

Dec 2002	SUNDAY Jungle Exhibition at ITU Telecom Asia 2002 — Experience SUNDAY's leading-edge solutions with products and services. Named the "Official Mobile Network Operator" at ITU Telecom Asia 2002. Partners with Hong Kong Post and Diversinet to promote secure M-Commerce. Joins hands with all Hong Kong mobile operators to launch Inter-Operator MMS (IOMMS).
Nov 2002	Receives Tarifica's Billing Magazine Globe Award 2002 for "Outstanding Billing Implementations — Telecoms" Completes extensive network enhancements to ensure superior network coverage throughout Hong Kong.
Oct 2002	Launches a new monthly service plan to allow subscribers to make calls to both China and Hong Kong with local call charges at the same 24-hour flat rate. Launches the new Rechargeable Mobile Services package which allows prepaid customers of other mobile operators to switch to SUNDAY Rechargeable Mobile Service with their existing mobile number. Joins with CSL and New World Mobility to launch Inter-Operator MMS (IOMMS). Launches a series of mobile data services featuring "My Album", "SUNDAY Look!Hear!", "SUNDAY Games", "Handy Workstation" and "ICQ for SMS" demonstrating mobile technology leadership.
Aug 2002	Shell Mobile ceases Hong Kong operations.
July 2002	SUNDAY effects certain amendments to the UOB/Nortel loan facilities.
Apr 2002	SUNDAY Director Craig Ehrlich elected Deputy Chair of GSM Association for 2002-3.
Mar 2002	SUNDAY Exhibition Booth at the Hong Kong Information Infrastructure Expo. Shell Mobile launches first in the world mobile service targeted at motorists.
Feb 2002	SUNDAY is ranked Number One among Hong Kong telecommunications companies and Number 21 among all Hong Kong companies in Corporate Governance by CLSA.
Jan 2002	Bruce Hicks appointed Group Managing Director of SUNDAY.