Hence, we are committed to monitoring all OHS related risks and providing a healthy and safe working environment for our employees, as well as all other persons likely to be affected by our operations and activities. We believe that our employees are our key to a successful business and that a safe working environment would help improve work performance as well as benefits to our employees.

During the Reporting Period, the Group has complied with all health and safety related laws and regulations, and no cases of violation were identified.

Safety measures

The Group requires that all personnel within the production and warehouse facilities take full precaution with appropriate safety requirement and standards that were previously communicated to all employees. Our goal is to control, eliminate OHS hazards, prevent occupational diseases, and to protect our employees.

For instance, production line workers are required to wear disposable face masks every shift when performing their work duties to protect them from inhaling air particles such as dust when handling fabrics. For production workers that handle laser technology, the Group has arranged to assess the potential effect of laser on their eyes and skin during the Reporting Period to ensure their health is not affected by their job duties.

During the Reporting Period, the Group enlisted the expertise of a qualified external service provider to assess potential hazardous elements in our Mainland China production facility that might cause occupational diseases. The evaluation aimed to ensure the well-being of our employees by examining factors such as airborne particles, noise, and radiation produced by machinery in the production line. The results confirmed that all tested elements met acceptable standards and complied with local government regulations.

The Group has implemented a systematic reporting mechanism for employees to voice concerns about safety-related issues. All staff members are urged to report any perceived workplace hazards to their supervisors or management, allowing prompt and appropriate action to be taken. In cases of significant occupational diseases or work-related injuries, the Group addresses the issue in a timely manner, supports the affected employee in obtaining proper medical care, conducts a thorough investigation, and implements suitable measures such as supplying appropriate protective equipment and reminding staff to prevent similar incidents. Our management is also accountable for reporting to local authorities as needed. Moreover, all OHS accidents are subject to investigation. During the Reporting Period, there have been zero work-related lost days, and notably, no fatalities have occurred in the workplace over the past three years.

The Group will continue to regularly maintain our protection equipment and facilities to improve the health and safety of the working environment especially for our production line workers to identify and prevent any potential occupational health and safety hazards. For instance, the Group will continue to maintain effective ventilation, to educate employees the correct way to use personal protective equipment, and to regularly update safety precaution signage for hazardous chemicals and issue reminder to wear appropriate personal protective equipment.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT (CONTINUED)

Safety training

One of our key strategies for enhancing OHS awareness within the organization involves providing comprehensive educational opportunities for our employees. To achieve this, we are committed to expanding the overall number of OHS training sessions and instructional hours for our production staff by implementing an annual training roadmap. The training curriculum encompasses various essential topics, such as compliance with pertinent health and safety regulations, first aid proficiency, chemical handling procedures, and the effective use of fire safety equipment within both factory and dormitory premises.

During the Reporting Period, a factory wide fire drill was arranged and conducted for workers to learn how to operate fire safety equipment as well as to enhance their awareness on fire safety. This fire drill was not announced in advance to assess the ability of workers on handling emergency situations. The Group will continue to enhance safety education and raise awareness among workers.

In addition, specific safety training sessions that target new workers and special equipment operators were conducted. For instance, new workers were required to attend a session on fire safety prevention, compliance and risk control prior to their first day of work, with a departmental safety training once they started, and followed by a more detailed training tailored to their everyday tasks. As for special equipment operators, the Group would arrange an external training necessary for them to renew their licenses.

TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

In addition to emphasizing health and safety training, our Group highly values career development, ethics, and integrity education for our employees. We take responsibility for ensuring all employees are informed about the Group's internal strategies and policies.

We offer a comprehensive training program that comprises in-house training, regular sharing sessions, and on-the-job coaching. These resources are provided consistently to ensure our employees possess the necessary skills to perform their duties effectively and efficiently. During the Reporting Period, we conducted a series of training sessions focused on our production process to improve quality control and boost operational efficiency within our production line.

For machinery requiring specialized skillsets, we send the responsible employees to attend professional external training sessions. This not only ensures proper operation of our equipment but also minimizes the risk of work-related injuries. For office staff, we offer various training opportunities, including procurement-related skills and IT proficiency enhancement. For management personnel, we provide training sessions aimed at improving management capabilities and deepening their understanding of relevant laws and regulations.

We believe that adequate trainings could enhance our employees' competency in performing their jobs. The Group will continue to encourage and support all of our employees in personal and professional training to not only benefit the business operations of the Group, but also their personal and career growth.

The rents paid/payable under the 2024 Leases and the rents paid by HYG for the abovementioned leases of premises from Mr. S Chong and Mr. P Chong for the year ended 31 March 2025 were negotiated on an arm's length basis and determined with reference to the market rent of the premises in similar location as at the commencement date of such leases. The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are also of the view that the 2024 Leases are fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms and in the interests of the Group and Shareholders as a whole.

Each of Mr. S Chong and Mr. P Chong is the executive Director and is a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Leases will constitute continuing connected transactions for the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

As the transaction amount for the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Leases for the year ended 31 March 2025 was less than HK$3.0 million and each of the applicable percentage ratios in respect of the annual cap for the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Leases is less than 5%, the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Leases are fully exempt from the reporting, annual review, announcement, circular and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.76(2) of the Listing Rules.

Subsequent to the end of the reporting period, on 1 April 2025, HYG entered into a tenancy agreement with Mr. S Chong and Mr. P Chong (collectively the "2025 Leases") for renewing the lease of the Leased Site for a term of one year commencing from 1 April 2025 and expiring on 31 March 2026 at a monthly rental of RMB146,400.00 for the lease of the factory and RMB62,641.92 for the lease of the staff dormitory.

Non-exempt Continuing Connected Transactions

Sale of bridal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and special occasion dresses to Veromia Limited

During the year ended 31 March 2025, the Group sold bridal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and special occasion dresses to Veromia Limited ("Veromia"). On 18 April 2024, KNT and Veromia entered into a sales framework agreement (the "2024 Sales Framework Agreement"), pursuant to which the Group agreed to sell and Veromia agreed to purchase bridal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and special occasion dresses from the Group for the period commencing from 1 April 2024 and expiring on 31 March 2027 (the "Veromia Sales Transactions").

For the year ended 31 March 2025, the sales to Veromia amounted to approximately HK$4.2 million.

The price charged by KNT for the sale of bridal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and special occasion dresses to Veromia was determined on an arm's length basis between KNT and Veromia having regards to the quality, quantity and delivery timeline of the bridal gowns, bridesmaid dresses and special occasion dresses supplied. The gross profit margins of the sales to Veromia for the year ended 31 March 2025 were comparable to the gross profit margins of the Group's overall sales for the year.

The annual caps of sales (the "Sales Annual Caps") under the 2024 Sales Framework Agreement for each of the three years ending 31 March 2025, 31 March 2026 and 31 March 2027 are HK$9.5 million, HK$9.5 million and HK$9.5 million, respectively. The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) confirmed that the Sales Annual Caps were determined on normal commercial terms after taking into account (i) the terms of the 2024 Sales Framework Agreement; (ii) the relevant historical transaction amounts; and (iii) the future business needs and expected growth of Veromia ascertained through discussion with the management of Veromia, and were therefore fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Veromia is a limited company incorporated in the United Kingdom and wholly-owned by Mr. S Chong. As Mr. S Chong is the executive Director, Veromia is an associate of his and is therefore a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Sales Framework Agreement will constitute continuing connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Since all the applicable percentage ratios as defined in Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules are less than 25% and each of the Sales Annual Caps is less than HK$10.0 million, the transactions contemplated under the 2024 Sales Framework Agreement are subject to the reporting, annual review and announcement requirements but are exempted from circular (including independent financial advice) and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.76(2) of the Listing Rules.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF KNT HOLDINGS LIMITED

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of KNT Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 80 to 163, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 March 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSA") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (CONTINUED)

KEY AUDIT MATTER

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matter

How the matter was addressed in the audit

Fair values of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties

As at 31 March 2025, the Group had significant amounts of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties amounting to approximately HK$27,400,000 and HK$10,300,000, respectively that were measured at fair value using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy).

Management engaged an independent external valuer with relevant qualifications to perform the valuation of such properties. The fair values of the leasehold land and buildings and investment properties were determined based on the direct comparable approach that reflects recent transaction prices for similar properties, adjusted for differences in the nature and location. The changes in estimates and assumptions would result in changes in the fair values of the respective properties.

The Company's disclosures about leasehold land and buildings and investment properties are included in notes 14 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements.

Our procedures to assess the fair values of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties included:

- Assessing the objectivity, capability and competence of the independent external valuer engaged by management;
- Obtaining the valuation reports and assessing the appropriateness and reasonableness of the valuation method, assumptions as well as the key valuation inputs applied, such as the comparable market transactions;
- Challenging with the management and the independent external valuer on the assumptions adopted in the valuation and involved our internal valuation expert to assist us in evaluating the valuation, including checking input data against the market data and adjustment factors for nature and location in similar industries; and
- Reviewing the presentation and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements regarding the fair values of the respective properties.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purpose of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the audit committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the audit committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the audit committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The principal activity of the Company is investment holding. The principal activities of the subsidiaries of the Company are manufacturing and trading of garment products.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong Dollars (“HK$”), which is also the functional currency of the Company.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO HKFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

New and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Group has applied the following amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the Group’s annual periods beginning on 1 April 2024 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current

Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangement

For the year ended 31 March 2025

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO HKFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS (CONTINUED)

New and Amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards that have been issued but are not yet effective:

HKFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements ³
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments ²
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Contract Referencing Nature – dependent Electricity ²
Amendments to HKAS 28 and HKFRS 10	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture ⁴
Amendments to HKAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability ¹
Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11	Amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 9, HKFRS 10 and HKAS 7 ²

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2025

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026

³ Effective for annual/reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027

⁴ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

Except for the new and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards mentioned below, the directors of the Company anticipate that the application of all other new and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

HKFRS 18 replaces HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. While a number of sections have been brought forward from HKAS 1 with limited changes, HKFRS 18 introduces new requirements for presentation within the statement of profit or loss, including specified totals and subtotals. Entities are required to classify all income and expenses within the statement of profit or loss into one of the five categories: operating, investing, financing, income taxes and discontinued operations, and to present two new defined subtotals. It also requires disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note and introduces enhanced requirements on the grouping (aggregation and disaggregation) and the location of information in both the primary financial statements and the notes. Some requirements previously included in HKAS 1 are moved to HKAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, which is renamed as HKAS 8 Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements. As a consequence of the issuance of HKFRS 18, limited, but widely applicable, amendments are made to HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows, HKAS 33 Earnings Per Share and HKAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. In addition, there are minor consequential amendments to other HKFRSs. HKFRS 18 and the consequential amendments to other HKFRSs will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 with earlier application permitted. Retrospective application is required. The Group is currently analysing the new requirements and assessing the impact of HKFRS 18 on the presentation and disclosure of the Group's financial statements.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

(a) Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards which includes all Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs"), issued by the HKICPA. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules") and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The Group incurred a loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$23,808,000 for the year ended 31 March 2025 and recorded net current liabilities of approximately HK$6,264,000 as at 31 March 2025. In assessing the appropriateness of the use of the going concern in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements, the Board has given careful consideration to the Group's future liquidity and performance, debt restructuring and available sources of financing, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) The Group has in place a loan facility of HK$5,500,000 (including the existing bank borrowing of approximately HK$1,689,000) to finance its operating costs;
- (b) On 11 April 2025, the Company completed a rights issue on the basis of three rights shares for every one share and issued 151,637,790 ordinary shares of the Company. Net proceeds (after deducting all relevant expenses) from the rights issue were approximately HK$41,600,000; and
- (c) The Group has been continuing to develop its business to improve its cash flow from operations. The Directors are of the opinion that, taking into account the above-mentioned measures, the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due within the next twelve months from the date of approval for issue of these consolidated financial statements.

Accordingly, they are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

For the year ended 31 March 2025

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain properties that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment, leasing transactions that are accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 16 Leases, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 Inventories or value in use in HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

(b) Material accounting policy information

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

(b) Material accounting policy information (continued)

Interests in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associates used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Appropriate adjustments have been made to conform the associate's accounting policies to those of the Group. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. Changes in net assets of the associate other than profit or loss and other comprehensive income are not accounted for unless such changes resulted in changes in ownership interest held by the Group. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate or a joint venture. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate or joint venture and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of HKFRS 9, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of the relevant interest in the associate or joint venture is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate or joint venture on the same basis as would be required if that associate had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income by that associate would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) upon disposal/partial disposal of the relevant associate.

When a group entity transacts with an associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognised in the consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when “control” of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group’s performance as the Group performs;
- the Group’s performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group’s performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct good or service.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. The Group receives upfront deposits of 30% of total contract sum from certain customers and this has resulted in a contract liability.

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with customer. The Group recognises revenue when it transfers control of goods to a customer.

The Group recognises revenue mainly from the sales of garment products (including bridesmaid dresses, bridal gowns, special occasion dresses, accessories and others).

Sales of garment products

Revenue from the sales of garment products is recognised at a point in time when the control of goods has transferred, being when the goods have been delivered to the customers' specific location. Transportation and other related activities that occur before customers obtains control of the related products are considered as fulfilment activities.

A receivable is recognised by the Group when the goods are delivered to the customers as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional, as only the passage of time is required before payment is due.

Lease

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application of HKFRS 16, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group as a lessee

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

For a contract that contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

Short-term leases

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis or another systematic basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in expected payment under a guaranteed residual value, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability, less any lease incentives receivable, based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The Group accounts for the remeasurement of lease liabilities by making corresponding adjustments to the relevant right-of-use asset.

When the modified contract contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Group as a lessor

Classification and measurement of leases

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset, and such costs are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term except for investment properties measured under fair value model.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Lease modification

Changes in considerations of lease contracts that were not part of the original terms and conditions are accounted for as lease modifications, including lease incentives provided through forgiveness or reduction of rentals.

The Group accounts for a modification to an operating lease as a new lease from the effective date of the modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. HK$) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during that period, in which case the exchange rates at the date of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of exchange reserve.

Employee benefits

Retirement benefits costs

Payments to the stated-managed retirement benefits schemes and the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

Short-term and employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave) after deducting any amount already paid.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants related to income that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Such grants are presented under "other income".

Income tax

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from loss before tax because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for investment properties that are measured using the fair value model, the carrying amounts of such properties are presumed to be recovered entirely through sale, unless the presumption is rebutted.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 Income Taxes requirements to the leasing transaction as a whole. Temporary differences relating to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are assessed on a net basis. Excess of depreciation on right-of-use assets over the lease payments for the principal portion of lease liabilities resulting in net deductible temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment other than leasehold land and buildings are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any. Leasehold land and buildings are stated at their fair value at the end of the reporting period.

Leasehold land and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at their revalued amounts, being the fair value at the date of revaluation less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as “right-of-use assets” in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property, plant and equipment.

Revaluations are performed with sufficient regularity such that the carrying amount does not differ materially from that which would be determined using fair values at the end of the reporting period. Revaluation is also performed immediately before the transfer of a property to investment property because of change in use. Any revaluation increase arising from revaluation of leasehold land and buildings is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in revaluation reserve, except to the extent that it reverses a revaluation decrease of the same asset previously recognised in profit or loss, in which case the increase is credited to profit or loss to the extent of the decrease previously charged. A decrease in carrying amount arising on revaluation of such leasehold land and building is recognised in profit or loss to the extent that it exceeds the balance, if any, on the revaluation reserve relating to a previous revaluation of that asset. The difference between depreciation based on the revalued carrying amount and depreciation based on original cost is transferred to accumulated losses as the relevant asset is used by the Group. On the subsequent sale or retirement of a revalued asset, the attributable revaluation surplus is transferred to accumulated losses. Transfers from revaluation surplus to accumulated losses are not made through profit or loss.

Depreciation is recognised so as to allocate the cost of items of property, plant and equipment less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation.

Investment properties are initially measured at cost, including any directly attributable expenditure or fair value as at the date of transfer from property, plant and equipment. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are measured at fair value, adjusted to exclude any prepaid or accrued operating lease income. Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of investment properties are included in profit or loss for the period in which they arise.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the property (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss in the period in which the property is derecognised.

Intangible asset

Intangible asset with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Amortisation for intangible asset with finite useful lives is provided on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of the reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains and losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognised in profit or loss in the period when the asset is derecognised.

Impairment losses on property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any.

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The Group assesses whether there is indication that corporate assets may be impaired. If such indication exists, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a cash-generating unit) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

- (a) cash, which comprises of cash on hand and demand deposits, excluding bank balances that are subject to regulatory restrictions that result in such balances no longer meeting the definition of cash; and
- (b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term (generally with original maturity of three months or less), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management. Such overdrafts are presented as bank overdrafts in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories are determined on a weighted-average method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Costs necessary to make the sale include incremental costs directly attributable to the sale and non-incremental costs which the Group must incur to make the sale.

Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15 Revenue from contracts with Customers. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL").

In addition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that are required to be measured at the amortised cost as measured at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.

Amortised cost and interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired. For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired.

Impairment of financial assets subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss ("ECL") model on financial assets (including trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, amount due from an associate and bank balances). The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience and factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always assesses lifetime ECL for trade receivables and the ECL on these assets are assessed individually for each debtor. The ECL on those financial assets are estimated by applying a probability-weighted estimate of the credit loss for each debtor. The probability-weighted estimate of the credit loss is determined based on the Group's historical credit loss experience and factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current as well as forecast direction of conditions at the end of the reporting period, including time value of money where appropriate.

For all other financial instruments, the Group assesses the loss allowance equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

The Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full.

The Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of accounts receivable, when the amounts are over two years past due, whichever occurs sooner. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement of and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount with the exception of trade receivables where the correspondence adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities and equity

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities (including trade payables, other payables and accruals, amounts due to directors and borrowings and bank overdrafts) are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

4. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the management of the Group is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following is the key assumption concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Net realisable value of raw materials

Management of the Group determines provision for obsolete and slow-moving raw materials that are no longer suitable for use in production based on the ageing of inventories and carries out a review on an item-by-item basis with reference to subsequent usage of raw materials, current market condition and expectation of future usage.

As at 31 March 2025, the carrying amounts of raw materials are approximately HK$3,225,000 (2024: HK$2,830,000).

Estimation of fair values of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties

The fair value is based on valuation of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties conducted by an independent external valuer with relevant qualifications (the "Valuer"). In determining the fair values of the Group's leasehold land and buildings and investment properties, the Valuer applied a direct comparison approach which involves, inter alia, significant unobservable inputs and judgements.

The carrying amounts of leasehold land and buildings and investment properties which under revaluation amount as at 31 March 2025 were approximately HK$27,400,000 (2024: HK$29,600,000) and HK$10,300,000 (2024: HK$11,200,000), respectively. Further details, including the key assumptions used for fair value measurement, are given in notes 14 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements.

Provision of ECL for trade receivables, deposits and other receivables

The Group assesses lifetime ECL on trade receivables, including amount due from Veromia Limited, a related company, on an individual basis under the ECL model. The estimation on ECL is required in assessing probability-weighted estimate of the credit loss within the relevant time band which is based on the Group's historical credit loss experience and the factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and forward-looking information that is reasonable and supportable available without undue costs or effort. For deposits and other receivables, the management of the Group assesses 12-month ECL on an individual assessment on the recoverability of these balances based on the debtor's credit quality and also available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. If there is a significant increase in credit risk on the debtors of the Group since initial recognition, additional ECL may be required.

The provision of ECL is sensitive to changes in estimates. The information about the ECL is disclosed in note 35 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 March 2025, the carrying amounts of trade receivables, deposits and other receivables are approximately HK$6,867,000 (2024: HK$7,121,000) and HK$34,293,000 (2024: HK$33,755,000), respectively.

For the purpose of resources allocation and performance assessment, the chief operating decision maker (i.e. the executive directors of the Company) reviews revenue analysis by geographic location of customers, overall results and financial position of the Group as a whole based on same accounting policies set out in note 3. No other discrete financial information is provided other than the Group's result and financial position as a whole. Accordingly, only entity-wide disclosures are presented.

At 31 March 2025, the Group's leasehold land and buildings with carrying amounts of approximately HK$25,600,000 (2024: HK$27,800,000) were pledged to secure certain banking facilities granted to the Group.

Impairment assessment on property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets, other than leasehold land and buildings

Due to the continuingly loss generated by the Group during the last few years, the management of the Group conducted impairment assessment on certain property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets during the years ended 31 March 2025 and 2024 and details of which are described below:

For the purpose of the impairment assessment of certain property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets, management has determined that it was not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of these assets individually. The Group allocated these assets to the cash generating unit ("CGU") of sales of garment products, being the single CGU of the Group (including allocation of corporate assets).

The recoverable amount of the CGU has been determined based on a value in use calculation. The calculation uses cash flow projections based on the financial budgets approved by management covering a 5-year period and a discount rate of 15% (2024: 15%). The cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using nil growth rate (2024: nil). This growth rate is based on the industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the long-term average growth rate for the relevant industry. Other key assumption for the value in use calculation related to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budgeted revenue, gross profit margin and growth rate during the forecast period, such estimation is based on the Group's historical performance, sales orders on hand and market trend.

Based on the result of the assessment, the management of the Group determined that the estimated recoverable amount of the CGU was lower than the carrying amounts of the relevant assets. Accordingly, an impairment loss of approximately HK$31,000 (2024: HK$56,000) on property, plant and equipment was recognised for the year ended 31 March 2025. No impairment loss on right-of-use assets was recognised for the years ended 31 March 2025 and 2024.

Fair value measurement of the Group's leasehold land and buildings

The Group's leasehold land and buildings were valued on 31 March 2025 and 2024 by Roma Appraisals Limited, independent qualified professional valuers not related to the Group.

The fair value of the leasehold land and buildings was determined based on the direct comparable approach that reflects recent transaction prices for similar properties, adjusted for differences in the nature and location under review. There has been no change to the valuation technique during the year ended 31 March 2025.

In estimating the fair value of the properties, the highest and best use of the properties is their current use.

The key unobservable inputs used in valuing the leasehold land and buildings was the adjusted price per square feet, which ranged from HK$3,176 to HK$3,944 (2024: HK$3,493 to HK$3,864). An increase in the adjusted price per square feet used would result in an increase in the fair value measurement of the leasehold land and buildings, and vice versa.

The Group's leasehold land and buildings are located in Hong Kong and their fair value measurement is categorised as Level 3 fair value hierarchy. There were no transfers into or out of Level 3 during the years ended 31 March 2025 and 2024.

If the leasehold land and buildings had not been revalued, they would have been included in these consolidated financial statements at historical cost less accumulated depreciation of approximately HK$3,477,000 (2024: HK$3,643,000).

33. RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEME

The Group participates the MPF Scheme for all its qualifying employees in Hong Kong. The assets of the schemes are held separately from those of the Group, in funds under the control of trustees.

For members of the MPF Scheme, the Group contributes the lower of HK$1,500 or 5% of relevant payroll costs per person to the MPF Scheme, which contribution is matched by the employees.

The employees of the subsidiary in the PRC are members of the pension scheme operated by the PRC government. The relevant PRC subsidiary is required to contribute a certain percentage of the relevant portion of these employees' basis salaries to the pension to fund the benefits.

The only obligation of the Group with respect to these retirement benefits schemes is to make the specified contributions. During the year, the total amounts contributed by the Group to the schemes and costs charged to the profit or loss represents contributions paid or payable to the scheme by the Group at rates specified in the rules of the scheme.

At 31 March 2025 and 2024, there were no significant forfeited contributions which arose upon employees leaving the schemes before they are fully vested in the contributions and which are available to reduce the contributions payable by the Group in the future.

The retirement benefits scheme contributions made by the Group are disclosed in notes 10 and 11 to the consolidated financial statements.

34. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The overall strategy remains unchanged from prior year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debts, which includes lease liabilities, amounts due to directors and borrowings and bank overdrafts as disclosed in notes 25, 27 and 28 to the consolidated financial statements, and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital as disclosed in note 30 to the consolidated financial statements and reserves as disclosed in consolidated statement of changes in equity.

The management of the Group reviews the capital structure regularly. As part of the review, the directors of the Company consider the cost and the risks associated with each class of the capital. Based on the recommendations of the directors of the Company, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through issue of new shares, issue of new debt and redemption of existing debts.

(b) Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's financial instruments include trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, amount due from an associate and bank balances and cash, trade payables, other payables and accruals, amounts due to directors, borrowings and bank overdrafts.

Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in the respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risks (currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management of the Group manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

(i) Market risk

(a) Currency risk

The Group has foreign currency sales and purchases, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk. Approximately 17.6% (2024: 22.9%) of the Group's sales are denominated in foreign currency other than the functional currency of the group entities, whilst almost 57.1% (2024: 45.9%) of purchase of goods are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the group entities during the year ended 31 March 2025.

The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy. However, management of the Group monitors foreign exchange exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities, excluding those denominated in HK$/US$ of which the management of the Group considers the impact on exchange rate fluctuation between these two currencies is minimal, at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

	British Pound ("GBP")		Australian Dollar ("AUD")		Euro ("EUR")		Renminbi ("RMB")
	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000

Bank balances and cash	6	6	-	-	3	3	-	-
Trade payables	-	-	-	-	(2)	(2)	(3,902)	(2,480)

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to foreign currency for the effects of fluctuation in GBP and RMB against HK$. A 50 basis points increase is used, which represents management's assessment of reasonably possible changes in foreign currency rates.

The Group's sensitivity to a 5% (2024: 5%) increase and decrease in the HK$ against the relevant foreign currencies 5% (2024: 5%) is the sensitivity rate used in directors' assessment of the possible reasonably change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes the Group's outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items as well as inter-group foreign currency balances and adjusts their translation at the reporting period for a 5% (2024: 5%) change in foreign currency rates. A negative number indicates an increase in loss before tax where the HK$ strengthens against the relevant currencies. For a 5% weakening of the HK$ against the relevant currencies, there would be an equal and opposite impact on loss before tax.

Profit or loss	(107)	(126)	195	124

No sensitivity analysis is provided on the exposure to foreign currency for the effects of fluctuation in AUD and EUR against HK$ as the management of the Group considers that the exchange rate fluctuation is minimal.

(b) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed-rate amount due from an associate, other loan and lease liabilities. The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank balances (see note 22 to the consolidated financial statements for details) and borrowings and bank overdrafts (see note 28 to the consolidated financial statements for details).

The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly arisen from the fluctuations of the HIBOR, bank's standard bills rate or Hong Kong Prime Rate on the Group's floating-rate bank loans and overdrafts or the fluctuation of other market rates on bank balances.

The Group currently does not have interest rate risk hedging policy. However, the management of the Group closely monitors its exposure to future cash flow interest rate risk as a result of change on market interest rate and will consider hedging changes in market interest rates should the need arise.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for variable-rate borrowings and bank overdrafts. The analysis is prepared assuming the amount of bank loans and overdrafts outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 50 basis points increase is used for bank loans and overdrafts, which represents management's assessment of reasonably possible changes in interest rates.

For bank loans and overdrafts, if interest rate increases/decreases by 50 basis points and all other variables were held constant, the loss before tax for the year ended 31 March 2025 will increase/decrease by approximately HK$65,000 (2024: HK$85,000).

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the interest rate risk as the exposure at the end of the reporting period does not reflect the exposure during the year.

No sensitivity analysis is provided on bank balances as the management of the Group considers that the interest rate fluctuation on bank balances is minimal.

(ii) Credit risk and impairment assessment

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, amount due from an associate and bank balances.

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties provided by the Group is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the end of the reporting period.

(ii) Credit risk and impairment assessment (continued)

Trade receivables

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. Before accepting any new customer, the Group uses an internal credit rating system to assess the potential customer's credit quality and defines credit limits by customer. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual debt at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. The Group applies simplified approach on trade receivable to provide for ECL prescribed by HKFRS 9. To measure the ECL, trade receivables have been assessed individually.

At 31 March 2025, the Group had concentration of credit risk as 35.6% (2024: 35.3%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest debtor. The Group's concentration of credit risk on the top five largest debtors accounted for 94.9% (2024: 87.7%) of the total trade receivables as at 31 March 2025.

Deposits and other receivables

For deposits and other receivables, the management of the Group makes periodic individual assessment on the recoverability of these balances based on the debtor's credit quality and also available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. The management of the Group considers that there is no material credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding balance of deposits and other receivables. Based on assessment by the management of the Group, the ECL for deposits and other receivables is insignificant.

Amount due from an associate

The Group regularly monitors the business performance of the associate. The Group's credit risks in these balances are mitigated through the value of the assets held by these entities and the power to participate the relevant activities of these entities. The Group provided the 12-month ECL impairment assessment on amount due from an associate. The Group does not consider the credit risks are significant since initial recognition, considering an associate does not have defaults in the past. For the year ended 31 March 2024, the Group assessed the ECL for amount due from an associate are insignificant and thus no loss allowance is recognised.

Bank balances

The management of the Group considers that the credit risks on bank balances are limited because the banks are financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies. The Group assessed 12-month ECL by reference to probability of default, loss given default by the relevant credit rating grades published by international credit rating agencies and concluded that the ECL is insignificant.

The Group's internal credit risk grading assessment comprises the following categories:

Internal credit rating	Description	Trade receivables	Other financial assets
Low risk	The counterparty has a low risk of default, have frequent repayments and does not have an substantial past-due amounts	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	12-month ECL
Watch list	Debtor frequently repays after due dates but usually settle in full	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	12-month ECL
Doubtful	There have been significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition through information developed internally or external resources	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired
Loss	There is evidence indicating the asset is credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery	Amount is written off	Amount is written off

		A3 – A1	N/A	12-month ECL	4,552	404
		SG	N/A	12-month ECL	202	235

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group applies internal credit rating for its customers. The debtors are assessed individually by reference to past default experience and current past due exposure of the debtor, and an analysis of the debtor's current financial position.

The estimated loss rates are estimated based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and forward-looking information (for example, the current and forecasted economic growth rates in Europe and the United States of America, which reflect the general economic conditions of the industry in which the debtors operate) that is available without undue cost or effort. Such forward-looking information is used by the management of the Group to assess both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date. The grouping is regularly reviewed by the management of the Group to ensure relevant information about specific debtors is updated. There has been no change in the estimation techniques or significant assumptions made for both years.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, bank loans and overdrafts with a repayment on demand clause are included in the earliest time band regardless of the probability of the banks choosing to exercise their rights. The maturity dates for other financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates. The table include both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest rates are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate at the end of the reporting period.
