Outlook for 2022

In 2022, the Company will continue to build the three core capabilities of the asset management business, namely asset deployment capabilities, product coverage and evaluation and risk control of products. It will deepen its asset deployment and pan-FOF platform construction, centering on the general direction of its 50 systems. It will build a multi-strategy product pool integrating public and private placements and provide long-term and stable product deployment services to promote the dual-wheel driver of flexible asset deployment + “general direction” product deployment.

The Company will gather and integrate the advantages of internal and external channels and customer resources. The Company will propel the steady growth of the entrusted asset management scale through those methods such as optimizing product structure, improving investment performance and strengthening sales service system, and will continue to create value and gain for customers. At the same time, the Company will accelerate the digitalized construction of asset management business, strengthen the construction of system platforms such as compliance and internal control, institutional services, investment and research integration to ensure stable business operation.

2. Private Equity Investment Business

The Company is engaged in private equity investment business through the equity investment fund under its wholly-owned subsidiary, Guolian Capital.

Market Environment

Under the situation of global epidemic normalization, the market of private equity fund has gradually recovered. According to statistics from CVSource, in 2021, a total of 9,350 funds in the private equity market had completed a new round of fundraising, representing a year-on-year increase of 70.53%. The investment size increased to US$233 billion, and the number of investment projects increased by 17% year-on-year. In terms of industry, the investment in energy, finance, construction materials, telecommunications, VR/AR, automobiles and other sectors increased sharply. Industries such as chips and medicine were still the major fund-financing sectors, and the popular concepts such as “metaverse” were also reacting quickly in the capital market. In terms of policies, new progress was seen frequently in the construction of country’s multi-level capital market system. Pilot policies for QDLP and QFLP were implemented in various regions. With the establishment of the Beijing Stock Exchange and the approval of the transfer of private equity and venture capital shares in the Shanghai’s regional equity market, the private equity investment market may continue to benefit.

Actions and Achievements

In 2021, on one hand, Guolian Capital actively promoted the withdrawal of existing fund projects, while accomplishing the management and service works of existing funds. On the other hand, Guolian Capital made every effort to develop incremental equity investment business by strengthening internal compliance management and strengthening business synergy. As of the end of the Reporting Period, Guolian Capital completed the registration 12 fund products in total and the filing of a total of 10 funds. Among which, 3 fund products with a size of RMB327 million were newly added in 2021.

Outlook for 2022

In 2022, Guolian Capital will continue to promote business development and team building. It will give full play to the aggregate functionality of financial resources, enlarge and strengthen fund management size. It will accomplish the investment management service works for established funds, conduct regular follow-up visits and continue to pay attention to the performance of invested companies and potential investment risks. It will maintain good communication with regulatory agencies, promote QDLP and QFLP qualifications applications and fund establishment according to policy guidance as well as window guidance. According to the latest policies requirements of SAC and business development requirements, it will improve the various systems, covering the entire process of fundraising, investment, management and withdrawal, and strengthen system support.

It will make greater efforts to develop securities sources for state-owned legal persons and other corporate institutions and strategic placements. Through strengthening public offering fund agency sales and early deploying insurance companies, the Company will continue to lay a foundation for securities sources for special financial institutions, strengthen cooperation with business competitors, and expand its proprietary securities lending pool according to demand. It will refine the risk classification model of guaranteed securities to adjust the scope and conversion rate of collateral in a timely manner, and strictly control business risks. It will also actively establish a strategy research team to strengthen business strategy research, and continue to provide business training and experience exchange for branches, so as to improve its business professionalism and customer service capabilities.

2. Stock Pledged Repurchase

Market Environment

Currently, the stock pledged repurchase business of Shanghai Stock Exchange and Shenzhen Stock Exchange are running smoothly. Regulatory authorities continue to promote the prevention of stock pledged risks. Stock risk are basically under control, and the overall business scale of the market maintains a gradual declining trend. However, the pressure of risk prevention and resolution still existed. Currently, the polarisation is more obvious, and the new businesses mainly concentrate on high-quality companies with better profitability. However, the formation of stock pledged business risks is affected by a variety of factors and the prevention and resolution of stock pledged risks will take a long period of time and is complicated. A cautious attitude still needs to be maintained and credit risk management still needs to be further strengthened for self-funded stock pledged business.

Actions and Achievements

During the Reporting Period, the Company further clarified the development strategies of the stock pledged repurchase business according to market conditions, and prudently and steadily conducted its business under the premise of stringent control and solving business risks. The risk project scale of stock pledged business of the Company was orderly reduced, and the risks were significantly resolved. The equity incentive financing-oriented option exercise business for listed companies were carried out smoothly, with continuous expansion in business scale, and this variety of financing instrument had become the main source of funds for the equity incentives of listed companies.

Section 4 Report of the Board

As of the end of the Reporting Period, the principal balance of stock pledged repurchase business of the Company was RMB3.815 billion, representing an increase of 23.74% as compared with RMB3.083 billion as at the end of 2020. Moreover, as of the end of the Reporting Period, the financing amount of financing-oriented option exercise business of the Company was RMB480 million, representing an increase of 207.69% as compared with RMB156 million as at the end of 2020.

Outlook for 2022

In 2022, the Company will continue to strengthen the credit risk assessment system and model construction of stock pledge projects, enhance the risk management and control of the existing business, and conduct risk prediction for the incremental part in advance. Also, on the basis of the traditional model of its original self-funded stock pledge business, the Company will strengthen the market expansion of financing-oriented option exercise business, customize comprehensive investment and financing programs, and expand multi-dimensional service business by comprehensively focusing on customer actual needs such as the substantial shareholders and senior management of listed companies.

(V) Proprietary Trading Business

Market Environment

The global economy began to recover in 2021, however, the uncertainty of the epidemic and the impact of global supply chain still significantly undermined the global economy. From the perspective of the domestic situation, as affected by various factors such as real estate regulation and resurgence of epidemic, the downward pressure on China's economy had increased since the second half of 2021. Meanwhile, the A-share market has shown a momentum of transformation and intensified differentiation, and the volatility of indices, industries and individual stocks had increased significantly. The CSI 500 index rose by 15.6% as compared with that of the end of the previous year, while the CSI 300 index fell by 5.2% as compared with that of the end of the previous year.

Section 4 Report of the Board

With increasing downward pressure on macroeconomy and the marginal relaxation of monetary policy since July, the central bank had reduced the deposit reserve ratio twice by 1 percentage point in total, and the one-year LPR rate was reduced by 5BP in December. Against the above economic and policy context, the bond yields went up and then dropped in 2021. The valuation yield of 10-year China Treasury Bonds once climbed up to approximately 3.30% in the first quarter, and the fluctuation center dropped to approximately 3.10% in the second quarter, then gradually fell thereafter, and closed at a yearly low level of 2.78% at the end of the year.

Actions and Achievements

For equity proprietary trading business, the Company has all along been adhering to its principle of value investment and taking absolute return as the direction, adopted fundamental research as starting point, focused on under-valued industries and companies that had good growth potential, and developed the business steadily while taking risks and returns into consideration. In 2021, the equity proprietary trading business strengthened the research and judgment on the market direction and dynamics, actively deployed cyclical industry sectors, and conducted in-depth research and exploration of investment opportunities in high-growth emerging industries. The investment yield for the year significantly outperformed the CSI 300 index and the median level of the partial share mixed fund over the same period, achieving better investment returns.

For fixed income business, with customer needs as the fundamental, the Company has actively participated in business innovation, achieved stable investment returns under the premise of strictly controlling risk, and further increased its market influence. In 2021, as an investor, the Company actively participated in innovative businesses such as the issuance of short-term financing quotations by securities brokers, the underwriting and distribution of iDeal system bonds, and was honoured the Market Innovation Award among the outstanding member institutions in the inter-bank local currency market in 2021 selected by the National Interbank Funding Center. The Company had conducted in-depth research on and successfully released the “China Bond-Guolian Securities Yangtze Delta Select Short-term Bond Balance Index”, better serving the development strategy of integration of Yangtze River Delta region while meeting customer needs.

For equity derivatives business, the OTC derivatives business of the Company continued its development and innovation, business transaction models had been continuously enriched, transaction services and product design capabilities had been continuously enhanced, and transaction volume grew rapidly, which basically achieved full coverage of mainstream business products and transaction structures in the market. According to the operating income information of securities companies that based on counter-party transactions between counters and institutional clients released by SAC in 2021, the Company entered top 20 in the industry for the first time. In 2021, the cumulative notional principal of OTC option and income swaps signed in the year increased by 241% year-on-year.

Section 4 Report of the Board

Outlook for 2022

For equity proprietary trading business, the Company will continue to put greater efforts in research, expand the dimensions of fundamental research, improve investment system construction, strengthen market research and judgment, and develop stock investment business steadily. The domestic A-share market still has better structural opportunities against the context of stable macroeconomic growth. However, the industry valuations are significantly differentiated and market expectations are more aligned, which will lead to higher requirements for selecting and grasping opportunities. In 2022, the equity proprietary trading business of the Company will continue to aim at securing reasonable absolute returns, select individual stocks from the perspective of valuation and growth matching, and flexibly adopt position adjustment, futures and other methods to hedge periodic systemic risks, and continue to explore and develop various strategy investment systems such as private placement investment and convertible bond investment, so as to cope with various market conditions.

For fixed income business, the Company will continue to strengthen its investment and research capabilities, strengthen the rotation allocation of various major assets, strengthen the development of hedging and arbitrage strategies with small exposure and low volatility, strengthen the development of quantitative strategies and fixed income + strategies, and strengthen credit risk screening, and achieve a steady increase in profitability in a low-yield environment through strategy diversification and management refinement. The Company will continue to adhere to the business philosophy of “seller” fixed income with serving customers as the fundamental, and continue to expand and strengthen the capital intermediary business, with a view to provide customers with featured products and comprehensive demand solutions.

For equity derivatives business, the Company will continue to improve product supply and transaction services, gradually expand the scale of transaction services, and further enhance the comprehensive transaction service capabilities and product design capabilities of the Company.

II. Discussion and Analysis of the Board on the Future Development of the Company

(I) Industry layout and trend

The global economy continued its recovery in 2021 but was still affected seriously by the uncertainty of the epidemic and the impact of global supply chain. Moving into 2022, the global recovery momentum has weakened, and is characterized by structural differentiation. According to the latest World Economic Outlook Report released by IMF, the global economic growth is forecast to grow by 4.4% in 2022, 0.5 percentage point lower than the previous forecast, and output of advanced economies is expected to resume to their pre-pandemic trend this year, but part of emerging markets and developing economies may take longer to recover. The differentiation in recovery had led to policy differentiation, and as inflation rises, the expectation of the FED to increase interest rates in 2022 was further clarified. The rate hikes imposed by the FED may have a great impact on global risk preference, monetary policies of various countries and global asset pricing.

Since the second half of 2021, affected by multiple factors such as real estate regulation and unpredictable epidemics, China's economy has experienced significant downward pressure. The Central Economic Working Conference pointed out clearly that "China's economic development is facing triple pressures of shrinking demand, supply shocks, and weakening expectations" in the short run, and the economic works in 2022 must be carried out "in a stable pace".

High-quality development is the main theme of the economic development of China in future. The Fifth Plenary Session of the 19th Central Committee of the Party proposed to "persistently focus on the development of the economy on the real economy, unswervingly build China into a strong manufacturing powerhouse, a quality powerhouse, a cyber powerhouse and a digital China, promote the level of its industrial foundation and the modernization of the industrial chain and enhance the economic quality and efficiency and core competitiveness". Under this background, high-end manufacturing industries, led by semiconductor chips, bio-pharmaceuticals, artificial intelligence and other industries, will become the main driving forces for future economic development.

Section 4 Report of the Board

With the new economic concepts of China's economy replacing the old and the transformation of its development model, equity assets are expected to usher in a golden age. Residents' wealth deployment will be more targeted to the capital market, and the development trend of Pan-wealth management has been established. Against this background, the securities industry has also seen a new development trend. The main licensed businesses of securities companies have basically formed a consensus on transformation: from channel-type investment banks to industrial-type investment banks, using industrial thinking to promote corporate capital operations; from brokerage business to wealth management, to meet the growing needs of customers for investment and wealth inheritance; from channel asset management to active management, giving play to the function of value discovery; and from self-operating mode to transaction intermediary, to become a supplier of market liquidity and solutions.

From the perspective of the competitive layout of the securities industry, affected by the homogeneity of business models, the securities industry in China is currently relatively fragmented as compare to the more developed markets. In 2020, the total realized profits of the top 3 companies accounted for 25% of the entire industry, but industry concentration is increasing year by year. As the leading securities companies have strong capital strength, solid customer base, and professional manpower team, their relative competitive advantages are becoming more and more obvious. The entire industry layout has shown an oligarchic situation in which leading companies are becoming stronger and stronger, and competitive pressure for small and medium-sized securities companies may be further increased.

However, as a regional securities broker, the reform of the registration system is expected to bring more business opportunities. Under the registration system, the IPO review speed is accelerated, the expansion of capital market scale is boosted, and the investment banking business shows an overall growth trend. At the same time, it also brings more direct investment and follow-up investment business opportunities for securities companies. The registration system reform has brought more opportunities for small- and medium-sized emerging securities brokers. Since the implementation of the registration system, a large proportion of incremental projects have come from small- and medium-sized technology companies, and such projects are usually undertaken by small- and medium-sized securities brokers with regional characteristics. At the same time, the integration of the Yangtze River Delta has been escalated to a top national strategy, local securities brokers are expected to gain more business opportunities in participating in and serving the integration construction of the Yangtze River Delta.

(II) Corporate development strategy

Our future corporate strategic positioning is to focus on further serving the real economy and strive to become a leading customer-oriented investment bank that provides comprehensive financial solutions and the most important investment and financing arranger, transaction organizer, wealth manager and liquidity provider in local regional market and even the national market (in certain sectors), thus contributing to the economic and social development of Wuxi and Southern Jiangsu district.

(III) Business plans

In 2022, under the guidance of Xi Jinping's Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, the Company will continue to further integrate the core innovation-driven strategy and the leading strategy of city development through industry in Wuxi, and integrate the national strategy of "Integration of Yangtze River Delta Region". Through following the key trend of "Peak Carbon Dioxide Emissions and Carbon Neutrality" and the new economic concepts of economic growth replacing the old, the Company will seize the opportunities of industrial reform and industry transformation, with a view to lift competitiveness and market position to new levels. The Company will speed up in providing remedies to its business weaknesses, improve its professional capabilities, and create its own characteristics in certain niche areas. Through continuous improvement of the middle-back end management and learning from the best practices both domestically and abroad, it will build a professional and efficient business support platform. The Company further deepen the market-oriented reform, establish and improve the systems, mechanisms and company culture that are conducive to the long-term development of the Company.

Section 4 Report of the Board

(IV) Capital needs

With the continuous and stable development of the Company's various business scales, the overall financing needs have increased. During the Reporting Period, a total of RMB5.09 billion funds was raised through the non-public issuance of A Shares. Through debt financing (excluding inter-bank borrowing transactions and issuance of floating yield income certificates), the Company cumulatively obtained the principal amounts of RMB14.555 billion, and recorded a cumulative principal repayment of maturing debt financing of RMB10.075 billion, with a net increase of RMB4.48 billion in the balance of debt financing as compared with that of the end of the previous year. In future, the Company will continue to improve its overall capital deployment efficiency and keep on exploring new financing products and models and expand financing channels to ensure the capital needs of business development. It will also arrange the size and structure of liabilities scientifically, maintain a reasonable and sound leverage level and strengthen risk awareness to prevent liquidity risks and ensure liquidity security.

(V) Analysis of Competitiveness

1. Unique Regional Advantages

Wuxi, Southern Jiangsu and the Yangtze River Delta region is one of the regions with the largest domestic economy capacity, most vibrant economy, highest quality of development, and largest number of listed companies and high-net-worth individuals. The total GDP of the Yangtze River Delta region accounts for nearly 25% of China, the total GDP of Jiangsu Province exceeds RMB10 trillion, and that of Wuxi exceeds RMB1 trillion. The customers and markets of securities companies are extremely broad. As the main birthplace of modern national industry with strong base for manufacturing industry, and one of the national innovation pilot cities and the national independent innovation demonstration cities in Southern Jiangsu, Wuxi has established its industrial clusters in strategic emerging industries such as integrated circuits, medicine and health, and the Internet of Things. Under the construction of a new domestic and international "dual-circulation" development layout, all these industries have good development opportunities. As a regional securities broker, the Company enjoys the natural advantage in serving regional enterprises. As an important strategic fulcrum for the integration of the Yangtze River Delta region, Wuxi has unique regional advantages due to its premier central location, dual-belt linkage and geographic cross-intersection. In the future, it has tremendous potential in connecting regional integration, provincial integration and Suzhou-Wuxi-Changzhou integration, and the Company will also play a more important role.

2. A+H Shares Listing in the PRC and in Hong Kong Improved Our Market Competition and Risk Resistance Capability

The Company's H shares were listed on the Main Board of the HK Stock Exchange on 6 July 2015, and its A Shares were listed on the Main Board of the Shanghai Stock Exchange on 31 July 2020. The Company is the 13th company in the domestic securities industry with a dual listing status on both the A+H markets. Through the listing in both the A+H markets, the Company has effectively improved its capital strength, laid a solid foundation for business scale expansion and market risks resistance, significantly improved its brand influence and market competitiveness, and opened up the long-term financing channels in the two capital markets, which are beneficial to further introducing strategic investors and reducing the comprehensive financing costs of the Company in future.

3. Management Team with Extensive Industry Experience

The senior management team of the Company has extensive management experience, outstanding management abilities and forward-looking strategic thinking in securities and financial services industry. They are able to understand profoundly the development trend of the industry and the market, make accurate business judgment, and capture promptly business opportunities and adjust business strategies prudently and scientifically. In particular, the experience of the management team in the overseas and cross-border business sectors will help the Company accelerating the pace of international development and opening up new areas of business growth. Under the leadership of the team, the Company will build the industry-leading development philosophy and management processes according to the best market practices, and accelerate its development to become an investment bank with modern management mechanisms.

4. Sound and Highly Efficient Operation Management and Prudent Risk Control

For many years, the Company has abided to the business philosophy of steady development, facilitated the stable transformation and upgrading of its business models, optimized its revenue mix and profit source, and achieved years of profitability successively. Of the securities companies in the PRC, since its inception (from 1999 to date), the Company is one of the few securities companies with successive profitability. During the Reporting Period, the Company kept on improving its compliance management and risk management system to ensure the Company's standardized operation and stable development.

Section 4 Report of the Board

The Company strictly upholds its compliance baseline and earnestly implements the requirements of regulatory authorities. The Company continues to revise and improve its compliance management system, implement various control measures and enhance compliance assessment to ensure compliance management responsibilities are in place. By learning from the best practices in the industries, the Company also actively builds high-standard and high-quality internal credit evaluation systems and risk management systems to prevent and resolve business risks in a timely manner. At the same time, the Company strengthens the performance guarantee of compliance risk control personnel. The Company adheres to the principle of “risk measurable, controllable and tolerable” to carry out innovative business prudently, strictly limit the risk exposure of high-risk businesses and strengthen risk monitoring.

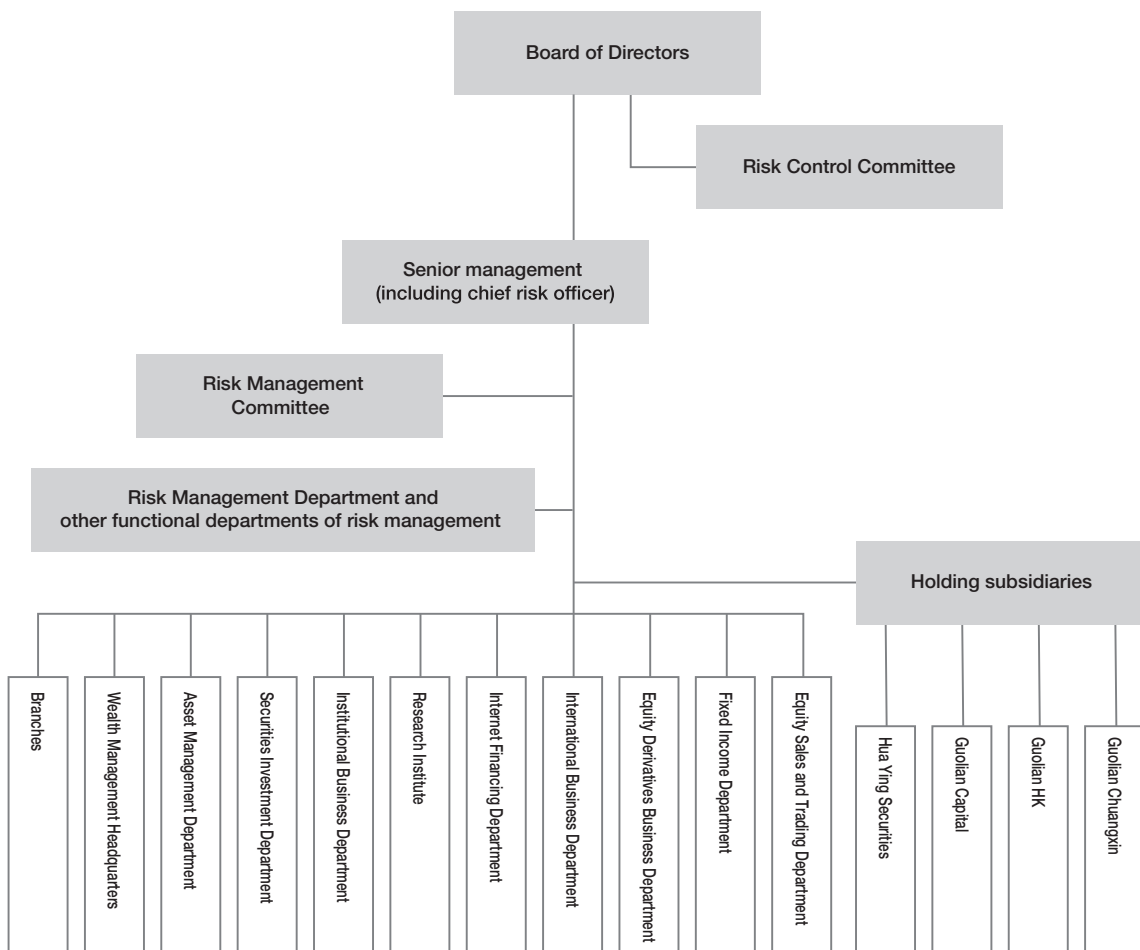

III. Risk Management

(I) General Description

No transactions, arrangements or contract of significance in relation to the Group’s business to which the Company, its subsidiaries, its Controlling Shareholders or the subsidiaries of the Company’s Controlling Shareholders was a party and in which a Director or Supervisor of the Company or an entity connected with a Director or Supervisors has a material interest, whether directly or indirectly, has been entered into or subsisted at the end of the financial year under review or at any time during the financial year.

Section 4 Report of the Board

X. Controlling Shareholders' Interests in Contracts of Significance

No contract of significance in relation to the Group's business to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries was a party to and in which a Controlling Shareholder had a material interest on, whether directly or indirectly, and subsisted at the end of the financial year under review or at any time during the financial year under review save as disclosed under "IV. Connected Transactions" in Section 5 and notes to the consolidated financial statements.

XI. Directors' Interests in the Business Competing with the Company

During the Reporting Period, the Directors of the Company have no interest in the business that is competing with the Company.

XII. Directors and Supervisors' Right to Purchase Shares or Debentures

As at the end of the Reporting Period, no rights were granted to any Director, Supervisor or their respective spouse or children under 18 years of age by the Company, its subsidiaries, its Controlling Shareholders or the subsidiaries of the Company's Controlling Shareholders to acquire benefits by means of the acquisition of shares in or debentures of the Company or any other body corporate, or were any such rights exercised by them; or was the Company, its subsidiaries, its Controlling Shareholders or the subsidiaries of the Company's Controlling Shareholders a party to any arrangement to enable any Director, Supervisor or their respective spouse or children under 18 years of age, to acquire such rights in the Company or any other body corporate.

XIII. Interests and Short Positions of Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management in the Shares, Underlying Shares and Debentures of the Company and Its Associated Corporations

As at the end of the Reporting Period, based on the information available to the Company and to the knowledge of the Directors, no Directors, Supervisors or senior executive of the Company have any interest or short positions in the shares, underlying shares or debentures of the Company or any of its associated corporations (within the meaning of Part XV of the SFO) (i) which will have to be notified to the Company and HK Stock Exchange pursuant to Divisions 7 and 8 of Part XV of the SFO (including interests and short positions which are taken or deemed to have under those provisions of the SFO), or (ii) which will be required to be recorded in the equity register kept pursuant to Section 352 of the SFO, or (iii) which will be required to be notified to the Company and HK Stock Exchange pursuant to the Model Code.

XIV. Compliance with Non-competition Agreement

As disclosed in the prospectus, on 15 June 2015, the Controlling Shareholders of the Company entered into a non-competition agreement in favour of the Group, pursuant to which, the Controlling Shareholders have irrevocably undertaken to the Company that, save for the exceptional circumstances as disclosed in the prospectus, the Controlling Shareholder and the controlled entities (as defined in the prospectus) will not, directly or indirectly, invest in, participate in, be engaged in or operate or be interested in any business in any way inside or outside the PRC separately or with any other parties, whereby it will compete or is likely to compete with the main business of the Company, and have undertaken not to engage in any competitive activities by taking advantages as the Controlling Shareholders of the Company which would be prejudicial to the benefits of the Company or its subsidiaries. For the Direct Investment Business, the Controlling Shareholders and the controlled entities have also undertaken to provide the Company the options and pre-emptive rights regarding new direct investment opportunities. The Investment Decision Committee of Guolian Capital is responsible for reviewing and deciding whether the Group should take up the related new direct investment opportunities. The independent non-executive Directors of the Company supervise and review the composition of the committee and the decisions it made.

Section 4 Report of the Board

The independent non-executive Directors had reviewed members of the Investment Decision Committee of Guolian Capital twice during the Reporting Period, and considered that the members involved in the decision-making of new business investment opportunities had business experience and professional capacity which are necessary for performance of their duties, and had no conflict of interest with the Group.

During the Reporting Period, the Controlling Shareholders and the controlled entities referred 7 new business investment opportunities to Guolian Capital. The Investment Decision Committee of Guolian Capital had reviewed such new business investment opportunities, and considered that such businesses involved issues like weak core competitiveness, fierce market competition of the target company, long investment cycle, and high withdrawal risk, which was not in line with the preference for investment projects of Guolian Capital. Therefore, it decided not take up such new business investment opportunities. The independent non-executive Directors had made an annual review on such decision, and was of the view that the decision made by the Investment Decision Committee of Guolian Capital was based on its professional judgement to the new business investment opportunities, reflecting the interest of the Group.

The Controlling Shareholders have confirmed to the Company that, during the Reporting Period, they have complied with all the terms of the non-competition agreement. The independent non-executive Directors have conducted an annual review regarding the compliance of non-competition agreement and have not found any non-compliance issues on the non-competition agreement by Controlling Shareholders.

XV. Other Disclosures

(I) Share Capital

The information is set out in the “Consolidated Statement of Financial Position” and Note 38 to the consolidated financial statements of this report.

(II) Pre-emptive Rights

There is no pre-emptive rights arrangement of the Company pursuant to the laws of the PRC and the requirements of the Articles of Association.

(III) Sufficiency of Public Float

During the Reporting Period and up to the date of this report, the public float of H Shares of the Company is 15.63%, which remains in compliance with the waiver from strict compliance with the public float requirements granted by HK Stock Exchange pursuant to Rule 8.08(1)(d) of the Listing Rules.

(IV) Management Contracts

During the Reporting Period, the Company did not enter into any contracts nor had any existing contracts in respect of all or any management and administration of the Company.

(V) Information on Tax Reduction and Exemption for Holders of H Shares

According to the Notice on the Management of Personal Income Tax Impose after the Abolition of Guo Shui Fa [1993] No. 045 Document issued by the State Administration of Taxation (Guo Shui Han [2011] No. 348) 《國家稅務總局關於國稅發[1993]045號文件廢止後有關個人所得稅征管問題的通知》(國稅函[2011]348號)), the dividend received by foreign resident individual shareholders from the issuance of shares in Hong Kong by domestic non-foreign invested enterprises is subject to the payment of individual income tax according to the items of “interests, dividend and bonus income”, which shall be withheld by the withholding agents according to relevant laws. The foreign resident individual shareholders who hold the shares issued by domestic non-foreign invested enterprises in Hong Kong are entitled to the relevant agreed treatment pursuant to the provisions in the tax agreements signed between the countries where they reside and China or the tax arrangements between Mainland and Hong Kong (Macau). The tax rate for dividends under the relevant tax agreements and tax arrangements is generally 10%, and for the purpose of simplifying tax administration, domestic non-foreign invested enterprises issuing shares in Hong Kong may, when distributing dividends, generally withhold individual income tax at the rate of 10%, and are not obligated to file an application. If the tax rate for dividends is not equal to 10%, the following provisions shall apply: (1) for citizens from countries which have entered into tax agreements/arrangements stipulating a tax rate of lower than 10%, the withholding agents will file applications on their behalf to seek entitlement of the relevant agreed preferential treatments, and upon approval by the tax authorities, the excess tax amounts withheld will be refunded; (2) for citizens from countries which have entered into tax agreements/arrangements stipulating a tax rate of higher than 10% but lower than 20%, the withholding agents will withhold the individual income tax at the agreed-upon effective tax rate when distributing dividends, and are not obligated to file an application; (3) for citizens from countries without tax agreements or are under other situations, the withholding agents will withhold the individual income tax at a tax rate of 20% when distributing dividends.

According to the requirements of the Notice on the Withholding Corporate Income Tax on the Dividends Distributed by the Chinese Resident Enterprise to Foreign H Shares Non-resident Enterprise Shareholders (Guo Shui Han [2008] No. 897) 《關於中國居民企業向境外H股非居民企業股東派發股息代扣代繳企業所得稅有關問題的通知》(國稅函[2008]897號)) issued by the SAT, when the Chinese resident enterprises distribute dividends of 2008 and subsequent years to foreign H Shares non-resident enterprise shareholders, they shall pay the withholding enterprise income tax at the unified rate of 10%.

Section 4 Report of the Board

Pursuant to provisions in the Notice on Tax Policy Regarding Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect Pilot Programs Issued by the Ministry of Finance, the SAT and CSRC (Cai Shui [2014] No. 81) (《財政部國家稅務總局證監會關於滬港股票市場交易互聯互通機制試點有關稅收政策的通知》(財稅[2014]81號)) and the Notice on Tax Policy Regarding Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect Pilot Programs (Cai Shui [2016] No.127) (《關於深港股票市場交易互聯互通機制試點有關稅收政策的通知》(財稅[2016]127號)), for the dividends obtained by mainland individual investors from investing in H Shares listed in HK Stock Exchange through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, such H-share companies shall withhold individual income tax at the tax rate of 20%. For the dividends obtained by mainland securities investment funds by investing in shares listed in HK Stock Exchange through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, the individual income tax will be levied pursuant to the provisions mentioned above. For the dividends obtained by mainland enterprise investors from investing in shares listed in HK Stock Exchange through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, such H-share companies shall not withhold and pay any income taxes on the dividends, as the income taxes shall be reported and paid by the investing enterprises on their own. Meanwhile, for the dividends obtained by mainland resident enterprises from holding relevant H Shares for consecutive 12 months, the corporate income taxes shall be exempted according to laws.

Pursuant to the current practices of Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong, no withholding taxes shall be levied for the dividends distributed by the Company.

The shareholders of the Company shall pay the relevant taxes and/or be entitled to tax relieves pursuant to the above provisions.

(VI) Reserves and Reserves of Profits Available for Distribution

Please refer to the “Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity” and Note 39 to the consolidated financial statements of this report regarding the changes in the Group’s reserves and reserves of profits available for distribution during the Reporting Period.

(VII) Major Customers and Suppliers

The Company provides services for various individual and institutional customer groups with a large customer base and wide distribution. The Company’s major customers include non-enterprise institutions, large, medium and small enterprises, institutional investors and retail customers. During the Reporting Period, revenue generated from the top five customers amounted to RMB221 million, accounting for 5.22% of total revenue, net investment gains and other income of the Group. None of the Directors, Supervisors or any of their respective close associates or any shareholder holding more than 5% of the issued share capital of the Company has any interests in the Company’s top five customers.

Due to the nature of the business, the Company has no major supplier.

(VIII) Property and Equipment

For the information of the Group's property and equipment during the Reporting Period, please refer to the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position and Note 20 of this report.

(IX) Fulfillment of Social Responsibilities

(II) Cases Concluded during the Reporting Period

During the Reporting Period, the Company had no concluded cases.

III. Important Contracts and Their Fulfillment

During the Reporting Period, the Company did not enter into any important contracts.

IV. Connected Transactions

Particulars of the major related party transactions of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2021 are set out in note 53 to the financial statement. Save as disclosed in this section, these related party transactions do not constitute any connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Among which, the related party transactions that constitute connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules are subject to reporting, annual review and announcement in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 14A under the Listing Rules, have complied with the provisions in Chapter 14A under the Listing Rules, particulars of which are as follows:

(I) Continuing Connected Transactions by the Group during this Year

The Continuing Connected Transactions of the Group are mainly conducted with Guolian Group and its Associates. Guolian Group is the Controlling Shareholder of the Company. Under the Listing Rules, Guolian Group and its Associates are Connected Persons of the Group. Therefore, the agreements entered into between the Group and Guolian Group and its Associates constitute Connected Transactions under the Listing Rules. The Company renewed the Securities and Financial Services Framework Agreement and the Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement with Guolian Group on 18 December 2020. In view of the past long-term cooperative relationship between the Group and Guolian Group and its associates, such transactions have facilitated and will continue to facilitate the overall business operation and business growth of the Group. At the same time, through integrating the advantageous resources of the Group and Guolian Group and its associates, they will lower operating costs and general expenditure of the Group, provide additional revenue source for the Group and further enhance the profitability of the Group and its position in the securities industry. Furthermore, based on knowledge of Guolian Group and its associates regarding the operation of the Group, they are capable of providing more suitable and effective services to the Group when compared with independent third parties. As one or more of the applicable percentage ratios of the annual caps for the years of 2021, 2022 and 2023 under the Securities and Financial Services Framework Agreement and Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement are more than 0.1% but less than 5%, the Securities and Financial Services Framework Agreement, Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder are subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules, but are exempted from the independent shareholders' approval requirements.

The validity period of the Securities and Financial Services Framework Agreement and Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement are three years respectively, commencing on 1 January 2021 and expiring on 31 December 2023, and renewable under the mutual agreement of both parties and in compliance with the Listing Rules.

The principal terms and conditions of the Securities and Financial Services Framework Agreement and Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement are set out in the announcement of the Company dated 18 December 2020.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

1. Securities and Financial Framework Agreement

1. Securities and financial services

According to the requirements of Guolian Group, the Group shall provide to Guolian Group and its associates a series of financial services, including securities brokerage (including seat leasing) services, Futures IB services, securities asset management services, agency sales of financial products services, financial advisory services, underwriting and sponsorship services, securities investment consultancy services and other financial services approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission.

According to the requirements of the Group, Guolian Group and its associates shall provide to the Group a series of financial services, including management services of trust plans, futures brokerage services, futures investment consultancy services, commercial insurance services and other financial services approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission and China Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission.

2. Securities and financial products

According to the requirements of both parties, the Group conducts securities and financial products transactions with Guolian Group and its associates, including sales under repurchase agreements in the inter-bank and exchanges market by the Group. The Group subscribes for the trust plans and other products issued by Guolian Group and its associates. Guolian Group and its associates subscribe for the income certificates, privately issued bonds, asset backed securities and pledged dealer-quoted repurchase products issued by the Group.

Basis of pricing

1. Securities and financial services

- (1) Pursuant to the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement, the service fees and commissions receivable from related securities and financial services provided by the Group to Guolian Group and its associates are determined under applicable laws and regulations, with reference to current market price after arm's length negotiations and shall not be less than the price receivable by the Group from independent third parties for the same type of services.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

(i) Securities brokerage services

The commissions are determined after arm's length negotiations between the parties with reference to, among other things, the commission rates applicable to independent third parties and the estimated scale of the brokerage transactions.

(ii) Futures IB services

The service fee of Futures IB is determined with reference to industry practice, the revenue sharing ratio of major securities companies in China and upon fair negotiation. According to the latest available market data, in respect of Futures IB business, the major securities companies in China usually split revenue with futures dealers at a certain ratio. In respect of the Futures IB transaction between the Group and Guolian Futures, the revenue sharing ratio will fall within the prevailing market revenue sharing ratio scope and is set at a standard more favorable to the Group compared with the market practices.

(iii) Securities asset management services

In respect of the pricing policy of service fee of Collective Asset Management Scheme, the subscription price, management fee and other terms with Guolian Group is consistent with normal commercial terms and those of the Group's similar transactions with independent third party investors. The fee ratios of transactions between the Group and Guolian Group fall within a certain ratio range of similar transactions in the market. In addition, the Group will take into account factors such as basic conditions of the assets or business to determine the management fee.

In respect of the pricing policy of service fee of Targeted Asset Management Scheme with Guolian Group, as each transaction has different target assets whose conditions vary from each other, it is hard to set out a standardized fee ratio. However, the Group determines the management fee based on the price of similar transactions in the market which have similar target asset or in similar condition. In addition, historical management fee in similar transactions between the Group and independent third parties will also be considered, so as to ensure that the price between the Group and Guolian Group is not less favorable to the Group.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

(iv) Agency sales of financial products services

In respect of agency sales of financial products, as the risk factors of different products vary from each other, products with higher risks charge higher agency sales fee. There is no specific standard price or commission rate in the market. Therefore, the price of agency sales transactions between the Group and Guolian Trust is determined upon fair trade principle and with reference to market price and industry practice for specific products.

(v) Financial advisory services

As the financial advisory services are highly individualized, different transaction's target business varies in size, conditions and different counterparties have different bargaining power, it is hard to set out a standardized price or fee ratio. However, the Group will refer to the price of similar transactions which are available publicly in third-party databases, and the price of the Group's similar historical transactions with independent third parties to ensure the services fee is not less favorable to the Group.

(vi) Underwriting and sponsorship services

The competition in securities underwriting and sponsorship service market is intense, and the commission fees and rates are typically transparent and standardized across the market. The service fees shall be determined after arm's length negotiation with reference to, among other things, the prevailing market prices, total amount of funds to be raised and commission rate charged to the independent third party by the Group for provision of similar services.

(vii) Securities investment consultancy services

Such service fees shall be determined after arm's length negotiation with reference to the prevailing market rates of transactions with similar types and size.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

- (2) Pursuant to the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement, the service fees and commissions receivable from related securities and financial services provided by Guolian Group and its associates to the Group are determined under applicable laws and regulations, with reference to the current market price after arm's length negotiations and shall not be higher than the price payable by the Group to independent third parties for the same type of services.

(i) Management services of trust plans

The price of management services of trust plans is determined with reference to the similar management services of trust plans in the market and upon fair negotiation between the Group and Guolian Trust. During the negotiation, the Group will refer to the management fee ratio charged by independent third parties of the Group's historical similar transactions to ensure that the management fee charged by Guolian Trust is not higher than or even lower than the management fees paid by the Group to third parties.

(ii) Futures brokerage services

The commissions are determined after arm's length negotiations between the parties with reference to, among other things, the commission rates applicable to independent third parties and the estimated scale of the brokerage transactions.

(iii) Futures investment consultancy services

The service fee of futures investment consultancy is determined after arm's length negotiation with reference to the industry average fee standard. In respect of the futures investment consultancy business between the Company and Guolian Futures, the standard of investment consultancy service fee is approximate to the market average.

(iv) Commercial insurance services

The pricing principles of commercial insurance services are based on those factors such as the industry category in which the Group operates, the number of the insured, the average age of the insured, the participation of the insured in local social insurance and the insured amount demanded, and in accordance with the underwriting rules of Guolian Life Insurance and previous experience in premium calculation to comprehensively determine the service prices.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

2. Securities and financial products

- (1) Pursuant to the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement, Guolian Group and its associates will subscribe for the relevant securities and financial products issued by the Group at the then applicable market price or market rate for such type of securities and financial products based on arm's length negotiation between the parties.

(i) Sales under repurchase agreements in the inter-bank and exchanges market

The prices for transactions in the PRC inter-bank bond market and the PRC exchange bond market are determined based on the prices quoted in the PRC inter-bank bond market and the PRC exchange bond market. Such prices are mainly determined with reference to the valuation of relevant securities and financial products published by China Central Depository & Clearing Co., Ltd., the yield curve and the turnover details published by China Foreign Exchange Trading System & National Interbank Funding Centre.

(ii) Income certificates, privately issued bonds and other products

The Group issues income certificates, privately issued bonds and other products based on its funding needs. The prices of income certificates and privately issued bonds issued by the Group are determined based on the prices of comparable similar products in the market. Among them, the subscription for the existing income certificates and privately issued bonds issued by the Group to Guolian Group and its associates are conducted on normal commercial terms and the Group does not provide collateral. Therefore, these transactions are exempted continuing connected transactions under the Listing Rules. No exemption will be granted in cases where the Group is required to provide collateral.

(iii) Asset backed securities

Since the target assets of each product are different, and the conditions such as the income rights and risks are different, it is difficult to set a standard fee rate. The Group determines the fees based on the prices of similar target assets or similar transactions in the market to ensure that the gains received from similar products by Guolian Group and its associates and independent third parties are the same.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

(iv) Pledged dealer-quoted repurchase

The Group determines the fees based on the prices of similar target assets or similar transactions in the market to ensure that the gains received from similar products by Guolian Group and its associates and independent third parties are the same.

- (2) Pursuant to the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement, the Group will subscribe for the relevant securities and financial products issued by Guolian Group and its associates at the then applicable market price or market rate for such type of securities and financial products based on arm's length negotiation between the parties.

(i) Trust plans and other products

The subscription price is at the same subscription price as the subscriptions by other investors. Such subscription price is determined by the financial institutions which set up the financial products after considering the fundamentals of the assets/businesses to be invested. The Group will refer to the expected yield of similar trust plans in the market at that time when subscribing for the trust plans issued by Guolian Group and its associates.

Note: The expenses incurred for property leasing includes rental expenses (including interest expenses on lease liabilities) and depreciation expenses of the relevant right-of-use assets.

The independent non-executive Directors of the Company have reviewed the aforesaid Continuing Connected Transactions and issued the following independent opinions on those Continuing Connected Transactions that they are being conducted:

- (1) during the ordinary course of business of the Company;
- (2) on normal commercial terms or better;
- (3) according to relevant agreements of the transactions, the terms of which are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the shareholders of the Company as a whole.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

The auditors engaged by the Company had issued a letter to the Board of the Company regarding their review of the aforesaid Continuing Connected Transactions and provided the following opinions:

In respect of the disclosed Continuing Connected Transactions:

- (1) nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Disclosed Continuing Connected Transactions have not been approved by the Company's board of directors.
- (2) for transactions involving the provision of goods or services by the Group, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the transactions were not, in all material respects, in accordance with the pricing policies of the Group.
- (3) nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the transactions were not entered into, in all material respects, in accordance with the relevant agreements governing such transactions.
- (4) with respect to the aggregate amount of each of the continuing connected transactions, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Disclosed Continuing Connected Transactions have exceeded the annual cap as set by the Company.

The Company has provided a copy of the letter from the auditors to the HK Stock Exchange and the Company confirmed that it had complied with all the disclosure requirements in relation to the disclosure of the Continuing Connected Transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Section 5 Other Significant Events

(II) Internal Control and Corporate Governance Measures

The Group has adopted a series of internal pricing approval and internal control procedures, which mainly include:

- (1) the Company has set up a monitoring system, which has a detailed list of the Company's Connected Persons. If any of the transactions involve Connected Persons of the Company, such transaction will be timely reported to the Board of Directors Office of the Company and can only be continued with the approval and confirmation of the Board of Directors Office. In this way, the Board of Directors Office is able to track down every Connected Transaction's amounts and make sure the annual caps would not be exceeded. Thus, the monitoring system will report to the Board of Directors Office of the Company on the transaction amounts under the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement and the Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement in a timely manner so that the Board of Directors Office of the Company is able to strictly control the balance of annual caps to ensure the annual caps would not be exceeded;
- (2) the department in charge of the specific transaction will collect market prices. Such market prices include (i) prices of similar transactions in the market; (ii) the Company's pricing of similar transactions in the past; and (iii) as to the Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement, pricing by similar market transactions or independent third party property valuers. The Company will refer to such market prices in determination of the transaction prices under the Securities and Financial Framework Agreement and the Property Leasing and Related Services Framework Agreement;
- (3) the Company has established its internal guidelines and policies for management of different types of securities and financial products transactions, as well as the internal procedures and systems for approval and supervision of such transactions. Such policies and guidelines set out the requirements for pre-trading pricing enquiries, applicable interest rates, procedures for price determination, approval authority and procedures, record keeping, supervision and review procedures for different types of transactions and businesses;
- (4) all of the Continuing Connected Transactions are reviewed and confirmed by independent non-executive Directors annually; and
- (5) the Auditing Department of the Company is responsible for the audit of major Connected Transactions one by one to ensure the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the audit report information, and submit the audit report to the Board of Directors for review.

(III) Other Connected Transactions

To further expand the asset management scale of Guolian Capital, expand the business of Guolian Capital, enhance the Company's strengths in equity investment and fund management businesses, and improve the brand awareness of the Company, Guolian Capital, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Wuxi Rural Revitalization Fund and other investors had entered into the Partnership Agreement on 18 October 2021. The total size of the Partnership is RMB1,000,000,000, of which RMB85,000,000 is contributed by Guolian Capital and RMB50,000,000 is contributed by Wuxi Rural Revitalization Fund.

As Guolian Group directly and indirectly holds 48.60% of the shares of the Company, it is a Controlling Shareholder as defined under the Listing Rules, and is therefore a Connected Person of the Company. Guolian Group, Wuxi Guolian Financial Investment Group Co., Ltd.* (無錫國聯金融投資集團有限公司) and Wuxi Guolian Industrial Investment Co., Ltd.* (無錫國聯產業投資有限公司), both controlled by Guolian Group, hold as to 60%, 29.6% and 0.4% of the shares of Wuxi Rural Revitalization Fund respectively, and therefore, Wuxi Rural Revitalization Fund is a Connected Person of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules, and the establishment of the Partnership constitutes a Connected Transaction of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. To the best knowledge, information and belief of the Directors after having made all reasonable enquiries, each of the other parties to the Partnership Agreement other than Wuxi Rural Revitalization Fund and their respective ultimate beneficial owners are third parties independent of the Company and its associates (as defined under the Listing Rules).

As the applicable percentage ratios calculated pursuant to Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules in respect of the capital contribution amount regarding the establishment of the Partnership are more than 0.1% but less than 5%, the establishment of the Partnership is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules, but can be exempted from the independent Shareholders' approval requirements.

For details of such connected transaction, please refer to the announcements of the Company dated 18 March 2021 and 18 October 2021 respectively.

Section 9 Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Materiality Principle

Having communicated and conducted survey with internal and external stakeholders, the Company collected many suggestions. From the dimensions of importance to the operation and importance to stakeholders, the Company gave scores and ranked the social responsibility issues to reflect the Company's material impacts on the environment and society and better respond to the expectations and demands from stakeholders.

Set out below is a matrix of key issues:

II. Environment

The Company is fully aware of its environmental responsibilities during the development process, abides by the Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China, the Energy Conservation Law of the People's Republic of China, the Water Pollution Prevention and Control Law of the People's Republic of China, the Air Pollution Prevention and Control Law of the People's Republic of China, Solid Waste Pollution Prevention and Control Law of the People's Republic of China and other laws and regulations, and practices the concept of sustainable development in its day-to-day activities.

In 2021, in order to better manage and assess the environmental performance, the Company has formulated corresponding performance targets in four aspects including GHG emissions, waste, energy use and water use. Affected by the epidemic, the environmental performance indicator data in 2020 was unable to effectively reflect the data of the Company under normal business volume, as such, the setting of targets was based on the data in 2019.

GHG Emissions Target

The intensity of GHG emissions of the Company has reached a relatively low level and is decreasing year by year. The Company aims to maintain the same emission intensity level as 2019 in the future.

Waste Reduction Target

The Company is a financial enterprise focusing on business office affairs and with low energy consumption and light pollution. The non-hazardous wastes are mainly domestic wastes and construction wastes due to securities branches decoration. The hazardous wastes are mainly ordinary dry cells and UPS batteries, which are all wastes that will inevitably be produced in daily operations. In future, the Company will continue to reduce waste produced by business operations in a responsible manner.

Energy Efficiency Target

The intensity of energy used of the Company has reached a relatively low level and is decreasing year by year. The Company aims to maintain the same intensity of energy used level as 2019 in the future.

Water Efficiency Target

The intensity of water consumed of the Company has reached a very low level. The Company aims to maintain the same intensity of water consumed level as 2019 in the future.

Section 9 Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Low-carbon Operation

The Company mainly utilizes electricity, limited natural gas and paper in its day-to-day business operations. In this regard, the Company has formulated The Management Measures for Headquarters Office Area (《公司總部辦公區管理辦法》) and requires all departments and divisions to conform, so as to improve the utilization efficiency of energy and resources. Meanwhile, the Company, as always, promotes low-carbon office and injects low-carbon concept into the operation and management mechanism of the Company. During the Reporting Period, the Company further optimized various measures and implemented resource-saving actions in all aspects of operations.

Resources Recycling: The Company encourages the use of idle assets and equipment in the system to reduce new purchases and decrease resources consumption. The used printer cartridges are sent to supplier for adding toner/ink for recycling to reduce the generation of discarded cartridges. Employees are encouraged to recycle folders, envelopes and paper bags. It requires employees to print on both sides and reuse the single-side used paper. It also places waste paper recycling boxes in public areas of the premises to maximize waste paper recycling.

Paperless Office: The Company encourages employees to send internal documents by email and Office Automation System, not only will this improve work efficiency, but also reduce paper consumption as well as other energy consumption. It promotes paperless office through the construction of a multi-channel electronic trading platform including mobile phones and tablets. It also sets up a paperless office environment except for necessary printed agreements.

Energy Conservation and Consumption Reduction: The Company requires employees to turn off lights and computers in time during non-working hours. The printers, projectors and other equipment shall be set to automatic power-off mode when not in use. The Company also arranges security guard patrolling to ensure all idle electric appliances are turned off, and make sure that the energy consumption remains the lowest when people are off work. It issues regular notices on conserving electricity to employees stating not to use high-power electrical appliances. It also encourages employees on lower floors not to use elevators, and use water-saving taps and toilets in the washrooms to effectively save water and electricity.

Green Procurement: The Company adopts an environmental-friendly perspective for office renovation and daily supplies and advocates the use of FSC-certified papers.

Low-carbon Travel: The Company encourages employees to commute by public transport, bicycle or on foot, so as to reduce the use of private cars. The Company encourages employees to give priority to the purchase of new energy vehicles, has installed charging poles in the premises to meet employees' charging needs. The Company also installs video and telephone conferencing systems, and encourages employees to learn and train using the E-learning system to reduce business travel.

Promotion for Environmental Protection: The Company posts related promotional slogans at the taps and water dispensers to raise the awareness of water conservation. At the same time, a specific column is set up to report the practical activities of the Company and its employees in low-carbon environmental protection, and conduct environmental protection education and publicity.

Section 9 Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In 2021, the Company consumed 6,291.97 MWh of energy, of which electricity consumption accounted for 95% of total consumption, representing an increase of 14% in energy consumption as compared with 2020. This was mainly due to the progressive control of COVID-19, the gradual recovery of the frequency of on-site transactions, and the operating time of the heating system resumed to pre-epidemic level in 2021.

The Company introduced an electronic signatory system in 2021, which has effectively reduced the use of office papers, with a total of 9.62 tonnes of office paper consumed, representing a decrease of 7% as compared with 2020.

Emission Management

As a financial institution, the Company's main workplaces are securities branches and offices. No industrial waste water and waste gas are produced during our operations. The sanitary sewage produced by the Company is discharged through the municipal sewage system.

The Company pays attention to raising employees' awareness of water conservation, posting water conservation slogans, choosing water-saving taps, as well as conducting pressure testing for 24 hours after pipe laying to avoid wasting water caused by running, overflowing, dripping and leaking. In 2021, the Company consumed 17,801.06 tonnes of municipal water.

The non-hazardous wastes generated by the Company are mainly domestic wastes and construction wastes due to securities branches decoration. The domestic wastes are sorted by the property management company while the construction wastes are properly disposed of by the constructors to ensure no dump of garbage and reduce the impact on neighbouring areas. The Company actively promoted the use of online transaction system in 2021, encouraged employees to reduce the use of disposable items and bring their own lunch, and had effectively reduced the production of domestic wastes. As for construction wastes, during the Reporting Period, the Company carried out more decoration projects of securities branches for business needs as compared with 2020, generating a total of 131.72 tonnes of construction wastes.

Section 9 Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The only hazardous wastes that the Company produced are batteries, which are mainly ordinary dry cells and UPS batteries. The ordinary dry cells are recycled by the property management company while the expired UPS batteries which need to be replaced are specifically recycled by the vendors. In 2021, the Company produced 0.01 tonne of hazardous wastes, all of which were discarded ordinary dry cells. It decreased significantly as compared with 2020 as the Company did not replace any UPS batteries in 2021.

In May, the Company actively participated in the special action of the Shanghai Stock Exchange’s investor education to help the “rural revitalization” project of Susong county, which included opening financial interest classes, organizing special teacher training, carrying out financial themed activities, and co-constructing financial book corners. The Company actively participated in organizing courses for financial interest classes and the co-constructing financial book corners. This special action aims to help local children in establishing correct values, rational consumption concept, and cultivate children’s ability to solve problems around them with economic thinking.

In June, the Company actively participated in the “Red Cross Humane Ten Thousand People Donation” activity organized by Municipal Red Cross Society, with a total donation of RMB214,100, vigorously promoted the Red Cross spirit of “humanity, fraternity and dedication”.

From August to October, Hua Ying Securities acted as the lead underwriter of Chongqing Kaiqian Investment Group Co., Ltd. (重慶開乾投資集團有限公司) in its completion of the three tranches of non-public issuance of corporate bonds project, with the total underwriting amount of RMB1 billion, whose purpose was to introduce financial “liquid fund” for local economic development.

In November, the Company and its subsidiary, Hua Ying Securities, actively participated in the “One Day Donation” charity activity of “Achieving Common Prosperity with the Help of Charity”. The activity was jointly initiated by nine departments including the Propaganda Department of Wuxi Municipal Party Committee (無錫市委宣傳部), with a total donation of RMB122,800, which was mainly used for projects such as helping people in need, boosting rural revitalization, helping epidemic prevention and control, and caring for elderly people.

Section 9 Environmental, Social and Governance Report

From November to December, the Company and its subsidiary, Hua Ying Securities, earnestly fulfilled their social responsibilities and strengthened the results of “One Company, One County” pairing assistance. Rural revitalization public welfare activities were carried out in 5 counties under pairing assistance, namely Susong county, Hezhang county, Poyang County, Badong county and Pingchang county, with a total donation of RMB500,000. Among which, RMB100,000 were donated to Susong County to provide youth education assistance for students who have difficulties in studying in high school, and fund the construction of four Guolian hope houses. With the opening of the Qingxin Humiao Classroom (青心護苗課堂), the left-behind children are organized to carry out educational and practical activities through which it helped them grow up healthily. RMB90,000 were donated to Tianba Primary School in Hezhang county to purchase “Class to Class” teaching equipment and set up caring student grants to ensure the quality of teaching and encourage the students to develop in an all-round way. RMB10,000 were donated to Hezhang County Charity Association which was specially used for left-behind children in the county, focusing on caring and dedicating love. RMB100,000 were donated to Dongqiao Primary School in Poyang County to purchase teaching equipment, improve campus infrastructure, build a “home for left-behind children”, and improve the teaching environment of the school. RMB100,000 were donated to Badong county’s “Enjoying a Sunshine childhood Sponsorship Program for children in poverty”, which provided financial aid to a total of 50 students from Qingtaiping Town National Primary School and Qingtaiping Town National Middle School in Badong County, enabling them to live and study under caring and sunshine. RMB100,000 were donated to Sima Middle School, Baping Primary School and Hanshui Primary School in Pingchang county to help and support poor children in the school, which benefited more than 100 students.

In December, the Company actively responded to the appeal of “the Public Welfare Action of Securities Industry to Promote Rural Revitalization” initiated by SAC, and invested RMB8.5 million to set up the “Guolian Securities Red Cross Public Welfare Fund”, which was used to consolidate the results of “One Company, One County” pairing assistance and carry out rural revitalization public welfare projects. At present, the public welfare fund has implemented the “Health Checkup Warms Heart” health checkup care project, which is mainly aimed at outstanding volunteers and talents who have made outstanding contributions to promote rural revitalization and low-carbon development.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 179 to 330, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2021, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key audit matter

Consolidation of Structured Entities

We identified consolidation of structured entities as a key audit matter due to the key judgement exercised by the management of the Group in assessing and concluding whether the Group controls the structured entities.

The Group consolidated the structured entities which it controlled. The principle of control sets out the following three elements of control: (a) power over the investee; (b) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from involvement with the investee; and (c) the ability to use power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's returns.

The Group held interests as investor and/or acted as investment manager in various structured entities including collective asset management schemes and investment funds. The Group considered its power, arising from the rights entitled directly or indirectly, over the structured entities, and assessed whether the combination of investments it held together with its remuneration created exposure to variability of returns from the structured entities that are of such significance that it indicated the Group controlled the structured entities and should consolidated these structured entities.

The carrying amount of the interests in unconsolidated structured entities held by the Group was disclosed in Note 59 to the consolidated financial statements, whilst the carrying amount of the Company's investments in consolidated structured entities was presented in Note 61 to the consolidated financial statements.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to this key audit matter included:

- Understanding and evaluating the key controls over the management's process in relation to the determination of consolidation scope using the principle of control;
- Examining, on a sample basis, the documents and information used by the management in assessing the consolidation criteria of significant structured entities against the related agreements and other related service agreements of structured entities newly established, invested or with changes in the proportion of ownership interests or contractual terms during the year;
- Assessing management judgement in determining the scope of consolidation for each of the abovementioned structured entities and, assessing the conclusion about whether a structured entity should be consolidated or not.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key audit matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Expected credit loss assessment of margin accounts receivable and equity securities held under resale agreements

We identified the expected credit loss (ECL) assessment of margin accounts receivable and equity securities held under resale agreements as a key audit matter as these financial assets are material to the Group, and the management of the Group exercises significant judgements and estimation to assess and measure ECL.

Significant judgements by the Group in ECL measurement includes assessing whether the credit risk of an asset has significantly increased since initial recognition and whether an asset is credit-impaired, using appropriate models and assumptions, determining the key inputs including probability of default (PD), loss given default (LGD), exposure at default (EAD) and forward-looking information.

As at 31 December 2021, the Group held margin accounts receivable of RMB 10,804,311 thousands, less impairment allowance of RMB 12,972 thousands as disclosed in Note 34 to the consolidated financial statements and equity securities held under resale agreements of RMB 2,526,889 thousands, less impairment allowance of RMB 167,260 thousands as disclosed in Note 26 to the consolidated financial statements.

Our procedures in relation to this key audit matter included:

- Understanding and evaluating the management's process and key controls over the measurement of ECL;
- Evaluating the appropriateness of the ECL model, the critical assumptions and parameters used in the model, in particular the PD, LGD and forward-looking information with the involvement of our internal experts;
- Reviewing the parameters and judgement made by the management on a sample basis, including the determination of the stages of the financial assets, PD and LGD, expected future cash flows, financial condition of counterparties and guarantors, and the realisation of collateral held, as appropriate;
- Testing the mathematical accuracy of the calculation of ECL.

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in the independent auditor's report is Chan, Wo Mi.

1. General Information – continued

As of 31 December 2021, the Company has established 101 branches, including 13 branch offices and 88 securities branches, which are mainly located in Jiangsu province.

The Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) are engaged in the following principal activities: securities brokerage, investment consultancy and financial advisory services related to securities trading and securities investment, proprietary trading, asset management, agency sale of financial products, margin financing and securities lending, introducing broker for futures companies, investment management, proprietary investment in venture capital, industrial investment, equity investment, securities underwriting and sponsorship of stocks (including RMB ordinary shares and foreign shares) and bonds (including government bonds and corporate bonds) and other businesses approved by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (projects in accordance with the law and approved by relevant departments).

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”), which is the same as functional currency of the Company. All financial statements and notes to the consolidated financial statements are presented in RMB and has been rounded to the nearest thousands, except when otherwise indicates.

These consolidated financial statements were authorised for issue by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) on 24 March 2022.

2. Application of Amendments to International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRSs”)

Amendments to IFRSs that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Group has applied the following amendments to IFRSs issued by the IASB, for the first time, which are mandatory effective for the annual period beginning on or after 1 January 2021 for the preparation of the Group’s consolidated financial statements:

Amendment to IFRS 16	Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions
Amendments to IFRS 9, IFRS 39 IFRS 7, IFRS 4 and IFRS 16	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2

The application of the amendments to IFRSs in the current year had no material impact on the Group’s financial positions and performance for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies

3.1 Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Listing Rules”) and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (“CO”).

The directors of the Company have, at the time of approving the consolidated financial statements, a reasonable expectation that the Group has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis (except for financial instruments that are measured at fair values) at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of IFRS 2 Share-based Payment, leasing transactions that are accounted for in accordance with IFRS 16, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as value in use in IAS 36 Impairment of Assets.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

3.2 Significant accounting policies

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities (including structured entities (“SEs”)) controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Group's voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Group, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Group has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

When the Group has decision-making rights (a decision maker) over a structured entity, the Group will determine whether it is a principal or an agent for the purpose of assessing whether the Group controls the structured entity.

An agent is a party primarily engaged to act on behalf and for the benefit of another party or parties (the principal(s)) and therefore does not control the investee when it exercises its decision-making authority. In determining whether the Group is an agent to the structured entity, the Group would assess:

- the scope of its decision-making authority over the investee;
- the rights held by other parties;
- the remuneration to which it is entitled in accordance with the remuneration agreement(s); and
- the Group's exposure to variability of returns from other interests that it holds in the investee.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income and expense of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity including reserves and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted after re-attribution of the relevant equity component and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the previous carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable IFRSs). The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under IFRS 9 Financial Instruments ("IFRS 9"), when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture.

Business combinations or asset acquisitions

Optional concentration test

The Group can elect to apply an optional concentration test, on a transaction-by-transaction basis, that permits a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is not a business. The concentration test is met if substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets. The gross assets under assessment exclude cash and cash equivalents, deferred tax assets, and goodwill resulting from the effects of deferred tax liabilities. If the concentration test is met, the set of activities and assets is determined not to be a business and no further assessment is needed.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

Asset acquisitions

When the Group acquires a group of assets and liabilities that do not constitute a business, the Group identifies and recognises the individual identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed by allocating the purchase price first to financial assets/financial liabilities at the respective fair values, the remaining balance of the purchase price is then allocated to the other identifiable assets and liabilities on the basis of their relative fair values at the date of purchase. Such a transaction does not give rise to goodwill or bargain purchase gain.

Business combinations

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition related costs are generally recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Except for certain recognition exemptions, the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed must meet the definitions of an asset and a liability in the International Accounting Standards Committee's Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements (replaced by the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting issued in September 2010).

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities, and assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with IAS 12 Income Taxes and IAS 19 Employee Benefits respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with IFRS 2 Share-based Payment at the acquisition date (see the accounting policy below); and

- assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that standard.
- lease liabilities are recognised and measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments (as defined in IFRS 16) as if the acquired leases were new leases at the acquisition date, except for leases for which (a) the lease term ends within 12 months of the acquisition date; or (b) the underlying asset is of low value. Right-of-use assets are recognised and measured at the same amount as the relevant lease liabilities, adjusted to reflect favourable or unfavourable terms of the lease when compared with market terms.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. If, after re-assessment, the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on a transaction-by-transaction basis. Other types of non-controlling interests are measured at their fair value.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Group obtains control), and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognised in other comprehensive income and measured under IFRS 9 would be accounted for on the same basis as would be required if the Group had disposed directly of the previously held equity interest.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted retrospectively during the measurement period (see above), and additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognised at that date.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business (see the accounting policy above) less any accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the cash-generating units (or groups of cash-generating units) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

A cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit on a pro rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in profit or loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

On disposal of the relevant cash-generating unit, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal.

Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the investor has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in the consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associates used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Under the equity method, investments in associates are initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associates. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds its interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of that associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with IAS 36 Impairment of assets as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with IAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of IFRS 9, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate at the date the equity method was discontinued, and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of the relevant interest in the associate is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate on the same basis as would be required if that associate had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income by that associate would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) when the equity method is discontinued.

The Group continues to use the equity method when an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture. There is no remeasurement to fair value upon such changes in ownership interests.

When the Group reduces its ownership interest in an associate but the Group continues to use the equity method, the Group reclassifies to profit or loss the proportion of the gain or loss that had previously been recognised in other comprehensive income relating to that reduction in ownership interest if that gain or loss would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities.

When a group entity transacts with an associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are tangible assets that are held for use in the supply of services, or for administrative purpose (other than construction in progress). Property and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Construction in progress for supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Costs include professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Such assets are classified to the appropriate categories of property and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of items of property and equipment (other than construction in progress) less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using straight line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

The estimated residual value rates and useful lives of each class of property and equipment are as follows:

Classes	Estimated residual value rates	Useful lives
Buildings	0 – 5%	30 years
Motor vehicles	0 – 5%	6 years
Electronics and other equipment	0 – 5%	2 – 5 years

Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

The estimated useful lives of each class of intangible assets with finite useful life are as follows:

Classes	Useful lives
Trade names	10 years
Software and others	2 – 5 years

Intangible assets acquired separately and with finite useful lives are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation for intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured at the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in profit or loss in the period when the asset is derecognised.

Internally-generated intangible assets – research and development expenditure

Expenditure on research activities is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

An internally-generated intangible asset arising from development activities (or from the development phase of an internal project) is recognised if, and only if, all of the following have been demonstrated:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- the ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits;
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

The amount initially recognised for internally-generated intangible asset is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets the recognition criteria listed above. Where no internally-generated intangible asset can be recognised, development expenditure is recognised in profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred.

Subsequent to initial recognition, internally-generated intangible assets are reported at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses (if any), on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately.

Leases

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified or arising from business combinations on or after the date of initial application, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under IFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed. As a practical expedient, leases with similar characteristics are accounted on a portfolio basis when the Group reasonably expects that the effects on the financial statements would not differ materially from individual leases within the portfolio.

The Group as a lessee

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

For a contract that contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases of buildings/motor vehicles/machinery and equipment that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. It also applies the recognition exemption for lease of low-value assets. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities, other than adjustments to lease liabilities resulting from Covid-19-related rent concessions in which the Group applied the practical expedient.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under IFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of assessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in market rental rates following a market rent review or expected payment under a guaranteed residual value, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease modifications

Except for Covid-19-related rent concessions in which the Group applied the practical expedient, the Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The Group accounts for the remeasurement of lease liabilities and lease incentives from lessor by making corresponding adjustments to the relevant right-of-use asset. When the modified contract contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

Covid-19-related rent concessions

In relation to rent concessions that occurred as a direct consequence of the Covid-19 pandemic, the Group has elected to apply the practical expedient not to assess whether the change is a lease modification if all of the following conditions are met:

- the change in lease payments results in revised consideration for the lease that is substantially the same as, or less than, the consideration for the lease immediately preceding the change;
- any reduction in lease payments affects only payments originally due on or before 30 June 2022; and
- there is no substantive change to other terms and conditions of the lease.

A lessee applying the practical expedient accounts for changes in lease payments resulting from rent concessions the same way it would account for the changes applying IFRS 16 if the changes are not a lease modification. Forgiveness or waiver of lease payments are accounted for as variable lease payments. The related lease liabilities are adjusted to reflect the amounts forgiven or waived with a corresponding adjustment recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which the event occurs.

The Group as a lessor

Classification and measurement of leases

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recognised as receivables at commencement date at amounts equal to net investments in the leases, measured using the interest rate implicit in the respective leases. Initial direct costs are included in the initial measurement of the net investments in the leases. Interest income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the Group's net investment outstanding in respect of the leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset, and such costs are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Variable lease payments for operating leases that depend on an index or a rate are estimated and included in the total lease payments to be recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income when they arise.

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

When a contract includes both leases and non-lease components, the Group applies IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("IFRS 15") to allocate consideration in a contract to lease and non-lease components. Non-lease components are separated from lease component on the basis of their relative stand-alone selling prices.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted under IFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Sublease

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, it accounts for the head lease and the sublease as two separate contracts. The sub-lease is classified as a finance or operating lease by reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease, not with reference to the underlying asset.

Lease modification

Changes in considerations of lease contracts that were not part of the original terms and conditions are accounted for as lease modifications, including lease incentives provided through forgiveness or reduction of rentals.

The Group accounts for a modification to an operating lease as a new lease from the effective date of the modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entities, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recorded in the respective functional currency (i.e. the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RMB) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of translation reserve.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Government grants that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable.

Employee benefits

In the reporting period in which an employee has rendered services, the Group recognises the employee benefits expenses for those services in profit or loss.

Termination benefits

A liability for a termination benefit is recognised at the earlier of when the Group entity can no longer withdraw the offer of the termination benefit and when it recognises any related restructuring costs.

Social welfare

Social welfare expenditure refers to payments for employees' social welfare system established by the Government of the PRC, including social insurance, housing funds and other social welfare contributions. The Group contributes on a regular basis to these funds based on certain percentage of the salaries of the employees and the contributions are recognised in profit or loss for the period when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contribution. The Group's liabilities in respect of these funds are limited to the contribution payable in the reporting period.

Contributions to pension schemes and annuity plans

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefits plan are charged as expenses when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense unless another IFRS requires or permits the inclusion of the benefit in the cost of an asset.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave) after deducting any amount already paid.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit before income tax as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

Taxation – continued

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognises the right-of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group applies IAS 12 Income Taxes requirements to the leasing transaction as a whole. Temporary differences relating to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are assessed on a net basis. Excess of depreciation on right-of-use assets over the lease payments for the principal portion of lease liabilities results in net deductible temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a settlement date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with IFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”)) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVTOCI”):

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both selling and collecting contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL, except that at initial recognition of a financial asset the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in fair value of an equity investment in other comprehensive income if that equity investment is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which IFRS 3 Business Combinations applies.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets – continued

A financial asset is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

In addition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that are required to be measured at the amortised cost or FVTOCI as measured at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.

If the fair value is evidenced by Level 1 inputs or based on a valuation technique that uses only data from observable markets, then the difference is recognised as a gain or loss on initial recognition (i.e. day 1 P&L). In other circumstances, the day 1 P&L is deferred.

(i) Amortised cost and interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost and debt instruments subsequently measured at FVTOCI. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired.

(ii) Debt instruments classified as at FVTOCI

Subsequent changes in the carrying amounts for debt instruments classified as at FVTOCI as a result of interest income calculated using the effective interest method, and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. All other changes in the carrying amount of these debt instruments are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading of change in equity. Impairment allowances are recognised in profit or loss with corresponding adjustment to other comprehensive income without reducing the carrying amounts of these debt instruments. When these debt instruments are derecognised, the cumulative gains or losses previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

(iii) Equity instruments designated as at FVTOCI

Investments in equity instruments at FVTOCI are subsequently measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the change in equity; and are not subject to impairment assessment. The cumulative gain or loss will not be reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the equity investments, and will be transferred to retained earnings.

Dividends from these investments in equity instruments are recognised in profit or loss when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established, unless the dividends clearly represent a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Dividends are included in the "net investment gains" line item in profit or loss.

Interest income which are derived from the Group's ordinary course of business are presented as revenue.

(iv) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI or designated as FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss includes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the “net investment gains” line item.

Impairment of financial assets and other items subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss (“ECL”) model on financial assets (including bank balances, cash held for brokerage clients, clearing settlement funds, financial assets held under resale agreements, margin accounts receivable, accounts receivable and other receivables in other current assets and refundable deposits), and other items (loan commitments) which are subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL (“12m ECL”) represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment are done based on the Group’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for accounts receivable. The ECL on account receivables are assessed individually for debtors with significant balances and/or collectively using a provision matrix with aging groupings.

Impairment of financial assets and other items subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9 – continued

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12m ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- debtor fails to pay the principal and interest as per the due date of the contract and the number of days overdue;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;

- (i) Significant increase in credit risk – continued
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor;
 - significant deterioration in the value of collateral or quality of guarantee or credit enhancements provided by a third party. These changes are expected to reduce the debtor's financial incentive to repay the debt within the time limit specified in the contract or affect the probability of default.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a debt instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk if i) it has a low risk of default, ii) the borrower has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations. The Group considers a debt instrument to have low credit risk when it has an internal or external credit rating of 'investment grade' as per globally understood definitions.

For loan commitments, the date that the Group becomes a party to the irrevocable commitment is considered to be the date of initial recognition for the purposes of assessing impairment. In assessing whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition of a loan commitment, the Group considers changes in the risk of a default occurring on the loan to which a loan commitment relates.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collateral held by the Group).

The Group considers that default has occurred when the instrument is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- (a) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- (b) a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- (c) the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- (d) it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;

(e) the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

(f) the purchase or originate a financial asset at a substantial discount, which reflects the fact that a credit loss has occurred.

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

For undrawn loan commitments, the ECL is the present value of the difference between the contractual cash flows that are due to the Group if the holder of the loan commitments draws down the loan, and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive if the loan is drawn down.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL – continued

For ECL on loan commitments for which the effective interest rate cannot be determined, the Group will apply a discount rate that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks that are specific to the cash flows but only if, and to the extent that, the risks are taken into account by adjusting the discount rate instead of adjusting the cash shortfalls being discounted.

Where ECL is measured on a collective basis or cater for cases where evidence at the individual instrument level may not yet be available, the financial instruments including account receivables are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics. The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

For undrawn loan commitments, the loss allowances are the present value of the difference between:

- (a) the contractual cash flows that are due to the Group if the holder of the loan commitment draws down the loan: and
- (b) the cash flows that the Group expects to receive if the loan is drawn down.

Except for investments in debt instruments that are measured at FVTOCI and loan commitments, the Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount, with the exception of account receivables and other receivables where the corresponding adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account. For investments in debt instruments that are measured at FVTOCI, the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the debt investment revaluation reserve without reducing the carrying amounts of these debt instruments.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

On derecognition of an investment in a debt instrument classified as at FVTOCI upon application of IFRS 9, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in the FVTOCI reserve is reclassified to profit or loss.

On derecognition of an investment in equity instrument which the Group has elected on initial recognition to measure at FVTOCI upon application of IFRS 9, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in the investments revaluation reserve is not reclassified to profit or loss, but is transferred to retained earnings.

Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and financial assets held under resale agreements

Financial assets sold subject to repurchase agreements, which do not result in derecognition of the financial assets, are continued to be recorded as financial assets at FVTPL or debt instruments measured at amortised cost as appropriate. The corresponding liability is included in “financial assets sold under repurchase agreements”. Consideration paid for financial assets held under agreements to resell are recorded as “financial assets held under resale agreements”. Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and financial assets held under resale agreements are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Securities lending

The Group lends securities to clients and the cash collateral balances required under the securities lending agreements and the interest arisen from the cash collateral are included in “accounts payable to brokerage clients”. For those securities held by the Group that are lent to clients, they are not derecognised and are continued to be recorded as financial assets at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity according to the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Company’s own equity instruments is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company’s own equity instruments.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is (i) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination to which IFRS 3 applies, (ii) held for trading or (iii) it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative, except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument.

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading or contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise; or
- the financial liability forms part of a group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- it forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and IFRS 9 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at FVTPL.

For financial liabilities that are designated as at FVTPL, the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is recognised in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss. For financial liabilities that contain embedded derivatives, the changes in fair value of the embedded derivatives are excluded in determining the amount to be presented in other comprehensive income. Changes in fair value attributable to a financial liability's credit risk that are recognised in other comprehensive income are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss; instead, they are transferred to retained earnings upon derecognition of the financial liability.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including due to other financial institutions, accounts payable to brokerage clients, other payables, bonds in issue and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derecognition and substantial modification of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group accounts for an exchange with a lender of a financial liability with substantially different terms as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability.

Except for changes in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows as a result of interest rate benchmark reform in which the Group applies the practical expedient, when the contractual terms of a financial liability are modified, the Group assess whether the revised terms result in a substantial modification from original terms taking into account all relevant facts and circumstances including qualitative factors.

If qualitative assessment is not conclusive, the Group considers that the terms are substantially different if the discounted present value of the cash flows under the new terms, including any fees paid net of any fees received and discounted using the original effective interest rate, is at least 10 per cent different from the discounted present value of the remaining cash flows of the original financial liability. Accordingly, such exchange of debt instruments or modification of terms is accounted for as an extinguishment, any costs or fees incurred are recognised as part of the gain or loss on the extinguishment. The exchange or modification is considered as non-substantial modification when such difference is less than 10 per cent.

A substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability or a part of it (whether or not attributable to the financial difficulty of the Group) is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability.

For non-substantial modifications of financial liabilities that do not result in derecognition, the carrying amount of the relevant financial liabilities is will be calculated at the present value of the modified contractual cash flows discounted at the financial liabilities' original effective interest rate. Transaction costs or fees incurred are adjusted to the carrying amount of the modified financial liabilities and are amortised over the remaining term. Any adjustment to the carrying amount of the financial liability is recognised in profit or loss at the date of modification.

Changes in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows as a result of interest rate benchmark reform

For changes in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows of a financial asset or financial liability to which the amortised cost measurement applies as a result of interest rate benchmark reform, the Group applies the practical expedient to account for these changes by updating the effective interest rate, such change in effective interest rate normally has no significant effect on the carrying amount of the relevant financial asset or financial liability.

A change in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows is required by interest rate benchmark reform if and only if, both these conditions are met:

- the change is necessary as a direct consequence of interest rate benchmark reform; and
- the new basis for determining the contractual cash flows is economically equivalent to the previous basis (ie the basis immediately preceding the change).

For other changes made to a financial asset or financial liability in addition to changes to the basis for determining the contractual cash flows required by interest rate benchmark reform, the Group first applies the practical expedient to the changes required by interest rate benchmark reform by updating the effective interest rate. The Group then applies the applicable requirements in IFRS 9 on modification of a financial asset or a financial liability (see accounting policy above) to the additional changes to which the practical expedient does not apply.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date when derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in hybrid contracts that contain financial asset hosts within the scope of IFRS 9 are not separated. The entire hybrid contract is classified and subsequently measured in its entirety as either amortised cost or fair value as appropriate.

Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts that are not financial assets within the scope of IFRS 9 are treated as separate derivatives when they meet the definition of a derivative, their risks and characteristics are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not measured at FVTPL.

Generally, multiple embedded derivatives in a single instrument that are separated from the host contracts are treated as a single compound embedded derivative unless those derivatives relate to different risk exposures and are readily separable and independent of each other.

Offsetting a financial asset and a financial liability

A financial asset and a financial liability are offset and the net amount presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits that can be readily drawn on demand, and short-term and highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when “control” of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group’s performance as the Group performs;
- the Group’s performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group’s performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct good or service.

A contract asset represents the Group's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Group has transferred to a customer that is not yet unconditional. It is assessed for impairment in accordance with IFRS 9. In contrast, a receivable represents the Group's unconditional right to consideration, i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

A contract asset and a contract liability relating to the same contract are accounted for and presented on a net basis.

Contracts with multiple performance obligations (including allocation of transaction price)

For contracts that contain more than one performance obligations, the Group allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation on a relative stand-alone selling price basis, except for the allocation of discounts and variable consideration.

The stand-alone selling price of the distinct good or service underlying each performance obligation is determined at contract inception. It represents the price at which the Group would sell a promised good or service separately to a customer. If a stand-alone selling price is not directly observable, the Group estimates it using appropriate techniques such that the transaction price ultimately allocated to any performance obligation reflects the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring the promised goods or services to the customer.

Over time revenue recognition: measurement of progress towards complete satisfaction of a performance obligation

Output method

The progress towards complete satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured based on output method, which is to recognise revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value of the goods or services transferred to the customer to date relative to the remaining goods or services promised under the contract, that best depict the Group's performance in transferring control of goods or services.

Variable consideration

For contracts that contain variable consideration, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled using either (a) the expected value method or (b) the most likely amount, depending on which method better predicts the amount of consideration to which the Group will be entitled.

The estimated amount of variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that such an inclusion will not result in a significant revenue reversal in the future when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group updates the estimated transaction price (including updating its assessment of whether an estimate of variable consideration is constrained) to represent faithfully the circumstances present at the end of the reporting period and the changes in circumstances during the reporting period.

Principal versus agent

When another party is involved in providing goods or services to a customer, the Group determines whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the specified goods or services itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for those goods or services to be provided by the other party (i.e. the Group is an agent).

The Group is a principal if it controls the specified good or service before that good or service is transferred to a customer.

The Group is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of the specified good or service by another party. In this case, the Group does not control the specified good or service provided by another party before that good or service is transferred to the customer. When the Group acts as an agent, it recognises revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the specified goods or services to be provided by the other party.

The Group's revenue mainly comes from the following types of business:

Commission and fee income

- (a) Commission and fee income arising from securities brokerage services is recognised at a point in time on the execution date of the securities transaction;;
- (b) Commission and fee income arising from underwriting is recognised at a point in time. Revenue from sponsorship, financial advisory and investment consultancy is recognised when the contractual obligations are fulfilled;;
- (c) Commission and fee income arising from asset management services is recognised in accordance with the conditions and proportions agreed in the contract when management services meets the relevant revenue recognition conditions.

Other income

Other income is recognised when the contractual obligations are fulfilled.

3. Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and Significant Accounting Policies – continued

3.2 Significant accounting policies – continued

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle that obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of each reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. Where a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

Impairment on tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill and financial assets

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any.

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant cash-generating unit where a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

Impairment on tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill and financial assets – continued

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

4. Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty and Critical Accounting Judgment

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in Note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The Group reviewed the estimates and underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Consolidation of structured entities

All facts and circumstances must be taken into consideration in the assessment of whether the Group, as an investor, controls the investee. The principle of control sets out the following three elements of control: (a) power over the investee; (b) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from involvement with the investee; and (c) the ability to use power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's returns.

The Group held interests as investor or acted as investment manager in various structured entities including collective asset management schemes and investment funds. The Group considered its power, arising from the rights entitled directly or indirectly, over the structured entities, and assessed whether the combination of investments it held together with its remuneration created exposure to variability of returns from the structured entities that are of such significance that it indicated the Group controlled the structured entities and should consolidated these structured entities.

Expected credit losses of advances to customers and debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income

The Group estimates the amount of loss allowance for ECL on its margin accounts receivable, financial assets held under resale agreements and debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income. The loss allowance amount is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows with the consideration of expected future credit loss of margin accounts receivable, financial assets held under resale agreements and debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income. The assessment of the credit risk of margin accounts receivable, financial assets held under resale agreements and debt instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income involves high degree of estimation and uncertainty. When the actual future cash flows are less than expected or more than expected, a material impairment loss or a material reversal of impairment loss may arise, accordingly. Details on ECL are included in Note 56 to the consolidated financial statements.

The following significant judgements and estimation are required in applying the accounting requirements for measuring the ECL:

4. Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty and Critical Accounting Judgment – continued

Expected credit losses of advances to customers – continued

Significant increase of credit risk

ECL are measured as an allowance equal to 12-month ECL for stage 1 assets, or lifetime ECL assets for stage 2 or stage 3 assets. An asset moves to stage 2 when its credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. In assessing whether the credit risk of an asset has significantly increased, the Group takes into account qualitative and quantitative reasonable and supportable forward looking information. Details of advances to customers are set out in Notes 26 and 34.

Establishing groups of assets with similar credit risk characteristics

When ECLs are measured on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped on the basis of shared risk characteristics. The Group monitors the appropriateness of the credit risk characteristics on an ongoing basis to assess whether they continue to be similar. This is required in order to ensure that should credit risk characteristics change there is appropriate re-segmentation of the assets. This may result in new portfolios being created or assets moving to an existing portfolio that better reflects the similar credit risk characteristics of that group of assets. Assets move from 12-month to lifetime ECLs when there is a significant increase in credit risk, but it can also occur within portfolios that continue to be measured on the same basis of 12-month or lifetime ECLs but the amount of ECL changes because the credit risk of the portfolios differ.

Models and assumptions used

The Group uses various models and assumptions in estimating ECL. Judgement is applied in identifying the most appropriate model for each type of assets, as well as for determining the assumptions used in these models, including assumptions that relate to key drivers of credit risk.

Forward-looking information

When measuring ECL the Group uses reasonable and supportable forward looking information, which is based on assumptions for the future movement of different economic drivers and how these drivers will affect each other.

Probability of default (PD)

PD constitutes a key input in measuring ECL. PD is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon, the calculation of which includes historical data, assumptions and expectations of future conditions.

4. Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty and Critical Accounting Judgment – continued

Expected credit losses of advances to customers – continued

Loss given default (LGD)

LGD is an estimate of the loss arising on default. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group would expect to receive, taking into account cash flows from collateral and integral credit enhancements.

Fair value of financial instruments

The Group uses valuation techniques to estimate the fair value of financial instruments which are not quoted in an active market. These valuation techniques include the use of recent transaction prices of the same or similar instruments and discounted cash flow analysis. To the extent practical market observable inputs and data, such as interest rate yield curves, are used when estimating fair value through a valuation technique. Where market observable inputs are not available, they are estimated using assumptions that are calibrated as closely as possible to market observable data. However, areas such as the credit risk of the Group and the counterparty, volatilities and correlations require management to make estimates. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the estimated fair value of financial instruments.

Income taxes

There are certain transactions and activities for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially estimated, such differences will impact the current income tax and Deferred tax in the period during which such a determination is made.

The realisation of a deferred tax asset mainly depends on whether sufficient future profits or taxable temporary differences will be available in the future.

In cases where it becomes probable that sufficient profits or taxable temporary differences are expected to be generated, deferred tax assets would be recognised in profit or loss in that period. On the contrary, if sufficient profits or taxable temporary differences are not expected to be generated, deferred tax assets would be reversed in profit or loss in that period. Details of the deductible temporary differences are disclosed in Note 31.

5. Segment analysis

The Group manages the business operations by the following segments in accordance with the nature of the operations and the services provided:

- (a) Brokerage and wealth management: securities trading and brokering services, sales of wealth management products, investment consulting, and asset allocation;
- (b) Credit transaction: providing financial leverage for brokerage clients, securities-backed lending and securities repurchase businesses;
- (c) Investment banking: corporate finance and financial advisory services to institutional clients and market maker business;
- (d) Proprietary trading: trading in financial products;
- (e) Asset management and investment: direct investments and funds related business, in addition to portfolio management and maintenance, investment advisory and transaction execution services;
- (f) Other businesses: including headquarters operations and interest income and expenses relating to working capital in general.

Inter-segment transactions, if any, are conducted with reference to the prices charged to third parties and there was no change in the basis during the year ended 31 December 2021.

The Group mainly operates in Jiangsu Province, the PRC. Almost all of the revenue and other income of the Group are generated in the PRC.

Non-current assets of the Group are all located in the PRC.

No income from any single customer contributed over 10% of the total revenue and other income of the Group.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in Note 3.

Note a: The Group provides asset management services in respect of various asset management schemes. Performance obligation is satisfied over the term of respective asset management schemes. Management fees of asset management schemes are recognised to the extent that it is highly probable that such recognition will not result in a significant revenue reversal in the future when the uncertainty associated with the quantum of management fees is subsequently resolved. Therefore, management fees of asset management schemes can only be recognised when they are determinable based on actual performance measurement.

Note b: As at 31 December 2021, the Group expected that performance obligation would be satisfied within one year for most existing contracts.

The Group leases various buildings and vehicles for its operations. Lease contracts are entered into for term of 12 months to 10 years. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. In determining the lease term and assessing the length of the non-cancellable period, the Group applies the definition of a contract and determines the period for which the contract is enforceable.

For the year ended 31 December 2021, total cash outflow for leases amounts to RMB81,754 thousand (2020: RMB84,176 thousand).

For the year ended 31 December 2021, expense relating to short-term leases amounts to RMB1,972 thousand (2020: RMB2,292 thousand). Expense relating to leases of low value assets excluding short-term leases of low value assets amounts to RMB166 thousand (2020: RMB124 thousand).

Note: The above equity investments include common stocks of entities listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. These investments are not held for trading, but for long-term strategic purposes. The Group has chosen to designate these investments as equity instruments measured at fair value with changes included in other comprehensive income because they believe that the short-term fluctuations in the fair value of such investments recognised in profit or loss will be different from the Group's strategy of holding such investments for long-term purposes, so their performance potential will be recognised from a long-term perspective (31 December 2020: Nil).

As of 31 December 2021, equity instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income investments held by the Group have no realization restriction and there was no disposal for the period end 31 December 2021.

The Group has provided a pension plan for full-time employees in Mainland China as required by the government, including basic pension insurance and corporate annuity plan. Namely, the Group pays endowment insurance premiums to the social insurance institution designated by the government on a monthly basis, which account for a certain percentage of the total salaries of the staff. After the retirement of the employees, the government is obliged to pay the pensions to them. According to the aforesaid defined contribution plan, the Group shall not be liable for the post-retirement benefits beyond the above contributions. Contributions to the plan will be included in the cost at the time of occurrence.

In addition, the Group provides relevant defined contribution plan for its qualified employees outside of Mainland China in accordance with local labour laws.

The Group did not forfeit any retirement benefit plan contributions, and there are no forfeited contributions under the Group's retirement benefit plans that can be used to deduct the contributions payable in future years.

48. Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements – continued

As at 31 December 2021 and 2020, the fair value of the financial assets that had been placed as financial assets sold under repurchase agreements of the Group were listed as below:

	2021/12/31	2020/12/31
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Debt securities	17,053,938	9,771,288
Commercial papers	223,670	–
	17,277,608	9,771,288

49. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

	2021/12/31	2020/12/31
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Interests of other holders in consolidated SEs (Note1)	458,145	587,293
Income certificates with variable interests (Note2)	971,561	311,989
	1,429,706	899,282
Analysed for reporting purpose as:
Non-current liabilities	537,017	71,994
Current liabilities	892,689	827,288
	1,429,706	899,282

Note1: Interests of other holders in consolidated structured entities consist of third-party unit holders' interests in these consolidated structured entities. The Group designates these financial liabilities as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss because the financial assets of the consolidated structured entities are mainly measured on a fair value basis, the designation can significantly reduce a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

Note2: It refers to Guolian Shengxin and Guolian Hengxin series of income certificates with variable interests issued by the Group. The series of income certificates are linked to the contracts of CSI 500 and CSI 300, etc. The Group designates the above embedded derivatives and the main contract of income certificate as financial liabilities measured at fair value.

50. Accounts payable to brokerage clients

Accounts payable to brokerage clients mainly include money held for clients placed at banks and at clearing houses by the Group, and are interest bearing at the prevailing market interest rates. The majority of the accounts payable balances are repayable on demand except where certain balances represent margin deposits and cash collateral received from clients for their trading activities under the normal course of business. Only the excess amounts over the required margin deposits and cash collateral stipulated are repayable on demand.

As at 31 December 2021, cash collateral received from clients for margin financing and securities lending arrangements amounted to RMB1,198,646 thousand (31 December 2020: RMB1,081,180 thousand), and are included in the Group's accounts payable to brokerage clients.

51. Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include amounts that can be used to meet short-term cash commitments.

	2021/12/31	2020/12/31
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Cash	2	15
Bank balances (Note)	887,684	3,279,575
Proprietary clearing settlement funds	909,836	698,566
Cash equivalents
– Financial assets held under resale agreements with original maturity less than 3 months	597,567	2,420,691
	2,395,089	6,398,847

Note: Bank balances do not include interest receivable from deposits and are all with original maturity of three months or less.

52. Transfer of financial assets

In the normal course of business, the Group enters into certain transactions in which it transfers recognised financial assets to third parties or customers. If these transfers qualify for derecognition, the Group derecognises all or part of the financial assets where appropriate. If the Group has retained substantially all the risks and rewards on these assets, the Group continues to recognise these assets.

(1) Securities lending

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition include securities lent to clients for them to sell, for which the clients are required to provide collateral that could fully cover the credit exposure of the securities lent, and have the obligation to return the securities to the Group in accordance with the contracts. In certain circumstances, if the securities increase or decrease in value, the Group may require additional collateral from the clients or have to return part of the collateral it holds to the clients. In these instances, the Group believes that it retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities and therefore does not derecognise them.

As at 31 December 2021, the Group's financial assets at FVTPL used for securities lending amounted to RMB83,842 thousand (31 December 2020: RMB61,482 thousand).

52. Transfer of financial assets – continued

(2) Repurchase agreements

Sales and repurchase agreements are transactions in which the Group sells a security and simultaneously agrees to repurchase it (or an asset that is substantially the same) at the agreed date and price. The repurchase prices are fixed and the Group is still exposed to substantially all the credit risks, market risks and rewards of those securities sold. These securities are not derecognised from the financial statements but regarded as “collateral” for the liabilities because the Group retain substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities.

The proceeds from selling such securities are presented as financial assets sold under repurchase agreements. Because the Group sells the contractual rights to the cash flows of the securities, it does not have the ability to use the transferred securities during the term of the arrangements.

The following table analyses the carrying amount of the above mentioned financial assets transferred to the third parties or customers that did not qualify for derecognition and their associated financial liabilities:

	31/12/2021		31/12/2020
	Carrying amount of transferred assets RMB'000	Carrying amount of related liabilities RMB'000	Carrying amount of transferred assets RMB'000	Carrying amount of related liabilities RMB'000
Bonds	17,053,938	(12,796,010)	9,771,288	(8,707,695)
Commercial papers	223,670		–
	17,277,608	(12,796,010)	9,771,288	(8,707,695)

53. Commitments and contingent liabilities

(1) Capital commitments

As at 31 December 2021, the Group was not involved in any material capital commitments (31 December 2020: the same).

(2) Legal proceedings

On 20 September 2019, the Company received a notice of response to a lawsuit filed by a client in Wuxi Intermediate People's Court of Jiangsu Province against the Company over the dispute over securities pledged repurchase transaction, claiming that the Company should refund the overcharged amount and losses totaling RMB55,517 thousand to a third-party. On 15 April 2020, the Wuxi Intermediate People's Court issued a civil ruling which rejected this lawsuit. The client filed an appeal on 29 May 2020, and the case is currently under trial. The Company has recognised provisions of RMB1,869 thousand in respect of the above case as at 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: RMB1,869 thousand).

(3) Guarantee for overseas subsidiaries

The Board Meeting of the Company held on 24 August 2021 approved the proposal on providing guarantee for Guolian securities (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries with a total amount of no more than US $100 million, which will be effective within 24 months from the date of approval by the Board of Directors. As at 31 December 2021, no guarantee was utilized by Guolian securities (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

56. Financial risk management

56.1 Summary

The Group's risk management objective is to establish a sound risk management system and effective management mechanism to ensure that the risk is controlled under a tolerable level, achieve a sustainable development and reduce the uncertainty of achieving business plans.

Based on the risk management objective, the Group's risk management strategy is to identify and analyse various risks faced by the Group, establish an appropriate risk tolerance bottom line for risk management and measure, monitor, report and respond to various risks in a timely and reliable manner to control risks within the limits set by the Group.

The risks involved in the daily operations of the Group mainly include credit risk, market risk and liquidity risk. The Group has established policies and procedures to identify and analyse these risks, and to set appropriate indicators, limits, policies and internal control processes to manage these risks through continuous monitoring by information systems.

The Company has formulated the "Basic Principle for Comprehensive Risk Management of of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd.", which specifies the Company's risk management objectives, principles, organizational structure, authorization system, related responsibilities and relevant procedures, etc.; and has formulated the "Liquidity Risk Management Measures of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd.", "Liquidity Risk Contingency Plan of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd.", "Market Risk Management Measures of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd.", "Credit Risk Management Measures of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd.", and "Operational Risk Management Measures of Guolian Securities Co., Ltd." for different types of risks, which standardised the methods and processes for the identification, response and reporting of various risks, to ensure the Company achieves the risk management goal of "measurable, controllable and tolerable".

The Company has established a comprehensive and multi-level risk management system including the Board of Directors and risk control committee, senior management and risk management committees, risk management departments and other risk management-related functional departments, and risk management organizations set within departments. The Company's Board of Directors takes the ultimate responsibility for the Company's risk management and authorizes the risk control committee to fulfil its partial functions regarding comprehensive risk management; the Company's management assumes the responsibility for organizing and implementing comprehensive risk management tasks in business management, and authorizes the Chief Risk Officer being responsible for leading and organizing the overall risk management work; the Company's risk management departments includes the Risk Management Department and other risk management functional departments. The risk management departments are responsible for establishment of the Company's risk management system, identifying and evaluating the risks faced by the Company's business activities, carrying out daily risk monitoring, inspection and evaluation, and raising recommendation and improving the Company's risk management system. The Risk Management Department supervises, evaluates and reports on the relevant work of the risk management functional departments and shall be responsible to the Chief Risk Officer for risk management; the Company's business departments and risk management organizations within its branches are responsible for the specific implementation of risk management.

56. Financial risk management – continued

56.2 Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of counterparty's failure or inability to meet its payment obligations, or the risk of loss due to declining credit rating.

The Group's credit risks mainly come from risk of default by the counterparty in fixed-income investment business, margin finance business including margin accounts receivable, equity securities held under resale agreements, and OTC derivative business and etc.

In terms of the fixed-income investment business, the Company has established a pool of target bonds, conducted necessary due diligence and provided internal ratings for the bonds that will be traded or used in spot transactions, repurchase transactions, forwards, and lending transactions. The Company established multi-level mechanism of internal approval. For the pool of target bonds, the Company has established the tracking mechanism on a regular or irregular basis, to continuously track changes in credit status. Meanwhile, the Company has established a credit risk indicator system such as concentration of single issuer, industry concentration and etc.

In terms of the financing business, the Company has established a strict layered review and evaluation mechanism, and formed a multi-level approval and authorization mechanism. The Company assesses the credit standing of the borrower by analysing the shareholder's background, operating conditions, and financial status. As for the evaluation of the collateral to be pledged, the quality of the collateral is analysed through a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods, and based on its liquidity index, market performance and other indicators that can be quantitatively measured. The Company has established a multi-dimensional financing business indicator system, including concentration indicators, loan-to-collateral ratio, early warning of closing position, ceilings of pledge ratio, and facility limit, etc., and manages credit risk exposure through timely mark-to-market method.

In terms of the credit risk of counterparties, the Company has developed rating criteria for counterparties and established a counterparty white list to manage counterparties' facility and limit according to their risk levels. The Company regularly, annually at least, updates the white list of counterparties, and adjusts the ratings of counterparties with consideration of any negative public media reports. In addition, the Company manages the credit risk exposures by means of mark-to-market, margin call or forced liquidation.

The credit risk of the Group also comes from the securities business. If the customer fails to deposit sufficient funds for trading, the Group may need to use its own funds to complete the settlement of the transactions. The Group requires customers to deposit the funds required for transactions in full before settlement to reduce related credit risks.

56.2.1 Expected credit loss

The Group has applied the ECL model to measure the expected credit losses for applicable financial asset.

The Group has used the “3 Stage” ECL model to assess the credit losses when its credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition.

- An asset is classified as Stage 1 where there has been low risk of default or has not been a significant increase in credit risk. The Group will continuously monitor its credit risk.
- An asset is classified as Stage 2 where there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but that are not credit impaired. The Group does not see it as a credit impaired instrument.
- An asset is classified as Stage 3 when it is credit impaired.
- The impairment loss for financial instruments in Stage 1 is expected credit losses for the next 12 months, which corresponds to the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. In the Stage 2 or 3, the expected credit losses of financial instruments are measured for the entire life time.
- Purchased or originated credit impaired financial assets refer to those with credit impairment since initial recognition. The impairment allowances of these assets are measured as the expected credit loss for the entire life time.

For accounts receivable, the Group has applied the simplified approach in IFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL.

56.2.1 Expected credit loss – continued

For the factors the Group considers whether there have been significant increase in credit risk, please refer to Note 3. In particular, for margin accounts receivable and financial assets held under resale agreement, the Group generally believes that when the loan-to-collateral ratio reaches the warning line, the credit risk increases significantly and the relevant asset needs to be transferred to Stage 2, and when the coverage ratio reaches the liquidation line or expect there would be loss after closing the position mandatorily, it will be transferred to Stage 3.

The Group uses Probability of default (PD), Exposure at Default (EAD) and Loss Given Default (LGD) to measure credit risks.

- PD is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon, the calculation of which includes historical data, assumptions and expectations of future conditions.
- EAD is the amount that the Group should be repaid at the time of default in the next 12 months or throughout the remaining life time.
- LGD is an estimate of the loss arising on default. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group would expect to receive, taking into account cash flows from collateral and integral credit enhancements

The expected credit losses are measured based on the probability weighted results of PD, EAD and LGD.

During the year ended 31 December 2021, no significant changes were made in the techniques of estimation or key assumptions.

56.2.1 Expected credit loss – continued

The assessment of significant increase in credit risk and the measurement of expected credit losses all involve forward-looking information. Through the analysis of historical data, the Group identifies the key economic indicators affecting the credit risk and expected credit losses of each asset portfolio. Key economic indicators include macroeconomic indicators and indicators that can reflect market volatility. Estimates of the predicted values and the likelihood of occurrence are highly inherently uncertain, so the actual results may differ significantly from the predictions. The Group believes that these projections reflect the best estimates of the Group on the possible results.

For the year ended 31 December 2021, the important macroeconomic assumptions used by the Group in the forward-looking model include the cumulative growth rate of GDP at constant price, the growth rate of the consumer price index, and the growth rate of the factory price index of industrial products. Among which:

- Cumulative growth rate of GDP at constant price: the forecast rate at the year end of 2021 ranges between 2.62% and 10.27%;
- Growth rate of the consumer price index: the forecast rate at the year end of 2021 ranges between 0.52% and 4.02%;
- Growth rate of factory price index of industrial products: the forecast rate at the year end of 2021 ranges from -4.00% to 8.08%.

56.2.1 Expected credit loss – continued

For the year ended 31 December 2021, the macroeconomic forward-looking adjustment factors used by the Group in the evaluation of the expected credit loss measurement model have considered the impact of COVID-19 epidemic and the instability of the international economic situation on the domestic macro economy. To be prudent, the Group has determined a higher weight for the neutral scenario, and the second is pessimistic scenario. Assuming that the weight of pessimistic scenario is reduced by 10% and the weight of benchmark scenario increased by 10%, the Group's credit impairment provision will be reduced by RMB1,586 thousand.

The Group has classified exposures with similar risk characteristics when calculating expected credit loss impairment in a portfolio. During the classification, the Group obtained sufficient information to ensure its statistical reliability.

56.2.2 Maximum credit risk exposure

Before considering collateral or other credit enhancement methods, the maximum credit risk exposure is the carrying amount of financial assets (net of provisions for impairment). The maximum credit risk exposure of the Group is as follows:

56.3 Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss arising from adverse change in fair value or movement in cash flows in respect of financial instruments, due to interest rate risk, exchange rate risk or price risk.

56.3.1 Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group utilises sensitivity analysis as the main tool for monitoring interest rate risk and measuring the impact of a reasonable and possible change of interest rate on its total profit and equity, assuming all other variables remain unchanged.

The table below presents the residual maturities of the Group's financial assets and liabilities before their contractual re-pricing dates or their maturity dates (whichever are earlier):

Sensitivity analysis

The following table illustrates the potential impact, of a parallel upward or downward shift of 25 basis points in interest rate curves on the Group's net profit and other comprehensive income for the next twelve months from the reporting date, based on the Group's positions of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities at the end of the reporting period.

The sensitivity analysis on net profit and other comprehensive income is based on reasonably possible changes in interest rates with the assumption that the structure of financial assets and financial liabilities held at the period end remains unchanged, and does not take changes in customer behaviour, basis risk or any prepayment options on debt securities into consideration. This analysis assumes that interest rates of all maturities move by the same amount, and does not reflect the potential impact of unparallel yield curve movements.

The Group believes that above assumption does not represent the Group's policy on the use of funds and interest rate risk management, so the impact of sensitivity analysis may vary according to the actual situation.

In addition, the above analysis of the impact of changes in interest rate is only an illustrative example, showing the estimated changes in net profit and other comprehensive income under various expected situations and the current interest rate risk position of the Group. However, the impact did not consider the risk management activities that the management might take to reduce interest rate risk.

Interest rate benchmark reform

As disclosed in Note 45, the Group's short-term borrowing linked to LIBOR will be subject to the interest rate benchmark reform. The Group is closely monitoring the market and managing the transition to new benchmark interest rates, including announcements made by the relevant IBOR regulators.

During the year, the contract was not transitioned to the relevant replacement rates.

56.3.2 Exchange rate risk

Exchange rate risk refers to the possibility of loss of the Group's assets or liabilities due to exchange rate changes. The Group operates principally in the PRC. Except the subsidiaries in Hong Kong, the majority of recognised assets and liabilities are denominated in RMB and the majority of transactions are settled in RMB. The Group does not hold or issue any derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to exchange rate risk.

As at 31 December 2021, assuming other variables remain unchanged, if foreign currencies appreciate or depreciate by 1% against RMB, the Group's net profit before tax in 2021 will decrease or increase by RMB385 thousand (2020: RMB1,144 thousand).

56.3.3 Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or exchange rate risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market.

The Group's price risk exposure mainly relates to investments in equity securities, investment funds, convertible bonds, exchangeable bonds, derivatives and collective asset management scheme whose values will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices. These investments are all investments in the domestic capital markets. The Group is subject to relatively high market risk due to the high volatility of the domestic stock markets.

The Group's price risk management policy requires setting and managing investment objectives. The directors of the Company manage price risk by holding an appropriately diversified investment portfolio, setting limits for investments in different securities and closely monitoring the portfolio of investments to reduce the risk of concentration in any one specific industry or issuer. The Group uses derivatives contracts to economically hedge against certain exposures arising from its investment portfolio.

Sensitivity analysis

The analysis below shows the impact on profit after income tax and equity due to change in the prices of financial assets, including stocks, funds, derivatives and collective asset management schemes by 10%, assuming all other variables remain unchanged. A positive result indicates an increase in profit after income tax and shareholders' equity, while a negative result indicates otherwise.

56.4 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities due to lack of capital or funds. The rapid development of the Company's proprietary trading, asset management, margin financing business and etc all put forward higher requirements for liquidity risk management.

The Group manages and controls its funds in a centralised manner. The Company's liquidity risk management principles are comprehensiveness, prudence and foreseeability and its overall objective is to build a sound liquidity risk management system so that it can effectively recognise, measure, monitor and control liquidity risk and ensure that its liquidity needs can be met timely with a reasonable cost.

The Group annually prepares the fund budget, and formulates a financing plan based on the fund budget to manage the funding requirements and relevant costs. Through careful analysis of the Group's business scale, total liabilities, financing capacity and asset-liability structure, the Group will determine the scale of high-liquid asset reserves to improve liquidity and risk resistance.

The Group invests surplus cash in negotiable bank deposits and marketable securities, choosing instruments with appropriate maturities or sufficient liquidity to provide sufficient headroom as determined by the above-mentioned forecasts. As at 31 December 2021, the Group held cash and cash equivalents of approximately RMB2,395,089 thousand (31 December 2020: RMB6,398,847 thousand) that is expected to readily generate cash inflows for managing liquidity risk. In addition, the Group held financial assets at fair value through profit or loss amounted to RMB20,845,312 thousand which was presented as current assets as at 31 December 2021 (31 December 2020: RMB14,144,755 thousand), and could be realised within one year to provide a further source of cash if the need arose.

56. Financial risk management – continued

56.5 Capital management

The Group's objectives of capital management are:

- To safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern so that they can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders;
- To support the Group's stability and growth;
- To maintain a strong capital base to support the development of their business; and
- To comply with the capital requirements under the regulations.

In accordance with Administrative Measures for Risk Control Indicators of Securities Companies (Revision 2020) (the "Administrative Measures") issued by the CSRC, the Company is required to meet the following standards for risk control indicators on a continual basis:

- The ratio of net capital divided by the sum of its various risk capital provisions shall be no less than 100%;
- The ratio of core net capital divided by total assets shall be no less than 8%;
- The ratio of quality current assets divided by net cash used in next thirty days shall be no less than 100%;
- The ratio of stable funding available divided by stable funding required shall be no less than 100%.

Net capital refers to net assets minus risk adjustments on certain types of assets as defined in the Administrative Measures.

57. Fair value of financial assets and liabilities

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participations at the measurement date.

57.1 Financial instruments not measured at fair value

The Group's fair value of the bonds in issue as at 31 December 2021 was amounted to RMB18,043,652 thousand (31 December 2020: RMB13,534,170 thousand), and the carrying amount was RMB18,232,417 thousand (December 31, 2020: 13,779,759 thousand). The Group uses the discounted cash flow model based on a current yield curve appropriate for the remaining term to maturity to evaluate the fair value of the bonds in issue.

Except above bonds in issue, the directors of the Company consider that the carrying amounts of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded at amortised cost in the statement of consolidated financial position approximate their fair values.
