On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Dream International Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"), I hereby present to our shareholders the Group's annual results for the year ended 31 December 2023 (the "Year").

The year 2023 was filled with challenges. The global economy experienced a recession and major central banks adopted tight monetary policies to combat inflation. Concerns about the financial system, from bond markets to bank health, and geopolitical tensions persisted, while conservative consumer sentiment prevailed. The toy industry was inevitably affected, leading to delays in new project launches and product delivery schedules by major toy brands and marketing firms. However, the Group continued to benefit from our proven track record and solid strategic partnerships with major brands and character owners. Additionally, with a diversified product mix and the dual production bases in Vietnam and the PRC, we were able to withstand market changes and minimise negative impacts on our operations. I am pleased to report that despite the economic headwinds, Dream International has maintained profitability and also recommended a final dividend to thank shareholders for their continued support.

During the Year, we further strengthened and diversified our customer base, which helped to maintain the Group's operational and financial performance, particularly given the contrasting performance of various market segments within the industry. Many global toy brands were preoccupied with the obstacles posed by the stagnant economy in the US and Europe, leading them to adopt a conservative approach to product development and placement. At the same time, the business outlook for theme parks in Asian markets remained promising. In addition, major brands and character owners selectively consolidated their partners, resulting in an increasingly competitive landscape. However, our long-standing and nonreplicable customer partnerships gave us a head start in capitalising on emerging opportunities. The advantages of scale, stability, and flexibility of production capacity enabled us to provide suitable solutions for orders with different requirements, ensuring reliable product quality and rapid delivery. As a result, the Group strengthened its partnerships with existing customers, working with them to capture the growing demand from Asia in the face of adverse market conditions. Furthermore, we successfully acquired new customers by securing core projects in different segments, with some shipments already in progress, thus offsetting the negative impact from struggling segments.

We recognise that the simultaneous management of both business development and risk is the key principle in tackling the current challenging environment. Despite the overall stabilisation of raw material prices, the intense competition required industry players to offer competitive pricing to attract more orders. We therefore doubled our efforts to optimise our production flow and improve profitability by implementing several strategic initiatives in raw material procurement and the production process. Thanks to our long-standing partnerships with suppliers and our bulk purchasing strategy, we were able to ensure a stable supply of raw materials at competitive costs. In addition, we focused on localising our supply chain network to support the respective production bases in order to mitigate potential geographical risks and shorten delivery times. We have also made significant investments in automation throughout the production process over the past years. By leveraging upgraded technology and adopting higher quality standards, we are improving productivity, efficiency, and product quality. We have conducted thorough analyses of the work environment to reduce potential waste and unnecessary losses, and to plan ahead for capacity allocation to meet current and future demand. These efforts have not only enabled us to maintain a reasonable plant utilisation rate, stringent cost control, and sustained profitability, but have also enabled us to better serve our customers and adapt to the increased competition in the industry.

As we strive to develop our business, we are mindful of our role as a corporate citizen. One of our key areas of focus during the Year was recycling and reuse. Working with suppliers who share our values, we sourced raw materials and packaging materials that are renewable, recyclable, or made from recycled materials. We also worked to improve our manufacturing process, while ensuring compliance with relevant safety regulations. These efforts not only enabled us to meet market demand for sustainable products and development, but also helped us to create a safer and healthier workplace. Additionally, we continued to achieve progress in our internal ESG management, driving positive change within our organisation and fulfilling our social responsibilities.

As we look to 2024, we face a macroeconomic landscape fraught with uncertainty and influenced by geographical conflicts. However, in the midst of these challenges, we see potential opportunities in new entertainment activities and the continued growth of the theme park industry in Asia. We have already laid a strong foundation for Dream International with our established strengths and strategies, which have been effectively implemented and timely reviewed over the years. Our extensive top-tier customer base, stable and diversified income streams, established supply chain, flexible production planning, and adequate financial resources position us well to weather various economic cycles and tackle future challenges.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to our shareholders for their continued support. I would also like to thank our customers and business partners for their unwavering trust and confidence in our Group. Last but not least, I would like to commend our employees who have worked tirelessly to ensure the resilience and robustness of the Group in the face of challenges. Moving onwards, we remain committed to reinforcing our marketleading position and delivering sustainable value to our shareholders, as we always strive to.

Kyoo Yoon Choi

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Year 2023 was filled with a multitude of challenges such as geopolitical conflicts, high interest rates and inflation continuing to cloud the horizon, putting pressure on the global business environment and consumer sentiment. This inevitably affected various industries around the world, including the toy industry. However, the Group's strong ties with existing clients and diversified product portfolio provided it with the resilience to face external changes. Coupled with its well-established dual production bases and increasing levels of automation, Dream International was able to enhance its overall production efficiency and navigate this difficult environment, thus achieving profit growth once again.

For the Year, the Group recorded revenue of HK$5,352.5 million (2022: HK$6,252.9 million) due to the stagnant US economy, which affected the sales of plastic figures, though partially offset by the increase in sales of plush toys and die-casting products. However, benefiting from stable raw material costs and stringent cost control, gross profit increased to HK$1,344.7 million (2022: HK$1,228.9 million), with gross profit margin improving by 5.4 percentage points to 25.1% (2022: 19.7%). Profit attributable to shareholders of the Company surged 20.8% to HK$829.8 million (2022: HK$687.1 million), with net profit margin increasing to 15.5% (2022: 11.0%).

As at 31 December 2023, the Group was in a healthy financial position with cash and cash equivalents and bank deposits amounting to HK$1,391.4 million (2022: HK$761.6 million). To reward shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") for their long-term support, the Board has recommended the payment of a final dividend of HK35 cents per ordinary share for the Year (2022: HK30 cents).

BUSINESS REVIEW

Product Analysis

Plush Stuffed Toys

This segment continued to be the Group's growth engine, with sales revenue up 19.6% to HK$2,737.2 million (2022: HK$2,287.8 million), accounting for 51.1% of the Group's total revenue, despite the adverse economic environment. This was mainly attributable to strong orders contributed by theme parks, thanks to the Group's long-standing partnerships with character owners and licensors. During the Year, the Group took various measures to attract orders and focused on maintaining a reasonable utilisation rate. For example, it proactively pursued additional orders from existing customers by offering competitive prices. At the same time, the Group also explored new opportunities and received positive responses from new customers.

Plastic Figures

Due to the impact of the economic downturn, customers in this segment were more conservative in terms of order placement and inventory management. Revenue of the segment was inevitably affected and amounted to HK$1,927.9 million (2022: HK$3,232.9 million), accounting for 36.0% of the Group's total revenue. In response to the challenges, the Group maximized sales by offering competitive prices and quotations, enhancing product development, and shortening development and production lead times to deepen cooperation with existing customers. It also strived to secure new products while facilitating reorders wherever possible. Efforts were made to cultivate new customers through various channels, and progress was made with new customers. In addition, the Group maintained strict cost control through timely procurement of raw materials to maintain low prices, investment in production tools, automation, and analysis of the work environment to identify areas for improvement and reduce unnecessary losses. These initiatives have enhanced the Group's competitiveness in the face of challenging market conditions.

Tarpaulin

During the Year, the segment, which was affected by the destocking cycle of customers in the US and Europe, recorded revenue of HK$393.1 million (2022: HK$485.9 million), accounting for 7.3% of the Group's total revenue. Recognising the importance of integrating sustainability elements into the business, the Group has planned to expand sales of tarpaulin products with such element worldwide. The Group also actively participated in industry events to explore new markets and customers, thereby maintaining its market share despite the adversities.

Die-Casting Products

Thanks to the diversified playset offerings, which have been well-received in the market, the segment revenue increased by 19.4% to HK$294.2 million (2022: HK$246.3 million), accounting for 5.6% of the Group's total revenue. In addition to continuing to produce products that met market trends, the Group worked closely with customers on production plans, which allowed it to maintain high capacity utilisation throughout the Year and shorten lead times for urgent orders. Furthermore, the Group strategically sourced raw materials at low costs, adjusted and optimised production lines, and increased automation levels to improve cost efficiency. These measures have enabled the Group to meet customer demands and adapt to changing industry trends, while minimising costs and improving profitability.

Geographic Market Analysis

For the year ended 31 December 2023, North America remained the Group's largest geographical market, accounting for 44.9% of its total revenue. Sales from Japan accounted for 25.6% of the Group's total revenue, followed by the PRC at 17.0% and Hong Kong at 5.6%.

Operational Analysis

As of 31 December 2023, the Group operated a total of 27 factories, seven in China and 20 in Vietnam, with an average utilisation rate of around 84%. In times of intense competition, enhancing production efficiency and reducing costs provide the Group with competitive edges. Recognising this, the Group has invested in automation and production tools with advanced technologies along the production lines. Separately, the Group has closely monitored operations and identified areas where costs can be reduced. These concerted efforts have not only minimised costs but also elevated product quality, further strengthening the Group's leading position within the industry.

PROSPECTS

In 2024, the manufacturing sector is expected to face various challenges due to uncertainties in the global economy and potential risks stemming from geopolitical tensions. Nonetheless, the Group remains cautiously optimistic about its business outlook, as demand from theme parks in Asia persists and a number of movies will be released in the coming year, stimulating demand for related toy products. Over the years, the Group has made significant efforts to establish a strong presence in major toy markets, including the US, Japan, and China, as a preferred partner of leading toy companies. It has also focused on diversifying its business, not only to generate growth opportunities but also to mitigate potential risks. These strategies have proven successful, as the Group has experienced rapid growth during favourable periods and maintained stable overall performance during challenging times. Going forward, the Group will continue to strengthen its existing relationships with top-tier clients and further develop its diverse businesses as a foundation for future growth.

While increasing automation levels in production lines will continue to be the focus to drive efficiency and expand production capacity, the Group is also seeking to diversify regional risk for a higher level of sustainability and is currently establishing a new plant in Indonesia, which will be operational in 2025, in addition to its two production bases. This proposed third production base represents an important step in the Group's expansion, providing greater flexibility in production arrangements and allowing the Group to seize new opportunities across new markets and adapt quickly to market changes.

In addition, incorporating sustainable elements into the products will be a strategy to enhance the Group's overall competitiveness and margins. Over the past year, the Group has worked closely with supply chain partners and customers to identify and utilize recycled materials in newly launched products, thereby promoting sustainable development. The Group will continue its efforts to tap into the market and develop more environmentally friendly products to meet the growing market demand for sustainability.

All of these strategies are aimed at strengthening the overall competitiveness of Dream International, enabling it to stand out in an adverse environment. This, coupled with the Group's strong financial position, adaptability, and resilience will ensure it is well positioned to capitalise on market opportunities and deliver solid business results. The Group believes that this will not only enable it to consolidate its leading position in the industry, but will ultimately lead to greater returns for the Shareholders in the long run.

There was no acquisition or disposal of subsidiaries and associated companies by the Group during the year ended 31 December 2023.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The global economy continued to experience challenges, fluctuations in both raw material prices and currency exchange rates, as well as rising operation costs have all combined to exert pressure on the Group's business and operations. Under the complicated macroeconomic environment, the Group's two-pronged strategy has been proven effective in maintaining growth in both scale of business and revenue.

Socio-political volatility around the world and global economic instability are likely to persist. Uncertainties in the global economy linger, triggering toy retailers to be more cost-conscious in procurement, hence toy companies are exploring how to better work with manufacturers who can produce quality products at a more competitive price. This overriding trend accelerates the consolidation of the industry and is driving many toy manufacturers to relocate their plants to either China's interior or to Southeast Asia for lower manufacturing costs and look for production capacity outside China.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

The Group recognises the importance of compliance with laws and regulations and any non-compliance with such requirements could lead to disruption to the Group's businesses. The Group has been closely monitoring the ongoing compliance with laws and regulations in various jurisdictions in which the Group has operations.

The support from key stakeholders, including employees, customers, suppliers and shareholders, contributes greatly to the Group's success. The Group has an objective to devote resources to promote and maintain long term and sustainable relationships with these stakeholders.

EXPOSURE TO FLUCTUATIONS IN EXCHANGE RATES AND ANY RELATED HEDGES

The majority of the Group's assets and liabilities and business transactions were denominated in Hong Kong dollars, United States dollars, Renminbi Yuan, Vietnamese Dong and Japanese Yen. During the year ended 31 December 2023, the Group had not entered into any hedging arrangements. The management will continue to monitor closely its foreign currency exposure and to consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure when necessary.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY

The Group is committed to achieving environmental sustainability and has implemented its Corporate Social Responsibility strategy across the organization by deeply embedding social responsibility into daily operations. Plasteel"), Dream Plastic Nam Dinh Co., Ltd ("Dream Plastic Nam Dinh"), Dream Lingshan Co., Ltd ("Dream Lingshan") and C & H Vina Co., Ltd ("C & H Vina").

1.4 Our ESG Approach

The Board oversees and sets out the ESG strategy for the Group. The Board is also responsible for ensuring the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control mechanisms. To systematically manage ESG issues, the head office in Hong Kong coordinates with the different factories to manage and collect relevant information on the Group's ESG initiatives and performances, and leads the preparation of the ESG Report. Through the periodic reporting to the management and the Board, the Board identifies and assesses the Group's material ESG issues and ESG risks, and review the Group's ESG performance against the Group's ESG-related goals and targets, including but not limited to environmental, labour practices and other aspects of ESG.

The Group has been certified for many years for social compliance standards such as ICTI<sup>2</sup> Care Program and Disney International Labor Standards, which addresses ESG related issues from promoting safety standards, to advancing social responsibility in the industry with programs to address environmental concerns, fair and lawful employment practices and workplace safety etc. In light of this, we have continued to maintain not only our certification compliance status, but we also strive to improve, by embedding the best practices into our daily operations. We continue to engage more of our employees such that health and safety becomes a responsibility for all but not solely that of the management.

For the environment, though our industry does not typically pose significant environmental risks, we implement adequate environmental management control towards our operations to minimize our impact. We pay attention to reduce the resource use in our operations, particularly on energy and water, and implement efficiency measures where practicable.

We have been working continuously to enhance the internal communication between our workers and the management by arranging periodic labor meetings throughout the year. We are implementing this initiative to all of our operating factories from Vietnam to China.

1.5 Stakeholder Engagement and Materiality Assessment

Stakeholder engagement

We had carried out stakeholders' engagement with our management team, who have decisive role on the Group's operations, and helped set the scene and direction on the Group's ESG approach. The diligently collected and carefully analyzed data underscores not only the Group's sustainable initiatives for the Reporting Period, but also the Group's short-term and long-term sustainability strategy. We intend to continuously reach out to more stakeholders for future reviews of our materiality. We will also maintain communication with the stakeholders of our latest developments and status on sustainability issues.

The International Council of Toy Industries (ICTI) is the industry association for the worldwide toy industry. ICTI is a not-for-profit membership organization incorporated in the United States of America.

Materiality Assessment

Through the stakeholder engagement practice, we invited management to rate different the importance of different ESG issues to our operation, and identified the following as material ESG issues to the Group. The materiality assessment shows that social aspects of child and forced labour, health and safety and employee benefits remains of highest importance to the Group as they are essential and highly expected from our customers as well as the industry. Regarding product responsibility, it is relatively less important as our products are manufactured and labelled strictly according to our customers' requirements, which we have relatively less direct influence over. In terms of the environmental aspects, the use of electricity and water are key as they have not only environmental impacts but also significant implications on the daily operation costs of our facilities and thus we have high expectation internally in managing these uses.

2 ENVIRONMENTAL

We are committed to build a better environment by adopting an environmentally friendly approach in our business operation through management of our resource use in particular. We are committed to environmental management by adequately controlling the emissions from our facilities and more importantly, comply with all applicable environmental laws and regulations in conducting our business.

According to our materiality results, the use of energy and water use are key to our Group's operation, we are also keen to ensure the emissions from our facilities are adequately controlled and managed.

2.1 Use of Resources

2.1.1 Use of Energy

As a manufacturer, energy use is one of the most critical environmental factors in our operations and among which electricity consumption remains the most critical to our operations. Our energy use mainly falls to the following three types:

- Consumption of purchased electricity for factory processes and staff dormitories;
- Non-mobile fuel use (natural gas and diesel) for cooking and generators; and
- Mobile fuel use of fuels (diesels and petroleum) in our vehicles.

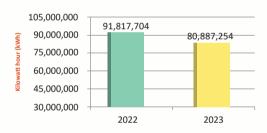

Among the three types of energy use, electricity use from our factory processes makes up the majority of our energy consumption.

During the year under review, the consumptions of each type of energy are as follows:

Total Energy Used

Electricity Consumption

Diesel (Non-Mobile Use) Consumption

Diesel (Mobile Use) Consumption

Natural Gas Consumption

Petroleum Consumption

During the year, we have adopted the following initiatives to improve the energy efficiency of our operations:

- Reduce lighting provisions in non-working areas.
- Encourage staff to switch off unnecessary lighting, equipment, personal computers and monitors in lunch time, after office hours, while away or in meeting.
- Continual replacement of equipment to more energy efficient ones. For example, replace existing centrifugal pumps to the more energy efficient and effective screw pumps or piston pumps.
- Continual retrofitting of lighting equipment to LED. Our target is to replace all existing lighting equipment with LED models.

Installed LED by floor area (%)

2.1.2 Use of Water

Freshwater use is another key component in our business operations. Majority of the water used are for production processes in our factories, along with the domestic use in staff dormitories.

■ LED by floor area (%) (2023)

During the year under review, the consumption of water is as follows:

■ LED by floor area (%) (2022)

To reduce freshwater consumption, we improve our water efficiency and seek alternatives to freshwater source when practicable. During the year, we have adopted the following initiatives:

- Use of collected rainwater (as an alternative to freshwater) for cooling of internal temperature of a finished goods warehouse in Vietnam. We are constantly reviewing the applicability of this initiative to other factories.
- Installation of auto valve to water supply pipe to prevent overflow of water tanks and thus reduce wastage of water.
- Reuse of water for production activities and/or toilet flushing from dyeing activities in Dream Textile. The installation of the cooling tower helps cool down the hot water from dyeing activities which would otherwise be drained away. It is anticipated that 10,000 m³ of water will be saved every month.

2.1.3 Use of Packaging Materials

Use of packaging materials is essential to our products but we do not have direct control over the design and types of packaging materials used as they are prescribed by our customers. Having this said, we strive to minimize the usage and wastage of packaging materials in our operation process. For instance, we have made agreements with fabric buyers of Dream Textile to reuse the paper pipes of sold fabrics. After using the fabrics, buyers would return the remaining paper pipes to us for reuse, reducing the need for new fabric packaging materials.

2.2 Emissions

2.2.1 Air Emissions

Complying with the local air emission requirements are of prime importance to our operations. In our factories, carbon filters, cyclone systems and venturi system are installed for air treatment prior to exhaust with aim to reduce air pollutions like particulate matters, CO, NOx and  $SO_2$ . To ensure our air emissions comply with the regulatory requirements, third party monitoring the air emissions is conducted regularly and all air emissions results in the past year comply with the local standards.

Besides the hardware, we have also adopted the use of more environmentally friendly materials such as powder spray with less volatile organic chemicals (VOC) content in some of the dyeing processes. Since June 2016, we have adopted the use of paint capsule versus paint plate in our painting machines. Such change not only reduces the odour in the production plant, but also enables a more efficient use of paint materials.

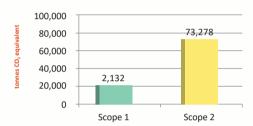

During the year, no report of non-compliance regarding air emissions was noted.

2.2.2 Carbon Emissions

Most of our carbon emissions come from the use of energy in our production processes and staff dormitories. Therefore, we mainly focus on reducing our energy consumption to drive down carbon emissions. Please refer to section "2.1.1 Use of Energy" for our energy reduction initiatives.

During the year under review, our scope 1 and 2 carbon emissions are as follows:

2.2.3 Wastewater

We have sewage treatment facilities in the Vietnamese factories to properly treat the sewage prior to discharge, including Dream Plastic, Dream Textile and J.Y. Plasteel, where paints and dyes are used. We ensure the wastewater discharges comply with and do not exceed the local regulatory standards. Any sludge produced from the plastics factories are also properly treated and disposed of as hazardous wastes by qualified contractors.

In 2023, the wastewater discharge of our ten subsidiaries amounted to:

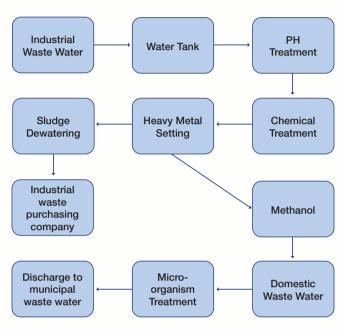

Wastewater facilities were installed for Dream Textile, and the two manufacturing facilities of J.Y. Plasteel. These facilities were equipped to treat industrial wastewater prior to discharge to the municipal sewage system.

During the year, no significant incident of non-compliance regarding wastewater discharge was noted.

Simplified flowchart of the wastewater treatment facilities in J.Y. Plasteel:

J.Y. Plasteel Waste Water Treatment Process

2.2.4 Waste Management

Hazardous waste

We encourage our workers to minimize their resource consumption and provide recycling equipment to reduce wastes. We try to recycle and reuse raw materials such as polypropylene (PP), polyvinyl chloride (PVC) and acrylonitrile butadiene styrene (ABS) and paints where applicable. Other non-recyclable hazardous wastes are handled by qualified service providers in accordance with local regulatory requirements.

Total amount of hazardous waste disposed in 2023 is provided below:

During the year, no report of non-compliance regarding the disposal of hazardous wastes was noted.

Non-hazardous waste

We try to recycle and reuse raw materials, besides chemicals, other recyclables also include carton boxes in our factories. In Vietnam, kitchen waste is also recycled as livestock feeds.

Since non-hazardous waste is not deemed a material aspect of the Group's business, we have yet to obtain a complete statistic of the non-hazardous waste produced. We shall closely follow regulatory changes and update our disclosure according in the future.

2.4 Climate Change

Climate change as an emerging global risk, may impact companies in the form of physical risks ranging from acute weather events such as flooding and storms, to chronic physical risks arising from the rising temperature and sea levels. It will also lead to transition risks arising from the change in environmental-related regulations or change in customer preferences.

While we do not consider climate change risks to have a significant impact on our businesses, it would still have certain effects on our operations and we will continue to monitor the climate-related risks and implement relevant measures to minimize its potential impact.

Precautionary measures such as contingency plans at our manufacturing operations and flexible working arrangement at our offices has been adopted in response to the possible extreme weather scenarios of typhoon and flooding. To reduce emissions and energy consumption, the Group has implemented various environmental protection measures. Please refer to sections "Emissions" and "Use of Resources" for further details.

3 EMPLOYMENT AND LABOUR STANDARD

3.1 Employment

As part of the employee benefits, annual body checks are provided to all factory workers to ensure their health conditions are taken care of. Safety guidelines are formulated and communicated to all employees. Relevant training, such as training to new workers on proper use of sewing machines, are organized in the year to improve our employees' awareness on health and safety.

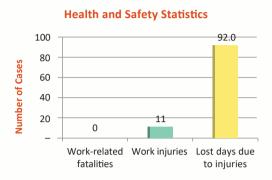

Fire drill in J.Y. Plasteel

Regular inspections on the factories are carried out to ensure safety hazards are alleviated. We ensure relevant certifications and/or permits in compliance to relevant laws and regulations were obtained. Furthermore, our Environmental, Healthy and Safety ("EHS") committee conducts out occupational risk assessments periodically within the factory to identify potential hazards. The Group has implemented several safety practices to protect our employees, including, but not limited to:

- Providing health and safety trainings to newly employed employees.
- Providing pre-job, annual and post health examinations to employees.

Independent auditor's report to the members of Dream International Limited

(Incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Dream International Limited ("the Company") and its subsidiaries ("the Group") set out on pages 60 to 142, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023, the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated cash flow statement for the year then ended and notes, comprising material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code") and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Assessing the carrying value of inventories

Refer to note 19 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies in note 1(I).

The Key Audit Matter

The Group held significant quantities of inventories, which principally comprised of plush stuffed toys, plastic figures, die-casting products and tarpaulin in different phases of their manufacturing life cycles. Products are manufactured based on actual or anticipated orders which can be impacted by the popularity of the product characters and figures as a result of the changing trends in the toy and entertainment industries.

Management performs regular reviews of the carrying values of inventories with reference to the inventory ageing report and projections of expected future sales or utilisation of individual items and their selling prices based on management's experience and judgement. A write-down will be made when it is expected that an item cannot be sold or utilised or the estimated net realisable value would fall below its carrying amount.

In addition, the allocation of labour and production overheads to be absorbed in inventories, which requires management experience and involves voluminous calculations for a large number of products, can impact the carrying amount of work-in-progress and finished goods.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

Our audit procedures to assess the carrying value of inventories included the following:

- assessing whether the inventory write-down at the reporting date was calculated on a basis consistent with the Group's inventory provisioning policy by recalculating the write-down based on the percentages and other parameters in the Group's inventory provisioning policy;
- assessing, on a sample basis, whether items in the inventory ageing report were classified within the appropriate ageing bracket by comparing individual items in the report with underlying documentation, including purchase invoices, goods received notes and finished goods stock-in report;
- inspecting, on a sample basis, the relevant underlying documentation for sales orders received and where applicable delivery of inventories subsequent to the end of the reporting period;
- inquiring of management about any slow-moving or obsolete inventories and comparing their representations with actual transactions and utilisation subsequent to the end of the reporting period;

Refer to note 19 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies in note 1(I).

The Key Audit Matter

We identified assessing the carrying value of inventories as a key audit matter because of the significant judgement exercised by management in determining an appropriate inventory write-down, which involves assessing the latest consumer preferences and estimating the inventories that cannot be sold or utilised and their selling prices, and because the calculations for the allocation of labour and production overheads to individual products are susceptible to errors due to the significant number of products involved.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

- comparing, on a sample basis, the unit cost of inventories at the reporting date with sales price achieved subsequent to the end of the reporting period;
- assessing the Group's inventory provisioning policy and the relevant disclosures in the consolidated financial statements with reference to the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards; and
- evaluating the allocation of labour and production overheads to inventories by assessing the method of calculation, recalculating the absorption of labour and production overheads, on a sample basis, and comparing total overhead costs absorbed with actual total overhead costs incurred for the year.

Information other than the consolidated financial statements and auditor's report thereon

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the consolidated financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Wong Kong Tat.

1 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs"), which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs") and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and the requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("SEHK") (the "Listing Rules"). Material accounting policies adopted by Dream International Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the "Group") are disclosed below.

The HKICPA has issued certain amendments to HKFRSs that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group. Note 2 provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current accounting period reflected in these financial statements.

(b) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 comprise the Group and the Group's interest in an associate.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis except that investments in equity securities (see note 1(f)) are stated at their fair values.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in note 30.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(c) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses (except for foreign currency transaction gains or losses) arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Changes in the Group's interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary and other components of equity. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former subsidiary is measured at fair value when control is lost.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 1(k)(ii)).

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(d) Associate

An associate is an entity in which the Group or the Company has significant influence, but not control or joint control, over the financial and operating policies.

An interest in an associate is accounted for using the equity method, unless it is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group classified as held for sale). They are initially recognised at cost, which includes transaction costs. Subsequently, the consolidated financial statements include the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income ("OCI") of those investees, until the date on which significant influence ceases.

When the Group's share of losses exceeds its interest in the associate, the Group's interest is reduced to nil and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee. For this purpose, the Group's interest is the carrying amount of the investment under the equity method, together with any other long-term interests that in substance form part of the Group's net investment in the associate (after applying the expected credit losses ("ECL") model to such other long-term interests where applicable (see note 1(k)(i))).

Unrealised gains arising from transactions with equity-accounted investees are eliminated against the investment to the extent of the Group's interest in the investee. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent there is no evidence of impairment.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in an associate is stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 1(k)(ii)).

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(e) Goodwill

Goodwill arising on acquisition of businesses is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses and is tested annually for impairment (see note 1(k)(ii)).

(f) Investments in equity securities

The Group's policies for investments in equity securities, other than investments in subsidiaries and an associate, are set out below.

Investments in equity securities are recognised/derecognised on the date the Group commits to purchase/ sell the investment. The investments are initially stated at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs, except for those investments measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL") for which transaction costs are recognised directly in profit or loss. For an explanation of how the Group determines fair value of financial instruments, see note 27(e). These investments are subsequently accounted for as follows, depending on their classification.

An investment in equity securities is classified as FVPL unless the investment is not held for trading purposes and on initial recognition the Group makes an irrevocable election to designate the investment at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") (non-recycling) such that subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in OCI. Such elections are made on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but may only be made if the investment meets the definition of equity from the issuer's perspective. If such election is made for a particular investment, at the time of disposal, the amount accumulated in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) is transferred to retained profits and not recycled through profit or loss. Dividends from an investment in equity securities, irrespective of whether classified as at FVPL or FVOCI, are recognised in profit or loss as other income (see note 1(t)(ii)).

(g) Investment properties

Investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see note 1(k)(ii)). Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of investment properties, using the straight line method over the shorter of the unexpired term of leases and their estimated useful lives, and is generally recognised in profit or loss.

Any gain or loss on disposal of investment properties is recognised in profit or loss. Rental income from investment properties is recognised in accordance with note 1(t)(ii).

(h) Property, plant and equipment

The following items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses (see note 1(k)(ii)):

- freehold land and buildings;
- interests in leasehold land and buildings where the Group is the registered owner of the property interest (see note 1(i)):
- right-of-use assets arising from leases of underlying properties where the Group is not the registered owner of the property interest; and
- items of plant and equipment.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components).

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in profit or loss.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual values, if any, using the straight line method over their estimated useful lives, and is generally recognised in profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

- Freehold land is not depreciated.
- Buildings situated on freehold land are depreciated over their estimated useful life, being no more than 50 years after the date of completion.
- Leasehold land is depreciated over unexpired term of lease.
- The Group's interests in buildings situated on leasehold land are depreciated over the shorter of the unexpired term of lease and the buildings' estimated useful lives, being no more than 50 years after the date of completion.
- Plant and machinery 5 10 years
- Others 3-10 years

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted if appropriate.

(i) Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Intangible assets, including patent and computer software, that are acquired by the Group and have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses (see note 1(k)(ii)).

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

- Patent 5 years

Computer software
 10 years

Amortisation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted if appropriate.

Club memberships with indefinite useful lives are measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses, and are tested annually for impairment (see note 1(k)(ii)).

Intangible assets are not amortised while their useful lives are assessed to be indefinite. Any conclusion that the useful live of an intangible asset is indefinite is reviewed annually to determine whether events and circumstances continue to support the indefinite useful live assessment for that asset. If they do not, the change in the useful live assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for prospectively from the date of change and in accordance with the policy for amortisation of intangible assets with finite lives as set out above.

(i) Leased assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. This is the case if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

(i) As a lessee

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for leases that have a short lease term of 12 months or less, and lease of low-value assets. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value item, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. If not capitalised, the associated lease payments are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is recognised using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability, and are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see notes 1(h) and 1(k)(ii)).

Refundable rental deposits are accounted for separately from the right-of-use assets and carried at amortised cost. Any excess of the nominal value over the initial fair value of the deposits is accounted for as additional lease payments made and is included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if the group changes its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a lease modification, which means a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract, if such modification is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

In the consolidated statement of financial position, the current portion of long-term lease liabilities is determined as the present value of contractual payments that are due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period.

(ii) As a lessor

The Group determines at lease inception whether each lease is a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an underlying assets to the lessee. Otherwise, the lease is classified as an operating lease. The rental income from operating leases is recognised in accordance with note 1(t)(ii).

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(k) Credit losses and impairment of assets

(i) Credit losses from financial instruments

The Group recognises a loss allowance for ECLs on financial assets measured at amortised cost (including cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, trade and other receivables that are held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest).

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Generally, credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls between the contractual and expected amounts.

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following rates if the effect is material:

- trade and other receivables: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof; and
- variable-rate financial assets: current effective interest rate.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

- 12-month ECLs: these are the portion of ECLs that result from default events that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months); and
- lifetime ECLs: these are the ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

The Group measures loss allowances at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, except for the following, which are measured at 12-months ECLs:

- financial instruments that are determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date; and
- other financial instruments for which credit risk (i.e. the risk of default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

Loss allowances for trade receivables are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(k) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Significant increases in credit risk

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition and when measuring ECLs, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment, that includes forward-looking information.

The Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly if it is more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset to be in default when the debtor is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held).

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

Credit-impaired financial assets

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

- significant financial difficulties of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default;
- the restructuring of a loan or advance by the Group on terms that the Group would not consider otherwise;
- it is probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(k) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(ii) Impairment of other non-current assets

At each reporting date, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its non-financial assets (other than inventories, current tax recoverable and deferred tax assets) to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. Goodwill is tested annually for impairment.

For impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or cash-generating units ("CGU"s). Goodwill arising from a business combination is allocated to CGUs or groups of CGUs that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

The recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or CGU.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount.

Impairment losses are recognised in profit or loss. They are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the CGU, and then to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets in the CGU on a pro rata basis.

An impairment loss in respect of goodwill is not reversed. For other assets, an impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the resulting carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

(iii) Interim financial reporting and impairment

Under the Listing Rules, the Group is required to prepare an interim financial report in compliance with HKAS 34, Interim financial reporting, in respect of the first six months of the financial year. At the end of the interim period, the Group applies the same impairment testing, recognition, and reversal criteria as it would at the end of the financial year (see notes 1(k)(i) and (ii)).

(I) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value as follows:

Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(m) Trade and other receivables

A receivable is recognised when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration and only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are initially measured at their transaction price. Trade receivables that contain a significant financing component and other receivables are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs. All receivables are subsequently stated at amortised cost (see note 1(k)(i)).

(n) Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are measured initially at fair value less transaction costs. Subsequently, these borrowings are stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense is recognised in accordance with note 1(v).

(o) Trade and other payables and contract liabilities

(i) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, trade and other payables are stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at invoice amounts.

(ii) Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when the customer pays non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue (see note 1(t)(i)). A contract liability is also recognised if the Group has an unconditional right to receive non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. In such latter cases, a corresponding receivable is also recognised (see note 1(m)).

(p) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and other short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for ECL (see note 1(k)(i)).

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(q) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Short-term employee benefits are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Obligations for contributions to defined contribution retirement plans are expensed as the related service is provided.

(ii) Defined benefit plan obligations

The Group has defined benefit plan of long service payment ("LSP") under the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance.

The Group's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods and discounting that amount. The estimated amount of future benefit is determined after deducting the negative service cost arising from the accrued benefits derived from the Group's mandatory provident fund ("MPF") contributions that have been vested with employees, which are deemed to be contributions from the relevant employees.

Remeasurements arising from defined benefit plan, which comprise actuarial gains and losses and the effect of any asset ceiling (excluding interest), are recognised immediately in OCI. Net interest expense for the period is determined by applying the discount rate used to measure the defined benefit obligation at the beginning of the reporting period to the then net defined benefit liability, taking into account any changes in the net defined benefit liability during the period. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plan are recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are expensed at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognises restructuring costs for a restructuring.

(r) Income tax

Income tax expense comprises current tax and deferred tax. It is recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination, or items recognised directly in equity or in OCI.

Current tax comprises the estimated tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustments to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. The amount of current tax payable or receivable is the best estimate of the tax amount expected to be paid or received that reflects any uncertainty related to income taxes. It is measured using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Current tax also includes any tax arising from dividends.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset only if certain criteria are met.

(r) Income tax (Continued)

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not recognised for:

- temporary differences on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences;
- temporary differences related to investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint venture to the extent that the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future;
- taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill; and
- those related to the income taxes arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD").

The Group recognised deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities separately in relation to its lease liabilities and right-of-use assets.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Future taxable profits are determined based on the reversal of relevant taxable temporary differences. If the amount of taxable temporary differences is insufficient to recognise a deferred tax asset in full, then future taxable profits, adjusted for reversals of existing temporary differences, are considered, based on the business plans for individual subsidiaries in the Group. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only if certain criteria are met.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(s) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Generally provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

Where some or all of the expenditure required to settle a provision is expected to be reimbursed by another party, a separate asset is recognised for any expected reimbursement that would be virtually certain. The amount recognised for the reimbursement is limited to the carrying amount of the provision.

(t) Revenue and other income

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the sale of goods, the provision of services or the use by others of the Group's assets under leases in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Further details of the Group's revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group is the principal for its revenue transactions and recognises revenue on a gross basis. In determining whether the Group acts as a principal or as an agent, it considers whether it obtains control of the products before they are transferred to the customers. Control refers to the Group's ability to direct the use of and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits from the products.

Revenue is recognised when control over a product or service is transferred to the customer at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties such as value added tax or other sales taxes.

(a) Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the customer takes possession of and accepts the goods. Payment terms and conditions vary by customers and are based on the billing schedule established in the contracts or purchase orders with customers, but the Group generally provides credit terms to customers within 30 - 120 days upon customer acceptance.

(ii) Other income

(a) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method. The 'effective interest rate' is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. In calculating interest income, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset (when the asset is not credit-impaired). However, for financial assets that have become credit-impaired subsequent to initial recognition, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset. If the asset is no longer credit-impaired, then the calculation of interest income reverts to the gross basis.

(b) Rental income from operating leases

Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives granted are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the total rental income, over the term of the lease.

(c) Dividends

Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss on the date when the Group's right to receive payment is established.

(d) Government grants

Government grants are recognised in the statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred.

(u) Translation of foreign currencies

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollar ("HKD"), which is different from the Company's functional currency of United States dollar ("USD"). The Company has used HKD as its presentation currency in view of the fact that the Company's shares are listed on the SEHK.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the respective functional currencies of group companies at the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate at the reporting date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured based on historical cost in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Foreign currency differences are generally recognised in profit or loss.

However, foreign currency differences arising from the translation of an investment in equity securities designated as at FVOCI (except on impairment, in which case foreign currency differences that have been recognised in OCI are reclassified to profit or loss) are recognised in OCI.

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into HKD at the exchange rates at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated into HKD at the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Foreign currency differences are recognised in OCI and accumulated in the exchange reserve.

When a foreign operation is disposed of in its entirety or partially such that control, significant influence or joint control is lost, the cumulative amount in the exchange reserve related to that foreign operation is reclassified to profit or loss as part of the gain or loss on disposal. On disposal of a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences relating to that foreign operation shall not be reclassified to profit or loss. If the group disposes of part of its interest in a subsidiary but retains control, then the relevant proportion of the cumulative amount is reattributed to non-controlling interests. When the Group disposes of only part of an associate while retaining significant influence, the relevant proportion of the cumulative amount is reclassified to profit or loss.

(v) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

(w) Related parties

- (i) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
  - (1) has control or joint control over the Group;
  - (2) has significant influence over the Group; or
  - (3) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.
- (ii) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
  - (1) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
  - One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
  - (3) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.

(x) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) New and amended HKFRSs

The Group has applied the following new and amended HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA to these financial statements for the current accounting period:

- HKFRS 17, Insurance contracts
- Amendments to HKAS 8, Accounting policies, changes in accounting estimates and errors: Definition of accounting estimates
- Amendments to HKAS 1, Presentation of financial statements and HKFRS Practice Statement 2, Making materiality judgements: Disclosure of accounting policies
- Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: Deferred tax related to assets and liabilities arising from a single transaction
- Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: International tax reform Pillar Two model rules

The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period. Impacts of the adoption of the new and amended HKFRSs are discussed below:

HKFRS 17, Insurance contracts

HKFRS 17, which replaces HKFRS 4, sets out the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure requirements applicable to issuers of insurance contracts. The standard does not have a material impact on these financial statements as the Group does not have contracts within the scope of HKFRS 17.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Amendments to HKAS 8, Accounting policies, changes in accounting estimates and errors: Definition of accounting estimates

The amendments provide further guidance on the distinction between changes in accounting policies and changes in accounting estimates. The amendments do not have a material impact on these financial statements as the Group's approach in distinguishing changes in accounting policies and changes in accounting estimates is consistent with the amendments.

Amendments to HKAS 1, Presentation of financial statements and HKFRS Practice Statement 2, Making materiality judgements: Disclosure of accounting policies

The amendments require entities to disclose material accounting policy information and provide guidance on applying the concept of materiality to accounting policy disclosure. The Group has revisited the accounting policy information it has been disclosing and considered it is consistent with the amendments.

Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: Deferred tax related to assets and liabilities arising from a single transaction

The amendments narrow the scope of the initial recognition exemption such that it does not apply to transactions that give rise to equal and offsetting temporary differences on initial recognition such as leases and decommissioning liabilities. For leases and decommissioning liabilities, the associated deferred tax assets and liabilities are required to be recognised from the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented, with any cumulative effect recognised as an adjustment to retained profits or other components of equity at that date. For all other transactions, the amendments are applied to those transactions that occur after the beginning of the earliest period presented. The amendments do not have a material impact on these financial statements as the Group does not offset temporary differences.

Amendments to HKAS 12, Income taxes: International tax reform - Pillar Two model rules

The amendments introduce a temporary mandatory exception from deferred tax accounting for the income tax arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two model rules published by the OECD (income tax arising from such tax laws is hereafter referred to as "Pillar Two income taxes"), including tax laws that implement qualified domestic minimum top-up taxes described in those rules. The amendments also introduce disclosure requirements about such tax including the estimated tax exposure to Pillar Two income taxes. The amendments are immediately effective upon issuance and require retrospective application. Since the Group did not fall within the scope of the Pillar Two model rules, the amendments did not have any impact to the Group.

(b) New HKICPA guidance on the accounting implications of the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism

In June 2022 the Hong Kong SAR Government (the "Government") gazetted the Hong Kong Employment and Retirement Schemes Legislation (Offsetting Arrangement) (Amendment) Ordinance 2022 (the "Amendment Ordinance"), which will come into effect from 1 May 2025 (the "Transition Date"). Once the Amendment Ordinance takes effect, an employer can no longer use any of the accrued benefits derived from its mandatory contributions to MPF scheme to reduce the LSP in respect of an employee's service from the Transition Date (the abolition of the "offsetting mechanism"). In addition, the LSP in respect of the service before the Transition Date will be calculated based on the employee's monthly salary immediately before the Transition Date and the years of service up to that date.

In July 2023, the HKICPA published "Accounting implications of the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism in Hong Kong" that provides accounting guidance relating to the offsetting mechanism and the abolition of the mechanism. In particular, the guidance indicates that entities may account for the accrued benefits derived from mandatory MPF contributions that are expected to be used to reduce the LSP payable to an employee as deemed contributions by that employee towards the LSP.

The Group has assessed the implications of this new guidance and concluded that it does not have a material impact on these financial statements.

11 SEGMENT REPORTING

The Group manages its businesses by divisions, which are organised by a mixture of both business lines and geography. In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has presented the following four reportable segments. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments.

- Plush stuffed toys: this segment is involved in the design, development, manufacture and sale of plush stuffed toys. These products are either sourced externally or are manufactured in the Group's manufacturing facilities located primarily in the PRC and Vietnam.
- Plastic figures: this segment is involved in the design, development, manufacture and sale of plastic figures. These products are manufactured in the Group's manufacturing facilities located primarily in the PRC and Vietnam.
- Tarpaulin: this segment is involved in the design, development, manufacture and sale of tarpaulin. These products are manufactured in the Group's manufacturing facilities located in Vietnam.
- Die-casting products: this segment is involved in the design, development, manufacture and sale of die-casting products. These products are manufactured in the Group's manufacturing facilities located in Vietnam.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise indicated)

11 SEGMENT REPORTING (Continued)

(a) Segment results, assets and liabilities

For the purposes of assessing segment performance and allocating resources between segments, the Group's senior executive management monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment on the following bases:

Segment assets include all tangible assets, other intangible assets, goodwill and current assets with the exception of interest in an associate, club memberships, other financial asset, deferred tax assets, current tax recoverable and other corporate assets. Segment liabilities include trade creditors, accruals and lease liabilities attributable to the manufacturing and sales activities of the individual segments and bank borrowings managed directly by the segments.

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to sales generated by those segments and the expenses incurred by those segments or which otherwise arise from the depreciation of assets attributable to those segments. Other than reporting inter-segment sales, assistance provided by one segment to another, including sharing of assets, is not measured.

The measure used for reporting segment profit is "adjusted EBITDA" i.e. "adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation", where "interest" is regarded as including investment income and "depreciation and amortisation" is regarded as including impairment losses on non-current assets. To arrive at the adjusted EBITDA, the Group's earnings are further adjusted for items not specially attributed to individual segments, such as share of profit of an associate, directors' and auditors' remuneration and other head office or corporate administration costs.

In addition to receiving segment information concerning adjusted EBITDA, management is provided with segment information concerning inter-segment sales, interest income and expense from cash balances and borrowings managed directly by the segments, depreciation and impairment losses and additions to non-current segment assets used by the segments in their operations. Inter-segment sales are priced with reference to prices charged to external parties for similar orders.

- (b) The carrying amount and fair value of the Group's investment properties and the level of fair value hierarchy (as defined in note 27(e)) at 31 December 2023 and 2022 are disclosed below: (Continued)
  - (i) Fair value hierarchy (Continued)

For the fair value of an investment property in Hong Kong as at 31 December 2023, the Group had engaged independent firm of surveyor, Ravia Global Appraisal Advisory Limited who has among their staff fellows of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors with recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued, to value its investment property. The Group's management had discussion with the surveyor on the valuation assumptions and valuation results when the valuation is performed at the end of the reporting period.

For the fair value of investment properties in the PRC and Vietnam as at 31 December 2023, the Group determined the fair value using depreciated replacement cost approach by considering the cost to reproduce or replace in new condition the investment property appraised in accordance with current construction costs for similar properties in the locality.

For the fair value of an investment property in the PRC as at 31 December 2022, the Group had engaged independent firm of surveyor, Roma Appraisals Limited who has among their staff fellows of the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors with recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued, to value its investment property. The Group's management had discussion with the surveyor on the valuation assumptions and valuation results when the valuation was performed at the end of the reporting period.

For the fair value of an investment property in Vietnam as at 31 December 2022, the Group had engaged independent firm of surveyor, CBRE (Vietnam) Co., Ltd who has among their staff fellows of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors with recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued, to value its investment property. The Group's management had discussion with the surveyor on the valuation assumptions and valuation results when the valuation was performed at the end of the reporting period.

(ii) Information about Level 3 fair value measurements

	approach	of the buildings	(2022: Nil)

<ul><li>Vietnam</li></ul>	Depreciated replacement	Adjusted replacement cost per	USD240
	cost approach	sq. m.	(2022: USD240)

The fair value of the investment property located in Hong Kong is determined using market comparison approach by reference to recent sales price of comparable properties on a price per square foot basis, adjusted for a premium or a discount specific to the quality of the Group's building compared to the recent sales. Higher premium for higher quality buildings will result in a higher fair value measurement.

(ii) Information about Level 3 fair value measurements (Continued)

The fair values of the investment properties located in the PRC and Vietnam are determined using depreciated replacement cost approach by considering the cost to reproduce or replace in new condition the investment properties appraised in accordance with current construction costs for similar properties in the locality, with allowance for accrued depreciation as evidenced by observed condition or obsolescence percent, whether arising from physical, functional or economic causes. The fair value measurement is positively correlated to the adjusted replacement cost.

(d) Nature and purpose of reserves

(i) General reserve fund

The general reserve fund comprises of PRC subsidiaries' general reserve fund and Korean subsidiary's general reserve fund.

According to the PRC laws applicable to wholly-owned foreign investment enterprises, the PRC subsidiaries of the Company are required to set up a general reserve fund and appropriate at least 10% of their annual net profits after taxation, as determined under PRC accounting regulations, to the general reserve fund until the balance of the fund equals to 50% of the respective enterprise's registered capital. This fund can be used, upon approval by the relevant authorities, to offset accumulated losses or to increase registered capital of subsidiary, provided that the balance after such issue is not less than 25% of its registered capital.

According to the Korean Commercial Code, the Korean subsidiary is required to set aside as a legal reserve an amount equal to 10% of the cash portion of the annual dividend or accumulate a legal reserve of not less than 50% of Korean subsidiary's share capital before any payout of its dividend. This fund can be transferred to retained profits or used to reduce an accumulated loss.

(iii) Exchange reserve

The exchange reserve comprises all foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of operations outside Hong Kong. The reserve is dealt with in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1(u).

(iv) Fair value reserve (non-recycling)

The fair value reserve (non-recycling) comprises the cumulative net change in the fair value of equity investments designated at FVOCI under HKFRS 9 that are held at the end of the reporting period (see note 1(f)).

(e) Capital management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, by pricing products commensurately with the level of risk and by securing access to finance at a reasonable cost.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher shareholder returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position, and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions.

The Group monitors capital with reference to its debt position. The Group's strategy was to maintain the equity and debt in a balanced position and ensure there was adequate working capital to service its debt obligations. At 31 December 2023, the ratio of the Group's total liabilities over its total assets was 20% (2022: 27%).

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

27 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Exposure to credit, liquidity, interest rate and currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business.

The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss to the Group. The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade and other receivables. The Group's exposure to credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents and bills receivable are limited because the counterparties are banks, which the Group considers to represent low credit risk.

The Group does not provide any guarantees which would expose the Group to credit risk.

Trade receivables

The Group has established a credit risk management policy under which individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within 30 to 120 days from the date of billing. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from customers.

The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk in industries or countries in which the customers operate. Significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual customers. At the end of the reporting period, 22% (2022: 26%) and 53% (2022: 71%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers respectively.

The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which is calculated using a provision matrix.

Movement in the loss allowance account in respect of trade receivables during the year is as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Balance at 1 January (Reversal)/provision of loss allowances during the year	3,584	243 3,341
Balance at 31 December	3,555	3,584

Credit risk arising from loans receivable

The loans receivable to a third party are fully secured by a leasehold land and a factory building held by the third party. The maximum exposure to credit risk in respect of the loans at the end of the reporting period, without taking into account the collateral, and the key terms of the loans are disclosed in note 20. The Group considered that the credit risk arising from the loans is significantly mitigated by the leasehold land and factory building held as collateral, with reference to the estimated market value of the leasehold land and factory building at 31 December 2023.

(b) Liquidity risk

Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses, participation in supplier finance arrangements with banks and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands, subject to approval by the parent company's board when the borrowings exceed certain predetermined levels of authority. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and readily realisable marketable securities and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The following tables show the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay.

27 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

(c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from bank loans. Borrowings issued at fixed and variable rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk and cash flow interest rate risk respectively. The Group monitors the level of its fixed rate borrowings and manages the contractual terms of the interest-bearing financial liabilities. The Group's interest rate profile as monitored by management is set out in (i) below.

(i) Interest rate risk profile

The following table, as reported to the management of the Group, details the interest rate profile of the Group's borrowings at the end of reporting period.

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2023, it is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 100 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would have decreased/increased the Group's profit after tax and retained profits by approximately HK$162,000 (2022: HK$1,219,000). Other components of consolidated equity would not be affected by changes in interest rates.

The sensitivity analysis above indicates the annualised impact on the Group's interest expense that would arise assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to floating rate instruments which expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk at that date. The analysis does not take into account exposure to fair value interest rate risk arising from fixed rate instruments as the Group does not hold any fixed rate instruments which are measured at fair value in the financial statements. The analysis is performed on the same basis as 2022.

(d) Currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk primarily through sales and purchases which give rise to receivables, payables and cash balances that are denominated in a foreign currency, i.e. a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate. The currencies giving rise to this risk are primarily HKD, Renminbi Yuan, Vietnamese Dong and Japanese Yen.

For the Group's companies with HKD as functional currency, it is not expected that there are any significant movements in the USD/HKD exchange rate as the HKD is pegged to the USD.

(i) Exposure to currency risk

The following table details the Group's exposure at the end of reporting period to currency risk arising from recognised assets or liabilities denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. For presentation purposes, the amounts of the exposure are shown in HKD, translated using spot rate at the year end date. Differences resulting from the translation of financial statements of operations outside Hong Kong into the Group's presentation currency are excluded.

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

The following table indicates the instantaneous change in the Group's profit after tax (and retained profits) and other components of consolidated equity that would arise if foreign exchange rates to which the Group has significant exposure at the end of the reporting period had changed at that date, assuming all other risk variables remained constant. In this respect, it is assumed that the pegged rate between the HKD and the USD would be materially unaffected by any changes in movement in value of the HKD against other currencies.

Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent an aggregation of the instantaneous effects on each of the Group entities' profit after tax and equity measured in the respective functional currencies, and then translated into HKD at the exchange rate ruling at the end of reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis assumes that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to remeasure those financial instruments held by the Group which expose the Group to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting period, including inter-company payables and receivables within the Group which are denominated in a currency other than the functional currencies of the lender or the borrower. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2022.

(e) Fair value measurement

- (i) Financial assets measured at fair value
  - (1) Fair value hierarchy

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of each reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

- Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date
- Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available
- Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs

During the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, there were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfers into or out of Level 3.

The Group's policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period in which they occur.

(2) Information about Level 3 fair value measurements

	Significant
	Valuation technique	unobservable input	Percentage
Unlisted equity security	Market comparable companies	Discount for lack of	30%
		marketability	(2022: 30%)

The fair value of unlisted equity security is determined using the price/earning ratios of comparable listed companies adjusted for lack of marketability discount. The fair value measurement is negatively correlated to the discount for lack of marketability. As at 31 December 2023, it is estimated that with all other variables held constant, a decrease/increase in discount for lack of marketability by 5% would have increased/decreased the Group's other comprehensive income by HK$229,000 (2022: HK$205,000).

Any gains or losses arising from the remeasurement of the Group's unlisted equity security held for strategic purpose is recognised in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) in other comprehensive income. Upon disposal of the equity security, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is transferred directly to retained profits.

(ii) Fair values of financial assets and liabilities carried at other than fair value

- (ii) These are transactions with HH Dream, an associate of the Group, and are conducted in accordance with the terms of the respective contracts or orders.

30 ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

Note 27 contains information about the assumptions and their risk factors relating to financial instruments. Other key source of estimation uncertainty is as follows:

Net realisable value of inventories

The Group performs regular reviews of the carrying amounts of inventories with reference to aged inventories analyses, projections of expected future saleability of goods and, management experience and judgement. Based on this review, a write-down of inventories will be made when the estimated net realisable value of inventories decline below their carrying amounts. Due to changes in customers' preferences, actual saleability of goods may be different from estimation and the statement of profit or loss in future accounting periods could be affected by differences in this estimation.

The net realisable value of inventories is also dependent on the application of up to date costing rates and judgements with regard to the level of labour and production overheads absorbed into the valuation.

31 IMMEDIATE AND ULTIMATE CONTROLLING PARTY

At 31 December 2023, the directors consider the Group is controlled by Mr Kyoo Yoon Choi, with his principal place of business at Unit 6/F, Tower 1, South Seas Centre, 75 Mody Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon, Hong Kong.
