Note: Mr Wang Mingcai and Mr Li Hualin are directors of Sun World Limited ("Sun World") which beneficially owned 2,549,317,342 shares in the Company as at 31st December 2005. Sun World is a wholly owned subsidiary of CNPC, the Company's ultimate holding company incorporated in the PRC.

- (b) Share options are granted to directors and chief executives under the executive share option scheme approved by the board of directors on 23rd October 1991 and 3rd June 2002 respectively. Details are set out in the section headed "Share Options" of this report.

Save as disclosed above, at no time during the year was the Company, its subsidiaries, its associates, its fellow subsidiaries or its parent company a party to any arrangement to enable the directors and chief executives of the Company (including their spouses and children under 18 years of age) to hold any interests or short positions in the shares or underlying shares in, or debentures of, the Company or its associated corporations.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

SHARE OPTIONS

Pursuant to a resolution passed on 23rd October 1991, an executive share option scheme (the "1991 Share Option Scheme") was adopted by the Company. The directors of the Company may, at their discretion, invite executives of any companies within the Group, including executive directors, to take up options to subscribe for shares in the Company subject to the terms and conditions stipulated in the 1991 Share Option Scheme. The 1991 Share Option Scheme was early terminated on 28th May 2001 with the share options granted under such scheme still valid until their respective expiry dates. On the same date, another share option scheme (the "2001 Share Option Scheme") was adopted.

On 3rd June 2002, the shareholders of the Company approved the termination (to the effect that no further options shall be offered) of the 2001 Share Option Scheme and the adoption of a new share option scheme (the "2002 Share Option Scheme"). As at 31st December 2005, options to subscribe for a total of 10,000,000 option shares were still outstanding under the 1991 Share Option Scheme. No option was granted under the 2001 Share Option Scheme.

The following is a summary of the principal terms of share option schemes of the Company (for the 1991 and 2002 Share Option Schemes, only those terms applying to the outstanding option shares are set out below):

(a) 1991 Share Option Scheme

The 1991 Share Option Scheme was designed to give executive directors and full-time employees of the Group equity interest in the Company in order to enhance long-term shareholder value. The granting of options will also help the Company to attract and motivate individuals with experience and ability and to reward individuals for past and future performance.

Options may be exercised at any time, but not less than 3 months and not more than 10 years from the date on which the option is granted and accepted by grantee. No amount shall be payable by the grantee to the Company in exercising the right to accept an offer of an option.

The total number of shares may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised under the 1991 Share Option Scheme as at the date of the annual report is 10,000,000, representing approximately 0.21% of the issued share capital of the Company as of that date. The maximum entitlement of any qualifying participant shall not exceed 25% of the aggregate number of shares subject to the scheme.

The 1991 Share Option Scheme was terminated on 28th May 2001 such that thereafter no further options will be granted and the existing options shall continue to be valid and exercisable in accordance with their terms of issue.

(b) 2002 Share Option Scheme

The purpose of the 2002 Share Option Scheme is to provide incentives to the directors and full-time employees of the Company to contribute to the Company and to enable the Company to recruit high-calibre employees and attract human resources that are valuable to the Company.

The maximum number of shares which may be issued upon exercise of all options to be granted under the 2002 Share Option Scheme shall not in aggregate exceed 10% of the shares in issue as at the date of adoption of the 2002 Share Option Scheme (the "Scheme Mandate Limit"), provided that the Company may, at any time as the board of directors of the Company may think fit, seek approval from its shareholders to refresh the Scheme Mandate Limit in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules"). Notwithstanding aforesaid in this paragraph, the maximum number of shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised under the 2002 Share Option Scheme (and under any other scheme of the Company) shall not exceed 30% of the shares in issue from time to time.

The total number of shares may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised under the 2002 Share Option Scheme as at the date of the annual report is 85,500,000 representing approximately 1.77% of the issued share capital of the Company as at that date.

Options may be exercised at any time, but not less than 3 months and not more than 10 years from the date on which the option is granted and accepted by grantee. No amount shall be payable by the grantee to the Company in exercising the right to accept an offer of an option.

The exercise price shall be fixed at such level as the board of directors may determine save that it shall be at least the highest of (i) the closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets on the date of grant, which must be a business day; (ii) the average closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the five business days immediately preceding the date of grant, and (iii) the par value of the shares for the time being.
