Chairman's Statement

To our shareholders,

On behalf of C C Land Holdings Limited, I am pleased to present the annual results of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2025.

The Group recorded a consolidated revenue of HK$546.3 million (2024: HK$508.3 million) and a net loss of HK$444.4 million (2024: HK$617.9 million) for the year ended 31 December 2025. The increase in revenue was mainly due to the signing of new leases in One Kingdom Street in the second half of 2024 and the appreciation of the GBP against HKD during the year. The substantial reduction in loss for the year was primarily due to the turnaround from the recording of exchange losses of HK$56.1 million in the previous year to exchange gains of HK$102.1 million, the decrease in finance costs by HK$95.7 million and the turnover from a tax charge of HK$22.3 million to a tax credit of HK$52.7 million due to overprovision of the tax in the UK in prior years which was offset by the increase in the share of losses from the Group's joint venture investments (including investments in joint ventures and associates) by approximately HK$157.8 million resulting from decrease in property sales revenue and recognition of preferential return from The Whiteley. The loss attributable to shareholders for the year was HK$466.7 million (2024: HK$617.9 million). The basic loss per share for the year was HK12.02 cents (2024: HK15.92 cents).

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group is an international real estate company and its key property investment and development projects are located in several major metropolitan cities, namely, London, Hong Kong, and key cities in Chinese mainland.

During the year, the Group's office leasing business in the UK remained strong and generated a total rental income of HK$535.7 million, up by 17.6% with rent collection staying at the high level of 98%. The occupancy rates for the Group's two core investment properties in the UK, namely The Leadenhall Building and One Kingdom Street, improved to 100% (2024: 100%) and 89% (2024: 89%) respectively. The Group had successfully completed the new leases in One Kingdom Street for a total area of approximately 47,600 sqf in 2024 and the rent review of approximately 269,800 sqf in The Leadenhall Building with an average 13% increase in the annual rent. These two trophy assets provided momentum for the increase of rental income during the year. The Group's proactive engagement with tenants to maintain a high occupancy rate and high tenants retention contributed to the rental income growth. The Group is glad to see these two office buildings remain a choice office in Central London.

Despite interest rate cuts in major economies, geopolitical tensions persist, hindering economic relaxation. Even faced with the challenges of the new tariffs imposed by the USA, the Group still achieved remarkable sales performance from the No. 15 Shouson project (a 42% owned joint venture luxury residential development project in Hong Kong). The sales of 2 luxury villas were completed during the year yielding a total sales revenue of approximately HK$810 million. Subsequent to the year end, the sale of 3 luxury villas with a total contract selling price of HK$807 million was completed.

In terms of the development projects in the UK, 105 units of The Whiteley have been pre-sold for a total value of GBP712 million as at 31 December 2025, out of which, 100 units with a sales revenue of GBP662 million have been delivered to the buyers. The remaining 5 pre-sold units are scheduled for delivery to the buyers in the first half of 2026. In addition, the sale of the 109-key Six Senses Hotel which forms part of The Whiteley for a consideration of GBP180 million was completed in early 2026. Over the past two years, following the remarkable sales performance of Thames City Phase I, only a few large units remain unsold. The sales slowed down a bit in the year.

As at 31 December 2025, 523 residential units valued at over GBP1.1 billion have been contracted for sale since the project's launch, attracting buyers from both local and global origins. During the year, 29 units with a value of GBP135 million were delivered to the buyers. The revenue for the rest of the presold residential units will be recognized accordingly when the units are delivered to the buyers. Construction work for Phase II of Thames City has commenced and is progressing smoothly.

Apart from London, the Group has several property investment and development projects in Hong Kong and some key cities in Chinese mainland.

There is still no sign of recovery in the Chinese mainland property market. Benefitting from the interest rate cut by the major economies, the residential property market in Hong Kong is showing signs of recovery in the second half of 2025, but the office sector remains subdued.

With the booming financial markets, the treasury segment recorded an unrealized gain of HK$17.4 million (2024: HK$4.1 million) from its investment portfolio. The Group will continuously adopt a prudent investment strategy and assess the performance of its investment portfolio to make timely and appropriate adjustments to optimize its investments holding with a view to generating favorable returns to its shareholders.

OUTLOOK

Looking ahead, the Group anticipates that its office leasing business in London will continue to provide a stable growth momentum, considering the city's status as a global financial hub and the superb quality of the Group's property portfolio. With good market fundamentals and through its proven asset management capability, the Group expects to continue receiving growing contribution from its office leasing business in the coming years. The Group will continually benefit from the development of Thames City Phase II and cash returns from completion of the sale of the remaining units of Thames City Phase I and The Whiteley.

For the Group's property investment and development projects in Hong Kong and the Chinese mainland, the performance for the year under review was impacted by the unstable and uncertain economic environment. The Group believes these cities with their robust infrastructures will have continual economic growth, and investments can generate good returns on a long term basis due to the structural demand for real estates in a growing economy.

The Group anticipates that geopolitical tensions will persist over the next one to two years, contributing to uncertainties and volatility in the global economy. In this ever-changing environment, the Group will continue its prudent strategy of achieving asset growth, selecting investment opportunities and focus on realizing assets sale at the appropriate time.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Board, management and staff for their diligence, loyalty and dedication. I am grateful to our shareholders, strategic partners and banks for their continual support and trust which have contributed towards the Group's success.

Cheung Chung Kiu

Chairman

Hong Kong, 20 March 2026

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group continues its property development and investment business in major cosmopolitan cities, covering London, the UK, Hong Kong, and some key cities in the Chinese mainland. The Group believes these cities with their sound infrastructures will see continual economic growth, and prudent investments can generate attractive returns on a long-term basis.

Revenue and Operating Results

Performance for the year was continuously impacted by the volatile markets with unstable and unpredictable economic conditions arising from the escalating geopolitical and trade tensions. The London property market, however, has remained resilient. Following the implementation of various relaxation measures and the influx of capital into Hong Kong, the local financial market is booming. The Hong Kong residential market is also showing signs of recovery since the second half of the year while the office market remains subdued. The rental income from the investment property portfolio amounted to HK$535.7 million representing an increase of 17.6% compared to that of last year which was mainly due to the signing of new leases in One Kingdom Street in the second half of 2024 and the appreciation of the GBP against the HKD during the year.

Total revenue increased by 7.5% to HK$546.3 million (2024: HK$508.3 million).

The Group's treasury investment business continues to benefit from the improvement in the performance of the Hong Kong stock market. The Group's treasury investment, comprising of listed equity securities and unlisted investment funds, recorded a fair value gain of HK$17.4 million (2024: HK$4.1 million), while total realized gain of HK$10.2 million on redemption and disposal of treasury investments was recorded (2024: HK$12.2 million) during the year.

The Group's share of the results from the operation of joint venture investments (including investments in joint ventures and associates) recorded a loss of HK$571.4 million (2024: HK$413.6 million).

The value of the Group's investment properties in the UK recorded a fair value gain of HK$229.9 million (2024: HK$308.8 million) during the year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's investment properties in the UK were revalued by Knight Frank Petty Limited ("KF") at GBP1,165.6 million, representing an increase of 2.6% compared to that at last year end. KF continued to adopt the income capitalization approach with the following key values of inputs:

Values of input	31 December 2025	31 December 2024	Relationship to fair value
Estimated rental values (per square foot per annum)	GBP60 to GBP112.5	GBP60 to GBP112.5	The higher the rental values the higher the fair value
Equivalent yields	5.01% to 5.78%	5.01% to 5.86%	The higher the yields the lower the fair value

The income capitalization approach took into consideration the rental values of the tenancies and the investment yields which are the critical factors in determining the property's value and is widely considered to be the most adopted and appropriate methodology for valuing properties held for long-term rental purpose.

The loss attributable to shareholders was HK$466.7 million (2024: HK$617.9 million). The basic loss per share for the year was HK12.02 cents (2024: HK15.92 cents).

Investment Properties

As at 31 December 2025, the Group owns two Grade A commercial properties in Central London, the UK.

London

The two commercial buildings, namely The Leadenhall Building, and One Kingdom Street, with an approximate total leasable area of 875,000 sqf, are located in the prime financial and insurance districts in Central London, UK. These two buildings represent the Group's core rental business and continue to maintain a secure and stable revenue income stream.

During the year, the Group generated a rental income of HK$535.7 million (2024: HK$455.7 million) from these two investment properties in the UK. The Group's rent collection has been maintained at a high level of 98% during the year (2024: 98%).

The Group retains its confidence in the long-term prospects of London in view of the city's status as a major global city, with a commercial property market that draws vast interest from both occupiers and investors.

The Leadenhall Building

The Leadenhall Building, a skyscraper having a height of 225 metres (738 feet), is an iconic building in the Central London district. The building's distinctive wedge-shaped architectural design has created several specific spaces to cater for the different needs of the tenants' businesses. The combination of modern offices and food experiences in the neighborhood enables tenants' businesses to attract and retain talented staff. The property consists of 46 floors which are used mainly for office purposes and is held by the Group as investment property for long-term capital growth. It comprises approximately 610,000 sqf of office and retail space and is fully let with a weighted average unexpired lease term of approximately 7.6 years with 6.3 years on a term-certain basis. The building's tenant base includes several renowned international insurance companies alongside other financial institutions, technology, and professional service businesses. Following the completion of rent review of approximately 269,800 sqf in The Leadenhall Building with an average 13% increase in the reviewed annual rent during the year, the current annual contract rent of The Leadenhall Building increased to around GBP44.7 million (2024: GBP42.1 million). Management Discussion and Analysis

One Kingdom Street

The property is well connected to public transportation with nearby underground metro stations, providing easy access to Oxford Street and Heathrow Airport. One Kingdom Street is situated in Paddington Central, an area comprised of office and residential blocks, hotel, retail and entertainment amenities. The building was recently refurbished with luxury-class office spaces, together with its featured elegant, glazed exteriors and a superbly functional entrance hall. Above the hall, 265,000 sqf of superior office space is spread over nine floors. There is a huge amount of natural light in every office to create a productive and enjoyable working environment.

One Kingdom Street offers approximately 265,000 sqf of Grade A office accommodation and some parking spaces, with a current annual contract rent of approximately GBP16.9 million (2024: GBP16.0 million), equivalent to an annual yield of 5.8% (2024: 5.5%). The building is 89% leased to reputable major tenants. Apart from office accommodation, after completion of the metro Elizabeth Line's related construction works in 2024, Transport for London has returned to One Kingdom Street 15,360 sqf of vacant space below the office tower. The Group is currently exploring various leasing options for this vacant space which may create an urban logistics hub in collaboration with adjacent landlords in Paddington Central.

One Kingdom Street

The Group manages the property leases proactively in order to maintain a high occupancy rate and high tenants retention, while reducing the tenant concentration risks. It also engages with the tenants regularly to strengthen the property's position as a choice office in Central London.

Joint Ventures

As at 31 December 2025, the Group has seven property projects operating through joint ventures, two projects with over 0.8 million sqf of attributable development space in Central London, three projects with approximately 0.5 million sqf of attributable gross floor area in Hong Kong and two projects with approximately 6.8 million sqf of attributable gross floor area in the Chinese mainland.

The Group's total investments in joint venture projects decreased to HK$7.9 billion as at 31 December 2025, down from HK$9.3 billion as at 31 December 2024 which was mainly attributed to the cash return from the projects. There was no acquisition or disposal of joint ventures during the year.

The Group's property development pipeline is a significant component of the value of its joint venture business, and the Group expects this pipeline to contribute significantly to earnings and provide attractive returns on its investments in the near to medium term. As at 31 December 2025, the Group held interests in centrally located development sites with a total attributable development potential of approximately 8.1 million sqf, primarily in the UK, Hong Kong, and the Chinese mainland.

Development Projects

Jiangsu Yancheng Project (江蘇鹽城項目)

The Group has a 29.4% interest in a joint venture of a development project in Jiangsu with a planned total investment of RMB496 million. The project has a site area of about 687,000 sqf. When fully developed, it comprises 1.56 million sqf of residential and commercial saleable area. The project is located at the intersection of Yanzhen Road (鹽枕路) and Houde Road (厚德路) in close proximity to the city government office building, the airport, and railway station.

Treasury Investment Business

The dividends from investments amounted to HK$0.8 million (2024: HK$37.3 million). The fair value gains from its investment portfolio amounted to HK$17.4 million (2024: HK$4.1 million). The total gain on redemption of unlisted investment fund and disposal of listed equity securities amounted to HK$10.2 million (2024: HK$12.2 million).

CORPORATE STRATEGY AND OUTLOOK

The Group continues to receive stable rental income from the two commercial properties in Central London, UK. Following the interest rates cut by the major economies in the year, the pressure arising from the persistent high interest rates environment in the recent years has relaxed. This brings about certain growth momentum, albeit still in a slow pace, to the residential market in Hong Kong. Whether such growth momentum will continue in 2026 and onwards is to a large extent dependent on the development of the unresolved new tariffs policy imposed by the USA, the outcome of the Middle East War, and the possibility of further interest rate cuts. The Group expects the global economy will be very challenging and full of uncertainties in the years to come.

The Group will continue to adopt a wait and see approach in tackling the unstable and unpredictable economic conditions which were mainly driven by the geopolitical tension and the longer than expected high interest rates environment. The Group will adopt a conservative attitude but keep a watchful eye on the market and cherry pick acquisition opportunities of high-quality assets and businesses should they appear.

Following the staged completion of the two joint-venture development projects in Central London, revenues will be continually booked as delivery takes place, speeding up the cash returns to the Group. Concurrently the two investment properties in Central London will continue to provide a steady and recurring rental income for the Group.

Looking ahead, the Management anticipates the unstable business environments to persist in the foreseeable future. The Group will focus on ensuring the stability and sustainability of its existing property portfolio and adjust its strategies in response to the ever-changing market as well as maintain a healthy balance sheet.

2024 Annual Results Announcement

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

PART A: INTRODUCTION

This ESG report is published regarding the same reporting year covered in this Annual Report and has been prepared in accordance with the Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Code (the “ESG Code”) set out in Appendix C2 of the Listing Rules.

PART B: MANDATORY DISCLOSURE

1. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

(i) Board’s Oversight of ESG-related (including climate-related) Issues

The Board recognizes that ESG-related (including climate-related) considerations are essential to the long-term sustainability of the Group’s business and to the interests of shareholders, employees, customers, and other stakeholders. Consequently, the Board assumes ultimate responsibility for overseeing ESG-related (including climate-related) risks and opportunities on an integrated basis.

(ii) ESG Management Approach and Strategy

The Group’s ESG management framework follows a materiality-driven, risk-based approach that aligns ESG priorities with the Group’s core business objectives.

- The Board reviews the adequacy of ESG policies, internal controls, and public disclosures, and provides strategic guidance on ESG-related (including climate-related) risk identification and materiality issues. The Board meets at least four times a year and exercises oversight of all ESG matters.
- A cross-functional team of senior managers and key employees, led by the Group’s Deputy Chairman and Managing Director, carries out the annual materiality assessment, prioritises ESG risks, and develops the Group’s ESG strategy, targets, and initiatives.
- The Working Group translates the strategy into actionable plans, embeds them in day-to-day operations, and coordinates stakeholder-engagement activities. It collects performance data, monitors progress against targets, and prepares the annual ESG report and related disclosures for Board approval.

Through this structure, ESG considerations are integrated into strategic decision-making, operational execution, and external reporting.

(iii) Review of Progress Against ESG Goals and Targets

The Board monitors progress against the Group’s ESG objectives and formally approves the annual ESG report and all related disclosures. The ESG report provides a comprehensive performance review, detailing progress toward medium and long term ESG goals (where applicable), explaining how each target supports the Group’s business model, and outlining any strategic adjustments. By signing off on the report, the Board confirms the accuracy of the disclosed outcomes and affirms that the ESG strategy remains aligned with shareholders’ interests, ensuring that ESG – including climate-change – considerations are fully integrated into the Group’s strategic decision-making and risk-management processes.

2. REPORTING PRINCIPLES

The following reporting principles have been applied in the preparation of this ESG report:

- Materiality – The Board, through the Working Group, identifies the ESG factors that are material to the Group’s operations. The assessment considers the Group’s ESG objectives, policies and strategies; the potential impact on operations; applicable laws and regulations; and relevant guidance and resources available to the Company.
- Quantitative – Where emissions or energy-consumption data are reported, the standards, methodologies, assumptions, calculation tools and sources of conversion factors are disclosed.
- Consistency – No change has been made to the methodologies, KPIs, or any other factors that would affect comparability. Consequently, the disclosures remain consistent with previous reporting periods.

3. REPORTING BOUNDARY

There has been no change to the reporting boundary of this ESG report. Unless otherwise indicated, all mandatory disclosures relate to the Group’s primary operations in Hong Kong. For the reporting year ended 31 December 2025, these operations were conducted from leased office space in a commercial building in Wan Chai and employed the majority of the Group’s workforce.

For the corporate-governance disclosures required by the Listing Rules, please refer to the “Corporate Governance Report” on pages 31 to 40.

PART C: COMPLY OR EXPLAIN DISCLOSURE

A. ENVIRONMENTAL

A1. Emissions

The Group's office premises do not generate any direct air emissions, and the Group has not established an emissions target for this scope. For further information on greenhouse gas emissions from the Group's Hong Kong operations, please refer to "IV. METRICS AND TARGETS" under Part D Climate-Related Disclosures below.

As part of its green initiative, the Group has endorsed the Indoor Temperature Energy-Saving Charter to improve operational energy efficiency. Employees are encouraged to reduce business travel by using telephone and video-conferencing whenever feasible. The Group also participated in the Hong Kong Green Building Week (HKGBW 2025) – a joint campaign organized by the Construction Industry Council and the Hong Kong Green Building Council. The event, themed "Green Building Get Set GOAL: Race to Carbon Neutrality", ran from 19 September 2025 to 28 September 2025. In addition, the Group's staff joined the Biz-Green Dress Day on 3 September 2025, an activity aimed at promoting greener workplace habits across the business community.

The Group offices do not generate any hazardous waste, and consequently no emission target has been set for that waste category. The only waste stream produced is non-hazardous office waste, which consists mainly of general refuse and paper waste. This waste is managed by the building management office as part of its overall building-services package. As a green initiative, the Group has installed designated collection points throughout the offices to gather recyclable paper waste – whether generated on-site or brought in from elsewhere – for recycling. In the reporting year, 1.16 tonnes of recyclable paper waste were collected (2024 : 1.16 tonnes). In addition to paper, plastic bottles, used toner cartridges and other recyclable office consumables collected were sent to approved recyclers or disposed of in accordance with local regulations.

Because waste handling is performed by the building management office, there are no specific environmental laws or regulations concerning water or land discharges, the generation of hazardous or non-hazardous waste, that have a material impact on the Group's Hong Kong operations. The Group is not aware of any instances of non-compliance with the general waste-disposal laws and regulations applicable to its activities during the reporting year.

A2. Use of Resources

Because this aspect is considered immaterial, it falls outside the reporting boundary of the ESG report. Consequently, no formal energy-use or water-efficiency targets have been established. Nonetheless, the Group remains committed to resource efficiency – particularly for energy and paper, the two primary consumables in its offices—by adhering to the principles of "reduce, reuse and recycle". The Group will continue to disclose relevant performance data where applicable to provide transparent reference for stakeholders.

During the reporting year, the Group used a total of 213.80 reams of A4-size paper (2024 : 204.70 reams) and remains committed to resource-efficiency initiatives that encourage employees to:

- work with electronic documents whenever possible,
- print double-sided, and
- select environmentally-friendly materials.

Since 2016, all interim and annual reports have been printed on Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certified paper. To reinforce these practices, the Group rolled out a series of green initiatives that raise staff awareness of conservation, promote energy savings, reduce waste, and support a low-carbon workplace culture. Visible signages placed in high-traffic areas remind employees to use energy and water efficiently and to minimise overall resource consumption.

During the reporting year, total annual electricity consumption in our offices was approximately 4.2 kWh per sqf (2024 : 4.3 kWh) or 38.8 kWh per working hour (2024 : 39.3 kWh), representing a total annual consumption of roughly 85,354 kWh (2024 : 86,900 kWh). Electricity used per employee averaged 1,471.6 kWh for the year (2024 : 1,472.9 kWh). The Group actively promotes the adoption of energy-efficient electrical appliances throughout the offices wherever feasible, encouraging its staff to replace legacy equipment with devices that meet recognized energy-efficiency standards.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group offices use water primarily for drinking and routine cleaning.

- Tap-water consumption – During the reporting year, approximately 747 cubic metres of municipal water (2024 : 723 cubic metres) was used, which equates to 12.9 cubic metres per employee (2024 : 12.3 cubic metres). Overall tap-water use remained broadly consistent with the previous year.
- Distilled water – To support sustainable drinking-water practices the Group provides employees with refillable distilled-water bottles. In the reporting year, the staff consumed 0.51 cubic metres of distilled water (2024 : 0.59 cubic metres). Empty bottles were collected for reuse.
- Filtration system – A water-filtration and purification system was installed, supplying filtered potable water directly to the staff. This reduced reliance on bottled distilled water and made tap water the primary source for all of the water needs.
- Supply reliability – No interruptions or quality issues were experienced in obtaining water suitable for daily office operations during the reporting year.

These measures are part of the Group's broader green-office initiative, aimed at minimising waste and improving resource efficiency.

The Group does not produce finished products; consequently, we do not utilize any packaging materials.

A3. The Environment and Natural Resources

Because this aspect is considered immaterial, it falls outside the reporting boundary of the ESG report. Nevertheless, the Group remains committed to minimizing the environmental impact of its operations and preserving natural resources, and will continue to disclose relevant information as appropriate for stakeholder reference.

The Group recognises that property development and ongoing operations inevitably influence the climate and local environment. Accordingly, the Group incorporates environmentally-friendly architectural designs and implement operational measures wherever practicable to improve the environmental performance of its development and investment activities.

Together, these actions demonstrate its commitment to occupational health and safety for every staff member.

B3: Development and Training

The Group encourages employees to develop the knowledge and skills needed for their roles by providing both external and internal training opportunities, all funded by the Company.

To ensure ongoing compliance, the Group has implemented robust recruitment controls that verify each applicant's identity, age and eligibility to work before any hiring decision is made.

The risk of child or forced labour occurring within the Group's operations is assessed as minimal. Nevertheless, any incident that is identified must be reported promptly for assessment, response, and prevention. The affected individual will be removed from work immediately and placed in a safe environment. The Group will obtain contact information for the child's parents or guardians (or, for adults, for the appropriate relatives) and report the case to the relevant government authority for protective action. A risk-improvement plan will then be developed and implemented to eliminate any possibility of such practices recurring.

During the reporting year, the Group is not aware of any breaches of the laws and regulations that are material to our operations with respect to the prevention of child labour or forced labour.

Operating Practices

B5: Supply Chain Management

The Group's Hong Kong operations do not produce any finished products; therefore this aspect is immaterial to the reporting boundary of this ESG report and is not disclosed.

B6: Product Responsibility

This aspect is deemed immaterial to the ESG report's reporting boundary and therefore is not disclosed.

B7: Anti-corruption

The Group is committed to conducting its business in full compliance with all applicable anti-bribery, anti-extortion, anti-fraud and anti-money-laundering laws and regulations.

The Group has operated under a Code of Conduct (the "Code") that applies to all Directors and employees, regardless of location. The Code defines the standards of behaviour expected of us, offers practical guidance for handling a range of business situations, and contains specific anti-bribery provisions. The Board reviews the Code regularly to confirm that it remains adequate and effective.

The Company has adopted an Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (the "ABC Policy") to ensure full compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws. The Group maintains a zero-tolerance stance toward bribery and corruption and is committed to conducting its business with integrity, honesty and ethical standards. The ABC Policy applies to every individual who works for or on behalf of the Group – whether full-time, part-time, contractor or consultant – and sets out the procedures required to prevent bribery and corruption while meeting its legal obligations. Together with the Group's Whistleblowing Policy (see below) and the Code of Conduct, the ABC Policy forms the core of its anti-bribery and corruption risk-management framework. The Board is responsible for regularly monitoring adherence to the ABC Policy. The Company's Head of Group Legal and Compliance reports to the Board on the Group's compliance with the policy.

The Company has adopted a Whistleblowing Policy (the "Whistleblowing Policy") to encourage employees and any parties interacting with the Group to raise concerns – confidentially and anonymously – about possible improprieties involving the Group. The Whistleblowing Policy applies to staff at all levels and divisions, as well as to external stakeholders such as business partners who may be affected by staff misconduct or malpractice. The Board's Audit Committee holds overall responsibility for implementing and overseeing the Whistleblowing Policy. This includes reviewing and investigating reports, as well as considering and approving any amendments to the policy.

Employees can raise concerns in person or in writing with their immediate manager or supervisor. If a whistleblower feels uncomfortable doing so, he/she may report directly to the Finance Director. For external stakeholders, for allegations that are extremely serious, or when the Finance Director is implicated, the whistleblower should submit a written report directly to the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Company will treat the whistleblower's identity as strictly confidential. Upon receipt of a report, the Audit Committee will assess whether a full investigation is required. If an investigation is warranted, an internal investigator – chosen for appropriate seniority and with no prior involvement in the matter – will be appointed. Should the investigation reveal a potential criminal offence, the internal investigator will refer the case to the Audit Committee. In consultation with the Company's legal advisers, the Audit Committee will then decide whether to forward the matter to the relevant law-enforcement authority for further action.

The Company was glad to be a Major Sponsor of the M+ Special Exhibition, The Hong Kong Jockey Club Series: Picasso for Asia – A Conversation from 15 March 2025 to 13 July 2025. More than sixty masterpieces by Picasso were loaned from Musée national Picasso-Paris, placed in conversation with around 130 pieces from the M+ Collections. M+ is Asia's global museum of contemporary visual culture in the West Kowloon Cultural District (West K) in Hong Kong. The exhibition was the first significant presentation of Picasso's works in Hong Kong in more than a decade and an unprecedented cross-cultural and intergenerational dialogue between the twentieth-century European master and contemporary Asian artists.

By fostering cultural exchange, artistic innovation, and community engagement, the exhibition aligns directly with the Company's corporate values of creativity, global collaboration, and social responsibility. PART D. CLIMATE-RELATED DISCLOSURES

I. GOVERNANCE

- (a) Governance of the Group's climate-related risks and opportunities has been integrated into the Group's existing governance processes and risk management and internal control systems and is described in the Corporate Governance Report on pages 31 to 40, with further details described below.
- (i) The Board regularly evaluates whether it possesses the skills and competencies needed to oversee the Group's strategy for addressing climate-related risks and opportunities. If gaps are identified – whether in technical knowledge, strategic insight, or stakeholder engagement – the Board will consider whether a remediation plan should be put in place. This plan may include targeted education and training programmes, the engagement of external advisors or specialists for interim expertise, and the recruitment of new directors with demonstrable climate-related experience, thereby ensuring a diversity of perspectives.
- (ii) The Board oversees climate-related risks and opportunities during board meetings on a bi-annual basis to ensure that the Group's climate development and performance are on track, including approving and reviewing climate-related targets and key initiatives.
- (iii) The Board reviews and approves material operational matters (including climate-related strategies and policies) and oversees climate development and performance by evaluating progress against any targets that are set by the Board. The Board integrates climate-related risks and opportunities into the Group's risk-management and internal-control frameworks and ensures that, when deemed necessary, climate considerations are reflected in all relevant policies. Recognising that addressing climate risks can involve trade-offs – such as higher upfront capital expenditures versus long-term cost savings, or reduced short-term profitability for greater resilience – the Board records its deliberations on these trade-offs in the meeting minutes where applicable, specifying how each risk or opportunity is evaluated before a decision may be made.
- (iv) To oversee duties performed by the Working Group, climate-related performance targets where applicable are set at the management level to assist the Board in evaluating the effectiveness of its climate strategy and measures on a bi-annual basis. The Board does not factor climate-related performance metrics into its remuneration policy for directors or senior management.
- (b) The Board is supported by the Working Group, with executive responsibility for implementing the Group's ESG strategy and overseeing the Working Group delegated to the Deputy Chairman and Managing Director. The Working Group comprises senior employees from different business functions and is responsible for formulating and reviewing climate-related strategy and approach, coordinating climate-related tasks and communicating with the Board on the latest climate-related issues affecting the company on a bi-annual basis.

II. STRATEGY

Climate-related risks and opportunities and their potential effects on the Company's business model and value chain

The Group's operations in Hong Kong have a relatively modest environmental footprint, yet climate-related impacts may present both physical and transition risks as well as opportunities across the sectors in which it operates.

The following tables outline the primary climate-related risks and opportunities identified by the Board that could reasonably affect the Group's cash flows, access to finance, or cost of capital over the short (0-5 years), medium (6-25 years) and long term (over 55 years) and their potential effects on the Company's business model and value chain. These time horizons are defined primarily by factoring in the Group's business plan and relevant targets.

Primary Climate-related Risks
Types of risks	Climate-related risks	Effects on business model	Effects on value chain	Time horizon
Climate-related physical risks
Acute risk	Increased severity of extreme weather events such as super typhoon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited negative impacts on the workforce (e.g. health, safety, absenteeism) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited lower productivity due to business disruption 	Long Term
Chronic risk	Changes in precipitation patterns and extreme variability in weather patterns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rising mean temperatures Rising sea levels 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inadequate utilities supply (e.g. water, energy) for office premises 		Long Term

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Climate-related transition risks
Reputation risk	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased stakeholder concern or negative stakeholder feedback 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited negative impacts on workforce management and planning (e.g. employee attraction and retention) Reduction in capital availability 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited decreased productivity 	Long Term
Primary Climate-related Opportunities
Types of opportunities	Climate-related opportunities	Effects on business model	Effects on value chain	Time horizon
Resource efficiency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of more efficient modes of transport Use of recycling Move to more efficient buildings Reduced water usage and consumption 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited efficiency gains Limited benefits to workforce management and planning (e.g. improved health and safety, employee satisfaction, productivity) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited increased production capacity 	Long Term

During the reporting year, none of the identified climate-related risks and opportunities had a material effect on the Group's business model or value chain for its operations in Hong Kong.

Strategy and decision-making

– Integrating Climate-Related Risks and Opportunities into Strategy and Decision-Making

Because its Hong Kong operations generate no direct air or greenhouse gas (“GHG”) emissions, the Group has not set any climate-related targets (including any GHG emissions targets) – neither voluntary nor those required by law or regulation. Effects of the identified climate-related risks and opportunities on the business model and value chain of the Group's operations in Hong Kong are limited. The Board expects the Group's Hong Kong operations to continue unchanged, with no current or anticipated changes to its business model, resource allocation, or adaptation and mitigation efforts (whether direct or indirect) to address the identified climate-related risks and opportunities. Consequently, the Company does not have a climate-related transition plan. Nevertheless, the Board will incorporate climate considerations into its long-term master plan to the extent applicable.

Financial position, financial performance and cash flows

– Current financial effect

None of the identified climate-related risks and opportunities has affected the Group's financial position, financial performance and cash flows for the reporting period.

– Anticipated financial effect

With no current or anticipated changes to its business model, resource allocation, or adaptation and mitigation efforts (whether direct or indirect) to address the identified climate-related risks and opportunities, the Group's financial position regarding its Hong Kong operations is not expected to change materially over the short, medium and long term.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Climate resilience

The Group does not have any properties in Hong Kong owned or managed solely by the Group for its operations. The Group's Hong Kong operations are carried out from leased office space in a commercial building in Wan Chai. Because its Hong Kong operations do not produce any finished products and generate no direct air emissions, the Group has not set an emissions target. Nevertheless, the Working Group incorporates climate considerations into the Group's overall business strategy. As part of its annual materiality assessment, the Working Group identified the physical and transition risks and opportunities that climate change could pose to the Group. Those identified risks and opportunities remained unchanged during the reporting year and were reviewed by the Board. Given the limited scale of the Group's Hong Kong operations, the identified climate-related risks are not considered principal risks to the Group's financial position. Consequently, the potential financial impact of those risks on its Hong Kong operations is considered to be immaterial. Because its financial position in Hong Kong is not expected to change materially over the short, medium or long term, the Group did not perform a dedicated climate-scenario analysis to assess the resilience of the Group's strategy and business model to climate-related changes, developments and uncertainties.

III. RISK MANAGEMENT

Oversight of the Group's climate-related risks and opportunities has been integrated into the Group's existing governance processes and risk management and internal control systems and is described in the Corporate Governance Report on pages 31 to 40.

IV. METRICS AND TARGETS

1) Greenhouse Gas Emissions

The Group's Hong Kong operations do not generate any Scope 1¹ greenhouse gas emissions. During the reporting year, total Scope 2 greenhouse gas emissions amounted to approximately 51.21 tonnes (2024: 57.35 tonnes) of carbon dioxide equivalent. Scope 2 greenhouse gas emissions arise primarily from the electricity purchased locally for the Group's Hong Kong operations and were slightly lower than in the previous reporting year. Scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions from its Hong Kong operations are driven mainly by paper use and business travel outside Hong Kong. The increase in Scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions reflects higher business-travel activity and the adoption of the updated International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) methodology for calculating CO₂ emissions from air travel during the reporting year.

Details of greenhouse gas emissions for the reporting year are as follows:

Sources of GHG emission	GHG emission (in tonne CO ₂ -e)	GHG emission by scope (in tonne CO ₂ -e)
Scope 1 emissions	–	–
Scope 2 emissions		51.21
– Electricity	51.21
Scope 3 emissions		387.45
– Paper consumption	2.64
– Business travel outside Hong Kong	384.81

1. Measurement approach

The Group applies the GHG Protocol Corporate and Reporting Standard (2004). Emissions are calculated by multiplying activity data (electricity, paper, water consumption and mileage, etc.) by the appropriate emission factors and converting all gases to CO₂-equivalents. The accounting covers Scope 1, Scope 2 and Scope 3 emissions.

¹ Scope 1 greenhouse-gas emissions for the Group's Hong Kong operations cover only those sources owned or directly controlled by the Group. Although the Group owns several motor vehicles, they are not primarily used for its Hong Kong operations and some are for employees' private use; therefore, emissions from these vehicles are excluded from this ESG report.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

2. Inputs

- o Purchased electricity – utility bills and meter data for the offices.
- o Paper consumption – total paper usage and paper wasted disposed at landfills
- o Water consumption – utility bills meter data for the offices, and invoices for refillable bottle distilled water
- o Business Travel outside Hong Kong – travel invoices for locations from travel management agencies or airlines and data related to distances travelled taken from International Civil Aviation Organization
- o Other auxiliary data – working hours and number of employees used to allocate emissions on a per-unit-output basis where required.

3. Assumptions

- o Emission factors:
 - Electricity factors are taken from the sustainability report 2024 released by HK Electric Investments and HK Electric Investments Limited.
 - Paper factors are taken from Guidelines to Account for and Report on Greenhouse Gas Emissions and Removals for Buildings (Commercial, Residential or Institutional Purposes) in Hong Kong (2010 Edition) issued by Environmental Protection Department.
 - Water factors are taken from the Annual Report 2023/24 of the Water Supplies Department of Hong Kong and the Sustainability Report 2023-24 of the Drainage Services Department of Hong Kong.
 - Business Travel factors are taken from ICAO Carbon Emissions Calculator developed by International Civil Aviation Organization
- o Allocation: When collecting data involves shared facilities with third parties, emissions are allocated based on predetermined ratios.

4. Reason for choosing this measurement approach, inputs and assumptions

- Alignment with internationally recognised standards – The GHG Protocol is the most widely accepted methodology for corporate carbon accounting; using it ensures comparability with peers, facilitates third-party verification, and meets the expectations of our investors, regulators and other stakeholders.
- Data availability and reliability – The inputs listed above are sourced directly from the financial invoices and utility bills, providing a high degree of traceability and auditability.
- Transparency – By documenting each emission factor source and version, the Group can readily demonstrate the robustness of its calculations.
- Materiality – The Group offices do not produce any Scope 1 emissions. Scopes 2 and 3 capture our all emissions; focusing on these scopes delivers the most material insight.

5. No changes have been made to the measurement approach, inputs and assumptions during the reporting period. The measurement approach, inputs and assumptions described above constitute the basis for our 2025 GHG inventory. They were selected to maximise accuracy, transparency and comparability, and any modifications made during the year were driven by improvements in data availability, methodological refinements and alignment with the latest scientific guidance. Future reporting periods will continue to build on this framework.

2) Climate-related transition risks

The amount and percentage of assets or business activities vulnerable to climate-related transition risks is immaterial during the reporting year.

3) Climate-related physical risks

The amount and percentage of assets or business activities vulnerable to climate-related physical risks is immaterial during the reporting year.

4) Climate-related opportunities

The amount and percentage of assets or business activities aligned with climate-related opportunities is immaterial during the reporting year.

5) Capital deployment

The amount of capital expenditure, financing or investment deployed towards climate-related risks and opportunities is immaterial during the reporting year.

6) Internal carbon prices

The Company does not apply an internal carbon price in any of its decision-making processes, including investment appraisal, capital-allocation, transfer-pricing arrangements, or scenario-analysis exercises. Consequently, the Company does not assign a monetary value to its GHG emissions to influence the selection, timing, or scale of projects, nor does it incorporate a carbon-price factor into its internal financial models. Because the Company does not employ a carbon price, there is no price per metric tonne of CO₂-equivalent emissions used in its cost assessments.

The Board will continue to monitor regulatory developments, stakeholder expectations, and best-practice guidance. Should the Board decide to introduce an internal carbon price in the future, any such policy and the corresponding price level will be disclosed in the next reporting period.

7) Remuneration

The Company does not factor climate-related considerations into its remuneration policy for directors or senior management. The Board will continue to monitor evolving regulatory expectations, stakeholder priorities, and best-practice developments. Should the Board determine that linking remuneration to climate performance becomes appropriate, any amendment to the remuneration policy will be disclosed in the next reporting period.

8) Industry-based metrics

Industry-based metrics is considered inapplicable.

9) Climate-related targets

No climate-related targets are set.

10) Applicability of cross-industry metrics and industry-based metrics

Both cross-industry metrics and industry-based metrics are inapplicable.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company is committed to maintaining a high standard of corporate governance. The Board considers that sound corporate management and governance practices are not only essential for the Company's healthy growth in all business environments, but also critical to the long-term success and sustainability of its operations. The Company is also dedicated to conducting its affairs in accordance with high ethical standards, maximizing Shareholders' interest in the long term while ensuring that all stakeholders, including employees, customers, suppliers, communities and investors, can benefit.

Nomination Policy

Pursuant to the Nomination Policy adopted by the Company, the Nomination Committee may identify potential candidates from any source it considers appropriate, including without limitation its own contacts, referrals, and recommendations from other directors, members of management, the Company's advisors, and intermediary agencies retained at the Company's expense. To be eligible for consideration, a potential candidate must submit such information as may be required by the Nomination Committee for consideration. The Nomination Committee or its representatives, together with any directors the Nomination Committee considers appropriate, may interview the potential candidate identified. The Nomination Committee shall take into account all of the following criteria in evaluating an individual for nomination or appointment as director:

- i. whether the individual is qualified to serve as a director and, where applicable, will qualify as an independent non-executive director under applicable laws and regulations including the Listing Rules;
- ii. whether the individual is willing and able to serve as a director and to commit sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company;

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE FUNCTION

The Board does not have a Corporate Governance Committee. The functions that would be carried out by such a committee are performed by the Board as a whole and are as follows:

1. to develop and review the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance;
2. to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of directors and senior management;
3. to review and monitor the Company's policies and practices in compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
4. to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) applicable to employees and directors; and
5. to review the Company's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in the Corporate Governance Report.

The Corporate Governance Policy is formulated with an emphasis on the Board's quality, effective internal control, stringent disclosure practices, and transparency and accountability to all shareholders of the Company. The Board strives to apply the principles of good corporate governance to its corporate governance structure and practices, and comply with the code provisions, under the CG Code. The Board regularly reviews its Corporate Governance Policy in order to maintain high standards of business ethics and corporate governance, ensuring full compliance of our operations with applicable laws and regulations.

During 2025, members of the Board reviewed and discussed, among other things, the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance at regular board meetings. In light of amendments to the CG Code and related Listing Rules that took effect on 1 July 2025, the Board approved revisions to the Terms of Reference of the Nomination Committee and formally adopted a new Workforce Diversity Policy. They also reviewed and monitored the training and continuous professional development of directors, and the Company's policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements as well as its disclosure in the Corporate Governance Report. The Board reviewed the code of conduct applicable to employees and directors, which sets out the standards of behaviour that the Company expects from them and the guidelines on how they should handle different situations in business dealings with the Group.

BOARD INDEPENDENCE

The Board recognizes that board independence is critical to good corporate governance and considers that the Company's governance framework includes adequate mechanisms to ensure that independent views and inputs are accessible to the Board. Key features of these mechanisms that facilitate effective communications and bring alternate views to the decision-making process include the following:

1. The roles of Chairman and Managing Director are separate.
2. The Nomination Committee is responsible for the nomination of directors. When evaluating an individual for nomination or appointment as director, the Nomination Committee takes into account all criteria pursuant to the Company's Nomination Policy as set out above.
3. All independent non-executive directors are appointed for a specific term of not more than three years from the date of appointment or re-election, and are subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. Further appointment of any independent non-executive director who has served more than nine years shall be subject to a separate resolution to be approved by shareholders.
4. The Board comprises three independent non-executive directors, who are independent of and unrelated to each other and any of the executive directors. The majority (if not all) of the members of all governance related committees of the Board are independent non-executive directors. Independence of independent non-executive directors is assessed prior to their appointment and annually by the Nomination Committee. Every independent non-executive director sitting on the Nomination Committee has to abstain from assessing his own independence. Each independent non-executive director is also required to inform the Company as soon as practicable if there is any change in his personal particulars that may affect his independence.
5. The Nomination Committee also reviews annually the time commitment and contribution of all directors including independent non-executive directors for performance of their responsibilities.
6. All directors have access to the services of the Company Secretary and her team, and may take independent professional advice upon request, at the Company's expense for proper discharge of their responsibilities.
7. The Board reviews the implementation and effectiveness of the above mechanisms on an annual basis.

During the year, the Board reviewed the implementation and effectiveness of the above mechanisms and concluded that they were properly implemented and effective.

COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company Secretary has undertaken not less than 15 hours of relevant professional training during 2025.

DIRECTORS' SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted the Model Code as its code of conduct regarding securities transactions by directors. Specific enquiries have been made on all directors, who have confirmed that they have complied with the required standard set out in the Model Code throughout the year.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Board is responsible for the Group's risk management and internal control systems and for reviewing their effectiveness. The Board recognizes that the Group's risk management and internal control systems play a key role in the identification, evaluation and management of risks faced by the Group, the assurance of continued compliance with applicable laws and regulations by the Group, and the provision of reasonable assurance to the Group against material misstatements, errors, losses or fraud. The Board acknowledges that the Group is exposed to risks associated with achieving its business objectives and strives to maintain such risks at an acceptable level through the design, implementation and monitoring of effective risk management and internal control systems.

The risk management and internal control systems are established within the Company and its subsidiaries to facilitate effective operations, safeguard assets against unauthorized use, maintain proper accounting records, ensure the reliability of financial reporting and information, and comply with applicable laws and regulations. Establishing these risk management and internal control systems involves identifying key functions carried out by the Group, assessing individual activities undertaken within those functions, evaluating risks associated with each activity in achieving the Group's business objectives, determining the potential impact and acceptable level of those risks, and developing and monitoring the effectiveness of procedures to manage and minimize identified risks. This process, takes into account the particular circumstances of the Group, including business operations, operating environment, compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and financial reporting requirements. As part of the risk management and internal control systems, functional and financial reporting procedures appropriate to the business of the Company's subsidiaries are established for application within the Group. These procedures are designed to enable timely and reliable functional and financial reporting by subsidiaries of the Company, and to facilitate the proper handling and timely, accurate, and complete disclosure of discloseable information, including inside information and any other information required to prevent a false market in the Company's securities.

During the year, there were no significant changes in (i) the Company's assessment of risks (including ESG risks) and (ii) the Group's risk management and internal control systems.

Corporate Governance Report

The Company maintains an internal audit function as part of the Group's permanent establishment, internally resourced and staffed by qualified accounting personnel with suitable experience. The internal audit function carries out annual analyses and independent appraisals of the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems. These procedures are designed to manage risks rather than eliminate them and, by their nature, can offer reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. The Board is responsible for ensuring that recommendations made by the internal audit function are properly implemented.

The Audit Committee has kept under review the Group's risk management and internal control systems, as well as the effectiveness of the internal audit function. Based on its review, the Audit Committee advises the Board on the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems, including the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budget for the Company's accounting and financial reporting functions.

The Board conducts an annual review of the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems, taking into consideration the work of the internal audit function and the advice from the Audit Committee in this regard. The scope of the review covers the Group's major businesses and processes including (i) Property investment for leasing purpose – Rental property management; (ii) Property development – Project management and monitoring; and (iii) Corporate level – Investment and treasury management. A description of the possible risks and uncertainties facing the Group is set out in the Chairman's Statement on pages 6 to 7 and in the Management Discussion and Analysis on pages 8 to 14. A discussion of the policies on financial risk management of financial risks faced by the Group is included in note 38 to the financial statements. No significant control failings or weaknesses were identified in the current reporting year, nor were any previously reported failings or weaknesses remained unresolved that might have a material impact on the Group's financial performance or condition.

During the year, the Board is satisfied that the Group has complied with the provisions on risk management and internal controls as stipulated in the CG Code. Based on findings from the internal audit team and advice from the Audit Committee, the Board confirms that the Group's risk management and internal control systems, including financial, operational and compliance controls, as applicable to the Group's operations, are appropriate and effective for the purposes set out in Principle D2 of the CG Code.

Policy on Disclosure of Inside Information

The Company has adopted a Disclosure of Inside Information Policy. It sets out a framework for the release and control of inside information to ensure that the Company is able to meet its legal and regulatory obligations and requirements as a listed corporation. The Board is generally responsible for ensuring that the Group complies with its disclosure obligations regarding inside information and has established a disclosure group comprising certain directors and management to assist it in determining whether any particular information is inside information and overseeing and coordinating disclosure of inside information of the Group. Inside information should be disclosed by way of an announcement in accordance with the requirements of the SFO and the Listing Rules. Before relevant information is fully disclosed to the public, the disclosure group will work with the Board to ensure that such information is kept strictly confidential.

AUDITORS' REMUNERATION AND AUDITORS RELATED MATTERS

During 2025, the remuneration paid or payable to the Company's independent auditors, Messrs. Ernst & Young, amounted to a total of HK$7,130,000 of which HK$6,250,000 was for audit services and HK$880,000 for non-audit services including agreed-upon procedures for the interim financial report, the preliminary annual results announcement, review and reporting on the financial information, and tax services.

DIVERSITY

Board Diversity Policy

The Company has adopted a Board Diversity Policy that outlines its approach to achieving a diverse Board. Taking into account factors including the size of the Board, the composition of executive and non-executive directors, and the Company's principal activities and needs, selection of candidates shall be based on a range of diversity perspectives, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge, and length of service. All appointments will be based on meritocracy, with candidates evaluated against objective criteria while recognizing the benefits of diversity on the Board.

As part of its strategy, the Board has set a target of having at least one female director on the Board. Throughout 2025, the Board has one female director out of eight directors. The Board will review its target from time to time to enhance gender diversity. To foster a pipeline of potential successors, the Board conducts regular reviews of its composition and identifies potential successors, with a strong emphasis on gender diversity in its succession planning process. The Nomination Committee will implement several initiatives, including engaging with executive search firms that prioritize diverse candidate slates where applicable and offering training programs aimed at identifying and developing female leaders within the Group.

Workforce Diversity Policy

The Company adopted the Workforce Diversity Policy on 1 July 2025. The Group is committed to workforce diversity for all its employees (including senior management), regardless of age, gender, race, ethnicity, nationality, disability or religious beliefs. We uphold diversity by maintaining a safe workplace free from discrimination and unequal treatment, while promoting a culture that embraces differences. This includes developing and offering work arrangements that meet the needs of a diverse workforce. We believe that diversity enhances creativity, innovation, and problem-solving. We strive to create an environment where all employees feel valued, respected, and empowered.

As of 31 December 2025, the gender ratio of the Group's (i) senior management (the five Executive Directors) was 80% male and 20% female; and (ii) workforce (excluding senior management) was approximately 55% male and 45% female. This current gender diversity of the workforce is deemed appropriate, taking into account the Group's business model and operational needs. While the Board is dedicated to improving gender diversity, no specific plans or measurable objectives have been set for achieving gender diversity across the workforce. The Board recognizes certain challenges, including the nature of the Group's industry, which may lead to a traditionally male-dominated workforce. Additionally, there may be limitations in the availability of qualified female candidates for certain senior management roles, and existing workplace culture may affect the recruitment and retention of female talent. The Board will continue to assess these challenges and adapt its strategies to promote a more inclusive environment that supports gender diversity at all levels within the Group.

Further details on the gender ratio within the Group's workforce are provided in the section headed "Environmental, Social and Governance Report" on pages 16 to 30.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the shareholders of C C Land Holdings Limited
(Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of C C Land Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) set out on pages 51 to 121, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSA”) as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Valuations of investment properties
As at 31 December 2025, the Group’s investment properties amounted to HK$12,213,740,000 and were measured at fair value. The fair values of the investment properties were determined based on the valuations performed by a professional external valuer. Significant estimation is required to determine the fair values of investment properties, which reflect the market conditions at the end of the reporting period. Management engaged an external valuer to perform valuations on these investment properties at the end of the reporting period and in the absence of current prices in an active market for similar properties, the external valuer considered information from a variety of sources such as the estimated rental values of the relevant properties and made assumptions about the equivalent yields. The accounting estimates and disclosures of the valuations of investment properties are included in notes 3 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.	Our audit procedures to assess the valuations of investment properties included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">obtaining and reviewing the valuation reports prepared by the external valuer engaged by the Group;assessing the external valuer’s qualifications, experience and expertise and considering its objectivity and independence;involving our internal valuation specialists to assist us in assessing the valuation methodologies applied and the key parameters and estimates including the estimated rental values and equivalent yields adopted in the valuations;comparing property-related data used as inputs for the valuations with underlying lease agreements and related documentation; andassessing the adequacy of the disclosures of the valuations of the investment properties in the consolidated financial statements.

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 90 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Mr. CHUNG, Ho Ling (practising certificate number: P06558).

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards (which include all Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations) as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, investment properties and derivative financial instruments which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”) and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ended 31 December 2025. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group’s voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, any non-controlling interest and the exchange fluctuation reserve; and recognises the fair value of any investment retained and any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group’s share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted amendments to HKAS 21 Lack of Exchangeability for the first time for the current year’s financial statements. The Group has not early adopted any other standard or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

Amendments to HKAS 21 specify how an entity shall assess whether a currency is exchangeable into another currency and how it shall estimate a spot exchange rate at a measurement date when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments require disclosures of information that enable users of financial statements to understand the impact of a currency not being exchangeable. As the currencies that the Group had transacted in and the functional currencies of overseas subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates for translation into the Group’s presentation currency were exchangeable, the amendments did not have any impact on the Group’s financial statements.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE HKFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

The Group has not applied the following new and amended HKFRS Accounting Standards, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements. The Group intends to apply these new and amended HKFRS Accounting Standards, if applicable, when they become effective.

HKFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements ²
HKFRS 19 and its amendments	Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures ²
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments ¹
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity ¹
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture ³
Amendments to HKAS 21	Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency ²
Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11	Amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 9, HKFRS 10 and HKAS 7 ¹

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026

² Effective for annual/reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027

³ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

Further information about those HKFRS Accounting Standards that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

HKFRS 18 replaces HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. While a number of sections have been brought forward from HKAS 1 with limited changes, HKFRS 18 introduces new requirements for presentation within the statement of profit or loss, including specified totals and subtotals. Entities are required to classify all income and expenses within the statement of profit or loss into one of the five categories: operating, investing, financing, income taxes and discontinued operations and to present two new defined subtotals. It also requires disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note and introduces enhanced requirements on the grouping (aggregation and disaggregation) and the location of information in both the primary financial statements and the notes. Some requirements previously included in HKAS 1 are moved to HKAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, which is renamed as HKAS 8 Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements. As a consequence of the issuance of HKFRS 18, limited, but widely applicable, amendments are made to HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows, HKAS 33 Earnings per Share and HKAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. In addition, there are minor consequential amendments to other HKFRS Accounting Standards. HKFRS 18 and the consequential amendments to other HKFRS Accounting Standards are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 with earlier application permitted. Retrospective application is required. The Group is currently analysing the new requirements and assessing the impact of HKFRS 18 on the presentation and disclosure of the Group's financial statements.

HKFRS 19 allows eligible entities to elect to apply reduced disclosure requirements while still applying the recognition, measurement and presentation requirements in other HKFRS Accounting Standards. To be eligible, at the end of the reporting period, an entity must be a subsidiary as defined in HKFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements, cannot have public accountability and must have a parent (ultimate or intermediate) that prepares consolidated financial statements available for public use which comply with HKFRS Accounting Standards or IFRS Accounting Standards. HKFRS 19 was amended in April 2025 to include IFRS Accounting Standards in the eligibility criteria for applying the standard. The standard was further amended in October 2025 to (i) remove disclosure objectives from HKFRS 19; (ii) reduce the disclosure requirements relating to supplier finance arrangements and a specific class of financial liabilities; and (iii) replace disclosure requirements relating to management-defined performance measures with a cross-reference to HKFRS 18 for entities that use these measures. Earlier application is permitted. As the Company is a listed company, it is not eligible to elect to apply HKFRS 19 and its amendments. Some of the Company's subsidiaries are considering the application of HKFRS 19 and its amendments in their specified financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments clarify the date on which a financial asset or financial liability is derecognised and introduce an accounting policy option to derecognise a financial liability that is settled through an electronic payment system before the settlement date if specified criteria are met. The amendments clarify how to assess the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets with environmental, social and governance and other similar contingent features. Moreover, the amendments clarify the requirements for classifying financial assets with non-recourse features and contractually linked instruments. The amendments also include additional disclosures for investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial instruments with contingent features. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively with an adjustment to opening retained profits (or other component of equity) at the initial application date. Prior periods are not required to be restated and can only be restated without the use of hindsight. Earlier application of either all the amendments at the same time or only the amendments related to the classification of financial assets is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity clarify the application of the "own-use" requirements for in-scope contracts and amend the designation requirements for a hedged item in a cash flow hedging relationship for in-scope contracts. The amendments also include additional disclosures that enable users of financial statements to understand the effects these contracts have on an entity's financial performance and future cash flows. The amendments relating to the own-use exception shall be applied retrospectively. Prior periods are not required to be restated and can only be restated without the use of hindsight. The amendments relating to the hedge accounting shall be applied prospectively to new hedging relationships designated on or after the date of the initial application. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 shall be applied at the same time. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 address an inconsistency between the requirements in HKFRS 10 and in HKAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss resulting from a downstream transaction when the sale or contribution of assets constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 was removed by the HKICPA. However, the amendments are available for adoption now.

Amendments to HKAS 21 Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency require the translation from a non-hyperinflationary functional currency into a hyperinflationary presentation currency at the closing rate. The amendments also require an entity whose functional currency and presentation currency are the currency of a hyperinflationary economy to restate the comparative amounts of a foreign operation whose functional currency is that of a non-hyperinflationary economy, by applying the general price index, in accordance with paragraph 34 of HKAS 29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies, to the foreign operation's comparative figures. The amendments introduce certain additional disclosures. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 set out amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 7 (and the accompanying Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7), HKFRS 9, HKFRS 10 and HKAS 7. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- HKFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures: The amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph B38 of HKFRS 7 and paragraphs IG1, IG14 and IG20B of the Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7 for the purpose of simplification or achieving consistency with other paragraphs in the standard and/or with the concepts and terminology used in other standards. In addition, the amendments clarify that the Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7 does not necessarily illustrate all the requirements in the referenced paragraphs of HKFRS 7 nor does it create additional requirements. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments: The amendments clarify that when a lessee has determined that a lease liability has been extinguished in accordance with HKFRS 9, the lessee is required to apply paragraph 3.3.3 of HKFRS 9 and recognise any resulting gain or loss in profit or loss. However, the amendments do not address how a lessee distinguishes between a lease modification as defined in HKFRS 16 and an extinguishment of a lease liability in accordance with HKFRS 9. In addition, the amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph 5.1.3 of HKFRS 9 and Appendix A of HKFRS 9 to remove potential confusion. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements: The amendments clarify that the relationship described in paragraph B74 of HKFRS 10 is just one example of various relationships that might exist between the investor and other parties acting as de facto agents of the investor, which removes the inconsistency with the requirement in paragraph B73 of HKFRS 10. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: The amendments replace the term "cost method" with "at cost" in paragraph 37 of HKAS 7 following the prior deletion of the definition of "cost method". Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any impact on the Group's financial statements.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long-term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in associates and joint ventures are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses. Adjustments are made to bring into line any dissimilar accounting policies that may exist.

The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates and joint ventures is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated other comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate or joint venture, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates or joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates or joint ventures, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill arising from the acquisition of associates or joint ventures is included as part of the Group's investments in associates or joint ventures.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. In all other cases, upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is remeasured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognised for non-controlling interests and any fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the sum of this consideration and other items is lower than the fair value of the net assets acquired, the difference is, after reassessment, recognised in profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill as at 31 December. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on the disposal. Goodwill disposed of in these circumstances is measured based on the relative value of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its investment properties, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and derivative financial instruments at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1	–	based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
Level 2	–	based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly
Level 3	–	based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than deferred tax assets, financial assets and investment properties), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group;

or

- (b) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a);
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and
 - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

Property and equipment and depreciation

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The cost of an item of property and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Owned assets

Buildings	2% or over the unexpired terms of the leases if less than 50 years
Leasehold improvements	20% or over the unexpired terms of the leases if less than 5 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	10% to 20%
Motor vehicles	20% to 25%
Vessel and yacht	20%

Right-of-use assets

Leasehold land	2% or over the unexpired terms of the leases if less than 50 years
Office properties	Over the lease terms

Where parts of an item of property and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings (including right-of-use assets) held to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. Such properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at fair value, which reflects market conditions at the end of the reporting period.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair values of investment properties are included in the statement of profit or loss in the year in which they arise.

Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year of the retirement or disposal.

Golf club membership

Golf club membership acquired is measured on initial recognition at cost and its useful life is assessed to be indefinite.

Golf club membership is tested for impairment annually and not amortised. It is considered as having an indefinite useful life as there is no time limit for which the Group can use the membership, and therefore it will not be amortised until its useful life is determined to be finite upon reassessment annually. Accordingly, its useful life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for on a prospective basis.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis as detailed in the Property and equipment and depreciation policy above.

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

(b) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

The Group's lease liabilities are included in other payables and accruals.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of office properties and staff quarters (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis.

Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases.

Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under HKFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets which are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Investments and other financial assets (continued)

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (debt instruments)

For debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, interest income, foreign exchange revaluation and impairment losses or reversals are recognised in the statement of profit or loss and computed in the same manner as for financial assets measured at amortised cost. The remaining fair value changes are recognised in other comprehensive income. Upon derecognition, the cumulative fair value change recognised in other comprehensive income is recycled to the statement of profit or loss.

Financial assets designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (equity investments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income when they meet the definition of equity under HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to the statement of profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as revenue in the statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in other comprehensive income. Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are not subject to impairment assessment.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and equity investments which the Group had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through other comprehensive income. Dividends on the equity investments are also recognised as revenue in the statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established.

A derivative embedded in a hybrid contract, with a financial liability or non-financial host, is separated from the host and accounted for as a separate derivative if the economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to the host; a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative would meet the definition of a derivative; and the hybrid contract is not measured at fair value through profit or loss. Embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss. Reassessment occurs if there is a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows.

A derivative embedded within a hybrid contract containing a financial asset host is not accounted for separately. The financial asset host together with the embedded derivative is required to be classified in its entirety as a financial asset at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates, if and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information. The Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

Stage 1	–	Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
Stage 2	–	Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
Stage 3	–	Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

For trade receivables that contain a significant financing component and lease receivables, the Group chooses as its accounting policy to adopt the simplified approach in calculating ECLs with policies as described above.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings or as payables, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals, financial guarantee contracts, notes payable, derivative financial instruments and interest-bearing bank and other borrowings.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by HKFRS 9. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in HKFRS 9 are satisfied. Gains or losses on liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in the statement of profit or loss, except for the gains or losses arising from the Group's own credit risk which are presented in other comprehensive income with no subsequent reclassification to the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost (other payables, borrowings and notes payable)

After initial recognition, other payables, interest-bearing borrowings and notes payable are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. A financial guarantee contract is recognised initially as a liability at its fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group measures the financial guarantee contracts at the higher of: (i) the ECL allowance determined in accordance with the policy as set out in "Impairment of financial assets"; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Perpetual capital securities

Perpetual capital securities with no fixed maturity and are repayable at the Group's option at their principal amounts together with any accrued, unpaid, or deferred distributions are classified as part of equity.

Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

The Group uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps, to hedge its foreign currency risk and interest rate risk, respectively. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of derivatives are taken directly to the statement of profit or loss, except for the effective portion of cash flow hedges, which is recognised in other comprehensive income and later reclassified to profit or loss when the hedged item affects profit or loss.

For the purpose of hedge accounting, hedges are classified as:

- fair value hedges when hedging the exposure to changes in the fair value of a recognised asset or liability or an unrecognised firm commitment; or
- cash flow hedges when hedging the exposure to variability in cash flows that is either attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognised asset or liability or a highly probable forecast transaction, or a foreign currency risk in an unrecognised firm commitment; or
- hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation.

At the inception of a hedge relationship, the Group formally designates and documents the hedge relationship to which the Group wishes to apply hedge accounting, the risk management objective and its strategy for undertaking the hedge.

The documentation includes identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged item, the nature of the risk being hedged and how the Group will assess whether the hedging relationship meets the hedge effectiveness requirements (including the analysis of sources of hedge ineffectiveness and how the hedge ratio is determined). A hedging relationship qualifies for hedge accounting if it meets all of the following effectiveness requirements:

- There is “an economic relationship” between the hedged item and the hedging instrument.
- The effect of credit risk does not “dominate the value changes” that result from that economic relationship.
- The hedge ratio of the hedging relationship is the same as that resulting from the quantity of the hedged item that the Group actually hedges and the quantity of the hedging instrument that the Group actually uses to hedge that quantity of hedged item.

Hedges which meet all the qualifying criteria for hedge accounting are accounted for as follows:

Cash flow hedges

The effective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognised directly in other comprehensive income in the cash flow hedge reserve, while any ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the statement of profit or loss. The cash flow hedge reserve is adjusted to the lower of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument and the cumulative change in fair value of the hedged item.

The amounts accumulated in other comprehensive income are accounted for, depending on the nature of the underlying hedged transaction. If the hedged transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial item, the amount accumulated in equity is removed from the separate component of equity and included in the initial cost or other carrying amount of the hedged asset or liability. This is not a reclassification adjustment and will not be recognised in other comprehensive income for the period. This also applies where the hedged forecast transaction of a non-financial asset or non-financial liability subsequently becomes a firm commitment to which fair value hedge accounting is applied.

For any other cash flow hedges, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is reclassified to the statement of profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment in the same period or periods during which the hedged cash flows affect the statement of profit or loss.

If cash flow hedge accounting is discontinued, the amount that has been accumulated in other comprehensive income must remain in accumulated other comprehensive income if the hedged future cash flows are still expected to occur. Otherwise, the amount will be immediately reclassified to the statement of profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment. After the discontinuation, once the hedged cash flow occurs, any amount remaining in accumulated other comprehensive income is accounted for depending on the nature of the underlying transaction as described above.

Hedges of a net investment

Hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation, including a hedge of a monetary item that is accounted for as part of the net investment, are accounted for in a similar way to cash flow hedges. Gains or losses on the hedging instrument relating to the effective portion of the hedge are recognised in other comprehensive income while any gains or losses relating to the ineffective portion are recognised in the statement of profit or loss. On disposal of the foreign operation, the cumulative value of any such gains or losses recorded in equity is transferred to the statement of profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprise cash on hand at banks, and short-term highly liquid deposits with a maturity of generally within three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term deposits as defined above, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit or loss net of any reimbursement.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and

- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group with a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Revenue from other sources

- (i) Rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are incurred;
- (ii) Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably; and
- (iii) Income from the sale of listed securities is recognised on the trade date.

Share-based payments

The Company operates a share option scheme. Employees (including directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services in exchange for equity instruments ("equity-settled transactions").

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised in employee benefit expense, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to the statement of profit or loss for a period represents the movement in the cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions.

For awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or services conditions have not been met, no expense is recognised. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vesting irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. In addition, an expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payments, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the Group or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and is designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of loss per share.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Other employee benefits

Pension schemes

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefit scheme (the “MPF Scheme”) under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for those employees who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees’ basic salaries and are charged to the statement of profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the MPF Scheme. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. The Group’s employer contributions vest fully with the employees when contributed into the MPF Scheme, except for the Group’s employer voluntary contributions, which are refunded to the Group when the employee leaves employment prior to the contributions vesting fully, in accordance with the rules of the MPF Scheme.

The employees of the Group’s subsidiaries which operate in the Chinese mainland are required to participate in central pension schemes operated by the local municipal governments. These subsidiaries are required to contribute a certain percentage of their payroll costs to the central pension schemes. The contributions are charged to the statement of profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension schemes.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Proposed final dividends are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Bye-laws grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which is the Company’s functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit or loss with the exception of monetary items that are designated as part of the hedge of the Group’s net investment of a foreign operation. These are recognised in other comprehensive income until the net investment is disposed of, at which time the cumulative amount is reclassified to the statement of profit or loss. Tax charges and credits attributable to exchange differences on those monetary items are also recorded in other comprehensive income.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are currencies other than the Hong Kong dollar. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates that approximate to those prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve, except to the extent that the differences are attributable to non-controlling interests. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount in the reserve relating to that particular operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Any goodwill arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation and any fair value adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities arising on acquisition are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the closing rate.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosures of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcome that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets or liabilities in the future.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

Estimation of fair values of investment properties

The fair values of the Group's investment properties are determined by an independent valuer on an open market, existing use basis. In making the judgement of the determination of the fair values, consideration has been given to parameters that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of the reporting period, such as the estimated rental value of the relevant properties and appropriate capitalisation rates. Relevant estimates are regularly compared to actual market data. More details are given in note 15 to the financial statements.

4. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their products and services and has two reportable operating segments as follows:

Property development and investment segment	–	Development and investment of properties
Treasury investment segment	–	Investments in securities and notes receivable, and provision of financial services

Management monitors the results of the Group's operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit or loss, which is a measure of adjusted profit or loss before tax. The adjusted profit or loss before tax is measured consistently with the Group's loss before tax except that finance costs as well as head office and corporate expenses are excluded from such measurement.

Information regarding the reportable segments is presented below.

14. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

At 31 December 2025, one of the Group's buildings with a carrying amount of HK$3,448,000 (2024: HK$3,560,000) and its leasehold land, which is included in right-of-use assets, with a carrying amount of HK$50,361,000 (2024: HK$51,986,000) were pledged to secure general banking facilities granted to the Group, of which the banking facilities were not utilised as at 31 December 2025 and 2024.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, impairment losses of HK$310,000, HK$279,000 and HK$10,964,000 were recognised in respect of the owned buildings, leasehold improvements and leasehold land included in right-of-use assets, respectively, held by the Group due to the decrease in the recoverable amount of the properties for the year ended 31 December 2024. As at 31 December 2024, the aggregate recoverable amount of these assets was HK$59,000,000 which was determined based on the fair value less costs of disposal under direct comparison approach based on a valuation performed by Knight Frank Petty Limited ("Knight Frank"), a firm of independent professionally qualified valuers, which took into account current prices of properties similar locations and conditions and other unobservable inputs, and accordingly the fair value measurement was categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

Carrying amount at 31 December	12,213,740	11,061,312

The Group's investment properties consist of two commercial properties in the UK. The directors of the Company have determined that the investment properties consist of one class of asset, i.e., commercial, based on the nature, characteristics and risks of each property. The Group's investment properties were revalued on 31 December 2025 based on valuations performed by Knight Frank at HK$12,213,740,000 (2024: HK$11,061,312,000). Each year, management of the Group decides to appoint which external valuer to be responsible for the external valuations of the Group's properties. Selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, independence and whether professional standards are maintained. The Group's senior personnel from the finance department review the valuations performed by the external valuer for financial reporting purposes and report directly to senior management. Discussions of valuation processes, assumptions and results are held between the Group's finance personnel and the external valuer twice a year when the valuations are performed for interim and annual financial reporting.

The investment properties are leased to third parties under operating leases, further summary details of which are included in note 16 to the financial statements.

At 31 December 2025, the Group's investment properties with an aggregate carrying value of HK$12,213,740,000 (2024: HK$11,061,312,000) were pledged to secure general banking facilities granted to the Group (note 25(a)).

Further particulars of the Group's investment properties are included on page 123.

Fair value hierarchy

The recurring fair value measurement for all the commercial properties of the Group uses significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) and details of their movements are disclosed below.

During the year, there were no transfers of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2 and no transfers into or out of Level 3 (2024: Nil).

Reconciliation of fair value measurements categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy:

	Commercial properties HK$'000
Carrying amount at 1 January 2024	10,963,627
Additions	21,572
Lease incentives	18,848
Gain from fair value adjustments (note 5)	308,790
Exchange realignment	(251,525)
Carrying amount at 31 December 2024 and 1 January 2025	11,061,312
Additions	65,270
Lease incentives	13,443
Gain from fair value adjustments (note 5)	229,941
Exchange realignment	843,774
Carrying amount at 31 December 2025	12,213,740

Below is a summary of the valuation technique used and the key inputs to the valuation of investment properties:

	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable inputs	Range
			2025	2024
Commercial properties	Income capitalisation approach	Estimated rental values (per square foot per annum)	GBP60 to GBP112.5	GBP60 to GBP112.5
		Equivalent yields	5.01% to 5.78%	5.01% to 5.86%

The fair value of the investment properties which are classified as Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy is determined by using the income capitalisation approach based on capitalisation of net income with due allowance of outgoings and reversionary income potential. Measurement of the fair value is positively correlated to the estimated rental values and inversely correlated to the equivalent yields.

Lump sum payments were made upfront to acquire the leasehold land in Hong Kong with lease periods of 40 years, and no ongoing payments will be made under the terms of these land leases. Leases of office properties generally have lease terms between 2 and 4 years.

Other unlisted investments	(ii)	222,897	759,951
Total		244,086	805,815

(i) The above listed equity investments were designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss upon initial recognition.

(ii) The above unlisted investments were fund investments. They were mandatorily classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as their contractual cash flows are not solely payments of principal and interest.

20. TRADE RECEIVABLES

	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000
Trade receivables	11,504	8,744

The trade receivables primarily include rental receivables which are normally billed in advance and due on the first day of the billing period. Certain tenants are required to pay security deposits which are held by the property manager on trust for both the Group and the Group's tenants. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables and overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management.

An ageing analysis of the trade receivables as at the end of the reporting period, based on the invoice date, is as follows:

	2025 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000
1 to 3 months	11,439	7,822
3 to 6 months	65	922
Total	11,504	8,744

The Group's tenants normally settle their bills in a timely manner and the Group's trade receivables as at the end of the reporting period are less than six months past due. As such, the Group's exposure to credit risk is insignificant and the directors of the Company were of the opinion that the ECLs for these rental receivables are minimal.

Note: As at 31 December 2025, the amounts due from associates were stated at amortised cost with an aggregate principal amount of RMB1,114,284,000 (equivalent to HK$1,244,037,000) (2024: RMB1,114,284,000 (equivalent to HK$1,187,303,000)) and were entitled to relevant interest receivable from the associates. The amounts due from associates bear interest at rates ranging from 9% to 18.25% per annum (2024: 9% to 18.25% per annum) and were overdue at the reporting date (2024: overdue at the reporting date).

Deposits and other receivables mainly represent rental deposits, deposits with vendors and receivables from counterparties which have no history of default. As at 31 December 2025, except for the amounts due from associates with a gross amount of HK$1,244,037,000 (2024: HK$1,187,303,000) were overdue, the financial assets included in the above balances were not overdue (2024: not overdue).

Where applicable, an impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date by considering the ECLs, which are estimated by applying the probability-weighted loss default model with reference to the risks of default of the counterparties. As at 31 December 2025, except for the amounts due from associates with a gross amount of HK$1,244,037,000 (2024: HK$1,187,303,000) which were categorised within Stage 3 (2024: Stage 3) for the assessment of ECLs due to the credit impairment of the controlling shareholder of the associates, being their guarantor, all of them were categorised within Stage 1 for the measurement of ECLs. The probability of default applied was 100% (2024: 100%) and the loss given default was estimated to be approximately 88% (2024: 88%).

The movements in the loss allowance for the impairment of financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables are as follows:

At the end of the reporting period, the cash and bank balances of the Group denominated in Renminbi (“RMB”) amounted to HK$9,419,000 (2024: HK$8,652,000). The RMB is not freely convertible into other currencies, however, under the Chinese mainland’s Foreign Exchange Control Regulations and Administration of Settlement, and Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange Regulations, the Group is permitted to exchange RMB for other currencies through banks authorised to conduct foreign exchange business.

Cash at banks earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Short term time deposits are made for varying periods of between one week and three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the respective short term time deposit rates. The bank balances and time deposits are deposited with creditworthy banks with no recent history of default.

Interest rate swaps designated as hedging instruments

Cash flow hedge – Interest rate risk

At 31 December 2025, the Group had two interest rate swaps (2024: two) in place with a notional amount of GBP436,000,000 (2024: GBP436,000,000) in aggregate whereby the Group pays fixed rates of interest on 3.30% to 3.31% p.a. (2024: 3.30% to 3.31% p.a.) and receives a variable rate on the GBP notional amount at SONIA. These swaps are being used to hedge the interest rate exposure of a SONIA GBP bank loan. The maturity of the swaps is more than one year.

There is an economic relationship between the hedged items and the hedging instruments as the terms of the interest rate swaps match with the terms of the SONIA GBP bank loan (i.e., notional amount and expected payment dates). The Group has established a hedge ratio of 1:1 for the hedging relationships as the underlying risks of the interest rate swaps are identical to those of the hedged risk component. To test the hedge effectiveness, the Group uses the hypothetical derivative method and compares the changes in the fair value of the hedging instruments against the changes in fair value of the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk.

The hedge ineffectiveness can arise from:

- Differences in the timing of cash flows of the hedged item and the hedging instrument
- The counterparties' credit risks differently impacting the fair value movements of the hedging items and hedging instruments

Cash flow hedge – Interest rate risk (continued)

The effects of applying hedge accounting on the Group's financial position and performance are as follows:

Strike rate (fixed rate range)	3.30% to 3.31%	3.30% to 3.31%

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the effective portion of fair value losses arising from the hedging interest rate swaps amounting to HK$71,001,000 (2024: fair value gains of HK$41,529,000) was recognised in the cash flow hedge reserve and HK$42,227,000 (2024: HK$77,757,000) was reclassified from the cash flow hedge reserve into finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Interest rate swaps not designated as hedging instruments

At 31 December 2025, the Group had various interest rate swaps to manage its interest rate exposures. These interest rate swaps are not designated for hedge purposes and are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Fair value losses on the non-hedging interest rate swaps amounting to HK$729,000 (2024: Nil) were charged to profit or loss during the year.

Forward currency contract not designated as hedging instruments

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group had various forward currency contracts to mitigate its currency exchange rate exposures for a foreign currency liability. The forward currency contracts were not designated for hedge purposes and were measured at fair value through profit or loss. Fair value losses on the non-hedging forward currency contract amounting to HK$13,396,000 (2024: fair value gains of HK$2,624,000) were charged (2024: credited) to profit or loss during the year. Certain bank loans amounting to HK$6,564,887,000 (2024: HK$7,309,226,000) which were classified as non-current liabilities as at the end of the reporting period also contain financial covenants including gearing ratio, current ratio, interest coverage ratio, loan-to-value ratio, minimum consolidated tangible net worth and debt-to-assets ratio requirements with respective applicable test dates of each year until maturity. The Group has complied (2024: complied) with the covenants under the relevant facility agreements as at 31 December 2025.

26. NOTES PAYABLE

2021 Notes	US$300,000,000	5.20	2025	-	2,321,829

In September 2021, the Group issued guaranteed notes with an aggregate principal amount of US$300,000,000 (equivalent to HK$2,325,000,000) at a coupon rate of 5.20% per annum, which were listed on the Stock Exchange (the "2021 Notes"). The net proceeds, after deducting the issuance expenses, amounted to HK$2,307,371,000. On 20 September 2025, the Group redeemed the 2021 Notes in full upon their maturity in accordance with the terms and conditions of the 2021 Notes.

At 31 December 2024, the fair value of the 2021 Notes was HK$2,246,322,000, which is based on a market price from a financial institution.

27. DEFERRED TAX

As at 31 December 2025, the Group has tax losses arising in Hong Kong and the UK of HK$313,484,000 (2024: HK$311,930,000) and HK$130,562,000 (2024: HK$75,708,000), subject to the agreement by the Hong Kong Inland Revenue Department and HM Revenue & Customs, respectively, that are available indefinitely for offsetting against future taxable profits of the companies in which the losses arose. Deferred tax assets had not been recognised in respect of these losses as it was not considered probable that taxable profits would be available against which the tax losses can be utilised.

At 31 December 2025, the Group has an unrecognised interest restriction amount carried forward totalling HK$1,202,287,000 (2024: HK$1,041,578,000) as a result of the UK Corporate interest restriction legislation. This amount can be carried forward indefinitely and may be deductible in future periods should the Group have available interest capacity. Deferred tax assets had not been recognised in respect of the interest restriction amount carried forward given the uncertainty in utilisation.

There are no income tax consequences attaching to the payment of dividends by the Company to its shareholders.

37. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Management has assessed that the fair values of cash and cash equivalents, pledged deposits, restricted bank balances, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables, the current portion of financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals and the current portion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

The Group's finance department headed by the directors of the Company is responsible for determining the policies and procedures for the fair value measurement of financial instruments. The financial controller reports directly to the directors of the Company and the audit committee. At each reporting date, the finance department analyses the movements in the values of financial instruments and determines the major inputs applied in the valuation. The valuation is reviewed and approved by the directors of the Company. The valuation process and results are discussed with the audit committee twice a year for interim and annual financial reporting.

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

The fair values of the non-current portion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and the non-current portion of financial liabilities included in other payables have been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities. The Group's own non-performance risk for interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and financial liabilities included in other payables as at 31 December 2025 was assessed to be insignificant. Management has assessed that the fair values of the non-current portion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and financial liabilities included in other payables approximate to their carrying amounts.

The fair values of listed equity investments are based on quoted market prices. The fair values of unlisted fund investments are derived from the net asset value per share of the investments or latest transaction prices. The directors of the Company believe that the estimated fair values which are recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss, as appropriate, in the year ended 31 December 2025, are reasonable, and that they were the most appropriate values at the end of the reporting period.

The Group enters into derivative financial instruments with various counterparties, principally financial institutions with credit ratings ranging from A+ to AA-. Derivative financial instruments, including forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps, are measured using valuation techniques similar to forward pricing and swap models, using present value calculations. The models incorporate various market observable inputs including the credit quality of counterparties, foreign exchange spot and forward rates and interest rate curves. The carrying amounts of forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps are the same as their fair values.

As at 31 December 2025, the mark-to-market value of the derivative asset and derivative liability position is net of a credit valuation adjustment attributable to derivative counterparty default risk. The changes in counterparty credit risk had no material effect on the hedge effectiveness assessment for derivatives designated in hedge relationship and other financial instruments recognised at fair value.

37. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments include financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, derivative financial instruments, trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, other payables, interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, notes payable, pledged deposits, restricted bank balances and cash and cash equivalents. Details of the major financial instruments and the Group's relevant accounting policies are disclosed in note 2.4 to the financial statements.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk, equity price risk and liquidity risk. The directors of the Company review and agree policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below.

Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's pledged deposits, restricted bank balances, cash and cash equivalents and bank borrowings with floating interest rates. The Group monitors the movement in interest rates on an ongoing basis and evaluates the exposure and the costs of available hedging for its debt obligations.

To manage its interest cost, the Group entered into interest rate swaps in which the Group agrees to exchange, at specified intervals, the difference between fixed and variable rate interest amounts calculated by reference to an agreed-upon notional principal amount. At 31 December 2025, after taking into the effect of the interest rate swaps, approximately 59% (2024: 54%) of the Group's interest-bearing bank and other borrowings bore interest at fixed rates.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's loss before tax (through the impact on pledged deposits, restricted bank balances, cash and cash equivalents and bank borrowings with floating rates held by the Group at the end of the reporting period after taking into account the effect of the interest rate swaps) and the Group's equity (through the impact on fair value changes on the interest rate swaps).

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risks primarily through business activities which give rise to receivables, payables and cash and bank balances that are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity at the end of the reporting period to a reasonably possible change in the exchange rates of currencies other than the functional currency of the operations, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's loss before tax (due to changes in the fair values of monetary assets and liabilities).

	Increase/ (decrease) in rates	Decrease/ (increase) in loss before tax HK$'000
2025
If HK$ weakens against RMB	10%	55,451
If HK$ strengthens against RMB	(10%)	(55,451)
If HK$ weakens against GBP	10%	154,923
If HK$ strengthens against GBP	(10%)	(154,923)
	Increase/ (decrease) in rates	Decrease/ (increase) in loss before tax HK$'000
2024
If HK$ weakens against RMB	10%	53,157
If HK$ strengthens against RMB	(10%)	(53,157)
If HK$ weakens against GBP	10%	81,642
If HK$ strengthens against GBP	(10%)	(81,642)

Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent the effects on loss before tax of each of the Group's entities measured in the respective functional currencies, translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rate ruling at the end of the reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis assumes that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to re-measure those monetary assets and liabilities held by the Group which expose the Group to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting period, including inter-company payables and receivables within the Group which are denominated in a currency other than the functional currencies of the lender or the borrower. The analysis excludes differences that would result from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into the Group's presentation currency.

Credit risk

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

* The credit quality of the financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables is considered to be “normal” when they are not past due and there is no information indicating that the financial assets had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Otherwise, the credit quality of the financial assets is considered to be “doubtful”.

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair values of equity securities decrease as a result of changes in the levels of equity indices and the value of individual securities. The Group is exposed to equity price risk arising from individual listed equity investments included in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (note 19) as at 31 December 2025. The Group's listed investments are listed on the Stock Exchange and are valued at quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period.

The market equity index for the Stock Exchange at the close of business of the nearest trading day in the year to the end of the reporting period, and its respective highest and lowest points during the year are as follows:

	31 December 2025	High/low 2025	31 December 2024	High/low 2024
Hong Kong – Hang Seng Index	25,631	27,382/18,671	20,060	23,242/14,794

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to every 10% decrease (2024: 10% decrease) in the fair values of the listed equity investments, with all other variables held constant and before any impact on tax, based on their carrying amounts at the end of the reporting period.

	Carrying amount of equity investments HK$'000	Increase in loss before tax HK$'000

Equity investments listed in Hong Kong: – Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	21,189	2,119
2024
Equity investments listed in Hong Kong: – Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	45,864	4,586

The Group's management manages the above exposure by maintaining a well-diversified investment portfolio.

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

Liquidity risk

Management of the Group aims to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents and available funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet its projected cash flows from operations.

The maturity profile of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities as at the end of the reporting period, based on the contractual undiscounted payments (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay, was as follows:

Note: As at 31 December 2024, included in interest-bearing bank borrowings of the Group are revolving loans with an aggregate principal amount of HK$300,000,000, of which the respective loan agreements contain a repayment on demand clause giving the banks the unconditional right to call in the loans at any time and therefore, for the purpose of the above maturity profile, the total amount is classified as “on demand” and these loans will be repaid within one year in accordance with the maturity dates as set out in the respective loan agreements.

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that it maintains a strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholders' value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024.

The Group monitors capital using a net gearing ratio, which is net debts divided by equity attributable to owners of the parent. Net debts include interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and notes payable, less cash and bank balances, time deposits and deposits with brokerage companies. The net gearing ratios as at the end of the reporting periods were as follows:
