CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

We have positioned ourselves as a financial service provider which offers diversified products to SMEs and individuals. By insisting on the dual strategy of “inclusive finance and ecology finance”, we strive to become a comprehensive financial service group integrating pawnshop, technology microfinance, commercial factoring, financial leasing, art investment, equity investment, special asset investment, turnover loan fund, etc.

On behalf of the board of directors of China Huirong Financial Holdings Limited, I am pleased to present the annual report for the year ended 31 December 2024.

In 2024, the Company's business maintained stable development in a complex economic environment. The Inclusive Finance Business Division optimized its market strategy, focusing on expanding high-quality secured loans, while gradually reducing the scale of the art investment business. The equity interest backed loans for listed companies was innovatively implemented and achieved breakthroughs. The Ecology Finance Business Division achieved success in various aspects, with commercial factoring, financial leasing, and special asset management businesses developing in coordination, and the supply chain management business focusing on the livelihood sector. The overall business performance was significantly enhanced. The Company continued to strengthen refined management, optimize fund operations, enhance risk control levels, and maintain stable asset quality, creating sustained value for shareholders and laying a solid foundation for future development.

Hereby I would like to express my sincere gratitude on behalf of the Board to all of our staff for their diligent contribution and to all shareholders for their full support.

In 2025, the Company will revolve around the four core strategies of “making every effort to optimize existing assets, strictly guarding against variables, leaving no stone unturned to expand increments, and meticulously strengthening management” to comprehensively advance high-quality development. We will optimize existing business, enhance asset quality, and activate existing assets; strictly adhere to the risk baseline, strengthen business access and post-loan management, and guard against potential risks; actively expand incremental business, dynamically adjust business strategies, and cultivate new business growth points. Meanwhile, we will deepen refined management, optimize human resource allocation, enhance the level of informatization, strengthen budget management, and improve operational efficiency and effectiveness, laying a solid foundation for achieving the annual business targets.

Looking to the future, we will continue to innovate and break through with firm conviction and pragmatic actions, creating greater value for shareholders and forging a broader path for the Company's long-term development.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

With the goal of achieving nationwide business coverage, the Company has fully leveraged its status as a listed company in Hong Kong and its access to the international capital markets and implemented the dual strategy of “inclusive finance plus ecology finance”, striving to offer comprehensive financial services to small and medium enterprises (“SMEs”) and individual clients alike as well as offer quality and safe financial assets to investors and financial institutions. As our brand has been well recognized by the public with our stable asset quality and our continuously improved profitability, we have gradually developed into a company that offers comprehensive finance services.

In 2024, the Company continued to fulfill the requirements of the Board to “manage the surplus in hand, provide a platform for a convenient life, solve temporary problems, and cheer up SMEs”. In the face of the still severe economic situation, the Company focused on value creation and maintained growth in both operating scale and revenue against the trend. In the Inclusive Finance Business Division, for real estate backed loans, the Company closely monitored changes in asset prices, dynamically adjusted credit policies, and strengthened liquidity management in branches. For movable property backed loans, the Company enhanced cooperation with auction houses in areas such as appraisal and disposal, and focused on improving the business skills of store employees. For unsecured loans, the Company successfully implemented the equity interest backed loans for listed companies, and gradually established a good reputation in the industry. In the Ecology Finance Business Division, for the commercial factoring business, the Company paid attention to tracking existing customers and developing new customers, and actively sought bank financing. For the financial leasing business, the Company served specialized, refined, unique, and innovative enterprises, and integrated internal resources for joint marketing. For the special asset investment business, the Company successfully exited the project of Zhongzhu Square, actively increased the reserve of projects, and implemented the project of Hongzhuang Commercial Property.

The pawnshop business mainly relies on Wuzhong Pawnshop, Changsha Pawnshop, Nanchang Pawnshop, Fuzhou Pawnshop and Huirong Culture and Art as entities to carry out its business. Wuzhong Pawnshop, established in 1999 with a registered capital of RMB1,000 million, is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company by virtue of the series of Contractual Arrangements. Wuzhong Pawnshop is one of the largest pawnshop in Mainland China. Changsha Pawnshop, established in 2021 with a registered capital of RMB50 million, is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Nanchang Pawnshop, established in 2022 with a registered capital of RMB30 million, is an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company holds 90% of the equity interests of Nanchang Pawnshop. Fuzhou Pawnshop, established in 2023 with a registered capital of RMB30 million, is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Huirong Culture and Art, established in 2022 with a registered capital of RMB1 million, is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

The pawnshop business primarily engages in secured loan and unsecured loan businesses. Secured loans business mainly includes real estate backed loans and movable property backed loans.

① Real Estate Backed Loans

Real estate backed loans primarily provide personal or corporate financing services to customers who have obtained real estate certificates. Business risks are comprehensively assessed based on customer credit status, real estate value, customer industry analysis and solvency, etc. The loan amount does not exceed 80% of the total evaluation price. The interest rates range from 12% to 24% per annum and the loan term is no longer than 1 year. The operation area is mainly in core urban areas of Suzhou, Chengdu, Wuhan, Hefei, Wuxi, Changsha, Nanchang, Fuzhou and other cities in the PRC. The target customers are mainly distributed across manufacturing, beverage, retail, trade and other industries. As of 31 December 2024, the total number of customers was 941, among which, the total number of individual customers was 903 and the total number of corporate customers was 38. The five largest customers contributed, in aggregate, 41.55% of the balance of real estate backed loans at the end of the Reporting Year (principal). As one of the core products of the Inclusive Finance Business Division, secured loans have high-quality customer resources and have maintained a sound and steady trend of development.

As of 31 December 2024, the balance at the end of the Reporting Year (principal) of real estate backed loans granted by the Company was RMB767 million, representing a decrease as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The main reason was the penetration of banking services to the grassroots level, which led to a sudden increase in marketing pressure and severe customer loss in the ordinary residential property scenario at the end of the Reporting Year. As of 31 December 2024, the interest income was RMB101,506 thousand, respectively, representing an increase as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The main reason was that the Company actively prioritized the development of customers in the luxury residential and industrial factory scenarios, which led to an increase in the average daily loan balance.

The main risks and uncertainties faced by the real estate backed loans include real estate value fluctuation risk, regulatory policy change risk, credit policy change risk, liquidity risk and credit risk, etc.

In 2024, for real estate backed loans, liquidity management was actively conducted, and credit policies were dynamically adjusted to ensure that the risk-adjusted return remained at a reasonable level. The development direction of the real estate backed loans in the future is to pay close attention to the asset value fluctuation, actively adjust business strategies, identify high-quality assets that can withstand cyclical fluctuations, and enrich the product offerings in various operation areas.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (CONTINUED)

② Movable Property Backed Loans

The movable property backed loans mainly provide fast movable property backed financing services to individuals, and the product categories cover artworks, gold, jewelry, vehicles, watches and luxury goods, etc. The loan amount does not exceed 95% of the total evaluation price. The interest rates and comprehensive rates range from 6% to 54% per annum and the loan term is within 1 year. The operation area is mainly in Suzhou, Nanjing and Nanchang. The businesses in Chengdu, Wuhan, Hefei, Changsha and other cities are also gradually expanding. The target customers are mainly distributed across manufacturing, agriculture, retail and other industries. As of 31 December 2024, the total number of customers was 1,649, and the five largest customers contributed, in aggregate, 79.97% of the balance of movable property backed loans at the end of the Reporting Year (principal).

As of 31 December 2024, the balance at the end of the Reporting Year (principal) and the interest income of movable property backed loans granted by the Company were RMB172 million and RMB32,076 thousand, respectively, representing an increase as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The main reason was that the stores steadily operated their regular product categories, while the artworks pawnshop loans maintained growth.

The main risks and uncertainties faced by the movable property backed loans include collateral appraisal risk, collateral valuation risk, regulatory policy change risk and credit risk, etc.

In 2024, for movable property backed loans, cooperation with auction houses in areas such as appraisal and disposal was enhanced. Additionally, the management of store employee procedures was strengthened to comprehensively improve business skills. The development direction of the movable property backed loans in the future is to actively develop and serve existing customers, closely monitor the price trends in the art market, and in accordance with the historical pattern that “antiques thrive in prosperous times, while gold is sought in chaotic times,” prudently reduce the scale of the artworks pawnshop loans.

③ Unsecured loans

The unsecured loans mainly provide equity financing services for SMEs and individuals. Business risks are comprehensively assessed based on the enterprise operation, financial conditions, industry development and debt repayment ability, etc. The loan amount does not exceed 50% of the total equity evaluation price. The interest rates range from 6% to 18% per annum and the loan term is within 1 year. The operation area is mainly in Suzhou. The target customers are mainly distributed in manufacturing, construction, investment and other industries. As of 31 December 2024, the total number of customers was 26, among which, the total number of individual customers was 20 and the total number of corporate customers was 6. The five largest customers contributed, in aggregate, 44.93% of the balance of unsecured loans at the end of the Reporting Year (principal).

As of 31 December 2024, the balance of unsecured loans at the end of the Reporting Year (principal) was RMB467 million, representing an increase as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The main reason was the addition of equity interest backed loans for listed companies, which led to an increase in business scale. The interest income was RMB23,051 thousand, representing a decrease as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The main reason was the economic downturn, which caused some existing customers to face difficulties, resulting in difficulties in interest collection and a subsequent decrease in interest income.

The main risks and uncertainties faced by the unsecured loans include regulatory policy change risk, credit policy change risk, credit risk and liquidity risk, etc.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (CONTINUED)

In 2024, the Company introduced equity interest backed loans for listed companies. The business model gradually matured and a good reputation in the industry began to take shape. This will become a new growth point for business scale and interest income. The development direction of the unsecured loans in the future is to gradually reduce the balance of existing business. In line with the trend of the secondary market, efforts will be made to expand the scale of the equity interest backed loans for listed companies.

For the pawnshop business, the Company adopts comprehensive internal control measures. The pre-loan measures are mainly to implement the policy of separating the process of checking and actual lending and the policy of graded examination and approval. These measures require that the responsibilities of each approval function be clarified, and ensures implementation of the operational risk and non-performing loan accountability mechanism. The post-loan measures are mainly to implement post-loan management, post-event supervision, and compliance monitoring and management systems. These measures require real-time monitoring and management of business processes and risks, quarterly post-loan inspections for each product, and special inspections from time to time. The measures for overdue business are mainly to implement procedures in strict accordance with the post-loan management measures. The management system will give an early warning notice before the expiration of each business, and the operating unit will report to the risk control department in a timely manner and report the disposal plan at the same time to ensure asset quality.

It also focused on developing customers in the luxury residential and industrial factory scenarios, which helped to increase both the business scale and interest income simultaneously.

The main risks and uncertainties faced by the technology micro-finance business include real estate valuation risk, credit risk, regulatory policy change risk, credit policy change risk and liquidity risk, etc.

In 2024, Dongshan Micro-finance adjusted its business strategy to focus on providing liquidity support for large-sums and stable assets, and enhanced cooperation with peers and interbank lending. ## MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (CONTINUED)

- (a) Secured loans to customers comprise real estate backed loans and movable property backed loans.
- (b) Unsecured loans to customers comprise equity interest backed loans, guaranteed loans and other unsecured loans.

The Group may suffer credit losses if its customers default on contractual obligations. As at 31 December 2024, the impairment allowance (including the provision of loss allowance and the write-off) for loans to customers granted by the Group was as follows:

	As at 31 December
	2024 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000
Secured loans to customers (note (a))
Stage 1 & 2	15,345	10,875
Stage 3	476,814	514,937
Subtotal	492,159	525,812
Unsecured loans to customers (note (b))
Stage 1 & 2	32,264	35,353
Stage 3	301,330	233,467
Subtotal	333,594	268,820
ECL allowances, total	825,753	794,632
Stage 1 & 2	47,609	46,228
Stage 3	778,144	748,404

Notes:

- (a) Secured loans to customers mainly comprise real estate backed loans and movable property backed loans.
- (b) Unsecured loans to customers mainly comprise equity interest backed loans and guaranteed loans and other unsecured loans.

The impairment allowance is measured based on the ECL model. Please refer to the consolidated financial statements for the major parameters, assumptions and judgments used in the model.

As at 31 December 2024, the aggregate impairment allowance for secured loans to customers and unsecured loans to customers amounted to RMB825,753 thousand, representing approximately 24.70% of the total outstanding loans granted to customers (before provision); the overall impairment allowance of the Company increased by RMB31,121 thousand as compared with the end of last year.

For loans to customers in Stage 1 & 2, the impairment allowance was determined by projecting the Probability of Default ("PD"), Loss Given Default ("LGD") and Exposure at Default ("EAD") for every six months and for each individual exposure or collective segment, based on historical data. The main reason of the increase of the impairment allowance in Stages 1 & 2 during the Reporting Period was that the credit risk of certain loans granted to customers have changed significantly, resulting in an increase in the balance of the loans at Stage 2.

For impaired loans to customers in Stage 3, the impairment allowance is assessed by estimating the discounted future cash flows from the loans, and such assessment is re-performed for at least every six months.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (CONTINUED)

For secured loans, the discounted cash flow is primarily dependant on the type of collaterals, their appraised value and estimated time for disposal. The main reason of the decrease of the impairment allowance for secured loans in 2024 was that the Group has been more cautious in granting loans, with the value of the collateral being sufficient to cover the book amount, resulting in a significant reduction in the impairment allowance provision ratio.

For unsecured loans, the discounted cash flow depend on the customer's financial and operating conditions, as well as their own properties preserved by the Group. The main reason of the increase of the impairment allowance for unsecured loans in 2024 was that some loans granted to customers have become long-term past due, resulting in an increase in the balance of the loans at Stage 3.

The Group also entered into supplementary repayment agreements with certain secured or unsecured loan customers in order to maximise its interests. The Group adjusted the impairment allowance according to implementation of such agreements.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, financial assets written off amounted to RMB51.8 million. The write-off only occurs when the Group has exhausted all practical recovery efforts and its decision was made based on the following evidence showing it will not be able to recover its obligatory right after liquidating the customers' property and pursuing repayment from the guarantor:

- (i) external evidence such as property settlement certificates issued by courts, arbitration tribunals or relevant government authorities; and
- (ii) internal evidence such as property recovery certificates, settlement reports, and legal opinions issued by the Group's risk control department and internal lawyers.

3.2 New Loans under Legal Proceedings

	For the year ended 31 December
	2024	2023
New Secured Loans
Number of clients	99	68
Outstanding loans (RMB' thousand)	160,066	78,237
New Unsecured Loans
Number of clients	2	1
Outstanding loans (RMB' thousand)	60,000	20,000

As at 31 December 2024, the balance of new secured loans under legal proceedings was RMB160,066 thousand and the balance of new unsecured loans under legal proceedings was RMB60,000 thousand. There is an increase of the balance of new loans under legal proceedings from the end of the previous year. The main reason was that the economic downturn has led to an increase in customers facing operational difficulties. After unsuccessful attempts at non-litigation methods, the Company has intensified its efforts in litigation resolution.

Pursuant to the Exclusive Management and Consultation Service Agreement, the PRC Operating Entity may not, among other restrictions or obligations, engage any other third party to provide similar services without the prior written consent of Huifang Technology.

In consideration for the provision of such services by Huifang Technology, the PRC Operating Entity has agreed to recognise consultation service fees payable to Huifang Technology on a quarterly basis. The consultation service fees will be billed by Huifang Technology to the PRC Operating Entity and are equivalent to the total revenue before tax audited pursuant to the HKFRSs less all the related costs incurred and reasonable expenses of the PRC Operating Entity.

The term of the Exclusive Management and Consultation Service Agreement commenced on 31 December 2011 and will expire on 30 December 2031 and is renewable at the sole election of Huifang Technology for successive terms as determined by Huifang Technology, until termination by Huifang Technology.

The Supplemental Agreement is deemed to have retrospectively become effective on 1 July 2012. The Supplemental Agreement was entered into for the purpose of maintaining a certain level of net assets and net profits for the PRC Operating Entity, which will affect the amount of loans the PRC Operating Entity can grant and its ability to open a branch pursuant to the applicable regulations of the PRC, and to grant Huifang Tongda a right to decide the amount of the service fees charged on the PRC Operating Entity according to the PRC Operating Entity's operational needs and future business expansion. Pursuant to the Supplemental Agreement, it is Huifang Tongda's right to decide whether to change the amount of the service fees charged on the PRC Operating Entity, and pursuant to the Exclusive Call Option Agreement (as defined hereinafter), Huifang Tongda has been irrevocably and unconditionally granted an option to acquire the entire equity interest in the PRC Operating Entity and/or all assets of the PRC Operating Entity. Any profits not paid to Huifang Tongda in the form of consultation service fees may be acquired by Huifang Tongda when it exercises its option under the Exclusive Call Option Agreement. As a result, our ability to receive the entire economic benefits of the PRC Operating Entity as provided by the Contractual Arrangements is not affected by the Supplemental Agreement.

Renewal of loans

Each loan renewal will be considered as a new loan to be granted and assessed under the same set of procedures adopted for new loan applications. ### (ii) Turnover loan funds business

In the PRC, SME borrowers who received loans from banks have to repay the loan amount in full upon expiry and re-apply for a new loan, thereby creating strong a demand for services provided by bridging loan providers that will lead to timely approval of the new loan by banks to the SMEs and also flexible repayment terms. The Group provides short-term loan funds to SMEs for them to repay the expiring loans and after the SMEs have drawn down the new loans from the cooperation banks, the SMEs will repay the short-term loan funds (together with interest accrued thereon) to the Group, so as to alleviate the SMEs' capital turnover pressure caused by the "payment first and loan later" ("先還後貸") notion prevalent in the process of grant of loans in the PRC.

The Group mainly relies on Huifang Rongtong as the legal entity to carry out its business in turnover loan fund, which is a turnover loan funds business (轉貸基金) approved, guided and supervised by the Suzhou Wuzhong People's Government. It cooperates with banks that have branches in Wuzhong District of Suzhou and provides short-term loan funds to SMEs that (i) meet bank credit requirements, given their track record of repayment and credit risks have already been assessed by the banks previously; and (ii) experience difficulties in repaying their previous loan amount in full for its renewal. The process of this business will normally be kick-started by the SMEs (some of them are referred by cooperation banks of the Group) by first applying to the Group for turnover loan funds, after which, the Group will conduct due diligence on the SMEs, and will provide funds to them according to the conditions and amount of loans confirmed by the cooperation banks to the Group.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL REPORT (CONTINUED)

Funds are advanced/granted to SMEs in the turnover loan funds business. The source of the funds of the Group mainly comes from the paid-up registered capital in the amount of RMB55 million of Huifang Rongtong and interest income generated from this business. After the Group enters into loan agreements with the SMEs, the Group will remit the funds to the turnover repayment account of the SMEs that meets the bank's management requirements. Upon the previous loans with the cooperation bank being settled, the cooperation bank lends new loan to the SMEs, and transfers the amount of the turnover loan funds advanced/granted by the Group (together with interest accrued thereon) to a turnover loan special account or a designated entrusted account of the Group that meets the bank's management requirements, which will be regarded as a repayment of the turnover loan funds by the SMEs to the Group.

Pre-loan assessment

Due diligence

The business departments will obtain and review the basic information of the SMEs, such as the business licence, financial statements etc. to verify customer's identity and financial status. Meanwhile, the business departments will obtain feedback of the application forms and business contact sheets from banks before the granting of loans.

Credit assessment

A comprehensive pre-loan investigation report on the customer will be prepared by the business department for review by the risk control department.

Turnover loan funds are granted by taking into account the company's credit status, enterprise operation, financial conditions and bank credit conditions. In order to qualify for grant of a loan under this business unit, the SME must go through the credit review process and satisfy the borrower qualifications of the lending bank, which involves assessment of credit, financial resources and operational data etc.

The credit risks borne by the Group in this business include the risks of (i) the changes in loan renewal conditions of the banks; (ii) the SMEs not meeting the conditions for loan renewal; (iii) the SMEs changing the use of loan funds for other purposes instead of repayment of the current loan; and (iv) overdue repayment of funds by the SMEs to the Group.

Renewal of loans

Under normal circumstances, the Group does not renew loans.

Loan grant

Loan execution

The Group sets a maximum loan amount and maximum interest rate for each loan. The risk control department can flexibly adjust loan terms such as interest rates and loan amount based on credit assessment results.

Loan approval

The Group sets clear levels of approval for loans with different amounts, with designated authorised persons for each approval limit. The authorised persons include the risk control department and the Chief Risk Officer (if applicable).

Fund release

Once the SME has passed the credit review assessment, a contract will be issued by the Company in accordance with the internal administrative measures governing turnover loan funds.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL REPORT (CONTINUED)

Post-loan monitoring

The Group implements a comprehensive process of tracking and supervision of turnover loan funds, which establishes an early warning mechanism for SMEs' corporate risks and change of circumstances that exposes the Group to further credit risks. The Group performs tracking and supervision in the following six stages of a turnover loan funds cycle: (i) contract signing; (ii) pre-loan implementation; (iii) fund transfer; (iv) loan disbursement; (v) fund return; and (vi) archives. The turnover loan funds business unit is responsible for maintaining close communication and contact with customers, closely monitoring the customer's business performance and providing feedback to the risk control department accordingly. The risk control department of the Group will monitor and flag unusual circumstances, such as customers having yet to repay turnover loan funds over a long period of time, and give timely warnings to the relevant personnel of the Group to closely monitor credit risks arising from such events.

Loan recovery

Repayments by SMEs are closely monitored. For customers with overdue repayments or adverse changes, upon identification of the reasons for the overdue repayments by the specific customer, the Group will formulate a customer-specific response plan based on the customer's operating conditions, sources of funds for repayment and repayment willingness. The Group will also negotiate with such customer to increase its effective asset guarantees or determine a repayment plan, and implement recovery measures through legal proceedings if necessary.

In terms of the risk assessment of account receivables, the Group focuses on the assessment of past payment status of the debtor, account receivables quality, account receivables period, payment responsibilities, contractually agreed prices and assignment restrictions.

Renewal of loans

Each loan renewal will be considered as a new loan to be granted and assessed under the same set of procedures adopted for new loan applications. # RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL REPORT (CONTINUED)

1.2 Liquidity and Financing Risk

Under policies and regulations, the Company's funds are mainly from its proprietary capital, shareholder loans and bank borrowings. According to the liquidity information of the Company in the year end, the Company is fully capable of repaying all bank borrowings and Suzhou Qian Dai borrowings.

Assets in the Company bearing no interest are mainly bad credit assets to be disposed of and will not have adverse effects on the liquidity. They will be realized gradually upon conclusion of litigations and completion of the asset disposal and will contribute to our business growth.

1.3 Market Risk

The Company regards market risk as one of the major risk it confronted.

As for the market interest rate, effective interest rate is reduced due to interest rate cut and larger money supply in the society, directly bringing down the interest rate of the Company in granting loans, which in turn has an impact on its performance. Although effective interest rate is reduced, the private sector lacks investment willingness due to its pessimistic forecast of the future and its investment growth decreases year by year, which indirectly undermines the profit attributable to loans granted to prime customers by the Company.

Since 2016, the Company has been working actively on improving its current situation, especially by actively developing ultra-short term loan business for enterprises and personal loan business, so as to minimize the impact brought by market risks. The ultra-short term loan business is designed as a channel for capital operation between banks and companies and is expected to generate considerable income free from market risks by closely communicating with banks and companies and making it convenient for companies to obtain loans and raise funds. The personal loan business, which mainly refers to real estate backed loans. Although the trading volume of the current real estate market has declined, the Company controls the ratio between the loan amount and the collateral value, and the risk is basically controllable.

1.4 Operational Risk

The Company has marketing department, risk management department and audit department, which are clearly separate and independent from each other without any hierarchical relationship.

The marketing department is responsible for the collection of customers' information and preparation of project reports. The risk management department reviews such project reports, issues risk opinion and formulates conditions precedent for granting loans, and reviews whether the customer fulfills such conditions precedent. The audit committee will review and audit the whole workflow.

The Company has operational departments independent of each other and its workflow has been practiced for years, which eliminates the risk arising from operation errors of its internal staff and failure of systems.

Operation of the Company's products is generally standardized, and customer identification process and conditions for granting loans are well established and updated constantly in pace with environmental changes. The Company's risk management personnel are professionals with extensive risk management experience and can assess the customers' risks properly and make accurate judgments on whether conditions for granting loans are fulfilled. Employees of the Company's audit department are specialists with profound financing, financial and auditing experience and can evaluate and cope with the external risks identified in the whole workflow.

The Company has maintained a sound operational system to effectively deal with the external operational risks.

It can get access to the documents of the business at any time to review whether the process is conducted in compliance with requirements and has the right to enquire all participants involved in such business, to prepare for an independent audit report. The audit committee will also monitor the disclosure of such inside information and will conduct independent audit and advise on mandatory disclosure and voluntary disclosure. Inside information must be kept strictly confidential until an announcement is published in accordance with the requirements of the Listing Rules.

In addition to the measures as disclosed above in this report, the Group has adopted the following key internal control measures with the aim to establish a comprehensive risk management system covering all employees, products and operational processes:

- segregation of credit assessment and loan disbursement process and establishment of a multi-tiered loan approval policy with a clear delineation of the responsibilities of different positions in the whole business process, which promotes employees' integrity and accountability across front, middle and back offices;
- promulgation of working rules of the credit approval committee, policies for product outline and product management policies which governs the loan approval process, such policies include, for instance, setting a maximum limit for each loan transaction;

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKASs”) issued by the HKICPA. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. China Huirong Financial Holdings Limited

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (CONTINUED)

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Fair value of investment property classified as level 3

Refer to notes 2.8, 3.1(b), 4.3, 9 and 23 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Group's investment property classified as level 3 amounted to RMB168 million as at 31 December 2024 in the Group's consolidated statement of financial position, with a corresponding fair value loss of RMB17 million recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year ended 31 December 2024.

As at 31 December 2024, the management determined the fair value of its investment property by discounting the estimated future rental proceeds. The rental proceeds in future periods were estimated based on current rentals of the investment property adjusted by expected vacancy rate and rental growth rate. The significant unobservable inputs involved in the valuation were discount rate, expected vacancy rate and rental growth rate.

As the valuation of investment property classified as level 3 involved significant judgements and assumptions in determining these significant unobservable inputs and the amounts were significant to the Group's consolidated financial statements, we determined this as a key audit matter.

We obtained an understanding of the management's assessment process of measurement of fair value of investment property classified as level 3 and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors such as complexity, subjectivity, changes, uncertainty and susceptibility to misstatement due to management bias and other fraud risk factors.

We understood and evaluated the internal controls relating to the valuation of level 3 investment property.

We performed the following substantive procedures relating to the valuation of level 3 investment property:

- assessed the appropriateness of the valuation approach adopted by the management with the support from our external valuation expert;
- examined the available market information from independent external sources and the rental contracts signed with lessees to assess the appropriateness of the expected rentals used by the management;
- independently evaluated the reasonableness and appropriateness of the significant unobservable inputs including discount rate, expected vacancy rate and rental growth rate used by the management with the support from our external valuation expert; and
- tested the mathematical accuracy of calculation of fair value for investment property.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Measurement of expected credit losses for loans to customers

Refer to notes 2.11, 3.1(a), 4.1(a), 10 and 25 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's gross loans to customers amounted to RMB3,344 million, and expected credit loss ("ECL") allowances of RMB826 million were recognised in the Group's consolidated statement of financial position. The ECLs on loans to customers recognised in the Group's consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year ended 31 December 2024 amounted to RMB102 million.

The Group assesses whether the credit risk of loans to customers has increased significantly since their initial recognition, and applies a three-stage impairment model to calculate their ECL allowances. For loans to customers in stages 1 and 2, the management assessed ECL allowances using the risk parameter modelling approach that incorporates key parameters, including probability of default, loss given default and exposure at default. For loans to customers in stage 3, the management used the discounted cash flow model to calculate ECL allowances taking into consideration the forward-looking factors.

The measurement model of ECLs involved significant management judgements and assumptions, primarily including the following:

- determination of relevant key models and parameters;
- criteria for determining whether or not there was a significant increase in credit risk and definition of default or credit impairment;
- estimated future cash flows for loans to customers that the discounted cash flow model is used to calculate ECL allowances; and
- economic variables for forward-looking measurement, and the application of economic scenarios and relative weightings.

We obtained an understanding of the management's assessment process of measurement of ECL for loans to customers and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors such as complexity, subjectivity, changes, uncertainty and susceptibility to misstatement due to management bias and other fraud risk factors.

We understood, evaluated and tested the internal controls relating to the measurement of ECLs for loans to customers which comprised:

- governance over ECL models, including the selection, approval and application of modelling methodology; and the internal processes relating to the on-going monitoring and enhancements of the models;
- assessment and approval of significant management judgements and assumptions, including parameters estimation, the criteria of significant increase in credit risk, the definition of default and credit-impairment, and use of economic variables and relative weightings for forward-looking scenarios;
- internal controls over the accuracy and completeness of key inputs used by the models; and
- internal controls relating to estimating future cash flows and calculating the present values of such cash flows for loans to customers classified in stage 3.

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Measurement of expected credit losses for loans to customers (Continued)

The Group established related controls for the measurement of ECLs.

The management applied significant judgements in measuring its ECL which involved models with a number of assumptions, parameters and data inputs; and the ECL amounts involved were significant. In view of these reasons, we included this as a key audit matter.

We analysed the risk characteristics of asset portfolios and assessed the reasonableness of segmentation.

With the support from our external valuation expert, we

- assessed the appropriateness of the modelling methodologies adopted for ECL measurement by comparing with the industry practice;
- evaluated the management's back-testing of the actual defaults against the expected defaults generated from the model as at the end of previous period; and
- evaluated the reasonableness of loss given default by analysing the Group's historical loss experiences taking into consideration the forward-looking factors.

We examined data inputs to the ECL models such as credit exposures and maturity dates for selected samples, including the historical data and the data at the measurement date, by checking against supporting documents such as loan contracts and borrowers' basic information.

We assessed the appropriateness of management's criteria of the three stages classification of loans to customers, taking into consideration the Group's credit risk profile and risk management practices, and selected samples to test the management's classification into the three stages by examining the financial and non-financial information of the borrowers, assessing the overdue status of loans to customers by comparing to maturity dates specified in loan contracts, and considering other relevant external evidences.

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Measurement of expected credit losses for loans to customers (Continued)

For forward-looking measurements, with the support from our external valuation expert, we

- assessed the management's selection of economic indicators and their analysis of co-relation with the performance of the credit asset portfolios by using statistical techniques;
- further tested the reasonableness of the prediction of economic indicators by comparing with available external expert estimates; and
- assessed the appropriateness of economic scenarios by performing sensitivity analysis and their weightings employed by performing historical back-testing.

For loans to customers in stage 3 that the discounted cash flow model is used to calculate ECL allowances, with the support from our external valuation expert, we examined, on a sample basis, forecasted future cash flows taking into consideration the forward-looking factors used by the Group based on financial information of borrowers and guarantors, latest collateral valuations and other available information in supporting the computation of ECL allowances.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Mok Hon Sang.

(c) New and amended standards adopted

The Group has applied the following amendments to standards and interpretation issued by HKICPA for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the annual reporting period beginning on or after 1 January 2024 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current
Amendments to HKAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants
Amendments to HKFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback
Hong Kong Interpretation 5 ("HK Int 5") (Revised)	Presentation of Financial Statements — Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause
Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements

Adoption of Amendments to HKAS 1 "Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current" and Amendments to HKAS 1 "Non-current Liabilities with Covenants" (collectively the "HKAS 1 Amendments")

As a result of the adoption of the HKAS 1 Amendments, the Group changed its accounting policy for the classification of borrowings as below:

"Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless, at the end of the reporting period, the Group has a right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period."

Covenants that the Group is required to comply with, on or before the end of the reporting period, are considered in classifying loan arrangements with covenants as current or non-current. Covenants that the Group is required to comply with after the reporting period do not affect the classification."

This new policy did not result in a change in the classification of the Group's borrowings. The Group did not make retrospective adjustments as a result of adopting HKAS 1 Amendments. The Group has provided additional disclosures about its non-current liabilities subject to covenants in note 4.1(c).

Except for the above, other amendments and interpretation listed above did not have any material impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

(d) New and revised HKFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective

Up to the date of issue of these consolidated financial statements, the HKICPA has issued a number of new standards and amendments to standards and interpretation, which are not effective for the year ended 31 December 2024 and which have not been adopted in these consolidated financial statements. The Group has not early applied the following which may be relevant to it:

	Effective for accounting periods beginning on or after
Amendments to HKAS 21 and HKFRS 1 — Lack of Exchangeability	1 January 2025
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 — Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments	1 January 2026
Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards — Volume 11	1 January 2026
HKFRS 18 — Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements	1 January 2027
HKFRS 19 — Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures	1 January 2027
Amendments to HK Int 5 — Presentation of Financial Statements — Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause	1 January 2027
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 — Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture	To be determined by the HKICPA

The directors of the Company are in the process of making an assessment of what the impacts of these new standards, amendments to standards and interpretation are expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

- (d) New and revised HKFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective (Continued)
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 “Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments”

The HKICPA issued targeted amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 to respond to recent questions arising in practice, and to include new requirements not only for financial institutions but also for corporate entities. The amendments include:

- clarification of the date of recognition and derecognition of some financial assets and liabilities, with a new exception for some financial liabilities settled through an electronic cash transfer system;
- clarification and addition of further guidance for assessing whether a financial asset meets the solely payments of principal and interest (“SPPI”) criterion;
- addition of new disclosures for certain instruments with contractual terms that can change cash flows (such as some financial instruments with features linked to the achievement of environment, social and governance targets); and
- updating of the disclosures for equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”).

The application of the amendments is not expected to have significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

HKFRS 18 “Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements”

HKFRS 18 will replace HKAS 1 “Presentation of financial statements”, introducing new requirements that will help to achieve comparability of the financial performance of similar entities and provide more relevant information and transparency to users. Even though HKFRS 18 will not impact the recognition or measurement of items in the consolidated financial statements, HKFRS 18 introduces significant changes to the presentation of financial statements, with a focus on information about financial performance present in the statement of profit or loss, which will affect how the Group present and disclose financial performance in the financial statements. The key changes introduced in HKFRS 18 relate to (i) the structure of the statement of profit or loss, (ii) required disclosures for management-defined performance measures (which are referred to alternative or non-GAAP performance measures), and (iii) enhanced requirements for aggregation and disaggregation of information.

The directors of the Company are currently assessing the impact of applying HKFRS 18 on the presentation and the disclosures of the consolidated financial statements.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including a Structured Entity ("SE")) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of financial position respectively.

(i) Subsidiary from contractual arrangements

In December 2011, the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Suzhou Huifang Tongda Information Technology Company Limited (蘇州匯方同達信息科技有限公司) ("Huifang Tongda"), entered into a series of contractual agreements with Suzhou Wuzhong Pawnshop Co., Ltd. (蘇州市吳中典當有限公司) ("Wuzhong Pawnshop"), Wuzhong Pawnshop's direct owners namely Jiangsu Wuzhong Jiaye Group Co., Ltd. (江蘇吳中嘉業集團有限公司) ("Wuzhong Jiaye") and Suzhou New District Hengyue Management Consulting Co., Ltd. (蘇州新區恆悅管理諮詢有限公司) ("Hengyue Consulting"), and their respective owners, which enables the Company to:

- exercise effective control over Wuzhong Pawnshop;
- exercise owners' voting rights of Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting during the general meetings of Wuzhong Pawnshop;
- receive a majority of the economic benefits of Wuzhong Pawnshop through service fees in consideration for the management and consulting services provided by Huifang Tongda;
- receive the residual economic benefits of Wuzhong Pawnshop by exercising an exclusive option to purchase the entire equity interest in Wuzhong Pawnshop when and to the extent permitted under the PRC laws; and

- obtain a pledge over the entire equity interest of Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting from their respective owners.

Since both the Company and Wuzhong Pawnshop were then owned by the same Ultimate Shareholders, the above reorganisation of Wuzhong Pawnshop (the “Reorganisation”) was accounted for using the accounting principle similar to that of a reverse acquisition.

The Company does not have any equity interest in Wuzhong Pawnshop. However, as a result of the Reorganisation, the Group controls Wuzhong Pawnshop and is considered to be the primary beneficiary of the results, assets and liabilities of Wuzhong Pawnshop. Consequently, the Company treats Wuzhong Pawnshop as an indirect subsidiary under HKFRS Accounting Standards. The Company has included the financial position and results of Wuzhong Pawnshop in its consolidated financial statements.

(ii) Other subsidiaries

Except for the Reorganisation above, the Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations.

(b) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights.

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments in associates are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group’s share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group’s share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group’s share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associates.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group’s interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.10.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting (Continued)

(c) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in other reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Group.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRS Accounting Standards.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2.3 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred,
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business,
- equity interests issued by the Group,
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

2.3 Business combinations (Continued)

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the:

- consideration transferred,
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss.

2.4 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.5 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision-maker is the person or group that allocates resources to and assesses the performance of the operating segments of the Group. The Group's reporting segments are decided based on its operating segments while taking full consideration of various factors such as products and services, geographical location and regulatory environment related to administration of the management. Operating segments meeting the same qualifications are allocated as one reporting segment, providing independent disclosures.

The purpose of segment reporting is to assist the chief operating decision-maker in resource allocation and performance assessment of each operating segment. The same accounting policies as adopted in preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements are used for segment reporting.

2.6 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in RMB, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, within interest expense. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a net basis within other losses, net.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

2. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

2.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or are recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to other operating expenses during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

Buildings	25–40 years
Vehicles	5 years
Electronics and other equipment	5 years

The asset's residual values, useful lives and depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting year.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount as set out in note 2.10.

Property, plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. The amount of proceeds from disposals on sale, transfer, retirement or damage of property, plant and equipment net of its carrying amount and related taxes and expenses is recognised in profit or loss.

2.8 Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both. A right-of-use asset relating to property which is held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation is also an investment property.

Investment properties are initially measured at cost plus transaction costs. In the case of a self-constructed investment property, the Group initially accounts for it at cost model before the construction is completed. At the completion date, any difference between the fair value of the property and its previous carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group uses the fair value model for subsequent measurement of investment properties since their fair value can be measured reliably on a continuous basis. At each reporting date, the Group re-measures the fair value of investment properties and any gain or loss arising from a change in the fair value is recognised in profit or loss for that period.

When an investment property is sold, transferred, retired or damaged, the Group recognises the amount of any proceeds on disposal net of the carrying amount and related taxes in profit or loss.

2.9 Intangible assets

Intangible assets comprise of computer software and licenses, which are initially recognised at cost. The cost less estimated residual values (if any) of the intangible assets is amortised on a straight-line basis over their useful lives, and charged to the profit or loss. Impaired intangible assets are amortised net of accumulated impairment losses. The Group amortises intangible assets with a limited useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Computer software	10 years
Licenses	5 years

2.10 Impairment of non-financial assets

Non-financial assets that have a definite useful life are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting year.

2.11 Financial assets and liabilities

Measurement methods

Amortised cost and effective interest rate

The amortised cost is the amount at which the financial asset or financial liability is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus or minus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount and, for financial assets, adjusted for any loss allowances.

The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset (i.e. its amortised cost before any expected credit loss ("ECL") allowances) or to the amortised cost of a financial liability. The calculation does not consider ECLs and includes transaction costs, premiums or discounts and fees and points paid or received that are integral to the effective interest rate, such as origination fees. For purchased or originated credit-impaired ("POCI") financial assets — assets that are credit-impaired at initial recognition — the Group calculates the credit-adjusted effective interest rate, which is calculated based on the amortised cost of the financial asset instead of its gross carrying amount and incorporates the impact of ECLs in estimated future cash flows.

When the Group revises the estimates of future cash flows, the carrying amount of the respective financial assets or financial liability is adjusted to reflect the new estimate discounted using the original effective interest rate. Any changes are recognised in profit or loss.

Interest income

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of financial assets, except for:

- (i) POCI financial assets, for which the original credit-adjusted effective interest rate is applied to the amortised cost of the financial asset.
- (ii) Financial assets that are not POCI but have subsequently become credit-impaired (or “stage 3”), for which interest revenue is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to their amortised cost (i.e. net of the ECL allowances).

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset or financial liability at its fair value plus or minus, in the case of a financial asset or financial liability not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are incremental and directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial asset or financial liability, such as fees and commissions. Transaction costs of financial assets and financial liabilities carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss. Immediately after initial recognition, an ECL allowance is recognised for financial assets measured at amortised cost and investments in debt instruments measured at FVOCI, which results in an accounting loss being recognised in profit or loss when an asset is newly originated.

When the fair value of financial assets and liabilities differs from the transaction price on initial recognition, the Group recognises the difference as follows:

- (i) When the fair value is evidenced by a quoted price in an active market for an identical asset or liability (i.e. a Level 1 input) or based on a valuation technique that uses only data from observable markets, the difference is recognised as a gain or loss.
- (ii) In all other cases, the difference is deferred and the timing of recognition of deferred day one profit or loss is determined individually. It is either amortised over the life of the instrument, deferred until the instrument's fair value can be determined using market observable inputs, or realised through settlement.

2.11.1 Financial assets

(a) Classification and subsequent measurement

The Group has classified its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- Amortised cost (“AC”);
- Fair value through profit or loss (“FVPL”); and
- FVOCI

The classification requirements for debt and equity instruments are described below:

Debt instruments

Debt instruments are those instruments that meet the definition of a financial liability from the issuer’s perspective, such as loans to customers, financial assets held under resale agreement, finance lease receivables, term deposits with banks and other current assets (excluding repossessed assets).

Classification and subsequent measurement of debt instruments depend on:

- The Group’s business model for managing the asset; and
- The cash flow characteristics of the asset.

Based on these factors, the Group classifies its debt instruments into one of the following three measurement categories:

- AC: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent SPPI, and that are not designated at FVPL, are measured at amortised cost. The carrying amount of these assets is adjusted by any ECL allowances recognised and measured as described in note 4.1(a)(ii). Interest income from these financial assets is included in “interest income” using the effective interest method.
- FVPL: Assets that do not meet the criteria for AC or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss and presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within “net investment (losses)/gains” in the period in which it arises.
- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets’ cash flows represent SPPI, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through other comprehensive income, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in “other losses, net”. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in “other losses, net” and impairment expenses are presented as separate line item in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Business model: the business model reflects how the Group manages the assets in order to generate cash flows. That is, whether the Group's objective is solely to collect the contractual cash flows from the assets or is to collect both the contractual cash flows and cash flows arising from the sale of assets. If neither of these is applicable (e.g. financial assets are held for trading purposes), then the financial assets are classified as part of "other" business model and measured at FVPL. Factors considered by the Group in determining the business model for a group of assets include past experience on how the cash flows for these assets were collected, how the asset's performance is evaluated and reported to key management personnel, how risks are assessed and managed and how managers are compensated.

SPPI: Where the business model is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows or to collect contractual cash flows and sell, the Group assesses whether the financial instruments' cash flows represent SPPI. In making this assessment, the Group considers whether the contractual cash flows are consistent with a basic lending arrangement, i.e. interest includes only consideration for the time value of money, credit risk, other basic lending risks and a profit margin that is consistent with a basic lending arrangement. Where the contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility that are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement, the related financial asset is classified and measured at FVPL. Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes. The reclassification takes place from the start of the first reporting year following the change. Such changes are expected to be very infrequent and none occurred during the year.

Equity instruments

Equity instruments are instruments that meet the definition of equity from the issuer's perspective; that is, instruments that do not contain a contractual obligation to pay and that evidence a residual interest in the issuer's net assets. Examples of equity instruments include ordinary shares.

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at FVPL, except where the Group's management has elected, at initial recognition, to irrevocably designate an equity investment at FVOCI. The Group's policy is to designate equity instruments at FVOCI when those instruments are held for purposes other than to generate investment returns. When this election is used, fair value gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income and are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss, including on disposal. Dividends, when representing a return on such investments, continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payment is established. Gains and losses on equity investments at FVPL are included in the "Net investment (losses)/gains" line in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

(b) Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the ECL allowances associated with its debt instrument assets carried at AC and with the exposure arising from term deposits with banks and other financial assets. The Group recognises an ECL allowance for such losses at each reporting date. The measurement of ECL allowances reflects:

- an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes;
- the time value of money; and
- reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

(c) Derecognition other than modification

Financial assets, or a portion thereof, are derecognised when the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the assets have expired, or when they have been transferred and either (i) the Group transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership, or (ii) the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and the Group has not retained control.

The Group enters into transactions where it retains the contractual rights to receive cash flows from assets but assumes a contractual obligation to pay those cash flows to other entities and transfers substantially all of the risks and rewards. These transactions are accounted for as “pass through” transfers that result in derecognition if the Group:

- has no obligation to make payments unless it collects equivalent amounts from the assets;
- is prohibited from selling or pledging the assets; and
- has an obligation to remit any cash it collects from the assets without material delay.

Collateral (shares and bonds) furnished by the Group under standard repurchase agreements and securities lending and borrowing transactions are not derecognised because the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards on the basis of predetermined repurchase price, and the criteria for derecognition are therefore not met. This also applies to certain securitisation transactions in which the Group retains a subordinated residual interest.

When the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the assets have been transferred, and the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership, and the Group has retained control of the transferred assets, the Group applies continuing involvement approach.

Under this approach, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement and recognise the associated liability, to reflect the rights and obligations retained by the Group. The net carrying amount of the transferred asset and associated liability is: (a) the amortised cost of the rights and obligations retained by the Group, if the transferred asset is measured at amortised cost; or (b) equal to the fair value of the rights and obligations retained by the Group when measured on a stand-alone basis, if the transferred asset is measured at fair value.

2.11.2 Financial liabilities

(a) Classification and subsequent measurement

In both the current and prior year, financial liabilities are classified as subsequently measured at AC, except for:

- financial liabilities at FVPL: this classification is applied to derivatives, financial liabilities held for trading (e.g. short positions in the trading booking) and other financial liabilities designated as such at initial recognition. Gains or losses on financial liabilities designated at FVPL are presented partially in other comprehensive income (the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability, which is determined as the amount that is not attributable to changes in market conditions that give rise to market risk) and partially profit or loss (the remaining amount of change in the fair value of the liability). This is unless such a presentation would create, or enlarge, an accounting mismatch, in which case the gains and losses attributable to changes in the credit risk of the liability are also presented in profit or loss;
- financial liabilities arising from the transfer of financial assets which did not qualify for derecognition or when the continuing involvement approach applies. When the transfer of financial asset did not qualify for derecognition, a financial liability is recognised for the consideration received for the transfer. In subsequent years, the Group recognises any expense incurred on the financial liability; and
- financial guarantee contracts.

Financial liabilities are classified as current liabilities unless, at the end of the reporting period, the Group has a right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Covenants that the Group is required to comply with, on or before the end of the reporting period, are considered in classifying borrowing arrangements with covenants as current or non-current. Covenants that the Group is required to comply with after the reporting period do not affect the classification at the reporting date.

(b) Derecognition

Financial liabilities are derecognised when they are extinguished (i.e. when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expires).

The exchange between the Group and its original lenders of debt instruments with substantially different terms, as well as substantial modifications of the terms of existing financial liabilities, are accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The terms are substantially different if the discounted present value of the cash flows under the new terms, including any fees paid net of any fees received and discounted using the original effective interest rate, is at least 10% different from the discounted present value of the remaining cash flows of the original financial liability. In addition, other qualitative factors, such as the currency that the instrument is denominated in, changes in the type of interest rate, new conversion features attached to the instrument and change in covenants are also taken into consideration. If an exchange of debt instruments or modification of terms is accounted for as an extinguishment, any costs or fees incurred are recognised as part of the gain or loss on the extinguishment. If the exchange or modification is not accounted for as an extinguishment, any costs or fees incurred adjust the carrying amount of the liability and are amortised over the remaining term of the modified liability.

(c) Interest expenses

Interest expenses are calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of financial liabilities and are expensed in the year in which they are incurred.

2. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

2.12 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position where the Group has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts, and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The Group has also entered into arrangements that do not meet the criteria for offsetting but still allow for the related amounts to be set off in certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy or the termination of a contract.

2.13 Financial assets held under resale agreements

Financial assets that have been purchased under agreements with a commitment to resell at a specific future date are not recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position. The consideration of the acquisition is accounted for as financial assets held under resale agreements, and the difference between the consideration of the acquisition and the disposal consideration upon the completion of disposal of the entire equity interest is recognised as interest income during the term of the resale agreement using the effective interest method.

2.14 Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of:

- the amount determined in accordance with the ECL model under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments, and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined based on the present value of the difference in cash flows between the contractual payments required under the debt instrument and the payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

2.15 Inventories

The Group's inventories are tradable commodities arising from its supply chain businesses, which are initially measured at cost. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average costs method, including purchase cost and other variable purchase expenses, after deducting rebates and discounts.

At the end of each reporting period, tradable commodities are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Tradable commodities are classified as current assets if they are to be sold within one year.

2.16 Repossessed collateral assets

Reposessed collateral assets are accounted for as “repossessed assets” and reported under “other current assets” upon derecognition of relevant loans. Repossessed collateral assets are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value, less costs to sell, at the end of each reporting year. When the fair value less costs to sell is lower than a reposessed collateral asset’s carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Any gain or loss arising on the disposal of the reposessed collateral asset is included in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income in the period during which the item is disposed.

2.17 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.18 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.19 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the Company’s shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Group’s consolidated financial statements and the Company’s financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company’s shareholders.

2.20 Earnings per share

(a) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

(b) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share, by taking into account the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

2.21 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on the current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting year in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and considers whether it is probable that a taxation authority will accept an uncertain tax treatment. The Group measures its tax balances either based on the most likely amount or the expected value, depending on which method provides a better prediction of the resolution of the uncertainty.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting year and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current income tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred income tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current income tax assets and liabilities are offset where the Group has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred income tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.22 Employee benefits

(a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the year in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting year and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as accrued employee benefits in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(b) Pension obligations

The PRC employees of the Group are covered by various PRC government-sponsored defined-contribution pension plans under which the employees become entitled to a monthly pension based on certain formulas. The relevant government agencies are responsible for the pension liability to these employees when they retire. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these pension plans for the employees which are determined at a certain percentage of their salaries. Under these plans, the Group has no obligation for post-retirement benefits beyond the contribution made.

Contributions to these plans are expensed as incurred and contributions paid to the defined-contribution pension plans for an employee are not available to reduce the Group's future obligations to such defined-contribution pension plans even if the employee leaves the Group.

(c) Other social security obligations

The PRC employees of the Group are entitled to participate in various government-sponsored social security funds, including medical, housing and other welfare benefits. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these funds based on certain percentages of the employees' salaries and the contributions are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the period when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contribution. The Group's liabilities in respect of these funds are limited to the contributions payable in the reporting year.

2.23 Share-based payments

Employee options

The Group operates an equity-settled, share-based compensation plan, under which the Group receives services from employees as consideration for equity instruments (options) of the Group. The fair value of the employee services received in exchange for the grant of the options is recognised as an expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (e.g. the Company's share price);
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions; and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions.

Non-market performance and service conditions are included in assumptions about the number of options that are expected to vest.

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each reporting year, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-marketing performance and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

When the options are exercised, the Group issues new shares. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited to share capital and share premium.

2.24 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting year. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.25 Leases

(a) The Group as lessee

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for leases of real estate for which the Group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single lease component.

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group, where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs; and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life. While the Group revalues its land and buildings that are presented within property, plant and equipment, it has chosen not to do so for the right-of-use buildings held by the Group.

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and vehicles and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less without a purchase option. Low-value assets comprise information technology equipment and small items of office furniture.

(b) The Group as lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in other operating income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are included in the consolidated statement of financial position based on their nature.

2.26 Revenue recognition

(a) Interest income

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of financial assets. For those financial assets that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired but subsequently have become credit-impaired, where the interest income is calculated by applying its effective interest rate to the AC (i.e. net of the ECL provision).

Interest income from financial assets held under resale agreements is recognised in accordance with note 2.13.

Interest income from finance leases represents the difference between the gross finance lease receivable and the present value of the finance lease receivable and is recognised using the effective interest method.

2.26 Revenue recognition (Continued)

(b) Sales of goods

The Group determines first whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the specified commodities itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for those commodities to be provided by another party (i.e. the Group is an agent).

If the Group controls the specified commodities before they are transferred to a customer, the Group is a principal and recognise its revenue on delivering the commodities to customers, which generally coincides with the transferral of control.

If the Group's performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of the specified commodity by the other party, the Group is an agent since it does not control the specified commodity. It recognises revenue in the amount of fee or commission which it expects to be entitled to.

(c) Consultancy and commission fee income

The Group provides consultancy and insurance agency services to its clients.

The consultancy services include multiple performance obligations and the transaction price is allocated to each performance obligation based on the stand-alone selling prices. Where the performance obligations are not directly observable, they are estimated based on expected cost plus margin.

The insurance agency services contain a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and have the same pattern of transfer. Therefore, the services are identified as one performance obligation.

Revenue from providing such services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

2.27 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate. Government grants that become receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to an entity within the Group with no future related costs are recognised as income of the period in which they become receivable.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The Group continually evaluates its critical accounting estimates and judgements applied based on historical experience and other factors, including reasonable expectations of future events. The critical accounting estimates and key assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next accounting period are outlined below. It is possible that actual results may be materially different from the estimates and judgements referred to below.

3.1 Critical accounting estimates

(a) Measurement of ECL allowances

The measurement of the ECL allowances for financial assets measured at AC is an area that requires the use of ECL models and significant assumptions about future economic conditions and credit behavior (e.g. the likelihood of customers defaulting and the resulting losses). Explanation of the inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques used in measuring ECL allowances is further detailed in note 4.1, which also sets out key sensitivities of the ECL allowances to changes in these elements.

A number of significant judgements are also required in applying the accounting requirements for measuring ECL allowances, such as:

- determination of relevant key models and parameters;
- criteria for determining whether or not there was a significant increase in credit risk ("SICR") and definition of default or credit impairment;
- estimated future cash flows for loans to customers that the discounted cash flow model is used to calculate ECL allowances;
- economic variables for forward-looking measurement, and the application of economic scenarios and relative weightings.

(b) Fair value of investment properties

The fair value of investment properties are determined by using valuation techniques. Observable inputs are used at arm's length. Where market observable inputs are not available, they are estimated using assumptions that are calibrated as closely as possible to market observable data. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect reported fair value of investment properties. Detailed information about the judgements and estimates made by the Group is set out in note 4.3.

(c) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in a number of jurisdictions. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes in various jurisdictions. There are transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the period in which such determination is made.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (Continued)

3.2 Critical accounting judgements

(a) Contractual agreements

Under the relevant rules and regulations prevailing in the PRC, wholly foreign-owned enterprises are not allowed to operate pawn-loan business in China. The current registered owners of Wuzhong Pawnshop are Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting. As described in note 2.2(a) above, the Group's wholly owned subsidiary Huifang Tongda entered into a series of contractual agreements with Wuzhong Pawnshop, Wuzhong Jiaye, Hengyue Consulting and the owners of Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting (the "Contractual Agreements"). The Contractual Agreements include: (i) a proxy agreement where Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting have irrevocably and unconditionally undertaken to authorise Huifang Tongda to exercise their shareholders' rights under the articles of association of the Wuzhong Pawnshop and applicable PRC laws and regulations; (ii) an exclusive management and consultation service agreement pursuant to which Wuzhong Pawnshop engaged Huifang Tongda on an exclusive basis to provide consultation and other ancillary services, and in return Wuzhong Pawnshop agreed to pay Huifang Tongda the consultancy service fee; (iii) exclusive call option agreement pursuant to which Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting irrevocably and unconditionally granted Huifang Tongda an option to acquire the entire equity interest held by Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting in Wuzhong Pawnshop and/or all assets of Wuzhong Pawnshop at a price equivalent to the minimum amount as may be permitted by applicable PRC laws and regulations; and (iv) equity pledge agreement pursuant to which the Ultimate Shareholders granted first priority security interests over their respective equity interests in Wuzhong Jiaye and Hengyue Consulting to Huifang Tongda for guaranteeing the performance of the above the proxy agreement, exclusive management and consultation service agreement, and the exclusive call option agreement. Pursuant to these agreements and undertakings, notwithstanding the fact that the Company does not hold direct equity interest in Wuzhong Pawnshop, management considers that the Company has power over the financial and operating policies of Wuzhong Pawnshop and receives a majority of the economic benefits from business activities of Wuzhong Pawnshop. Accordingly, Wuzhong Pawnshop has been treated as an indirect subsidiary of the Company.

(b) Principal versus agent consideration

The Group engages in trading of electronic products and daily groceries. The Group concluded that the Group acts as the principal for such transactions as it controls the specified good before it is transferred to the customer after taking into consideration indicators such as the Group is primarily responsible for fulfilling the promise to provide the goods and the Group has inventory risk. When the Group satisfies the performance obligation, the Group recognises trading revenue in the gross amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled as specified in the contracts.

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks and those activities involve the analysis, evaluation, acceptance and management of some degree of risk or combination of risks. Managing risks is core to the financial business, and the operational risks are an inevitable consequence of being in business. The Group's aim is therefore to achieve an appropriate balance between risk and return and minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

The Group's risk management is carried out by a Central Risk Management Department under policies approved by the Board of Directors (the "Board"). Risk Management Department identifies and evaluates financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The Board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as credit risk, market risk and liquidity risk.

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

The Group's risk management policies are designed to identify and analyse these risks, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor the risks and adherence to limits. The Group regularly reviews its risk management policies and procedures to reflect changes in markets and products.

The most important types of financial risk are credit risk, market risk and liquidity risk. Market risk primarily includes interest rate risk, foreign exchange risk and price risk.

4.1 Financial risk factors

(a) Credit risk

The Group takes on exposure to credit risk, which is the risk that a counterparty will cause a financial loss for the Group by failing to discharge on obligation. Significant changes in the economy, or those in credit quality of a concentration in the Group's portfolio, could result in losses that are different from those provided for at the consolidated statement of financial position. Management therefore carefully manages its exposure to credit risk. Credit exposures arise principally from loans to customers in the Group's asset portfolio, but can also be from finance lease receivables, financial assets held under resale agreement, bank deposits and other receivables.

(i) Credit risk measurement of loans to customers

The estimation of credit exposure for risk management purposes is complex and requires the use of models, as the exposure varies with changes in market conditions, expected cash flows and the passage of time. The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring, of the associated loss ratios and of default correlations between counterparties. The Group's loans to customers are segmented into secured loans and unsecured loans based on credit risk characteristics. Key parameters in ECL measurement include Probability of Default ("PD"), Loss Given Default ("LGD") and Exposure at Default ("EAD").

(ii) ECL allowances measurement

In accordance with HKFRS 9, the Group constructed a "three-stage" ECL model to measure ECL allowances based on changes in credit quality since initial recognition of a loan:

- Stage 1: A financial instrument that a SICR since initial recognition is not identified and is not credit-impaired on initial recognition is classified in "Stage 1" and has its credit risk continuously monitored by the Group.
- Stage 2: If a SICR since initial recognition is identified but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired, the financial instrument is moved to "Stage 2".
- Stage 3: If the financial instrument is credit-impaired, the financial instrument is then moved to "Stage 3".

Financial instruments in Stage 1 have their ECL allowances measured at an amount equal to the portion of lifetime ECLs that result from default events possible within the next 12 months. Instruments in Stage 2 or 3 have their ECL allowances measured based on ECLs on a lifetime basis.

The key judgements and assumptions adopted by the Group in addressing the requirements of the standard are discussed below:

a. SICR

The Group manages the credit risk of its loan portfolio mainly by monitoring the over-due status of borrowers. The Group considers a loan to have experienced an SICR when it meets one or more of the following quantitative and qualitative criteria:

Quantitative criteria:

- The borrower is past due on its contractual payments for more than 30 days but no more than 90 (included) days.

Qualitative criteria:

- Default in other financial institutions; and
- Under-going law suit raised by the Group.

The criteria used to identify SICR are monitored and reviewed periodically for appropriateness by the Central Risk Management Department.

b. Definition of default and credit-impaired assets

The Group defines a financial instrument as in default, which is fully aligned with the definition of credit-impairment, when it meets one or more of the following criteria:

Quantitative criteria:

- The borrower is more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments.

Qualitative criteria:

- The debtor is likely to go bankrupt or carry out other financial restructuring.
- The Group has made concessions to the debtor in financial difficulty for economic or legal reasons.

The criteria above have been applied to all financial instruments measured at AC and are consistent with the definition of default used for internal credit risk management purposes. The default definition has been applied consistently to model the PD, LGD and EAD throughout the Group's expected loss calculations.

An instrument is considered to no longer be in default (i.e. to have cured) when it no longer meets any of the default criteria for a consecutive period of six months. This period of six months has been determined based on an analysis which considers the likelihood of a financial instrument returning to default status after cure using different cure definitions.

c. Measuring ECL allowances — model inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques

The ECL allowance is measured on either a 12-month or lifetime basis depending on whether an SICR has occurred since initial recognition or whether an asset is considered to be credit-impaired. ECL allowances are the discounted product of the PD, LGD, and EAD, defined as follows:

- PD represents the likelihood of a borrower defaulting on its financial obligation (as per “Definition of default and credit-impaired assets” above).
- LGD represents the Group’s expectation of the extent of loss on a defaulted exposure. LGD varies by type of counterparty, type and seniority of claim and availability of collateral or other credit support. LGD is expressed as a percentage loss per unit of EAD.
- EAD is based on the amounts the Group expects to be owed at the time of default.

The ECL allowance is determined by projecting the PD, LGD and EAD for every six months and for each individual exposure or collective segment. These three components are multiplied together and adjusted for duration (if there is no early repayment or default). This effectively calculates an ECL allowance for every six months, which is then discounted back to the reporting date and summed. The discount rate used in the ECL allowance calculation is the original effective interest rate.

For loans to customers in Stage 1, the Group first calculates the annual 12-month PD and then transfers it to monthly PD. For loans to customers in Stages 2 and 3, the lifetime PDs are developed by monitoring how defaults develop in a portfolio from the point of time when a loan experiences SICR to its lifetime. The lifetime PDs are based on historical observed data taking into consideration forward-looking factors and are assumed to be the same across all loans to customers within a portfolio. This is supported by historical analysis.

The LGDs are determined based on the factors that affect the recoverable amounts post default. These vary by product type.

- For secured loans to customers, this is primarily based on the projected collateral values, historical discounts to market/book values due to forced sales, time to repossession and recovery costs observed.
- For unsecured loans to customers, the Group will preserve the borrower’s asset to mitigate the credit risk. Thus the LGDs are determined based on the factors similar to secured loans to customers.

Forward-looking economic information is also included in determining the 12-month and lifetime PDs and LGDs. These assumptions vary by product type.

(a) Credit risk (Continued)

c. Measuring ECL allowances — model inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques (Continued)

For loans to customers classified into Stages 1 and 2, the management assesses ECL allowances using the risk parameter modelling approach that incorporates key parameters, including PD, LGD and EAD. For impaired loans to customers in Stage 3, the management assesses ECL allowances by estimating the cash flows from the loans taking into consideration of forward-looking factors.

The assumptions underlying the ECL allowance calculation, such as how the maturity profile of the PDs and how collateral values change, are monitored and reviewed on a half-year basis.

There have been no significant changes in estimation techniques or significant assumptions made during the reporting year.

d. Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL models

Both the assessment of SICR and the calculation of ECL allowances incorporate forward-looking information. The Group has performed historical analysis and identified the key economic variables for each ECL segment.

Based on analysis and assessment, the Group applies a series of economic variables (including Urban Per Capita Disposable Income Growth Rate (城鎮居民人均可支配收入增長率), National Housing Sensitive Index (國房景氣指數) and Business Climate Index (企業景氣指數), etc.) to establish statistical co-relation between such economic variables and PDs, LGDs. A forward-looking result on PDs and LGDs is calculated based on forecasts of these economic variables.

The following table illustrates how economic variables apply to different portfolios.

	PDs	LGDs
Secured loans to customers	Urban Per Capita Disposable Income Growth Rate	National Housing Sensitive Index
Unsecured loans to customers	Urban Per Capita Disposable Income Growth Rate	Business Climate Index

As with any economic forecasts, the projections and likelihoods of occurrence are subject to a high degree of inherent uncertainty and therefore the actual outcomes may be significantly different to those projected. The Group considers these forecasts to represent its best estimate of the possible outcomes.

Other forward-looking considerations not incorporated within the above scenarios, such as the impact of any regulatory, legislative or political changes, have also been considered, but are not deemed to have a material impact and therefore no adjustment has been made to the ECL allowances for such factors. This is reviewed and monitored for appropriateness regularly.

As at 31 December 2024, weighted average ECL allowances for loans to customers under the three economic scenarios (upside, base and downside) will increase by less than 1% compared to ECL allowances for loans to customers under the base economic scenario.

Should the weighting assigned to the upside economic scenario increase by 10% and the weighting assigned to base economic scenario decrease by 10%, the ECL allowances for loans to customers would decrease by less than 1%. Should the weighting assigned to downside economic scenario increase by 10% and the weighting assigned to base economic scenario decrease by 10%, the ECL allowances for loans to customers would increase by less than 1%.

(iii) Credit risk exposure (Continued)

Notes:

- (a) Secured loans to customers comprise real estate backed loans and movable property backed loans.
- (b) Unsecured loans to customers comprise equity interest backed loans, guaranteed loans and other unsecured loans.

The following table contains an analysis of credit risk exposure of financial assets at FVPL:

	2024	2023
Private equity funds	99,429	90,143
Structured deposits	20,430	20,428
	119,859	110,571

(iv) Concentration of risks of financial assets with credit risk exposure

The Group maintains a diversified client base. The gross carrying amount from the top five customers accounted for 21.89% (2023: 24.8%) of total gross carrying amount as at 31 December 2024. Interest income from the top five customers accounted for 15.8% (2023: 17.1%) of total interest income for the year ended 31 December 2024.

(v) Collateral and other credit enhancement

The Group employs a range of policies and practices to mitigate credit risk. The most common of these is accepting collateral for loans granted. The Group has internal policies on the acceptability of specific classes of collateral or credit risk mitigation.

The Group prepares a valuation of the collateral obtained as part of the loan origination process. This assessment is reviewed periodically. The principal collateral types for loans to customers are:

- real estate, including residential, commercial and industrial properties;
- equity instruments, mainly equity interest in unlisted companies which are typically related to the borrowers; and
- movable properties, including but not limited to vehicles, luxury goods, precious metal, jewellery and works of art.

The Group's policies regarding obtaining collateral have not significantly changed in 2024 and there has been no significant change in the overall quality of the collateral held by the Group since the prior year.

The Group also focuses on ascertaining legal ownership and the valuation of the real estate and work of art collaterals. A loan granted is based on the value of the collaterals, which is generally lower than the estimated value of the real estate and work of art collaterals. The Group monitors the value of the real estate and work of art collaterals throughout the loan period.

For unsecured loans, other than taking into consideration of repayment ability and credit records of individual borrower, the Group also introduces other credit enhancement measures such as guarantee from a third party.

a. Fair value of collateral of credit-impaired loans

The Group closely monitors collateral held for financial assets considered to be credit-impaired, as it becomes more likely that the Group will take possession of collateral to mitigate potential credit losses.

The gross amount of real estate backed loans that are credit-impaired and the fair value of collateral held in order to mitigate potential credit losses are shown below:

	2024	2023
Gross carrying amount	1,021,362	841,637
ECL allowances	(476,814)	(514,937)
Carrying amount	544,548	326,700
Fair value of collateral held	1,079,463	565,204

(vi) Written-off policy

The Group aims to recover amounts to which it is legally entitled. However, when the Group has exhausted all practical recovery efforts and has concluded no reasonable expectation of recovery, it writes off financial assets, in whole or in part. Indicators include: (i) the Group ceases enforcement activity and (ii) where the Group's recovery method is foreclosing on collateral and the value of the collateral is such that no reasonable expectation of recovering in full exists.

Financial assets written off during the year ended 31 December 2024 amounted to RMB51.8 million (2023: RMB5.1 million).

4.1 Financial risk factors (Continued)

(b) Market risk

The Group takes on exposure to market risk, which is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risks arise from open positions in interest rate, foreign currency and equity investments, all of which are exposed to general and specific market movements and changes in the level of volatility of market rates or prices such as interest rates, credit spreads, foreign exchange rates and equity prices. The Group's exposure to market risk is primarily attributable to interest rate risk arising from loans to customers, finance lease receivables, financial assets held under resale agreement, bank balances and borrowings. The Group has established policies and procedures for monitoring and managing market risk.

(i) Interest rate risk

Cash flow interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Fair value interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group takes on exposures to the effects of fluctuations in the prevailing levels of market interest rates on both its fair value and cash flow risks.

The Group's most significant interest-bearing assets are loans to customers, finance lease receivables, financial assets held under resale agreement, bank deposits and structured deposits, and its most significant interest-bearing liabilities are borrowings.

The interest rates of loans to customers and finance lease receivables and financial assets held under resale agreement are not primarily affected by the changes in the benchmark rate in the market. Instead, they are much more influenced by demand and supply as well as bilateral negotiation, which makes a quantitative sensitivity analysis based on the benchmark rate unrepresentative.

For the other interest-bearing assets and liabilities, the Group regularly calculates the impact on profit or loss of a possible interest rate shift on its portfolio. Based on the simulations performed and with other variables held constant, should the benchmark interest rate had been 100 basis points higher/lower, the profit before income tax would have been decreased/increased by RMB1,343 thousand (2023: RMB1,350 thousand) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

(b) Market risk (Continued)

(ii) Foreign exchange risk

The Group operates principally in the PRC. The majority of recognised assets and liabilities are denominated in RMB and the majority of transactions are settled in RMB.

Exposure

The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting year, expressed in RMB thousand, is as follows:

	2024		2023
	USD	HKD	USD	HKD
Cash at bank and cash on hand	63	5,544	3,687	542
Loans to customers	—	18,462	—	23,919
Net exposure	63	24,006	3,687	24,461

Should US dollar ("USD") and Hong Kong dollar ("HKD") weaken/strengthen by 1% against RMB with all other variables held constant, the profit before income tax would have been RMB241 thousand (2023: RMB282 thousand) lower/higher.

(iii) Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of the Group's assets measured at fair value will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual asset or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar assets.

The Group's price risk exposure mainly relates to financial assets at FVPL and investment properties. The market prices of those assets could lead to the fluctuation of investment value. The Group monitors the fair value of its portfolio on a timely basis and adjusts the position according to its analysis and prospect of the market.

Should the prices of these financial assets had increased/decreased by 5%, the profit before income tax would have been RMB5.0 million (2023: RMB4.8 million) higher/lower for the year ended 31 December 2024.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group is unable to meet its obligations when they fall due as a result of cash requirements from contractual commitments. Such outflows would deplete available cash resources for customer lending. In extreme circumstances, lack of liquidity could result in reductions in the consolidated statement of financial position and sales of assets.

As disclosed in note 37, all of the Group's banking facilities are subject to the fulfillments of covenants. Some of those covenants relate to the Group's financial covenants which are tested periodically, as are commonly found in lending arrangements with financial institutions. If the Group were to breach these covenants, the related loans would become payable on demand. The Group did not identify any difficulties in complying with the covenants for loans.

The Group's objective is to maintain sufficient cash and sources of funding through committed credit facility and maintain flexibility in funding by maintaining committed credit lines. To manage the liquidity risk, the Group monitors rolling forecasts of its liquidity reserve and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flow. The Group expects to fund the future cash flow needs through internally generated cash flows from operations and borrowings from financial institutions.

(i) Maturities of financial assets and liabilities

The table below analyses the Group's financial assets and liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period from the date of the consolidated statement of financial position to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant. ### 4.2 Fair value of financial assets and liabilities

The Group's financial assets and liabilities are categorised as "cash at banks and cash on hand", "loans to customers", "financial assets held under resale agreement", "finance lease receivables", "financial assets at FVPL", "other financial receivables", "borrowings", "amounts due to related parties" and "other financial liabilities" respectively.

"Cash at banks and cash on hand", "loans to customers", "financial assets held under resale agreement", "finance lease receivables", "other financial receivables", "borrowings", "amounts due to related parties" and "other financial liabilities" are stated at AC, where fair values approximate to their ACs.

(a) Fair value hierarchy

To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Group classifies its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standards.

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting year. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

(a) Fair value hierarchy (Continued)

There are no transfers between levels during the year.

The Group does not measure any financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value on a non-recurring basis as at 31 December 2024 (2023: same).

(b) Valuation techniques used to determine fair value

The discounted cash flow model is used to determine the fair value of the structured deposits in level 3, and the net asset value model is used to determine the fair value of the private equity funds in level 3 (2023: same).

(c) Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (level 3)

4.3 Fair value of investment properties (Continued)

(b) Valuation techniques used to determine level 2 and level 3 fair values

The Group obtains independent valuations for its investment properties at least annually, and determines a property's value within a range of reasonable fair value estimates.

The fair value for investment properties in level 2 is based on current prices in local market for similar properties. For investment properties classified as level 3, valuations are based on the income approach by discounting the estimated future rental proceeds. The rental proceeds in future periods are estimated based on current rentals of investment properties adjusted by expected vacancy rate and rental growth rate. The significant unobservable inputs involved in the valuation are discount rate, expected vacancy rate and rental growth rate.

4.4 Capital risk management

The Group monitors capital risk on the basis of gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as borrowings net of cash and cash equivalent.
