Non-IFRS Measure- Adjusted net profit

To supplement the Group's consolidated annual financial statements which are presented in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), the Group also uses adjusted net profit ("Adjusted Net Profit") as an additional financial measure. The Group's Adjusted Net Profit eliminates the effect of non-cash share-based compensation expenses and impairment charge of goodwill. The table below sets forth the reconciliation of Adjusted Net Profit for the years indicated:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2022	2021
	RMB'000	RMB'000
(Loss)/profit for the year	(168,459)	433,009
Add: non-cash share-based compensation expenses[1]	43,380	33,531
Add: impairment charge of goodwill	512,758	15,916
Adjusted Net Profit[2]	387,679	482,456

Notes:

(1) Refers to share-based compensation benefits provided to certain employees via the employee share scheme.

(2) To supplement our consolidated financial statements which are presented in accordance with IFRS, we also use Adjusted Net Profit as an additional financial measure. We present this financial measure because it is used by our management to evaluate our operating performance. We also believe that this non-IFRS measure provides useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating our results of operations in the same manner as our management and in comparing financial results across accounting periods and to those of our peer companies. Adjusted Net Profit is calculated using (loss)/profit for the year, and add back non-cash share-based compensation expenses and impairment charge of goodwill. The term of Adjusted Net Profit is not defined under IFRS. The use of Adjusted Net Profit has material limitations as an analytical tool, as it does not include all items that impact our net (loss)/profit for the year.

Note:

(1) As at 31 December 2022, no single wealth management product of the Group accounted for more than 5% of total assets of the Group.

Subscriptions of wealth management products were made for treasury management purposes to maximise the return on the unutilised funds of the Company after taking into account, among others, the level of risk, return on investment, liquidity and the term to maturity. Generally, the Company had in the past selected short-term financial products issued by reputable commercial banks and financial institutions that had relatively low associated risk. The Company had also ensured that it would remain sufficient working capital for the Group's business needs, operating activities and capital expenditures even after making the investments in such financial products. These financial products were considered to have relatively low risk and are also in line with the internal risk management, cash management and investment policies of the Group. In addition, these financial products were with flexible redemption terms or a relatively short term of maturity. In accordance with the relevant accounting standards, these financial products were accounted for as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

In view of the benefit of earning a more attractive return than current saving or fixed deposit rate under the low interest rate trend, as well as the low risk nature and the flexible redemption terms or a relatively short term of maturity of the wealth management products, the Directors are of the view that these financial products pose little risk to the Group and the terms and conditions of each of the subscriptions are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Company believes that the above investment strategies and directions would continue to generate stable income to the Group.

Capital Expenditures

In 2022, the Group's capital expenditures amounted to approximately RMB31.9 million (2021: approximately RMB227.7 million), which were mainly used for the acquisition of property, equipment, leasehold improvements, investment properties and intangible assets. The Group funded its capital expenditures by using the cash flow generated from its operations.

Contingent Liabilities and Guarantees

In connection with investigations initiated by local authorities on certain users' behaviours of online platforms operated by the Group, certain bank balances of the Group were restricted totalling RMB59.8 million, as at 31 December 2022.

The management of the Company taking into consideration of all available information and opinions received from its legal counsel, is of the view that the Group's business operations are in compliance with applicable rules and regulations in China. As of the report date, the Group has not received any subpoena to represent as a defendant in a lawsuit related to the aforesaid investigations. Therefore, the Group considered opinions received from its legal counsel and determined it is more likely that no present obligation exists as a result of such investigation. As at the report date, as the investigations are still ongoing with related details not being accessible by the Company, it is not practicable to assess or estimate the possible financial impact, therefore the Group has not made any provision in this matter.

Pledge of Assets

As at 31 December 2022, the Group did not pledge any assets.

Foreign exchange risk management

Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions or recognized assets and liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the Group entities' functional currency. The functional currency of the Company is USD and the functional currency of subsidiaries operated in the PRC is Renminbi. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposures and tries to minimise these exposures through natural hedges, wherever possible, and may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts, when necessary.

Employees and remuneration policies

As at 31 December 2022, the Group had a total of 1,531 full time employees, mainly located in mainland China. In particular, 515 full time employees are responsible for technology, research and development.

Remuneration of the Group's employees includes basic salaries, allowances, bonus, share-based payment and other employee benefits, and is determined with reference to their experience, qualification and general market conditions. The emolument policy for the employees of the Group is set up by the Board on the basis of their merit, qualification and competence. The Group believes that we maintain a good working relationship with our employees, and we did not experience any material labour disputes during the year ended 31 December 2022.

In order to expand the Company's talent team, strengthen the capability of talents in different levels and provide intellectual support to sustainable development of the Company, the Company has developed an efficient and systematic talent training and development plan. For the year ended 31 December 2022, the Board has reviewed the overall performance of the contractual arrangements and confirmed that the Group has complied with the contractual arrangements in all material respects.

On 15 March 2019, the National People's Congress approved the Foreign Investment Law, which has come into effect on 1 January 2020 and replaced the trio of existing laws regulating foreign investment in the PRC, namely, the Sino-foreign Equity Joint Venture Enterprise Law, the Sino-foreign Cooperative Joint Venture Enterprise Law and the Wholly Foreign-invested Enterprise Law, together with their implementation rules and ancillary regulations. The Negative List, which has been issued by the State Council and updated on 1 January 2022, refers to special administrative measures for access to foreign investment in specific fields in the PRC. A foreign investor shall not invest in any field prohibited from foreign investment under the Negative List. A foreign investor shall meet the investment conditions stipulated under the Negative List for any restricted fields under the Negative List.

A foreign investor who invests in a foreign-invested value-added telecommunications enterprise operating value-added telecommunications businesses in the PRC must demonstrate a good track record and experience in operating value-added telecommunications businesses (the "Qualification Requirement"). Moreover, foreign investors that meet these requirements must obtain approvals from the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the PRC and the Ministry of Commerce of the PRC, or their authorised local counterparts, which retain considerable discretion in granting approvals, for the commencement of that investor's value-added telecommunications businesses in the PRC.

On 23 June 2018, a restricted share unit scheme (the "RSU Scheme") of the Company was approved and adopted by the Board. The purpose of the RSU Scheme is to incentivize Directors, senior management and employees for their contribution to the Group, to attract, motivate and retain skilled and experienced personnel to strive for the future development and expansion of the Group by providing them with the opportunity to own equity interests in the Company.

Persons eligible to receive restricted share units (the "RSUs") under the RSU Scheme are existing employees, Directors (whether executive or non-executive, but excluding independent non-executive Directors) or officers of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (the "RSU Eligible Persons"). The Board selects the RSU Eligible Persons to receive RSUs under the RSU Scheme at its discretion.

The RSU grant letter will specify the manner of acceptance of the RSU, the number of RSUs granted and the number of underlying Shares represented by the RSUs, the vesting criteria and conditions, the vesting schedule, the exercise price of the RSUs (where applicable) and such other details as the Board considers necessary, and will require the RSU Eligible Person to undertake to hold the RSU on the terms on which it is granted and to be bound by the provisions of the RSU Scheme.

Within a reasonable time after the vesting criteria, conditions and time schedule have been reached, fulfilled, satisfied or waived, the Board will send a vesting notice (the "Vesting Notice") to each of the relevant RSU participants. The Vesting Notice will confirm the extent to which the vesting criteria, conditions and time schedule have been reached, fulfilled, satisfied or waived, and the number of Shares (and, if applicable, the cash or non-cash income, dividends or distributions and/or the sale proceeds of non-cash and non-scrip distributions in respect of those Shares) involved.

RSUs held by a RSU participant that are vested as evidenced by the Vesting Notice may be exercised (in whole or in part) by the RSU participant serving an exercise notice in writing on the trustee of the RSU Scheme and copied to our Company. Any exercise of RSUs must be in respect of a board lot of 1,000 Shares each or an integral multiple thereof (except where the number of RSUs which remains unexercised is less than one board lot).

Participants of RSUs are not required to pay any consideration to apply for or accept authorization.

Further details of the RSU Scheme are set forth in the section headed "Statutory and General Information — D. Share Incentive Schemes — 2. RSU Scheme" in Appendix IV to the Prospectus.

The Reason for using Contractual Arrangements

The Group primarily engages in the operations of mobile live streaming platforms and is considered to be engaged in the provision of value-added telecommunications services, internet cultural services, online audio and video program services and talent agency services (the "Principal Business").

Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, hold the relevant licenses required for carrying out the above services and operating the aforementioned businesses. Pursuant to applicable PRC laws and regulations, foreign investors are prohibited from holding equity interest in an entity engaging in internet cultural activities and online audio and video program streaming services and are restricted to conduct value-added telecommunications services and talent agency services (the "Foreign Restricted Businesses"). For details of the relevant restriction, please refer to the section headed "Contractual Arrangement" in this annual report.

Accordingly, the Group cannot hold equity interest in Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, which conduct the Principal Business and the platform support services which operate through, and are closely related to and interdependent on the operation of, the Group's mobile live streaming platforms, online social network platform and hold the assets and certain licenses, approvals and permits required for the operation of the Principal Business.

In addition, the Group has established (i) Hunan Canchenyingchao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd.* (湖南燦宸映朝網絡科技有限公司) ("Canchenyingchao"); and (ii) Hunan Lingxiaolansheng Internet and Technology Co., Ltd.* (湖南凌霄攬勝網絡科技有限公司) ("Lingxiaolansheng"), mainly engaged in value-added telecommunication business and operational internet cultural business. The abovementioned businesses are also considered as the Foreign Restricted Businesses under the relevant PRC laws.

As a result of the applicable PRC laws and regulations (please refer to the section headed "Contractual Arrangement" in this annual report) prohibition and/or restrictions of (i) foreign ownership in the telecommunications industry and of internet cultural industries in the PRC and (ii) foreign investors conducting value-added telecommunications services, the Group has established two New VIE Structures for the purpose of operating value-added telecommunication business and operational internet cultural business through Canchenyingchao and Lingxiaolansheng, respectively by entering into (i) the VIE Agreements[(1)] with the Registered Shareholders and Canchenyingchao; and (ii) the VIE Agreements[(2)] with the Registered Shareholders and Lingxiaolansheng. Please refer to the Company's announcement dated 25 September 2020 for further details.

Notes:

(1) Canchenyingchao Controlling Agreements, including the Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, the Exclusive Call Option Agreements, the Equity Pledge Agreements and the Powers of Attorney.

(2) Lingxiaolansheng Controlling Agreements, the Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, the Exclusive Call Option Agreement, the Equity Pledge Agreement and the Powers of Attorney.

The Group considers that the adoption of separate VIE structures would provide flexibility to the Group to introduce third party investors in the future for the expansion of respective business of the Group.

Based on the above reasons, the Group believes that the adoption of separate VIE structures would be instrumental to fostering and growing the value-added telecommunication business and operational internet cultural business while continuing to maintain a steady growth in the Entertainment Business.

Details of the contractual arrangements of the Group with Beijing Meelive, Canchenyingchao and Lingxiaolansheng (the "Contractual Arrangements") are shown as follows:

Inke Contractual Arrangements

On 14 February 2018, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Inke PRC, entered into a series of contractual arrangements with each of Beijing Meelive and its Registered Shareholders to assert management control over the operations of its Principal Business conducted through Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries, and to enjoy all economic benefits of Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries. The structure agreements underlying such contractual arrangements with Beijing Meelive and its Registered Shareholders include: (i) Exclusive Consulting and Service Agreement, (ii) Exclusive Call Option Agreement and (iii) Equity Pledge Agreement (the "Inke Contractual Arrangements"). Moreover, each of the Registered Shareholders of Beijing Meelive had also executed an irrevocable Power of Attorney appointing Inke PRC as his/her/its proxy to exercise on his/her/its behalf of shareholder rights in Beijing Meelive.

Prior to the concert party arrangement being terminated on 13 November 2020 (the "Termination of Concert Party Arrangement"), (i) each of Mr. FENG Yousheng, Ms. LIAO Jieming and Mr. HOU Guangling (the "Founders") was a controlling shareholder of our Company and Beijing Meelive, and each of Mr. FENG Yousheng and Mr. HOU Guangling is an executive Director and is therefore a connected person of our Company under Rule 14A.07(1) of the Listing Rules; and (ii) Beijing Meelive was owned directly as to approximately 36.45% collectively by the Founders, who have always been in consensus and in agreement when exercising their shareholders' rights when passing shareholders' resolutions of Beijing Meelive. Each of Beijing Meelive and its subsidiaries was therefore an associate of each of the Founders and a connected person of our Company under Rule 14A.07(4) of the Listing Rules. Accordingly, the transactions contemplated under the Inke Contractual Arrangements constitute continuing connected transactions of our Company under the Listing Rules upon the Listing.

Upon the Termination of Concert Party Arrangement, Beijing Meelive is no longer an associate of any of the Group's connected persons (in particular, Mr. FENG and Mr. HOU as the Group's connected persons, individually owns less than 30% interest in Beijing Meelive). Therefore the Inke Contractual Arrangements between the Group and Beijing Meelive ceased to be continuing connected transactions of the Group. For details of the Termination of Concert Party Arrangement, please see the section under "Termination of Acting in Concert Arrangement and Undertaking" in the Group's 2020 annual report and the announcement of the Company dated 13 November 2020.

Since Mr. FENG is a substantial Shareholder, an executive Director and a chief executive officer of the Company, he is a connected person of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. In addition, as Mr. FENG is the Registered Shareholder owning 99% equity interest in Canchenyingchao, Canchenyingchao is an associate of Mr. FENG and therefore is also a connected person of the Company. With extensive experience in the internet industry, Mr. FENG is responsible for the overall strategic planning and general management of the Group and is instrumental to the Company's growth and business expansion since its establishment. The senior management and Board are composed of experienced and capable people who can provide different and independent perspectives and ensure a balance of power and authority in the operation. The Board currently comprises two executive Directors (including Mr. FENG), one non-executive Director and three independent non-executive Directors and therefore has a fairly strong independence element in its composition.

The Board will continue to review the effectiveness of the Group's corporate governance structure to assess whether differentiation of the roles of chairman and chief executive officer is necessary and to ensure that the current corporate structure does not compromise the balance of power in the Group.

Appointment and Re-election of Directors

Each of the Directors is engaged on a service contract (in the case of the executive Directors) or a letter of appointment (in the case of the non-executive Director and independent non-executive Directors) for a specific term of three years, which is renewable by mutual consent and subject to the Articles of Association.

The Board Diversity Policy sets out the approach adopted by the Board regarding diversity of Board members.

The Board continuously seeks to enhance its effectiveness and to maintain the highest standard of corporate governance and recognizes diversity at Board level as an essential element in maintaining competitive advantage and sustainable development. In designing the Board's composition, Board diversity has been considered from a number of aspects, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional experience, skills, knowledge, length of services and time to be devoted as a Director. The Company will also take into account factors relating to its own business model and specific needs from time to time. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board.

To implement its Board Diversity Policy, the Company has adopted the following measurable objectives:

The Company strives to ensure that its Board members maintain an appropriate balance of skills, experience and diversity of views and perspectives to support the implementation of its business strategy and the effective functioning of the Board.

The Group will jointly and actively contribute to the all-round creation of a barrier-free society and promote the construction of a barrier-free environment with high standards and high quality.

Charity Activity 1: Revitalize The Countryside

In July 2022, with the support of the Department of Market Management of the Ministry of Culture and Tourism and the guidance of the Online Performance (Live Streaming) Branch of China Association of Performing Arts, the Group went to Enshi Prefecture, Hubei Province to participate in the "Hope and Dream House" renovation project, and carried out the renovation of 100 cabins for local students from poor families. During the activity, we visited the families of the donated students to learn about their current living environment and study, in order to help local students improve their learning and living environment and finish their studies successfully.

Charity Activity 2: Promoting Barrier-free Environment

The Company organized the first series of activities themed "Enjoy Accessible Humanity Lecture Hall" for audiences from various industries in China. The activity was jointly hosted by the Barrier-free Environment Research Committee of the Association for Career Development of Disabled People (全國殘疾人事業發展研究會無障礙環境研究專業委員會) and the Barrier-Free Culture Promotion Center of China News Promotion Association of Disabled People (中國殘疾人事業新聞宣傳促進會無障礙文化促進中心), and was jointly organized by Barrier-free Sharing Hall (無障礙暢享會客廳) and Inkeverse Group. It was the first large-scale voluntary charity activity helping to promote the high-quality culture of barrier-free services in China since the launch of Inkeverse's living streaming business.

Charity Activity 3: Fight The Epidemic

In November 2022, when a new round of COVID-19 broke out in Guangzhou, the Group took the initiative to practice corporate social responsibility, played the pioneering and exemplary role of Party members and league members, and actively sent staff to support large-scale nucleic acid testing in grassroots communities, serving more than 3,000 people in a single day. At the same time, Inkeverse donated 50 boxes of food and beverages, including instant noodles, eight treasure congee and energy drinks, to Chigang Sub-district and Chigang Police Station in Haizhu District to timely supply and supplement epidemic prevention materials at the community level.

Independent Auditor's Report

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Shareholders of Inkeverse Group Limited

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

Opinion

What we have audited

The consolidated financial statements of Inkeverse Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group"), which are set out on pages 81 to 174, comprise:

- the consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2022;
- the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, which include significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2022, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants ("IESBA Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Revenue recognition of value added service business
- Goodwill impairment assessments

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Revenue recognition of value added service business Refer to Note 2.21, Note 4.2(a) and Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements. Revenue from value added service business for the year ended 31 December 2022 amounted to RMB5,840.9 million which represented 92% of the total revenues of the Group, deriving from Inke App and other live streaming Apps. The revenue is generally recognized when the virtual currencies, consumable virtual items or services are consumed. Abovementioned consumable virtual items or services can be purchased using virtual currency sold by the Group. If the virtual currency is used to purchase virtual services over an extended period of time, the revenue is recognized rateably over the beneficial period. We focused on this area as significant efforts were spent on auditing the accuracy of revenue recognized from live streaming platforms due to the magnitude of the revenue amount and the significant volume of revenue transactions generated from the application systems.	Our procedures in relation to the revenue recognition from value added service included: • We tested the general control environment of the information technology systems in which the virtual currency was sold and consumed; • We understood and evaluated the design effectiveness of internal controls in relation to revenue recognition from value added service; • We evaluated the design and operating effectiveness of the system automated controls, including checking the top-up and consumption of virtual currencies, and amortization of virtual items in accordance with a pre-set system logic that we separately tested; • We compared the total amount of cash collections recorded in the general ledger with cash collections recorded in the application systems and cash collections from the third parties. We also tested, on a sample basis, the amount and the timing of cash collections by checking to the cash receipts; • By using computer-assisted audit techniques, we tested the mathematical accuracy and the completeness of the system generated reports that summarize the key inputs (including cash collections, quantities of virtual currency additions and consumptions that we tested as mentioned above) for calculating monthly revenue. We also recalculated the revenue recognition based on the inputs provided by the above reports to test the accuracy of revenue recognized. Based on the procedures performed, we found the recorded revenue supported by the available evidence.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Goodwill impairment assessments Refer to Note 4.1(b) and Note 18 to the consolidated financial statements. As at 31 December 2022, the Group's net carrying amount of goodwill before impairment was approximately RMB512,758,000 and management has performed an annual impairment assessment on the goodwill. Impairment of RMB512,758,000 had been provided for against the carrying amount of goodwill as at 31 December 2022. For the purpose of the annual impairment assessment of goodwill, management determined the recoverable amount of Social Network Technology Co., Ltd. ("Blueberry"), a standalone cash generating unit ("CGU"). The recoverable amount of the CGU was determined based on the higher of its respective fair value less costs of disposal and value in use ("VIU") calculations. The determination of recoverable amount involved a variety of assumptions adopted in the cash flow forecasts, such as compound growth rate of revenue within forecast period, perpetual growth rate and discount rate. Changes in the conditions for these assumptions could significantly affect the recoverable amount. Management of Blueberry determined the recoverable amount with assistance from an independent professional valuer. We focused on this area due to the significance of the carrying amount of goodwill, and the significant judgements and estimates adopted by management in determining the recoverable amount of the CGU.	For the goodwill impairment assessment, with the involvement of our internal valuation expert, we performed the following procedures: • Obtained an understanding of the management's internal control and assessment process of goodwill impairment assessment and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors, such as complexity, subjectivity, changes and susceptibility to management bias or fraud; • Assessed the competency, capabilities and objectivity of the external valuer engaged by the Group; • Assessed the appropriateness of the discounted cash flow method and checked the mathematical accuracy of the discounted cash flow; • Tested the consistency and reasonableness of the data used and challenged management's key assumptions adopted in the cash flow forecasts, mainly in relation to: — The revenue, gross margin and the ratio of expenses to revenue, by comparing them with management's approved budget, historical financial data and available market information; — The perpetual growth rate, by comparing them with the relevant economic forecasts; and — The discount rate, by recalculating it using WACC approach. • Evaluated management's sensitivity calculation over the recoverable amount and assessed the potential impacts of a range of possible outcomes. Based on the procedures performed, we considered that the key assumptions and estimates adopted by management in relation to the recoverable amount of goodwill were supported by the available evidence and information.

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in Inkeverse Group Limited 2022 Annual Report (the "annual report") (but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon), which is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other information to be included in the annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to the directors and take appropriate action considering our legal rights and obligations.

Responsibilities of Directors and the Audit Committee for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is NG Tsun.

The Company and its subsidiaries (together referred as to the "Group") are principally engaged in value-added service through operating the matrix online platforms and providing an internet to enable the users to interact through the platforms in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC" or "China").

The Company is a limited liability company incorporated in the Cayman Islands. The address of the Company's registered office is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, the Cayman Islands.

The Company's shares was listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for the Group consisting of Inkeverse Group Limited and its subsidiaries.

2.1 Basis of preparation

(a) Compliance with IFRS and HKCO

The consolidated financial statements of the Group has been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance ("HKCO") Cap. 622 and the Rules Governing the Listing Securities on the Stock Exchange.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in annual report of the Group.

(b) Historical cost convention

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and investment property.

(c) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The Group has applied the following standards and amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 January 2022:

- Annual Improvements to HKFRS Standards 2018–2020, and
- COVID-19 Related Rent Concessions beyond 30 June 2021 — Amendment to HKFRS 16 (March 2021) (the "HKFRS 16 Amendment (March 2021)")

The Group did not change its accounting policies or make retrospective adjustments as a result of adopting the abovementioned amended standards or annual improvements.

The amendments listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

(d) New or amended standards not yet adopted

The following new/amended standards and annual improvements have been published (which may be applicable to the Group) but not mandatory for reporting periods ended on December 31, 2022 and have not been early adopted by the Group:

These standards, amendments or interpretations are not expected to have a material impact on the entity in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including controlled entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (refer to Note 2.3).

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised loss are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.

Subsidiaries arising from Contractual Arrangements

i) Inke Contractual Arrangements

On 31 March 2015, Beijing Meelive Network Technology Co, Ltd. ("Beijing Meelive" or 北京蜜萊塢網絡科技有限公司) was established to carry out the Group's business in the PRC. Several domestic operating companies have been established or acquired by Beijing Meelive as its subsidiaries since 2015 and these operating companies together with Beijing Meelive are collectively defined as the "PRC Operational Entities".

On 14 February 2018, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Beijing Cheese Network Technology Company Limited ("Inke PRC" or 北京映客芝士網絡科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements with Beijing Meelive and its equity holders, which enable Inke PRC and the Group to:

- irrevocably exercise equity holders' voting rights of Beijing Meelive;
- exercise effective financial and operational control over of Beijing Meelive;
- receive substantially all of the economic interest returns generated by Beijing Meelive by way of technical and consulting services provided by Inke PRC;
- obtain an irrevocable and exclusive right to purchase all or part of the equity interests in Beijing Meelive from the respective equity holders at a minimum purchase price permitted under the PRC laws and regulations; and
- obtain a pledge over the entire equity interests of Beijing Meelive from its respective equity holders as collateral security for all of Beijing Meelive's payments due to Inke PRC and to secure performance of Beijing Meelive's obligation under the Contractual Agreements.

ii) Dating Contractual Arrangements

On 3 June 2020, Hunan Canchenyingchao Internet and Technology Co.,Ltd ("Dating OPCO" or 湖南燦宸映朝網絡科技有限公司) was established in the PRC. On 25 September 2020, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Hunan Yingchuangxingao Internet and Technology Co.,Ltd. ("Dating WOFE" or 湖南映創新高網絡科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements similar to the Inke Contractual Agreements described in Note 2.2 (a) (i) with Dating OPCO and its equity holders to obtain economic benefits.

iii) E-commerce Contractual Arrangements

On 3 June 2020, Hunan Lingxiaolansheng Internet and Technology Co., Ltd. ("E-commerce OPCO" or 湖南淩霄攬勝網絡科技有限公司) was established in the PRC. On 25 September 2020, the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Hunan Lingxiao Internet and Technology Co., Ltd. ("E-commerce WOFE" or 湖南淩霄網絡科技有限公司), has entered into a series of contractual agreements similar to the Inke Contractual Agreements described in Note 2.2 (a) (i) with E-commerce OPCO and its equity holders to obtain economic benefits.

The Group does not have any equity interest in Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. As a result of the Contractual Agreements, the Group has rights to the variable returns from its involvement in Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO, and is considered to control Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. Consequently, the Company regards Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO as the indirect subsidiary of the Company under IFRS. The Group has included the financial position and results of the Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO in the consolidated financial statements during the years ended 31 December 2022 and 2021.

Nevertheless, the Contractual Arrangements may not be as effective as direct legal ownership in providing the Group with direct control over Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO and uncertainties presented by the PRC legal system could impede the Group's beneficiary rights of the results, assets and liabilities of Beijing Meelive, Dating OPCO and E-commerce OPCO. The directors of the Company, based on the advice of its legal counsel, consider that the Contractual Arrangements are in compliance with the relevant PRC laws and regulations and are legally binding and enforceable.

(b) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see (d) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

(c) Joint arrangements

Under IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. The Group has joint ventures as of 31 December 2022 and 2021.

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method (see (d) below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated balance sheet.

(d) Equity accounting

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profit or loss of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further loss, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised loss are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in Note 2.9.

(e) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Group.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable IFRSs.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2.3 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations excluding those involving the entities under common control, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business
- equity interests issued by the Group
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the

- consideration transferred
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or loss arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss.

2.4 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company is USD. The Company's primary subsidiaries were incorporated in the PRC and these subsidiaries considered RMB as their functional currencies. As the major operations of the Group are within the PRC, the Group determined to present its consolidated financial statements in RMB.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, within finance income-net. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a net basis within other losses-net.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gains or losses. For example, translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as part of the fair value gains or losses and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equities classified as fair value through other comprehensive income are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operation (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet

- income and expenses for each statement of profit or loss and statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and

- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost or revalued amounts, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

Computer equipment	3 years
Office equipment and furniture fixtures	3 years
Motor vehicles	4 years
Leasehold improvements	3–5 years
Apartments	40 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within 'other gains-net' in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.7 Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation. Investment property is initially measured at cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequently, they are carried at fair value. Changes in fair values are presented in profit or loss as part of other income.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.8 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as described in Note 2.3. Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortised, but it is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired, and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and loss on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. The allocation is made to those cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the business combination in which the goodwill arose. The units or groups of units are identified at the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes, being the operating segments.

(b) Trademarks, user base, license and copyrights, technology and software

Separately acquired licenses and copyrights, technology and software are shown at historical cost. Trademarks, user base, license and copyrights acquired in a business combination are recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. They have a finite useful life and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment loss.

(c) Other intangible assets

Other intangible assets mainly include domain names and non-compete. They are initially recognised and measured at cost or fair value of intangible assets acquired through business combination.

(d) Amortisation methods and periods

The Group amortises intangible assets with a limited useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Trademarks	10 years
User base	5 years
Licenses and copyrights	1–10 years
Technology and software	1–10 years
Others	1–10 years

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.10 Investments and other financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value either through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") or through profit or loss ("FVPL"), and

- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income ("OCI"). For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at "FVOCI".

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

(c) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.10 Investments and other financial assets (continued)

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses) together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the statement of profit or loss.

- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/(losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in other gains/(losses) and impairment expenses are presented as separate line item in the statement of profit or loss.

- FVPL: Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains/(losses) in the period in which it arises.

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in OCI, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVPL are recognised in other gains/(losses) in the statement of profit or loss as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.10 Investments and other financial assets (continued)

(d) Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by IFRS 9, which requires expected lifetime loss to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables, see Note 24 for further details.

2.11 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2.12 Inventories

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.13 Trade receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from online payment platforms and virtual currency agent performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, when they are recognised at fair value. The Group holds the trade receivables with the objective of collecting the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method. See Note 24 for further information about the Group's accounting for trade receivables and Note 3.1 for a prescription of the Group's impairment policies.

2.14 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.15 Share capital and shares held for employee share scheme

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

Where any Group company purchases the Company's equity instruments, for example as the result of a share buy-back or a share-based payment plan, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the owners of the Company as treasury shares until the shares are cancelled or reissued. Where such ordinary shares are subsequently reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the owners of the Company.

Shares held by the Company are disclosed as treasury shares and deducted from contributed equity.

2.16 Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.17 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax loss.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the company and its subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and considers whether it is probable that a taxation authority will accept an uncertain tax treatment. The Group measures its tax balances either based on the most likely amount or the expected value, depending on which method provides a better prediction of the resolution of the uncertainty.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

The deferred tax liability in relation to investment property that is measured at fair value is determined assuming the property will be recovered entirely through sale.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilize those temporary differences and loss.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Investment allowances and similar tax incentives
Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred tax assets.

2.18 Employee benefits

(a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations, which is included in other payables and accruals in the consolidated balance sheet.

(b) Pension obligations

The Group has only defined contribution plan in which the Group pays fixed contributions to publicly administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(c) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period. Employee entitlements to sick and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

2.19 Share-based compensation benefits

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees in the form of share option ("option") and restricted share unit ("RSU") of the Company. The fair value of the services received in exchange for the grant of the option and RSU is recognised as an expense. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted and the shares as at the date of grant. The total amount expensed is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied, and credited to equity.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options and RSUs that are expected to ultimately vest. It recognised the impact of the revision of original estimates, if any, in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

The grant by the Company of options over its equity instruments to the employees of subsidiary undertakings in the Group is treated as a capital contribution. The fair value of employee services received, measured by reference to the grant date fair value, is recognised over the vesting period as an increase to investment in subsidiary undertakings, with a corresponding credit to equity in the parent entity accounts.

2.20 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims, service warranties and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating loss.

Where there is a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.21 Revenue recognition and contract liabilities

The Group mainly generates revenue from providing value added service to its customers through operating the mobile live streaming, membership service and others. Revenue from value added service is generated from the Group's mobile live streaming and other pan-entertainment platforms, such as Inke (映客), Duiyuan (對緣), etc. Membership revenue is generated from the Group's mobile live social networking platforms, such as Jimu (積目), etc. Revenue is measured at the transaction price which is the amount of consideration to which the Group entitled in exchange for transferring promised services or goods to the customer. The Group allocates the transaction price to each performance obligation based on the relative stand-alone selling prices. Revenue for each performance obligation is then recognised when the Group satisfies the performance obligation by transferring the promised goods or services to the customer.

(a) Value added service

The Group provides value added service through operating the mobile live streaming platforms and providing an internet infrastructure to enable the streamers and users to interact through the platforms. The Group operates a virtual currency system for each platform, under which the users can use the virtual currency to purchase consumable virtual items to present to the streamers to show support or enhance communication and virtual services to increase the invisibility of their profile and messages. The virtual currency can also be used on consumption basis to interact with streamers, including live chatting and other communication methods. The platforms are open to all users and streamers for free. The Group generates revenue from the sale of virtual currencies which can be used to purchase virtual items and services, or directly consumed for interacting with streamers on the platform. In order to attract user traffic to the platform, the Group shares revenues with the streamers in accordance with the streamer agreements with the Group. The Group concluded that it is the primary obligor to fulfill all obligations related to the sales of virtual items and virtual services on the platform and has latitude in establishing price. Accordingly, the Group records revenue on a gross basis and the portion shared with individual streamers and the streamer agents that managed streamers are accounted for as cost of revenues.

Upon the sales of virtual currency, the Group typically has an implied obligation to provide the services which enable the virtual currency to be usable on the Group's platforms. Virtual currency sold but not yet consumed by the purchaser is recorded as "contract liabilities". The weighted average unit price of virtual currencies is calculated on a monthly basis as the contract liabilities at the beginning of the month plus proceeds received during the month divided by the corresponding quantity of virtual currencies. For those virtual items or services that will be extinguished shortly after consumption, the user will not continue to be benefited from the virtual items or services and the Group does not have further obligations to the user after the consumption. Therefore, revenue is recognised immediately when the virtual currencies, the consumable virtual items or services are consumed based on the weighted average unit price of virtual currencies and the quantities of virtual currencies redeemed for virtual items. The Group also provides other value-added services that enable special privileges and abilities to the purchasers over an extended period of time. Revenue is recognised ratably over the beneficial period.

2.21 Revenue recognition and contract liabilities (continued)

(b) Membership revenue

The Group generates revenue through paid premium services on its social networking platform where users pay a membership fee for a fixed time period, range from one month to twelve months. Membership service represents a stand ready obligation to provide the paid premium service and the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as the Group provide such services throughout the membership period. The receipt of membership fees is initially recorded as contract liabilities and revenue is recognised ratably over the membership period as services are rendered.

2.22 Loss per share

(a) Basic loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing:

- the loss attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

(b) Diluted loss per share

Diluted loss per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic loss per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

2.23 Leases

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for leases of real estate for which the Group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single lease component.

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases, which does not have recent third-party financing, and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, eg term, country, currency and security

If a readily observable amortising loan rate is available to the individual lessee (through recent financing or market data) which has a similar payment profile to the lease, then the Group entities use that rate as a starting point to determine the incremental borrowing rate.

The Group is exposed to potential future increases in variable lease payments based on an index or rate, which are not included in the lease liability until they take effect. When adjustments to lease payments based on an index or rate take effect, the lease liability is reassessed and adjusted against the right-of-use asset.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life. While the Group revalues its land and buildings that are presented within property, plant and equipment, it has chosen not to do so for the right-of-use buildings held by the Group.

Payments associated with short-term leases and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less.

The scope of the lease decreases if the lease is modified to terminate the right of use of one or more underlying assets or to shorten the contractual lease term. For a modification that decreases the scope of the lease the Group decreases the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset to reflect the partial or full termination of the lease and recognises gain or loss relating to the partial or full termination in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within "other losses — net".

2.24 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Note 10 provides further information on how the Group accounts for government grants.

2.25 Interest income

Interest income from financial assets at FVPL is included in the net fair value gains/(losses) on these assets, see Note 9 below.

Interest income is presented as finance income where it is earned from financial assets that are held for cash management purposes, see Note 11 below.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset except for financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the loss allowance).

2.26 Research and development expenses

Research expenditure is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs incurred on development projects (relating to the design and testing of new or improved softwares) are capitalized as intangible assets when recognition criteria are fulfilled and tests for impairment are performed annually. Other development expenditures that do not meet those criteria are recognised as expenses as incurred.

Development costs previously recognised as expenses are not recognised as assets in subsequent periods. Capitalized development costs are amortised from the point at which the assets are ready for use on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives.

2.27 Dividends distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorized and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

3. Financial risk management

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk and fair value interest rate risk and cash flow interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. Risk management is carried out by the senior management of the Group and approved by the executive directors.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the Group entities' functional currency. The functional currency of the Company is USD and the subsidiaries operated in the PRC are RMB. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposures and tries to minimize these exposures through natural hedges, wherever possible, and may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts, when necessary.

The Group operates mainly in the PRC with most of the transactions settled in RMB. Management considers that the business is not exposed to any significant foreign exchange risk as there are no significant financial assets or liabilities of the Group denominated in the currencies other than the respective functional currencies of the Group's entities.

(ii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates and the Group has no significant interest-bearing assets except for those investment in structured deposits and wealth management products which are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, term deposits, cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash, details of which have been disclosed in Notes 21, 22 and 25, respectively.

The Group's interest rate risk primarily arose from short-term bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents. Those carried at floating rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk whereas those carried at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk.

The Group regularly monitors its interest rate risk to ensure there is no undue exposure to significant interest rate movements.

(iii) Price risk

Exposure

The Group's exposure to equity securities price risk arises from investments held by the Group and classified in the balance sheet at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) (Note 21).

To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Group diversifies its portfolio. Diversification of the portfolio is done in accordance with the limits set by the Group.

3. Financial risk management (continued)

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, contractual cash flows of debt instruments carried at amortised cost, at FVOCI, at FVPL, and term deposits with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposures to outstanding receivables.

The Group is exposed to credit risk primarily in relation to its cash and cash equivalent and restricted cash placed with banks, term deposits with banks and financial institutions, investment in structured deposits and wealth management products which are classified as financial assets at FVPL, as well as trade receivables, deposits and other receivables. The carrying amount of each class of the above financial assets represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to the corresponding class of financial assets.

(i) Risk management

To manage risk arising from cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, restricted cash, investment in structured deposits and wealth management products, the Group only transacts with state-owned or reputable financial institutions in the PRC and reputable international financial institutions outside of mainland China. There has been no recent history of default in relation to these financial institutions.

To manage risk arising from trade receivables, the Group has policies in place to ensure that credit terms are made to counterparties with an appropriate credit history and the management performs ongoing credit evaluations of its counterparties. The credit quality of these customers is assessed, which takes into account their financial position, past experience and other factors. In view of the sound collection history of receivables due from them, management believes that the credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding trade receivable balances due from them is not significant.

The Group, generated revenue mainly through operating live streaming platforms, has a highly diversified customer base, without any single customer contributing material revenue. The Group's trade receivables at the end of each reporting period were mainly due from certain online payment operators, and virtual currency agent in China. If the relationship with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is terminated or scaled-back; or if the online payment operators and virtual currency agent alter the co-operative arrangements; or if they experience financial difficulties in paying the Group, the Group's corresponding trade receivables might be adversely affected in terms of recoverability. To manage this risk, the Group maintains frequent communications with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent to ensure effective credit control. In view of the history of cooperation with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent and the sound collection history of receivables due from them, the directors of the Company believe that the credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding trade receivables due from the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is low.

(b) Credit risk (continued)

(ii) Impairment of financial assets

The Group has two types of financial assets that are subject to the expected credit loss model:

- trade receivables
- deposits and other receivables

While term deposits, restricted cash, cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of IFRS 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

Trade receivables

The Group applies the IFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables.

The expected loss rates are based on the payment profiles of sales over a period of 12 months before 31 December 2022 or 1 January 2022 respectively and the corresponding historical credit loss experienced within this period. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables.

(b) Credit risk (continued)

In view of the history of cooperation with the online payment operators and virtual currency agent and the sound collection history of receivables due from them, management believes that the expected credit loss in the Group's outstanding trade receivables balances due from the online payment operators and virtual currency agent is not material.

The loss allowances for trade receivables as of 31 December reconcile to the opening loss allowances as follows:

	Loss allowances for trade receivables
	2022	2021
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Opening balance at 1 January	2,758	1,888
Unused amount reserved	(885)	(19)
Increase in loss allowance recognised in profit or loss during the year	534	913
Written off during the year	—	(24)
Closing balance at 31 December	2,407	2,758

Trade receivables are written off where there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. The indicator that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery is the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group.

Impairment losses on trade receivables are presented as net impairment losses within operating profit. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item.

Deposits and other receivables

The management of the Group makes periodic collective assessments as well as individual assessment on the recoverability of deposits and other receivables based on historical settlement records and past experiences looking forward. The Group measures credit risk using expected credit loss ("ECL") under IFRS 9.

Deposits and other receivables that are not credit-impaired on initial recognition are classified in 'stage 1' and have their credit risk continuously monitored by the Group. The expected credit loss is measured on a 12-month basis.

If a significant increase in credit risk (specifically, when the debtor is more than 30 days past due on its contractual payments) since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to 'stage 2' but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. The expected credit loss is measured on lifetime basis.

(b) Credit risk (continued)

If the financial instrument is credit-impaired (specifically, when the debtor is more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments), the financial instrument is then moved to 'stage 3'. The expected credit loss is measured on lifetime basis.

In view of the history of cooperation with the debtors and collection from them, deposits and other receivables of approximately RMB149,305,000 are classified in Stage 1 as at 31 December 2022 (RMB139,090,000, 2021) and the credit risk inherent in these other receivables is not significant. The average loss rate of 16.75% was applied as at the 31 December 2022 (1.17%, 2021).

For the remaining deposits and other receivables of approximately RMB36,509,000 as at 31 December 2022 (RMB18,217,000, 2021), it was classified in Stage 3 and the loss allowance associated with these deposits and other receivables was approximately RMB36,509,000 (RMB18,217,000, 2021) as at 31 December 2022.

The loss allowance for other financial assets at amortised cost as at 31 December reconciles to the opening loss allowance as follows:

	Related parties RMB'000	Other receivables RMB'000	Total RMB'000
Opening loss allowance as at 1 January 2021	24,963	15,625	40,588

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group aims to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining adequate cash and cash equivalents.

3.2 Capital management

(a) Risk management

The Group's objectives on managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and support the sustainable growth of the Group in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to enhance equity holders' value in the long term.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors capital on basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as "equity" as shown in the consolidated balance sheet as cash and cash equivalents exceed the borrowing at each reporting date plus net debt. As at 31 December 2022 and 2021, the Group has a net cash position. If the gearing ratio is over 100%, the management of the Group would take appropriate actions to better manage the Company's capital.

3.3 Fair value estimate

(a) Financial assets

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are recognised and measured at fair value in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting period.

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives, and equity securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximize the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities.

(a) Financial assets (continued)

The following table presents the Group's financial assets that are measured at fair value as of 31 December 2022 and 2021:

	Level 1 RMB'000	Level 2 RMB'000	Level 3 RMB'000	Total RMB'000

Assets
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	155,431	645,661	171,750	972,842

(ii) Valuation techniques used to determine fair values

Special valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- for wealth management products and structured deposits — income approach to use a discounted cash flow analysis with an expected rate of return, and

- for equity interests with preferred rights of certain private companies — market approach.

			Discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM")	12.57%~ 18.06%	17.60%~ 18.00%	As of 31 December 2022, a decrease or increase in the DLOM by 5% for each of the investments would result in an increase or decrease in the total fair value by RMB6,185,000 and RMB6,185,000 (31 December 2021: RMB2,713,000 and RMB2,712,000), respectively.
			Risk-free rate	2.22%~2.45%	2.37%~2.46%	As of 31 December 2022, if risk-free rate for each of the investments were 1% higher or lower, the total fair value would decrease or increase by RMB19,000 and RMB19,000 (31 December 2021: RMB12,000 and RMB11,000), respectively.
Investments in wealth management products	–	30,136	Expected rate of return/ discount rate	–	4.60%	The higher the expected rate of return, the higher the fair value. (iv) Valuation process

The Group manages the valuation exercise of level 3 instruments for financial reporting purpose.

The Group manages the valuation exercise of the investments on a case by case basis. At least once every 6 months in line with the Group's half-yearly reporting periods, the Group would use valuation techniques to determine the fair value of the Group's level 3 instruments. External valuation experts will be involved when necessary.

(b) Non-financial assets

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This note explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the non-financial assets that are recognised and measured at fair value in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its non-financial assets into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards. An explanation of each level is provided in note 3.3(a)(i).

	Level 1 RMB'000	Level 2 RMB'000	Level 3 RMB'000	Total RMB'000
As of 31 December 2022

— Investment properties	—	—	193,606	193,606

(ii) Valuation techniques used to determine level 3 fair values

The Group's investment properties were measured at fair value using direct comparison method.

The best evidence of fair value is current prices in an active market for similar properties. Where such information is not available the management consider information from a variety of sources including:

- current prices in an active market for properties of a different nature or recent prices of similar properties in less active markets, adjusted to reflect those differences.

The following table summarises the quantitative information about the significant unobservable inputs used in recurring level 3 fair value measurements (see (ii) above for the valuation techniques adopted):

4. Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldom equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgement in applying the Group's accounting policies.

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Group and that are believed to be reasonable under circumstances.

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

4.1 Critical accounting estimates

(a) Fair value of financial assets

The fair value of financial assets that are not traded in an active market (for example, (i) investments in private companies; (ii) wealth management products) is determined by using valuation techniques. The Group uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period. Changes in these assumptions and estimates could materially affect the respective fair value of these investments. For details of fair value estimate see Note 3.3.

4. Critical accounting estimates and judgments (continued)

(b) Recoverability of non-financial assets

The Group tests annually whether goodwill has suffered any impairment, or tests more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in Note 2.9. For the year ended 31 December 2022 and 2021, the recoverable amounts of cash-generating units ("CGU") were determined based on value in use ("VIU"), which require the use of estimates and valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgment is required in establishing fair values.

Other non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts have been determined based on VIU calculations or fair value less costs to sell. These calculations require the use of judgments and estimates.

Judgement is required to determine key assumptions adopted in the valuation models for impairment review purpose. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment could materially affect the result of the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial condition and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the key assumptions applied, it may be necessary to take impairment charge to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income or loss.

According to the management's assessment (Note 18), an impairment on goodwill of RMB512,758,000 was charged to administrative expenses during the year ended 31 December 2022 (the year ended 31 December 2021: RMB15,916,000).

4.2 Critical accounting judgement

(a) Revenue recognition

The Group has assessed whether it acts as a principal or an agent in providing value added service as described in Note 2.21, and has concluded that reporting the gross amount equivalent to the cash proceeds that the Group receives from the sale of virtual currency to users, because the Group concluded that it is the primary obligor to fulfil all obligations related to the sales of virtual items and virtual services on the platforms and has latitude in establishing price.

(b) Provision

A provision shall be recognised when:

- an entity has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event;
- it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and
- a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

(b) Provision (continued)

In rare cases, it may be disputed either whether certain events have occurred or whether those events result in a present obligation. In such a case, an entity determines whether a present obligation exists at the end of the reporting year by taking account of all available evidence, including, for example, the opinion of experts. The evidence considered includes any additional evidence provided by events after the reporting year. On the basis of such evidence:

- where it is more likely than not that a present obligation exists at the end of the reporting year, the entity recognises a provision (if the recognition criteria are met); and

- where it is more likely that no present obligation exists at the end of reporting year, the entity discloses a contingent liability, unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits are remote.

5. Segment information

The Group's business activities are mainly in value added service business, for which discrete financial statements are available, and are regularly reviewed and evaluated by the chief operating decision maker who are the chief executive officers and the vice presidents of the Group. As a result of this evaluation, the chief operating decision maker considered that the Group's operations are operated and managed as a single segment. Accordingly, no segment information is presented.

The Company is domiciled in the Cayman Islands while the Group mainly operates its businesses in the PRC and earns substantially all of the revenues from external customers attributed to the PRC.

As of 31 December 2022 and 2021, substantially all of the non-current assets of the Group were located in mainland China and Hong Kong.

13. Income tax expense (continued)

The tax on the Group's income before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the statutory tax rate applicable to income of the consolidated entities as follows:

	2022	2021
	RMB'000	RMB'000
(Loss)/profit before income tax	(90,851)	473,322
Tax calculated at statuary tax rate of 25%	(22,713)	118,331
Tax effects of difference in overseas tax rates and preferential tax rates applicable to certain subsidiaries of the Group	(34,585)	(36,662)
Tax effect of amounts which are not deductible in calculating taxable income	148,674	6,826
Tax loss of subsidiaries which no deferred income tax assets was recognised	46,139	42,932
Tax effect of Super Deduction in R&D	(37,038)	(51,109)
Previously unrecognised tax losses now recouped to reduce current tax expense	(22,869)	(40,005)
	77,608	40,313

At 31 December 2022 and 2021, the Group did not recognise deferred income tax assets of RMB46,139,000 and RMB42,932,000 in relation to cumulative tax losses which are expected to expire until 31 December, 2027 and 31 December, 2026.

14. (Loss)/Earnings per share

(a) Basic (loss)/earnings per share

Basic (loss)/earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the (loss)/profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares; and
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, excluding shares held for employee share scheme. (Note 28)

	2022	2021
(Loss)/profit attributable to the shareholders of the Company (RMB'000)	(166,101)	415,381
Weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue (thousand shares)	1,850,226	1,866,475
Basic (loss)/earnings per share attributable to the shareholders of the Company (expressed in RMB per share)	(0.09)	0.22

(b) Diluted (loss)/earnings per share

Diluted loss per share is calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding to assume conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

During the years ended 31 December 2022 and 2021, the Company had two categories of potential ordinary shares: share options and restricted share units. As the Company incurred losses for the year ended 31 December 2022, these potential ordinary shares were not included in the calculation of diluted loss per share as their inclusion would be anti-dilution. Accordingly, the amounts of diluted loss per share was the same as basic loss per share for the year ended 31 December 2022.

(i) Impairment test for goodwill of Blueberry

Goodwill of RMB512,758,000 arose from the acquisition of Blueberry on 19 September 2019. Blueberry is principally engaged in social network product and social network community. Management consider Blueberry is a stand-alone cash generating unit (the "CGU") since management allocate resources and assess the performance obligations to Blueberry as a whole business unit. Therefore, management allocate the goodwill to the CGU of Blueberry.

The recoverable amount of the CGU of Blueberry is determined based on the higher of value-in-use and fair value less costs of disposal calculations. These calculations use cash flow projections based on financial forecasts covering the period through 31 December 2027, which has been approved by management. The key assumptions used by management include:

i. the compound annual growth rate of revenue over the forecast period through 31 December 2027, which was a combined consideration of continuous growth as Blueberry's monetization strategy has been adjusted based on management's comprehensive review of Blueberry's operations and the online social platform's average growth rate will be relatively stable in subsequent years;

ii. the estimated perpetual growth rate used in the VIU calculation for period beyond the projected period, after making reference to long term inflation rate of the PRC;

iii. pre-tax discount rate for Blueberry, which was estimated by using the weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") method. The WACC was calculated by referring to public market data including risk free rate, market return, beta of comparable public companies etc. and the specific risk of Blueberry.

The following table sets out the key assumptions and recoverable amounts for CGU of Blueberry as at 31 December 2022 and 31 December 2021:

	31 December 2022	31 December 2021
Revenue (% compound growth rate)	14	26
Perpetual growth rate (%)	2.5	3.0
Pre-tax discount rate (%)	30	30
Recoverable amount (RMB'000)	60,000	737,000

(ii) Impairment charge

The impairment charge of RMB512,758,000 was arose in the CGU of Blueberry as a result of a decline in the revenue and earnings projection due to an overall reduced future growth expectation. Combined with the economic downturn in 2022 and continuing increased operating costs, management undertook a comprehensive review of Blueberry's operations and determined to adjust its monetization strategy which led a lowered revenue.

18. Intangible assets (continued)

(iii) Impact of possible changes in key assumptions

The directors and management have considered and assessed the impact of reasonably possible changes in key assumptions for goodwill of Blueberry.

If the compound revenue growth rate used in value-in-use calculation for CGU of Blueberry had been 1% lower than management's estimate as at 31 December 2022 (13% instead of 14%), the Group would have had to recognise an impairment against the carrying amount of intangible assets of RMB3,754,000.

If the perpetual growth rate used in value-in-use calculation for CGU of Blueberry had been 1% lower than management's estimate as at 31 December 2022 (1.5% instead of 2.5%), the Group would have had to recognise an impairment against the carrying amount of intangible assets of RMB754,000.

If the pre-tax discount rate applied to the cash flow projections of this CGU of Blueberry had been 1% higher than management's estimate (31% instead of 30%), the Group would have had to recognise an impairment against the carrying amount of intangible assets of RMB1,754,000.

Management's above impairment assessment is based on valuation by an independent external valuer.
