NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL REPORT

1. Basis of Presentation

The unaudited interim financial report has been prepared in accordance with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, including compliance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard ("HKAS") 34, Interim Financial Reporting, issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"). It was authorised by the Board for issuance on 30 August 2017.

The financial information relating to the year ended 31 December 2016 that is included in the unaudited interim financial information as comparative information does not constitute the Company's statutory annual consolidated financial statements for that year but is derived from those financial statements. Further information relating to these statutory financial statements required to be disclosed in accordance with section 436 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance is as follows:

- The Company has delivered the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2016 to the Registrar of Companies as required by section 662(3) of, and Part 3 of Schedule 6 to, the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.
- The Company's auditor, Ernst & Young, has reported on those financial statements. The auditor's report was unqualified; did not include a reference to any matters to which the auditor drew attention by way of emphasis without qualifying its report; and did not contain a statement under sections 406(2), 407(2) or (3) of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The unaudited interim financial report has been prepared in accordance with the same accounting policies adopted in the 2016 annual financial statements, except for those described in note 2.

Classification of operating segment units under the Business Segment Analysis have been revised to conform to the latest business model of the Group. This classification is reported on the same basis as is used by management to analyse its business performance.

The comparative information of the above has been restated to conform to the current year's presentation.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL REPORT

2. Changes in Accounting Policies and Disclosure

The HKICPA has issued a number of revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), which are generally effective for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017.

The Group has adopted the following revised HKFRSs, for the first time for this interim period:

Amendments to HKAS 7	Disclosure Initiative
Amendments to HKAS 12	Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses

Amendments to HKAS 7 require an entity to provide disclosures that enable users of financial statements to evaluate changes in liabilities arising from financing activities, including both changes arising from cash flows and non-cash changes. The Group is not required to provide additional disclosure in its interim condensed consolidated financial statements, but will disclose additional information in its annual consolidated financial statements for the year ending 31 December 2017.

Amendments to HKAS 12 were issued with the purpose of addressing the recognition of deferred tax assets for unrealised losses related to debt instruments measured at fair value, although they also have a broader application for other situations. The amendments clarify that an entity, when assessing whether taxable profits will be available against which it can utilise a deductible temporary difference, needs to consider whether tax law restricts the sources of taxable profits against which it may make deductions on the reversal of that deductible temporary difference. Furthermore, the amendments provide guidance on how an entity should determine future taxable profits and explain the circumstances in which taxable profit may include the recovery of some assets for more than their carrying amount. The amendments do not have any material impact on the Group.

Notional amounts of these financial instruments provide a basis for comparison with instruments recognised in the condensed consolidated statement of financial position but do not necessarily indicate the amount of future cash flows involved or the current fair value of the instruments and, therefore, are not a representation of the Group's exposure to the credit or price risks.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL REPORT

24. Financial Instruments

Risk management is of fundamental importance to the business operation of the Group. The major types of risk inherent in the Group's business are credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, currency risk and equity price risk. The Group's risk management objective is to maximise shareholders' value and to reduce volatility in earnings while maintaining risk exposures within acceptable limits.

The Group's work in the area of risk management is led by the Chief Risk Officer and is executed by the Risk Management Department. This functional structure can assess, identify and document the Group's risk profile and to ensure that the business units focus, control and systematically avoid potential risks in various business areas. The following is a brief description of the Group's approach in managing these risks.

(a) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to advances to customers, trade and other receivables, debt investments and unlisted derivative financial instruments.

For advances to customers, the Group may require collateral from customers before advances are granted. The amount of advance permitted depends on the quality and value of collateral provided by the customer. Any subsequent change in value as well as quality of collateral is closely monitored in order to determine whether any corrective action is required.

24. Financial Instruments (continued)

Trade and other receivables mainly arise from the Group's investment activities. Receivables from brokers and counterparties are normally repayable on demand. The Group has established procedures in the selection of brokers/counterparties with sound credit ratings and/or reputation.

Investments in debt instruments and unlisted derivative financial instruments are also governed by whether the issuers and the trade counterparties respectively have sound credit ratings.

The Group has well defined policies in place on the setting and approval of trading, credit and investment position limits in order to manage its credit risk exposure and concentration. As at the end of the reporting period date, the Group did not have a significant concentration of credit risk.

The maximum exposure to credit risk without taking into account of any collateral held is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset, including derivative financial instruments, at the end of the reporting period deducting any impairment allowance.

24. Financial Instruments (continued)

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly assess current and expected liquidity requirements and to ensure that it maintains reserves of cash, readily realisable marketable securities and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

For subsidiaries with statutory liquidity requirements, the Group closely monitors their liquidity positions. To ensure strict compliance, the Group maintains adequate cash reserves to prepare for immediate fund injection if required. If there is a medium to long-term operational need, the management would also consider adjusting those subsidiaries' capital structure. Subsidiaries with external equity stakeholders are generally responsible for their own liquidity management.

(c) Interest rate risk

The Group monitors its interest rate exposure regularly to ensure that the underlying risk is monitored within an acceptable range.

The Group's interest rate positions arise from treasury and operating activities. Interest rate risk arises from treasury management, customer financing and investment portfolios. Interest rate risk primarily results from the timing differences in the repricing of interest-bearing assets, liabilities and commitments. Interest rate risk is managed by the Finance and Accounting Department under the delegated authority of the Board of Directors and is monitored by the Risk Management Department. The instruments used to manage interest rate risk include time deposits and interest rate linked derivatives, if necessary.

The Group is exposed to the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of its financial instruments will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. In respect of the Group's interest-bearing financial instruments, the Group's policy is to mainly transact in financial instruments that mature or reprice in the short to mid term. Accordingly, the Group would be subject to limited exposure to fair value or cash flow interest rate risk due to fluctuations in the prevailing levels of market interest rates.

(d) Currency risk

The Group's exposure to currency risk primarily stems from holdings of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, other than Hong Kong dollars and net investment in foreign operations. As most of the Group's monetary assets and liabilities and net investment in foreign operations are denominated in Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi, United States dollars and Singapore dollars, management is aware of the likely increase in volatility in these currencies and takes a balanced view when considering the management of currency risk.

Overall, the Group monitors its currency exposure closely and would consider hedging significant currency exposure should the need arise.

(e) Equity price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price changes arising from equity investments classified as trading securities (see note 15), available-for-sale securities (see note 11) and financial assets designated as fair value through profit or loss (see note 12). Other than unlisted securities held for medium to long-term strategic purposes, all of these investments are listed.

The Group's listed investments are mainly listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. Decisions to buy or sell trading securities rest with assigned investment team professionals and each investment portfolio is governed by specific investment and risk management guideline. Independent daily monitoring of each portfolio against the corresponding guideline is carried out by the Risk Management Department. Listed equity investments held in the available-for-sale securities and financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss portfolio have been chosen based on their medium to long-term growth potential and are monitored regularly for performance against expectations.

The performance of the Group's investments in unquoted equity instruments is assessed periodically, based on the information available to the Group.

25. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value hierarchy

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

- Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date
- Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available
- Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs

The Group uses a professional independent valuers to perform valuations of certain financial instruments, including available-for-sale equity securities and financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss which are categorised into Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The professional valuer reports directly to the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Risk Officer and the Audit and Risk Management Committee. Valuation reports with analysis of changes in fair value measurement are prepared by the professional valuers at each interim and annual reporting date, and are reviewed and approved by the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Risk Officer and the Audit and Risk Management Committee. Discussion of the valuation process and results with the Chief Financial Officer and the Audit and Risk Management Committee is held twice a year to coincide with the reporting dates.

In addition to the above valuer, the Group also takes reference to the valuation reports performed by other professional valuers to ascertain the fair values of certain investments with underlying interests in real estate investment and some other private equity investments.

Valuation techniques and inputs used in Level 2 fair value measurements

The fair value of listed and unlisted debt securities and derivatives in Level 2 is determined using broker quotes. The fair value of an unlisted investment fund in Level 2 is determined by the net asset value of the investment fund.

Information about Level 3 fair value measurements

As at 30 June 2017

Valuation techniques	Significant unobservable inputs	Range	Relationship of unobservable inputs to the fair value
Market comparable companies	Discount for lack of marketability	20% to 30%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value
	Market multiples	1.2 to 58.2	The higher the multiples, the higher the fair value
Binomial model and equity allocation model	Discount rate	3.96% to 18.52%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value
	Volatility	27.00% to 65.52%	The higher the volatility, the higher the fair value
Discounted transaction price	Control premium	20%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value

Remark: The above sensitivity analysis is related to the Level 3 financial instruments recorded in available-for-sale securities and financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss.

25. Fair Value of Financial Instruments (continued) Information about Level 3 fair value measurements (continued)

As at 31 December 2016

Valuation techniques	Significant unobservable inputs	Range	Relationship of unobservable inputs to the fair value
Market comparable companies	Discount for lack of marketability	20% to 30%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value
	Market multiples	2.2 to 43.9	The higher the multiples, the higher the fair value
Binomial model and equity allocation model	Discount rate	4.27% to 18.56%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value
	Volatility	35.23% to 96.50%	The higher the volatility, the higher the fair value
Discounted transaction price	Control premium	20%	The higher the discount, the lower the fair value

The fair value of unquoted equity investments is estimated using an appropriate combination of:

- (1) making reference to capital statements, management information and valuation reports provided by third parties,
- (2) deducing from prices recently paid for similar assets, quoted market prices in active markets and the financial indicators of the transacted assets such as net book value and net operating profit; and
- (3) applying, if possible, price to earnings ("P/E") ratios, price to book ("P/B") ratios, enterprise value to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation ("EV/EBITDA") ratios and enterprise value to sales ("EV/Sales") ratios for similar listed companies adjusted to reflect the specific circumstances of the investments.

The Group has certain shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and Shenzhen Stock Exchange, which are subject to restriction on sales for defined periods. The fair value measurement reflected the effect of such restriction with an adjustment to the quoted price of otherwise similar but unrestricted securities.

The fair value of convertible notes is estimated discounting future cash flows. Future cash flows are estimated based on management's best estimate of the amount it would receive or pay to terminate the contract at the end of the reporting period taking into account current market conditions. The discount rate used is a market rate for a similar instrument at the end of the reporting period. The fair value of an option contract is determined by applying an option valuation model such as the Black-Scholes valuation model. Inputs are based on market related data at the end of the reporting period.

As at 31 December 2016, available-for-sale securities with a fair value of HK$431,545,000 was previously valued using an unadjusted quoted price in the active market. As an unadjusted quoted price is no longer available in the active market and unobservable inputs were applied to the valuation technique, accordingly the investments were transferred from Level 1 to Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy in 2016.

INDEPENDENT REVIEW REPORT

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Review Engagements 2410, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with HKAS 34.

OVERVIEW OF THE FIRST HALF OF 2017

Review of the Macroeconomic Situation

In the first half of 2017, the global economy performed positively on the whole. The US recorded impressive economic numbers underlined by robust GDP growth and labour market figures, while the American stock market continued to scale new highs amid bullish sentiment. However, the weakness of the greenback reflected market concerns about White House policy uncertainties. The Eurozone was in full recovery, showing stronger-than-expected growth in a number of key economic indicators and outperforming the US in overall terms. The Bank of Japan carried monetary easing to the extreme, moving from QE to QQE and then QQE with negative interest rates, but there was no significant improvement in inflation rate as the Japanese economy continued to reel under heavy pressure.

During the period under review, China turned in a better-than-expected economic performance. In addition, the mainland and Hong Kong stock markets both saw strong rallies with economic performances expected to stabilise in the short term. Together, these represented initial signs that China's structural reforms, especially those related to urbanisation, were beginning to stimulate domestic demand. They also pointed to the continued support of China's manufacturing sector from a massive domestic market and the strengths of the country's supply chain clusters. While the policy initiatives proposed at the recent National Financial Work Conference to strengthen regulation and deleveraging may have a near-term impact on part of the financial service industry, they will produce greater benefits in terms of market regulation and driving capital into the real economy.

At China Everbright Limited, we are committed to applying our global vision to serve the needs of Chinese corporations, exploring sound investment opportunities at an international level and developing asset allocation capabilities across a range of locations and investment horizons. Backed by the strength of our professional investment and fund management system, we seek to generate positive returns for our shareholders and investors by building portfolios tailored to different phases of economic cycles. In the period under review, our investments in the US and Europe performed commendably, benefiting from improving market conditions overseas. The gradual improvement in standards and regulations for China's financial market systems has helped us achieve breakthroughs in fundraising scale and project investment size, among other aspects.

OVERVIEW OF THE FIRST HALF OF 2017

Milestones in the first half of 2017

In the first half of 2017, CEL's direct operating businesses maintained stable development and achieved a number of breakthroughs:

1. Reached the HKD100 billion mark in fundraising for fund management business

During the first half of 2017, Everbright Overseas Infrastructure Investment Fund completed their formations and first closings. Meanwhile the primary market fund management teams at CEL Global Investment Fund and EBA Investments completed the establishment of new funds, and the fundraising scale for secondary market open-end funds scaled up further. As a result of concerted efforts made by different fund management teams in driving business growth, CEL's total fundraising scale officially topped the HK$100 billion mark, achieving 22 % growth from the end of 2016 to reach HK$ 106.6 billion.

2. Established cooperation with mainland China's leading joint-stock bank

During the reporting period, CEL and China Merchants Bank jointly set up an RMB5 billion Everbright-CMB Multi-strategy Equity Investment Fund. This cooperative venture brings together China Everbright Limited's diverse fund platforms and China Merchants Bank's strong capital resources and rich asset management experience, demonstrating once again CEL's ability to meet the demand for one-stop financial services among mainland China's major organisations.

Milestones in the first half of 2017 (continued)

3. Strengthened the Group's capabilities in industry-finance integration to further consolidate its platform

CEL is committed to an investment philosophy focusing on industry-finance integration, uplifting its value investment and raising its level of capital employment. During the reporting period, CEL acquired equity interest in Jiabao Group (SH: 600622) by raising its stake in the company to 24.33%. This example of industry-finance integration demonstrates the Group's confidence in the prospects of EBA Investments' real estate business. It also bolsters the team's strong capabilities in asset management, and implements the integration of Jiabao Group and EBA Investment with emphasis on asset-light business models. Meanwhile CEL maintained its stake in China Aircraft Leasing Company ("CALC"), helping it acquire 100% of Universal Asset Management ("UAM") through a general offer as well as complete the agreement to purchase 50 new airplanes from the Boeing 737 MAX family. Through these efforts, the Group is guiding CALC to systematically develop its industry-finance integration capabilities.

During the reporting period, CEL not only consolidated its full value chain capabilities in real estate, aircraft leasing and other sectors where it seeks strong expansion, but also optimised its internal structure. Through measures such as strengthening central management and consolidating the sales functions of funds, CEL has also fortified the development of its platform.

1. Fund Management Business (continued)

(1) Primary Market Funds

As at 30 June 2017, Primary Market Funds had raised a total of HK$78.3 billion, an increase of 21% over the previous year. Currently, The Funds have invested in and are holding 96 post-investment management projects with a total fair value estimated at HK$62.3 billion.

CEL is now among China's top private equity firms in the primary market, with its investors ranging from institutions like joint-stock commercial banks, corporations, investment companies, trusts and asset managers, providing increasingly solid and diversified source of funding. Armed with competitive advantages in fund raising, investment, management and divestment, CEL's fund management team continues to strive for perfection in each of these areas.

Fundraising: Using a diversified fund structure, CEL has developed a comprehensive portfolio of funds independently set up by sector and investment stage. On one hand, the fund team leverages the flexibility of CEL's strong capital resources to help it expand its fundraising scale, while on the other hand it explores synergies with domestic and overseas investors based on its insight into investee projects, which are appropriately distributed in such a manner as to enhance the fee structures and levels of its funds.

In the first half of 2017, Everbright Overseas Infrastructure Investment Fund completed their formations and first closings. Meanwhile the primary market fund management teams at CEL Global Investment Fund and EBA Investments completed the establishment of new funds. In this process, the Group successfully completed the establishment of the new funds by leveraging the flexibility of its seed capital, financing projects by injecting its warehouse projects and targeting specific projects with non-directional funds.

Investment: Building on its strong platform, CEL consistently provides investment teams with its full support to enhance their ability to identify value and understand risks at a micro level. In the initial stage of a project, investment teams work with world-leading consultancies and increase investment in R&D while improving product and value creation capabilities. In this way, the Group successfully secure investment for quality projects through more efficient utilisation of capital, stronger execution and more effective deal-making skills, even when competing with top-notch international private equity firms.

During the reporting period, CEL successfully secured investment from iQIYI, NextEV, Mi-Me and other leaders in their respective fields, venturing into mobile video, new energy cars and online payment amongst other sectors. It also helped MLS complete the cross-border acquisition of Germany-based OSRAM's lighting business, demonstrating its strong capability to execute overseas acquisitions that address the needs of Chinese corporations. In addition, it assisted IDG Capital in the acquisition of International Data Group (IDG), showing its strong capital operational capability. The completion of these investments has further optimised CEL's investment plans and raised the Group's profile in a number of different sectors.

Post-investment Management: As its teams broaden their scope of investment, CEL is attaching ever-greater importance to controlling core elements of the post-investment management process, as well as continuing to create added value for investees through orderly post-investment management.

In the first half of 2017, the EBA Investments emphasised on further expanding its AUM and covering more industry chains and cities. Meanwhile, it paid even more attention on post-investment management, through continued efforts (upgrade, transform, develop, operate) on its holding property (including but not limited to commercial malls, office buildings, park properties, etc.), to enhance the rental income and effectively enhanced the value of the assets. As an asset manager, the EBA Investments exports its brand and charges management fees. As at June 2017, EBA managed 800,000 square meters of commercial property under its own brand, "IMIX", covering several tier-one and tier-two cities in China.

Divestment: CEL has benefited from unobstructed exit channels for its investments by taking an increasingly diversified approach to divestment. In addition to traditional IPOs (including listed on the New Third Board), the Group has successfully exited projects through M&A, equity transfer, stock repurchase and other means. As far as newly emerging exit options (e.g. through the asset securitisation market) are concerned, the team is working hard to stay ahead of the game and take hold of standard-setting rights and pricing power in related sectors.

New Energy Funds and Medical and Healthcare Fund contributed to the listing of Hengrun Heavy Industries on the Shanghai Stock Exchange in May 2017 and BGI Genomics on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange in July 2017. At the same time, the Group divested from several projects through M&A, bulk transactions and open market. In addition, the EBA Investments is striving to expand REITs business amid renewed efforts by the regulatory authorities to encourage REITs development, further demonstrating the all-round and multi-strategy strengths of EBA's comprehensive platform.

1. Fund Management Business (continued)

(2) Secondary Market

As at 30 June 2017, CEL Secondary Market managed a total of 16 funds and managed accounts, with AUM of HK$12.4 billion, up 15% from last year. In addition, approximately HK$2.4 billion in funds raised by Everbright Prestige are also managed by the Secondary Market Team as sub-advisor.

During the reporting period, Secondary Market Teams received numerous awards and recognition. In June 2017, Secondary Market Teams received three Overseas Golden Bull awards in Three-Year Overseas Golden Bull Private Manager (Fixed Income) category; One-Year Overseas Golden Bull Investment Manager (Long-Only Equity) category, awarded to Mr. Keith Wu; and One-Year Overseas Golden Bull Investment Manager (Fixed Income) category, which was awarded to both Mr. Will Chung and Mr. Girish Kumarguru. In addition, our flagship fixed income product, Everbright Dynamic Bond Fund was nominated by Investor Choice Award for “Best Emerging Market Credit Fund” earlier this Year. As flagship products continue to deliver outstanding performance, the Secondary Market business continues to grow in size.

As of June 30th, Everbright Dynamic Bond Fund delivered solid performance. Within the reporting period, the fund achieved +6.85% return, net of fees, for regular share class; +5.82% net return for preferred share class and +10.25% net return for subordinate share class. The team continues to fundraise externally. As of June 30th, 2017, the fund has grown to USD238 million, up 10.17% in assets under management as the Group’s largest open-end fund. In addition, Fixed Income Team continues to work with CALC and are in talk for developing new projects.

At the same time, our flagship equity product, Everbright China Focus Fund deliver +5.69% net return during the reporting period. Due to joint efforts from investment team and sales team, Secondary Market was able to raise RMB200 million in the first half of 2017 in Connect Scheme themed product, further increasing Secondary Market’s overall assets under management.

1. Fund Management Business (continued)

(3) Everbright Prestige

In the first half of 2017, the Mainland banking and insurance industries, bound by deleveraging policy, were subject to target-based supervision and investment restrictions. Meanwhile, Everbright Prestige rigorously implemented the net capital management measures imposed by the CSRC on asset management companies. These somewhat affected the funding sources of Everbright Prestige's quasi-trust and financial market businesses, and as a result, Everbright Prestige's business experienced a slow down. As at 30 June 2017, the scale of Everbright Prestige was downsized to RMB104.4 billion, representing a 12% decrease compared with the end of 2016. However, Everbright Prestige still recorded a growth in income and net profit. For the six months period ended 30 June 2017, it posted operating income of RMB146 million and after-tax profit of RMB56 million, presenting a year-on-year increase of 68% and 311% respectively.

Against the afore-mentioned backdrop of macro-environmental changes, and with bold understanding of regulatory direction, Everbright Prestige put asset allocation and service at the centre of its business operations. By further re-orienting its business focus and staffing structure, Everbright Prestige sought to cut back gradually on staff and resource investments in its financial market and channel businesses. At the same time, the company fully leveraged its product design and asset allocation capabilities to undertake more operational services contracts in support of its transformation.

During the reporting period, Everbright Prestige received recognition for its own business development, winning a string of accolades including China's Leading Asset Management Company 2017 and China's Wealth Management Firm Prime Leadership Award 2017.

1. Fund Management Business (continued)

(4) Multi-strategy Alternative Investment Fund (FoF Fund)

CEL's FoF Fund can help major institutional investors access different markets, cycles and industries and alleviate the impact of market volatilities on their investment portfolios. During the reporting period, CEL set up with China Merchants Bank a new FoF fund with an RMB5 billion investment — CEL-CMB Multi-strategy Equity Investment Fund. The new fund had already successfully made its first direct equity investment in a RMB500 million project in July, demonstrating once again CEL's capability to provide one-stop financial services for major institutions.

As at 30 June 2017, FoF Fund raised a cumulative total of HK$11.4 billion, up 102% year on year. It completed investment in 4 projects, involving a total investment of RMB1.8 billion. CEL is continuing to explore cooperative opportunities with major domestic financial institutions.

2. Principal Investment Business

As at 30 June 2017, CEL's principal investment business was valued at HK$22.7 billion. The Group posted a pre-tax profit of HK$1,193 million, up 89% from the same period last year. Interest income reached HK$102 million, up 28% year on year, while dividend income increased 26% to HK$53 million. In respect of investment returns, CEL successfully exited several mature projects, realising a capital gain of HK$1,111 million, up 531% from the same period last year.

Income of principal investment (classified by nature of income)	First half of 2017 (HK$ million)	First half of 2016 (HK$ million)	Change

Dividend income	53	42	26%

Unrealised gain/(loss)	(40)	340	N/A
Share of CALC's results as an associate	84	85	-1%

CEL's principal investment business has a presence in the following areas:

Category	Share
Structured finance	29%
Strategic industry investment	28%
Primary market investment	16%
Fund incubator	11%
Secondary market investment	9%
Investment in third-party funds	7%

2. Principal Investment Business (continued)

Capitalising on its cross-border platforms and the strength of its own capital resources, CEL is focused on four areas of capital deployment, giving the Group's business development strategy the competitive advantage of differentiation.

(I) Fund incubator

CEL is well placed as a fund incubator. By providing initial project reserves from its own capital, CEL is able to establish a fund's investment direction, giving confidence to external investors and laying the foundation for the Group to incubate a well-structured, reasonably priced fund product.

In July 2017, CEL injected its 100% equity interest in Tirana International Airport, a project financed with its own capital, into CEL Overseas Infrastructure Fund. It also helped the fund close its first round of financing for US$300 million. At the same time, CEL continued to develop and expand Beijing Huichen Elderly Care's business operations while building project reserves for the upcoming Senior Healthcare Investment Fund.

(II) Direct investing and co-investing

CEL's exceptional financing capability and visionary investment philosophy provide the Group with the flexibility to pursue investment opportunities. In the event that a fund is subject to restrictions (such as limits on risk concentration, investment direction or financing rounds), the Group can utilise its own capital to invest or co-invest directly with a fund team to create synergy and capture investment opportunities of quality and scale.

During the reporting period, CEL, through its own investment, participated in IDG Capital's acquisition of International Data Group (IDG), demonstrating its strong capital operational capabilities and providing the opportunity to benefit from the project's future growth.

(III) Long-term industry investment

CEL leverages its own capital to explore strategic industry investments that offer tremendous market potential and long-term growth prospects. By integrating investee businesses into its fund management operations, the Group can also generate stable returns on investment for the company and its shareholders.

At the end of reporting period, CEL remained the single largest shareholder and held a 33.6% equity interest in China Aircraft Leasing Group Holdings Limited ("CALC"), sharing in a HK$84 million profit contribution. As part of this long-term incubation project, the Group was involved in the general offer by Aircraft Recycling International Limited ("ARI"), a member company of CALC, to acquire 100% of Universal Asset Management ("UAM"), a world-leading provider of global aviation solutions. The Group also supported CALC's multiple issues of senior unsecured bonds and helped it complete an agreement to purchase 50 new airplanes from the Boeing 737 MAX family. These efforts have contributed to CALC's ongoing transformation from a leading aircraft leasing company in China to an important participant in the global aviation industry value chain. In another development, CALC sold the finance lease receivables on 10 airplanes in the first half of 2017 as part of its recurrent business, optimising its equity and debt financing arrangements and benefiting from positive interaction with CEL's fixed income team.

(IV) Liquidity

CEL's own capital performs the function of balancing the company's liquidity with its overall income. The Group subjects itself to rigorous risk control and uses a variety of financial instruments to manage the long-, short- and medium-term allocations and industry concentrations of its capital and optimise cash flow.

3. Strategic Investment

(1) Everbright Securities

As at 30 June 2017, the Group held 1.14 billion shares of Everbright Securities Company Limited (“Everbright Securities”), which represents a 24.71% stake in the associated company relative to its book value of HK$13.6 billion. At the same date, Everbright Securities had a market capitalisation of HK$19.3 billion.

For the first half of 2017, Everbright Securities’ A-share brokerage business underperformed along with the overall industry as the share and fund transaction values recorded by the top 100 securities companies showed a general year-on-year decline. As a result, the Group’s share of Everbright Securities profit dropped 34% year on year to HK$346 million.

(2) Everbright Bank

As at 30 June 2017, the Group held 1.57 billion shares of Everbright Bank Company Limited (“Everbright Bank”), representing a 3.37% stake with a fair value of HK$7.2 billion. During the reporting period, Everbright Bank improved its tier-one capital adequacy ratio by reducing its dividend payout ratio from 30.16% to 15.56%. Dividends (after tax) received by the Group from Everbright Bank decreased 50% year on year to HK$157 million.

OUTLOOK

In the second half of 2017, there will be general signs of growing optimism in the financial market. However, the presence of various “grey rhinos” – such as the impact on global liquidity of the Fed’s tapering move to raise interest rates, the European Central Bank’s probable announcement to cut back on its QE programme, the pressure faced by the Bank of Japan to tighten monetary policy, and the potential drag on asset prices caused by China’s monetary and credit tightening – merit our vigilance.

These macroeconomic uncertainties will continue to drive demand for asset management expertise and the trend toward differentiation that is already underway in the industry. Quality asset managers with proven track records and strong integrated capabilities stand to benefit from the growing opportunities accorded by these developments. As a leading asset management and investment company, CEL will focus on expanding the coverage of its fund products while striving to build a closed-loop ecosystem by developing its full-value-chain capabilities in sectors where it is committed to building a deep presence. At the same time, the Group will work to strengthen its platform, building an unsurpassed suite of core competences and growing its fund management business.

Finally but importantly, on the occasion of CEL’s 20th anniversary, we will continue to advance our proposition of “Global Vision, China Insight, Hong Kong Base” to generate sustainable growth for our shareholders and investors.
