Turnover by Business _

For the year ended 31st December

Year In Review

The group serves more than 200 cities. Currently, the Group has become the close partner of renowned developers such as Sun Hung Kai Properties, Vanke, Evergrande, Poly, China Resources Land, Citic, Kingold, Kaisa, Times China, China Merchants Property Development, R&F Properties, Agile Property, KWG Property, Logan, Yuexiu, Huafa, Gemdale and Country Garden. The Group is continuing its efforts to expand its customer base and services and secure more agency projects in different regions, reinforcing its leading position in China's property service market.

Year In Review

In 2021, the property agency services will continue to be the core business of the Group. Given the prevalence of internet technology, the Group has integrated mobile network and online financial services with its traditional service so as to improve the operational mode of the industry and create room for sustainable development, thus ultimately providing more comprehensive services to customers.

Chairman's Statement

In 2021, the property market in mainland China underwent a dramatic change, with in-depth adjustments, particularly in the second half of the year, bringing an end to the industry's "three highs" model of high debt, high leverage and high turnover. The continuous and rapid shift of related policies led to a sharp deterioration in the market environment, with a number of property enterprises suffering from a lack of liquidity, defaulting on their debts successively, and delaying payments to suppliers and different sectors of the operation becoming commonplace. The industry is facing a major adjustment and big challenges.

Despite the difficult market environment and the various constraints on its business operations, the Group was able to withstand different pressures and see a ray of hope ahead. Leveraging its years of operating experience, the Group made steady breakthroughs with major projects in key regions, essentially safeguarding performance and revenue sources of the Company, and is working diligently to get through this exceptionally difficult period and promote future business development.

In 2021, the Group's overall turnover amounted to HK$7,166 million, representing an increase of 16% as compared with the same period last year. Loss attributable to shareholders was HK$545 million. The loss was mainly attributable to the provision of additional allowance of HK$458 million on expected credit loss ("ECL") of the Group's outstanding loan receivables and accounts receivables from certain customers engaged in property related services and property development whose credit quality has worsened in the fourth quarter of 2021.

Chairman's Statement

INTEGRATION OF INTERNET-BASED AND TRADITIONAL PROPERTY REAL ESTATE AGENCY SERVICES BUSINESS TO FOSTER DEVELOPMENT CONTINUOUS OPTIMISATION OF FINANCIAL SERVICES BUSINESS

As a leading property real estate agency services company with a nationwide presence, the Group closely monitors the changes in market and industry trend. The Group believes that based on its extensive offline practical experience and accumulation of customer resources over the years, a model combining online internet operations with traditional offline real estate agency services business will increase its competitiveness and be more methodical and effective in expanding its business. Thus, in recent years, the Group has continued to invest in and focus on cultivating its "Al Hopefluent" platform, and its efforts have started to bear fruit. The online model can effectively supplement the traditional offline model through business practice, with AI data mining and our professional team facilitating a notable increase in the viewing and transaction rates against the traditional model. During the year under review, our property real estate agency services business maintained a stable performance, with turnover increasing from HK$5,994 million in 2020 to HK$6,986 million in 2021, representing an increase of 17%. The substantial growth was mainly attributable to entrusting the marketing coordination for some their projects to subsidiaries of the Group by certain developers in order to accelerate sales. While this appeared to increase revenue, the Group had to incur substantial external staff costs in linking various marketing and sales channels.

The changing domestic and international situation and policy environment has affected the development of the property market in China, tightening the overall financing environment for property enterprises. As a result, the Group's financial services business was affected during the year, representing a decline in segment performance as compared with the same period last year. Going forward, the Group will closely monitor changes in the financial environment as well as in the industry and the market, adjust the positioning and strategic focus of its financial services, with effective risk control as a priority, and respond to different needs of customers with its diversified product portfolio.

CONCLUSION

Looking ahead, the Chinese economy is expected to maintain steady growth momentum. Despite the increasing instability and uncertainty in both the domestic and international environments and the emergence of new challenges, I believe that, with the real estate industry being one of the pillar industries of the Chinese economy and vital to social development and people's livelihoods, and after the blows and obstacles of 2021, a more favorable environment and policies are likely to follow. Recently, senior government officials held a meeting to establish the approach to improve the economy, which ultimately expressed the need for policies to set things right, and, consequently, means that the real estate industry can expect to see a new round of rebound.

Market data of the Mainland China shows that there is still huge room for growth of demand for properties, and the urban value of advantageous cities will become increasingly prominent. The Group will continue to integrate its "online + offline" business model to enlarge its market share in those advantageous cities. At present, the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Bay Area (the Greater Bay Area) is in the major development period, with favorable policies driving the growth of the cities and the huge demand for real estate market. As a leading property real estate agency services company headquartered in Guangzhou, the Group has established a presence in the developed urban areas and regions including the Greater Bay Area and the Yangtze River Delta. The Group will strive to seize the opportunities to develop its business, and will continuously stimulate the vitality in its sustainable operation with an aim of bringing greater value to local communities and the Company's shareholders.

On behalf of the Group and the board of directors, I would like to thank all Hopefluent staff for their unremitting efforts to achieve good results, and also our shareholders, customers and investors for their continued support to and trust in the Group. All Hopefluent members will continue to work together persistently to deliver better returns to our shareholders.

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW

I. Market Review for the Year 2021

2021 was a turbulent year for the property market in China. During the year, the country tightened various control measures and intensified deleveraging and liability reduction efforts, implementing policies such as "pre-sale proceeds supervision", "purchase restriction", "credit restriction", "price restriction" and "guidance on secondary property transaction prices". The continuous and rapid shift in policy posed severe challenges to the industry in terms of financing and repayment, and a number of property enterprises are facing defaults on debts, further affecting market confidence. Under the influence of a series of policies, the "three highs" development model of high debt, high leverage and high turnover in the property industry came to an end, and the market environment deteriorated sharply in the second half of the year. With property buyers worried about the market outlook, developers' sales returns have slumped and government revenue from land transactions dropped across the board, affecting all parties involved in the market. As the Group is principally engaged in the property real estate agency services business, the Group's annual results were inevitably severely affected as a large number of our partners, being major developers, experienced operating difficulties and it became much more difficult for the Group to obtain commissions.

II. Business Review of the Group

For the year ended 31st December, 2021, the Group generated turnover of HK$7,166 million, representing an increase of approximately 16% over the same period last year (2020: HK$6,193 million). Loss attributable to shareholders amounted to HK$545 million (2020: profit attributable to shareholders: HK$184 million). Basic loss per share was HK80.8 cents (2020: basic earnings per share: HK27.3 cents). The Board did not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the year ended 31st December, 2021.

In 2021, the Group recorded turnover of HK$6,986 million from its property real estate agency services business, accounting for 97% of the Group's total turnover. Turnover from the financial services business was approximately HK$180 million, accounting for 3% of the Group's total turnover. Total new home sales in 2021 amounted to approximately HK$608 billion, resulting from the completion of around 377,000 transactions with a total gross floor area of around 33 million square meters.

1. Property real estate agency services business

Turnover of the Group's property real estate agency services business increased from HK$5,994 million in 2020 to HK$6,986 million in 2021, representing an increase of 17%. The growth was mainly attributable to entrusting of the marketing coordination for some of their projects to subsidiaries of the Group by certain developers in order to accelerate sales. However, the Group had to incur substantial external staff costs in linking various marketing and sales channels. Therefore, this business model could not improve the Group's profitability in the harsh market environment, resulting in an operating loss in the property real estate agency services business. The deterioration in the credit quality of certain developers also hindered the collection of the Group's receivables.

Since the implementation of the "three red lines" policy and the continued tightening of austerity measures, a number of property enterprises in China have experienced financial difficulties and insufficient cash flow. The debt crisis of the subsidiaries of these enterprises has spread to all levels of society. Issues such as the overdue payments associated with wealth management products of the subsidiaries of those enterprises, the suspension of construction works and the delayed delivery of large numbers of units have had a significant impact on the overall economy of China. As a result of the deterioration in credit quality of certain property developer customers in the fourth quarter of 2021, the Group made additional provision for expected credit losses ("ECLs") on outstanding accounts receivable, which affected the Group's overall performance. Therefore, an increase of HK$306 million was recorded in the provision for ECLs on accounts receivable for the year ended 31st December, 2021.

In the face of the sporadic outbreaks of the pandemic and the weakening operating environment of the industry, the Group made certain preparations in advance and adopted an online and offline two-pronged development model to broaden its income sources. However, the Group recorded a loss for the year due to poor market conditions and the unstable market environment. Currently, the Group's property real estate agency services business has a network that covers more than 200 cities in China, with more than 2,100 agency projects and approximately 310 secondary branches.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2. Financial services business

As the macroeconomic environment was constrained by a number of factors, which were felt especially hard in the mainland property market, the Group's financial services business was inevitably affected and recorded a weaker performance than the same period last year. In view of the challenges, the Group has taken measures timely to streamline its structure and reduce costs, and has closely market changes to adjust the positioning and strategic focus of its financial services. In addition, with risk control being a priority, the Group has leveraged its diversified product portfolio to respond to different customer needs.

As a result of the deterioration in the credit quality of certain customers engaged in property related services in the fourth quarter of 2021, the Group made additional provision for expected credit losses ("ECLs") on outstanding loan receivables, which affected the Group's overall performance. Therefore, an increase of HK$152 million was recorded in the provision for ECLs on loan receivables for the year ended 31st December, 2021.

During the year under review, the total transaction value of the Group's financial services business amounted to HK$2.5 billion. Turnover was approximately HK$180 million (2020: HK$199 million).

III. Prospects for 2022

Mindful of the increasing importance of maintaining economic stability, the Chinese government's regulatory mindset has gradually shifted, placing more emphasis on the positive impact of "market stability" on society. In March 2022, the mainland government clearly stated its plan to "support the commercial housing market to better meet the reasonable needs of buyers and adopt city-specific policies to promote the virtuous circle and healthy development of the property industry". Since the end of 2021, the overly tight financial and local control measures have been gradually adjusted and amended. The central bank also announced interest rate cuts to stabilize the market, which has undoubtedly eased the downward pressure on the industry and helped rebuild market confidence.

As a result of these policies, market confidence has gradually recovered and sales in some cities have already picked up. The Group believes that its business will continue to face challenges going forward, but the ongoing urbanization process and growth in demand for housing improvement can broaden the demand for real estate. At present, the Group is closely monitoring market changes and pressing ahead with its online and offline dual development model which has proven worthy of its R&D efforts and investment, and is focusing on maintaining solid relationships with strong property developers in the market. With the aim of ensuring stable revenue, the Group will continue to develop its business in key regions such as the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Bay Area and the Yangtze River Delta. In the face of the complex and volatile market environment, the Group will also actively seek better ways to respond to market demand and develop better services. Looking ahead, the Group will continue to uphold its prudent and pragmatic approach, "keep a low profile and work hard on improving its innate strengths", striving to generate long-term and sustainable returns for its shareholders.

("Hopefluent China" with its subsidiaries "Hopefluent China Group") of the group of 保利地產投資顧問有限公司 (in English, for identification purpose only, Poly Real Estate Investment Consultancy Co., Ltd.) Therefore, the operations of the Group does not have significant impact to the environment and does not generate significant air and greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions, discharges into water and land and hazardous and non-hazardous waste. | Ink cartridge | 1,900 | 7,000 |

Consumption of ink cartridge declined due to the increase in on-line document delivery during the year.

The Group's workplace effluents and wastes are limited which are attributed to the operation of the Company's offices and property real estate agency service branches. Workplace wastes are treated by the property management companies maintaining the Group's offices and branches. Our GHG emissions are indirect, principally resulting from electricity consumed at the Company's offices and branches as well as from business travel by some employees.

Owing to its business nature, the main air emissions of the Group are the GHG emissions, arising from the use of electricity in the office and branch operations. The total GHG emissions for the year was about 5,800 tonnes (2020: 6,980 tonnes) in carbon dioxide equivalent. Consumption of petrol has been increased because of the increased business turnover.

| Direct GHG emission — petrol consumption | 1,630 | 995 |
| Indirect GHG emission — electricity consumption | 4,160 | 5,963 |
| Other indirect GHG emission — paper and water consumption | 10 | 22 |
| Total GHG emission | 5,800 | 6,980 |

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF HOPEFLUENT GROUP HOLDINGS LIMITED

合富輝煌集團控股有限公司 (incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Hopefluent Group Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 52 to 123, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31st December, 2021, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31st December, 2021, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certificated Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter

Recoverability of accounts receivable

At 31st December, 2021, the Group's accounts receivable amounted to HK$1,204 million (2020:HK$1,833 million) with an allowance for doubtful debts of HK$438 million as at 31st December 2021 (2020: HK$125 million) as disclosed in note 21 to the consolidated financial statements, representing 21% (2020:29%) of the current assets of the Group.

Loss allowances for accounts receivable are based on management's estimate of the lifetime expected credit losses ("ECLs") to be incurred, which is estimated by taking into account the credit loss experience, aging of overdue accounts receivable, customers' repayment history and customers' credit rating, financial position and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions, all of which involve a significant degree of management judgement.

Assessment of the recoverability of accounts receivable and recognition of ECL allowance are inherently subjective and requires significant management judgement, hence, we identified the recoverability of accounts receivable as key audit matter.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to the recoverability of accounts receivable included, amongst others:

- Assessing, on a sample basis, whether items in the accounts receivable report were classified within the appropriate aging bracket by comparing individual items in the report with the relevant invoices;
 - Considering the appropriateness of the ECL loss allowance recorded against accounts receivable, with reference to the aging of accounts receivable balances, economic conditions, concentration of counterparty risk and past history of debt recovery;
- Evaluating the competency, capabilities and objectivity of the independent professional valuer of the Group;
- Involving our internal valuation experts to evaluate the management of the Group's judgment in assessing the valuation's key assumptions and methodology in deriving the ECL.
- Reviewing subsequent settlement records and challenging management regarding their reasons for not considering a provision against any unsettled past-due balances.

Key audit matter

Recoverability of loan receivables

As at 31st December, 2021, the carrying amount of loan receivables was HK$645 million (2020: HK$731 million), net of allowance on loan receivables of HK$201 million as at 31st December 2021(2020: HK$47 million) as disclosed in note 20 to the consolidated financial statements, representing 9% (2020: 10%) of the total assets of the Group. As at 31st December, 2021, the carrying amounts of loan receivables of HK$85 million (2020: HK$278 million) were receivable in more than one year. The loans bear fixed interest rates ranging from 6% to 21.6% (2020: from 4% to 18%) per annum.

Loss allowances for loan receivables are based on management's estimate of the 12 months ("12m") ECL to be incurred, which is estimated by taking into account the credit loss experience, aging of overdue loan receivables, customers' repayment history and customers' financial position and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions, all of which involve a significant degree of management judgement.

Assessment of the recoverability of loan receivables and recognition of ECL allowance are inherently subjective and requires significant management judgement, hence, we identified the recoverability of loan receivables as a key audit matter. How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to the recoverability of loan receivables included, amongst others:

- Obtaining an understanding on how the allowance on loan receivables is estimated by the management and assessing the management's process in determining the estimated future cash flows of loan receivables;
 - Checking the aging analysis, on a sample basis, against repayment terms set out on loan agreements and subsequent settlements of the loan receivables, on a sample basis, to the source documents, including bank statements;
 - Identifying any loan receivables with delay in payments during the year from the register of loan receivables and evaluating the management's assessment of the recoverability of each of these loan receivables with reference to the status of each of these individual borrowers and the Group's debt collection actions;
- Assessing the reasonableness of allowance on loan receivables with reference to the credit history including individual's personal credit rating reports, delay in payments, interest settlement records, subsequent settlements and aging analysis of the loan receivables;
- Evaluating the historical accuracy of the management's assessment of impairment for loan receivables, on a sample basis, by examining the actual write-offs, the reversals of previous recorded allowance and new allowances recorded in the current year in respect of loan receivables at the end of the previous financial year; and
- Reviewing the appropriateness of ECL three stage model and ECL allowance against loan receivables and challenging management regarding their reasons for not considering a lifetime ECL against any credit-impaired balances.

Key audit matter

Goodwill impairment assessment

As at 31st December, 2021, the Group had goodwill with carrying amounts of HK$219 million (2020: HK$213 million) arising from the acquisition of property real estate agency businesses.

Management will perform impairment assessment on the amount of goodwill annually, and will perform impairment assessment when there is an indication of impairment. For the purpose of assessing impairment, management assessed the recoverable amount of these assets based on higher of its fair value less cost of disposal and value-in-use. These assets were allocated to cash generating units (the "CGUs"), and the recoverable amount of each CGU was determined by management based on value-in-use calculations using cash flow projections.

The impairment test involves significant judgements and assumptions by the management underlying the value-in-use calculation.

No impairment loss on goodwill was recognised for both years ended 31st December, 2021 and 2020.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our procedures in relation to the management's impairment assessment included, amongst others:

- Assessing the identification of the related CGUs;
- Evaluating and challenging the composition of the Group's cash flows forecasts in each CGU, and the process by which they were drawn up, including testing the underlying value-in-use calculations and comparing them to approved budgets. We noted that the management has followed their clearly documented process for drawing up future cash flow forecasts, which was subject to timely review by the directors and which was consistent with the approved budgets;
- Challenging the reasonableness of key assumptions based on our knowledge of the business and industry;
- Utilising our valuation specialists' work when considering the appropriateness of the long term growth rate; and
- Subjecting the key assumptions to sensitivity analysis.

We found the key assumptions made by the management in relation to the value-in-use calculations to be reasonable based on available evidence. The key assumptions have been appropriately disclosed in note 18.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibility in this regard.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRSs, Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs") and Interpretations (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "HKFRSs") and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange (the "Listing Rules").

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for investment properties and financial assets at FVTPL which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods or services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment, leasing transactions that are accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 16, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 Inventories or value in use in HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets.

A fair-value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The principal accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Group's voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Group, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Group has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the noncontrolling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the noncontrolling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Non-controlling interests in subsidiaries are presented separately from the Group's equity therein, which represent ownership interests entitling their holders to a proportionate share of net assets of the relevant subsidiaries upon liquidation.

Changes in the Group's interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries, including re-attribution of relevant reserves between the Group and the non-controlling interests according to the Group's and the non-controlling interests' proportionate interests.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted, and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary and non-controlling interests (if any) are derecognised. A gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs). The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under HKFRS9 or, when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture.

Business combinations

Acquisitions of businesses, other than business combination under common control, are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are generally recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities and liabilities or assets related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with HKAS 12 Income Taxes and HKAS 19 Employee Benefits respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment at the acquisition date;
- assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with HKFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that standard; and
- lease liabilities are recognised and measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments (as defined in HKFRS 16) as if the acquired leases were new leases at the acquisition date (except for leases for which (a) the lease term ends within 12 months of the acquisition date; or (b) the underlying asset is of low value). Right-of-use assets are recognised and measured at the same amount as the relevant lease liabilities adjusted to reflect favourable or unfavourable terms of the lease when compared with market terms.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net amount of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed as at acquisition date. If, after re-assessment, the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed as durited and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the relevant subsidiary's net assets in the event of liquidation are initially measured at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets or at fair value. The choice of measurement basis is made on a transaction-by-transaction basis. Other types of non-controlling interests are measured at their fair value.

When the consideration transferred by the Group in a business combination includes a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively. Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the "measurement period" (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as an asset or a liability is remeasured to fair value at subsequent reporting dates, with the corresponding gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Group obtains control), and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognised in other comprehensive income and measured under HKFRS 9 would be accounted for on the same basis as would be required if the Group had disposed directly of the previously held equity interest.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted retrospectively during the measurement period (see above), and additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognised at that date.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business (see the accounting policy above) less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units ("CGUs") (or groups of CGUs) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

A CGU (or group of CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the CGU (or group of CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount of the CGU is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or group of CGUs).

On disposal of the relevant CGU or any of the CGU within the group of CGUs, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal. When the Group disposes of an operation within the CGU (or a CGU within a group of CGUs), the amount of goodwill disposed of is measured on the basis of the relative values of the operation (or the CGU) disposed of and the portion of the CGU (or the group of CGUs) retained.

The Group's policy for goodwill arising on the acquisition of an associate and a joint venture is described below.

Investments in associates and a joint venture

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates and joint venture are incorporated in the consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associates and joint venture used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Appropriate adjustments have been made to conform the associate's and the joint venture's accounting policies to those of the Group. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate or a joint venture is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate or joint venture. Changes in net assets of the associate/joint venture other than profit or loss and other comprehensive income are not accounted for unless such changes resulted in changes in ownership interest held by the Group. When the Group's share of losses of an associate or joint venture exceeds the Group's net investment in the associate or joint venture), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate or joint venture.

An investment in an associate or a joint venture is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate or a joint venture. On acquisition of the investment in an associate or a joint venture, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate or a joint venture may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate or joint control over a joint venture, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate or joint venture and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of HKFRS 9, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing the relevant interest in the associate or joint venture is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate or joint venture. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate or joint venture on the same basis as would be required if that associate or joint venture had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if or loss on the disposal of the related assets or joint venture would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) upon disposal/partial disposal of the relevant associate or joint venture.

The Group continues to use the equity method when an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or an investment in a joint venture becomes an investment in an associate. There is no remeasurement to fair value upon such changes in ownership interests.

When the Group reduces its ownership interest in an associate or a joint venture but the Group continues to use the equity method, the Group reclassifies to profit or loss the proportion of the gain or loss that had previously been recognised in other comprehensive income relating to that reduction in ownership interest if that gain or loss would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities.

When a group entity transacts with an associate or a joint venture of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate or joint venture are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate or joint venture that are not related to the Group.

Impairment losses on tangible assets

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of tangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that these assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the relevant asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any.

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the asset belongs.

In addition, the Group assesses whether there is indication that corporate assets may be impaired. If such indication exists, corporate assets are also allocated to individual CGU, when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of CGUs for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a CGU) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a CGU, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of CGUs, including the carrying amount of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of CGUs, with the recoverable amount of the group of CGUs. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of CGUs. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of CGUs. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU or a group of CGUs) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a CGU or a group of CGUs) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to depict the transfer of promised services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those services, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts. Specifically, the Group uses a 5-steps approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to each performance obligation
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when each performance obligation is satisfied

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to customers.

Control of the services may be transferred over time or at a point in time. Control of the services is transferred over time if:

- the consumer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the entity's performance as the entity performs;
- the Group's performance creates and enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control of the services transfers over time, revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the services.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer a significant benefit of financing the transfer of services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amounts receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. Where the contract contains a financing component which provides a significant financing benefit to the Group, revenue recognised under that contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For contracts where the period between the payment and the transfer of the promised services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

Revenue from real estate agency services is recognised at a point in time when the service is rendered and (a) the property buyer has executed the sales and purchase agreement and made the required down-payment to the relevant property developers or (b) the sales and purchase agreement has been registered with the relevant government authorities according to the terms and conditions stated in different agency contracts. Based on terms and conditions in agency contracts and customary industry practice, real estate agency service income is not required to return to property sellers when the property buyers have made the required payments to the relevant property developers which became non-refundable.

Revenue from mortgage referral and other financial service income is recognised at a point in time when the service is rendered and the individual parties or entities have signed legally binding agreements with customers, since only by that time the Group has an enforceable right to payment for the services performed.

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial assets.

Rental income, including rental invoiced in advance from properties let under operating leases, is recognised on a straight-line basis over the period of the relevant leases.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customers.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

The fair value of services received determined by reference to the fair value of share options/shares granted at the grant date is recognised as an expense in full at the grant date when the share options/shares granted vest immediately, with a corresponding increase in equity (share options reserve).

When the share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share options reserve will be transferred to share premium. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share options reserve will be transferred to retained earnings.

For the year ended 31st December, 2021

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment including leasehold land and buildings held for use in the supply of services or for administrative purposes are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation.

Investment properties also include leased properties which are being recognised as right-of-use assets upon application of HKFRS 16 and subleased by the Group under operating leases.

Investment properties are initially measured at cost, including any directly attributable expenditure. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are measured at their fair values adjusted to exclude any prepaid or accrued operating lease income.

All of the Group's land and buildings and rights of use assets (where the Group is a lessee) held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation purposes are accounted for as investment properties and are measured using the fair value model. Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of investment property are included in profit or loss for the period in which they arise.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposals. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the property (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the profit or loss in the period in which the property is derecognised.

Leasing

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified or arising from business combinations on or after the date of initial application, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group as a lessee

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

For a contract that contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued) Leasing (Continued)

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases of property that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. It also applies the recognition exemption for lease of low-value assets. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis or another systematic basis over the lease term.

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments ("HKFRS 9") and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets (Continued)

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in market rental rates following a market rent review/expected payment under a guaranteed residual value, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The Group accounts for the remeasurement of lease liabilities by making corresponding adjustments to the relevant right-ofuse asset. When the modified contract contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Group as a lessor

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

When a contract includes both leases and non-lease components, the Group applies HKFRS 15 to allocate consideration in a contract to lease and non-lease components. Non-lease components are separated from lease component on the basis of their relative stand-alone selling prices.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Sublease

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, it accounts for the head lease and the sublease as two separate contracts. The sublease is classified as a finance or operating lease by reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease, not with reference to the underlying asset.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. Hong Kong dollars) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during the period, in which case, the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of the translation reserve (attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate).

On the disposal of a foreign operation (i.e. a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation), all of the exchange differences accumulated in equity in respect of that operation attributable to the owners of the Company are reclassified to profit or loss.

In addition, in relation to a partial disposal of a subsidiary that does not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiary, the proportionate share of accumulated exchange differences are re-attributed to non-controlling interests and are not recognised in profit or loss. For all other partial disposals (i.e. partial disposals of associates or joint arrangements that do not result in the Group losing significant influence or joint control), the proportionate share of the accumulated exchange differences is reclassified to profit or loss.

Capitalisation of borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Any specific borrowing that remain outstanding after the related asset is ready for its intended use or sale is included in the general borrowing pool for calculation of capitalisation rate on general borrowings.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received,

Government grants related to income that are receivables as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Such grants are presented under "other income".

Retirement benefit costs

Payments to state-managed retirement benefit schemes and the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF Scheme") are recognised as expenses when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on the taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates, and joint venture, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for investment properties that are measured using the fair value model, the carrying amounts of such properties are presumed to be recovered entirely through sale, unless the presumption is rebutted. The presumption is rebutted when the investment property is depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the investment property over time, rather than through sale.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they are related to income taxes levied by the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

Taxation (Continued)

In assessing any uncertainty over income tax treatments, the Group considers whether it is probable that the relevant tax authority will accept the uncertain tax treatment used, or proposed to be used by individual group entities in their income tax filings. If it is probable, the current and deferred taxes are determined consistently with the tax treatment in the income tax filings. If it is not probable that the relevant taxation authority will accept an uncertain tax treatment, the effect of each uncertainty is reflected by using either the most likely amount or the expected value.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of asset within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace concerned.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. Interest/ dividend income which are derived from the Group's ordinary course of business are presented as revenue.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"):

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL, except that at the date of initial application/initial recognition of a financial asset the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in fair value of an equity investment in other comprehensive income ("OCI") if that equity investment is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 Business Combinations applies.

A financial asset is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

In addition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that are required to be measured at the amortised cost or FVOCI as measured at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.

(i) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVOCI or designated as FVOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any dividend earned on the financial asset and is included in the "other gains and losses" line item.

(ii) Equity instruments designated as at FVOCI

Investments in equity instruments at FVOCI are subsequently measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in OCI and accumulated in the investment revaluation reserve; and are not subject to impairment assessment. The cumulative gain or loss will not be reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the equity investments, and will be transferred to retained earnings.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss ("ECL") model on financial assets (including accounts and loan receivables, other receivables, amounts due from a joint venture/an associate, pledged bank deposits and bank balances) which are subject to impairment under HKFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for accounts receivable. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Unless identified at initial recognition, the management considered loan receivables are unimpaired and without significant increase in credit risk on which a 12m ECL is recognised. Loan receivables are deemed to have suffered a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition when they are 30 days past due and are transferred from stage 1 to stage 2 on which a lifetime ECL is recognised. For loan receivables past due over 151 days, they are considered to be credit-impaired and are transferred from stage 2 to stage 3.

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12m ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the cognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a debt instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A debt instrument is contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and (iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flows obligation. The Group considers a debt instrument to have low credit risk when it has an internal or external credit rating of 'investment grade' as per globally understood definitions.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collateral held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 365 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events of default that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- (a) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- (b) a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- (c) the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider; or
- (d) it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of rental receivables, when the amounts are over 2 years past due, whichever occurs sooner. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights.

The measurement of ECL on accounts receivable and loan receivables are assessed on an individual basis for customers with good credit rating or with high credit risk, and the remaining is assessed collectively using provision matrix. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on those assets using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical settlement pattern, past default experience of the debtor, general economic conditions of the industry in which the debtors operate and an assessment of both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount, with the exception of rental receivables where the corresponding adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise to recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

On derecognition of an investment in a debt instrument classified as at FVOCI, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in the FVOCI reserve is reclassified to profit or loss.

On derecognition of an investment in equity instrument which the Group has elected on initial recognition to measure at FVOCI, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in the investments revaluation reserve is not reclassified to profit or loss, but is transferred to retained profits.

Financial liabilities and equity

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Company's own equity instruments is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is (i) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 applies, (ii) held for trading or (iii) it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative, except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument.

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading or contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise; or
- the financial liability forms part of a group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- it forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and HKFRS 9 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at FVTPL.

For financial liabilities that are designated as at FVTPL, the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is recognised in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss. For financial liabilities that contain embedded derivatives, such as convertible loan notes, the changes in fair value of the embedded derivatives are excluded in determining the amount to be presented in other comprehensive income are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss; instead, they are transferred to retained profits upon derecognition of the financial liability.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including payables and accruals, amount due to a joint venture and bank and other borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Financial guarantee contracts

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payments when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. Financial guarantee contract liabilities are measured initially at their fair values. It is subsequently measured at the higher of:

- the amount of the loss allowance determined in accordance with HKFRS 9; and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised over the guarantee period.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's chief operating decision makers including executive directors and senior management ("CODMs") for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

PRC enterprise income tax and deferred taxation

The Group is subject to income taxes in Mainland China. As a result of the fact that certain matters relating to the income taxes have not been confirmed by the local tax bureau, objective estimate and judgement based on currently enacted tax laws, regulations and other related policies are required in determining the provision of income taxes to be made. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts originally recorded, the differences will have impact on the income tax and tax provision in the period in which the differences realise.

Deferred tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers to be probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. The outcome of their actual utilisation may be different.

Estimated impairment of goodwill

Determining whether goodwill is impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the CGUs to which goodwill has been allocated which is higher of the value in use or fair value less cost of disposal. The value in use calculation requires the Group to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGUs and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value. Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected or change in facts and circumstances which results in downward revision of future cash, a material impairment loss/further impairment loss may arise. As at 31st December, 2021, the carrying amount of goodwill was HK$218,604,000 (2020: HK$213,399,000). Details of the recoverable amount calculation are disclosed in note 18.

For the year ended 31st December, 2021

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

Fair value measurements and valuation processes

The Group's certain assets are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes.

In estimating the fair value of an asset, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Group engages third party qualified valuers to perform the valuation.

The Group uses valuation techniques that include inputs that are not based on observable market data to estimate the fair value of investment properties and certain types of financial instruments. Notes 15 and 40c provide detailed information about the valuation techniques, inputs and key assumptions used in the determination of the fair value of various assets.

Critical judgements in applying accounting policies

The following are the critical judgements, apart from those involving estimations (see below), that the directors of the Company have made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

Deferred taxation on investment properties

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax liabilities or deferred tax assets arising from investment properties that are measured using the fair value model, the directors have reviewed the Group's investment property portfolios and concluded that the Group's investment properties are presumed to be recovered entirely through sale, unless the presumption is rebutted. The presumption is rebutted when the investment properties are depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the investment properties, the directors have determined that the presumption that the carrying amounts of investment properties measured using the fair value model are recovered entirely through sale is not rebutted. As a result, the Group has recognised the deferred taxes on changes in fair value of investment properties as the Group is subject to enterprise income tax ("EIT") and land appreciation tax ("LAT") on disposal of its investment properties.

De-facto control

De-facto control exists when the size of an entity's own voting right relative to the size and disbursement of other vote holders give the entity the practical ability to unilaterally direct the relevant activities of the investee. Although the Group holds 22.4% of voting rights in Tibet Poly Aijia Real Properties Brokerage Limited ("Tibet Poly Aijia"), according to the articles of association of Tibet Poly Aijia, all parties contractually agreed all board decisions rest on the sole discretion of Poly Real Estate Investment Consultancy Co., Ltd. ("Poly Consultancy"), an indirect subsidiary of the Group, therefore giving the Group control over Tibet Poly Aijia. The directors has determined that the Group has the practical ability to unilaterally direct the relevant activities of Tibet Poly Aijia, and has consolidated the entity as a subsidiary with a 77.6% non-controlling interest.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Operating segments and the amounts of each segment item reported in the consolidated financial statements are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's top management for the purposes of allocating resources to and assessing the performance of the Group's various lines of business.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of business activities.

Segment revenue, expenses, results and assets include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis to that segment, but exclude exceptional items. Segment capital expenditure is the total cost incurred during the year to acquire segment assets (both tangible and intangible) that are expected to be used for more than one year. Corporate portions of expenses and assets mainly comprise corporate administrative and financing expenses and corporate financial assets respectively.

The Group has the following operating segments during the year ended 31st December, 2021. These segments are managed separately. No operating segments have been aggregated to the following reportable segments.

- Property real estate agency is the provision of first hand real estate services to property developers and secondary real estate services to corporates and individuals;
- Financial services is the provision of mortgage referral and loan financing services to individuals or companies.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in note 3. Total segment revenue represents the Group's consolidated turnover as set out in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. Segment profit represents the profit earned by each segment without allocation of other income, central administrative costs including directors' emoluments, other gains and losses, impairment loss of financial assets gain on disposal of investment properties, gain on disposal of a subsidiary, share of results of associates and a joint venture, change in fair value of investment properties and finance costs. This is the measure reported to the CODM for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment.

Segment assets and liabilities

As the Group's segment assets and liabilities are not regularly reviewed by the CODMs, the measure of total assets and liabilities for each operating segment is therefore not presented.

18. GOODWILL

| | НК$′000 |

| COST | |
| At 1st January, 2020 | 200,285 |
| Exchange adjustments | 13,114 |
| At 31st December, 2020 and 1st January, 2021 | 213,399 |
| Exchange adjustments | 5,205 |
| At 31st December, 2021 | 218,604 |

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill as detailed above has been allocated to the subsidiaries as individual CGUs from which goodwill arose. The carrying amount of goodwill as at 31st December, 2021 and 2020 allocated to these units are as follows:

| | 2021 HK$'000 | 2020 HK$'000 |
|--|-------------------|-------------------|
| Provision of primary real estate agency services in the PRC ("Unit A") Provision of real estate agency services in the PRC ("Unit B") | 12,564 206,040 | 12,265 201,134 |
| | 218,604 | 213,399 |

The recoverable amount of the CGUs has been determined based on a value in use calculations. That calculation uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period, and a discount rate of 18.01% (2020: 15.6%) and 16.53% (2020: 14.8%) for Unit A and Unit B, respectively. The set of cash flows beyond five-year period are extrapolated using a growth rate of 3% (2020: a decelerating growth rate from 18% to 3%), as determined by management. Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include commission income of Unit A and Unit B, respectively and respective profit margin, such estimation is based on unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development. Management believes that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the aggregate carrying amount of the CGUs to exceed the aggregate recoverable amount.

As at 31st December, 2021 and 2020, management of the Group determines that there is no impairment of any of its CGUs containing goodwill.

36. SHARE OPTIONS SCHEME

The Company's share option scheme (the "Old Scheme"), was adopted pursuant to a resolution passed on 24th June, 2004 for the primary purpose of providing incentives or rewards to directors, eligible employees and advisors and consultants of the Group for their contributions to the Group. The Old Scheme became effective upon the listing of the Company's shares on the Stock Exchange on 15th July, 2004 and expired on 23rd June, 2014. The Company's new share option scheme (the "New Scheme"), was adopted pursuant to a resolution passed in an annual general meeting on 6th June, 2014. Under the New Scheme, the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") may grant options to eligible employees, including directors of the Company and its subsidiaries, to subscribe for shares in the Company. The New Scheme, unless otherwise cancelled or amended, will remain in force for 10 years from the date of its adoption on 6th June, 2014.

The offer of the grant of share options may be accepted within 28 days from the date of the offer, at a consideration of HK$1, payable by the grantee upon the acceptance of the offer. The options may be exercised at any time within the period commencing from the date of grant of the option and expiring on the date following 10 years from the date of acceptance of the grant of the options. Unless otherwise determined by the executive directors, the New Scheme does not require a minimum period for which the options must be held or a performance target which must be achieved before the options can be exercised.

The subscription price of the share options is determinable by the directors, but shall be the highest of (i) the closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotation sheet on the date of grant, which must be a business day; (ii) the average closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotation sheet for the five business days immediately preceding the date of grant; and (iii) the nominal value of a share of the Company.

Pursuant to the New Scheme, the maximum number of shares in the Company in respect of which options may be granted when aggregated with any other share option scheme of the Company must not exceed 10% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of adoption of the New Scheme (i.e. 52,370,190 shares). Subject to the issue of a circular and the approval of the shareholders of the Company in general meeting and/or such other requirements prescribed under the Listing Rules from time to time, the Board may refresh the limit at any time to 10% of the total number of shares in issue as at the date of approval by the shareholders of the Company in general meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised under the New Scheme and any other share option schemes of the Company at any time shall not exceed 30% of the shares in issue from time to time.

No option may be granted to any person if the total number of shares of the Company already issued and issuable to him under all the options granted to him in any 12-month period up to and including the date of grant exceeding 1% of total number of shares in issue as at the date of grant. Any further grant of options in excess of this 1% limit shall be subject to the issue of a circular by the Company and the approval of the shareholders in general meeting. Such participant and his associate (as defined in the Listing Rules) have to abstain from voting and/or comply with other requirements prescribed under the Listing Rules from time to time. Options granted to substantial shareholders or independent non-executive directors in excess of 0.1% of the Company's shares in issue and with a value in excess of HK$5 million within any 12-month period must be approved in advance by the Company's shareholders.

The outstanding share options granted under the Old Scheme shall continue to be valid and exercisable.

There were no outstanding balance of share options as at 31st December, 2021 and 2020.

For the year ended 31st December, 2021

37. RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEMES

The Group operates a MPF Scheme for all qualifying employees in Hong Kong. MPF Scheme is a defined contribution scheme in accordance with the principle of Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme Ordinance. The Group contributes 5% of relevant payroll costs which limited to HK$18,000 (2020: HK$18,000) per annum of each individual employee to the Scheme, where contribution is matched by employees. Any forfeited contributions in respect of unvested benefits of staff leavers will be used to reduce the Group's contributions. The assets of the schemes are held separately from those of the Group, in funds under the control of trustees.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of a state-managed retirement benefits scheme operated by the government of the PRC. The subsidiaries are required to contribute a specified percentage of payroll costs to the retirement benefits scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefits scheme is to make the specified contributions.

The contributions paid and payable to the schemes by the Group in respect of the year which were charged to profit or loss amounted to HK$147,352,000 (2020: HK$171,115,000).

39. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's objective of managing capital is to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce cost of capital.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher shareholders' returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position, and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions.

As consistent with industry practice, the Group monitors its capital structure on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as total liabilities divided by total assets.

The gearing ratio as at the end of the reporting period is as follows:

| | 2021 HK$'000 | 2020 HK$'000 |
|-------------------|------------------|------------------|
| Total liabilities | 2,881,624 | 2,658,649 |

40b. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include accounts receivable, amounts due from a joint venture/an associate, loan receivables, other receivables, financial assets at FVTPL, bank balances, pledged bank deposits, payables and bank and other borrowings. Details of the financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments in the normal course of the Group's business are market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Market risk

Currency risk

The Group substantively operated in the PRC with most of the transactions settled in RMB and did not have significant exposure to risk resulting from changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Several subsidiaries of the Company have foreign currency assets, including bank balances and cash, which exposed the Group to foreign currency risk.

The Group is mainly exposed to the currency risk of Australian dollars ("AUD").

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets at the reporting date are as follows:

| | Ass | ets |
|-----|--------|--------|
| | 2021 | 2020 |
| | НК'000 | HK'000 |

Sensitivity analysis

The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% (2020: 5%) increase/decrease in AUD against 5% (2020: 5%) is the sensitivity rate used which represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the end of the reporting period for a 5% (2020: 5%) change in foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in post-tax profit where HK$ strengthen 5% (2020: 5%) against AUD. For a 5% (2020: 5%) weakening of HK$ against AUD, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the profit and the balance would be negative.

| | HK$ II | npact |
|----------------|---------|--------|
| | 2021 | 2020 |
| | HK'000 | HK'000 |
| Profit or loss | 214 | 257 |

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk as the year end exposure does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to loan receivables, amounts due from a joint venture/an associate and fixed-rate other borrowings.

The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank balances because these balances carry interest at prevailing rates and they are of short maturity. The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank borrowings and variable-rate other borrowings.

The Group currently does not have any interest rate hedging policy in relation to fair value interest rate risk and cash flow interest rate risk. The directors monitor the Group's exposure on ongoing basis and will consider hedging the interest rate should the need arises.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for variable-rate bank balances and variable-rate bank and other borrowings. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 25 basis points (2020: 25 basis points) increase or decrease is used which represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

If interest rates had been 25 basis points (2020: 25 basis points) higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's post-tax profit for the year ended 31st December, 2021 would have increased/decreased by HK$3,225,000 (2020: increased/decreased by HK$5,350,000).

In the management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent interest rate risk as the year end exposure does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Other price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price risk through its investments in listed equity securities. The management manages this exposure by closely monitoring the price fluctuation of the investment. As at 31st December, 2021, the Group's equity price risk is mainly concentrated on the equity instruments operating in different industry sectors listed on the Hong Kong, Shanghai and Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to equity price risks at the reporting date.

If the prices of the equity instrument had been 5% (2020: 5%) higher/lower and all other variables were held constant for the year ended 31st December, 2021, the Group's post-tax profit for the year would have increased/decreased by HK$521,000 (2020: HK$650,000) as a result of the changes in fair value of financial assets at FVTPL.

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent price risk as the year end exposure does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Credit risk

As at 31st December, 2021, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group's concentration of credit risk by geographical locations is mainly in the PRC, which accounted for 100% (2020: 100%) of the total loan receivables, accounts receivable and amount dues from an associate/a joint venture as at 31st December, 2021. The Group also has concentration of credit risk as 12.0% (2020: 18.2%) and 4.6% (2020: 12.8%) of the total accounts receivable was due from the Group's five largest customers and the largest customer, respectively, whom are within the property real estate agency segment with good reputation and satisfactory repayment history.

For the amounts due from/(to) an associate/a joint venture as disclosed in note 24, the management of the Group closely monitors the financial position and repayment status of the joint venture and the associate, and considers that the credit risk is limited.

Other than concentration of credit risk on loan receivables, accounts receivable and amounts due from an associate/a joint venture, the Group does not have any other significant concentration of credit risk.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. With respect to the microcredit business, the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits and credit approvals. The team monitors customers' repayment ability and requests the customers to provide guarantees. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual debt at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplifies approach to measure ECL which uses a lifetime ECL for trade receivables. The management of The Group performs impairment assessment on individual debtors basis to estimate the amount of lifetime ECL of trade receivables based on internal credit rating, ageing, repayment history and/or past due status of respective debtors. Estimated loss rates are based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and are adjusted for forward-looking information.

An impairment loss under ECL model, net of reversal, of HK$438,128,000 (2020: HK$125,177,000) is recognised for trade receivables for the year. Details of the quantitative disclosure are set out below in this note.

Loan receivables

The management of the Group performs impairment assessment on individual debtor basis to estimate the amount of ECL of loan receivables based on internal credit rating, ageing, collateral, repayment history and/or past due status of respective other receivables and adjusted for forward-looking information. The 12m ECL for other receivables of HK$201,335,000 (2020: HK$46,713,000) was recognised as at 31st December, 2021.

The Group's internal credit risk grading assessment comprises following categories:

| Internal credit rating level | Description | Trade receivables | Other financial assets |
|---------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Low | The counterparty has good ability of repayment, but may infrequently settle after due date. | Lifetime ECL — not credit-impaired | 12m ECL |
| Medium | The counterparty has enough ability of repayment, but may settle in full after due date. | Lifetime ECL — not credit-impaired | 12m ECL |
| High | There is evidence indicating the asset is credit-impaired | Lifetime ECL — credit-impaired | Lifetime ECL — credit impaired |
| Write-off | There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery. | Amount is written off | Amount is written off |

(d) Bank balances and pledged bank deposits

The management of the Group assessed that the Group's bank balances and pledged bank deposits are at low credit risk because they are placed with reputable banks with higher internal credit rating with reference to either international or PRC credit-rating agencies, and ECL is insignificant.

Liquidity risk

In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The management monitors the utilisation of bank borrowings.

In addition to the Group's own capital and earnings to finance the Group's operations, the Group relies on bank and other borrowings as additional source of liquidity. As at 31st December, 2021, the Group has bank borrowings of HK$60,976,000 (2020: HK$19,048,000) and other borrowings of HK$455,092,000 (2020: HK$485,831,000).

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The table includes both interest and principal cash flows.
