Section 3 Business Highlights of the Company

I. PRINCIPAL BUSINESS, OPERATING MODEL AND INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT OF THE COMPANY DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

1. Principal Business of the Company

Great Wall Motor is one of the largest SUV manufacturers in the PRC. It currently owns four brands, namely Haval, WEY, Great Wall Pick-up, and ORA. The Company, in cooperation with BMW, has established a joint venture named Spotlight Automotive Limited which is engaged in providing three product categories, i.e. SUVs, sedans and pick-up trucks, and manufacturing and supplying related auto parts and components.

2. Operating Model

Focusing on the SUV category, the Group innovates in brand management to meet different customer needs and build a leading position in relevant niche markets, so as to consolidate its position in the SUV market.

The Group is devoted to establishing a sound system integrating R&D, procurement, production and sales.

In respect of R&D, the Group always adheres to “precise investment” in R&D in the pursuit of industry leadership, thus laying a solid foundation for building “Tech-driven Great Wall”. Great Wall Motor has long been exploring the “four new modernization” areas of automobiles. In the area of AIoT, it has released the “GTO Smart Ecosystem Strategy” to collaborate with Tencent, Alibaba Autonavi, Baidu, China Telecom, China Unicom, China Mobile, Huawei and Qualcomm to build up a smart travel ecosystem with the vision of creating driving robots. In addition, the Company’s “black technologies” such as smart cockpit, L4 urban automatic driving, 5G remote unmanned driving and fully automated valet parking are going to be mass-produced or applied, which will comprehensively enhance the competitiveness of the Company in the global market.

In respect of procurement of parts and components, the Group aims to build a world-class supply chain and control the sources of core parts and components through vertical integration of resources and strategic cooperation with internationally renowned brand suppliers. In order to develop independent auto parts business, carry out market-oriented operation and improve overall competitiveness, the Group has set up four auto parts companies, namely Honeycomb Yichuang Technology Co., Ltd. (“Honeycomb Yichuang”), Jingcheng Engineering Automotive Systems Co., Ltd. (“Jingcheng Engineering Automotive”), Nuobo Automotive Systems Co., Ltd. (“Nuobo Automotive”), and Mind Electronics Company Limited (“Mind Electronics”). In addition, the Group has established a long-term strategic partnership with such world-class suppliers as Bosch, ZF, AUTOLIV and BorgWarner to jointly develop innovative and leading automotive products at home and abroad leveraging their respective resource advantages.

In respect of production, the Group has built up “9+5” global production facilities. In the PRC, its vehicle production facilities are concentrated in three major regions, i.e. North China, East China and South China, and its eight full-process production bases in Baoding, Xushui, Tianjin, Yongchuan, Pinghu, Taizhou and Zhangjiagang cover the domestic market, laying a solid foundation for its global development. Globally, the Group’s plant in Tula, Russia has become a bridgehead to enter the European market, and is connected with its KD plants in Ecuador, Malaysia and Tunisia to jointly support the development of overseas markets.

Section 3 Business Highlights of the Company

In respect of sales, the Group has built a network of over 500 sales outlets in more than 60 countries around the world while exploring innovative Internet Plus marketing models. This year, in the principle of going “intelligent, mobile, scenario-oriented, and data-based”, the Group launched its first full-scenario, new retail AI-driven “smart store” as the front line of user operation integrating online and offline services. Such store will serve as a key supporting unit and strategic fulcrum for the new retail system of the Company and facilitate the transformation from product-oriented model to “product & service” dual brand building.

Furthermore, based on the life cycle of automotive products, the Group extends its automotive industry chain and explores and improves automotive aftermarket services. In respect of auto finance, the Group set up Tianjin Great Wall Binyin Automotive Finance Company Limited (天津長城濱銀汽車金融有限公司) in 2014 to diversify products and expand channels based on traditional personal auto loans and dealer inventory financing services, so as to meet the car purchase needs of different customers to the greatest extent.

3. Industry Overview

(1) Increased decline in automobile production and sales

In 2019, amid the Sino-US trade frictions, the shift in environmental standards, and the phasing out of subsidies for new energy vehicles, China’s production and sales volume of automobiles dropped 7.5% and 8.2% to 25,721,000 units and 25,769,000 units respectively, but still ranked first in the world.

(2) Greater overall decline in passenger vehicles and increasingly fierce competition in the future

In 2019, the production and sales volume of passenger vehicles amounted to 21,360,000 units and 21,444,000 units, decreased by 9.2% and 9.6% year on year, respectively. The production and sales volume of sedans, SUVs, MPVs and crossover passenger cars all saw a decline. There is a rising trend for consumption upgrade of passenger vehicles. As the proportion of first-time car buyers dwindles, the market share of low-end passenger vehicles shrinking and products in niche markets are going high-end. Moreover, the undercutting by joint venture brands, the melee of independent brands and the emergence of new hybrid players further fuel the increasingly fierce competition in the automotive market where survival of the fittest plays out.

(3) New energy vehicles losing rapid growth momentum

In 2019, the production and sales volume of new energy vehicles reached 1,242,000 units and 1,206,000 units, down 2.3% and 4.0% year on year, respectively. Among them, the production and sales volume of battery electric vehicles reached 1,020,000 units and 972,000 units, up 3.4% and down 1.2% year on year, respectively; the production and sales volume of plug-in hybrid electric vehicles were 220,000 units and 232,000 units, down 22.5% and 14.5% year on year, respectively; and the production and sales volume of fuel cell vehicles were 2,833 units and 2,737 units, up 85.5% and 79.2% year on year, respectively. Due to the phasing out of subsidies, the second half of the year saw a sharp decline in new energy vehicles.

Section 3 Business Highlights of the Company

(4) Slowdown in automobile exports

In 2019, automobile exports dropped 1.6% year on year to 1,024,000 units, of which 725,000 were passenger vehicles, down 4.3% year on year.

Note: The above industry data is sourced from China Association of Automobile Manufacturers.

The Company also expands presence in the auto parts market to raise competitiveness and plans for auto parts business based on the distribution of its plants.

5. Insisting on targeted R&D to drive development with innovation

The Group introduced BAT, Huawei, Qualcomm and other strategic partners for cross-industry integration and collaboration, and released the GTO Smart Ecosystem Strategy to usher in a new era of driving robots. Furthermore, it completed embedded integrated development of L3 automatic driving technology and demonstrated its L4 automatic driving capabilities, securing an industry-leading position in the field of intelligent driving.

Section 4 Chairman's Statement

To all shareholders:

I am pleased to present the audited consolidated results of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2019.

2019 was a year of ups and downs for the global economy. Against the backdrop of on-and-off international trade tensions and increasing vulnerabilities of the financial market, growth in global economy and trade significantly slowed down and growth in major economies generally decelerated. Since 2019, the global economy has been affected by a number of factors and gradually entered a new development period.

With slowdown in the international and domestic economic growth, there was great pressure on China's automobile industry in 2019. However, in the second half of 2019, the market showed signs of recovery, and its growth in general remained within a reasonable range. According to the data from China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, the production and sales volume of automobiles in 2019 amounted to 25,721,000 and 25,769,000 respectively, down by 7.5% and 8.2% year-on-year respectively; nevertheless, the production and sales volume of automobiles in China continued to rank first in the world. The mainstream Chinese brands showed great resilience in development.

Amid the continuous decline of the automobile industry in 2019, the Group continued to work hard and move forward, achieving a total annual sales volume of 1.06 million units and a production and sales volume of over 1 million units each for four consecutive years. The total operating revenue exceeded RMB96 billion and the net profit amounted to RMB4.53 billion.

In 2019, Great Wall Motor not only deepened its relationship with its existing partners, but also found new partners, thus expanding its network of business partners and working with world's top-notch enterprises to build a new industry-leading cooperation ecosystem. Great Wall Motor adhered to the principle of "stable operation" and constantly deepened "opening up", leveraging globalization to facilitate development. During the Year, the Tula plant in Russia completed construction and commenced operation, and the heads of state of the PRC and Russia witnessed the launch of the Haval F7 model in the Russian market. The Chongqing plant, which completed construction and commenced operation, not only covers Chengdu and Chongqing markets, but also extends its reach along the Yangtze River Economic Belt in the east, as well as the entire Southeast Asian market in the south. In addition, the Spotlight Project, a joint venture between the Group and BMW Holding in Zhangjiagang, commenced, achieving a new business model of "joint research and development of products to be made in China for the global market". Projects in Shandong Rizhao, Zhejiang Pinghu and Jiangsu Taizhou were also making smooth progress. We should have the strategic vision of globalization to prepare for a win-win model for China's automobile enterprises going global.

In 2019, the Group further implemented its "innovation driven development" strategy, adhering to "precise investment in research and development", and innovated for the future. The Group had established a global R&D network spanning "10 places in seven countries", with centres in Germany, the United States, Japan, India, Austria and South Korea supporting the Baoding headquarters. The Group introduced strategic partners such as Baidu, Alibaba's AutoNavi, Tencent, Huawei and Qualcomm, and released the intelligent networking strategy centering on GTO (GreatWall Totally Online) totally intelligent ecosystem to create a new era of mobile robots. The Group launched China's first 9DCT transmission, as well as an three-in-one electric drive assembly system (combining motor, electric control system and decelerator). The GW4C20B engine launched by the Group won the title of "China's Heart" Top 10 Engines.

Section 4 Chairman's Statement

In 2019, the Group continued to fulfil the development requirement of “transformation from Chinese products to Chinese brands”, and enhanced value through brand. The global cumulative sales volume of Haval brand amounted to nearly 6 million units, and Haval has remained the top bestselling brand in the China's SUV market for 10 consecutive years. The WEY brand, which has only been established for three years, became the first Chinese luxury SUV brand with sales volume exceeding 300,000 units. With the vision of globalization, the WEY brand planned to enter the European and North American markets. The Great Wall Motor's pick-up trucks continued to rank first in China in terms of domestic and export sales volume for 22 consecutive years, with a domestic market share of more than 35%. In the new energy vehicle market, the Group's ORA brand developed rapidly, achieving the fastest growth rate of sales volume in A00 market segment. In the future, these brands will continue to complement each other to launch more high-quality products and services to create greater value for global users.

In the future, China's economy will maintain stable and positive trends and a long-term positive outlook. Such will not change. Yet, it is also going through the critical period of transforming its development mode, optimizing the economic structure and transforming its growth structure; meanwhile, affected by the novel coronavirus pneumonia epidemic, the economy is under greater downward pressure. The global economy, affected by Brexit, Sino-US trade frictions and the novel coronavirus pneumonia epidemic, is also slowing down. As an industry strongly related to the economic cycle, the global automobile market will inevitably be affected.

But just as the epidemic is a crisis, it also provides us with opportunities and hope. We need to view things from a wider and higher perspective to push beyond our limits to achieve new milestone. The development achieved by the Group so far evidences that, while adhering to the long-term corporate value, we should also have the courage to innovate and reform. For the global automobile industry, China is undoubtedly a latecomer, but fortunately we are faced with the right set of circumstances. At present, the wave of the fourth industrial revolution as represented by 5G and AI technology is sweeping across all sectors worldwide with unprecedented strength and speed. We see a historic convergence of a new round of scientific and technological revolutions and industrial restructuring. Among the unprecedented changes seen in the industry in a century, “electric vehicles, intelligent technology, network connection and sharing” will still be at the core of the global automobile industry reform. China's automobiles will become an exemplar of latecomers outdoing the existing market, and occupy the commanding heights of the global automobile development in the future. For the Group, this is an exceptionally rare and precious opportunity. We should seize the opportunity to actively transform and innovate. We should believe in ourselves that we will be the key to reshape the global automobile industry.

2020 is the last year of the “13th Five Year Plan” of China, as a well as a critical year for the Group to embrace new challenges and achieve high-quality development, and a year for the Group to accelerate its globalization strategy in every aspect. The Group will continue to take the perspectives of end-users, the industry, and competitive companies, and focus its reform on the following aspects, to unveil a new growth cycle of Great Wall Motor, and to build a growth driver for future development.

Section 4 Chairman's Statement

1. Continue to deepen mechanism reform and improve management efficiency;
2. Do not set any universal standard for high caliber people;
3. Be open-minded when facilitating quality development of all business segments;
4. Accelerate the digitalization and clean energy transformation;
5. Expand globally without wavering, and persevere with "globalization".

Great Wall Motor was incorporated as a result of ownership reform. It has been growing in tandem with China's automobile industry for decades, and has thus involved in shaping China's economic development. The Company has prospered from its own reforms, leaping from a "market player" position into leadership in the automobile industry, and has fueled confidence in the development of Chinese brands. Now as we arrive at an important juncture (30th anniversary) in our development, we should develop a perspective plan, have a broader vision, be more open-minded and innovative, in order to achieve globalization of the automobile industry in our time! A man with dogged ambition can overcome difficulties easily; a man who keeps walking can reach his destination no matter how far it is.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

I. DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF THE BUSINESS OPERATION OF THE COMPANY

Operating Environment

In 2019, growth in global economy and trade slowed down significantly while growth in major economies generally declined. Facing a complex international and domestic environment marked by increasing risks and challenges, China's economic development remained stable while making progress with fairly sufficient employment. The three tough battles (i.e. targeted poverty alleviation, pollution control and preventing major risks) have achieved notable results, and various tasks have yielded positive results. The gross domestic product ("GDP") in 2019 reached RMB99.1 trillion, representing a year-on-year growth of 6.1%.

In the process of transformation and upgrade in 2019, China's automotive industry was faced with relatively high pressure under the impact of Sino-US trade frictions, phase-in of higher environmental standards, and the reduction in subsidies for new energy vehicles. During the Year, manufacturing companies made proactive response by taking the initiative to adjust their activities. In the second half of 2019, the market showed signs of recovery, and its growth in general remained within a reasonable range.

In 2019, the production volume and sales volume of automobiles amounted to 25,721,000 units and 25,769,000 units respectively, representing year-on-year decreases of 7.5% and 8.2% respectively. Nevertheless, the production and sales volume of automobiles in China continued to rank first in the world.

According to the statistics of China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, the production volume and sales volume of passenger vehicles in 2019 amounted to 21,360,000 units and 21,444,000 units in 2019, representing year-on-year decreases of 9.2% and 9.6% respectively.

Amid a severe market environment, the Company was determined to reform, which helped enhance products and brands; the Company achieved a sales volume of over one million units for the full year and a year-on-year growth of 1.43% in sales volume.

Disposal and acquisition of assets

For details, please refer to the relevant descriptions of “Disposal of major assets and equity interest” and “Acquisition” in “The Principal Operation during the Reporting Period” in item II of this section of this report.

During the Year, reporting and announcements regarding the asset acquisitions and disposals by the Group were made in accordance with Chapter 14A or requirements under Chapter 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Hong Kong Listing Rules”).

Other than the above disposal and acquisitions of assets, the Company, its subsidiaries and associates did not have any other major disposals and acquisitions of assets during the Year.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Capital structure

The Group mainly finances its day-to-day operations with its internal cash flows and bank borrowings. As at 31 December 2019, the Company had short-term borrowings of RMB1,180,470,655.50, mainly used for overseas investments and as working capital; and long-term borrowings (including long-term borrowings due within one year) of RMB4,353,492,768.41, mainly for the construction of overseas and Chongqing manufacturing plants.

Exposure to foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk represents risks of loss incurred as a result of changes in exchange rates. Foreign currency assets and liabilities which may influence the Group's business performance due to the foreign exchange risk are set out as below:

Item	RMB
	As at 31 December 2019 (Audited)	As at 31 December 2018 (Audited)

The Group's principal products are pick-up trucks, SUVs and sedans. The Group also engages in the production and sale of major automotive parts and components used in the above mentioned products. During the Year, the Group's sales volume of automobiles achieved a year-on-year growth of 1.43%, with continued improvement in product mix.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

(1) Pick-up truck

According to the statistics of China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, the Group's pick-up trucks continued to rank first in the PRC market in terms of sales volume for 22 consecutive years, thus entrenching its leading market position. During the Year, the Group launched "Great Wall Pao" series covering a comprehensive range of pick-up trucks, which seeks to be end-user oriented through offering superior products, superior services, superior experience and the "Great Wall Pao Alliance" plan. The Great Wall Pao series can match the comfort of a sedan, the off-road nature of an SUV, and the payload capacity of a light truck. One Great Wall Pao can function as four different types of vehicles through its multiple-purpose characteristics. In 2019, the Group launched passenger and commercial models. The sturdy-looking Great Wall Pao is equipped with an 8AT automatic transmission and capable of driving itself at a Level 2 autonomy; it is also installed with ESP (electronic stability programme) and a 360-degree surround view system.

(2) SUV

During the Year, the Group accelerated the launch of new car models, introducing more brand new cars. With respect to the Haval brand, the Group, during the Year, launched various facelift models and brand new models. The Group also upgraded vehicle emission level. Through continuous improvement of product quality, Haval SUV continued to rank first in sales volume in the domestic SUV market for 10 consecutive years. In particular, Haval H6 ranked first in sales volume in the SUV market for 79 months, while Haval F7 had an average monthly sales of over 10,000 units since its launch. The "Haval 5-2-1 Globalisation Strategy" was announced during the Year. The Haval brand has unveiled a new era. Its success has been attributable to its perseverance with market focus, and an integrity-based approach. With respect to the WEY brand, the Group rolled out the models "VV7GT", "VV7 PHEV" and "VV7GT PHEV". By continuing to launch new models, the Group maintained stable sales volume of automobiles under WEY brand; meanwhile, the Group strengthened brand marketing to enhance the WEY brand.

(3) New energy vehicles

During the Year, to establish ORA brand as a stylish, comfortable and smart vehicle representing the "new generation of compact electric cars", the Group innovated its marketing model with an end-user-oriented approach to develop products and continuously launch facelift and upgraded models in accordance with the needs of end-users. The ORA brand, being the vanguard of the Group's automobile innovative marketing and business mode reform, achieved a rapid growth in sales volume in 2019; in particular, "ORA R1" posted the fastest growth in sales volume in the A00 level new energy market segment.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Domestic market

During the Year, slowdown in the domestic economic growth, coupled with the Sino-US trade dispute had a relatively large impact on the domestic automobile industry. During the Year, sales volume in first-tier cities increased. In the low-end markets, which suffered greater impact from the slowdown in economic growth, the sales volume of automobiles declined significantly. At the same time, due to decrease in the industry's sales volume, price competition in the domestic automobile market further intensified; meanwhile the joint ventures' brands continued to lower the price of their car models, leading to more ferocious market competition.

In the face of changing market conditions, the Group continued to strengthen its brand building and launched more new models. During the Year, "Haval H6 GT", "Haval F7x", "2020 Haval H9" and "2020 VV6" were launched. In the second half of 2019, the Group introduced a new brand for pick-up trucks – "Great Wall Pao", under which passenger and commercial vehicle models were launched, thereby further enriching the pick-up truck category and enhancing the brand.

Overseas markets

During the Year, the Group's Tula factory in Russia was completed and put into operation, which greatly boosted the export sales volume of the Company. In addition, the Group also stepped up its overseas market promotional efforts, thus having achieved automobile export sales volume of 65,404 units, representing a year-on-year increase of 44.93%.

The Group's overseas research and development ("R&D") centres in Japan, South Korea, India, Germany, Austria and the United States had been in operation, enabling the Group to achieve global R&D, which facilitated rapid improvement in the Group's product quality.

The Group further fine-tuned the distribution channels of overseas markets. Vehicles under the Haval brand were being promoted in overseas markets. Meanwhile, the Group also actively explored other overseas markets with potential, in a bid to further boost its sales volume in future.

New energy

The Group concurrently engaged in the development of EV (electric vehicle), HEV (hybrid electric vehicle) and PHEV (plug-in hybrid electric vehicle), which involved three different types of technology, as well as the planning of FCV (fuel cell vehicle). In 2019, the Group launched two plug-in hybrid vehicles "VV7 PHEV" and "VV7GT PHEV" under the brand "WEY", which further enriched the Company's product portfolio of new energy vehicles.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Global R&D system

Great Wall Motor possesses world-class R&D equipment and system, as well as the development and design capabilities of three product categories, namely SUV, sedan and pick-up truck, as well as powertrain. With respect to technology development, the Group always adheres to “precise investment”, focuses on effective R&D, and pursues industry leadership, thereby laying a solid foundation for sustainable independent innovation.

In the field of Internet of Vehicles and intelligent network, Great Wall Motor is building an open technological innovation platform to jointly promote the R&D of key technologies such as 5G, Internet of Things, self-driving, and Internet of Vehicles V2X etc. and to accelerate the industrialization of generic technologies.

On the aspect of intelligent network, in July 2019, the Group joined hands with eight strategic partners, namely Tencent, Alibaba’s AutoNavi, Baidu, China Telecom, China Unicom, China Mobile, Huawei and Qualcomm, to establish a GTO (GreatWall Totally Online) total intelligent ecosystem and to develop, basing on 5G+AI technologies, experience-driven robots that bring full-lifecycle experience and services to users, thereby creating a new era of travel robots.

Collaboration with BMW Holding (“BMW”)

On 29 November 2019, Spotlight Automotive, a joint project between the Company and BMW, officially kicked off in Zhangjiagang City, Jiangsu Province. This marks another milestone in the innovative cooperation between Great Wall Motor and BMW following the signing of a 50:50 joint venture agreement by both parties 2018 as in presence of the government officials of the PRC and Germany.

The project involved a total investment of RMB5.1 billion, with an annual standard production capacity of 160,000 units and approximately 3,000 employees. According to the plan, the products under the Spotlight Automotive project will be offered, by brand, on the respective sales and service networks of BMW and Great Wall Motor. The two parties will unswervingly continue to maintain a successful collaboration relationship with the existing sales and service network partners.

Leveraging the R&D capabilities and resources of both shareholders, Spotlight Automotive has achieved a new business model of “joint research and development of products to be made in China for the global market”.

The kick-off ceremony marked the official implementation of the Spotlight Automotive project, and also started a new journey of collaboration between BMW Group and Great Wall Motor. The project will provide a strong support for Great Wall Motor’s globalization strategy and set a new benchmark for Sino-foreign collaboration in future.

It is believed that with the Group’s cooperation with BMW on technology and production, the Spotlight Automotive project will realize synergistic effect of “one plus one greater than two”. Meanwhile, with further advancement of the Spotlight Automotive project, this new joint venture, which implies light, glory, cleanliness, energy and speed, will also open up a new pattern for the new energy vehicle industry.

Launch of new products

During the Year, the Group rationalized its four major brands, namely Haval, WEY, Great Wall Pickup and ORA, and launched more new and facelift models, boosting the Group's sales volume to over 1,000,000 units.

The main car models launched in 2019 are as follows:

Launch date	Car model	Model characteristics
February 2019	Haval H6 Coupe Intelligent Connected Version	Equipped with the Haval intelligent networking system, the new model is powered by the golden combination of "1.5GDIT engine + 7DCT". It takes 9.7 seconds to accelerate from zero to 100 kilometres per hour and consumes 6.8 litres of fuel per 100 kilometres, reaching a perfect balance between power and fuel consumption. Safety features include 6 airbags, 360-degree surround view system, blind spot detection system and LED automatic headlights.
March 2019	ORA R1 Goddess Edition	Built on the ME platform, a dedicated platform for electric vehicles rather than a "switching oil to electricity" platform, ORA R1 has core advantages over car body structure and three electric system, making it perfect for urban commuting. Designed to cater to stylish consumers, ORA R1 boasts a series of amenities to gratify drivers' needs.
April 2019	Haval F7x	Positioned as "AI Smart SUV", Haval F7x integrates the fastback styling of a sport coupe in its exterior design that adapts to the taste of its youthful target customers with its high-tech style interior that takes inspiration from the spaceship cockpit to bring about an ultimate driving experience. Equipped with a fully-upgraded and driver-centred intelligent technology configuration including Level 2 autopilot system and the latest Haval intelligent networking system, the model is powered by a 1.5T or 2.0T engine with a maximum power of 165kW and peak torque of 385Nm and takes only 6.6 seconds to accelerate from zero to 100 kilometres per hour.
August 2019	Haval H9-2020	Positioned as "Smart All-Terrain SUV", Haval H9-2020 offers strong off-road performance featuring three differential locks, cruise control off-road and tank u-turn, advanced safety systems such as Level 2 autopilot system and Bosch Version 9.3 ESP, and upgraded intelligent technology including over-the-air software updating, dual-mode navigation and smart voice control.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Launch date	Car model	Model characteristics
August 2019	Great Wall Pao	As the first product launched in the Age of Pick-up 3.0 that embraces a passenger-oriented trend, Great Wall Pao integrates the following five elements in the new ecological system: firstly, comfortability the same as passenger vehicles featuring multiple connecting rods, 8AT, sunroof, soft-touch interior coating, leather seats and fragrance; secondly, intelligent technology including Level 2 autopilot system that enables assisted driving, environment detection and decision-making as well as 360-degree surround view system, adaptive cruise control, intelligent front-view recognition system and 12 radar sensors; thirdly, network connection supported by the latest generation of vehicle networking solution that offers online navigation, online speech recognition, dynamic information service and remote control; fourthly, customization brought about by the world-leading flexible production lines in our smart plant in Chongqing to provide various personally tailored products; and fifthly, environmental friendliness achieved by adopting "China VI" vehicle emission standards in all of Great Wall Pao models and launching all-electric and hydrogen-fueled pick-ups in the future.
September 2019	Haval H4 Pro	To emphasize its stylishness and smartness, H4 Pro has an improved appearance and interior as well as an upgraded configuration to include the Hi-Life intelligent network connection system.
October 2019	Haval H4 Joy Edition (樂享版)	Haval H4 Joy Edition (樂享版) is equipped with the latest Haval intelligent networking system and a 1.5T turbocharged engine.
October 2019	VV7 GT	The model comes with a sloped fastback style that is often featured in a GT, and is equipped with the new exhaust system, launch control and laser headlight to enhance driving safety.
November 2019	VV7 PHEV	Powered by the combination of 2.0T engine + 7DCT, the model is equipped with the iBooster electromechanical brake booster and the ESP 9.3 system to achieve 100% brake energy regeneration. It consumes 1.6L of fuel per 100 kilometres and has a pure-electric cruising range of 70km. It can be accelerated to 100 kilometres per hour in 5.9 seconds under the unique launch control mode. As the flagship product of the WEY brand, VV7 PHEV is empowered by the Collie system that includes 43 leading intelligent safety technologies to provide all-round intelligent safety guarantee.

Launch date	Car model	Model characteristics
November 2019	HAVAL F7-2020	Powered by the golden combination of "1.5GDIT/2.0GDIT engine + 7DCT", this model, positioned as "AI Connected SUV" redefines the new generation of SUVs with its space age aesthetics design and powerful intelligent technology.
December 2019	HAVAL H6 GT (newly introduced)	Introducing new level of power, the latest HAVAL H6 GT boasts a self-developed 2.0T turbocharged direct-injected engine coded "GW4C20B", which has been awarded as 2019 "Chinese Heart" Annual Top Ten Engines.

In addition, at Shanghai International Automobile Industry Exhibition in April 2019, the Group showcased a number of SUV models including existing mass-produced models as well as new models to be launched in the future.

Outlook

2020 is the last year of the 13th Five-Year Plan, and it is also a year of significant importance for the Company to embrace new challenges and achieve high-quality development.

China's automobile industry declined for two consecutive years, and with the impact of the COVID-19, there will be downward pressure on the economy. Against the backdrop of excess capacity elimination, inventory reduction and decline in consumption growth, the overall automobile market will continue to be volatile and on a downward trend in 2020.

Despite the continuous decline of the automobile industry in the past two years, the Company managed to achieve sales volume exceeding one million units.

Based in China, the Group will continue its global expansion. The Group's plant in Tula Oblast, Russia was completed and put into operation in 2019. In early 2020, the Group entered into agreements with General Motors for the acquisition of the latter's automobile factories in India and Thailand, a step signifying the Group's further development of the global market.

The Group is not only committed to constant expansion of the sales volume of its automobiles, but also its parts and components business. The Group currently has established Honeycomb Yichuang Technology Co., Ltd. ("Honeycomb Yichuang"), Nuobo Automotive Systems Co., Ltd. ("Nuobo Automotive Systems"), Mind Electronics Company Limited ("Mind Electronics") and Jingcheng Engineering Automotive Systems Co., Ltd. ("Jinggong Automotive"). These four parts and components companies continue to improve the quality of parts and components, expand external market business, which will become the growth pole of the Company's operating performance in the future.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

In terms of new technologies, the Group actively utilizes new technologies and innovation to carry out in-depth cooperation with leading enterprises in the market such as Huawei, Baidu, Qualcomm etc. Meanwhile, the Group's in-house staff also actively conducts development and application of new technologies; the Group's autonomous driving technology had reached Level 2.

In future, the Group will continue to adhere to the open-minded innovation approach, working with the upstream and downstream enterprises as well as related parties to achieve collaborative development and innovation, thereby creating greater value for stakeholders.

The Group actively explores overseas markets. In 2019, the Group's plant in Tula Oblast, Russia commenced operation after completing the construction. At the same time, dealers in Ecuador, Malaysia and other places established KD (knock-down) factories. The Group can now achieve overseas CBU (completely built unit) production and KD assembly. The Group continues to step up its efforts in overseas market development. Through the establishment of overseas factories and subsidiaries, the Group continues to boost its exports. In addition, the Group will strengthen its brand marketing efforts in overseas markets, to continue to enhance its reputation and influence in overseas markets, paving the way for effective global marketing.

New facilities

Completed and put into operation in June 2019, the Group's plant in Tula Oblast, Russia, will mainly be used to produce Haval H9 and Haval F7 models. Production of the plant is expected to help boost sales in Russia and extend the Group's reach into the Eastern European market.

The Group's plant in Yongchuan, Chongqing was completed and put into operation in August 2019, which will cover the southwestern market and the Yangtze River Economic Belt.

In July 2019, Honeycomb Yichuang and Jinggong Automotive under the Group entered into an investment cooperation agreement with the Yangzhong municipal government of Jiangsu province for the establishment of a plant in Yangzhong, which will produce engines, transmissions, electric drive systems, die-casting components and other products. Establishing a plant in Yangzhong also signifies an important step in the development of the Group's parts and components business, which will create greater value for the Company's employees, customers and shareholders and will contribute to the local economic development.

In addition, construction of the Company's plants in Taizhou, Rizhao and Pinghu has commenced.

Four major parts and components companies

The Group has established Honeycomb Yichuang, Nuobo Automotive Systems, Jinggong Automotive and Mind Electronics. The core businesses of the aforesaid parts and components companies are as follows:

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Honeycomb Yichuang:

Honeycomb Yichuang is one of China's major automotive parts and components companies, mainly providing automotive powertrain system solutions, including automotive engines, transmissions, decelerators, electric drives, smart steering, automated driving systems and other components. Honeycomb Yichuang adheres to the concept of "excessive R&D", and integrates the world's top R&D resources by establishing seven R&D centers in Baoding, Shanghai of China and the United States, Austria, India, South Korea, Japan etc. It has become one of the few automotive parts and components companies in China that can fully master the core technology of automotive engines and transmission with independent intellectual property rights.

The 1.5GDIT engine and 7DCT transmission developed by Honeycomb Yichuang won the "China Heart" Top 10 Engines and the "World Top 10 Transmissions" respectively. On 20 June 2019, Honeycomb Yichuang officially released the "I era" powertrain technology, including 4N20 engine, 9DCT transmission, 6001 series electric drive and other products.

A series of three-in-one electric drive assembly products (combining motor, electric control system, decelerators) developed by Honeycomb Yichuang are highly integrated, with high NVH performance and two-speed electric drive configuration, being compatible with EV and PHEV (P4) system. Being a cutting-edge technology in the industry, this "three-in-one" electric drive assembly can greatly reduce volume, weight and cost, thereby increasing the mileage of electric vehicles.

Nuobo Automotive Systems:

Nuobo Automotive Systems mainly produces four major types of products, namely automotive interior and exterior decoration products, car seats, and rubber products. It has an annual capacity of 1.5 million sets, a full-set production and service structure, as well as a complete production system. With a wide range of products and experience of stable large-batch production, it can meet the requirements of various customers. Nuobo Automotive's key business covers the latest products including seat assembly, door panel assembly, front-end framework, plastic fender, intake manifold and magnesium alloy mount etc.

Jinggong Automotive:

Jinggong Automotive is a global automotive parts and components supplier dedicated to diversification and engaged in the design, development and manufacturing of metal parts, components and modular products. The products included chassis systems, body systems, power systems, transmission systems and other related components and automated production equipment. The products are divided into three major categories according to their process characteristics, namely chassis, equipment and die-casting. The process involves cold stamping, hydroforming, welding, electrophoresis, machining, module assembly, aluminum alloy casting, mold casting, thermoforming, rolling, mold design and manufacturing, automation equipment design and integration, resource recovery and reuse etc.

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

Mind Electronics:

Mind Electronics includes three business segments, namely optoelectronics, thermal systems and electrical systems. By integrating automotive lighting and its electronic components, air conditioning, cooling modules and battery thermal management, automotive high-voltage and low-voltage wiring harnesses, Mind Electronics has 7 production bases and 4 R&D centers in Baoding, Xushui, Tianjin and Shanghai. With the continuous expansion of the Company's business, new production bases will be built in Chongqing and the eastern region in the future.

Tax incentives for high-tech enterprises

In accordance with the Notice Regarding the Announcement of the First Batch of the List of High-tech Enterprises to be Identified in Hebei Province in 2019 (關於公示河北省2019年第一批擬認定高新技術企業名單的通知) issued by the Torch High-tech Industry Development Center of the Ministry of Science and Technology (科技部火炬高技術產業開發中心) on 10 September 2019, the Company was re-accredited as a high-tech enterprise in 2019 (valid for three years) and hence is entitled to a preferential income tax rate of 15% from 2019 to 2021.

II. THE PRINCIPAL OPERATION DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

During the Reporting Period, the total operating revenue, operating profit and net profit attributable to shareholders of the Company were RMB96,211 million, RMB4,777 million and RMB4,497 million, representing an decrease of 3.04%, an decrease of 23.35% and an decrease of 13.64%, respectively, as compared to the corresponding period of last year.

(IX) Structured entities under the control of the Company

Applicable  Not applicable

III. DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS CONCERNING THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE COMPANY

(I) Landscape and development trend of the industry

Applicable  Not applicable

Industry landscape in 2019

According to the data released by the China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, the production and sales volume of automobiles in China declined substantially to 25,721,000 units and 25,769,000 units respectively, representing a year-on-year decrease of 7.5% and 8.2%. Among these vehicles, the production and sales volume of passenger vehicles were 21,360,000 units and 21,444,000 units respectively, representing a year-on-year decrease of 9.2% and 9.6%.

As far as the entire automotive industry is concerned, 9,367,700 units of SUV models were sold, representing a year-on-year decrease of 6.3%. In terms of market segments, 4,920,000 units of China-made SUV models were sold, representing a decrease of 15%, and the market share decreased to 52.6% from 58.0%. Industry competition is expected to intensify in the coming years as the selling prices of joint venture brands continue to fall and more products are being launched on the market.

Market position of the Company

Great Wall Motor ranked eighth in terms of total sales volume in 2019.

Haval SUV continued to outperform the domestic SUV market by topping the annual sales charts for the tenth time in a row in the domestic SUV market;

WEY became the first Chinese luxury brand with the sales of 300,000 units;

ORA R1, the main bestseller model under the ORA brand, achieved the highest sales growth rate in the new energy A00 segment market;

Pick-up trucks retained the title of the bestseller in terms of sales volume for 22 consecutive years.

Future development of the automotive industry

- ① Existing and new competitors will join the automotive industry, forcing companies to strive to improve their core competitiveness and continuously shorten the iteration cycle;
- ② The automotive industry is seeing collaboration between groups, showing a trend that features "participation involving various parties, and collaboration in competition";

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

- ③ A new round of technological revolution represented by the Internet, big data, cloud computing and artificial intelligence is driving a comprehensive transformation of the automotive industry;
- ④ As more companies regard “digital” as their core assets, new resources and new wealth, they carry out digital transformation with the purpose of increasing operational efficiency and boosting revenue growth, making this trend a strategic direction for many companies to grow;
- ⑤ The conventional model of creating sales as the main source of profits is changing rapidly, and the new feature has begun to emerge that the core along the industrial value chain is shifting backwards.

(II) Development strategy of the Company

Applicable  Not applicable

Focusing on SUVs, the Company aspires to build a world-class professional SUV brand and act as an active pathfinder, thereby becoming a global leader in the SUV industry.

As the trends of intellectualization, interconnection, energy cleanliness and sharing are sweeping the globe, the Company will step up its investment in advanced technology and provide its customers with integrated solutions to smart travel.

(III) Operational plan

Applicable  Not applicable

The Group’s sales target for 2020 is 1,020,000 units.

Setting a foothold surpassing international benchmarks, Great Wall Motor will maintain its focus on product quality with delicate sensation and reliability as core elements. By strengthening the preliminary product planning, it will build up technology development capabilities and improve product capabilities on an ongoing basis;

The Company will deepen its global strategic planning and open a new chapter in the market with its multi-brand planning.

(IV) Potential risks

Applicable  Not applicable

Set out below are the four major potential risks that the Company may be exposed to:

1. with China’s automotive market undergoing a transitional period, the oversupply of production capacity, brands and products and the increased competition in the automotive industry shall lead to the elimination of some of the automobile enterprises;

Section 5 Discussion and Analysis of the Business Operation of the Company (Management Discussion and Analysis)

2. the direct relationship between the end consumers and automakers, internet companies and travel companies enabled by the maturity of vehicle networking technology has reduced the profitability of the traditional 4S store model and facilitated the transition towards the online and offline model in various forms;
3. the Group's new energy business, in the course of building up brand and developing products and technologies, faces enormous pressure from fuel consumption credits and operational costs due to the lack of competitiveness, the restriction on fuel consumption and the reduction in subsidies for the new energy sector;
4. "intellectualization", "interconnection", "cleanliness" and "sharing" have become the generally accepted future trends in the automotive industry. Realizing these trends requires disruptive innovation among automotive companies, which calls for a reconstruction of the research and development system and a disruption of creative thinking and product concepts.
5. the pandemic poses a potential rupture risk for global automobile industry chain, which will bring operation and management crisis to enterprises and mainly involve the procurement, production, sales and investment of enterprises, thus causing the risk of production capacity stagnation.

In light of the above potential risks, the Company has taken the following major measures:

1. the Company will accelerate its global expansion by establishing systematic global management and organizational capabilities, so as to achieve breakthroughs in key overseas markets while ensuring incremental market growth;
2. sticking to its strategies of multi-brand operations and entire industry chain synergy, the Company provides customer-centered and high-quality service to increase brand awareness and value, thus creating a new "experience + business" oriented retail model to build up a new marketing ecosystem with an integration of online and offline channels;
3. to facilitate the implementation of the new energy plan, the Company will lay out resources for new energy technology to establish platforms for multiple brands and products with an emphasis on electric power while exploring hybrid and hydrogen energy;
4. the Company carries out digital transformation by digitalizing its design, production, sales and service process to increase the operational efficiency and quality of its main value chain.
5. the Company conducts analysis and prediction on the pandemic impact and proactively adjusts the operation strategy of the enterprise; builds up forward-looking healthy management system for employees to improve the swift response to the public health emergencies; reduces enterprise capital pressure through financial management measures; actively adjusts procurement and market strategy, such as taking into account multiple sources supply strategy and maintaining strategical safety reservoir scheme; shoulders social responsibility bravely to boost brand reputation; and establishes long-term mechanism to handle crisis and manage business continuity.

1. The Company and Great Wall Holdings

The 16th meeting of the sixth session of the Board was held by the Company on 20 February 2019, at which the Proposal on the Contemplated Ordinary Related Party Transactions for 2019-2021 was approved in relation to the estimated aggregate amount of transactions for leasing, provision for lease, purchase of products, sale of products, purchase of services and sales services between the Group and Great Wall Holdings (長城控股) from 2019 to 2021. The proposal was considered and approved at the second extraordinary general meeting held by the Company on 12 April 2019. For details, please refer to the Announcement on Ordinary Related Party Transactions of Great Wall Motor Company Limited (announcement No.: 2019-011) dated 20 February 2019 and the Announcement on Resolutions of the 2019 Second Extraordinary General Meeting of Great Wall Motor Company Limited (announcement No.: 2019-022) dated 12 April 2019, as published by the Company. Set out below are the ordinary related party transactions conducted in 2019 as of 31 December 2019 between the Group and Great Wall Holdings (長城控股):

Currency: RMB Unit: 0'000

Type	Estimated cap for 2019	Actual amount for 2019	Reasons for the relatively large difference between the estimated amount and the actual amount
Procurement of products	596,500.00	94,089.18	Mainly due to the relatively small number of battery packs purchased from related parties as a result of the small sale scale of new energy vehicles of the Company
Sales of products	382,605.00	30,118.23	Mainly due to the small purchase scale of new energy vehicles to the Company by related parties
Procurement of services	9,788.00	4,707.40	–
Provision of services	2,760.00	3,228.52	–
Leasing	1,811.00	1,177.17	–
Provision of leases	441.00	693.10	–
Total	993,905.00	134,013.60	–

The total amount of the continuing related (connected) transactions between the Group and Great Wall Holdings (including companies directly or indirectly under its control) in 2019 did not exceed the estimated amount for 2019. Specifically, the amount by which the actual amount of the provision of services and provision of leases in 2019 exceeded the estimated amount did not meet the criteria for disclosure under the Rules Governing the Listing of Stocks on Shanghai Stock Exchange. Meanwhile, transactions in relation to the provision of services, leasing, and provision of leases are exempt from all requirements of reporting, annual review, announcement, and independent shareholders' approval under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Noise: There are no cultural, educational or other noise-sensitive sites around the factory sites. The maximum level of noise emitted was lower than the standard stipulated in Boundary Noise Emission Standards for Industrial Enterprises (GB12348-2008).

Section 8 Significant Events

In 2019, a total of 1,137.13 tons of hazardous waste consisting mainly of sludge, paint waste and contaminated waste was produced, representing a unit production of 0.010 ton per vehicle. Such waste was transferred in accordance with the Notice on the Application of Dynamic Solid Waste Information Management Platform (《固體廢物動態信息管理平台應用有關工作的通知》), the Notice on the Relevant Procedures of Launching Tianjin's Hazardous Waste Online Transfer Supervision Platform for the Transfer of Hazardous Wastes in the City of Tianjin (《關於啟動天津市危險廢物在線轉移監管平台辦理危險廢物市內轉移相關手續的通知》) and the procedures for obtaining approval of transfer established by the competent authorities in Tianjin and Baoding. Hazardous waste of Tianjin was transferred to Tianjin Hejia Veolia Environmental Services Co., Ltd. (天津合佳威立雅環境服務有限公司), Tianjin Binhai Hejia Veolia Environmental Services Co., Ltd. (天津濱海合佳威立雅環境服務有限公司), Tianjin Yahuan Renewable Resources Recycling Co., Ltd. (天津市雅環再生資源回收利用有限公司) and Tianjin Huaqing Baisheng Energy Co., Ltd. (天津華慶百勝能源有限公司) for disposal. Hazardous waste of Baoding was transferred to Cangzhou Jihuan Veolia Environmental Services Co., Ltd. (滄州冀環威立雅環境服務有限公司), Qinhuangdao Xushankou Hazardous Waste Treatment Co., Ltd. (秦皇島市徐山口危險廢物處理有限公司), Baoding Colin Heating Co., Ltd. (保定科林供熱有限公司), Hebei Fenghua Environmental Protection Service Co., Ltd. (河北風華環保服務有限公司) and other companies for disposal. General solid waste produced by the Company is comprised mainly of domestic waste. In 2019, a total of 15,900 tons of general solid waste was produced, representing a unit production of 0.015 ton per vehicle, which was disposed of by the qualified waste recycling service providers engaged by the Company.

(2) Construction and operation of anti-pollution facilities

Applicable  Not applicable

In compliance with national laws and regulations as well as emissions standards, the waste emissions indicators of the Company and its major subsidiaries adhered to the most stringent domestic requirements currently in force. Emissions levels of sewage, exhaust gas, noise and solid waste complied with requirements, and sewage from plant sites was fully treated at sewage treatment plants of the Company, undergoing pre-treatment, biochemical treatment, filtering and disinfection procedures, with the treated grey water used for flushing and greening. Licensed discharge of the remaining grey water was made through the municipal sewage network, and the levels of sewage pollutants discharged were much lower than the emissions limits required by laws and regulations. VOCs and RTO produced by stoving were treated by combustion, exhaust gas from spraying and coating was treated by zeolite rotor and combustion facilities on top of the existing Giovanni treatment facilities based on their characteristics, undergoing adsorption, desorption and combustion procedures so as to achieve the treatment of VOCs in exhaust gas from spraying and coating. Treated exhaust gas was discharged through exhaust vents at height after meeting the required standards. In order to reduce noise, the Company proactively adopted various noise prevention and mitigation measures to reduce the impact on the environment. Installation of anti-vibration bases for noise-generating equipment, constructing green belts in the vicinity of noise sources and provision of acoustic shields (soundproof rooms) were the main measures undertaken for preventing and controlling noise. Effectively keeping off and lowering noise ensured eliminating noise efficiently for meeting the required emissions standards. The Company tackled the process of waste management at source by storing waste by type and setting up temporary storage sites for solid waste. It also placed emphasis on recycling of resources, with all useful waste of value sold to external parties or re-used and worthless waste handled by dedicated waste disposal companies for compliant disposal. Dedicated storage sites meeting requirements, equipped with smart monitoring systems and connected with environmental authorities through the Internet, were set up for all hazardous waste. Real time supervision by government authorities round the clock during the year can ensure that waste storage and disposal meet the required standards.

The Company proactively established sound environmental management systems, received the ISO14001:2004 Environmental Management Systems audit certification in 2008, and passed the revised ISO14001:2015 Environmental Management Systems revision audit in 2017 and ISO14001:2015 Environmental Management Systems surveillance audit in 2018 and 2019. Rules and regulations on environmental management systems were well implemented.

(3) Environmental impact assessment of construction projects and administrative permits concerning environmental protection

Applicable  Not applicable

The Company carried out environmental impact assessment for and final environmental protection acceptance check on each of the new construction, conversion and expansion projects, and enforced the requirements of the environmental impact assessment system, the "Three Simultaneities" system and relevant laws and regulations by strictly complying with laws and regulations such as the Regulations on the Administration of Construction Project Environmental Protection (《建設項目環境保護管理條例》) and the Environmental Impact Assessment Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國環境影響評價法》) promulgated by the State Council, and the Interim Measures for the Final Environmental Protection Acceptance Check on Construction Projects (《建設項目竣工環境保護驗收暫行辦法》) promulgated by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment.

All projects of the Company and its major subsidiaries obtained approval in environmental impact assessment in accordance with the laws while relevant auxiliary environmental facilities passed the respective environmental protection acceptance check and obtained a pollutant discharge permit (permit number: 91130000105941834E001Z). The Company regularly conducted environmental monitoring, with all results meeting the required standards.

(4) Emergency plan for environmental contingency

Applicable  Not applicable

In order to lower and prevent potential environmental risks effectively, the Company established emergency preparation and response procedures, formulated an environmental contingency plan and filed it with local environmental authorities for record (contingency plan file number: 91130000105941835). To ensure the feasibility and effectiveness of the contingency plan, the Company developed measures that should be adopted to control incidents and emergencies with previous occurrences or potential ones that might occur, and drills on the internal environmental contingency plan would be conducted on an annual basis.

Section 8 Significant Events

(5) Voluntary environmental monitoring plan

Applicable  Not applicable

1. Regularly monitoring the discharge of sewage, keeping water quality inspection records and installing automatic PH, flow, COD, ammoniacal nitrogen, total nitrogen and total phosphorus monitoring equipment;
2. Regularly monitoring the discharge of VOCs, keeping VOCs inspection records, installing online VOC monitoring equipment and transmitting the real-time data to the environmental authorities;
3. Regularly monitoring noise on a voluntary basis and keeping noise inspection records;
4. Carrying out third-party monitoring of pollutant discharge on schedule in accordance with the environmental protection requirements.

(6) Other environmental information which shall be disclosed

Applicable  Not applicable

According to the relevant requirements under the Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國環境保護法》) and the Measures for the Disclosure of Environmental Information by Enterprises and Institutions (Huanbao Bu No. 31) (《企業事業單位環境信息公開辦法》(環保部第31號令)), the key pollutant discharge work units announced by the local environmental protection departments in the places where the Company and its major subsidiaries are located are Great Wall Motor Company Limited, Baoding Nuobo Rubber Production Co., Ltd., Jingcheng Engineering Automotive Systems Co., Ltd., Great Wall Motor Company Limited's Dingxing Branch, Baoding Great Wall Exquisite Foundry Company Limited, Shunping Fine Casting Branch of Jingcheng Engineering Automotive Systems Co., Ltd., Tianjin Haval Branch of Great Wall Motor Company Limited, Tianjin Haval Branch of Great Wall Motor Company Limited – Dynamics Business Department, Tianjin Haval Branch of Great Wall Motor Company Limited – Transmission Business Department, Tianjin Haval Branch of Great Wall Motor Company Limited – Interior and Exterior Decoration Business Department, Tianjin Haval Branch of Great Wall Motor Company Limited – Chassis Business Department, Tianjin Boxin Automotive Parts Company Limited. A relevant column/section on environmental information has been created on the Company's official website to publish the Company's environmental-related information.

2. *Description of environmental protection of companies other than key pollutant discharging units

Applicable  Not applicable

In order to build the Company as a green factory, develop it as an environmental-friendly enterprise, apply the concept of green development, advocate the build-up of ecological civilization and follow the path towards green manufacturing with determination, the Company's subsidiaries focused on accomplishing the following tasks during the Reporting Period:

Section 8 Significant Events

1. Stepped up the establishment of management offices and systems to further raise basic management standards. All subsidiaries of the Company had their environmental management offices and management staff, which formed an environmental management network across the Company. Environmental management rules and regulations were formulated and enforced stringently so that environmental work was under management.
2. In compliance with national laws and regulations as well as emissions standards, the waste emissions indicators of the Company and its major subsidiaries adhered to the most stringent domestic requirements currently in force. Emissions levels of sewage, exhaust gas, noise and solid waste complied with requirements, and sewage from plant sites was fully treated at sewage treatment plants of the Company, undergoing pre-treatment, biochemical treatment, filtering and disinfection procedures, with the treated grey water used for flushing and greening. Dedicated storage sites meeting requirements, equipped with smart monitoring systems and connected with environmental authorities through the Internet, were set up for all hazardous waste. Real time supervision by government authorities round the clock during the year helped ensure that waste storage and disposal could meet the required standards.
3. Improved the construction of various pollution control facilities by increasing financial commitment to environmental protection on an ongoing basis. All enterprises of the Company had built comprehensive pollution prevention and control facilities for the comprehensive treatment of various types of pollution such as sewage, exhaust gas and noise pollution, and for the lawful and compliant disposal of hazardous waste. In recent years, the Company kept increasing financial commitment to environmental protection, especially the prevention and control of air pollution, thus having made due contributions to improving air quality.

Section 8 Significant Events

4. Gained access to environmental laws and regulations in a timely manner to conduct compliance evaluation. The regulations governing environmental impact assessment on construction projects were enforced stringently for the new, renovation and expansion projects of all enterprises to make sure the "Three Simultaneities" system for environmental protection was enforced. The application for pollutant discharge permit was completed and self- and third-party monitoring was carried out.
5. Participated in more environmental exhibitions at home and abroad so as to learn and bring in new, state-of-the-art environmental technologies, and carried out whole-process control over pollutant emissions to achieve the management philosophy of waste reduction at source and treatment at the end simultaneously to raise pollution treatment standards and reduce the generation of pollutants.
6. Established a sound environmental risk emergency response mechanism. All enterprises had formulated an Emergency Plan for Unexpected Environmental Pollution Incidents. Environmental training and emergency drills for unexpected environmental incidents would be conducted every year to make sure that environmental management staff are familiar with environmental-related skills and that they can handle emergency quickly, orderly and efficiently when these incidents occur.

Section 12 Corporate Governance Report

F. Corporate Governance Functions

The Board is responsible for determining the policy for the corporate governance of the Company and performing the corporate governance duties as below:

1. to develop and review the Group's policies and practices on corporate governance;
2. to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of directors and senior management;
3. to review and monitor the Group's policies and practices in compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements;
4. to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) applicable to employees and directors of the Group; and
5. to review the Group's compliance with the Corporate Governance Code and disclose it in the Corporate Governance Report.

The Board has performed the above corporate governance duties during the Year.

Deviation: NIL

G. Risk Management and Internal Control

The Board confirms that it is obliged to monitor the risk management and internal control system of the Group and review its effectiveness on an annual basis through the Audit Committee. The risk management and internal control system is designed to manage rather than to eliminate the risks of failure to reach operation objectives, and may only provide reasonable instead of absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss. The Audit Committee is responsible for assisting the Board in evaluating the effectiveness of internal control and risk management, which includes monitoring the finance, operation, compliance and other material aspects of the Group. The Board has reviewed the risk management and internal control system of the Group, and confirmed that, for the year ended 31 December 2019, the risk management and internal control system was effective and no material fault or weakness in respect of supervision was identified during the Reporting Period.

1. Main characteristics of risk management and internal control

Risk management and internal control system:

The management is responsible for risk management and internal control, including formulating policies to manage risks, issuing risk warning and preparing risk management report in a timely manner, managing the evaluation of internal control, identifying defect of internal control, formulating rectification plan and giving feedback to the Board and the Audit Committee. The Board and the Audit Committee are responsible for evaluating the effectiveness of internal control and risk management.

Section 12 Corporate Governance Report

Duties:

The Board

- To oversee and review the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control system from time to time, so as to ensure the development and maintenance of an effective risk management and internal control system of the Group;
- To review the risk management and internal control system of the Group at least once a year and to ensure the sufficiency of resources on accounting, internal audit and financial reporting, qualification and experience of employees and training provided to employees and relevant budgets. The chairman shall decide whether to report ad hoc matters, if any, to the Board;
- To oversee the design, implementation and supervision of the risk management and internal control system by the management.

Audit Committee

- To review the risk management and internal control system of the Company;
- To assess the evaluation and review results in respect of the risk management and internal control system and to supervise the rectification of relevant defects;
- To discuss with the management on the risk management and internal control system in order to ensure that the management has performed its duties to establish an effective system;
- To analyse the findings of important investigation on risk management and internal control and the management's response to the relevant findings on its own or upon request of the Board.

The management

- To assume the duties of risk management and internal control and management of related aspects
- To report relevant information regarding the risk management and internal control to the Board and the Audit Committee

The risk management and internal control departments of the Group shall report to the Audit Committee and the Board regarding the risk management and internal control of the Group at the annual meeting, so as to facilitate the Board's evaluation on the effectiveness of control and risk management of the Group.

The Group has implemented policies and procedures to review the effectiveness of risk management and internal control and remedy the material defects of internal control, including requesting the management to conduct evaluation on a regular basis to keep abreast of related information in a timely manner. Furthermore, the Group has set up a system to safeguard integrity and honesty, combat corruption and facilitate case report and supervision.

Section 12 Corporate Governance Report

2. Procedures to identify, evaluate and manage material risks and the Group's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment

Relevant procedures:

(1) Risk identification

The Company formulates risk evaluation criteria to identify risks which may affect the Group.

(2) Risk evaluation

The Company evaluates the identified risks and classifies them into different risk levels.

(3) Risk management

The Company adopts different strategies to manage risks based on their levels and the risk management department supervises the effectiveness of the strategies. In addition, the Company formulates relevant countermeasures to prevent the recurrence of or lower the risks.

(4) Risk monitoring

The Company monitors risks in a consistent and regular manner and promptly amends the risk management and internal control procedures to ensure their appropriateness and effectiveness. The Company also regularly reports the result of risk monitoring to the management and the Board.

Ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment

In order to respond to changes in the external environment and maintain its profitability, the Company has optimized its business process and transformed its business and management models through management innovation, business reform and other measures. The medium to long-term visions of the Group have also been formulated. Efforts have been made to lower costs, enhance organisation and process and improve its ability, in order to ensure the implementation of the strategies and annual policies of the Group.

3. Internal audit

The internal audit department is responsible for internal audit of the Group and shall report directly to the Audit Committee. The internal audit department plays an important role in the evaluation of the effectiveness of risk management and internal control system of the Group and shall report the operation of such system directly to the Audit Committee on a regular basis.

Section 12 Corporate Governance Report

4. The effectiveness of processes for financial reporting and compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules

The Board and the Audit Committee have confirmed that the processes for financial reporting and compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules of the Group are effective.

5. Information disclosure rules

The Group has formulated the Administrative Rules on Information Disclosure, the Rules on Registration and Filing of Details of Insiders and the Administrative Rules on the Release of Information to External Parties and the Use of Such Information to regulate the channels for disclosing information to the public and the procedures for handling insider information of the Group, and define the processes for the preparation, review and release of information in order to ensure the confidentiality of insider information until timely disclosure in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Deviation: NIL

H. Company Secretary

In compliance with Rule 3.29 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Mr. Xu Hui, secretary to the Board of the Company, has taken no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training during the year ended 31 December 2019.

Deviation: NIL

I. Corporate Communications

The Board should endeavour to maintain an on-going dialogue with shareholders and in particular, to communicate with shareholders at annual general meetings.

- The Company communicates with shareholders by publishing the latest resolutions of the Board in its annual and interim reports and announcements. Contact details of secretary to the Board of the Company are contained in the “Investor Relations” channel on the Company’s website. The Company also responds to queries raised by investors.
- At the general meetings, the chairman of the meeting will put forward separate resolutions for each substantially independent issue.
- At the annual general meeting, the chairman of the Board will answer and provide proper explanations of questions raised by shareholders, their proxies and members of the Audit Committee.
- The details of the procedures for voting by poll and the shareholders’ rights for demanding a poll are set out in the circulars despatched to shareholders.

Deviation: NIL

Section 12 Corporate Governance Report

J. Shareholders' Rights

- Two or more shareholders holding, solely or jointly, 10% or more of the shares carrying voting rights at the proposed extraordinary general meeting may sign one or more written requisition(s) with the same form and contents, and submit the same with the agenda to the Board for holding an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting. The Board shall, upon receipt of the written requisition(s), hold an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting as soon as possible.
- Shareholders can attend the general meeting by presenting the proof of their identities, such as identity cards or other valid identification documents, and can put forward their proposals at the general meeting.
- Shareholders can make enquiries to the Board of the Company and submit their enquiry applications by fax (86-312-2197812).

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF GREAT WALL MOTOR COMPANY LIMITED:

I. OPINION

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Great Wall Motor Company Limited (hereinafter referred as "Great Wall Motor"), which comprise the consolidated and the company's balance sheets as at 31 December 2019, the consolidated and the company's income statements, the consolidated and the company's cash flow statements and the consolidated and the company's statements of changes in shareholders' equity for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated and the company's financial position as at 31 December 2019, and the consolidated and the company's results of operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises ("ASBEs").

II. BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with China Standards on Auditing ("CSAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of Great Wall Motor in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Chinese Certified Public Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

III. KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

(I). Capitalization of development expenditure

1. Description

As disclosed in Note (VI) 17 to the financial statements, the balance of development expenditure of Great Wall Motor was RMB2,188,699,764.12 as at 31 December 2019. As disclosed in Note (IV) to the financial statements, significant judgements made in the application of accounting policies – capitalization of development expenditure, considering that whether the development expenditure meets the capitalization conditions stipulated in the ASBEs involves significant judgment of management, the development expenditure is identified as a key audit matter.

2. Audit response

Our main procedures in relation to capitalization of development expenditure included:

- (1) Testing and evaluating of the effectiveness of the design and implementation of key internal controls related to the capitalization of development expenditure;
- (2) Understanding relevant accounting policies and estimates for capitalization conditions of development expenditure determined by the management, and evaluating the reasonableness of capitalization conditions of development expenditure and whether the provisions of ASBEs are complied with;
- (3) Sampling the supporting documents such as meeting minutes, project approvals and feasibility analysis, etc. related to research and development projects, and evaluating whether the conditions and basis for the capitalization of research and development projects are sufficient and reasonable;
- (4) Sample testing the project development expenditure to check and evaluate the authenticity and accuracy of development expenditure.

(II). Provision for after-sales service expenses

1. Description

As disclosed in Note (VI) 28 to the financial statements, the provision for after-sales service expenses made by Great Wall Motor was RMB694,933,978.06 as at 31 December 2019. As disclosed in Note (IV) key assumptions and uncertainties in accounting estimates – after-sales service expense, Great Wall Motor also undertakes warranty obligations within a specific warranty period regarding to automobiles sold. Great Wall Motor provided for after-sales service expenses based on sales volume and estimated expense standard, which involves significant accounting estimates and judgment made by management. Accordingly, provision for after-sales service expenses is identified as a key audit matter.

2. Audit response

Our main procedures in relation to the provision for after-sales service expenses included:

- (1) Testing and evaluating of the design and implementation effectiveness of key internal controls related to the provisions for after-sales service expenses;
- (2) Understanding and evaluating whether the accounting policies related to the provision were applied appropriately and consistently;
- (3) Understanding and evaluating the reasonableness of the methodology and calculation models used by Great Wall Motor in determining the provisions based on the requirements of laws and contracted terms;
- (4) Evaluating the reasonableness of the underlying data used by Great Wall Motor in the calculation models by analyzing historical repairment, maintenance records and sales data and, on a sample basis, checking relevant underlying data;
- (5) On a sample basis, recalculating the provision for after-sales service for major automobile models to verify the accuracy of calculation made by management.

IV. OTHER INFORMATION

Great Wall Motor's management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the 2019 annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Great Wall Motor's management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with ASBEs, and designing, implementing and maintaining the internal control that is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing Great Wall Motor's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern assumption unless management either intends to liquidate Great Wall Motor or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing Great Wall Motor's financial reporting process.

Section 14 Financial Report (Auditor's Report) (continued)

De Shi Bao (Shen) Zi (20) No. P02434

VI. AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with CSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with CSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of the management's use of going concern assumption and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of Great Wall Motor to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required by CSAs to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Great Wall Motor to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation (including the disclosures), structure and content of the financial statements, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within Great Wall Motor to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

For the scope of consolidated financial statements of this year refer to Note (VIII) “interest in other entities”. Changes in the scope of consolidated financial statements for the current year mainly refer to Note (VII) “changes in consolidation scope.”

II. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Basis of preparation

The Group has applied the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises ("ASBE") and guidelines, interpretations and other related provisions promulgated by the Ministry of Finance ("MoF"). In addition, the Group also discloses relevant financial information according to the requirements of Rules on Compiling the Information Disclosure of the Company that Issue Stocks Publicly No.15-General Provision on Financial Report (revised in 2014) by China's Securities Regulatory Commission, the "Companies Ordinance" of Hong Kong and the "Listing Rules of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited".

Basis of accounting and principle of measurement

The Group's financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis. Except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value, the financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention. In the event that impairment of assets occurs, a provision for impairment is made accordingly in accordance with the relevant regulations.

Under historical cost method, the amount of assets was measured at the fair value of cash or cash equivalents or consideration paid at the time of purchase. Liabilities were measured at the amount of money or assets and liabilities due to the current obligations actually received, or a present obligation of the contract amount, or the measurement of cash or cash equivalents in accordance with daily activities to repay the debts of the amount expected to be paid.

The fair value refers to the amount, at which both willing parties engaged to a fair transaction who are familiar with the condition exchange their assets or clear off their debts under fair conditions. Whether fair value is observable or measured by valuation techniques, the measurement and disclosure in this financial statement were all based on it.

Fair value measurements are categorized into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly;
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Going concern

The Group has evaluated its ability of going concern for the next 12 months since 31 December 2019. There is no indication of major events that may affect the ability of going concern. Thus, the financial statements have been prepared under the assumption of going concern.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

III. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

1. Statement of compliance with the ASBEs

The financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises to truly and completely reflect the Company's and consolidated financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2019, the Company's and consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity and the Company's and consolidated operating results and cash flows for the year ended 31 December 2019.

2. Accounting year

The Group has adopted the calendar year as its accounting year, i.e. from 1 January to 31 December.

3. Operating cycle

Operating cycle refers to year from assets purchased for production to cash or cash equivalents realized. The operating cycle of the Company is 12 months.

4. Functional currency

Renminbi ("RMB") is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company and its domestic subsidiaries operate. The Company's foreign subsidiary chooses its functional currency on the basis of the primary economic environment in which it operates. The Group adopts RMB to prepare its financial statements.

5. Accounting treatment of business combinations involving enterprises under common control and business combinations not involving enterprises under common control

Business combination includes business combinations involving enterprises under common control and business combinations not involving enterprises under common control.

5.1 Business combinations involving enterprises under common control

A business combination involving enterprises under common control is a business combination in which all of the combining enterprises are ultimately controlled by the same party or parties both before and after the combination, and that control is not transitory.

Assets and liabilities obtained in the business combination are recognized at their carrying amounts at the date of merger as recorded by the party being combined. The difference between the carrying amount of the net assets obtained and the carrying amount of the consideration paid for the combination is adjusted to capital reserves. If the capital reserve is not sufficient to absorb the difference, any excess is adjusted to retained earnings.

Costs that are directly attributable to the combination are charged to profit or loss when incurred.

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

III. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

5. Accounting treatment of business combinations involving enterprises under common control and business combinations not involving enterprises under common control (continued)

5.2 Business combinations not involving enterprises under common control and goodwill

A business combination not involving enterprises under common control is a business combination in which all of the combining enterprises are not ultimately controlled by the same party or parties before and after the combination.

The combination costs of the combining party shall be the fair value of the assets paid, the liabilities incurred or assumed and the equity instruments issued by the acquirer in exchange for the control over the acquire on the acquisition date. The overhead for the business combination of the combining party, including the expenses for audit, legal services, assessment, and other administrative expenses, shall be recorded in profit or loss for the current year when incurred.

Identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of acquiree qualifying for the conditions of recognition acquired by the acquirer in business combination are measured at fair value on the acquisition date.

For the difference that the combination cost is larger than the portion of fair value of net identifiable assets of acquiree acquired in combination, it is recognized as goodwill as an asset, and initially measured at cost. For those with combination cost lower than the portion of fair value of net identifiable assets of acquiree acquired in combination, re-verification is first carried out on the measurement of the fair value of all identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities as well as the combination cost. For those with combination cost still lower than the portion of fair value of net identifiable assets of acquiree acquired in combination after re-verification, they are credited to profit or loss for the current year.

Goodwill occurred as a result of combination shall be recognized separately in the consolidated financial statement and measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

6. Preparation of consolidated financial statements

The scope of consolidated financial statements is determined on the basis of control. Control is achieved when the Group has power over the investee; is exposed, or has rights to achieve returns from its involvement with the investee; and has the ability to use its power to affect its returns. Once the relevant facts and situation changed that altered the elements define control, the Group shall re-evaluate control.

The combination of subsidiaries begins with controlling the subsidiary by the Group, and ceases with the Group's losing control of the subsidiary.

For a subsidiary disposed of by the Group, the operating results and cash flows before the date of disposal (the date when control is lost) are included in the consolidated income statement and consolidated statement of cash flows, as appropriate.

For a subsidiary acquired through a business combination not involving enterprises under common control, the operating results and cash flows from the acquisition date (the date when control is obtained) are included in the consolidated income statement and consolidated statement of cash flows, as appropriate.

No matter when the business combination occurs in the reporting period, subsidiaries acquired through a business combination involving enterprises under common control are included in the Group's scope of consolidation as if they had been included in the scope of consolidation from the date when they first came under the common control of the ultimate controlling party. Their operating results and cash flows from the date when they first came under the common control of the ultimate controlling party are included in the consolidated income statement and consolidated statement of cash flows, as appropriate.

Major accounting policies and accounting years adopted by the subsidiaries are defined according to the standardized accounting policies and accounting years stipulated by the Company.

All significant intra-group accounts and transactions between the parent company and its subsidiaries or between subsidiaries are eliminated on consolidation.

The portion of a subsidiary's equity that is not attributable to the parent is treated as minority interests and presented as "minority interest" in the consolidated balance sheet within owners' equity. The portion of net profits or losses of subsidiaries for the year attributable to minority interests is presented in the consolidated income statement under the "net profit" item as profit or losses attributable to "minority interests".

6. Preparation of consolidated financial statements (continued)

The loss of the subsidiary attributable to minority interest is more than minority interests in that subsidiary at beginning of the year, the minority interest shall be reversed by the balance of the loss of the subsidiary attributable to minority interests.

For the transaction of acquiring minority interests of its subsidiaries, treated as equity transaction, the book value of shareholder's equity attributed the Company and that of minority interest should be adjusted to reflect the change in the company's interest in the subsidiaries. Differences between the adjustment of minority interests and the fair value of consideration are adjusted to capital reserve. If the differences exceed capital reserve, retained earnings shall be adjusted.

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary due to disposal of certain equity interest or other reasons, any retained interest is re-measured at its fair value at the date when control is lost. The difference between (i) the aggregate of the consideration received on disposal and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the share of the former subsidiary's net assets cumulatively calculated from the acquisition date according to the original proportion of ownership interest is recognized as investment income in the period in which control is lost, and is offset against goodwill. Other comprehensive income associated with investment in the former subsidiary is reclassified to investment income in the period in which control is lost.

7. Classification of joint arrangements and accounting treatments of joint operations

A joint arrangement is classified into joint operation and joint venture, depending on the rights and obligations of the parties to the arrangement, which is assessed by considering the structure and the legal form of the arrangement, the terms agreed by the parties in the contractual arrangement and, when relevant, other facts and circumstances. A joint operation is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement. A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement.

The Group accounts for investments in joint ventures using equity method. Refer to Note (III) 13.3.2 "Long-term equity investments accounted for using the equity method" for details.

8. Recognition criterion of cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand and deposits that can be readily withdrawn on demand. Cash equivalents are the Group's short-term (usually due within three months from the purchase date on), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

9. Translation of transactions and financial statements denominated in foreign currencies

9.1 Transactions denominated in foreign currencies

On initial recognition, foreign currency transactions are translated into the reporting currency using the spot exchange rate prevailing at the date of transaction.

As at the balance sheet date, monetary items denominated in foreign currency are exchanged to Renminbi by adopting the prevailing exchange rate on that date. Foreign exchange difference arising from the difference between the prevailing exchange rate on that date and the prevailing exchange rate on initial reorganization or on the previous balance sheet date are all credited to profit or loss for the current year, with the exception that foreign exchange differences for specific borrowings denominated in foreign currency and qualifying for conditions of capitalization are capitalized during the capitalization year and credited to the cost of relevant assets.

Non-monetary items denominated in foreign currency that are measured at historical cost are still measured at amount denominated in reporting currency exchanged at the prevailing exchange rate at the transaction date. Foreign currency non-monetary items measured at fair value are translated at the spot exchange rate on the date when the fair value is determined. The difference between the translated functional currency amount and the original functional currency amount is treated as a change in fair value (including exchange rate changes) and included in the current profit and loss or recognized as other comprehensive income.

9.2 Translation of financial statements denominated in foreign currency

To prepare consolidated financial statements, the financial statements denominated in foreign currency of a foreign operation are translated to RMB in compliance with the following requirement: assets and liabilities on the balance sheet are translated at the spot exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date; all equity (except undistributed profits) items are translated at the spot exchange rates at the dates on which such items arose; income and expenses and profit appropriation items in the income statement are translated at the spot exchange rate at the date of transaction; Undistributed profits at the beginning of the year is the translated undistributed profits at the end of prior year; undistributed profits at the end of year is presented as the translated items of profit distribution; all exchange differences of assets, liabilities and shareholders' equity resulting from the translation are recognized separately as "other comprehensive income" in the shareholders' equity on the balance sheet.

Cash flow dominated in foreign currency or from foreign subsidiaries shall be translated at the spot exchange rate when it incurs. Effects arising from changes of exchange rate of cash and cash equivalents is regarded as a reconciling item and presented separately as "Effect of changes in exchange rates on cash and cash equivalents" in the cash flow statement.

9. Translation of transactions and financial statements denominated in foreign currencies (continued)

9.2 Translation of financial statements denominated in foreign currency (continued)

The opening balances of the year and prior year's figures are presented according to the translated amounts of the financial statements of the prior year.

When the control on foreign operation is lost due to the disposal of ownership interests of foreign operation or partial disposal of equity investment or other reasons, exchange differences of foreign currency statements attributable to the shareholders of the parent company related to such foreign operation and presented under shareholder's equity item in the balance sheet are all transferred to profit or loss for the current year.

10. Financial instruments

The Group shall recognize a financial asset or a financial liability in its statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Where financial assets are purchased or sold in a regular way, assets to be received and liabilities to be borne for it are recognized on the date of transaction, or sold assets are derecognized on the date of transaction.

The financial assets and liabilities are measured at fair value on initial recognition. For the financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), related transaction expenses are directly charged to the profit or loss for the year; for other financial assets and liabilities, related transaction expenses are included in the initial recognized amount. For accounts receivable excluding significant financing components or regardless of financing components of contracts less than one year recognized based on Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No.14-Revenue ("Revenue Standard"), accounts receivable initially recognized shall be measured at transaction price defined based on the Revenue Standard on initial recognition.

Effective interest method is the method that is used in the calculation of the amortized cost of a financial asset or a financial liability and in the allocation and recognition of the interest revenue or interest expense in profit or loss over the relevant year.

Effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortized cost of a financial liability. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Group shall estimate the expected cash flows by considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, extension, call and similar options) but shall not consider the expected credit losses.

Amortized cost of a financial asset or financial liability is the amount at which the financial asset or financial liability is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus or minus the cumulative amortization using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount and, for financial assets, adjusted for any loss allowance.

10.1 Classification, recognition and measurement of financial assets

After initial recognition, the Group shall measure a financial asset at amortized cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss.

If the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding and the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by collecting contractual cash flows, the Group shall classify the financial asset into the financial asset measured at amortized cost. Such financial assets mainly include: cash and bank balances, accounts receivable, other receivables, loans and advances to customers, other current assets, structured deposits, other current assets – deposits in non-bank financial institutions, long-term receivables and debt investments.

If the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding and the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by collecting contractual cash flows and selling such financial assets, the Group shall classify the financial asset into the financial asset at fair value through other comprehensive income. Financial assets at FVTOCI are presented as other debt investments. Other debt investments due within one year (inclusive) since the balance sheet date are presented as non-current assets due within one year. Notes receivable and notes receivable classified as at FVTOCI upon acquisition are presented as financing with receivables. Other debt investments due within one year (inclusive) upon acquisition are presented as other current assets.

On initial recognition, the Company may, based on an individual financial asset, irrevocably designate a non-tradable equity instrument investment which is non-contingent consideration and recognized in business combination not involving enterprises under common control as financial asset measured at FVTOCI. Such financial assets are presented as other equity instrument investments.

Notes to the Financial Statements

10.1 Classification, recognition and measurement of financial assets (continued)

The Group's purpose of holding the financial assets is for trading if one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- The purpose of acquiring the financial assets is to sell the assets in the near future.
- The relevant financial assets are, on initial recognition, a part of the centrally-managed identifiable financial instrument portfolio, and the objective evidence indicates that short-term profit model exists in the near future.
- The relevant financial assets are derivative instruments. However, derivatives that meet the definition of financial guarantee contracts and those designated as effective hedging instruments are excluded.

Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL") include those classified as at FVTPL and those designated as at FVTPL:

- Financial assets that are not qualified to be classified as financial assets at amortized cost or financial assets at FVTOCI are classified as financial assets at FVTPL.
- Upon initial recognition, in order to eliminate or significantly reduce accounting mismatch, the Group will irrevocably designate financial assets at FVTPL.

The financial assets at FVTPL are presented as held-for-trading financial assets and those due after one year from the balance sheet date (or with no fixed term) and expected to be held for more than one year are presented as other non-current financial assets.

Notes to the Financial Statements

10.1 Classification, recognition and measurement of financial assets (continued)

10.1.1 Financial assets at amortized cost

The financial asset at amortized cost is subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Gain or loss arising from derecognition, impairment or amortization is recognized in profit or loss.

The Group recognizes interest income on financial assets measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Except for the following circumstances, the Group calculates interest income based on the Carrying amount of financial assets multiplied by the actual interest rate.

- Purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets. For those financial assets, the Group shall apply the credit-adjusted effective interest rate to the amortized cost of the financial asset from initial recognition.
- Financial assets that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets but subsequently have become credit-impaired financial assets. For those financial assets, the Group shall apply the effective interest rate to the amortized cost of the financial asset in subsequent reporting periods. If the financial assets no longer has credit impairment during the follow-up period as a result of an improvement in its credit risk, and this improvement may be linked to an event that occurred after the application of the above regulations, the Group calculates interest income based on the Carrying amount of financial assets multiplied by the actual interest rate.

10.1.2 Financial assets at FVTOCI

Impairment gains or losses on a financial asset at FVTOCI and the interest income calculated using the effective interest method shall be recognized in profit or loss. Except for them, changes in fair value of such financial assets shall be recognized in other comprehensive income. The amount of such financial asset recognized in profit or loss of each period is equal to the amount deemed as measured at amortized cost all the time and recognized in profit or loss of each period. When the financial asset is derecognized, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in other comprehensive income is transferred from other comprehensive income to profit or loss.

Changes in fair value of non-tradable equity instrument investment designated as at FVTOCI are recognized in other comprehensive income. When the financial asset is derecognized, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in other comprehensive income are transferred from other comprehensive income to retained earnings. During the period that the Group holds these non-tradable equity instrument, the Group has established the right of collecting dividends, whose economic benefit is probably flow into the Group, and the amount of the dividends can be reliably measured, then the Group will recognize dividends in profit or loss.

10.1 Classification, recognition and measurement of financial assets (continued)

10.1.3 Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets at FVTPL shall be subsequently measured at fair value. Gains or losses from change in fair value and dividends and interest income related to such financial assets shall be recognized in profit or loss.

10.2 Impairment of financial instruments and other items

The Group shall recognize a loss allowance for expected credit losses on financial assets at amortized cost, financial assets FVTOCI and a lease receivable.

The Group measures a loss allowance equivalent to the amount of lifetime expected credit losses for the contract assets or accounts receivable arising from transactions adopting Standards for Revenue, and the financing lease receivables arising from transactions adopting ASBEs No. 21 – Leases.

For other financial instrument, other than purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets, the Group assesses changes in credit risks of the relevant financial asset since initial recognition at each balance sheet date. If the credit risks of the financial instrument has been significantly increased since initial recognition, the Group will make a loss allowance at an amount of lifetime expected credit loss; if not, the Group will make a loss allowance for the financial instrument at an amount in the future 12-month expected credit losses. Increase in or reversal of credit loss provision is included in profit or loss as loss/gain on impairment, except for financial assets classified as at fair value through other comprehensive income. The Group recognizes credit loss provision for financial assets at FVTOCI in other comprehensive income and recognizes loss/gain on impairment in profit or loss for the period, without reducing the carrying amount of the financial assets presented in the balance sheet.

The Group has made a loss allowance against amount of lifetime expected credit losses in the prior accounting period. However, at the balance sheet date, the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition; the Group will measure the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount in the future 12-month expected credit losses. Reversed amount of loss allowance arising from such circumstances shall be included in profit or loss as impairment gains.

10.2 Impairment of financial instruments and other items (continued)

10.2.1 Significant increase in credit risk

The Group will make use of reasonable and supportable forward-looking information that is available to determine whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition through comparing the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition.

The Group will take the following factors into consideration when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- (1) Existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change in the borrower's ability to meet its debt obligations.
- (2) An actual or expected significant change in the operating results of the borrower.
- (3) Significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same borrower.
- (4) A significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the borrower.
- (5) Significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the borrower.

The Group may assume that the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. If the risk of default of a financial instrument is low, the borrower is highly capable of meeting its contract cash flow obligations in the short term, and the financial instrument is considered to have a lower credit risk even if there is a negative change in the economic situation and operating environment over a longer period of time, but it may not necessarily reduce the borrower's performance of its contract cash obligations.

10.2 Impairment of financial instruments and other items (continued)

10.2.2 Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired include observable data about the following events:

- (1) Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- (2) A breach of contract by the debtor, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- (3) The creditor, for economic or legal reasons relating to the debtor's financial difficulty, granting a concession to the debtor;
- (4) It becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganizations;
- (5) The disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties of the issuer or the debtor;
- (6) The purchase or origination of a financial asset at a deep discount that reflects the incurred credit losses.

10.2 Impairment of financial instruments and other items (continued)

10.2.3 Recognition of expected credit losses

The Group recognizes the credit loss on lease receivables on an individual asset basis, and the credit loss on related financial instruments of financial assets classified as at amortized cost and debt instrument classified as at FVTOCI with impairment matrix on a collective basis. The Group can group financial instruments on the basis of shared credit risk characteristics. Examples of shared credit risk characteristics may include, but are not limited to, the:

- (a) Instrument type;
- (b) Credit risk ratings;
- (c) Collateral type;
- (d) Date of initial recognition;
- (e) Remaining term to maturity;
- (f) Industry;
- (g) Geographical location of the borrower; and
- (h) The value of collateral relative to the financial asset.

The Group determines expected credit losses of relevant financial instruments using the following methods:

- For financial assets, a credit loss is the present value of the difference between: (a) The contractual cash flows that are due to the Group under the contract; and (b) the cash flows that the Group expects to receive.
- For lease receivables, a credit loss is the present value of the difference between: (a) The contractual cash flows that are due to the Group under the contract; and (b) the cash flows that the Group expects to receive.
- For a financial asset that is credit-impaired at the reporting date, but that is not a purchased or originated credit-impaired financial asset, the Group shall measure the expected credit losses as the difference between the asset's gross carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The factors reflected in methods of measurement of expected credit losses include an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes; time value of money; reasonable and supportable information about past events, current conditions and forecasts on future economic status at balance sheet date without unnecessary additional costs or efforts.

Notes to the Financial Statements

10.2 Impairment of financial instruments and other items (continued)

10.2.4 Written-off of financial assets

The Group shall directly reduce the gross carrying amount of a financial asset when the Group has no reasonable expectations of recovering a financial asset in its entirety or a portion thereof. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event.

10.3 Transfer of financial assets

The Group shall derecognize a financial asset when: (1) the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, (2) the financial asset has been transferred and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset is transferred to the transferee; or (3) although the financial asset has been transferred, the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset but has not retained control of the financial asset.

For a transfer of a financial asset in its entirety that satisfies the derecognition criteria, the difference between the carrying amount at the derecognition date of the financial asset transferred and the sum of the consideration received from the transfer of the financial asset and the amount correlating to the derecognition part in the accumulated amount originally recognized in changes in fair value of other comprehensive income is recognized in profit or loss. If the transferred financial asset is the non-tradable equity instrument investment designated as at FVTOCI, cumulative gain or loss that has been recognized in other comprehensive income should be removed from other comprehensive income but be recognized in retained earnings.

For a part of transfer of a financial asset that satisfies the derecognition criteria, the carrying amount of the transferred financial asset is allocated between the part that is derecognized and the part that is continuously involved, based on the respective fair values of those parts on transfer date. The difference between (1) the sum of the consideration received for the part derecognized and any cumulative gain or loss allocated to the part derecognized which has been previously recognized in other comprehensive income; and (2) the carrying amount allocated to the part derecognized on derecognition date; is recognized in profit or loss or retained earnings. If the transferred financial asset is the non-tradable equity instrument investment designated as at FVTOCI, cumulative gain or loss that has been recognized in other comprehensive income should be removed from other comprehensive income but be recognized in retained earnings.

For a transfer of a financial asset in its entirety that does not satisfy the derecognition criteria, the Group will continuously recognize the transferred financial asset in its entirety. Considerations received should be recognized as a financial liability.

Notes to the Financial Statements

10.4 Classification of financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial instruments issued by the Group are classified into financial liabilities or equity instruments on the basis of the substance of the contractual arrangements and the economic nature not only its legal form, together with the definition of financial liability and equity instruments on initial recognition.

10.4.1 Classification, recognition and measurement of financial liabilities

On initial recognition, financial liabilities are classified into financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and other financial liabilities. The Group's financial liabilities are all other financial liabilities.

Other financial liabilities, other than financial liabilities arising from financial assets of which the transfer does not meet the conditions for derecognition or continue to be involved in transferred financial assets, are classified as financial liabilities measured at amortized cost. Subsequent measurement, gain or loss arising from derecognition or amortization is recognized in profit or loss.

Such financial liabilities of the Group include: short-term borrowings, notes payables, accounts payable, other payables, other current liabilities and long-term borrowings.

10.4.2 Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognizes a financial liability (or part of it) only when the underlying present obligation (or part of it) is discharged. An agreement between the Group (an existing debtor) and an existing lender to replace the original financial liability with a new financial liability with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability.

When the Group derecognizes a financial liability or a part of it, it recognizes the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability (or part of the financial liability) derecognized and the consideration paid (including any non-cash assets transferred or new financial liabilities assumed) in profit or loss.

10.4.3 Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. The issuance (including refinancing), repurchase, selling or cancellation of these instruments are treated as change in equity. The enterprise should not recognize changes in the fair value of the equity instruments. The related transaction costs are deducted from equity.

Distributions to holders of an equity instrument shall be recognized by the Group directly in equity.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

10.5 Derivatives

Derivative financial instruments include forward exchange contracts. Derivatives are initially measured at fair value at the date when the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value.

10.6 Offsetting a financial asset and a financial liability

Where the Group has a legal right that is currently enforceable to set off the amount of the recognized financial assets and financial liabilities, and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the financial asset and settle the financial liability simultaneously, a financial asset and a financial liability shall be offset and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet. Except for the above circumstances, financial assets and financial liabilities shall be presented separately in the balance sheet and shall not be offset.

11. Financing with receivables

For the notes receivable classified as at fair value through other comprehensive income, the portion within one year (inclusive) since acquisition is presented as financing with receivables. Refer to Note III.10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 for the relevant accounting policies.

12. Inventories

12.1 Classification of inventories

Inventories of the Group mainly include raw materials, work-in-progress, finished products and low-value and short-lived consumables. Inventories are initially measured at cost. Cost of inventories includes costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other expenditures incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

12.2 Valuation method of inventories upon delivery

The actual cost of inventories upon delivery is calculated using the weighted average method.

12.3 Recognition of net realizable value of inventories

At the balance sheet date, inventories are calculated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Provision for inventory impairment is made when the net realizable value is lower than the cost.

Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price of inventories minus cost estimated to incur upon completion, estimated selling costs and relevant taxes during normal course of business. When determining the net realizable value of inventory, basis is relied on the actual evidences obtained while the objectives of inventories holding and the impact of post balance sheet date event are also considered.

Notes to the Financial Statements

12.3 Recognition of net realizable value of inventories (continued)

For large quantity and low value items of inventories, provision for decline in value is made based on categories of inventories. For items of inventories relating to a product line that are produced and marketed in the same geographical area, have the same or similar end uses or purposes, and cannot be practicably evaluated separately from other items in that product line, provision for decline in value is determined on an aggregate basis. Provision for decline in value of other inventories is made based on the excess of cost of inventory over its net realizable value on an item-by-item basis.

After the provision for decline in value of inventories is made, if the circumstances that previously caused inventories to be written down below cost no longer exist so that the net realizable value of inventories is higher than their cost, the original provision for decline in value is reversed and the reversal is included in profit or loss for the year.

12.4 Inventory count system

The inventory count system shall be on a perpetual basis.

12.5 Amortization of low-value and short-lived consumables and other turnover materials

Turnover materials are materials that can be reused many times and still be remained in original condition after gradual transfer of their value but are not recognized as fixed assets, including low-value and short-lived consumables and other turnover materials.

Low-value and short-lived consumables and other turnover materials are amortized by number of usage or one-time write-off.

III. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

13. Long-term equity investments

13.1 Judgement criterion of determining joint control or significant influence over the investee

Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of an enterprise, except to control or joint control the formulation of such policies together with other parties. In determining whether there is control or significant influence over the investee, potential voting right factors (such as the convertible corporate bonds for the year and the exercisable stock warrants for the year of the investee and other invested units held) were taken into account.

13.2 Determination of initial investment cost

For a long-term equity investment acquired through business combination involving enterprises under common control, shares of book value of owners' equity of combined party in financial statements of ultimate controlling party is recognized as initial investment cost of long-term equity investment at the date of combination. The difference between initial investment cost of long-term equity investment and cash paid, non-cash assets transferred and book value of liabilities assumed, is adjusted in capital reserve. If the balance of capital reserve is not sufficient to absorb the difference, any excess is adjusted to retained earnings.

For a long-term equity investment acquired through business combination involving enterprises not under common control, the initial investment cost of the long-term equity investment acquired shall be the cost of acquisition.

Any audit, legal service, appraisal and other agency expense and other administration expense occurred during combination, the acquiree shall recognize those expenditure in profit or loss.

Long-term equity investment acquired otherwise than through a business combination is initially measured at its cost.

13.3 Method for subsequent measurement and profit or loss recognition

13.3.1 Long-term equity investments accounted for using the cost method

The Company's separate financial statements adopted cost method to account for the long-term equity investments of subsidiaries. A subsidiary is an investee that is controlled by the Group.

Under the cost method, a long-term equity investment is measured at initial investment cost. When additional investment is made or the investment is recouped, the cost of the long-term equity investment is adjusted accordingly. Investment income is recognized in the period in accordance with the attributable share of cash dividends or profit distributions declared by the investee.

13.3 Method for subsequent measurement and profit or loss recognition (continued)

13.3.2 Long-term equity investments accounted for using the equity method

The Group accounts for investments in joint ventures using equity method. Joint venture refers to a joint venture arrangement in which the Group only has rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

Under the equity method, where the initial investment cost of a long-term equity investment exceeds the investor's interest in the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets at the acquisition date, no adjustment shall be made to the initial investment cost. Where the initial investment cost is less than the investor's interest in the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets at the acquisition date, the difference shall be charged to profit or loss for the current year, and the cost of the long-term equity investment shall be adjusted accordingly.

Under the equity method, the Group recognizes its share of the net profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the investee for the period as investment income and other comprehensive income for the period. Meanwhile, carrying amount of long-term equity investment is adjusted: the carrying amount of long-term equity investment is decreased in accordance with its share of the investee's declared profit or cash dividends; Other changes in owners' equity of the investee other than net profit or loss and other comprehensive income are correspondingly adjusted to the carrying amount of the long-term equity investment, and recognized in the capital reserve. The Group recognizes its share of the investee's net profit or loss based on the fair value of the investee's individual identifiable assets, etc. at the acquisition date after making appropriate adjustments.

The Group discontinues recognizing its share of net losses of the investee after the carrying amount of the long-term equity investment together with any long-term interests that in substance form part of its net investment in the investee is reduced to zero. If the Group has incurred obligations to assume additional losses of the investee, a provision is recognized according to the expected obligation, and recorded as investment loss for the period. Where net profits are subsequently made by the investee, the Group resumes recognizing its share of those profits only after its share of the profits exceeds the share of losses previously not recognized.

13. Long-term equity investments (continued)

13.3 Method for subsequent measurement and profit or loss recognition (continued)

13.3.3 Disposal of long-term equity investments

On disposal of a long-term investment, the difference between the carrying amount of the investment and the actual consideration paid is recognized in current profit or loss.

Where the Group loses control over investee due to disposal of part of shares, during preparing separate financial statement, if remaining shares after disposal can make joint control or significant influence on investee, they are accounted under equity method, and adjusted as if they are accounted under equity method since the acquisition date; If remaining shares after disposal cannot make joint control or significant influence on investee, they are accounted according to recognition and measurement of financial instruments, and the difference between fair value on date of losing control and book value is recognized in profit or loss of current period.

14. Investment properties

Investment property refers to real estate held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation, or both, including leased land use right, land use right held and provided for transferring after appreciation and leased constructions, etc.

Investment property is initially measured at cost. Subsequent expenditures related to an investment property shall be included in cost of investment property only when the economic benefits associated with the asset will likely flow to the Group and its cost can be measured reliably. All other subsequent expenditures on investment property shall be included in profit or loss for the current year when incurred.

The Group adopts cost method for subsequent measurement of investment property, which is depreciated or amortized using the same policy as that for buildings and land use right.

When an investment property is sold, transferred, retired or damaged, the amount of proceeds on disposal of the property net of the carrying amount and related taxes and surcharges is recognized in profit or loss for the current year.

When the Group has evidence indicating the self-occupied houses and buildings are converted to leasing, the carrying amount of such fixed assets, before the conversion are transferred to investment properties.

When the Group has evidence indicating the property held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation are converted to self-occupation, the carrying amount of such properties before the conversion are transferred to fixed assets.

15. Fixed assets

15.1 Recognition criteria

Fixed assets are tangible assets that are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, for rental to others, or for administrative purposes and have a useful life of more than one accounting year. Fixed assets are only recognized when their related economic benefits are likely to flow to the Group and their cost can be reliably measured. Fixed assets are initially measured at cost.

For subsequent expenses related to fixed assets, if the economic benefits related to such fixed assets is likely to inflow and its cost could be reliably measured, they are capitalized to fixed assets cost and the carrying amount of replacement will be derecognized. Other subsequent expenses other than the above are charged to profit or loss for the current year when incurred.

15.2 Depreciation method

A fixed asset is depreciated over its useful life using the straight-line method since the month subsequent to the one in which it is ready for intended use. The useful life, estimated net residual value rate and annual depreciation rate of each category of fixed assets are as follows:

Category	Depreciation (years)	Estimated residual value rate (%)	Annual depreciation rate (%)
Buildings	8-40	5	2.38-11.88
Machinery and equipment	10	5	9.50
Transportation vehicles	4-10	5	9.50-23.75
Electronic equipment and others	3-10	5	9.50-31.67

Estimated net residual value of a fixed asset is the estimated amount that the Group would currently obtain from disposal of the asset, after deducting the estimated costs of disposal, if the asset was already of the stage and in the condition expected at the end of its useful life.

15.3 Other explanations

If a fixed asset is upon disposal or no future economic benefits are expected to be generated from its use or disposal, the fixed asset is derecognized. When a fixed asset is sold, transferred, retired or damaged, the amount of any proceeds on disposal of the asset net of the carrying amount and related taxes is recognized in profit or loss for the current year.

The Group reviews the useful life and estimated net residual value of a fixed asset and the depreciation method applied at least once at each financial year-end, and account for any change as a change in an accounting estimate.

Notes to the Financial Statements

16. Construction in progress

Construction in progress is recognized based on the actual construction cost, including all expenditures incurred for construction projects, capitalized borrowing costs for the construction in progress before it has reached the working condition for its intended use, and other related expenses during the construction year. A construction in progress is transferred to fixed assets when it has reached the working condition for its intended use.

17. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest, amortization of discount or premiums related to borrowings, ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings. For borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset, when expenditures for the asset and borrowing costs are being incurred, activities relating to the acquisition, construction or production of the asset that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale have commenced, such borrowing costs shall be capitalized as part of the cost of that asset; and capitalization shall discontinue when the qualifying asset is ready for its intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs shall be recognized as expense during the current year in which they are incurred.

Where funds are borrowed for a specific purpose, the amount of interest to be capitalized shall be the actual interest expense incurred during the current year less any bank interest earned from depositing the borrowed funds before being used into banks or any investment income on the temporary investment of those funds. Where funds are borrowed for general purpose, the Group shall determine the amount of interest to be capitalized on such borrowings by applying a capitalization rate to the weighted average of the excess amounts of cumulative expenditures on the asset over and above the amounts of specific-purpose borrowings. The capitalization rate shall be the weighted average of the interest rates applicable to the general-purpose borrowings.

Qualifying assets are assets (fixed assets, inventories, etc.) that necessarily taking a substantial year of time for acquisition, construction or production to get ready for their intended use or sale.

18. Intangible assets

18.1 Valuation method, useful life, impairment test for intangible assets

Intangible assets include land use right, software and non-patent technology, etc.

An intangible asset shall be measured initially at cost.

Land use right acquired shall normally be recognized as an intangible asset. Self-constructed buildings (e.g. plants), related land use right and the buildings shall be separately accounted for as intangible assets and fixed assets. For buildings and structures purchased, the purchase consideration shall be allocated among land use right and the buildings on a reasonable basis. If there is any difficulty in making a reasonable allocation, the consideration shall be recognized in full as fixed assets.

When an intangible asset with a finite useful life is available for use, its original cost less estimated net residual value and any accumulated impairment losses provided is amortized over its estimated useful life using the straight-line method. The intangible assets with infinite useful life are not amortized. The useful life and annual amortization rate of each category of intangible assets are as follows:

Category	Depreciation years	Annual depreciation rate (%)
Land use right	50	2.00
Software and others	2-10	10.00-50.00
Non-patent technology	2-10	10.00-50.00

The Group shall review the finite useful life of an intangible asset and the amortization method applied at the end of the year. A change in the useful life or amortization method used shall be accounted for as a change in accounting estimate.

Details of impairment test for intangible assets are set out in Note III "19. Impairment of long-term assets".

18. Intangible assets (continued)

18.2 Research and development expenditure

The internal research and development expenditures of the Group are classified into research phase expenditure and development phase expenditure.

Expenditure arising from the research phase is accounted for in profit or loss for the current year when incurred.

Expenses incurred during the development phase that satisfy the following conditions are recognized as intangible assets, while those that do not satisfy the following conditions are accounted for in the profit or loss for the current year:

- (1) It is technically feasible that the intangible asset can be used or sold upon completion;
- (2) There is intention to complete the intangible asset for use or sale;
- (3) The intangible asset can produce economic benefits, including there is evidence that the products produced using the intangible asset has a market or the intangible asset itself has a market; if the intangible asset is for internal use, there is evidence that there is usage for the intangible asset;
- (4) There is sufficient support in terms of technology, financial resources and other resources in order to complete the development of the intangible asset, and there is capability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- (5) The expenses attributable to the development phase of the intangible asset can be measured reliably.

If the expenses incurred during the research stage and the development stage cannot be distinguished separately, all development expenditure incurred are accounted for in the profit or loss for the current year.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

III. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

19. Impairment of long-term assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that any long-term equity investments, investment properties measured at cost, fixed assets, construction in progress and intangible assets and right-of-use assets with a finite useful life may be impaired. If there is any evidence indicating that an asset may be impaired, recoverable amount shall be estimated for the individual asset. The intangible assets with infinite useful life are tested for impairment every year, regardless of any indication of impairment.

The recoverable amount should be estimated of the individual asset. If it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of the individual asset, the Group shall determine the recoverable amount of the asset group to which the asset belongs. The recoverable amount of an asset is determined at the higher of the net amount after deducting the disposal expenses from the assets' fair value and the current value of the assets' estimated future cash flow.

If the recoverable amount of an asset is less than its carrying amount, a provision for impairment loss of the asset will be made for the reduction and is charged to profit or loss for the current year.

Goodwill is tested for impairment yearly. When conducting the impairment test for goodwill, the test is conducted through combination with its related asset group or portfolio of asset group. That is, goodwill is reasonably allocated to the related asset group or each of asset group expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. If the recoverable amount of asset group or portfolio of asset group containing the allocated goodwill is lower than its carrying value, relevant impairment loss is recognized. The amount of impairment loss is first written-down and allocated to the carrying amount of the goodwill of that asset group or portfolio of asset group, and is then written down to the carrying value of all other types of assets proportionally according to the weighting of the carrying value of all other types of assets other than goodwill within asset group or portfolio of asset group.

An impairment loss once recognized shall not be reversed in a subsequent year.

20. Long-term prepaid expenses

Long-term prepaid expenses are expenses which have incurred but shall be amortized over the current year and subsequent years of more than one year. Long-term prepaid expenses are amortized evenly over the estimated benefit year.

21. Contract liabilities

Contract liabilities refers to the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration from the customer. Contract assets and contract liabilities under common contract are presented as net.

22. Employee benefits

22.1 Accounting treatment of short-term employee benefits

In the accounting year in which employees have rendered services, the Group shall recognize the short-term employee benefits that actually occurred as liability, and charged to profit or loss for the current year or cost of relevant assets. The Group shall recognize the amount of employee welfare that actually occurred and charged to profit or loss for the current year or cost of relevant assets.

During the accounting year which employees rendered service, medical insurance, work-related injury insurance, maternity insurance and other social security contributions and housing provident fund paid by the Group, as well as labor union funds and employees' education expenses extracted by requirement. Based on the required accrual basis and proportions in order to determine the appropriate amount of employee benefits, such employee benefits shall be recognized as corresponding liabilities, and charged to profit or loss during current year or cost of relevant assets.

22.2 Accounting treatment of post-employment benefits

All post-employment benefits within the Group are defined contribution plans.

In the accounting year which employees rendered services, the amount of the defined contribution plans shall be recognized as liability and charged to profit or loss during current year or cost of relevant assets.

23. Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation related to a contingency, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date, taking into account factors pertaining to a contingency such as the risks, uncertainties and time value of money.

Where all or some of the expenditure required to settle a provision is expected to be reimbursed by a third party, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset only when it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received, and the amount of reimbursement recognized does not exceed the carrying amount of the provision.

Notes to the Financial Statements

24. Revenue

The revenue from the Group are mainly from selling automobiles and components and parts of automobiles; processing and manufacturing of models; providing services and so on.

The Group recognizes revenue based on the transaction price allocated to such performance obligation when a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer. A performance obligation represents the commitment that a good and service that is distinct shall be transferred by the Group to the customer. Transaction price refers to the consideration that the Group is expected to charge due to the transfer of goods or services to the customer, but it does not include payments received on behalf of third parties and amounts that the Group expects to return to the customer.

If the contract includes two or more performance obligations, at contract inception, the Group allocates the transaction price to single performance obligation according to relative proportion of the stand-alone selling prices of the goods or services promised by single performance obligation. However, where there is conclusive evidence that the contract discount or variable consideration is only related to one or more (not all) performance obligations in the contract, the Group shall allocate the contract discount or variable consideration to relevant one or more performance obligations. The stand-alone selling price is the price at which the Group would sell a promised good or service separately to a customer. If a stand-alone selling price is not directly observable, the Group shall consider all information that is reasonably available to the Group and maximize the use of observable inputs and apply estimation methods consistently in similar circumstances.

Variable consideration

For contracts that contain variable consideration, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled using either the expected value method or the most likely amount. The estimated amount of variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that such an inclusion will not result in a significant revenue reversal in the future when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. At each balance sheet date, the Group updates the estimated transaction price.

Warranties

For sales with quality assurance terms, if the quality assurance provides a separate service to the customer other than ensuring that the goods or services sold meet the established standards, the quality assurance constitutes a single performance obligation. Otherwise, the Group will account for the quality assurance responsibility in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises No. 13 – Contingencies.

In addition to the income from contracts with customers, the Group's income includes interest income from daily business activities. Please refer to Note (III) 10 for corresponding accounting policies.

25. Government grants

Government grants are monetary assets and non-monetary assets gratuitous acquired from the government. Government grants are recognized when they meet the requirements of government grants and is receivable.

Government grants are measured in accordance with the amount received or receivable if they are monetary assets.

25.1 Judgement criteria and accounting treatment of government grants related to asset

A government grant related to an asset is charged against carrying amount of related assets or recognized as deferred income and evenly included in profit or loss over the useful life of the related asset.

25.2 Judgement criteria and accounting treatment of government grants related to income

For a government grant related to income, if the grant is a compensation for related expenses or losses to be incurred in subsequent years, the grant is recognized as deferred income, and recognized in profit or loss over the year in which the related costs are recognized. If the grant is a compensation for related expenses and losses already incurred, the grant is recognized immediately in profit or loss for the current year.

Government grants related to the Group's daily activities are included in other income in accordance with its economic substance. Otherwise, government grants are included in non-operating income or expense.

26. Income tax

26.1 Current income tax

At the balance sheet date, current income tax liabilities (or assets) for the current and prior years shall be measured at the amount expected to be paid (or recovered) according to the requirements of tax laws.

Notes to the Financial Statements

26.2 Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities

For temporary differences between the carrying amounts of certain assets or liabilities and their tax base, or between the nil carrying amount of those items that are not recognized as assets or liabilities and their tax base that can be determined according to tax laws, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized using the balance sheet liability method.

Deferred tax is generally recognized for all temporary differences. Deferred tax assets for deductible temporary differences are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. However, for temporary differences associated with the initial recognition of goodwill and the initial recognition of an asset or liability arising from a transaction (not a business combination) that affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profits (or deductible losses) at the time of transaction, no deferred tax asset or liability is recognized.

For deductible losses and tax credits that can be carried forward, deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the deductible losses and tax credits can be utilized.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognized to the extent that it is probable that there will be taxable profits against which to utilize the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

At the balance sheet date, deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates, according to tax laws, that are expected to apply in the year in which the asset is realized or the liability is settled.

At the balance sheet date, the carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed and reduced if it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available in the future to allow the benefit of deferred tax assets to be utilized. Such reduction in amount is reversed when it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

26.3 Income tax expenses

Income tax expense comprises current income tax expense and deferred income tax expense.

Current and deferred tax expenses or income are recognized in profit or loss for the year, except when they arise from transactions or events that are directly recognized in other comprehensive income or in shareholders' equity, in which case they are recognized in other comprehensive income or in shareholders equity; and when they arise from business combinations, in which case they adjust the carrying amount of goodwill.

26.4 Offsetting of income tax

When the Group has a legal right to settle on a net basis and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset and presented on a net basis.

When the Group has a legal right to settle current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis, and deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis or to realize the assets and liabilities simultaneously, in each future year in which significant amounts of deferred tax assets or liabilities are expected to be reversed, deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset and presented on a net basis.

27. Lease

A lease is a contract whereby the lessor conveys to the lessee in return for a consideration the right to use an asset for an agreed period of time.

At inception/modification of the contracts, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. Unless the terms and conditions of the contract are changed, the Group does not reassess whether a contract is, or contains, a lease.

27.1 The Group as lessee

27.1.1 Separation of a lease

For a contract that contains one or more lease or non-lease components at the same time, the Group separates the individual lease component and non-lease component of the contract and allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

27. Lease (continued)

27.1 The Group as lessee (continued)

27.1.2 Right-of-use assets

Except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets, the Group recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease. The commencement date of a lease is the date that the underlying asset leased out by the lessor is available for use by the Group. Right-of-use assets are initially measured at cost, which includes the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received (if any);
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, exclusive of the cost incurred for production of inventories.

Right-of-use assets is depreciated by the Group in accordance with relevant regulations on depreciation in Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No.4 – Fixed Assets. Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated over the remaining useful life of the leased assets. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated over the shorter of lease term and the remaining useful life of the leased assets.

The Group determines whether a right-of-use asset is impaired and makes accounting treatments in accordance with relevant regulations in Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No.8 – Impairment of Assets, and account for the identified impairment loss.

27.1 The Group as lessee (continued)

27.1.3 Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, except for short-term lease and leases of low-value assets, the Group initially measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the interest rate implicit in the lease as the discount rate. The Group uses the incremental borrowing rate if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

Lease payments refers to payments relating to the right to use leased assets during the lease term which are made by the Group to the lessor, including:

- fixed payments and in substance fixed payments, less any lease incentives receivable (if any);
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate;
- the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group;
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease; and
- amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees provided by the Group.

Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, are initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date. Variable lease payments not included in the measurement of the lease liabilities, are recognized in profit or loss, or in the cost of relevant assets, in the period of those payments.

After the commencement date of a lease, the Group calculates interest expenses of lease liabilities for each period of the lease term based on fixed periodic rate and recognizes the expenses in profit or loss or cost of related assets.

Subsequent to the commencement date of a lease, in case of any of the following circumstances, the Group re-measures lease liabilities and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets, if the book value of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero, but the lease liability still needs to be further reduced, the Group calculates the difference in the current profit and loss:

- the Group re-measures the lease liabilities at the present value of revised lease payment discounted at revised discount rate due to the changes of lease term or results of assessment on purchase option.
- the Group re-measures the lease liabilities at the present value of revised lease payment discounted at original discount rate due to the changes in amount payable estimated based on guaranteed residual value or the index or ratio used to determine the amount of lease payment.

27.1 The Group as lessee (continued)

27.1.4 Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group elects not to recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets of transportation vehicle, machinery and electronic equipment. A short-term lease is a lease that at the commencement date, has a lease term of 12 months or less and does not contain any purchase options. A lease of a low-value asset, is a lease that the single underlying asset, when is new, is of low value. The Group shall recognize the lease payments associated with short-term leases and leases of low-value assets as the cost of the related assets or profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

27.1.5 Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the scope of increase which is adjusted based on circumstances of such contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group reallocates the revised contract consideration, re-determines the lease term and re-measures the lease liabilities at the present value of the revised lease payments discounted using the revised discount rate.

If the scope of the lease is narrowed or the lease term is shortened as a result of the lease modification, the Group reduces the carrying amount of the right-of-use assets accordingly, and record the relevant gains or losses of partial or complete termination of the lease into the current profit and loss. In case of re-measurement of lease liabilities due to other lease modifications, the Group adjusts the carrying amount of the right-of-use assets accordingly.

27.2 The Group as lessor

27.2.1 Separation of a lease

For a contract that contains lease and non-lease components simultaneously, the Group applies the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No. 14 – Revenue to allocate consideration in a contract to lease and non-lease components. The basis of the allocation is the separately stand-alone price of the lease component and the non-lease component.

27.2.2 Classification of lease

A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset. Other leases which are not finance leases are operating leases.

27.2.2.1 The Group as lessor under operating leases

Receipts of lease under operating leases are recognized as rental income on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs related to operating leases incurred by the Group are capitalized when incurred, and are recognized in profit or loss for the current period on the same basis as recognition of rental income over the lease term.

The variable receipts of lease received by the Group that are related to operating leases and not included in receipts of lease are recognized in profit or loss for the period when they are incurred.

27.2 The Group as lessor (continued)

27.2.2 Classification of lease (continued)

27.2.2.2 The Group as lessor under finance lease

At the commencement date, the Group uses the net lease investment as the accounting value of the finance lease receivables and derecognizes the finance lease assets. The net investment in the lease is the sum of the unguaranteed residual value and the present value of the lease receipts that have not been received at the commencement date, discounted at the interest rate embedded in the lease.

The amount of lease receivable refers to the amount that the Group should collect from the lessee for the purpose of transferring the leased assets during the lease term, including:

- fixed payments and in substance fixed payments to be paid by the lessee, less any lease incentives receivable (if any);
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or rate;
- exercise price of purchase options, if it is reasonably determined that the lessee will exercise the option;
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease; and
- The residual value of the guarantee provided to the Group by the lessee, a party related to the lessee and an independent third party who has the financial ability to perform the guarantee obligation.

The variable lease receipts that are not included in the measurement of net investment in the lease investment are recognized in current profit or loss when actually incurred.

The Group calculates and recognizes interest income for each period of the lease term based on a fixed periodic interest rate.

III. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

28. Changes in significant accounting policies

28.1 New lease standards

Since 1 January 2019 (date of initial application), the Group applied the Accounting Standard for Business Enterprises No.21 – Lease (hereinafter referred to as “New lease standards”, referred to as “Original lease standards” prior to the revision) revised by Ministry of Finance in 2018. The new lease standards improved the definition of leases, added contents of identification, separation and combination of leases, cancelled the classification of operating leases and finance leases by lessee and required recognition of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for all leases (except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets) at the commencement date of a lease and confirm depreciation and interest expenses separately. It also improved the subsequent measurement of leases by lessee, added accounting treatment in the case of options revaluation and lease changes, and increased relevant disclosure requirements. In addition, it also enriched the disclosure content of the lessor. Subsequent to the revision, the accounting policies of the Group as lessee and lessor for the recognition and measurement of leases are described in Note III. 27.

For a contract that already existed prior to the date of initial application, the Group chooses not to reassess whether such contract is, or contains leases.

The Group as lessee

For the cumulative effect of initial application of new lease standards, the Group adjusts the retained profits and amount of relevant items in the financial statements at the date of initial application, without adjusting information in comparable periods.

For operating leases prior to the date of initial application, the Group chooses one or more following simplified methods on the basis of each lease:

- Leases that have a lease term less than 12 months since the date of initial application are accounted for as short-term leases;
- Leases that have similar characteristics shall use the same discount rate for measurement of lease liabilities;
- Measurement of right-of-use assets excludes initial direct costs;
- For leases with options to extend or terminate, the Group determines the lease term based on the actual exercise of options before the initial application date and other most updated information;

28. Changes in significant accounting policies (continued)

28.1 New lease standards (continued)

On the initial application date, the Group makes following adjustments due to adoption of new lease standards:

For operating leases existed prior to the date of initial application, the Group initially measures lease liabilities at the present value of the remaining lease payments discounted at the lessee's incremental borrowing rate on the date of initial application and measures right-of-use assets amount equivalent to lease liabilities, which is adjusted for any prepaid lease payments as necessary.

The Group recognized lease liabilities and right-of-use assets of RMB49,631,355.08 and RMB52,499,010.14 respectively as at 1 January 2019. For operating leases existed prior to the date of initial application, the Group initially measures lease liabilities at the present value of the remaining lease payments discounted at the lessee's incremental borrowing rate on the date of initial application. The weighted average rate for such incremental borrowing rate is 4.75%~4.90%.

Impact of application of new lease standards on relevant items recognized in the Group and the Company's balance sheet at 1 January 2019 is as follows:

The Group:

28.2 Presenting format of financial statements

The Group has prepared the financial statements for the year 2019 in accordance with the Notice of the Revised Format of 2019 Financial Statements for General Business Enterprises (Cai Kuai (2019) No. 6, hereinafter referred to as the "Cai Kuai No.6 Document") released by the Ministry of Finance on 30 April 2019. Cai Kuai No.6 Document revised the presenting accounts in the balance sheet and income statement and split "Notes and accounts receivable" to be "Notes receivable" and "Accounts receivable", and "Notes and accounts payable" to be "Notes payable" and "Accounts payable". It also specified or revised the presentation of line items of "Non-current assets due within one year", "Deferred income", "Other equity instruments", "Research and development expenses", "Interest income" under "Financial expenses", "Other income", "Gains on disposal of assets", "Non-operating income" and "Non-operating expenses", and adjusted the presenting location of "Impairment losses of assets", and specified the presentation of "Capital contribution of holders of other equity instruments". For the above changes in presenting accounts, the Company has adjusted retrospectively the comparable data for the prior year.

IV. SIGNIFICANT JUDGEMENTS MADE IN THE APPLICATION OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND KEY ASSUMPTIONS AND UNCERTAINTIES IN ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in Note III, the Group is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of items in the financial statements that cannot be measured accurately, due to the internal uncertainty of the operating activities. These judgements, estimates and assumptions are based on historical experiences of the Group's management as well as other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates of the Group.

The Group regularly reviews the aforesaid judgments, estimates and assumptions on the basis of continuous operation. Where the changes in accounting estimates only impact the current year, the impact shall be recognized during the current year; where such changes impact both the current and future years, the impact shall be confirmed during the current and future years when such changes occur.

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

IV. SIGNIFICANT JUDGEMENTS MADE IN THE APPLICATION OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND KEY ASSUMPTIONS AND UNCERTAINTIES IN ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

Significant judgements made in the application of accounting policies

The Group has made the following important judgments in the application of accounting policies, which had a significant impact on the amounts recognized in the financial statements:

Capitalization of development expenditure

If the expenditure in the development stage meets the conditions as described in Note (III) 18.2, it shall be capitalized, or included in the current profit and loss if not. Whether the expenditure in the development stage is capitalized or expensed requires significant judgment and estimates.

Determination of the lease term of lease contract with renewal option

For the lease contract signed by the Group as the lessee with the renewal option, the Group needs to use judgment to determine the lease term of the lease contract. An assessment of whether the Group is reasonably certain to exercise this option will affect the length of the lease term, which will have a significant impact on the amount of lease liabilities and right-of-use assets recognized.

Key assumptions and uncertainties in accounting estimates

The following are the critical assumptions and uncertainties which may cause material adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities concerning the future at the date of balance sheet:

Provision for decline in value of inventories

The Group recognizes provision for decline in value of inventory according to net realizable value of the inventory. Provision for inventory impairment is required to be recognized when there is sign showing that the net realizable value is lower than cost. Recognition of net realizable value involves judgment and estimation. If the result of re-estimation differs from current estimation, such difference will impact the book value of inventory for the corresponding year.

Notes to the Financial Statements

IV. SIGNIFICANT JUDGEMENTS MADE IN THE APPLICATION OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND KEY ASSUMPTIONS AND UNCERTAINTIES IN ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

Key assumptions and uncertainties in accounting estimates (continued)

Useful life of fixed assets

The Group estimates the useful life of fixed assets based on experience of actual useful life of fixed asset of similar nature and function. If the useful life of a fixed asset is shortened, the Company will adopt measures to accelerate the depreciation of the fixed asset or eliminate fixed assets which are idle or technologically obsolete.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

As at 31 December 2019, the Group has recognized deferred tax assets of RMB684,277,716.19 (31 December 2018: RMB676,536,944.72) in the consolidated balance sheet. The realization of deferred tax assets is mainly determined by future actual earnings and actual tax rate of temporary difference in future utilization year. If the actual future earning is less than estimates, or the actual tax rate is lower than estimates, the recognized deferred income tax asset shall be reversed, and be recognized in the income statement in the year in which the reversal is incurred. If the actual earnings accrued in the future is more than estimates, or the actual tax rate is higher than estimates, such deferred tax asset shall be recognized in the consolidated income statement in the year in which they are incurred.

After-sales service expenses

The Group undertakes the warranty obligation for the vehicles sold within a certain warranty period, and accrues the after-sales service expenses according to the sales volume and estimated cost standards. The after-sales service expense accrued on 31 December 2019 is RMB694,933,978.06. If the actual after-sales service expenses are greater or less than the expected amount, it will affect the profit and loss of the year.

(2) Disclosed by classification of method of credit loss provision (continued)

Description of accounts receivable for which credit loss provision has been assessed by portfolios:

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group uses the credit period of receivables and overdue aging as the basis to assess the expected credit losses of various receivables.

The credit risk and provision for the expected credit loss of accounts receivable are as follows:

Aging	31/12/2019				31/12/2018

(3) Notes endorsed and discounted by the Group to other parties but yet undue by the end of the year are as follows:

Classifications	RMB
	31/12/2019	31/12/2018
Bank acceptances	20,094,547,980.28	17,183,360,037.82
Total	20,094,547,980.28	17,183,360,037.82

The aforesaid notes endorsed and discounted by the Group to other parties but yet undue will fall due within 1 to 12 months. According to the relevant provisions of the Law of Negotiable Instruments, if the acceptance bank refuses to pay, the holder has the right of recourse against the Group ("continuing involvement").

The Group believes that the Group has transferred almost all the risks and rewards of the above-mentioned notes, therefore, the book value of the settled accounts payable and related accounts payable is derecognized. The maximum losses and undiscounted cash flows for continuing involvement and repurchases are equal to their book value. The Group believes that continuing involvement in fair value is not significant.

The Group holds that the acceptance bank of bank acceptances held by the Group has relatively high credit rating with no significant credit risk and no impairment allowance has been made.

Finance lease receivables

In order to reduce the credit risk of finance lease receivables, the Group uses the credit risk rating system to divide the finance lease receivables into five risk levels: normal, concerned, subordinate, suspicious and loss based on the transaction records and relevant external information available. In 2019 and 2018, the Group's assessment methods and major assumptions have not changed.

34. Undistributed profits (continued)

(1) Appropriation of statutory surplus reserve

According to the Articles of Association, the Company is required to transfer 10% of its net profit to the statutory surplus reserve. The transfer can be ceased if the balance of the statutory surplus reserve has reached 50% of the Company's registered capital. Under the Articles of Associations and relevant company regulations, some statutory surplus reserve can be transferred into share capital of the Company, while the remaining statutory reserves shall be no less than 25% of the registered capital.

(2) Appropriation of enterprise expansion fund, reserve fund and employee incentives and welfare fund

Certain subsidiaries of the Company are Sino-foreign equity joint ventures. Pursuant to the law of the People's Republic of China on Sino-foreign Equity Joint Ventures and relevant provisions of the articles of association of relevant companies, such subsidiaries shall appropriate enterprise expansion fund, reserve fund and staff incentive bonus and welfare fund based on the net profits calculated under the China Enterprise Accounting Standards and relevant requirements. The ratio of appropriation shall be determined by the Board of Directors and Articles of Corporation.

(3) Cash dividends approved by the shareholders' meeting in this year

On 17 May 2019, the 2018 shareholders' meeting approved Proposal on Profit Distribution of 2018, which allows the Company to distribute cash dividends of RMB0.29(inclusive of tax) per share, amounting to RMB2,646,908,010.00 in total, based on total shares of 9,127,269,000 shares with par value of RMB1 per share.

Pursuant to the resolution of shareholders' meeting of Changyou Haoche on 24 July 2019, the dividends of RMB40,421.43 were distributed to former shareholders prior to the business combination.

(4) Pursuant to the shareholders' decision of Baoding Yixin, a subsidiary of the Company, made on 27 December 2019, the appropriated employee incentives and welfare fund of previous years are transferred to undistributed profits which amounted to RMB2,944,963.37.

(5) Distribution of profits determined subsequent the balance sheet date

According to the proposal of the board of directors, the Company intends to pay a cash dividend of RMB2,281,817,250.00 to shareholders in 2019 based on the total shares of 9,127,269,000 (par value of RMB1 per share), that is, RMB0.25 (tax included) of cash dividend per share. The above dividend distribution plan has yet to be approved by the meeting of shareholders.

IX. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Major financial instruments of the Group include cash and bank balances, held-trading financial assets, accounts receivable, financing with receivables, other receivables, loans and advances to customers, equity investments, long-term receivables, investments in other equity instruments, borrowings, accounts payable, notes payable, other payables, bonds payable, etc. Detailed descriptions of these financial instruments. Detailed descriptions of these financial instruments are set out in Note VI. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the risk management policies adopted by the Group to mitigate such risks are set out below. The management of the Group manages and monitors such risk exposures to ensure such risks are limited to a prescribed level.

The Group applied sensitive analysis technic to analyze the reasonableness of risk variables, possible changes that may affect profit and loss or shareholders' equity. Risk variables are less likely to change isolated, whereas the correlation between variables have major effect on the changes of single risk. Thus, contents below are under the assumption that the changes of single variable are isolated.

1. Objective and policies of risk management

The objective of the risk management of the Group is to maintain an appropriate balance between risks and return so to minimize the negative effects of risks against the Group's operating results in order to maximize the benefits of shareholders. Based on such objective, the principle strategy of the Group's risk management is to identify and analyze all types of risks of the Group, establish appropriate risk tolerance thresholds, carry out risk management procedures and perform risk monitoring on all kinds of risks in a timely and reliable manner, thus controlling the risk exposures within a prescribed level.

1.1 Market risk

1.1.1 Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that losses will occur because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies which may have impact on the Group's performance as a result of currency risk are as follows:

Items	RMB
	31/12/2019	31/12/2018
Cash and bank balances	578,788,984.45	170,563,688.64
Held-for-trading financial assets	76,585,824.00	168,875,000.00
Accounts receivable	523,220,468.89	170,480,719.74
Accounts payable	(41,582,710.36)	(21,456,110.71)
Other payables	(40,607,988.48)	(82,683,782.26)
Short-term borrowings	—	(573,726,238.81)
Long-term borrowings	(2,253,013,663.75)	(1,647,805,500.00)

The Group closely monitors the effects of changes in the foreign exchange rates on the Group's currency risk exposures. Except for the above items, currency risk is not involved in the Group's other financial instruments.

IX. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

1. Objective and policies of risk management (continued)

1.1 Market risk (continued)

1.1.2 Interest rate risk

The Group's cash flow interest rate risk of financial instruments relates primarily to variable-rate bank borrowings (see Note VI 20 for details). It is the Group's policy to keep its borrowings at floating rate of interests and constantly pay close attention to the effect of interest rate changes on the interest rate risk exposed to the Group.

Sensitivity analysis on interest rate risk

Sensitivity analysis on interest rate risk is based on the following assumption: the changes in market interest rate may have impact on the interest or expenses of variable rate financial liabilities.

On the basis of the above assumption, the reasonably possible changes in the foreign exchange rate have limited pre-tax effect on profit or loss for the period and equity.

RMB

Items	Interest rate changes	2019
		Effect on profit	Effect on shareholders' equity
Long-term borrowings	Increase of 100 basis points	(11,255,090.00)	(11,255,090.00)
Long-term borrowings	Decrease of 100 basis points	11,255,090.00	11,255,090.00
Short-term borrowings	Increase of 100 basis points	(3,139,290.00)	(3,139,290.00)
Short-term borrowings	Decrease of 100 basis points	3,139,290.00	3,139,290.00

1.1.3 Other price risks

The Group's price risks mainly arise from investments in held-for-trading equity instruments. Therefore, the Group is exposed to the risks of changes in the security prices. The Group closely monitors market changes in order to reduce the price risks of equity security investments.

1. Objective and policies of risk management (continued)

1.2 Credit risk

As at 31 December 2019, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties, including the carrying amounts of the respective recognized financial assets as stated in the consolidated balance sheets.

The Group only transacts with the third parties having good credit records, and most of the sales transactions are settled by receipts in advance or bank acceptances. In order to minimize the credit risk, the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of the financial assets at each balance sheet date to ensure that adequate expected credit loss are made for related financial assets. In this regard, the management of the Group considers that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The Group's cash and bank balances are deposited in banks with high credit ratings and the acceptance bank in which financing with receivables-bank acceptances receivable are deposited with bank of relatively high credit ratings, thus cash and bank balances and financing with receivables have limited credit risk.

The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk, with exposure spread over a number of counterparties and customers.

As at 31 December 2019, details of credit risk on the Group's accounts receivable, other receivables and financing receivables and their expected credit losses are set out in Note VI 3, 6, and 10.

2. The basis of market prices determined on level 1 of the fair value hierarchy

Items at level 1 of the fair value hierarchy mainly include held-for-trading financial assets, and the market price is determined based on the value of the open market stocks.

3. Qualitative and quantitative information of valuation techniques and key inputs on level 2 of the fair value hierarchy

Items at level 2 of the fair value hierarchy mainly include held-for trading financial assets – wealth management products, forward exchange settlement and sale contracts and financing with receivables – notes receivable. Cash flow discount is adopted for valuation techniques of fair values, and the inputs are contract-linked observable inputs, forward exchange rates, observable interest rate, etc.

Notes to the Financial Statements

4. Qualitative and quantitative information of valuation techniques and key inputs on level 3 of the fair value hierarchy

Items at level 3 of the fair value hierarchy mainly include held-for trading financial assets – wealth management products and investments in other equity instruments. Cash flow discount is adopted for valuation techniques of fair values of wealth management products, and the inputs are contract-linked observable inputs, expected return rate agreed in the contract and discount rate which reflects credit risk, etc. Asset-based approach is adopted for valuation techniques of fair value of investments in other equity instruments.

5. Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities which are not measured at fair value

The management of the Group considers that the carrying amounts of financial assets and financial liabilities measured at amortized costs in the financial statements as at 31 December 2019 approximate their fair values.

XIII. EVENTS AFTER THE BALANCE SHEET DATE

1. Assessment of impact of the novel coronavirus epidemic

Since the outbreak of the novel coronavirus (the "COVID-19") from January 2020 nationwide, the Group positively responds to and strictly implements the call of the party and the state for dealing with the epidemic. The Group anticipates that the epidemic and prevention and control measures will have a certain temporary impact on the production and operation of the Group. The extent of such impact is dependent upon the progress of epidemic prevention and control, duration and implementation of prevention and control policies in various regions.

The Group will continue to pay close attention to the development of the epidemic, evaluate the related impact on the Company's financial positions and results of operations with active responses. As at the reporting date of the financial statements, the assessment is still in progress.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year from 1 January to 31 December 2019

XIV. OTHER SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

1. Segment reporting

The Group is mainly engaged in the manufacture and sales of automobiles and automotive parts and components in the PRC, and the majority of its assets are located in the PRC. The management determined the reporting segments according to the organization structure, management requirements and internal reporting system of the Group for the purposes of resource allocation and performance evaluation. As the resource allocation and performance evaluation of the Group are carried out based on the overall operation of the production and sales of automobiles and automotive parts and components, the Group has only one business segment for internal reporting purpose.

Revenue from external customers by location of revenue sources:

Items	RMB
	2019	2018
Revenue from external customers in China	90,688,477,677.13	95,915,540,820.51

(3) Analysis of provision for decline in value

Items	Basis of provision for decline in value of inventories	Reasons for reversal or written-off of provision for decline in value of inventories during the year	Percentage of the reversal to the closing balance of the inventory during the year (%)
Raw materials	Note 1	Note 2	0.32
Work-in-progress	Note 1	Note 2	0.05
Finished goods	Note 1	Note 2	0.02
Low-valued and short-lived consumables	Note 1	Note 2	1.56

Description of inventories:

Note 1: As the estimated net realizable value of some vehicle products was lower than the inventory cost as at the end of the period, provision for decline in value of inventories had been made for raw materials, work-in-progress, finished goods and low-valued and short-lived consumables correspondingly.

Note 2: As the estimated net realizable value of raw materials, finished goods, and low-valued and short-lived consumables was higher than the inventory cost as at the end of the reporting period, the provision for decline in value of inventories for the previous year has been reversed. In addition, as the inventories for which provision for decline in value has been made in the previous year was sold during the period, the provision for decline in value of inventories has been written off.
