* for the purpose of identification only

Consideration

The consideration paid by UEIL to Biogrowth for the Sale Shares is HK$15,000,000.00.

The consideration of the Sale Shares has been determined by the parties after arm's length negotiations, on a willing buyer and willing seller basis.

Completion

Completion of the sale and purchase of the Sale Shares has taken place simultaneously upon the signing of the Agreement.

Information on CTTC

CTTC is a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liabilities. Its principal business is the provision of cord blood bank and the relevant laboratory services. As at 30 September 2008, the net assets value of CTTC was HK$4,925,525.00 based on the unaudited management accounts of CTTC for the period from 1 January 2008 to 30 September 2008 and the goodwill associated with CTTC's business was HK$8,200,000.00 based on unaudited management accounts of the Company for the period from 1 January 2008 to 30 September 2008, respectively.

Reasons for and benefits of the disposal of CTTC

The principal activities of the Group are mining operations and processing and storage of core blood. The Board considers that the disposal of CTTC, and thus the disposal of part of the Group's principal business in processing and storage of core blood, will enable the Company to concentrate on its investments in its remaining principal subsidiaries, in particular, in mining operations.

The Directors are of the view that the terms of the Agreement are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.
