

Prospects

Looking forward, with the elite human resources, effective cost management, high product quality and innovation in research and development of its products, the Group is optimistic about its future prospect. The Group endeavors to further enlarge its market share in the coming year and, in five years' time, to become one of the top five manufacturers of refrigerators and air-conditioners in the PRC in terms of sales volume.