Chairman's Statement

ECONOMIC AND MARKET REVIEW

In 2025, while recovering in a resilient manner, the global economy showed a mixed development trend, facing substantial trade protectionism and geopolitical risks. In the US, the economy maintained moderate growth, with the stagflation risks and stock market bubble risks coexisting; despite the achievement of an overall “soft landing”, the recovery exhibited apparent “K-shaped” characteristics, with the temporary government shutdown impacting the economic operations. While in the Europe, the economy emerged from the predicament of weak recovery, with the policy rates approaching equilibrium. In East Asia, the economic landscape continued to evolve, as the Bank of Japan gradually quit its long-term ultra-easing monetary policy and South Korea's economy showed signs of recovery following political stabilization. Emerging markets demonstrated divergent performance in response to the impact of US tariff policies but remained as important global growth engines. Global geopolitical risks intensified, with events such as the Trump administration's introduction of reciprocal tariffs and the US's strike on Iranian nuclear facilities temporarily impacting global markets.

In 2025, China's economy managed to withstand external pressures and achieved progress while maintaining stability. With the support of the “four stabilizing (四穩)” policies and empowerment from new quality productive forces, the “14th Five-Year” Plan for social and economic development was successfully concluded. A series of measures to expand domestic demand and boost consumption took effect, continuously highlighting the role of domestic demand as a ballast stone for growth. Despite external tariff's disturbances, China's foreign trade demonstrated strong resilience, with total imports and exports of goods reaching a record high. Its exports of high-tech products and exports targeting emerging markets achieved significant growth. Corporate expectations continued to improve and the momentum of economic recovery and upturn was steadily consolidated, together with the slight lowering of policy interest rates and the continuous breakthroughs achieved in key technologies, leading to the emergence of a “slow bull” A-share market.

In 2025, Hong Kong's economic and financial markets steadily recovered amid internal and external challenges. In the face of tariff policies and global trade growth pressures, Hong Kong's foreign trade and imports and exports not only registered a double-digit growth but also reached a record high, with the demand for artificial intelligence and related electronic products being strong. As the Hong Kong Dollars' interest rate cuts were implemented following the US Dollars', the market interest rates and the Hong Kong Dollars' exchange rate in Hong Kong declined to some extent, boosting local demand and the pick-up of consumption by Mainland visitors to Hong Kong. In addition, the SAR government introduced policies to support its key industries such as artificial intelligence, life and health sciences and new industrialization. It promoted the development of the Northern Metropolis, strengthened cross-border cooperation in the Greater Bay Area, and fostered specialty tourism economy. It also enhanced financing support for small and medium-sized enterprises and optimized programs for introducing talents from the Mainland. Those policies had led to the steady economic growth throughout the year.

ECONOMIC AND MARKET REVIEW (CONTINUED)

Regarding the stock market, Hong Kong stocks accelerated their recovery in 2025, building on the momentum from 2024. The Hang Seng Index rose by 27.77% for the year, while the Hang Seng Tech Index increased by 23.45%. The primary market performed remarkably, with 117 companies raising over HK$285.6 billion through IPOs in Hong Kong throughout 2025, representing a significant increase of nearly 240% compared to the HK$88.15 billion raised in 2024, allowing Hong Kong to reclaim its position as the world's top IPO market after four years. Large Chinese enterprises pursuing A+H listings became the core driver of fundraising growth, with Chinese securities firms dominating the underwriting market. Regarding the bond market, supported by multiple factors such as the US Federal Reserve's interest rate cuts and Hong Kong's efforts to promote fixed-income market development, the size of issuance of offshore Chinese bonds in the primary market steadily expanded. Valuations and investment sentiment in the secondary market continued to recover, with yield trending to stabilize.

In 2025, Hong Kong regulators continued to refine the regulatory framework, strengthening financial security defenses while promoting high-quality market development. The SFC enhanced regulatory guidance, driving market innovation and connectivity. It established a comprehensive regulatory framework for stablecoins and collaborated with the central bank and the HKMA to optimize the operating mechanisms of the Bond Connect and the Swap Connect. It also supported the expansion of the Bond Connect (Southbound) to include four types of non-bank institutions and worked to improve the fixed-income market ecosystem. The HKEX, jointly with the SFC, launched the "Technology Enterprises Channel", reformed the IPO pricing mechanism to boost market vibrancy and liquidity, and strengthened linkages and collaboration with global markets, which had further consolidated Hong Kong's core position as a leading international financial center.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group had built a cooperative development system with China Minsheng Bank in a regular and efficient manner, through which it can leverage the enormous network and customer base of China Minsheng Bank to facilitate the comprehensive and steady development of the Group in the areas of bond underwriting, corporate financing, asset management, investment and financing, etc. The Group responded to the challenges brought about by the external environment, adjusted its business development strategies in a timely manner, to ensure a balance between the development of various business segments, further strengthened its operational capabilities and paid close attention to its risk management, maintaining a reasonable debt structure and abundant liquidity to deal with the global market uncertainty.

Chairman's Statement

During the Reporting Year, with respect to the bond underwriting business, the Group completed the underwriting of 295 bond issuance projects, representing a significant increase as compared to the Previous Year. The total issuance volume of offshore Chinese bonds in 2025 increased significantly as compared to 2024, driving the growth of the Group's bond underwriting business. In 2025, the US Federal Reserve cut interest rates by a total of 0.75%, resulting in a slight increase in the issuance of US dollar-denominated bonds as compared to 2024. In addition, the issuance of offshore RMB-denominated bonds in the market in 2025 also increased as compared to 2024, and the overall market supply and issuance environment were better as compared to that of 2024. With respect to the corporate finance business, the Group continued to develop its listing sponsorship and stock underwriting business steadily. Acting as sponsor, the Group assisted three companies in successfully listing on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and multiple companies in submitting listing applications to the Stock Exchange. Acting as an independent financial advisor, the Group assisted West China Cement Limited (Stock Code: 2233.HK) in a major disposal and connected transaction. The Group also acted as a financial advisor for a privatization and a very substantial disposal and for a general offer which was completed in January 2026. Furthermore, the Group participated as a joint bookrunner or roles of higher level in 25 Hong Kong IPO equity underwriting projects, and three Hong Kong placing projects. In terms of the asset management business, the Group made new progress in product innovation and net value performance. During the Reporting Year, the Group optimized and adjusted its money market fund product line and successfully launched a SFC-authorized US Dollar money market fund, to continuously enhance its market competitiveness. It actively responded to the Hong Kong SAR Government's policy direction by launching multiple private equity fund products under its open-ended fund company, further enriching the variety of asset management products. In addition, the Group maintained steady progress in managing net asset values, standardizing product investment operations, and strengthening risk and compliance controls, with annual performance leading the market. The Group also actively built its asset management brand, receiving awards such as the "China Offshore Bond (3-Year)" and "Greater China Fixed Income Hedge Fund (3-Year)" Investment Performance Awards from the Insights & Mandate magazine. The Group continued to maintain leading rankings in the "Greater China Bond Fund Performance List" and the "Greater China Mixed Mutual Fund Performance List" by Wind Information and the Chinese Asset Management Association of Hong Kong. In terms of the wealth management business, the Group improved the development of its wealth management business platform, promoted account opening and securities business via the "Minying Future" (民贏未來) APP, and reviewed and refined the compliant sales processes for various specific products. In 2025, the newly added securities assets amounted to approximately HK$710 million.

In relation to the investment and financing business, the Group maintained a steady and flexible investment strategy while deploying investment products in diversified markets, including but not limited to listed bonds, listed equities, unlisted equities, unlisted funds and loans.

Chairman's Statement

During the Reporting Year, the Group's total revenue (including net gains or losses from investments) was approximately HK$467.5 million, representing an increase of approximately 28.7% from approximately HK$363.4 million in the Previous Year. The net profit for the Reporting Year was approximately HK$151.2 million, compared to a net profit of approximately HK$50.8 million in the Previous Year, representing an increase of approximately 197.7%. The Group's total assets increased by approximately 43.7% from approximately HK$3.84 billion as at 31 December 2024 to approximately HK$5.53 billion as at 31 December 2025. With respect to dividend, the Board did not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the Reporting Year (Previous Year: Nil).

FUTURE OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Looking ahead to 2026, the US Trump administration's global strategy will be shifting towards "New Monroe Doctrine", expanding its geopolitical influence to more regions. The international order established since World War II will experience significant challenges. Geopolitical uncertainties are likely to persist in regions such as Russia-Ukraine, the Middle East and Latin America. Trade protectionism will continue to impact global industrial chains, with tariffs remaining as a political tool frequently used by the Trump administration. The independence of the US Federal Reserve will continue to be challenged, and the change of its leadership will add uncertainty to US monetary policy and global financial markets. Although relations between the US and China have somewhat eased, the mid-term election year, particularly when approaching the fourth quarter, will create considerable chances for strategic maneuvering.

2026 marks the beginning of China's "15th Five-Year" Plan period. The Chinese economy is expected to continue to improve under the guiding principle of stabilizing growth. Fiscal and monetary policies will work in tandem, with further measures to be introduced to expand domestic demand and boost consumption, aiming to solidify the foundation for domestic demand recovery, so as to counterbalance external pressures. Breakthroughs will be made continuously in technological innovation, and achievements are expected to be achieved continuously in sectors such as artificial intelligence, commercial aerospace, healthcare and life sciences and the low-altitude economy. Hong Kong will actively align with the national "15th Five-Year" Plan, leveraging its three core engines — finance, innovation and technology, as well as trade — to drive growth. The number of Mainland enterprises to pursue listing in Hong Kong is expected to increase further, and the financial industry will continue to unleash its vitality. The SAR government will advance initiatives such as promoting new industrialization and accelerating the development of innovation and technology platforms. Meanwhile, it will strengthen its financial security defenses to guard against various market risks, injecting strong momentum into economic growth.

FUTURE OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY (CONTINUED)

Overall, global financial markets will continue to face multiple risks. However, the development benefits from the start of China's "15th Five-Year" Plan and Hong Kong's unique advantages in its aligning with national strategies will effectively counterbalance external challenges. Risks and opportunities will therefore present themselves in a state of dynamic equilibrium.

The Group will adhere to the overall theme of resolute development and continuous innovation, and seriously implement the strategic plan of China Minsheng Bank to move towards capital-light investment banking, with the development of licensed businesses as its core strategy.

As an important member of the China Minsheng Bank Group and its offshore investment banking platform, the Group will rely on China Minsheng Bank's brand and client resources, focusing on strategic clients of its head office and branches in the PRC, exploring cross-border business opportunities for its overseas business, and providing a full range of investment banking services to its clients, with a view to becoming a platform for the provision of China Minsheng Bank's international investment banking products and services as well as a platform for the provision of financial services for cross-border business of its key clientele, and to create greater and longer-term investment return for the Shareholders.

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group is currently licensed to engage in Type 1 (dealing in securities), Type 2 (dealing in futures contracts), Type 4 (advising on securities), Type 6 (advising on corporate finance) and Type 9 (asset management) regulated activities, as well as financing and money lending business with the capacity as “exempted person” defined in the Money Lenders Ordinance (no license required pursuant to the Money Lenders Ordinance). In addition, the Group has obtained approval from the SFC to provide virtual asset trading services and virtual asset deposit and withdrawal services to clients, including both non-professional and professional investors. The Group has all material licenses required for provision of services currently expected to be requested by most of its existing and potential clients.

During the Reporting Year, the Group’s profit attributable to owners of the Company amounted to approximately HK$151.2 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$50.8 million), representing an increase of 197.7% from the Previous Year. The Group’s basic and diluted earnings per share was HK13.77 cents for the Reporting Year (Previous Year: HK4.59 cents).

The Group’s total revenue increased by approximately 28.7% to approximately HK$467.5 million during the Reporting Year, compared to approximately HK$363.4 million in the Previous Year. This was primarily attributable to the notable results achieved in the Group’s transformation development, and significant year-on-year increase in revenue from securities underwriting, asset management, sponsorship services and wealth management related fee-based businesses during the Reporting Year.

Securities

The Group's securities business mainly includes the provision of brokerage services, securities margin financing and bond underwriting services to clients.

During the Reporting Year, total revenue and profit contributed by the securities segment amounted to approximately HK$104.4 million and HK$69.6 million respectively, representing a significant increase compared to HK$48.1 million and HK$6.2 million respectively for the Previous Year. The increase in segment total revenue was primarily attributable to the increase in the revenue of bond underwriting, interest income from margin financing and commission income from brokerage and related services. Against the backdrop of business development and the increase in segment total revenue, segment expenses such as funding costs, brokerage commissions, and system setup also recorded year-on-year increase during the Reporting Year. In addition, the full repayment by a margin financing client during the Reporting Year led to a reversal of impairment losses in the margin financing business, resulting in a higher growth rate for segment profit compared to segment total revenue.

During the Reporting Year, driven by refinancing needs, the number and size of Chinese offshore bond issuances increased significantly as compared to the Previous Year. The Group's bond underwriting business clients are still mainly financial institutions and local state-owned enterprises. During the Reporting Year, the Group completed the underwriting and issuance of 295 bonds with a total issuance size of more than US$60.5 billion. Our credit qualifications as an underwriter remained sound and healthy.

The Group's securities brokerage business includes trading shares, bonds and other valuable securities of listed companies for clients, while its margin financing business includes provision of stock secured financing for retail, corporate and high-net-worth clients requiring finance for purchasing securities. The Group continues to adopt a relatively cautious development strategy as to its margin financing business.

Investment and Financing

During the Reporting Year, geopolitical risks caused disturbance to the global economy. However, with the clarification of tariff policies, sustained and stable growth in major global economies, and the US Federal Reserve's interest rate cuts boosting investor sentiment, risk assets generally performed well. In China, driven by proactive fiscal policies and the central bank's moderately easing monetary policy, funds flowed into the Chinese market, leading to outstanding performance in Chinese US Dollar-denominated bonds and stock market. Although tariff policies raised concerns among investors regarding US Dollar transactions, US Dollar-denominated assets remained favored by investors, supported by the AI investment theme and the robust fundamentals of the US economy, showing a steady upward trend. Under the prevailing uncertainties in the macroeconomic environment, the Group increased the provision for expected credit losses on certain high-yield bond investments, adjusted the fair value of certain investments in equity on a case-by-case basis and further strengthened the risk control over the financing business.

Management Discussion and Analysis

In terms of investments, the Group focused on the Greater China region and expanded its business to developed markets such as Asia, Europe and the United States, achieving diversified allocation. As for bond investments, the Group primarily focused on leading enterprises with stable operations, including banks, insurance companies and utilities, and established a diversified and stable investment portfolio. At the industry level, the Group strategically focused on sectors that are in a growth or expansion phase and possess high competitive barriers, actively identifying companies with outstanding core technological advantages, strong revenue growth and robust profit potential. In the process of diversified investments of global assets, the Group actively seized opportunities of investments in assets denominated in currencies such as the Renminbi, Australian Dollar and Euro to further diversify portfolio risk. Meanwhile, the Group also focused on technological and innovative enterprises and medical and pharmaceutical healthcare enterprises with high growth potential that comply with the requirements of Chapter 18A of the Listing Rules.

In terms of financing, the Group provided customised financing solutions in different structures or forms according to customers' needs and provided a series of services including transaction structure design, coordination of professional parties and overall financing arrangements. Specific products include, but are not limited to, syndicated loans, asset-backed loans, merger and acquisition loans, equity pledge financing, bridge financing, etc. The Group adopts a prudent development strategy with respect to financing based on risk control.

Fixed-income direct investment

During the Reporting Year, total revenue from the fixed-income direct investment segment, which included but not limited to coupons from listed bonds under direct investment, amounted to an aggregate of approximately HK$99.4 million as compared to approximately HK$103.9 million in the Previous Year. The segment recorded a loss of approximately HK$25.4 million in the Reporting Year as compared to a loss of approximately HK$14.6 million in the Previous Year. The decrease in segment total revenue was primarily due to the year-on-year decrease in overall coupon income as a result of the decrease in the size of bond investments during the Reporting Year, while the decrease in total revenue was narrowed by the year-on-year decrease in investment losses during the Reporting Year. The increase in segment loss was primarily attributable to the increase in provisions for expected credit loss recognized for bond investments during the Reporting Year, as certain defaulted property bond issuers still lacked clear restructuring plans or the announced restructuring plans had no significant progress. During the Reporting Year, benefiting from the interest rate cuts by the US Federal Reserve and the relative reduction in financing size due to decreased investment size, financing costs decreased year-on-year, thereby narrowing the increase in segment loss.

Other investment and financing

During the Reporting Year, total revenue from the other investment and financing segment, which included but not limited to coupons, dividends and distribution income from listed bonds (other than those under fixed-income direct investment), listed equities, unlisted equity interests and unlisted funds, amounted to an aggregate of approximately HK$17.6 million as compared to approximately HK$35.6 million in the Previous Year. The decrease in segment total revenue was primarily due to the significant decrease in the fair value of investment projects. Segment result turned from a profit to a loss of approximately HK$3.7 million for the Reporting Year, as compared to the profit in the Previous Year of approximately HK$12.8 million. The turn of the segment results from a profit to a loss was primarily due to the significant year-on-year decrease in segment total revenue.

The following table sets out the breakdown of investment and financing:

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's investment portfolio mainly included, but was not limited to listed equities, bonds, unlisted equity interests, quoted investment funds and unlisted funds, covering a wide range of sectors such as industrial, healthcare, technology, consumer goods, real estate and finance.

As at 31 December 2025, the proprietary investment assets of the Group amounted to approximately HK$2.7 billion (2024: approximately HK$2.5 billion), including bonds investment of approximately HK$2.0 billion (2024: approximately HK$1.7 billion). The future performance of such portfolio will depend on many factors, including uncertainties in the financial markets, the economic development trends in both Hong Kong and the Mainland China and investors' sentiment.

During the Reporting Year, the Group's investment portfolio generated a total revenue of approximately HK$117.0 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$136.5 million), including interest income of approximately HK$31.8 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$43.8 million) from debt securities investments, interest income of approximately HK$18.7 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$9.5 million) from financial assets measured at FVTPL, dividend income of approximately HK$22.7 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$2.3 million) from financial assets measured at FVTPL, dividend income of approximately HK$56.1 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$64.1 million) from financial assets measured at FVOCI, net gains of approximately HK$3.7 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$24.4 million) from financial assets measured at FVTPL and net losses of approximately HK$15.9 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$7.6 million) from financial assets measured at FVOCI.

For investments classified as financial assets measured at FVOCI and FVTPL, the Group recorded an overall net gain during the Reporting Year which mainly comprised: (i) net losses recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income; (ii) net gains not recycled through profit or loss upon disposal of financial assets measured at FVOCI; and (iii) fair value gains recognised in fair value reserve through other comprehensive income.

The Group maintains a consistent and stable principle for its listed bond investment, adopts revenue-based (including charging fixed contractual interest and receiving gains on disposal) trading strategy. Adopting a top-down/bottom-up approach in its investment analysis, the Group is committed to identifying investment opportunities with sustainable and high-level revenue within limited volatility. The Group adopts a prudent risk management strategy and makes a reasonable risk pricing for its investments in order to strike a balance between risk management and revenue generation. At the same time, the Group adheres to the principle of investment diversification and has established explicit guidelines which stipulate that the position in any single bond shall not account for more than 5% of the overall position at the time of acquisition, and the portfolio shall be diversified by investing in various issuers in a wide range of sectors.

The unlisted direct investment business of the Group, which includes equity interests and funds, mainly focuses on technological and innovative enterprises and new consumption enterprises with stronger growth potential.

The Group engages in financing and loan provision business in the capacity of an “exempted person” as defined under the Money Lenders Ordinance which does not require a licence under the Money Lenders Ordinance. The Group conducts the relevant business by relying on the said exemption by virtue of China Minsheng Bank, being a bank, i.e. an authorised institution, which holds a valid banking licence under the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155, Laws of Hong Kong).

The loan business of the Group focuses on short-to-mid term financing so as to maintain the flexible configuration and high liquidity of the Group’s assets. As at 31 December 2025, the Group granted loans to two market players (the “Borrowers”), involving various types of market players in consumer discretionary industry. The Group implements pre-, peri- and post-investment management. Through putting in place practicable risk control measures and rigorous risk review on each client and each project, the overall credit and operational risks of the loan business of the Group are controllable. The Group constantly monitors and adjusts the concentration, maturity profile and risk-to-revenue ratio of its asset portfolio, in order to strike a balance between the overall risk and revenue generation.

The Group's finance provision business has been conducted using the unsecured loan from CMBCI. The interest rate is determined according to the market interest rate. Specifically, at each quarter of the Reporting Year, the interest rate was determined with reference to the applicable HIBOR/Term SOFR rate plus a reasonable margin and funding cost of CMBCI. During the Reporting Year, in supporting the business development of the Group, the annual interest rate charged to the Group by CMBCI was 4.5%.

As a general principle, the Group chooses customers with good financial position and steady business operation (no quantitative benchmark), which enable them to pay loan interest and repay the loan principal in accordance with the proposed repayment schedule, as assessed by the Group before granting loans.

In deciding whether to grant the loan to corporate customers, the Group does not have any specific requirements on the customers' industry, business operation location, minimum amount of revenue and profit in the last 12 months, minimum amount of total assets, financial benchmarks or operation history. Each application is considered on a case-by-case basis. As a general principle, the Group will take into account factors such as whether the credibility of the customers can match the amount of loans to be granted, whether the collaterals to be provided by the customers are sufficient in value and whether they are liquid, and whether the proposed term and interest rate of the loans can match the overall credibility of and collaterals to be provided by such customers.

In terms of individual customers, the Group currently does not have any specific requirements on the age group, occupation, minimum monthly income or minimum amount of assets. Each application is considered on a case-by-case basis. As a general principle, the Group will take into account factors such as the customers' credit history, assets, the quality and liquidity of the collaterals provided, and the size and terms of the loan. During the Reporting Year, the Group had not granted loans to individual customers.

All loans were secured by pledge(s) over shares of private or listed companies and a majority of them was also guaranteed by the respective ultimate beneficial owner(s) of the Borrowers.

All Borrowers and their ultimate beneficial owners are independent third parties of the Group and had no past business dealing with the Group. They were sourced by the Group's deal teams via market information and were not referred by the senior management of the Group. The Group did not have any agreement, arrangement, understanding or undertaking (whether formal or informal and whether express or implied) with any connected person of the Group with respect to the granting of loans to the Borrowers.

The loan terms were determined with reference to factors including the financing costs, customers' requirements, credit assessment on customers (including income of customers), value, liquidity and enforceability of collaterals, prevailing market interest rates for similar loans, prevailing market condition, the term of the loan and the use of proceeds.

The principal amount of loans as at the end of the Reporting Year were in the range from US$10,000,000 to US$30,000,000, denominated in US$. The proposed usages of the loan proceeds were refinancing existing indebtedness or financing general working capital of the Borrowers. Pursuant to the relevant agreements, the interest rates charged to the Borrowers for the outstanding loans were 7% per annum. The loan receivables were overdue. As of the date of this report, the Group has been taking various steps and actions to recover the loans, including but not limited to the ongoing negotiation of the bankruptcy restructuring plan with the Borrowers.

The total loan receivables of the Group at the end of the Reporting Year amounted to approximately HK$239,021,000 (2024: approximately HK$256,500,000), of which: (i) the amount of loan receivables due from the largest Borrower was approximately HK$159,458,000 (2024: approximately HK$176,309,000), representing approximately 67% (2024: approximately 69%) of the total loan receivables of the Group; (ii) the amount of loan receivables due from all two Borrowers was approximately HK$239,021,000 (the amount of loan receivables due from all two Borrowers in 2024: approximately HK$256,500,000), representing 100% (2024: 100%) of the total loan receivables of the Group; and (iii) the amount of allowance for expected credit losses provided for the loan receivables was approximately HK$239,021,000 (2024: approximately HK$234,690,000 which was determined by expected credit loss model (the "ECL Model") or valuation prepared by an independent professional valuer), and the full provision for expected credit losses as at the end of the Reporting Year was made since the two Borrowers were in the process of bankruptcy restructuring, resulting in extremely significant uncertainty regarding their ability to repay the loans. As at 31 December 2025, loan receivables from the two Borrowers with an aggregate amount of approximately HK$239,021,000 were overdue for more than 90 days.

As (i) all Borrowers and their ultimate beneficial owners are independent third parties of the Group, and (ii) all applicable percentage ratios (as defined under Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules) in respect of each of the loans granted to the Borrowers were less than 5%, each of the loans was not subject to disclosure requirements set out in Chapter 14 and/or Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

The Group has in place practice guidelines for controlling the overall credit and operation risk, loan recoverability monitoring and loan collection. After the grant of loan, the business team and risk management department of the Group together monitor the financial conditions of the customers and the collaterals or the guarantors (if any) on a regular basis and take appropriate follow-up action with the counterparties including follow-up calls and site visits where the financial condition of the counterparties deteriorates or the value of the collaterals decreases dramatically.

The Group monitors the revenue, profit and cash flows, as well as asset quality of the borrowers and guarantors (collectively, the “Obligor(s)”) to assess their financial conditions. In particular, the Group assesses the Obligor’s capability to generate steady profit and cash flows. Further, the Group reviews the business development of the Obligor and assesses whether their financial performance meets the expectation, and whether their milestones (if any) are completed as scheduled. In addition, the Group monitors the size of other debts of the Obligor and their repayment schedules (if obtainable), and assesses whether the Obligor has the corresponding repayment ability. Further, the Group monitors whether the Obligor is able to cover their capital expenditures with operating cash flows and external funding. The Group also pays attention to the news and other public information of the Obligor. In case the Obligor is a listed company, the Group monitors its announcements and the financial information disclosed to the public.

For the collaterals, the Group values the collaterals regularly on a semi-annual or annual basis. If the collaterals are listed shares, the Group monitors the market performance and price movement on daily basis. Where the collateral is a real estate, the Group requires a professional third-party valuer to issue a valuation report.

The Directors ensure the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems for credit risk exposure assessment and management, loan recoverability and collateral adequacy through their design and participation in the Group's three-tiered risk management and internal control framework.

- (i) At the Board level, the Risk Management and Internal Control Committee holds semi-annual meetings to review and evaluate the risk management and internal control systems and assess their effectiveness through reviewing the risk management report submitted by the Company, discussing with the management on the major findings and management's responses to these findings and suggestions and ensuring the Company provides timely enhancement or ratifications to issues raised. The Audit Committee holds semi-annual meetings to review and evaluate the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the relevant reporting period (including the accounting policies and practices in respect of the impairment assessment), and review and monitor the Group's risk management and internal control systems through reviewing the internal audit report submitted by the Company, discussing with the management on relevant findings and suggestions, considering management's response to these findings and suggestions, and urging the Company to complete any ratification in a timely manner.

- (ii) At the management level, all executive Directors of the Company are members of the investment and financing approval committee, which is set up by the management. The executive Directors participate and vote in the committee meetings held from time to time to evaluate and approve investment, divestment or enforcement of loan collaterals. During the meeting, the executive Directors assess various matters such as the credit risk exposure, recoverability of the loan, adequacy of the collateral, commercial rationale, fairness and reasonableness of the key terms and conditions, benefits to the Group and its shareholders, through reviewing the due diligence report submitted by business units and discussing the proposed transactions with other investment and financing approval committee members including heads of risk management, legal and compliance departments. During the meeting, the executive Directors also request additional approval conditions or enforcement action for business units to execute in order to mitigate credit risk exposure and increase recoverability of the loan and adequacy of the collateral.

- (iii) Further, at the management level, the executive Directors participate and vote in management meetings held from time to time to review and approve the Group's credit policies. In particular:
 - (a) in order to mitigate credit risk exposure, the management has approved the procedural guidelines and the concentration-restriction policy for the Group's investment and financing business, as well as the issuer whitelist for debt investments;
 - (b) in order to monitor the recoverability of loans, the management has approved the post-investment management policy, pursuant to which the Group holds monthly meetings for each of the outstanding loan projects. During the meetings, the business units report to the risk management department and the management in charge on the Obligors' progress of loan repayment, completion of any milestone events, and discuss the Obligors' latest operational condition, financial status including collateral value and relevant market and industry information; and
 - (c) in order to monitor the adequacy of collaterals, the management has approved the collateral management policy, pursuant to which the Group requires valuation of collaterals periodically.
- (iv) At the department level, the executive Directors supervise work conducted by departments responsible for executing risk management tasks (including business units, legal and compliance department, and risk management department), which monitor business operations throughout the entire process. In particular, the front office business unit conducts due diligence on proposed transactions. The middle office including risk management, legal and compliance departments, reviews the risks, legal and compliance issues involved in each transaction. The investment and financing approval committee approves each transaction. The internal audit department independently inspects by spot checking on a completed transaction and ensures its initiation, approval and execution meet the Group's internal control policies and procedures, and reports to the Audit Committee.

As discussed above, the Directors fulfill their obligations in overseeing lending transactions by (a) reviewing and monitoring the effectiveness of the Group's internal control and risk management system by members of the Risk Management and Internal Control Committee and Audit Committee, (b) participating in the investment and financing approval committee meetings and approving policies providing guidelines and procedures in investment and financing business, and supervising the relevant departments on their work during due diligence, negotiation and execution process by the executive Directors, and (c) regularly receiving independent inspection reports from internal audit department.

In particular:

- (i) before a proposed lending transaction can be submitted to the investment and financing approval committee for assessment, business units, risk management department and legal and compliance department complete relevant due diligence, site visits and research, know-your-client exercise, connected transaction and anti-money laundering reviews, commercial risk reviews, and key term reviews in accordance with guidelines and procedures;
- (ii) during the investment and financing approval committee meeting, the reporting and discussion focus on the borrower's and guarantor's repayment capacity, repayment sources, transaction structure, guarantee measures, collateral value and liquidity, loan purpose, and the reasonableness of core terms such as amount and duration, as well as industry trends, and the borrower's position within the industry, ensuring that the borrower has adequate repayment capacity and willingness at the time of approval and granting of the loan. Only projects approved by the investment and financing approval committee can proceed to the implementation stage; and
- (iii) during negotiation and execution stages, the Group usually engages external lawyers to review financing agreements and related documents with its legal and compliance department.

All of the above measures help support and facilitate the Directors' prudent assessment (i) of the commercial rationale for entering into each of the lending transactions of the Group, (ii) on whether the terms of transaction are fair and reasonable, and (iii) on whether the use of funds by the Group is in the interests of the Group and its Shareholders as a whole.

Where an Obligor is in default, the Group shall take necessary action(s) to safeguard its interests which includes, but are not limited to, issuing demand letters, enforcing the loan collaterals, negotiating for settlement plans, and/or commencing legal proceedings. Prior to taking any such actions, the investment and financing approval committee normally convenes a meeting to consider and approve the necessary action(s). To the extent necessary, the Group also seeks advice from third party advisors such as receivers, legal advisors and valuers.

The Group has established the ECL Model to measure the credit losses and impairment of the loans that reflects the changes in credit risk of the underlying assets. The management has the overall responsibility for the Group's credit policies and oversees the credit quality of the Group's receivables and loans portfolio. In addition, the management assesses the recoverable amount of loan receivables individually and incorporates them into the Group's ECL Model which is reviewed or audited by the Group's auditors at each reporting date to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts.

The Group's provision for impairment of financing and money lending business for the Reporting Year was approximately HK$4,331,000 (Previous Year: approximately HK$3,087,000). The increase in provision for impairment was mainly due to the full provisions made for expected credit losses for two loans during the Reporting Year. As of the date of this annual report, the Group has been taking various steps and actions to recover the loans, including but not limited to the ongoing negotiation of the bankruptcy restructuring plan with the Borrowers. Currently, the two Borrowers are in the process of bankruptcy restructuring.

Further details of the loan and advances and ECL Model for the Reporting Year are set out in notes 2(r), 20 and 35(a) to the consolidated financial statements.

Asset Management

The Group's asset management business is the provision of asset management services to its clients, covering SFC authorised funds (commonly known as "public funds"), private funds, discretionary managed accounts and investment advisory services, and is committed to providing one-stop, multi-level asset management service solutions to clients based on their needs. Among which, there are three major categories of public funds issued, including bond funds, debt-equity hybrid funds and money market funds; private funds include private equity-investment funds, hybrid multi-strategy funds, bond-type structured funds and equity funds, etc.

During the Reporting Year, in the face of macroeconomic challenges such as tariff trade wars, policy uncertainties and geopolitical risks, the Group adhered to a prudent investment strategy, seized market opportunities, strengthened risk control measures and ensured efficient management of the net value of products. As at 31 December 2025, the net value of bond public funds and hybrid public funds grew steadily, among them, the net value of CMBC Aggregate Greater China Select Bond Fund increased by 6.39% and the net value of CMBC Aggregate Greater China Strategy Fund increased by 12.62%, as compared to their respective net value as at 31 December 2024.

The Group's asset management products have achieved leading performance in terms of net value in the industry. The CMBC Aggregate Greater China Select Bond Fund ranked first in the "5-Year Greater China Bond Fund Performance List" and third in the "5-Year Bond Fund Performance List" and the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Strategy Fund ranked third in the "3-Year Greater China Hybrid Fund Performance List" in the "Hong Kong Offshore Chinese Public Fund Performance List" for the third quarter of 2025; the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Select Bond Fund ranked first in the "3-Year Greater China Bond Fund Performance List" and the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Strategy Fund ranked first in the "3-Year Hybrid Fund Performance List" in the "Hong Kong Offshore Chinese Public Fund Performance List" for the second quarter of 2025; the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Select Bond Fund ranked first in the "3-Year Greater China Bond Fund Performance List" and the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Strategy Fund made its debut and ranked fourth in the "1-Year Hybrid Fund Performance List" in the "Hong Kong Offshore Chinese Public Fund Performance List" for the first quarter of 2025, jointly announced by Wind Information and the Chinese Asset Management Association of Hong Kong. In the 2025 Professional Investment Awards held by Insights & Mandate magazine, the CMBC Aggregate Greater China Select Bond Fund once again won the "China Offshore Bonds (3-Year)" Investment Performance Award; the CMBC Stable Investment Fund SP2 was awarded the "Greater China Fixed Income Hedge Fund (3-Year)" Investment Performance Award for the first time.

Meanwhile, in response to the development trend of local asset management and wealth management business in Hong Kong, the Group continued to launch multiple fund products. First, on 15 September 2025, the Group issued its first SFC-authorized US Dollar money market fund, the CMBC Aggregate US Dollar Money Market Fund. As at 31 December 2025, the net value of the CMBC Aggregate US Dollar Money Market Fund had increased by 1.07%, as compared to its net value as at 15 September 2025. Second, the Group actively explored the development of equity products, issuing several private funds under its open-ended fund company during the Reporting Year.

During the Reporting Year, the Group's asset management segment recorded a total revenue of approximately HK$166.2 million, as compared to approximately HK$135.9 million of the Previous Year and during the Reporting Year, the segment recorded profit of approximately HK$139.9 million, as compared to approximately HK$111.0 million of the Previous Year. The increase in segment total revenue and profit was due to the adjustment to the fee rates for certain portfolios in the second half of the Previous Year and the number of assets under our management increased, resulting in the year-on-year increase in the revenue.

Corporate Finance and Advisory

During the Reporting Year, the Group successfully assisted Newtrend Group Holding Co., Ltd. (Stock Code: 2573.HK), Deepexi Technology Co., Ltd. (Stock Code: 1384.HK) and Anhui Jinyan Kaolin New Materials Co., Ltd. (Stock Code: 2693.HK) in their listings on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange. Additionally, the Group successfully assisted in the initial listing application submission and posting of listing documents on the website of the Stock Exchange for six IPO projects, covering sectors such as internet insurance technology and product solutions, smart parking solutions, multispectral AI technology and healthcare. In May 2025, the "Technology Enterprises Channel" was officially launched. The Group also successfully assisted three Specialist Technology and biotechnology companies in submitting listing applications on a confidential basis. Concurrently, during the Reporting Year, acting as financial advisor, the Group assisted in a privatization and a very substantial disposal, as well as a general offer (which was completed in January 2026). Acting as independent financial advisor, the Group also assisted in a major disposal and connected transaction. In terms of equity underwriting, the Group completed a total of 25 IPO underwriting projects in the Reporting Year (based on the listing date), representing an increase of three projects compared to the same period in 2024, serving roles including overall coordinator, joint global coordinator and joint bookrunner, covering industries such as artificial intelligence, biotechnology, consumer goods and finance industries. Additionally, the Group also completed three Hong Kong placing projects in the role of overall coordinator and placing agent during the Reporting Year.

During the Reporting Year, due to the overall positive trend in the Hong Kong capital market and the strong rebound of IPO market, together with the support by the trend of encouraging mainland enterprises to seek listings in Hong Kong in the year, the Group's corporate finance and advisory segment recorded a total revenue of approximately HK$79.8 million, as compared to approximately HK$39.8 million for the Previous Year, and a segment profit of approximately HK$42.2 million was recorded for the Reporting Year, as compared to approximately HK$8.4 million for the Previous Year. The increase in segment total revenue and segment profit was mainly attributable to the increase in revenue from sponsorship, underwriting and client services during the Reporting Year.

Administrative Expenses and Finance Costs

Administrative expenses and finance costs for the Reporting Year amounted to an aggregate of approximately HK$302.9 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$281.9 million). The analysis is set out below:

	For the year ended 31 December 2025 HK$'000	For the year ended 31 December 2024 HK$'000
Staff costs	99,937	86,725
Depreciation	21,507	21,398
Other operating expenses	72,824	66,494
Finance costs	108,612	107,275
Total	302,880	281,892

The increase in staff costs was mainly due to an increase in staff remuneration during the Reporting Year.

The increase in other operating expenses was mainly due to the commissions related to wealth management business incurred and the increase in service fees for trading systems during the Reporting Year.

The slight increase in the finance costs was primarily due to the overall increase in financing resulting from the reserve of sufficient funds to support business operations, partially offset by the decrease in the interest rate on financial assets sold under repurchase agreements year-on-year, which narrowed the overall increase in interest expenses.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Capital Structure

Details of the changes in equity for the Reporting Year are set out in the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity.

As at 31 December 2025, the total number of the issued share capital with the par value of HK$0.4 each was 1,096,968,693 and the total equity attributable to Shareholders was approximately HK$1,627.8 million (2024: approximately HK$1,388.8 million).

During the Reporting Year, no Shares had been purchased or granted to the selected persons of the Group under the Share Award Scheme.

Liquidity and Financial Resources

The Group primarily financed its operations with internally-generated cash flows, borrowings, its internal resources and Shareholder's equity.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had current assets of approximately HK$5,484.5 million (2024: approximately HK$3,774.1 million) and liquid assets comprising cash (excluding cash held on behalf of customers), quoted investment funds, investment in listed equity securities and debt investments totaling approximately HK$2,702.1 million (2024: approximately HK$1,954.5 million).

The Group's current ratio as at the end of the Reporting Year, calculated based on current assets of approximately HK$5,484.5 million (2024: approximately HK$3,774.1 million) over current liabilities of approximately HK$3,894.4 million (2024: approximately HK$2,429.5 million), was approximately 1.4 (2024: approximately 1.6).

The Group's finance costs for the Reporting Year mainly represented interest on repurchase agreements of approximately HK$41.8 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$62.0 million), the interest on loans from CMBCI of approximately HK$65.7 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$43.3 million), and interest on lease liabilities of approximately HK$1.0 million (Previous Year: approximately HK$1.7 million).

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's indebtedness mainly comprised loans from CMBCI and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements of approximately HK$3,132.8 million (2024: approximately HK$1,951.0 million). The loans principal from CMBCI of approximately HK$2,091.5 million (2024: approximately HK$1,216.1 million) were denominated in Hong Kong dollars and United States dollars and borne interests at rate of 4.5% per annum (2024: 4% per annum) and were repayable within one year. As at 31 December 2025, the Group entered into repurchase agreements with financial institutions to sell bonds recognised as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets measured at fair value through profit and loss with carrying amount of approximately HK$1,314.0 million (2024: bonds of approximately HK$957.7 million recognised as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, financial assets measured at fair value through profit and loss and financial assets measured at amortised cost), which are subject to the simultaneous agreements to repurchase these investments at the agreed dates and prices.

The Group's gearing ratio, calculated on the basis of total indebtedness divided by the sum of total indebtedness and equity attributable to the Company's owners, was approximately 65.8% (2024: approximately 58.4%).

With the amount of liquid assets on hand, the management of the Group is of the view that the Group has sufficient financial resources to meet its ongoing operational requirements.

Benefits plans provided by the Group include mandatory provident fund scheme, subsidised training program, share award scheme and discretionary bonuses.

OUTLOOK

Prospect

While the global economy is expected to continue to recover in 2026, the world order will face severe challenges posed by the "New Monroe Doctrine" of the US Trump administration. The Chinese economy is expected to maintain its positive momentum in the first year of the "15th Five-Year" Plan period. During the year, policies aimed at expanding domestic demand and boosting consumption, along with technological innovation, are set to become crucial drivers for achieving high-quality economic development. The Group remains optimistic about the economic development of China and Hong Kong, while it will also be well-prepared for external uncertainties and geopolitical challenges. It will keep a close watch on global economic development and financial market, prepare for external shocks and challenges, and grasp the opportunities for improvement in Hong Kong's financial market, and proactively serve various types of enterprises in different business areas, so as to continue creating value for the Group's customers and shareholders.

Development Strategy

The Group will adhere to the strategy of "One Minsheng" and conscientiously implement policies made by China Minsheng Bank. Leveraging on its competitive advantages on internationalisation and its Hong Kong licensed investment banking services, the Group will strive to promote cross-border business synergies and coordination, so as to accommodate the diversified financial services needs of China Minsheng Bank and its clientele in an all-round manner; maximise its role as a platform to develop its licensed business and to build a capital-light investment bank; continue to improve its corporate governance and to strengthen its risk management capabilities. Specific measures are set out below:

Development Strategy (Continued)

- (4) Strengthen the construction of investment banking talent training system. The Group will continue to broaden the recruitment channels, improve the efficiency and quality of recruitment and attract more talents with different backgrounds and skills to lay a solid foundation of human resources for the Company's development. The Group will establish a world-class international investment banking team, and strengthen talent mobility and exchanges with China Minsheng Bank.
- (5) Optimize the functional framework of the securities trading applications. The Group will continuously optimize the functional framework of the "Minying Future" (民贏未來) application to provide more efficient and secure wealth management services. The Group will establish a dual-channel, systematic user feedback collection and analysis mechanism which conduct internal insights and analysis by regularly organizing in-depth discussions among core teams such as product, operations, risk control, and customer service, and collect internal employees' user experiences and optimization suggestions through internal testing feedback, with particular focus on process efficiency and security design. Also, it can track real-user feedback through in-app feedback tools, targeted surveys, and focus group interviews to continuously collect genuine user experiences and improvement expectations. Based on this feedback, the Group will iterate product features, strengthen security measures, optimize user interaction experiences, and streamline service processes to eventually achieve a comprehensive enhancement of user experience.
- (6) Fully leverage the positive spillover effects of the research teams. Within the framework of China Minsheng Bank Group, establish the CMBC research premium brand to empower the Group's strategic initiatives. First, it can strengthen cross-border decision-making support by leveraging Hong Kong's geographical advantages to conduct in-depth research on overseas market dynamics, focusing on three key areas: capital market reforms, wealth management services and virtual asset innovation, and provide cutting-edge policy recommendations to China Minsheng Banking. Second, it can promote the conversion of research value by leveraging the recovery of Hong Kong's capital market to precisely deliver professional research products to corporate and wealth management clients, providing global asset allocation and capital market strategy services to enhance client loyalty.

Report of the Directors

SUMMARY FINANCIAL INFORMATION

A summary of the published results, assets and liabilities of the Group for the last five financial years, as extracted from the audited consolidated financial statements and reclassified as appropriate, is set out on page 224 of this annual report. The summary does not form part of the audited consolidated financial statements.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Details of movements in the property and equipment of the Group during the Reporting Year are set out in note 16 to the consolidated financial statements.

SHARE CAPITAL

Details of movements in the Company's share capital during the Reporting Year are set out in note 33 to the consolidated financial statements.

SHARE AWARD SCHEME

The Company adopted the Share Award Scheme on 19 February 2016 (the "Adoption Date"). For further details of the Share Award Scheme, please refer to the Company's announcement dated 19 February 2016 (the "Adoption Announcement").

Subject to any early termination as may be determined by the Board, the Share Award Scheme shall be valid and effective for a term of 10 years commencing on the Adoption Date. The remaining life of the Share Award Scheme was two months as at 31 December 2025, and the Share Award Scheme has expired as at the date of this annual report. The purposes of the Share Award Scheme are to recognise the contributions by certain employees and persons to the Group and to provide them with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation and development of the Group and to attract suitable personnel for further development of and contribution to the Group.

The Board may select any eligible person (other than excluded person) for participation in the Share Award Scheme and determine the number of the awarded shares to be awarded to the selected persons. The Board is entitled to impose any conditions (including a period of continued service within the Group after the reference date), as it deems appropriate with respect to the entitlement of the selected person to the awarded shares.

The eligible person of the Share Award Scheme comprises of (i) eligible person (whether full time or part time), executives, officers, directors (including executive, non-executive and independent non-executive directors) of any member of the Group; (ii) any holder of any securities issued by any member of the Group or any controlling shareholder; (iii) any business or joint venture partner, contractor, agent or representative, any person provides research, development or technological support or any advisory, consultancy, professional services to the business of the Group, any investor, vendor, supplier, developer or licensor, any customer, licensee, wholesaler, retailer, trader or distributor of goods or services of any member of the Group; which have contributed or will contribute to the growth and development of the Group.

As soon as practicable after granting the awarded shares, the Board shall cause the awarded amount, related purchase expenses and such other necessary expenses required for the completion of the purchase of all the awarded shares to be paid from the Company's resources into the securities account for the purpose of operating the Share Award Scheme ("Account") or to the trustee corporation as may be appointed by the Company for the administration of the Share Award Scheme ("Trustee") to be held on trust for the relevant selected person(s) for the purchase of the awarded shares. The administration committee established by the Board or the Trustee shall, within 20 business days on which trading of the Shares is not suspended (or such longer period as the Board may agree from time to time have regard to the circumstances of the purchase concerned), purchase the awarded shares at the prevailing market price.

Any awarded shares and the related income thereof held in the Account or by the Trustee and which are referable to a Selected Person shall vest in that selected person in accordance with the timetable and conditions as imposed by the Board at its absolute discretion.

The Board shall not make any further award of awarded shares which will result in the nominal value of the Shares awarded by the Board under the Share Award Scheme exceeding 10% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the Adoption Date. The maximum number of Shares which may be awarded to a selected person under the Share Award Scheme shall not exceed 1% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the Adoption Date. As Shareholders approved the refreshment of the aforesaid scheme limit at the Company's annual general meeting held on 8 September 2017, the maximum number of awarded shares under the Share Award Scheme would be 4,577,875,772 Shares (after consolidation of the Company's Shares on 29 December 2021, 114,446,894 Shares), representing approximately 10.41% of the total number of issued Shares (excluding any treasury Shares) as at the date of this annual report. The aforesaid limit may be further refreshed or amended by approval of the Shareholders in general meeting.

Where any awarded shares is proposed to be offered to a connected person of the Company (as defined under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules), such offer of awarded shares has to be first approved by the independent non-executive Directors and the Company will comply with the applicable requirements of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules and all other applicable laws and regulations in respect of such offer.

As disclosed in the Adoption Announcement, the Share Award Scheme was not subject to the provisions of Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules. However, the Stock Exchange made amendments to Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules in July 2022, which took effect on 1 January 2023. The amended scope of application of Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules covers the Share Award Scheme. Therefore, the operation of the Share Award Scheme is subject to the provisions of the revised Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules from 1 January 2023. In addition, according to the transitional arrangements provided by the Stock Exchange, the Company can only grant shares to eligible participants as defined in revised Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules under the Share Award Scheme.

Since the Adoption Date, the Company has not granted any share awards under the Share Award Scheme. Accordingly, at the beginning and end of the Reporting Year, the total number of share awards available for grant under the Share Award Scheme was 114,446,894 Shares.

As the Company has yet to set and seek approval by the Shareholders for setting sublimit (as defined in Rule 17.03(3) of the Listing Rules) under the Share Award Scheme pursuant to Rule 17.03B(2) of the Listing Rules, no share awards can be granted to service providers (as defined in Rule 17.03A(1)(c)) under the Share Award Scheme as at the beginning and the end of the Reporting Year.

Save as the abovementioned Share Award Scheme, the Company does not have any other share award schemes or share option schemes during the Reporting Year.

EQUITY-LINKED AGREEMENTS

Except for the Share Award Scheme of the Company disclosed above, no equity-linked agreements that will or may result in the Company issuing shares or that require the Company to enter into any agreements that will or may result in the Company issuing shares were entered into by the Company during the Reporting Year or subsisted at the end of the Reporting Year.

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

There are no provisions for pre-emptive rights under the Bye-laws or the laws of Bermuda where the Company is incorporated.

Report of the Directors

TAX RELIEF AND EXEMPTION

The Company is not aware of any tax relief and exemption available to Shareholders by reason of their holding of the Company's securities. If the Shareholders are unsure about the taxation implications of purchasing, holding, disposing of, dealing in or exercising of any rights in relation to the Shares, they are advised to consult their professional advisers.

PURCHASE, SALE OR REDEMPTION OF THE COMPANY'S LISTED SECURITIES

The Board considered that the repurchase of Shares could increase the net asset value per Share, so the Company repurchased a total of 2,287,000 Shares on the Stock Exchange, with a total consideration (before transaction costs) of approximately HK$0.65 million during the Reporting Year. As at the end of the Reporting Year and the date of this annual report, all repurchased Shares have been cancelled.

Details of the repurchase are as follows:

Month of repurchase	Total Shares repurchased	Highest price paid per Share (HK$)	Lowest price paid per Share (HK$)	Total consideration paid (HK$'000)
April	1,826,000	0.330	0.235	518
May	461,000	0.305	0.280	134
Total:	2,287,000			652

Save as disclosed above, neither the Company, nor any of its subsidiaries purchased, sold or redeemed any of the Company's listed securities (including treasury shares) during the Reporting Year.

RESERVES

Details of movements in the reserves of the Company and of the Group during the Reporting Year are set out in note 41 to the consolidated financial statements and in the consolidated statement of changes in equity on pages 125 and 126, respectively.

Report of the Directors

DISTRIBUTABLE RESERVES

As of 31 December 2025, the Company's distributable reserves to the Shareholders included a contributed surplus of approximately HK$1,823.7 million (2024: HK$1,823.7 million). Pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda, contributed surplus account of the Company is available for distribution. However, the Company cannot declare or pay a dividend, or make a distribution out of contributed surplus if:

- (a) it is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realisable value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.

MAJOR CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

During the Reporting Year, the total revenue attributable to the Group's five largest customers represented approximately 45.0% of the Group's total revenue (Previous Year: approximately 44.4%) and the revenue attributable to the largest customer included therein amounted to approximately 31.2% (Previous Year: approximately 34.5%).

CMBCI, an indirect controlling Shareholder, is the largest customer of the Group. Save as disclosed above, none of the Directors or any of their close associates or any Shareholders (who, to the knowledge of the Board, owns more than 5% of the Company's issued Shares) has any beneficial interest in the Group's five largest customers. As the Group is engaged in the provision of financial services, in the opinion of the Directors, disclosure of information on the Group's suppliers is of no value.

MAJOR RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The business operations of the Group are dependent on various internal or external risk factors, including the economic and market environment in the world, Mainland China and Hong Kong. The principal risks and uncertainties faced by the Group include but not limited to:

- (i) credit risk that may arise from default of the Group's business counterparties, including borrowers, trading counterparties and bonds/note issuers;
- (ii) market risk that may arise in the value of unlisted and listed securities invested by the Group, including when there is fluctuation of the equity and bond price;
- (iii) operational risk that may arise from oversight of internal process management or misconduct of personnel;
- (iv) legal and compliance risk that may arise when the Group fails to comply with changes in laws, regulations and rules of regulatory authorities that are applicable to it and its business on a timely manner due to the Group's business development; and

MAJOR RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES (CONTINUED)

- (v) liquidity risk that may arise when the funding requirements are not effectively assessed and predicted and when the Group fails to pay the debts in time as they fall due, fulfil the payment obligations and meet the funding requirements.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICIES

The Board and the management of the Company are committed to enhancing environment protection by encouraging its employees to reduce consumption of electricity and paper, reduce waste, and use environmentally friendly products whenever possible. Details of the relevant policies are set out in the Environmental, Social and Governance Report on pages 77 to 113 of this annual report.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

The Group's legal and compliance department have established and implemented compliance policies for the Group. The Group has taken various measures, such as improving internal systems, regular trainings and regular internal inspections, to ensure that each potential business transaction engaged by the relevant business teams is in compliance with the applicable laws, regulations and rules, including but not limited to the SFO, the Listing Rules, Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance (Chapter 615 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and the relevant laws.

RELATIONSHIP WITH EMPLOYEES

The Group recognises the unique position and value of its employees. In addition to offering a market competitive remuneration package, the Group also provides an advantageous working environment and organises leisure activities to build up a strong connection with its employees. Details of the employee policies are set out in the Environmental, Social and Governance Report on pages 77 to 113 of this annual report.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CUSTOMERS

The Group is committed to providing excellent services to its customers with a view to maintaining steady business and asset growth as well as long term profitability.

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

The continuing connected transactions that took place during the Reporting Year which do not fall under the Rule 14A.76(1) of the Listing Rules are summarised as follows:

For details, please refer to the Company's announcement in relation to the continuing connected transactions dated 29 November 2024, the circular dated 13 December 2024, and the announcement in relation to the poll results of the special general meeting dated 31 December 2024.

(I) Deposit Services

On 29 November 2024, the Company (for itself and on behalf of other members of the Group) entered into a service agreement with China Minsheng Bank (for itself and on behalf of other members of China Minsheng Bank Group) (the "2024 Services Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, China Minsheng Bank Group agreed to provide the Group with (among other things) the deposit services (the "Deposit Services") according to the terms and conditions as set out in the 2024 Services Agreement. The 2024 Services Agreement shall take effect from 1 January 2025 to 31 December 2027 and is automatically renewable for successive periods of three years thereafter, subject to the compliance with the then applicable requirements of the Listing Rules.

Pursuant to the 2024 Services Agreement, the annual caps for the daily balance of the Group's deposits with China Minsheng Bank Group for the three years ending 31 December 2027 are as follows:

	For the year ended/ending 31 December
	2025 (HK$ million)	2026 (HK$ million)	2027 (HK$ million)
Daily deposit balance	500	500	500

China Minsheng Bank is an indirect controlling Shareholder and a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, the Deposit Services contemplated under the 2024 Services Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

(III) Office Sharing

On 9 December 2022, the Company entered into an agreement to renew the office sharing agreement with CMBCI which expired on 31 December 2022 (the “Office Sharing Agreement”). Pursuant to the Office Sharing Agreement, the Company agreed to grant CMBCI a non-exclusive right to use the Company’s certain office space (“Office Sharing”), with the consideration being the sharing fee payable by CMBCI to the Company of HK$740,000 per month (the “Sharing Fees”).

The Office Sharing Agreement is for a term commencing from 1 January 2023 and ending on 31 December 2025.

The annual caps under the Office Sharing Agreement for the three years ended 31 December 2025 are as follows:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2023	2024	2025
	(HK$ million)	(HK$ million)	(HK$ million)
Sharing Fees	8.88	8.88	8.88

In addition, on 6 February 2026, the Company and CMBCI entered into the office sharing agreement (the “New Office Sharing Agreement”), pursuant to which CMBCI agreed to grant the Company the non-exclusive right to use certain office space. For the period commencing from 1 June 2026 and ending on 31 December 2028, the Company shall pay to CMBCI a monthly sharing fee of HK$850,000 (the “New Sharing Fees”), subject to adjustment.

The New Office Sharing Agreement is for a term commencing from 1 January 2026 and ending on 31 December 2028.

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS (CONTINUED)

(III) Office Sharing (Continued)

The annual caps under the New Office Sharing Agreement for the three years ending 31 December 2028 are as follows:

	For the year ending 31 December
	2026 (HK$ million)	2027 (HK$ million)	2028 (HK$ million)
New Sharing Fees	6.30	10.80	10.80

CMBCI is an indirect controlling Shareholder of the Company. Therefore, CMBCI is a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, the transactions under the Office Sharing Agreement and the New Office Sharing Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

As the highest percentage ratios (other than the profits ratio) pursuant to Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules in respect of the annual caps under the Office Sharing Agreement and the New Office Sharing Agreement exceed 0.1% but less than 5%, the transactions under the Office Sharing Agreement and the New Office Sharing Agreement are subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules, but are exempt from the circular and the independent Shareholders' approval requirements.

For details, please refer the Company's announcements dated 9 December 2022 and 6 February 2026.

Corporate Governance Report

THE BOARD

The Board is currently composed of seven Directors, comprising two executive Directors, two non-executive Directors, and three independent non-executive Directors, whose names and positions are listed on page 5 of this annual report.

During the Reporting Year, the Directors had devoted sufficient time and attention to the Company's affairs. An up-to-date list of the Directors identifying their roles and functions is maintained on the websites of the Company and the Stock Exchange. Independent non-executive Directors are identified as such in all corporate communications containing the names of the Directors.

For biographical details of all current Directors and senior management of the Group, please see "Directors and Senior Management" in this annual report. To the best knowledge of the Directors, save as disclosed in the biographies of the Directors, there are no financial, business, family, or other material or relevant relationships amongst members of the Board during the Reporting Year.

The terms of Ms. Wu Yuan and Mr. Xu Feng, the non-executive Directors, are three years until 31 December 2027 and 30 May 2028, respectively. The independent non-executive Directors are not appointed for specific terms. All Directors are subject to retirement by rotation and re-election by Shareholders at an annual general meeting of the Company in accordance with the Bye-laws.

The Company has implementable and effective mechanisms to ensure independent views and input are available to the Board for the Reporting Year. The Directors, in particular, the independent non-executive Directors are encouraged to actively participate in the meetings of the Board and Board Committees. The Directors are entitled to seek independent professional advice in performing their duties at the Company's expense. During the Reporting Year, the Company did not receive any notification from any of the independent non-executive Directors about any subsequent change of circumstances which may affect his independence. The Board has reviewed and considered that the implementation of the above mechanisms was effective.

Functions of the Board and Delegation of Powers

The principal function of the Board is to, among others, consider and approve the Group's overall business plans and strategies, develop and implement the corporate governance function, and supervise the implementation of these policies and strategies and the overall management of the Group. The Board has delegated the day-to-day operation of the Group to the executive Directors and the management team. Matters such as approval of financial statements, declaration of dividend, capital restructure and issuance of securities, merger and acquisitions, major investments, connected transactions, appointment and removal of Directors and auditors, remuneration policies, etc. are specifically reserved to the Board.

Audit Committee

Terms of reference of the Audit Committee are in compliance with the CG Code and are available on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company. The primary duties of the Audit Committee are to make recommendations to the Board on the appointment and removal of the external auditor, review the financial statements, and provide advice in respect of financial reporting.

The Audit Committee comprises three independent non-executive Directors, namely, Mr. Lee, Cheuk Yin Dannis (the chairman of the Audit Committee), Mr. Wu Bin, and Mr. Wang Lihua.

The Audit Committee has performed the following major works during the Reporting Year:

- (i) to review the annual results and report of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2024;
- (ii) to review the interim results and report of the Group for the six months ended 30 June 2025;
- (iii) to consider and recommend to the Board the appointment of auditors for the year ended 31 December 2025;
- (iv) to review the internal audit report of the Group; and
- (v) to review and approve the continuing connected transactions of the Company.

Remuneration Committee

Terms of reference of the Remuneration Committee are in compliance with the CG Code and are available on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company. The Company adopted the model whereby the Remuneration Committee is responsible for determining, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration package of individual executive Directors and senior management according to its terms of reference. The primary duties of the Remuneration Committee are to review performance-based remuneration, ensure none of the Directors determine their own remuneration, and review and/or approve matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules.

The Remuneration Committee currently comprises two independent non-executive Directors, namely, Mr. Wu Bin (the chairman of the Remuneration Committee) and Mr. Wang Lihua, and one non-executive Director, namely, Ms. Wu Yuan. For details of the change of composition of the Remuneration Committee during the Reporting Year, please refer to the above section headed "Board and General Meetings".

The Remuneration Committee has performed the following major works during the Reporting Year:

- (i) to review and determine, inter alia, the performance and policy and structure for remuneration; and
- (ii) to assess the performance of executive Directors.

According to Code Provision E.1.5 of the CG Code, the remuneration of the members of the senior management (other than Directors) by band for the Reporting Year is set out below:

Remuneration bands (HK$)	Number of individual(s)
Up to 2,000,000	–
2,000,001 to up to 3,000,000	2
3,000,001 to up to 4,000,000	–

Remuneration Policy for Directors and Senior Management

The remuneration payable to the employees includes salaries and allowances. The Group's remuneration policies are formulated based on the performance of individual employees and are reviewed regularly. Subject to the Group's profitability, the Group may also provide a discretionary bonus to employees as an incentive for their contribution to the Group. The primary goal of the remuneration policy with regard to the remuneration packages of the executive Directors and Senior Management is to enable the Group to retain and motivate the executive Directors and Senior Management by linking their compensation with performance as measured against corporate objectives achieved. Each of the executive Directors and Senior Management is entitled to the remuneration packages including basic salaries and discretionary bonuses. Mr. Li Baochen, Mr. Li Ming, Mr. Ng Hoi Kam (resigned on 24 October 2025), Mr. Chen Cong, Mr. Shek Yeung Eric and Mr. Huang Siyi receive remuneration from CMBCI for their services to the group headed by CMBCI of which the Company is a member. Accordingly, Mr. Li Baochen, Mr. Li Ming, Mr. Ng Hoi Kam, Mr. Chen Cong, Mr. Shek Yeung Eric and Mr. Huang Siyi did not receive from the Group any remuneration for acting as executive Directors or Senior Management. The Remuneration Committee noted the aforesaid arrangement is due to the services provided by the executive Directors and certain Senior Management to the Group are incidental to their responsibilities to the larger group of CMBCI. Although the remunerations of executive Directors and certain Senior Management are borne by CMBCI, the relevant remuneration packages are in line with the Group's remuneration policy.

Nomination Committee

Terms of reference of the Nomination Committee are in compliance with the CG Code and are available on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company. The primary duties of the Nomination Committee include reviewing the structure, size, and composition of the Board, assessing the independence of independent non-executive Directors, and making recommendations to the Board on matters relating to the appointment of Directors.

The Board is empowered under the Bye-laws to appoint any person as a Director to fill a casual vacancy or, subject to authorisation by the Members in general meeting, as an additional member of the Board. Qualified candidates will be proposed by the Nomination Committee to the Board for consideration and the selection criteria are mainly based on the assessment of their professional qualifications and experience. The Board selects and appoints or recommends candidates for directorship to the Shareholders having regards to the balance of skills and experience appropriate to the Group's business.

In addition, the Nomination Committee had taken into account a number of factors including the size and composition of the Board, a balance of skills and experience of the Board as well as its diversity in setting its appointment criteria.

The Nomination Committee currently comprises two independent non-executive Directors, namely, Mr. Wu Bin (the chairman of the Nomination Committee) and Mr. Wang Lihua, and one non-executive Director, namely Ms. Wu Yuan. For details of the change of composition of the Nomination Committee during the Reporting Year, please refer to the above section headed "Board and General Meetings".

The Nomination Committee has performed, inter alia, the following works during the Reporting Year:

- (i) to review the structure, size, and composition (including the skills, knowledge, and experience) of the Board as well as the policy concerning the diversity of the members of Board;
- (ii) to assess the independence of the independent non-executive Directors;
- (iii) to consider and recommend to the Board the re-election of the retiring Directors at the 2025 annual general meeting of the Company;
- (iv) to review and recommend to the Board the appointment of non-executive Director; and
- (v) to review the proposal to amend the terms of reference of the Nomination Committee.

BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

The Company adopted a board diversity policy (the "Policy") which sets out the approach to achieve diversity on the Board. All Board appointments shall be based on meritocracy, and candidates will be considered against selection criteria, having regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board. Selection of candidates will be based on range of diversity perspectives, which would include but not limited to educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge, and length of service. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board. The Nomination Committee will monitor the implementation of the Policy and will from time to time review the Policy, as appropriate, to ensure the effectiveness of the Policy.

As at the date of this annual report, the Board comprises 6 male Directors and 1 female Director. The Company will select director candidates through different channels, including but not limited to internal promotion and recommendation from the Board, senior management and external recruiting agencies. Further, the Nomination Committee will review the implementation and effectiveness of the Policy on an annual basis in accordance with the Code Provision B.1.3 of the CG Code.

As at the end of the Reporting Year, approximately 40.2% and 59.8% of the Group's employees were female and male, respectively. The Company will continue to monitor the gender diversity across the workforce, and consider any necessary action for further diversifying the workforce, if and when appropriate.

The Board will consider setting measurable objectives to implement the Policy and review such objectives from time to time to ensure their appropriateness and ascertain the progress made towards achieving those objectives.

Corporate Governance Report

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Board acknowledges that it is responsible for the risk management and internal systems and reviewing their effectiveness. Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Group has established mature and sounded corporate governance and has set up comprehensive risk management and internal control procedures to identify, monitor, assess, and manage the major risks that may occur in the process of business operation; and conducts an annual review on these risk management and internal control procedures. The Group has established a multilevel risk management and internal control structure and implemented three lines of defense including the front-, middle- and back-office to manage and control risks: (1) the Risk Management and Internal Control Committee established by the Board, with its main duties being considering, reviewing, and approving the risk management and internal control policies and guidelines; reviewing and monitoring the system of risk management and internal control and assessing the effectiveness of its implementation; (2) decision-making committees that operate at the management level, which are responsible for performing daily management and control duties and deciding and approving matters within their authorities; (3) relevant departments which execute risk management works, including each of the business line departments, legal, compliance and risk management departments, regulating business operations at the front, the middle, and the back; and (4) the independent internal audit department of the Company is responsible to independently audit whether each of the business lines and functional departments handled the business, implemented systems and followed operation procedures pursuant to relevant standards. The Board is of the view that the risk management and internal systems of the Group are effective and adequate.

The Group attaches great importance to the effectiveness of the Group's governance, operating in compliance with laws and regulations, and comprehensive risk management. To ensure the healthy and sustainable development of the business, risk management in all business segments is implemented through a clear governance structure, policy procedures, and reporting mechanism.

As for credit risk, the Group attaches great importance to the development and continual management of businesses that have exposures to credit risks and adheres to the principle of prudent assessment in conducting asset-based business. During the Reporting Year, the Group continuously improved the relevant systems and process management rules for various businesses, formulated credit risk management policies, and conducted detailed specifications in terms of customer onboarding, centralized management and duration tracking. The overall credit risk of the Company remained controllable, with the quality of its assets steadily improving.

Corporate Governance Report

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL (CONTINUED)

As for market risk, the Group closely monitors its investment strategies for investment business and market fluctuations in public market. It has optimized and enhanced the investment quality and risk limit settings, standardized book classification management, and improved the setting and monitoring of risk limit indicators. Efforts have also been made to improve the monitoring, analysis and early warning of market volatility. We have continued to optimize the mechanism of the market risk control process from the pre-investment analysis and access, investment and transaction management, to post-investment tracking and monitoring, so as to enhance our ability to resist market risk.

As for legal compliance risk, the Group has formulated, continuously improved and implemented legal compliance policies, kept abreast of the development of applicable laws, regulations and rules, emphasized the concept of legal compliance management and safeguard mechanism, updated and compiled relevant legal compliance systems and rules, so as to ensure that the Company's operation and business development are lawful and compliant, and to regulate the Group's requirements on connected transactions and disclosure of information. We have also continued to conduct compliance monitoring, staff conduct, staff training and internal inspection to enhance the awareness of legal compliance and the implementation of operational standards throughout the Company. The Group has also engaged external legal advisers to advise the Group and its businesses on applicable laws, regulations and rules.

As for operational risk, during the Reporting Year, we have assessed the potential operational risk of each line of business management process through the business process combing, internal control testing and review, and have continued to improve the internal processes of each business. We have emphasized the risk management awareness and operational effectiveness of our front-end, middle-end and back-end departments in all business processes, and have urged and guided all staff to comply with them. We have also strengthened our information security policy and enhanced the security of our information systems, regulated network security, and standardized the management of network security through a system that enables network security to be carried out in an efficient and orderly manner, prevents network security incidents, and safeguards the smooth operation of the Company's various businesses.

As for liquidity risk, the Group has adopted internal measures to monitor liquidity risk and foreseeable funding requirements, broaden financing channels and optimize the credit structure, so as to ensure certain subsidiaries of the Group regulated by the SFO continue to comply with the relevant rules and regulations. We have monitored and measured various liquidity indicators, and effectively managed various aspects such as centralized capital management, financing structure and cost aggregation, stress testing and contingency planning.

Board Statement

The Board has the overall responsibility for the Group's ESG strategies and performance, including formulating strategies, managing the Group's ESG related risks and opportunities and approving the ESG Report with an aim that the Group can operate its businesses in a responsible and sustainable manner.

To assist the Board to discharge the above responsibility, the Board has resolved to authorise the Executive Committee to handle all the matters that are related to ESG, including but not limited to:

- identifying ESG topics/issues/risks;
- formulating strategies and management approach, including the process used to evaluate, prioritize and manage material ESG-related issues (including risks to the issuer's business);
- implementing the strategies and management approach;
- reviewing and monitoring the implementation process and the effectiveness;
- evaluating the results and adjusting the strategies accordingly;
- preparing the ESG report; and
- making recommendations to the Board in relation to the goals, strategies and management.

To carry out the above duties, the Executive Committee will be assisted by various departments of the Group including operations, legal and compliance, risk management, human resources and general management.

The Executive Committee will report at least once per year to the Board on the implementation progress, the results and any recommendations.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

1. STAKEHOLDERS ENGAGEMENT

1.1 Major Communication Channels

The Group values and appreciates the importance of the views of its stakeholders and has maintained various communication channels with them. Through these channels, the Group can actively engage with its stakeholders and collect their feedback to understand and address their concerns so as to improve the Group's operation. The communication channels include:

- Meetings;
- Corporate communications;
- Websites;
- Social media;

2. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

2.1 Environmental Policies

The Group appreciates the importance of striking a balance between economic development and environmental protection.

During the Reporting Year, the Group complied with the laws and regulations in relation to the environmental protection that had a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to:

- Air Pollution Control Ordinance (Cap. 311 of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- Motor Vehicle Idling (Fixed Penalty) Ordinance (Cap. 611 of the Laws of Hong Kong); and
- Building Energy Efficiency Ordinance (Cap. 610 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group has made continuous efforts on leading its staff to pursue a low carbon lifestyle. It actively responds to the call for environmental protection, and promotes the idea of a low carbon environment and resource conservation, through the perspective of advancing the development of public welfare. As the Group's operations are office based, its environmental impacts from daily operations only involve vehicle emissions, office electricity and paper consumption. Although the Group's business operations do not significantly consume energy or produce air emissions, the Group strives to minimize its environmental impacts by implementing energy-saving and other environmentally friendly measures.

A. Greenhouse gas emissions and electricity emissions

The Group previously set a target with 2021 as the base year to achieve a downward trend in greenhouse gas emission per unit area and electricity consumption per unit area by 2025. As shown in the tables below, the Group has achieved this downward trend.

Going forward, the Group has set a new target to reduce its Scope 1 and Scope 2 GHG emission intensity (tonne CO₂e/ft²) by 5% by 2030, using 2025 as the base year.

The following table highlights the estimated emissions of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2025

	2025 tonnes CO ₂ e
Vehicle emissions (Scope 1 emissions)	6.26
Electricity consumption emissions (Scope 2 emissions)	64.03
Total volume of Scope 1 and 2 greenhouse gas emissions	70.29

The total intensity of Scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions for the year ended 31 December 2025 was approximately 0.005 tonne CO₂e/ft² office area.

Scope 3 emissions are estimated based on data and information available to the Group for the reporting period. The Group will continue to enhance its data collection methodologies over time. The total Scope 3 GHG emission for 2025 is 235.44 tonnes of CO₂e.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The following table shows the amount of electricity consumption in the head office in Hong Kong for the year ended 31 December 2025:

	2025
Electricity consumption	106,722 Kwh
Electricity consumption intensity	7.39Kwh/ft ²

B. Air pollutants from vehicle emission

The following table highlights the estimated air pollutants from the vehicle emission of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2025:

	2025 Kg
NO _x	29.75
SO _x	0.05
PM _{2.5}	2.85

The Group aims to reduce its air pollutant emissions (NO_x, SO_x, and PM) from vehicles by 5% by 2030, using 2025 as the base year.

C. Water

The Group primarily sourced water from the water supply system of the office building and has encountered no difficulty in water sourcing. There was no individual water meter due to its minimal water consumption. Thus, data of water consumption is not available. However, the Group undertakes that it will gradually improve the conservation and management of water resources, achieve regular monitoring, statistics and analysis of water consumption as soon as possible and control water consumption per unit area to a lower level.

D. Packaging material

The Group does not use any packaging materials. Hence, it is not applicable to the business of the Group.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

E. Green buildings

The Group believes that green buildings play a vital role in the implementation of a sustainable development strategy. The core value of green buildings is to minimise the consumption of energy and resources and reduce negative impacts to the environment while maximising the application of new technologies and new materials conducive to better living quality.

During the Reporting Year, the Group's principal place of business was located at One Exchange Square in Hong Kong, which has been awarded a platinum BEAM¹ rating by BEAM Society Limited. The platinum grade rating, which is the highest ranking, was based on an assessment of various factors, including the management, building design, materials, waste, energy use and water use. The Group has actively cooperated with the property management company with respect to the efficient use of resources and waste management. The property management company has provided facilities for separating different types of wastes such as used plastic bottles, aluminium, and glasses.

¹ Building Environmental Assessment Method ("BEAM") assessment and certification provides building users with a single performance label that demonstrates the overall quality of a building.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

F. Waste Management

Due to the characteristics of the Group's business, the main waste generated from its daily office and operations include non-hazardous waste, such as waste paper and cartons, and hazardous waste, such as toner cartridges and used computers. The Group arranges proper waste treatment. Used cartridges and electronic appliances are recycled through licensed recyclers. Due to the minimal and sporadic nature of hazardous waste generated (e.g., occasional replacement of toner cartridges and computers), the Group does not currently track quantitative data for hazardous waste, as it is not considered material to its operations. The Group undertakes to continue managing hazardous waste responsibly and will review its data collection approach if volumes become significant.

Paper

Paper is one of the major wastes produced in the Group's operations. The Group plays an active role in promoting paper-free operation by introducing measures to reduce the use of paper in the office with an ultimate goal to establish a paperless working environment. During the Reporting Year, the Group has implemented the following measures:

- introducing a paperless system whereby documents are to be reviewed and approved electronically. Currently, the paperless system is mainly used for the documents that need internal approval, which now covers certain processes and documents at different levels such as office administration, human resources, accounting etc; and
- utilizing laptops in office meetings to avoid printing of the meeting materials.

The printers in the office have been implemented a smart printing function whereby printing will only commence when a staff logs in to the printer and confirms printing. This smart printing function not only can enhance data protection particularly for confidential documents but can also avoid unnecessary or unclaimed printing.

With regard to used papers, the Group has engaged waste paper collection and recycling services companies to recycle the used papers. The Group encourages all the staff to do so whenever possible. Paper usage data from printers in the office are collected and assessed on a regular basis in order to monitor the effectiveness of the paperless system.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

With respect to the business operation, the Group has minimised the use of papers in the securities account opening process (which usually involves a considerable amount of papers) by utilising technology. Specifically, the Group introduced an online trading system that allows its customers to open accounts electronically. Additionally, the Group offers free electronic billing to its customers with an attempt to further reduce paper consumption.

In relation to the communication with the Shareholders, the Company strongly encourages its Shareholders to access its corporate communications, including financial reports and circulars, through the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company, instead of receiving printed copies. In doing so, the quantity of printed materials can be considerably reduced.

With the different measures introduced by the Group, it is hoped that the Group can substantially reduce the use of papers in the office and ultimately achieve a paperless office in the future. The Group will continue to monitor the use of papers in the office and will introduce further measures to reduce its use when appropriate.

The following table shows the approximate amount of paper consumption and the papers that have been consumed and recycled for the year ended 31 December 2025. The recycling rate reflects our ongoing efforts to promote paper recycling among staff.

	2025
Paper consumption	2,388kg
Paper consumption intensity	0.165kg/ft ²
Paper recycled	942kg
Paper recycled intensity	0.065 kg/ft ²

The Group has set a target to reduce paper consumption intensity (kg/ft²) by 5% by 2030, using 2025 as the base year. Progress will be monitored through regular data collection from office printers and reported annually.

Domestic Waste

The domestic waste of the Group is handled by the property management of the office building, hence, such statistics are not available. However, the Group encourages its staff to reduce the production of domestic waste such as plastics and disposable products.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group has initiated a number of internal environmental measures, which are listed below:

- Adjust air conditioning temperature to 25°C;
- Switch off unused appliances, lightings and office equipment;
- Place a notice of water preservation in the pantry;
- Use energy-saving appliances with Grade 1 Energy Efficiency Label;
- Utilise natural sunlight in office;
- Encourage the use of electronic mail and digital file management system;
- Reuse and recycle paper and encourage double-sided printing;
- Upgrade to LED lighting systems with automatic timers to reduce energy consumption; and
- Equip energy saving switches with lighting timers.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

3. EMPLOYMENT

3.1 Employment and Labour Practices

The Group regards employees as the most valuable assets of the Group. Employees are crucial for the continuous growth and development of the business. To attract and retain talents, the Group aims to establish a respectful and fair working environment by adopting an equal opportunities policy and maintaining a sound system of human resources management covering various aspects, such as recruitment, promotion and remuneration.

A. Recruitment and promotion

The recruitment and promotion of the Group are fair and open for all employees. The selection processes for both recruitment and promotion are not affected by age, gender, physical or mental health status, marital status, family status, race, skin colour, nationality, religion, political affiliation, sexual orientation and other factors.

B. Remuneration

The Group offers competitive remuneration to its employees which includes salary, bonuses and subsidies (such as meal allowance). Other benefits include medical insurance, provident funds and other competitive fringe benefits. Salary is determined with reference to the market rate, and the bonus is determined with reference to factors including position, individual performance and department performance. The Group conducts performance appraisals for its employees and reviews their salary on an annual basis. In addition, employees are entitled to all public holidays announced by the Hong Kong Government. They are also entitled to paid annual leave, sick leave, maternity leave, etc. To maintain a balance between work and personal life, the Group adopts a five-day work week policy.

C. Diversity

Our employees comprise of different age groups and have a diverse cultural background that brings individual traits as well as diversity to facilitate business development. The Group adheres to the principle of equality and does not tolerate any discrimination based on gender, pregnancy, race, marital status, family status or disability, and strives to provide employees with a working environment free of discrimination and harassment. If any employee is discriminated against or suffers from harassment, he/she can file a protected complaint through a designated channel.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had a total of 92 employees.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

3.2 Labour Standard

During the Reporting Year, the Group has complied with relevant rules and regulations, such as the Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57, Laws of Hong Kong) and other statutory requirements regarding employment and labour practices.

The Group endeavors to establish a fair, active and highly efficient work environment, provide all employees with equal opportunities with respect to recruitment, remuneration and promotion, and ensure the workplace is free from discrimination.

The Group has in place an employee handbook which sets out the cultural, mission and values of the Group, an overview of the Group's business along with other key procedures, guidelines, prohibited behavior and employees' basic rights and obligations. The employee handbook serves to facilitate the employees to understand their rights and obligations. The legal and compliance department of the Group will keep abreast of the legal developments of the employment law in Hong Kong and will assist the Group to issue any policies to ensure that the Group complies with the latest statutory requirements.

The Group has also established designated channels to receive complaints from the employees. All complaints received will be forwarded to the general management department for handling. The general management department will look into the complaint in a timely manner and may consult the legal and compliance department (if necessary). The general management department will report the investigation results to the senior management who will decide the appropriate actions.

The Group prohibits the employment of child labour and forced labour and has complied with the relevant labour laws and regulations, including the Employment of Children Regulations. The Group takes measures (such as background check, age and identity verification during the recruitment process) to prevent the employment of child labour and forced labour. For the use of false information or in violation of the rules of the Group by any staff, the Group will handle the matter in accordance with the applicable regulations and the measures for staff management, including but not limited to immediate termination of probation period or labour contract.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

3.3 Health and Safety

The Group is committed to maintaining a safe working environment for the health and well-being of its employees. The Group has formulated policies regarding employees' working environment and protection, which stipulate the reporting procedure for industrial accidents and various measures to ensure the safety of employees, such as providing safety medical kits in case of injuries and posting the Work Safety and Health Guidelines to inform employees of the importance of workplace safety. The Group has encouraged staff to learn the relevant safety information and emergency measures which can help increase their alertness and ability to prevent possible accidents, creating a healthy and safe work environment.

For each of the past three years (including the Reporting Year), the Group has complied with the Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance (Cap. 509 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and there were no work-related casualties or loss of working days arising therefrom.

3.4 Development and Training

The Group believes that professional skills and knowledge are crucial for the employees' development as well as for the Group's long-term success. In addition, the Group expects its employees to maintain the highest professional conduct and ethical standard in the course of business operation. Therefore, the Group provides its employees with trainings. During the Reporting Year, the Group provided a variety of in-house seminars and training programs to the employees to enhance their knowledge, skills and work capability which include, but not limited to, the Company's policies on anti-money laundering, case summary SFC enforcement on licenced corporations and licenced persons, the Company's culture, Listing Rules, The Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Buy-backs, connected transactions, operational risk and green finance, etc. The trainings were conducted by our staff, other financial institutions, professional firms (such as accounting firms and law firms) and regulatory authorities. During the Reporting Year, the Group has continually organized training sessions for its employees. Some of these seminars and training were required by the SFC, enabling licensed employees to satisfy the Continuous Professional Training requirements.

Depending on the importance of the training, for example, trainings related to laws and regulations or internal procedure, the staffs will be required to complete a test after the training to ensure that the attendees have acquired the knowledge.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

For the year ended 31 December 2025 the approximate percentage of employees trained by gender and by employee category are as follows:

- i. Percentage of employees trained by gender

Gender	(%)	Average training hours
Male	72%	11.5
Female	42%	5.2

- ii. Percentage of employees trained by employee category

Employee category	(%)	Average training hours
Senior Management	100%	17.4
Middle Management	100%	7.3
Other Staff	78%	9

Other than the in-house training, the Group also encourages employees to pursue external educational or training opportunities.

3.5 Work-life Balance

The Group believes that maintaining a healthy work-life balance is essential for employee well-being. It was the Group's usual practice to organize social activities for its employees to strengthen the relationships between employees, to boost their morale, to promote a harmonious working environment and to help them relieve stress. In this regard, during the Reporting Year, the Group organised various activities, including banquets, hiking and sports activities.

3.6 Community Investment

The Group is passionate about participating in community engagement and is committed to contributing to the creation of a harmonious community. The Group places great importance on community investment and is committed to the mission of "From the Community, To the Community", with a focus on sharing the fruits of corporate development with society and contributing to social harmony.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

4. OPERATING PRACTICES

4.1 Compliance with Laws and Regulations

The Group recognizes the importance of business ethics. During the Reporting year, the Group has complied with the laws, regulations and regulatory requirements which have significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to:

- Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance (Cap. 615, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (Cap. 201, Laws of Hong Kong);
- Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571, Laws of Hong Kong); and
- Trade Descriptions Ordinance (Cap. 362, Laws of Hong Kong).

The legal and compliance department is required to review and monitor the business operations of the Group to ensure compliance with the above mentioned laws and regulations and arrange internal trainings for the employees from time to time in order to ensure the relevant employees are kept abreast of the development of the relevant laws, regulations and rules. When there is any development of the relevant laws and regulations, the legal and compliance department will inform the management who will decide on the appropriate action (e.g., formulating/updating policies, arranging training to the employees etc).

The Group holds all material licenses required for the provision of services expected or required by most of its clients, including dealing in securities and futures contracts, advising on securities, advising on corporate finance and asset management, etc.

The management of the Group ensures that the business of the Group is conducted in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

4.2 Anti-corruption/Anti-money Laundering

To strengthen the Group's compliance culture and combat money laundering and financial crimes effectively, the Group has established policies and procedures for anti-corruption, anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing which includes customer screening and monitoring requirements, "know your customer" policy, record keeping requirements, and procedures for reporting suspicious circumstances in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and guidelines issued by the regulatory authorities (such as the Guideline on Prevention of Money Laundering).

The Group requires that every new customer, upon account opening, shall be subject to a name search in an anti-money laundering database provided by an independent third-party vendor, in order to ascertain whether the new customer is on the current terrorist or applicable sanction list, and to check whether the customer is a Politically Exposed Person. New account applications lodged by terrorists or sanctioned entities would be rejected. The Group conducts regular reviews on the transactions carried out by high-risk customers to identify suspicious transactions. Any suspicious transaction, if noted, will be reported to the Joint Financial Intelligence Unit of the Hong Kong Government in due course.

In relation to anti-corruption, the Group has put in place a policy prohibiting bribery, extortion, corruption and related acts. During the Reporting Year, the Group organized internal training for all staff and conducted discussion on business conducts that may commit criminal offence as well as case studies. Specifically, the Group prohibits its employees from giving and/or receiving gifts or benefits in whenever forms. It aims to ensure every employee adheres to the highest professional conduct and ethical standard in the course of business operation and must not involve in any form of corrupt practices.

In addition, the Group has set up a whistle-blowing policy to allow whistleblowers to report any irregularities, such as unlawful conduct, incidents of corruption and circumvention of internal controls, under protection. The whistle-blowing and disciplinary policies stipulate that any employee which has committed serious irregularities or misconduct will be subject to disciplinary actions, including immediate dismissal. During the Reporting Year, none of the members of the Group nor its employees were engaged in any litigation regarding corruption, extortion, fraud or money laundering, nor was there any report of criminal offences or misconduct.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

4.3 Supplier Management

The Group is committed to maintaining mutually beneficial long-term cooperation with its suppliers. Major suppliers of the Group include law firms, accounting firms, professional consulting companies, financial advisors, trading platform services companies, data centre, printing service companies etc.

The Group sets out various evaluation standards, such as pricing, stability, response time, capability, experience, feedback, size and reputation, to enable the Group to carry out selection and assessment of suppliers effectively. In addition, the Group takes into account whether the suppliers share the same value as the Group and are committed to environmental protection. When practicable, the Group gives priority to the ones who have adopted environmental protection measures.

The Group has put in place a policy for selecting services providers. Contracts will be subject to different review and approval requirements in accordance with the contract value. For contracts with a value of HK$500,000 or above need to be reviewed and approved by the Group's procurement committee. The committee comprises staffs from various departments including legal and compliance, information technology, finance, operations and general management departments. The committee convenes meetings, reviews the materials and discusses about the engagements. The practice is to ensure that the selection process is fair, open and transparent.

For the year ended 31 December 2025 the approximate number of suppliers by geographical region are as follows:

Number of suppliers by geographical region

Hong Kong	145
Other regions	14

The supplier engagement practices described above are implemented across the Group's key suppliers. The Group does not currently track a separate count of suppliers subject to these practices separately from the total supplier count disclosed above. The Group will continue to monitor its supply chain management practices and enhance disclosure over time.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

4.4 Product Responsibility and Customer Services

As a financial services provider, the Group utilises its profound experience, expertise, internal resources and platforms to create value for its customers and to achieve service excellence consistently, thereby earning the trust of domestic and international customers.

The Group comprises teams of professionals with diversified backgrounds including major investment banks, regulatory authorities, financial institutions, lawyers and accountants. With its expertise, experience and extensive network, the Group provides flexible, diversified and comprehensive investment banking services for the customers. As at 31 December 2025 approximately 60 employees of the Group were licensed with the SFC in various regulated activities under the SFO: dealing in securities (Type 1), dealing in futures contracts (Type 2), advising on securities (Type 4), advising on corporate finance (Type 6) and/or asset management (Type 9).

With the aim to establish a leading international financial investment service platform, the Group has carried out extensive upgrades in various aspects, including but not limited to business development, management and operation, risk control, market monitoring, product services, and trading platform.

The Group take various measures to ensure the quality of products and services, including but not limited to (i) closely monitor the changes in regulatory environment (regulatory requirements or guidelines issued from time to time by the SFC in particular) and market environment, and provide frontline staff with training and updates to ensure compliance of our products and services and that they create greater value for customers; (ii) conduct monitoring and audit in various aspects by the legal and compliance department and internal audit department, in order to ensure compliance of our products and services and advise on the optimization of business process; and (iii) formulate and implement the whistle blowing policy, allowing staff, customers and those who deal with the Group to report any misconduct in confidence while ascertaining the Group will take appropriate actions regarding relevant reports to avoid the recurrence of misconducts that may occur during the course of business.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

4.5 Smooth Communication

Understanding the needs of the clients can help improve the Group's business and services, thus the Group listens carefully to its clients' feedback and tries to improve its services. The Group has set up procedures to ensure that the clients' feedback, advice and recommendations can be received and handled in a timely manner. The Group has established designated channels, including hotline, fax and e-mail for clients' complaints. All complaints received will be forwarded to supervisors for handling. The supervisors will investigate in a timely manner and report the investigation results to the senior management. The senior management will then review the complaints and decide the appropriate action (e.g. strengthening internal control and procedures).

During the Reporting Year, the Group received 6 complaints from customers, primarily regarding delays in account unfreezing and fund withdrawals. All complaints were duly investigated and resolved. The related funds were returned, and the accounts were subsequently closed.

4.6 Protection of Personal Data

The Group is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of the personal data of its customers. In relation to the customers' personal data, the Group has complied with the relevant laws and regulations including the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486, Laws of Hong Kong).

The Group has put in place a policy to govern the use of confidential information by the employees. Specifically, the employees are instructed to use confidential information in a responsible manner and are prohibited from leaking clients' data or any unauthorised use. The Group has adopted a series of technical and management measures to safeguard clients' privacy. In addition, the Group reminds its clients, from time to time, to manage their account passwords with caution, avoid logging into their accounts on public computers and networks, change their passwords regularly and contact the Group's staff for consultation when necessary.

During the Reporting Year, there was no non-compliance with the relevant laws and regulations as to clients' privacy and information security in the Group.

4.7 Protection of Intellectual Property

The Group protects its intellectual property rights by registration of domain names in Hong Kong. Such domain name is renewed upon its expiration. During the Reporting Year, there was no material infringement of the intellectual property rights of the Group by any third parties.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

5. CLIMATE RESILIENCE

5.1 Governance

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) has ultimate oversight of climate-related risks and opportunities. The Board reviews climate-related matters at least annually to ensure they are integrated into the Group’s strategic planning, risk appetite, and long-term value creation.

To support the Board, the management is responsible for identifying, assessing, and managing climate-related issues. The management reports its findings, progress against targets, and any material climate-related developments to the Board at least semi-annually.

To ensure the Board and management maintain the necessary expertise, climate-related training would be continually provided to the Board. External professional advice is sought when considered necessary to support informed decision-making on significant climate-related matters.

5.2 Strategy

Climate change presents both risks and opportunities that could impact our business model, strategy, and financial performance over the short, medium, and long term. Our strategic response is focused on enhancing the resilience of our business operations, managing regulatory and market transitions, and meeting the evolving expectations of our clients and investors. This strategy considers the full value chain, including the indirect emissions associated with our service providers and investee companies.

To better understand our potential exposure, we considered two climate scenarios in 2025 using publicly available frameworks from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) and the International Energy Agency (IEA): (i) a low-emissions scenario (e.g., SSP1-2.6/IEA 2°C or lower scenario), which assumes significant global action to limit warming and is characterised by higher transition risks but lower physical risks; and (ii) a high-emissions scenario (e.g., SSP5-8.5), which assumes current policies persist and is characterised by higher physical risks but lower transition risks. The assessment was qualitative and based on publicly available information, covering the Group’s head office in Hong Kong and its principal business activities. Given the inherent uncertainties in long-term climate projections and the early stage of the Group’s climate risk assessment process, this analysis does not constitute a formal quantitative scenario analysis. The Group may revisit its approach as regulatory expectations and internal capabilities develop.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

This analysis helps us understand how our business might be affected and guides our strategic planning across three time horizons, aligned with our business planning cycles:

- Short-term (0–5 years): Focus on enhancing operational resilience to acute physical risks (e.g., typhoons, flooding) and implementing energy efficiency measures to manage transition risks. This includes reviewing business continuity plans for our Hong Kong headquarters and assessing immediate physical risks to our operations.
- Medium-term (5–15 years): Adapt to chronic physical risks such as rising temperatures and changing precipitation patterns, and prepare for potential policy changes like carbon pricing or mandatory climate-related financial disclosures. This includes monitoring regulatory developments and assessing their potential impact on our investment portfolio.
- Long-term (15+ years): Ensure our business model remains viable and attractive in a low-carbon economy, aligning with Hong Kong’s climate goals and evolving market demands. This includes positioning the Group to capitalize on opportunities in sustainable finance and green investment products.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The following tables outline the significant climate-related risks and opportunities we have identified, their potential financial impacts, and our planned mitigation measures.

Climate-Related Risks

Climate-related risk description	Time horizon	Financial impact	Mitigation strategy
Physical Risk – Acute
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased severity and frequency of extreme weather events such as typhoons, extreme rainfall, and flooding in Hong Kong. These have the potential to disrupt business operations, including trading platforms, client servicing, and access to office facilities. 	Short- to Long-term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operating costs may increase due to business interruption, emergency response measures, and potential increases in insurance premiums. Revenue could be affected by temporary suspension of client-facing activities or trading operations. Capital expenditure may be required for enhancing the resilience of critical systems and data infrastructure. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maintain and regularly test business continuity and disaster recovery plans, with specific procedures for extreme weather events to ensure rapid restoration of trading platforms and client services. Engage with insurers to understand risk profiles and ensure adequate coverage for business interruption. Monitor weather forecasts and issue early warnings to staff to ensure safety and preparedness.

Transition Risk – Policy and Legal
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduction of carbon pricing mechanisms (e.g., carbon tax) or stricter energy efficiency regulations in Hong Kong. This could increase operating costs for the Group and our service providers. 	Medium- to Long-term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operating costs may increase due to higher electricity prices if carbon pricing is introduced. Compliance costs may increase for meeting stricter building energy codes or mandatory reporting requirements. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proactively monitor policy developments at the Hong Kong government level related to carbon pricing and energy efficiency. Implement energy efficiency measures to reduce electricity consumption and mitigate potential cost increases. Engage with industry bodies to stay informed of regulatory developments and best practices.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhanced climate-related disclosure obligations. As a listed company, the Group faces increasing regulatory requirements for climate-related financial disclosures, which may require additional resources and expertise. 	Short- to Medium-term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Administrative costs may increase for data collection, analysis, and reporting to meet evolving disclosure requirements. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Engage external ESG consultants to assist with disclosure preparation and ensure compliance with HKEX requirements. Provide training to relevant staff on climate-related data collection and reporting. Gradually enhance internal systems and processes for tracking climate-related metrics.

Climate-related risk description	Time horizon	Financial impact	Mitigation strategy
Transition Risk – Market and Credit
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Physical and transition risks could impact the financial health of the Group’s borrowers and investee companies, particularly those in carbon-intensive or climate-vulnerable sectors. This may lead to increased credit risk and potential devaluation of assets within our investment portfolio. 	Medium- to Long-term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Potential increase in non-performing loans and impairment losses. Reduction in the value of investment portfolios. Reduced demand for certain financial products if clients shift preferences toward sustainable investments. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Integrating climate risk considerations into credit assessment and investment due diligence processes, where appropriate. Engaging with portfolio companies to understand their climate resilience and transition strategies. Diversifying investment portfolios to mitigate concentration risk in climate-vulnerable sectors. Monitoring market trends and client preferences to identify potential shifts in demand for financial products.
Transition Risk – Reputational
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Negative stakeholder perception if the Group is perceived as not adequately addressing climate risks or if it is associated with financing projects or companies with significant negative environmental impacts. 	Medium- to Long-term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revenue may decrease if clients or investors choose to disengage based on reputational concerns. Operating costs may increase for enhanced communication and stakeholder engagement efforts. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Communicate our climate efforts transparently through this report and other stakeholder engagement channels. Continue to support responsible business practices and be a responsible corporate citizen. Monitor stakeholder feedback and respond to concerns in a timely and appropriate manner.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

During the reporting period, the primary climate-related opportunities and the corresponding financial impacts were as follows:

Climate-Related Opportunities

Description of climate-related opportunities	Financial impact
Resource Efficiency
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue to implement energy efficiency measures in our office operations, reducing electricity consumption and operating costs. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operating cost reductions through lower electricity bills and improved energy efficiency.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promote paperless operations and digital service delivery, reducing resource consumption and enhancing operational efficiency. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operating cost reductions through reduced paper usage and streamlined processes.
Energy Source
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participate in green power purchasing schemes where available through our building’s property management. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Energy costs stabilize through reduced reliance on grid electricity; potential reputational benefits from using cleaner energy.
Products and Services
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Growing demand for sustainable and green financial products presents an opportunity to develop and offer new services, such as green bonds, sustainable investment funds, or ESG-themed investment products. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revenue growth through development of new financial products aligned with market demand for sustainable investments.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhanced competitive positioning as a responsible financial services provider, attracting clients and investors who prioritize ESG considerations. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhanced competitiveness strengthens as our business aligns with market demands for responsible financial services.

Description of climate-related opportunities	Financial impact
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ability to provide advisory services to clients on navigating climate-related risks and opportunities in their own businesses. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Potential new revenue streams from specialized advisory services.
Markets
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access to new and emerging markets for sustainable finance, including institutional investors with specific ESG mandates. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revenue increases through access to new client segments and investment opportunities.
Resilience
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved business continuity planning and operational resilience through proactive assessment of climate-related physical risks. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supply chain reliability (e.g., utility supply, service providers) improves through reduced vulnerability to climate-related disruptions.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhanced understanding of climate-related credit and market risks across our investment portfolio, enabling more informed investment decisions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Market valuation may be enhanced through improved risk management and long-term strategic positioning.

The Group has conducted a qualitative assessment of the climate-related risks and opportunities set out in this report. Given the office-based nature of the Group's operations, the direct physical impacts of climate change are not considered material at this stage. The Group has not yet performed a quantitative analysis of the potential financial impacts on its income, asset values, or cash flows, nor has it quantified the effects on its business model or transition plan, as such impacts are not currently assessed to be material. The Group will continue to monitor developments and will enhance its climate assessment practices as regulatory expectations and operational capabilities evolve.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

5.3 Risk Management

Our Group identifies climate-related risks and tests existing risk management strategies under climate change through systematic risk assessment. This process helps identify areas where new or enhanced strategies may be required.

The risk assessment takes a standard risk-based approach using national data, local information and expert knowledge, which can identify how climate change may compound existing risks or create new ones. The risk assessment is conducted through the following steps:

Step 1: Establish the context

- Objective/goal
- Scale
- Time frame
- Climate change scenario for most climate variables

Step 2: Identify existing risk (past and current)

- Identify the record of occurrence of climatic hazard in the past in the area
- Risk management strategies in place to tackle future occurrence of the hazard

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Step 3: Identify future risk and opportunities

- Explore climate change projections for the selected time frame(s) and emission scenario(s)
- Identify potential hazards
- Investigate whether any existing risk from Step 2 may get worse under future projected changes
- Identify new risks that can emerge under future projected changes

Step 4: Analyse and evaluate risk

- Identify a set of decision areas or systems (i.e. geographical areas, business operations, assets, ecosystems, etc.) that has the potential to be at-risk in future

As outlined within the Governance section above, the Group has established risk management and business planning processes that are overseen by the Board of Directors in order to identify, assess and manage climate-related risks. The management is responsible for implementing this risk assessment framework and reporting its findings to the Board. The Group engages with government and other appropriate organizations in order to keep abreast of expected and potential regulatory and/or fiscal changes.

We continue to raise awareness of climate change through monitoring our carbon and energy footprint in daily operations. However, we recognize that there remain gaps in understanding how such climate risks and opportunities may impact our operations, assets and profits. Our Group is committed to progressively enhancing our approach to assessing how the business addresses climate change risks and opportunities, and we continue to take the initiative to monitor and reduce our environmental footprint.

Building on this foundation, we are committed to progressively embedding climate risks more formally into our enterprise-wide risk registers and review procedures over the coming reporting cycles. This evolution will ensure that climate considerations are systematically evaluated alongside financial, operational, and strategic risks as part of our regular risk management activities.

The Group will continue to monitor developments in climate-related risk management practices and will provide updates on our integration progress in future ESG reports.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

5.4 Metric and Targets

Our Group uses key metrics to measure and manage climate-related risks and opportunities. Energy consumption and greenhouse gas (“GHG”) emissions are the primary indicators we consider to be material to our operations and critical for assessing our climate impact. We track these metrics regularly to evaluate the effectiveness of our emission reduction initiatives and to inform our ongoing sustainability efforts.

The following metrics are used to assess and manage climate-related risks and opportunities:

- Scope 1 GHG emissions: Direct emissions from sources owned or controlled by the Group, primarily from company vehicles.
- Scope 2 GHG emissions: Indirect emissions from the generation of purchased electricity consumed by the Group.
- Scope 3 GHG emissions: Other indirect emissions that occur in the upstream and downstream activities of the Group. The Group currently reports on selected Scope 3 categories based on available data and will continue to expand coverage as methodologies develop.
- Energy consumption: Total electricity and fuel consumption, measured in MWh and intensity per unit area.
- Air pollutant emissions: NO_x, SO_x, and PM emissions from vehicle use.

Details of our GHG emissions, energy consumption, and other environmental metrics for the reporting period are provided in Section 2.1 of this Report.

The Group has set performance improvement targets to reduce GHG emissions, air pollutant emissions, energy consumption (electricity), and paper consumption intensity by 5% by 2030, using 2025 as the base year. These targets are regularly reviewed by the management, and progress is reported to the Board annually. The Group will continue to review and refine its targets as part of its commitment to managing climate-related risks and contributing to environmental sustainability.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group has not yet conducted a formal quantitative climate scenario analysis. Accordingly, no specific quantitative disclosure on climate resilience is provided in this Report. The Group will progressively enhance its climate assessment practices in line with regulatory developments and operational capabilities.

The Group considers climate-related risks and opportunities as part of its strategic planning and investment decisions on a qualitative basis. Given the office-based nature of its operations, quantifying the financial effects of climate-related factors is not currently practicable, and no such quantitative disclosure is provided in this Report.

The Group intends to fund climate-related initiatives through its annual budgeting process, giving consideration to energy-efficiency and environmental projects where feasible.

The Company has not yet adopted an internal carbon pricing mechanism. The Company will continue to monitor relevant policies and industry practices and will assess the feasibility of introducing such a mechanism where appropriate.

Climate-related performance metrics have not yet been incorporated into the Group's remuneration policies. As the Group's climate reporting practices are at an early stage of development and climate-related factors are not currently considered material to individual or executive compensation decisions, no such linkage has been established. The Group will periodically review this matter and consider appropriate integration as its climate governance framework matures.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Shareholders of CMBC Capital Holdings Limited

(incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of CMBC Capital Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 120 to 223, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2025, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended and notes, comprising material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2025 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independent Auditor's Report

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Level 3 Fair Value Measurement

Refer to notes 25, 26 and 35(e) to the consolidated financial statements.

The Key Audit Matter

As at 31 December 2025, the Group held unlisted financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss and fair value through other comprehensive income amounting to HK$775.2 million and HK$10.9 million respectively, collectively representing approximately 14.2% of the Group's total assets. The fair value measurement of these unlisted financial assets was classified as level 3 in the fair value hierarchy ("Level 3 Fair Value Measurement").

The Group used valuation technique that involved significant unobservable inputs in the Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of these unlisted financial assets. The determination of unobservable inputs involved significant management judgements.

We identified Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of unlisted financial assets as a key audit matter because of the significance of these unlisted financial assets to the consolidated financial statements and the significant management estimates and judgements involved.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Our audit procedures to assess the fair value of Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of the unlisted financial assets included the following:

- understanding and assessing the design and implementation of key internal controls over the Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of the unlisted financial assets;
- on a sample basis, inspecting investment agreements for Level 3 financial assets to understand the relevant investment terms and assessing if all relevant terms have been identified and taken into account for in the valuation of financial instruments;
- with the assistance of KPMG valuation specialists, on a sample basis, evaluating the appropriateness of management's Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of the unlisted financial assets. This included evaluating the Group's valuation models and assumptions, testing inputs and reperforming the calculations, or developing independent valuations and comparing these valuations with the Group's valuations; and
- evaluating the reasonableness of the disclosures on the Level 3 Fair Value Measurement of the unlisted financial assets with reference to the requirements of the applicable accounting standards.

Independent Auditor's Report

Measurement of expected credit losses for credit-impaired financial assets

Refer to notes 20, 22 and 25 to the consolidated financial statements.

Key Audit Matter

The Group's credit-impaired financial assets included loans and advances and accounts receivable from margin clients ("Stage 3 Financial Assets"), and debt investments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income ("Stage 3 Debt Investments").

As at 31 December 2025, the gross carrying amount of Stage 3 Financial Assets and Stage 3 Debt Investments amounted to HK$300 million and HK$497 million respectively; and their related expected credit loss ("ECL") allowance amounted to HK$295 million and HK$459 million respectively.

Financial assets are categorized as stage 3 when they are credit-impaired. Management measures lifetime ECL allowance of Stage 3 Financial Assets and Stage 3 Debt investments by considering various factors, including forecasted cash flows and remedies available for recovery.

We identified the measurement of ECL allowance for credit-impaired financial assets as a key audit matter due to its significance to the consolidated financial statements and the significant management estimates and judgments involved in the measurement.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Our audit procedures for the ECL assessment for credit-impaired financial assets included the following:

- understanding and assessing the design and implementation of the key internal controls of the assessment process for stage 3 ECL allowance;
- on a sample basis, evaluating the appropriateness of staging with reference to the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework. As part of this procedure, we checked the financial assets' overdue information and obtained an understanding of the credit situation and the collateral (if any) of the borrowers or issuers;
- on a sample basis, evaluating the reasonableness of critical assumptions, inputs and parameters used in ECL assessment, including forecasted cash flows and the viability of various recovery plans;
- assessing the reasonableness of the disclosures in the financial statements in relation to stage 3 ECLs with reference to the requirements of the applicable accounting standards.

Independent Auditor's Report

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon as part of our engagement to audit the consolidated financial statements. We have performed an assurance engagement on the disclosed continuing connected transactions that form part of the other information and provided a separate assurance practitioner's conclusion thereon that is included within the other information.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs Accounting Standards issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Independent Auditor's Report

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 90 of the Bermuda Companies' Act 1981, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Ko Sze Man (practising certificate number: P06288).

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended 31 December 2025

1 GENERAL INFORMATION

CMBC Capital Holdings Limited (“the Company”) is a limited liability company incorporated in Bermuda and its shares are listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”). The addresses of registered office and the principal place of business of the Company are disclosed in the corporate information section to the annual report.

At 31 December 2025, the directors consider the immediate parent and ultimate controlling party to be CMBC International Investment Limited, which is incorporated in British Virgin Islands and China Minsheng Banking Corp., Ltd. which is incorporated in People’s Republic of China, respectively. The ultimate controlling entity produces financial statements available for public use and can be obtained at the website of the Stock Exchange.

The principal activities of the Company are investment holding and provision of loan financing services. The activities of its principal subsidiaries are set out in note 39 to the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”), which is the same as the functional currency of the Company and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand (HK$’000) except otherwise indicated.

2 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards, which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange. Material accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

The HKICPA has issued certain new or amended HKFRS Accounting Standards that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group. Note 2(c) provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current accounting periods reflected in these financial statements.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(b) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025 comprise the Company and its subsidiaries.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis except that the following assets and liabilities are stated at their fair value as explained in the accounting policies set out below:

- financial instruments classified as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (see note 2(q)); and
- financial instruments classified as financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (see note 2(q)).

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRS Accounting Standards requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgments made by management in the application of HKFRS Accounting Standards that have significant effect on the consolidated financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in note 3.

(c) Changes in accounting policies

The Group has applied amendments to HKAS 21, The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates — Lack of exchangeability issued by the HKICPA to these financial statements for the current accounting period. The amendments do not have a material impact on these financial statements as the Group has not entered into any foreign currency transactions in which the foreign currency is not exchangeable into another currency.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(d) New or amended HKFRS Accounting Standards which are not yet adopted

Certain new or amended HKFRS Accounting Standards have been published that are not mandatory for 31 December 2025 reporting periods and have not been early adopted by the Group. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements except for the following:

HKFRS 18, Presentation and disclosure in financial statements

HKFRS 18 will replace HKAS 1 Presentation of financial statements and aims to improve the transparency and comparability of information about an entity's financial statements. HKFRS 18 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 and is to be applied retrospectively.

Among other changes, under HKFRS 18, entities are required to classify all income and expenses into five categories in the statement of profit or loss, namely the operating, investing, financing, discontinued operations and income tax categories. Entities are also required to provide specific disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note in the financial statements.

The Group does not plan to early adopt HKFRS 18 and is still in the process of assessing the impact of the adoption.

(e) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity including reserves and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted after re-attribution of the relevant equity component, and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the previous carrying amount of the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRS Accounting Standards).

(f) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses (except for foreign currency transaction gains or losses) arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Changes in the Group's interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and any related non-controlling interests and other components of equity. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former subsidiary is measured at fair value when control is lost.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 2(p)).

(g) Goodwill

Goodwill arising on acquisition of businesses is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses and is tested annually for impairment.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(g) Goodwill (continued)

A cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment at the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit.

On disposal of the relevant cash-generating unit, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal.

(h) Revenue recognition

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the provision of services in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Revenue is recognised when service is transferred to the customer, at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The Group applied the optional practical expedient to immediately expense cost to obtain a contract if the amortisation period of the asset that would have recognised is one year or less.

- (i) Revenue arising from financial services is recognised on the following basis:
- Commission income for brokerage business and related services are recognised on execution of purchase, sales or other transactions or services by the Group on behalf of its clients;
 - Underwriting, sub-underwriting, placing and sub-placing commissions are recognised as income in accordance with the terms of underlying agreement or deal mandate when the relevant significant act has completed;

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(h) Revenue recognition (continued)

- (i) Revenue arising from financial services is recognised on the following basis: (continued)
- Financial advisory, sponsorship, arrangement fee and other service income are recognised over time according to performance obligation and transaction prices of the contracts. It is recognised when the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date at all times throughout the duration of the contract;
 - Asset management fee income and investment advisory services fee income are recognised over time as those services are provided continuously over the contract period. Invoices for these services income are issued on a regular basis based on the terms stated in the contract; and
 - The Group is entitled to a performance fee income when there is a positive performance for the relevant performance period and it is recognised at the end of the relevant performance period, when it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.
- (ii) Interest income from a financial asset is recognised as it accrues under the effective interest method using the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. For financial assets measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”) (recycling) that are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset. For credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is applied to the amortised cost (i.e. gross carrying amount net of expected credit loss allowance) of the assets.
- (iii) Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders’ right to receive payment has been established.
- (iv) The Group’s accounting policy for recognition of revenue from operating leases is described in the accounting policy for leasing below (see note 2(j)).

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(i) Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. The consolidated financial statements are presented in HK$, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

(j) Leases

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability,
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received,

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(j) Leases (continued)

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following: (continued)

- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis.

Payments associated with short-term leases and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less.

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, it accounts for the head lease and the sub-lease as two separate contracts. The sub-lease is classified as a finance or operating lease by reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(k) Employee benefits

(i) Retirement benefit costs

Payment to Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

(ii) Short-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(k) Employee benefits (continued)

(ii) Short-term employee benefits (continued)

A liability is recognised for discretionary bonus when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of services rendered by employees and a reliable estimate of the obligation can be made.

Liabilities recognised in respect of short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the related service.

(l) Borrowings costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

(m) Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit or loss before taxation as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because of items of income and expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from initial recognition of goodwill.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(m) Taxation (continued)

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

The Group is subject to income taxes predominantly in Hong Kong and judgment is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There could be transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the estimated amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

The Group is also subject to top-up taxes as the Group is part of a multinational enterprise group which is subject to the Global Anti-Base Erosion Model Rules ("Pillar Two model rules") published by the Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD") (see note 13(c)). The Group has applied the temporary mandatory exception to recognising and disclosing information about deferred tax assets and liabilities related to Pillar Two income taxes and accounted for the tax as current tax when incurred.

(n) Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on disposal or retirement of an item of property and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

(o) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognised separately from goodwill and are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination with finite useful lives are reported at costs less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses, on the same basis as intangible assets that acquired separately. Alternatively, intangible assets acquired in a business combination with indefinite useful lives are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses (see the accounting policy in respect of impairment losses on tangible and intangible assets below).

(p) Impairment of tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill and financial assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amount of its tangible and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(p) Impairment of tangible and intangible assets other than goodwill and financial assets (continued)

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that they may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in unit. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less cost of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the assets is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

(q) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(q) Financial instruments (continued)

A financial asset and a financial liability are offset and the net amount presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(i) Financial assets

Investments other than equity investments

Non-equity investments held by the Group are classified into one of the following measurement categories:

- amortised cost, if the investment is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest (“SPPI”). Interest income from the investment is calculated using the effective interest method;
- FVOCI (recycling), if the contractual cash flows of the investment comprise SPPI and the investment is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both the collection of contractual cash flows and sale. Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income, except for the recognition in profit or loss of expected credit losses (“ECLs”), interest income (calculated using the effective interest method) and foreign exchange gains and losses. When the investment is derecognised, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is recycled from equity to profit or loss; or
- Fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”), if the investment does not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling). Changes in the fair value of the investment (including interest) are recognised in profit or loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(q) Financial instruments (continued)

Investments other than equity investments (continued)

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, the Group considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial asset contains a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual cash flows such that it would not meet this condition. In making the assessment the Group considers:

- Contingent events that would change the amount and timing of cash flows;
- Leverage features;
- Prepayment and extension terms;
- Terms that limit the Group's claim to cash flows from specified assets (e.g. non-recourse loans); and
- Features that modify consideration of the time value of money (e.g. periodical reset of interest rates).

Equity investments

An investment in equity securities is classified as FVTPL unless the equity investment is not held for trading purposes and on initial recognition of the investment the Group makes an election to designate the investment at FVOCI (non-recycling) such that subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income. Such elections are made on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but may only be made if the investment meets the definition of equity from the issuer's perspective. Where such an election is made, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income remains in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) until the investment is disposed of. At the time of disposal, the amount accumulated in the fair value reserve (non-recycling) is transferred to retained earnings. It is not recycled through profit or loss. Dividends from an investment in equity securities, irrespective of whether classified as at FVTPL or FVOCI (non-recycling), are recognised in profit or loss as revenue.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(q) Financial instruments (continued)

Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities (including accounts payable, other payables, loans from an intermediate holding company, lease liability, amount due to an intermediate holding company and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements) are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognised in profit or loss, except for changes in fair value attributable to changes in own credit risk which are presented in other comprehensive income.

Derecognition

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. On derecognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(q) Financial instruments (continued)

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Interest expense is recognised on an effective interest basis.

(r) Credit losses and impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises a loss allowance for ECLs on the following items:

- financial assets measured at amortised cost (including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and loans and advances);
- contract assets as defined in HKFRS 15;
- debt securities measured at FVOCI (recycling); and
- loan commitments issued, which are not measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets measured at fair value, including units in bond funds, equity securities measured at FVTPL, and equity securities designated at FVOCI (non-recycling), are not subject to the expected credit loss (“ECL”) assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

The Group established ECL model by using a statistical approach for financial instruments. This approach involves estimation of four risk parameters, i.e. Probability of Default (“PD”), Loss Given Default (“LGD”), Exposure at Default (“EAD”) and expected life, as well as the use of effective interest rate and forward-looking information.

In calculating the expected credit loss rates, forward looking macroeconomic information, such as unemployment rate and gross domestic product (“GDP”), is incorporated as part of risk parameters estimation.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Multiple economic scenarios are considered such that a probability-weighted average ECL can be estimated. Three scenarios are proposed, i.e. good scenario, neutral scenario and bad scenario. By considering the corresponding probabilities of the scenarios, the probability-weighted average ECL can be estimated.

Credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

For undrawn loan commitments, expected cash shortfalls are measured as the difference between (i) the contractual cash flows that would be due to the Group if the holder of the loan commitment draws down on the loan and (ii) the cash flows that the Group expects to receive if the loan is drawn down.

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following discount rates where the effect of discounting is material:

- fixed-rate financial assets and accounts receivable: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof;
- variable-rate financial assets: current effective interest rate;
- loan commitments: current risk-free rate adjusted for risks specific to the cash flows.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

In measuring ECLs, the Group takes into account reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. This includes information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(r) Credit losses and impairment of financial assets (continued)

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

- 12-month ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date; and
- lifetime ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

The Group measures loss allowances at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, except for the following, which are measured at 12-month ECLs:

- Financial instruments that are determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date; and
- Other financial instruments (including loan commitments issued) for which credit risk (i.e. the risk of default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

Loss allowances for accounts receivables and contract assets are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

Significant increases in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of a financial instrument (including a loan commitment) has increased significantly since initial recognition and when measuring ECLs, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

The Group considers a financial asset to be in default when:

- the debtor is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or
- the financial asset is 90 days past due.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(r) Credit losses and impairment of financial assets (continued)

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- failure to make payments of principal or interest on their contractually due dates;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in a financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);
- the financial assets is more than 30 days past due;
- for margin loans, presented as margin clients, included in accounts receivable, the loan-to-value ratio higher than 1;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and
- existing or forecast changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

For loan commitments, the date of initial recognition for the purpose of assessing ECLs is considered to be the date that the Group becomes a party to the irrevocable commitment. In assessing whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition of a loan commitment, the Group considers changes in the risk of default occurring on the loan to which the loan commitment relates.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual basis or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account, except for investments in debt securities that are measured at FVOCI (recycling), for which the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the fair value reserve (recycling).

(r) Credit losses and impairment of financial assets (continued)

Credit-impaired financial assets

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

- significant financial difficulties of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- the financial assets is more than 90 days past due;
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

Basis of calculation of interest income

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount less expected credit loss allowance) of the financial asset.

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(s) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for ECL in accordance with the policy set out in note 2(r).

(t) Related parties

- (a) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
- (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.
- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
- (i) The entity and the Group are members of the same Group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a Group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.

(t) Related parties (continued)

- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies: (continued)
 - (vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) The entity, or any member of a Group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(u) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

(v) Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements

Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements continue to be recognised, which do not result in derecognition of the financial assets, and are recorded as financial assets at FVOCI, financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at FVTPL. Financial assets sold subject to agreements with a commitment to repurchase at a specific future date are not derecognised in the consolidated statement of financial position. The proceeds from selling such assets are presented as "financial assets sold under repurchase agreements". Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

(w) Cash held on behalf of customers

The Group maintains trust and segregated accounts with authorised financial institutions to hold clients' deposits arising from normal business transactions. The Group has classified the clients' monies as cash held on behalf of customers under the current assets in the consolidated statement of financial position as the Group is allowed to retain some or all of the interest income on the clients' monies and recognised corresponding accounts payable to the respective customers in the current liabilities on grounds that it is liable for any loss or misappropriation of clients' monies. Under the SFO and Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41, Laws of Hong Kong), the Group is not allowed to use the clients' monies to settle its own obligation.

(x) Fiduciary activities

Apart from the cash held on behalf of customers as mentioned above, the Group provides brokerage and asset management services and the Group acts in a fiduciary capacity which results in the holding or placing of assets on behalf of its customers. These assets and any gains or losses arising thereon are not included in these financial statements as the Group has no contractual rights to these assets and its gains or losses under fiduciary activities.

3 ACCOUNTING JUDGMENT AND ESTIMATES

Sources of estimation uncertainty

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 2, management is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods. The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that may cause a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Impairment of goodwill

The Group assesses the recoverable amount of goodwill at the end of the year and performs an impairment test annually. Determining whether goodwill is impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the CGU to which goodwill has been allocated, which is the higher of the value in use or fair value less costs of disposal. The value in use calculation requires the Group to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGU and apply a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value. See note 18 for further disclosures.

Fair value of level 3 financial instruments

Certain financial assets are measured at fair values with fair values being determined based on significant unobservable inputs using valuation techniques. Judgement and estimation are required in establishing the relevant valuation techniques and the relevant inputs thereof. Changes in assumptions relating to these factors could affect the reported fair values of these instruments. Notes 2(q) and 35(e) provide further information on the Group's fair value accounting policy and how the fair values of financial instruments are determined.

Impairment of financial assets

The loss allowances for financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period. Details of key assumptions and inputs such as measurement of ECLs and significant increase in credit risk are disclosed in note 2(r).

Taxation

Determining income tax provisions involves judgment on the future tax treatment of certain transactions. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of transactions and tax provisions are made accordingly. The tax treatment of such transactions is reconsidered periodically to take into account all tax legislation. Deferred tax liabilities have been recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position in relation to the unrealised gain on financial assets at FVTPL. No deferred tax asset was recognised for the unused tax losses of the Group as it is not probable that future taxable profits against which the tax losses can be utilised will be available. See note 31 for further disclosures.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's management, being the chief operating decision makers, for the purpose of resources allocation and assessment of segment performance focusing on types of services provided.

Specifically, the Group's reportable and operating segments under HKFRS 8 are as follows:

- the "securities" segment representing the business line of provision of brokerage services, securities margin financing services to clients and debt securities underwriting/placing;
- the "fixed-income direct investment" segment representing direct investment and trading activities in fixed-income securities;
- the "other investment and financing" segment representing investment and trading activities in equity securities, bonds and funds other than direct investment and trading activities in fixed-income securities, and provision of loan financing services;
- the "asset management" segment representing provision of asset management services to clients;
- the "corporate finance and advisory" segment representing provision of sponsorship, equity underwriting, financial advisory and financial arrangement services to clients, and provision of client referral services; and
- the "others" segment primarily includes head office operations as well as interest income and interest expense incurred for generating working capital for general operations.

(iii) Segment assets and liabilities (continued)

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in note 2. Segment results represent the profit earned by/(loss from) each segment without allocation of central administrative costs, directors' emoluments, certain other income, certain other gains and losses and finance costs. This is the measure reported to the chief operating decision makers for the purpose of resources allocation and performance assessment.

Assets and liabilities, excluding intragroup receivables and payables, are allocated to reportable and operating segments.

(c) The Group's leasing activities and how these are accounted for

For both years, the Group leases one office, and office rental contracts are typically made for fixed periods of 2 to 6 years.

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

18 GOODWILL

HK$'000

	HK$'000
Cost
At 1 January 2024, 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2025	551,445
Accumulated impairment losses
At 1 January 2024, 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2025	535,054
Carrying amount
At 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2025	16,391

For the purposes of impairment testing, the management considered there are two CGUs in relation to goodwill allocation, including the first CGU from "Securities" and the second CGU from "Asset management".

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The basis of the recoverable amount of the CGU and its major underlying assumptions are summarised below.

The recoverable amount of the CGU has been determined by the value-in-use in respect of the above entities comprising the CGU. The value-in-use was assessed by the management based on a business valuation performed internally using the income approach which uses cash flow projections covering a 5-year period and discount rate of 8.74% (2024: 10.45%).

The cash flow projections at 31 December 2025 has taken into account the expansion of business. The cash flows beyond the 5-year period are extrapolated assuming 3% growth rate (2024: 3%). This growth rate is based on the expectation of long-term inflation in Hong Kong. Other key assumptions for the cash flow projections relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include estimated income generated from the CGU, such estimation is based on the past performance of the CGU and the expectation on the market development.

For the purpose of impairment assessment, the value-in-use of the CGU amounting to HK$1,257,000,000 (2024: HK$891,000,000). By comparing the aforesaid aggregate carrying amount of the CGU with the value-in-use of the CGU, the management determined that the recoverable amount of the CGU is estimated to be more than the aggregate carrying amounts of net assets directly attributable to the CGU, goodwill, trading rights and customers' relationship and no impairment losses in respect of goodwill (2024: Nil) is recognised in profit or loss during the year ended 31 December 2025.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended 31 December 2025

19 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

	Trading rights HK$'000	Customers' relationship HK$'000	Total HK$'000

At 1 January 2024, 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2025	–	144,799	144,799
Carrying amount
At 31 December 2024 and 2025	960	–	960

No amortisation of intangible assets was recognised for the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024.

Trading rights represent rights that confer eligibility of the Group to trade on the Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Futures Exchange Limited ("HKFE"). The trading rights have no foreseeable limit to period that the Group can use to generate net cash flows, accordingly, the trading rights are considered as having indefinite useful lives.

Customers' relationship represents the customers' networks of brokerage and related business. Amortisation for customers' relationship with finite useful lives is recognised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful lives of 6 years.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

19 INTANGIBLE ASSETS (continued)

No impairment of trading rights was identified based on the valuation performed internally (2024: Nil) using the income approach at a discount rate of 8.74% at 31 December 2025 (2024: 10.45%).

The trading rights also formed part of the assets included in the CGU for which goodwill impairment is assessed and details are set out in note 18.

The overall increase of the ECL allowance was HK$4.3 million (2024: increase of HK$3.1 million) for the year ended 31 December 2025.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the movement was mainly due to the increase of stage 3 loans and advances' ECL of HK$4.3 million as ECL of Stage 3 loans and advances was fully provided at 31 December 2025 since the borrowers were in the process of bankruptcy restructuring resulting in extremely significant uncertainty regarding their ability to repay the loans.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the movement was mainly due to the increase of stage 3 loans and advances' ECL of HK$3.1 million given the change in the parameters of the ECL model.

Analysis of the gross carrying amount for which an expected credit loss allowance is recognised according to the stage of expected credit losses is as follows:

	Stage of assets			Total HK$'000

The overall decrease of the ECL allowance was HK$49.2 million (2024: increase of HK$1.4 million) for the year ended 31 December 2025.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the movement was mainly due to a full repayment of a secured margin loan with a gross carrying amount of HK$50.3 million, and reversal of its respective impairment losses of HK$ 49.0 million.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the movement was mainly due to the increase of stage 3 margin loans' ECL of HK$1.4 million given the decrease of its underlying collateral valuations.

Analysis of the gross carrying amount for which an expected credit loss allowance is recognised according to the stage of expected credit losses is as follows:

	Stage of assets			Total HK$'000
	Stage 1 12-month ECL HK$'000	Stage 2 Lifetime ECL HK$'000	Stage 3 Lifetime ECL (Credit- impaired) HK$'000

As at 31 December 2024	772,284	–	111,588	883,872

Accounts receivable arising from the business of dealing in securities

The Group seeks to maintain tight control over its outstanding accounts receivable and has procedures and policies to assess its clients' credit quality and defines credit limits for each client. All client acceptances and credit limit are approved according to the clients' credit worthiness by designated approvers.

The normal settlement terms of accounts receivable from clients and clearing house, except for accounts receivable due from margin clients, arising from the ordinary course of business of securities brokerage services, are two trading days after the trade date.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Accounts receivable due from margin clients

Accounts receivable due from margin clients are repayable on demand and the fair values of the pledged securities as at 31 December 2025 was approximately HK$4,292,556,000 (2024: HK$2,790,299,000). Securities are assigned with specific margin ratios for calculating their margin values. Additional funds or collateral are required if the amount of accounts receivable outstanding exceeds the eligible margin value of securities deposited.

As at 31 December 2025, approximately 94.9% (2024: 70%) of the balance were secured by sufficient collateral on an individual basis. The corresponding collaterals held could be sold at the Group's discretion to settle any outstanding amounts owed by the margin clients when the loan to value ratio (after margin ratio haircut) is over 100%. The Group did not repledge collaterals held for financing as at 31 December 2024 and 2025.

No ageing analysis in respect of accounts receivable from margin clients is disclosed as, in the opinion of directors of the Company, an ageing analysis does not give additional value in view of the nature of this business.

Accounts receivable arising from the business of dealing in securities are assessed for ECLs in accordance with the policy set out in note 2(r). During the year ended 31 December 2025, reversal of impairment losses of HK$49,155,000 (2024: provision for impairment losses of HK$1,424,000) was recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, no impairment losses (2024: Nil) was recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Accounts receivable arising from asset management services

Accounts receivable arising from asset management services represented the receivables from the counterparties for the assets managed by the Group. The Group considers that the accounts receivable arising from asset management service have low credit risk as the Group has right to discharge the asset management fee from its managed assets directly on the date that the asset management fee confirmed. As such, no ageing analysis in respect of accounts receivable from asset management fee is disclosed as, in the opinion of directors of the Company, an ageing analysis does not give additional value in view of the nature of this business.

32 FINANCIAL ASSETS SOLD UNDER REPURCHASE AGREEMENTS

	As at 31 December 2025 HK$'000	As at 31 December 2024 HK$'000
Bonds	1,041,305	734,923

As at 31 December 2025, the Group entered into repurchase agreements with financial institutions to sell bonds recognised as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss with carrying amount of approximately HK$1,313,993,000 (2024: financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss with carrying amount of approximately HK$957,725,000), which are subject to the simultaneous agreements to repurchase these investments at the agreed dates and prices.

Sales and repurchase agreements are transactions in which the Group sells bonds and simultaneously agrees to repurchase them (or assets that are substantially the same) at the agreed dates and prices. The repurchase prices are fixed and the Group is still exposed to substantially all the credit risks, market risks and rewards of those bonds sold. The bonds are not derecognised from the financial statements but regarded as "collaterals" for the liabilities because the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of the bonds.

34 CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that it will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the returns to shareholders through the optimisation of debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debts, which include loans from an intermediate holding company, financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising issued share capital and reserves.

The directors of the Company review the capital structure on an annual basis. As part of this review, the directors of the Company consider the cost of capital and other sources of funds other than issuance of shares, including loans from an intermediate holding company and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements. Based on the recommendation of the directors of the Company, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through raising or repayment of borrowings.

CMBC Securities Company Limited, CMBC International Futures Company Limited, CMBC Asset Management Company Limited and CMBC International Capital Limited are registered by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC”) and are subject to the liquid capital requirements under the Hong Kong Securities and Futures (Financial Resources) Rules (the “SF(FR)R”) adopted by the SFC. For the licensed subsidiaries, the Group ensures each of them maintains a liquid capital level adequate to support the level of activities with sufficient buffer to accommodate for increases in liquidity requirements arising from potential increase in the level of business activities.

34 CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. The gearing ratio is calculated as total debt divided by capital and total debt. During the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024, the Group's strategy was to maintain a reasonable gearing ratio and a balance between higher shareholder returns with higher levels of borrowings and solid capital position, and make adjustment to capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions. The gearing ratio at 31 December 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

	As at 31 December 2025 HK$'000	As at 31 December 2024 HK$'000
Loans from an intermediate holding company	2,091,535	1,216,061
Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements	1,041,305	734,923
Total debt	3,132,840	1,950,984
Equity attributable to owners of the Company	1,627,842	1,388,770
Capital and total debt	4,760,682	3,339,754
Gearing ratio	0.66	0.58

Gearing ratio of the Group increased due to the business growth in securities segment and the Group increased the cash and cash equivalents for the business development. These led to the corresponding increase in Group's liabilities during the year ended 31 December 2025.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, accounts receivable, deposits and other receivables, interest receivables, financial assets at amortised cost, loans and advances, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, cash held on behalf of customers, cash and cash equivalents, amount due to an intermediate holding company, accounts payable, other payables, loans from an intermediate holding company, financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and lease liabilities. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. Management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

(a) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to accounts receivable, other receivables, interest receivables, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets at amortised cost, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, loans and advances and bank balances as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024.

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in the event of counterparties' failure to perform their obligations as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 in relation to each class of recognised financial assets is the carrying amount of those assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position. For details relating to credit losses and impairment of financial assets, please refer to Note 2(r).

In order to manage the credit risk in the accounts receivable due from clients arising from businesses of dealing in securities, individual credit evaluation is performed on all clients including cash and margin clients. Accounts receivable from cash clients generally settled in two days after trade date, credit risk arising from the accounts receivable due from cash clients is considered minimal. For margin clients, the Group normally obtains liquid securities as collateral based on the margin requirements. The Group has not granted any committed facility amount to each of the margin clients and the margin loan is granted by the Group depending on the assessment of the quality of the collateral and credit risk of the respective client. The margin requirement is closely monitored on a daily basis by the designated team. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverable amount of each individual receivable at the end of each reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts.

Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

Market conditions and adequacy of securities collateral and margin deposits of each margin account are monitored by management on a daily basis. Margin calls and forced liquidation are made where necessary.

The credit risk on bank balances is limited because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings. The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk, with exposure spread over a number of counterparties.

In respect of accounts receivable from clearing houses arising from businesses of dealing in securities and futures and options contracts, credit risks are considered low as the Group normally enters into transactions with clearing houses or agents which are registered with regulatory bodies. For accounts receivable arising from the ordinary course of business of asset management services, credit risks are considered to be minimal with exposures limited to related parties and reputable counterparties.

The Group's concentration of credit risk by geographical locations is mainly in Hong Kong. As at 31 December 2025, the Group has concentration risk on its accounts receivable as the balance with the largest client represent 42% (2024: 55%) of the total accounts receivable from cash and margin clients and the three largest clients represent 42%, 25% and 11% (2024: 55%, 10% and 6%) respectively, of the accounts receivable from cash and margin clients. Besides, approximately 99% (2024: 86%) of the accounts receivable from the ordinary course of business of asset management services represent the accounts receivable from an intermediate holding company and segregated portfolios invested by an intermediate holding company and the ultimate holding company.

Other than concentration of credit risk on accounts receivable, the Group has no other significant concentration risk.

The Company manages credit risk of loans and advances by obtaining collaterals, guarantees or keepwell and liquidity deed from the borrowers. For loans and advances, the management, the risk management department and relevant business units will review the financial strength, purpose of the borrowing, repayment ability of the borrower to ensure that the borrower has sound financial repayment ability prior to entering into a transaction. The Group assesses the credit profile of each individual debtor by analysing many factors that influence the default probability, including (but not limited to) the counterparty's financial profile, business prospects and management, macroeconomic development, industrial and sovereign risk, and historical performance. In the post-investment stage, the financial conditions of the borrower or the guarantors will be reviewed on a regular basis.

For the Group's investments in listed bonds investments, the management, the risk management department and respective business units of the Group assess the financial performance and relevant business environment of the issuers to ensure that the issuers can satisfy the repayment of the principal and interest as they fall due. The Group has set portfolio size and single issuer limits to control the Group's exposure to the credit risk. The Group also monitors the credit ratings and market news of the issuers of respective bond investments for any indication of potential credit deterioration.

For the other financial assets, the management has closely monitored their status and it believes that the Group's credit risk exposure on them is minimal.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient bank balances and cash and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities. The Group also aims at maintaining flexibility in funding by arranging and keeping committed facilities and other external financing available.

The Group's primary cash requirements have been driven by operations, investments and repayment of related debts. The Group finances its working capital requirements through a combination of funds generated from operations and cash reserve.

(c) Interest rate risk

(i) Cash flow interest rate risk

The Group's cash flow interest rate risk arises primarily from variable rate financial assets and liabilities.

The Group's exposure to changes in interest rates primarily relates to its certain variable rate accounts receivable arising from the business dealing in securities, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, bank balances and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements. The management monitors the interest rate exposure on a continuous basis and adjusts the portfolio of bank saving balances and bank deposits where necessary.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for certain variable rate accounts receivable arising from the business dealing in securities, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, bank balances and financial assets sold under repurchase agreements at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming these balances outstanding at the end of the reporting period were held/outstanding for the whole year. A 50 basis points (2024: 50 basis points) increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

If interest rates had been 50 basis points (2024: 50 basis points) higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's profit for the year ended 31 December 2025 would increase by HK$839,000 or decrease by HK$404,000 (2024: increase by HK$224,000 or increase by HK$698,000).

(ii) Fair value interest rate risk

The Group's fair value interest rate risk arises primarily from financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming these balances outstanding at the end of the reporting period were held/outstanding for the whole year. Sensitivity analysis (continued)

If interest rates had been 50 basis points (2024: 50 basis points) higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's profit for the year ended 31 December 2025 would decrease or increase by HK$1,210,000 (2024: HK$1,443,000), and the Group's other comprehensive income for the year ended 31 December 2025 would decrease or increase by HK$23,183,000 (2024: HK$15,580,000).

(d) Other market risks

(i) Currency risk

The Group's currency risk arises principally from commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the functional currency of the relevant Group entities.

The majority of the Group's assets and liabilities are denominated in Hong Kong dollars and United States dollars ("USD"). The exposures of other foreign currencies are not material compared to the total assets and liabilities of the Group. As Hong Kong dollars are pegged to USD, in the opinion of the Directors, the Group is not subject to significant currency risk exposure.

(ii) Other price risk

The Group is exposed to other price risk through its investment in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. The management manages its exposure by maintaining a portfolio of investments with different risk profiles.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to other price risk arising from investment in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss at the end of the reporting period.

Fair value hierarchy

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

- Level 1 valuations: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.
- Level 2 valuations: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available.
- Level 3 valuations: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs.

Fair value of the Group's financial assets that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis (continued)

The fair value of unlisted equity securities using equity allocation model is determined using the recent transaction price adjusted by the scenario probability (i.e. probability of IPO scenario) (2024: using the market multiple (i.e. sales multiples) and the recent transaction price adjusted by the lack of marketability discount and the scenario probability (i.e. probability of IPO scenario) . The fair value measurement is negatively correlated to the IPO scenario. As at 31 December 2025, it is estimated that with all other variables held constant, an increase/decrease in IPO scenario by 5% would have decreased/increased the Group's profit by HK$279,000 (2024: decreased the Group's profit by HK$8,158,000 or increased the Group's profit by HK$8,081,000). As at 31 December 2024, the fair value measurement was negatively correlated to the discount for lack of marketability. It was estimated that with all other variables held constant, a decrease/increase in discount for lack of marketability by 5% would have increased/decreased the Group's profit by HK$311,000. As at 31 December 2024, the fair value measurement was positively correlated to the market multiples. It was estimated that with all other variables held constant, a increase/decrease in market multiples by 5% would have increased/decreased the Group's profit by HK$233,000.

The fair value of unlisted investment funds using equity allocation model is determined using the market multiples (i.e. sales multiples, EBITDA multiples or price-to-sales ratio), adjusted by the lack of marketability discount and the scenario probability (i.e. probability of IPO scenario). The fair value measurement is negatively correlated to the discount for lack of marketability. As at 31 December 2025, it is estimated that with all other variables held constant, a decrease/increase in discount for lack of marketability by 5% would have increased the Group's profit by HK$21,634,000/decreased the Group's profit HK$22,023,000 (2024: increased the Group's profit by HK$23,909,000/decreased the Group's profit HK$24,064,000). The fair value measurement is negatively correlated to the IPO scenario. As at 31 December 2025, it is estimated that with all other variables held constant, an increase/decrease in IPO scenario by 5% would have decreased the Group's profit by HK$5,136,000/increased the Group's profit by HK$5,058,000 (2024: decreased the Group's profit by HK$5,589,000/increased the Group's profit by HK$5,667,000). The fair value measurement is positively correlated to the market multiples. As at 31 December 2025, it is estimated that with all other variables held constant, an increase/decrease in market multiples by 5% would have increased the Group's profit by HK$18,910,000/decreased the Group's profit by HK$19,299,000 (2024: increased the Group's profit by HK$18,863,000/decreased the Group's profit by HK$18,941,000).

Fair value measurements and valuation processes

The fair value of financial assets with standard terms and conditions and traded on active liquid markets are determined with reference to quoted market closing prices. The fair value of financial assets that are not traded in active liquid markets are determined using appropriate valuation techniques and inputs. The appropriateness of the valuation techniques and inputs to the fair value measurements are reviewed by the Directors periodically.

Fair value of financial assets and liabilities that are not measured at fair value

The directors of the Company consider that the carrying amounts of other financial assets and financial liabilities recognised at amortised cost approximate their fair values, which were determined in accordance with generally accepted pricing models based on undiscounted cash flow analysis, as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024.

36 RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEMES

The Group operates a Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the “MPF Scheme”) established under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance. The assets of the schemes are held separately from those of the Group independently in administered funds under the control of the trustees. The Group contributes 5% of relevant payroll costs to the MPF Scheme, which contribution is matched by the employee. The Group follows the minimum contribution requirement of 5% of eligible employees’ relevant aggregated income with a cap of HK$1,500 per employee per month since 1 June 2014.

The contributions made by the Group to the MPF Scheme are charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income when employees have rendered service to the Group.

For the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024, no forfeited contributions were available for utilisation by the Company to reduce the existing level of contributions.

37 OFFSETTING FINANCIAL ASSETS AND FINANCIAL LIABILITIES

The disclosures set out in the tables below include financial assets and financial liabilities that are subject to an enforceable master netting arrangement or similar agreement that covers similar financial instruments that are either:

- offset in the Group’s consolidated statement of financial position; or
- not offset in the consolidated statement of financial position as the offsetting criteria are not met.

Under the agreement of continuous net settlement made between the Group and Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited (“HKSCC”), the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off the money obligations receivable and payable with HKSCC on the same settlement date, and the Group intends to settle these balances on a net basis.

In addition, the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off the accounts receivable and payable with same brokerage clients on the same currency, and the Group intends to settle these balances on a net basis.

Except for above, amounts due from/to HKSCC that are not to be settled on the same date, accounts receivable and payable from clients and brokers not intends to settle on a net basis, financial collateral including cash and securities received by the Group, deposit placed with HKSCC do not meet the criteria for offsetting in the consolidated statement of financial position since the right of set-off of the recognised amounts is only enforceable following an event of default.

40 INVOLVEMENT WITH UNCONSOLIDATED STRUCTURED ENTITIES

	Notes	As at 31 December 2025 HK$'000	As at 31 December 2024 HK$'000
Unlisted investment funds	26	726,406	691,032
Quoted investment fund	26	8,442	–
		734,848	691,032

The Group has concluded that the unlisted investment funds and quoted investment fund in which it invests, but that it does not consolidate meet the definition of structured entities because:

- the voting rights in the funds are not dominant rights in deciding who controls them as they relate to administrative tasks only;
- each fund's activities are restricted by its articles of associations; and/or
- the funds have narrow and well defined objectives to provide investment opportunities to investors.

The table below describes the types of structured entities that the Group does not consolidate but in which it holds an interest.

Type of structured entity	Nature and purpose	Interest held by the Group
Unlisted investment funds	To manage assets on behalf of third party investors	Acting as limited partner
Quoted investment fund	To manage assets on behalf of third party investors and generate fees for the investment manager	Investment in units issued by the funds
	This vehicle is financed through the issue of units to investors
