PACHINKO BUSINESS

In the year ended 31 March 2023, although the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19) was periodically recurring, restrictions on activities were eased in phases under the "With Corona Policy" ("New Normal Policy") and the flow of people and consumption activities were gradually returning to normal. On the other hand, the economic outlook remained uncertain due to lingering effects relating to the situation in Ukraine, a continuous increase in prices of materials and energy costs, and so forth.

In the pachinko industry, amid a situation where the market size was in decline due to continuous closure and discontinuance of business, operating revenue was on the rise thanks to the arrival of many popular pachinko and pachislot machines pursuant to new rules and regulations,etc. Moreover, the smart pachislot in the progress of installation from November 2022 drew a lot of attention from customers and a positive sign was appearing in the market along with the smart pachinko expected to be installed from April 2023.

As for profit or loss for the Group, while increased operating revenue was secured, profit decreased because of a huge increase in operating expenses due to a rise in depreciation expenses of pachinko and pachislot machines and unprecedented skyrocketing utilities expenses even though the Group made headway in low-cost operation and tried to improve profitability through closure of unprofitable halls.

Under this environment, we will continue to review the cost structure of the Group and make efforts to strengthen profitability with steady preparations for the smart pachinko starting from April 2023.

Set out below is detailed performance of our gross pay-ins, gross payouts, and revenue for this fiscal year.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Principal sources of funds

Our principal sources of funds are cash generated from our operations, various short-term and long-term bank borrowings and lines of credit. Our primary liquidity requirements are to finance working capital, fund the payment of interest and principal of our bank borrowings, fund our capital expenditures and the growth and expansion of our operations.

The Group has historically met our working capital and other liquidity requirements principally from cash generated by our operations, while financing the remainder primarily through bank borrowings. Going forward, the Group expects to continue relying principally on our internally-generated cash flows for our working capital and other liquidity requirements, and bank borrowings as capital resources to finance a portion of our operations.

Indebtedness

The Group mainly entered into new bank borrowing contracts in the amount of ¥42,607 million (equivalent to approximately HK$2,505 million), in preparation for funds on demand of purchase of pachinko and pachislot machines and aircraft, etc. during this reporting period.

Our short-term and long-term borrowings outstanding as at 31 March 2023 were ¥16,629 million (equivalent to approximately HK$978 million) and ¥55,538 million (equivalent to approximately HK$3,265 million), respectively.

The overview of our loan facilities is as follows.

The Group has been continuing the commitment line contract with banks and syndicate of lenders with regard to the one responsive to earthquake disaster. The previous commitment line contract has remained a slight concern in the fund-raising due to effectuation of immunity reason for financial institutions at the time of large scale earthquake disaster. Dynam has signed the new commitment line contract responsive to earthquake disaster to resolve the above concern, which has enabled the Group to secure the fund promptly even in the case of earthquake disaster.

Summary of Financial Performance

This commitment line provides a revolving loan facility in the amount of up to ¥15,000 million (equivalent to approximately HK$882 million). It is available to 30 September 2023.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The following are principal risks and uncertainties identified by the Group to be of significance and have the potential to affect the Group's financial conditions, results of operations and business prospects. There may be other risks and uncertainties in addition to those shown below which are not known to the Group or which may not be material now but could turn out to be material in the future.

Risks relating to pachinko business

In the pachinko business, the number of customers who play pachinko may decrease due to the decreasing population in Japan, the customers flowing out to other amusements, and harmful rumors and bad impression of pachinko and so forth. The pachinko hall operation may be obstructed by tighter regulations that the Japanese government might implement due to its policy change and/or our over-reliance on key suppliers including the manufacturers of playing machines.

Risks relating to Aircraft Leasing Business

In the Aircraft Leasing Business, there is a risk that the creditworthiness of the airlines may deteriorate, resulting in their not being able to make payments and perform other obligations under the lease agreements. Another risk is the risk that we are unable to exit our investment as planned, either through re-leasing or disposal, due to the fluctuation of the residual value of aircraft.

FINANCIAL RISK

The Group's activities are exposed to a variety of market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

MARKET RISKS

Foreign currency risk

The Group has certain exposure to foreign currency risk as some of its business transactions, assets and liabilities are denominated in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") , United States dollars ("USD") and EUR ("€").

The Group currently has a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of some of foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. The Group continues to monitor its foreign currency exposure closely and consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure.

Price risk

Equity instruments consisting mainly of listed equity securities the Group holds are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period and are exposed to equity security price risk. The Group periodically reviews the fair values of these securities as well as the financial condition of investees.

Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to interest-rate risk arises mainly from its bank deposits and borrowings. These deposits and borrowings bear interests at variable rates varied with the then prevailing market condition.

CREDIT RISK

Credit risk arises from the possibility that customers may not be able to settle their obligations as agreed. The carrying amount of cash and bank balance, pledged bank deposits, trade, financial lease receivables and other receivables and derivative financial instruments included in the consolidated statement of financial position represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to the Group's financial assets.

The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to customers with an appropriate credit history. Amounts due from related customers are closely monitored by the directors.

In order to minimise credit risk, management has delegated a team to be responsible for the determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures. In addition, management reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade receivables and finance lease receivables regularly to ensure that adequate impairment losses are recognised for irrecoverable receivables. In this regard, management considers that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The credit risk on cash and bank balances and derivative financial instruments are limited because the customers are banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies. The credit quality of the customers in respect of trade receivables and financial lease receivables is assessed by taking into account their financial position, credit history and other factors. Given the constant repayment history, management is of the opinion that risk of default by these customers is low.

LIQUIDITY RISK

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its current and expected liquidity requirements, its compliance with lending covenants and its relationship with its bankers to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and readily realisable marketable securities and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

Compliance With Relevant Laws And Regulations

During the Reporting Period, as far as the Company is aware, there was no material breach of or non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations by the Group that has a significant impact on the business and operations of the Group.

We will continue to create more value for "making pachinko into a daily entertainment that everyone can enjoy freely".

Firstly, during the Reporting Period, the spread of COVID-19 pandemic cyclically continued, but the flow of people recovered due to the sequential relaxation of restrictions on various actions, and therefore, consumption activities are gradually getting back to normal. Meanwhile, the future economic outlook is still unclear because of the prolonged situation in Ukraine, the ongoing price boost resulting from soaring prices of various energies and materials and so on.

In the pachinko hall industry, while the operational suspension and closure of halls tend to increase, operating revenue tends to increase on account of the accelerating momentum of multiple popular models of pachinko and pachislot machines which comply with the new technical standards. Further, "smart slot" machines with new mechanism introduced into our halls in November 2022 are highly expected by our customers. We are starting to see hopeful signs of market expansion brought by such smart slot machines and "smart pachinko" machines introduced into our halls in April 2023.

Under such circumstances, while our operating expenses drastically increased due to the rise in the burden on depreciation of gaming machine expenses and the unprecedented soaring utilities expenses, we strived to enhance our profitability by the promotion of low cost operation, the closure of unprofitable halls and so on, thereby resulting in operating profit of 6,764 million yen and net profit of 1,798 million yen.

For Aircraft Leasing Business, as a result of purchasing 3 aircraft, we increased the total number of our aircraft to 6 and strived to establish the framework for managing lease assets for securing and increasing the long-term stable revenue.

We will continue to create further value to become an indispensable presence in the community so that people will say they are glad to have a pachinko hall nearby.

We would like to ask for the continued understanding and support of all those who have placed their trust in us.

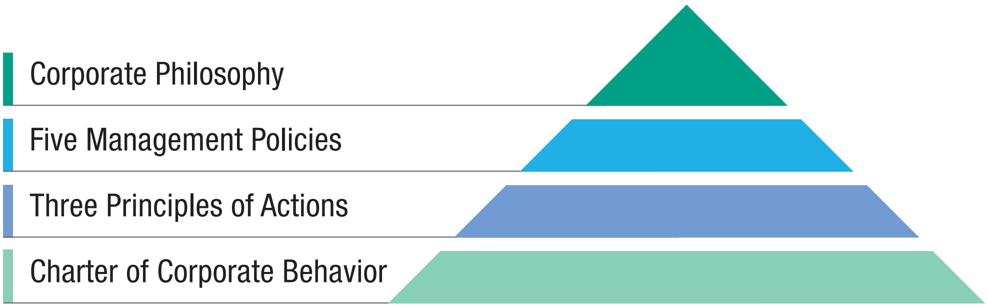
Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

Makoto SAKAMOTO

We will continue to increase corporate value while aiming to be indispensable to local communities (local infrastructure) and continuing to improve value for all trusted associates.

Philosophy Structure

The Group engages in environmental, social and governance ("ESG") with the idea of achieving sustainable growth based on its corporate philosophy entailing "a centurial commitment to building trust and encouraging dreams". We believe promoting ESG is the embodiment of this philosophy.



A Centurial Commitment to Building Trust and Encouraging Dreams

A company cannot exist unless it consistently fulfills the responsibilities it has towards its employees, Shareholders, financial institutions, business partners and other stakeholders, while at the same time it supports and contributes to customers and local residents.
A company is expected to improve the daily lives of its stakeholders. It must also create a world in which all people are united in trust and able to live in peace.
This corporate philosophy represents the spirit in which people and organizations that are united in trust continuously strive to achieve sustainable growth by using their collective energy to achieve their dreams. The term "centurial" that is used in our corporate philosophy refers to the long term.
The Group maintains a long-term commitment to building trust and encouraging dreams.

Five Management Policies

- Principle of Customers First
- Information Disclosure
- Chain Store Management
- Training of Human Resources
- Social Contribution

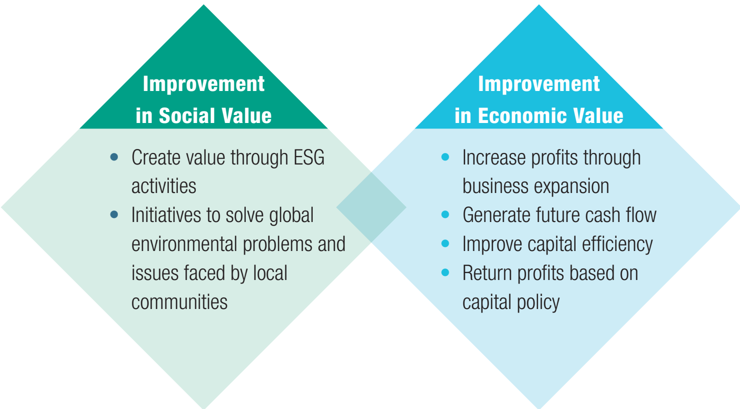
Three Principles of Actions

1. The Group complies with laws and regulations and rules, and deals with people respectfully.
2. The Group takes decisive actions and values team work.
3. The Group confirms the actual situation on site, and presents it using numerical expressions.

Charter of Corporate Behavior

The reason for existence of a company is to achieve sustainable growth in line with the expectations of stakeholders, including Shareholders, managers, employees, partners, financial institutions and customers, and to grow to a certain scale and level of reliability that enable it to contribute to society. All employees of the Group share this principle.
The Group names the stakeholders described above "trusted associates". We are committed to strengthening our relationship with these partners through our business activities, so that we can grow based on a far-reaching vision. As it grows, the Group will consistently fulfill the roles expected of it by each stakeholder, to ensure that the trust from the stakeholder also grows.
Trust, however, is fragile, and even a momentary lapse of focus can damage it forever. To ensure that it can continue to conduct its business without compromising that trust, the Group has adopted new internal control systems to improve its operations. These systems also clarify and eliminate factors that have the potential to lead to misconduct or violations of laws and regulations.
All of the Group's employees, including those that work in the field, constantly take initiatives with full knowledge that such actions help to improve their operations. Through these initiatives, each member strongly believes that the Group can achieve stronger operating results and contribute to society more effectively.

Improvements in Both Social Value and Economic Value through ESG



Continuing to create value for trusted associates through ESG activities provides some assistance to resolving global environmental problems and issues faced by local communities, and through corporate activities that fulfill responsibilities regarding sustainable urban development, enabling business growth and leading to the enhancement of unified corporate value. The Group aims for sustainable growth by improving both social value and economic value at the same time.

Social Contribution and Local Commitment

■ Pachinko experience at nursing care facilities

■ Disaster recovery support

Management of Risks and Opportunities

Companies have an impact on society in various ways as a result of their business activities. We see business opportunities for long-term growth from the positive impact we can have on solving problems in local communities, such as the health benefits of playing pachinko in preventing dementia, and ideas for new types of pachinko halls. We understand there are risks that threaten business growth, including the negative impact of gaming addiction. While monitoring and properly managing these risks and opportunities, we aim to maximize the value we provide to trusted associates.

Initiatives to Realise Everyday Entertainment

Our vision is to reinvent pachinko gaming as a form of everyday entertainment that everyone can easily enjoy, as a regional infrastructure. To realise everyday entertainment, we must manage our business so that our customers consider the time and money they spend in our halls are at acceptable levels for everyday entertainment.

Therefore, the Group practices chain store management as one of its management policies.

We are building a framework that enable us to fully leverage the advantages derived from multiple-hall development, and manage all hall operations at low cost.

Managing our pachinko halls at low cost leaves space to enable us to entertain customers with low playing cost games, which in turn leads to the realizing of everyday entertainment.

Multiple-Hall Development and Low-Cost Operations are the Source of Profit

A feature of the Group's chain store management is multiple-hall development and low cost operations centered on low playing cost games. Devising low cost measures and the expertise needed from store openings to store management are crucial in promoting low playing cost games. By reaping the benefits of the economies of scale through multiple-hall development when purchasing game machines and general prizes, the Group has positioned itself in a strong, advantageous position to develop the pachinko hall operation business. Moving forward, we will continue to leverage our status as the pachinko industry's leading company in terms of the number of pachinko halls and steadily accumulated profits over the long term by implementing chain store management.

Sustainable Growth in Profits

Multiple-Hall Development and Low-Cost Operations Based on Chain Store Management

Multiple-hall development

- Open new standardized halls
- Acquire other pachinko hall operators into the Group

Low-cost operations

- Introduce second-hand gaming machines proactively
- Operate flexibly halls using proprietary distribution centers
- Improve efficiency using information and communication technology ("ICT")

Multiple-hall development

The Group is implementing multiple-hall development based on its theory of chain store operations by opening new standardized halls and acquiring other pachinko hall operators into the Group to drive an increase in the number of halls.

Opening new standardized halls

The Group is controlling its initial opening costs by standardizing hall types and concentrating on opening halls in smaller populated regional areas. At the same time, the Group is reaping the benefits of the economies of scale of multiple-hall development to limit purchasing cost of gaming machines and general prizes.

Targeting small business areas with 30,000 to 50,000 residents

The Group is promoting a suburban strategy for hall development by opening new halls in small regional business areas with 30,000 to 50,000 residents.

Standardizing hall specifications

The Group standardizes the interior layout and installation number of gaming machines of the halls. This has enabled the Group to cut down initial investment costs and period of construction.

Wood-frame halls on land leased for 20 years

As a rule of thumb, the Group constructs wood-frame halls on leased land to avoid excessive investment in land purchases, so as to scrap the halls easily if market conditions change in the future.

Acquiring other pachinko hall operators into the Group

Making the most of its advantage as a listed company, the Group implements schemes such as share exchanges to acquire other pachinko hall operators into the Group and expand its network of halls. As an example, the Company acquired Yume Corporation into the Group through share exchange on 1 November 2015.

Further, in December 2022, the Group took over a part of the business from a non-Group pachinko hall operator through the acquisition of one hall utilising the scheme of absorption-type company split.

Low-cost operations

By reaping the benefits of the economies of scale, the Group has used second-hand gaming machines, established distribution centers and leveraged ICT to streamline hall operations and optimize major costs such as gaming machine and personnel expenses, which account for approximately 60% of hall operating expenses.

Using second-hand gaming machines and establishing distribution centers

The Group not only installs the newest and most popular hit models of gaming machines, but also an array of second-hand ones procured at low cost in its halls. The Group has established 16 distribution centers throughout Japan, each of which covers the logistical needs and facilitates the sharing of gaming machines among halls. The gaming machines installed in the halls are centrally managed according to coverage area by these distribution centers. The centers help the Group to flexibly manage the lineup of gaming machines in the halls.

Use of ICT systems

The Group has installed an individual ball counter system to manage the number of pachinko balls and pachislot tokens that come out of each gaming machine in the halls. This serves to improve staff's productivity and reduce personnel expenses as well as saving time and effort for customers. Apart from that, ICT systems are applied strategically to streamline and reduce the cost of corporate functions including hall management, formulation of marketing strategies, personnel administration and accounting.

The Company aspires to achieve steady growth and sustainable development through the Aircraft Leasing Business.

RISK MANAGEMENT, INTERNAL CONTROLS AND ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

The Board is responsible for making the risk management and internal control systems and monitoring their effectiveness.

In the "DYJH Fundamental Policy of Internal Control" (the "Internal Control Policy"), it is provided that the executive officers of the Company are obligated to establish a basic framework of the risk management and internal control systems including the establishment of the Group Internal Control Committee and the Group Risk Management Committee. The Group Risk Management Committee, which is being established based on the Internal Control Policy with those nominated by the executive officer and president acting as chairman and members thereof, puts the risk information together and analyzes them to take measures for the risk management.

The Group Risk Management Committee and the Group Internal Control Committee report their respective risk management and internal control activities to the Audit Committee regularly. The Board reviews the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems through the report by the Audit Committee once a year.

Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Group regularly carries out internal audits and has in place the whistleblower system to avoid material internal control defects.

In addition, the Group lays down the procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information in "The Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading". Undisclosed information is integrated by the chief information controller and disclosed at a proper timing. The Group regularly educates all employees how to handle inside information.

The senior management has developed operational guidelines on anti-money laundering measures and evaluated the measures for effectiveness on a regular basis. These measures enable us to detect irregularities and unusual trends in the transactions that take place in the Group's pachinko halls which, if detected, are reported to the senior management for investigation and remediation. In addition, the hall staffs are educated to detect irregular customer activities, particularly those involving large amounts of cash.

The Company recognizes that the review of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems has been conducted and working effectively and adequately for the Reporting Period.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2023, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Impairment assessment of Property, plant and equipment, Right-of-use assets and Goodwill

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment assessment of Property, plant and equipment, Right-of-use assets and Goodwill
Refer to note 23. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT, note 24. LEASES and note 26. INTANGIBLE ASSETS to the consolidated financial statements. The Group has reported significant net book value of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill balances of ¥146,876 million, ¥76,741 million and ¥2,905 million, respectively, as at 31 March 2023. Most of the property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill relates to the Group's pachinko halls. The Group has considered an individual pachinko hall as a cash-generating unit ("CGU") based on business activities at an impairment test. An impairment test requires exercise of significant management judgement to determine the recoverable amounts of cash generating units (CGUs). The recoverable amounts of CGUs are based on the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use calculations that require significant management judgement with respect to determining the pre-tax discount rate and underlying cash flows, in particular with respect to future revenue growth rates and recoverable rate from coronavirus infection on the business plans approved by the management for the following years. Based on the management's impairment assessments, the reversal of impairment losses of ¥50 million for property, plant and equipments, and impairment losses of ¥275 million for the right-of-use assets were recognised for the year. No impairment loss relating to the goodwill was recorded for the year. We identified this matter as the key audit matter in our audit given that the net book value of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill balances are material, and pre-tax discount rate, the future revenue growth rates and recoverable rate on the business plans for the following years, used to determine the recoverable amounts of the CGUs, are highly involved by the management judgement under the outbreak of the coronavirus (COVID-19) since January 2020.	As part of our audit, we performed the following procedures related to the management's impairment assessment: • Obtained, understood and evaluated the impairment assessment process used by the management's, management's valuation methodology for impairment, fair value less costs of disposal and value in use calculations; • Assessed the reasonableness of key assumptions used in the calculation of discounted future cash flows, such as the pre-tax discount rate, revenue growth rate and recoverable rate, by reference to management's forecast, the Group's past performance and our knowledge of the Group's business and industry, taking into consideration the Group's strategy to shift its focus to low playing cost games and the challenging business environment that the entire industry has to face; • Evaluated the impact of COVID-19 especially in the key assumptions used in the calculation of discounted future cash flows, such as the impact to the business performance due to the fluctuation in the customers visited at the halls under the environment to limit the flows of the people required under the restriction by the Japanese and local governments and recovery plan with the COVID-19 in the future; • Agreed key assumptions to supporting evidence, such as the approved budgets upon which forecasts were based. We evaluated the reasonableness of using these as a basis for estimating future cash flows, in particular, for the CGUs that had lower headroom between the carrying values and the value in use; • Tested mathematical accuracy of the calculation of value in use derived from each discounted future cash flow; • Tested the calculation of the impairment loss by comparing the carrying amount of the CGU with the recoverable amounts , and verified the amount of loss was recognized for the year ended 31 March 2023; and • Evaluated the appropriateness of the related disclosures including those relating to the key assumptions and sensitivities. We determined the assumptions made by management in relation to the value in use calculations and the future cash flows to be supportable based on and consistent with the available evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Tatsuya Chiba.

In the opinion of the directors of the Company, as at 31 March 2023, Mr. Yoji Sato and Sato Family Members are the ultimate controlling parties of the Company.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and the applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income and investment properties which are carried at their fair value.

3. FUNCTIONAL AND PRESENTATION CURRENCY

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Japanese Yen, which is the functional currency of the Company and rounded to the nearest million yen, unless otherwise stated.

4. USE OF ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

In the preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements, management is required to make estimates, judgments and assumptions about the reporting amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and future periods, if the revision affects both current and future periods.

5. ADOPTION OF NEW AND REVISED INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

The following new amendments to existing standards have been issued and effective for annual periods beginning on 1 April 2022 with no material impact on the Group's results of operations and financial positions:

— IAS 37 (Amendment), 'Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets'

— IFRSs (Amendment), 'Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2018–2020 Cycles'

— IAS 16 (Amendment), 'Property, Plant and Equipment'

— IFRS 3 (Amendment), 'Business Combinations'

6. NEW STANDARDS, AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS THAT ARE PUBLISHED BUT HAVE NOT YET BEEN ADOPTED BY THE GROUP

The new standards, amendments to existing standards and interpretations have been published before the approval date of the consolidated financial statements, but the Group has not early adopted are as follows. The impact to the consolidated financial statements through adoption is still under investigation and it is difficult to estimate at this moment.

7. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires the use of certain key assumptions and estimates. It also requires the directors to exercise their judgements in the process of applying the accounting policies. The areas involving critical judgements and areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to these financial statements, are disclosed in note 8 to the financial statements.

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below.

(a) Consolidation

A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The Group has power over an entity when the Group has existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities, i.e. activities that significantly affect the entity's returns.

When assessing control, the Group considers its potential voting rights as well as potential voting rights held by other parties. A potential voting right is considered only if the holder has the practical ability to exercise that right.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are de-consolidated from the date the control ceases.

Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the Group.

Intragroup transactions, balances and unrealised profits are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are adjusted to prepare for the same reporting period as the Group if closing dates of the subsidiaries are different from the date of consolidated financial statements.

Transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions (i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owners). The carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to the owners of the Company.

Comprehensive losses arising from subsidiaries, profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling shareholders even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the end when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

(b) Merger accounting for business combinations under common control

Pursuant to a group reorganisation (the "Reorganisation") to rationalise the structure of the Group in preparation for the listing of the Company's shares on the Stock Exchange, the Company became the holding company of the Group on 1 December 2011.

The Reorganisation involved companies under common control, and the Group resulting from the Reorganisation is regarded as a continuing group (the "Continuing Group"). Accordingly, the Reorganisation has been accounted for on the basis of merger accounting, under which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared as if the Company had been the holding company of the companies comprising the Group for the three years ended 31 March 2012, rather than from the date on which the Reorganisation was completed.

The Continuing Group was both controlled by the shareholders of DYNAM HOLDINGS Co., Ltd. ("Dynam Holdings") both before and after the Reorganisation, thus, the Reorganisation was accounted for as a business combination of entities under common control. The financial statements of the Continuing Group have been prepared based on the principles and procedures of merger accounting as if the Reorganisation had occurred from the date when the combining entities first came under the control of the shareholders of Dynam Holdings.

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the combining entities as if they had been combined from the date when they first came under the control of the controlling party.

(c) Business combinations (other than under common control)

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

The non-controlling interests in the subsidiary are initially measured at the non-controlling shareholders' proportionate share of the net fair value of the subsidiary's identifiable assets and liabilities at the acquisition date.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. The excess of the — consideration transferred,

— amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and

— acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

Over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the subsidiary acquired, the difference is recognised directly in consolidation profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

In a business combination achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest in the subsidiary is remeasured at its acquisition-date fair value and the resulting gain or loss is recognised in consolidated profit or loss. The fair value is added to the cost of acquisition to calculate the goodwill.

(d) Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

(e) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Japanese yen ("¥" or "JPY"), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency on initial recognition using the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates at the end of each reporting period. Gains and losses resulting from this translation policy are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair values in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the dates when the fair values are determined.

When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income. When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Translation on consolidation

The results and financial position of all the Group entities that have a functional currency different from the Company's presentation currency are translated into the Company's presentation currency as follows:

— Assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position;

— Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates for the period (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the exchange rates on the transaction dates); and — All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign entities are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve. When a foreign operation is sold, such exchange differences are reclassified to consolidated profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

(f) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as executive directors of the Company that makes strategic decisions.

(g) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, including purchased aircraft on operating lease to airline operators, are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. The cost also includes the initially estimated costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site to the original state.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised in profit or loss during the period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated at rates appropriate to write off their cost less their residual values over the estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis and reducing balance basis. The principal useful lives are as follows:

Freehold land	Not applicable
Buildings including leasehold improvements	2–50 years
Tools and equipment	2–20 years
Motor vehicles	2–6 years
Aircraft	20–25 years
Pachinko and pachislot machines	2 years

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Construction in progress represents buildings and structures under construction and unused pachinko and pachislot machines, and is stated at cost less impairment losses. Depreciation begins when the relevant assets are available for use.

The gain or loss on sales of property, plant and equipment is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset, and is recognised in profit or loss.

(h) Leases

The Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease at inception of a contract. It deems that a contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group reviews the following matters in its assessment of whether or not a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset:

- whether the use of an identified asset is included in the contract;
- whether the Group has the right to receive almost all the economic benefits from the use of the asset over the entire period of usage; and
- whether the Group has the right to give instructions on the use of the asset.

The Group determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period during which the lessee has the right to use the underlying asset, together with both:

- periods covered by an option to extend the lease if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- periods covered by an option to terminate the lease if the lessee is reasonably certain not to exercise that option.

The Group as lessee

(i) Right-of-use asset

The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost. The cost of the right-of-use asset is derived by adjusting the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability by any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to be incurred in dismantling and removing the underlying asset or restoring the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received. After initial recognition, the right-of-use asset is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful life of the right-of-use asset is determined in the same way as property, plant and equipment.

(ii) Lease liability

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used. The total lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following payments:

- fixed lease payments (including in-substance fixed lease payments), less any lease incentives receivable;

(ii) Lease liability (Continued)

- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option, or lease payments during the option period if Group is reasonably certain to exercise the extension option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.

The lease payments are apportioned between the financial cost and the reduction in the lease liability based on the effective interest method. The lease liability will be remeasured if there is any change in future lease payments due to a change in an index or a rate, if there is any change in the amounts expected to be payable under residual value guarantees, or if there is any change in the certainty to exercise the purchase option, the extension option, or the option to terminate the lease.

At reassessment of the lease liability, corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero, any remaining amount of the remeasurement is recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Short-term and low-value leases

The Group elects not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that has a lease term of 12 months or less and leases for which the underlying asset is of low-value. It recognises lease payments for these leases as expenses over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

The Group as lessor

In cases where the Group is the lessor, it classify each of our leases as either a finance lease or an operating lease at the inception date of the lease. To classify each lease, the Group makes an overall assessment as to whether or not it transfers substantially all of the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset. If it does, a lease is classified as a finance lease. If not, it is classified as an operating lease.

(i) Finance leases

Leases that substantially transfer to lessees all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are accounted for as finance leases.

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recognised as receivables at the amount of the net investment in the leases, and unearned income is allocated over the lease term at a constant periodic rate of return on the net investments and recognised in the fiscal year to which it is attributable.

(h) Leases (Continued)

(ii) Operating leases

The Group recognises lease payments from operating leases as income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(iii) Subleases

In cases where the Group is an intermediate lessor, the head lease and the sublease are accounted for separately.

The classification of a sublease is determined upon referring, not to the underlying asset, but to the right-of-use asset that arise from the head lease.

If the head lease is a short-term lease to be accounted for by applying the provision for exemption as above, the sublease is classified as an operating lease.

(i) Investment properties

Investment properties are land, buildings and structures held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both. An investment property is measured initially at its cost including all direct costs attributable to the property. After initial recognition, the investment property is stated at its fair value based on valuation by an external independent valuer.

Gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the investment property are recognised in profit or loss for the period in which they arise.

If an investment property becomes owner-occupied, it is reclassified as property, plant and equipment as appropriate, and its fair value at the date of reclassification becomes its cost for accounting purposes.

When the use of a property changes from owner-occupied to investment property, the property is remeasured to fair value and reclassified accordingly. Any gain arising on this remeasurement is recognised in profit or loss to the extent that it reverses a previous impairment loss on the specific property, with any remaining gain recognised in other comprehensive income and presented in the revaluation reserve.

The gain or loss on disposal of an investment property is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the property, and is recognised in profit or loss.

(j) Intangible assets

(i) Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisitions of subsidiaries and represents the excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

(ii) Trademarks and Computer software

Trademarks and Computer software are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. Amortisation is calculated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Trademarks	10 years
Computer software	5 years

(iii) Lease Intangible assets and liabilities

Where it is apparent that there is a lease intangible asset or liability associated with a purchase transaction, the intangible asset or liability associated with the lease is recognised as a separate component of aircraft cost and is amortised over the current lease period ranged from 5 to 7 years.

The residual values, useful lives and depreciation methods are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

(k) Inventories

(i) Supplies

Supplies represent consumables for use in the operation of halls and are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost of consumables for use in the operation of halls is determined using the first in, first out basis.

(ii) Property under development for sale

Property under development for sale are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

The cost of property under development for sale comprises specifically identified cost, including aggregate cost of development, materials and supplies, wages and other direct expenses, an appropriate proportion of overheads and borrowing costs capitalised. Net realisable value is determined by reference to sale proceeds received after the reporting period less selling expenses, or by estimates based on prevailing market condition. On completion, the properties are reclassified to properties held for sale at the then carrying amount.

(l) Prizes in operation of pachinko halls

Prizes are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is determined by reference to sale proceeds less selling expenses. Cost is determined using the weighted average basis.

(m) Financial assets

(i) Derivative instruments and hedge accounting

The Group utilises derivative instruments primarily to manage interest rate risks and to reduce exposure to movements in foreign exchange rates. The Group initially recognises derivatives as assets or liabilities at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. For derivatives designated as qualifying hedging instruments, subsequent changes in fair value are recognised according to the objective and designation of the hedge. Subsequent changes in the fair value of derivatives not designated as qualifying hedging instruments are recognised in profit or loss.

The Group applies hedge accounting by designating borrowings in foreign currency and derivative contracts as hedging instruments to hedge changes in cash flows of future transactions. Cash flow hedge is to hedge the risk of changes in future cash flows. The Group officially designates and documents risk management objectives and strategies to apply hedge accounting in light of hedging relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items at the inception and enforcement of hedging. Whether changes in the fair value of hedging instruments are highly expected to offset changes in the fair value of hedged items during the hedging period is monitored and evaluated from the inception onwards. The effective portion of changes in the fair value of borrowings in foreign currency and derivative contracts designated as hedging instruments meeting qualifying criteria for hedging relationship is recognised in other comprehensive income presented as other components of equity and reclassified to profit or loss in the periods when hedged items affect profit or loss. The ineffective portion of changes in the fair value of borrowings in foreign currency and derivative contracts is immediately reclassified to profit or loss. In case that a hedge no longer meets qualifying criteria for hedging relationship when hedging instruments expire, are sold, ended, exercised or so on, the application of hedge accounting is discontinued prospectively. In addition, when the application of hedge accounting is discontinued, cumulative other comprehensive income remains in equity and is reclassified to profit or loss in the periods when the related future transactions are recognised in profit or loss. Moreover, cumulative other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss immediately when the related future transactions are no longer probable to occur.

(m) Financial assets (Continued)

(ii) Non-derivative financial assets

Initial Recognition and measurement

The Group recognises trade receivable and other receivables on the date they arise and all other financial assets on the trade date when the Group became a party to the contract concerning such financial instruments.

At the point of initial recognition, the Group classifies financial assets into the following categories: an asset category measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss. The classification and measurement of financial assets is determined on the basis of the contractual cash flow characteristics and the objective of the business model associated with holding the asset.

The Group recognises financial assets at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets except for those financial assets that subsequent change in fair value is recognised in profit or loss. For financial assets measured at FVTPL, transaction costs are recognised in profit or loss when they occur.

Subsequent measurement

Subsequent measurement of financial assets after initial recognition depends on the classifications of financial assets as follows:

(1) Financial assets measured at amortised cost

The Group measures financial assets at amortised cost when both of the following conditions are met:

— the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and — the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

At the end of each reporting period, interest revenue is calculated by using the effective interest method, applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of financial assets.

In case where financial assets measured at amortised cost is derecognised, the difference between the carrying amount and the consideration received or receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

(m) Financial assets (Continued)

(2) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

The Group measures financial assets at FVTOCI when both of the following conditions are met:

— the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and

— the contractual terms of the financial asset gives rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets measured at FVTOCI are recognised in other comprehensive income until derecognised. Upon derecognition, the accumulated changes are reclassified from equity to profit or loss.

Interest revenue from these financial assets is recognised directly in profit or loss.

In addition to those financial assets meeting both of the conditions above and measured at FVTOCI, the Group presents subsequent changes in fair value of particular investments in equity instruments in other comprehensive income when at initial recognition, the Group makes an irrevocable election on those investments in equity instruments that are not held with the objective of obtaining gains on short-term sales.

Dividends from these investments are recognised in profit or loss.

(3) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

All financial assets that are other than those categorised in (1) and (2) above are categorised as financial assets measured at FVTPL.

(m) Financial assets (Continued)

(iii) Impairment

Financial assets measured at amortised cost (i.e. loans, debt securities, and accounts receivables), fair value through other comprehensive income, lease receivables, certain loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts are assessed for credit risks.

The Group recognises either a 12-months' or lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) depending on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. When there is a significant increase in credit risk, an allowance is recognised for ECL resulting from possible defaults over the expected life of the financial instrument. When there is not, an allowance is recognised for ECL resulting from possible defaults within the next 12 months.

However (regardless of the above), the Group measures the loss allowance for all trade receivables and lease receivables at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses.

An impairment gain or loss, the amount required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date is recognised in profit or loss.

The assessment of credit risk and the estimation of ECL are to be unbiased and probability-weighted, and incorporate all available information relevant to the assessment, including information about past events, current conditions and reasonable and supportable information about future events and economic conditions at the reporting date.

(iv) Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises financial assets when and only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial assets expire, or when the financial assets and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are transferred.

(v) Presentation of financial assets and liabilities

When both of the following conditions are met, financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is disclosed in the consolidated statement of financial position.

— The Group currently has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts; and — The Group intends to settle on a net amount basis or to simultaneously realise the asset and settle the liability.

7. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(n) Financial liabilities

The Group has non-derivative financial liabilities including loans payable, trade and other payables and derivative financial liabilities.

(For derivative financial liabilities, refer to (m) Financial assets (i) Derivative instruments and hedge accounting for further details.)

Non-derivative financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value minus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issue of the financial liability. After initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost based on the effective interest method. Interest expense recognised on an effective yield basis.

Non-derivative financial liabilities are derecognised when the underlying obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expires.

(o) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents represent cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions and short-term highly liquid financial assets with original maturities of three months or less and subject to an insignificant risk of change in value. Although the bank overdrafts arisen due to the Group's cash management policy are repaid upon demand from financial institutions, the amount of overdrafts is included as a component of cash and cash equivalents.

(p) Revenue recognition

In accordance with IFRS 15, revenue excluding lease contracts under IFRS 16 "Leases" is recognised based on the following five-step model.

Step 1: Identify the contract with a customer

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract

Step 3: Determine the transaction price

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract

Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

The Group recognises revenue when a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customers.

(p) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Revenue from pachinko business

The principal activities of the Group are operations of pachinko and pachislot games halls which provide a series of services from renting pachinko balls and pachislot tokens to exchanging prizes.

Revenue from pachinko and pachislot games represents the gross pay-ins, less gross payouts to customers.

The performance obligation of the Gross pay-ins is satisfied when our customers finish the game. Gross pay-ins represents the amount received from pachinko balls and pachislot tokens rented to customers less unutilised balls and tokens. Gross payouts represents the aggregate cost of G-prize and general prize exchanged by customers.

A contract liability of unutilised balls for which the Group has received consideration from the customers represents the Group's obligation to transfer services to customers.

Revenue from aircraft leasing business

Operating lease income is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. The Group recognises lease payments from operating leases as income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Other service income is recognised as follows.

Income from fixed commission of vending machines are recognised over the periods by the contract conditions. Income from variable commission of vending machines are recognised according to the usage of vending machines.

Income from invalidation of saved balls, which means a deposit of balls in the customer's membership card, and can be withdrawn and used for exchanging for prizes or playing games in the future, is recognised when the right is expired by the membership terms and conditions.

Income from invalidation of unused amount in pre-paid IC card, which means the prepaid cash amount, exchanged to balls and tokens in the future, is recognised when the right is expired.

For property held for sale, sales revenue is recognised at the time the delivery conditions agreed with customers are met. These conditions are usually considered to have been met when goods are received by customers or acceptance from customers is received.

Finance lease income is recognised as revenue in each period according to the effective interest rate method during the lease term. Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recognised as receivables at the amount of the net investment in the leases, and unearned income is allocated over the lease term at a constant periodic rate of return on the net investments and recognised in the fiscal year to which it is attributable.

Interest income is recognised on the effective interest method. Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment are established.

(q) Grants from the government

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants related to income are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the related costs that are intended to be compensated by the grant are recognised as expenses.

Grants recognised as profit or loss are deducted from the corresponding expenses when they are directly based on the incurred expenses. Grants received based on other conditions are shown in other income.

(r) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term employee benefits

The Group recognises the undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits as an expense of the period during which the related service is rendered.

A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave and long service leave when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period and reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

(ii) Defined contribution retirement plans

The Group contributes to defined contribution retirement plans which are available to eligible employees.

Contributions to the plans by the Group are calculated as a percentage of employees' basic salaries. The retirement benefit plan cost charged to profit or loss represents contributions payable by the Group to the funds.

During the year ended 31 March 2023, no forfeited contributions were utilised by the Group to reduce its contributions for the current year (2022: Nil). The Group has no plan to utilise any amount from forfeited contributions to reduce its contributions for the future years either.

7. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(s) Taxation

Income tax represents the sum of the current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax is calculated based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit recognised in profit or loss because it includes items from previous years that were not deductible or taxable, excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's current tax liability is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences, deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised.

Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

(t) Impairment of non-financial assets

(i) Impairment of tangible, right-of-use assets and intangible assets except goodwill

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible, right-of-use assets and intangible assets except goodwill to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of any impairment loss. Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortisation or depreciation) if no impairment loss had been recognised for the asset or cash-generating unit in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

(t) Impairment of non-financial assets (Continued)

(ii) Impairment of goodwill

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired. Goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the acquisition for the purpose of impairment testing.

Impairment losses of goodwill are recognised in consolidated profit or loss and are not subsequently reversed.

(u) Provisions

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditures expected to settle the obligation.

In assessing present value, the estimated future expenditures are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liabilities.

(v) Maintenance reserves

Amounts of the maintenance reserves are calculated in line with the respective leasing agreements and are paid monthly in arrears. Amounts not refunded during the duration of the lease are recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Comprehensive Income when the obligation under the maintenance events is discharged or cancelled or expired.

(w) Treasury share

The Company's own equity instruments which are reacquired are recognised at cost including acquisition related costs, after tax effects, as a deduction from equity.

When the Company cancels treasury shares, carrying amount of the shares is recognised as the deduction to capital reserves.

No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on reacquisition or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments. Any differences between the carrying amount and the consideration is recognised in equity.

8. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets, liabilities, contingent liabilities and their accompanying disclosures.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are based upon historical experience and other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Due to the inherent uncertainty in making estimates, actual results reported in future periods may be based upon amounts which differ from those estimates and assumptions.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and future periods, if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Estimates and judgments made by management that have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements are as follows:

(a) Impairment of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use asset

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether property, plant and equipment and right-of-use asset has any indication of impairment in accordance with the accounting policy. The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use asset is determined from the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use calculation. This calculation requires the use of judgement and estimates.

(b) Impairment of goodwill

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the acquisition for the purpose of impairment testing and is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired. The impairment test is performed by comparing carrying amount and the recoverable amounts of assets. The recoverable amount of goodwill is determined from the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use calculation. If the recoverable amount declines below the carrying amount, impairment losses are recognised. The recoverable amount under value in use calculation is mainly calculated based on the discounted cash flow model. Certain assumptions are made for the discount rates, the growth rates, gross pay-ins from customers and operating costs.

The value-in-use calculations of goodwill use discounted cash flow projections based on business plans for the following financial year.

8. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (Continued)

(c) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in several jurisdictions. Significant estimates are required for calculation of current income taxes. When the final income tax amount is different from initial estimation, such difference will impact on current and deferred tax in the current fiscal year.

(d) The effect of the coronavirus (COVID-19)

In all domestic regions where pachinko halls were operated, although the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19) was recurring, restrictions on activities were dramatically eased and economic activities were recovered thanks to the transition toward the “With Corona” (“New Normal”) phase taking into account the progress of vaccination and so on.

In view of the above, the Group estimates the future cash flows based on the assumption that revenue from pachinko business will be arriving at the approximately same level of the year of 31 March 2020 (before the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19)) over a few years.

‘Revenue from pachinko business’ is recognised from the transfer of goods at a point in time in accordance with IFRS 15 ‘Revenue from contracts with customers’, and ‘Revenue from aircraft leasing business’ is recognised in accordance with IFRS 16 ‘Leases’.

10. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Management has determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the chief operating decision maker that are used for making strategic decisions. The chief operating decision maker is identified as the executive directors of the Company. The executive directors consider the business from a service perspective and assess the performance of the operating segments based on a measure of adjusted profit before tax before unallocated corporate expenses for the purposes of allocating resources and assessing performance. These reports are prepared on the same basis as this consolidated financial statements.

In geographical information, revenue from external customers and non-current assets other than financial instruments and deferred tax assets of other business are disclosed as 'Japan'. Revenue from external customers and non-current assets other than financial instruments and deferred tax assets of aircraft leasing business are disclosed as 'Europe' based on the location of the operations and geographical location of the assets respectively.

Segment assets consist primarily of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, investment properties, intangible assets, inventories, prizes in operation of pachinko halls, lease receivables, trade receivables, other current and non-current assets and cash and cash equivalents.

Non-current assets consist primarily of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, intangible assets and long-term prepaid expenses.

Unallocated corporate expenses and income tax expenses are not included in segment results.

(a) The overview of the absorption type split

On 15 December 2022, the Group succeeded part of the pachinko business split off by Astory-two CORPORATION INC. through DYNAM Co., Ltd. as a successor of the pachinko business.

The absorption type split was executed through a simplified absorption type split pursuant to the provision of Article 796, paragraph 2 of the Japan Company Law.

(b) The purpose of the absorption type split

The purpose of the absorption type split is to expand the Group's existing scale of operation and the Group's market share.

(c) Acquisition price and its components

	¥ million
Cash	829

Acquisition-related costs of ¥1 million were incurred in general and administrative expenses in profit or loss.

(e) Impact on the consolidated profit or loss

There is little impact on the consolidated profit or loss for the year ended 31 March 2023 due to this absorption type split.

Freehold

South Korea	38	36
	27,619	28,073

(b) At 31 March 2023, the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment pledged as security for the Group's borrowings amounted to ¥47,114 million (2022: ¥23,159 million).

The Group reviewed carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered impairment losses. In order to determine whether an indicator of impairment exists, property, plant, and equipment are generally grouped by the lowest level that generates independent cash flow.

For the pachinko business, the Group considered an individual pachinko hall as a cash-generating unit ("CGU") based on business activities. The recoverable amount of the CGU is determined from the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use.

The key assumptions for the value in use calculations, approved by management are those regarding the remaining useful lives of the significant properties of CGU, discount rates, revenue growth rates, gross pay-ins from customers and operating costs during the year.

The remaining useful lives of the significant properties of CGU is the period for which value in use are calculated.

Except for the recovery rate from the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection below, the revenue growth rates are estimated zero at 31 March 2023 and 2022, respectively.

An explanation of the effects of the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection on future cash flows used for the calculation of the recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment as of 31 March 2023 is provided in note 8. In addition, 5.5% and over of the recovery rate from coronavirus infection is included in the calculation above.

Whereas the fair value less cost of disposal at 31 March 2023 was valued by JLL Morii Valuation & Advisory K.K. ("JLL") and Valor Appraisal & Advisory Limited ("Valor"), which are independent and qualified firms of real estate appraiser.

The rate used to discount the cash flow projections from the CGU's operating result is as follows:

	2023 %	2022 %
Pre-tax discount rate	2.8	2.9

Gain on reversal of impairment loss recognised for the year ended 31 March 2023 amounted to ¥50 million (2022: impairment loss ¥1,360 million).

This impairment loss is mainly incurred in pachinko business.

(c) The Group transferred some of its own properties to investment properties, which were revalued to fair value at the transfer. The fair value were based on appraisal by JLL. Revaluation gains in excess of book value were recognised in other comprehensive income.

24. LEASES

The Group as lessee

(a) Leasing Activities

The Group leases certain land and buildings, tools and equipment and motor vehicles.

The initial average lease term of land and buildings leases is 18 years and the average lease term of tools and equipment and motor vehicles leases is 5 years respectively.

Some lease contracts include the option to extend or terminate the leases depending on the terms of the specific leases concerned.

The Group assesses whether it is reasonably certain to exercise that option and if so, exercising that option should be taken into account when determining a lease term.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for leases of real estate for which the group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single lease component.

(b) Relating to the statement of financial position

The carrying amount of right-of-use assets comprises the following:

Investment properties, principally freehold commercial building, are held for long-term rental yields and are not occupied by the Group. They are carried at fair value. Changes in fair values are presented in profit or loss as part of other income.

(b) Fair value estimation

To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its non-financial assets into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards. An explanation of each level at fair value hierarchy is provided in note 51.

For the calculation of the fair value of Investment properties as of 31 March 2023 determined by JLL and Valor, the Group estimated the negative effect of the coronavirus (COVID-19) on valuation of rental yields in price surveys of investment properties.

In assessing the rental yield, the competitiveness of the properties, such as the location of the real estate, building specifications, rental format, contract conditions, terms of rights and forecast of net income fluctuations, etc. from a medium- to long-term perspective are taken into consideration as well as the effects of the temporal spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19).

(c) Recognised fair value measurements

Based on the fair value at 31 March 2023 by JLL and Valor and 2022 determined by JLL the Group performed valuation of its investment properties at 31 March 2023 and 2022 as follows:

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting period. There are no transfers between levels 1, 2 and 3 for recurring fair value measurements during the year.

(d) Valuation techniques used to determine level 2 and level 3 fair values

The financial controller updates his assessment of the fair value of each property, based on the fair value at 31 March 2023 determined by JLL and the fair value at 31 March 2022 determined by JLL and Valor.

The best evidence of fair value is current prices in an active market for similar properties. Where such information is not available the financial controller considers information from a variety of sources including:

- Current prices in an active market for properties of different nature or recent prices of similar properties in less active markets, adjusted to reflect those differences

- Discount cash flow projections based on reliable estimates of future cash flows

- Capitalised income projections based upon a property's estimated net market income, and a capitalization rate derived from an analysis of market evidence.

All resulting fair value estimate for properties are included in level 3.

(e) Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (level 3)

The changes in level 3 items for the year ended 31 March 2023 and 2022 for recurring fair value measurements:

26. INTANGIBLE ASSETS (Continued)

(a) Impairment test for goodwill

Goodwill is monitored by management at the level of individual pachinko halls that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination at the date of acquisition of the business.

Goodwill is mainly related to the acquisition of Yume Corporation and individual pachinko halls, and the carrying amounts are entirely allocated to the pachinko halls that are expected to benefit from the synergies of this business combination.

A summary of the goodwill allocation is presented below.

Name of pachinko hall	¥ million
KAKOGAWA (Hyogo Prefecture)	500
YAKEYAMA (Hiroshima Prefecture)	356
TAKAYAMA (Gifu Prefecture)	300
HAMAMATSU OYAGI(Shizuoka Prefecture)	272
Others	1,477
At 31 March 2023	2,905

(b) Significant estimate: key assumptions used for value-in-use calculations

The Group tests whether goodwill has suffered any impairment on an annual basis. The recoverable amount of a cash generating unit (CGU) is determined based on value-in-use calculations, which require the use of assumptions. The calculations use discounted cash flow projections based on business plans for the following consolidated financial year.

An explanation of the effects of the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection on future cash flows is provided in note 8. An appropriate period of future cash flow projections is set for the business of each cash generating unit.

Cash flows beyond the period covered by the most recent business plans are extrapolated using the estimated revenue growth rates stated below. These revenue growth rates are determined with reference to the forecasts included in industry reports and are not expected to exceed long-term average growth rate of the industry.

When the recoverable amount of the goodwill specifically associated with a cash-generating unit is lower than the carrying amount of such goodwill, an impairment loss is recognised and the goodwill is written down to the recoverable amount.

The following table sets out the key assumptions for the group of units; CGU that have significant goodwill allocated:

Key assumptions	2023	2022
Revenue (unit: million yen) (% annual growth rate) ()	¥277 million–¥813 million (0%) () For the year ending 31 March 2025 and thereafter In addition, 5.5% and over of the recovery rate from the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection with an upper limit, 100% of actual results for the fiscal year ended 31 March 2020 is taken into consideration.	¥245 million–¥706 million (0%) (*) For the year ending 31 March 2024 and thereafter In addition, 7.5% of the recovery rate from the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection with an upper limit, 85% of actual results for the fiscal year ended 31 March 2020 is taken into consideration.
Operating costs (unit: million yen)	¥202 million–¥478 million	¥199 million–¥400 million
Pre-tax discount rate	2.8%	2.9%

Management has determined the value assigned to each of the above key assumptions as follows:

Key assumptions	Approach used to determining values
Revenue (% annual growth rate)	Revenue is based on the business plans approved by the management, which reflects the management's assessment of the industry future trend and the past practices, and the average annual revenue growth rate of the business plans and thereafter is conservatively determined taking into consideration the Group's strategy and a business environment. An explanation of the effects of the coronavirus (COVID-19) infection on future cash flows used for the calculation of the recoverable amount of the CGU as of 31 March 2023 is provided in note 8 except for the growth rate above based on the approved plan.
Operating costs	Management forecasts operating costs of the CGUs based on the current structure of the business, which does not reflect any future restructuring or cost saving measures.
Pre-tax discount rate	Determined taking into account the weighted average cost of capital ("WACC").

(c) Significant estimate — impairment charge for Goodwill

There are no impairment losses recognised during the year ended 31 March 2023 (2022: Nil).

(d) Significant estimate — impact of possible changes in key assumptions

Goodwill for which impairment has not occurred is at risk of impairment. If the major assumptions behind the test of impairment change, the unit's carrying amount might exceed its recoverable amount.

The total recoverable amount of individual pachinko halls (CGUs) that are expected to benefit from the synergies is estimated at ¥63,185 million at 31 March 2023. This exceeds the total carrying amount of the CGUs, which goodwill has been allocated to, at 31 March 2023 by ¥54,127 million.

In the CGU, which has the minimum excess amount of the recoverable amount to the carrying amount, the recoverable amount of this CGU would equal its carrying amount if the pre-tax discount rate increases by 3.14 percentage points, the revenue decreases by ¥7 million (equivalent to decreasing rate of 1.6%) or the operating costs increase by ¥7 million (equivalent to increasing rate of 10.1%) respectively.

Management has considered and assessed reasonably possible changes for other key assumptions and have not identified any instances that could cause the carrying amount of this CGU to exceed its recoverable amount.

All finance lease receivables are arranged at fixed rates thus these expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk and no arrangements have been entered into for contingent rental payments.

Finance lease receivables are secured by the leased assets the Group retains the right to use for the lease period.

There is no significant past due balance nor loss allowance provision recognised for finance lease receivables as at 31 March 2023 (2022: Nil).

In regards to some pledged assets, since the net book value of those assets is greater than the remaining amount of the borrowings as at 31 March 2023, the remaining amount of the borrowings is applied in the total amount above.

(c) Carrying amounts of the borrowings with floating interest rate expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. Carrying amounts of the borrowings with fixed interest rate expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk.

Although some of the Group's borrowings have financial covenants that require the maintenance of a certain level of net assets, profit and etc., there is no event that triggers the violation of such financial covenants.

38. DEFERRED TAX (Continued)

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised.

In assessing the amount of deferred income tax assets that need to be recognised, the Group considers expected reversal of deferred tax liabilities, future taxable income and ongoing prudent and feasible tax planning strategies.

At 31 March 2023, the Group has unused tax losses of ¥5,013 million (2022: ¥3,421 million) and temporary differences of ¥1,011 million (2022: ¥1,042 million) for which no deferred tax asset has been recognised.

At 31 March 2023 and 2022, maturity analysis of the tax losses for which no deferred tax assets has been recognised are as follows:

(c) Nature and purpose of reserves

The Capital reserve consists of Capital surplus and Legal reserve.

(i) Capital surplus

Under the Company Law of Japan (the "Japan Company Law"), certain percentage of the proceeds from the issuance of share capital shall be credited to the share capital and the remaining of the proceeds shall be credited to capital surplus (known as "additional paid-in capital"). Upon approval of the general meeting of shareholders, the additional paid-in capital would be transferred back to the share capital.

(ii) Legal reserve

The Japan Company Law provides that a 10% dividend of reserves shall be appropriated as legal reserve (a component of either capital surplus or retained earnings) until an aggregate amount of additional paid-in capital and legal reserve equals 25% of share capital. The legal reserve may be used to reduce a deficit or transfer to retained earnings upon approval of the general meeting of shareholders.

43. RESERVES (Continued)

(d) Basis for profit appropriation

In accordance with the Japan Company Law, the distributable reserves are determined based on the retained earnings and other capital surplus recorded in the Company's non-consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with Japanese Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

(e) Changes in non-controlling interests

The Group undertook the capital increase requested by Erin International Co., Ltd. during this reporting period. As a result, its shareholdings of Erin International increased from 87.61% to 98.84%, due to which capital reserve decreased by ¥65 million and non-controlling interests increased by the same amount.

49. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities are exposed to a variety of market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign currency risk

The Group has certain exposure to foreign currency risk as the most of its business transactions, assets and liabilities are denominated in Japanese yen ("¥" or "JPY"), which is the functional and presentation currency of the Group, some of them are denominated in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") , United States dollars ("USD") and EUR ("€").

The Group currently has a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of some of foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. The Group continues to monitor its foreign currency exposure closely and consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure.

At 31 March 2023, if the JPY had weakened or strengthened 10% against the HK$ with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been ¥12 million (2022: ¥16 million) higher or lower respectively, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange gain or loss on bank and cash balances denominated in HK$.

At 31 March 2023, if the JPY had weakened or strengthened 10% against the USD with all other variables held constant, consolidated profit after tax for the year would have been ¥692 million (2022: ¥555 million) higher or lower respectively, arising mainly as a result of the foreign exchange gain or loss on bank and cash balances and borrowings denominated in USD.

In addition, this foreign exchange forward is to hedge fluctuations on cash flows arising from repayment of borrowings in foreign currency.

(ii) Price risk

The Group's financial assets, listed equity securities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period and are exposed to equity security price risk. The Group periodically reviews the fair values of these investments as well as the financial condition of investees.

The table below summarises the impact of increases/decreases of the two equity indexes on the consolidated other comprehensive income. The analysis is based on the assumption that the equity indexes had increased/decreased by 5% with all other variables held constant and all the Group's equity instruments moved according to the historical correlation with the index.

Impact on other comprehensive income	2023 ¥ million	2022 ¥ million
Hang Seng Index
5%	34	45
(5%)	(34)	(45)
Tokyo Price Index
5%	20	16
(5%)	(20)	(16)

The consolidated other comprehensive income would increase/decrease as a result of change in fair value on equity securities.

This change in fair value has no impact in profit or loss because the equity securities held as at 31 March 2023 and 2022 are categorized into financial assets measured at FVTOCI whose subsequent changes in fair value are presented in other comprehensive income.

49. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

(iii) Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to interest-rate risk arises mainly from its bank deposits and borrowings. These deposits and borrowings bear interests at variable rates varied with the then prevailing market condition.

At 31 March 2023, it is estimated that a general increase/(decrease) of 25 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would have increased/(decreased) the Group's profit after tax for the year as follows:

Increase/(decrease) in interest rate	2023 ¥ million	2022 ¥ million
25 basis points	(61)	(40)
(25) basis points	61	40

The sensitivity analysis above indicates the impact on the Group's profit for the year that would have arisen assuming that there is an annualised impact on interest income and expense by a change in interest rates.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the possibility that customers may not be able to settle their obligations as agreed. The carrying amount of cash and bank balance, pledged bank deposits, trade, financial lease receivables and other receivables and derivative financial instruments included in the consolidated statement of financial position represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to the Group's financial assets.

The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to customers with an appropriate credit history. Amounts due from related customers are closely monitored by the directors.

In order to minimise credit risk, management has delegated a team to be responsible for the determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures. In addition, management reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade receivables and finance lease receivables regularly to ensure that adequate impairment losses are recognised for irrecoverable receivables. In this regard, management considers that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The credit risk on cash and bank balances and derivative financial instruments is limited because the customers are banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies. The credit quality of the customers in respect of trade receivables and financial lease receivables is assessed by taking into account their financial position, credit history and other factors. Given the constant repayment history, management is of the opinion that risk of default by these customers is low.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- External credit rating (as far as available)
- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower's ability to meet its obligations
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- Significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the group and changes in the operating results of the borrower

Regardless of the analysis above, a significant increase in credit risk is presumed if a debtor is more than 30 days past due in making a contractual payment. A default on a financial asset is when the customer fails to make contractual payments within a reasonable period of time when they fall due.

Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. Where trade receivables and financial lease receivables have been written off, the Group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

The Group's credit terms generally range from 1 to 30 days for those trade receivables.

The average lease term of lease receivables is 10.3 years (2022: 15 years).

As at 31 March 2023 and 2022, trade receivables totaled ¥407 million and ¥332 million, respectively, and lease receivables totaled ¥8,561 million and ¥8,460 million, respectively.

The Group's aging analysis of trade receivables, based on invoice date, is as follows:

	2023 ¥ million	2022 ¥ million
1 to 30 days	384	327
31 days to 60 days	14	–
Over 60 days	9	5
	407	332

There is no significant past due balance nor loss allowance provision recognised for trade receivables as at 31 March 2023 (2022: Nil).

49. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its current and expected liquidity requirements, its compliance with lending covenants and its relationship with its bankers to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and readily realisable marketable securities and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The following tables show the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group, based on undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay.

50. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The overall strategy remained unchanged during the current fiscal year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debt and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital, capital reserve and retained earnings.

The management reviews the capital structure on a regular basis. As part of this review, the management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital, and will balance its overall capital structure through arrangement of borrowings, payment of dividends, repurchase and cancellation of shares and new shares issued.

The only externally imposed capital requirement is that for the Group to maintain its listing on the Stock Exchange, it has to have a public float of at least 25% of the shares. However, the Group have applied a wavier under Rule 8.08(1)(d) of the Listing Rules in which the Stock Exchange accepted a lower public float percentage of approximately 20.9% of the Group total issued share capital. Based on the information publicly available to the Company and to the best of the Board's knowledge, the Company has maintained the percentage of public float as accepted by the Stock Exchange during the period from 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023.

The Group will consider cash and cash equivalents, total liability and equity. The amount of liability, cash and cash equivalents and equity at 31 March 2023 and 2022 are as follows:

(a) Fair Value measurement

(i) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

The fair values of listed investments are based on quoted bid prices at the end of the reporting period. If the market for a financial asset is not active and for unlisted financial assets, the Group establishes fair value by using reasonable valuation.

(ii) Rental deposits

Rental deposits are measured at present value discounted by the interest rate which takes into account duration and credit risk.

(iii) Lease receivables

Finance lease receivables are measured at present value discounted by the interest rate which takes into account duration and credit risk.

(iv) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities which include borrowings are subsequently measured, by each liabilities classified by period, at present value discounted by the interest rate which takes into account duration and credit risk.

51. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

(b) Fair Value estimation

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date.

To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group has classified its financial assets and liabilities into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards.

An explanation of each level at fair value hierarchy is as follows:

Level 1 inputs:	quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access on the measurement date.
Level 2 inputs:	inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
Level 3 inputs:	unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices on the date of the statement of financial position. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service or regulatory agency, and those prices present actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price.

These instruments are included in level 1. Instruments included in level 1 comprise listed equity securities.

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where they are available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. Other investments categorised as level 3 mainly consist of unlisted equity securities in inactive markets.

The Group's financial controller is responsible for the fair value measurements of assets and liabilities required for financial reporting purposes. The financial controller reports directly to the Board of Directors for these fair value measurements.
