INDEPENDENCE TO OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

Having considered the following factors, our Directors believe that our Group is capable of operating our business independently of our Controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates (other than our Group) after [REDACTED]:

(i) Management independence

Our management and operational decisions are made by the Board and our senior management. The Board comprises five executive Directors, one non-executive Director and three independent non-executive Directors. The day-to-day management and operation of the business of our Group will be the responsibility of all the executive Directors and senior management of our Group and our Group considers that our Board and senior management will be able to function independently from our Controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates taking into account the following:

- (i) as at the Latest Practicable Date, no executive Directors has overlapping roles or responsibilities in any business which competes or is likely to compete, either directly or indirectly, with our business;
- (ii) each of our Directors is aware of his fiduciary duties as a Director which require, among other things, that he acts for the benefit and in the best interests of our Company and does not allow any conflict between his duties as a Director and his personal interest to exist;

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

- (iv) the Board has established (i) an audit committee; (ii) a remuneration committee; and (iii) a nomination committee. Further, our Group believes that our experienced independent non-executive Directors will be able to exercise their independent judgment and provide impartial opinion and professional advice in the decision-making process of the Board to protect the interest of our Shareholders;
- (v) in the circumstances where all our executive Directors are required to abstain from voting on board resolutions due to potential conflict of interest, it will fall to our non-executive Director and independent non-executive Directors to exercise their business judgement to make decision as our Board. Given the experience of our non-executive Director and independent non-executive Directors, details of which are set out in the section headed "Directors and senior management" in this document, our Directors believe that the remaining Board can still function properly in the event that all our executive Directors are required to abstain from voting; and
- (vi) our Group has also employed other senior management members who have the experience and calibre to conduct our Group's business.

Having considered the above factors, our Directors are satisfied that they will be able to perform their roles in our Company independently, and our Directors are of the view that our Group is capable of managing our business independently from our Controlling Shareholders following completion of the [REDACTED].

Based on the above, our Directors are satisfied that our Board as a whole together with our senior management team are able to perform the managerial role in our Group independently.
