CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

We shall strive forward for more glorious achievements!

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Zhongtian International Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group"), I hereby present the annual results and the audited financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2020 (the "Year").

Throughout the year of 2020, the macroeconomic situation in China was dampened. The RMB exchange rate first stabilized and then appreciated. Affected by the Sino-US trade war and the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic, which broke out in January 2020, the macroeconomic environment for real estate became more complicated with a downward trend. While the financial and fiscal policies were "loosening", the real estate policies remained "tight".

In the Year, the Group was principally engaged in the leasing of commercial properties, generating rental revenue of approximately RMB29,588,000, up by 61.2% as compared to 2019.

The property of Qingdao Zhongtian Software Park Company Limited, a subsidiary of the Company, is located at Jinjialing Financial Zone of Laoshan District, Qingdao City. As the core region, pilot region and demonstration region of Qingdao's pilot district for wealth management and comprehensive financial reform, many financial enterprises were settled down in Jinjialing, covering 20 financial business segments. Large legal person financial institutions, fund subscription scale and tax revenue from the financial industry had accounted for majority portion of Qingdao, demonstrating its initial aggregation effect. The rental market for offices in the district continued to be robust. In the long run, the office property owned by the Company has a great potential for appreciation and development.

The project land at No. 877 Huihai Road, owned by Qingdao Zhongtian Enterprise Development Company Limited, a subsidiary of the Company, began to unveil its value as the planning permit will be granted to the Group around April 2021. The ancillary facilities surrounding the project land are under comprehensive construction, with the construction of the Qingdao Hongdao High-Speed Rail Station (the "Hongdao Station"), which is 1.5 kilometers from the project, basically completed. Currently, 12 railway lines have already been officially put into operation. Meanwhile, the construction of the main station lobby with a gross floor area of approximately 70,000 square meters has basically been completed. The ancillary facilities surrounding the on and off-ramps and the squares on the northern and southern ends are under active construction. The Hongdao Station is expected to officially open for passenger service in 2021 which by then will become the largest railway station in Qingdao.

At the same time, the Hetao Station of Qingdao Metro Line 8, adjacent to the south of the land, is also under intense construction. Qingdao Metro Line 8, with a total length of approximately 60 kilometers, starts from Jiaozhou North Station in the north, and extends to the May-fourth Square in the city south surpassing through Qingdao New Airport and Hongdao High-tech Zone. It is one of the first batch of preferential projects of economy reform in Shandong Province and is the only metro-line under the urban subway line system connecting Jiaozhou New Airport.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The Board remained confident and optimistic of the future prospect of the Group, and would also promote corporate governance, business expansion and personnel training. Looking into 2021, the Group will definitely create a more positive prospect.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

During the Year, the Group was principally engaged in three business segments, namely financial service, property and the renovation service.

Financial Service

On 17 July 2017, Qingdao Zhongtian Enterprise Development Co., Ltd. ("Qingdao Zhongtian"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a construction and procurement agreement with the Gas Operator and the Supplier. Pursuant to the aforesaid agreement, as clarified by a supplemental agreement between Qingdao Zhongtian and the Gas Operator on 26 March 2018, Qingdao Zhongtian was appointed by the Gas Operator to provide financing services, for a period of 10 years, and to obtain a loan facility of RMB600,000,000 from a designated trust scheme for the purpose of financing the purchase consideration of materials and equipments, to be supplied by the Supplier, for construction of the Natural Gas Project of the Gas Operator located in Qingdao, the PRC. Under the aforesaid agreements, the Gas Operator (as a third party to the aforesaid agreements) shall bear all the obligations for the repayment of the loan principal, together with the interests accruing thereon, through Qingdao Zhongtian, to the trust scheme on 31 May 2020, 31 May 2021 and 31 May 2022, with each principal payment repaid being RMB120,000,000, RMB120,000,000 and RMB360,000,000, respectively, and the interests accrued on a quarterly basis. Due to the impacts and economic uncertainties caused by COVID-19 pandemic, which broke out in January 2020, the Gas Operator was unable to make first instalment of loan principal repayments relating to loan borrowed from the trust scheme with carrying amount of RMB120 million during the year, which the trustee shall be entitled to request for the immediate repayment of full amounts owed. The credit risks of the amounts receivable from the Gas Operator have increased significantly due to default in repayment to the Group, provision of lifetime expected credit losses of RMB130,000,000 has been provided during the Year. This business segment is expected to contribute a stable long-term revenue to the Group.

Property

As at 31 December 2020, the details of the investment properties, properties held for sale and land under development into properties for sale of the Group are as follows:

(a) Investment Properties and Properties held for Sale

(i) All the commercial and office units in the composite building located at Laoshan District, Qingdao City, the PRC, were leased out under a lease agreement dated 18 May 2019, for the period between 1 June 2019 and 31 May 2021. An underground storage with gross floor area of 14.82 sq.m. has not been rented out. 243 underground car parking spaces in the composite building have been rented out on an hourly basis to tenants and visitors to the composite building.

The lease agreement was terminated on 31 July 2020, and new tenancy agreements were signed with 9 tenants, including 8 independent third parties and 1 connected entity, for the period between 1 August 2020 and 31 July 2022. On 31 December 2020, the Board has resolved to realise these properties within 12 months after the end of reporting period, and accordingly, the properties were reclassified from investment properties to properties held for sale.

(ii) Most of the units in the storey in a commercial building located at the Shinan District, Qingdao City, the PRC have been leased out. Lease agreements have been entered into with the tenants by the Group with an initial period ranging from 2 to 7 years.

(b) Land under Development

The land of the Group which is under development is situated within the Chengyang District in Qingdao City, the PRC (the "Land"). On 20 May 2019, the People's Government of Qingdao City (High-tech Zone) officially approved the entering into of the Agreement on Recovering the Land Use Right of Stateowned Construction Land (Qing Gao Tu Chu Shou Zi 2019 No. 8) between Qingdao Municipal State-owned Land Resources and Housing Management Bureau (High-tech Zone) and the Group for the purpose of recovering the land use right of 36,311 square meters state-owned construction land in the land parcel of 91,165 square meters located at No. 877 Huihai Road held by the Group into reserve. The land expropriating compensation in aggregate amounted to RMB136,777,000 was paid by the Committee of Hetao Sub-district Office on Land Requisition and Reconstruction for supporting projects at the area adjacent to the Hongdao Station（河套街道辦事處紅島站周邊配套工程徵地拆遷建設工作指揮部）(the "Committee") during the last year ended 31 December 2019. The remaining land use right of the state-owned construction land of 54,854 square meters still belongs to the Group.

On 31 July 2020, the Group and Shuifa Minsheng Industry Investment Group Co., Ltd. ("Shuifa Minsheng") entered into a strategic cooperation framework agreement ("Framework Agreement") in relation to the cooperation in property development projects. Pursuant to the Framework Agreement, the Group and Shuifa Minsheng intend to cooperate in, among other things, development of industrial towns and other property development projects. An industrial town typically hosts a cluster of enterprises with selected common industry themes, together with supporting facilities such as logistics, residential and commercial properties, creating a fully integrated working and living community for its residents. Up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, no formal agreement has been made with Shuifa Minsheng.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the process of the development was suspended as a result of the change in the development plan of local government on the district area where the land is located.

Due to the change of the competent authority in regulating the development of the Land, the review of the application for the development of the Land has been delayed. According to the official notification issued by the local government dated 28 July 2020, the local government confirmed that the application was suspended due to the change and the review of the application shall resume after completion of the change.

After completion of the change in September 2020, the application has been resumed.

Currently, the real estate development project will be continuing to be developed. Pursuant to the regulatory detailed planning, the use of the Land has been changed from commercial land to commercial and residential mixed land. As disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 29 March 2021, Chengyang Planning Branch of Qingdao Natural Resources and Planning Bureau（青島市自然資源和規劃局城陽規劃分局）has approved our construction plan on the Project and published the same for public consultation during the period from 13 March 2021 to 19 March 2021. It is expected that the planning permit will be granted to the Group on or around 30 April 2021. The Company is still in the process of registering the alteration of the land certificate and applying for the construction permit which are expected to be granted at the same date.

At the end of the reporting period and up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Group is in the progress of registering the alteration of land certificate, applying for the construction permit and obtaining the planning permit.

The development plan of the Land is as follows:

Other Income and Other Net Gains

The Group's other income and other net gains for the Year were approximately RMB40,155,000 (2019: RMB42,179,000), representing a decrease of approximately 5% as compared to the year in 2019. This was mainly attributable to the increase in exchange loss.

Fair Value Loss on Investment Properties

During the Year, the Group recorded a fair value loss on investment properties of approximately RMB216,650,000 (2019:RMB38,079,000), representing an increase of approximately 469% as compared to 2019. The fair value of overall properties in Qingdao continued to decline, and the overall office rent levels of surrounding property buildings decreased as a result of the overall business level in Qingdao is declining and the office vacancy rate of Qingdao is significantly higher due to the outbreak of Covid-19 and a series of anti-epidemic measures implemented by the Qingdao authorities, such as regional or provincial lockdowns and mandatory quarantine. In order to maintain the existing source of customers and attract more tenants, the management resolved to adjust the rent level in 2021 to bring it in line with the market.

Impairment loss on loan and other receivables

During the Year, due to the impacts and economic uncertainties caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, which broke out in January 2020, the Group recorded an impairment loss on loan and other receivables of approximately RMB130,000,000 (2019: Nil) as the credit risks of the loan and other receivables increased significantly, details of which are referred to the financial service segment under overview section above.

This was mainly attributable to the increase in extra expenses related to rental matters during the Year.

Finance Costs

The Group's finance costs for the Year were approximately RMB54,369,000 (2019: RMB51,431,000), representing an increase of approximately 6% as compared to the year of 2019. This was mainly attributable to the increase in average borrowing rate of bank and other borrowings during the Year.

Net (Loss)/Profit

During the Year, the Group recorded a net loss of approximately RMB237,625,000 representing a turnaround from the net profit of approximately RMB64,245,000 for the year in 2019. The turnaround was mainly attributable to the increase in fair value loss on investment properties and impairment loss on loan and other receviable in the Year as compared to 2019.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Analysis by Business Segment

During the Year, the Group's principal source of income was derived from the property segment, which accounted for approximately 85.0% of the total turnover of the Group. The financial service segments contributed the remaining 15.0%.

During the Year, all of the Group's income were derived from the Shandong Province, the PRC, which had accounted for 100% of the Group's total turnover.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

Commercial properties of the Group have commenced to generate stable and growing rental revenue and have become a major source of income for the Group.

In recent years, China has been vigorously supporting the development of the energy industry, and China has become the world's largest producer of clean energy. The Chinese government highly values the development of clean energy with the amount invested ranking first in the world for many years and the installed capacity of hydropower, wind power and photovoltaic power generation steadily ranking first in the world, making remarkable achievements. The "14th Five-Year Plan" clearly states that achieving clean and low-carbon development is both an urgent need for current development and an inevitable requirement for the future. China's clean energy industry is expected to usher in a golden period in the future. Under this situation, the Group has accelerated its deployment in the clean energy industry in the new financing service segment, and has been well positioned to leverage its own advantages and respond to development needs to capture market share.

After the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic since January 2020, China has adopted a series of prevention and control measures, including the regional traffic control and delayed resumption of factory production, etc. This has undoubtedly led to temporary negative impact to the economic activities. Given the resilience and potentials of China's economy in the long run, it is believed that long-term stable growth would remain unchanged.

The management of the Board of Directors believes that the Huihai Road project has reached a very mature state with a promising prospect, which will greatly improve the current cash flow of the Company. The Huihai Road project is located in the planned business district around the Hongdao station of the high-speed rail and is close to Metro Line 8, with convenient transportation, abundant supporting facilities and 2.5 k.m. away from the Rehabilitation University under construction, which attracts a large number of talents. Due to the convenient transportation, it attracts a large number of enterprises to settle here, and the project will certainly become a popular project in the Hongdao area. In light of the bright future of the housing price in Qingdao, the Board of Directors believes that the investment in this land plot will bring considerable benefits to the future development of the Company.

The Group had not experienced any material difficulties or effects on its operations or liquidity as a result of fluctuations in currency exchange rates and had not adopted any currency hedging policy or other hedging instruments during the Year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ZHONGTIAN INTERNATIONAL LIMITED
(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Zhongtian International Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 39 to 130, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis our opinion.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw attention to Note 2(b) to the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Group incurred a net loss of approximately RMB237,625,000 for the year ended 31 December 2020, and as of that date, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately RMB101,223,000. These events or conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 2(b) to the consolidated financial statements, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
(a) Recoverability of loan and other receivables
(Refer to Notes 2(h)(i), 4(a), 5(b)(vi) and 16 to the consolidated financial statements) At 31 December 2020, the Group had loan and other receivables of approximately RMB543 million due from an independent third-party natural gas operator ("Gas Operator"), less provision for expected credit losses ("ECLs") of approximately RMB130 million, resulting in net aggregate carrying balance of approximately RMB543 million which accounts for 46% of the Group's total assets, as further detailed in Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements. Due to the impacts and economic uncertainties caused by the COVID-19 pandemic which broke out in January 2020, the Gas Operator failed to settle the scheduled first instalment of RMB120,000,000 during the year ended 31 December 2020 and accordingly, the Group considered that the credit risk of the amounts receivable from the Gas Operator has increased significantly at 31 December 2020. Accordingly, the Group measured allowance for ECL for the amounts receivable from the Gas Operator at an amount equal to lifetime ECL at 31 December 2020. The Group considered the current conditions and factors specific to the Gas Operator and forward-looking information such as the future economic and regulatory environments related to the business of the Gas Operator, at 31 December 2020, and the fair value of business and relevant assets of the natural gas project of the Gas Operator at 31 December 2020, which have been pledged as collaterals for the loan and other receivables and accrued interest receivable, based on a business valuation at 31 December 2020, performed by an independent professional valuer with qualifications and recent experiences in valuing similar assets. Based on the assessment, the directors of the Company considered that provision for lifetime ECLs of RMB130 million was recognised at 31 December 2020. Due to the inherent uncertainty and complexity, significant judgements and estimates are involved in forecasting future cash flows, based on the assumptions which reflect management's view on future prospect of natural gas business and related assets as collaterals for the loan and other receivables and in determining appropriate discount rate, forward-looking factors such as current conditions of the Gas Operator and the forecast of economic conditions which are the bases for the assessment of recoverability. This is the key judgemental area that our audit is concentrated on.	We performed the following audit procedures: • Reviewing the Group's credit control and debt recovery procedures and actions taken to monitor and collect repayments from the Gas Operator; • Examining the latest management accounts of the Gas Operator as at 31 December 2020 and evaluating that the credit risk of the relevant receivables has been significantly increased as at 31 December 2020; • Reviewing the Gas Operator's history of payments of interest on the long-term loan; • Evaluating the relevance of historical loss data as input to the ECL model; • Evaluating the historical default rate, forecast of economic conditions and forward-looking information available at the reporting period end for the reasonableness of the expected credit loss rates; • Reviewing the legal opinion issued by the Company's lawyer on the legality of the arrangements under the underlying agreements and the title of the concession right for the construction and distribution of the natural gas; • Examining the terms of the pledge agreement under which the business and relevant assets of the Gas Operator have been pledged, in favour of the Group, as collaterals for the loan and other receivables; • Verifying the ownership of the Gas Operator; • Performing interviews with the top management of the Gas Operator and physical inspection on its natural gas construction sites; • Obtaining direct confirmation from the Gas Operator for the existence, accuracy and completeness of the loan and other receivables; • Conducting diligence interview with the shareholders of the Gas Operator who have confirmed that they are not related parties of the Group or its top management; • Verifying that the shareholders of the Gas Operator are not substantial shareholders of the Company, key management nor employees of the Group; • Verifying that the natural gas concession right of the Gas Operator is free from any pledge or not subject to any encumbrances, in accordance with the natural gas concession right agreement signed between the local government and the Gas Operator;

The key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
(a) Recoverability of loan and other receivables (Continued) The Group's policy on impairment of loan and other receivables and the uncertainties on the accounting estimates and judgements are disclosed in Notes 2(h)(i), 4(a)(v) and 5(b)(vi) to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.	• In respect of business valuation of the natural gas project of the Gas Operator: — assessing the external valuer's independence, competence and objectivity; — evaluating the valuation methodology used; and — challenging the reasonableness of the key assumptions adopted and the discount rate used. We also assessed the adequacy of disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements for the loan and other receivables and the provision for ECLs.
(b) Valuation of investment properties and properties held for sale (Refer to Notes 2(d), 2(j), 5(b)(i), 13 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements) Investment properties and properties held for sale are carried at the fair value and the lower of cost and net realisable value, respectively. The fair value of the investment properties of approximately RMB38.8 million and that of the properties held for sale of approximately RMB288.3 million, which were the deemed cost of properties held for sale upon reclassification from investment properties at 31 December 2020, were determined by the directors of the Company with reference to the professional valuations performed by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited, being an independent firm of professional valuers which has, amongst its staff, fellow members of chartered surveyors with recent experiences and qualifications in the category and locations of similar properties being valued. Fair value loss of approximately RMB217 million on the investment properties was recognised and charged to consolidated statement of profit or loss for the year. No write-down of the properties held for sale was necessary at 31 December 2020. The outcome of the valuations for the properties are dependent on the selection of valuation approaches and key assumptions that require significant judgements and estimates made by the management of the Group and the valuer. The valuation methodologies and key assumptions applied by the valuer in determining the fair value of the Group's investment properties and that of the Group's properties held for sale immediately before its reclassification from investment properties at 31 December 2020 have been disclosed in Note 13 to the consolidated financial statements.	Our procedures performed include: • Assessing the external valuers' independence, competence and objectivity; • Assessing the appropriateness of the methodologies and approaches adopted for the valuation of properties at 31 December 2020; • Reviewing and challenging the reasonableness and relevance of the assumptions and input data adopted by the valuer in the valuations for the properties with reference to our knowledge of the property market data like the capitalised rental income yield, prevailing market rentals and recent transaction prices for similar properties in the similar conditions and locations where the Group's properties are situated; • Checking mathematical accuracy of calculation for the fair value loss on investment properties and related deferred tax credit arising from fair value changes of the Group's investment properties; • Assessing whether the carrying amount of properties held for sale is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value at 31 December 2020; and • Assessing the disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements in respect of the valuation of the Group's properties.

Information other than the consolidated financial statements and auditor's report thereon

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we were required to report the fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the consolidated financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirement of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibility for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intention omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the Group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying amounts of assets and liabilities not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The Group incurred a net loss of approximately RMB237,625,000 for the year ended 31 December 2020, and at of that date, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately RMB101,223,000. Notwithstanding the aforesaid conditions, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis because the Board is of the opinion that the Group can meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the next twelve months, after taking into consideration of the following arrangements:

(1) The Group is under serious negotiations with the trust scheme to which the Group owed RMB600 million, together with the accrued interest payable of approximately RMB31,464,000, which has become repayable on demand at 31 December 2020, for extending its repayment, partly or wholly, to a period not less than 12 months after the end of the reporting period;

(2) The Group is under serious negotiations with various financial institutions for new and/or renewal of bank credit facilities for financing the working capital needs of the Group; and

(3) The Group is also considering to dispose of part or all of its properties held for sale in the foreseeable future so as to obtain additional cash flow to settle its debts and when they fall due.

After having taken into account of the Group's projected cash flows, current financial resources and in light of the above arrangements to be implemented, the Board is of the view that the Group has sufficient cash resources to satisfy its working capital and other financial obligations for the next twelve months from the end of the reporting period of these consolidated financial statements. Accordingly, the Board is of the view that it is appropriate to prepare these consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

Should the Group be unable to continue to operate as a going concern, adjustments would have to be made to restate the values of assets to their recoverable amounts, to make provision for any further liabilities which might arise and to reclassify non-current assets and liabilities as current assets and liabilities, respectively. The effects of these potential adjustments have not been reflected in these consolidated financial statements.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the consolidated financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in Note 5.

(c) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the equity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the Group and other parties) are considered.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances, transactions and cash flows and any unrealised profits arising from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Changes in the Group's interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions, whereby adjustments are made to the amounts of controlling and non-controlling interests within consolidated equity to reflect the change in relative interests, but no adjustments are made to goodwill and no gain or loss is recognised.

When the Group loss control of a subsidiary, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that subsidiary, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is recognised at fair value and this amount is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or, when appropriate, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or joint venture.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less any impairment losses (see Note 2(h)(ii)), unless the investment is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

(d) Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings which are owned or held under a leasehold interest (see Note 2(f)) to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. These include land held for a currently undetermined future use and property that is being constructed or developed for future use as investment property.

Investment properties are stated at fair value, unless they are still in the course of construction or development at the end of the reporting period and their fair value cannot be reliably measured at that time. Any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value or from the retirement or disposal of an investment property is recognised in profit or loss. Rental income from investment properties is accounted for as described in Note 2(q)(i).

When the Group holds a property interest under an operating lease to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation, the interest is classified and accounted for as an investment property on a property-by-property basis. Any such property interest which has been classified as an investment property is accounted for as if it were held under a finance lease, and the same accounting policies are applied to that interest as are applied to other investment properties leased under finance leases. Lease payments are accounted for as described in Note 2(f).

(e) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses (see Note 2(h)(ii)).

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual value, if any, using the straight line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

—	Motor vehicles	5 years
—	Furniture, fixtures and equipment	5 years
—	Computer equipment	3 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are reviewed annually.

Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains/losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised in profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net proceeds on disposal and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

(f) Leased assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

(i) As a lessee

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term. Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Notes 2(e) and 2(h)(ii)), except for the following types of right-of-use asset:

– right-of-use assets related to interests in leasehold land where the interest in the land is held as inventory are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value in accordance with Note 2(j).

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero. The Group presents right-of-use assets that do not meet the definition of investment property within 'property, plant and equipment' and presents lease liabilities separately in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(ii) As a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it determines at lease inception whether each lease is a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying assets to the lessee. Otherwise, the lease is classified as an operating lease.

When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. The rental income from operating leases is recognised in accordance with Note 2(q)(i).

(g) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets

(i) Credit losses from loan and trade and other receivables

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") on the following items:

— financial assets measured at amortised cost (including cash and cash equivalents, and loan and trade and other receivables).

Financial assets measured at fair value are not subject to the ECL assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

For undrawn loan commitments, expected cash shortfalls are measured as the difference between (i) the contractual cash flows that would be due to the Group if the holder of the loan commitment draws down on the loan and (ii) the cash flows that the Group expects to receive if the loan is drawn down.

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following discount rates where the effect of discounting is material:

— fixed-rate financial assets, trade and other receivables and contract assets: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof;

— variable-rate financial assets: current effective interest rate;

— lease receivables: discount rate used in the measurement of the lease receivable;

— loan commitments: current risk-free rate adjusted for risks specific to the cash flows.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

In measuring ECLs, the Group takes into account reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. This includes information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

— 12-month ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date; and

— lifetime ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

Loss allowances for loan and trade and other receivables are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. ECLs on these financial assets are estimated using a provision matrix based on the group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the reporting date.

For all other financial instruments (including loan commitments issued), the Group recognises a loss allowance equal to 12-month ECLs unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial instrument since initial recognition, in which case the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At the end of each reporting period, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

In certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs, except for trade receivables and contract assets which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs

Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables (including lease receivables) and contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at the end of each reporting period. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Significant increases in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of a financial instrument (including a loan commitment) has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of default occurring on the financial instrument assessed at the reporting date with that assessed at the date of initial recognition. In making this reassessment, the Group considers that a default event occurs when (i) the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the group in full, without recourse by the group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or (ii) the financial asset is 90 days past due. The Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

— failure to make payments of principal or interest on their contractually due dates;

— an actual or expected significant deterioration in a financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);

— an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and

— existing or forecast changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

For loan commitments, the date of initial recognition for the purpose of assessing ECLs is considered to be the date that the Group becomes a party to the irrevocable commitment. In assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition of a loan commitment, the Group considers changes in the risk of default occurring on the loan to which the loan commitment relates.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual basis or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account, for which the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the fair value reserve (recycling).

Basis of calculation of interest income

Interest income recognised in accordance with Note 2(q)(iii) is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount less loss allowance) of the financial asset.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

— significant financial difficulties of the debtor;

— a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;

— it becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;

— significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; or

— the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset, lease receivable or contract asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(ii) Impairment of other assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to identify indications that the following assets may be impaired or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

— property, plant and equipment, including right-of-use assets, if any;

— leasehold land held under operating lease; and

— investments in subsidiaries in the Company's statement of financial position.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

— Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

— Recognition of impairment losses

An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss whenever the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying amount of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), or value in use (if determinable).

(ii) Impairment of other assets (Continued)

— Reversals of impairment losses

In aspect of assets other than goodwill, an impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount.

A reversal of an impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

(iii) Interim financial reporting and impairment

Under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, the Group is required to prepare an interim financial report in compliance with HKAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting, in respect of the first six months of the financial year. At the end of the interim period, the Group applies the same impairment testing, recognition, and reversal criteria as it would at the end of the financial year (see Note 2(h)(i) and (ii)).

(i) Loan and trade and other receivables

A receivable is recognised when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration. A right to receive consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due. If revenue has been recognised before the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration, the amount is presented as a contract asset.

Receivables are stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method less allowance for credit losses (see Note 2(h)(i)).

(j) Inventories

Inventories are assets which are held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value as follows:

— Property under development for sale

The cost of properties under development for sale comprises specifically identified cost, including the acquisition cost of interests in freehold and leasehold land, aggregate cost of development, materials and supplies, wages and other direct expenses, an appropriate proportion of overheads and borrowing costs capitalised (see Note 2(s)). Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price less estimated costs of completion and costs to be incurred in selling the property.

— Properties held for sale

The cost of properties held for sale comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

In case of properties developed by the Group which comprise of multiple units which are sold individually, the cost of each unit is determined by apportionment of the total development costs for that development project to each unit on a per square foot basis, unless another basis is more representative of the cost of the specific unit. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price less costs to be incurred in selling the property.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised.

The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(k) Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are recognised initially at fair value less attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are stated at amortised cost with any difference between the amount initially recognised and redemption value being recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings, together with any interest and fees payable, using the effective interest method.

(l) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables (including amounts due to directors and the ultimate controlling party of the Company) are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

(m) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for expected credit losses (ECL) in accordance with the policy set out in Note 2(h)(i).

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(n) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values.

(ii) Share-based payments

The fair value of share options granted to employees is recognised as an employee cost with a corresponding increase in a capital reserve within equity. The fair value is measured at grant date taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. Where the employees have to meet vesting conditions before becoming unconditionally entitled to the share options, the total estimated fair value of the share options is spread over the vesting period, taking into account the probability that the options will vest.

During the vesting period, the number of share options that is expected to vest is reviewed. Any resulting adjustment to the cumulative fair value recognised in prior years is charged/credited to profit or loss for the year under review, unless the original employee expenses qualify for recognition as an asset, with a corresponding adjustment to the capital reserve. On vesting date, the amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the actual number of share options that vest (with a corresponding adjustment to the capital reserve) except where forfeiture is only due to not achieving vesting conditions that relate to the market price of the Company's shares. The equity amount is recognised in the capital reserve until either the option is exercised (when it is transferred to the share premium account) or the option expires (when it is released directly to retained profits/accumulated losses).

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when it recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(o) Income tax

Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities, and all deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences, provided that those differences relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse either in the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference or in periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward. The same criteria are adopted when determining whether existing taxable temporary differences support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and credits, that is, those differences are taken into account if they relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse in a period, or periods, in which the tax loss or credit can be utilised.

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided they are not part of a business combination), and temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that, in the case of taxable differences, the Group controls the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or in the case of deductible differences, unless it is probable that they will reverse in the future.

(o) Income tax (Continued)

Where investment properties are carried at their fair value in accordance with the accounting policy set out in note 2(d), the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured using the tax rates that would apply on sale of those assets at their carrying value at the reporting date unless the property is depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the property over time, rather than through sale. In all other cases, the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

Additional income taxes that arise from the distribution of dividends are recognised when the liability to pay the related dividends is recognised.

Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, if the Company or the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

— in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or — in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:

    — the same taxable entity; or — different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.

(p) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for other liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(q) Revenue recognition

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the provision of services or the use of the Group's assets by tenants under leases in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer, or the lessee has the right to use the asset, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Depending on the terms of the contract, control of the goods or services may be transferred over time or a point in time. Control of the goods or services is transferred over time if the Group's performance:

(i) provides the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer;

(ii) creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or

(iii) does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control of the goods or services transfers over time, revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation, which is measured based on direct measurements of the value of individual goods or services transferred by the Group to the customer. Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the goods or services.

(q) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the customer for more than 12 months, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction with the customer, and interest income is accrued separately under the effective interest method. Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the Group, revenue recognised under that contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. The Group takes advantage of the practical expedient in paragraph 63 of HKFRS 15 and does not adjust the consideration for any effects of a significant financing component if the period of financing is 12 months or less.

Further details of the Group's revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Rental income from operating leases

Rental income under operating leases is recognised when the rights of use of the leased assets are passed to the tenant and is credited to the profit or loss on a straight line basis over the terms of the relevant lease, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the use of the leased asset. Lease incentives granted are recognised in profit or loss as an integral rate of the aggregate net lease payment receivable. Contingent rentals are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are earned.

(ii) Revenue from provision of financial services

Revenue from provision of financial services is recognised when the financial services are rendered and on a straight-line basis over the term period of the relevant agreement. For fixed-price contracts, revenue from services is recognised in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreement and based on the actual service provided to the end of the reporting period as a proportion of the total services to be provided.

Estimates of revenues, costs or extent of progress toward completion are revised if circumstances change. Any resulting increases or decreases in estimated revenues or costs are reflected in profit or loss in the period in which the circumstances that give rise to the revision become known by management.

(iii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues under the effective interest method.

(q) Revenue recognition (Continued)

(iv) Renovation services

Revenue from the provision of renovation services is recognised over time, using an output method to measure progress towards complete satisfaction of the service, because the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. The output method recognises revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to the customer of the services transferred to date relative to the remaining services promised under the contract.

(v) Sale of properties

For property sales contract for which the control of the property is transferred at a point in time, revenue is recognised when the customer obtains the physical possession or the legal title of the completed property and the Group has present right to payment and the collection of the consideration is probable.

In determining the transaction price, the Group adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effect of a financing component if it is significant.

(r) Translation of foreign currencies

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies carried at fair value are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates the fair value was measured.

The results of foreign operations are translated into RMB at the exchange rates approximating the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Items of statement of financial position are translated into RMB at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised directly in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the exchange reserve.

(s) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. The capitalisation of borrowing costs as part of the cost of a qualifying asset commences when expenditure for the asset is being incurred, borrowing costs are being incurred and activities that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended or ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are interrupted or complete.

(t) Related parties

(a) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:

- (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
- (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
- (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.

(t) Related parties (Continued)

(b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:

(i) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).

(ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).

(iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.

(iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.

(v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.

(vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).

(vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

(viii) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(u) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), being the Group's most senior executive management, for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

3. APPLICATION OF NEW AND REVISED HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs")

In the current year, the Group has applied the Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards and the following amendments to HKFRSs issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the annual period beginning on or after 1 January 2020 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to HKFRS 3	Definition of a Business
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform
Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8	Definition of Material

The application of the Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards and the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year had no material impact on the Group's financial performance and positions for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

The Group has exposure to the credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and currency risk arising from financial instruments. The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

(a) Credit risk

(i) Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group has adopted a policy of only dealing with creditworthy counterparties as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults.

(ii) The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to loan and trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents. In order to minimise the credit risk, the management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. Ongoing credit evaluation is performed on the financial condition of the debtors. These evaluations focus on the debtors' past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the debtor as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the debtor operates. Trade receivables are usually due within 10-30 days from the date of billing. For debtors with balances past due, further credit would not be granted until all outstanding balances are settled. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from its customers. Loan principal, loan interest and service income receivables are due within around 1.5 years (2019: from 0.5 to 2.5 years) after the end of the reporting period. The Group has a back-to-back project loan receivable of RMB600,000,000 (2019: RMB600,000,000), together with accrued interest receivable of RMB42,945,000 (2019: RMB5,584,000) and service income receivable of RMB30,280,000 (2019: RMB21,534,000) owing from an independent third-party debtor, as further detailed in Note 16.

(iii) The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each debtor. As at 31 December 2020, 99% (2019: 93%) and 100% (2019: 100%) of the total trade, loan and interest receivables, and service income receivable were due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers, respectively.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from loan and other receivables, and trade and other receivables are set out in Notes 16 and 19, respectively.

(iv) The Group's cash and cash equivalents are placed with creditworthy banks with high credit ratings and accordingly, the Group has limited exposure to any of these banks.

(v) Maximum exposure and year-end staging as at 31 December 2020 and 2019

Included in trade receivables at 31 December 2020 was approximately RMB13,004,000 (2019: RMB16,508,000), being lease receivables from former tenant which had terminated the lease contract during the year ended 31 December 2020 related to the lease period from March to July 2020 and there was no settlement for them up to 31 March 2021, being the date of approval of the considered financial statements. These lease receivables due are considered to be credit impaired and accordingly, allowance for lifetime ECLs of approximately RMB13,004,000 was provided on this lease receivables at 31 December 2020 (2019: Nil).

Included in trade receivables at 31 December 2020 was a trade debt of RMB6,688,000 (2019: RMB33,379,000) in respect of provision of renovation service, which was brought forward from 31 December 2019 and there was no settlements during the year ended 31 December 2020 and up to 31 March 2021. The amount due is considered to be credit impaired and accordingly, allowance for lifetime ECLs of approximately RMB6,688,000 was provided for the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: Nil).

(2) Loan and other receivables were due from a debtor, being the Gas Operator (as referred to in Note 15) for which there was significant increase in credit risk as at 31 December 2020 as evidenced by default in repayment of the first instalment of the loan principal of RMB120,000,000 during the year ended 31 December 2020 and such default has not yet been rectified up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements. Allowance for lifetime ECLs (2019:12 month ECLs) of these receivables of approximately RMB130,000,000 (2019: Nil) have been determined as at 31 December 2020, as disclosed in note 16(b) and (c).

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

(b) Liquidity risk

At 31 December 2020, the Group has net current liabilities of approximately RMB101,223,000 (2019: net current assets of RMB75,971,000) which included obligations of amount due to a former director and amount due to the ultimate controlling party of the Company of approximately RMB825,000 (2019: RMB876,000) and RMB26,456,000 (2019: RMB22,448,000), respectively. Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short-term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The directors of the Company are of the opinion that the Group will be able to obtain necessary funds for financing its future working capital and financial requirements in the foreseeable future.

The following tables set out the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay.

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

(c) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from long-term borrowings. Borrowings issued at variable rates and at fixed rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk and fair value interest rate risk, respectively.

The Group's policy is to manage its interest cost using a mix of fixed and variable rate debts.

(i) Interest rate profile

The following table details the interest rate profile of the Group's borrowings and loan receivable at the end of the reporting period:

	2020 Effective interest rate%	2020 RMB'000	2019 Effective interest rate%	2019 RMB'000

(c) Interest rate risk (Continued)

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2020, it is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 100 basis points in interest rates for variable-rate borrowings, with all other variables held constant, would have decreased/increased the Group's profit after tax and retained earnings by approximately RMB829,000 (2019: RMB906,000). Other components of consolidated equity would not change in response to the general increase/decrease in interest rates.

The sensitivity analyses above have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 100 basis points increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2019.

(d) Currency risk

(i) Exposure to currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk primarily through bank deposits, trade and other receivables, trade and other payables and amounts due to a former director and the ultimate controlling party of the Company that are denominated in a foreign currency, i.e. a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate. The currency giving rise to this risk is primarily Hong Kong dollar.

The following table details the Group's exposure at the end of the reporting period to currency risk arising from recognised assets or liabilities that are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. For presentation purposes, the amounts of the exposure are shown in Renminbi, translated using the spot rate at the year-end date.

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Hong Kong dollar:
Trade and other receivables	178	220

(d) Currency risk (Continued)

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

The following table indicates the instantaneous change in the Group's profit/(loss) after tax (and retained earnings) that would arise if foreign exchange rates to which the Group has significant exposure at the end of the reporting period had changed at that date, assuming all other risk variables remained constant.

	2020		2019
	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign exchange rates	(Decrease)/ increase on profit after taxation and retained earnings RMB'000	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign exchange rates	(Decrease)/ increase on profit after taxation and retained earnings RMB'000
Hong Kong dollar	5%	(923)	5%	(796)
	(5%)	923	(5%)	796

Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent an aggregation of the instantaneous effects on each of the Group entities' profit after tax and equity measured in the respective functional currencies, translated into Renminbi at the exchange rate ruling at the end of the reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis has been determined assuming that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to re-measure those financial instruments held by the Group and the Company which expose the Group and the Company to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2019.

(e) Fair value measurement

Financial assets and liabilities measured at other than fair value

The carrying amounts of the Group's financial instruments carried at cost or amortised cost are not materially different from their fair values as at 31 December 2020 and 2019.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies which are described in Note 2, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

(a) Critical judgement in applying accounting policies

The following is the critical judgement, apart from those involving estimations, that the directors of the Company have made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

(i) Going concern basis

The directors of the Company are satisfied that the Group has sufficient cash resources to satisfy the Group's working capital and other financial obligations for the next twelve months from the end of the reporting period. Under such circumstances, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. If the going concern basis was not appropriate, adjustments would have to be made to restate the values of assets to their immediate recoverable amounts, to make provision for any further liabilities which might arise and to reclassify non-current assets and liabilities as current assets and liabilities, respectively. Such adjustments may have a significant consequential effect on the profit for the year and net assets of the Group.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

(ii) Deferred taxation on properties

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax arising from properties, the directors of the Company have reviewed the Group's property portfolios and considered the relevant factors, including but not limited to the development plans of the local government, which affected the Group's determination of the business model for each of its properties on whether the objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the properties over time through use or through sale. Therefore, in measuring the Group's deferred taxation on properties, the directors of the Company have presumed that the carrying amounts of properties are recovered entirely through sale. As a result, the Group has recognised the deferred taxes on changes in fair value of properties on the basis that the Group is subject to enterprise income tax, value-added tax and land appreciation tax in the PRC. The carrying amount of deferred liabilities on properties at 31 December 2020 was approximately RMB102,274,000 (2019: RMB191,258,000).

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

(i) Fair value of investment properties and properties held for sale

Investment properties, and properties held for sale are carried at their fair values and at the lower of cost and net realisable value in the consolidated statement of financial position, respectively, details of which are disclosed in Note 13 and 15, respectively. The fair value of the investment properties and properties held for sale were determined by reference to valuations conducted on these properties by an independent firm of property valuers using property valuation techniques which involve certain assumptions of prevailing market conditions. Favourable or unfavourable changes to these assumptions may result in changes in the fair value of the Group's investment properties and properties held for sale included in the consolidated statement of financial position and corresponding adjustments to the changes in fair value of investment properties reported in the consolidated profit or loss. At 31 December 2020, properties with fair value of approximately RMB288,300,000 (2019: Nil) were reclassified from investment properties to properties held for sale. As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of investment properties was approximately RMB38,800,000 (2019: RMB549,060,000) and properties held for sale RMB288,300,000 (2019: Nil).

(ii) Land appreciation tax

PRC land appreciation tax is levied at progressive rates ranging from 30% to 60% on the appreciation of land value, being the proceeds of sales of properties less deductible expenditures including sales charges, borrowing costs and all property development expenditures, or at designated rate as promulgated by the relevant tax authorities. The Group is subject to land appreciation taxes in the PRC which has been included in income tax of the Group. However, the Group has not finalised its land appreciation tax returns with the tax authorities for certain property development projects of the Group. Accordingly, significant judgement is required in determining the amount of land appreciation and its related taxes. The ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises these liabilities based on management's best estimates according to the understanding of the tax rules. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty (Continued)

(iii) Income tax and deferred taxation

The Group is subject to enterprise income tax in the PRC. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income tax. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such difference will impact the income tax and deferred tax provision in the year in which such determination is made. Deferred tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers to be probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. The outcome of their actual utilisation may be different.

(iv) Depreciation of property, plant and equipment and impairment of property, plant and equipment

Items of property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, after taking into account the estimated residual value. The management of the Group review the estimated useful lives of the assets regularly in order to determine the amount of depreciation expenses to be recorded. The useful lives are based on the Group's historical experience with similar assets and taking into account anticipated technological changes. The depreciation expense for future periods is adjusted if there are significant changes from previous estimates. As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment was approximately RMB492,000 (2019: RMB814,000).

Property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts are determined based on value in use calculations or fair value less cost of disposal. In determining the value in use, expected cash flows generated by the asset are discounted to their present values, which require significant judgement relating to such items such as level of turnover and amount of operating costs.

(v) Impairment of interests in subsidiaries

The Company makes impairment on interests in subsidiaries when the related recoverable amounts of the investments in subsidiaries, with reference to the net asset values of the subsidiaries, are estimated to be less than their carrying amounts. As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of interests in subsidiaries was approximately RMB211,500,000 (2019: RMB211,500,000).

(vi) Provision of ECLs for loan and trade and other receivables

The Group uses provision matrix to calculate ECL for loan and trade and other receivables by groupings of various debtors that have similar loss patterns. The provision rates are based on the Group's historical credit loss expeniences, current conditions at the end of the reporting period and taking into consideration of reasonable and supportable forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. At the end of each reporting period, the historical observed default rates are reassessed and changes in the forward-looking information are considered. If credit risks of loan and trade and other receivables have significantly increased or credit impaired, they are assessed for lifetime ECL individually. The provision of ECLs is sensitive to changes in estimates. The information about the provision for ECLs and the Group's loan and trade and other receivables are disclosed in Notes 4(a)(v), 16 and 19, respectively.

(vii) Recoverability of prepayments for construction costs

The Group assessed the recoverability of prepayments for construction costs at the end of each reporting period, by reference to the feasibility study report for the development project of the land. The feasibility study report involves various assumptions including expected time to complete the construction, expected future costs of construction and selling price of the constructed properties, all of which are depending on the prevailing market and economic conditions, as well as the government policies regulating the property industry which are subject to changes from time to time. Unfavourable changes to these assumptions may result in a decrease in the recoverable amount of prepayments for construction costs, and provision of impairment loss may be required when the carrying amount of prepayments exceed the estimated recoverable amount.

As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of prepayments for construction costs was approximately RMB149,450,000 (2019: RMB140,850,000). The information about prepayments for construction costs are disclosed in Note 17.

6. REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Revenue

Revenue represents the rental income from investment properties, revenue from sale of a property, revenue from provision of financial services and renovation services. Revenue excludes value-added tax ("VAT") or other sales tax and is after deduction of any trade discounts. The amount of each significant category of revenue recognised in revenue during the year is as follows:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Gross rental income from investment properties	29,588	18,360

Revenue from provision of renovation services	—	30,623
	48,592	67,873

(b) Segment information

The Group manages its business by divisions, which are organised by business lines. In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management, being executive directors of the company as the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has identified the following three (2019: three) reportable segments. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments.

— Property segment: this segment includes property development, investment and leasing of properties to generate rental income and to gain from the appreciation in the properties' values in the long term. Currently, all of the Group's investment properties are located in the PRC.

— Financial service segment: provision of services in connection with financing and procurement arrangements in the PRC, details of which are disclosed in Note 16.

— Renovation service segment: provision of services in connection with arranging renovation projects in the PRC.

(b) Segment information (Continued)

(i) Segment results, assets and liabilities

For the purposes of assessing segment performance and allocation of resources between segments, the Group's CODM monitors the results, assets and liabilities of each reportable segment on the following bases:

Segment assets include all tangible assets and current assets with the exception of corporate assets. Segment liabilities include trade and other payables attributable to the activities of the individual segment and borrowings managed directly by the segments.

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to sales generated by those segments and the expenses incurred by those segments or which otherwise arise from the depreciation or amortisation of assets attributable to those segments.

The measure used for reporting segment profit is "segment operating results". Segment operating profit/loss includes the operating profit/loss generated by the segment without allocation of central administration costs. Taxation charge is not allocated to reportable segment.

(b) The land previously held as investment property under development was situated in Qingdao, the PRC and held under a medium term lease of 40 years. As at 31 December 2018, it was the intention of the Group to develop the above land held as investment property under development into a commercial complex for rental purposes and/or capital appreciation.

On 20 May 2019, the People's Government of Qingdao City (High-tech Zone) officially approved the Agreement on Recovering the Land Use Right of State-owned Construction Land (Qing Gao Tu Chu Shou Zi 2019 No. 8) made between Qingdao Municipal State-owned Land Resources and Housing Management Bureau (High-tech Zone) and the Group for the purpose of expropriating the land use right of 36,311 square meters state-owned construction land out of the land parcel of 91,165 square meters located at No. 877 Huihai Road held by the Group into land reserve of the local government. The land expropriating compensation in aggregate amounted to RMB136,777,000 was settled in cash by the Committee of Hetao Sub-district Office on Land Requisition and Reconstruction for supporting projects at the area adjacent to the Hongdao Station (河套街道辦事處紅島站周邊配套工程徵地拆遷建設工作指揮部) (the "Committee"), resulting in a gain on land expropriation of RMB48,777,000 for the year ended 31 December 2019. The remaining land use right of the state-owned construction land of 54,854 square meters still belongs to the Group.

The land held as investment property under development was revalued on 20 May 2019 by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited, being an independent firm of valuers, who has amongst its staff, fellow members of chartered surveyors with qualification and recent experience in the location and category of similar properties being valued. The fair value of land held as investment property under development is revalued by reference to recent transaction prices of similar land, based on the direct comparison approach.

To capitalise on the benefits of the change in the revised government town planning for the district where the Group's remaining land is situated, the Group has changed its overall plan for developing its remaining land into residential and commercial properties intended for sale which, within its normal operating cycle, has been reclassified as land under development into properties for sale (Note 18) under current assets since 20 May 2019.

(c) The fair value of the Group's investment properties and properties held for sale at 31 December 2020 (2019: investment properties) were determined by Jones Lang LaSalle Corporate Appraisal and Advisory Limited ("JJL"), being an independent firm of valuers, who has amongst its staff, fellow members of chartered surveyors with qualification and recent experience in the location and category of similar properties being valued. The fair values of investment properties and properties held for sale were arrived at by considering the capitalised income to be derived from the existing tenancies and the reversionary potential of the properties, where appropriate, by reference to market evidence of transaction prices for the similar properties in the same locations and conditions. The investment properties are leased to third parties and a related party under operating leases.

The change in fair value with a loss of RMB216,650,000 (2019: RMB38,079,000) on the investment properties (including those being immediately reclassified as properties held for sale) were recognised in profit or loss for the year ended 31 December 2020. The investment properties have pledged to banks, an other financial institution and a trust scheme for bank and other borrowings of the Group, as further detailed in Note 23.

(d) Certain investment properties of the Group amounting to RMB296,910,000 were reclassified to properties held for sale during the year and at 31 December 2020, including a property amounting to RMB8,610,000 sold during the year, and properties amounting to RMB288,300,000, being their fair value upon the reclassification, determined based on the above professional valuation, for which the Board has resolved on 31 December 2020 to realise within 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

(e) Fair value measurements of investment properties

(i) Fair value hierarchy

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's investment properties measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.

Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available.

Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs.

16. LOAN AND OTHER RECEIVABLES (Continued)

Notes:

(a) On 17 July 2017, Qingdao Zhongtian Enterprises Development Co., Ltd ("Qingdao Zhongtian"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a construction and procurement agreement (the "Construction and Procurement Agreement") with a third party natural gas operator (the "Gas Operator") which holds a concession right for the construction of natural gas pipeline networks and for distribution of natural gas in the designated areas in Qingdao, the PRC (the "Natural Gas Project"), and another third party supplier of materials and equipment (the "Supplier") for construction of the Natural Gas Project of the Gas Operator, for a term of 10 years. In accordance with the commercial substance of the arrangements under the Construction and Procurement Agreement, as clarified by a supplemental agreement dated 26 March 2018 ("Supplemental Agreement") made between Qingdao Zhongtian and the Gas Operator, during the year ended 31 December 2017, Qingdao Zhongtian provided the financial services to the Gas Operator and obtained a loan of RMB600,000,000 (the "Project Loan") from an independent third party trust scheme (Note 18), which was then transferred, at the instructions of the Gas Operator, to the Supplier as advanced payments made by the Gas Operator for the purchase costs of materials and equipment acquired and/or to be acquired from the Supplier, in connection with the construction of the Natural Gas Project of the Gas Operator. The Project Loan was obtained by Qingdao Zhongtian from the trust scheme on a back-to-back basis for the Gas Operator. Out of the proceeds of the Project Loan of RMB600,000,000 obtained from the trust scheme, the Gas Operator (as one of the beneficiaries of the trust scheme) contributed RMB120,000,000, representing 20% of the Project Loan, to the trust scheme. The Gas Operator has provided an unlimited corporate guarantee in favour of the trust scheme for the repayments of the principals of the entire Project Loan and the interest accruing at the applicable effective rate of 6.49% per annum on the Project Loan, which shall be the obligations of the Gas Operator for repaying to the trust scheme. The Gas Operator shall repay Qingdao Zhongtian for the entire Project Loan, at each instalment of RMB120,000,000, RMB120,000,000 and RMB360,000,000 on 31 May 2020, 31 May 2021 and 31 May 2022, respectively. The interests accrued thereon shall be repaid on a quarterly basis. The principals of Project Loan receivable from the Gas Operator, together with the interest accrued thereon and service charge as detailed below, are secured by the collateral of the business and its relevant assets of the Natural Gas Project of the Gas Operator, based on a pledge agreement entered into between the Gas Operator and Qingdao Zhongtian on 18 June 2018.

In consideration of the services rendered by Qingdao Zhongtian, the Gas Operator shall pay Qingdao Zhongtian a fee, as financial service income, which is recognised on a daily basis at RMB24,658 (inclusive of value-added tax) per day and straight-line basis over the contract term period of 10 years. During the year ended 31 December 2020, financial service income of RMB9,025,000, net of value-added tax of RMB1,038,000 (2019: RMB1,104,000) and discounting effect of RMB683,000 (2019: RMB682,000), amounting to RMB7,304,000 (2019: RMB7,214,000) was recognised and credited to the profit or loss for the year.

(b) At 31 December 2020, the credit risk of the receivables from the Gas Operator was deemed to have increased significantly since the Gas Operator failed to repay the scheduled first instalment of RMB120,000,000 on time during the year. Therefore, the Company has made a lifetime expected credit loss provision for all related debts at 31 December 2020.

The Group assessed the recoverability of the long-term loan and interest receivables, together with the service income receivable, totalled approximately RMB673,225,000 (2019: RMB627,118,000), taking into account forward-looking information available like forecast of economic conditions, current conditions at the end of the reporting period and other factors specific to the Gas Operator and the financial abilities of the Gas Operator based on its latest unaudited management accounts at 31 December 2020 made available to the Group, and the fair value less cost of disposal of the business and its relevant assets of the Gas Operator, being collaterals as an identified cash-generating unit, by reference to a valuation performed by CHFT Advisory And Appraisal Limited, an independent professional valuer with qualifications and experiences in valuing similar assets.

In accordance with the terms of the construction contract, the Group had made prepayments of approximately RMB149,450,000 (2019: RMB140,850,000) to the main contractor as at 31 December 2020.

Based on the feasibility study report for the development project of the land, as referred to in Note 18, the directors of the Company are of the view that there is no impairment on the prepayments for construction costs at 31 December 2020 (2019: Nil).

18. LAND UNDER DEVELOPMENT INTO PROPERTIES FOR SALE

Land under development into properties for sale represents land previously classified as investment properties, which was reclassified as land under development into properties for sale since 20 May 2019 as the Group has changed its overall business plan for developing the land into residential and commercial properties intended primarily for sale within its normal operating cycle, plus additional costs incurred for the development of the land.

At 31 December 2020 and 2019, the fair value of the land under development, based on an independent professional valuation performed by JJL on an existing use basis and by direct comparison approach, approximated to its carrying amount.

(a) Ageing analysis

At the end of the reporting period, the ageing analysis of trade receivables (including lease receivables), based on date of revenue recognition, and net of allowance for expected credit losses, is as follows:

(b) Impairment of trade receivables (including lease receivables)

Impairment losses in respect of trade receivables (including lease receivables) are recorded using an allowance account unless the Group is satisfied that recovery of the amount is remote, in which case the impairment loss is written off against trade receivables directly.

At 1 January	1,611	1,611
Provision of impairment loss	19,749	—
At 31 December	21,360	1,611

At the end of each reporting period, an impairment analysis is performed to measure ECLs on an individual basis if the receivable is significant, or collective basis. The calculation of ECLs reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting period end about the past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. The Group is seriously evaluating options for recovering these trade debts.

As at 31 December 2020, overdue trade receivables (including lease receivables) of the Group amounting to RMB21,360,000 (2019: RMB1,611,000) were individually determined to be credit impaired.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group has not recognised deferred tax assets in respect of cumulative tax losses of RMB3,732,000 (2019: RMB4,308,000) due to the unpredictability of future profits stream against which the tax losses can be utilised. The tax losses will expire in the coming one to five years. Except for the above, the Group did not have other material unrecognised deferred tax assets.

23. BANK AND OTHER BORROWINGS (Continued)

A bank borrowing of RMB10,000,000 (2019: RMB10,350,000) has been secured by certain investment properties of the Group (Note 13). Bank borrowings of RMB175,500,000 (2019: RMB193,500,000) have been secured by certain properties held for sale of the Group (Note 13(d)) and guaranteed by Mr. Chen Jun, a director and the ultimate controlling party of the Company.

Borrowings amounting to RMB600,000,000 (2019: RMB600,000,000) payable to the trust scheme have been secured by land under development into properties for sale, entire equity interest of Qingdao Zhongtian and personal guarantees provided by Mr. Chen Jun and Ms. Su Haiqing, being the directors of the Company. As part of the arrangements for the other borrowing of RMB600,000,000 obtained from the trust scheme to which the Gas Operator (as one of the beneficiaries of the trust scheme) contributed RMB120,000,000 which is subordinated to the remaining scheme fund of RMB480,000,000 contributed by the other independent third party beneficiary of the trust scheme, the Gas Operator has also provided an unlimited guarantee in favour of the trust scheme for the repayments of the borrowing of RMB600,000,000 and the interests thereon at the effective applicable rate of 6.49% per annum, payable by Qingdao Zhongtian, as referred to Note 16. The principals of the borrowing from the trust scheme will be repaid by Qingdao Zhongtian by the following instalments:

— RMB120,000,000 on 28 June 2020 (extended to 1 December 2020 during 2020);

— RMB360,000,000 on 28 June 2022

which shall be repaid by the Gas Operator to Qingdao Zhongtian, as referred to Note 16.

The Group was in default on the repayment of the first instalment of loan principal relating to borrowing from the trust scheme with carrying amount of RMB120 million on 1 December 2020, for which the trustee shall be entitled to request for the immediate repayment of full amounts owed. Therefore, the whole borrowing from the trust scheme is classified as current liabilities.

At the end of the reporting period and up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Group are under serious negotiations with the trust scheme to which the Group owed a principal of RMB600 million which, together with the accrued interests of approximately RMB31,464,000, has become immediately repayable on demand, for extending its repayment, partly or wholly, to a period not less than 12 months after the end of the reporting period and also in discussions with financial institutions for renewal of and/new bank credit facilities. Up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, no agreement has been made.

In the opinions of the directors of the Company, neither the Company, the Group, any of directors of the Company nor the top management of the Group has any beneficial interests in and relationship with all the fund contributors and beneficiaries of the trust scheme, including the Gas Operator.

32. CONTINGENCIES

Qingdao Zhongtian Software Park Co., Ltd ("Zhongtian Software Park"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, has a dispute on the applicable VAT rate to be applied with a former tenant which leased certain premises of the Group under the relevant lease agreement, which was terminated during the year ended 31 December 2020. After 1 April 2016 when the business tax was replaced by value-added tax ("VAT") in the PRC, under the applicable VAT rules and regulations, Zhongtian Software Park can opt to pay the VAT on rental income generating from the leased properties, which were completed before 30 April 2016, at the applicable rate of 5%. However, the tenant insists that Zhongtian Software Park shall issue the VAT invoices on the rentals at the newly applicable VAT rate ranging from 9% to 11% as for those properties completed after 1 May 2016. Due to the fact that Zhongtian Software Park and the former tenant have been in disagreement as to the type of VAT invoices regarding the rental income generated after 1 May 2016, Zhongtian Software Park has not yet issued the all relevant VAT invoices to the tenant and therefore, Zhongtian Software Park has not yet paid the relevant VAT and property taxes arising from the rental income received and receivable from the tenant.

In the opinion of the Directors of the Company, adequate provisions for VAT and property tax and other levies arising from rental income received and receivable from the former tenant have been made in the consolidated financial statements at the reporting period end.
