Corporate Structure

As at 31 December 2017

RESULTS

The Group's revenue for the year ended 31 December 2017 decreased by 15% to HK$383.5 million (2016 – HK$452.2 million) and the Group's loss attributable to owners of the Company increased to HK$133.6 million (2016 – HK$100.6 million), representing an increase of 33%.

Loss per Share was HK10.71 cents per Share (2016 – HK8.06 cents per Share) based on the weighted average number of 1,248 million Shares (2016 – 1,248 million Shares) in issue during the year. There was no potential dilutive share for the year ended 31 December 2017.

The increase in loss attributable to owners of the Company in 2017 was mainly attributable to decrease in gross profit and increase in administrative expenses as a result of the impairment allowance of property, plant and equipment.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Sales analysis

A) Distributorship

Though the decrease in revenue in the year attributed to unsatisfactory sales performance in the nationwide supermarket channel which is one of main off-trade channels of the Group, the Group continued implementing a reform on its sales and distribution model intending to improve the operational efficiency of the Group. Reform measures included, among other things, (i) co-operation with distributors to strengthen the control on retail price; (ii) enhancement in the effective management in monitoring and controlling sales and marketing expenses; and (iii) streamlining of the existing multi-layered sales and distribution system so as to strengthen the Group's direct control over the sales channels, thereby enhancing efficiency and effectiveness.

The total number of bottles of wine sold decreased from approximately 20.7 million in 2016 to approximately 18.9 million. Sales of red wines continued to be the Group's primary revenue contributor accounted for approximately 71% of the Group's revenue for the year (2016 – 79%).

The Group produces a wide range of more than 100 wine products under the "Dynasty" brand to meet the demands and preferences of different consumer groups mainly in the low to medium end segments in the PRC wine market. With effective product strategies and a high quality and diversified product portfolio, the Group firmly believes that the "Dynasty" brand is able to attract savvy consumers. Moreover, the Group also sold foreign branded wines mainly imported from France, Italy, Germany, the United States of America, New Zealand, Australia, Chile and Spain in the PRC wine market through the Group's existing distribution network to introduce some classic "old world" and "new world" varietals to cater for a market niche preferring the taste of foreign premium wines. The Group currently carries about 200 imported products under approximately 80 brands. The Group believe that with the trend of increasing wealth and the disposable income of consumers, the demand for Dynasty and imported wines should increase. To boost its market share and sustain its growth, the Group is determined to continue to actively promote and raise the visibility of these wines to the market.

B) Retail shops

To cater for different needs and preferences of the customers, the Group as at 31 December 2017 had 120 franchised retail shops across various provinces and cities in the PRC, selling a variety of Dynasty wines and imported wines to customers directly. The sales contribution from the retail shops was relatively insignificant to the Group's revenue during the year. However, the Group believed that through these sales channels and our network we can attract more people to embrace the grape wine culture and lead the trend of rising wine consumption. At the same time the Group could also expand its sales presence, extend its market influence and bring greater awareness to the brand because retail shops are amongst the best vehicles to communicate our brand image and message, and to enhance customers' experience of buying and drinking wines. We have strategically planned to develop our franchised retail shops through a disciplined growth strategy to develop the number of similar establishments in appropriate locations. We closed our smaller and less efficient retail shops. During the year under review, 120 franchised retail shops were in operation by the end of the year.

The following table sets out the number of franchised retail shops by regions as at 31 December 2017:

Number of franchised retail shops
65 26 1 4

C) Online sales

The Group has operated its online stores on the online platforms, Tmall (天貓商城) and JD.com (京東商城) to further expand its sales channels and develop a new customer base. Customers can place orders via the internet at these websites for Dynasty wines or the imported wines the Group carry anywhere and anytime. Although the online sales contribution was insignificant during the year, the Group is optimistic about the prospects of the business as research indicates that online trading business in the PRC should grow steadily in the coming years and the country has the world's largest number of internet users. The Group believes that the online platform not only serves as a business-to-customer trading platform between Dynasty and consumers, but also an additional marketing and promotion channel for the brand. Thus, the platform should enhance the overall business potential of the Group because growth in online sales channels will be further exploited internationally following successful e-commerce model overseas.

Supplies of grapes or grape juice

Production of quality wines greatly depends on a sufficient supply of quality grapes or grape juice. Currently, the Group has more than 10 major grape juice suppliers with whom it has enjoyed long-term relationships, mainly located in Tianjin, Shandong, Hebei, Ningxia and Xinjiang. Ensuring reliable supplies of quality grapes and grape juices to meet the production needs of its growing business as well as its expanded production capacity is a high priority of the Group. Thus, the Group continues to actively work with vignerons to enlarge their existing vineyards in order to enjoy better economies of scale and equip their vineyards with state-of-the-art techniques for assuring quality. For super and ultra premium wines, vignerons have adopted a disciplined approach to limiting harvest yields in order to deliver higher quality grape. For optimising supply networks, the Group has also kept identifying new suppliers who comply with its quality requirements and the Group conducts thorough tests on their grape juices before orders are placed. These procedures ensure the Group procure quality grape and grape juice supplies and also minimise the effect of bad harvests interrupting production. The Group has imported grape juices from overseas, applying the same stringent quality requirements as it has on suppliers in the PRC.

Production capacity

In 2017, the Group has production and research and development facilities in its Tianjin winery with its annual production capacity to 70,000 tonnes (equivalent to approximately 93.3 million bottles).

After completion of the Disposal, the Group's annual production capacity is expected to decrease from 70,000 tonnes to 50,000 tonnes. Such expected capacity is sufficient for the Group to promptly response to the market demand and provide a platform for sustainable earnings growth.

Outlook

2018 will be a reform year for Dynasty. Looking ahead to 2018, with the appointment of new management effective from 1 January 2018, we will continue to improve our organisational structure, cooperate with distributors, enhance our professionalism in our business management and place focused efforts on enhancing efficiency in order to steadily improve the Group's operating results. Leveraging on the experience in the wine industry, the Group will continue to intensify the reform and explore new sales channels, which will provide a solid foundation for sustainable development in the future.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

Revenue of the Group represents proceeds from sale of wine products. The Group's total revenue decreased by 15% to approximately HK$383.5 million in 2017 from approximately HK$452.2 million in 2016. The decrease in revenue was mainly attributable to (1) unsatisfactory sales performance in the nationwide supermarket channel which is one of main off-trade channels of the Group and (2) impact of imported wines especially low to medium end imported wines which grab the market shares of domestic wines.

The Group's average ex-winery sales price of red and white wine products during the year was lower than the average price of HK$21.8 per bottle (750ml) in 2016 as a result of the shift in sales mix to low-to-medium end products. Since consumers in the PRC have a preference for red wines, the Group was able to set higher prices for its red wine products and therefore the average ex-winery sales price of the Group's red wines was generally higher than that of its white wines.

Cost of sales

The following table sets forth the major components of the cost of sales (before impact of impairment allowance of in inventories) for the year:

	2017	2016
Cost of raw materials
 Grapes and grape juice 	43	44
- Yeast and additives	2	2
 Packaging materials 	20	20
- Others	1	1
Total cost of raw materials	66	67
Manufacturing overheads	24	21
Consumption tax and other taxes	10	12
Total cost of sales	100	100

The principal raw materials required by the Group in producing wine products are grapes, grape juice, yeast and additives as well as packaging materials including bottles, bottle caps, labels, corks and packing boxes. During the year, the cost of grapes and grape juice was the key component of cost of sales and accounted for approximately 43% of the Group's total cost of sales, and remained similar during the year as compared with 2016.

Manufacturing overheads primarily consist of depreciation, rental of property, plant and equipment, supplies, utilities, repair and maintenance expenses, salaries and related personnel expenses for the production and related departments and other incidental expenses in relation to production. During the year, manufacturing overheads as a percentage of cost of sales increased by 3% as compared with 2016 mainly as a result of the increase in repair and maintenance expenses.

Gross profit margin

Margin is calculated based on cost of sales inclusive of consumption tax and gross invoiced sales. The overall gross profit margin mildly increased to 26% in 2017 from 25% in 2016, mainly as a result of improvement of gross profit margin netting off with the increase in impact of the impairment allowance provided for inventories.

The gross margin of red wine products and white wine products in 2017 were 24% and 30% respectively (2016 – 24% and 29% respectively).

Other income, gains and losses – net

Other income, gains and losses mainly comprises write-off of long-aged trade and other payables, government subsidies relating to talent training and enterprise development, service fee income and stock loss.

Other income, gains and losses for the year ended 31 December 2017 changed to loss of HK$4.7 million (2016 – gain of HK$2.3 million), mainly due to stock loss of HK$7.2 million.

As detailed in the Company's public announcement dated 8 August 2018 (the "Announcement"), a subsidiary of the Company (the "Subsidiary") (as the plaintiff) filed a civil claim against a distributor which bypassed the established procedures and took the Group's inventories of finished goods with estimated sales values of HK$16,111,000 and costs of HK$7,182,000 (the "Lost Inventories"). The Announcement has also revealed that part of the Lost Inventories with estimated sales values of HK$8,013,000 and costs of HK$2,834,000 were deemed under a bill-and-hold arrangement with another single distributor connected with matters disclosed in the Company's Announcement (the "Bill-and-Hold Arrangement"). The Bill-and-Hold Arrangement referred to the arrangement between the Company and this single distributor for temporary inventory storage in the warehouse leased by the Subsidiary due to demolition of the warehouse of this single distributor. The audit committee of the Company conducted an independent investigation with the assistance of its legal adviser and a professional third party (the "Investigation") on the above case to understand and obtain evidence on how these incidents occurred, evaluate its impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements based on the findings.

After the Investigation, the Directors of the Company are of the view that the controls, risks and rewards associated with the inventories under the Bill-and-Hold Arrangement had not yet been transferred out of the Group and therefore no revenue was recognised by the Group in respect of these inventories during the year ended 31 December 2017. Based on the results of the Investigation, the Group has recognised a full impairment allowance against the Lost Inventories of HK$7,182,000 in the year ended 31 December 2017.

Distribution costs

Distribution costs principally include advertising and market promotion expenses, transportation and delivery charges in connection with the sales of grape wine products, salaries and related personnel expenses of the sales and marketing functions and other incidental expenses. During the year, distribution costs accounted for approximately 29% (2016 - 28%) of the Group's revenue remained steady. In particular, the advertising and market promotion expenses accounted for approximately 4% (2016 - 6%) of the Group's revenue. During the year, the Group continued to promote and market its brand and products effectively through a range of joint promotions with local distributors, print and outdoor advertisements, wine dinners, wine tasting events, digital communication, event sponsorships and exhibitions. The Group will ensure that our promotional strategy is responsive to market dynamics and competition.

Administrative expenses

Administrative expenses comprise salaries and related personnel expenses for administrative, finance and human resources departments, depreciation and amortisation expenses, impairment allowance and other incidental administrative expenses.

During the year, administrative expenses as a percentage of the Group's revenue accounted for 30% (2016 – 19%). This percentage increased mainly because of increase in impairment allowance of trade and other receivables and property, plant and equipment during the year.

Income tax expense

Under the current laws of the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands ("BVI"), neither the Company nor its subsidiaries incorporated in the BVI is subject to tax on its income or capital gains. In addition, any payment of dividends by them is not subject to withholding tax under those jurisdictions.

Pursuant to the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law passed by the Tenth National People's Congress on 16 March 2007, the enterprise income tax rate for all the subsidiaries of the Company incorporated in the PRC had been unified at 25% effective from 1 January 2008. The increase in income tax expense was because there were no adjustments in respect of prior years during the year.

Cash flow

In 2017, operating activities were the Group's main source of cash outflow.

The decrease in cash used in operating activities from HK$66.6 million in 2016 to HK$18.5 million in 2017 was mainly attributable to decreased cash used in changes in working capital.

Net cash outflow from investing activities amounted to approximately HK$12.8 million (2016 – HK$3.0 million), primarily related to net amounts remitted to a distributor netting off with a mild decrease in restricted deposits held at bank for obtaining bank acceptance bill.

Decrease in net cash generated from financing activities was primarily attributable to drop in net proceeds from borrowings amount to approximately HK$24.8 million (2016 – HK$84.4 million).

Financial management and treasury policy

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities were substantially denominated in RMB. The funding from the operation and borrowings was placed on short-term deposits (denominated in RMB or Hong Kong dollars) with authorised financial institutions. The Company also paid dividends in Hong Kong dollars when dividends were declared. The Company did not implement any hedging or other derivatives against foreign exchange risk. Although the Group's operations currently would not generate any significant foreign currency exposure, we will continue to closely monitor foreign currency movements and adopt prudent measures as appropriate.

Armed with sufficient financial resources and borrowings at fixed rates, the Group was exposed to minimal financial risk from interest rate fluctuation.

The purpose of the Group's investment policy is to ensure the investment of uncommitted funds achieves the highest practicable returns while heeding the need to preserve capital and assure liquidity.

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The liquidity and financial position of the Group remain intact as the Group continues to adopt a prudent approach in managing its financial resources. As at 31 December 2017, the Group's cash and cash equivalents, and short-term deposits amounted to HK$82.1 million (2016 – HK$90.7 million). It has sufficient financial support and resources and an adequate cash position for satisfying the working capital requirements of business development, operations and capital expenditures. New investment opportunities, if any, will be funded by the Group's internal resources.

The Group had net debt of HK$63.4 million (2016 – HK$26.6 million) (total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents), with total equity of the Group amounting to approximately HK$245.6 million (2016 – HK$361.2 million) as at 31 December 2017 ensuring solvency and the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The Group had borrowing of HK$145.5 million (2016 – HK$117.3 million), with cash and liquid position of HK$82.1 million (2016 – HK$90.7 million) as at 31 December 2017, reflecting its intact capital structure. The Group expects its cash with proceeds from disposal of chateau and related facilites and financial support from Tsinlien Investment to be sufficient to support operating and capital expenditure requirements in the foreseeable future.

As at 31 December 2017, the market capitalisation of the Company was approximately HK$1,797 million (2016 – HK$1,797 million). Trading in the Shares on the Stock Exchange has been suspended with effect from 9:00 a.m. on 22 March 2013 and will remain suspended until further notice.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS, CONTINGENCIES AND CHARGES ON ASSETS

As at 31 December 2017, there was no capital expenditure contracted for at the end of the year but not yet incurred. Inclusive borrowings were entrusted bank borrowings of approximately HK$59.8 million (2016: HK$100.6 million), which were secured by the land and buildings of a subsidiary of approximately HK$190.8 million (2016: HK$191.6 million). The Group had contingent liabilities as follows:

In June 2018, an arbitration was lodged by a supplier against one of the Group's subsidiaries for its non-performance under a raw materials purchasing agreement as signed in November 2015. The matter is currently being considered by the Tianjin Arbitration Commission. The external lawyer as appointed by the Group and the Group's internal legal department consider it to be probable that the judgement will be in favour of the Group and has therefore not recognised a provision in relation to this case. The potential compensation that the Group could be required to make if there was an adverse decision related to the arbitration is estimated to be approximately RMB30 million.

In March 2019, a lawsuit was lodged by a supplier against one of the Group's subsidiaries for its non-performance under a raw wine purchasing supplementary agreement as signed in May 2015. The matter is currently being considered by the Tianjin Beichen District People's Court. The external lawyer as appointed by the Group and the Group's internal legal department consider it has partial possibility that the judgement will be in favour of the Group and has therefore not recognised a provision in relation to this case. The potential compensation that the Group could be required to make if there was an adverse decision related to the lawsuit is estimated to be approximately RMB0.7 million.

MATERIAL ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS OF SUBSIDIARIES, ASSOCIATES AND JOINT VENTURES

For the year ended 31 December 2017, the Group had not made any material acquisitions or disposal of subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures. On 27 June 2017, the Board announced that Tianjin factory would dispose of a chateau and related facilities through a public auction on TPRTC in the PRC pursuant to the relevant PRC laws and regulations in relation to transfer of PRC state-owned assets. ACCOUNTABILITY AND AUDIT

The Board is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2017 which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the Group and of the results and cash flows for that year. In preparing the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2017, Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and Hong Kong Accounting Standards have been adopted, suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently, and reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates have been made.

The Directors had reviewed the Group's cash flow projections, which cover a period of twelve months from 31 December 2018. The Directors are of the opinion that, taking into account i) the receipt of proceeds from the disposal of chateau and related facilities in May 2019, ii) the financial support to the Group from the ultimate shareholder of the Company's major shareholder to meet its liabilities for a period of twelve months from the date of the report, and iii) a confirmation of a non-request for the Group's repayment of the amounts due by its major shareholder within the next fifteen months from 1 January 2019, the Group will have sufficient working capital to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due within the next twelve months from 31 December 2018. Accordingly, the Directors are satisfied that it is appropriate to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements.

Internal controls

The Board has overall responsibilities for maintaining a sound and effective internal control system of the Group. The internal control system is designed to provide reasonable, though not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss, and manage rather than eliminate risks of failure to achieve business strategies. The Group's internal control framework covers (i) the setting of a defined management structure with limits of authority and clear lines of accountability; and (ii) the establishment of regular reporting of financial information, in particular, the tracking of deviations from budgets and targets.

The relevant executive Directors and senior management are delegated with respective level of authorities. Yearly budgets of the Company are reviewed and approved by the Board. The relevant executive Directors and senior management have specific responsibilities for monitoring the performance, conduct and operations of each subsidiary within the Group by the review of the disparity between actual results and yearly budgets. Regular and ad hoc reports will also be prepared for the Board and its committees, to ensure that Directors are supplied with all the information they require in a timely and appropriate manner.

In addition to the above, save as disclosed in the findings shown in the report of internal investigation in the announcement of the Company dated 2 August 2016 ("Report of Internal Investigation") and note 8 (ii) to the consolidated financial statements, the Board through the Audit Committee has reviewed the effectiveness of its internal control systems on all major operations of the Group by discussion with management on risk areas identified by management and/or auditors and by appointing advisors to check and review the Group's operations and transactions. Management has provided a confirmation to the Audit Committee on the effectiveness of these systems for the year ended 31 December 2017.

The internal control advisor has performed internal control review on the entity-level under COSO Framework 2013 and on the activity-level for certain subsidiaries of the Group. The operational cycles which were reviewed by the internal control adviser included revenue and receipts, operational expense and payments, inventory management and information technology general controls. During their review, it is confirmed that the previously identified deficiencies have been remedied by implementing internal control measures in different aspects, including recognition of revenue, recording of selling expenses, management and recording of inventory and filing of supporting documents. There was no major issue but identified certain areas for improvement on the Company's internal control procedures based on Report of Internal Investigation.

Referring to the incident disclosed in litigation announcement dated 8 August 2018 and subsequent internal investigation conducted by Audit Committee, identified deficiencies have been remedied by management by implementing certain internal control measures in different aspects after the incident, In 2019, the internal control adviser performed internal control review of selected cycles for the year of 2018 and identified certain areas for improvement on the Company's internal control procedures relating to revenue and receipts, and inventory management. There was no major internal control issue noted.

The Board and the Audit Committee considered that key areas of the Group's internal control systems are reasonably implemented and the Group has substantially complied with the code provisions of the Code regarding internal control systems in general.

Internal Audit Function

In 2016, the Company set up the audit department (serving function of the internal control team) to facilitate the reform of the Company's procedures. The department is separate and independent of the operation and management system of the Group. The upmost responsible officer for internal control and audit of the Group is the professional staff with internal control and audit experiences.

The Group's internal audit function is performed by an internal audit team, which reports directly to management. The team plays an important part in the assessment of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group and reports directly to management on a regular basis.

The team works with the internal control advisor to conduct internal audit reviews on the relevant controls and compliance with policies and procedures of the Group at both operational and corporate levels.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Revenue recognition
- Impairment allowance of inventories
- Impairment assessment of non-current operating assets

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Revenue recognition

Refer to Note 2.23 (Summary of significant accounting policies), Note 5 (Segment information) and Note 8 (Other income, gains and losses – net) to the consolidated financial statements.

The Group recognised revenue from sales of goods amounted to HKD383 million for the year ended 31 December 2017.

The Group manufactures and sells a range of wine products. Revenue is recognised when the amounts of revenue are reliably measured and the risks and rewards of the underlying products have been transferred to the customers (which are primarily distributors).

Our audit procedures relating to revenue recognition included:

- Obtained an understanding of the Group's accounting policy for revenue recognition;
- Obtained an understanding and evaluated management's relevant controls over revenue recognition from sales of goods;
- Inspected, on a sample basis, the sales contracts with customers to understand key terms and conditions and assessed their implications for revenue recognition;

Key Audit Matter

We identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter as significant resources and efforts were involved in auditing this area due to the large volume of transactions from sales of different kinds of products. In addition, the Group had non-standard bill-and-hold arrangements with a single distributor connected with the matters disclosed in the Company's announcement dated 8 August 2018 as detailed in Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements which had implications for revenue recognition.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

- Tested revenue transactions, on a sample basis, by examining the relevant supporting documents, including customer orders, sales contracts, goods delivery notes and customers' acknowledgement of receipt notes;
- Selected samples of revenue transactions that took place one month before and after the balance sheet date and assessed whether the related revenue was recognised in the appropriate reporting period by checking the related goods delivery notes and customers' acknowledgement of receipt notes;
- Confirmed trade receivable balances and revenue transactions with customers on a sample basis;
- With respect to the distributor with whom the Group had non-standard arrangements, we have reviewed, with the assistance of our in-house experts, the independent investigation report issued by a professional third party commissioned by the audit committee of the Company, discussed the scope and the findings with the professional third party, conducted an interview with this distributor to understand the circumstances surrounding such bill-and-hold arrangements in order to assess the implications on revenue recognition. We have also evaluated the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the aforesaid professional third party; and
- Interviewed other distributors, on a sample basis, to confirm our understanding of the key terms as stipulated in the sales contracts, including the delivery arrangements and payment terms with particular attention on non-standard terms and arrangements which might have implications to revenue recognition.

Based on the procedures performed, we found the Group's revenue recognition for sales of goods was supported by available evidence.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Impairment allowance of inventories

Refer to Note 2.12 (Summary of significant accounting policies), Note 4.1(c) (Critical accounting estimates), Note 8 (Other income, gains and losses – net) and Note 18 (Inventories) to the consolidated financial statements.

Inventories of the Group largely comprise raw materials and finished wine products which are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated selling expenses. An impairment allowance for inventories is recognised where necessary in order to record inventories at their net realisable values.

As at 31 December 2017, the carrying value of Group's inventories amounted to HKD430 million, representing cost of HKD727 million less an impairment allowance of HKD297 million. The impairment charges as recognised in the consolidated income statement for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to HKD36 million.

The determination of the impairment allowance for inventories involves significant management judgment and estimates including factors such as historical usage of raw wine, aging profile of raw materials and finished wine products, historical sales track records, forecasted sales volumes, selling prices as well as selling expenses and physical condition.

Our audit procedures relating to management's assessment of the impairment of inventories included:

- Obtained an understanding of the Group's accounting policy for determining the impairment allowance of inventories;
- Obtained an understanding of and evaluated the relevant management controls and processes in place to estimate the impairment allowance for inventories and to assess inventory obsolescence periodically;
- Tested the accuracy of the aging profile of the Group's raw materials and finished wine products by checking samples of purchase/ production records and other documents to the inventory records. Examined the historical raw materials usage records and the subsequent actual sales volume data after the year end to evaluate whether slow-moving or over-stocked products has been properly identified;
- Observed the physical condition of samples of inventories during attendance of stocktake conducted by management to identify any slow-moving or damaged items;
- Evaluated the reasonableness of the assumptions adopted by management in estimating the future selling prices of wine products and the related selling expenses by reference to the historical records and samples of sales transactions after the year end;

Key Audit Matter

We identified impairment allowance for inventories as a key audit matter due to the significance of the inventory balance and because significant management judgement and estimates are involved in determining the required level of impairment allowance.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

As detailed in the Company's public announcement dated 8 August 2018 and Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements, a distributor bypassed the established procedures and took finished goods of the Group with carrying amounts of HK$7,182,000. We have reviewed, with the assistance of our in-house experts, the independent investigation report issued by a professional third party commissioned by the audit committee of the Company in this regard, discussed the scope of work and findings with the professional third party, conducted interview with this distributor and the warehouse personnel to understand the circumstances surrounding the instance and assessed the reasonableness of the impairment allowance estimated by management and the appropriate accounting period in which the related losses should be recorded. We have also evaluated the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the aforesaid professional third party;

- Obtained the records of inventories stored in the selected warehouses leased from third parties and checked the delivery documents for transactions one month before and after the year end date on a sample basis to identify any unusual movements;
- Performed a background search of the warehouses leased from third parties, on a sample basis, to identify if their shareholders were related parties to the distributors of the Company; and
- Checked the mathematical accuracy of management's calculations of the impairment allowance for inventories.

Based on the procedures performed, we considered the key judgement and estimates as adopted by management in assessing the impairment allowance of inventories were supported by available evidence.

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Impairment assessment of non-current operating assets

Refer to Note 2.8 (Summary of significant accounting policies), Note 4.1 (b) (Critical accounting estimates), Note 14 (Leasehold land and land use rights) and Note 15 (Property, plant and equipment) to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 December 2017, the carrying amounts of the Group's property, plant and equipment amounted to HKD92 million, representing cost of HKD843 million less accumulated depreciation of HKD651 million and accumulated impairment losses of HKD100 million; and the carrying amounts of the Group's leasehold land and land use rights amounted to HKD19 million, representing cost of HKD28 million less accumulated amortisation of HKD9 million (collectively the "Non-current Operating Assets"). The impairment loss of the Non-current Operating Assets as recognised in the consolidated income statement for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to HKD20 million.

Management considered that the Group's continuous losses and operating cash outflows are indicators of impairment of the Non-current Operating Assets and therefore performed an impairment assessment to determine the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the Non-current Operating Assets belong (the "CGU").

The recoverable amount of the CGU has been determined by management based on the higher of fair value less costs of disposal ("FVLCOD") and value-in-use ("VIU") of the CGU as determined using the discounted cash flow model.

Our audit procedures relating to management's impairment assessment of the Non-current Operating Assets included:

- Obtained an understanding of and evaluated the Group's accounting policy for assessing the impairment of non-current assets;
- Evaluated the reasonableness of management's determination that the FVLCOD of the CGU was higher than its VIU as at the year end date;
- With the support of our in-house experts, examined the FVLCOD model adopted by management in determining the recoverable amount of the CGU and assessed its appropriateness;
- Evaluated the factors considered by management in the determination of comparable companies in the market where available public data was used as key parameters including revenue growth rates and applicable discount rate as well as estimated market value of the Group's leasehold land and land use rights adopted in the FVLCOD model;
- Assessed the reasonableness of the above key assumptions by comparing to the historical performance and applicable range of discount rates developed based on the relevant public financial information of the selected comparable companies and other relevant market information available;

Key Audit Matter

Management's assessment indicated that the • FVLCOD of the CGU was higher than its VIU as at 31 December 2017 and therefore adopted FVLCOD as the recoverable amount. As the FVLCOD of the CGU was lower than the carrying amounts of the Non-current Operating Assets as • at 31 December 2017, the Group recognised an impairment charge of HKD20 million for the year ended 31 December 2017.

We identified the impairment assessment of Non-current Operating Assets as a key audit matter due to the significant management judgement and estimates that were involved in determining the recoverable amount. These involved key parameters and inputs including determination of comparable companies in the market, estimated revenue growth rate, discount rate as well as estimated market value of the Group's leasehold land and land use rights.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

- Performed sensitivity analysis on the key inputs and parameters to assess the possible impacts to the FVLCOD amount as determined by management; and
- Checked the accuracy of inputs and tested the mathematical calculation of the FVLCOD amount.

Based on the procedures performed, we considered the key judgement and estimates as adopted by management in the impairment assessment of the Non-current Operating Assets were supported by available evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Ng Ping Fai.

Box 2681, Grand Cayman KY1-1111, Cayman Islands, whilst the principal office is Room E and F, 16/F, China Overseas Building, 139 Hennessy Road, Wanchai, Hong Kong.

The Company together with its subsidiaries are hereinafter collectively referred to as the Group. The principal activities of the Company are investment holding and trading of wine products. The principal activities of the subsidiaries are stated in Note 9.

The shares of the Company were listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Stock Exchange") on 26 January 2005. On 22 March 2013, trading of the shares of the Company were suspended on the Stock Exchange.

These consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 22 July 2019.

2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for the Group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries.

2.1 Basis of preparation

(i) Compliance with HKFRS and HKCO

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRS") and disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap. 622.

(ii) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis.

(iii) Going concern

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's current liabilities exceeded their current assets by HK$56,428,000. The Group's loss and net cash outflow from operating activities for the year ended 31 December 2017 were HK$135,254,000 and HK$18,455,000 respectively. These indicate there was a significant doubt about the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. The directors of the Company (the "Directors") have reviewed the Group's cash flow projections, which cover a period of twelve months from 31 December 2018. The Directors are of the opinion that, taking into account the followings, the Group will have sufficient working capital to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due within the next twelve months from 31 December 2018:

- The Group entered into an agreement with Tianjin Yiyang Big Health Small Township Development Co., Ltd., a third party to dispose of a chateau and related facilities (Note 20) at a consideration of RMB400 million and the completion of which is subject to certain administrative registration procedures. The full amount of the consideration has been received on 16 May 2019.
- Tianjin Tsinlien Investment Holding Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Tsinlien Investment"), the ultimate shareholder of the Company's major shareholder, has issued a financial support letter to the Company to confirm its intention to provide continuous financial support to the Group to meet its liabilities for a period of twelve months from the date of approval of these consolidated financial statements.
- Tsinlien Investment has also issued a letter to the Company to confirm that the Company's major shareholder, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tsinlien Investment, will not request for the Group's repayment of the amounts due it of HK$42,404,000 (Note 23(b)) within the next fifteen months from 1 January 2019.

Accordingly, the Directors are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

(iv) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The Group has applied the following standards and amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 January 2017:

- Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses Amendments to HKAS 12, and
- Disclosure Initiative Amendments to HKAS 7.

The adoption of these amendments did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods. Most of the amendments will also not affect the current or future periods.

The amendments to HKAS 7 require disclose of changes in liabilities arising from financing activities, see Note 26(b).

(v) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for 31 December 2017 reporting periods and have not been early adopted by the Group. The Group's assessment of the impact of these new standards and interpretations is set out below.

HKFRS 9 'Financial instruments'

Nature of change

HKFRS 9 addresses the classification, measurement and derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities, introduces new rules for hedge accounting and a new impairment model for financial assets.

Impact

The financial assets and liabilities of the Group comprise of loans and receivables and does not expect the new guidance to affect the classification and measurement of these financial assets.

There will be no impact on the Group's accounting for financial liabilities, as the new requirements only affect the accounting for financial liabilities that are designated at fair value through profit or loss and the Group does not have any such liabilities.

The new impairment model requires the recognition of impairment allowance based on expected credit losses (ECL) rather than only incurred credit losses as is the case under HKAS 39. It applies to financial assets classified at amortised cost, debt instruments measured at FVOCI, contract assets under HKFRS 15 'Revenue from Contracts with Customers', lease receivables, loan commitments and certain financial guarantee contracts.

Based on the assessments undertaken to date, the Group does not expect any significant increase or decrease in the loss allowance in relation to loans and receivables.

The new standard also introduces expanded disclosure requirements and changes in presentation. These are expected to change the nature and extent of the Group's disclosures about its financial instruments particularly in the year of the adoption of the new standard.

(v) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (continued)

Date of adoption by the Group

Must be applied for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2018. The Group will apply the new rules retrospectively from 1 January 2018, with the practical expedients permitted under the standard. Comparatives for 2017 will not be restated.

HKFRS 15 'Revenue from contracts with customers'

Nature of change

The Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") has issued a new standard for the recognition of revenue. This will replace HKAS 18 which covers contracts for goods and services and HKAS 11 which covers construction contracts and the related literature.

The new standard is based on the principle that revenue is recognised when control of a good or service transfers to a customer.

The standard permits either a full retrospective or a modified retrospective approach for the adoption.

Impact

Management has assessed the effects of applying the new standard on the Group's financial statements and does not expect any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Date of adoption by the Group

Mandatory for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2018. The Group intends to adopt the standard using the modified retrospective approach which means that the cumulative impact of the adoption will be recognised in retained earnings as of 1 January 2018 and that comparatives will not be restated.

(v) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (continued)

HKFRS 16 'Leases'

Nature of change

HKFRS 16 was issued in January 2016. It will result in almost all leases being recognised on the balance sheet, as the distinction between operating and finance leases is removed. Under the new standard, an asset (the right to use the leased item) and a financial liability to pay rentals are recognised. The only exceptions are short-term and low-value leases.

The accounting for lessors will not significantly change.

Impact

The standard will affect primarily the accounting for the Group's operating leases. As at 31 December 2017, the Group has non-cancellable operating lease commitments of HK$9,017,000. Upon adoption of HKFRS 16 the majority of operating leases will be recognised in the consolidated balance sheet as lease liabilities and right-of-use assets. The lease liabilities will be measured at the present value of the remaining lease payment and will subsequently be measured at amortised cost. The right-of-use assets will be measured at cost which comprises the initial measurement of lease liabilities, initial direct costs, reinstatement costs, any payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease term. The Group will adopt the simplified transition approach and will not restate comparative amounts for the year prior to its first adoption.

Upon adoption of HKFRS 16, the Group expects to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities on 1 January 2019. The Group expects that profit for the year will decrease for 2019 as a result of adopting the new rules.

Mandatory application date/Date of adoption by the Group

Mandatory for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2019. At this stage, the Group does not intend to adopt the standard before its effective date. The Group intends to apply the simplified transition approach and will not restate comparative amounts for the year prior to first adoption.

There are no other standards that are not yet effective and that would be expected to have a material impact on the entity in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group.

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated income statement, statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.

(ii) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see (iii) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting (continued)

(iii) Equity accounting

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in Note 2.8.

2.3 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker, who are the executive directors. The chief operating decision-maker is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The consolidated financial statements are presented in HK dollars (HK$), which is the Company's presentation and functional currency. The functional currency of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC is Renminbi.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss. They are deferred in equity if they relate to qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges or are attributable to part of the net investment in a foreign operation.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the income statement, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the income statement on a net basis within other gains/(losses).

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- (a) assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- (b) income and expenses for each income statement and statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and
- (c) all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

All property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment (continued)

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost or revalued amounts, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements and certain leased plant and equipment, the shorter lease term as follows:

_	Buildings	20 years
_	Plant and machinery	10 years
-	Motor vehicles	5 years
-	Leasehold improvements, furniture and equipment	5 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (Note 2.8).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss. When revalued assets are sold, it is Group policy to transfer any amounts included in other reserves in respect of those assets to retained earnings.

2.7 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as described in Note 2.8. Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortised but it is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired, and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. The allocation is made to those cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the business combination in which the goodwill arose. The units or groups of units are identified at the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes, being the operating segments.

(b) Leasehold land and land use rights

Leasehold land and land use rights represent the cost of land less accumulated amortisation and any impairment losses. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the prepaid operating lease payments for land over the remaining lease term or the operating license period, whichever is shorter.

2.8 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

The Group has been suffered from continuous losses and operating cash outflows which indicated that the Group's non-current operating assets (including property, plant and equipment, leasehold land and land use rights (collectively the "Non-current Operating Assets")) might be impaired as at 31 December 2017. The Directors of the Company has assessed the recoverable amounts of these Non-current Operating Assets as at 31 December 2017 and an impairment charge of HK$20,013,000 has been recognised in the income statement for the year ended 31 December 2017 (Note 15 (ii)).

Regarding the goodwill arisen from the acquisition of a subsidiary in prior years (Note 16), the Directors of the Company had assessed and concluded that it was fully impaired and the full impairment allowance was recognised during the year ended 31 December 2012.

2.9 Assets held for sale

Assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset, but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the non-current asset is recognised at the date of derecognition.

Assets are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale.

Assets classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the balance sheet.

2.10 Financial assets

(i) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following categories:

- financial assets at fair value through profit or loss,
- loans and receivables,
- held-to-maturity investments, and
- available-for-sale financial assets.

The classification depends on the purpose for which the investments were acquired. Management determines the classification of its investments at initial recognition. As at 31 December 2017 and 2016, the Group only has financial assets in the category of "loans and receivables".

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. If collection of the amounts is expected in one year or less they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets. The Group's loans and receivables comprise of trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents (Notes 2.13 and 2.14).

(ii) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

(iii) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Loans and receivables is subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.11 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a 'loss event') and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated. In the case of equity investments classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is considered an indicator that the assets are impaired.

Assets carried at amortised cost

For loans and receivables, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in profit or loss. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment testing of trade receivables is described in Note 17.

2.12 Inventories

Inventories comprise of raw materials, work in progress, finished goods and consumables, and are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average costs. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Inventories of the Group largely comprise raw materials and finished wine products which are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated selling expenses. An impairment allowance for inventories is recognised where necessary in order to record inventories at their net realisable values.

2.13 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. Trade receivables are generally due for settlement within a credit period of 90 to 180 days and therefore are all classified as current.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment allowance. See Note 2.10 for further information about the Group's accounting for trade and other receivables and Note 2.11 for a description of the Group's impairment policies.

2.14 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, and other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.15 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity (Note 21).

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.16 Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 90 days of recognition. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.17 Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss as finance costs.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

2.18 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.19 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current income tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current income tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred income tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.20 Employee benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date. Employee entitlements to maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(ii) Post-employment obligations

The Group operates various post-employment schemes, including both defined benefit and defined contribution pension plans and post-employment medical plans.

Pension obligations

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of a state-managed employee pension scheme operated by the Tianjin Municipal People's Government which undertakes to assume the retirement benefit obligations of all existing and future retired employees. The Group's obligation is to make the required contributions under the scheme. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expenses when they are due.

In addition, the Group also contributes to a mandatory provident fund scheme for all Hong Kong employees. All these contributions are based on a certain percentage of the employee's salary and are charged to the income statement as incurred.

2.21 Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via the share-based compensation plan.

The fair value of options granted under the share-based compensation plan is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (e.g. the entity's share price)
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (e.g. profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period), and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (e.g. the requirement for employees to save or holdings shares for a specific period of time).

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the entity revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

The share-based compensation plan of the Group has expired on 31 October 2016.

2.22 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims, service warranties and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.23 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of returns, trade allowances, rebates and amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The Group manufactures and sells a range of wine products. Revenue is recognised when the amounts of revenue are reliably measured and the risks and rewards of the underlying products have been transferred to the customers (which are primarily distributors). The Group bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

Sales of goods

Timing of recognition: The Group manufactures and sells a range of wine products. Sales of goods are recognised when a group entity has delivered products to the customer. Delivery occur the products have been shipped to the specified location, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer, and the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract, the acceptance provisions have lapsed.

Measurement of revenue: Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, and represents amounts receivable for goods supplied, stated net of discounts, returns and value added taxes. The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity.

2.24 Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are not transferred to the Group as lessee are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature.

2.25 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the income statement over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

2.25 Government grants (continued)

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred government grants and are credited to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

This note explains the Group's exposure to financial risks and how these risks could affect the Group's future financial performance. Current year profit and loss information has been included where relevant to add further context.

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk and cash flow interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. As at 31 December 2017, the Group does not use any derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures.

The Group's risk management is carried out by the treasury department under policies approved by the board of directors. Treasury department identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

3.1 Financial risk factors

(a) Market risk

i) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency which is not the entity's functional currency.

There is no material foreign exchange risk noted for the Group as:

- the transactions of the Company are mainly denominated in HK$, which is the functional currency of the Company; and
- the operations and customers of the Group's subsidiaries are located in the PRC with most of the operating assets and transactions denominated and settled in Renminbi, which is the functional currency of the Group's subsidiaries.

(a) Market risk (continued)

(ii) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from borrowings. Borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk which is partially offset by cash held at variables rates. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. As at 31 December 2017 and 2016, the Group's borrowings are all bearing interests at fixed rates and hence the Group is subject to fair value interest rate risk only but the related exposure is not significant as all of the Group's borrowings are with short maturities.

As the Group has no significant interest-bearing assets, other than bank deposits, the Group's operating income and cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents and deposits with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposures to customers, including outstanding receivables.

(i) Risk management

The Group's customer base is diversified and does not include any external customer with whom transactions have exceeded 10% of the Group's revenues. The carrying amount of bank deposit, trade receivables, other receivables included in the consolidated balance sheets represented the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to its financial assets. The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales of products are made to customers with an appropriate credit history and the Group performs periodic credit evaluations of its customers. The Group's historical experience in collection of trade and other receivables falls within the recorded allowances and the directors are of the opinion that adequate impairment allowance for uncollectible trade receivables has been made in the consolidated financial statements.

The Group mitigates its exposure to credit risk by placing deposits with stated-owned banks in the PRC and other financial institutions with established credit rating. The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales of procedures are made to customers with an appropriate financial strength and credit history.

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due and to close out market positions. At the end of the reporting period, the Group held cash and cash equivalents of HK$82,094,000 (2016: HK$90,675,000) (Note 19) and trade and notes receivables of HK$61,597,000 (2016: HK$51,311,000) (Note 17) that are expected to readily generate cash inflows for managing liquidity risk. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group's treasury maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining availability under committed credit lines.

Management monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity reserve (comprising the borrowing facilities below) and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows. This is generally carried out at local level in the operating companies of the Group in accordance with practice set by the Group. In addition, the Group's liquidity management policy involves considering the level of liquid assets necessary to meet these and monitoring balance sheet liquidity ratios against internal and external regulatory requirements and maintaining debt financing plans.

(i) Maturities of financial liabilities

The table below analyses the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.

		Less than one year or on demand
	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000

	448,902	464,196

Note:

(a) Trade and other payables did not include advance from customer, payroll payable, amounts due to the major shareholder of the Company, Tsinlien Group Company Limited ("Tsinlien"), other tax payables and deposits.

3.2 Capital management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to

- safeguard their ability to continue as a going concern, so that they can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, and
- maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

Consistent with others in the industry, the Group monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as 'equity' as shown in the consolidated balance sheet plus net debt.

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Borrowings (Note 24) Less: Cash and cash equivalents (Note 19)	145,455 (82,094)	117,318 (90,675)

Total capital	308,992	387,874

The gearing ratios at 31 December 2017 and 31 December 2016 were as follows:

3.3 Fair value estimation

The carrying values of the Group's financial assets (including cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade receivables, other receivables) and financial liabilities (including trade payables, other payables and borrowings) approximate their fair values.

4 CRITICAL ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldom equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgement in applying the Group's accounting policies.

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the entity and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

4.1 Critical accounting estimates

(a) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in numerous jurisdictions. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the period in which such determination is made.

(b) Impairment of non-current operating assets

Investments in leasehold land and land use rights, and property, plant and equipment (collectively the "Non-current Operating Assets") are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be fully recoverable in accordance with the accounting policy. Future cash flow estimates which are used to calculate the asset's fair value are discounted using asset specific discount rates and are based on expectations about future operations, primarily comprising estimates about revenue growth rate, production and sales volumes, market prices of the products and capital expenditures. The key parameters and inputs in determining the recoverable amount of the Non-current Operating Assets are determination of comparable companies in the market, estimated revenue growth rate, discount rate and estimated market value of the Group's leasehold land and land use rights. Estimates are reviewed regularly by management. Changes in such estimates and in particular, deterioration in the market outlook, could impact the recoverable amounts of these assets, whereby some or all of the carrying amount may be impaired or the impairment charge reduced (if market outlook improves significantly), with the impact recorded in the income statement.

(c) Impairment allowance of inventories

The Group reviews the carrying value of its inventories to ensure that they are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The determination of the impairment allowance for inventories involves significant management judgment and estimates including factors such as historical usage of raw wine, aging profile of the raw materials and finished wine products, historical sales track records, forecasted sales volumes, selling prices as well as selling expenses and physical condition.

(d) Impairment allowance of trade receivables

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether trade receivables have suffered any impairment. The Group recognises impairment losses of trade receivables based on the credit history and financial position of the debtors and all other relevant factors.

(I) GOVERNMENT GRANTS

The Group received the government subsidies related to talent training and enterprise development in 2017 and 2016. There are no unfulfilled conditions or other contingencies attaching to these grants.

(II) STOCK LOSS

As detailed in the Company's public announcement dated 8 August 2018 (the "Announcement"), a subsidiary of the Company (the "Subsidiary") (as the plaintiff) filed a civil claim against a distributor which bypassed the established procedures and took the Group's inventories of finished goods with estimated sales values of HK$16,111,000 and costs of HK$7,182,000 (the "Lost Inventories"). The Announcement has also revealed that part of the Lost Inventories with estimated sales values of HK$8,013,000 and costs of HK$2,834,000 were deemed under a bill-and-hold arrangement with another single distributor connected with matters disclosed in the Company's Announcement (the "Bill-and-Hold Arrangement"). The Bill-and-Hold Arrangement referred to the arrangement between the Company and this single distributor for temporary inventory storage in the warehouse leased by the Subsidiary due to demolition of the warehouse of this single distributor. The audit committee of the Company conducted an independent investigation with the assistance of its legal adviser and a professional third party (the "Investigation") on the above case to understand and obtain evidence on how these incidents occurred, evaluate its impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements based on the findings.

After the Investigation, the Directors of the Company are of the view that the controls, risks and rewards associated with the inventories under the Bill-and-Hold Arrangement had not yet been transferred out of the Group and therefore no revenue was being recognised by the Group in respect of these inventories during the year ended 31 December 2017. Based on the results of the Investigation, the Group has recognised a full impairment allowance against the Lost Inventories of HK$7,182,000 in the year ended 31 December 2017.

12 INCOME TAX EXPENSE/(CREDIT)

This note provides an analysis of the Group's income tax expense, including how the tax expense is affected by non-assessable or non-deductible items. It also explains significant estimates made in relation to the Group's tax position.

(a) Income tax expense/(credit)

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Current income tax:
Current income tax on profits for the year	27	23
Annual tax filing difference		(327)
Total current income tax expense/(credit)	27	(304)
Deferred income tax: Total deferred tax
Income tax expense/(credit)	27	(304)

The tax on the Group's loss before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the weighted average tax rate applicable to losses of the consolidated entities as follows:

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Loss before income tax	(135,227)	(101,240)
Tax calculated at domestic tax rates applicable to losses in the respective countries – Expenses not deductible for tax purposes – Changes in the temporary differences for which	(30,245) 2,048	(25,016) 1,013
no deferred income tax asset were recognised – Tax losses for which no deferred income tax asset	9,763	(7,361)
was recognised – Annual tax filing difference	18,461 	31,387 (327)
Tax expense/(credit)	27	(304)

The weighted average applicable tax rate was 22% (2016: 25%).

13 LOSS PER SHARE

(a) Basic loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing:

- the loss attributable to owners of the Company.
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Loss attributable to owners of the Company	(133,625)	(100,632)
Weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue (thousands)	1,248,200	1,248,200
	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Loss attributable to the ordinary equity holders of the Company	(10.71)	(8.06)

(b) Diluted loss per share

As the Group has no dilutive instruments during the year ended 31 December 2017 and all of the outstanding share options as issued by the Company were lapsed on 31 October 2016 without any dilutive effect, the Group's diluted earnings per share equal to its basic earnings per share for the years ended 31 December 2017 and 2016.

The estimated revenue growth rates as adopted in the impairment assessment ranges from 2.6% to 4.2% throughout the entire forecast periods. The post-tax discount rate as adopted by management in the impairment assessment is 14.4% which reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU. The estimated market value of the Group's leasehold and land use right as adopted by management in the impairment assessment is 18.4% which reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU. Entrusted bank borrowings of HK$59,808,000 (2016: HK$100,558,000) are secured by the land and buildings of the subsidiary with carrying amount of HK$190,805,000 (2016: HK$191,554,000). (b) During the year ended 31 December 2017, several commercial acceptance bills amounting to HK$15,588,000 (2016: HK$34,642,000) were issued by a distributor to the Company with a maturity period of 6 months. The Company discounted these commercial acceptance bills to a bank and the proceeds so derived have been wholly loaned back to the distributor as short-term funding to the distributor. The Group has already either discounted these bills to other banks for obtaining financing or endorsed them to suppliers as the Group's settlement of related payable balances due to the suppliers prior to 31 December 2017.

Pursuant to the agreement as entered into between Tianjin Sales, the distributor and the bank, Tianjin Sales has the contractual obligation to repay the bank for any shortfall amount (representing the face value of the Bills in excess of the cumulative bank balances as deposited by the distributor for the issue of the Bills) (the "Shortfall") upon the expiry of the Bills. As at 31 December 2017, the Shortfall amounted to HK$20,335,000 and the Group has accounted for the Shortfall as a financial liability due to the bank, considering its contractual obligation still existed as of 31 December 2017.

Despite the Group has received the Bills, the trade receivables in connection with the Group's sales to the aforesaid distributor of HK$20,335,000 as at 31 December 2017 have not been derecognised as the Group does not have any legally enforceable right to offset the related receivables against the Group's liability to repay the Shortfall.

- (d) Other borrowings represented the amounts of those unexpired bank acceptance bills which are issued by relatively low credit-rating banks with certain level of default risk and have been already endorsed by the Group to its suppliers as settlement of the Group's payable balances prior to the balance sheet date.
- (e) The fair values of all borrowings approximate their carrying amounts, since either the interest payable on those borrowings is close to current market rates or the borrowings financial liabilities are with short maturity periods.
