GEOGRAPHICAL COMBINATION

Dear shareholders.

I am pleased to present the annual results of Jiangnan Group for the year ended 31 December 2020 to our shareholders.

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Despite a grim and complicating domestic and international environment, especially unprecedented outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19") in 2020, China's gross domestic product ("GDP") grew by 2.3% over that in 2019 to RMB101.6 trillion, but its growth rate decreased by 3.8 percentage points from 6.1% in 2019, according to the National Bureau of Statistics of China. In December 2020, China's manufacturing purchasing manager index ("PMI") was 51.9%, which remained above the critical point for ten consecutive months. It indicated a steady recovery in the manufacturing industry in China. The demand for cables has also stabilised as the cable industry in China is closely related to the economic conditions of China.

In terms of electricity consumption, according to the statistics of the Industry Development and Environmental Resources Division of the China Electricity Council, a joint organisation set up by power enterprises and institutions in China under the approval of the State Council, the total electricity consumption of the entire nation was 7,511 billion kilowatt-hours in 2020, representing an increase of 3.1% over that in 2019. In respect of the supply and transmission of electricity, the national installed power generation capacity was 2.20 billion kilowatts as at the end of 2020, representing a year-on-year increase of 9.5%. From January to November 2020, the national infrastructure production capacity was 102.03 million kilowatts, representing an increase of 25.97 million kilowatts as compared to that for the same period in last year. An investment of RMB415.7 billion was made for national power projects, representing a year-on-year increase of 43.5%, mainly attributable to investment in hydropower and wind power projects. The investments in power grid infrastructure in 2020 made by the State Grid Corporation of China ("SGCC") exceeded 0.3% over its annual target. As a result, the Group's sales during the year under review in the energy sector remained stable.

According to the National Bureau of Statistics of China, national infrastructure investments (excluding the production and supply of electricity, heat, gas and water) were increased by 0.9% in 2020 as compared with that in 2019, which was mainly due to the 1.8% increase in investments in the road transportation industry and a decrease in investments in the railway transportation industry by 2.2% and public utility management industry by 1.4% respectively. The limited increase in the national infrastructure investments has provided a stable demand for both general and special power cables.

With regard to the property sector, it is pointed out in the 2020 Central Economic Working Conference that China should maintain the continuity, consistency and stability of real estate financial policies and insist on implementing "housing for living, not for speculation" policy. Though regulation remained stringent in real estate finance, global quantative easing measures and China's moderate easing of its fiscal policy still left some liquidity for the market growth. According to the National Bureau of Statistics of China, in 2020, the floor space of commodity housing sold in China increased by 2.6% compared with that in 2019 to approximately 1,760 million square metres and the sales increased by 8.7% compared with that in 2019 to approximately RMB17.4 trillion. Investments in real estate development in China reached approximately RMB14.1 trillion in 2020, representing an increase of 7.0% which is 2.9 percentage points lower than that in the year of 2019. In 2020, the floor space of housing under development decreased by 1.2% as compared with that in 2019 to approximately 2.24 billion square metres, and the floor space of housing completed decreased by 4.9% to approximately 910 million square metres. At the end of 2020, the floor space of housing under construction by developers reached approximately 9.27 billion square metres, representing an increase of 3.7% as compared with that in 2019. The land areas purchased by real estate developers in 2020 amounted to 260 million square metres, representing a decrease of 1.1% as compared with that in 2019. Due to the slow recovery of receivables from real estate enterprises in general, the Group adopted a more conservative approach to sell its products to real estate enterprises, curbing the growth of the Group's sales in this sector.

In 2020, copper price in London Metal Exchange ("LME") had experienced a V-shaped rebound. In the first quarter, the outbreak of the COVID-19 triggered a global blockade and had a tremendous impact on the overall global economy. Due to the epidemic outbreak in the USA in mid-March coupled with the US dollar liquidity risk caused by the collapse in financial markets, the LME copper price fell sharply to a four-year low of around US$4,500 per tonne. In the second quarter, on the one hand, monetary and fiscal stimulus policies introduced by major economies against the pandemic led to a significant improvement of market liquidity. Gradual recovery of global economy and a rebound in the macro demand for copper came after. On the other hand, production activities in major copper-producing countries were constantly disturbed by the epidemic, which triggered market concerns about copper supply. Strong demand led to a sharp rebound of the LME copper price of more than 30% from the lower end to approximately US$6,000 per tonne. From the third guarter onwards, the global economy continued to recover but the epidemic came back overseas. The major global events such as the US election and COVID-19 vaccine development also intensified bilateral fluctuations of the LME copper price with an upward trend overall. The LME copper price hit a two-year high of approximately US$7,583 as of 31 December 2020. The average price of copper on the LME in 2020 was US$6,169 per tonne, which was only 2.7% higher than that in 2019. The average price of aluminium on the LME in 2020 was US$1,387 per tonne, which was 5.0% higher than that in 2019. As the Group prices its products on a cost-plus basis and copper as a raw material of its major products, the rise in copper prices has pushed up the prices of the Group's products, which offset the decline in revenue of the Group caused by the COVID-19 for the year under review.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Despite the overall economic downturn in China and the wider world in 2020 due to the pandemic, numerous competitors with identical features in most of the products and fierce competition in the market, the Group, with its more than 30 years of experience in the industry and its self-innovation capabilities, recorded a turnover of approximately RMB13,335.2 million, representing a decrease of approximately 8.2% as compared with that in 2019.

In 2020, the Group's business in overseas markets was significantly affected by the global spread of the pandemic and the worsening of foreign trade conditions. From January to February 2020, the Group's merchandise exports were greatly limited due to the Spring Festival and the COVID-19. Although the epidemic was basically under control in China and the Group was among the first in China to promote work and production resumption, its exports were still hit by the ensuing global epidemic outbreak. The Group and its long-term strategic customers also suffered a decline in business. The Group's direct sales to overseas markets in 2020 recorded a decline of approximately 55.8% as compared to that in 2019.

In recent years, the Group's annual equipment investments exceeded RMB50 million on average to expand its production capability. In 2020, the Group increased its investment in technological transformation and imported a world-class production equipment such as double-head 11-mold large-draw machines, a continuous vulcanization extrusion equipment, double-twisted stranding machines, and a resistance-type continuous annealing equipment. Meanwhile, the Group purchased domestical state-of-art production and test equipments such as cable sheathing production lines, cage twisters, production lines for the longitudinal wrapping and welding of BTTZ copper strips and systems used to test fire resistant properties of cables. All the investments have shorten the delivery period of the Group and increased its customers' satisfaction.

In 2020, the Group continued on the list of the top 500 Chinese Manufacturing Enterprises* (中國製造業企業500强), the top 500 Chinese Private Enterprises* (中國民營企業500強), the top 500 Chinese Private Manufacturing Enterprises* ("中國製造業民營企業500強), and the top 10 Most Competitive Cable Industry Players in China* (中國綫纜行業最具競爭力企業10強). The Group also won a number of awards such as "International Famous Brands for Prioritised Cultivation and Development in Jiangsu Province"* (江蘇省重點培育和發展的國際知名品牌), "Demonstration Base for Ex-servicemen's Employment and Start-up in Wuxi City"* (無錫市退役軍人就業創業示範基地), "Vocational Skill Training Institution for Ex-servicemen in Wuxi City"* (無錫市退役軍人職業技能培訓承訓機構), "Key Tax Contributor in Yixing City for 2020"* (2020年度宜興市對上貢獻重點企業), "High-Quality Development and Demonstration Enterprise in Yixing City"* (宜興市高質量發展示範企業), "Model Enterprise with High Integrity in Yixing City"* (宜興市守信標兵企業), "Smart Model Manufacturer in Yixing City"* (宜興市智能製造示範企業), and "Yixing City Demonstrative Enterprise for Scientific and Technological Advancement"* (宜興市科技進步示範企業).

In recent years, amid the keen market competition, the Group aiming at domestic and overseas high-end markets has managed to expedite the development and innovation of new products, processes, and technologies by means of academician research workstations and postdoctoral research workstations. In 2020, the Group made remarkable achievements in research and development of rail transit cables, mining cables, marine cables, energy-saving wires, fire-resistant cables, military cables and other products. Major breakthroughs were made in research and development of military nuclear products, with 13 new products passing scientific and technological achievement appraisal and 2 products listed in the "New Technology and New Product Catalogue of Jiangsu Province for Prioritised Promotion and Application"* (江蘇省重點推廣應用的新技術新產品目錄) throughout the year. The Group's subway cables were listed among the first batch of "Quality Products of Jiangsu"* (江蘇精品), and power cables were certified as China's "Enterprise Standard Leader"* (企業標準領跑者) as we led the preparation of two group standards and participated in the development of five national and industry standards.

OUTLOOK AND PROSPECTS

In 2021, the Group will continue to be exposed to great financial pressures and challenges due to the global and domestic macroeconomic conditions. There are many uncertainties in the changes of the COVID-19 epidemic and the internal and external environment. Given China's not yet solid economic foundation and the world's complex and difficult economic situations amid an unstable and uneven recovery, various risks associated with the epidemic cannot be ignored. As China's relationship with the United States and some other countries has been shifted from cooperating rivals to competing rivals, it is expected that their efforts to restrict and stifle China's development will continue for a long time. The Chinese government's policy of "housing for living, not for speculation", control over state grid investment and production restriction and restructuring for the coal industry also have a certain impact on the existing market. The epidemic is still severe overseas. As at the date of this report, the cumulative number of confirmed cases of the COVID-19 worldwide had exceeded 100 million. Mutations in the COVID-19 virus may cause another surge in global cases and accelerate the spread of the epidemic, which will inevitably pose serious challenges to the global economy and affect the Group's business in overseas markets.

Despite all these, the foundation of the Chinese economy remains strong with a large and fast-growing market of great potential. Great opportunities come with the government's strategy of expanding domestic demand, important initiative to ensure "stability on the six fronts and security in the six areas"* (六穩六保) (referring to stability in employment, finance, foreign trade, foreign investment, domestic investment, and market expectations and security in safeguarding employment, people's livelihoods, the development of market entities, food and energy security, the stable operation of industrial and supply chains, and the smooth functioning of society), new infrastructure construction as well as the implementation of the "One Belt One Road"* (一帶一路) initiative, the integration of the Yangtze River Delta and Pearl River Delta development and the construction of Xiong'an New Area and free trade zones. All these measures will create opportunities for the development of the Group in 2021 especially in the following aspects:

- In 2021, China will accelerate the integration of Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei transportation and the construction of the comprehensive transportation system in the Xiong'an New Area, the construction of the comprehensive three-dimensional transportation corridor in the Yangtze River Economic Belt, the development of transportation in the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, the high-quality integrated development of transportation in the Yangtze River Delta, the ecological protection and high-quality development of transportation in the Yellow River Basin and the development of transportation in a two-city economic circle in the Chengdu-Chongqing region. Around RMB2.4 trillion is expected to be invested in fixed assets in transportation throughout the year.
- 2 Mao Weiming, Chairman and Party Secretary of State Grid Corporation of China, said in an interview with Xinwen Lianbo, a daily news programme produced by China Central Television (CCTV), that SGCC would continue to strengthen the construction of power grids to develop a modern power grid that is safe, reliable, green, smart, interconnected and with mutual benefits. The investment in power grids and related industries is expected to reach RMB6 trillion during the "14th Five-Year Plan" period.
- In 2021, "new infrastructures" (which are principally focused in seven major sectors including 5G networks, ultra-high voltage, inter-city express railway and inner-city rail systems, charging poles for new energy automobiles, big data centres, artificial intelligence as well as industrial internet) will continue to be the driving force for economic growth. In terms of data centres, the total investment during 2020 to 2022 will amount to approximately RMB1.5 trillion. In terms of investment in industrial internet, the cumulative investment during 2020 to 2025 will reach around RMB650 billion. With respect to 5G networks, the cumulative investment from 2019 to 2026 will exceed RMB2.6 trillion. In the next three years, the investment in artificial intelligence will exceed RMB100 billion.

As the market is full of opportunities, the Group will squeeze the opportunities for its development by improving its marketing quality, management, and service capabilities. The Group will focus on the following areas in its business operations in 2021:

the Group will adhere to focusing on marketing by sales personnel with the aid of internal sales channels, continue to update marketing strategy and concepts, and proactively integrate into the dual-cycle development strategy of marketing. The Group will explore deeper into existing mature markets with emphasis on key areas and core customer markets in order to develop the high-quality sales development by the way of targeting at high-end markets.

^{*} For identification purposes only

- 2. the Group will further intensify its efforts to tap into new markets. The Group will expand its customer's base in second-tier and third-tier cities in China with urgent, high demand and great influence and pay attention to the development of remote markets. The Group will put an extra effort to develop international markets by exposure to the "One Belt One Road"* (一帶一路) initiative and participating in the supply of supporting facilities overseas. It will take the initiative to attend international exhibitions, where possible, to enhance its international exposure and reputation.
- 3. the Group will strive for excellence. It will effectively assess the overall quality of projects, fight against counterfeiting and faking of its brand products, strengthen efforts to collect loans in arrears in a faster way, do its best to avoid operating risks, and improve efficiency and quality.
- 4. the Group will intensify its efforts to train marketing managers and management team building, nurture talented employees, keep exploring new service models to customers, improve service standards to shorten response time and improve service quality.
- 5. the Group will computerize the operations and knowledge management of the Group holistically and promote safe production and green manufacturing to a new higher level. In 2021, the Group plans to install four more imported cross-linked cable production lines including two production lines for 35kV ultra-high-speed medium-voltage cross-linked cables, one production line for 110kV PP cables and one production line for 110kV cross-linked cables and import two German concentric stranding machines.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On behalf of the board ("Board") of directors ("Directors") of the Company, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the shareholders and investors of the Company, business partners, customers and suppliers of the Group for their long-lasting support and to all Board members, the Group's management team and all employees for their efforts and commitment.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

For the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group recorded revenue of approximately RMB13,335.2 million, representing a decrease of approximately 8.2% as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2019, and profit for the year under review of approximately RMB169.5 million, representing a decrease of approximately 55.8% as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2019. The decrease in the profit for the year under review was mainly due to (i) the decrease in turnover by approximately 8.2% to approximately RMB13,335.2 million for the year under review as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB14,524.2 million due to the reduced demand for the Group's products during the year under review, as a result of the adverse economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic; (ii) the increase in selling and distribution costs by approximately 30.4% to approximately RMB560.1 million for the year under review as compared with those for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB429.6 million, which is mainly due to (a) the increase in the costs incurred in providing better technical support and after-sale services to the Group's customers; and (b) the increase in the costs incurred in bidding projects for the Group; (iii) the increase in administrative expenses by approximately 6.6% to approximately RMB283.0 million for the year under review as compared with those for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB265.5 million, which is mainly due to the increase in the staff costs and general expenses incurred by the Group for the enhancement of its business and employee health management; and (iv) the turning of an exchange gain for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB9.3 million to an exchange loss of approximately RMB16.6 million for the year under review, all partially offset by (1) the increase in other income by approximately 8.6% to approximately RMB103.5 million for the year under review as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB95.2 million primarily attributable to the combined effect of the recovery of a bad debt which has been written off last year and the decrease in the interest income earned on bank deposits, as a result of the decline in the average balance of the bank deposits placed by the Group during the year under review; (2) the reduction in share of losses from associates by 97.4% to approximately RMB273,000 for the year under review, which amounted to approximately RMB10.6 million for the year ended 31 December 2019; (3) the reduction in impairment losses under the expected credit loss ("ECL") model, net of reversal by approximately 8.8% to approximately RMB93.0 million for the year under review, which amounted to approximately RMB102.0 million for the year ended 31 December 2019, mainly due to the amounts and the aging of the Group's trade and other receivables over one year remaining stable during the year under review; (4) the reduction in finance costs by approximately 7.1% to approximately RMB271.9 million for the year under review as compared with those for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB292.8 million, mainly attributable to the Group requiring less financing to fund its working capital in the year under review due to the reduction in the demand for its products; and (5) the decrease in taxation by approximately 35.5% to approximately RMB49.4 million for the year under review as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2019 of approximately RMB76.7 million, as a result of the reduction in the Group's taxable profit for the year under review. The Group's gross profit margin for the year under review increased to approximately 10.7% (year ended 31 December 2019: 10.5%). Basic earnings per share for the year under review was RMB2.79 cents (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB8.66 cents), representing a decrease of approximately 67.8%.

MARKET REVIEW

In 2020, the national economy in China faced a downward pressure. According to the National Bureau of Statistics of China, China's gross domestic product grew by 2.3% over that in 2019 to RMB101.6 trillion but its growth decreased by 3.8 percentage points from 6.1% in 2019 due to the outbreak of the COVID-19 in 2020 which caused significant adverse impacts on the global economy. China's manufacturing PMI had been above 50% for ten consecutive months up to December 2020, indicating that the manufacturing industry continues to recover steadily in the PRC. As the power cable industry in the PRC is closely correlated to China's economic environment, the demand of power cable products has been stabilised.

The average price of copper on the LME increased by approximately 2.7% from approximately US$6,006.1 per tonne in 2019 to approximately US$6,168.6 per tonne in 2020. The average price of aluminium increased by approximately 5.0% from approximately US$1,320.5 per tonne in 2019 to approximately US$1,386.6 per tonne in 2020. As the Group prices its products on a cost-plus basis, the increase in average raw materials prices has driven up the Group's average product prices generally, which partially alleviated the drop in turnover of the Group caused by the decrease in the sales volume of the Group during the year under review.

BUSINESS REVIEW

In 2020, the Group recorded a turnover of approximately RMB13,335.2 million, representing a decrease of approximately 8.2% as compared with that in 2019. In order to maintain the Group's competitiveness and enhance the Group's productivity, the Group has continued to invest more than RMB50 million every year in machineries for upgrading current production lines and setting up new ones. In recent years, the Group continues to invest to increase its production capacities. To cope with the fierce market competition, in recent years the Group has been aiming at high-end market domestically and overseas, and has been deploying resources to accelerate research and development of new and innovative products, processes and technologies. In 2020, the Group has made remarkable achievements in the research and development of rail transit cables, mining cables, marine cables, energy-saving wires, fire-resistant cables, military cables and other products. Among them, the research and development of military nuclear products has made substantial breakthroughs. In 2020, 13 new products of the Group passed the appraisal of scientific and technological achievements, 2 products were listed in the "New Technology and New Product Catalog for Key Promotion and Application in Jiangsu Province" (江蘇省重點推廣應用的新技術新產品目錄), the Group's subway cable product was awarded the first batch of "Quality Products of Jiangsu" (江蘇精品) titles, and the power cable of the Group was certified as the national "Enterprise Standard Leader" (企業標準領題者). The Group also led the formulation of 2 group standards and participated in the formulation of 5 national and industry standards.

In respect of the Group's overseas business, the spread of the COVID-19 around the world and the deterioration of trading environment had an adverse impact on the Group's overseas market business for the year under review. Although the domestic epidemic was basically under control and the Group was one of the first batch enterprises in the resumption of production and work, the global epidemic broke out seriously affected the Group's products export. Sales to the Group's long-term strategic customers has been affected resulting in the overseas turnover of the Group decreased by approximately 52.3% to approximately RMB168.9 million for the year under review (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB354.6 million).

The impact of the COVID-19 on the Group

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought about additional uncertainties in the Group's operating environment in China. The Group's turnover decreased by approximately 8.2% as compared to that in 2019 due to the reduced demand for the Group's products during the year under review, as a result of the adverse economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. This change in customers' demands affected the Group's businesses the most especially in the first quarter of 2020 when most of its customers' operations were suspended due to the implementation of various preventive and emergency measures in the PRC, such as a partial lockdown policy and extension of the Chinese New Year holidays for the sake of minimising the population movement preventing the threat of spreading the epidemic across the PRC. The Group's turnover in the first quarter of 2020 only accounted for approximately 9.4% of the total turnover for the year under review. To avoid the continuing suspension of operations due to the outbreak of COVID-19 in China in early 2020, the Group had put in place various contingency measures including employee health management procedures which were in compliance with the Chinese government's guidelines. The Group was able to resume its operations within a short period after Chinese New Year holidays in 2020. The reduction in demand for the Group's products lowered the Group's working capital needs. To cope with any unexpected change in demands for the Group's products which might need additional working capital, the Group always maintains sufficient credit facilities with banks to ensure the Group's strong liquidity position. Given that the Chinese government has implemented straightforward and effective measures and policies to monitor and control the COVID-19 pandemic, and with the launch of COVID-19 vaccination in 2020, the Group expects that the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Group's operations will be reduced in the coming year. Nevertheless, the Group will continue to monitor the situation of the epidemic and assess its impact on the Group from time to time.

(RMB'000)

For the year under review, the turnover of power cables which accounted for approximately 65.7% of the total turnover of the Group amounted to approximately RMB8,764.3 million, representing a decrease of approximately 14.0% over that in 2019 of approximately RMB10,190.3 million. The sales volume of the Group's power cable products for the year under review decreased by approximately 16.8% to approximately 198,131 km (year ended 31 December 2019: 238,199 km), which was mainly attributed to the outbreak of the COVID-19 in China, which had reduced customers' consumption of the Group's products during the year under review. The increase in the average copper price during the year under review had driven up the average selling price of power cable products for the year under review by approximately 3.4% to approximately RMB44,235 per km (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB42,781 per km).

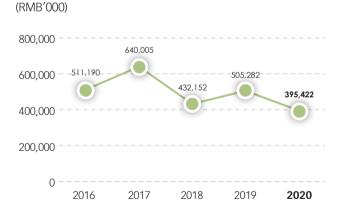

Gross profit of power cable products for the year under review decreased to approximately RMB940.5 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB1,051.3 million), whereas gross profit margin increased slightly to approximately 10.7% (year ended 31 December 2019: 10.3%) mainly due to change in product mix that the sales proportion of higher profit margin products increased during the year under review.

WIRES AND CABLES FOR ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT PRODUCTS — 22.1% OF TOTAL TURNOVER (RMB'000)

For the year under review, the turnover from wires and cables for electrical equipment increased by approximately 5.0% to approximately RMB2,945.0 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB2,804.5 million). The sales volume of wires and cables for electrical equipment increased by approximately 9.8% from approximately 1,442,789 km for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately 1,584,145 km for the year under review. However, the average selling price of wires and cables for electrical equipment products decreased by approximately 4.4% from approximately RMB1,944 per km for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB1,859 per km for the year under review, mainly due to the increase in sales of wires and cables for electrical equipment products with lower selling prices in 2020. Gross profit for the year under review decreased to approximately RMB179.6 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB182.9 million) and gross profit margin decreased to approximately 6.1% (year ended 31 December 2019: 6.5%), mainly due to the fierce market competition of wires and cables for electrical equipment products.

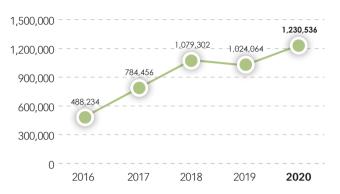

BARE WIRE PRODUCTS — 3.0% OF TOTAL TURNOVER

For the year under review, the turnover of bare wires decreased by approximately 21.7% during the year under review to approximately RMB395.4 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB505.3 million). The sales volume of bare wires decreased significantly by approximately 25.7% to approximately 28,029 tonnes for the year under review (year ended 31 December 2019: 37,726 tonnes). The average price of bare wire products increased by approximately 5.3% to approximately RMB14,108 per tonne for the year under review (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB13,394 per tonne) which was in line with the increase in average price of aluminium in 2020. For the year under review, the turnover of special cables increased by approximately 20.2% to approximately RMB1,230.5 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB1,024.1 million). The sales volume of special cables for the year ended 31 December 2020 increased by approximately 12.3% to approximately 61,918 km (year ended 31 December 2019: 55,114 km) due to the increase in infrastructure investments in the railway transportation industry, which has provided support to the stable growth of the demand for the special cables of the Group. The average selling price of special cables increased by approximately 7.0% from approximately RMB18,581 per km for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB19,874 per km for the year under review. This increase in the average selling price was mainly due to the increase in the average price of copper and the increase in the sales of cables with special functionality which carried higher production costs during the year under review. However, the gross profit margin of special cables decreased by approximately 0.4% to approximately 21.2% (year ended 31 December 2019: 21.6%) due to the change of product mix during the year under review.

The turnover in the PRC market for the year under review decreased by approximately 7.1% to approximately RMB13,166.3 million (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB14,169.6 million), which accounted for approximately 98.7% (year ended 31 December 2019: 97.6%) of the Group's total turnover, and such decrease was primarily due to the outbreak of the COVID-19 which had reduced customers' consumption of the Group's products during the year under review.

The turnover contributed by the overseas markets decreased by approximately RMB185.7 million or approximately 52.3% to approximately RMB168.9 million for the year under review (year ended 31 December 2019: RMB354.6 million). This decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in sales in certain major oversea markets, such as Singapore, Vietnam and South Africa, as a result of the outbreak of the COVID-19 in those countries during the year under review.

Profit for the year

Profit for the year under review decreased by approximately 55.8% from approximately RMB383.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB169.5 million. Such increase in total equity was mainly attributable to the contribution from net profits which were partially offset by the declaration and payment of 2019 final dividend in the year under review.

Assets

As at 31 December 2020, total assets of the Group amounted to approximately RMB15,771.8 million (31 December 2019: RMB15,579.5 million), representing an increase of approximately 1.2%.

Non-current assets increased by approximately 2.9% from approximately RMB1,287.2 million as at 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB1,324.3 million as at 31 December 2020. The increase was mainly due to the net effect of addition of property, plant and equipment, the increase in the fair value of equity instrument at fair value through other comprehensive income, the increase in deferred tax assets, the decrease in loan to an associate and the depreciation charged during the year under review.

Current assets increased by approximately 1.1% from approximately RMB14,292.3 million as at 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB14,447.6 million as at 31 December 2020, which was mainly due to the increase in the inventories as at 31 December 2020, which was partially offset by the decrease in the bank balances and cash as at 31 December 2020.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had bank balances and cash of approximately RMB1,748.1 million (31 December 2019: RMB2,222.5 million), structured deposits of approximately RMB539.8 million (31 December 2019: RMB604.6 million), bank deposits with original maturity over three months of approximately RMB743.0 million (31 December 2019: RMB861.3 million) and pledged bank deposits of approximately RMB2,093.8 million (31 December 2019: RMB2,069.8 million).

The Group's treasury policy is to keep its investment costs under control and manage the returns of its investments efficiently. Short–term borrowings work better than long–term borrowings to finance the Group's working capital needs. Any excess cash that is generated from the Group's operations will be placed in short–term and low–risk banking products that are not sensitive to foreign exchange fluctuations to maximise the Group's investment returns.

3. Borrowings

Total interest-bearing bank borrowings increased by approximately 7.4% from approximately RMB3,252.8 million as at 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB3,492.2 million as at 31 December 2020. Of the Group's total bank loans outstanding as at 31 December 2020, approximately 99.2% (31 December 2019: 97.2%) of short-term borrowings were made by the Company's subsidiaries in the PRC, namely Wuxi Jiangnan Cable, Wuxi New Suneng Electric Power Science & Technology Co., Ltd ("Wuxi New Suneng"), Zhongmei Cable, Jiangsu Kai Da Cable Company Limited ("Jiangsu Kai Da") and Wuxi New Sun Cable Company Limited ("Wuxi New Sun"). These loans were not guaranteed by the Company.

The net-debt-to-equity ratio of the Group, defined as a percentage of net interest-bearing borrowings (bank borrowings less bank balances and cash, bank deposits with original maturity over three months and pledged bank deposits) of approximately negative RMB1,092.6 million over total equity of approximately RMB6,439.2 million as at 31 December 2020, dropped from approximately -30.1% as at 31 December 2019 to approximately -17.0% as at 31 December 2020. The deterioration in the net-debt-to-equity ratio as at 31 December 2020 as compared with that as at 31 December 2019, was mainly due to the decrease in the bank balances held by the Group as at 31 December 2020.

As at 31 December 2020, the total debt to total assets ratio of the Group, defined as a percentage of total liabilities (current liabilities and non–current liabilities) of approximately RMB9,332.6 million over total assets (current assets and non–current assets) of approximately RMB15,771.8 million, decreased slightly to approximately 59.2% from approximately 59.5% as at 31 December 2019. The decrease was mainly due to the increase in current assets, mainly arising from increase in the inventories as at 31 December 2020, outweighed the increase in total liabilities.

The Group had sufficient committed but unused banking facilities of approximately RMB2,233.1 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: RMB1,918.3 million) to meet the needs of the Group's business development. There was no material seasonality in relation to the borrowing requirements of the Group.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group has pledged certain of its leasehold lands, buildings and machineries with carrying value of approximately RMB274.2 million, RMB146.2 million and RMB55.1 million respectively (31 December 2019: leasehold lands and buildings with carrying values of approximately RMB281.2 million and RMB162.0 million respectively) to certain banks to secure the credit facilities granted to the Group.

During the year under review, the Group's borrowings were mainly denominated in RMB and carried interests at a premium over the RMB benchmark loan interest rates for financial institutions set by the People's Bank of China ("PBOC"). As at 31 December 2020, the majority of the Group's bank balances and cash were denominated in RMB. As the Group's revenue was mainly denominated in RMB and its major expenses were denominated in either RMB or Hong Kong Dollars, the Group faced relatively low currency risk during the year under review.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's bank borrowings amounted to approximately RMB3,296.2 million (31 December 2019: RMB3,252.8 million) were repayable within one year and approximately RMB196.0 million (31 December 2019: nil) were repayable within a period of more than one year but not exceeding two years. Approximately 92.0% (31 December 2019: 89.8%) of the Group's total bank borrowings carried fixed interest rates.

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, no interest expense has been capitalised.

During the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019, the Group did not employ any financial instruments for hedging purposes.

CAPITAL COMMITMENT

The capital expenditures in the coming year are expected to be settled by cash through internal resources of the Group. Please refer to Note 35 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the details of the capital commitment of the Group as at 31 December 2020. Other than those as disclosed, the management of the Group does not expect there to be any plans for material investments or capital assets in the coming year with reference to the current situation as at the date of this annual report.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Group is principally engaged in the manufacturing and trading of wires and cables, which are exposed to certain market risks including interest rate risk, credit risk, commodity risk and foreign currency risk, the details of which are set out below. The Group's business and profitability growth are affected by the volatility and uncertainty of the macroeconomic conditions in the PRC and other regions in the world. Any change in these macro-economic conditions may directly affect the Group's costs of production and the demand for the Group's products.

1. Interest rate risk

The Group's fair value and cash flow interest rate risks are mainly related to fixed and variable rate borrowings respectively. In order to exercise prudent management against interest rate risk, the Group has established policies and procedures in relation to the assessment, booking and monitoring of all such financial risks. The Group is planning to leverage on the capital markets platform in Hong Kong to obtain lower cost funding. The Group will continue to review the market trends, as well as its business operation needs and industry position, so as to utilise the most effective tools to manage its interest rate risk.

For the potential financial impact on the Group's performance caused by interest rate risk, please refer to the sensitivity analysis in Note 34 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

2. Credit risk

The carrying amounts of loan to an associate, trade and other receivables and bank and cash balances, including bank deposits with original maturity over three months and pledged bank deposits as presented in the consolidated statement of financial position set out in this annual report, represent the Group's major exposure to credit risk in relation to its financial assets.

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade and other receivables. The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to customers following an appropriate credit assessment. In addition, the Directors review the recoverable amount of each trade debt regularly to ensure that adequate impairment losses are recognised for irrecoverable debts. As at 31 December 2020, the five largest trade receivables represented approximately 17.4% (31 December 2019: 12.8%) of the total trade receivables of the Group.

The Directors review the recoverable amount of loan to an associate at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses have been recognised for irrecoverable amounts. The exposure to credit risk is limited.

The Directors believe that the credit risk on bank balances and deposits is limited because the majority of the counterparties of the Group are state-owned banks with good reputation and high credit-ratings as graded by international credit-rating agencies.

3. Commodity risk

Since the costs of commodities such as copper and aluminium are one of the most important components of the Group's cost of goods sold, its financial results and conditions are highly sensitive to the fluctuations in the prices of commodities. While the Group may be able to partially offset these fluctuations with a flexible pricing policy and a production cost locking mechanism, it will still be exposed to the risks associated with the fluctuations in the costs of these materials in the event that the Group fails to pass on such costs to its customers. The Group believes that it has successfully passed on most of such risks to its customers and as a result, the Group has been able to maintain its gross profit margin relatively stable in the past.

4. Foreign currency risk

The Group had certain transactions that were denominated in foreign currencies, which made its results of operation susceptible to foreign currency risk. During the year under review, sales denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the group entity to which it related represented approximately 1.3% (year ended 31 December 2019: 2.5%) of the Group's sales. The Group has an operating subsidiary in South Africa. As a result of the Group's sales and operations, the Group is exposed to currency fluctuations in United States Dollars, Singapore Dollars, South Africa Rands and Hong Kong Dollars.

The Group's borrowings are mainly denominated in RMB and carry interest rates at a premium or discount to the PBOC interest rates. As its revenue is mainly denominated in RMB and its major expenses are denominated either in RMB or Hong Kong Dollars, the Group faces relatively low currency risk.

During the year under review, the Group did not have a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of its foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. The Group will monitor its foreign currency exposure closely and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

For the potential financial impact on the Group's performance caused by foreign currency risk, please refer to the sensitivity analysis in Note 34 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Group had no material contingent liabilities as at 31 December 2020. As at the date of this annual report, the Group was not involved in any material legal proceedings, nor was the Group aware of any pending or potential material legal proceedings involving the Group. If the Group was involved in such material legal proceedings, the Group would record any loss contingencies when, based on information then available, it was probable that a loss had been incurred and the amount of the loss could be reasonably estimated.

PROSPECTS

The details of the Group's prospects are set out in the "Chairman's Statement" in this annual report on pages 12 to 14.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Board recognises that good corporate governance is fundamental to the smooth and effective operation of the Group and enhances the shareholders' value. The Board is always committed to maintaining good corporate governance practices and procedures.

The Company has adopted a code of corporate governance, containing the code provisions of the Corporate Governance Code ("CG Code") as set out in Appendix 14 to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Listing Rules") and had during the year ended 31 December 2020 ("Relevant Period") complied with the CG Code then in force except for the following deviation.

Pursuant to Code Provision A.2.1 of the CG Code, the roles of chairman and chief executive officer should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. The Company has not had a separate chairman ("Chairman") and chief executive officer ("Chief Executive Officer") during the year under review. The Board believes that vesting both the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer in the same person has the benefit of ensuring consistent leadership within the Group and enables more effective and efficient overall strategic planning for the Group. The Board considers that the balance of power and authority for the present arrangement will not be impaired as all major decisions are made in consultation with the Board members and the senior management of the Company. The current arrangement will enable the Company to make and implement decisions promptly and efficiently. The Group nevertheless will review the structure from time to time in light of the prevailing circumstances.

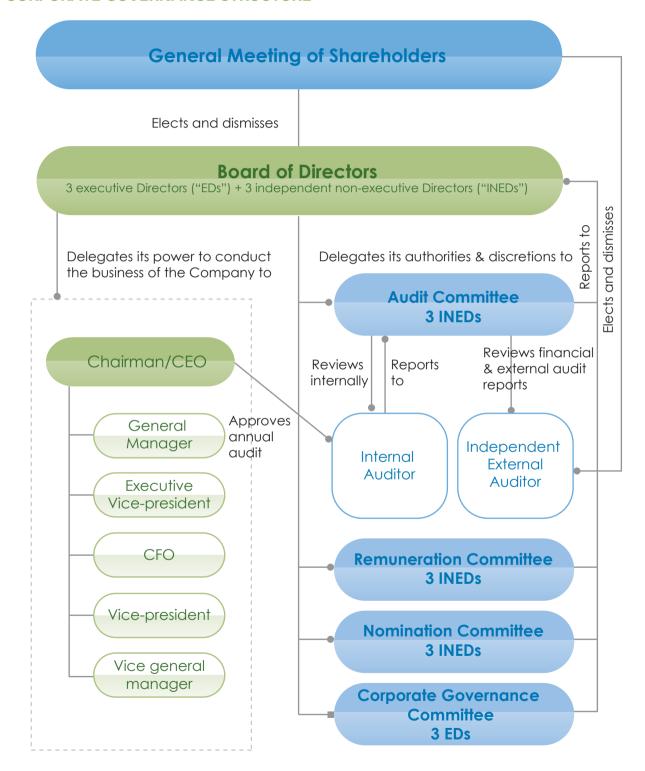

MODEL CODE FOR SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a code on securities transactions by Directors on terms not less exacting than the required standards contained in the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Companies as set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules ("Model Code").

Specific enquiry has been made of all the Directors who have confirmed their compliance with the required standards set out in the Model Code and the Company's code of conduct regarding directors' securities transactions during the year ended 31 December 2020.

As required by the Company, relevant officers and employees of the Company are also bound by the Model Code, which prohibits them from dealing in the securities of the Company at any time when they possess inside information in relation to those securities. No incident of non-compliance of the Model Code by any relevant officers or employees during the year ended 31 December 2020 was noted by the Company.

The internal audit department of the Group reviews the material controls of the Group annually, which aims to cover all major operations of the Group. The internal audit department of the Group also reports review findings and recommends to the Board effective procedures to prevent any operation risk or insufficiency in the risk management and internal control systems of the Group. An internal audit function is in place and provides the Board with reasonable assurance that the risk management and internal control systems of the Group are effective and adequate. The Board (through the internal audit department of the Group) has conducted a review of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group, covering the period from 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020 in compliance with the requirements under Code Provision C.2 of the CG Code. The Board considered the risk management and internal control systems of the Group effective and adequate. The Board also reviews regularly the adequacy of resources, qualifications and experience of the staff of the Company, the Company's accounting, internal audit and financial reporting functions, and their training programmes and budget.

Process used to identify, evaluate and manage significant risks

During the process of risk assessment, the internal audit department of the Group is responsible for identifying the risks of the Group and deciding on the acceptable risk levels, and the Board is responsible for assessing and determining the nature and extent of the risks that are acceptable to the Group when achieving its strategic objectives. After discussing and taking into consideration the risk response, the relevant departments within the Group shall be assigned to implement the risk management solutions in accordance with their respective roles and responsibilities. The identified risks together with the risk response will be reported to the Board.

Main features of risk management and internal control systems

The key elements of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group include the identification of risks, the assessment and evaluation of risks, the development and continuous update of responsive procedures, and the ongoing testing of internal control procedures to ensure their effectiveness. Such risk management and internal control systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives and can provide only reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

An ongoing risk assessment approach is adopted by the Group for identifying and assessing the key inherent risks that hinder the Group from achieving its objectives. The assessment of the risks is mainly made in accordance with the likelihood of occurrence of events that are detrimental to the Group and the consequences of these events should they occur. The rating assigned to each risk reflects the level of the management's attention and risk control or the elimination efforts required with respect to that risk.

Process used to review the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems and to resolve material internal control defects

The internal audit department of the Group conducts reviews on the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group and reports its findings to the Audit Committee. The Board is responsible for ensuring that adequate resources are allocated to the relevant departments within the Group so that material internal control defects found in the reviews of the risk management and internal control systems can be resolved and the recommendations made by the internal audit department of the Group can be implemented on a timely basis.

Procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information

The Board has established an inside information policy for the handling and dissemination of inside information. The inside information policy stipulates the obligations of the Group in relation to the restriction on sharing non-public information, handling of rumours, unintentional selective disclosure, exemptions and waiver to the disclosure of inside information, external communication guidelines and compliance and reporting procedures. Under the policy, the management of the Group must take all reasonable measures from time to time to ensure that proper safeguards exist to prevent a breach of the disclosure requirements in relation to the Group. They must promptly bring any possible leakage or divulgence of inside information to the attention of the chief financial officer of the Company, who will notify the Board as soon as reasonably practicable to allow appropriate actions to be taken promptly. In the event that there is evidence of any material violation of the inside information policy, the Board will decide, or designate appropriate persons to decide the course of actions for rectifying the problem and avoiding the likelihood of its recurrence.

Constitutional documents

During the financial year ended 31 December 2020, there was no change in the Company's constitutional documents.

SCOPE AND REPORTING PERIOD

This is the Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") Report presented by the Company in compliance with the ESG Reporting Guide as set out in Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules. As the Group's operations are substantially based in the PRC, this ESG Report focuses on the environmental and social performance of the major operating subsidiaries of the Company during the year ended 31 December 2020, namely Wuxi Jiangnan Cable, Wuxi New Suneng, Zhongmei Cable, Jiangsu Kai Da and Wuxi New Sun in the PRC (collectively referred to as "PRC Subsidiaries"), which accounted for over 99% of the turnover of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2020.

MISSION AND VISION

The Group is committed to contributing to the sustainability of the environment and maintaining a high standard of social responsibilities and corporate governance essential to creating a framework which motivates the Group's staff to contribute to the community in which the Group conducts its business and to generate sustainable returns to the Group.

The Group's business objective is to strengthen its position in the wires and cables industry in the PRC by further expanding its business operations in the PRC and the overseas market. The environmental and social aspects also play a vital role in the development of the business of the Group as there have been growing public concerns regarding environmental protection and corporate responsibility. The Group considers that the success of its business largely depends on the satisfaction of its customers, which is achieved by the contributions from the Group's employees. The Group has promoted a people-oriented culture and is committed to providing a fair and transparent human resource policy. The Group is also committed to providing a good working environment to promote employees' health and safety. The Group believes that being a socially responsible employer and building an environmental friendly culture would assist the Group to win the support of the local community for the future development of the Group.

The Board has overall responsibility for the development of the ESG strategies, policies and measures, and the effectiveness of the ESG risk and management and control systems of the Group while the management is responsible for the implementation thereof. While ESG awareness is promoted by the administrative department of the Company and its subsidiaries internally within the Group, other relevant departments of the members of the Group are responsible for implementing the ESG practices, collecting ESG data and ensuring ESG compliance by the Group in its daily operations. The management and various departments of the members of the Group are involved in implementing the Group's ESG practices as they understand the ESG aspects of the Group's business and they are able to analyse their importance to the Group and the stakeholders of the Company as a whole, so that the Group's ESG strategy can be implemented effectively.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS

Conservation of the environment is a key focus for the Group, and the Group is committed to conserving and improving the environment on a continuing basis.

Emissions

To mitigate its impacts on the environment, it is the policy of the Group to minimise its air emissions, greenhouse gas emissions, discharges into water and land, and generation of hazardous and non-hazardous wastes, through measures such as control of its energy consumption and reuse of the non-hazardous wastes generated in its production process.

The Group has been closely controlling and managing its carbon emissions and other air emissions (including methane, nitrous oxide and hydrofluorocarbons), with a focus on the efficient operation of its factories in the PRC. The Group has also been working to reduce its emissions by improving its energy efficiency and reducing its wastes throughout its daily operations. While the PRC Subsidiaries are not subject to specific laws and regulations in relation to air emissions, greenhouse gas emissions, discharges into water and land, and generation of hazardous and non-hazardous wastes for their business operations, they have complied with all other relevant laws and regulations in relation to their business operations during the year under review. The Group's major wholly-owned subsidiary, Wuxi Jiangnan Cable, which accounted for over 75% of the turnover of the Group in 2020, has engaged China Quality Certification Centre to carry out an independent third-party external examination of its greenhouse gas emissions during the year under review. The certification issued by China Quality Certification Centre in 2020 revealed that Wuxi Jiangnan Cable has complied with the required level of carbon emissions under ISO 14064-1:2006.

During the year under review, the major air pollutants emitted by the factories of the PRC Subsidiaries were carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and hydrofluorocarbons, which were also greenhouse gases. The following table summarises the greenhouse gas emissions generated by the PRC Subsidiaries during the year ended 31 December 2020.

Type of emissions	Quantity (Tonnes in carbon dioxide equivalent)		Intensity (Tonnes/ in thousand US	cost of goods sold D ("COGS(k$)"))
	2020	2019	2020	2019
Carbon dioxide	79,636	82,749	0.05	0.04
Methane	337	363	0.19 x 10 ⁻³	0.19 x 10 ⁻³
Nitrous oxide	30	36	0.17 x 10 ⁻⁴	0.19 x 10 ⁻⁴
Hydrofluorocarbons	1	1	0.54 x 10 ⁻⁶	0.54 x 10 ⁻⁶

To reduce emissions from its daily operations, the Group has used energy-efficient gas-fired boilers instead of coal-fired boilers. Comparing with a coal-fired boiler, approximately 378 tonnes of standard coal can be saved by each gas-fired boiler in a year, assuming each gas-fired boiler operates 7,920 hours annually. The Group has therefore effectively reduced greenhouse gas and tiny dust emissions for the sake of improving the air quality of its factory sites through its use of gas fired boilers. The Group has also installed air pollutants collectors on certain machineries to reduce the emission of exhaust gas during operations and enhanced the rain and sewage diversion systems in certain of its factories to reduce the emission of sewage. In addition, the Group has adopted organic waste gas emission measures and machineries which has effectively reduced the emission of organic waste gas.

The Group has installed photovoltaic panels with capacity of approximately 18,900 kilowatts ("kW") on the roof of its production plants to generate solar energy mainly for the Group's own consumption. In 2020, the photovoltaic panels have generated approximately 19,768 megawatt-hour ("MWh") (2019: 20,062 MWh) of electricity, where approximately 16,278 MWh (2019: 16,829 MWh) was used for factory operations, approximately 2,192 MWh (2019: 1,938 MWh) was transmitted to local electricity grids and approximately 1,298 MWh (2019: 1,295 MWh) was sold to nearby third-party factories. According to the Group's estimate, the generation of electricity by such photovoltaic panels has allowed the Group to save the use of approximately 7,710 tonnes (2019: 7,824 tonnes) of standard coal on an annual basis, and reduce approximately 5,377 tonnes (2019: 5,457 tonnes) of dust emissions, approximately 19,709 tonnes (2019: 20,002 tonnes) of carbon dioxide emissions, approximately 593 tonnes (2019: 602 tonnes) of sulfur dioxide emissions and approximately 297 tonnes (2019: 301 tonnes of nitrogen oxides emissions with reference to the emission of one unit electricity generated by coal-fired power plant.

Since the Group produced wires and cables mainly by physical transformation and assembling of already processed raw materials, only limited hazardous and non-hazardous wastes were produced. Therefore, the Group has not collected any data on the hazardous and non-hazardous wastes produced during the year under review. However, the Group has reused the non-hazardous wastes it produced and put them into production again. As a result, only insignificant amounts of non-hazardous wastes were disposed of during the year under review. For hazardous non-recyclable wastes such as wasted lubricating oil, the Group has outsourced the disposal of such hazardous wastes to relevant qualified operators.

Use of resources

The Group is principally engaged in the manufacture and trading of wires and cables. Resources such as raw materials (particularly copper and aluminium), electricity and water, are essential inputs to the Group's business, particularly to support the operation of its factories in the PRC. In 2020, the PRC Subsidiaries have consumed approximately 111,000 MWh or 0.06 MWh/COGS(k$) (2019: approximately 108,000 MWh or 0.06 MWh/COGS(k$)) of electricity, approximately 4,303,000 m³ or 2.44 m³/COGS(k$) (2019: approximately 4,572,000 m³ or 2.43 m³/COGS(k$)) of natural gas and approximately 516,000 tonnes or 0.29 tonnes/COGS(k$) (2019: approximately 476,000 tonnes or 0.25 tonnes/COGS(k$)) of water. Use of electricity and water increased while the use of natural gas decreased during the year under review mainly due to the addition of machineries for the production lines for medium and high voltage cross-linked cables and irradiation cross-linked wires, which have higher electricity and water consumption level, for the sake of increasing the Group's productivity of those products.

The Group has established a comprehensive environmental management system, which improves the daily control of its environmental protection work, and incorporates elements of the "low-carbon, energy saving, green, environment-friendly" ideology into every detail of the Group's operations. The Group is committed to finding new ways to reduce its energy consumption while improving the quality of its products for its customers. The Group has installed two steam flow metres, which were connected to the energy management platform to allow the use of steam in the factories to be monitored on a real-time basis, and two steam generators and three small steam generators near the energy consumption sites, of those three small steam generators were installed for replacement of an old central steam generator during the year under review, so as to enhance the Group's energy management efficiency and reduce energy loss. In addition, the Group has adopted other measures, including the recycling of cooling water and modifying the method of consuming natural gas according to recommendations of industry expert. All-in-all these measures can reduce wastage and enhance efficiency during operations. Also, as mentioned above, the Group has installed photovoltaic panels on the roof of its production plants to generate renewable and clean solar energy. During the year under review, the Group had continuously committed capital expenditures on acquisition of new machineries to replace old machineries with low efficiency for ongoing increase in productivity and improving energy saving and efficiency use of energy of the Group.

The energy consumed by the factories of the PRC Subsidiaries accounted for most of the energy consumed by the PRC Subsidiaries during the year under review. Wasted raw materials and defective products are reused and recycled in the PRC Subsidiaries' daily production. Water consumed by the PRC Subsidiaries is solely supplied by an authorised water supply corporation, and the PRC Subsidiaries have no issue in sourcing water fit for their purpose. The PRC Subsidiaries require their staff to check the water supply pipes and valves regularly to avoid wastage of water resources.

As the products of the Group are wires and cables that are to be installed inside and/or outside buildings and/or on machineries in accordance with the requirements of its customers, only limited packaging materials are needed for delivery of the products to customers. As a result, the Group has not collected any data on the total packaging materials used for its finished products during the year under review.

The environment and natural resources

The Group's business is not subject to specific environmental laws and regulations as the Group's operations involve direct physical transformation and assembling of already processed raw materials which do not have significant direct impacts on the environment and natural resources. Nevertheless, the Group is committed to operating a business that contributes to environmental care and sustainability. To help promoting environmental awareness among the Group's employees, the Group encourages the use of recycled papers for printing and copying, promotes double-sided printing and copying, sets up recycling bins, and reduces energy consumption by switching off idle lightings, air conditioning and electrical appliances. In addition, the Group has made constant capital investments in energy-efficient machineries to replace existing old machineries so as to boost economic efficiency and energy saving. The Group reviews its environmental practices from time to time and considers implementing further ecofriendly measures, sustainability targets and practices in the operation of the Group's business to embrace the principles of "reduce, recycle and reuse", and to further minimise its impacts on the environment and natural resources.

The Group was accredited as one of the first state-level "Green Factories" by the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the PRC (中華人民共和國工業和信息化部) and one of "2019 Climate Pioneer Corporation"* (2019年度氣候先鋒企業) by Energy Foundation China.

Based on the figures stated above, the male to female percentage ratio within the PRC Subsidiaries as at 31 December 2020 was approximately 60:40 (31 December 2019: 61:39). The predominance of males was due to the market practice that a higher proportion of male employees serve as technicians in the workshops of the PRC Subsidiaries. The PRC Subsidiaries will continuously work on improving the balance of gender for those departments that have a heavier weighting of male employees, for example by using new technology to reduce the physical demands of certain jobs making them suitable for female employees.

The Group values its employees and remunerates them fairly and adequately, in line with the Labour Law of the PRC and other relevant legislations. In the determination of wage and salary levels and promotion of its employees, the Group takes into account such factors as the seniority, relevant experience, results of performance appraisals, education level and professional qualifications of the employee, as well as the nature of the work and duties of the position to be carried out. These decisions are made in line with the industry norms and local conditions and practice. In order to attract and retain talents, the Group offers competitive remuneration, retirement and medical benefits, insurance and leave entitlement which commensurate with the market standards, and the Group regularly reviews the remuneration packages and promotion guidelines of its employees and reports to the Remuneration Committee to make necessary adjustments to conform to the market standards.

The Group has adopted a share award scheme ("Share Award Scheme") to recognise the contributions made by certain employees, executives, officers and directors and to give incentives in order to retain them for the continuing operation and development of the Group and to attract suitable talents for further development of the Group. 35,300,000 ordinary shares of the Company were granted to 4 directors and 17 selected employees in 2016 pursuant to the Share Award Scheme. During the year ended 31 December 2020, no share of the Company awarded (2019: 7,800,000 shares) was vested according to the Share Award Scheme and no share of the Company (2019: 25,000 shares) to be vested was forfeited due to the non-fulfilment of certain performance conditions.

The Group promotes work-life balance and encourages its employees to pursue their personal interests and live a healthy and fulfilling life. The Group offers adequate rest periods and overtime pay to its employees according to the Labour Law of the PRC and all other relevant labour laws and regulations under which the Group operates.

The Group cares about the health and safety of its employees. The PRC Subsidiaries are subject to and have complied with the Labour Law of the PRC* (《中華人民共和國勞動法》), Work Safety Law of the PRC* (《中華人民共和國安全生產法》) and other relevant PRC laws and regulations in respect of the health and safety of employees during the year under review. The Group encourages direct communications between its employees and the management in respect of occupational health and safety issues. In addition, the Group has engaged an independent qualified third party to check and review its workplace environment and conditions (including but not limited to the noise level, the temperature in the working environment, the lighting condition and the exposure to harmful materials) to ensure the Group's workshops are harmless to its employees. Upgrades and maintenance of tools, offices and equipment are performed to cope with the needs and demand of the employees. The Group has provided free health check programmes and training courses on work safety, first aid and occupational health to its employees annually to keep them aware of work safety and healthy physically and mentally. Employees are also provided with medical insurance benefits and are required to attend health awareness training programmes.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF JIANGNAN GROUP LIMITED

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Jiangnan Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 78 to 137, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter

Impairment assessment of trade receivables

We identified impairment assessment of trade receivables as a key audit matter due to the significance of trade receivables to the Group's consolidated financial position and the involvement of subjective judgement and management estimates in evaluating the expected credit losses ("ECL") of the Group's trade receivables at the end of the reporting period.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's net trade receivables amounting to RMB5,280,056,000, which represented approximately 33.5% of total assets of the Group.

As disclosed in note 4 to the consolidated financial statements, the management of the Group estimates the amount of lifetime ECL of trade receivables based on provision matrix through grouping of various debtors that have similar loss patterns, after considering internal credit ratings of trade debtors, aging, repayment history and/or past due status of respective trade receivables. Estimated loss rates are based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and are adjusted for forward-looking information.

As disclosed in note 34 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group recognised an additional net amount of RMB90,336,000 of impairment of trade receivables for the year ended 31 December 2020 and the Group's lifetime ECL on trade receivables as at 31 December 2020 amounted to RMB511,352,000.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to impairment assessment of trade receivables included:

- Understanding the credit risk assessment and impairment assessment process and evaluating how the management estimates the loss allowance for trade receivables:
- Testing the integrity of information used by management to develop the provision matrix, including trade receivables aging analysis as at 31 December 2020 and settlements during the year, on a sample basis, by comparing individual items in the analysis with the relevant sales invoices, bank advices and other supporting documents;
- Challenging management's basis and judgement in determining expected credit loss allowance on trade receivables as at 31 December 2020, including the reasonableness of management's grouping of the trade debtors into different categories in the provision matrix, and the basis of estimated loss rates applied in each category in the provision matrix (with reference to historical observed default rates and forward-looking information); and
- Evaluating the disclosures regarding the impairment assessment of trade receivables in note 34 to the consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter

Impairment assessment of goodwill

We identified the impairment assessment of goodwill as a key audit matter due to the uncertainty on significant estimations that are required from the management in assessing the impairment of goodwill.

Determining the amount of impairment for goodwill requires an estimation of the recoverable amount, which is the value in use of the cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated. The value in use is determined based on the cash flow forecast for the cash generating units and requires the estimation of key assumptions, including suitable discount rates, growth rates and gross margin in order to calculate the present value. Impairment of goodwill should be assessed by comparing the recoverable amount of cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated and the carrying value of the cash-generating units at the end of the reporting period.

As disclosed in note 17 to the consolidated financial statements, the carrying amount of goodwill of the Group is RMB54,775,000 as at 31 December 2020. During the year ended 31 December 2020, no impairment loss on the goodwill is recognised.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to evaluating the management's impairment assessment of goodwill included:

- Understanding the management's process relating to the preparation of the cash flow forecasts and impairment assessment;
- Evaluating the reasonableness of the cash flow forecasts by comparing the historical financial forecasts against actual performance;
- Analysing the reasonableness of the assumptions made by the management in determining the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated, including growth rates and gross margin;
- Working with our internal valuation expert in assessing the appropriateness of the discount rates applied by the management of the Group; and
- Performing sensitivity analysis on the assumptions made by the management in determining the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated, including suitable discount rates, growth rates and gross margin.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in the independent auditor's report is Leung Chui Shan.

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs")

Amendments to HKFRSs that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") has applied the "Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards" and the following amendments to HKFRSs issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the annual period beginning on or after 1 January 2020 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 Definition of Material Amendments to HKFRS 3 Definition of a Business

Amendments to HKFRS 9. HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7 Interest Rate Benchmark Reform

Except as described below, the application of the "Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards" and the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year has had no material impact on the Group's financial positions and performance for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

Impacts on application of Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 "Definition of Material"

The Group has applied the Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 for the first time in the current year. The amendments provide a new definition of material that states "information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements, which provide financial information about a specific reporting entity". The amendments also clarify that materiality depends on the nature or magnitude of information, either individually or in combination with other information, in the context of the financial statements taken as a whole.

The application of the amendments in the current year had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs") (continued)

Amendments to HKAS 1 "Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and related amendments to Hong Kong Interpretation 5 (2020)"

The amendments provide clarification and additional guidance on the assessment of right to defer settlement for at least twelve months from reporting date for classification of liabilities as current or non-current, which:

- specify that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current should be based on rights that are in existence at the end of the reporting period. Specifically, the amendments clarify that:
 - (i) the classification should not be affected by management intentions or expectations to settle the liability within 12 months; and
 - (ii) if the right is conditional on the compliance with covenants, the right exists if the conditions are met at the end of the reporting period, even if the lender does not test compliance until a later date.
- clarify that if a liability has terms that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the transfer of the entity's own equity instruments, these terms do not affect its classification as current or noncurrent only if the entity recognises the option separately as an equity instrument applying HKAS 32 "Financial Instruments: Presentation".

New and amendments to HKFRSs in issue but not yet effective (continued)

In addition, Hong Kong Interpretation 5 was revised as a consequence of the Amendments to HKAS 1 to align the corresponding wordings with no change in conclusion.

Based on the Group's outstanding liabilities as at 31 December 2020, the application of the amendments will not result in reclassification of the Group's liabilities.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2 "Share-based Payment", leasing transactions that are accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 16 "Leases", and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 "Inventories" or value in use in HKAS 36 "Impairment of Assets".

For financial instruments which are transacted at fair value and a valuation technique that unobservable inputs is to be used to measure fair value in subsequent periods, the valuation technique is calibrated so that at initial recognition the results of the valuation technique equals the transaction price.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

The principal accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units ("CGUs") (or groups of CGUs) that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

A CGU (or groups of CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the CGU (or groups of CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or groups of CGUs).

On disposal of the relevant CGU or any of the CGU within the group of CGUs, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal. When the Group disposes of an operation within the CGU (or a CGU within a group of CGUs), the amount of goodwill disposed of is measured on the basis of the relative values of the operation (or the CGU) disposed of and the portion of the CGU (or the group of CGUs) retained.

The Group's policy for goodwill arising on the acquisition of an associate is described below.

Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associates used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. Changes in net assets of the associate other than profit or loss and other comprehensive income are not accounted for unless such changes resulted in changes in ownership interest held by the Group. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

When a group entity transacts with an associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct good or service.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are tangible assets that are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes (other than construction in progress). Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Construction in progress in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Costs include any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as "right-of-use assets" in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than construction in progress) less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Leases

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application or arising from business combinations, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception or modification date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group as a lessee

Short-term leases

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases of buildings that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis or another systematic basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date; and
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Leases (continued)

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" ("HKFRS 9") and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments); and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs not directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Research and development costs

Expenditure on research activities is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories are determined on a weighted average cost method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Impairment on property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets other than goodwill

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the relevant asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any).

The recoverable amounts of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an asset individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the asset belongs.

In testing a CGU for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant CGU when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of CGUs for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the CGU or group of CGUs to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant CGU or group of CGUs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a CGU) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a CGU, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of CGUs, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of CGUs, with the recoverable amount of the group of CGUs. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of CGUs. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of CGUs. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or the CGU or a group of CGUs) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a CGU or a group of CGUs) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers". Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL, except that at initial recognition of a financial asset the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in fair value of an equity investment in other comprehensive income if that equity investment is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 "Business Combinations" applies.

(i) Amortised cost and interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost. For financial instruments other than purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit- impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired.

(ii) Equity instruments designated as at FVTOCI

Investments in equity instruments at FVTOCI are subsequently measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the investment revaluation reserve; and are not subject to impairment assessment. The cumulative gain or loss will not be reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the equity investments, and will be transferred to accumulated profits.

Dividends from these investments in equity instruments are recognised in profit or loss when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established, unless the dividends clearly represent a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Dividends are included in the other income line item in profit or loss.

(iii) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI or designated as FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the "other income" line item.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group performs impairment assessment under ECL model on financial assets (including trade and other receivables, loan to an associate, pledged bank deposits, bank deposits with original maturity over three months and bank balances) which are subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessments are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables. Customers are assessed for ECL by categorising into receivables fully backed by bank bills and not backed by bank bills. To measure the ECL, trade receivables not backed by bank bills are assessed collectively using a provision matrix with appropriate groupings. Debtors with trade receivables backed by bank bills are assessed individually taking into consideration of the credit rating and reputation of the banks issuing the bank bills.

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12m ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory or economic environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider; or
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of trade receivables, when the amounts are over five years past due, whichever occurs sooner. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL for trade receivables are considered on a collective basis taking into consideration past due information and relevant credit information such as forward looking macroeconomic information.

For collective assessment, the Group takes into consideration the following characteristics when formulating the grouping:

- Past-due status;
- Nature, size and industry of debtors; and
- External credit ratings where available.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

On derecognition of an investment in equity instrument which the Group has elected on initial recognition to measure at FVTOCI, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in the investment revaluation reserve is not reclassified to profit or loss, but is transferred to accumulated profits.

Financial liabilities and equity

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including trade and other payables, amounts due to directors and bank borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

Share award scheme

The fair value of services received determined by reference to the fair value of shares awarded at the grant date is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, with a corresponding increase in equity.

When trustee purchases the Company's shares from the open market, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, is presented as shares held for share award scheme and deducted from total equity. No gain or loss is recognised on the transactions of the Company's own shares.

When the trustee transfers the Company's shares to grantees upon vesting, the related costs of the granted shares vested are reversed from shares held for share award scheme. Accordingly, the related expense of the granted shares vested is reversed from employee share-based compensation reserve. The difference arising from such transfer is debited/credited to accumulated profits. At the end of the reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of shares that are expected to ultimately vest. The impact of the revision of the estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss with a corresponding adjustment to the employee share-based compensation reserve.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit before taxation because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognises the right- of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group first determines whether the tax deductions are attributable to the right-of-use assets or the lease liabilities.

Taxation (continued)

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 "Income Taxes" requirements to the leasing transaction as a whole. Temporary differences relating to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are assessed on a net basis. Excess of depreciation on right-of-use assets over the lease payments for the principal portion of lease liabilities results in net deductible temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RMB) using exchange rate prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during the period, in which case, the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of translation reserve.

On the disposal of a foreign operation (that is, a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation, or a disposal involving loss of control over a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, or a partial disposal of an interest in or an associate that includes a foreign operation of which the retained interest becomes a financial asset), all of the exchange differences accumulated in equity in respect of that operation attributable to the owners of the Company are reclassified to profit or loss.

In addition, in relation to a partial disposal of a subsidiary that does not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiary, the proportionate share of accumulated exchange differences are re-attributed to non-controlling interests and are not recognised in profit or loss. For all other partial disposals (i.e. partial disposals of associates that do not result in the Group losing significant influence), the proportionate share of the accumulated exchange differences is reclassified to profit or loss.

Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Specifically, government grants whose primary condition is that the Group should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire non-current assets are recognised as deferred income in the consolidated statement of financial position and transferred to profit or loss on a systematic and rational basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

Government grants related to income that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable.

Government grants relating to compensation of expenses are deducted from the related expenses, other government grants are presented under "other income".

Retirement benefits costs

Payments to state-managed retirement benefits schemes/the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

Short-term benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense unless another HKFRS requires or permits the inclusion of the benefit in the cost of an asset.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries) after deducting any amount already paid.

4. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The followings are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets within the next financial year.

Impairment assessment of trade receivables

The Group uses practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables not backed by bank bills using a provision matrix. The provision rates are based on aging of debtors as groupings of various debtors taking into consideration the Group's historical default rates and forward-looking information that is reasonable and supportable available without undue costs or effort. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are reassessed and changes in the forward-looking information are considered.

The provision of ECL is sensitive to changes in estimates. Due to greater financial uncertainty triggered by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Group has increased the expected loss rates in the current year as there is higher risk that a prolonged pandemic could lead to increased credit default rates. The information about the ECL and the Group's trade receivables are disclosed in notes 21 and 34 respectively.

Impairment assessment of goodwill

Impairment of goodwill is assessed by comparing the recoverable amount (i.e. the value in use) of the CGU to which the goodwill is allocated and its carrying amount at the end of each reporting period or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. The value in use calculation requires the management to estimate the present value of the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGU, with key assumptions including growth rates, gross margin and suitable discount rates.

Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, or changes in facts and circumstances which results in downward revision of future cash, a material impairment loss may arise.

The carrying amount of goodwill of the Group is RMB54,775,000 (net of accumulated impairment loss of RMB54,831,000) at 31 December 2020 (2019: RMB54,775,000 (net of accumulated impairment loss of RMB54,831,000)). No impairment loss of goodwill is recognised during the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019 and the information relating to the details of the key assumptions used in assessing the recoverable amount of goodwill is set out in note 17.

Allowance of inventories

The Group records inventories at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price for inventories, less all the estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sales. Operational procedures have been in place to monitor this risk as a significant proportion of the Group's working capital is devoted to inventories. The management reviews the inventory aging listing on a periodical basis for those aged inventories. This involves comparison of carrying value of the aged inventory items with the respective net realisable value. The purpose is to ascertain whether allowance is required to be made in the consolidated financial statements for any obsolete and slow-moving items. Although the Group carries periodic review on the net realisable value of inventories, the actual realisable value of inventories is not known until the sale was concluded. At 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of inventories is RMB3,632,728,000 (2019: RMB3,000,870,000). During the year ended 31 December 2020, a write-down of inventories of RMB20,249,000 is recognised (2019: nil), which is set out in note 7.

5. TURNOVER AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group is principally engaged in the manufacture of and trading in wires and cables. All of the Group's revenue is recognised when the control of the goods is transferred, being the time at which the goods are delivered to the locations specified by the customers. A receivable is recognised by the Group when the goods are delivered to the customer's premises as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional (i.e. except for the passage of time is required before payment is due). The customers have neither the rights of return nor the rights to defer or avoid payment for the goods once the goods are accepted by the customers upon receipt of goods. The contracts signed by the Group with the customers are short-term and price determined contracts.

Turnover represents the fair value of the consideration received and receivable for goods sold to external customers during the year.

The Group's chief operating decision maker has been identified as the executive directors of the Company ("Executive Directors") who review the business of the following reportable operating segments by products:

- Power cables
- Wires and cables for electrical equipment
- Bare wires
- Special cables (including rubber cables, flexible fire proof cables and others)

The above segments have been identified on the basis of internal management reports prepared and regularly reviewed by the Executive Directors when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance of the Group.

The segment results represent the gross profit earned by each segment (segment revenue less segment cost of goods sold), which represents the internally generated financial information regularly reviewed by the Executive Directors. However, other income, selling and distribution costs, administrative expenses, research and development costs, other (losses) gains, net, impairment losses under ECL model, net of reversal, share of results of associates and finance costs are not allocated to each reportable segment. The segment results are reported to the Executive Directors for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance.

For both years, the Group leased various offices for its operations. Lease contracts were entered into for fixed term of 24 months. Lease terms were negotiated on an individual basis and contained a wide range of different terms and conditions. In determining the lease term and assessing the length of the non-cancellable period, the Group applies the definition of a contract and determines the period for which the contract is enforceable.

In addition, the Group owns several office buildings and industrial buildings where its manufacturing facilities are primarily located at. The Group is the registered owner of these property interests, including the underlying leasehold lands. Lump sum payments were made upfront to acquire these property interests. The leasehold land components of these owned properties are presented separately only if the payments made can be allocated reliably.

The Group regularly entered into short-term leases for buildings. As at 31 December 2020 and 2019, the portfolio of short-term leases is similar to the portfolio of short-term lease to which short-term lease expense disclosed above.

At 31 December 2020, the Group has pledged the leasehold lands with a carrying amount of RMB274,249,000 (2019: RMB281,232,000) to certain banks to secure the credit facilities granted to the Group.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill arising from business combinations has been allocated to the following CGU:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Kai Da Investments Limited ("Kai Da")	54,775	54,775

Kai Da

The basis of determination of the recoverable amounts of Kai Da and its major underlying assumptions are summarised below:

At 31 December 2020, the recoverable amount of the CGU had been determined based on a value in use calculation. That calculation uses cash flow projections covering a 5-year period, based on financial budgets approved by management and a discount rate of 10.75% (2019: 9.71%) per annum. Cash flows beyond the 5-year period are extrapolated with a 2% (2019: 1%) growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth rate forecast and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate of the relevant industry. No impairment loss is considered necessary for Kai Da.

Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budget sales and gross margin. Such estimation is based on the unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development. The cash flow projections, growth rates and discount rate have been reassessed as at 31 December 2020. The management considered the COVID-19 pandemic has no significant impact to these assumptions. The directors of the Company believe that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the aggregate carrying amount of the CGU of Kai Da to exceed the aggregate recoverable amount of this CGU.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's financial instruments include trade and other receivables, loan to an associate, pledged bank deposits, bank deposits with original maturity over three months, bank balances and cash, structured deposits, equity instrument at FVTOCI, financial asset at FVTPL, trade and other payables, amounts due to directors and bank borrowings. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in the respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risk (interest rate risk and currency risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Market risk

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk through the impact of rate changes on interest bearing financial assets and liabilities, mainly the interest bearing bank balances and bank borrowings at variable interest rate. Bank borrowings and lease liabilities at fixed interest rates exposed the Group to fair value interest rate risk. The Group currently does not have an interest rate hedging policy. However, the management will consider hedging significant interest rate risk should the need arise. The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of the interest rates offered by PBOC from its RMB denominated bank balances and bank borrowings, the fluctuation of the interest rates offered by the Euro Interbank Offered Rate from its USD, SGD, HKD and Euro denominated bank balances and bank borrowings.

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure of interest rates for interest bearing bank balances and variable rate bank borrowings at the end of the reporting period and assumed that the amount of assets and liabilities outstanding at the end of the reporting period was outstanding for the whole year.

If the interest rates on variable rate bank balances and bank borrowings had been 25 basis points (2019: 25 basis points) lower and all other variables were held constant, the potential effect on profit for the year is as follows:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Increase in profit for the year	3,136	3,541

There would be an equal and opposite impact on the profit for the year where there had been 25 basis points higher. In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the interest rate risk as the exposure at the end of the reporting period does not reflect the exposure for the whole year.

Currency risk

The Group has foreign currency sales and purchases during the year which exposed the Group to foreign currency risk.

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

	2020		2019
	Assets RMB'000	Liabilities RMB'000	Assets RMB'000	Liabilities RMB'000
USD	144,207	130,698	359,100	130,698
HKD	95,079	70,339	5,830	65,470
SGD	168,347	_	121,712	_
Euro	653	75,833	5	137,550

The Group is mainly exposed to currency risk of USD, HKD, SGD and Euro. The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% (2019: 5%) increase and decrease in RMB against the relevant foreign currencies. The Group currently does not have any foreign currency hedging policy and will consider hedging its foreign currency exposure should the need arise. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the end of the reporting period for a 5% (2019: 5%) change in foreign currency rates. If RMB strengthens 5% (2019: 5%) against the relevant foreign currencies, the increase (decrease) in post tax profit for the year is as follows:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
USD	(574)	(9,707)
HKD	(1,051)	2,535
SGD	(7,156)	(5,173)
Euro	3,195	5,846

There would be an equal and opposite impact on the profit for the year if RMB weakens 5% against the relevant currencies.

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk as the exposure at the end of the year does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Credit risk and impairment assessment

Credit risk refers to the risk that the Group's counterparties default on their contractual obligations resulting in financial losses to the Group. The Group's credit risk exposures are primarily attributable to trade and other receivables, loan to an associate, pledged bank deposits, bank deposits with original maturity over three months and bank balances. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements to cover its credit risks associated with its financial assets, except that the credit risk associated with settlement of certain trade receivables are backed by bank bills issued by reputable financial institutions.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management has reviewed the recoverable amounts of trade receivables regularly to ensure that follow-up action is taken timely and assigned a dedicated team to monitor the credit risk. In addition, the Group performed impairment assessment under ECL model upon application of HKFRS 9 based on provision matrix assessment. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the credit risk on trade receivables is significantly reduced.

For other receivables, the management makes periodic individual assessment on the recoverability of other receivables based on historical settlement records and past experience, and also quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. The management of the Group believes that there are no significant increase in credit risk of these amounts since initial recognition and the Group provided impairment based on 12m ECL.

For loan to an associate, the management of the Group regularly monitors the business performance of the associates. The Group's credit risks in these balances are mitigated through the value of the assets held by these entities and the power to participate the relevant activities of these entities.

The Group's credit risk on bank deposits and balances is limited and there is no significant concentration of credit risk because all bank deposits and balances are deposited in or contracted with several state-owned banks with good reputation and with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies.

In determining the ECL for trade receivables backed by bank bills, the management of the Group considers the risk of default is low as the trade receivables are backed by bank bills issued by banks with high credit rating and accordingly, the management applied the ECL rate at 0.45% (2019: 0.2%) in the ECL assessment. At 31 December 2020, the gross carrying amount of trade receivables backed by bank bills is RMB1,145,170,000 (2019: RMB453,407,000).

For trade receivables not backed by bank bills, the Group has applied the simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. The Group determines the expected credit losses on these by using a provision matrix, grouped by shared credit risk characteristics of these trade receivables.

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group uses debtors' aging to assess the impairment for its customers in relation to its operation because these customers consist of a large number of small customers with common risk characteristics that are representative of the customers' abilities to pay all amounts due in accordance with the contractual terms. The following table provides information about the exposure to credit risk for trade receivables not backed by bank bills which are assessed based on provision matrix within lifetime ECL (not creditimpaired).

Liquidity risk

In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The management also monitors the utilisation of bank borrowings and ensures the compliance with loan covenants.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities based on agreed payment terms. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating, the undiscounted amount is derived from current interest rate at the end of the reporting period.
