ANNUAL REPORT

2024/25

CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the “Directors”) of ISP Global Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group” or “We”) collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange (the “GEM Listing Rules”) for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this report misleading.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board of Directors (the “Board”), I am pleased to present the annual report of ISP Global Limited for the year ended 30 June 2025 (the “Year”).

OVERVIEW

The Group has two major business segments: (i) e-commerce operation; and (ii) sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems.

The revenue of the Group increased from approximately RMB218.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RMB231.7 million for the Year, representing an increase of approximately RMB13.1 million or 6.0%. This was principally due to the increased revenue contribution from NSC Segment in the PRC and Singapore during the Year, contributing to approximately RMB6.0 million and RMB5.7 million, respectively. The increase was due to achieving more percentage of completion of certain high value contracts in the PRC, and delivering more products in NSC Segment in Singapore.

Over the past year, the global economy and consumer market remained fraught with uncertainty. Downturns in Chinese consumer spending and intensifying competition in e-commerce operation services have impacted e-commerce operation of the Group. In response to these challenges, the Group proactively adjusted operational priorities by enhancing operational efficiency, optimizing resource allocation and implementing strict cost controls, thus to improve asset operation efficiency and establish a concrete foundation for sustainable development in the future.

BUSINESS REVIEW:

Business of e-commerce operation:

In the Mainland China market, we continue to focus on serving renowned brand clients while shifting operational emphasis from distributorship to agency operations and related digital marketing services. Through team optimization and inventory reduction, we have lowered operational costs while enhancing operational efficiency and asset utilization.

At the same time, the Group has achieved breakthrough progress in overseas markets. We have established a team in Malaysia and officially launched e-commerce solutions and services for SMEs leveraging AllValue by Youzan. The business has not only been successfully launched, but has also received positive feedback from initial client base. We are confident that the Southeast Asian market will become one of the key drivers for future growth of the Group's e-commerce operations.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Business of sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems

Operations in networking, sound and communication systems integration and maintenance services across Singapore and Mainland China have remained stable.

While maintaining our existing client base, the Group will continue to deepen expertise in specialized sectors, explore client needs, continuously improve service standards and operational efficiency and grow alongside the industries we serve.

PROSPECTS

Looking ahead to the new year, the Group will adhere to its strategy of “Prudent operations, efficiency first and global expansion”:

Optimize E-commerce Operations Structure – focus on profitability, improve operational efficiency and customer value;

Consolidate Integrated Systems Services – leverage existing technology and industry experience to continuously address the needs of public sector and corporate clients;

Explore New Markets for E-commerce Operations – deepen our presence in Malaysia and evaluate opportunities to enter other Southeast Asian countries;

We firmly believe that by prioritizing efficiency and innovation, the Group will achieve steady growth amid a complex and ever-changing market environment while delivering sustainable returns to shareholders.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to all shareholders, business partners, customers, and employees for your trust and support over the past year. The Group remains committed to value creation as our core principle, and we will continue to deliver returns to our shareholders and contribute to society.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Outlook of E-commerce in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC")

Overview of China's Brand E-commerce Operation Service Market

Brand e-commerce operation refers to third-party services provided to brand owners, mainly including brand market analysis, marketing and promotion, online store operation, consumer management, customer service and warehousing logistics services.

With professional operating experience, brand e-commerce operation service providers can help brand clients to promote brand culture and improve customer experience, carry out promotional activities through diversified online distribution channels to expand customer base, and constantly optimise marketing strategies based on accurate consumer analysis, so as to ultimately enhance their brand influence.

As a link between brand owners, e-commerce platforms and consumers, brand e-commerce operation service providers create value for all parties in the industry chain. With the increasing importance of online sales channels, operation service providers have gradually built a dynamic and virtuous ecosystem with brand owners and e-commerce platforms.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Brand owners enter e-commerce platforms to explore online sales channels and tap into the traffic resources of e-commerce platforms; aided by the professional operation of e-commerce operation service providers, brand owners fully reach target customers and continuously improve the conversion rate which would in turn ultimately increase sales of products for the brands. Brand operation service providers cater to needs of the brand owners, obtain authorisation, and generate business revenue through operations. E-commerce platforms, while providing traffic platforms for brand owners and operating service providers, also reaping benefits in turn. In expanding online channels for brand owners, operation service providers also introduces premium brands to the platform, thereby enhancing the reputation and traffic of the platform. The GMV created by operation service providers for brand owners also serves as a vital support for the platform's transaction volume. Therefore, operation service providers play an indispensable role in promoting a thriving platform ecosystem.

Industry Overview of Brand E-commerce Service Market in the PRC

The rapid growth of e-commerce in China opens up vast market space for the development of the brand e-commerce service market

Brand e-commerce operation service is a service industry that grows with the development of e-commerce in the PRC. It proliferates with the rapid growth and deeper penetration of the e-commerce industry in the PRC. According to the 2025 China Branding E-Commerce Service Provider Industry Research Report of iiMedia Research, the size of the brand e-commerce service market in the PRC reached RMB446.85 billion in 2024, representing a year-on-year increase of 9.6%. It is expected to reach RMB586.23 billion by 2028.

In the future, with the construction of service providers' digital intelligence capability and the improvement of full-chain service system, the intelligent retail model, O2O model, intelligent services and government policy support will boost the continuous expansion of the brand e-commerce service market.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

According to the Report on Development of the Online Retail Market in China, the China's online retail market maintained steady growth and the scale of the market reached a new high. In 2024, national online retail sales reached RMB16.96 trillion, representing a year-on-year growth of 10.0%. The contribution of online retail to the consumer market saw a continuous increase, and online retail sales of physical goods in 2024 was RMB14.32 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 9.0% and accounting for 28.1% of the total retail sales of consumer goods in society, increasing by 0.5 percentage point compared with the share of 27.6% in 2023. China has been the largest global online retail market for twelve consecutive years. With online retail sales of physical goods accounting for over one quarter of the total retail sales of consumer goods in society, e-commerce has become one of the main consumption channels for Chinese residents.

China's Total Online Retail Transaction Amount in 2011-2024

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The e-commerce service industry is a service industry that has gradually emerged with the development of e-commerce. It is a general term for various professional services provided for the development of e-commerce activities. According to the classification of the e-commerce service industry in the 2022 Report on E-commerce in China issued by the Ministry of Commerce, the e-commerce service industry includes three categories: transaction services, support services and derivative services, of which transaction services mainly include business-to-business transaction services, business-to-consumer transaction services and consumer-to-consumer transaction services, with e-commerce platforms as the main entities. Support services mainly include electronic payment services, logistics services and information technology services; while derivative services refer to various professional services, such as e-commerce operation services, e-commerce brand services, e-commerce consultation services, e-commerce education and training services and e-commerce security services.

The vigorous development of cross-border e-commerce has generated more demand for e-commerce operation from international brands

For foreign brand owners, factors such as complicated rules for e-commerce operation in China, large differences between online and offline markets, limited capacity for devoting attention to operation and low cost-effectiveness of proprietary operation have prompted foreign brands to become more willing to acquire e-commerce operation services.

According to the statistics of China's General Administration of Customs, China's total cross-border e-commerce imports and exports reached RMB2.71 trillion in 2024, representing an increase of 14.0% compared with 2023. Specifically, exports amounted to RMB2.15 trillion, representing an increase of 16.9%; and imports amounted to RMB555.25 billion, representing an increase of 4.1%. The cross-border e-commerce of China is still under a rapid growth, and its cross-border products are gradually moving towards a development pattern of branding, high-value, and overseas warehousing.

The rise of live streaming e-commerce and social e-commerce provides branded e-commerce operators with new market growth opportunities

Amid the sluggish growth of traditional e-commerce traffic, innovative online consumption models such as social e-commerce and live streaming e-commerce, can meet the diversified needs of consumers and have become a crucial element of online consumption. Social e-commerce operators, such as Pinduoduo, Xiaohongshu and Youzan, have produced efficient multi-node exchanges in social e-commerce between individual merchants, individual users as well as between both merchants and users, effectively triggering the consumption potential of consumers. In addition, the COVID-19 epidemic has fully triggered live streaming marketing, and the live streaming industry has entered a stage of broad popularity and development. Short videos, live streaming and e-commerce are mutually beneficial, and platforms such as Kuaishou and Douyin have become strongholds for e-commerce traffic.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

According to the estimation of iResearch, the market size of China's live-streaming e-commerce reached RMB4.9 trillion in 2023, representing a year-on-year increase of 35.2%. According to the 2022 China E-commerce Market Data Report and relevant data from www.Chyxx.com (智研咨询), for social e-commerce, the market size reached RMB2.76 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 9.17%, and further expanded to RMB3.42 trillion in 2023.

While social e-commerce and live-streaming e-commerce have become essential channels for diversified brand marketing, the new e-commerce model has also increased the complexity of e-commerce operation, such as the interactions between brand owners and institutions, including but not limited to the content platforms, key opinion leaders, multi-channel networks, and the use of paid tools of platforms to precisely reach target customers, capture consumer demand preferences and changes and quickly identify and profile consumers. All of the above have brought great challenges to brands and thus the value of professional services for e-commerce operators has become increasingly prominent.

Prospect of the Business of E-commerce Operation of the Company

The business of e-commerce operation is one of the main business lines of the Company. As at the date of this report, it has established a complete operation team and achieved a certain scale in its operation. Currently, brands that the Company is operating and has newly added include domestically and internationally renowned brands such as Philips Home Audio & Video, Ecovacs, Supor, Changhong, Haier, Royalstar, Skyworth, Narwal, Culligan, ASUS, Wuling, Changan and NIU.

Faced with the intensely competitive environment of brand operations, we proactively adjusted our business focus from distribution business to agency operation business, reducing operating costs and improving operational efficiency.

We will: (1) on the basis of shifting our operational focus, continuously optimize the brand structure of our operations, gradually eliminate brands with low operational efficiency, and introduce higher-quality brands; (2) prioritize JD.com platform as our key channel and consolidate our operational advantages in this channel; (3) optimize our operational team to reduce costs and enhance our own operational efficiency.

In addition, we will actively explore the e-commerce operation service market in other countries, and have established a team in Malaysia to develop e-commerce operation-related businesses: (1) as the official authorized partner of AllValue Cross-border (Youzan International) in Malaysia, we provide small and medium-sized merchants with services including e-commerce SaaS systems, content-driven e-commerce, Xiaohongshu store setup, brand building and AI-powered operation tools; (2) leveraging the local operation team in Malaysia, we offer cross-border e-commerce operation services to Chinese brands served by the Company, helping them to achieve promotion and sales in Malaysia.

We are confident that with the adjustment of the operating structure, the optimization of the operating team and the expansion of new markets in Malaysia will drive renewed growth in the e-commerce operation business.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Industry Outlook of Sale and Provision of Integrated Services of Networking, Sound and Communication Systems Solutions in Singapore and Malaysia

During the Year, we continue to pursue organic growth strategy NCS Segment in Singapore, Malaysia and Vietnam, but faced macroeconomic headwinds stemming not only from weakened near-term outlook attributed to trade tensions slowing growth forecasts but also from inflation on purchases originating from countries affected by the global trade tariff. Although the Group experienced some profit erosion through higher costs of logistics and purchases, we continue to grow our revenues through developing value-added integration engineering solutions for interoperable NCS within our strong business network in the healthcare sector in Singapore and Malaysia.

In our established market in Singapore, we achieve constant growth through (i) providing quality post-installation maintenance and (ii) development and expansion of new integrations and product offerings. As a developed country with an aging population, Singapore continues to face the challenges of higher impact of chronic disease and of increasing medical infrastructure utility rates. Being one of the countries which spends most annually in healthcare on a per capita basis amongst member countries in the Association of South East Asian Nation (“ASEAN”), Singapore’s Ministry of Health expects Singapore’s national health expenditure to increase to RMB168.8 billion in 2030. Therefore, we continue to monitor the public and private healthcare infrastructure plans in existing markets and participate in requests for proposal in both private and public tenders. We continue to look for opportunities to work together with potential and existing customers to expand our sales pipeline through expanding our product offerings to include cloud-based network solutions to enhance both wired and wireless communication systems within healthcare institutions.

In potential growth markets such as Malaysia and Vietnam, we expect the rapid growth to require significant investments from both the public and private sectors to continue to upgrade their existing facilities, improve operational efficiency, and provide better services by equipping their facilities with advanced medical devices. The Malaysian healthcare sector is at a precipice for growth in the coming years, due to higher government healthcare budget allocation of RMB70.5 billion and rising demand for private healthcare from domestic sources and medical tourists. Healthcare expenditure within Malaysia is anticipated to grow at a compound annual growth rate (“CAGR”) of 8.7% during the forecast period of 2023 to 2028. We continue to work closely with our strategic business partners in both Malaysia and Vietnam to expand our outreach and provide our customised NCS solutions to our clients.

We expect to retain our competitive edge in the Singapore market in the public and private healthcare sectors through research and development in NCS integrations and engineering, and continue to grow our presence through business partnering and marketing activities in other high growth markets such as Malaysia and Vietnam private healthcare sectors.

In the face of general challenges such as geopolitical uncertainty and higher inflation, we believe that with our healthy level of project and maintenance pipeline, we are poised to continue to create and share value amongst the stakeholders in our industry chain through developing mutually beneficial relationships. We stand ready and are committed to serving our clients in the education, private healthcare and public housing sectors. Through iterative and constructive feedback from our stakeholders, we continue to create value for our clients through constant innovation and integration with existing or new systems to formulate the relevant solution to address the end-users’ needs.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Outlook of Sale and Provision of Integrated Services of Networking, Sound and Communication Systems in the PRC

The Chinese government sets “Accelerating Digitalization and Building Digital China” as a standalone chapter in the 14th five-year plan, proposing to “transform the pattern of production, lifestyle, and governance models through digital transformation”. Digital economy and digital transformation will become important strategies and development drivers for China in the coming years.

In February 2023, the Chinese government promulgated the “Plan for the Overall Layout of Building a Digital China”, which pointed out that building a digital China is an important engine for promoting Chinese-style modernization in the digital era. The plan stipulates that the construction of digital China will be carried out in accordance with the “2522” overall framework. The promulgation of this plan by the Chinese government will surely lead to the development of China’s digital economy.

It is anticipated that the Chinese government will speed up the construction of digital infrastructure represented by data centers and intelligent computing centers. According to China’s Digital Transformation Market Forecast, 2021-2026: Practicing a Digital Priority Strategy through Application Scenarios, a study report published by IDC in June 2022, it is forecasted that the Chinese government’s total investment in digital economy during the 14th Five-Year Plan period will reach RMB15-20 trillion, with the government and large and medium state-owned enterprises accounting for 70% of digital transformation spending.

We continue to focus on serving state-owned and large and medium-sized enterprises and tap into the market potential of these industries.

As the Company’s key focus industry, the railway industry secured a number of projects during the reporting period, such as the “Xiaoliu Railway” project, the “East Coast Rail Link (ECRL) in Malaysia” project, the “Jakarta-Bandung High-Speed Railway” project, and the “Sichuan-Tibet Railway” project. We have also signed several projects with the China Academy of Railway Sciences and local railway bureaus.

In addition, we have expanded new clients beyond the railway industry, such as Sinopharm Group and Chongqing Rural Commercial Bank.

We will continue to adhere to our current strategy on this business, and continue to serve state-owned enterprises and large and medium-sized corporate clients, continuously improving service quality and operational efficiency to ensure the sustainable growth of this business segment.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW

Our principal businesses are:

- (i) Sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems, which includes (1) the sale of networking, sound and communication systems; and (2) provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems, includes installation and customisation of networking, sound and communication systems and technical support services to customers in Singapore, Malaysia and the PRC; and
- (ii) provision of e-commerce operation services (including digital marketing services, online agency operation services, online retailing and distribution services) in the Malaysia and the PRC.

For the Year, the Group recorded revenue of approximately RMB231.7 million representing an approximately RMB13.1 million increase in revenue from approximately RMB218.6 million for year ended 30 June 2024. The increase was mainly due to the contribution from sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems in Singapore and PRC. The Group recorded a total comprehensive loss attributable to the owners of the Company of approximately RMB10.8 million, representing a decrease of RMB14.3 million compared with total comprehensive loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately RMB25.1 million for the year ended 30 June 2024. The following table sets forth the breakdown of our revenue by segment for the years indicated:

	For year ended 30 June
	2025	2024
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Revenue from:
Sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems	78,101	66,375
E-commerce operation	153,645	152,236
	231,746	218,611

Sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems (the “NSC Segment”)

Our revenue generated from the NSC segment was approximately RMB78.1 million and RMB66.4 million for the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, respectively, which represents approximately 33.7% and 30.4% of our total revenue for the same period, respectively.

Revenue from the NSC segment increased by approximately 17.7% as certain contracts with high value contract sums were completed in the prior financial year. For the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, the number of contracts completed decreased to 98 from 89; and there were tenders of 103 projects in railway, financial and other industries in the PRC successfully bid, serving customers such as Beijing Jingwei Information (北京經緯信息), SSBT (北京聖世博泰科技), China Harbour Engineering (中國港灣工程), Railway Engineering Research Institute of CARS, in the railway industry, in the PRC.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Group endeavours to continue developing value-added and long-term relationship with customers in the long run with contracts for the provision of maintenance and related services for networking, sound and communication systems.

E-commerce operation (the “EC Segment”)

For the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, our revenue from the EC Segment was RMB153.6 million and RMB152.2 million, respectively, representing 66.3% and 69.6% of our total revenue for the same period, respectively.

The reasons for the increase in revenues from the EC Segment by approximately 0.9% are as follows:

- (1) The continuous enhancement and expansion of our service brands with introduction of multiple well-known domestic brands with market influence, thereby significantly increasing the sales scale of our e-commerce operation business.
- (2) The continuous enhancement and expansion of our brand operation team and the accumulation of operation experience also bolstered an upsurge in online sales of our service brands.

Brand e-commerce operation service is a service industry that grows with the development of e-commerce. It grows continuously with the expansion and deeper penetration of the e-commerce industry. Brand operation service providers, as a link between brand owners, e-commerce platforms and consumers, create value for all parties in the industry chain and have established a beneficial ecosystem with e-commerce platforms and brand owners.

Considering the market size and development potential of the industry, the management of the Company marked this business as a key area of investment for the Company. The Company has formed a front-office business system comprising digital marketing services, online agency operation services, online retailing (2C) and distribution (2B) services, as well as a back-office support service system comprising the supply chain, customer service and warehousing services.

Digital marketing services include the provision of brand building, online marketing, reputation management, public opinion management and event planning services for brand owners.

Online agency operation services include the provision by the Company of various operating services for the sales of online stores opened by brand owners, including visual design, store operations, marketing campaigns and customer service.

Online retailing and distribution services include the online sales of products purchased by the Company from brand owners or their agents to consumers (2C) or other distribution channels (2B) through brand flagship stores or franchise stores operated on third-party platforms such as Tmall and JD.com as an authorised distributor for the brand owners.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

Our revenue increased by approximately RMB13.1 million or 6.0% to approximately RMB231.7 million for the Year, from approximately RMB218.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024. This was principally due to the increased revenue contribution from NSC Segment in the PRC and Singapore during the Year, contributing to approximately RMB6.0 million and RMB5.7 million, respectively. The increase was due to achieving more percentage of completion of certain high value contracts in the PRC, and delivering more products in NSC Segment in Singapore.

Costs of sales/services

Our costs of sales/services increased by approximately RMB20.7 million or 14.4% to approximately RMB164.3 million for the Year from approximately RMB143.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024. The increase in costs was mainly due to passthrough electronics and software cost inflation from our suppliers in the NSC and EC Segments in the PRC, causing an approximately RMB11.4 million and RMB6.6 million increase in cost of sales/services provided during the Year.

Gross profit

Our gross profit decreased by approximately RMB7.5 million or 10.1% to approximately RMB67.5 million for the Year from approximately RMB75.0 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 due to gross profit contributions from our NSC Segment in the PRC. The Group's gross profit margin decreased to 29.1% for the Year, from approximately 34.3% for the year ended 30 June 2024. The decrease in gross profit margin was due to the higher products and service costs with vendors in our NSC Segment during the Year.

Other income

Our other income increased by approximately RMB159 thousand or 90.3% to approximately RMB335 thousand for the Year from approximately RMB176 thousand for the year ended 30 June 2024. The increase was mainly attributed to the increase of approximately RMB209 thousand in the interest income, but was slightly offset by a decrease of approximately RMB62 thousand in government grants.

Other gains/(losses), net

Other losses decreased by approximately RMB39 thousand from other losses of approximately RMB39 thousand for the year ended 30 June 2024. The decrease of other loss for the Year was mainly attributable to the absence of the one-off impacts from the loss on early termination and modification of leases for the year ended 30 June 2024.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Selling and administrative expenses

The selling and administrative expenses decreased by approximately RMB14.7 million or 24.1% from approximately RMB60.9 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RMB46.2 million for the Year. The significant decrease was mainly due to the decrease of approximately RMB13.2 million in administrative costs related to the reduction of service fees, marketing and promotion expenses and transportation fees the operations of the Group's EC Segment in the PRC.

Selling and administrative staff costs

Payroll expenses decreased by approximately RMB0.3 million or 0.9%, from approximately RMB34.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024, to approximately RMB34.3 million for the Year. The decrease was mainly attributed to the decrease of payroll expenses related to operation in the Group's EC Segment in the PRC contributing an decrease of approximately RMB1.0 million. The decrease in payroll expenses are slightly offset by increase in headcount to 145 for the Year from 137 for the year ended 30 June 2024, resulting in an increase in staff costs of approximately RMB0.7 million.

Finance costs

Our finance costs increased to approximately RMB4.3 million for the Year, by approximately RMB0.1 million or 2.2%, from approximately RMB4.2 million for the year ended 30 June 2024. The was mainly due to an increase in the interest accrued from short-term interest-bearing loans from bank and other institutions in the Group's EC Segment during the Year.

Income tax expense

Our income tax expense decreased to approximately RMB0.3 million for the Year, by approximately RMB0.7 million or 70% from approximately RMB1.0 million for the year ended 30 June 2024. The decrease was primarily due to a decrease in taxable profits in the Group's NSC Segment in Singapore for the Year.

Loss and other comprehensive loss for the Year attributable to the owners of the Company

The Group recorded total comprehensive loss for the Year attributable to the owners of the Company of approximately RMB10.8 million for the Year. Compared to the total comprehensive loss of approximately RMB25.1 million for the year ended 30 June 2024, the decrease was principally caused by decreasing selling and administrative expenses for EC Segment in the PRC during the Year.

DIVIDEND

The Board does not recommend the payment of final dividend for the Year (2024: Nil).

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The Group financed our operations primarily through cash generated from our operating activities and financing activities.

Cash and cash equivalents

As at 30 June 2025 and 2024, our Group's bank balances and cash are denominated in the following currencies:

	For year ended 30 June

	RMB'000	RMB'000
Denominated in:
CNY	7,010	3,231
HKD	469	512
MYR	2,501	1,364
SGD	41,251	37,296
USD	4,724	1,650
VND	22	–
	55,977	44,053

Net current assets

As at 30 June 2025, the Group had net current assets of approximately RMB51.7 million (2024: approximately RMB70.6 million).

Total equity

The equity of the Group mainly comprises share capital, share premium and reserves. The Group's total equity attributable to the owners of the Company amounted to approximately RMB72.4 million (2024: approximately RMB86.8 million).

Borrowings

Our borrowings decreased by approximately RMB36.9 million or 47.1% to approximately RMB41.3 million as at 30 June 2025 from approximately RMB78.2 million as at 30 June 2024. The decrease was primarily due to the reduction of drawdown of unsecured bank borrowings in the PRC during the Year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

On 31 October 2023, the Company completed the placing of 142,628,000 new shares under General Mandate (the “Placing”) representing approximately 13.63% of the issued share capital of the Company as at 30 June 2024. EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICY

As at 30 June 2025, including our Directors, the Group had a total of 145 employees (30 June 2024: 137).

The Group recognises employees as valuable assets and our success is underpinned by our people. In line with our human resource policies, we are committed to providing attractive remuneration packages, and a fair and harmonious working environment to safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of our employees. The Group regularly reviews our human resource policies which outline the Group's compensation, working hours, rest periods and other benefits and welfare, to ensure compliance with laws and regulations. We always place emphasis on attracting qualified applicants by offering competitive remuneration packages. These packages are reviewed based on employees' performance and reference to prevailing market conditions, and are adjusted in a timely manner to keep them in line with market benchmarking.

The Group operates the retirement schemes for employees in Singapore outlined in the Central Provident Fund Act (Chapter 36 of Singapore), in Malaysia outlined in the Employee's Provident Fund Act 1991 and Employment Insurance System Act 2018 Laws of Malaysia, in Hong Kong outlined in the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap. 485), and in the PRC in accordance to Labour Law and Labour Contract Law of the PRC.

In addition, the Company has conditionally adopted a share option scheme (the "Share Option Scheme") on 14 December 2017 and a share award scheme (the "Share Award Scheme") on 18 February 2021 so as to motivate, attract and retain the right employees. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Capital management

Our Group manages its capital to ensure that it will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debt, which includes borrowings, net of bank balances and cash and equity attributable to owners of the Group, comprising share capital and other reserves.

The management of the Group reviews the capital structure from time to time. As a part of this review, the management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on recommendations of the management, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, the issue of new shares and new debts.

Financial risk management

Our Group's major financial instruments include trade and other receivables, bank balances and cash, trade and other payables, and borrowings. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risk (interest rate risk and currency risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

KEY FINANCIAL RATIOS

	For year ended 30 June
	2025 Times	2024 Times
Liquidity ratios
Current ratio	1.9	1.8
Quick ratio	1.5	1.1
Capital adequacy ratios
Gearing ratio	66.3%	100.4%

The calculation of current ratio is based on current assets divided by current liabilities.

The calculation of quick ratio is based on current assets less inventories divided by current liabilities.

The calculation of gearing ratio is based on interest-bearing liabilities divided by the total equity and multiplied by 100%.

Quick and current ratios

The quick ratio increased by 36.7% and current ratio increased by 6.1%, respectively during the Year. The quick ratio increased primarily due to (i) reduced drawdown of unsecured borrowings and receivable transfer arrangements and (ii) improved and faster inventory turnover during the Year in the EC Segment in the PRC. The current ratio increased slightly due to better strategic management of inventory and working capital flow in the NSC Segment in the PRC.

Gearing ratio

The decrease of gearing ratio is due to scheduled partial redemption and regular amortisation of unsecured bank borrowings in the EC Segment in the PRC during the Year.

REPORTING SCOPE AND STANDARDS

This Report is prepared in accordance with the “Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Code” (the “ESG Code”) as set out in Appendix C2 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) (the “GEM Listing Rules”).

This Report presents an annual update of the Group’s key performance indicators (“KPIs”), covering our operations in Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, and the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”). The information disclosed herein is based on the Group’s official records, statistical data, and consolidated management information provided by its subsidiaries.

The Group affirms that the contents of this Report are accurate, complete, and not misleading. The Board assumes overall responsibility for formulating the Group’s ESG strategy, overseeing its implementation, and ensuring accountability in relation to ESG matters. ESG performance is regularly monitored, reviewed, and reported to the Board to drive continuous improvement in operational practices and efficiency.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

REPORTING BASIS AND PRINCIPLES

This Report is prepared based on the ESG Code outlined in Appendix C2 of the GEM Listing Rules, as well as the four reporting principles – Materiality, Quantitative, Balance, and Consistency.

Materiality: The Group identifies key ESG issues through stakeholder engagement and materiality assessment. The Report prioritises these material ESG topics to ensure that disclosures are relevant and meaningful.

Quantitative: The Report discloses KPIs in quantitative terms, where feasible. Methodologies, assumptions used, and comparative data are provided to enable readers to assess and verify the Group's ESG policies and practices.

Balance: The Report comprehensively discloses the Group's ESG performance based on objective facts. Both achievements and challenges of the Group are identified in the Report.

Consistency: The Report uses consistent methodologies for meaningful comparisons unless improvements in methodology are identified.

The Report has fulfilled all “Comply or Explain” requirements and mandatory disclosures outlined in the ESG Code.

REVIEW AND APPROVAL

The Board has carefully reviewed and approved this Report. In doing so, the Board confirmed its overall responsibility for the Group's ESG governance, including assessing material ESG risks, defining the ESG strategy, and monitoring its effective implementation. The Board also ensures that the disclosures contained in this Report are fair, balanced, and reliable.

The Report will be available in both Chinese and English on the Stock Exchange website. If there is any discrepancy between the two versions, the English version shall prevail.

FEEDBACK

The Report is available in the “Financial Statement/Environment, Social and Governance Information” category of the Stock Exchange website or on the Group's Website. We welcome readers to provide feedback on this Report for the sustainability initiatives. Please share your views with us by email to info@ispg.hk. Your comments will be conducive for us to further refine this Report and enhance the Group's ESG performance.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

THE GROUP'S OVERVIEW

The Group operates two principal business segments. The E-commerce (“EC”) segment engages in brand e-commerce operations in the PRC, providing marketing, online agency operations, as well as online retailing and distribution services. The Networking, Sound and Communication (“NSC”) segment focuses on the sales and provision of integrated networking, sound and communication systems, as well as alert alarm system services to customers in Singapore, Malaysia, and the PRC. The two expanded business segments substantially boosted the growth in the overall annual revenue of the Group and achieved an annual revenue of approximately RMB231.7 million for the Year.

E-commerce

The Group provides brand e-commerce operations in the PRC, offering integrated solutions such as market analysis, digital marketing, online store management, consumer engagement, customer service, and logistics support. By connecting brand owners, e-commerce platforms, and consumers, we enable clients to expand market reach, enhance brand influence, and drive sustainable business growth. In addition, the Company has established its operation service team in Malaysia and plans to expand its e-commerce operation in Southeast Asia.

Through data-driven strategies and responsible operations, we support the development of an inclusive and efficient digital ecosystem. Our e-commerce services not only create value for brand owners and platforms but also contribute to ESG objectives by promoting responsible consumption, strengthening supply chain efficiency, and advancing innovation within the digital economy.

NSC Business

The Group's NSC segment across Singapore, Malaysia, and the PRC. We actively support clients in healthcare, education, public housing, and railway sectors by delivering customised and innovative system solutions that enhance operational efficiency, safety, and connectivity.

In Singapore and Malaysia, we continue to expand our offerings to meet rising demand in healthcare infrastructure, collaborating with stakeholders to introduce cloud-based solutions and advanced wired and wireless systems. In the PRC, we align with the government's digitalisation strategy by participating in major infrastructure and railway projects, contributing to the development of smart and digital cities.

Our NSC operations drive social values by strengthening public healthcare and housing systems, supporting digital transformation in communities, and enhancing safety and resilience in transportation infrastructure. Through sustainable innovation and stakeholder collaboration, we create shared value while advancing long-term industry and social development.

BOARD STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board, I am pleased to present this Report of ISP Global Limited for 2024/2025. The Board takes overall responsibility for the Group's ESG strategy and performance, and we recognise that embedding sustainability into our core business is essential to long-term growth and resilience.

The Group operates two principal business segments. In our E-commerce operations in the PRC, we help brand owners strengthen consumer engagement, enhance supply chain efficiency, and promote responsible consumption through digital platforms. In our Networking, Sound and Communication segment in Singapore, Malaysia, and the PRC, we contribute to community well-being and digital transformation by delivering innovative solutions that support healthcare, education, housing, and railway infrastructure. These activities reflect our commitment to creating value not only for shareholders but also for society.

During the year, the Board reviewed and assessed climate-related and social risks, and monitored the implementation of sustainability initiatives. We also prioritised stakeholder engagement, employee development, and operational efficiency to ensure our growth remains responsible and inclusive.

Looking ahead, we will continue to strengthen ESG governance, explore opportunities to reduce our environmental footprint, and align our business development with the needs of our stakeholders. With the support of our employees, partners, and customers, we are confident in delivering sustainable value and contributing to a more resilient future.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank our shareholders, employees, customers, and business partners for their trust and support. Together, we will continue to pursue sustainable growth and shared success.

Cao Chunmeng

Chairman

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

BOARD'S OVERSIGHT OF ESG ISSUES

The Board assumes overall responsibility for the Group's ESG matters, including the identification of material risks and opportunities, approval of ESG strategies, and oversight of their implementation. ESG performance is regularly reviewed and reported to the Board to ensure alignment with regulatory requirements, stakeholder expectations, and the principles of transparency, balance, and accountability set out in the ESG Code.

ESG WORKING GROUP

To strengthen ESG governance and ensure effective management of sustainability matters, the Group has established an ESG Working Group led by the Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and the Financial Controller (the “FC”). The ESG Working Group is responsible for coordinating ESG initiatives, monitoring related risks, and supporting the Board in overseeing ESG strategy and performance.

The ESG Working Group convenes at least annually to review material ESG issues, assess stakeholder concerns, and evaluate the progress of sustainability initiatives. It works closely with management and relevant departments to collect ESG data, monitor the implementation of measures, and ensure that appropriate policies are in place to manage and mitigate ESG-related risks. Through this structure, the Group enhances accountability, promotes cross-departmental collaboration, and drives continuous improvement in ESG performance.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

ESG MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The Group adopts a systematic ESG management approach by conducting annual materiality assessments to ensure alignment between identified ESG topics, operational priorities, and stakeholder expectations. Through ongoing stakeholder engagement, benchmarking against industry practices, and active communication with management, the Group identifies and prioritises critical ESG issues to enable effective embedding within business strategies. This process strengthens the Group's understanding of stakeholder concerns, supports comprehensive sustainable development planning, and guides the disclosure of material ESG areas in this Report.

REVIEW OF ESG-RELATED GOALS AND TARGETS

Monitoring the progress of target implementation and performance regularly is crucial to keep the Group on the right track. If there is a significant deviation from the target, it is necessary to revise strategies accordingly. Effective communication of goals and targets of key stakeholders is essential to make them feel like they are an integral part of the Group's journey towards the change. The ESG Working Group carefully evaluates the feasibility of targets by considering the Group's ambitions and goals. Throughout the year, the Groups established targets based on absolute measures.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

ENGAGEMENT WITH STAKEHOLDERS

The Group recognises that effective stakeholder engagement is fundamental to sustainable development and long-term value creation. We maintain ongoing dialogue with key stakeholders through a range of formal and informal channels. Feedback collected from stakeholders helps the Group to understand their expectations, identify material ESG issues, and continuously improve our strategies and performance. By fostering transparent communication and building trusted relationships, the Group ensures that sustainability considerations are fully integrated into its business operations and decision-making process. The table below illustrates various communication methods used by the Group to engage with each stakeholder:

Stakeholder Groups	Specific Stakeholders	Methods of Communication
Investors	- Shareholders - Potential investors	- Annual and interim financial report - Quarterly reports and announcements - General meetings - Corporate website - Disclosure of stock listing information
Employees	- Direct workers - Potential recruits - Senior Management - Staff	- Direct communication - Independent focus groups and interviews - Regular performance assessment - Training and seminars
Customers	- Singapore Government agencies - Private organisations - Ultimate users	- Customer assessment - Social media - Mechanism for processing complaints - Periodical meetings with contractors and customers
Supplier/Contractors	- Suppliers - Sub-contractors - Service providers	- Daily work review - Site inspection and meeting with subcontractors - Supplier assessment
Government	- National and local governments - Regulators	- Government initiatives - Written correspondence - Statutory reports and general disclosures
Community	National and local community organisations	- Internship programme - Volunteering activities

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

Stakeholder feedback serves as the best reference to enhance our operational performance and drive business development. Throughout the Year, the Group conducts internal and external materiality assessments to identify ESG issues that are deemed to be material to the Group. In the process of identifying the material topics, we incorporated the opinions and expectations of various stakeholders into our long-term ESG strategies.

The materiality assessment conducted in the Year has yielded a refined set of 19 material topics from an initial list of 22 potentially relevant issues. The materiality matrix visually depicts the relative importance of different issues to our stakeholders and our business operations. The matrix helped us to identify key issues of substantial importance to both parties. Issues falling within the top right-hand quadrant of the matrix were considered to be of high significance.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS

With increasing expectations from regulators, investors, and the wider community, environmental sustainability has become a core component of the Group's CSR. The Group is committed to operating in an environmentally responsible manner by optimising the use of resources, reducing emissions, and promoting sustainable practices across its value chain.

To strengthen environmental governance, the Group has established clear compliance policies and procedures that set out management directives on key environmental aspects. These measures not only ensure compliance with applicable regulations but also support continuous improvement in environmental performance. In addition, the Group actively promotes awareness of environmental responsibility among employees, suppliers, and other stakeholders, reinforcing a shared commitment to protecting the natural environment.

Emission Control

In response to pressing global environmental challenges, such as climate change, air pollution, and depletion of natural resources, the Group remains committed to the principles of environmental regulations while striving to integrate sustainability into our business operations.

As a non-manufacturing company primarily engaged in sound and communication system services and e-commerce solutions, the Group's operations do not generate significant environmental impacts. We do not produce hazardous waste, nor do our activities involve material consumption of energy or water resources. Our main sources of indirect greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions are electricity consumption at office premises and employee business travel. The Group does not use liquefied petroleum gas or other gases, and therefore has no relevant emissions to disclose for the Year.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

To mitigate air emissions and GHG emissions, we closely monitor the fuel consumption and travel logs of our motor vehicles, thereby avoiding unnecessary fuel use when transporting materials between project sites and offices. All vehicles are subject to regular maintenance to maximise fuel efficiency. Nitrogen Oxide (“NO_x”), Sulphur Oxide (“SO_x”), and Particulate Matter (“PM”) emissions from this source were all close to zero tonnes.

Recognising the impact of business-related air travel on our carbon footprint, the Group actively promotes the use of digital communication tools, including instant messaging, video conferencing, and teleconferencing, as alternatives whenever feasible.

The Group acknowledges that safeguarding the environment and promoting sustainable development require sustained collaboration across the value chain. We therefore continue to refine and improve mitigation measures to minimise both direct and indirect impacts arising from our operations. To address climate change while supporting business growth, the Group has set a target to reduce GHG emissions intensity per RMB1 million of annual revenue by 3% over the next five years, using the current year as a baseline.

Air emissions during the Year:

Air Pollutant Emissions¹	Unit(s)	2024/2025	2023/2024
NO _x	kg	5.35	5.52
SO _x	kg	0.11	0.11
PM	kg	0.39	0.41

¹ The data covers emissions from petrol consumption only. It is estimated based on “How to prepare an ESG Report? Appendix C2: Reporting Code on Environmental KPIs” published by the Stock Exchange.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

GHG emissions during the Year:

GHG Emission Types	Unit(s)	2024/2025	2023/2024
Direct emissions or removals from source (Scope 1)²
GHG emissions from mobile combustion sources
Carbon Dioxide (CO ₂)	tonne	16.89	17.43
Methane (CH ₄)	kg	50.70	52.33
Nitrous Oxide (N ₂ O)	tonne	2.10	2.16
Energy indirect emissions (Scope 2)³ – CO₂ equivalent
Electricity purchased from power companies	tonne	87.50	94.02
Other indirect emissions (Scope 3)⁴ – CO₂ equivalent
Paper waste disposed at landfills	tonne	4.56	5.76
Electricity used for fresh water and sewage processing	tonne	0.80	1.09
Business air travel by employees	tonne	21.43	52.43
Total emissions (Scope 1, 2 and 3)	tonne	133.33	172.94
Intensity ⁵	per million of annual revenue	0.58	0.79

Waste Management

The Group recognises the importance of responsible waste management as part of its environmental stewardship. We remain committed to adopting the principles of Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle across our operations to minimise the impact of waste on the environment.

As the Group is not engaged in manufacturing activities, our operations do not generate hazardous waste. The waste generated from our daily office activities primarily comprises non-hazardous solid waste, such as paper. These waste are collected and processed by government-approved service providers. In the PRC, a property management oversees the collection and disposal of office waste, while in Singapore, our office participates in the National Recycling Program, covering paper, plastic bottles and metal cans.

² Scope 1: The direct emissions from the business operations owned or controlled by the Group, including the emissions from the Group's Vehicle fleet.

³ Scope 2: The "indirect energy" emissions from the internal purchased electricity consumption by the Group.

⁴ Scope 3: All other indirect emissions that occur outside the Group, including both upstream and downstream emissions.

⁵ The Group's annual revenue in 2024/2025 is approximately RMB231.7 million. (2023/2024: RMB218.6 million).

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

To reduce our environmental footprint, the Group actively promotes sustainable practices, including:

- Encouraging employees to minimise the use of disposable items and adopt digital tools to reduce paper consumption;
- Implementing waste segregation at source and assigning responsible personnel to oversee the collection and disposal of recyclables; and
- Raising staff awareness through regular communication on sustainable office practices.

Waste	Unit(s)	2024/2025	2023/2024
Total non-hazardous waste	kg	949.67	1,193.20
Intensity	kg/employee	6.55	8.71

The Group does not generate hazardous waste. Therefore, the relevant KPIs were not applicable to the Group. Although comprehensive quantitative data and related KPIs on waste generation are currently not available to the Group, we acknowledge the importance of monitoring and transparency in this area. We will continue to work with the property manager and service providers to improve access to data and enhance disclosure quality over time.

Use of Resources

The Group acknowledges that responsible use of resources is central to sustainable development. While our business operations are primarily office-based and therefore have a relatively low environmental footprint compared with manufacturing industries, we remain committed to managing the consumption of energy, water, and office materials in a responsible and efficient manner.

Energy consumption represents the Group’s principal resource use. To mitigate our environmental impact and reduce operating costs, we have implemented measures to monitor and improve the efficiency of office equipment and daily operations. Employees are encouraged to adopt energy-saving practices, including switching off non-essential lighting and electrical appliances when not in use. We have also introduced practical initiatives such as installing separate light switches and motion sensors in less frequently used areas, maintaining average indoor temperatures at 25°C, and using energy-efficient appliances such as LED lighting, computers, and projectors.

In addition, the Group promotes responsible use of office materials by encouraging double-sided printing, digital filing instead of paper documentation, and routine maintenance of equipment to ensure efficiency. These practices not only reduce unnecessary resource consumption but also foster an environmentally conscious workplace culture.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Energy consumption during the Year:

Energy Consumption	Unit (s)	2024/2025	2023/2024
Direct energy consumption	MWh	69.36	71.60
	MWh/million of annual revenue	0.30	0.34
Indirect energy consumption ⁶	MWh	159.65	180.2
	MWh/million of annual revenue	0.69	0.82

As the packaging process of the Group is outsourced and/or completed by the suppliers. The Group does not input any significant packaging material into its products.

THE ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES

As a non-manufacturing organisation, the Group's operations have limited direct impact on the environment and natural resources. Nonetheless, we recognise that environmental protection is a shared responsibility and remain committed to managing our ecological footprint in a responsible and sustainable manner.

The Group takes into account the potential environmental and natural resource risks associated with its office-based activities, including energy consumption, paper usage, and water resources. We are mindful of how these resources are utilised in daily operations and strive to adopt conservation practices that minimise wastage and improve efficiency.

The Group acknowledges that ESG policies and practices are subject to ongoing evolution. This evolution is driven by shifts in business operations, organisational structures, technological advancements, legal and regulatory frameworks, environmental regulations, and broader environmental considerations.

Aligned with the Paris Agreement, which sets emissions reduction targets to mitigate global warming, provides a clear framework for collective climate action. In support of this global initiative, the Group is committed to mitigating climate-related risks through enhanced GHG emissions management and contributing to the transition towards a low-carbon economy. The Group has established a reduction target to lower electricity and paper consumption per employee by 25% by FY2025/2026, using FY2020/2021 intensity levels as the baseline. This target underscores our determination to align our operations with international climate action efforts. To achieve this target, the Group has adopted the principles of Reduce, Replace, and Reuse in line with national initiatives.

The Group also recognises the importance of monitoring progress. Management will perform periodic reviews and track progress against the target, with results disclosed in our annual ESG reporting. We are adopting recognised international frameworks, the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (the "TCFD"), to strengthen transparency in our climate-related disclosures.

⁶ Data of electricity consumption of the Group's operations in Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, and the PRC are covered.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group has adhered to all relevant environmental laws and regulations throughout the Year, including:

- Singapore: the Environmental Protection and Management Act 1999;
- Malaysia: the Environmental Quality Act 1974, the Water Services Industry Act 2006, and the Solid Waste and Public Cleansing Management Act 2007;
- Hong Kong: the Air Pollution Control Ordinance (Cap. 311), the Waste Disposal Ordinance (Cap. 354), and the Water Pollution Control Ordinance (Cap. 358); and
- The PRC: the Water Law, the Energy Law, the Energy Conservation Law, the Environmental Protection Law, and the Pollution Prevention and Control Law.

The Group has also complied with all environmental requirements imposed by its customers, as well as other applicable government regulations relevant to its operations.

During the Year, the Group was not aware of any instances of non-compliance with laws or regulations that had a material impact on the Group, including those relating to air and GHG emissions, noise control, discharges into water and land, and the generation of hazardous and non-hazardous waste.

Water Consumption ⁷	Unit (s)	2024/2025	2023/2024
Consumption for the year	m ³	1,438.50	1,684.30
	m ³ /million of annual revenue	6.21	7.70

The Group will continue to assess, record, and disclose its GHG emissions and other environmental data on an annual basis, and will regularly review the effectiveness of its existing measures to ensure continuous improvement.

Climate Change

In response to the escalating global challenge of climate change, the Group recognises both the risks and opportunities it presents to our business operations and long-term development. Climate change has the potential to disrupt supply chains, increase operating costs, and affect the resilience of the communities in which we operate. Accordingly, the Group has taken proactive measures to integrate climate-related considerations into our governance, strategy, and risk management frameworks.

⁷ Data of water consumption of the Group's operations in Singapore, Malaysia, and the PRC are covered. The water usage of the Hong Kong operations is not included as it is originally included in the property management fee, no record could be located.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Collaboration remains central to our approach. We actively engage employees, suppliers, customers, and local communities to encourage sustainable practices across our value chain. By fostering shared responsibility and collective action, the Group aims not only to reduce its environmental footprint but also to contribute meaningfully to global climate objectives.

In alignment with the recommendations of the TCFD, the Group has adopted a structured approach to identify, manage, and disclose climate-related risks and opportunities.

Core Element	The Group's Response
Governance	The Board provides oversight of climate-related issues and ensures that they are integrated into the Group's strategic planning. Management is responsible for implementing climate initiatives, monitoring progress, and reporting regularly to the Board. In addition, the Group has established an ESG Working Group to assist Management in executing climate-related strategies, coordinating cross-departmental initiatives, and ensuring compliance with relevant regulations and disclosure requirements.
Strategy	The Group has developed climate strategies aimed at reducing GHG emissions, enhancing energy efficiency, and promoting digital and low-carbon solutions across our operations. These strategies are aligned with the global transition towards a low-carbon economy and national climate goals, as well as the Paris Agreement's ambition of limiting global temperature rise.
Risk Management	Climate-related risks have been embedded into our enterprise risk management framework. We assess both physical risks and transition risks. Mitigation measures are implemented to safeguard business continuity and resilience.
Metrics and targets	The goals and targets that are used to manage relevant climate-related risks and opportunities are material to the Group.

Over the course of the Year, the Group has encountered and anticipates continued exposure to significant climate-related physical and transition risks that may affect various aspects of our business operations and strategic planning. These risks span multiple dimensions, including (i) the impact on operations, products, and services, (ii) supply chain and value chain resilience, (iii) the need for adaptation and mitigation measures, (iv) investment in innovation and technology, and (v) long-term financial planning.

In response, the Group has implemented a series of proactive measures to address and mitigate these risks. These initiatives include enhancing the climate resilience of our operations, advancing the development of low-carbon and energy-efficient products and services, and investing in digital solutions to reduce environmental impacts across our value chain. We also regularly review our risk management framework to ensure that emerging climate risks are adequately addressed and incorporated into our business strategies and financial planning.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Climate-related Risks Description	Mitigation Responses
Physical risks (Acute)
• The heightened occurrence of floods, typhoons, and severe storms can endanger employee safety and damage the Group's physical assets, such as equipment, documents, systems, and inventory. In the event of extreme weather, the potential for facility disruptions and damages may lead to increased costs for repair, maintenance, and business continuity measures. • Extreme weather events can significantly disrupt logistics operations, impacting the timely delivery of products and services, and creating instability within the supply chain. Furthermore, climate-related risks may lead to increased insurance premiums, with the availability of coverage in high-risk areas potentially being reduced.	• The Group has implemented a comprehensive disaster recovery and business continuity plan, which includes securing office spaces and ensuring that all employees are trained on emergency evacuation procedures. • Offices in high-risk areas will implement appropriate measures to ensure the safety of personnel and vital documents during extreme weather events. Physical documents will be moved away from windows and securely stored. Where possible, electronic backups of all critical files will be created to prevent data loss. • The Group has adopted a diversified supply chain strategy to mitigate the risk of disruptions in any single location. By sourcing from multiple regions and suppliers, we minimise the impact of location-specific disruptions. Additionally, we work with logistics partners to improve resilience and explore alternative transport routes to reduce the risk of delays.
Physical risks (Chronic)
• Rising temperatures due to climate change can significantly increase operational costs, particularly for air conditioning systems required to maintain comfortable working environments. Heatwaves also pose health risks to employees, potentially reducing productivity. • Climate change is exacerbating extreme weather events, contributing to water scarcity, particularly in regions like China. As paper is a critical resource for office operations and wood is a primary raw material for its production, prolonged periods of extreme weather could disrupt the supply of wood, affecting paper availability.	• To enhance energy efficiency and employee comfort, the Group uses direct current variable-frequency air conditioners, featuring automatic controls and adjustable temperature settings to minimise energy consumption. • Energy-saving notices are displayed at different locations of the operations to remind employees to switch off the electrical appliances that are not in use.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Climate-related Risks Description

Mitigation Responses

Transition risks (Policy and legal risks)

- Governments are intensifying their climate ambitions through stricter regulations and policy frameworks. In the PRC, the national “30.60” decarbonisation target commits to peak carbon emissions by 2030 and achieve carbon neutrality by 2060. In Singapore, the Singapore Green Plan 2030 supports the UN’s 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda and the Paris Agreement, aiming for net-zero emissions by 2050. These initiatives are expected to drive changes in the power sector, potentially resulting in higher energy costs for the Group and its suppliers, with knock-on effects on operational expenditure.
- Increased government regulation and oversight also elevate the risk of litigation if companies fail to comply with evolving climate-related laws and disclosure requirements. For the Group, timely adaptation to these regulatory developments is essential to avoid legal exposure and reputational risks.

- The Group actively monitors updates to relevant policies, laws, and international agreements to ensure full compliance. We integrate regulatory changes into our strategic and operational planning to minimise unexpected costs and ensure operational resilience.
- Recognising the importance of energy management and emissions reduction, the Group has adopted energy-saving strategies across its offices and operations, including electricity reduction targets and digitalisation of processes to cut paper consumption.
- In addition, the Group conducts supplier assessments to evaluate energy and emissions management practices. We encourage suppliers to adopt energy management systems, monitor energy and resource consumption, and implement energy-efficient technologies to align with global low-carbon transition goals.

Transition risks (Technology risks)

- For the E-commerce segment, resilience on digital platforms necessitates ongoing improvements in cloud computing, data analytics, and energy-efficient IT infrastructure. The introduction of greener technologies could increase operating costs in the short term as legacy systems are replaced, while failure to adopt could reduce competitiveness and efficiency.
- For the NSC segment, advancements in smart infrastructure and green building technologies are reshaping customer requirements in healthcare, housing, and transaction sectors. Clients increasingly demand energy-efficient and low-carbon system solutions. The inability to keep pace with these technological expectations may limit market opportunities and reduce client trust.

- The Group actively collaborate with technology providers and industry stakeholders to adopt energy-efficient hardware, cloud-based platforms, and smart communication systems that reduce emissions and resource consumption.

Climate-related Risks Description

Mitigation Responses

Transition risks (Market risks)

|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Growing public awareness of climate change and sustainability is reshaping consumer behaviour and driving demand for environmentally friendly products and services. Failure to respond promptly to these evolving expectations or competitors' ability to address them more effectively could negatively impact the Group's market share, business growth, and financial performance. • In addition, as suppliers adopt more sustainable practices to align with international standards, procurement costs may rise. These changes include investments in green infrastructure, such as facilities designed in accordance with Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards, as well as the substitution of raw materials and equipment with lower-carbon alternatives. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group's E-commerce segment offers strong flexibility, enabling us to actively monitor consumer preferences and collaborate with suppliers and e-commerce platforms to adjust our product and service offerings in a timely manner. This allows us to capture opportunities while meeting shifting market demands. • The Group is committed to identifying and investing in innovative solutions that enhance operational efficiency, optimise resource utilisation, and reduce emissions across our operations. Although these initiatives may incur higher upfront costs, they are expected to strengthen long-term competitiveness, enhance customer trust, and generate lasting benefits for both the Group and society. |

Transition risks (Reputation risks)

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heightened stakeholder expectations regarding sustainability performance and climate responsibility may expose the Group to reputational risks if our practices are perceived as insufficient or inconsistent with market norms and global best practices. Negative public perception could undermine customer trust, brand value, and investor confidence. • Increasing scrutiny from investors, regulators, and civil society organisations also raises the risk of adverse publicity should the Group fail to meet climate-related commitments or disclose environmental data transparently. Such outcomes could reduce access to capital markets or affect our ability to attract and retain key talent. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group actively manages these risks by strengthening ESG governance, integrating climate considerations into corporate strategy, and maintaining regular engagement with stakeholders to understand their evolving expectations. • To further mitigate reputational risks, the Group commits to transparent disclosure of climate-related data and targets, alignment with recognised reporting frameworks, and continuous improvement in environmental performance. • The Group places strong emphasis on customer feedback, recognising it as a critical factor in maintaining trust and safeguarding our reputation. By systematically gathering and incorporating feedback, we drive continuous improvement in our operations, products, and services. |

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

In addition to addressing climate-related risks, the Group also recognises the opportunities arising from the global transition towards a low-carbon economy. These opportunities are closely linked to our long-term strategy and business model, and they provide potential for both operational efficiency and business growth.

Opportunity	The Group's Response	Potential Financial Impact
Resource Efficiency	- Adoption of energy-efficient office systems (e.g., variable-frequency air conditioners). - Promotion of energy-saving practices across operations.	- Reduced energy consumption and utility expenses. - Improved cost competitiveness.
Supply Chain Resilience	- Conducting supplier sustainability assessments. - Prioritising environmentally responsible suppliers.	- Lower procurement risks. - Stable sourcing of materials. - Strengthened supplier relationships.
Market Differentiation & Consumer Preference	- Expansion of eco-friendly products and solutions in both E-commerce and NSC segments. - Alignment with growing consumer demand for sustainable offerings.	- Increased revenue from eco-conscious customers. - Enhanced market share. - Stronger brand reputation.
Access to Green Finance & Incentives	- Exploring green financing options. - Leveraging government subsidies for low-carbon initiatives.	- Lower financing costs. - Improved access to capital. - Enhanced investor confidence.
Innovation & Technology	- Invested in digitalisation, sustainable technologies, and smart systems. - Development of solutions that reduce emissions and improve efficiency.	- New revenue streams. - Enhanced competitiveness. - Long-term value creation.

In line with the recommendations of the TCFD, the Group continues to identify and pursue opportunities arising from the transition to a low-carbon economy. These opportunities not only mitigate climate-related risks but also enable the Group to improve operational efficiency, enhance resilience, and create long-term value for stakeholders.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

SOCIAL ASPECTS

The Group recognises that our long-term success is closely linked to our ability to create a positive impact on people, including our employees, customers, suppliers, and the broader communities in which we operate. Social sustainability is therefore embedded as a core pillar of our ESG strategy.

We are committed to fostering a safe, inclusive, and supportive workplace, ensuring that our employees are equipped with the skills and resources necessary to thrive. Beyond the workplace, we prioritise responsible relationships with our business partners and suppliers, and strive to deliver high-quality, reliable, and sustainable products and services to our customers. The Group aims to strengthen trust with stakeholders, drive sustainable growth, and create lasting social value.

Employment and Labour Practices

The Group is committed to fostering a fair, diverse, and inclusive workplace where all employees are treated with dignity and respect. We believe that a strong and engaged workforce is fundamental to our long-term success and is an essential pillar of our ESG strategy.

We strive to ensure equal opportunities in recruitment, development, and advancement, irrespective of gender, age, ethnicity, nationality, marital status, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected characteristic. Our human resources policies are designed to safeguard fairness and transparency across recruitment, compensation, training, performance evaluation, and promotion processes.

To support employee well-being and strengthen talent retention, we provide competitive remuneration and benefits packages that align with prevailing market standards and reward individual competencies, qualifications, and performance. In addition to statutory contributions and benefits, the Group also implements incentive schemes to recognise employee achievements. We conduct annual performance evaluations to provide constructive feedback, identify areas for improvement, and create opportunities for career advancement.

The Group fully complies with labour-related laws and regulations in all jurisdictions where we operate, including:

- Singapore: Employment Act 1968, Central Provident Fund Act 1953;
- Malaysia: Employment Act 1955, Employees' Provident Fund Act 1991, and Employment Insurance System Act 2017;
- Hong Kong: Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57), Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap. 485), and Minimum Wage Ordinance (Cap. 608); and
- The PRC: Labour Law and Labour Contract Law of the PRC.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Beyond compliance, the Group remains dedicated to fostering long-term talent development. We invest in training programmes to equip employees with the skills needed to adapt to technological advancements, market developments, and ESG-related knowledge. This approach strengthens our human capital, supports employee career growth, and ensures the Group's sustainable development.

Staff Composition

As at 30 June 2025, we employed a total of 145 staff, including 144 (2023/2024: 137) full-time (including independent non-executive director) and 1 (2023/2024: nil) part-time staff.

Health and Safety

The Group places paramount importance on safeguarding the health, safety, security, and well-being of its employees. While the inherent occupational health and safety (“OHS”) risks in our business operations remain relatively low, we are committed to upholding high standards of workplace safety through continuous improvement, robust compliance, and proactive risk management.

⁸ Turnover rate = Number of employees in the specified category left the Group during the Year/Number of employees in the specified category as at the end of the Year. The Group had a total of 9 employees left the Group during the Year.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Our safety rules and policies are fully aligned with all relevant laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- Singapore: Work Injury Compensation Act 1968, Workplace Safety and Health Act 2006;
- Malaysia: Occupational Safety and Health Act 1994, Workmen's Compensation Act 1952, Employees' Social Security Act 1969;
- Hong Kong: Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap. 282), Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance (Cap. 509); and
- The PRC: Law on the Prevention and Control of Occupational Diseases (2016), Regulation on Work-Related Injury Insurance, Work Safety Law of the PRC (2021 Revision).

To ensure comprehensive coverage, the Group maintains appropriate compensation and medical insurance schemes for employees across all jurisdictions. For example, in Singapore, all office employees are covered by group hospitalisation and surgical insurance in compliance with Ministry of Manpower requirements, while employees in Hong Kong, the PRC, and Malaysia are insured under work injury compensation schemes in accordance with regulatory standards. Additionally, the Group provides essential protective equipment such as helmets, safety shoes, and safety goggles at its offices and project sites, all of which have passed relevant governmental safety inspections.

The Group is fully committed to complying with all applicable workplace safety and health regulations. We require all employees and subcontractors to adhere strictly to our comprehensive safety policies while carrying out their duties. In line with the Workplace Safety and Health (Construction) Regulations 2007, our employees receive the requisite health and safety training and certifications to effectively supervise or oversee worksite activities. The Group has obtained BizSafe Level 3 certification, underscoring our dedication to maintaining a safe and secure working environment. To reinforce this commitment, we provide regular safety training programmes, conduct risk assessments prior to site deployment to identify potential OHS hazards, and ensure that our project implementation and safety teams carry out pre-execution site safety briefings as well as routine on-site inspections during project execution. These initiatives serve to remind workers of precautionary and preventive measures.

In addition, we conduct periodic internal audits to verify compliance with our systems, manuals, and procedures, ensuring continuous improvement in workplace health and safety management.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

In response to evolving global health concerns, including communicable disease outbreaks, the Group has embedded health resilience measures into daily operations. These include proactive dissemination of health and hygiene guidance and establishment of flexible work arrangements where appropriate.

For each of the past three financial years, including the Year, the Group recorded no work-related fatalities and no lost days due to work injury.

As at 30 June 2025, the Group was not aware of any cases of non-compliance with laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the Group in relation to providing a safe working environment and protecting employees from occupational hazards.

Development and Training

Recognising the pivotal role of human capital in sustaining long-term business growth, the Group is committed to providing equal opportunities for training, development, and career progression to all employees. We regard talent development as a strategic priority and strive to cultivate a learning culture that enhances both individual competencies and organisational resilience.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Our comprehensive training and development programmes aim to improve employee efficiency, technical skills, and professional knowledge, while fostering a deeper understanding of roles and responsibilities. These programmes encompass a wide spectrum of training areas, including but not limited to:

Training Areas	Course Names
Workplace Safety and Health (WSH)	- Workplace Safety and Health Management in Construction Industry (WSHMCII). - CSOC Recertification Assessment. - WSH Microlearning (Construction Worker) – Tamil. - Apply Workplace Safety and Health in Construction Sites (Formerly known as CSOC).

Senior Management	2.23	4.76
Middle Management	–	4.83
General Staff	2.59	4.74

By investing in continuous learning, we aim to equip employees with up-to-date industry insights, best practices, and technical expertise that directly enhance job performance and innovation. Knowledge gained is further disseminated within teams to strengthen collective capabilities.

The Group provides regular briefings to all directors to enhance and refresh their knowledge and skills, ensuring they remain well-informed of their duties, responsibilities, and regulatory developments. To further support professional growth and align with the Group's long-term development objectives, we actively encourage employees to attend external seminars, conferences, and industry workshops. Employees who successfully complete professional examinations or obtain recognised vocational qualifications are eligible for training sponsorship from the Group.

Labour Standards

The Group acknowledges that child labour and forced labour are serious violations of fundamental human rights and contravene international labour conventions. We recognise that such practices undermine sustainable social and economic development and contradict our core values of fairness, integrity, and respect.

Accordingly, the Group strictly complies with all relevant laws and regulations across the regions in which we operate, including but not limited to:

- Singapore: Children and Young Persons Act 1993, the Employment Act 1968, and the Prevention of Human Trafficking Act 2014;
- Malaysia: Children and Young Persons (Employment) Act 1966 and the Employment Act 1955;
- Hong Kong: Employment of Children Regulations and Employment of Young Persons (Industry) Regulations under the Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57); and
- The PRC: Labour Contract Law and the Provisions on the Prohibition of Using Child Labour.

¹⁰ Average training hours = Total training hours for employees in the specified category during the Year/ Total number of employees in the specified category at the end of the Year.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group maintains a strict prohibition against child labour and forced labour across all business operations and supply chains. During recruitment, we conduct stringent identity verification procedures, including checks on official identity cards or equivalent documentation, to ensure candidates meet statutory age requirements. Employment is based on mutual consent, with contracts signed by both parties to clearly define rights, responsibilities, and working conditions. We expressly prohibit exploitative practices such as withholding of wages, deposits, or documents, and any form of coercion that may compel individuals to work against their free will.

For the Year, the Group was not aware of any cases on non-compliance with laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the Group in relation to preventing child and forced labour.

Supply Chain Management

The Group recognises that an effective and responsible supply chain is fundamental to ensuring quality, efficiency, and sustainability in our operations. We work closely with our suppliers and subcontractors to enhance operational procedures, improve service quality, and embed responsible sourcing practices throughout the supply chain.

The Group has established a rigorous supplier selection, evaluation, and monitoring framework. Supplier assessments take into account multiple dimensions, including:

- Quality and reliability of goods and services delivered;
- Timeliness in meeting contractual obligations;
- Responsiveness and cooperation in addressing project requirements; and
- Compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and ESG standards.

The Group maintains and regularly updates an approved supplier list to ensure only qualified partners are engaged. Suppliers that fail to meet the required performance benchmarks or compliance expectations are subject to remediation requests, and in cases of persistent underperformance, are removed from the list.

All materials delivered are subject to stringent inspection by designated site staff prior to acceptance. Any defective or substandard items are promptly rejected and replaced to safeguard quality and safety. In line with our sustainability objectives, the Group actively seeks to minimise its carbon footprint by prioritising the use of local and regional suppliers where feasible. This approach not only reduces transportation-related emissions but also supports local economic development.

To strengthen long-term resilience, the Group is also incorporating ESG considerations into supplier management practices, such as compliance with labour standards, occupational health and safety requirements, and environmental protection measures. Going forward, we aim to progressively enhance supplier engagement by promoting sustainable practices, encouraging transparency, and exploring opportunities for joint improvement initiatives.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

For the year, the number of suppliers by geographical region of the Group was as follows:

Number of Suppliers by Geographical Region	2024/2025	2023/2024
Asia (excluding Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, and the PRC)	4	5
Australia	1	1
Europe	8	9

Product Responsibility

The Group is committed to continuous innovation and enhancement of its products and services, drawing on customer feedback and evolving industry trends. For our E-commerce business division, designated departmental contact details are clearly displayed on online platforms to facilitate customer inquiries, feedback, and complaints. The responsible team responds promptly and provides tailored solutions within defined timeframes. Where goods returns or compensation are required, such cases are handled in strict accordance with the Group's established internal procedures. We also place strong emphasis on transparency in communication by ensuring that all marketing materials contain accurate and reliable information, while strictly prohibiting the use of any false, misleading, or exaggerated claims.

In our sound and communication services business, product safety and service quality remain top priorities. Our project management team carries out regular on-site safety supervision and inspection exercises to monitor the quality of services delivered. Any safety issues or performance gaps identified are addressed and rectified within specified timeframes to ensure compliance with both internal and external standards.

The Group's commitment to delivering safe, reliable, and high-quality products and services is further supported by our robust Quality Management System (QMS), which is certified to the internationally recognised ISO 9001:2015 standard by SGS International Certification Services Singapore Pte Ltd. Through the QMS, we demonstrate our ability to consistently meet customer expectations while reinforcing a culture of continual improvement and accountability.

Product Recall

As a distributor, the Group is committed to working closely with product manufacturers to address any identified product defects. In the event of a recall, we play a critical role in coordinating effective communication with consumers, e-commerce platforms, and other relevant stakeholders. Together with product producers, we ensure that accurate and timely information is disseminated through multiple channels, including company websites, customer service hotlines, and social media platforms. Our foremost priority in such situations is to safeguard consumer health and safety by swiftly and efficiently removing affected products from the market.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

During the Year, there were no product recalls relating to safety or health issues in our E-Commerce business. Furthermore, we did not receive any complaints or claims from customers regarding the quality of work performed by the Group or its subcontractors. The Board attributes this positive outcome to the effectiveness of the Group's stringent quality control measures and monitoring practices.

Protection of Intellectual Property Rights and Data Privacy

The Group is committed to safeguarding intellectual property ("IP") rights and ensuring the confidentiality of personal and business data collected from customers, business partners, and employees. We strictly adhere to all applicable laws and regulations across the jurisdictions in which we operate, including but not limited to:

- Singapore: Personal Data Protection Act 2012, Copyright Act 2021, Patents Act 1994, and Trade Marks Act 1998;
- Malaysia: Personal Data Protection Act 2010, Copyright Act 1987, Patents Act 1983, Trade Marks Act 2019;
- Hong Kong: Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486), Copyright Ordinance (Cap. 528), and Trade Marks Ordinance (Cap. 559); and
- The PRC: Personal Information Protection Law, Copyright Law, Patent Law, and Trademark Law.

All employees are required to sign employment contracts that explicitly prohibit unauthorised disclosure of confidential or proprietary information. The Group reinforces this commitment through internal training programmes and confidentiality agreements, ensuring employees understand their responsibilities regarding data protection and IP rights.

The Group regularly reviews operational contracts to safeguard IP rights and requires suppliers and subcontractors to comply with relevant IP and data privacy laws. Marketing and advertising activities are conducted in a fair and transparent manner, with all customer-facing communications reflecting accurate and truthful information. Dedicated customer service channels, including hotlines and email support, are maintained to address inquiries, complaints, and any redress matters.

For the Year, the Group was not aware of any cases of non-compliance with laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the Group in relation to health and safety, advertising, labelling and privacy matters relating to products and services provided and methods of redress.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

ANTI-CORRUPTION

The Group recognises the paramount importance of business ethics and integrity and is committed to being a trusted partner to our customers, suppliers, and other stakeholders. We strictly comply with all relevant anti-corruption and competition laws and regulations across the jurisdictions in which we operate, including but not limited to:

- Singapore: Prevention of Corruption Act 1960 and Competition Act 2004;
- Malaysia: Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009;
- Hong Kong: Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (Cap. 201), Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance (Cap. 615), and Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619); and
- The PRC: Anti-Money Laundering Law, Criminal Law, and Anti-Unfair Competition Law.

The Group has implemented comprehensive anti-corruption and conflict-of-interest policies that explicitly prohibit all forms of bribery, extortion, fraud, improper inducements, kickbacks, or other unethical advantages in business dealings. These policies are communicated to all employees during induction training and are readily accessible in the Staff Handbook.

The Group has established a Code of Ethics outlining expected behaviours regarding anti-corruption, anti-bribery, conflicts of interest, gift-giving, and procurement practices. Regular training sessions are conducted for both management and employees to strengthen ethical awareness and promote best practices across all business operations.

The Group also maintains a Whistle-Blowing Policy providing a secure and confidential channel for reporting actual or suspected misconduct, including financial irregularities, internal control breaches, or unethical conduct. Reports can be submitted via the designated email, whistleblowing@ispg.hk, and the policy protects individuals from retaliation. All reports are investigated confidentially to safeguard anonymity.

For the Year, the Group was not aware of any cases of non-compliance with laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the Group in relation to bribery, extortion, fraud, and money laundering.

GIVING BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

The Group is committed to fostering meaningful and lasting relationships with the communities in which we operate. We actively engage with local stakeholders to understand community needs and provide targeted support through initiatives that promote social well-being, inclusivity, and education.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

During the Year, the Group continued to participate in community programs, volunteer activities, and skills-sharing initiatives, helping to strengthen local social infrastructure and support underrepresented groups. By encouraging employee involvement in these initiatives, we cultivate a culture of social responsibility within the organisation and contribute to the sustainable development of the communities we serve.

The Group recognises that building strong community ties not only supports social development but also reinforces our commitment to ethical business practices, shared value creation, and long-term positive impact on society.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company is committed to maintaining good corporate governance to improve accountability and transparency, and to safeguard the interest of shareholders.

The Company has adopted the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (the “CG Code”) contained in Appendix 15 of the GEM Listing Rules during the Year and up to the date of this report (the “Relevant Period”). Having made specific enquires of the Directors, all the Directors have confirmed that they have complied with the required CG Code’s standard for the Relevant Period.

DIRECTORS’ SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted Rules 5.48 to 5.67 of the GEM Listing Rules as the code of conduct regarding directors’ securities transactions by Directors in respect of the shares of the Company (the “Code of Conduct”). After specific enquires by the Company, all Directors have confirmed that they have fully complied with the required standard of dealings set out in the Code of Conduct during the Relevant Period.

The Board has also adopted the Code to regulate all dealings by relevant employees who are likely to be in possession of unpublished inside information of the Company in respect of securities in the Company as referred to in code provision C.1.3 of the CG Code. No incident of non-compliance with the Code by the Company’s relevant employees was noted during the year ended 30 June 2025 after making reasonable enquiries.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company is headed by an effective Board which assumes responsibility for its leadership and control and is collectively responsible for promoting the Company’s success by directing and supervising its affairs. Directors take decisions objectively in the best interests of the Company. The Board meets regularly and regular board meetings are held four times a year at quarterly intervals.

BOARD COMPOSITION

The Company is committed to the view that the Board should include a balanced composition of executive and non-executive Directors (including independent non-executive Directors) so that there is an independent element on the Board, which can effectively exercise independent judgement, and that non-executive Directors should be of sufficient calibre and number for their views to carry weight.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

- Develop and review of the Group's policies and practices on corporate governance;
- Review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of directors and senior management;
- Review and monitor the Group's policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- Develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual applicable to employees and directors; and
- Review the Group's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in the corporate governance report.

During the Relevant Period, the Board had reviewed and discussed the corporate governance policy of the Group and was satisfied with the effectiveness of the corporate governance policy of the Group.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The roles and duties of the chairman of the Board and the chief executive of the Company are carried out by different individuals to achieve a balance of authority and power, which is in compliance with Code Provision C.2.1 of the CG Code.

Currently, Mr. Cao takes up the role of chairman of the Board and Mr. Han Bing takes up the role of chief executive officer of the Company. The Board considers that this structure could enhance efficiency in formulation and implementation of the Company's strategies.

BOARD COMMITTEES

To facilitate the work of the Board, the Board has established three board committees of the Company to oversee specific aspects of the Group's affairs, namely audit committee (the "Audit Committee"), remuneration committee (the "Remuneration Committee") and nomination committee (the "Nomination Committee"). Each board committee has its own terms of reference relating to its authority and duties, which have been approved by the Board and are reviewed periodically. The terms of reference of each committee are available on the websites of the Company and the Stock Exchange.

Each board committee has also been provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties and, upon reasonable request, is able to seek independent profession advice in appropriate circumstances at the Group's expense.

Audit Committee

The Group established the Audit Committee on 14 December 2017 with written terms of reference in compliance with Rule 5.29 of the GEM Listing Rules and paragraph D.3.3 of the CG Code. The primary duties of our Audit Committee include, among others, (a) making recommendations to our Board on the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the external auditor and approving the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor; (b) reviewing our financial statements, our annual report and accounts, our half-year report, and quarterly report and significant financial reporting judgements contained therein; and (c) reviewing our financial controls, internal control and risk management systems. Our Audit Committee comprises three INEDs, namely Mr. Zheng Xiaorong, Mr. Yan Xiaotian and Mr. Tang Chi Wai. Mr. Tang Chi Wai is the chairman of our Audit Committee.

During the Year, the Audit Committee held four meetings, at which it has reviewed and discussed (i) the Group's consolidated financial results for the Year, including the accounting principles and practice adopted by the Group, (ii) the Company's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in this Corporate Governance Report, (iii) the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems as well as the Group's internal audit function, (iv) considered, adopted and/or recommended to the Board the amendments to the terms of reference of the Audit Committee and (v) met with the external auditor, Moore CPA Limited ("Moore") and approved the audit strategy. The Audit Committee has also recommended to the Board to consider the re-appointment of Moore as the Company's external independent auditors at the forthcoming AGM.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Nomination Committee

The Group established the Nomination Committee on 14 December 2017 with written terms of reference in compliance with paragraph B.3.1 of the CG Code. The primary duties of our Nomination Committee include, among others, (a) reviewing the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge and experience) of our Board at least annually and making recommendations on any proposed changes to our Board to complement our corporate strategy; (b) identifying individuals suitably qualified to become members of our Board and selecting or making recommendations to our Board on the selection of individuals nominated for directorships; (c) assessing the independence of our INEDs; and (d) making recommendations to our Board on the appointment and succession planning for our Directors. Having reviewed the composition of the Board, the Nomination Committee considered that there is an appropriate balance of board diversity. As at the date of this annual report, the Board has one female Director out of nine Directors. The Board will maintain at least the current level of female representation on the Board, and in any event not less than the requirements under the GEM Listing Rules. Our Nomination Committee comprises three INEDs, namely Mr. Zheng Xiaorong, Mr. Yan Xiaotian and Mr. Tang Chi Wai, two executive Directors, namely Mr. Cao Chunmeng and Ms. Choon Shew Lang. Mr. Cao is the chairman of our Nomination Committee.

During the Year, the Nomination Committee held one meeting, at which it (i) assessed the independence of the INEDs, (ii) recommended to the Board for consideration the re-appointment of all the retiring Directors at the forthcoming AGM, (iii) considered and approved of the appointment and retirement of Directors, and (iv) considered, adopted and/or recommended to the Board the amendments to the policy of Board diversity, nomination policy and terms of reference of the Nomination Committee.

Remuneration Committee

The Group established the Remuneration Committee on 14 December 2017 with written terms of reference in compliance with Rule 5.35 of the GEM Listing Rules and paragraph E.1.2 of the CG Code. The primary duties of our Remuneration Committee, under the principle that no Director or any of his associates should be involved in deciding his own remuneration include, among others, making recommendations to our Board on (a) our remuneration policy and structure for all of our Directors and senior management; (b) the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policies; (c) the remuneration packages of our executive Directors and senior management, including benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments, including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their offices or appointments; (d) the remuneration of our non-executive Directors; and (e) the review and/or approval of matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 23 of the GEM Listing Rules. Our Remuneration Committee comprises two INEDs, namely Mr. Yan Xiaotian and Mr. Tang Chi Wai and one executive Director namely Mr. Han Bing. Mr. Yan Xiaotian is the chairman of our Remuneration Committee.

During the Year, the Remuneration Committee held one meeting, at which it (i) reviewed the remuneration policy and structure for as well as the remuneration packages of all Directors and the senior management, (ii) considered and approved of remuneration package of executive Directors, and (iii) to consider, approve and make recommendation to the Board in relation to the grant of share awards to employees of the Group under the Share Award Scheme. No Director was involved in deciding his/her own remuneration.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

During the Relevant Period, the Board has adopted a policy of the Board diversity (the “Board Diversity Policy”) which sets out the approach to achieve a sustainable and balanced development of the Company and also to enhance the quality of performance of the Company.

In designing the Board’s composition, the Company considers diversity of board members through a number of aspects, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, industry experience, technical and professional experience, skills and/or qualifications, knowledge, length of service and time to be devoted as a director. The Company will also take into account factors relating to its own business model and specific needs from time to time. The ultimate decision is based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board.

As at the date of this report, the Board consists of one female Director and eight male Directors. The Nomination Committee has reviewed the Board Diversity Policy to ensure its effectiveness and considered that the Group achieved the objectives of its Board Diversity Policy for the Relevant Period.

The Group has also taken, and continues to take, steps to promote diversity at all levels of its workforce. As at 30 June 2025, the male to female ratio in the workforce of the Group including senior management is approximately 67:33. The Board considers that the gender diversity in workforce is currently achieved.

NOMINATION POLICY

The Company has adopted nomination policy (the “Nomination Policy”) for the purpose to identify and evaluate a candidate for nomination to the Board for appointment or to the shareholders for election as a Director. The Nomination Committee shall consider, among others, the following criteria in evaluating and selecting candidates for directorships:

- Reputation for integrity;
- Accomplishment, experience and reputation in the relevant industry and other relevant sectors;
- Commitment in respect of sufficient time, interest and attention to the Company’s business;
- Diversity in all aspects, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, experience (professional or otherwise), skills and knowledge;
- The ability to assist and support management and make significant contributions to the Company’s success;
- Compliance with the criteria of independence as prescribed under Rule 5.09 of the GEM Listing Rules for the appointment of an independent non-executive Director; and
- Any other relevant factors as may be determined by the Nomination Committee or the Board from time to time.

Each proposed new appointment, election or re-election of a director shall be assessed and/or considered against the criteria and qualifications set out in the Nomination Policy by the Nomination Committee which shall recommend its views to the Board and/or the shareholders for consideration and determination.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

DIVIDEND POLICY

The Company has adopted dividend policy (the “Dividend Policy”) in compliance with code provision F.1.1 of the CG Code. It is the policy of the Company, in considering the payments of dividends and to allow shareholders of the Company to participate in the Company’s profits whilst retaining adequate reserves for future growth of the Group.

Under the Dividend Policy, in deciding whether to propose a dividend and in determining the dividend amount, the Board shall take into account, inter alia:

- the general financial condition of the Group;
- capital and debt level of the Group;
- future cash requirements and availability for business operations, business strategies and future development needs;
- any restrictions on payment of dividends that may be imposed by the Group’s lenders;
- the general market conditions; and
- any other factors that the Board deems appropriate.

The payment of the dividend by the Company is also subject to any restrictions under the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands and any other applicable laws, rule and regulations and the Articles of Association. The Policy will be reviewed by the Board from time to time and there can be no assurance that a dividend will be proposed or declared in any specific periods.

INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Each of the INEDs has entered into a letter of appointment with the Company for an initial term of one year and such letter of appointment may be terminated by either party giving at least one month’s notice in writing. Also, the INEDs are subject to re-election on retirement by rotation at the AGM in accordance with the Articles of Association.

The Company has received written annual confirmation from each INEDs of their independence pursuant to the requirements of the Rule 5.09 of the GEM Listing Rules. The Company considers all INEDs namely Mr. Zheng Xiaorong, Mr. Yan Xiaotian, and Mr. Tang Chi Wai to be independent in accordance with the independence guidelines set out in the GEM Listing Rules for the Year.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

DIRECTORS' TRAINING AND CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Each newly appointed Director receives a formal, comprehensive and tailored induction on the first occasion of his/her appointment to ensure that he/she has a proper understanding of the Company's operations and business and is fully aware of the director's responsibilities under the statutes and common law, the GEM Listing Rules, legal and other regulatory requirements and the Company's business and governance policies. The Company will from time to time provide briefings to all Directors to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills relating to their duties and responsibilities.

Pursuant to the Code Provision C.1.4 of the CG Code, all directors should participate in continuous professional development to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills to ensure that their contribution to the Board remains informed and relevant. According to the training records maintained by the Company, all Directors have participated in continuous professional development relevant to his or her professional duties as Director during the Year.

HANDLING AND DISSEMINATION OF INSIDE INFORMATION

The Company has established and maintained the procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information. The Company has adopted a code of conduct for dealing in securities of the Company by the Directors in accordance with Rules 5.46 to 5.67 of the GEM Listing Rules. Other employees of the Group who are likely to be in possession of inside information of the Company are also subject to dealing restrictions. The Group has strictly prohibited unauthorised use of confidential or insider information or any use of such information for the advantage of any individuals. Any inside information and any information which may potentially constitute inside information is promptly identified, assessed and escalated to the Board and the Board will decide on the need for disclosure. Inside information and other information which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the GEM Listing Rules will be announced on the respective websites of Stock Exchange and the Company in due course.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Board is responsible for the establishment, maintenance and review of the Group's risk management and internal control systems. The Board must ensure that the Company establishes and maintains effective risk management and internal control systems to meet the objectives and safeguard the interests of the shareholders and the assets of the Company.

The Board oversees the Group's overall risk management and internal control systems on an ongoing basis. At the same time, the Group endeavours to identify risks, control impact of the identified risks and facilitate implementation of coordinated mitigating measures. The risk management and internal control systems which are compatible with the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) – Integrated Framework 2013 principles. They are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failures in order to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group has established a risk management policy which sets out the process of identification, evaluation and management of the principal risks affecting the business.

1. Each division is responsible for identifying and assessing principal risks (including ESG risks) within its divisions on a quarterly basis and establishing mitigation plans to manage the risks identified.
2. The management is responsible for overseeing the Group's risk management and internal control activities, attending quarterly meetings with each division to ensure principal risks are properly managed, and new or changing risks are identified and documented.
3. The Board is responsible for supervising the management in relation to design, implementation, and monitoring of both the risk management and internal control systems, and the management provides confirmation to the Board on the effectiveness of the system.

The risk management framework, coupled with our internal controls, ensures the risk associated with our different business units are effectively controlled in line with the Group's risk appetite.

The Group does not have an internal audit department. But the Group has conducted an annual review on whether there is a need for such an internal audit department. Given the Group's relatively simple corporate and operation structure, the Board, as supported by the Audit Committee, is directly responsible for risk management and internal control systems of the Group including financial, operational and compliance controls and risk management functions and for reviewing its effectiveness.

The Group engaged an independent internal control consultant, Premier Advisory Services Limited, to conduct review on the internal control system of the Group during the Year. The review covers certain procedures on the provision and maintenance of sound and communications systems and related services undertaken by the Group, and make recommendations for improving and strengthening the internal control system. No significant area of concern that may affect the financial, operational, compliance, control and risk management of the Group has been identified.

The Group's risk management and internal control systems are aimed to manage, rather than eliminating, the risk of failure to achieve business objectives and thus can only provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. The Board has the overall responsibility to maintain the adequate resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and the budget accounting and financial reporting as well as those relating to our ESG performance and reporting. The Board concluded that the Group's risk management and internal control systems were in place and effective.

In order to preempt any potential instances of misconduct, the Group has a whistleblowing policy and system for employees and those who deal with the Group to raise concerns. To report any cases of misconduct, the relevant personnel could submit any related information via email at whistleblowing@ispghk.com. Investigations for whistleblowing reports will be handled by the audit committee with strict and confidential manner to respond possible improprieties in any matter related to the Group.

With respect to anti-corruption practices, the Group established anti-corruption and conflict of interest policies and guidelines to promote and support anti-corruption laws and regulations and enhances the provisions relating to corruption in the Group's Code of Ethics.

With respect to the monitoring and disclosure of insider information, the Group has adopted a policy on disclosure of insider information with the aim to ensure the insiders are abiding by the confidentiality requirement and are fulfilling the disclosure obligation of the inside information.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

There is no provision for pre-emptive rights under the Articles of Association or the Laws of the Cayman Islands, which would oblige the Company to offer new shares on a pro-rata basis to existing shareholders.

EQUITY-LINKED AGREEMENTS

Save for the Share Option Scheme and the Share Award Scheme, no equity-linked agreements were entered into by the Company during the Year or subsisted at the end of the Year.

SHARE AWARD SCHEME

On 18 February 2021, the Company adopted the Share Award Scheme to recognise the contributions by certain eligible persons and to provide them with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation and development of the Group, and to attract suitable personnel for further development of the Group. The details are set out in the announcements of the Company dated 18 February 2021 and 9 March 2021. According to the Share Award Scheme, the award shares will be satisfied by way of (i) allotment and issue of new Shares to the trustee at the subscription price under general mandate or specific mandate (as the case may be); or (ii) acquisition of existing Shares through on-market transactions by the trustee and will be held on trust until they are vested. The maximum number of all award shares granted under the Share Award Scheme shall not exceed 1% of the total issued share capital of the Company from time to time.

The Share Award Scheme was terminated as determined by the Board after the completion of transfer of Award Shares to the Grantees as at 30 June 2024.

Under the Share Award Scheme, the Selected Participants are required to be continuously employed by the Group during the one-year vesting period and there is no performance target attached to the Awards granted to the Selected Participants. During the year ended 30 June 2024, 400,000 share award has been lapsed, and the remaining 23,600,000 share award has been vested.

During the Year, no award shares had been purchased under the Share Award Scheme.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

SHARE OPTION SCHEME

The Company has adopted the Share Option Scheme on 14 December 2017 (the “Adoption Date”). The terms of the Share Option Scheme are in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 23 of the GEM Listing Rules. The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Share Option Scheme:

(A) Purpose of Share Option Scheme

The purpose of the Share Option Scheme is to provide incentives or rewards to eligible persons for their contribution to the Group and/or to enable our Group to recruit and retain high-calibre employees and attract human resources that are valuable to the Group or any entity in which the Group holds any equity interest (“Invested Entity”).

(B) Participants of the Share Option Scheme

- (1) Any employee (whether full-time or part-time) of the Company, any of the subsidiaries and any Invested Entity;
- (2) Any director (including executive, non-executive and independent non-executive directors) of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any Invested Entity;
- (3) Any supplier of goods or services to any member of the Group or any Invested Entity;
- (4) Any customer of the Group or any Invested Entity;
- (5) Any consultant adviser, manager, officer or entity that provides research, development or other technological support to the Group or any Invested Entity; and
- (6) Or any person who, in the sole discretion of the Board, has contributed or may contribute to the Group or any Invested Entity eligible for options under the Share Option Scheme.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

(C) Total number of Shares available for Issue under the Share Option Scheme

Under the Share Option Scheme, the total number of Shares which may be allotted and issued upon exercise of all share options to be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme of the Company must not in aggregate exceed 10% of the total number of Shares in issue on the 16 January 2018, being 80,000,000 Share (the “Scheme Limit”). Subject to the issue of a circular by the Company and the approval of the shareholders in general meeting and/or such other requirements prescribed under the GEM Listing Rules from time to time, the Board may renew this limit at any time to 10% of the Shares in issue (the “New Scheme Limit”) as at the date of the approval by the shareholders in that general meeting.

As at the date of this report, the total number of shares available for issue under the Share Option Scheme was 14,700,000 Shares (representing approximately 1.4% of total number of issued shares of the Company as at the date of this report).

The number of share options available for grant under the Share Option Scheme was 14,700,000 Shares as at 1 July 2024, and 14,700,000 Shares as at 30 June 2025.

(D) Maximum Entitlement of Each Participant under the Share Option Scheme

The maximum entitlement of each participant under the Share Option Scheme in any 12-month period up to and including the date of grant of the options must not exceed 1% of the total number of Shares in issue.

No service provider sub-limit was set under the Share Option Scheme.

(E) Period within which the Shares must be taken up under an Option

The period during which an option may be exercised is determined by the Board at its discretion, save that such period shall not be longer than 10 years from the date of grant.

(F) Minimum period for which an Option must be held before it can be exercised

The minimum period will be determined by the Board upon the grant of an option.

(G) Amount payable on acceptance of an option and the Period within which payments shall be made

A consideration of HK$1 (approximately RMB0.93) is payable on acceptance of the offer of grant of an option where the grantee should accept or decline the offer of grant of an option within the date as specified in the offer letter issued by the Company, being a date no later than 21 business days from the date upon which it is made.

(H) Basis of determining the Exercise Price

The exercise price of a share in respect of any particular option granted under the Share Option Scheme shall be a price determined by the Board in its absolute discretion and notified to an eligible person, and shall be at least the higher of: (1) the closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotations sheet on the date of grant, (2) the average closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotation sheets for the five consecutive business days immediately preceding the date of grant, and (3) the nominal value of the share on the date of grant.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

Independent Auditor's Report to the Shareholders of ISP Global Limited

(Incorporated in Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of ISP Global Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) set out on pages 104 to 182, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 June 2025, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue recognition for sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems and sale of consumer products

Refer to Notes 3, 4 and 5 to the consolidated financial statements

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
The Group recognised revenue from sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound, and communication systems and sale of consumer products of approximately RMB78,101,000 and RMB153,645,000 respectively for the year ended 30 June 2025, where the period in which such revenue is recorded is an inherent risk due to large volumes of customers' orders, and when the customers have taken possession of and accepted the goods. We have identified the recognition of revenue from sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound, and communication systems and sale of consumer products as a key audit matter because revenue is one of the key performance indicators of the Group and because there is an inherent risk of manipulation of the timing of recognition of revenue by the management to meet specific targets or expectations. In addition, significant management judgements were involved in revenue recognition from sale of consumer products, such as determining whether the role of the Group in those transactions was acting as a principal or an agent and whether to recognise revenue on a gross or net basis. The assessment included considering and weighing key features e.g. which party bears the primary responsibility, inventory risks, and the discretion to establish prices.	Our key procedures to address the matter included: - Inspecting sales agreements signed in the current period, on a sample basis, to understand the terms of sales transactions including the terms of delivery and acceptance and any return arrangements to assess the Group's revenue recognition criteria with reference to the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards; - Inspecting invoices and credit notes issued prior to and subsequent to the year-end on sample basis; and - Checking the appropriateness of timing of recorded transactions, which is measured by the acknowledgement and acceptance by the customers. We also performed the following procedures in relation to the judgement as to whether the Group acts as the principal or agent and hence whether revenue is recognised on a gross or net basis: - Inspecting the contracts and discussing with the management to assess relevant terms, including who is the primary obligor to provide goods or services to the customers, who has the inventory risks; and - Checking on a sample's basis, the background of the Group's customers and suppliers and discussing with management to understand the key areas of their cooperation, such as how their relationships were established, how the price was negotiated and determined and the acceptance of goods delivered.

Impairment assessment of trade receivables

Refer to Notes 3, 4, 16 and 32(c) to the consolidated financial statements

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
As at 30 June 2025, the Group had trade receivables with net carrying amount of approximately RMB15,898,000. During the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group has recognised a provision for expected credit loss ("ECL") on trade receivables of approximately RMB1,375,000. The ECL assessment on trade receivables is considered to be a matter that requires the application of significant judgement which involves the use of subjective assumptions by the Group's management. The management of the Group believed that the methodologies and inputs used in estimating ECL are in accordance with the applicable accounting standards. These models and assumptions relate to the future macroeconomic conditions and debtors' creditworthiness. The Group has adopted judgement, assumptions and estimation techniques in order to measure ECL according to the requirements of accounting standards such as criteria for judging significant increase in credit risk, definition of credit-impaired financial asset, parameters for measuring ECL and forward-looking information.	Our key procedures to address the matter included: • Evaluating the methodologies, inputs and assumptions used by the Group in calculating the ECL, by reference to externally available economic data; • Obtaining an ageing analysis of the trade receivables from the management of the Group and testing the accuracy of ageing of trade receivables at the reporting date to the underlying invoices on a sample basis; • Challenging the management's assessment of the recoverability of long outstanding and overdue trade receivables; • Selecting samples considering the management's assessment of the latest financial conditions of the debtors, based on historical experience and observable external data; • Assessing the adequacy of the ECL recorded by reviewing subsequent settlements after the year end and any correspondence with customers about expected settlement dates; and • Examining the key data inputs to assess their accuracy and completeness and challenge the assumptions including both historical and forward-looking information especially the market data used in determination of the expected credit loss allowance.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors of the Company determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by those charged with governance in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors of the Company.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

1. GENERAL

ISP Global Limited (the “Company”) was incorporated and registered as an exempted company in the Cayman Islands with limited liability on 21 July 2017 and its registered office is situated at the offices of Ocorian Trust (Cayman) Limited, Windward 3, Regatta Office Park, P.O. Box 1350, Grand Cayman KY1-1108, Cayman Islands. The Company was registered with the Registrar of Companies in Hong Kong as a non-Hong Kong company under Part 16 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the laws of Hong Kong) (the “Companies Ordinance”) on 8 September 2017. The head office and principal place of business of the Group is at Room 4302, 43rd Floor, Center Plaza, 18 Harbour Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong. The shares of the Company have been listed on GEM of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) with effect from 16 January 2018.

The Company is an investment holding company and the principal activities of its operating subsidiaries are sale of networking, sound and communication systems, provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems in Singapore and the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) and e-commerce operation in the PRC and Malaysia. The details of the subsidiaries are set out in Note 27.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”), unless otherwise stated. All values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (“IFRSs”)

In the preparation of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group has applied the following amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards, for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024:

Amendments to IAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current
Amendments to IAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants
Amendments to IAS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback
Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements

The application of the above amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards has had no material impact on the Group’s financial performance and position for the current and prior periods and/or the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (“IFRSs”) (continued)

New and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective

The Group has not adopted the early application of the following new and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards that have been issued but are not yet effective:

		Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
Amendments to IAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability	1 January 2025
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments	1 January 2026
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature – dependent Electricity	1 January 2026
Amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards	Annual improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11	1 January 2026
IFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements	1 January 2027
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture	To be determined

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure of Financial Statements

This standard introduces the following three sets of new requirements to improve entities' reporting of financial performance and give investors a better basis for analysing and comparing entities:

- Presentation of new defined subtotals in the statement of profit or loss;
- Disclosures about management-defined performance measures; and
- Enhanced requirements for grouping (aggregation and disaggregation) of information.

IFRS 18 supersedes IAS 1 “Presentation of Financial Statements”. Requirements in IAS 1 that are unchanged have been transferred to IFRS 18 and other IFRSs. IFRS 18 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 with earlier application permitted. The Group is still currently assessing the impact that IFRS 18 will have on the Group.

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of the impact of other developments in the period of initial adoption. So far, the directors of the Group have concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the IASB.

In addition, the consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosures provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange and the applicable disclosures required by the Companies Ordinance.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

The material accounting policy information adopted are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ended 30 June 2025. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group has power over the investee is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary; (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest; and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognises (i) the fair value of the consideration received; (ii) the fair value of any investment retained; and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in consolidated profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to consolidated profit or loss or retained earnings/(accumulated losses), as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Group recognises revenue from the following revenue streams:

(i) Sale of networking, sound and communication systems and consumer products

Revenue from sales of goods are recognised at point in time when control of the goods has been transferred to the customers. Control is primarily evidenced when the customers have taken possession of and accepted the goods. The Group controls the good before the good is accepted by a customer.

(ii) Provision of integrated services of sound and communication systems

Revenue from provision of integrated services of sound and communication systems is recognised over-time during the course of construction by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of a performance obligation at the end of the reporting period. Progress towards complete satisfaction is measured based on output method, which recognises revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to the customer of the services transferred to date (i.e. surveys of work performed to date with reference to customers' confirmation, i.e. customer certificate) relative to the estimated total contract revenue.

The stage of completion is measured by the proportion of surveys of work performed to date with reference to customer certificate relative to the estimated total contract revenue.

Variations in contract work and claims are included to the extent that the amount can be measured reliably and its receipt is considered probable.

Where the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably, contract revenue is recognised to the extent of contract costs incurred that are probably recoverable. Contract costs are recognised as expense in the period in which they are incurred.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

(ii) Provision of integrated services of sound and communication systems (continued)

When it is probable that total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue, the expected loss is recognised as an expense immediately.

Costs of construction contracts include costs that relate directly to the specific contract and costs that are attributable to contract activity and can be allocated to the contract. Such costs include but are not limited to material, labour, depreciation and hire of equipment, interest expense, subcontract cost and estimated costs of rectification and guarantee work, including expected warranty costs.

A contract asset represents the Group's right to consideration in exchange for services that the Group has transferred to a customer that is not unconditional. It is assessed for impairment in accordance with IFRS 9. In contrast, a receivable represents the Group's unconditional right to consideration, i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

There is no significant financing component as the Group expects that the period between the recognition of revenue under the output method and the payment will be one year or less.

(iii) Provision of technical support services in relation to networking systems

Revenue is recognised over time in the accounting period in which the services are rendered as the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance when the Group performs.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Retirement benefit costs

The Group companies operating in Singapore made payments to the defined contribution plan, Singapore's Central Provident Fund ("CPF") are recognised as expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

The employees of the subsidiaries within the Group which operate in the PRC are required to participate in the central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. These PRC subsidiaries are required to contribute a percentage of their payroll costs to the central pension scheme as specified by the local municipal government. The contributions are charged to the consolidated profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension scheme.

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefit scheme (the "MPF Scheme") under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for all of its employees in Hong Kong. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees' basic salaries and are charged to the consolidated profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the MPF Scheme. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund.

Short-term and long-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense unless another IFRS Accounting Standard requires or permits the inclusion of the benefits in the cost of an asset.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave) after deduction any amount already paid.

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Group in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date. Any changes in the liabilities' carrying amounts resulting from service costs, interest and remeasurements are recognised in consolidated profit or loss except to the extent that another IFRS Accounting Standard requires or permits their inclusion in the cost of an asset.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

Share options granted to directors and employees

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based transactions are set out in Note 24(a).

The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity (share option reserve). For share options that vest immediately at the date of grant, the fair value of the share options granted is expensed immediately to consolidated profit or loss.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to share option reserve.

When the share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to share capital and share premium. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to retained earnings/(accumulated losses).

Share options granted to consultants

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees are measured at the fair values of the goods or services received, except where that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the service. The fair values of the goods or services received are recognised as expenses, with a corresponding increase in equity (share option reserve), when the Group obtains the goods or when the counterparties render services, unless the goods or services qualify for recognition as assets.

Share award scheme granted to employees

The Group operates a share award scheme for the purposes of providing the selected participants with an opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company, to encourage and retain such individuals to work with the Group and provide additional incentive for them to achieve performance goals with a view to achieve the objectives of increasing the value of the Group and aligning the interests of the selected participants directly to the shareholders of the Company through ownership of shares.

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value at the date on which they are granted. The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised in employee benefit expense, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income for a period represents the movement in the cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions.

For awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met, no expense is recognised. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vesting irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Shares held under share award scheme

The shares held under share award scheme are issued by the Company. The net consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, is presented as "Shares held under share award scheme" and deducted from total equity.

The shares held under share award scheme are the aggregate price paid for the allotment and issuance of shares of the Company. The net consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, is presented as "Shares held under share award scheme" and deducted from total equity. The Company's awarded shares were held by the trustee (the "Trustee") in trust for the selected participants until such shares are exercised under the share award scheme.

Income tax

Income tax represents the sum of current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the consolidated profit or loss in the year in which it is incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in an increase in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of the item, the expenditure is capitalised as an additional cost of the item. When an item of property, plant and equipment is sold, its cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the consolidated financial statements and any gain or loss resulting from the disposal, being the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, is included in the consolidated profit or loss.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in consolidated profit or loss.

Ownership interests in leasehold land and building

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of property which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition.

To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as “right-of-use assets” in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire property is classified as property, plant and equipment.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group’s leasehold land and property remains as property, plant and equipment.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than inventories, contract assets and financial assets), the asset’s recoverable amount is estimated. An asset’s recoverable amount is the higher of the asset’s or cash-generating unit (“CGU”)’s value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the consolidated profit or loss in the year in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired assets.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the consolidated profit or loss in the year in which it arises.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except short-term lease and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises leases liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

Right-of-use assets (included in property, plant and equipment)

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (if any), and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets.

The right-of-use assets are also subject to impairment. Refer to the accounting policies in the section “Impairment of non-financial assets”.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value asset

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with IFRS 15 “Revenue from Contracts with Customers”. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and liabilities are added to or deducted from the fair value of financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and de-recognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market concerned.

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Classification of financial assets

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost. For financial instruments other than purchased or originated credit impaired financial assets, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset. For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit impaired.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit loss (“ECL”) on financial assets which are subject to impairment under IFRS 9 (including trade receivables, other receivables, deposits, contract assets, pledged bank deposits and bank balances). The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, and contract assets, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has applied loss rates which are reference to the default rates from international credit rating agencies, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. Forward-looking information considered includes the future prospects of the industries in which the Group's debtors operate as well as consideration of various external sources of actual and forecast economic information that relate to the Group's core operations.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk for a particular financial instrument, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor, or the length of time or the extent to which the fair value of a financial asset has been less than its amortised cost;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same debtor; and
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk if i) the financial instrument has a low risk of default, ii) the borrower has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

The Group considers the following as constituting an event of default for internal credit risk management purposes as historical experience indicates that receivables that meet either of the following criteria are generally not recoverable.

- when there is a breach of financial covenants by the counterparty; or
- information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above analysis, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred.

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, e.g. when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in consolidated profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information as described above. As for the exposure at default, for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date.

For financial assets, the ECL is estimated as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the original effective interest rate.

Where lifetime ECL is measured on a collective basis to cater for cases where evidence of significant increases in credit risk at the individual instrument level may not yet be available, the financial instruments are grouped on the following basis:

- Nature of financial instruments;
- Past-due status;
- Nature, size and industry of debtors; and
- External credit ratings where available.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

If the Group has measured the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to lifetime ECL in the previous reporting period, but determines at the current reporting date that the conditions for lifetime ECL are no longer met, the Group measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month ECL at the current reporting date.

The Group recognises an impairment loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount, with the exception of trade receivables and contract assets where the corresponding adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in consolidated profit or loss.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity instruments in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities (including trade and other payables, lease liabilities and borrowings) are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the group companies after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payment (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest expense is recognised on an effective interest basis.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is calculated using the first-in-first-out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sales.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and bank deposits that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, excluding bank deposits that are subject to contractual restrictions that result in such balances no longer meeting the definition of cash.

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. Where a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Provisions (continued)

Onerous contracts

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Group has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

Foreign currency transactions and translation

The individual financial statements of each group entity are measured and presented in the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (its functional currency). The consolidated financial statements of the Group are presented in RMB, while the functional currency of the Company is Hong Kong Dollars (“HK$”). As the Group mainly operates in the PRC, RMB is used as the presentation currency for the consolidated financial statements.

Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of each reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the consolidated profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RMB) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the year, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during that period, in which case, the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of the translation reserve (attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate).

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

The Group's management is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical accounting judgments

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following critical accounting judgements that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.:

i) Contracts for provision of integrated services of sound and communication systems

Revenues from integrated services of sound and communication systems are recognised over time which considered the work performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. Such contracts are contracts specifically negotiated with a customer for the construction of an asset or a group of assets at the customers' sites, where the customer is able to specify the major structural elements of the design and directing the assets to be installed or constructed. Where the outcome of a contract work can be estimated reliably, revenue and costs are recognised by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of performance obligation at the end of the reporting period.

Progress towards complete satisfaction of performance obligation is measured based on the output method which recognises revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to the customer of the services transferred to date (i.e. surveys of work performed to date with reference to customers' confirmation, i.e. customer certificate) relative to the estimated total contract revenue.

As at 30 June 2025, the carrying amount of contract assets and contract liabilities are approximately RMB2,275,000 and RMB6,021,000 (2024: approximately RMB2,755,000 and RMB4,774,000), respectively. Details are disclosed in Note 17.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (continued)

ii) Revenue recognition for sale of consumer products

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when control of goods is transferred to customers. In addition, the Group assesses whether or not the Group is acting as a principal or an agent on these types of activities, the Group made assessment based on indicators of (a) who is primarily responsible for providing the goods or services; (b) who has inventory risk; and (c) who has latitude to establish prices. Based on a comprehensive assessment of all the facts and circumstances, judgement is made on an individual contract basis to determine whether revenue can be recognised during the year and whether revenue should be recognised on a gross or net basis.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following is the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets within the next financial year.

i) Estimated impairment of trade receivables

The Group recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables. When measuring ECL, the Group uses reasonable and supportable forward-looking information, which is based on assumptions for the future movement of different economic drivers and how these drivers will affect each other.

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECL for trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on the Group's historical default rates taking into consideration reasonable and supportable forward-looking information that is available without undue costs or effort. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are reassessed and changes in the forward-looking information are considered. In addition, trade receivables which are credit impaired are assessed for ECL individually.

As at 30 June 2025, the balance of the Group's ECL of trade receivables is approximately RMB2,373,000 (2024: approximately RMB992,000). The information about the ECL and the Group's trade and other receivables are disclosed in Notes 16 and 32(c).

ii) Estimation of incremental borrowing rate (“IBR”) on lease liabilities

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the leases, and therefore, it uses an IBR to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. The IBR therefore reflects what the Group “would have to pay”, which requires estimation when no observable rates are available especially the Group does not enter into financing transactions. The Group estimates the IBR using observable inputs (such as similar debt financing instrument) when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates (such as the relevant subsidiary’s stand-alone credit rating). Using inaccurate rate may induce understatement of lease liabilities when a higher IBR was used.

As at 30 June 2025, the balance of the Group’s lease liabilities is approximately RMB3,714,000 (2024: approximately RMB3,496,000). The information about the Group’s lease liabilities is disclosed in Note 13.

iii) Estimated impairment of goodwill

Determining whether goodwill is impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the CGU to which goodwill has been allocated, which is the higher of the value in use and fair value less costs of disposal. The value in use calculation requires the Group to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGU and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value. Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, or change in facts and circumstances which results in downward revision of future cash flows, a material impairment loss/further impairment loss may arise. As at 30 June 2025, the carrying amount of goodwill is approximately RMB74,000 (2024: approximately RMB901,000) and an impairment of RMB902,000 (2024: Nil) was recognised in the consolidated profit or loss for the year. Details of the recoverable amount calculation are disclosed in Note 14.

iv) Net realisable value of inventories

Included in the consolidated statement of financial position at 30 June 2025 is inventories with an carrying amount of approximately RMB23,075,000 (2024: approximately RMB61,932,000), which is stated at the lower of the cost and net realisable value. The Group recognises write-down on inventories based on an assessment of the net realisable value of the inventories. Write-down is applied to the inventories where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the net realisable value is less than cost. The determination of net realisable value requires the use of judgement and estimates. Where the expectation is different from the original estimates, such difference will impact carrying value of the inventories and write-down on inventories charged to profit or loss in the period in which such estimate has been changed.

5. REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

Revenue represents the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled to from (1) sale of networking, sound and communication systems; (2) provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems, includes installation and customisation of networking, sound and communication systems and technical support services; and (3) e-commerce operation. The Group's operations are mainly derived from Singapore and the PRC.

Information is reported to the executive directors of the Company, being the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") of the Group, for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment. The CODM reviews revenue by nature of revenue, i.e. (1) sale of networking, sound and communication systems; (2) provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems, includes installation and customisation of networking, sound and communication systems and technical support services; and (3) e-commerce operation. The Group's operating businesses are structured and managed separately according to the nature of their operations and the products and services they provide. Each of the Group's operating segments represents a strategic business unit that offers products and services which are subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other operating segments. The Group currently has three operating segments:

- (a) Sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems in Singapore & PRC, which includes points (1) and (2) as mentioned above; and
- (b) E-commerce operation, which mainly includes sale of consumer products on e-commerce platforms.

Segment results represent the profit earned/(loss incurred) by each segment without allocation of certain administration costs, directors' emoluments, other income, other gains/(losses), share-based payment expenses, impairment of goodwill and finance costs and income tax expenses. This is the measure reported to the CODM for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment.

During the year ended 30 June 2025, no emoluments were paid by the Group to any of the directors of the Company or the five highest paid individuals of the Group as an inducement to join or upon joining the Group or as compensation for loss of office (2024: Same).

11. DIVIDENDS

No dividend was paid or proposed for ordinary shareholders of the Company during the year, nor has any dividend been proposed since the end of the reporting period (2024: Nil).

12. LOSS PER SHARE

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Loss for the year attributable to the owners of the Company	(14,920)	(24,960)

The calculation of basic loss per share is based on the loss for the year attributable to the owners of the Company and the weighted average number of shares in issue. Weighted average number of ordinary shares for the purpose of basic loss per share is set out below:

	2025	2024
Number of ordinary shares (Note 22)	1,046,628,000	980,794,000

The computation of diluted loss per share for the year ended 30 June 2025 did not assume the exercise of the Company's outstanding share options since it would result in a decrease in the loss per share (2024: Same). Therefore, the amount of diluted loss per share is the same as the amount of basic loss per share during the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024.

13. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT AND LEASE LIABILITIES (continued)

The above items of property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis at the following useful lives after taking into account the residual values:

Computers	– 1 year
Office equipment	– 3 years
Furniture, fixtures and fittings	– 3 years
Motor vehicles	– 6 years
Leasehold land and property	– Over the lease term, which is 680 months
Right-of-use assets	– Over the lease terms, which ranges from 24 to 48 months

As at 30 June 2025, leasehold land and property were pledged to a bank for a bank borrowing (Note 20) (2024: Same).

The Group as a lessee

The Group has entered into lease contracts for various office premises used in its operations. Leases of office premises generally have lease terms between 2 and 4 years (2024: 2 and 3 years). The Group's obligations under its leases are secured by the lessor's title to the leased assets. Generally, the Group is restricted from assigning and subleasing the leased assets. There are several lease contracts that include termination options which the directors of the Company considered reasonably certain not to exercise.

The Group has also entered into certain leases of office premises with lease terms of 12 months or less and leases of office equipment and dormitories with low value. The Group applies the "short-term lease" and "lease of low-value assets" recognition exemptions for these leases.

As at 30 June 2025 and 2024, lease commitments for the Group for short-term leases are as follows:

	2025	2024

Note:

On 12 February 2025, the Group acquired an e-commerce company with carrying amount of about RMB2,446,000 of property, plant and equipment, RMB7,000 of other receivables, RMB166,000 of cash and cash equivalents, RMB2,765,000 of trade and other payables, from an independent third party during the current year at zero consideration. The acquired company has been accounted for as subsidiary of the Group since the acquisition date. The excess of the consideration transferred and the amount of non-controlling interests in the acquirees over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill.

Goodwill arose from the acquisition of subsidiaries which had been allocated to e-commerce operation business. The goodwill recognised is not expected to be deductible for the income tax purpose.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

14. GOODWILL (continued)

E-commerce operation CGU

The recoverable amount of the e-commerce operation CGU as at 30 June 2025 has been determined based on a value-in-use calculation (2024: value-in-use calculation) using cash flow forecast derived from the most recent financial budgets approved by senior management based on their best estimates covering 5-year projected period. The pre-tax discount rate and terminal growth rate adopted in the forecast were 15.20% (2024: 15.67%) and 3.0% (2024: 3.0%), respectively. Management has calculated that the value-in-use of the operating subsidiaries located in the PRC and concluded that the recoverable amount is less than (2024: greater than) their total carrying amount of the assets of the e-commerce operation CGU including allocated goodwill. As a result of this analysis, the management recorded an impairment charge of in the current year (2024: no impairment).

15. INVENTORIES

16. TRADE RECEIVABLES, OTHER RECEIVABLES, DEPOSITS AND PREPAYMENTS (continued)

As at 1 July 2023, the carrying amount of trade receivables from contracts with customers was approximately RMB16,287,000.

Notes:

- (a) During the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group granted credit terms to its customers in the segment of sale and provision of integrated services of networking, sound and communication systems, typically 30-90 days for the Singapore segment and 30-180 days for the PRC segment (2024: 30-180 days). For the e-commerce operation, no credit term (2024: Nil) is granted to individual customers and relevant trading or settlement platform for online sale, while the Group generally grants credit terms ranging from 15 to 180 days (2024: 15 to 180 days) to those corporate customers with good credit records. The Group does not charge interest nor hold any collateral over these balances.

As at 30 June 2025, included in the Group's trade receivables balance are debtors with aggregate carrying amount of approximately RMB10,051,000 (2024: RMB6,606,000) which are past due as at the reporting date. Out of the past due balances, approximately RMB4,535,000 (2024: RMB1,746,000) has been past due 90 days or more and is not considered as in default due to having on-going relationship and no default repayment record from these customers. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables to minimise credit risk.

The following table details the risk profile of trade receivables with customers based on the Group's provision matrix which is derived from the ageing based on past due days.

	Not yet past due RMB'000	Less than 30 days RMB'000	31-90 days RMB'000	91-120 days RMB'000	121-365 days RMB'000	Over 365 days RMB'000	Total RMB'000

24. EQUITY-SETTLED SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS (continued)

Total number of shares available for issue under the Share Option Scheme

Under the Share Option Scheme, the total number of Shares which may be allotted and issued upon exercise of all share options to be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme of the Company must not in aggregate exceed 10% of the total number of Shares in issue on the 16 January 2018, being 80,000,000 Share (the “Scheme Limit”). Subject to the issue of a circular by the Company and the approval of the shareholders in general meeting and/or such other requirements prescribed under the GEM Listing Rules from time to time, the Board may renew this limit at any time to 10% of the Shares in issue (the “New Scheme Limit”) as at the date of the approval by the shareholders in that general meeting.

Maximum entitlement of each participant under the Share Option Scheme

The maximum entitlement of each participant under the Share Option Scheme in any 12-month period up to and including the date of grant of the options must not exceed 1% of the total number of Shares in issue.

Period within which the shares must be taken up under an option

The period during which an option may be exercised is determined by the Board at its discretion, save that such period shall not be longer than 10 years from the date of grant.

Minimum period for which an option must be held before it can be exercised

The minimum period will be determined by the Board upon the grant of an option.

Amount payable on acceptance of an option and the period within which payments shall be made

A consideration of HK$1 (approximately RMB0.93) is payable on acceptance of the offer of grant of an option where the grantee should accept or decline the offer of grant of an option within the date as specified in the offer letter issued by the Company, being a date no later than 21 business days from the date upon which it is made.

Basis of determining the exercise price

The exercise price of a share in respect of any particular option granted under the Share Option Scheme shall be a price determined by the Board in its absolute discretion and notified to an eligible person, and shall be at least the highest of: (1) the closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotations sheet on the date of grant; (2) the average closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotation sheets for the five consecutive business days immediately preceding the date of grant; and (3) the nominal value of the share on the date of grant.

At 30 June 2025, the weighted average remaining contractual life of these outstanding share options was approximately 1.5 years (2024: 2.5 years), with a weighted average exercise price of HK$0.50 (equivalent to RMB0.41) (2024: HK$0.50 (equivalent to RMB0.41)) per share option. At 30 June 2025, the number of exercisable share options was 53,100,000 (2024: 54,300,000). The weighted average share price per share from the date of the share options granted to 30 June 2025 was HK$0.17 (equivalent to RMB0.15) (2024: HK$0.19 (equivalent to RMB0.17)).

1,200,000 (2024: 3,200,000) share options of the employees were lapsed due to termination of employment during the year ended 30 June 2025. As a result, share option reserve of approximately RMB165,000 (2024: RMB439,000) was reclassified to accumulated losses during the year ended 30 June 2025.

As of the date of this report, no share options were exercised.

Exercisable at the end of the year

During the year, no share option has been granted since its adoption on 14 December 2017.

The fair values of employee services received in return for share options granted are measured by reference to the fair value of share options granted.

Certain external consultants were engaged to advise on legal advisory and the business expansion through strategic development in e-commerce, etc. In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the fair value of services cannot be measured reliably and the Group should measure the services rendered the external consultants by reference to the fair value of share options granted.

The Group granted 1,000,000 share options to external consultants on 31 December 2021. The options will entitle the grantee to subscribe for a total of 1,000,000 new shares at an exercise price of HK$0.50 (equivalent to RMB0.41) per share.

The expected volatility reflects the assumption that the historical volatility of future trends, adjusted for any expected changes to future volatility based on publicly available information, which may also not necessarily be the actual outcome. No other feature of the options was incorporated into the measurement of the fair value.

During the year ended 30 June 2025, there was no (2024: RMB931,000) share-based payment expense for the share option scheme recognised in the consolidated profit or loss with a corresponding credit in share option reserve.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

24. EQUITY-SETTLED SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS (continued)

None of the share options were exercised during the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024. At the time when the share options are subsequently exercised, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to share capital and share premium.

(b) Share Award Scheme

The Share Award Scheme of the Company was adopted on 29 March 2023. The Company granted an aggregate of 24,000,000 Awarded Shares to 16 selected participants ("Selected Participants") pursuant to the terms of the Share Award Scheme at Nil consideration. The purpose of the Share Award Scheme is to recognise the contributions by Selected Participants and to provide them with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation and development of the Group, and to attract suitable personnel for further development of the Group. The details are set out in the announcement of the Company dated 29 March 2023.

The administrative procedures in connection with the transfer of the Award Shares from the Trustee to the respective grantees (the "Grantees") had been completed on 16 May 2024. After completion of the transfer of the Award Shares to the Grantees, the Board has resolved to terminate the Share Award Scheme with effect from 16 May 2024 in order to reduce administrative cost. The details are set out in the announcement of the Company dated 16 May 2024.

None of the Selected Participants is a director, chief executive or substantial shareholder of Company or their respective associates or otherwise a connected person of the Company. The grant of Awarded Shares would not result in the Awarded Shares issued and to be issued to each individual Selected Participant in respect of all awards granted to such person in the 12-month period up to and including the date of grant in aggregate to exceed 1% of the shares in issue.

Under the Share Award Scheme, the Selected Participants are required to be continuously employed by the Group during the one-year vesting period and there is no performance target attached to the Awards granted to the Selected Participants.

Subject to the terms of the Share Award Scheme and the Listing Rules, the Awarded Shares are held in trust for the relevant Selected Participants until such shares are vested with the relevant Selected Participants in accordance with the provisions of the Share Award Scheme. The shares of the Company held by the Trustee upon issuance are recognised as "shares held under share award scheme".

31. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that it will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged throughout the reporting period.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debt, which includes lease liabilities and borrowings as disclosed in Notes 13 and 20, net of bank balances and cash and equity attributable to the owners of the Group, comprising share capital and reserves.

The management of the Group reviews the capital structure from time to time. As part of this review, the management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on recommendations of the management, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, the issue of new shares and new debts.

32. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include trade receivables, other receivables and deposits, pledged bank deposits, bank balances and cash, trade and other payables, lease liabilities and borrowings. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risk (interest rate risk and currency risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

(a) Market risk

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk on the variable rate of interests earned on bank balances and incurred on borrowings. The Group is also exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed-rate deposits.

The Group currently does not have an interest rate hedging policy. However, the management monitors interest rate risk exposure and will consider interest rate hedging should the need arise.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to variable interest rates for non-derivative instruments. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. The following sensitivity analysis represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

Variable-rate borrowings

If interest rates of the variable-rate borrowings had been 50 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's loss before income tax for the year ended 30 June 2025 would increase/decrease by RMB29,000 (2024: RMB20,000).

Variable-rate bank balances

If interest rates of variable-rate bank balances had been 10 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's loss before income tax for the year ended 30 June 2025 would decrease/increase by approximately RMB56,000 (2024: RMB44,000).

32. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

(b) Currency risk

Bank balances (Note 18) and trade payables (Note 19) are denominated in US$ or HK$ other than the functional currency of respective group entities, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk.

The Group manages the risk by closely monitoring the movement of the foreign currency rate.

At the end of the reporting period, the carrying amounts of the Group's monetary assets and monetary liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are as follows:

	2025 (RMB'000)		2024 (RMB'000)
	US$	HK$	US$	HK$
Bank balances	4,724	469	1,505	57
Trade payables	(1,402)	(40)	(390)	–
Other payables	–	(1,378)	–	(213)
Overall net exposure	3,322	(949)	1,115	(156)

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity at the end of the reporting period to reasonably possible changes in the RMB exchange rates, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit before taxation and the Company's equity.

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
5% appreciation in RMB against
– US$	(166)	(56)
– HK$	47	8
5% depreciation in RMB against
– US$	166	56
– HK$	(47)	(8)

In the management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis above is unrepresentative for the currency risk as the exposure at the end of reporting period does not reflect the exposure during the year.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group's exposure to credit risk mainly arises from granting credit to customers in the ordinary course of its operations and its investing activities. The carrying amounts of the financial assets represent the maximum exposure to credit risk.

The Group monitored the receivable balances in an ongoing basis and the Group's exposed to bad debts is not significant.

The directors of the Company consider that the credit risk on liquid funds is low as counterparties are banks with good reputation.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the Group has policies in place for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts and sufficient allowance on doubtful debts are provide for on timely manner. Before accepting any new customer, the Group carries out research on the credit risk of the new customer and assesses the potential customer's credit quality and defines credit limits by customer. Limits attributed to customers are reviewed when necessary.

In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual trade debt at the reporting date to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regard, management of the Group considers that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

At the end of the reporting period, 39% (2024: 42%) and 60% (2024: 67%) of the gross trade receivables was due from the Group's largest customers and the five largest customers which exposed the Group to certain concentration of credit risk.

Those five largest customers are with good creditworthiness based on historical settlement record and with strong financial background. In order to minimise the concentration of credit risk, the management has delegated staff responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. The management also performs periodic evaluations and customer visits to ensure the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant and adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amount. In this regard, management of the Group considers that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

Other than the credit risk on bank deposits and balances and on trade receivables from top 5 customers as disclosed above, the Group has no other significant concentration of credit risk on other receivables, with exposure spread over a number of counterparties.

In order to minimise credit risk, the Group develops and maintains its credit risk gradings to categorise exposures according to their degree of risk of default. The Group uses its settlement records to rate its major customers and other debtors. The Group does not hold any collateral to cover its credit risks associated with its financial assets. The Group's current credit risk grading framework comprises the following categories:

Category	Description	Basis for recognising expected credit losses ("ECL")
		Trade nature	Non-trade nature
Performing	The counterparty has a low risk of default and does not have any past-due amounts.	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	12-month ECL – not credit-impaired
Doubtful	There has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired
In default	There is evidence indicating the asset is credit-impaired.	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the group has no realistic prospect of recovery.	Amount is written off	Amount is written off

Notes:

- (i) For trade receivables and contract assets, the Group has applied the simplified approach in IFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. The Group determines the ECL on these items based on historical credit loss experience based on the past due status of the debtors, adjusted as appropriate to reflect current conditions and estimates of future economic conditions.

Note 16 includes further details on the loss allowance for the trade receivables. For contract assets, management believes that there is no loss allowance required as at 30 June 2025 and 2024.

- (ii) For other receivables and deposits, the Group has measured on 12-month ECL basis unless there had been significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. The Group has assessed that there is no significant increase of credit risk for other receivables and deposits.

(d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulties in meeting its financial obligations as and when they fall due. In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The table includes both interest and principal cash flow.
