Report of the Directors

PURCHASE, SALE OR REDEMPTION OF THE COMPANY'S LISTED SECURITIES

During the year ended 31st December, 2005, there has been no purchase, sale or redemption by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of the Company's listed shares.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE PROVISIONS SET OUT IN THE CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The directors consider that the Company has complied with the Code on Corporate Governance Practice (the "Code") as set out in Appendix 14 of the Listing Rules throughout the year ended 31st December, 2005 except for the following code provisions A.2.1, A.4.2 and E.2.1:

Code Provision A.2.1 – Pursuant to code provision A.2.1, roles of the Chairman and chief executive officer should be separate. In order to comply with this code, Mr. Wong Yiu Ming ("Mr. Wong"), the existing Executive Director and General Manager, has been re-designated as Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of the Company with effect from 12th September, 2005. The date of appointment of Mr. Wong was slightly later than the six months ended 30th June, 2005.

Code Provision A.4.2 – Under the code provision A.4.2 of the Code, (a) All directors appointed to fill a casual vacancy should be subject to election by shareholders at the first general meeting after their appointment; and (b) Every director, including those appointed for a specific term, should be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. According to Article 94 of the Memorandum and New Articles of Association ("M&A") of the Company, "The Board shall have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board. Any Directors so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting." Accordingly, the existing Article 94 of the M&A of the Company constitutes a deviation from code provision A.4.2 of the Code and will be amended in the forthcoming annual general meeting as "The Board shall have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board. Any Director so appointed shall hold office until the next following general meeting of the Company (in the case of filling a casual vacancy) or until the next following annual general meeting of the Company (in case of an addition to the existing Board), and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation as such meeting."

COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE PROVISIONS SET OUT IN THE CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES (Continued)

Besides, according to Article 103(A) of the M&A of the Company, "At each annual general meeting one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest one-third, shall retire from office. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree between themselves) be determined by lot. The retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election." Therefore in order to comply with code provision A.4.2 of the Code, the existing Article 103(A) of the M&A of the Company will be amended in the forthcoming annual general meeting as "At each annual general meeting one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to but not less than one-third, shall retire from office by rotation provided that every Director, including those appointed for a specific term, shall be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree between themselves) be determined by lot. The retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election."

Code Provision E.2.1 – under the Code Provision E.2.1 of the Code, "Directors who, individually or collectively, hold proxies in respect of shares representing 5% or more of the total voting rights at the meeting shall demand a poll in certain circumstances where, on a show of hands, a meeting votes in the opposite manner to that instructed in those proxies." In order to comply with Code Provision E.2.1 of the Code, the existing Article 74 of the M&A is proposed to be amended to add in Article 74(V) in the forthcoming Annual General Meeting to the effect that if required under the Listing Rules, the Chairman and/or any Director or Directors who, individually or collectively, hold proxies in respect of shares representing 5% or more of the total voting rights at the meeting shall demand a poll in certain circumstances where, on a show of hands, a meeting votes in the opposite manner to that instructed in those proxies. If a poll is required under such circumstances, the chairman of the meeting should disclose to the meeting the total number of votes represented by all proxies held by directors indicating an opposite vote to the votes cast at the meeting on a show of hands.

COMPLIANCE WITH MODEL CODE

Throughout the year ended 31st December, 2005, the Company has adopted the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers as set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules and all Directors have confirmed that they have fully complied with the required standard as set out in the Model Code based on the enquiry of all the directors of the Company.
