CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

By all standards 2020 was an unprecedented year, not just for us at United Energy Group Limited ("UEG", or the "Company", and together with its subsidiaries collectively the "Group") but the entire world. In these unparalleled times brought upon by the Covid-19 pandemic, I am proud to say that the efforts and resilience displayed by our teams across all assets around the world has only reinforced the confidence I hold in our company. With tremendous measure taken in cost saving and investment control, against negative impact from the pandemic, the financial results of 2020 are hard-earned, and outstanding amongst peers.

Working within the Covid-19 environment is a first for everyone on this planet. The pandemic coupled with the oil price dip of 2020 created a systemic test for oil and gas industry. At UEG we moved ahead with characteristic resolve and continued to invest on both the capital and human fronts. By embracing cultural change and adapting innovative measures, every person within the Group played a part in facilitating business continuity while at the same time managing the health and safety risks.

The Group has been with oil and gas upstream industry of Pakistan for 10 years, and we've achieved remarkable results. At the same time, we have continuously strengthened connection with local community and, assist in its growth and development. The entrance of Iraq and Egypt, significantly diversified our portfolio and greatly improved the reserve base of the Group. While maintaining high HSSE ("Health, Social, Security and Environment") standards, the Group will keep on implementing prudent and efficient exploration and development of abovementioned assets.

2020 PERFORMANCE

While the circumstances of 2020 may have taken us by surprise, all our assets successfully continued operating and producing hydrocarbons, we successfully achieved our production targets, with our average daily gross oil and gas production of 151,330 barrels of oil equivalent ("boe") per day ("boed"), and our average working interest oil and gas production of 92,786 boed for the year ended 31 December 2020. In terms of exploration, 8 commercial discoveries were achieved of which 5 discoveries were made in Pakistan and 3 discoveries in Egypt. The Group's working interest 2P (Proved and Probable) reserve reached approximately 1,073.9 mmboe (31 December 2019: approximately 931.3 mmboe), and the reserve-production ratio reached approximately 31.6 (31 December 2019: approximately 27.1). With overall planning and efficient management, we have successfully completed production supporting facility projects for the productivity construction of each asset in 2020.

With an overall delivery of our 2020 targets, the Group was able to create synergy amongst our various initiatives in the regions. As per reserve report issued by Gaffney, Cline & Associates as of 31 December 2020, working interest 2P reserves of Block 9 in Iraq was approximately 914.0 mmboe (31 December 2019: approximately 751.8 mmboe), representing an increase of 21.6%. The reserve increase is mainly due to application of water injection development proposed by UEG, after extensive technical studies of reservoir and systemic analysis of the asset. This is an exciting news for all stakeholders of UEG, since the acquisition of KEC, which further reinforce the development potential of Block 9 and significantly improve economic return to the Company.

During 2020, true to our values and in the spirit of corporate social responsibility, UEG team ensured that along with operations, social investment activities also continued as planned. Annual Corporate, Social and Responsibilities ("CSR") interventions remained on track with sustainable projects delivered in service of education, healthcare support, community service and other public-interest sectors. In addition to fulfilling CSR project commitments, the Group also stepped up in the fight against Covid-19, together with local government and community. Many leaders including the Prime Minister of Pakistan expressed their commendation for UEG as a responsible corporate citizen. The Group has set up a special committee, in charge of countermeasures such as daily reporting mechanism of Covid-19 cases, centralized medical equipment supply, etc.

Focus continues to enhance shareholder value. UEG maintains a flexible dividend payout policy, without prejudice to its development agenda. In view of 2020, the Board recommends a final dividend of HK2.36 cents per ordinary share which will be subject to shareholders' approval in the forthcoming annual general meeting.

The Group maintains a prudent financial policy. We've made certain adjustments on our short-term working plan, which is adaptive to the dynamic environment, however, our long-term plan and target remain unchanged. Cost saving and investment control are critical to our competitiveness, especially under the current circumstance. In the meantime, cash flow and indebtedness are systematically managed in order to maintain a healthy financial position and mitigate liquidity risk.

OUTLOOK

In 2021, the global economy will steadily and gradually step out of pandemic hardship of Covid-19, although it will be greatly subject to vaccine rollout program. Moreover, the strength of recovery may vary across regions and economies. On the commodity front, we expect stable and moderate restore of oil price, to the level of pre-Covid-19. The Group will continuously focus on reserve and production rapid growth. We implement the low-cost strategy in long run, which ensures the Group's production and operation with more flexibility and stronger competitivity. And we will further strengthen our operating strategies, which mainly include promoting high-quality development, maintaining prudent financial policy and investment decision-making and pursuing a sustainable development model.

For our 2021 plan, the Group targets average daily gross production level of 150,000 to 165,000 boed, and average daily working interest production level of 88,000 to 96,000 boed. Capital expenditure is anticipated to reach US$390 million to US$420 million, which is essential to support exploration, development and construction plans of the Group.

While primarily engaged in the exploration and production of hydrocarbon, UEG remains keen on expanding its renewable energy portfolio and continued to explore avenues to develop green energy projects and integrate environmentally friendly solutions into our existing operations.

HSSE remains top priority for UEG. As our business grows, high HSSE standard will be maintained in line with our philosophy of safe operations.

With regard to financial management, we are committed to a more optimized and comprehensive capital structure. By applying prudent financial policies, our financial position will remain healthy and manageable in the foreseeable future.

As we embark upon 2021, let me thank each and every one of you for your continuous support and longstanding commitment towards UEG. As the famous quote goes, "Tough times never last but tough people do". Let us continue to retain our focus and keep up the hard work. All difficult times end – what remains is the legacy of our strength and effort during those times.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Business Review

The Group is one of the largest listed upstream oil and gas corporations in Hong Kong, with business presence in South Asia, Middle East and North Africa ("MENA"). The Group is principally engaged in the investment and operation of upstream oil, natural gas and other energy related businesses. Leveraging on management's extensive experience in oil and gas exploration, the Group has successfully grown its business as one of the major players in the upstream oil and gas industry. The Group has established a sound track record of growing its business through acquisition and capital investment.

In 2020, the growth of global economy contracted by 4.4%, which was projected by the International Monetary Fund ("IMF"), mainly due to the pandemic of COVID-19. Reduced economic activities and changes in customer behavior in response to the COVID-19 pandemic caused energy demand and supply to decline in 2020. World oil demand was estimated to have declined by 9.8 million barrels per day ("mmbbl/d") year-on-year to average of 90.0 mmbbl/d in 2020, reported by the Organisation of the Petroleum Exporting Countries ("OPEC") Monthly Oil Market Report of January 2021. The oil price plunged sharply in April and rebounded steadily in the second half of year 2020. Correspondingly, the average Brent Oil Price in the current year, is US$41.96/barrel ("bbl"), which is 34.74% lower than US$64.30/bbl for 2019, according to data from U.S. Energy Information Administration. In order to counter the negative impact from COVID-19 and low oil price, the Group took tremendous measures to cut capital expenditure and optimise operational expenses. Despite of the cost saving measures taken by the Group, the low international oil price was the main factor to the decrease of net profit for the year, the Group reported a profit attributable to the owners of the Company for the reporting period of approximately HK$864,176,000, representing a decrease of 54.7% compared to last year of approximately HK$1,905,957,000.

Cost of sales and services rendered by the Group for the reporting period was approximately HK$4,171,478,000, and the Group invested approximately HK$1,800,147,000 of capital expenditure in oil exploration, development and production activities. The Group drilled 22 wells during the reporting period, including 13 wells in Pakistan Assets and 9 wells in MENA Assets.

Business Strategy

As one of the largest independent upstream oil and gas corporations listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, we mainly engage in the exploration, development, production and sales of oil and natural gas. The principal elements of our strategy are as follows:

Focus on reserve and production increase

The Group continues to concentrate our exploration efforts in our major operation areas through a welldesigned way. Exploration strategy and execution provided reserve added with higher successful rate and better capex efficiency. Meanwhile, we maintained production in mature oil and gas field by necessary workovers and enhancement measures. Additionally, we drilled new development wells, contributing incremental production with higher successful rate.

Enlarge and diversify assets portfolios

After the acquisition of KEC, our core business was in Pakistan, Iraq and Egypt. Our high-quality assets are being managed by a professional management team. Our vision is to replicate our success story in Pakistan to the MENA region, as well as make an effort to integrate development of the enlarged and diversified assets portfolios. Last but not least, we dedicate ourselves to seek potential opportunities to further diversify our risks.

Promote high-quality development

We achieved the targets to diversify our assets portfolio in year 2019. We will continue to develop our assets in a sustainable, efficient, economical, and environment-friendly way, in order to maintain high-quality development status.

Maintain a prudent financial policy

A prudent, disciplined financial policy underpinned our success over the years. We plan to continue with this focus. As an essential part of our corporate culture, we continue to promote process streamlining, operational efficiency, cost optimisation and disciplined decision-making of investment across the Group. This helped to maintain a relatively low lifting cost and keep our competitiveness. Cash flow and indebtedness are carefully managed in order to maintain a healthy financial position and mitigate liquidity risk.

Exploration

In 2020, the Group devoted continuous efforts in its oil and gas exploration. Adhering to the philosophy of valuedriven and anchoring on exploration and discoveries of small and rich oil and gas fields, 8 commercial discoveries were achieved of which 5 were in Pakistan and 3 in Egypt.

Our technical capabilities were enhanced, and efficiency of exploration improved. The Group continued to maintain a reasonable proportion investment and support exploration activities, in order to ensure sustainable growth. Exploration area in Pakistan is 16,972 Km² (including 4,541 Km² non-operated), 879 Km² in Egypt. Exploration breakthroughs were achieved in Mirpur Khas ("MK") block, as well as decent production discovered on downthrow structures in mature blocks in Pakistan. High testing production observed from the block of Abu Sennan in Egypt. Exploration campaign in Pakistan and Egypt continued to improve our production.

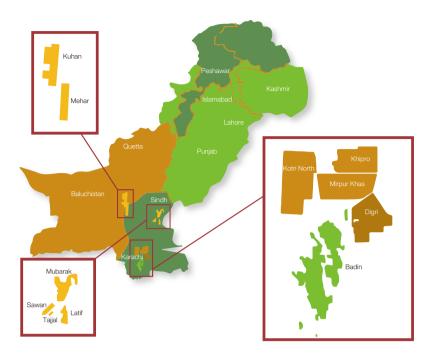

Engineering Construction

In 2020, the Group carefully organised operational resources and smoothen the progress in engineering construction. With detailed planning and efficient management, the Group has successfully completed its production support facility projects, paving the way to production and reserve targets.

In Iraq Block 9, the 45km trunk line and 6-inch flowline laying was completed, by the end of year, and the surface facilities capacity achieved 40,000 barrels of oil equivalent ("boe") per day ("boed"). At the same time, the FEED ("Front-End Engineering Design") of CPF ("Central Processing Facilities") with oil processing capacity of 100,000 boed and GPP ("Gas Processing Plant") with gas processing capacity of 130 million standard cubic feet ("mmscf") per day ("mmscfd") has been completed, laying a solid foundation for ramp-up the production capacity of Block 9.

Development and Production

For the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group's average daily gross production was approximately 151,330 boed (Pakistan Assets – 79,549 boed plus MENA Assets – 71,781 boed), a 3.4% increase compared to approximately 146,337 boed of last year, and gross accumulated production was approximately 55.39 million barrels of oil equivalent ("mmboe"), a 11.7% increase compared to approximately 49.58 mmboe of last year, at the same time, the Group's average working interest production was 92,786 boed (Pakistan Assets – 55,929 boed plus MENA Assets – 36,857 boed), a 1.6% decrease compared to approximately 94,342 boed of last year, and working interest accumulated production was approximately 33.96 mmboe, a 5.3% increase compared to approximately 32.24 mmboe of last year. The accumulated gross production and working interest production increase respectively were mainly due to the full year effect of MENA Assets which acquired on 21 March 2019. In 2020, the Group aggressively managed its relationship with Sui Southern Gas Company Limited ("SSGCL"), Sui Northern Gas Pipelines Limited ("SNGPL") and Basra Oil Company ("BOC") to lift the production curtailment, which was caused by COVID-19 and OPEC production cut. Generally speaking, the negative impact was systematically managed to minimum level and our production was stable and resilient.

Pakistan

As of 31 December 2020, the Group holds interests in 5 areas dividing into 16 development concessions for oil and gas production in Pakistan.

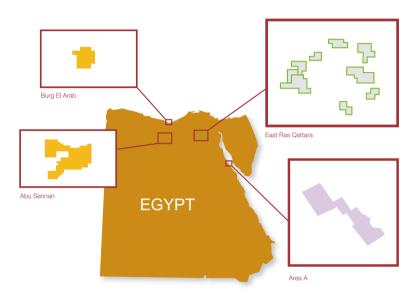

In 2020, the Pakistan Assets achieved an average daily working interest production of approximately 55,929 boed, decreased by 16.0% compared to last year. The Pakistan Assets have an oil and liquids ratio of 12.7% which was lower than the number of last year. The accumulated gross production and working interest production of the full year was approximately 29.1 mmboe and 20.5 mmboe respectively.

Iraq

The Group holds a 60% participating interest in the Exploration Development and Production Service Contract ("EDPSC") of Block 9 in Iraq and is the Operator of this block. In 2020, the average daily gross production was approximately 26,849 boed, and the average daily working interest production was approximately 16,110 boed. The accumulated gross production and working interest production for the year were approximately 9.8 mmboe and 5.9 mmboe respectively. Block 9 has an oil and liquids ratio of 100%.

The Group holds a 30% participating interest in the Gas Development and Production Service Contract for the Siba contract area in Iraq and is the Operator of this block. The average daily gross production in 2020 was approximately 21,859 boed, and the average daily working interest production was approximately 6,558 boed. The accumulated gross and working interest production were approximately 8.0 mmboe and 2.4 mmboe respectively. Siba has an oil and liquids ratio of 67.6%.

Egypt

The Group holds interests in four blocks in Egypt. It has a 100% participating interest in Burg El Arab and act as the Operator of this block. The participating interest in Area A, Abu Sennan and East Ras Qattara are 70%, 25% and 49.5% respectively. In 2020, the average daily gross production was approximately 23,073 boed, and the average daily working interest production was approximately 14,190 boed. The accumulated gross production and working interest production for the year were approximately 8.4 mmboe and 5.2 mmboe respectively. The Egypt Assets has an oil and liquids ratio of 97.5%.

Sales and Marketing

Sales of Crude Oil

The Group sells crude oil and condensates produced in Pakistan and Iraq through traders in international markets. The Group's crude oil sales price is mainly determined by the prices of international benchmark crude oil of similar quality, with certain adjustments subject to prevailing market conditions. The prices are quoted in US dollars and settled in US dollars with Brent Oil Price as basis. With regard to Egyptian Assets, as per the articles of Profit Sharing Contract ("PSC") in Egypt, the Group sells crude oil to Egyptian General Petroleum Corporation ("EGPC") at a price determined under the PSC, generally at a small discount to Brent Oil Price.

In 2020, the Group's total working interest crude and condensates selling volumes are 15.1 million barrels, representing a year-on-year increase of 35.7% and its average realised oil price (before government royalty, windfall levy and government take at working interest production) was approximately US$38.56/bbl, representing a year-on-year decrease of 37.7%, mainly due to the decrease of Brent oil price.

Sales of Natural Gas

The Group's natural gas sales prices are based on negotiated long term sales agreements. Contract terms normally include a price review mechanism which links the price of natural gas sold to crude oil prices. The Group's natural gas customers are primarily located in Pakistan and are government owned entities namely SSGCL and SNGPL.

In 2020, the Group's total working interest natural gas selling volumes are 18.8 mmboe, representing a year-on-year decrease of 10.0% and its average realised gas price (before government royalty, windfall levy and government take at working interest production) was approximately US$24.99/boe, representing a year-on-year decrease of 8.2%, mainly due to the decrease of Brent oil price.

Financial Results

Financial Review

For the year ended 31 December 2020 (the "reporting period"), the Group reported a profit attributable to the owners of the Company of approximately HK$864,176,000, representing a decrease of 54.7% from the year ended 31 December 2019 ("last year") of approximately HK$1,905,957,000. The decrease in net profit was mainly due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the plunge of international oil price during 2020.

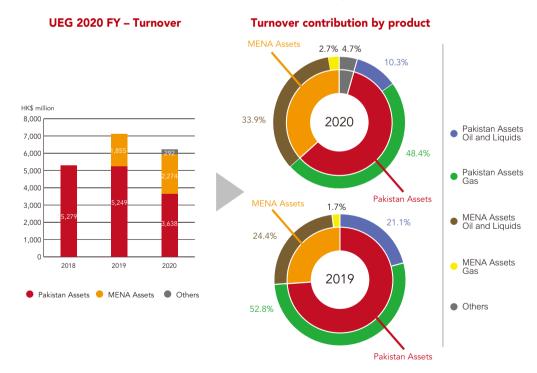

During the reporting period, the Group's average daily working interest production was approximately 92,786 boed (Pakistan Assets of 55,929 boed plus MENA Assets of 36,857 boed) compared to approximately 94,342 boed (Pakistan Assets of 66,560 boed plus MENA Assets of 27,782 boed) of last year, maintained at the same level despite of demand curtailment due to outbreak of COVID-19, and production cut initiated by OPEC+ during the reporting period. The Group aggressively managed demand with the customers to achieve the above production results. The average realised oil and gas price (before government royalty, windfall levy and government take at working interest production) was approximately US$31.04/boe, compared to approximately US$39.25/boe of last year, representing a decrease of 20.9%.

Turnover

The Group's turnover for the reporting period was approximately HK$6,204,227,000, representing a decrease of 12.7% as compared with the turnover of approximately HK$7,103,644,000 of last year. The decrease in turnover was mainly contributed by the effect of decrease in realised sales prices during the reporting period, which partially offset by the full year contribution for the reporting period from KEC which was acquired in March 2019.

Operating expenses

The Group's operating expenses for exploration and production activities (which is defined as the cost of sales excluding depreciation and amortisation and distribution expenses) increased 4.3% to approximately HK$1,152,442,000 in 2020, compared with approximately HK$1,104,491,000 in 2019. The operating expenses per boe (at working interest production) was approximately US$4.35 in 2020, compared with approximately US$4.39 in 2019, decreased by 0.9%. In April 2020, we kicked-off effective cost saving campaign, i.e. negotiation with vendors to lower down service prices, freezing headcounts to control HR costs, optimising field activities to keep at a relatively low level and etc.

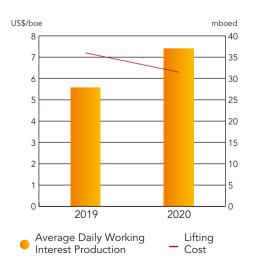

UEG 2020 FY – Cost of Sales & Services Rendered

Pakistan Assets – Lifting Cost vs Working Interest Production

MENA Assets – Lifting Cost vs Working Interest Production

Notes:

- 1. Lifting cost represent cost of sales & services rendered excluding depreciation and amortisation, sales expenses and government tax.
- MENA Assets operation in 2019 only covered the period from 21 March 2019 to 31 December 2019.

Depreciation, depletion and amortisation

Included in the cost of sales and services rendered, the depreciation, depletion and amortisation was approximately HK$2,714,813,000, representing an increase of 8.9% as compared with the amount of approximately HK$2,493,491,000 in last year.

Gross profit

The Group's gross profit for the reporting period was approximately HK$2,032,749,000 (gross profit ratio 32.8%) which represented a sharp decrease of 41.6% as compared with gross profit of approximately HK$3,477,805,000 (gross profit ratio 49.0%) for the last year. The decrease in gross profit was attributed to the effect of COVID-19 pandemic and the plunge of international oil price which result in decrease in overall realised sales prices during the reporting period, which partially offset by tremendous cost saving measures taken by the Group.

Exploration expenses

The Group's exploration expenses for the reporting period was approximately HK$339,601,000 (last year: approximately HK$350,286,000) which included the expenses for performance of geological and geophysical studies, surface use rights & wells and the written off loss of approximately HK$328,515,000 (last year: approximately HK$322,140,000) arising from dry exploration wells in the Pakistan Assets.

Administrative expenses

The Group's administrative expenses for the reporting period was approximately HK$439,643,000 (last year: approximately HK$505,215,000) representing 7.1% (last year: 7.1%) of the turnover. The decrease in administrative expenses was attributed to the effect of strict cost control during the reporting period.

Finance costs

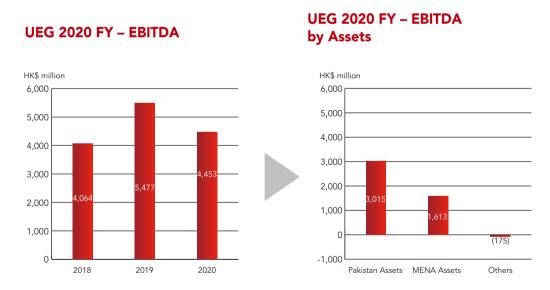

The Group's finance costs for the reporting period was approximately HK$312,592,000, which represented a decrease of 29.1% as compared with the finance costs of approximately HK$440,960,000 for the last year. The decrease in finance costs was mainly due to the lower average interest rate and average loan outstanding balance during the reporting period. The weighted average interest rate of borrowings for the reporting period was 5.36% (last year: 8.64%).

Income tax expense

The Group's income tax expense for the reporting period was approximately HK$162,588,000. This included the current income tax of approximately HK$282,110,000 and partially offset by deferred tax income of approximately HK$119,522,000, compared with current income tax of approximately HK$389,133,000 and deferred tax income of approximately HK$37,009,000 for the last year respectively. The Group's effective tax rate for the reporting period was approximately 15.8%, representing an increase 0.2 percentage points as compared with 15.6% for the last year.

EBITDA

EBITDA represents the profit before finance costs, income tax expense, depreciation and amortisation, property, plant and equipment written off, gain on disposals of subsidiaries, share of profits/losses of associates, gain/loss on disposals of property, plant and equipment, gain on bargain purchase and impairment losses for trade and other receivables. It shall be noted that EBITDA is not a measurement of operating performance or liquidity defined by generally accepted accounting principles and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. The EBITDA for the reporting period was approximately HK$4,453,219,000, decreased by 18.7% from the last year of approximately HK$5,477,288,000. The decrease in EBITDA was mainly attributable to the decrease in average realised sales price during the reporting period.

This was primarily attributed to the decrease in oil and gas sales cash inflows due to decreased realised sales prices for the current period.

Cash used in investing activities

In 2020, the Group's net cash used in investing activities decreased by 68.8% to approximately HK$2,180,818,000 from last year, mainly due to net consideration payment of approximately HK$4,080,085,000 was made for the KEC acquisition in last year, as well as the development expenditure of approximately HK$1,885,773,000 for the reporting period with an overall decrease of 29.0% as compared to last year.

Cash used in financing activities

In 2020, the net cash used in financing activities was approximately HK$94,326,000, mainly due to the payment of special dividend of approximately HK$1,051,115,000, drawdown of bank loans of approximately HK$1,357,949,000 and repayment of bank loans of approximately HK$836,550,000.

Dividend

A final dividend of HK2.36 cents per share (last year: Nil) in relation to profit attributable to the year ended 31 December 2020 is proposed after the end of reporting period and amounts to approximately HK$620,299,000.

Business and market outlook

The global economy in 2021 is projected to rebound 5.5%, according to IMF forecast in January 2021. The global oil demand is forecast to increase by 5.9 mmbbl/d to average of 95.9 mmbbl/d, which is stated in OPEC Monthly Market Report of January 2021. The economy and commodity market recovery will likely to be subject to COVID-19 vaccine rollout program. The oil and gas industry is expected to step out of the headwinds in 2020 steadily and gradually.

Our Pakistan asset natural gas sales agreements are long-term contracts with price linked to the crude oil prices with generally a floor and a ceiling. Based on historical trends, realised gas sales price were relatively stable even with significant fluctuations in oil prices. Also, Pakistan is energy deficient which offers a good market to the Group. Iraq Assets have service contracts and are in the development phase with major projects being undertaken. Under these contracts, cost recovery and remuneration mechanism limit any significant exposure to the Group from oil price fluctuation. Egypt assets have a mature stable operation with an offtake contract from state-own company. We aim for stable production and seize any potential opportunity to increase our foot print in Egypt.

For our 2021 plan, the Group targets average daily gross production level of 150,000 to 165,000 boed, and average daily working interest production level of 88,000 to 96,000 boed. Capital expenditure is anticipated to reach US$390 million to US$420 million, which is essential to support exploration, development and construction plans of the Group. We will manage overruns in capital expenditure to the possible extent through the adjustments of our exploration program by deferring certain high risks exploration drilling and optimisation the schedule of development facilities construction. At the same time, we will balance the workload of each asset to reach economically efficient outputs.

Pakistan Assets:

According to a Pakistan industry report prepared by an independent third party on behalf of the Group, gas demand is expected to increase from approximately 4.0 billion cubic feet per day ("bcfd") in 2018 to approximately 4.3 bcfd in 2024 and then stabilises around this level afterwards. On the supply side, the domestic production amounted to approximately 3 bcfd in 2018 and is expected to decline quickly to below approximately 2 bcfd in 2024. The gas shortage in Pakistan was mitigated by importing significantly more expensive LNG from the neighboring countries. Given the Group's production is predominantly in gas, our sale of natural gas is almost guaranteed to be taken up by the state-owned gas distribution customer. We continue to leverage our experience and understanding of the geology and geophysics in Lower Indus Basin, Middle Indus Basin and Western Fold Belt of Pakistan to unlock the potentials of these assets. Besides, the Group will continue to look for similar opportunities in the market or other access alternatives, such as participating in government bidding process, and strengthen cooperation with state-owned oil companies to expand our footprint in Pakistan.

For Pakistan Assets, we plan to achieve an average daily working interest production of 46,000 to 50,000 boed in 2021.

MENA Assets:

In March 2019, the Group completed the acquisition of KEC, which is engaged in exploration, appraisal, development and production of oil and gas assets in the MENA region. This acquisition brings high-quality assets to the Group's portfolio with significant scale and strong development potential. The production base and long reserve life of these assets are highly complementary to the Group's existing portfolio and will provide a sustainable development profile to the Group for the next two decades. As per reserve report issued by Gaffney, Cline & Associates as of 31 December 2020, the MENA Assets were reported with 2P working interest reserve of 958 mmboe with almost 97.6% located in Iraq. The Group will leverage its strong financial capability to further unlock the potential of MENA Assets and replicate its past success story in MENA regions. The average daily working interest production of Block 9 in Iraq is expected to reach 100,000 boed in the near future. The gas production of Siba in Iraq is expected to reach a sustainable Plateau Production Target in the near future. Egyptian assets are mature producing assets, it will stay stable in terms of both production and reserve, in the year of 2021.

In 2021, Iraq Assets are expected to achieve an average daily working interest production of 30,000 to 33,000 boed, whereas Egypt Assets will achieve an average daily working interest production of 12,000 to 13,000 boed.

Conclusion

Through the ups and downs of economic and oil price cycles, the Group is remarkably resilient and outstanding during the unprecedent pandemic of 2020. We have spared no efforts in maintaining production, optimising operation and creating value for our shareholders. Facing challenges and opportunities, we will keep on working and deliver a more desirable result in 2021.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION ON OIL AND GAS EXPLORATION, DEVELOPMENT AND PRODUCTION ACTIVITIES

This section provides supplemental information on oil and gas activities in accordance with the Chapter 18 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities (the "Listing Rules") of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

A. INFORMATION ON CRUDE OIL AND NATURAL GAS RESERVES

The Group has adopted the SPE/WPC/AAPG/SPEE Petroleum Resources Management System ("SPE-PRMS") in reserves estimation. Reserves are determined through analysis of geological and engineering data which appear, with reasonable certainty, to be economically producible in the future from known and discovered oil and natural gas reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions. Both deterministic and probabilistic methods are used in reserves estimation. When probabilistic method is used, there should be at least a 90% probability (for Proved Reserve or "1P") that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the estimate. The estimation of reserves is based on the estimation of production for future years from existing wells and new development wells. The estimation is subject to economic limit test to satisfy the commerciality requirements of SPE-PRMS. The selling prices for oil, condensate and LPG used in the economic limit test are based on the forecast of market Brent oil price in future years, subject to discount or premium derived from historical realized price in reporting period applicable to the particular fields. The selling prices for gas used in the economic limit test are projected based on the historical realised gas price of each field in reporting period.

For the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group engaged independent third party consulting firms to perform audit and review on the reserves estimates. The firms have audited over 93.2% of the Group's total net entitlement 1P reserves, and completed a high level review of the reasonableness of the process used by the Group on the other fields representing over 5.4% of the Group's total net entitlement 1P reserves and its opinion stated that the estimates are reasonable.

The following table set out the estimates of Group's net entitlement 1P reserves.

Principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group

The following section lists out the key risks and uncertainties faced by the Group. It is a non-exhaustive list and there may be other risks and uncertainties further to the key risk areas outlined below. Besides, this annual report does not constitute a recommendation or an advice for anyone to invest in the securities of the Company and investors are advised to make their own judgment or consult their own investment advisors before making any investment in the securities of the Company.

Risks pertaining to the changes in oil and gas prices in international market

Prices for crude oil and natural gas may fluctuate widely in response to changes in the supply and demand for crude oil and natural gas, overall economic and political instability, natural disasters and weather conditions that are beyond our control. Changes in oil and gas prices could have a material effect on the Group's cash flows and earnings. The prolonged low oil and gas prices may also result in the impairment of our oil and gas properties.

Risks pertaining to the oil & gas market in Pakistan, Egypt and Iraq

The Group's financial performance is subject to tax and fiscal regime applicable to oil and gas industry in Pakistan, Egypt and Iraq. Any changes in the tax and fiscal regime in these countries may increase our tax burden and have an adverse effect on our financial performance. The Group's business may also be affected by the economic, political and environmental conditions of the country that are beyond our control.

Risks pertaining to exploration and replacement of reserves

Our exploration and development activities have inherent risk of not discovering commercial oil and gas reserves. Exploration and development of reserves are capital intensive. Failure in discovery of reserves may result in incurring of written off or impairment losses. The reliability of reserve estimates depends on the quality and quantity of technical and economic data, the production performance of reservoir, the market prices of oil and natural gas, extensive engineering judgements and consistency in tax and fiscal regime. Many of the factors, assumptions and variables involved in estimating reserves are beyond our control. The quantities of crude oil and natural gas reserves that are ultimately recovered could differ from the Group's reserve estimates.

Risks pertaining to operation

The Group's exploration, development and production activities involve numerous health, safety, security and environment risks that are common among upstream oil and gas companies. Accidents may happen despite systems and policies set up for their prevention which may lead to financial loss, operation interruption and litigation.

The Group is subject to extensive environmental protection laws and regulations of countries with operation. If there are changes in the environmental protection laws and regulations, we may incur additional costs for environmental compliance matters.

Risks pertaining to mergers and acquisitions

The Group may require acquisitions of new assets under its business development plans to continue its business expansion. There is no assurance that mergers and acquisitions may succeed due to various reasons, such as the availability of external financings and outcomes differing from key assumptions.

Past performance and forward looking statements

The performance and the results of operation of the Group as set out in this annual report are historical in nature and past performance is not a guarantee of future performance. This annual report may contain forward-looking statements and opinions that involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may also differ materially from expectations discussed in such forward-looking statements and opinions. Neither the Group nor the Directors, employees or agents of the Group assume any obligations or liabilities in the event that any of the forward-looking statements or opinions does not materialize or turns out to be incorrect.

Risks pertaining to force majeure events, natural disasters or outbreaks of contagious diseases

The Group's business could be adversely affected by natural disasters or outbreaks of epidemics, which may affect the procurement of raw materials and production, sale and exportation of the Group's products. Epidemics, pandemics or outbreaks or escalation of diseases, including, among others, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndromes ("SARS"), avian influenza, swine flu ("H1N1"), novel coronavirus in 2019 ("COVID-19") and other diseases may affect the livelihood of people in the worldwide. These natural disasters, outbreaks of contagious diseases, and other adverse public health developments in the worldwide could severely disrupt the Group's business operations by restricting travel and sales activities and delaying delivery of the Group's products, impact the productivity of the workforce, or reduce the demand for the Group's products, which may materially and adversely affect business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Environmental policies and performance

The Group remains steadfast to its values, of which the commitment to health, safety, security and environmental ("HSSE") performance is a core principle. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF UNITED ENERGY GROUP LIMITED

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands and continued in Bermuda with limited liability)

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of United Energy Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 55 to 163, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. The key audit matters we identified are:

- 1. Impairment of property, plant and equipment
- 2. Estimate of oil and gas reserves

Key Audit Matter

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Refer to Note 18 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies on pages 69 to 71 and page 81.

The Group principally engages in the exploration and production of upstream oil and natural gas in Pakistan, Middle East and North Africa. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had property, plant and equipment with carrying values of approximately HK$10,804,413,000 attributable to the exploration and production activities.

Management has carried out an impairment review on the property, plant and equipment for possible impairment by considering events or changes in circumstances which could indicate that the carrying amounts of certain assets may not be recoverable. Such events and changes in circumstances indicating possible impairment were mainly resulting from a drop of oil and gas prices and a decline in production and oil and gas reserve. Management considered certain oil and gas fields were no longer economical and that the related assets should be fully written off. Write-off of exploration and production assets included in property, plant and equipment of approximately of HK$337,776,000 were recognised during the year.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Audit procedures performed by the component auditors of the Group's businesses in Pakistan, Middle East and North Africa and by the Group audit engagement team included:

- Understanding management's impairment assessment process.
- Meeting with operations and finance management to discuss asset performance, production and reserves data and future plans in order to identify any performance-related indicators of impairment.
- For those oil and gas fields which were considered no longer commercially viable with marginal or no production, we obtained the list of written off assets and their carrying values and:
 - Assessed the mathematical accuracy of the write-off amounts;
 - Assessed the written off assets performance by inspecting supporting evidence such as reserves estimates, current production information and future production plans;
 - Reviewed the reserves estimates report and current production information to ensure all cash generating units with indications of no commercial viability had been considered; and
 - Assessed the adequacy of the disclosures in the financial statements in relation to the write off of exploration and production assets.

Key Audit Matter

Estimate of oil and gas reserves

Refer to Note 5 to the consolidated financial statements and the key sources of estimation uncertainty on page 87.

The estimation of oil and gas reserves is a significant area of judgement due to the technical uncertainty in assessing quantities and complex contractual arrangements dictating the Group's share of reportable volumes.

These estimates have a significant impact on the financial statements, in particular in the determination of impairment losses and depreciation, depletion and amortisation charges.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Audit procedures performed by the component auditors of the Group's business in Pakistan, Middle East and North Africa and by the Group audit engagement team included:

- Performing walk through procedures to understand management's internal processes and controls over estimates of oil and gas reserves.
- Assessing the professional competence, objectivity and capabilities of the independent external expert engaged by the Group to audit the Group's estimates of oil and gas reserves and ensuring that the scope of work undertaken by the expert was appropriate.
- Evaluating whether the methodology adopted by the reserves specialists to estimate the oil and gas reserves was consistent with recognised industry standards.
- Reviewing the reports of the independent external experts on their audit of the reserves shared by the Group and ensuring that the updated estimates of oil and gas reserves were properly included in the Group's impairment assessment and in accounting for depreciation, depletion and amortisation.

Other Information

The directors are responsible for the Other Information. The Other Information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the Other Information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Other Information and, in doing so, consider whether the Other Information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this Other Information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 90 of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Wong Poh Weng.

Basis of Preparation 2.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA"). HKFRSs comprise Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRS"); Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKAS"); and Interpretations. These consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange and with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622). Significant accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

The HKICPA has issued certain new and revised HKFRSs that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group. Note 3 provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current and prior accounting periods reflected in these consolidated financial statements.

3. Adoption of New and Revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards

Application of new and revised HKFRSs

The Group has applied the Amendments to Reference to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards and the following amendments to HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the annual period beginning on or after 1 January 2020 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

3. Adoption of New and Revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (Continued)

Application of new and revised HKFRSs (Continued)

Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 Definition of Material Definition of a Business Amendments to HKFRS 3

Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7 Interest Rate Benchmark Reform

Except as described below, the application of the Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRS Standards and the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year had no material impact on the Group's financial positions and performance for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8 Definition of Material

The amendments provide a new definition of material that states "information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements, which provide financial information about a specific reporting entity." The amendments also clarify that materiality depends on the nature or magnitude of information, either individually or in combination with other information, in the context of the financial statements taken as a whole.

The application of the amendments had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 3 Definition of a Business

The amendments clarify the definition of a business and provide further guidance on how to determine whether a transaction represents a business combination. In addition, the amendments introduce an optional "concentration test" that permits a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is an asset rather than business acquisition, when substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets.

The Group has applied the amendments prospectively to transactions for which the acquisition date is on or after 1 January 2020. These amendments had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7, Interest Rate Benchmark Reform

The amendments modify specific hedge accounting requirements to allow hedge accounting to continue for affected hedges during the period of uncertainty before the hedged items or hedging instruments affected by the current interest rate benchmarks are amended as a result of the on-going interest rate benchmark reform.

The application of the amendments had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

3. Adoption of New and Revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (Continued)

(b) New and revised HKFRSs in issue but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied new and revised HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective for the financial year beginning 1 January 2020. These new and revised HKFRSs include the following which may be relevant to the Group.

	Effective for accounting periods beginning on or after
Amendments to HKFRS 16 COVID-19 Related Rent Concessions	1 January 2021
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 4 and HKFRS 16 Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2	1 January 2021
Amendments to HKFRS 3 Reference to the Conceptual Framework	1 January 2022
Amendments to HKAS 16 Property, plant and equipment: proceeds before intended use	1 January 2022
Amendments to HKAS 37 Onerous contracts – cost of fulfilling a contract	1 January 2022
Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2018–2020 Cycle	1 January 2022
Amendments to HKAS 1 Classification of liabilities as current or non-current	1 January 2023

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these amendments and new standards is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

4. Significant Accounting Policies

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, unless mentioned otherwise in the accounting policies below (e.g. certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value).

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in note 5.

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below.

(a) Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries made up to 31 December. Subsidiaries are entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The Group has power over an entity when the Group has existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities, i.e. activities that significantly affect the entity's returns.

When assessing control, the Group considers its potential voting rights as well as potential voting rights held by other parties. A potential voting right is considered only if the holder has the practical ability to exercise that right.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date the control ceases.

The gain or loss on the disposal of a subsidiary that results in a loss of control represents the difference between (i) the fair value of the consideration of the sale plus the fair value of any investment retained in that subsidiary and (ii) the Company's share of the net assets of that subsidiary plus any remaining goodwill and any accumulated foreign currency translation reserve relating to that subsidiary.

Intragroup transactions, balances and unrealised profits are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests represent the equity in subsidiaries not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the Company. Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position and consolidated statement of changes in equity within equity. Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as an allocation of profit or loss and total comprehensive income for the year between the non-controlling shareholders and owners of the Company.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling shareholders even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions (i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owners). The carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to the owners of the Company.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment loss, unless the investment is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

(b) Business combination and goodwill

The acquisition method is used to account for the acquisition of a subsidiary in a business combination. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at the acquisition-date fair value of the assets given, equity instruments issued, liabilities incurred and any contingent consideration. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received. Identifiable assets and liabilities of the subsidiary in the acquisition are measured at their acquisition-date fair values.

The excess of the sum of the consideration transferred over the Group's share of the net fair value of the subsidiary's identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the sum of the consideration transferred is recognised in consolidated profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase which is attributed to the Group.

In a business combination achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest in the subsidiary is remeasured at its acquisition-date fair value and the resulting gain or loss is recognised in consolidated profit or loss. The fair value is added to the sum of the consideration transferred in a business combination to calculate the goodwill.

The non-controlling interests in the subsidiary are initially measured at the non-controlling shareholders' proportionate share of the net fair value of the subsidiary's identifiable assets and liabilities at the acquisition date.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs") or groups of CGUs that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the Group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill impairment reviews are undertaken annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment. The carrying value of the CGU containing the goodwill is compared to its recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently reversed.

(c) Associates

Associates are entities over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of an entity but is not control or joint control over those policies. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible, including potential voting rights held by other entities, are considered when assessing whether the Group has significant influence. In assessing whether a potential voting right contributes to significant influence, the holder's intention and financial ability to exercise or convert that right is not considered.

Investment in an associate is accounted for in the consolidated financial statements by the equity method and is initially recognised at cost. Identifiable assets and liabilities of the associate in an acquisition are measured at their fair values at the acquisition date. The excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill which is included in the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of acquisition is recognised in consolidated profit or loss.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

The Group's share of an associate's post-acquisition profits or losses and other comprehensive income is recognised in consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate. If the associate subsequently reports profits, the Group resumes recognising its share of those profits only after its share of the profits equals the share of losses not recognised.

The gain or loss on the disposal of an associate that results in a loss of significant influence represents the difference between (i) the fair value of the consideration of the sale plus the fair value of any investment retained in that associate and (ii) the Group's entire carrying amount of that associate (including goodwill) and any related accumulated foreign currency translation reserve. If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture, the Group continues to apply the equity method and does not remeasure the retained interest.

Unrealised profits on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interests in the associates. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in associates are stated at cost less impairment losses, unless classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group that is classified as held for sale).

(d) Joint arrangements

A joint arrangement is an arrangement of which two or more parties have joint control. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Relevant activities are activities that significantly affect the returns of the arrangement. When assessing joint control, the Group considers its potential voting rights as well as potential voting rights held by other parties. A potential voting right is considered only if the holder has the practical ability to exercise that right.

A joint arrangement is either a joint operation or a joint venture. A joint operation is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement. A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. The Group has assessed the type of each of its joint arrangements and determined them all to be joint operations.

In relation to its interest in a joint operation, the Group recognises in its consolidated financial statements in accordance with the HKFRSs applicable to the particular assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses: its assets, including its share of any assets held jointly; its liabilities, including its share of any liabilities incurred jointly; its revenue from the sale of its share of the output arising from the joint operation; its share of the revenue from the sale of the output by the joint operation; and its expenses, including its share of any expenses incurred jointly.

(e) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances in each entity's financial statements

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency on initial recognition using the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates at the end of each reporting period. Gains and losses resulting from this translation policy are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the dates when the fair values are determined.

When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income. When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

(e) Foreign currency translation (Continued)

(iii) Translation on consolidation

The results and financial position of all the Group entities that have a functional currency different from the Company's presentation currency are translated into the Company's presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position;
- Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates for the period (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates on the transaction dates); and
- All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of monetary items that form part of the net investment in foreign entities are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve. When a foreign operation is sold, such exchange differences are reclassified to the consolidated profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at closing rate.

(f) Property, plant and equipment (other than oil and gas properties and exploration and evaluation expenditures)

Property, plant and equipment are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes (other than freehold land, construction in progress and spare parts as described below). Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised in profit or loss during the year in which they are incurred.

(f) Property, plant and equipment (other than oil and gas properties and exploration and evaluation expenditures) (Continued)

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated at rates sufficient to write off their cost less their residual values over the estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. The principal annual rates are as follows:

Buildings	5% – 10%
Leasehold improvements	5% – 33.33%
Vessels	20%
Aircrafts	6.67%
Motor vehicles	20% – 30%
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	10% – 33.33%
Plant and machinery	20%

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation method are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Freehold land is stated at cost less subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Construction in progress represents plant and machinery pending installation and oil wells under construction, and is stated at cost less impairment losses. Depreciation begins when the relevant assets are available for use.

Spare parts are classified as property, plant and equipment rather than inventories when they meet the definition of property, plant and equipment. Upon utilisation, capital spares and serving equipment are depreciated as part of the principal asset.

The gain or loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset, and is recognised in profit or loss.

(g) Oil and gas properties and exploration and evaluation expenditures

Oil and gas properties are accounted for using the successful efforts method of accounting. Under this method, all costs for development wells, support equipment and facilities, and proved mineral interests in oil and gas properties are capitalised. Geological and geophysical costs are expensed when incurred. Exploration and evaluation expenditures are capitalised and no depreciation or amortisation is charged until determination of the related exploratory wells find commercial reserves. Commercial reserves are the estimated quantities of crude oil and natural gas which geological and engineering data demonstrate with reasonable certainty to be recoverable in future years from known reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions, i.e., prices and costs as of the date the estimate is made.

(g) Oil and gas properties and exploration and evaluation expenditures (Continued)

Exploratory wells in areas not requiring major capital expenditures are evaluated for economic viability within one year of completion of drilling. The related well costs are expensed as dry holes if it is determined that such economic viability is not attained. Otherwise, the related well costs are reclassified to oil and gas properties and subject to impairment review. For exploratory wells that are found to have economically viable reserves in areas where major capital expenditure will be required before production can commence, the related well costs remain capitalised only if additional drilling is under way or firmly planned. Otherwise the related well costs are expensed as dry holes.

Exploration and evaluation expenditures are stated at cost less impairment losses. Depreciation begins when the relevant assets are transferred to oil and gas properties and available for use.

Oil and gas properties are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and any subsequent impairment losses. The cost of oil and gas properties (including decommissioning cost and future capital expenditures) is depreciated at the field level based on the unit-of-production method over the proved and probable reserves of petroleum.

(h) Decommissioning cost

Decommissioning cost represents cost for the future abandonment of oil and gas production facilities, representing the legal obligations, at the end of their economic lives. Decommissioning activities may include facility decommissioning and dismantling, removal or treatment of waste materials, land rehabilitation, and site restoration.

The Group makes provision for its share of the full decommissioning cost on the declaration of commercial discovery of the reserves of each field, to fulfil the legal obligation. The amount recognised as part of the cost of oil and gas properties is the estimated cost of decommissioning, discounted to its net present value. The timing and amount of future expenditure are reviewed annually together with the interest rate to be used in discounting the cash flows. Any change in the present value of the estimated expenditure is dealt with prospectively and reflected as an adjustment to the provision and a corresponding adjustment to property, plant and equipment – oil and gas properties.

Decommissioning costs are depreciated as part of the cost of oil and gas properties using the unitof-production method over the proved and probable reserves. The unwinding of discount of the provision of decommissioning cost is recognised as finance costs in the consolidated profit or loss.

(i) Leases

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

When the Group obtains ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term, upon exercising purchase options, the cost of the relevant right-of-use assets and the related accumulated depreciation and impairment loss are transferred to property, plant and equipment/the carrying amount of the relevant right-of-use asset is transferred to property, plant and equipment.

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the Group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract ("lease modification") that is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

(j) Intangible assets

Intangible assets that are acquired in business combinations are recognised at fair value on initial recognition. After initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less subsequent accumulated amortisation and any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

Amortisation of intangible assets with finite useful lives is charged to consolidated profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives, except for concession and lease rights which are amortised using the unit-of-production method over the proved and probable reserves of petroleum.

(k) Club membership

Club membership with indefinite useful life is stated at cost less any impairment losses. Impairment is reviewed annually or when there is any indication that the club membership has suffered an impairment loss.

(I) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories represent purchase or production cost of goods and are determined using the weighted average basis. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

4. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

(m) Recognition and derecognition of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position when the Group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

(n) Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace. All recognised financial assets are measured subsequently in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Debt investments

Debt investments held by the Group are classified into one of the following measurement categories:

- amortised cost, if the investment is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest. Interest income from the investment is calculated using the effective interest method.
- fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI") recycling, if the contractual cash flows of the investment comprise solely payments of principal and interest and the investment is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both the collection of contractual cash flows and sale. Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income, except for the recognition in profit or loss of expected credit losses ("ECL"), interest income (calculated using the effective interest method) and foreign exchange gains and losses. When the investment is derecognised, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is recycled from equity to profit or loss.
- FVTPL if the investment does not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI (recycling). Changes in the fair value of the investment (including interest) are recognised in profit or loss.

Equity investments

An investment in equity securities is classified as FVTPL unless the equity investment is not held for trading purposes and on initial recognition of the investment the Group makes an election to designate the investment at FVTOCI (non-recycling) such that subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income. Such elections are made on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but may only be made if the investment meets the definition of equity from the issuer's perspective. Where such an election is made, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income remains in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) until the investment is disposed of. At the time of disposal, the amount accumulated in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) is transferred to retained earnings. It is not recycled through profit or loss. Dividends from an investment in equity securities, irrespective of whether classified as at FVTPL or FVTOCI, are recognised in profit or loss as other income.

(o) Trade and other receivables

A receivable is recognised when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration. A right to receive consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due. If revenue has been recognised before the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration, the amount is presented as a contract asset.

Receivables are stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method less allowance for credit losses.

(p) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for ECL.

(q) Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument under HKFRSs. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. The accounting policies adopted for specific financial liabilities and equity instruments are set out below.

(r) Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred, and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

(s) Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of:

- the amount determined in accordance with the ECL model under HKFRS 9 and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined based on the present value of the difference in cash flows between the contractual payments required under the debt instrument and the payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

Where guarantees in relation to loans or other payables of associates are provided for no compensation, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognised as part of the cost of the investment.

(t) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

4. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

(u) Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidence a residual interest in the assets of an entity deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Where the Company's shares are acquired from the market by the trustee under the performance share unit scheme, the total consideration of shares acquired from the market (including directly attributable incremental costs) is presented as shares held under performance share unit scheme reserve and deducted from equity attributable to the owners of the Company as treasury shares until the shares are reissued.

(v) Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period.

Changes in the fair value of derivatives that are not designed or do not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised in profit or loss as they arise.

(w) Revenue and other income

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Revenue from the sales and production of crude oil, condensate, gas and liquefied petroleum gas is recognised when control of the goods has transferred, being when the promised goods have been physically delivered to the designated oil tankers, pipe or other delivery mechanism and is measured based on the Group's working interest and the terms specified in the production sharing contracts/ petroleum concession agreements. A receivable is recognised by the Group when the goods are delivered to the customers as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional, as only the passage of time is required before payment is due.

Revenue from management services is recognised as a performance obligation satisfied over time when the management services are rendered.

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method. For financial assets measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling) that are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset. For credit impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is applied to the amortised cost (i.e. gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) of the asset.

Income from sales of scrap materials are recognised at a point in time when control of the products has transferred to the customer, being when the products are delivered to the customer, and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer's acceptance of the products. Payment of the transaction price is due immediately when goods are delivered.

Income from liquefied petroleum gas processing fees, software costs and technical services charged to concessions are recognised at the point in time when the services are rendered.

Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment are established.

Investment income is recognised when the rights to receive payments are established.

4. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

(x) Employee benefits

(i) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave and long service leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave and long service leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

The Group operates various post-employment schemes, including both defined benefit and defined contribution pension plans.

(ii) Pension obligations

The Group contributes to defined contribution retirement schemes which are available to all employees. Contributions to the schemes by the Group and employees are calculated as a percentage of employees' basic salaries. The retirement benefit scheme cost charged to profit or loss represents contributions payable by the Group to the funds.

For the defined benefit retirement plans, the liability/(asset) recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position is the present value of the defined benefits obligations less the fair value of plan assets. When there is a surplus in a defined benefits plan, the net defined benefit asset is measured at the lower of the surplus in the defined benefit plan and the asset ceiling. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method. The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows using interest rates of high-quality corporate bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid, and that have terms to maturity approximating the terms of the related pension obligation. If there is no deep market in such bonds, the market rates on government bonds are used.

Remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability/(asset) – which include actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability/(asset)), and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability/(asset)) – are recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise and will not be reclassified to profit or loss. Service costs and net interest on the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset. However, if the Group remeasures the net defined benefit liability or asset before plan amendment, curtailment or settlement, the Group determines net interest for the remainder of the annual reporting period after the plan amendment, curtailment or settlement using the benefits offered under the plan and the plan assets after the plan amendment, curtailment or settlement and the discount rate used to remeasure such net defined benefit liability or asset, taking into account any changes in the net defined benefit liability or asset during the period resulting from contributions or benefit payments.

(x) Employee benefits (Continued)

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of the dates when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits, and when the Group recognises restructuring costs and involves the payment of termination benefits.

(y) Share-based payments

The Group issues equity-settled and cash-settled share-based payments to certain employees and consultants.

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value (excluding the effect of non-market based vesting conditions) of the equity instruments at the date of grant. The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of shares that will eventually vest and adjusted for the effect of non-market based vesting conditions.

Equity-settled share-based payments to consultants are measured at the fair value of the services rendered or, if the fair value of the services rendered cannot be reliably measured, at the fair value of the equity instruments granted. The fair value is measured at the date the Group receives the services and is recognised as an expense.

For cash-settled share-based payments, the Group measures the goods or services acquired and the liability incurred at the fair value of the liability. At the end of each reporting period, the liability is remeasured at its fair value until the liability is settled, with any changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

(z) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

To the extent that funds are borrowed generally and used for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset, the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation is determined by applying a capitalisation rate to the expenditures on that asset. The capitalisation rate is the weighted average of the borrowing costs applicable to the borrowings of the Group that are outstanding during the period, other than borrowings made specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset. Any specific borrowing that remain outstanding after the related asset is ready for its intended use or sale is included in the general borrowing pool for calculation of capitalisation rate on general borrowings.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

4. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

(aa) Government grants

A government grant is recognised when there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to it and that the grant will be received.

Government grants that become receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable.

(bb) Taxation

Income tax represents the sum of the current tax and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit recognised in profit or loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, and interests in joint arrangements, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except when it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

The measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognises the right-of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group first determines whether the tax deductions are attributable to the right-of-use assets or the lease liabilities.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 requirements to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities separately. Temporary differences relating to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are not recognised at initial recognition and over the lease terms due to application of the initial recognition exemption.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

In assessing any uncertainty over income tax treatments, the Group considers whether it is probable that the relevant tax authority will accept the uncertain tax treatment used, or proposed to be use by individual group entities in their income tax filings. If it is probable, the current and deferred taxes are determined consistently with the tax treatment in the income tax filings. If it is not probable that the relevant taxation authority will accept an uncertain tax treatment, the effect of each uncertainty is reflected by using either the most likely amount or the expected value.

(cc) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of non-financial assets are reviewed at each reporting date for indications of impairment and where an asset is impaired, it is written down as an expense through the consolidated statement of profit or loss to its estimated recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. If this is the case, recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. Recoverable amount is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal of the individual asset or the cash-generating unit.

Value in use is the present value of the estimated future cash flows of the asset/cash-generating unit. Present values are computed using pre-tax discount rates that reflect the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset/cash-generating unit whose impairment is being measured.

Impairment losses for cash-generating units are allocated first against the goodwill of the unit and then pro rata amongst the other assets of the cash-generating unit. Subsequent increases in the recoverable amount caused by changes in estimates are credited to profit or loss to the extent that they reverse the impairment.

(dd) Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises a loss allowance for ECL on investments in debt instruments that are measured at amortised cost or at FVTOCI, trade receivables as well as on financial guarantee contracts. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition of the respective financial instrument.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables. The ECL on these financial assets are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date, including time value of money where appropriate.

For all other financial instruments, the Group recognises lifetime ECL when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. However, if the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month ECL.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. Forward-looking information considered includes the future prospects of the industries in which the Group's debtors operate, obtained from economic expert reports, financial analysts, governmental bodies, relevant think-tanks and other similar organisations, as well as consideration of various external sources of actual and forecast economic information that relate to the Group's core operations.

(dd) Impairment of financial assets (Continued)

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk for a particular financial instrument:
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk if:

- (i) the financial instrument has a low risk of default,
- (ii) the debtor has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term, and
- (iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations.

The Group considers a financial asset to have low credit risk when the asset has external credit rating of "investment grade" in accordance with the globally understood definition or if an external rating is not available, the asset has an internal rating of "performing". Performing means that the counterparty has a strong financial position and there is no past due amounts.

For financial guarantee contracts, the date that the Group becomes a party to the irrevocable commitment is considered to be the date of initial recognition for the purposes of assessing the financial instrument for impairment. In assessing whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition of a financial guarantee contracts, the Group considers the changes in the risk that the specified debtor will default on the contract.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

Definition of default

The Group considers the following as constituting an event of default for internal credit risk management purposes as historical experience indicates that receivables that meet either of the following criteria are generally not recoverable.

- when there is a breach of financial covenants by the counterparty; or
- information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above analysis, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the counterparty;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the counterparty, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the counterparty's financial difficulty, having granted to the counterparty a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- it is becoming probable that the counterparty will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganization; or
- the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, including when the debtor has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of trade receivables, when the amounts are over two years past due, whichever occurs sooner. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in profit or loss.

Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information as described above. As for the exposure at default, for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date; for financial guarantee contracts, the exposure includes the amount drawn down as at the reporting date, together with any additional amounts expected to be drawn down in the future by default date determined based on historical trend, the Group's understanding of the specific future financing needs of the debtors, and other relevant forward-looking information.

For financial assets, the ECL is estimated as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the original effective interest rate.

For a financial guarantee contract, as the Group is required to make payments only in the event of a default by the debtor in accordance with the terms of the instrument that is guaranteed, the expected loss allowance is the expected payments to reimburse the holder for a credit loss that it incurs less any amounts that the Group expects to receive from the holder, the debtor or any other party.

If the Group has measured the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to lifetime ECL in the previous reporting period, but determines at the current reporting date that the conditions for lifetime ECL are no longer met, the Group measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month ECL at the current reporting date, except for assets for which simplified approach was used.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

(ee) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditures expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow is remote.

(ff) Events after the reporting period

Events after the reporting period that provide additional information about the Group's position at the end of the reporting period are adjusting events and are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Events after the reporting period that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements when material.

(gg) Dividend distribution

Dividends are recognised as liabilities when they are declared (i.e. the dividends are appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the equity). Typically, dividends are recognised as liabilities in the period in which their distribution is approved at the shareholders' annual general meeting. Interim dividends are recognised when paid.

5. Critical Judgements and Key Estimates Critical judgements in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the accounting policies, the directors have made the following judgements that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements (apart from those involving estimations, which are dealt with below).

Joint control assessment

The Group holds certain interests on its joint arrangements (note 46). The directors have determined that the Group has joint control over these arrangements as under the contractual agreements, unanimous consent is required from all parties to the agreements for all relevant activities.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are discussed below.

(a) Estimation of crude oil and gas reserves

Crude oil and gas reserves are key elements in the Group's investment decision-making process. They are also an important element in determining the amount of amortisation of the concession and lease rights included in intangible assets and depreciation of oil and gas properties included in property, plant and equipment, and in testing for impairment. Changes in proved and probable oil and gas reserves will affect unit-of-production amortisation, depreciation and depletion recorded in the Group's consolidated financial statements for the concession and lease rights and oil and gas properties related to oil and gas production activities.

Proved and probable reserve estimates are subject to revision, either upward or downward, based on new information, such as from development drilling and production activities or from changes in economic factors, including product prices, contract terms, evolution of technology or development plans. In general, changes in the technical maturity of oil and gas reserves resulting from new information becoming available from development and production activities tend to be the most significant cause of annual revisions.

5. Critical Judgements and Key Estimates (Continued) Key sources of estimation uncertainty (Continued)

(b) Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

The Group determines the estimated useful lives, residual values and related depreciation charges for the Group's property, plant and equipment (other than freehold land, oil and gas properties, construction in progress, exploration and evaluation expenditures and spare parts). This estimate is based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment of similar nature and functions. The Group will revise the depreciation charge where useful lives and residual values are different to those previously estimated, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned.

The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment (other than freehold land, oil and gas properties, construction in progress, exploration and evaluation expenditures and spare parts) as at 31 December 2020 was approximately HK$184,340,000 (2019: HK$195,679,000).

(c) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are reviewed for possible impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Determination as to whether and how much an asset is impaired involves management estimates and judgements such as future prices of crude oil or gas and production profile. The impairment reviews and calculation are based on assumptions that are consistent with the Group's business plans. Favourable changes to some assumptions may allow the Group to avoid the need to impair any assets in these years or reverse previous impairments, whereas unfavourable changes may cause the assets to be impaired.

No impairment loss was provided for the carrying amounts of intangible assets, property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets for the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: HK$Nil).

(d) Decommissioning cost

Provision is recognised for the future decommissioning and restoration of oil and gas properties. The amounts of the provision recognised are the present values of the estimated future expenditures. The ultimate decommissioning costs are uncertain and cost estimates can vary in response to many factors including changes to relevant legal requirements, discount rates, inflation factor, the emergence of new restoration techniques or experience at other production sites. The expected timing and amount of expenditure can also change, for example, in response to changes in reserves or changes in laws and regulations or their interpretation. As a result, there could be significant adjustments to the provisions established which would affect future financial results.

The carrying amount of decommissioning cost provisions as at 31 December 2020 was approximately HK$494,925,000 (2019: HK$506,004,000).

(e) Impairment of trade receivables

The management of the Group estimates the amount of impairment loss for ECL on trade receivables based on the credit risk of trade receivables. The amount of the impairment loss based on ECL model is measured as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition. Where the future cash flows are less than expected, or being revised downward due to changes in facts and circumstances, a material impairment loss may arise.

As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of trade receivables is approximately HK$2,551,430,000 (net of allowances for trade receivables and price adjustments of approximately HK$69,132,000 and HK$292,802,000 respectively (2019: HK$2,210,665,000 (net of allowances for trade receivables and price adjustments of approximately HK$66,514,000 and HK$204,465,000 respectively)).

(f) Income tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in several jurisdictions. Significant estimates are required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

During the year, approximately HK$162,588,000 (2019: HK$352,124,000) of income tax was charged to profit or loss based on the estimated profit from continuing operations.

(g) Allowance for slow-moving inventories

Allowance for slow-moving inventories is made based on the aging and estimated net realisable value of inventories. The assessment of the allowance amount involves judgement and estimates. Where the actual outcome in future is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of inventories and allowance charge/write-back in the period in which such estimate has been changed.

No allowance for slow-moving inventories was made for the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: HK$Nil).

(h) Estimation of future capital expenditure

Future capital expenditure represents the future development costs which will be incurred by the Group to access the undeveloped reserves. Such costs are considered for the amortisation of intangible assets and depreciation of oil and gas properties which are being amortised and depreciated using the unit-of-production method over the proved and probable reserves of petroleum. The ultimate future development costs are uncertain and cost estimates can vary in response to many factors including discount rates, inflation factor, changes in economic factors, including contract terms, evolution of technology or development plans. The expected timing and amount of expenditure can also change and as a result, there could be a significant change in the amortisation and depreciation which would affect future financial results.

(i) Actuarial assumptions on defined benefit retirement plans

Accounting for defined benefit plans may be complex because actuarial assumptions are required to measure the obligation and the expense, with the possibility that actual results differ from the assumed results. These differences are known as actuarial gains and losses. Defined benefits obligations are measured using the Projected Unit Credit Method ("PUCM"), according to which the Group has to make a reliable estimate of the amount of benefits earned in return for services rendered in current and prior periods, using actuarial techniques. In addition, in cases where defined benefit plans are funded, the Group has to estimate the fair value of plan assets. As a result, the use of the PUCM involves a number of actuarial assumptions. These assumptions include demographic assumptions such as mortality, turnover and retirement age and financial assumptions such as discount rates, salary and benefit levels. Such assumptions are subject to judgements and may develop materially differently than expected and therefore may result in significant impacts on defined benefits obligations.

The carrying amount of employee retirement benefit assets and employee retirement benefit obligations as at 31 December 2020 was approximately HK$13,521,000 and HK$35,838,000 respectively (2019: employee retirement benefit assets and employee retirement benefit obligations of approximately HK$8,412,000 and HK$34,112,000 respectively).

6. Financial Risk Management

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: interest rate risk, liquidity risk, credit risk, price risk and foreign currency risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Interest rate risk

The Group's cash flow interest rate risk primarily relates to variable-rate bank loans and bank and cash balances. Borrowings obtained at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest-rate risk. During the year ended 31 December 2019, the Group managed certain of its cash flow interest-rate risk by entering into certain floating-to-fixed interest rate swap. Such interest rate swaps had the economic effect of converting certain borrowings from floating rates to fixed rates.

At 31 December 2020, if interest rates at that date had been 50 basis points lower/higher with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$19,086,000 higher/lower and retained earnings as at 31 December 2020 would have been approximately HK$19,086,000 higher/lower, arising mainly as a result of lower/higher interest expenses on the borrowings and advance from customers bearing interest at variable rates.

At 31 December 2019, if interest rates at that date had been 50 basis points lower/higher with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$12,644,000 higher/lower and retained earnings as at 31 December 2019 would have been approximately HK$12,644,000 higher/lower, arising mainly as a result of lower/higher interest expenses on the borrowings and advance from customers bearing interest at variable rates.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The maturity analysis based on contractual undiscounted cash flows of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities is as follows:

	Carrying amount HK$'000	Total contractual undiscounted cash outflow HK$'000	Less than 1 year or on demand HK$'000	Between 1 and 2 years HK$'000	Between 2 and 5 years HK$'000	Over 5 years HK$'000

6. Financial Risk Management (Continued)

The amounts included in above for financial guarantee contracts are the maximum amounts the Group could be required to settle under the arrangement for the full guaranteed amount if that amount is claimed by the counterparty to the guarantors. Based on the expectations at the end of the reporting period, the Group considers that it is more likely than not that no amount will be payable under the arrangement. However, this estimate is subject to change depending on the probability of the counterparty claiming under the guarantee.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Group is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including deposits with banks and financial institutions, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments. The Group's exposure to credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents is limited because the counterparties are banks and financial institutions with high credit-rating assigned by international credit-rating agencies, for which the Group considers to have low credit risk.

Except for the financial guarantee given by the Group as set out in note 33, the Group does not provide any other guarantees which would expose the Group to credit risk. The maximum exposure to credit risk in respect of these financial guarantees at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in note 33.

Trade receivables

As at 31 December 2020, approximately 47% (2019: 58%) of the Group's trade receivables were due from the largest customer within exploration and production activities in Pakistan. The Group has policies and procedures to monitor the collection of the trade receivables to limit the exposure to non-recoverable of the receivables and there is no history of default for this Group's largest customer.

Customer credit risk is managed by each business unit subject to the Group's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within 30 to 45 days from the date of billing. As at 31 December 2020, trade receivables of approximately HK$266,834,000 (2019: HK$304,387,000) was pledged as collaterals for obtaining banking facilities letter.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout the reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which is calculated based on Probability of Default ("PD"), Exposure at Default ("EAD") and Loss Given Default ("LGD").

The product of the PD, EAD and LGD are defined as follows:

- PD represents the likelihood of a borrower defaulting on its financial obligation.
- EAD is based on the amounts the Group expects to be owed at the time of default.
- LGD represents the Group's expectation of the extent of loss on a defaulted exposure. It varies by type of counterparty and availability of collateral.

The ECL is determined by projecting the PD, LGD and EAD for each individual exposure. These three components are multiplied together and adjusted based on the forward-looking information.

The Group's current credit risk grading framework comprises the following categories:

Category	Description	Basis for recognising ECL
Performing	For financial assets where there has low risk of default or has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and that are not credit impaired (refer to as Stage 1)	12-month ECL
Doubtful	For financial assets where there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but that are not credit impaired (refer to as Stage 2)	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired
Default	Financial assets are assessed as credit impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flow of that assets have occurred (refer to as Stage 3)	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery	Amount is written off

The tables below detail the credit quality of the Group's trade receivables and the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk by credit risk rating grades.

31 December 2020	Internal credit rating	12-month or lifetime ECL	Gross carrying amount HK$'000	Loss allowance HK$'000	Net carrying amount HK$'000
Trade receivables	Performing	12-month ECL	2,621,614	-	2,621,614
Trade receivables	Doubtful	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired	291,750	(69,132)	222,618
31 December 2019	Internal credit rating	12-month or lifetime ECL	Gross carrying amount HK$'000	Loss allowance HK$'000	Net carrying amount HK$'000
Trade receivables	Performing	12-month ECL	2,271,961	-	2,271,961
Trade receivables	Doubtful	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired	209,683	(66,514)	143,169

Movement in the loss allowance for trade receivables during the year is as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
At 1 January Impairment losses recognised for the year	66,514 2,618	- 66,514
At 31 December	69,132	66,514

The increase in trade receivables past due over 2 years resulted in an increase in loss allowance of approximately HK$2,618,000 (2019: HK$66,514,000) for the year ended 31 December 2020.

Financial assets at amortised cost

All of the Group's financial assets measured at amortised cost are considered to have low credit risk, and the loss allowance recognised during the year was therefore limited to 12-month expected losses. Management considers 'low credit risk' for financial assets measured at amortised cost when they have a low of default and the issuer has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term.

Financial assets at amortised cost include due from joint operators, sales tax receivables, deferred sales consideration, loans to employees and other receivables.

As of 31 December 2020, an allowance was made for estimated irrecoverable other receivables of approximately HK$1,838,000 (2019: HK$1,296,000).

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
At 1 January Additions	1,296 542	- 1,296
At 31 December	1,838	1,296

(d) Price risk

The Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss is measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Therefore, the Group is exposed to equity price risk. The directors manage this exposure by maintaining a portfolio of investments with different risk and return profiles.

The directors of the Company consider that the price risk exposure for the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019 are insignificant to the Group and therefore no sensitivity analysis is presented thereon.

(e) Foreign currency risk

The Group has certain exposure to foreign currency risk as most of its business transactions, assets and liabilities are principally denominated in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), United States dollars ("US$"), Renminbi ("RMB"), Pakistani Rupees ("PKR"), Egyptian Pounds ("EGP") and Iraqi Dinar, while the functional currencies of the principal operating Group entities are HK$ and US$. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. The Group monitors its foreign currency exposure closely and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

At 31 December 2020, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 6 per cent against the RMB with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$2,153,000 higher/lower and retained earnings as at 31 December 2020 would have been approximately HK$2,153,000 higher/lower, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange gain/loss on bank and cash balances, trade and other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in RMB.

At 31 December 2019, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 2 per cent against the RMB with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$335,000 lower/higher and retained earnings as at 31 December 2019 would have been approximately HK$335,000 lower/higher, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange loss/gain on bank and cash balances, trade and other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in RMB.

At 31 December 2020, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 5 per cent against the PKR with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$3,453,000 lower/higher and retained earnings as at 31 December 2020 would have been approximately HK$3,453,000 lower/higher, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange loss/gain on bank and cash balances, trade and other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in PKR.

At 31 December 2019, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 5 per cent against the PKR with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$4,329,000 lower/higher and retained earnings as at 31 December 2019 would have been approximately HK$4,329,000 lower/higher, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange loss/gain on bank and cash balances, trade and other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in PKR.

At 31 December 2020, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 10 per cent against the EGP with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$4,954,000 higher/lower and retained earnings as at 31 December 2020 would have been approximately HK$4,954,000 higher/lower, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange gain/loss on bank and cash balances, other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in EGP.

At 31 December 2019, if the HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 10 per cent against the EGP with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been approximately HK$4,834,000 lower/higher and retained earnings as at 31 December 2019 would have been approximately HK$4,834,000 lower/higher, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange loss/gain on bank and cash balances, other receivables, and trade and other payables denominated in EGP.

The directors of the Company consider that the foreign currency exposure in respect of US$ and Iraqi Dinar for the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019 are insignificant to the Group and therefore no sensitivity analysis is presented thereon.

(g) Fair value

The carrying amounts of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities as reflected in the consolidated statement of financial position approximate their respective fair values.

7. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The following disclosures of fair value measurements use a fair value hierarchy that categorises into three levels the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value:

Level 1 inputs: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date.

Level 2 inputs: inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 inputs: unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of any of the three levels as of the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer.

11. Segment Information

Operating segment information

Operating segments are identified on the basis of internal reports about components of the Group that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker in order to allocate resources to the segment and to assess its performance.

As the Group is principally engaged in the activities relating to the exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas in Pakistan, Middle East and North Africa, which are subject to similar business risk, and resources are allocated based on what is beneficial to the Group in enhancing the value of the Group as a whole, the Group's chief operating decision maker considers the performance assessment of the Group should be based on the profit before tax of the Group as a whole. Therefore, management considers there to be only one operating segment under the requirements of Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard 8 "Operating Segments".

Geographical information:

The Group's turnover from external customers by location of operations and information about its non-current assets (excluding financial assets at amortised costs and deferred tax assets) by location of assets are detailed below:

A trustee, as an independent third party, is appointed by the Company for the administration of the Employees Performance Share Schemes. The trustee shall purchase the shares ("Scheme Shares") to be awarded to the eligible employees by way of either share allotment or acquisition from the market out of cash contributed by the Company. The trustee shall hold the Scheme Shares and the related income derived from the relevant Scheme Shares (the "Related Income") in trust until they are vested to the eligible employees in accordance to the rules as set forth under the Employees Performance Share Schemes and the trust deeds.

The Scheme Shares would be vested over a period of three years commencing from the first calendar day of the year in which the grant is made. The unvested Scheme Shares and the Related Income granted to the eligible employees shall automatically lapse upon the resignation of the employees.

The aggregate number of the Company's shares which may be granted to the employees of the Group (including the eligible employees) under the Employees Performance Share Schemes together with other share schemes is not permitted to exceed 10% of the total issued share capital of the Company from time to time. The maximum number of Company's shares which may be vested in an employee of the Group (including the eligible employees) under the Employees Performance Share Schemes together with other share schemes shall not exceed 1% of the total issued share capital of the Company from time to time.

The grant of the Scheme Shares and the number of Scheme Shares awarded or to be awarded to each eligible employee under the performance share scheme and executive performance share scheme shall be determined annually at the sole and absolute discretion of a wholly-owned subsidiary, United Energy Pakistan Limited ("UEPL"), considering inter alia but not exclusively the individual performance rating achieved by the eligible employees. The eligible employees will be assessed in each year starting from 1 January to 31 December (the "Assessment Year") and if any Scheme Shares are to be granted under the performance share scheme and executive performance share scheme, the Scheme Shares will be granted in the following year.

The grant of the Scheme Shares under the deferred annual bonus scheme and the number of Scheme Shares awarded or to be awarded to each eligible employee shall be determined annually based on the results of the variable pay plan (the "VPP") and the rewards of the performance unit in the corresponding Assessment Year. The VPP refers to an annual cash bonus scheme and rewards subject to the annual business of the UEPL and the individual performance of the eligible employees. Each eligible employee who is entitled to any cash bonus under the VPP in the Assessment Year shall automatically be entitled to a grant of the Scheme Shares under the deferred annual bonus scheme. The eligible employees will be assessed in each Assessment Year and if any Scheme Shares are to be granted under the deferred annual bonus scheme, the Scheme Shares will be granted in the following year.

Fair value of the Scheme Shares at the grant date is determined with reference to the closing market price of the Company's ordinary share at the date of grant. (c) Shares match scheme

Pursuant to the announcement of the Company dated 16 September 2011, the Company adopted the share match scheme with the objective to provide the employees in Pakistan with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation and development of the Group in Pakistan and to attract suitable personnel for the growth and further development of the Group.

UEPL will issue an invitation letter to each of the eligible employees inviting them to enroll and participate in the share match scheme. Each eligible employee may indicate in the prescribed form to determine the sum of money contributing to the scheme (the "Employee Contribution Amount") applicable to the coming scheme year starting from 1 September to 31 August (the "Scheme Year of Share Match Scheme"). The Company would also contribute its resources equivalent to the sum of the Employee Contribution Amount to the scheme (the "Employer Contribution Amount").

For the purpose of the scheme, UEPL will refer to the closing price of the Company's share as at the first calendar day of the Scheme Year of Share Match Scheme (the "Reference Date") as reference price for ascertaining the number of the shares to which all the eligible employees are entitled (the "Ascertained Scheme Shares") given the payment of the total sum of the Employee Contribution Amount and the Employer Contribution Amount (the "Ascertained Scheme Shares in Aggregate").

The Company shall pay the aggregate sum of the Employee Contribution Amount and the Employer Contribution Amount of each of the eligible employee and the related acquisition expenses to the trustee for the acquisition of the Ascertained Scheme Shares in Aggregate. A trustee, as an independent third party, is appointed by the Company for the administration of the share match scheme. The trustee shall purchase the Ascertained Scheme Shares to be awarded to the eligible employees by way of share allotment or otherwise subject to and in accordance with the listing rule of the Stock Exchange. The trustee shall hold the Ascertained Scheme Shares in trust until they are vested to the eligible employees in accordance to the rules of the share match scheme and the trust deed.

The Ascertained Scheme Shares from the Employer Contribution Amount would be vested over a period of three years in accordance with the timetable and conditions as imposed by the Board at its absolute direction, provided that the eligible employee remains under the employment of UEPL at all times after the Reference Date and on the relevant vesting date.

The aggregate number of the Company's shares which may be granted to the employees of the Group (including the eligible employees) under the share match scheme together with other share schemes is not permitted to exceed 10% of the total issued share capital of the Company from time to time. The maximum number of Company's shares which may be vested in an employee of the Group (including the eligible employees) under the share match scheme together with other share schemes shall not exceed 1% of the total issued share capital of the Company from time to time.

The Group recognised the total expenses of approximately HK$1,475,000 (2019: HK$2,437,000) for the year ended 31 December 2020 in relation to the share match scheme.

The necessary oil and gas reserve valuations and other calculations for the net assets acquired and liabilities assumed had not been finalized at that time and therefore have been provisionally determined based on the latest information available to the management. The fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of KEC acquired as at the date of acquisition has been adjusted within the 12-month measurement period as permitted by HKFRS 3 Business Combinations as follows:

The fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities acquired at the acquisition date had been assessed by Greater China Appraisals Limited.

The aggregate fair values of trade and other receivables at the date of acquisition amounted to approximately HK$1,301,814,000. The gross contractual amounts of those trade and other receivables acquired amounted to approximately HK$1,301,814,000 at the date of acquisition, of which no balance is expected to be uncollectible.

The Group recognised a gain on bargain purchase of approximately HK$206,926,000 in the business combination. The gain is included in other gains and losses. The business combination results in a gain on bargain purchase because the Group had completed the field development plan in Block 9 with the Government of Iraq before the KEC Acquisition. The completion of the field development plan increased in the estimated oil reserve in Block 9 at the acquisition date.

The revenue and net profit that the KEC Acquisitions contributed to the Group during the period between the date of acquisition and 31 December 2019 are approximately HK$1,854,403,000 and HK$579,193,000 respectively. If the acquisition had occurred on 1 January 2019, management estimates that the Group's consolidated revenue and consolidated profit for the year ended 31 December 2019 would have been approximately HK$7,511,653,000 and HK$1,817,114,000 respectively. In determining these amounts, management has assumed that the fair value adjustments that arose on the date of acquisition would have been the same if the acquisition have occurred on 1 January 2019.

The proforma information is for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily an indication of the turnover and results of operations of the Group that actually would have been achieved had the acquisition been completed on 1 January 2019, nor is intended to be a projection of future results.

Acquisition related costs of approximately HK$1,090,000 have been charged to administrative expenses in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2019.

Monthly contributions are made to the fund both by the Group and the employees at the rate of 10% of basic salary. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the contributory provident fund is to make the required contributions under the scheme.

> The Group's contribution under the scheme for the year ended 31 December 2020 amounted to approximately HK$5,359,000 (2019:HK$6,259,000).

44. Retirement Benefits Scheme (Continued)

(b) Defined Benefit Plans

The Group operates several defined benefit retirement plans for its eligible employees who complete the qualifying period of service in Pakistan, Iraq, Egypt and Middle East. Such plans are administered by independent trustees with the assets, if any, held separately from those of the Group.

Pakistan

The Group operates a funded defined benefit retirement plan in Pakistan. Plan assets held in trust are governed by regulations and practice in Pakistan. Responsibility for governance of the plan – including investment decisions and contribution schedules – lies jointly with the Group and the board of trustees. The board of trustees must be composed of representatives of the Group in accordance with the trust deed's regulations.

Iraq

The Group has an unfunded post-employment defined benefit obligation towards its qualifying employees in Iraq which is an end-of-service benefit governed by local Labour Law. The entitlement to these benefits is conditional upon the tenure of employee service, completion of a minimum service year, salary drawn etc.

Egypt

The Group offers all its full-time employees in Egypt with an end-of-service benefit program. The end-of-service benefit program is an unfunded non-contributory indemnity program that provides for a lump-sum payment upon the termination or retirement of employment. The amount of such lump-sum end-of-service benefit payment is based on the length of service and staff salary as at the last working date.

Other subsidiaries in Middle East

The Group operates an unfunded end-of-service benefit to their employees of certain subsidiaries located in Middle East in accordance with the production sharing agreement ("PSA") and the relevant labour law in their respective jurisdictions. The benefits shall be paid upon termination/retirement of employment or termination of the PSA. The liabilities of the end-of-service benefit payment is determined equal to the length of year of service times gross staff salary as at the last working date.

The annual provisions for the above plans are made on the basis of an actuarial valuation carried out using the Projected United Credit Method. The level of benefits provided depends on members' length of services and their salary in the final year leading up to retirement. The actuarial valuation of the plans were prepared by the qualified actuaries, 4Sight Advisory Solutions FZ-LLC and Akhtar & Hasan (Pvt) Ltd.

The fair value of the plan assets at the end of the reporting period divided into classes is as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Cash and cash equivalents	226	2,551
Term deposits	10,460	19,998
Debt investments	32,296	19,793
Other liabilities – payable to outgoing members	(2,135)	_
	40,847	42,342

The fair values of the debt investments are determined by discounting the future cash flows at the market interest rate (level 2 fair value measurements).

The principal actuarial assumptions adopted by the Group as at 31 December 2020 (expressed as weighted average) are as follows:

	2020	2019
Discount rate	2.50% - 14.00%	3.00% – 17.00%
Salary growth rate	6.00% – 9.75%	5.00% - 10.00%

Assumptions regarding mortality rates for defined benefit plans in Pakistan are set based on actuarial advice in accordance with published statistics and experience. These assumptions translate into average mortality rates for employees with different ages assuming they will retire at age 60.

	2020	2019
Age:	Death rate	Death rate

Defined Benefit Plans (Continued) (b)

Through its defined benefit pension plans, the Group is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Risk	Description
Mortality risks	The risk that the actual mortality experience is different. The effect depends on the beneficiaries' service or age distribution and the benefit.
Investment risks	The risk of the investment underperforming and not being sufficient to meet the liabilities.
Final salary risks	The risk that the final salary at the time of cessation of service is higher than what is assumed. Since the benefit is calculated on the final salary, the benefit amount increases similarly.
Withdrawal risks	The risk of higher or lower withdrawal experience than assumed. The final effect could go either way depending on the beneficiaries' service or age distribution and the benefit.

The Group's sensitivity analysis for each significant actuarial assumption as of the end of the reporting period based on reasonably possible changes of the relevant actuarial assumption is as follows:

	Increase/ decrease in rate	Impact on de benefits obliga
		2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Discount rate	1%	(4,233)/4,481	(3,213)/3,606
Salary growth rate	1%	4,532/(2,934)	4,551/(4,272)

The above sensitivity analysis is based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligations to significant actuarial assumptions, the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligations calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the pension liability recognised within the statement of financial position.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the previous period.

The Group finances the funding requirements of the pension plan by internal resources and does not have any funding arrangements and funding policy that will affect future contributions.

There is an implicit objective that the contribution to the fund asset should remain reasonably stable as a percentage of salaries.

The expected contributions to the pension plan for the year ending 31 December 2021 is approximately HK$15,125,000 (for the year ending 31 December 2020: HK$16,622,000).

The weighted average duration of the Group's defined benefits obligations is approximately 7.01 years (2019: 6.83 years). The maturity analysis of the Group's undiscounted benefit payments is as follows:

	Less than 1 year HK$'000	Between 1 and 2 years HK$'000	Between 2 and 5 years HK$'000	Over 5 years HK$'000	Total HK$'000
At 31 December 2020 Pension payments	10,446	10,919	33,834	74,216	129,415
