internal controls. The Board seeks to identify areas of significant business risks as well as appropriate measures to control and mitigate these risks, and then reviews all significant control policies and procedures. Implementation of risk mitigation measures is done under the direct oversight of the Board. All significant matters and issues relating to financial matters are brought to the attention of the Audit Committee. For more information on the Company's risk management policies and processes, please refer to note 42 to the financial statements of this annual report.

The Company's risk management and internal controls systems are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance as to the integrity and reliability of the financial information, to safeguard and maintain the accountability of Shareholders' investment and the Company's assets, and to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve its business objectives.

The review of the systems of risk management and internal controls is an ongoing process and the Board recognises the importance of such systems. In view of the Company's business and scale of operations, and in order to adopt the most cost-effective method of conducting periodic reviews of the Company's internal controls, the Board has continued to outsource the internal audit function to an external consulting firm. RSM Consulting (Hong Kong) Limited, an international consulting firm, was re-appointed on April 1, 2016 as the Company's internal auditors. They had conducted a review of the effectiveness of the Company's material internal controls and visited the Company's office in Hong Kong in October 2016 for two weeks. The internal auditors reported directly to the chairman of the Audit Committee and the Audit Committee is satisfied that there has been no major shortfall in the areas of the Company's internal controls system being evaluated and that adequate internal controls are in place. The Company has conducted an annual review on whether there is a need to establish an internal audit department within the Company as there is presently no such department in the Company. Given the Company's relatively simple corporate and operational structure, as opposed to diverting resources to establish a separate internal audit department, the Board will continue to outsource the internal audit function to an external consulting firm.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS AND INTERNAL AUDIT - continued

In addition to outsourcing the internal audit function to an external professional consulting firm, the Board, with the concurrence of the Audit Committee and after carrying out an annual review, is of the opinion that the internal controls of the Group are adequate and effective to address operational, financial, compliance and information technology risks. In arriving at the opinion, the Board considers that the internal controls of the Group provide reasonable assurance that the objectives set out below have been achieved.

For the purpose of the Board expressing its opinion and in line with the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) Internal Controls Integrated Framework, "internal controls" is broadly defined as a process effected by an entity's board of directors and other personnel, designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of objectives in the following categories:

- (a) effectiveness and efficiency of operations;
- (b) reliability of financial reporting; and
- (c) compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The first category addresses an entity's basic business objectives, including performance and profitability goals and safeguarding of assets. The second category relates to the preparation of reliable published financial statements, including interim and full year financial reports and financial information derived from such statements, reported publicly. The third category deals with the compliance with those laws and regulations to which the entity is subject.

The Directors are of the view that the enhanced internal control measures are adequate and effective.

The Board has received assurance from the Managing Director and the chief financial officer of the Company that:

- (a) the financial records of the Group have been properly maintained and the financial statements for the Year give a true and fair view of the Group's operations and finances; and
- (b) the systems of risk management and internal controls in place are adequate and effective in addressing the material risks of the Group in its current business environment.

DEALING IN SECURITIES/DIRECTORS' SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a code of conduct on share dealings by the Directors and Senior Management Personnel. The guidelines set out in the code of conduct include that the Directors and Senior Management Personnel:

- 2. are reminded that they should not deal in the Shares on short-term considerations;

- 4. are required to report to the Company whenever they deal in the Shares. The Company will in turn report to the public through SGXNET announcements as required under the above Securities and Futures Act.

The Company has also adopted the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers (the "Model Code") as contained in Appendix 10 to the HK Listing Rules as its own code of conduct for dealing in securities of the Company by the Directors.

The Company has made a specific enquiry with each of the Directors and all Directors have confirmed their compliance with relevant required dealing standards stipulated in the Model Code during the Year.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS (RULE 1207(8) OF THE SGX-ST LISTING MANUAL)

No material contracts of the Company or its subsidiaries involving the interest of the Managing Director or any Director or controlling shareholders of the Company (as defined in the SGX-ST Listing Manual) subsisted at the end of the Year.

INTERESTED PERSON TRANSACTIONS (RULE 907 OF THE SGX-ST LISTING MANUAL)/CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS (CHAPTER 14A OF THE HK LISTING RULES)

The Group has established procedures to ensure that all transactions with interested persons (as defined in the SGX-ST Listing Manual) and connected transactions (as defined in the HK Listing Rules) are reported in a timely manner to the Audit Committee and that the transactions are conducted on an arm's length basis and are not prejudicial to the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole. For the Year, there were no interested person or connected transactions of the Company.

Regarding our waste management policy, we are committed to the proper handling and disposal of all waste generated and to minimize the quantity produced. All waste handling practices shall comply with the relevant laws and regulations set forth, and shall have no harmful effect to the environment and human health.

This policy applies the waste management principles of "reduce", "reuse", "recycle" and "replace" with the following aims: to reduce the negative environmental impact of waste and to ensure the disposal of waste materials is conducted in an environmentally responsible manner; to promote reuse and recycling practices in operations; to facilitate source separation and to enable waste recycling by implementing an effective waste management programme; to enhance general awareness of the importance of waste reduction through green procurement practices and administrative approaches.

Waste generated from our business activities mainly consists of papers and plastic water bottles.

No substantial hazardous waste was produced by our Group during the reporting period.

We have adopted the following waste handling methods for papers and plastic water bottles:

- Implemented the practice of reusing papers and envelopes for internal documentation.
- Deployed electronic platforms for employees' leave applications and payslips.
- Returned the plastic bottles to the suppliers for recycling purpose.

A. ENVIRONMENTAL - continued

On the other hand, we have also adopted the following handling methods for other non-hazardous wastes:

- Collected used batteries and disposed of them at designated battery recycling collection points located in railway stations.
- Sold old computers to environmental recycling companies.
- Established phone and video conference facilities in our offices, in order to reduce overseas business trips.

As a result of the aforementioned initiatives, our Group has reduced the amount of the waste produced, which in turn minimize the adverse impact to the environment.

Carbon Emissions

The major source of our carbon emissions is the use of energy. We have developed various energy-saving initiatives to help reduce our carbon footprint. Please refer to the "Use of Energy" section below for the reduction initiative.

On the other hand, we are also aware of the carbon footprint produced by business traveling. In order to limit this, our Group has established travel policies that aim to ensure effective travel management and to promote economy and efficiency in the use of travel funds.

We support carbon neutral business travel by offering choices that mitigate the production of greenhouse gas emissions. Our green travel policies stipulate that travel expenses should be reasonable and necessary for programme delivery. We continue to challenge ourselves on the necessity, frequency and mode of travel, and provide and promote the most suitable alternatives to travel (e.g. phone conference or video conference) to achieve a zero carbon footprint.

- For the employees' business trip applications, we will review their necessity and consider whether the proposed business travel methods are appropriate.
- Employees are encouraged to use phone or video conference.
- Employees are encouraged to utilize public transportation.

As a result, staff are better educated about the environmental protection awareness and more staff are using public transportation. Unnecessary travelling for business meetings has also been reduced with the introduction of video conference facilities in the office.

Use of Energy

To achieve higher energy efficiency, we have implemented the following key initiatives during the reporting period:

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF WILLAS-ARRAY ELECTRONICS (HOLDINGS) LIMITED

(incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Willas-Array Electronics (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group") set out on pages 78 to 184, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2017, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2017, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Allowance for inventories obsolescence

We identified the allowance for inventories obsolescence as a key audit matter as the Group operates in a fast evolving industry where inventories comprise of integrated circuits and other electronic components are subject to obsolescence due to rapid technological changes and product obsolescence. As such, significant management estimates and judgements are involved in determining the allowance for inventories.

The Group makes allowance for inventories based on an assessment of the net realisable value of inventories. Allowances are applied to inventories where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the net realisable value is lower than cost. The management of the Group reviewed the inventory aging report at the end of the reporting period to identify inventories that are no longer saleable in the market and estimated the net realisable value for those items based on the historical and latest selling price.

As disclosed in note 25 to the consolidated financial statements, as at March 31, 2017, the carrying amount of Group's inventories is approximately HK$591,741,000, net of allowance for inventories of HK$30,998,000.

Our audit procedures in relation to the allowance for inventories included:

- Understanding the Group's key controls in respect of the preparation of inventory aging report and sales margin report for the determination of the allowance for inventories;
- Engaging our internal IT specialists to perform Computer Assisted Audit Techniques exercise to test the accuracy of the inventories aging listed in the system generated report, and assessing whether allowance was properly provided for aged inventories after taking into account subsequent sales;
- Testing the net realisable values of inventories by reference to historical and latest sales margin report to identify any obsolete inventories and assessing whether the allowance was properly provided for the relevant inventories; and
- Assessing the historical accuracy of allowance for inventories to evaluate the appropriateness of the basis made by the management in the current year.

Key audit matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Recoverability of trade receivables

We identified the recoverability of the Group's trade receivables as a key audit matter due to its significant balance (37% of the Group's total asset) and the estimation uncertainty involved in the determining the recoverability of trade receivables.

Allowances are applied to trade receivables where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the balances may not be recoverable. The Group takes into consideration the aging categories, subsequent settlements of the receivables, repayment history and credit worthiness of debtors in determining the recoverability of trade receivables and the amount of allowance for doubtful debts.

As described in note 26 to the consolidated financial statements, as at March 31, 2017, the carrying amount of the Group's trade receivables were approximately HK$726,728,000 (2016: HK$560,894,000), net of allowance for doubtful debts of HK$8,162,000 (2016: HK$16,387,000).

Our audit procedures in relation to the recoverability of trade receivables included:

- Understanding the Group's key controls in respect of the preparation of aging report of trade receivables for the determination of allowance for doubtful debts;
- Engaging our internal IT specialists to perform
 Computer Assisted Audit Techniques exercise to test the accuracy of the trade receivables aging listed in the system generated report, and assessing whether allowance for doubtful debts was properly provided for after taking into account subsequent settlements;
- Testing settlements received in respect of the trade receivables subsequent to the year end, on a sample basis, against to source documents; and
- Assessing the historical accuracy of allowance for doubtful debts to evaluate the appropriateness of the basis made by the management in the current year.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the financial highlights, chairman's statement, management discussion and analysis, corporate governance report, report of directors, statement of directors and environmental, social and governance report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, which we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report, and the shareholders' information, which is expected to be made available to us after that date. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed on the other information that we obtained prior to the date of this auditor's report, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 90 of the Bermuda Companies Act, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in the independent auditor's report is Jimmy Toy.

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

IFRS 9 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets, financial liabilities, general hedge accounting and impairment requirements for financial assets.

Key requirements of IFRS 9 which are relevant to the Group are:

- all recognised financial assets that are within the scope of IFRS 9 are required to be subsequently measured at amortised cost or fair value. Specifically, debt investments that are held within a business model whose objective is to collect the contractual cash flows, and that have contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal outstanding are generally measured at amortised cost at the end of subsequent accounting periods. Debt instrument that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and that have contractual terms that give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, are generally measured at FVTOCI. All other debt investments and equity investments are measured at their fair values at the end of subsequent accounting periods. In addition, under IFRS 9, entities may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value of an equity investment (that is not held for trading) in other comprehensive income, with only dividend income generally recognised in profit or loss.
- with regard to the measurement of financial liabilities designated as at fair value through profit or loss, IFRS 9 requires that the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is presented in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss. Changes in fair value attributable to financial liabilities' credit risk are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss. Under IAS 39, the entire amount of the change in the fair value of the financial liability designated as fair value through profit or loss is presented in profit or loss.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS – continued

- in relation to the impairment of financial assets, IFRS 9 requires an expected credit loss model, as opposed to an incurred credit loss model under IAS 39. The expected credit loss model requires an entity to account for expected credit losses and changes in those expected credit losses at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition. In other words, it is no longer necessary for a credit event to have occurred before credit losses are recognised.
- the new general hedge accounting requirements retain the three types of hedge accounting mechanisms currently available in IAS 39. Under IFRS 9, greater flexibility has been introduced to the types of transactions eligible for hedge accounting, specifically broadening the types of instruments that qualify for hedging instruments and the types of risk components of non-financial items that are eligible for hedge accounting. In addition, the retrospective quantitative effectiveness text has been removed. Enhanced disclosure requirements about an entity's risk management activities have also been introduced.

Based on the Group's financial instruments and risk management policies as at March 31, 2017, application of IFRS 9 in the future may have a material impact on the classification and measurement of the Group's financial assets. The Group's available-for-sale investments, including those currently stated at cost less impairment, will either be measured as fair value through profit or loss or be designated as FVTOCI (subject to fulfillment of the designation criteria). In addition, the expected credit loss model may result in early provision of credit losses which are not yet incurred in relation to the Group's financial assets measured at amortised cost.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

IFRS 15 was issued which establishes a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. IFRS 15 will supersede the current revenue recognition guidance including IAS 18 Revenue, IAS 11 Construction Contracts and related interpretations when it becomes effective.

The core principle of IFRS 15 is that an entity should recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. Specifically, the standard introduces a 5-step approach to revenue recognition:

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS – continued

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

Under IFRS 15, an entity recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when 'control' of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer. Far more prescriptive guidance has been added in IFRS 15 to deal with specific scenarios. Furthermore, extensive disclosures are required by IFRS 15.

In 2016, the IASB issued Clarifications to IFRS 15 in relation to the identification of performance obligations, principal versus agent considerations, as well as licensing application guidance.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of IFRS 15 in the future may have an impact on the amounts reported as the timing of revenue recognition may be affected and the amounts of revenue recognised are subject to variable consideration constraints, and more disclosures relating to revenue is required. However, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect of IFRS 15 until the directors of the Company performs a detailed review.

In addition, the application of IFRS 15 in the future may result in more disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS – continued

IFRS 16 Leases

IFRS 16 introduces a comprehensive model for the identification of lease arrangements and accounting treatments for both lessors and lessees. IFRS 16 will supersede IAS 17 Leases and the related interpretations when it becomes effective. It distinguishes leases and service contracts on the basis of whether an identified asset is controlled by a customer. Distinctions of operating and finance leases are removed for lessee accounting, and is replaced by a model where a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability have to be recognised for all leases by lessees, except for short-term leases and leases of low value assets.

The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost and subsequently measured at cost (subject to certain exceptions) less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. Subsequently, the lease liability is adjusted for interest and lease payments, as well as the impact of lease modifications, amongst others. For the classification of cash flows, the Group currently presents upfront prepaid lease payments as investing cash flows in relation to leasehold lands for owned use and those classified as investment properties while other operating lease payments are presented as operating cash flows. Under the IFRS 16, lease payments in relation to lease liability will be allocated into a principal and an interest portion which will be presented as financing cash flows.

Under IAS 17, the Group has already recognised an asset and a related finance lease liability for finance lease arrangement and prepaid lease payments for leasehold lands where the Group is a lessee. The application of IFRS 16 may result in potential changes in classification of these assets depending on whether the Group presents right-of-use assets separately or within the same line item at which the corresponding underlying assets would be presented if they were owned.

In contrast to lessee accounting, IFRS 16 substantially carries forward the lessor accounting requirements in IAS 17, and continues to require a lessor to classify a lease either as an operating lease or a finance lease.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

Furthermore, extensive disclosures are required by IFRS 16.

As at March 31, 2017, the Group has non-cancellable operating lease commitments of approximately HK$8,753,000 as disclosed in Note 41. A preliminary assessment indicates that these arrangements will meet the definition of a lease under IFRS 16, and hence the Group will recognise a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability in respect of all these leases unless they qualify for low value or short-term leases upon the application of IFRS 16. In addition, the application of new requirements may result changes in measurement, presentation and disclosure as indicated above. However, it is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the financial effect until the directors of the Company complete a detailed review.

The directors of the Company do not anticipate that the application of the other amendments to IFRSs will have a material effect on the amounts recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRSs issued by the IASB. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the SEHK and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain properties and financial instruments that are measured at revalued amounts or fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES – continued

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such as basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of IFRS 2 Share-based payment, leasing transaction that are within the scope of IAS 17 Leases, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in IAS 2 Inventories or value in use in IAS 36 Impairment of assets.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 and 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The principal accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has the rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Group's voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Group, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Group has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if the results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES – continued

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity including reserves and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted after re-attribution of the relevant equity component, and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable IFRSs). The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under IAS 39, when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture.

Investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries included in the Company's statement of financial position are carried at cost less any impairment loss.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - continued

Business combinations

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are generally recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities, and assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with IAS 12 Income Taxes and IAS 19 Employee Benefits respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with IFRS 2 Share-based Payments at the acquisition date (see the accounting policy below); and
- assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with IFRS 5
 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that Standard.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed as at acquisition date. If, after reassessment, the net amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the relevant subsidiary's net assets in the event of liquidation may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on a transaction-by-transaction basis. Other types of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value.

When the consideration transferred by the Group in a business combination includes assets or liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively, with corresponding adjustments against goodwill. Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the 'measurement period' (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as an asset or a liability is remeasured to fair value at subsequent reporting dates, with the corresponding gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to at fair value acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Group obtains control), and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognised in profit or loss. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where such treatment would be appropriate if that interest were disposed of.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted during the measurement period (see above), and additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognised at that date.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business (see accounting policy above) less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units (or groups of cash-generating units) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

A cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating unit) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or group of cash-generating unit).

On disposal of the relevant cash-generating unit, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal.

The Group's policy for goodwill arising on acquisition of an associate is described below.

Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting, except when the investment, or a portion thereof, is classified as held for sale, in which case it is or the portion so classified is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.

Any retained portion of an investment in an associate that has not been classified as held for sale shall be accounted for using the equity method. The financial statements of associates used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Appropriate adjustments have been made to conform the associate's accounting policies to those of the Group.

Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The requirements of IAS 39 are applied to determine whether it is necessary to recognise any impairment loss with respect to the Group's investment in an associate. When necessary, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with IAS 36 Impairment of Assets as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with IAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

When the Group retains an interest in the former associate and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of IAS 39, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate, and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing the relevant interest in the associate is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate on the same basis as would be required if that associate had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income by that associate would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) when the equity method is discontinued.

The Group continues to use the equity method when an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or an investment in a joint venture becomes an investment in an associate. There is no remeasurement to fair value upon such changes in ownership interests.

When the Group reduces its ownership interest in an associate or a joint venture but the Group continues to use the equity method, the Group reclassifies to profit or loss the proportion of the gain or loss that had previously been recognised in other comprehensive income relating to that reduction in ownership interest if that gain or loss would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities.

When a group entity transacts with its associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Revenue is reduced for estimated customer returns, rebates and other similar allowances.

Revenue is recognised when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured; when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the Group and when specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities, as described below.

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the goods are delivered and titles have passed.

Management fee and other services income is recognised when management and other services are provided.

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Income from providing financial guarantee is recognised in profit or loss over the guarantee period on a straight line basis.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment including buildings and leasehold land (classified as financial leases) and freehold land held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost or relevant amount less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their estimated useful lives on the following bases:

Leasehold land and buildings

Motor vehicles
Plant and equipment
Computer equipment, furniture and fixtures

Over the shorter of lease term or 50 years, straight-line method 20%, straight-line method 20%, straight-line method 20% to 331/3%, straight-line method

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the profit or loss.

Since March 31, 2015, leasehold land and buildings are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at their revalued amounts, being the fair value at the date of revaluation, less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses. Revaluations are performed with sufficient regularity such that the carrying amounts do not differ materially from those that would be determined using fair values at the end of each reporting period.

Any revaluation increase arising on the revaluation of such leasehold land and buildings is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in revaluation reserve, except to the extent that it reverses a revaluation decrease for the same asset previously recognised in profit or loss, in which case the increase is credited to profit or loss to the extent of the decrease previously charged. A decrease in the carrying amount arising on the revaluation of such leasehold land and buildings is charged in profit or loss to the extent that it exceeds the balance, if any, held in the property revaluation reserve relating to a previous revaluation of that asset.

Depreciation on revalued buildings is recognised in profit or loss. On the subsequent sale or retirement of a revalued property, the attributable revaluation surplus remaining in the properties revaluation reserve is transferred directly to retained earnings.

The gain or loss arising on disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss. On the subsequent sale or retirement of a revalued property, the attributable revaluation surplus remaining in the properties revaluation reserve is transferred directly to retained earnings.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - continued

Leasing

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

The Group as lessee

Lease payments are apportioned between finance expenses and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance expenses are recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Group's general policy on borrowing costs (see the accounting policy below). Contingent rentals are recognised as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

Operating lease payments, including the cost of acquiring land held under operating leases, are recognised as expenses on a straight-line basis over the lease term, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased asset are consumed. Continent rentals arising under operating leases are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

In the event that lease incentives are received to enter into operating leases, such incentives are recognised as a liability. The aggregate benefit of incentives is recognised as a reduction of rental expense on a straight-line basis, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased asset are consumed.

Leasehold land and buildings

When a lease includes both land and buildings elements, the Group assesses the classification of each element as a finance or an operating lease separately based on the assessment as to whether substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of each element have been transferred to the Group, unless it is clear that both elements are operating leases in which case the entire lease is classified as an operating lease. Specifically, the minimum lease payments (including any lump-sum upfront payments) are allocated between the land and the buildings elements in proportion to the relative fair values of the leasehold interests in the land element and buildings element of the lease at the inception of the lease.

To the extent the allocation of the lease payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land that is accounted for as an operating lease is presented as "prepaid lease payments" in the consolidated statements of financial position and is amortised over the lease term on a straight-line basis. When the lease payments cannot be allocated reliably between the land and buildings elements, the entire lease is generally classified as a finance lease.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise, except for exchange differences on monetary items receivable from or payable to a foreign operation for which settlement is neither planned nor likely to occur (therefore forming part of the net investment in the foreign operation), which are recognised initially in other comprehensive income and reclassified from equity to profit or loss on disposal or partial disposal of the Group's interests.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. HK$) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the year. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of currency translation reserve (attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate).

On the disposal of a foreign operation (i.e. a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation, or a disposal involving loss of control over a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation), all of the exchange differences accumulated in equity in respect of that operation attributable to the owners of the Company are reclassified to profit or loss.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments on identifiable assets acquired arising on an acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of that foreign operation and translated at the rate of exchange prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Exchange differences arising are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the year in which they are incurred.

Retirement benefit costs

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans, state-managed retirement benefit schemes and the mandatory provident fund scheme in Hong Kong (the "MPF") are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered the services entitling them to the contributions.

Short-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave) after deducting any amount already paid.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of each reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Taxation - continued

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

Intangible assets

Internally-generated intangible assets - research and development expenditure

Expenditure on research activities is recognised as an expense in the year in which it is incurred.

An internally-generated intangible asset arising from development activities (or from the development phase of an internal project) is recognised if, and only if, all of the following have been demonstrated:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- the ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits;
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

The amount initially recognised for internally-generated intangible assets is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets the recognition criteria listed above. Where no internally-generated intangible asset can be recognised, development expenditure is recognised in profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred.

Subsequent to initial recognition, internally-generated intangible assets are reported at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses (if any), on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognised separately from goodwill are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination with finite useful lives are reported at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses, on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Impairment of tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangibles assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

Impairment of tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill - continued

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount under another standard, in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease under that standard.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of inventories are determined on a first-in-first-out basis. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets

The Group's financial assets are classified into the following specified categories: financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments and available-for-sale financial assets. The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is determined at the time of initial recognition. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant year. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest income is recognised on an effective interest basis for debt instruments.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets are classified as FVTPL when financial asset is (i) either held for trading or (ii) it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

A financial asset other than a financial asset held for trading may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise; or
- the financial asset forms part of a group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- it forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and IAS 39 permits the entire combined contract (asset or liability) to be designated as at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising from remeasurement recognised directly in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any dividend or interest earned on the financial assets and is included in the 'other gains and losses' line item. Fair value is determined in the manner described in Note 42.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables (including cash and cash equivalents, restricted bank deposits, trade and bills receivables, other receivables and long-term deposits) are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment (see accounting policy on impairment loss on financial assets below).

Interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate, except for short-term receivables where the recognition of interest would be immaterial.

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivatives that are either designated as available-for-sale or are not classified as (i) loans and receivables), (ii) held-to-maturity investments, (iii) financial assets at FVTPL.

Dividends on available-for-sale equity instruments are recognised in profit or loss when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established.

Available-for-sale equity investments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured and derivatives that are linked to and must be settled by delivery of such unquoted equity investments are measured at cost less any identified impairment losses at the end of each reporting period (see the accounting policy in respect of impairment loss on financial assets below).

Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at the end of each reporting period. Financial assets are considered to be impaired when there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the financial assets have been affected.

For available-for-sale equity investment, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of that investment below its cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment.

For all other financial assets, objective evidence of impairment could include:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty; or
- breach of contract, such as default or delinquency in interest and principal payments; or
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial re-organisation; or
- disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

For certain categories of financial assets, such as trade receivables, assets that are assessed not to be impaired individually are, in addition, assessed for impairment on a collective basis. Objective evidence of impairment for a portfolio of receivables could include the Group's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in the number of delayed payments, observable changes in national or local economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables.

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the amount of the impairment loss recognised is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

For financial assets carried at cost, the amount of the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment loss will not be reversed in subsequent periods (see the accounting policy below).

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of trade receivables, where the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognised in profit or loss. When a trade receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the allowance account.

When an available-for-sale financial asset is considered to be impaired, cumulative gains or losses previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss in the period.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, if, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the investment at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortised cost would have been had the impairment not been recognised.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Debt and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest expense is recognised on an effective interest basis.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is (i) either held for trading or (ii) it is designated as at FVTPL on initial recognition.

A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise; or
- the financial liability forms part of a group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- it forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and IAS 39 permits the entire combined contract (asset or liability) to be designated as at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any interest paid on the financial liabilities and is included in the other gains and losses line item. Fair value is determined in a manner described in Note 42.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including trust receipt loans, trade and bills payables, others payables, and bank borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date when derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

Financial guarantee contracts

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group are initially measured at their fair value and if not designated as at FVTPL, are subsequently measured at the higher of: (i) the amount of obligation under the contract, as determined in accordance with IAS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised over the guarantee period.

Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognise its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated equity is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - continued

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Share-based payment arrangements

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based transactions are set out in Note 38.

The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity (share options reserve). At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to the share options reserve.

When share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to accumulated profits. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will continue to be held in share options reserve.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in Note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the year in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies

Management has not made any critical judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies other than judgements relating to estimation uncertainties as stated below.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Allowance for doubtful debts

When there is objective evidence of impairment loss, the Group takes into consideration the estimation of future cash flows. The amount of the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition, where applicable). Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, or being revised downward due to changes in facts and circumstances a material impairment loss/further impairment loss may arise. The carrying amount of Group's trade receivables at March 31, 2017 were approximately HK$726,728,000 (2016: HK$560,894,000), net of allowance for doubtful debts of HK$8,162,000 (2016: HK$16,387,000).

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY – continued

Allowance for inventories obsolescence

The Group operates in the electronics industry which is subject to rapid technological changes and product obsolescence. The Group's policy for allowance for inventories obsolescence is based on management's judgement on the realisability of the inventories which taking into account the aging, latest selling prices and historical loss incurred of relevant inventories. At the end of each reporting period, management is of the opinion that the allowance for inventories obsolescence is adequate but not excessive. The carrying amount of Group's inventories at March 31, 2017 were approximately HK$591,741,000 (2016: HK$535,547,000), net of allowance for inventories of HK$30,998,000 (2016: HK$25,100,000).

Impairment of investments in associates and subsidiaries

Management exercises their judgement on estimating recoverable amounts of the Group and subsidiaries of the Company.

The recoverable amounts of the investments are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is any indication that those investments have suffered an impairment loss (if any). Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less cost to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, management needs to estimate the future cash flows expected from the cash-generating units and an appropriate discount rate in order to calculate the present value of the future cash flows.

Full impairment on associates of the Group amounting to HK70,080,000 was recorded as at the year ended March 31, 2016.

The carrying amount of investments in subsidiaries of the Company as at March 31, 2017 is HK$117,470,000 (2016: HK$117,470,000).

Useful lives, impairment assessment and revaluation of property, plant and equipment

Leasehold land and buildings is stated in the statements of financial position at revalued amounts less accumulated depreciation and identified impairment losses. Motor vehicles, plant and equipment and computer equipment, furniture and fixtures are stated in the statements of financial position at cost less accumulated depreciation and identified impairment losses. The estimation of their useful lives impacts the level of annual depreciation expense recorded. Property, plant and equipment are evaluated for possible impairment on a specific asset basis or in groups of similar assets, as applicable. This process requires management's estimate of future cash flows generated by each asset or group of asset. For any instance where this evaluation process indicates impairment, the appropriate assets' carrying values are written down to the recoverable amounts and the amount of the write-down is charged to profit or loss. Leasehold land and buildings is revalued to fair value and management determines the appropriate techniques and inputs for fair value measurement. The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment at March 31, 2017 was approximately HK$232,774,000 (2016: HK$251,867,000).

SEGMENT INFORMATION – continued 6.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in Note 3. Segment profit (loss) represents the profit earned by or loss from each segment without allocation of central administration expense, other revenue, amortisation of financial guarantee liabilities, gain on disposal of subsidiaries, share of loss of associates and impairment loss recognised in respect of interests in associates. This is the measure reported to the CODM for the purpose of resources allocation and performance assessment.

The CODM is of the opinion that the presentation of assets and liabilities in accordance with the reportable segments is not meaningful as the management can monitor the Group's assets and liabilities in one pool which is more efficient and effective.

During the year ended March 31, 2016, a winding-up petition is issued by a major supplier to GW Electronics Company Limited as a result of the termination of an authorised distributorship agreement. The directors of the Group reviewed and assessed this circumstance to be an indication for non-recoverability of the investment in GW Electronics Company Limited. Accordingly, a full provision is made and an impairment loss of HK$70,080,000 on the investment in this associate is made for the year ended March 31, 2016.

No summarised financial information in respect of the Group's associates was presented as the associate was fully impaired as at March 31, 2016 and has not further shared any loss of associate thereafter.

9. DISPOSAL OF SUBSIDIARIES AND DISCONTINUED OPERATION

In July 2016, the management of the Group resolved to dispose of its interests in Noblehigh Enterprises Inc. ("NEI") and its subsidiaries (together defined as "NEI Group") which operates trading and designing integrated circuits segment. Negotiations with interested parties had subsequently taken place and as part of the disposal plan, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement, pursuant to which Willas-Array Investments Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, agreed to acquire 40% interest in its existing 60%-owned subsidiary, NEI, from a third party, Success Advance Limited, at a nominal cash consideration of HK$1 on August 9, 2016. Immediately after the completion of the acquisition, NEI became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and the difference between the carrying amount of non-controlling interests and the fair value of consideration paid is recognised directly in "other reserve".

On November 4, 2016, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement to dispose of its entire interest in the NEI Group at a cash consideration of HK$900,000 to a third party (the "Disposal"). The Disposal was completed on November 4, 2016, on which date control of the NEI Group passed to the acquirer. The reason for the Disposal was that the Group can focus on core segments with more potential to grow.

The loss for the year from the discontinued trading and designing integrated circuits operations is set out below. The comparative figures in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income have been restated to re-present the trading and designing integrated circuits operations as a discontinued operation.

The Company had given corporate guarantees (unsecured) to its banks in respect of banking facilities granted to its subsidiaries. At March 31, 2017, the aggregate banking facilities granted to the subsidiaries were approximately HK$1,190,250,000 (2016: HK$1,289,875,000) of which HK$863,654,000 (2016: HK$804,170,000) was utilised and guaranteed by the Company.

At March 31, 2017, the Company had also given guarantees to certain suppliers in relation to the subsidiaries' settlement of the respective payables. The aggregate amounts payable to these suppliers under guarantee were approximately HK$327,078,000 (2016: HK$274,634,000).

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the Company had given corporate guarantees (unsecured) to its banks in respect of banking facilities granted to its associates. All of the financial guarantee contracts had been cancelled as at March 31, 2016 and no outstanding guarantees were given thereafter.

11. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES - continued

contracts at initial recognition Amortisation of financial liabilities	1,526 (2,256)
At end of the year for March 31, 2016

Financial guarantee contracts are initially recognised at fair value and calculated by using the default risk method for the banking facilities obtained by the associates. The fair values were based on certain key assumptions on credit strength of the borrowers and default rate. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group measures the financial guarantee contract at the higher of: (i) the amount of obligation under the contract, as determined in accordance with IAS 37; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised in accordance with the revenue recognition policy.

The allocation of leasehold land and building elements cannot be made reliably, hence the leasehold interests in land is accounted for as property, plant and equipment.

Fair value measurement of the Group's leasehold land and buildings

The Group's leasehold land and buildings are stated at their revalued amounts, being the fair value at the date of revaluation, less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses. The fair value measurements of the Group's leasehold land and buildings as at March 31, 2017 were performed by Assets Appraisal Limited (2016: Assets Appraisal Limited), independent valuer not connected with the Group, who have appropriate qualifications and recent experience in the fair value measurement of the properties in the relevant locations.

The fair value of the leasehold land and buildings was determined based on the direct comparison method that reflects recent transaction prices for similar properties, adjusted for difference in the location, view, floor area, lot size and age and condition of the properties under review.

Fair value measurement of the Group's leasehold land and buildings - continued

In estimating the fair value of the properties, the highest and best use of the properties is their current use.

Goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated, at acquisition, to the cash generating units ("CGUs") that are expected to benefit from that business combination. Goodwill of HK$8,142,000 has been allocated to ValenceTech Limited and its subsidiaries as a single CGU.

The Group tests goodwill annually for impairment, or more frequently if there are indications that goodwill might be impaired.

The recoverable amount of the CGU is determined based on value in use calculations. The key assumptions for the value in use calculations are those regarding the discount rates, growth rates and expected changes to the selling prices and direct costs during the year. Management estimates discount rates using pre-tax rates that reflect current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU. The growth rates are based on industry growth forecasts, changes in selling prices and direct costs are based on past practices and expectations of future changes in the market.

Due to uncertain global economic outlook, the Group revised the CGU's forecast and the estimated recoverable amount of the CGU was below its carrying amounts and goodwill was fully impaired in 2009. The goodwill was eliminated upon disposal of subsidiaries during the year ended March 31, 2017, the information are set out in Note 9.

23. DEFERRED TAX - continued

Under the new enterprise income tax law in the PRC and implementation regulations issued by the State Council, withholding tax at 10% or a lower treaty rate is imposed on dividends declared in respect of profits earned by the PRC subsidiary from January 1, 2008 onwards.

Under the Income Tax Act prescribed by the Ministry of Finance of Taiwan, dividends paid to non-resident shareholders shall be subject to withholding tax at a rate of 20%. Also, a 10% surtax is imposed on any current year earnings that remain undistributed by the end of the following year. The surtax paid limited to 5% (2016: 5%) can be used as a tax credit to offset against the future withholding tax payable upon dividend distribution under calculations prescribed under Article 61-1 of Enforcement Rules of Income Tax Act.

As the Group does not expect to distribute dividends out of the earnings from its Taiwan subsidiaries in the next twelve months from the end of the reporting period, it has accrued 10% surtax as at March 31, 2017 accordingly.

Deferred taxation has not been provided for in the consolidated financial statements in respect of temporary differences attributable to accumulated profits of the PRC and Taiwan subsidiaries amounting to approximately HK$7,943,000 (2016: HK$18,952,000) as the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

For the purposes of statement of financial position presentation, certain deferred tax assets and liabilities have been offset. The following is the analysis of the deferred tax balances for statement of financial position purposes:

Subject to the agreement by the tax authorities, at March 31, 2017, the Group has unutilised tax losses of approximately HK$40,833,000 (2016: HK$55,061,000) available for offset against future profits. No deferred tax asset has been recognised due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. Tax losses may be carried forward indefinitely subject to the conditions imposed by law including the retention of majority shareholders as defined.

At March 31, 2017, the Group has other deductible temporary difference of approximately HK$12,441,000 (2016: HK$14,314,000). No deferred tax asset has been recognised in relation to such deductible temporary difference as it is not probable that the deductible temporary differences can be utilised.

(b) Financial risk management policies and objectives

The Group is exposed to financial risks arising from its operations and the use of financial instruments. The key financial risks include foreign currency risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies and procedures for the management of these risks, which were executed by the treasury department. It is and has been throughout the year the Group's policy that no derivatives shall be undertaken except for the use as hedging instruments where appropriate and cost-efficient.

The Group uses derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to foreign currency risk and interest rate risk, including forward exchange contracts and interest rate swap contracts to reduce such exposures.

There has been no change to the Group's exposure to these financial risks or the manner in which it manages and measures the risk.

(i) Foreign exchange risk management

The Group transacts business in various foreign currencies, including United States dollars, Japanese yen ("YEN"), Chinese renminbi, Euro and Singapore dollars and therefore is exposed to foreign exchange risk.

At the end of the reporting period, the carrying amounts of monetary assets and monetary liabilities denominated in currencies other than the respective group entities' functional currencies are as follows:

	THE GROUP

Foreign currency sensitivity

The following table details the sensitivity to a 5% increase and decrease in the relevant foreign currencies against the functional currency of each Group entity. 5% is the sensitivities rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the possible change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the year end for a 5% change in foreign currency rates. The sensitivity analysis includes external loans where they gave rise to an impact on the Group's profit or loss.

If the relevant foreign currency weakens by 5% against the functional currency of each Group entity, post-tax profit for the year will increase (decrease) by:

	THE GROUP		THE CO	MPANY
	2017	2016	2017	2016

Chinese renminbi (iii)	(89)	(26)	_	_
Euro	1	_	_	_
Singapore dollars	(56)	(61)	(71)	(67)

If the relevant foreign currency strengthens by 5% against the functional currencies of each Group entity, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the profit after income tax.

Notes:

- (i) This is mainly attributable to the exposure on bank balances, trade receivables and payables as at year end. Since the HK$ remains closely pegged to United States dollar, the sensitivity analysis excludes the group entities with functional currencies denominated in HK$.
- (ii) This is mainly attributable to the exposure on bank balances, trade receivables and payables denominated in YEN as at end of the reporting period.
- (iii) This is mainly attributable to the exposure on bank balances denominated in Chinese renminbi as at end of the reporting period.

(ii) Interest rate risk management

Interest rate risk arises from the potential changes in interest rates that may have adverse effects on the Group's results. The interest rates and terms of repayment of the trust receipt loans and bank borrowings of the Group are disclosed in Notes 30 and 31 respectively.

The directors of the Company consider the Group's or the Company's exposure on bank deposits is not significant as the interest rates have no material fluctuation during the year.

Interest rate sensitivity

The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for variable-rate bank borrowings and trust receipt loans at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 50 basis point (2016: 50 basis points) increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

If interest rates had been 50 basis points (2016: 50 basis points) higher or lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's post-tax profit for the year ended March 31, 2017 would decrease or increase by HK$2,872,000 (2016: decrease or increase by HK$2,840,000).

(b) Financial risk management policies and objectives – continued

(iii) Credit risk management

As at March 31, 2017 and 2016, other than those financial assets whose carrying amounts best represent the maximum exposure to credit risk, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties and financial guarantees provided by the Group is arising from:

- the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position; and
- the amount of contingent liabilities in relation to financial guarantee issued by the Group as disclosed in Note 11.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the management reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade debt at the end of each reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The credit risk on liquid funds is limited because the counterparties are reputable banks.

Other than concentration of credit risk on liquid funds which are deposited with several reputable banks, the Group has concentration of credit risk as 6% and 4% of the total trade receivables were due from the Group's largest customer as at March 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

(iv) Liquidity risk management

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting its financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of committed credit facilities. The committed unutilised banking facilities made available to the Group are approximately HK$330 million (2016: HK$489 million).

The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of adequate banking facilities to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

Non-derivative financial liabilities

The following tables detail the remaining contractual maturity for non-derivative financial liabilities for the Company and the Group. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Company and the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, bank loans and trust receipt loans with a repayable on demand clause was included in the earliest time band regardless of the probability of banks choosing to exercise their rights. The maturity dates for other non-derivative financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

Taking into account the Group's financial position, the management does not believe that it is probable that the banks will exercise their discretionary rights to demand immediate repayment. Management believes that such bank loans will be repaid in accordance with the scheduled repayment dates set out in the loan agreement. At that time, the aggregate principal and interest cash outflow will amount to HK$886,178,000.

The amounts included above for financial guarantee contracts are the maximum amounts the Group could be required to settle under the arrangement for the full guaranteed amount if that amount is claimed by the counterparty to the guarantee. Based on expectations at the end of the reporting period, the Group considers that it is more likely than not that no amount will be payable under the arrangement. However, this estimate is subject to change depending on the probability of the counterparty claiming under the guarantee which is a function of the likelihood that the financial receivables held by the counterparty which are guaranteed suffer credit losses.

The amounts included above for variable interest rate instruments for non-derivative interest rates differ to those estimates of interest rates determined at the end of the reporting period.

Non-derivative financial assets

The Group and Company's financial liabilities are to be met by the maturity of financial assets that more than sufficiently cover the financial liabilities. The non-derivative financial assets are all due and receivable within one year except for long-term deposits of the Group as disclosed in Note 21, and are all non-interest bearing except for cash at bank and restricted bank deposits which bear interest as disclosed in Note 28.

This note provides information about how the Group determines fair values of various financial assets and financial liabilities.

Fair value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis

Some of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. The following table gives information about how the fair values of these financial assets and financial liabilities are determined (in particular, the valuation technique(s) and inputs used).

Financial assets/ financial liabilities	Fair valı	ue as at	Fair value hierarchy	Valuation technique(s) and key input(s)	Significant unobservable input(s)	Relationship of unobservable inputs to fair value

There were no transfer between Level 1 and 2 for the Group in the year.

The directors consider that the carrying amount of financial assets and liabilities recognised in the Company's and consolidated financial statements at amortised cost approximate their fair values.

Fair value measurements and valuation process

In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Group engages third party qualified valuers to perform the valuation or uses quoted forward exchange rates and yield curves derived from quoted exchange rates or interest rates matching maturities of the contracts at the end of the reporting period. The finance department of the Company works closely with the qualified external valuers to establish the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs to the model.

Information about the valuation techniques and inputs used in determining the fair value of various assets and liabilities are disclosed above.

(c) Capital management policies and objectives

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to stakeholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Group consists of net debt, which includes the borrowings disclosed in Notes 30 and 31, offset by cash and cash equivalents, restricted bank deposits and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising issued capital, reserves and accumulated profits as disclosed in the notes to consolidated financial statements. The Group is required to comply with bank covenants in loan agreements with banks.

The management reviews the capital structure on an ongoing basis. As a part of this review, the management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on the recommendations of the management, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new share issues and share buy-backs as well as the issue of new debt or the redemption of existing debt. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged throughout the year.
