

The Group's strategy for the 21st Century is to capture the opportunities ahead through identifying, exploring and developing businesses with immense growth potential and to realize a steady income stream to its operations. Ultimately, this will help the Group achieve its objective of becoming a dominant diversified enterprise.

