

Governance

124	Chairman's Governance Overview
126	Our Leadership - Board Members
132	Our Leadership - Senior Management and Key Functions
134	Our Leadership - Diversity
136	Corporate Governance Report
154	Group Risk Committee Report
162	Group Corporate Responsibility Committee Report
164	Audit Committee Report
166	Nomination Committee Report
168	Remuneration Committee Report
172	Directors' Report

The Peninsula Rolls-Royce Fleet

The Peninsula Hong Kong and Rolls-Royce have had a record-breaking partnership since 1970, when the hotel first bought seven Silver Shadow Rolls-Royce cars, followed by eight Silver Shadow II's in 1980, eight Rolls-Royce Silver Spirits in 1987 and 14 new Extended Wheelbase Phantoms in 2006. The hotel also owns one 1934 Rolls-Royce Phantom II. As James Bond was informed in the 1970s film The Man with the Golden Gun: "Everyone knows all the green Rolls-Royces belong to The Peninsula."

