Chairman's Statement

Dear Valued Shareholders,

On behalf of the board of directors (the "Board") of Prosperous Industrial (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"), I am pleased to present the annual report of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2021 (the "Year").

During the Year, the novel coronavirus 2019 (the "COVID-19") pandemic continued to pose challenges for the global economic activities. The Group's sales were slow to pick up in the first half of the Year which had traditionally been known as our peak season for production. Entering the second half of the Year, we noted a rebound in customer orders as compared to previous year. However, at the same time, our production and delivery schedule were affected as our largest production base in Vietnam was temporarily closed due to the anti-epidemic control measures implemented by the local government. Following the temporary closure, the Group worked closely with our suppliers and customers to mitigate the adverse impact arose therewithin, by shifting some of production orders to the Group's other production bases in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") and Cambodia, and revisiting the production and shipping schedules. The Group was able to gradually resume the production in the Vietnam production base in the third quarter of 2021 following the mass vaccination programs rolled out in the region. Nevertheless, it took time for the Vietnam production base to ramp up the production capacity after the resumption and led to longer lead time in finishing the customer orders. As a result of the disruption in our production schedule, the overall revenue for the Year declined by approximately 6.0% in 2021 despite the rebound in customer orders. Meanwhile, the Group's overall profit margin improved as the production efficiency of our Cambodia production base was improved noticeably during the Year.

Amid the current challenges, the Group is cautiously optimistic about the long-term growth in its manufacturing business. We will continue to focus on making the best use of the existing capacity and streamlining the production procedures with the aim to achieve optimal efficiency. On the other hand, due to the strategic reallocation of productivity among different bases, production capacity from the PRC has been gradually migrated to Vietnam and Cambodia. The role and function of PRC production base shifts to a more value-added dimension and the physical facilities in excess as a result of the shift have been put into alternative use with the aim of value maximization and in particular, the Group's self-owned industrial facility in Panyu, Guangzhou, the PRC (the "Panyu Property") has been partially rented out since last year. The Panyu Property was acquired by the Group in 2007 and the first phase of development was completed in 2012. The Group has been planning for further development thereafter and lights of change has been brought to vicinity in the latter half of 2021 with the government's intention of full supporting in the real economy as well as the industrial, high technology and innovative development. The Group has then started liaising with relevant professional parties in exploring opportunities riding from the change with the aim of further optimizing the development of Panyu Property. After due and indepth research as well as prudent consideration, we concluded that Panyu Property should no longer remain simply a production base and initially decided to reposition it in the direction of science and technology industrial park as well as high value-added innovative economic industrial incubator, with the nature of digital economy of adopting international quality and low carbon standards. The rationale behind the proposed positioning are based upon the government's intention as aforesaid and more importantly, the ideal geographic location of Panyu Property which is inside the sci-tech group ancillary zone, the south bank of Guangzhou Higher Education Mega Center and in the close neighborhood of the Guangzhou International Campus of South China University of Technology, a cluster area undertaking the scientific research achievements transformation of Guangzhou Higher Education Mega Center as well as Guangzhou International Campus of South China University of Technology which is expected to become the scientific and research innovative highlands in the future. Panyu Property's geographic location gives it a fundamental competitive edge in capturing the opportunities so aroused. The proposition is still in initial stage. We are in active process preparing a more detail proposal and hopefully be able to start communicating with relevant authorities as soon as practical.

Chairman's Statement

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to our employees for their dedication and commitment over the Year. I would also like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to our shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders"), customers, suppliers, business partners and other stakeholders for their trust and continued support to the Group. Looking ahead, we will strive with all our might to regain the growth momentum, and to create value for our Shareholders.

Management Discussion and Analysis

GENERAL OVERVIEW AND BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group is a leading manufacturer that designs, develops and manufactures recreational bags and packs, mainly backpacks, it also provides quality supply chain management services for renowned multinational sports and lifestyle brands. The Group has stablished multi-regional manufacturing platform consisting of three production facilities in the PRC, Vietnam and Cambodia. The multi-regional manufacturing platform has enabled the Group to navigate through preferential import tariffs and international trading policy benefits, and provide its customers with more comprehensive shipping options.

During the Year, the impact of COVID-19 pandemic seemed to moderate and the economic activities across the globe showed signs of recovery, alongside with mass vaccination campaigns and the resumption of major sports events. After a slow start in the first half of the Year, the Group's customer orders rebounded noticeably in the second half of the Year. However, at the same time, prevailing pandemic situation in Vietnam caused interruption at our Vietnam production base. To comply with the anti-epidemic control measures implemented by the local government, the Group's Vietnam production base was temporarily closed for a period in the third quarter of 2021. While the disruption in Vietnam production base inevitably had a negative impact on the Group's performance for the Year, it is encouraging to see the production efficiency in our Cambodia production base has improved during the Year. The gross profit margin for the Year improved to 21.3%, up from 19.9% from last year.

OUTLOOK AND PROSPECTS

Looking ahead, the Group is cautiously optimistic about the global economic recovery amid the COVID-19 pandemic. Risks associated with labour supply under the Pandemic and rising global shipping costs are expected to remain in the foreseeable future. The Group will continue to monitor the situation and work closely with our partners to mitigate the impact accordingly.

With the gradual resumption of operation of the Group's Vietnam production base, the short-term focus of the Group will be ramping up its production capacity and reducing the lead time in fulfilling customer orders. The Group will also seek to expand its customer base to attract renowned brand owners focus on making the best use of the existing capacity and streamlining the production procedures with the aim to achieve optimal efficiency, and hence improving the profitability, and continue to leverage through its multi-regional manufacturing platform to achieve a sustainable business growth.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL REVIEW

During the Year, the Group's revenue was generated from sales of bags and packs manufactured for brand owner customers. Despite the rebound in customer orders, the temporary closure of the Group's Vietnam production base interrupted our production schedule and caused longer lead time in fulfilling the customer orders. As a result, total revenue for the Year declined to approximately US$146.7 million, representing a decrease of approximately US$9.3 million or 6.0% from approximately US$156.0 million as recorded in 2020. Total sales quantity decreased from approximately 18.7 million pieces for the year ended 31 December 2020 to approximately 16.9 million pieces for the Year, representing a decrease of approximately 1.8 million pieces or 9.6%. The average selling price per piece declined and the sales mix of different product category continued to concentrate more towards outdoor & sporting bags and packs while shifting away from functional bags and packs in order to better utilise production capacity of the Group's multi-regional manufacturing platform. The breakdown of the revenue, sales quantity and average selling price by product category are set out as below:

	2021				2020
	Revenue US$'000	%	Sales quantity Pc'000	Average selling price US$/pc	Revenue US$'000	%	Sales quantity Pc'000	Average selling price US$/pc
Product category or services
Outdoor & sporting	115,361	78.6	12,615	9.1	111,293	71.3	11,598	9.6
Functional	8,813	6.0	557	15.8	13,254	8.5	860	15.4
Fashion & casual	21,506	14.7	3,625	5.9	26,582	17.1	4,522	5.9
Others	993	0.7	101	9.8	3,187	2.0	255	12.5
Subtotal	146,673	100	16,898	8.7	154,316	98.9	17,235	9.0
Subcontracting services	–	–	–	–	1,706	1.1	1,492	1.1
Total	146,673	100	16,898	8.7	156,022	100	18,727	8.3

The Group's cost of sales for the Year amounted to approximately US$115.4 million, representing a decrease of approximately US$9.6 million or 7.7% from approximately US$125.0 million for 2020. The decrease is mainly due to the decrease in sale quantity for the Year. The Group's gross profit margin for the Year improved to 21.3% from 19.9% for 2020 despite the temporary suspension of operation in the Group's production base in Vietnam. The improvement in gross profit margin was mainly a result of improved production efficiency in the Group's production bases, in particular, the Cambodia production base.

The Group's administrative expenses for the Year amounted to approximately US$17.1 million, decreased by approximately US$2.0 million or 10.5% from approximately US$19.1 million for 2020 as a result of the more stringent cost control measures and the closure of its retail business since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Selling and distribution expenses for the Year amounted to approximately US$11.2 million, increased by approximately US$2.0 million or 21.7% despite the decrease in quantity shipped. This is mainly due to the continuing surge of global shipping cost since the outbreak of the pandemic.

Other expenses for the Year increased significantly as compared to 2020, largely due to the decrease in fair value of approximately US$2.3 million on certain of the Group's investment in corporate bonds which are carried at fair value through profit and loss.

Profit attributable to shareholders of the Company increased by approximately US$0.9 million or 30.5% to approximately US$3.9 million for the Year, compared with approximately US$3.0 million. Earnings per share for the Year amounted 0.35 US cents as compared to 0.27 US cents for 2020.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

The Group's financial position remained solid. As at 31 December 2021 the Group had cash and cash equivalents of approximately US$50.6 million and no external borrowings. As a result, the gearing ratio of the Group was zero (31 December 2020: zero) as at 31 December 2021, calculated as total debt, excluding lease liabilities, divided by total equity.

During the year ended 31 December 2021, the Group incurred capital expenditure of US$0.9 million, mainly attributable to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment.

As such, the Group is exposed to foreign currency risk. Any appreciation of Renminbi or Vietnamese Dong against US$ may adversely affect the profitability. On 22 May 2020, the Directors further resolved to change the use and allocation of the net proceeds (the "Second Revised Use of Net Proceeds") in order to strengthen its working capital position and liquidity by deferring its further expansion plan in Cambodia and retail business in MAISON PROMAX and instead apply the unutilised amount to general working capital. The Directors considered the aforementioned changes were in the best interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. The changes would allow the Company to deploy its financial resources more effectively. As at 31 December 2021, the amount of the net proceeds which remained unutilised amounted to approximately HK$10.4 million. The remaining unutilised net proceeds are expected to be utilised within 2 years up to 2023.

Risk management and Internal Control Systems

The Board acknowledges its responsibility for evaluating and determining the nature and extent of the risks it is willing to take in achieving the Group's strategic objectives, and maintaining sound and effective risk management and internal control systems to safeguard the interests of shareholders and the Group's assets. The Board also acknowledges its responsibility for overseeing the Group's risk management, financing reporting, and internal control systems on an ongoing basis and reviewing their effectiveness at least annually through the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight and corporate governance roles in the Group's financial, operational, compliance, risk management and internal controls, and the resourcing of the finance and internal audit functions.

To this end, appropriate policies and controls have been designed and established to ensure that assets are safeguarded against improper use or disposal, relevant rules and regulations are adhered to and complied with, reliable financial and accounting records are maintained in accordance with relevant accounting standards and regulatory reporting requirements, and key risks that may impact on the Group's performance are appropriately identified and managed. Besides, management continues to allocate resources for the risk management and internal control systems to provide reasonable, though not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss and to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives.

The Board, through the Audit Committee, has delegated the internal audit function to an independent external assurance provider, who has conducted a review on the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems for the year 2020. The Audit Committee reviewed the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems by reviewing the reports issued by the Group's internal audit function, and internal control self-assessment from management.

The Audit Committee reviewed and concurred with the management's confirmation that for the year ended 31 December 2021: (i) the Group's risk management and internal control systems were effective; and (ii) the Group had complied satisfactorily with the requirements of the Corporate Governance Code in respect of risk management and internal control systems.

The Board, through the Audit Committee, leads and provides direction to management by laying down strategies and overseeing their implementation by management, monitors the Group's operational and financial performance, and ensures that sound risk management and internal control systems are in place.

The Board reviewed and was satisfied with the adequacy of the resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes, on the Group's accounting, financial reporting and internal audit functions.

The Board, through delegation of its authority to an environmental, social and governance working group, is also responsible for reviewing the Company's corporate social responsibility strategies, principles and policies; setting guidelines, direction and overseeing practices and procedures; and monitoring progress on the Company's corporate social responsibility and related activities.

The following highlights the key risk management measures under the Group's "Three Lines of Defence" model and enhancements made by the Group for the year 2021.

1st line of defence – Risk management

- Management conducted an annual Internal Control Self-Assessment for the year 2020. Management confirmed that appropriate internal control policies and procedures have been established and complied with.

- Various policies, procedures and guidelines are in place with defined authority for effective segregation of duties, controls and risk management, and they are subject to regular review.

- The Group's anti-bribery and anti-corruption guidelines are in place to set out minimum standards in recognizing circumstances which may lead to or give the appearance of involving corruption or unethical business conduct, to help avoid conduct which is clearly prohibited, and to encourage everyone in the Group to seek appropriate guidance promptly when needed.

- The Group's whistleblowing policy is in place to facilitate internal reporting of any malpractice and unethical conduct within the Group without fear of reprisal and victimization.

2nd line of defence – Risk oversight

- The Group's Enterprise Risk Management ("ERM") Policy is developed to outline the principles, governance, roles and responsibilities, and approach within a coherent risk management framework that addresses and prioritizes risks that are material and relevant to the Group's corporate goals.

- The Group's ERM Framework aims to help management assess and manage risks arising from and associated with new business activities and environments, including emerging risks. An integrated risk assessment approach was adopted to address risks across various subsidiaries of the Group, to assess those risks on an integrated group-wide basis.

3rd line of defence – Independent assurance

- The external assurance provider takes up the internal audit function, who is responsible for conducting independent reviews of the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's internal control systems and reporting the review results regularly to the Board through the Audit Committee.

For internal audit, a risk-based approach is adopted. The three years' work plan of external assurance provider for internal audit, is subject to review annually, covers major activities and processes of the Group's operations, businesses and service units. The results of these audit activities are communicated to the Audit Committee and key members of senior management of the Group. Audit issues are tracked, followed up for proper implementation, and their progress are reported to the Audit Committee and senior management of the Group (as the case may be) periodically. The external assurance provider for internal audit provides independent assurance to the Board, the Audit Committee and the senior management of the Group on the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls for the Group.

The Group's ERM Policy is established by the Board as an effective and adequate approach to be applied across the Group to manage the risks associated with its business and operations. This policy is designed to enhance enterprise risk management of the Group through a holistic and integrated framework so that all material risks faced by the Group are identified and appropriately managed to:

i. promote consistent risk identification, measurement, reporting and mitigation;

ii. set a common risk language to avoid any conflicting terminology or confusion in risk reporting;

iii. develop and communicate policies on enterprise risk management and controls aligned with the business strategy; and

iv. enhance reporting to provide transparency of risks across the Group.

The Company has adopted policies and procedures for assessing and, where prudent, improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control systems, including requiring the management of the Group at least annually to assess whether the risk management and internal control systems are functioning effectively in the belief that this will enhance the corporate governance of the Company and its business practices in the future. The Company regulates the handling and dissemination of inside information as set out in the Code of Conduct to ensure inside information remains confidential until the disclosure of such information is appropriately approved, and the dissemination of such information is efficiently and consistently made.

GOING CONCERN

The Directors, having made appropriate enquiries, are of the view that the Group has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and that, for this reason, it is appropriate for the Group to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements.

2. ENVIRONMENTAL

The Group is eminently devoted towards promoting a sustainable working and living environment through continuous emissions reduction and effective use of resources. This is achieved by clinging to the laws and regulations adopted by the local authorities that primarily aims to diminish the emissions of greenhouse gases and promotion of environmental awareness and optimizing resource utilization throughout the Group.

Our manufacturing operations are subject to extensive environmental regulations. In order to ensure compliance is achieved, separate set of individuals have been set up by the Group, who are given the duty of handling issues related to environmental compliance in the jurisdictions in which we operate. The Group believes to have sufficient protection measures that abide by all applicable current and national or local laws and regulations in the PRC, Vietnam and Cambodia.

2.1 GHG Emissions and Energy Consumption

The Group persistently strives to operate its business in an environmental-friendly manner, making every effort to achieve environmental conservation. The Group strictly observe the laws and regulations in relation to environmental protection, including the Environmental Protection Law of the PRC, the Appraising of Environment Impacts Law of the PRC, the Management Regulations of Environmental Protection of Construction Project, the Interim Regulations on Environmental Protection Acceptance of Construction Projects, Environment Protection Law in Vietnam and the Law on Environmental Protection and Natural Resource Management in Cambodia, with a view to controlling emissions and conserving resources.

The primary source of Green House Gas ("GHG") emissions from the Group's operating activities is Carbon Dioxide (CO_2). Apart from carbon dioxide, other air emission or pollutants produced by the Group were immaterial or negligible during the report period, thus are not reported in the report. An overview of the carbon footprint of the Group is summarized as follows:

	2020 tCO_2	2021 tCO_2	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
GHG emissions
Scope 1: Direct emissions[2]
– Carbon dioxide	129	161	25%
Scope 2: Indirect emissions[3]
– Carbon dioxide	5,372	5,078	(5%)
Total GHG emissions from energy consumed (Scope 1+2)
– Carbon dioxide	5,501	5,239	(5%)
Scope 3: Other Indirect emissions[4]
– Carbon dioxide	11	1	(91%)
Total GHG emissions (Scope 1+2+3)	5,512	5,240	(5%)
GHG emissions intensity[5] (Scope 1+2+3)
Per piece produced ($kgCO_2$)[5.1]	0.29	0.30	3%
Per employee (tCO_2)[5.2]	0.70	0.72	3%

Notes:

1. The above calculation is based on the reference and tools provided by Environmental Protection Department. https://www.carbon-footprint.hk

2. Scope 1 refers to direct GHG emissions such as fuel consumption.

3. Scope 2 refers to indirect GHG emissions from consumption of purchased electricity.

4. Scope 3 refers to other indirect GHG emissions from business travel.

5. GHG emissions intensity is calculated by dividing the total GHG emissions by (1) the production volume; and (2) the number of employees.

   5.1. The production volume for 2020 and 2021 is approximately 19.3 million pieces and 17.5 million pieces respectively.

   5.2. The number of employees for 2020 and 2021 is approximately 7,900 and 7,300 respectively.

Energy consumption accounts for approximately 99.98% (2020: 99.80%) of the Group's total GHG emissions, which is mainly derived from the Group's use of electricity in operating machineries and other equipment during the manufacturing process and consumption of liquid fossil fuels for motor vehicles.

The Group's energy consumption by fuel types are analyzed below:

Energy consumed by fuel type (kWh)

	2020 kWh	2021 kWh	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
Energy Consumption
Electricity	7,674,173	7,718,193	1%
Diesel	197,789	220,147	11%
Petrol	341,708	316,681	(7%)
Total energy consumption	8,213,670	8,255,021	1%
Energy consumption intensity
Per piece produced[1]	0.426	0.472	11%
Per employee[2]	1,039.71	1,130.82	9%

Note:

Energy consumption intensity is calculated by dividing the total energy consumption by (1) the production volume; and (2) the number of employees.

Electricity is the dominant energy source of the Group's production process. The Group's electricity consumption increased by 1% from 7,674,173 kWh in 2020 to 7,718,193 kWh in 2021, which was mainly caused by the improved and increased use of ventilation system at the production bases in response to the COVID-19 pandemic in order to provide a safe and healthy working environment to our staff.

Considering the usage of resources, the Group is eminently devoted towards using natural resources efficiently while emphasizing on their conservation. Actions in this regard include monitoring of electricity usage at workplace and encouraging employees to share rides, where possible. Moreover, potentiality of several other alternative ways such as improvements of air-conditioning, electrical equipment, installment of sensors and timers that aim to help the Group accomplish its environmental agenda were assessed and implemented where feasible. As a result of the Group's effort in energy conservation, there is no significant change in the Group's overall energy consumption between 2020 and 2021.

The Group's energy consumption intensity and GHG emissions intensity per (i) production volume, increased by 11% and 3% respectively compared with last year and (ii) employee, increased by 9% and 3% respectively compared with last year, which was mainly as a result of the improved and increased use of ventilation system at the production bases in response to the COVID-19 pandemic in order to provide a safe and healthy working environment to our staff.

Relying on the observed results to date, the Group is acting to craft out stable plans to accomplish environmental conservation. Primarily, the spotlight is given to energy consumption and waste as they are regarded as the most crucial segments that requires dedicated amount of attention.

2.2 Waste Management

The Group has introduced a lean manufacturing model focusing on productivity improvement at our Vietnam manufacturing plant as a pilot testing point before overall implementation in all of our production bases. This streamline production process enables us to discover and resolve issues relating to production at the early stage, thereby allowing us to achieve "Do It Right The First Time", lowering defect rate and avoiding unnecessary waste during the manufacturing processes.

The Group's operating activities generate both hazardous and non-hazardous waste. In general, the Group's hazardous wastes mainly comprise used motor oil and soiled rags produced by sewing machines and used fluorescent lamps. These hazardous solid wastes are collected by qualified companies and are handled in compliance with the stipulated laws and regulations of the respective countries. Non-hazardous wastes produced by the Group mainly represent general industrial waste and domestic garbage. The Group has engaged third-party waste management companies to collect and dispose of its non-hazardous wastes in an appropriate manner.

Hazardous and non-hazardous wastes produced by the Group are analyzed below:

	2020 tonne	2021 tonne	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
Total hazardous Waste	156	79	(49%)
Hazardous waste intensity
Per piece produced[1]	–	–	–%
Per employee (kg)[2]	19.71	10.82	(45%)

Note:

Hazardous waste intensity is calculated by dividing the total hazardous waste by (1) the production volume; and (2) the number of employees.

The Group produced 79 tonnes of hazardous waste in comparison to 156 tonnes in 2020. During the year ended 31 December 2020, in response to the enacted "Work plan for the Treatment of Scattered Industrial Wastewater in Dongguan City"《東莞市零散工業廢水整治工作方案》, the Group has installed wastewater discharge meter devices to monitor the amount of industrial waste water produced and stored by the Group and engaged a qualified independent third party to collect and dispose of such hazardous waste water so produced.

	2020 tonne	2021 tonne	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
Non-Hazardous Waste
Factory and office daily waste	1,356	1,250	(8%)
Non-hazardous waste intensity
Per piece produced (kg)[1]	0.07	0.07	–%
Per employee[2]	0.17	0.17	–%

Note:

Non-hazardous waste intensity is calculated by dividing the total non-hazardous waste by (1) the production volume; and (2) the number of employees.

2.3 Use of Resources

The Group encourages our employees to use their best endeavours to reduce waste and emissions, with a view to contributing to the community and the environment. Policies relating to reduction of waste and emissions, and efficient use of resources include:

- encourage employees to use their best endeavours to take public transport during business trip;
- encourage employees to reduce unnecessary overseas business trip, thus reducing indirect carbon emissions;
- consider energy efficient products when procuring and replacing equipment, e.g. replacing incandescent lighting with LED lighting;
- turn off electrical appliances or switch them to standby mode when they are not in use, thus reducing the amount of electricity used;
- use duplex printing, recycle papers and use electronic means to reduce paper usage;
- reuse office stationaries (e.g. envelopes and folders);
- turn off all unnecessary lighting, air conditioning and electrical appliances before leaving the office; and
- encourage employees to recycle paper, plastic bottle and tin can

Water management

The Group recognizes that water management is one of the material aspects of preserving the natural environment, in view of this, the Group collects sewage water through wastewater treatment plants in our factories to ensure that the discharge water quality meet the emission standards of industrial wastewater in respective countries in which they are discharged.

	2020 tonne	2021 tonne	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
Water consumption	215,203	225,000	5%
Water intensity
Per piece[1]	0.01	0.01	–%
Per employee[2]	27.24	30.82	13%

Note:

Water intensity is calculated by dividing the water consumption by (1) the production volume; and (2) the number of employees.

Water is mainly consumed in its office premises for drinking and general cleaning and in factory premises for staff canteens, dormitories and toilets. Hence, the Group does not have any concern in sourcing water that is fit for such purpose. The Group's overall water consumption increased by 5% from 215,203 tonnes in 2020 to 225,000 tonnes in 2021, mainly as a result of the increased frequency of general office and factory premises cleaning in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Group will continue to devote on-going efforts to promote energy and water-saving behavior under its overall environmental management agenda.

Packaging materials

Packaging materials used for finished goods mainly comprise corrugate and paper, which correlates to the production of those goods in the Group's manufacturing plant.

	2020 tonne	2021 tonne	Variance Increase/ (decrease)
Packaging materials	2,301	3,289	43%
Packaging materials intensity
Per piece (kg)	0.12	0.19	58%

Note:

Packaging materials intensity is calculated by dividing total packaging material by the production volume.

Total packaging materials used for finished goods of the Group increased by 43% from 2,301 tonnes in 2020 to 3,289 tonnes in 2021. While the Group makes sincere efforts in terms of reducing packaging materials, our productions are made to the specifications of our customers. The Group will continue to encourage our customers to use lighter packaging, where possible.

2.4 Climate Change

Which the acute risk will post immediate safety issues to our staff, the Company has followed and will continue to follow strictly on the relevant notice and/or guidelines issued by the local government bodies in which we operate to ensure staff safety. The Group will review the existing measures for adverse weather conditions and ensure the safety of the employees. For transitional risk, the Group has considered the policy and legal risk, which the government will impose more laws and regulation on the emissions and energy usage, as we have minimal usage on energy and minimal emissions due to our business nature, the Group considers the risk is relatively low, however, the Group will continue to monitor potential risks of climate change and its impacts on the Group's operations and customers, and devise and implement preventive and emergency measures accordingly.

Harmony, equality, and fairness are considered to lay the basis of such an attitude. This acts as an indicator of the active enthusiasm of the employees and their allegiance towards the organization. To mention an example is the case in Cambodia, wherein the employees were observed to participate in volunteering activities and donating bags to local students. Moreover, the Group endeavor to advocate support and care in the local community by encouraging employees to participate in various voluntary activities such as visiting elderly and children with disabilities during festive occasions and holidays, supporting charitable hiking and walking events, and voluntary blood donation campaign for local blood centre to support life-saving initiatives in the PRC.

During the year ended 31 December 2021, the Group was involved in a number of social activities and community events in various aspects and donated approximately 200 bags (2020: 400 bags) in this regard.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the shareholders of Prosperous Industrial (Holdings) Limited
(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Prosperous Industrial (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 75 to 154, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2021, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Income tax estimation
The Group operates in a number of countries or jurisdictions where income tax regulations and practices are different. In addition, the Group may be subject to enquiries or tax audits from time to time by tax authorities on a range of tax matters during the normal course of business. These result in complexities of the Group's income tax provision estimation. The estimation of income tax provision was complex and involved significant management judgement to determine whether the Group's income was subject to tax and the applicable tax rates for these transactions, taking into consideration the relevant tax regulations, interpretations and practices prevailing in the jurisdictions in which the Group operates. Given the complexity and judgemental nature of the income tax provision, we considered this a key audit matter. Related disclosures are included in notes 2.4, 3, 11 and 21 to the consolidated financial statements.	As part of our audit procedures, we obtained an understanding of and evaluated the assumptions used by management in the estimation of the Group's income tax provision, with the assistance of our internal tax specialists. We also checked the latest correspondence with the related tax authorities and assessed the adequacy of the related disclosures in the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Independent Auditor's Report

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chung Yuk Man.

The above table lists the subsidiaries of the Company which, in the opinion of the directors of the Company, principally affected the results for the year or formed a substantial portion of the net assets of the Group. To give details of other subsidiaries would, in the opinion of the directors of the Company, result in particulars of excessive length.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") (which include all Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs") and Interpretations) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for (i) an equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income; (ii) defined benefit obligations; (iii) investment properties; and (iv) financial assets at fair value through profit or loss which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in United States dollar ("US$") and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2021. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

(a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;

(b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and

(c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the shareholders of the Company. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognises (i) the fair value of the consideration received, (ii) the fair value of any investment retained and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted the following revised HKFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 4 and HKFRS 16	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2
Amendment to HKFRS 16	Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions beyond 30 June 2021 (early adopted)

The nature and the impact of the revised HKFRSs are described below:

(a) Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 4 and HKFRS 16 address issues not dealt with in the previous amendments which affect financial reporting when an existing interest rate benchmark is replaced with an alternative risk-free rate ("RFR"). The amendments provide a practical expedient to allow the effective interest rate to be updated without adjusting the carrying amount of financial assets and liabilities when accounting for changes in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows of financial assets and liabilities, if the change is a direct consequence of the interest rate benchmark reform and the new basis for determining the contractual cash flows is economically equivalent to the previous basis immediately preceding the change. In addition, the amendments permit changes required by the interest rate benchmark reform to be made to hedge designations and hedge documentation without the hedging relationship being discontinued. Any gains or losses that could arise on transition are dealt with through the normal requirements of HKFRS 9 to measure and recognise hedge ineffectiveness. The amendments also provide a temporary relief to entities from having to meet the separately identifiable requirement when an RFR is designated as a risk component. The relief allows an entity, upon designation of the hedge, to assume that the separately identifiable requirement is met, provided the entity reasonably expects the RFR risk component to become separately identifiable within the next 24 months. Furthermore, the amendments require an entity to disclose additional information to enable users of financial statements to understand the effect of interest rate benchmark reform on an entity's financial instruments and risk management strategy. The amendments did not have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES (continued)

(b) Amendment to HKFRS 16 issued in April 2021 extends the availability of the practical expedient for lessees to elect not to apply lease modification accounting for rent concessions arising as a direct consequence of the covid-19 pandemic by 12 months. Accordingly, the practical expedient applies to rent concessions for which any reduction in lease payments affects only payments originally due on or before 30 June 2022, provided the other conditions for applying the practical expedient are met. The amendment is effective retrospectively for annual periods beginning on or after 1 April 2021 with any cumulative effect of initially applying the amendment recognised as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained profits at the beginning of the current accounting period. Earlier application is permitted. The amendment did not have any impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

The Group has not applied the following new and revised HKFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 3	Reference to the Conceptual Framework[1]
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 (2011)	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture[3]
HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts[2]

Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2018-2020	Amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 9, Illustrative Examples accompanying HKFRS 16, and HKAS 41[1]

1 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022
2 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023
3 No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption
4 As a consequence of the amendments to HKAS 1, Hong Kong Interpretation 5 Presentation of Financial Statements – Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause was revised in October 2020 to align the corresponding wording with no change in conclusion
5 As a consequence of the amendments to HKFRS 17 issued in October 2020, HKFRS 4 was amended to extend the temporary exemption that permits insurers to apply HKAS 39 rather than HKFRS 9 for annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023

Further information about those HKFRSs that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

Amendments to HKFRS 3 are intended to replace a reference to the previous Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements with a reference to the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting issued in June 2018 without significantly changing its requirements. The amendments also add to HKFRS 3 an exception to its recognition principle for an entity to refer to the Conceptual Framework to determine what constitutes an asset or a liability. The exception specifies that, for liabilities and contingent liabilities that would be within the scope of HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21 if they were incurred separately rather than assumed in a business combination, an entity applying HKFRS 3 should refer to HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21 respectively instead of the Conceptual Framework. Furthermore, the amendments clarify that contingent assets do not qualify for recognition at the acquisition date. The Group expects to adopt the amendments prospectively from 1 January 2022. Since the amendments apply prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the date of first application, the Group will not be affected by these amendments on the date of transition.

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 (2011) address an inconsistency between the requirements in HKFRS 10 and in HKAS 28 (2011) in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss resulting from a downstream transaction when the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 (2011) was removed by the HKICPA in January 2016 and a new mandatory effective date will be determined after the completion of a broader review of accounting for associates and joint ventures. However, the amendments are available for adoption now.

Amendments to HKAS 1 Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current clarify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments specify that if an entity's right to defer settlement of a liability is subject to the entity complying with specified conditions, the entity has a right to defer settlement of the liability at the end of the reporting period if it complies with those conditions at that date. Classification of a liability is unaffected by the likelihood that the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of the liability. The amendments also clarify the situations that are considered a settlement of a liability. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and shall be applied retrospectively. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 1 Disclosure of Accounting Policies require entities to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. Accounting policy information is material if, when considered together with other information included in an entity's financial statements, it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. Amendments to HKFRS Practice Statement 2 provide non-mandatory guidance on how to apply the concept of materiality to accounting policy disclosures. Amendments to HKAS 1 are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and earlier application is permitted. Since the guidance provided in the amendments to HKFRS Practice Statement 2 is non-mandatory, an effective date for these amendments is not necessary. The Group is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on the Group's accounting policy disclosures.

Amendments to HKAS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates and changes in accounting policies. Accounting estimates are defined as monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty. The amendments also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and apply to changes in accounting policies and changes in accounting estimates that occur on or after the start of that period. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 12 narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, such as leases and decommissioning obligations. Therefore, entities are required to recognise a deferred tax asset and a deferred tax liability for temporary differences arising from these transactions. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and shall be applied to transactions related to leases and decommissioning obligations at the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented, with any cumulative effect recognised as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained profits or other component of equity as appropriate at that date. In addition, the amendments shall be applied prospectively to transactions other than leases and decommissioning obligations. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 16 prohibit an entity from deducting from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds from selling items produced while bringing that asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Instead, an entity recognises the proceeds from selling any such items, and the cost of those items, in profit or loss. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 and shall be applied retrospectively only to items of property, plant and equipment made available for use on or after the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements in which the entity first applies the amendments. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 37 clarify that for the purpose of assessing whether a contract is onerous under HKAS 37, the cost of fulfilling the contract comprises the costs that relate directly to the contract. Costs that relate directly to a contract include both the incremental costs of fulfilling that contract (e.g., direct labour and materials) and an allocation of other costs that relate directly to fulfilling that contract (e.g., an allocation of the depreciation charge for an item of property, plant and equipment used in fulfilling the contract as well as contract management and supervision costs). General and administrative costs do not relate directly to a contract and are excluded unless they are explicitly chargeable to the counterparty under the contract. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 and shall be applied to contracts for which an entity has not yet fulfilled all its obligations at the beginning of the annual reporting period in which it first applies the amendments. Earlier application is permitted. Any cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments shall be recognised as an adjustment to the opening equity at the date of initial application without restating the comparative information. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2018-2020 sets out amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 9, Illustrative Examples accompanying HKFRS 16, and HKAS 41. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments: clarifies the fees that an entity includes when assessing whether the terms of a new or modified financial liability are substantially different from the terms of the original financial liability. These fees include only those paid or received between the borrower and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the borrower or lender on the other's behalf. An entity applies the amendment to financial liabilities that are modified or exchanged on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendment. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022. Earlier application is permitted. The amendment is not expected to have a significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

- HKFRS 16 Leases: removes the illustration of payments from the lessor relating to leasehold improvements in Illustrative Example 13 accompanying HKFRS 16. This removes potential confusion regarding the treatment of lease incentives when applying HKFRS 16.

The above amendments are not excepted to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its defined benefit obligations, investment properties, equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income and equity investment at fair value through profit or loss at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 – based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than deferred tax assets, financial assets and inventories), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset (e.g., a headquarters building) is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation (continued)

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The estimated useful lives of different categories of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Freehold land	Not depreciated
Buildings	Over the shorter of lease terms of the relevant land and 20 to 42 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of lease terms and 4 to 10 years
Machinery and equipment	4 to 10 years
Furniture and fixtures	4 to 10 years
Motor vehicles	4 to 10 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress represents buildings and other property, plant and equipment under construction, which is stated at cost less any accumulated impairment losses, and is not depreciated. Cost comprises direct costs of construction. Construction in progress is reclassified to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for use.

Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings (including the leasehold property held as a right-of-use asset which would otherwise meet the definition of an investment property) held to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation, rather than for use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes; or for sale in the ordinary course of business. Such properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at fair value, which reflects market conditions at the end of the reporting period.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair values of investment properties are included in profit or loss in the year in which they arise.

Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in profit or loss in the year of the retirement or disposal.

If a property occupied by the Group as an owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group accounts for such property in accordance with the accounting policy under "Property, plant and equipment and depreciation" for owned property and/or accounts for such property in accordance with policy stated under "Right-of-use assets" for property held as a right-of-use asset up to the date of change in use, and any difference at that date between the carrying amount and the fair value of the property is dealt with as movements in the asset revaluation reserve.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite.

Intangible assets with finite lives include computer software and a licence, and are subsequently amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end. The estimated useful lives of intangible assets with finite lives for the purpose of amortisation are as follows:

Computer software	3 to 8 years
Licence	2 years

An intangible asset with an indefinite useful life includes a club membership and is tested for impairment annually either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangible asset is not amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for on a prospective basis.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal or no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in profit or loss in the period the intangible asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant intangible asset.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Prepaid land lease payments	50 years
Leasehold land and buildings	2 to 44 years

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

(b) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets to leases of motor vehicles, staff quarters and warehouses that are considered to be of low value.

Lease payments on short-term leases are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases.

Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under HKFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets which are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Investments and other financial assets (continued)

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (debt instruments)

For debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, interest income, foreign exchange revaluation and impairment losses or reversals are recognised in the statement of profit or loss and computed in the same manner as for financial assets measured at amortised cost. The remaining fair value changes are recognised in other comprehensive income. Upon derecognition, the cumulative fair value change recognised in other comprehensive income is recycled to the statement of profit or loss.

Financial assets designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (equity investments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investment as an equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income when it meets the definition of equity under HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and is not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on this financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in other comprehensive income. Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are not subject to impairment assessment.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and equity investments which the Group had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through other comprehensive income. Dividends on equity investments classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are also recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or

- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit loss ("ECL") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables and contract assets which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs

Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at amortised cost. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and bills payables, other payables and accruals, and lease liabilities.

Subsequent measurement

After initial recognition, financial liabilities at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the weighted average basis and, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal.

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of financial position, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including term deposits, and assets similar in nature to cash, which are not restricted as to use.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included as finance costs in profit or loss.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and

- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and

- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments or deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and released to by way of a reduced depreciation charge.

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group with a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

(a) Sale of sport bags, handbags and luggage bags

Revenue from the sale of sport bags, handbags and luggage bags is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the sport bags, handbags and luggage bags.

(b) Subcontracting services

Revenue from the provision of subcontracting services is recognised over time, using an input method to measure progress towards complete satisfaction of the service, because the Group's performance enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is enhanced. The input method recognises revenue on the basis of labour time spent on the services.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Rental income

Rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e. transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Employee benefits

Defined contribution plans

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefit scheme (the "MPF Scheme") under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for those employees who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees' basic salaries and are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the MPF Scheme. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. The Group's employer contributions vest fully with the employees when contributed into the MPF Scheme.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries which operate in Mainland China, Vietnam, Cambodia and Macau are required to participate in central pension schemes or social security schemes operated by local governments, the assets of which are held separately from those of the Group. Contributions are made by the subsidiaries based on a percentage of the participating employees' salaries and are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension schemes and social security schemes. The employer contributions vest fully once made.

The Group also operates a defined contribution retirement benefit scheme under the Labour Pension Act of Taiwan for its employees recruited on and subsequent to 1 July 2005 by the Group's subsidiary in Taiwan. Based on the Labour Pension Act of Taiwan, the Group's monthly contribution to individual pension accounts of employees covered by the defined contribution plan is at 6% of monthly salaries and wages. The funds are deposited in individual labour pension accounts at the Bureau of Labour Insurance of Taiwan.

Defined benefit plans

The Group operates a defined benefit pension plan for certain employees of a subsidiary of the Company established in Taiwan. The plan requires contributions to be made to a separately administered fund and the benefits are unfunded. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using the projected unit credit actuarial valuation method.

Remeasurements arising from the defined benefit pension plan, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability) and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the consolidated statement of financial position with a corresponding debit or credit to retained profits through other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss at the earlier of:

- the date of the plan amendment or curtailment; and
- the date that the Group recognises restructuring-related costs.

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The Group recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation under “cost of sales” and “administrative expenses” in profit or loss by function:

- service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements; and
- net interest expense or income.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Group incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. All borrowing costs are expensed in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Proposed final dividends are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Company's Articles of Association grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in the US dollar, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain subsidiaries are currencies other than the US$. As at the end of each reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into the US$ at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income are translated into the US$ at the exchange rates that approximate to those prevailing at the dates of the transactions. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of the exchange fluctuation reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into the US$ at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into the US$ at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

The major judgements, estimates and assumptions that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements and have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are set out below:

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (continued)

Useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment

The Group's management determines the useful lives, residual values and related depreciation charges for the Group's property, plant and equipment. This estimate is based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment of similar nature and functions. It could change significantly as a result of technical innovations and competitor actions in response to severe industry cycles. Management will increase the depreciation charge when useful lives and residual values are less than previously estimated, or it will write off or write down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable lives and, therefore, depreciation in the future periods.

Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets at the end of each reporting period. Indefinite life intangible assets are tested for impairment annually and at other times when such an indicator exists. Other non-financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. When value in use calculations are undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset or cash-generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

Income tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Vietnam and overseas. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of its transactions in accordance with prevailing tax regulations and makes tax provision accordingly. However, judgement is required in determining the Group's provision for income taxes as there are many transactions and calculations, of which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. When the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact on the income tax and deferred tax provision in the periods in which such determination is made. The carrying amount of current tax payables carried as liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021 was US$7,970,000 (2020: US$11,529,000).

14. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

Notes:

(a) During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group rented out certain occupied properties to independent third parties for earning rental income. At the date of change in use, the properties became investment properties. Upon the transfer from property, plant and equipment of US$3,913,000 and the related right-of-use land of US$308,000 to investment properties, these properties were revalued at US$9,435,000 with a revaluation surplus of US$5,214,000 credited to the asset revaluation reserve.

(b) As at 31 December 2020, the Group's management identified the cash-generating unit related to the operation in Cambodia ("Cambodia CGU") which indicated that impairment of its property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets may exist because the market conditions and impact after the outbreak of covid-19 pandemic were out of management's expectation. The recoverable amount of Cambodia CGU has been determined based on a value in use calculation using cash flow projections.

No impairment loss was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2020 based on the impairment assessment performed.

The Group's investment properties consist of two industrial properties and one residential complex in the PRC. The directors of the Company have determined that the investment properties consist of two classes of asset, i.e., industrial and residential, based on the nature, characteristics and risks of each property. The Group's investment properties were revalued on 31 December 2021 based on valuations performed by Asset Appraisal Limited, independent professionally qualified valuers, at US$10,399,000 (2020: US$10,069,000).

Valuation process

Each year, the Group's management decides to appoint which external valuer to be responsible for the external valuations of the Group's properties. Selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, independence and whether professional standards are maintained. The Group's management has discussions with the valuer on the valuation assumptions and valuation results twice a year when the valuations are performed for interim and annual financial reporting.

Fair value measurement using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)

Valuations are based on the income approach. The income approach is based on capitalisation of the net income and the reversionary income potential by adopting appropriate capitalisation rates, which are derived from analysis of sale transactions and valuers' interpretation of prevailing investor requirements or expectations. The prevailing market rents adopted in the valuation were determined with reference of the valuers' view of recent lettings, of the subject properties and other comparable properties.

Set out below is a summary of the valuation technique used and the key inputs to the valuation of investment properties:

Description	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable inputs	Range of unobservable inputs	Relationship of unobservable inputs to fair value
Industrial properties	Income approach	Average monthly market rent per square metre	RMB19 to RMB31 (2020: RMB19 to RMB27)	The higher the market rent, the higher the fair value
		Term yield	6% (2020: 5.85%)	The higher the term yield, the lower the fair value
Residential complex	Income approach	Average monthly market rent per square metre	RMB13 to RMB16 (2020: RMB13)	The higher the market rent, the higher the fair value
		Term yield	6% (2020: 5.85%)	The higher the term yield, the lower the fair value

The investment properties are leased to third parties under operating leases, further summary details of which are included in note 16 to the financial statements.

Leases of other land and buildings generally have lease terms between 2 and 44 years, while motor vehicles, staff quarters, warehouses and other equipment generally have lease terms of 12 months or less and/or is individually of low value. Notes:

(a) The Group's trading terms with its customers for sale of goods are mainly on credit. The credit period is generally 15 to 105 days. Each customer has a maximum credit limit. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables to minimise the credit risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management. In view of the aforementioned and the fact that the Group's trade receivables relate to certain customers with good reputation, in the opinion of the directors of the Company, there is no significant credit risk. Trade receivables are non-interest-bearing.

(b) An ageing analysis of the trade receivables as at the end of the reporting period, based on the invoice date and net of loss allowance, is as follows:

	2021 US$'000	2020 US$'000
Within 1 month	32,494	19,072

Write-back of impairment losses (note 8)	(30)	(77)
Write-off	(618)	–
At end of year	424	1,072

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The provision rates are based on the average of historical incurred credit loss experience on each ageing group of trade receivables. Customers with credit deterioration (i.e., overdue by more than 6 months) will be assessed on an individual basis for the provision of expected credit losses. Generally, trade receivables are written off if they are not considered recoverable by the Group and are not subject to enforcement activity.

Set out below is the information about the credit risk exposure on the Group's trade receivables using a provision matrix:

(d) The Group entered into a trade receivable factoring arrangement (the "Arrangement") and transferred certain trade receivables from a designated customer to a bank. Under the Arrangement, the Group would not be required to reimburse the bank for loss of interest if the trade debtor had late or default payments. Since the trade receivables factored to the bank were non-recourse, the Group had transferred the significant risks and rewards relating to these receivables, and the factored trade receivables met the criteria of derecognition. Therefore, the Group derecognised the full carrying amount of the trade receivable amounting to US$19,132,000 (2020: US$12,630,000) in these financial statements as at 31 December 2021. In the opinion of the directors, the fair value of the associated liabilities arising from the risk of late payment from trade receivables is not considered to be significant.

(e) Included in trade receivables as at 31 December 2020 was an amount due from a subsidiary of a company with significant influence over the Company of US$1,859,000 which related to provision of subcontracting services by the Group. The trade receivable was unsecured, interest-free and had a credit term of 90 days.

Note: Tax reserve certificates of the Group as at 31 December 2021 amounting to HK$24,550,000 (2020: HK$24,550,000) (equivalent to approximately US$3,147,000 (2020: US$3,147,000)) are tax reserve certificates purchased from the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong (the "IRD"). During the year ended 31 December 2018, the IRD issued notices of assessment to the Group for the years of assessment 2015/2016 and 2016/2017 following queries in connection with the offshore claim position of a subsidiary. The Group had lodged an objection against these tax assessments and had applied to hold over the tax demanded. The IRD had agreed to the holdover of the additional tax demanded, subject to the purchase of tax reserve certificates. The latest response to IRD queries were made during the year ended 31 December 2021. Subsequent to the end of the reporting period and in March 2022, IRD has issued revised tax assessments of the subsidiary for the years of assessment 2015/16 and 2016/17 which stated that no assessable profits in Hong Kong, and accordingly, income tax provision of US$3,270,000 was written back.

Corporate bonds listed in Hong Kong	7,417	–

Cash and bank balances other than time deposits	40,683	27,374
Time deposits	9,930	55,149
Cash and bank balances	50,613	82,523

Notes:

(a) Cash at banks earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Time deposits are made for varying periods of between 3 months and 12 months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the respective short term time deposit rates. The bank balances are deposited with creditworthy banks with no recent history of default.

(b) At 31 December 2021, cash and bank balances of the Group denominated in Renminbi ("RMB") amounted to US$6,739,000 (2020: US$17,296,000), of which US$959,000 (2020: US$11,696,000) were kept or deposited in banks in Mainland China. The RMB is not freely convertible into other currencies in Mainland China. However, under the PRC's Foreign Exchange Control Regulations and Administration of Settlement, Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange Regulations, the Group is permitted to exchange RMB for other currencies through banks authorised to conduct foreign exchange business.

24. TRADE AND BILLS PAYABLES

Trade and bills payables are unsecured, interest-free, and are normally settled on terms of 45 to 60 days.

An ageing analysis of the trade and bills payables as at the end of the reporting period, based on the invoice date, is as follows:

	2021 US$'000	2020 US$'000

Less: Portion classified as current liabilities		(13,433)	(12,257)
Non-current portion		186	–

Notes:

(a) Other payables are non-interest-bearing and have an average term of two months.

(b) Contract liabilities represented customers' deposits received to deliver sport bags, handbags and luggage bags. Balance amounted to US$680,000 at 1 January 2020. The decrease and increase in contract liabilities in 2021 and 2020, respectively, was mainly due to the decrease and increase in advance received from customers in relation to sale of sport bags, handbags and luggage bags.

Deferred tax liabilities recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position	(1,285)	(1,261)
Net deferred tax liabilities	(818)	(519)

Notes:

(a) Pursuant to the PRC Corporate Income Tax Law, a 10% withholding tax is levied on dividends declared to foreign investors from the foreign investment enterprises established in Mainland China. The requirement is effective from 1 January 2008 and applies to earnings after 31 December 2007. A lower withholding tax rate may be applied if there is a tax treaty between Mainland China and the jurisdiction of the foreign investors. The Group is therefore liable for withholding taxes on dividends distributed by those subsidiaries established in Mainland China in respect of earnings generated from 1 January 2008.

At 31 December 2021, no deferred tax has been recognised for withholding taxes that would be payable on the unremitted earnings that are subject to withholding taxes of the Group's subsidiaries established in Mainland China. In the opinion of the directors, it is not probable that these subsidiaries will distribute such earnings in the foreseeable future. The aggregate temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries in Mainland China for which deferred tax liabilities have not been recognised amounted to approximately US$14,014,000 (2020: US$13,907,000) as at 31 December 2021.

(b) There are no income tax consequences attaching to the payment of dividends by the Company to its shareholders.

27. DEFINED BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

PEL, a subsidiary incorporated in Taiwan, has adopted a defined benefit pension plan (the "Plan"), covering substantially all employees recruited by PEL before the implementation of the Labour Pension Act of Taiwan on 1 July 2005. The defined benefit pension plan requires contributions to be made to separately administered funds.

(a) The movements in the defined benefit obligations and the fair value of plan assets during the year are as follows:

(c) Principal assumptions

The most recent actuarial valuation of the present value of the defined benefit obligations was carried out at the end of the reporting period by ClientView Management Consulting Co., Ltd, an independent professionally qualified actuary, using the projected unit credit method. The material actuarial assumptions used in determining the defined benefit obligations for the Group's defined benefit plan are as follows:

	2021	2020
Discount rate	0.70%	0.30%
Expected rate of salary increase	3.00%	3.00%

A quantitative sensitivity analysis for the effect of changes in the discount rate and the expected rate of salary increase on the net defined benefit obligations as at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

	Increase in rate %	Increase/ (decrease) in net defined benefit obligations US$'000	Decrease in rate %	Increase/ (decrease) in net defined benefit obligations US$'000
At 31 December 2021
Discount rate	0.25	(15)	0.25	15
Expected rate of salary increase	0.25	15	0.25	(15)
At 31 December 2020
Discount rate	0.25	(20)	0.25	21
Expected rate of salary increase	0.25	20	0.25	(20)

(c) (continued)

The sensitivity analysis above has been determined based on a method that extrapolates the impact on net defined benefit obligations as a result of reasonable changes in key assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period.

At 31 December 2021, the expected contribution to be made within the next 12 months out of the defined benefit obligations was US$12,000 (2020: US$20,000).

The total number of shares in respect of which options may be granted at any time under the Share Option Scheme is not permitted to exceed 10% of the shares of the Company in issue as at 13 July 2018, without prior approval from the Company's shareholders. Further, the maximum number of shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding share options granted and yet to be exercised under the Share Option Scheme and any other schemes of the Company shall not exceed 30% of the issued share capital of the Company from time to time. The maximum number of shares issuable under share options to each eligible person in the Share Option Scheme within any 12-month period is limited to 1% of the ordinary shares of the Company in issue at any time. Any further grant of share options in excess of this limit is subject to shareholders' approval in a general meeting.

Options may be exercised at any time during a period to be determined by the directors which shall not be later than ten years from the date of grant of the option subject to the provisions for early termination thereof.

The exercise price of the share options shall be a price determined by the board of directors of the Company and notified to an eligible person and shall be at least the highest of (i) the nominal value of a share of the Company; (ii) the closing price of the Company's shares as stated in the daily quotations sheet of the Stock Exchange on the offer date; and (iii) the average of the closing prices of the Company's shares as stated in the daily quotations sheets of the Stock Exchange for the five trading days immediately preceding the offer date.

No share options were granted during 2021 and 2020, and hence, there was no outstanding option under the Share Option Scheme as at 31 December 2021 and 2020.

35. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Management has assessed that the fair values of cash and bank balances, trade receivables, trade and bills payables, financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables, and financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short term maturities of these instruments.

The Group's finance department headed by the finance controller is responsible for determining the policies and procedures for the fair value measurement of financial instruments. The finance controller reports directly to the audit committee. At each reporting date, the finance department analyses the movements in the values of financial instruments and determines the major inputs applied in the valuation. The valuation is reviewed and approved by the management. The valuation process and results are discussed with the audit committee twice a year for interim and annual financial reporting.

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following method and assumption was used to estimate the fair values:

The fair values of financial instruments traded in active markets are based on quoted market prices at the reporting date. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current price within the bid-ask spread which is the most representative of the fair value in the given circumstances. The fair values of other financial assets and financial liabilities are determined in accordance with the generally accepted pricing models based on discounted cash flow analysis.

Fair value hierarchy

The following tables illustrate the fair value measurement hierarchy of the Group's financial instruments that are carried at fair value in the consolidated statement of financial position:

	Fair value measured using
	Quoted prices in active markets (Level 1) US$'000	Significant observable inputs (Level 2) US$'000	Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) US$'000	Total US$'000

Equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income	–	–	2	2
Trade receivables	–	1,293	–	1,293

During the year, there were no transfers of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2 for both financial assets and financial liabilities (2020: Nil).

36. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments, other than an equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, comprise cash and cash equivalents. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial instruments such as trade receivables and trade and bills payables, which arise directly from its operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are (a) interest rate risks, (b) foreign currency risk, (c) credit risk and (d) liquidity risk. The Group does not have any written risk management policies and guidelines. However, the board of directors meets periodically to analyse and formulate measures to manage the Group's exposure to these risks. Generally, the Group introduces conservative strategies on its risk management. As the Group's exposure to these risks is kept to a minimum, the Group has minimal use of derivatives and other instruments for trading purposes. The board of directors review and agree policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised as follows:

(a) Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's cash at banks with floating interest rates.

If interest rates had been 100 basis points higher (lower) and all other variables were held constant, the Group's profit before tax for the year ended 31 December 2021 would have increased (decreased) by US$407,000 (2020: US$274,000).

(b) Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. As a result of its significant investment operations in Mainland China and Vietnam, the Group's consolidated statement of financial position can be affected significantly by movements in the RMB/US$ and Vietnamese Dong ("VND")/US$ exchange rates.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity at the end of the reporting period to reasonably possible changes in the RMB/US$ and VND/US$ exchange rates, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax.

	Increase/(decrease) in profit before tax
	2021	2020
	US$'000	US$'000
If RMB weakens against US$ by 5%	(57)	(535)
If RMB strengthens against US$ by 5%	57	535
If VND weakens against US$ by 5%	255	211
If VND strengthens against US$ by 5%	(255)	(211)

36. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(c) Credit risk

At the end of the reporting period, trade receivables from six (2020: six) customers of the Group accounted for approximately 76% (2020: 64%) of the Group's trade receivables.

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, as receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the counterparty has a good history of repayment, the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant.

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

The tables below show the credit quality and the maximum exposure to credit risk based on the Group's credit policy, which is mainly based on past due information unless other information is available without undue cost or effort, and year-end staging classification as at 31 December. The amounts presented are gross carrying amounts for financial assets.

As at 31 December 2021

(e) Price risk

The Group is exposed to securities price risk because investments held by the Group are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Unrealised gains and losses arising from the change in the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in the profit or loss. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may adjust the dividend payment to its shareholders or issue new shares to increase capital.
