8. Shareholders should be made aware of the role of the Auditor and the limitations and its role at the above meeting:
 - (a) The auditor conducts an audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAAs").
 - (b) The auditor is not responsible for the preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view. This is the responsibility of those charged with governance.
 - (c) The auditor provides reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the financial statements taken as a whole are free from material misstatement.
 - (d) The objective of an audit of financial statements is to enable the auditor to express an opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, such as Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, and the disclosure requirements of Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.
 - (e) The audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
 - (f) The auditor determines the procedures required to conduct an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, having regard to the requirements of these Standards.

- (g) The auditor exercises professional judgement in selecting audit procedures to be performed. Audit procedures include the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements whether due to fraud or error. In making such risk assessments, the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.
- (h) The auditor's report does not provide assurance in relation to individual elements of the financial statements, or other aspects of operations such as the adequacy of the company's systems of internal control or the selection of accounting policies.
- (i) The responsibility for safeguarding assets and for prevention and detection of fraud, error and non-compliance with laws or regulations rests with the directors and those charged with governance. An auditor should not be relied upon to disclose all material misstatements or frauds, errors or instances of non-compliance with laws or regulations.
- (j) The purpose of communicating key audit matters ("KAMs") in the auditor's report is to enhance the communicative value of the auditor's report by providing greater transparency about the audit that was performed. Communicating this information to intended users is to assist them in understanding those matters that, in the auditor's professional judgement, were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period. Communicating key audit matters may also assist intended users in understanding the entity and areas of significant management judgement in the audited financial statements. The KAMs were addressed in the context of the audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming an opinion thereon, and the auditor does not provide a separate opinion on these matters.
- (k) The auditor's responsibility under HKSA 720 (Revised), The Auditor's Responsibilities Relating to Other Information is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or the auditor's knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. The auditor's responsibilities under HKSA 720 (Revised), do not constitute an assurance engagement on other information or impose an obligation on the auditor to obtain assurance about the other information.
- (l) The auditor's report, including the opinion, has been prepared for and only for shareholders, as a body, in accordance with Section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for no other purpose. The auditor does not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of the auditor's report. Notwithstanding any answers the auditor gives or statements the auditor makes at the above meeting, the auditor shall not have any liability, responsibility or duty of care towards any individual shareholder or third parties.
