

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Company has fully endorsed executives in accepting public offices and participating in community work which currently include various government advisory boards and professional associations. The Company's community activities are further supplemented by institutional support in the form of sponsorships for universities and charitable support by direct donation or direct employee involvement in fundraising.