

2004 MAJOR EVENTS

On 6 December, CSCL Oceania, the world's largest container ship, started its virgin voyage from Shanghai Port and commenced service of Far East- America Line.

On 5 November, the company's 8,500 TEU (Standard) container ship "CSCL America" completed its virgin voyage and berthed at Dalian Port.

In the afternoon of 22 September, the delivery ceremony of the 5,688 TEU container ship "Xin Fuzhou" was held at the East China Technology Building of Hudong China Shipbuilding (Group) Co., Ltd.

On 9 September, the 8,500 TEU "CSCL Europe", the vessel the Company put to the container line between the Far East and Europe, began her virgin voyage to Port Klang in the Malaysia.

On 9 July, the virgin navigation ceremony of the world's largest 8,468 TEU container ship "CSCL Asia" was held in Shanghai, starting her virgin voyage from the Far East to America.

On 16 June, the Company was successfully listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange.

On 22 March, a grand ceremony of christening and virgin navigation was held at the Haitian Wharf of Xiamen Harbour for "Xin Xiamen" vessel of the Company, which is named after Xiamen City.

23 February witnessed the maiden voyage of the 4,250 TEU container vessel "CSCL Felixstowe". The CSCL AEX 2 line was launched in Shanghai.

On 20 February, China Shipping (Group) Company held the founding meeting of the Company in Shanghai.